DOUGHERTY MAKES KNOWN HIS TENTATIVE PLANS FOR 1915 MID-PACIFIC CARNIVAL

Director-general Authorized to

$1500 from Germany

PROGRAM REPLETE

Military Ball Not Eliminated—
New Features Proposed—
Best on Record

Immediately following the presentation of Director-general James D. Dougherty's tentative program for the 1915 Mid-Pacific Carnival at a meeting of the board of directors of the corporation at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, an outline of which report was published in the Star-Bulletin, the directors authorized Mr. Dougherty to expend 4000 marks, or about $1500, for unique costumes which will be ordered from Germany for the several big Carnival features which, according to the present plans, will make next year's celebration an equal to any of its kind ever held on the mainland.

"This is the day we launch our publicity," said the director-general this morning. "In working up the plans, it is the idea of the directors and the director-general to give the people of Honolulu and Hawaii a show free of charge as nearly as possible. There is hardly an attraction in the program which I have outlined that will not be free; none of the attractions will be expensive."

In presenting his report yesterday afternoon, a statement made by Mr. Dougherty was taken to mean that the military ball would be among the features to be eliminated this year and so published. This was an error, however, as explained by Mr. Dougherty this morning. The Carnival will not only be closed with a grand military ball for the officers, to be held in the National Guard Armory, but a dance in the palace grounds for the enlisted men.

Aside from the attractions which Mr. Dougherty already has outlined, one of the new features next year will be a "Village of All Nations." This attraction will be enclosed in a large stockade, where there will be small villages representing every nationality practically in the Hawaiian Islands; for instance, Japanese, Chinese, Hawaiian, Filipino, Korean, Russian, Spanish, etc. If the necessary funds can be secured, two days of the week will be given over to an industrial and commercial exhibit in the Armory, which, in itself will be a feature. "It is the idea of the director-general to sort of give the people a rest during the week," said Mr. Dougherty this morning. "And for this reason there will be nothing lively on the days when the exposition will be held."

One has but to read Mr. Dougherty's report to gain an insight as to just what the 1915 Carnival is going to be. The tentative program, as presented at the meeting of the board of directors yesterday afternoon, is, in full, as follows:

"In making up the rough synopsis of what the director has in mind for the 1915 Carnival, it is only with the idea of getting on paper a few of the thoughts that pertain to the Carnival as a whole and not with the assurance that each and every feature as I have it here will be carried out, although after much thought and consideration I feel that I am presenting to you a program, taken as a whole, that should be much stronger and better than the last Carnival. No doubt between now and the actual carrying out of our plans, there will have been suggested many changes for it is well to accept suggestions from every source and with that idea in view I am simply going to render here the general outline of the scheme, trying at the same time to give you as clear an insight as is possible of the various features and their productive qualities both from a spectacular as well as a financial standpoint.

"Keeping in mind the criticism of the last Carnival as we heard them

HIS HONOR EXPENSIVE LUXURY WHEN ELECTION DAY IS NEAR

An interesting question has arisen in the city hall, and has spread from there over parts of the town, on how much it will cost the municipality for Mayor Fern's campaign for reelection.

H. Gooding Field, who is distinguished for his statistical and accounting work, may find a nice problem on his hands if he attempts to find the answer to the question.

So far the city and county is fur-

JOINT MEETING WILL COMPLETE AMALGAMATION

Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu to Be Perfected This Afternoon

The amalgamation of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and the Honolulu Merchants' Association into a greater organization which will be known as the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu, will be perfected at a joint meeting of the members of both bodies which has been called for 3 o'clock this afternoon in the makai pavilion of the Young Hotel.

"In order to start the ball rolling, and to give the new organization an appropriate send-off, it is hoped that a large and representative attendance from both the chamber and the association will be present," said H. P. Wood, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, this morning.

The first business of the meeting, which will be presided over by F. C. Atherton, temporary chairman, will be the presentation and adoption of the report of the special joint committee on by-laws, and the approval of

EMILY FARLEY SEVERS CONNECTION WITH THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

Miss Emily Farley, for the past six months prominently affiliated with the work of the local Associated Charities in the capacity of second assistant manager, tendered her resignation to the board of directors yesterday afternoon and will leave for her home in Boston, Mass., early in June. Miss Farley also is French instructor at the College of Hawaii, and is departing her departure from the islands until the close of the school year.

In the handling of employment cases, and investigating and reporting upon the condition of the unemployed living in the various camps throughout the city, Miss Farley has been of intense value to the Associated Charities. On one occasion, when she was making a night investigation at Camp 2, she narrowly escaped serious injury when she and her escort were stoned. Miss Farley has a host of friends in Honolulu, who will be sorry to learn of her intended departure.

RELIEF WORK OF CHARITIES MAY BE TERMINATED

Association Adopts Resolution Which Calls for Government Action After June 30

MATTER NOW IN THE HANDS OF MAYOR FERN

Present Situation Has Outgrown "Private Philanthropy" Is Asserted

General relief work of the Associated Charities is to be terminated. A resolution passed by the executive committee of the organization, a copy of which was transmitted to Mayor J. F. Fern yesterday afternoon, outlines the new policy to be followed by the association.

"This action has been forced upon the Associated Charities by the exigencies of the present situation which is now no longer a matter for private philanthropy, but for government action," reads the letter received by the mayor with a copy of the resolution.

The resolution reads as follows: "Resolved, That it is the sense of the executive committee that the general work of charitable assistance in which we have been engaged in the past should be gradually terminated, on or before June 30th, and that the work of the Associated Charities should be confined to emergency cases where assistance in the way of food should be limited to a day or two and necessary supplies of clothing; and that the charitable societies of the city should be negotiated with and those found ready, able and willing to assume a reasonable part of such work should be listed and engaged therein, with the definite understanding that this and that society will be able to handle so many poor persons; and that the financial basis of this work should be mainly with the government, both territorial and city and county of Honolulu, as primarily it is their responsibility; and that the Associated Charities should do whatever they might be called upon to do in investigation, report and apportionment of such funds; and this committee further recommends that the city and county of Honolulu take entire charge and full responsibility for the present so-called 'unemployed situation' in Honolulu, and it urges that action be taken by the city and county of Honolulu on or before June 30, at which time, as above outlined, the associated charities will discontinue its work.

"Amendment No. 1: Resolved, That a copy of this resolution should be sent to the proper government authorities."

"Amendment No. 2: That after June 30 every application for relief be sent to the mayor's office."

By the second amendment to the resolution, every application for relief must be sent from the mayor's office after June 30.

This plan has not met with His Honor's approval. He muttered something about turning his office into an employment place, and intimated strongly that the association should have consulted him.

A meeting of the supervisors will be held tomorrow, when the letter and the resolution will be read.

The "exigencies" spoken of in the letter refer to the unemployed situation which has been the cause of a great deal of expense and extra work to the association.

WOOD WINS OUT IN STAR SESSION OF EDUCATORS

Superintendent Kiney Opposed to Continuance of Principal of the Normal School

After a star chamber session, which lasted for almost three hours, the commissioners of education decided this morning to retain Edgar Wood as principal of the Normal school. A string was tied to the reform of the territory must start with the Normal school, and that he felt these reforms could be better accomplished by removing the present principal.

He went on to say that he had nothing personal against Mr. Wood; but that he felt the principal was not in sympathy with the contemplated reforms. Before the question of Mr. Wood's continuance came before the commissioners, a motion was made to convert the meeting into a secret session. This motion carried, though Superintendent Kiney stated he was not in favor of it. During the star-chamber proceedings, Mr. Wood was summoned, and five questions were propounded to him. These questions

FEDERAL COURT WORK HELD UP; CAUSES STATED

McCarrn Ill, Thompson Reticent and Attorney-general McReynolds to Cable

SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR
MAY PROVE NECESSARY

Advices from Washington Instruct Delay Until Tangle Is Further Investigated

Jeff McCarrn is confined to his home, ill as a result of a change of climate. J. W. Thompson, assistant U. S. district attorney does not feel inclined to take up department matters during the absence of his chief; a cablegram from Attorney-general James C. McReynolds, ennet the McCarrn-McReynolds case, is expected in Honolulu almost hourly; nothing of vital importance calling for immediate investigation by the federal grand jury. These are given as a few of the reasons why that body of inquisitors is not holding its regular weekly meetings and also why the federal trial jurors have been excused until further notice.

"The attorney-general is investigating the matter," said Judge Clemons this morning. "and instructions from him are anticipated almost hourly. I had expected a cablegram yesterday and am still anticipating the receipt of one today. When this arrives we will know just what is expected and will be able to proceed in an intelligent manner."

Regarding the report that a special federal investigator would be named from among the ranks of local attorneys, Judge Clemons professed ignorance. "If any such step is contemplated," he said, "I have never been advised of the fact. However, if the matter is to be investigated, it will necessitate the appointment of a special prosecutor, as Mr. McCarrn could hardly be expected to investigate himself and I hardly think his deputy would care to do so."

"The attorney-general, I have been advised, was away from Washington over the week end and the presumption is that he will communicate with Honolulu within a very short time."

In the meantime all matters in the federal court are being held up. All cases on the calendar are being continued and all work calling for a grand jury probe is being held in abeyance pending the recovery of Mr. McCarrn or the receipt of instructions from the head of the legal department of the United States.

VANDALISM MAY LEAD TO CLOSING OF CRATER TRAIL

Hydrographic Survey Instrument Maliciously Injured Is Given as Cause

The closing of the Konahuani-Mt. Olympus-Palolo Crater trail to the public is being seriously considered by the territorial officials, as a result of malicious interference and injuries by irresponsible persons to the rainfall and evaporation measurement stations maintained by the hydrographic survey along this trail.

These instruments have been tampered and interfered with to the extent that the rainfall and evaporation for 1914 have been spoiled. As these measurement stations and this portion of the trail within the forest reserve, the trail within the closed will by the territorial officials.

It has been a matter of much consideration for over a year by the territorial officials as to whether the invasion of this part of the Koolau range by unlimited and irresponsible parties is not causing a great amount of damage to the forest cover, and the closing of this trail has been seriously considered for this reason alone. The recent depredations to the hydrometric work will probably result in the closing of the trail within a few months.

It is expected that barbed wire barriers will be constructed on the trail, and a guard maintained. Gates through the barriers will be provided with standard government padlocks for the use of the officials whose duties take them over the trail.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE OF WILLINGNESS OF HUERTA TO LAY DOWN REINS OF MEXICAN GOVERNMENT

Provisional President Victoriano Huerta, whose intention to abdicate is officially announced.

Provisional President Willing to Quit Provided He Is Allowed to Abdicate With Fitting Dignity—Students of Opinion That Report Foreshadows Realization of Impossibility of Weathering Mediations—Former Rumor Met With Denial

[Associated Press service by Federal Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—Official dispatches received here today, state that the withdrawal of Provisional President Victoriano Huerta from his position as head of the present Mexican government is a possibility, provided he is permitted to abdicate with fitting dignity.

Sometime ago it was announced that Huerta had instructed his representatives to the mediation conference to state that he would relinquish the reins of government, provided he was allowed to withdraw in dignified fashion; but this report, later, was denied.

The announcement made today is official and is believed, by the students of the situation in this city, to be authentic and to demonstrate the position taken by Huerta. It is generally conceded that he has been advised that there is but slight possibility of his coming through the mediations with any particular standing and, consequently, prefers to go out of office while there is time, without suffering the humiliation and disgrace that may be in store for him.

Topping beat Leblan, 1 up.

VIRGINIAN IS TO STEAM THROUGH MAGELLAN

The Magellan straits route between the Hawaiian Islands and the east coast of the United States is believed to be the only practical solution of the transportation problem that confronts shippers during the period that the Mexican republic is in the throes of revolution.

The American-Hawaiian freighter Virginian, an arrival at Honolulu and to be dispatched for Port Allen, Kahului and Hilo to load 11,500 tons of sugar destined for New York or Philadelphia, is now stated will follow a course through the southern waterway as it did seven years ago before the opening of the Tehuantepec railway.

The resumption of the Magellan route is the simple and natural solution of the difficulties that have arisen between New York and north Pacific coast ports and Hawaii through the blocking of the Tehuantepec isthmian railroad route. A similar reversion to a longer route, but less hazardous under war circumstances, has happened several times in the case of the Cape of Good Hope in its relation to the Suez canal. To avoid the risks of delay or capture commercial vessels found it advisable to return to the old route to the east, abandoning the Mediterranean route temporarily.

JURY IN CASSIDY CASE UNABLE TO REACH AGREEMENT

After a long discussion that lasted until half past eight o'clock last night, the jury in the Cassidy-Cassidy case returned to court and announced that they could not possibly agree. The jury was discharged, and those who had waited to hear the result of the famous trial departed for the beach and other places.

Yesterday afternoon at two o'clock the counsel for the prosecution made his address to the jury. Attorney Lester asked for a conviction and declared that the prosecution did not want to see a heavy penalty inflicted in case of a conviction.

Attorney Breckons, for Cassidy, addressed the jury at length and laid stress upon the good character borne by his client. He also pointed out that eye-witnesses, who were on the pier and who had watched every move of Cassidy, swear that Mrs. Cassidy was not kicked in the face. Attorney Ulrich, who was associated with Mr. Lymer in the case, made a short address to the jury on the question of reasonable doubt. It was whispered around this morning that eight of the jurors were for an acquittal, while four stood out for a conviction. It is possible that the case will go to trial once more in the criminal court, but the opinion of many people is that a civil action will be brought to settle, once and for all, the question as to the rights of Cassidy to control the pier that stretches out from his land.

SECRETARY OF ASIA Y. M. C. A. TO VISIT HONOLULU IN JUNE

Sherwood Eddy, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of all Asia, will spend June 12 in Honolulu as the guest of the local Y. M. C. A., en route to the orient after a lengthy vacation spent on the mainland. The religious work committee of the local association, of which W. G. Hall is chairman, is planning a full program for him during his stay in this city.

Mr. Eddy went from Yale university to India a few years ago to become secretary in the Y. M. C. A. in that country. He soon acquired a knowledge of the Tamil language and became one of the most successful public speakers in India. His popularity extended into China and Japan, in which countries he has spoken to some of the largest audiences ever gathered to hear a white man. He is a remarkable man in many ways and stands very near Dr. John R. Mott in the estimation of those who have become world leaders in Christianity.

MILES IN SMALL SLOOP

To sail in tropic seas over a 3000-mile course before arrival at destination in one of the most productive of the Gilbert Islands, a little two-masted sloop, just from the ways at a Pearl Harbor shipyard, and now moored at pier 10, is today receiving the finishing touches from Captain William J. Weisbarth, veteran mariner who for more than a score of years has been identified with island shipping, and who now announces his intention of leaving Hawaii nei behind, to take up a permanent residence in the Gilberts.

The 28-foot vessel is the property of Captain Weisbarth, who for the past two months has watched its construction with a jealous care.

Captain Weisbarth, Mrs. Weisbarth, and three or four companions are to take passage in the little craft on next Wednesday when the voyage to the South Seas by the way of Palmyra and neighboring coral rimmed and verdure clad islets will start under what is considered favorable auspices.

The doughty skipper who more than a decade ago was master of the Inter-Island steamer Claudine and has been a familiar figure in sailing craft, who bears the reputation of having been wrecked on more isolated islands in the South Seas than any surviving mariner, has named his latest venture "Kooki," a Hawaiian term for "George."

"I will be in no hurry to reach destination, and will therefore not crowd on sail," commented Captain Weisbarth, while engaged in overhauling gear and rigging.

"I will pay a visit to Palmyra Islands, and there make the best of an opportunity to rest and secure fresh supplies of water and fish. It is a 900-mile run from Honolulu to Judge Cope's south sea domain and I hope to be favored with winds that will carry me there in less than 10 days," he added.

"I should reach the Gilberts between 25 and 35 days if all goes well." Captain Weisbarth who is an expert with a rifle, spent two years on Kahoolawe, Elen Low's insular kingdom, where he conducted a campaign toward the complete extermination of hundreds of goats.

The sloop will be provisioned for a three months cruise.

LEAHI HOME NOT ABLE TO CARE FOR PATIENT

Tubercular Man Walks Streets and Supervisors Asked to Take Some Action

Kim Kyung Chin, a Korean afflicted with tuberculosis, having wandered penniless for several days on the streets of the city, and refused admission to Leahi Home, may be the cause of another encounter between that institution and the board of supervisors.

The latter's attention was called to the Korean's case yesterday afternoon when Supervisor Wolter received the following letter from Emily Farley of the Associated Charities:

"Dear Sirs:—A Korean, Kim Kyung Chin, came to Honolulu from Maui May 10, of this year, and for three nights and four days roamed the streets penniless. On the fourth day he was directed to this organization. He was sent to Dr. Wayson, thence to the Queen's hospital where his case was diagnosed as 'tuberculosis.' He therefore could not remain at the Queen's hospital.

"Dr. Sinclair notified the association that there was no free bed at Leahi Home, that institution having its quota of forty-nine free patients. 'Miss Craig consented to let the man go to the day camp for a few days.' Mr. Rath notified this institution that they could keep him a week at the outside, hoping that at the end of that period Dr. Sinclair would be able to take him. He was not and on last Thursday the man was again without shelter or food.

"Dr. Rhee of the Korean compound agreed to personally stand the expense for a day or two. On Saturday he telephoned he could no longer do it.

"This organization has been trying for four days, at Dr. Wayson's suggestion, to get in touch with Mr. Wolter, to ask shelter. He thought his honor the mayor and the supervisors would consent to support the man at Leahi until he can go on to a free bed there.

"Hoping that they will be able to help the man out, as he is in such dire need."

Supervisor Wolter has expressed his indignation over the conditions here which are not adequate to care for such cases as this. The letter will be read at the board of supervisors' meeting tomorrow noon.

Hall Met With Rough Weather.

In returning from Kauai with 5000 sacks of sugar and a shipment of sundries, the Inter-Island steamer W. G. Hall met with fresh northeast trade winds and moderate seas. The vessel is today being discharged of 43 containers, 20 sacks of coconuts, 40 sacks of rice and consignments of eggs, poultry and sundries. The vessel will be dispatched for Kauai ports at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Argentine Sailors Must Go.

Through the activity of the police department, several sailors who were left behind by the Argentine Republic training ship President Sarmiento will be forwarded to Japan by the first available transportation, there to connect with their ship, which is destined to make an extended cruise along the coast of Asia. It is the present intention to place the men on board the Japanese liner Hongkong Maru, to sail for Yokohama on June 6.

As the Matson liner Matsonia, the next vessel to depart from this port for San Francisco, will not sail until a week hence, a large booking of cabin passengers is enrolled at the agency of Castle & Cooke. It is predicted that in steaming for the coast this vessel will carry more than 150 travelers in the cabin besides a steerage filled to capacity. The Matsonia will be supplied with about 7000 tons of sugar. The vessel is leaving for Hilo tomorrow evening and returning to this port to complete cargo on Monday morning.

COLLEGE CAPERS FOR BENEFIT OF WELLESLEY COL.

Posters around town and notices in the papers announce an event in the Armory called "College Capers," for June 22. The cause is a worthy one. At 4:40 o'clock on the morning of March 17, Wellesley's main building, College hall, was destroyed by fire.

An eastern paper says: The destruction of College Hall at Wellesley was the most disastrous affair in the history of the higher education of young women in America. This was perhaps the largest college building in the country. It held all the offices of administration, it contained lecture rooms for the greater part of the college, 28 reception rooms, an assembly hall, a study hall, dining rooms and parlors. The laboratories of the departments of geology, physics, psychology, and zoology were there, as well as the rooms for hundreds of the girl students. Practically all that the building housed was lost in the fire.

"Aid for the temporary re-establishment of the ruined departments has come generously from the colleges and museums near Boston, from Clark university, from Mount Holyoke college, the University of Pennsylvania, Vassar, and from the graduates and friends of Wellesley. Temporary accommodations have been provided for the students and for the conduct of the courses, which will begin anew next Tuesday. But Wellesley must have new buildings, equipment, fresh material for work, museum specimens and books. Here is a chance for some wealthy man or woman to do a service to Wellesley only second to that rendered by its founder."

The fact that every occupant of the building escaped unharmed as a result of systematic fire drill and of wonderful control is a story by itself.

The amount necessary for the replacement of facilities destroyed by fire is $1,250,000. The trustees have appealed for $1,800,000, $560,000 to be secured before June 30, 1915. This means work for the alumnae and we, the alumnae of Honolulu, want the interest and co-operation of all.

The Wellesley College News says: "Wellesley college was dedicated to the service of God and was founded with the announced purpose of 'giving to young women opportunities for education equivalent to those provided in colleges for young men.' It has freely opened its doors to all races and creeds. Its service has been national, not local. The enrollment for the present year is 1480. More than 62 per cent of these students claim residence outside of New England. The college undertakes to prepare its students for effective Christian citizenship, and stands for high ideals of scholarship and of life. The public press has already paid tribute to the Wellesley training as tested in the recent fire. Wellesley college faces a crisis in its history, and its appeal to the friends of education rests on an honorable past."

AD CLUB DANCE STARTS AT NINE AT THE ARMORY

The Ad Club dance on Friday evening will start at 9 o'clock. This will give the people who have dinner engagements time to fully digest their dinner and get to the dance for a real good Ad Club affair. Mrs. Mary Gunn, with one of the best partners in the city, will give a demonstration of all the latest steps. There will be special dancing features by groups of dancers. Every dancing club will be there, just to have a good time and dance. People who attend the choral society event will have plenty of time to dance after the close of the Opera House. The next day is a holiday.

FUNSTON

Never any style about him, not imposing on parade; Couldn't make him look heroic with no end of golden braid. Figure sort of stout and dumpy, hair an' whiskers kind of red; But he's always movin' forward when there's trouble on ahead. Five foot five o' nerve an' darin', eyes pale blue an' steely bright, Not afraid of men or devils—that is Funston in a fight. Fighter since he learned to toddle, soldier since he got his growth; Knows the Spaniard and the savage—for he's fought and licked 'em both. Not much figure in the ballroom, not much mind at breakin' hearts, Rotten ringer for Apollo, but right there when something starts. Just a bunch of brain and muscle, but you always feel, somehow, That he'll get what he goes after when he mixes in a row. Weyer found out all about him, set a price upon his head; Agulnald's crafty warriors, filled him nearly full o' lead. Yellow men and yellow fever tried to cut off his career, But since first he hit the war trail it has never slipped a gear. And the heart of all the nation gives a patriotic throb At the news that Kansas Funston has again gone on his job. —James J. Montague in S. F. Examiner.

KIMBALL SAYS 'E. H. WILSON' IS EXAGGERATING

A letter written and signed by E. H. Wilson and sent to Superintendent J. W. Wadman of the Anti-Saloon league attacks the "Volcano House," as the saloon on the edge of the Lelua military reservation is known. The letter charges much drunkenness and disorderly conduct in the place. Clifford Kimball of Haleiwa hotel who runs the saloon, said today that the letter is a gross exaggeration. "No such conduct has happened or would be tolerated as is charged," he said. "The letter does not sound sincere to me. If what the writer claims is true, the place should be closed, but it isn't true. I don't know who E. H. Wilson is."

George W. Paty of the Anti-Saloon league is also ignorant of the identity of the letter writer. He said today that the Anti-Saloon league is investigating the matter.

The saloon near the military reservation has been the subject of much discussion since it was started. On its behalf it is claimed that it has greatly reduced "boot-legging" and the consumption of "rotten whiskey" at the post.

LYNCH RUMORED WATER AND SEWER WORKS MANAGER

James Lynch, of the engineering and machinery firm bearing his name, will be superintendent of the water and sewer works when they are taken over from the territory by the city and county, which will be about June 15. This is according to a rumor that was partially confirmed this morning.

Supervisor Samuel Hardesty admitted that he had suggested the name of Lynch to Supervisor McClellan and that the latter seemed strongly in favor of it. A meeting of the board, which will be held tomorrow noon when it is possible that the appointment will be recommended.

Each day adds more assurance to the report that a strenuous fight will be made by two factions of the board before any appointment is finally settled upon. One side is making an effort to run in a commercially efficient but politically inefficient man, while the other faction is lining up to oppose such an appointment.

because confining duties, lack of fresh air and sunshine gradually weaken even a strong constitution, and the enfeebled system readily accepts sickness and disease.

Scott's Emulsion checks such decline. Its pure cod liver oil is nature's grandest medicinal food while its hypophosphites act as a building tonic. It refreshes the body, puts vigor in the blood, strengthens the lungs, rebuilds the nerves and invigorates the whole system.

If you work indoors, Scott's Emulsion after meals will prevent much sickness and loss of time, and often cures tuberculosis—it builds up and holds up your strength. See Mable's Substitutes and insist on SCOTT'S. AT ANY DRUG STORE.

The electric hand-dryer is the last word in sanitary devices for public buildings. The "Technical World Magazine" says that it promises to replace the paper towel to the junk heap the roller towel now occupies. The machine is the invention of J. M. Ward, superintendent of the Municipal Building, Washington. The electric hand-dryer is contained in a large box. There is an opening at the top over which wet hands are held. By pushing down a foot lever the machine is put in operation and a strong current of warm air comes through the opening. The air is driven through the opening by a powerful electric blower, first passing over two miniature electric furnaces which warm it to a temperature which does not chill the hands.

The new charter. Following this, officers and directors to serve during the coming year will be elected. The official ballots were received from the printer this morning, and contain names for either officers or directors other than the ones selected by the nominating committee. Prior to the election, however, any person present will be at liberty to submit other names for candidates. The official ballot contains the following candidates for officers and directors:

George R. Carter, president; Wallace R. Farrington, 1st vice president; T. M. Church, 2nd vice president, and C. H. Cooke, treasurer. Directors: E. A. Berndt, E. F. Bishop, G. Fred Bush, R. B. Tenney, Ed. Towse, C. C. von Hamm, H. F. Wichman, J. T. Warren and J. W. Waldron.

From the candidates chosen, 17 will be elected, the officers of the new organization to serve on the board of directors. At an early date following the meeting, the board of directors will meet and elect a secretary and the president will appoint the chairmen of the various committees. As far as can be learned, Raymond C. Brown and A. L. Mackaye are the only candidates in the field for the position of secretary.

Prior to the joint meeting a special meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the pavilion for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee on amendments to the charter and taking action thereon, the final adoption of the new by-laws and any other business that may be presented.

A Real Nerve and Body-Building Medicine

We believe Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is the best remedy made for toning the nerves, enriching the blood, building up wasted tissues, renewing health, strength and energy—the best medicine you can use if you are run-down, tired-out, nervous and debilitated, no matter what the cause. It doesn't depend for its good effect upon alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. It may not make you feel better in a few hours, but it will make you feel better, we are sure, just as soon as the tonic and food properties it contains have a chance to get into the blood, and through the blood into the rest of the system. Pure Olive Oil and Hypophosphites have long been endorsed by successful physicians, but here for the first time, they are combined into one preparation which, as a nerve-food and a builder of strength and health, we believe, has no equal.

If you don't feel well, begin taking Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion today, and build your health and strengthen your system against more serious illness. To convalescents, old people, puny children and all others who are weak, run-down or ailing, we offer Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion with our personal promise that, if it doesn't make you well and strong again, it will cost you nothing. If we didn't have the utmost faith in it, we wouldn't offer it with this guarantee, nor even recommend it to you. We are sure that once you have used it you will recommend it to your friends, and thank us for having recommended it to you. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Honolulu—advertisement.

WOMAN RESPONDS TO INVITATION OF FAIR COMMISSION

Offers John Effinger Pointers on Decorations of Hawaii Exposition Building

The following communication has been addressed to John Effinger, the newest member of the Hawaii Fair Commission, in response to his suggestion that the ladies of the territory be called upon for suggestions as to the plan for decorating the Hawaii building.

The letter is written by one of the ladies suggested by Mr. Effinger as being possessed of ideas that would prove invaluable to the commission and reads:

Honolulu, T. H., May 26, 1914.

Mr. John Effinger,
Dear Sir: It gives me great pleasure to read in the papers that you are going to give the ladies a chance to help plan the decorations for the Hawaiian building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915. As you have been kind enough to think of me in naming the first few, I thought that you might like to read a little about some of the ideas which immediately presented themselves to my Hawaiian mind—in which I have built and decorated many mansions.

For an assembly or reception room, how would it be to have the entire ceiling and frieze, extending down several feet of tape put on like wall paper. If the terra cotta and brown designs were used, the pieces pasted near the center could be the thickly designed or covered, and the parts near the wall the variety lighter and less ornamented. Tapa is expensive. If the proper papers were secured ahead of time, a clever painter could give the desired effect in very inexpensive materials. I have used tapa on ceilings and walls to good effect. We must try to take our Hawaiian materials and apply them with modern design but stop short of having a ridiculous imitation, poorly executed. So much for the ceiling, unless the lights belong to that part of a room.

For a Hawaiian evening at the Kilauea Art League, we derived a beautiful effect, in lighting, by having large wire frames covered with fern leaves and lined with green paper.

How would it be to have the shades made to represent huge hanging baskets of ferns, with ropes of foliage to represent leis on which to swing them, from the ceiling?

At the places on the ceiling where the ropes are fastened could be huge round bouquets or rosettes of ferns. If we begin at once, we could make artificial fern leaves of wire and cloth or other proper materials. As I must not cling like a spider to the ceiling any longer, I shall descend to the walls.

Of course, a real Hawaiian lanai or house should not have any walls. For San Francisco, glass windows on all sides, covered with an endless chain of hula skirts, would give an effect which I know is unequalled where light, ventilation or protection alternate. If all the walls are not windows, perhaps shelves of calabashes and caskets could cover the intervening space. Now we are down the walls to the place where a Hawaiian Hikee could travel the entire distance around the room. Please do not have a little two-foot window seat effect.

If it is seven feet wide, the part near the wall could be used for exhibiting little canoes, grass houses, dolls, tapa sticks, cushions and the hundreds of Hawaiian-made and natural articles, which every one will wish to see. I think that large paintings of Hawaii would look well resting against the walls or hula skirt covered windows, placed at irregular intervals and angles. Hawaiian potted plants could also be placed on this wide Hikee.

Last, the floor, painted to represent a large Hawaiian mat in wide plait.

For furniture, koa chairs and tables, and tabourets with ferns and palms everywhere.

In the center a fountain of Hawaiian moss-covered stones with a little jet to sprinkle all the handkerchiefs with maile or aloha perfume. Would it be possible to take any of our pretty fish? The fountain could represent an aquarium and our fish pictures shown.

embraced several of the changes planned for the institution, and they covered the following ground:

(1) That no one will be admitted to the Normal school except after passing the eighth grade examinations.

(2) That the Normal school course be limited definitely to four years.

(3) That the recommendations of the course of study committee be followed to the letter and in spirit.

(4) That the advancement from one class to another within the Normal school and the graduations therefrom be contingent absolutely upon examinations prepared and carried out under directions of board of examiners.

(5) That the duel cadet system be abolished.

Mr. Wood stated that he did not agree with several of the recommendations, but consented to carry them out. Before retiring, Commissioners Smith and Brandt informed him that the commissioners would back up the superintendent. The commissioners asked Superintendent Kinney if he felt he could work in harmony with Mr. Wood. The superintendent stated that he understood how the board felt in the matter, that under the resolution passed at the time Mr. Wood was given a year's leave of absence it felt morally obliged to reinstate him; and he hoped the entire matter would adjust itself satisfactorily.

A point made by Mr. Kinney was that as a committee of the legislature had investigated Mr. Wood's conduct of office, its recommendations should be taken as the voice of the people and obeyed as such. One of the commissioners suggested that in place of displacing him at once, as impliedly called for by Superintendent Kinney's suggestion, that he be allowed to keep office for one year, with the understanding that he should not be reappointed at the expiration of that time.

Very little work remains for the commissioners to do now. After the session this afternoon they may adjourn.

DOCTOR APPEARS AS WITNESS FOR EACH SIDE IN MURDER CASE

That the defense will claim that Harada, a Japanese, who killed a man named Koshi at Kalahele two months ago, acted in self-defense, was indicated this morning by questions asked the witnesses in the case by Attorney Middlemitch, who was appointed by the court to appear for Harada.

Eye-witnesses to the tragedy testified that the trouble arose over a gambling game. The men became involved in a fight, and Harada is said to have struck Koshi over the head with a hammer. Harada is said to have been cut so severely that he had to have several stitches put in the wound. The witnesses state that they saw Koshi and Harada struggling, and that Harada's arm was seen to work back and forth several times. Koshi shortly afterwards fell to the floor and, when the doctor who had been summoned arrived, was dead from loss of blood.

Dr. Tullett testified that Koshi's heart was punctured, and that a knife that was produced could have inflicted the injuries.

The doctor was first used as a witness for the prosecution, and later for the defense. For the latter side, he testified that he had treated Harada for a wound in the head. The wound might have been inflicted by some blunt instrument, said the doctor.

Deputy County Attorney A. M. Brown is conducting the prosecution and Detective Harry Lake, who worked up the case as far as securing witnesses goes, is also on hand. The jury which is trying Harada for manslaughter in the first degree is as follows:

Henry Asch, C. O. Hottell, J. H. Alog, T. Hughes, J. Orndstein, H. P. Roth, C. McWayne, W. H. Soper, C. Ziegler, C. Dwight, F. C. Miller and C. Milton.

BRANCHES OF OUTRIGGER CLUB TALK CONSOLIDATION

The Outrigger Canoe club and the women's auxiliary of that organization will be consolidated, it wishes of the members of the club are carried into effect. At a meeting of the Outrigger club held at Cooke hall in the Y. M. C. A. last night, a resolution was passed almost unanimously recommending such consolidation.

It was the sense of the meeting that the board of directors be given full power to effect consolidation on the basis of equal representation as quickly as possible. If the women's auxiliary is in accord with this plan, the two organizations will be merged at once.

Photographs of the many hibiscus, bougainvillea and Hawaiian fern collections. There is no end to the beauty. How would it do to have huge books or cards of pressed ferns and flowers? The present flowering season is the last in which we have to do it. There must be some up-to-date method of preserving, say, a branch of the pink or golden shower.

I am sending you this in a most unfinished form, because it is just a few thoughts to start with. The possibilities are great, but the greatest drawback which comes to my mind is our distance and change of climate. In accordance with the good example which our Governor Pitkinham gives me, I am writing you or what I think a woman decorator might do.

'ARIZONA' THE BIJOU OFFERING FOR TOMORROW

Tonight the Players' all-star company will give their last performance of the powerful drama "The Spendthrift," which is meeting with the approval of large audiences at the Bijou theater. The story of this drama is as old as life, pertaining to an extravagant wife, who spends more money on luxuries than the husband is capable of earning. After going on for years in this way, the husband becomes fairly bankrupt and the wife realizes they are about to lose everything including their own home, borrows the money from a friend, claiming to her husband that she made the loan through an aunt. When the husband discovers what she has done, he immediately brings wife and friend together and at this time one of the strongest dramatic scenes is enacted that has ever been seen on any stage.

The play is one of sorrow and very dramatic, with a lively vein of good comedy. The Spendthrift is a rare treat to all classes of theater goers and the Players are deserving a great deal of credit in the artistic performance. Miss Oakley as the Spendthrift and George Webb as the husband in the leading roles are splendid. They received the best of support from the balance of the company.

Commencing with tomorrow evening Augustus Thomas' great western drama "Arizona" will be the offering. This play is one that was played on the road for seasons with such stars as Dustin Farnum. The drama has been presented in nearly all languages and been one of the biggest money winners ever sent to London. Webb will be seen as the ardent and virile Lieutenant Denton. Miss Oakley will be Bentley, the vicious daughter of Silas Oakley, who is in love with the Lieutenant. Hinger will be seen as the lovable old character.

College Capers

The English inventor of a machine which registers the motions made by any muscular effort contends that it would be useful to identify criminals by their normal walk.

Using a new air brake, a train weighing 1000 tons recently, was stopped within 1000 feet while running sixty miles an hour, and within 2000 feet while running eighty miles an hour.

For saving lives at sea there has been invented a water-tight cork in which a person can float indefinitely until rescued, as a valve admits air and food supplies are carried.

College Capers? What is this? 'Twould have been a shame to miss Fun and frolic, scenes bucolic, Jokes and laughter full of oiled! Tickets I must buy at once. He who stays away's a dunce.

In this world a man must be either hammer or anvil.—Longfellow.

CLEAR IT UP THOROUGHLY AND QUICKLY

Rumors are current today that raise the legitimate questions, Who is the man tentatively picked to investigate the McCann case? Is he a candidate for federal office?

It is highly important to the community that every development, every move, in the investigation of the unfortunate series of incidents mentioned be done in the full light of day. Matters have gone so far that nothing but complete ventilation will clear the atmosphere, settle the question of personal responsibility and determine the course that will best serve the interests of justice and judicial administration in Hawaii.

And there is another thing. The case against the district attorney on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon was nolle prossed in the district court on the statement by the deputy city attorney that it would be taken up by the territorial grand jury. It is material that there be no delay in following out the pledge made in this statement.

Delay or secrecy are fair to none of the interested parties in this case, least of all fair to Hawaii.

1915 CARNIVAL PLANS

Director-general Dougherty's program for the 1915 Carnival, details of which are published to-day, will meet with much approval. A hasty survey of it seems to indicate that he has profited by the experience of last year, eliminated the features that gave least results and maintained those that proved worth while.

The admission fees will be less and the length of the Carnival will be somewhat reduced. Both moves are in the right direction. The elimination of the Floral Parade may be somewhat of a surprise, but it is logical, for this feature has been attended with increasing difficulty and expense each year it is given. Instead of the parade there will be several features as substitutes which should be more enjoyable to tourists and residents alike.

A suggestion made by the Star-Bulletin not long after the last Carnival is here repeated: Why should not a great historical pageant be substituted for the Floral Parade? It need not interfere with the annual Hawaiian spectacle given at the beach, which is the story of one episode and it would fill the desire for a parade distinctive of Honolulu and Hawaii.

WHAT THE TOURIST WANTS

George H. Eberhard, the Coast advertising expert who addressed the Ad Club yesterday, set forth some ideas that struck home.

"Give your tourist what he wants to see, to do and to eat," he said. "Give him what he expects to find when he starts from San Francisco."

Mr. Eberhard speaks from the tourist's point of view because he has just reached here on his first visit. He speaks also from the point of view of a salesman. Hawaii has something to sell to tourists and Hawaii can well afford to listen when Eberhard talks.

The average tourist who comes to Hawaii wants to see as much as possible of Hawaiian life—not the Hawaiian life of office-buildings and paved streets and sixty-mile autos, but the Hawaiian life of grass huts, outrigger canoes, dances, mele.

In late years there has been a strong tendency among those in charge of promotion work and Mid-winter Carnival activities to get away as far as possible from the old Hawaiian life. "Show the tourist the new Hawaii!" has been the cry.

That's all right—if we don't care whether or not the tourist gets what he wants in Hawaii. But we do care. And it's a problem to be worked out—the problem of affording opportunity to see the old Hawaiian life in its most dignified, charming and characteristic phases. It need not be over-emphasized. But it will be a mistake if Hawaii is advertised all over the world in such a way as to bring tourists here expecting to find the old life and then they fail to find what they have quite naturally and properly expected.

There is much of the old Hawaii extant, if rightly handled and used. Think it over.

"The colonel had a very pleasant social visit with the president." Ahem!

Washington declines to hurry up Hawaiian appointments.

LIQUOR AND THE PLAIN SIGNS OF THE TIMES

The signs of the times are plain to the thinking man and the thinking woman who consider the growing sentiment against the liquor traffic. Read this from the Christian Science Monitor and remember that the facts of the last few years bear out every statement:

"It is probable that only the liquor interests of the United States possess to the full an understanding of the rapidly with which the movement for prohibition has spread from the township to the county, from the county to the state and from the state to the nation in the last few years. There is reason for believing that even in the front ranks of the prohibitionists the strength that may now be arrayed against the traffic in intoxicants is only partly appreciated. The Monitor believes it would be putting the matter fairly to say the prohibition movement is about to take the country with a surprise somewhat akin to that occasioned lately by the magnitude and force of the equal suffrage movement."

"One incident just come to light seems to be illustrative of the general situation. The judiciary committee of the house of representatives at Washington had in hand the proposed amendment to the constitution for the prohibition of the liquor traffic. Until recently the chairman of that committee was Representative Clayton of Alabama. He has been nominated by President Wilson to a United States judgeship for the middle district of his state. Under the rule of seniority, Representative Webb of North Carolina will in all likelihood succeed to the chairmanship. He is a strong advocate of 'dry' legislation and for this reason his elevation is not desired by the anti-prohibitionists; yet they hesitate to oppose it because they might by doing so raise a political issue that could be used to their disadvantage."

"The prohibition cause, as may be inferred, has strong advocates in influential quarters, and this is made evident further by the fact that attempts to sidetrack the prohibition amendment are almost certain to fail. The committee on judiciary, as expected, has taken up and reported the proposed amendment, and it is predicted that a vote upon it will be reached in the house before adjournment. A fact of great importance in this matter is the pronounced disposition of members of Congress to array themselves openly against further interstate commerce in liquor. There no longer seems to be any shrinking from alignment with prohibition due to political intimidation; on the contrary, those members who are sensitive to public opinion at home are rather desirous than otherwise of getting into harmony with the anti-saloon sentiment. From all appearances, legislatures of the states will have opportunity in the near future of voting upon the proposed amendment."

Yes, unmistakably the trend of modern progress is against the licensed saloon. Is Honolulu to be numbered among the progressive cities? Is Honolulu to be numbered among the cities that see clearly and act firmly? These questions are pertinent now. The matter of saloons near the fish-market is up for settlement. Unquestionably the sentiment is strong that the saloons near the fish-market should not remain there.

Every citizen with a definite interest in city-building and city-planning should attend the public meeting called tonight for the discussion of the frontage tax laws. The meeting is called by Mayor Fern at the request of the Oahu Central Improvement Committee. It will be held in the makai pavilion of the Young Hotel beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The paving situation now is chaotic. No system has been devised for applying the new laws—and the improvement work is drifting. That kind of a situation means wasted money and inefficient effort. It should be ended. A definite, clean-cut policy is needed. Tonight's meeting ought to help get it.

It's rather harking back to old days when sessions of the commissioners of education are closed to the public and the press on a matter of very general and vital interest such as the Principal Edgar Wood case. Executive sessions are less and less resorted to among the official bodies of Hawaii.

"What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his smile?" asks Dan Crawford. That epitomizes the kind of spirit that wins over any obstacle and any discouragement.

H. Gooding Field "gets there" because he deals in cold facts and plain figures.

Manoa's new-born improvement district is already threatened with the croup.

CHORAL SOCIETY RECITAL TO BE NOTABLE EVENT

"Biggest Thing of Kind Ever Given By Amateurs Here," Says Musical Expert

A prominent member of the Symphony Society, who is giving much assistance to the Choral Society in its rendition of the "Hymn of Praise," declares that it is the biggest thing of its kind ever done in Honolulu by amateurs, and will certainly be a delightful surprise to all who hear it on Friday. R. H. Carter, the director of the Choral Society, has been devoting the last three evenings to the finishing touches with the choruses and orchestra together, and tonight there will be the dress rehearsal at the opera house.

It is not generally known that the new organ at St. Andrews' cathedral was built on specifications which Mr. Carter submitted to Dr. Davis, organist at Wells cathedral, England, under whom Mr. Carter received his training, and also Dr. Buck, professor of music at Durham university, England, one of the greatest authorities in the world.

With their recommendations and approval the organ which was built in America, resulted in a perfect instrument, and the public will shortly have a chance to hear its full capacity and beauty as Mr. Carter has promised to give a free recital in June before he leaves for England on his vacation.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—HARRY MURRAY: "Mr. Mayor?" Well, that remains to be seen.

—HAROLD GIFFARD: The brokers are all glad to see the rise in sugar.

—BOB ANDERSON: I believe that eventually Scotland will have Home Rule, too, and I have always advocated such a measure.

—CHARLES J. MCCARTHY: The water and sewer systems will be transferred soon. We have already secured quarters for the new departments.

—JAMES BICKNELL (county auditor): The handling of the water and sewer system will be part of the problem of taking over the systems from the territory.

—MAJ. C. W. COOPER, N. G. H. (Surgeon-general): I regret that the medical department of the national guard is losing an officer of such faithful service as Maj. Moore.

—GERALD HUGHES: When I was in Belfast a couple of years ago I formed the opinion that if ever the Home Rule bill passed, there would not be any fighting in the north.

—RAYMOND C. BROWN: I think that Mr. Dougherty's plans to eliminate the floral parade, military and other features in the 1915 carnival very feasible. The program he now has outlined should be a winner.

—JOHN HUGHES: It was a happy moment when the cable announcing the passing of the Home Rule bill reached Honolulu. We felt the hot blood course through our veins, and our hearts beat faster.

—H. P. WOOD: A big boost for Hawaii's Pineapple Day is going to be had from agencies on the mainland. Every mail brings letters from steamship and railroad companies and hotels saying that they will be glad to observe the day.

—A. K. OZAWA: According to the 1915 carnival plans outlined by James D. Dougherty, director-general, the local Japanese are going to play a big part in the celebration. The entire Nipponese community is going to boost the carnival next year.

—LIEUT. COL. W. R. RILEY, N. G. H.: The 1st Infantry is expected to turn out in force for the Decoration Day parade. The new companies have had six months in which to put their recruits in trim, and a smart, soldierly appearance should be the result.

—J. W. CALDWELL: The board of harbor commissioners is going to ask James A. Kennedy to be present

MANOA DISTRICT IMPROVEMENT TO BE BLOCKED NOW?

Trouble is brewing in Manoa Improvement district No. 2.

This district, first of the sections organized under the new improvement laws passed by the last legislature, is the scene of a growing discussion over the plan to pave East Manoa road with Warrenite to grade, lay storm sewer pipes, etc. After considerable delay enough property owners were finally signed up to cause the project to be O. K'd. by the board of supervisors, who are now advertising the proposed improvement in accordance with the law. A public hearing is called for June 5. From present prospects there is going to be lively opposition to the improvement as it is now planned.

Rumors were afloat yesterday and today of a growing objection by Manoa property owners to the paving of the district with Warrenite. It is even declared that a counter petition is being circulated and receiving many signatures, so that the carrying through of the improvement is imperiled, for if 55 per cent of the property owners object the improvement is automatically dropped.

None of the Manoa property owners seem to object to street improvement, or to paying for it, but it is said that many of them want asphalt macadam instead of Warrenite. The outlook is for some vigorous discussion, and further delay in paving the district.

GOSSIP

As Pratt Honored.

Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr. was hostess last Saturday afternoon at her home on Wyllie street at a most interesting and unique silver shower for Miss Eunice Pratt, who is soon to become a bride. The program for the afternoon was most carefully arranged and most lavishly carried out.

After the guests had assembled, all withdrew to the garden, where they grouped themselves in the shade of a miniature forest of ironwoods which had been planted for the occasion. Around the corner of the lawn, which was hung with beautiful blooming almander vines and barked with stately yellow canas, appeared Mrs. Eliza Cross Howard in a yellowish green gauze gown which suggested the little new leaves of spring. A lovely wreath of flowers was thrown across one shoulder. She looked like a true nymph of the forest, as she appeared in the midst of that beautiful garden with its yellow canas, pure white Easter lilies and many other growing flowers. Then to Mrs. Dr. Howard Hitchcock's playing, Mrs. Howard danced Mendelssohn's exquisite "Spring Song" in a most charming manner. Mrs. Howard is a true artist and her dances are always most artistically costumed and wonderfully interpreted. During the development of the light and happy dance, she caught up some of the blue forget-me-nots and pink pinks which were strewn about the lawn and placed them gracefully in her hair. After she had disappeared, Mrs. Cartwright produced a lovely silver compote dish which was the gift to Miss Pratt of Mrs. Cartwright and her two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Marx and Miss Edith Williams, who is at present in Europe. Into this dish was poured the 50 cents in dimes and nickels which each guest was requested to bring. These were poured over Miss Pratt's head into her lap in a true silver shower.

Mrs. Howard again appeared, this time dressed in an Indian costume, and danced a weird Indian dance, which was in startling contrast to the dainty "Spring Song." After this, the "wheel of fortune" or the "wedding ring" was produced, which was a large silver hoop trimmed in silver lace. Tied on it by silver cords of different lengths were little silver boxes, thimbles, fasteners, an aluminum lemon squeezer and a variety of jokes, which Miss Pratt graciously accepted. Lovely silver pieces were received from Miss Alice Bond, Mrs. Lorrin Smith and Mrs. Pratt. Five little silvered walnut shells tied together with silver cord were passed about and inside of these each guest discovered her fortune. The prophecies were very humorous and clever and caused much merriment. For example, one read: "You will be very rich. If Andrew Carnegie leaves you a million dollars," and another, "A young man in a spaghetti factory will write to you in a month's time. Be careful, for his object is macaroni."

As Mrs. Hitchcock began the first sweet notes of "Un Peu d'Amour," Mrs. Howard appeared in a lovely white Grecian costume of finest crepe chiffon. Over her head she wore a beautiful silver scarf. The dance was designed to express the feelings of a young girl on her wedding day, and Mrs. Howard succeeded to a marked degree in her interpretation of the ecstasy and excitement experienced at such a time. She removed the veil from her head and employed it gracefully throughout the dance. Then seizing a cornucopia filled with silver confetti, Mrs. Howard threw it over the guest of honor, knelt, and laid the veil at her feet. It was most effective and extremely impressive.

The guests reassembled in the drawing room, where a lovely bride's cake rested on the table on a large silver plate. The cloth was of pink satin covered with embroidered Bruges lace. Miss Pratt cut the cake, while she was deluged in showers of silver confetti. There were many little silver favors in the cake which were discovered by different ones of the guests and which added to the interest and excitement. Delicious ice cream was served with the cake. The invited guests were the Misses Eunice Pratt, Sara Lucas, Agnes Buchanan, Mary Lucas, Harriet Lucas, Eloise Wigham, Margaret Waterhouse, Zimmerman, Beatrice Castle, Rose Herbert, Jessie Kennedy, Wilhelmina Tenney, Nora Sturgeon, Nora Swamy, Alice Cooke, Dorothy Hartwell, Alice Bond, Ester Kopke, Bertha Kopke, Isabelle McCriston, Laura Low, Mrs. C. Farewell Reception.

Delightful in every way was the reception given Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 at the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Bryan on Punahou street by Aloha Chapter, D. A. R., and Hawaiian Society, S. A. R., in farewell compliment to the respective heads of these organizations in Hawaii—Mrs. Perley L. Horne and Prof. Horne of the Kamehameha Schools, who are leaving in July for the East, where they will in future make their home. Prof. and Mrs. Bryan received their guests upon the lawn, whence they were in turn presented to the receiving line stationed in the living room. Mrs. Letson, Miss Judd, Miss Hall, Mrs. Forbes and Mrs. Hugo making the presentations. Receiving with Prof. and Mrs. Horne were Mrs. J. B. Atherton, vice-regent of Aloha Chapter and Mr. W. R. Castle, vice-president of the Hawaiian Society, S. A. R., together with the two past regents of the woman's organization Mrs. W. W. Hall and Mrs. A. H. B. Judd.

Kau's quintet club, stationed on the lawn, furnished music throughout the afternoon. Light refreshments were served on the lawn, Mrs. C. H. Atherton and Mrs. Forbes presiding at the punch bowl and being assisted by a bevy of young girls.

The members of the faculty of the College of Hawaii were most delightfully entertained last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Clark. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with roses, coreopsis and a variety of all the other flowers in season with a profusion of maiden hair and fish-tail ferns. The guests had been invited to an artists' evening and this idea was carried throughout the entertainment. For example, each guest was supplied with a piece of drawing paper and a pencil, and asked to select a little slip from the tray which was passed. Each slip contained a title to be illustrated, and some of the cartoons and sketches were most clever and amusing.

During the evening, each guest was called out to sit for his silhouette in the studio, and later the art gallery was thrown open and all were invited in, given blank catalogs of the exhibition and asked to fill in the names. The rows of large, black silhouettes lining the walls were quite imposing, and a great deal of enjoyment was even more successful than that on Friday. The more-than-capacity audience was extremely enthusiastic and urged the young thespians on to their very best efforts. The fact that they had back of them, one night's experience, gave them confidence to attack their lines more vigorously and as a result the play was more real and alive. "Love's Labor Lost" is rather more difficult to present than "As You Like It," which was given as an outdoor production a few years ago, and the prolonged and enthusiastic applause on Saturday evening particularly indicated the hearty approval of the big audience. John B. O'Dowda, Closson Emory, Elbert Tuttle, Ernest Heen, Lorrin Thurston, Miss Ruth Soper and Miss Elizabeth Woods, covered themselves with new glory, while Miss Inez Gibson and David Withington improved their part considerably by eliminating some of their "business" during the delivery of more serious speeches. Mrs. Isaac M. Cox is certainly to be congratulated upon the excellent entertainment she furnished to the friends and supporters of Punahou academy.

The Choral Society's concert on Friday evening promises to be quite a society event. In the first place, the program which is to be offered is very inviting, consisting of the "Hymn of Praise," besides a number of dainty part-songs and quartets. To add to the attractiveness of the occasion, about a dozen of the best known members of the younger set have volunteered to act as ushers. The ladies who have consented to act as patronesses are: Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. Arthur Wall, Mrs. W. R. Castle, Mrs. Arthur B. Ingalls, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Mrs. B. L. Marx, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Von Holt, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, Jr., Mrs. J. P. Cooke, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. L. Tegney Peck, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. Walter McFarlane, Mrs. Paul Isenberg, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, Mrs. William Whitney, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. George Rodiek, Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. Robert Atkinson, Mrs. Robbins Anderson, Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. Alice Lindsay and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore.

A wedding which has been attracting widespread attention both at the coast and in the islands, will take place this evening when Miss Lurline Matson will become the bride of Mr. William Roth. Although the ceremony is to take place in San Francisco, the fact that Mr. Roth's home has been in Honolulu and that Miss Matson has so many friends here, made during her visits to the islands, accounts for the exceptional interest expressed in the affair by Honoluluans. Mr. Roth left for the coast several weeks ago, while Mr. Frank Thompson who will support his brother-in-law as best man, is also at present in San Francisco. Miss Wilhelmina Tenney was invited to be a member of the bridal party but was unable to attend, and her place was filled by another of Miss Matson's many girl friends, Miss Tyson, of San Francisco. The wedding will be a large church affair and one of the most brilliant events of the season.

Miss Constance Simpson was hostess last Saturday afternoon to a number of her friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. H. Underwood at Kaimuki. It was with some surprise that her guests learned the purpose of the gathering was the announcement of Miss Simpson's engagement to Mr. John Ashley of Honolulu. A large heart made of asters was suspended from the ceiling. Long strands of white ribbon were attached to this and inside it were concealed a bouquet for each guest. When the bouquets had been drawn, it was discovered that concealed in the flowers was a little heart which bore the names "Constance" and "John" in gold letters. Miss Simpson's bouquet contained her engagement ring. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

The San Francisco Chronicle speaks of the visit of Earl and Countess Grey as follows: "The visit of the Earl and Countess Grey has given the peninsula a thrill. We do not often have persons of such distinction and genuine worth come to us. They are not strangers here by any means. In the nine years of Earl Grey's administration as governor-general of Canada we had numerous opportunities of meeting them socially. Mrs. Whitelaw Reid had the whole party as her house guests for a day. She and the late Ambassador Reid frequently entertained them at Dorchester house, and in turn were the guests of the Greys at Ridlan hall, Ottawa, the "White House" of Canada.

Mrs. Gustav Schaefer was hostess at a delightful tea last Thursday afternoon, given at her home on Nuuanu avenue in honor of Mrs. Elgin. The tea tables were beautifully decorated with pink roses while great vases of these lovely flowers were artistically arranged about the room. Among those present were Mrs. Elgin, Mrs. Manie Phillips, Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. Clifford B. High, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Miss Mary Alexander, Mrs. Singhurst, Mrs. A. Waterhouse, Mrs. Frederick Klebahn, Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Miss Bertha Young, Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Miss C. Walker, Mrs. C. C. von Hamm, Miss Rutherford, Mrs. Alfred Castle, Mrs. Charles Weight, Mrs. J. W. Waldron, Mrs. Ernest Ross and Mrs. Schaefer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman returned home on the last Mongolla after nearly a year spent in the east and Europe. At present they are occupying their home on Nuuanu street until their mansion further up the valley is completed. The finishing touches have been left until the return of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, and work will be commenced at once upon the selected inlaid floors and in the decorations under the supervision of their architect, Mr. E. A. P. Newcomb.

Mrs. Mary C. Beckley has moved to her residence, "Aqua Marine," near Diamond Head, where she will spend the summer months. She entered again into social activities when she entertained Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani and Colonel Sam Parker with fifteen other guests at a pool luncheon on last Thursday afternoon. Music was furnished by the Clark singing boys during the luncheon, and for some time in the afternoon.

Miss Clarissa Tinker accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Annie Tinker, will leave Honolulu for the coast on the Matsonia sailing June 3rd. On the day after her arrival in San Francisco, Miss Tinker will become the bride of Mr. Alfred J. Cottrell of Toronto, Canada. The wedding will take place in the All-Saints' church.

Miss Inez Marion, a popular member of San Francisco's younger set, and her mother, Mrs. C. V. Meyerstein, are recent visitors to the islands. They expect to remain here several months during which they will undoubtedly be extensively entertained by their many friends here.

A very quiet wedding will take place tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Weight when Miss Lillian Bolles will become the bride of Mr. Franklyn G. Melbourne. The ceremony will be performed in the presence of the immediate relatives only.

Among the young people coming home from schools and colleges at the coast on the Matsonia yesterday were Miss Pearl L. McCarthy, Mr. J. A. Gibb, Mr. Joel B. Cox, Mr. Gavien A. Bush, Mr. Foster Horner, Miss Muriel Hind, Miss Martha Tulloch and Mr. Jared S. Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gamble and the Misses Gamble will move this week from Wilder avenue to Anapuni and Dominick streets into the house formerly occupied by Major and Mrs. Wooten.

Among the arrivals from Kauai on the Kinai last Sunday were Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mr. Ernest Kopke, Mr. C. Hedemann and Mr. Richard Ivers.

Mrs. W. R. Gibson leaves on the next transport for a visit of some length on the mainland.

Mrs. Adam Grant departed for the coast in the Manoa yesterday.

"CUPID" BARRERE SPEEDS HAPPY JAPANESE COUPLES ALONG MATRIMONIAL ROAD

"If anyone in Honolulu tells you that there are more divorces here than marriages, I fear for his sanity," sighed "Cupid" Barrere this morning as he laid aside a well-worn pen after signing the last of 34 licenses to wed. "Well, I'm happy, anyway," he added. "If I hadn't been here to sign the blanks, all these people couldn't have gotten married. It's all in the business, so I should worry."

Japanese picture brides to the number of 34 became the wives of as many local sons of Nippon at the federal immigration station this morning. Reverend Motokawa performing the ceremony and Inspector-in-charge Richard L. Halsey, in business dress, acting as best man for the smiling bridegrooms. This is by far the largest number of marriages to take place at the station in many months, and the occasion is equally noteworthy from the speedy work done by the physicians and inspectors in landing the maids from the Land of the Rising Sun.

Earl Gray, former governor general of Canada, has made public the personnel of a syndicate which will spend millions of British money for the purchase of two of the largest oil companies in California. His associates are Sir Thomas Royden, deputy chairman of the directorate of the Cunard Company; William Anderson, leading shipbuilding company of Denmark; Sir William Garston, Sir Edward Ward and Andrew Weiler.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapiesin" digests 3000 grains food, ending all stomach misery in five minutes

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home—advertisement.

HAWAII RUBBER
MEN ASKED TO CELEBRATE DAY

Requested to Cable Wish for Success to London Exhibition

An opportunity for the rubber growers to give Hawaii distinguished publicity is offered in the following notice from A. Staines Manders, the managing director of the rubber and tropical products exhibitions to be held in London in June. As mentioned in the letter of transmittal, in Tuesday's issue, "4:30 a. m. Hawaiian time equals 3 p. m. London time," so that if the request for a congratulatory meeting is complied with, the rubber men here will make a novel record for an assembly hour.

Owing to the depression in the local rubber industry and the disinclination of the pineapple people to send exhibits to London, the movement started some months ago to effect this object has come to nothing. President Giffard of the board of agriculture and forestry was in favor of having Hawaii represented on the occasion, but his health failed and some weeks ago he went to the coast to recuperate. It had been hoped that Wilbur A. Anderson, manager of two rubber plantations on Maui, might attend the London exhibitions as he did, with notable results in publicity for Hawaii, the latest international rubber exhibition in New York. It is now learned, though, that the territorial rubber growers' association is not in a position to send him.

The announcement that Managing Director Manders has issued reads as follows:

"Rubber Day, 24th June, 1914.

"I am sending this letter to all associations and institutions connected with the rubber industry in all parts of the world, intimating that the 24th June, 1914, will be known as Rubber Day, and that on that date the Fourth International Rubber & Allied Trades Exhibition will be opened by H. R. H. Prince Arthur of Connaught.

"The opening ceremony is timed for 3 o'clock, which will correspond with the time in your country as stated at foot. May I ask that at that hour all your members and those in any way connected with the rubber industry will meet and wish success to the rubber industry throughout the world?

"Should you wish to cable greetings to the president and others connected with the exhibition, if you will address your message to 'Mattersman, London.' It will be delivered to the exhibition. If the message is sent 'Deferred' the evening before it will reach the building in plenty of time for the opening ceremony, at which all messages will be read, and will also be printed in the press and official publication connected with the exhibition.

"Kindly celebrate Rubber Day in your center."

DOUGHERTY GIVES TENTATIVE PLANS FOR MID-PACIFIC CARNIVAL

through the medium of the press and the general public, particularly the length of the celebration as well as the prices charged for admissions and seating on the bleachers, I am going to try and offer such attractions without fee as is possible, reducing at the same time the length of the celebration from 10 days (last year's Carnival) to 8 days. It must, however, be borne in mind that included in this 8 days there is one Sunday which still reduces the actual length of the celebration to an even 7 days. A wise suggestion has been offered whereby Washington's birthday can be made the center of the week and it certainly adds materially to the carrying out of the present plans. Let us presume, then, that the dates of the Carnival shall be from the 20th of February (Saturday) to the 27th (Saturday).

"Saturday, February 20th, 1915.—It is my intention to open the Carnival with a 'Grand Circus Comique,' this feature to be given in the Palace grounds, using the main drive as well as the side and rear driveway from Hotel street. We can so arrange the bleachers along the main drive-way as to give this particular part of the grounds the appearance of an inclosure where I intend to pull off the main part of the circus itself. By sprinkling the drive-way with a good amount of sawdust, two good sized circus rings could be laid out; a small elevated stage to be erected in between the two; the stage to be used for such vaudeville attractions that usually go with a circus. The complex stunts, which I will have to explain as we go along, can be pulled off in and about the circus rings proper: the clowns, ring-master, animals and various other attractions performing over the entire space. Our bleachers can accommodate about 2750 people with comfort and with an admission fee of 25 and 50 cents, together with whatever revenue might be derived from the row of boxes, each box to accommodate six people, we should be able to more than finance this particular feature. If we are fortunate enough to again merit the Hawaiian Electric Company's generosity in decorating the grounds, we can, with a liberal display of bunting and color, make a scene which I feel would be wonderful. It will be necessary for me to go into the matter of what this circus will consist of at this time but I am going to ask you to allow me to order from Germany the necessary paraphernalia, a list of which I am ready to submit at this meeting, and I feel quite assured that with the proper effects to work on, I can produce something that has never been here before. There is one thing certain. This circus feature will be the biggest attraction of the week and what is more, will open up the carnival with a swing that will be hard to lose for the balance of the features, for we want the spirit of carnival to reign throughout the celebration if it is possible and I know of no better way than to open up with a real carnival effect.

"And now a word for the public. The palace grounds themselves will be open to the public and we should ask them there, for the larger the crowd the greater chance for success. On both drives ways leading from the Ewa and Waikiki sides of the palace we could have our side-show stunts—the midway, the pike, and other circus attractions, and while the admission to these will be placed at a very small figure the public who cannot afford even that, or who do not care to pay for any of the features, could find amusement in the spellers and demonstrations that will be continually going on outside of each attraction.

"Under the trees of the grounds will be the merry-go-round and other features, each and every attraction of the circus as a whole so arranged and placed as to work out to the best advantage and it is my intention to pick out from amongst our young fellows of town certain ones to assist me in handling the entire affair. These side-shows will all be new with up-to-the-minute stunts, many of which I am expecting to order from Germany and from which I feel sure there will be no end of merriment and fun. While the main circus itself is going on, the side shows could all be running so that those who do not care to pay the 25 or 50 cents admission to the main circus can be amused along the Pike, Midway or other attractions.

"In order to give the younger element as well as their attendants a chance to see the circus, we should open the carnival with a performance in the afternoon. At 2 o'clock we could have a grand circus parade through the main streets of the town and I can assure you that it will be 'some parade,' made up as it will be by the funny attractions of the circus, and the usual result will be that old and young, rich and poor, will follow the band to the very admission box and see the fun. Saturday night the circus could be repeated for it will take a good two performances to get the desired results and the night show could perhaps be added to with a few extra attractions.

"The amount of paraphernalia that I would like to order from Germany would amount to about $950 to $1000. To this must be added the cost of freight as well as duty; the latter, I am told we should figure on a basis of 30 per cent. There will be a steamer leaving Germany some time during October coming through the canal direct to Honolulu and you will agree with me that if we are to make this feature a success we had best not lose any time in getting our order in to the manufacturers, for much of it has to be made to order.

"Sunday, February 21st, 1915.—The usual church services can be advertised on our program, with special services or topics pertaining to the birth of Washington as the attraction both morning and evening. This feature proved worth while during the last Carnival, for I am told by the ministers of the city that there was a decided increase in attendance at the various churches about town during the two Sundays of the last Carnival. In the afternoon at 3:30 we could again have a band concert at Waikiki beach where the public who do not care for baseball or other attractions could spend the afternoon looking at the bathers, surf-board riders, etc. At 1:30 in the afternoon we could open the baseball series at one of the baseball grounds. In this connection let me say that there is no advisability of our again dabbling with an Inter-Island baseball series. While the series of the last Carnival panned out all right from the financial end of it, there is not a bit of doubt in my mind but what the results would have been better if a better brand of ball was played by the visiting teams. It is a proven fact that the teams from the other islands are not up to the ball as played by our town boys and I would advise that we organize a series from amongst, say, one service team, one Japanese team, one Chinese team, one Portuguese team and one team from the best Haole players in town. The best of each could certainly put up some pretty good ball, and with two games on Sunday, the 21st, two games on Monday, the 22nd, one game on Wednesday afternoon, the 24th, at 3:30 p. m., two games on Saturday, the 27th, we could get a pretty fair revenue from the same without going to that heavy expense of transportation and found for the island teams. Sunday, the 25th, the day after the Carnival is over, might be included in the schedule.

At 9 o'clock a sacred band concert could be held on the roof garden of the Young building, for I believe this attraction last year added much to the Carnival list.

"February 22nd, 1915 (Monday).—At 9:30 in the morning we could have a grand military parade provided the commanding general is willing, the parade to March through the streets of the city in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Washington.

"At 2 o'clock in the afternoon we could pull off the swimming events in the harbor, giving over the entire afternoon to this feature. It may be well to figure on baseball as planned but it is a question in my mind as to whether this counter attraction would effect either of the two or both. This we can figure on when we find out for sure as to the swimmers who are to compete. I am given to understand there is to be a crowd of Australian swimmers due here about the time of the Carnival on their way to San Francisco to take part in the Olympic games during the fall, and if we can offer them inducements to lay over here, or to even come on at this time and train here I am sure the attraction would prove a great money maker. I am getting in touch with the proper parties and as soon as you have decided that my plans are feasible I will take the matter up with the proper parties at this end. This would be a wonderful piece of publicity and at the same time would turn the eyes of the world on Hawaii, where everyone interested in swimming would be watching the results of these swimmers from Australia. We might even go so far as to invite other swimmers here at their expense, for I feel that the training expenses will be about all that we can stand in the way of expense for this feature.

"In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, we could have the grand Japanese lantern parade, as this is the birthday of Washington, whom we are told the Japanese nation takes great cognizance of. The bleachers unfortunately are at the dock where the swimming meet was held during the morning and it is a question as to whether it is wise to try and make the hurried move of the same to place them in position for this feature. I had in mind the organization of the lantern parade up Nuuanu avenue opposite the Japanese consulate where there is a lot of room for establishing a base with the lot across the street. The parade could then move down Nuuanu to Hotel street along Hotel to Fort street down Port to King and out King to the Palace grounds. If by chance the swimming meet could not be held on this afternoon the bleachers as they were during the circus and these could be thrown open to the public free, first come first served. The parade could then enter from the Punchbowl gate disbanding in the grounds themselves after which the Carnival ball of nations would be held. This arrangement would be the most profitable to the Carnival committee, for if the swimming were held on some other date, the bleachers could remain where they were without having to be moved until after the massed band concert which I am about to explain.

"Tuesday, Feb. 23, 1914. — On these two days, provided we can secure the $2500 appropriated by the legislature, it is my intention to have the Inter-Island exposition at the National Guard armory. With this building now open and ready for uses of this kind, we could have an elegant display of the products of these islands together with such other advertising effects on the parts of the merchants of town and the islands as would appear attractive. The idea is to have an exposition along the lines of the mechanical fair of old San Francisco days, and I am sure such an undertaking would be a success.

"Here also could be held the chicken and dog shows, the hibiscus show and each afternoon and evening of the two days we could have a concert within the building itself which would attract the idle visitor. The basement of the armory is specially adapted for just such purposes as the dog and chicken show, while the galleries about the building are exceptionally fine for the hibiscus display. Space could be sold to exhibitors such as the Pinetree Company, automobile demonstrators, as well as retail merchants, for it would give them excellent opportunity to make up something very attractive. While the governor is not just exactly averse to allowing this money to be used, he is nevertheless holding back and if the right parties approached him I feel sure that he would be willing to come through.

"February 25th, 1915, Thursday.—With the usual band concert in the morning we could take the afternoon say from 3:30 to 5 o'clock for our Hawaiian pageant. I am in hopes to have the Kamehameha schools work this up for us this year and by approaching them early and giving them plenty of time to work up their chants and other features, I feel that we would be very fortunate if they will agree to assist us in having the grounds about the college for a background or stage as well as the students themselves for the actors. I have been out to the college twice but in each instance have missed seeing the right parties.

"In the evening I intend to again have the massed band concert in the Palace grounds and with the bleachers still in position we could almost afford to throw these open to the public, as there will be no expense whatever for transportation on this feature and the public would have no chance for complaint. I am told that by the time we are ready to put on the Carnival there will probably be more troops here, which naturally means more hands and that means a larger organization.

"After the band concert is over I will again try the eruption of Punchbowl, which I feel was the crowning success of last year's Carnival. I would like to spend a little more money on this feature this year, for Mr. Willson, to whom I have already written in this regard, has told me that with a little additional expense we could make this feature the most talked of event of the whole week. It surely would be a great piece of promotion work and one the press would be anxious to work big.

"Friday, February 26th, 1915.—This is the night that I have in mind for the pyrotechnic display. We could produce this feature on the polo grounds at Kapiolani park and by moving our bleachers on Friday after the band concert of the night before at the palace grounds, we could then leave them at the park, where the military tournament is to take place later. It would do away with the bleachers as far as the parades are concerned, but I feel that it would be better to use our bleachers for the larger affairs and do without them for the parades, for we found last year that the crowds do not care to pay for seating accommodations, especially to watch a parade. At the park we could place our bleachers just as we used them during the military tournament and from there give the people a chance to use them for the pyrotechnic display. We played Mr. Willson before on a 50-50 percentage, and I feel sure that he will be willing to try it again. Our bleachers seating 2700 at an admission of 50 cents a ticket with whatever we could get out of the sale of automobile space would bring larger returns than what we received from the baseball park display last year and at the same time we would be giving the public a wonderful display without admission, for those not desiring to pay for seating accommodations could witness the display from the side lines. Their view of the effect would not be as nice as that from the bleachers, but you must remember the Carnival is costing money and we cannot expect to throw everything open to the public without some return. I am waiting to hear from Mr. Willson as to what he has to offer us this year, but in this particular park feature, it is safe to say that with Diamond Head as a background and the wonderful space with which we have to display his effects we should get something pretty fine out of it.

"Eighth day, Feb. 27.—This is the day when we might have the military tournament at Kapiolani park, and the bleachers being set from the night before there would be hardly any expense to this feature other than prizes. By having a tournament on this day, we do not interfere with the regulations of the army by handicapping the company commanders with men who are trying for the many events of the tournament being absent from the ranks during the military parade as occurred last year. Then again, it gives the men an opportunity to train after the Washington Day parade. Let us presume then that the tournament will be held on this day at Kapiolani park. After the tournament is over and as a finale to this event, it is my intention to work up a cotillion of 16 decorated automobiles, using the polo grounds for this event. I feel quite sure that I will have no trouble in getting the 16 cars and have each one filled with pretty girls. In the center of the field we could erect a large pole around which, many pretty figures could be made. As a feature of this would be the natural effect with Diamond Head for the base, it would be a fine picture to have the 16 cars circle the grounds just within throwing distance of the crowds and as they pass around the field, throw natural hibiscus at the people along the line. The people in return could be supplied with bars of the same and in return would shower the cars until the effect would be a striking example of what other cities boast of, such as Pasadena with its rose carnival. Why not Hawaii with its hibiscus fest?

"You will note that I have eliminated entirely the floral parade, the

It is a proven fact that this feature is the most costly, the hardest to produce of the entire carnival and a feature that saps the energy out of the community. MAJOR-DOCTOR APPOINTED IN NATIONAL GUARD

Several changes in the medical department of the National Guard of Hawaii are announced in Special Orders 34, A. G. O., issued yesterday. Major William L. Moore, after 11 years of service, has resigned, owing to the pressure of his private practice. Dr. Edwin D. Kilbourne, who has just resigned from the medical corps of the regular army to practice in Honolulu, has been commissioned a major-doctor in the guard, and assigned to the 1st Infantry.

Major Kilbourne is a graduate of the army medical school, and when he resigned from the regular service was well up on the list of captains. He is a brother-in-law of Dr. J. R. Judd, of this city, and recently came to Oahu to enter into a partnership with him.

Following is the order of appointment:

Territory of Hawaii,
The Adjutant General's Office,
Honolulu, T. H., May 26, 1914.

Special Orders No. 34:

1. Major William L. Moore, medical department, having voluntarily tendered his resignation after a period of eleven years of continuous and conscientious service in the National Guard of Hawaii, the resignation is accepted with regret, and will take effect from the date hereof.

2. Major William L. Moore having complied with the statutory requirement in regard to service is placed on the retired list with rank and number from the date hereof.

3. Edwin D. Kilbourne is appointed major in the medical department, National Guard of Hawaii, with rank from the date hereof, and is assigned to duty with the 1st Infantry.

By order of the governor.

JOHN W. JONES,
The Adjutant General.

GUARDSMEN TO SHOW STRENGTH MEMORIAL DAY

The 1st Infantry, N. G. H., is to assemble under arms at the Armory Saturday morning at 8:30 to take part in the Decoration Day parade, according to regimental orders just issued. The uniform is cotton service, with blouses, service hats, and web belts without suspenders.

It will be the first time that the guard has turned out in regimental formation since the parade of February 23, and company commanders are making a special effort to secure a large turnout. Lieut. Col. Riley, commanding the regiment, is a firm believer in letting every company stand on its own merits, and he has announced that no transfers will be made to fill up the ranks of depleted organizations. A company turning out eight squads will march with that number, and runs no chance of having two or three squads taken away from it so that an outfit that turns out only three squads can make a showing. If, however, any company is so depleted that it can not muster at least a three-squad platoon, it will be broken up and the men sent to other organizations.

Colonel Riley's policy in the matter of parades meets with the hearty approval of the guard as a whole, for men who take a pride in their company are discouraged when a big turnout results in the breaking up of the company to fill up the ranks of other organizations. On February 23 one company that turned out eight full squads for the parade, and hoped to make a good numerical showing, had two squads detached at the last moment and sent to another battalion. This, Col. Riley says, will not happen while he is in command of the regiment.

BANQUET AND DANCE PLANNED BY IRISHMEN

Celebration of Home Rule Victory Arranged By Local Patriots at Meeting

Erin go Bragh! Faugh-a-ballah! And then some! That was the spirit in evidence last night when more than one hundred Irishmen met in the main hall of the Young Hotel roof garden and formed plans to celebrate the fact that Home Rule has at last been granted Ireland.

The gathering was an enthusiastic one and at once got down to business when the opening hour came. John Hughes was elected chairman and J. D. Cleary, secretary. The first business transacted was to appoint a committee to compose and send cablegrams to Premier Asquith and the Irish leader, John E. Redmond. The messages read as follows:

"Premier Asquith, London, Eng.
"Irish-Americans, residents of Hawaii, tender heartfelt congratulations passage Home Rule Bill."

John E. Redmond, London.

"In Ireland's name we Irish-Americans, residents of Hawaii, congratulate you on glorious victory."

The cable matter having been disposed of, plans for a proper celebration of the great victory of Ireland were taken up. It was proposed by Dr. Carey that the celebration take the form of a banquet with a dance to follow. This idea was favorably thought of and was unanimously adopted. A committee was appointed and Chairman Hughes named the following to take full charge of the banquet and ball: Charles J. McCarthy, Dr. J. J. Carey, J. J. Sullivan, Charles Chillingworth and John Dugan.

After the business meeting was concluded several of those present addressed the gathering. The theme in all cases was "Home Rule in Ireland," and all the speakers showed their delight in the fact that Ireland at last is free.

AN EASY WAY TO GET FAT AND BE STRONG

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on dragging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

Caution:—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.

FLOWERS AND FLAGS FOR THE SOLDIER DEAD

W. L. Eaton, Fred Turrill and C. H. Dickey, the special committee of the George W. De Long Post, G. A. R., in charge of the arrangements for Memorial Day, have issued from headquarters the following order regarding the position of flags and the receipt of flowers Saturday:

"The 30th of May, 1863, was designated in General Order No. 11, as memorial (not decoration) day, and is thus regarded and observed by all G. A. R. Posts. June, 1878, the following resolution was adopted by the National Encampment at Springfield, Mass.: "Resolved, That all flags hoisted on Memorial Day be at half-mast." (This resolution has never been rescinded).

"This means that flags shall remain at half-mast all day, not during the forenoon or afternoon. The G. A. R. comrades observe Memorial Day not Memorial half-day. In some cities the ceremonies occur in the forenoon, in other cities and towns in the afternoon. Thus one readily sees how misleading and inappropriate it would be to keep flags at half-mast less than the entire day.

"When witnessing the Memorial services at Nuanuan cemetery it must be clear to all how inappropriate it is to call the 30th of May Decoration Day. Our ceremonies usually consume about one and a half hours, only about five minutes of which is given to the decoration of graves.

"Those desiring to contribute flowers will kindly leave them at the United Spanish War Veterans hall, corner Merchants and Alakea streets, up stairs."
