ANNEXATION IS NEARER

THE WAR MAKES EVENTS MOVE RAPIDLY.

The Most Encouraging News is Received Both in Press and Private Dispatches—Many Letters Received.

The latest bulletins published by the San Francisco papers on the day the Gaelic sailed are as follows:

WASHINGTON, May 10, 12:30 p. m.—Hawaiian Minister called at State Department today and made formal offer of coaling privileges at Honolulu to the government.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—Mrs. Hatch received dispatch from Minister today. Says Committee on Foreign Relations has decided that Honolulu is necessary for a coaling station. Annexation nearer than ever before.

WASHINGTON, May 10, 12:30 p. m.—War Department today chartered the Australia and City of Sydney for transport of Philippine expedition.

The government received no telegrams from either Mr. Hatch or Mr. Thurston by the Gaelic. Several letters came, but they contained nothing out of the ordinary respecting the annexation situation. Mr. Thurston reported the fact of the taking up of the joint resolution in the House contained in a recent dispatch by way of Vancouver.

Welch & Co. write Castle & Cooke, under date of May 10, that the papers report a request of the United States government to Great Britain to look after the Hawaiian Islands until the war is over. This is believed by the factors to be a fake of the first water. They report the progress of the annexation resolution as given in the papers.

Over a hundred private letters received in this city today by government officials state that the United States will rush coaling to this port, and will use the Islands as the base of all operations in the Pacific. This means that all vessels, war ships, and transports alike, will call here for coal. Some of the letters state that the necessity of using the Islands in this emergency has brought forcibly to the attention of the American people the advantages of annexation, and will do a great deal towards its speedy consummation.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—On Tuesday the Committee on Foreign Affairs probably will report a joint resolution providing for the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. It will have the support of all Republican and some Democratic members of the committee and furthermore, in view of what seems a recently growing sentiment here favorable to a policy of colonization, its passage by the House this week without very strong resistance is likely.

A WAR CORRESPONDENT.

Martin J. Egan of the Chronicle En Route to Manila.

Martin J. Egan, the special correspondent sent to Manila by the Chronicle of San Francisco, arrived on the S. S. Gaelic last evening. Although suffering from a slight sprain to his ankle, Mr. Egan looks well and happy, and is full of enthusiasm for the interesting and dangerous work before him.

He was chosen by the Chronicle manager from a score or more of able correspondents who were anxious to go to the front, and from the fact that the mission was awarded to Mr. Egan speaks volumes for his enterprise and ability in gathering news. He has been tried and not found wanting by the press of both California and Oregon, and The Star has no hesitation in predicting that no more interesting or reliable reports of the fearful situation at Manila and the history making current of events which will surely follow will be found in the American press than those furnished by Martin Egan.

Early this afternoon he was banqueting at the home of J. O. Carter.

WHOOPING COUGH.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgetstown, Pa. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands. All druggists and dealers.

We take pride in turning out only the very best of work and will call for and deliver it to any part of the city.

HOW DEWEY WON HIS MAGNIFICENT VICTORY

Joseph L. Stickney, the brilliant correspondent of the New York Herald, known to many people here, was with Commodore Dewey on the Olympia during the fight at Manila and he thus describes the engagement:

MANILA, Philippine Islands, via Hongkong, May 7.—Not one Spanish flag flies in Manila Bay today. Not one Spanish warship floats, except as prize.

More than 200 Spanish dead and from 500 to 700 wounded attest the accuracy of the American fire.

Commodore Dewey attacked the Spanish position at Cavite this morning. He swept five times along the line and scored one of the most brilliant successes in modern warfare.

That our loss is trifling adds to the pleasure of the victory without detracting from its value.

The number of hits our vessels received proved how brave and stubborn was the defense made by the Spanish forces.

Miraculous as it may appear, none of our men were killed and only eight wounded. Those who were wounded suffered only slight injury.

LINE OF BATTLE.

Commodore Dewey arrived off Manila Bay last night and decided to enter the bay at once. With all its lights out the squadron steamed into Boca Grande, with the crews at the guns. This was the order of the squadron, which was kept during the whole time of the first battle.

The flagship Olympia, Baltimore, Raleigh, Petrel, Concord, Boston.

It was just 8 o'clock, a bright moonlight night, but the flagship passed Corregidor Island without a sign being given that the Spaniards were aware of its approach. Not until the flagship was a mile beyond Corregidor was a gun fired. Then one heavy shot went screaming over the Raleigh and Olympia, followed by a second, which fell farther astern.

The Raleigh, Concord and Boston replied, the Concord's shells exploding, apparently, exactly inside the shore battery, which fired no more.

Our squadron slowed down to barely steerage way and the men were allowed to sleep alongside their guns.

Commodore Dewey had timed our arrival so that we were within five miles of the city of Manila at daybreak. We then sighted the Spanish squadron, Rear Admiral Montejó commanding, off Cavite (pronounced Kaveitay, with the accent on the "ee"). Here the Spaniards had a well prepared navy yard, called Cavite arsenal.

THE ENEMY'S SHIPS.

Admiral Montejó's flag was flying on the 3,500 ton protected cruiser Reina Cristina. The protected cruiser Castilla, of 3,200 tons, was moored ahead, and astern to the port and seaward, were the cruisers Don Juan de Austria, Don Antonio de Ulloa, Isla de Cuba, Isla de Luzon, Orosio, Marquis del Obrero and General Lezo.

These ships and the flagship remained under way during most of the action.

With the United States flag flying at all their mastsheads, our ships moved to attack in line ahead, with a speed of eight knots, first passing in front of Manila, where the action was begun by three batteries mounting guns powerful enough to send shells over us at a distance of five miles.

The Concord's guns boomed out a reply to these batteries with two shots. No more were fired, because Commodore Dewey could not engage these batteries without sending death and destruction into the crowded city.

SUBMARINE MINES.

As we neared Cavite two very powerful submarine mines were exploded ahead of the flagship. This was at 6 minutes past 5 o'clock. The Spaniards had evidently misjudged our position. Immense volumes of water were then thrown high into the air by these destroyers, but no harm was done to our ships.

Commodore Dewey had fought with Farragut at New Orleans and Mobile Bay, where he had his first experience with torpedoes. Not knowing how many more mines there might be on ahead, he still kept on without faltering. No other mines were exploded, and it is believed that the Spaniards had only these two in place.

Only a few minutes later a shore battery at Cavite Point sent over the flagship a shot that nearly hit a battery in Manila, but soon the guns got better range and shells began to hit near us or to burst close aboard, from both the shore batteries and the Spanish vessels.

"REMEMBER THE MAINE."

The men stripped off all their clothing except their trousers. As the Olympia drew nearer to the Spanish fleet all was as silent on board as if the ship had been empty, except for the whirr of blowers and throb of the engines. Suddenly a shell burst directly over us. From the boatswain's mate of the after five inch gun came the hoarse cry, "Remember the Maine," and the chorus arose from the throats of 500 men at the guns. This watchword was then caught up in the turrets and fire-rooms, wherever a seaman or fireman stood at his post.

"Remember the Maine" had rung out for defiance and revenge. Its utterances seemed unpremeditated, but the thought was evidently in every man's mind, and now that the moment had come to make adequate reply to the murder of the Maine's crew every man shouted what was in his heart.

The Olympia was now ready to begin the fight. Commodore Dewey, his chief of staff Commander Lamberton, an aid and myself, with Executive Officer Lieutenant Reese and Navigator Lieutenant Calkins, who conno the ship most admirably, were on the forward bridge. Captain Gridley was in the conning tower, as it was thought unsafe to risk losing all the senior officers by one shell.

THE OLYMPIA OPENS.

"You may fire when ready, Gridley," said the commodore, and at 41 minutes past 5 o'clock, at a distance of 5,000 yards, the starboard eight inch gun in the forward turret roared forth its compliments to the Spanish fortifications.

Presently similar guns from the Baltimore and the Boston sent 250 pound shells hurtling toward the Castilla and the Reina Cristina, the accuracy of the aim being marvelous.

The Spaniards seemed encouraged by this fire to fight faster, knowing exactly our distance, while we had to guess theirs. Their ship and shore guns were making things hot for us. The piercing scream of shot was varied often by the bursting of time-fuse shells, fragments of which would lash the water like shrapnel, or cut our hull and rigging.

One large shell that was coming straight at the Olympia's forward bridge fortunately fell within less than 100 feet away. One fragment cut the rigging exactly over the heads of Lamberton, Reese and myself.

FIGHT GETTING HOT.

Another struck the bridge gratings in line with it. A third passed just under Commodore Dewey and gouged a hole in the deck. Incidents like these were plentiful.

Our men actually chafed at being exposed without returning the fire from all our guns, but laughed at the danger and chatted good humoredly.

A few nervous fellows could not help dodging mechanically, when the shells would burst right over them, or close aboard, or would strike the water and pass overhead, with the peculiar spluttering roar made by a big tumbling rifle projectile.

Still the flagship steered for the center of the Spanish line, and as our other ships were astern, the Olympia received most of the Spanish attention. Owing to our deep draught the commodore felt constrained to change his course at a distance of 4,000 yards and run parallel to the Spanish column.

"OPEN WITH ALL THE GUNS."

"Open with all the guns," he said, and the ship brought her port broadside bearing. The roar of all the flagship's five inch rapid fireers was followed by the deep diapason of her turret eight inchers.

Soon our other vessels were equally hard at work, and we could see that our shells were making Cavite harbor hotter for the Spaniards than they had made the approach for us.

Protected by their shore batteries, and made safe from close attack by shallow water, the Spaniards were in a strong position. They put up a gallant fight. The Spanish ships were sailing back and forth behind Castilla and their fire was hot. One shot struck the Baltimore and passed clean through her, fortunately hitting no one.

Another ripped up her main deck, disabled the six inch gun and exploded a box of three pounder ammunition, wounding eight men.

The Olympia was struck abreast the gun in the wardroom by a shell which burst outside, doing little damage. The signal halyards were cut from Lieutenant Brumby's hand at the after bridge.

A shell entered the Boston's port quarter and burst in Ensign Dorringer's stateroom, starting a hot fire and fire was also caused by a shell which burst in the port hammock netting. Both these fires were quickly put out.

Another shell passed through the Boston's foremast just in front of Captain Wildes, on the bridge.

SALE CLOSER.

After having made four runs along the Spanish line, and finding the chart incorrect, Lieutenant Calkins, the Olympia's navigator, told the commodore he believed he could take the ship nearer the enemy with the lead going to watch the depth of the water. The flagship then started over the course for the fifth time, running within 2,000 yards of the Spanish vessels. At this range even the six pounders were effective, and the big storm of shells poured upon the unfortunate Spanish began to show marked results. Three of the enemy's vessels were seen burning and their fire slackened.

On finishing this run Commodore Dewey decided to give the men breakfast, as they had been at the guns two hours with only one cup of coffee to sustain them.

The action ceased temporarily at 7:35 o'clock, the other ships passing the Olympia and cheering lustily. Our ships remained beyond range

TROOPS ON THE WAY HERE

THE PEKING EXPECTED SUNDAY, AND POSSIBLY SATURDAY.

Pacific Coast Boys Will be in the Majority—Meeting Called to Arrange for Their Reception.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—Dispatches from Washington contain the information that it has been decided to send 7,000 men to the Philippines, as an army of occupation.

The regulars will compose four companies of the Fourteenth infantry, six batteries of the Third artillery and a cavalry regiment now being recruited.

The volunteer forces will be made up of troops from California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Nebraska. The steamer City of Peking has been chartered by the government and will sail not later than May 15th for Manila, carrying troops and supplies.

Of the volunteer force which will probably form a portion of the army of occupation of the Philippines, the First and Seventh Regiments, California Volunteers, are now in camp at the Presidio. The Sixth Regiment will arrive Monday, and then will follow as rapidly as they can be moved, volunteers from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Nebraska.

Hackfeld & Co. received advices from the Pacific Mail Company by the Gaelic last night that the United States had chartered the steamer City of Peking to take troops to Manila, and that she would sail as soon as everything could be made ready. The local agents were informed that the Peking would take coal from the company's pile at this port, and were requested to see that the vessel obtained as prompt dispatch on her journey as possible.

It is expected that the Peking will remain about a day and a half here. H. F. Wichman states that the Peking was to have sailed from San Francisco last Sunday for Manila via Honolulu. In that case she should reach Honolulu next Saturday night or Sunday morning.

Irwin & Co. received no official advices respecting the movements of the Australia, further than the general news of her being chartered for the Manila trip. It is not known when she will sail, but the supposition is that she will follow closely behind the Peking.

American officials received no special instructions as to the expedition. They know that the Charleston will accompany the transports, but have not been advised as to when she may be expected here.

Passengers by the Gaelic report that the government has authorized the expenditure of $1,000,000 in San Francisco for supplies for the expedition. It is required that all orders be filled at once. This large amount of money suddenly turned loose on the market has created the greatest sort of a boom in mercantile circles of the Bay City.

The standing committee on Hawaiian Fourth of July celebration has called a public meeting for 7:30 to-morrow evening to consider ways and means for receiving and entertaining the American troops at this port. The meeting will be held in the drill shed. All organizations, including the military and A. U. P. will combine in this scheme.

President Dole, Chief Justice Judd, and members of the Cabinet, heartily endorse the proposal for a fitting reception to the troops here. The President hopes all citizens will join in the matter, and the Chief Justice expresses the hope that the reception will be made as elaborate and entertaining as possible.

The Senate was full of the Manila victory this morning when the cable bill was up for consideration. Minister Damon left a remark in favor of a free Hawaii. Senator McCandless replied that he hoped to see this harbor full of American soldiers and he hoped they would feel perfectly at home when they reached here. He characterized the talk of "free Hawaii" as balderdash.

ARE KIND TO KAUULANI

HOUSE VOTES TO INCREASE HER ALLOWANCE.

In the Senate the Executive Makes a Vigorous but Unavailing Objection to an Exclusive Cable Franchise.

The House spent the morning in discussing and passing parts of the appropriation bill.

The Committee on Health and Education recommended the reducing of the appropriation for salary of secretary of the Board of Health, the pay roll of government physician and the pay roll for segregation of lepers, making a total reduction in this department of some $8,000.

The allowance to Princess Kaiulani was increased from $4,000 to $9,000, and an additional item inserted for a pension to F. W. Fehlberr in the sum of $720.

The Military Committee strongly urged the passage of items of $110,000 for support of military, and $30,000 for Professor Berger's band.

Salaries of Hawaiian Interpreters in the supreme and district courts were increased to $500 each, and that of the Japanese interpreter reduced $600.

Salary of $1,800 for fourth clerk of the First circuit court was struck out and the office abolished.

Recess to 1:30.

IN THE SENATE.

For the Judiciary Committee Senator Brown recommended that House amendments to Senate Bill No. 30, bills of exceptions and appeals, be concurred in. Report adopted.

Senator Lyman, for the Public Land Committee, recommended the passage of Senate Bill No. 43, to establish a marine park on the east side of the harbor.

Minister Cooper reported that the President had signed the following acts: Nos. 32, registry of vessels; 33, steam laundries; 34, adulteration of drugs; 35, foreign goods in Hawaiian packages; 36, notices of increase of assessments; 37, claims against estates of deceased persons.

For the Public Lands Committee Senator Lyman recommended that House Bill No. 56, amending land act, be tabled; also that House Bill No. 64, construction of railways, pass.

For the Finance Committee Senator Baldwin recommended passage of House Bill No. 39, relative to the manufacture of wines from Island grapes. Minister Cooper gave notice of the following acts: To amend part 4 of the Land Act of 1895; relating to the agreements of sale under the homestead act of 1884. Both bills were introduced under suspension of rules, passed first reading and went to the Printing Committee.

Senate Bill No. 21, Cable, came up on third reading.

Attorney General Smith, for the Cabinet, contended against the bill on the ground that an exclusive cable franchise would be unwise at this time.

Minister Damon endorsed the views of his colleague. The Executive must have a free hand in the cable matter. Events in the Pacific of the past few weeks have appalled the world. With the United States a cable was right at this moment absolutely necessary. The government must be left free to act promptly.

Senator Brown spoke in support of the bill. His views were endorsed by Mr. Baldwin.

Motion to pass the bill obtained by a vote of 10 to 1. Senator Hoeking voting against it.

Senator Bill No. 45, construction of cables in the Pacific, giving the executive authority to grant franchises under Bill No. 21, passed second reading.

Adjourned.

MOBS AND RIOTS IN SPAIN

ALL THE BIG CITIES UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

"Death to the Thieves in Office" and "Down With the Taxes," Some of the Rallying Cries.

BAYONNE, May 9.—Blood is flowing and men and women are lying dead in the streets of Linares tonight. The torch, knife and rifle are the weapons of the mobs that are marching in half the cities of Spain. Martial law is proclaimed in almost every city. The Civil Guards are useless, as they sympathize with the people. Even the soldiers cannot be trusted. This is especially true of Madrid. The soldiers there are only restrained from leading the rioting—which has become perilously near to rebellion—by being kept in the barracks.

Brenes, near Seville, is in the hands of an angry, blood hungry mob. Cadiz and Alcala and Barcelona follow with menacing crowds, tearing down the shops for bread, and yielding only to bayonets and machine guns.

"Death to thieves in office" is the cry of the marching mob at Martos. At Linares the mob attacked the city hall and the Civil Guards fired on them repeatedly. Twelve men were killed and fifty wounded.

Later the mob reorganized, procured arms and ammunition, and with shouts of "Down with the taxes!" they rushed up the City Hall stairs, fired upon the Civil Guards inside and drove them out. The mob then marched to the house of the tax collector and made an attack. His house was sacked. The mob stole 2,100 pesetas, and a box of jewelry and fired the house.

Lieutenant General Daban is so disgusted with the difficulty of his position as captain general of Madrid, that it is expected his will resign.

VIENNA, May 7.—Telegrams from the Austrian Ambassador at Madrid, Count Dubuski, indicate that the Queen Regent is only waiting for a suitable moment to quit Spain without detriment to the interests of her son.

LOSS OF LIFE IN WAR.

The Civil war cost 365,000 lives. Of this number 98,089 were slain in battle. The vast army which succumbed to disease was no less than 184,331, while the remaining 20,000 or so died of wounds received, says the Chicago Inter Ocean.

At the battle of Waterloo 51,000 men were killed or disabled. There were 145,000 soldiers in that great struggle, and it is estimated that one man was either killed or disabled for every 400 shots fired, counting both the artillery and rifle shots.

In the Crimean war 95,615 lives were sacrificed, and at Borodino, when the French and Russians fought, 78,000 men were left dead on the battlefield. There were 250,000 troops in the combat in that engagement.

Of the 95,615 men who perished in the Crimean war, 80,000 were Turks and Russians. In 1881 a great uproar was caused because Englishmen took up all the skeletons they could find, brought them to England and converted the bones into fertilizers. It is said that nearly the entire 80,000 skeletons of the Turks and Russians were thus made into money.

Since the birth of Christ 4,000,000,000 men have been slain in battle. Before the beginning of the Christian era, the losses cannot be estimated, owing to the very indistinct and inaccurate accounts that have been handed down. It is generally conceded, however, that the numbers said to have participated in the battles of the Greeks and other warring nations of the ancient world have been greatly exaggerated.

At Sanea, where the Romans suffered the worst defeat in their history, it is said that 32,000 of their soldiers were slain. The Roman army in this battle consisted of 146,000 men, the picked brown and sinew of the empire.

In the Franco-Prussian war 77,000 Frenchmen were killed. The Germans fired 30,000,000 rifle shots to attain this result. During the same war the Germans fired 363,000 artillery charges.

DEAD IN A BARN.

Iawika, the Escaped Leper, Expires Alone, of Asthma.

Iawika, South Sea Islander, aged over 70, a leper, was found dead in Captain Weisbarth's barn, in Palama, late yesterday afternoon. Asthma was the cause of death. Dr. Emerson investigated the case.

Two weeks ago the man was adjudged a leper at the Kalihui receiving station. Last Monday night he escaped, and though a diligent search had been made, managed to escape the officers of the law. Nothing was heard of him until yesterday afternoon. He was formerly coachman for Captain Weisbarth, and wandered back to his old home to die.

Iawika was a native of the Caroline Islands, and came here as a laborer many years ago.

THE VICTORY.

The victory obtained by Admiral Dewey at Manila is unprecedented in the history of naval warfare. That an hostile fleet should enter the principal harbor of the Philippines, destroy the Spanish fleet, demolish the fortresses and take possession of the navy yard, inflicting enormous injury upon those who were defending the place and receiving practically none itself, has never yet been chronicled, and will go down in history as one of the most remarkable feats ever performed.

The true story of the fight, from the pen of Mr. Stickney, who spent some months here during the fall, is graphically told, and shows what the modern ships, carrying modern arms, and manned and commanded by well trained men, whose courage equals their skill, are able to do. The United States and all Anglo-Saxondom can be proud of the achievement.

With the certainty of the boys in blue coming here in a few days, committees should be formed and the work for proper entertainment pushed along. We may look for the transports at any time after May 22nd.

ANNEXATION.

The annexation of Hawaii in the very near future seems to be quite on the cards. Determined as the United States is to hold possession of the Philippine Islands, the necessity of a coaling station in the central Pacific and of a spot where supplies can be stored two thousand miles nearer to Manila than San Francisco is, becomes very patent. There is only one spot which can be used for this purpose and that is the Hawaiian group.

From private letters one learns that the general tone of discussion in the city of Washington concerning Hawaii is decidedly in favor of immediate action, but that action will be through Newlands' joint resolution. The House Committee was to take this up on the 10th, and the latest telegram to San Francisco put the 12th of May as the day on which it would be brought to an issue. There is no doubt that the desire of a majority both in the Senate and in the House is strongly in favor of immediate action. Indeed there must be immediate action.

In various ways it is very evident that Hawaii is not being relegated to the background. Not only has it a foremost thought among its annexation friends, but a correspondent writes that the press, that barometer of how important a thing may be, shows a growing interest in the question, and the leading newspapers have editorials and lengthy news articles concerning the Islands and the subject of annexation almost every day. During the first week of May the President of the United States and the leading members of both houses, have been in consultation, in regard to what shall be done concerning Hawaii, at least three times.

There is nothing surprising in the fact that the Hawaiian question is a very live issue indeed and an object lesson with regard to its strategic advantages is being supplied at the present moment. When The Star, a year or so ago, suggested the advantage of the Hawaiian Islands as a coaling station for American war vessels, which might be required during a struggle in the China seas, the idea was laughed to scorn by many people. The United States, said they, would never get embroiled in the China seas, and yet here we are a few months after, with an American squadron in possession of one of the largest groups of the Asiatic Islands, and depending on the United States to send it supplies and men, and the United States realizing that there must be a depot between San Francisco and Manila. The time has come for annexation, and we may expect it soon. The news may arrive by the Mariposa.

INCOME TAX.

The base of objection made by the opponents of the income tax bill was Schedule E of the tax bill of 1896. Do away with Schedule E, said a large number and we are at once with you on the income tax. We agree that an income tax is the fairest method of taxation that can be introduced, but we object to double taxation, and as long as Schedule E is in force we shall kick against the income tax.

When the income tax bill was up for second reading there was a very determined effort to kill it there and then. The supporters of the bill, on the other hand, urged that it should be given a chance, and that meantime the Finance Committee of the House would report upon the working of Schedule E. To this subject the committee devoted considerable pains, and reported adversely to the schedule. Investigation showed that the objectionable schedule yielded in rough numbers something under $40,000 a year, and that it was a source of considerable friction, moreover that it attempted to draw a line in business which would be still more objectionable in the future.

The committee, however, did not stop at this point, but desired to introduce a substitute bill which would wipe off the statute book the objectionable Schedule E. After some little discussion as to whether the bill should be allowed to be presented, it passed first reading and will now be printed in a few days. It is a bill that interests a certain class of taxpayers very much, and those who have been so strong in denouncing the schedule, should rally round the bill which is to do away with it.

The good faith of the supporters of the income bill is very clearly shown in this matter. Their aim is to put the taxation of this country upon a satisfactory basis. If they are allowed to put their theories into practice ever so little, they know that the country will be readily converted to their system. They are ready to meet the opponents of the measure half way. They have answered every argument brought against the tax and they have, by the bill which they have brought into the house, shown a disposition to right a wrong in the taxation system, which their opponents complained of, but made no effort to redress.

As things now stand there is some hope of the income tax measure being carried to ultimate success this session. There is a hard fight ahead, no doubt, because its opponents being driven out of one stronghold are, as likely as not, ready to erect another. But there are numbers who are perfectly honest in their views, and who, when Schedule E is disposed of, will readily support the income tax measure, and these will add great strength to an already strong cause.

ENGLAND TO LOOK OUT.

There was a rumor in San Francisco shortly before the Gaelic left that Great Britain had been asked to look after the Hawaiian Islands under an existing arrangement between the United States and that country in that regard. The rumor is not considered authentic.

PROGRESSIVE PHYSICIANS

Say that what is objectionable to the public, whether food or medicine is of very little benefit to the system. This, probably, accounts, at least to some degree, for the failure of cod liver oil to be of use in so many cases. Hitherto its nauseous, disgusting taste has been to most people an insuperable objection. This obstacle is now wholly overcome in which contains the flesh-building and medicinal power of the oil, extracted by a new process from Cod Livers. The taste and even the smell are thoroughly disguised. In addition to the reconstructed oil, the preparation has the rare curative virtues of the Syrup of Hypophosphite, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry Bark. Taken before meals it aids digestion, enriches the blood, repairs waste, renews strength and vigor and prevents and cures Rheumatism, Bowel Complaints, General Debility, Lung troubles, and all diseases due to impurity of the blood. Palatable as honey. Sold by chemists.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT, BUFFALO, N. Y.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I take great pleasure in saying a few words regarding the merits of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION. From a long experience in the use of Cod Liver Oil, I have no hesitation in saying that I regard this as the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil on the market. It is pleasant to the taste, can be tolerated by the most delicate stomach and is productive of the most marvellous results in all cases where it is indicated. It can be given to persons who have a strong antipathy to oil of all kinds, without their knowing what they are taking. I predict for this article a field of usefulness and an extensive demand.

DEAR SIR: The Secretary Disc Plow I purchased from you is giving us satisfaction. We are using it to plow under a crop of lupins. They are three feet high and very thick. Your plow turns them completely under, at the same time plowing the land fourteen inches deep.

I feel satisfied that with this plow the draft for the same quantity and depth of work is as six to eight. That is, with the old plow, to do the same work, it takes eight good mules; with your plow it takes only six, and they are less tired at night.

Please send me another plow by the first schooner leaving for this.

You are at liberty to use this in any way you may see fit.

DEWEY'S GREAT VICTORY

of the enemy's guns until 10:50 when the signal for close action again went up.

The Baltimore had the place of honor in the lead, with the flagship following, and the other ships as before. The Baltimore began firing at the Spanish ships and batteries at 11:16 o'clock, making a series of hits as if at target practice.

The Spaniards replied very slowly, and the commodore signalled the Raleigh, Boston, Concord and Petrel to go into the inner harbor and destroy all the enemy's ships.

SPANISH VESSELS DESTROYED.

By her light draught the little Petrel was enabled to move within 1,000 yards. Here, firing swiftly but accurately, she commanded everything still flying with the Spanish flag.

The other ships were also doing all their duty, and soon not one red and yellow ensign remained aloft except on a battery up the coast.

The Spanish flagship and the Castilla had long been burning fiercely, and the last vessel to be abandoned was the Don Antonio de Ulloa, which lurched over and sank. Then the Spanish flag was hoisted there.

A signal was made to the Petrel to destroy all the vessels in the inner harbor, and Lieutenant Hughes with an armed boat's crew, set fire to the Don Juan de Austria, the Marquis Duero, the Isla de Cuba and the Correo.

The large transport Manila and a number of tugs and small craft fell into our hands.

"Capture or destroy the Spanish squadron," were Dewey's orders. Never were instructions more effectually carried out. Within seven hours after arriving on the scene of action, nothing remained to be done.

The following are wounded, all on the Baltimore:

Lieutenant F. W. Kellogg.

Ensign N. E. Irwin.

Enlisted Men Barlow, Badinger,

Covert, O'Keefe, Ricciardelli and Snetgrove.

They were wounded during the first engagement.

DEWEY'S GREAT VICTORY.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The New York World, in an extra just issued, publishes a dispatch from Hongkong to the effect that the dispatch boat McCulloch has arrived there bringing the news of the fight at Manila.

The report states that the entire fleet of eleven Spanish vessels was totally destroyed and that 300 Spanish were killed and 400 wounded.

No lives were lost on the American fleet and but six persons were injured, while no material injury was done to any of the American vessels.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Commodore Dewey's official report to Secretary Long consisted of two dispatches—one from Manila and the other from Cavite—as follows:

"MANILA, May 1.—The squadron arrived at Manila at daybreak this morning. Immediately engaged the enemy and destroyed the following Spanish vessels: Reina Cristina, Castilla, Ulloa, Isla de Cuba, General Loza, the Duero, Correo, Velasco, Mandanao, one transport and the water battery at Cavite. The squadron is uninjured, and only a few men were slightly wounded. The only means of telegraphing is to the American Consul at Hongkong. I shall communicate with him.

DEWEY.

CAVITE, May 4.—I have taken possession of the naval station at Cavite, on the Philippine Islands. Have destroyed the fortifications at the bay entrance. Paroled the garrisons. I control the bay completely and can take the city at any time. The squadron is in excellent health and spirits. The Spanish loss is not fully known, but it is very heavy. At least 150 were killed, including the captain of the Reina Cristina. I am assisting in protecting the Spanish sick and injured. Two hundred and fifty-six wounded are in hospitals within our lines. There is much excitement in Manila. I will protect the foreign residents.

SCROFULA

It is Foul Blood's Adversary

But It is Soon Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Yes, Scrofula, if anything, may be called the advertisement of foul blood. It is the scourge of the world—offensive, painful, debilitating, stubborn and well nigh unendurable.

Outward applications do not cure, they only drive the difficulty to new quarters. Emollients may palliate, they cannot abolish the evil. There is but one sure way out, and that is to eliminate the taint from the blood.

There is one remedy that can effect this, and it is the only one that, so far as we know, has almost invariably succeeded—even where the system has been poisoned by long years of taint, and the ravages to be repaired are tremendous. That remedy is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this:

"My daughter was afflicted with impure blood. There were running sores all over her body and they caused her much suffering. We tried medicines that were recommended as blood purifiers, but could not see that they did any good. A friend told me about Hood's Sarsaparilla and I began giving the girl this medicine. The result was that she was perfectly cured after taking a few bottles. She has had no symptoms of scrofula since that time." MARIETTA M. SMITH, South Middleboro, Mass.

Fresh Goods.

There is a great deal more in keeping your stock clear of all old goods, whether they be in bulk or in containers of any kind. We don't believe it pays to keep goods that do not sell. There may be various reasons why they are not saleable. For instance, the wrong class, or if not the wrong class, the wrong grade, perhaps too high a grade or of an inferior quality. Such goods are not desirable at any price, and we have always used the precaution of buying just what was suited for the market and placed them on our counters at prices that would create an immediate demand. In that way our stock never gets old. Our long business experience in this city gives us a clear insight into the needs of our customers and we are now proud to be able to say that they are always more than satisfied with their purchases.

Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest and safest and really in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light. Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want. We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers

DID YOU EVER SEE A SNOWSTORM IN SUMMER?

We never did; but we have seen the clothing at this time of the year so covered with dandruff that it looked as if it had been out in a regular snowstorm.

No need of this snowstorm.

As the summer sun would melt the falling snow, so will

Ayer's Hair Vigor

melt these flakes of dandruff in the scalp. It goes further than this: it prevents their formation.

It has still other properties: it will restore color to gray hair in just ten out of every ten cases.

And it does even more: it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick hair; and short hair becomes long hair.

GENERAL WOODFORD HOME

HE IS WARMLY RECEIVED BY THE PRESIDENT.

There was a Purpose in Sending the Ultimatum to Spain in English Instead of Cipher.

NEW YORK, May 8.—General Stewart L. Woodford, United States Minister to Spain, arrived on La Touraine this morning, and left for Washington this afternoon. La Touraine also had on board a number of attaches of the United States legation at Madrid.

The administration had a purpose in transmitting to General Woodford the ultimatum of the United States to Spain in open English instead of in the State Department cipher, which is usually employed in cable correspondence with diplomatic representatives. It was expected by the President that the message to Minister Woodford would be laid before the Sagasta Ministry before it was delivered to General Woodford, and in this he was not incorrect, as events proved. The message was delayed many hours in delivery, and Minister Woodford afterwards learned that the ultimatum had been in the hands of Sagasta and had been considered by the Cabinet long before he learned that it had arrived. Thus it was that the Spanish government was enabled to give him his passport before he had an opportunity to deliver the ultimatum formally to the Madrid government. The fact that the ultimatum was not presented to the Spanish government was entirely satisfactory to the administration, as it was in accordance with the expectations of the President.

AFTER POPPLETON'S RENT.

Attorneys argued points of law in the case of McChesney & Sons vs. J. H. Fisher in Judge Perry's court yesterday afternoon. This matter grew out of the filing of claims against the Poppleton restaurant some months ago. After the lawyers have finished with the court a jury will be impaneled and the case will be submitted.

SUGAR FLEET ARRIVES.

Have Trouble With the Quarantine Officers at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Eleven Honolulu packets have sailed in through the Golden Gate within the past two days. They all left various Hawaiian ports at different times, and encountered various degrees of weather, but all reached here in a bunch. The schooner Muriel, which arrived Thursday afternoon, made the last day's run in good steamer time.

All of the boats brought sugar and every one of them was stopped in the quarantine grounds and anchored there. There was not much room inside the quarantine boundaries, and very poor anchorage, for the reason that it is so exposed. A stiff gale of wind was blowing Thursday night.

All the captains declared yesterday that their first night in port gave them more anxiety than the whole voyage, and they all gave Dr. Rosenau, the federal quarantine officer, the credit for having placed them in so perilous a position. Ever since Dr. Rosenau assumed the duties of federal quarantine officer he has been heartily disliked by the shipping men of the port, but he has now developed into a positive menace to the safety of vessels arriving from foreign ports and an obstruction to the commerce of San Francisco. He distinguished himself yesterday by imperiling the safety of six Honolulu packets.

The six vessels that arrived yesterday came in one after another. By the time Dr. Rosenau had finished with one the next was in sight, but instead of going to meet it he returned to the wharf, waited until the vessel was almost at the limits of the quarantine grounds, and then ordered the anchor dropped. When the schooner Robert Lewers arrived Dr. Rosenau was not at his post, and when he finally showed up the vessel had passed the line. He ordered her about, although, owing to the other vessels being anchored near by, he just managed it at the expense of several halcyons and narrowly avoided running ashore on Aleatraz Island. The schooner had to jibe twice while waiting for the doctor, and when he finally arrived he forced her captain to come to an anchor, although all was well on board and the anchorage in all the quarantine grounds is poor. Skippers have come to associate the federal doctor with lost anchors.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. George S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack recently," he says; "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for a dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use, and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents. All druggists and dealers.

Merit Wins.

One of the most attractive displays at the Mechanics' Fair this year was the one made by HILBERT BROS., Pacific Coast Agents for the Saint Louis A. B. C. Bohemian Beer. Pale and Sparkling with an excellent Hop Aroma, and renowned for its purity it makes an Ideal Family Beer. The beer is brewed from the finest growths of Bohemian Hops and the Choicest Selections of Barley by the American Brewing Company, St. Louis, Mo., whose brewing plant is conceded to be the model brewing plant of the world. The Saint Louis A. B. C. Bohemian Beer is bottled exclusively at the Brewery from stock not less than eight months old. (The above clipping is from the San Francisco Chronicle of late date.)

STATE OF SIEGE.Grinding Taxation has Raised the Price of the Necessaries of Life until Thousands are Starving.LONDON, May 16.—Italy is in a ferment. Terrible riots have taken place in Rome, Milan, Florence and other places. Twenty-three provinces are virtually, though not formally, in a state of siege.The riots are largely the outcome of crushing taxation, which makes even salt cost 16 cents a pound. Thousands of the poor are thereby deprived and die from the terrible disease, pellagra.The fact that General Huereh has been made virtually dictator at Florence is significant. He earned his title of "The Butcher," by the savage cruelties he ordered during the Massa D'Assenza riots some years ago.Rumor has it that the trouble is being fomented by the Clericals, who have chosen the moment for an attack on the monarchy. No proof of this exists.At Milan General Bava Beccaris used cannon to destroy the barricades, and a number were killed on Saturday, about 100. The government has established the severest censorship of the press.In the center of the town a continuous battle went on for two hours, and in the popular quarters the mobs rested until nightfall.Generally speaking the agitation continues, but it is less intense. The authorities have ordered all Socialists and Republican clubs to dissolve.THE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.Dr. Myers wishes it stated that the

WRAY TAYLOR'S DISPATCHES.

Gossip and News Items From the Coast.

Wray Taylor sends the following dispatches to The Star:

It looks as if annexation might be accomplished before the Mariposa sails on the 18th, and on which vessel I come. If annexation takes place at any time before the sailing of the steamer I will see that a signal is placed on the steamer so that you will get the news as soon as she is sighted. On the foremast when entering the harbor there generally flies the Hawaiian flag, and right below this I will get the captain to fly a long blue streamer, which I shall get before sailing; that is if annexation takes place. The House Foreign Relations Committee will report a Hawaiian annexation joint resolution on May 10th.
