GERMANY VIEWS ALLIED REPLY AS FLAT PEACE REFUSAL

ARIZONA'S RIVAL GOVERNORS MAY BE CAUSE OF BATTLE

Sensational Politics at Phoenix Reach Danger Stage at Inauguration

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 1.—One of the bitterest and most sensational political fights in the history of Arizona politics was given its most sensational chapter today when Thomas R. Campbell, the Republican candidate for governor at the November election, was inaugurated as the 11th governor of the state capital.

Governor George W. P. Hunt, the Democratic incumbent, who has been defeated, still claims the office, but was given no inauguration ceremonies. When Campbell went to the executive office he found that the office had been taken over by the executive committee of the state.

The state canvassing board has declared Campbell elected by a majority of 5,000 votes, but is contesting the result. The court has ordered the board to file its report by January 10.

The official count of Arizona shows that Campbell received 50,000 votes, while Hunt received 45,000 votes. The margin of victory was 5,000 votes.

Kuhio Ready To Protest On Forbes' Visit

If Charles H. Forbes, superintendent of public works, goes to Washington on his present mainland trip, he will meet with an enthusiastic reception from Hawaii's delegates, Prince Kuhio, according to a report which comes from the Star-Bulletin as an unquestionable authority.

This paper is informed that prior to his departure for the capital, Kuhio told friends here that if Forbes went to the capital on a legislative or political mission, the delegate would file a protest with the Secretary of the Interior Lane. Kuhio is quoted as saying that Forbes "belied up" several pieces of legislation on his last visit to Washington. It was during that visit, too, that Forbes is supposed to have taken the "confidential" report on the Hawaiian National Guard which has drawn a "stinging" protest from Kuhio. It will be remembered that Kuhio and Forbes exchanged bitter personal attacks and criticisms over the National Guard report incident. This report made by an inspector-in-chief, declared to have reflected seriously on the Hawaiian National Guard as well as on the administration of former Adjutant-General Jones.

Many conjectures have been made concerning Forbes' mainland trip. He denied that it had any political significance and said he did not expect to go to Washington, but several predictions have been made that he would later be found visiting the capital.

INCOME TAX OF HAWAII HAS BIG GROWTH IN YEAR

Corporations Pay Nearly 72 Per Cent More Than They Did During 1915

Total collections made by the internal revenue office in the district of Hawaii amounted for the fiscal year of 1916 to $384,137.33, according to the report of the internal revenue department just made public.

This is the largest payment ever made to the internal department by the central office and a portion of the largest collection ever credited to the whole department for the total collections by all internal revenue offices of the United States was $512,723,387.77, a gain of $37,047,230.97 over the previous year.

Hawaii shows an enormous increase in percentage of taxes paid under the corporation income tax, the gain over last year amounting to 71.6 per cent. The year 1916 brought from Hawaii's corporations a total in taxes of $341,936.37 while the same taxes for last year were $198,655.07.

Comparison With New York.

In comparison with the corporation returns the earnings of individual corporations averaged twice as much in Hawaii as in New York, which state is the highest in amount of the whole Union. Hawaii's corporations paid nearly 72 per cent more than they did during 1915.

PLANS BIG HAWAII OLYMPIAD DURING SUMMER OF 1918

R. C. Brown to Ask the Local Chamber to Cooperate With Mainland Chambers

The suggestion made in the Star-Bulletin of holding a great Olympiad here, in which schools of the island will be invited to send 100 representatives, took concrete form today when Raymond C. Brown, secretary, announced that at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce he would recommend to that body that it get in touch with the mainland chambers and make them to cooperate.

"I am heartily in favor of the idea," Brown said this morning, "and I see no reason why it cannot be done. My plan would be to hold it the first week in August, 1918, which will give the boys time to get here after school and return in time for the opening of school. It is no late now to hold it in 1917, but by waiting another year we shall have more time to advertise and it will probably be the means of greatly increasing the summer travel in that year."

Brown says that he would not confine it simply to track and field sports, but open it to all contests in which individuals and not teams compete. Many schools will find it too expensive to send teams, he believes, although it is not so if it is held in 1917, but to the attractiveness of the event.

"There has been no suggestion made for a long time," Brown said, "which has met with such instant approval by all the people as this one has."

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

BERLIN, Germany, Jan. 1.—Official announcement at the war office early today says that on both the east and west fronts fighting today is limited. In Rumania the Russians have been thrown back to the bridge-head of Braila, against which our attack is progressing. In the Dobruja a Russian point of support at Macin was captured.

An artillery duel was temporarily violent today south of La Bassée canal and on both sides of the Somme, as well as northwest of Rheims. On the south bank of the Aisne our long-range fire has set fire to several munition depots.

Eastern arena. Prince Leopold's front. South of Jacobstadt artillery activity increased. Archduke Joseph's front. In the frontier mountains toward Moldavia engagements are proceeding favorable for us. German troops north of the Use valley captured from the Russians the height of Solymiar and maintained it against strong counter-thrusts. One officer and 80 soldiers were taken prisoner. On both sides of the Oltu valley German and Austrian regiments took Rumanian and Russian positions, and in Putna valley in a hard struggle made advances.

On von Mackensen's front the troops of von Morgen and Illent-Ges. Kuchner, captured north and east of Rimnicul Sarat, strong resistance, especially on the edge of the mountains. By a strenuous attack they entered into the hostile positions and repulsed strong counterattacks. Between Rimnicul and the Buzul river lowlands terrain was gained under violent fighting.

Our Danube army is approaching the strongly fortified line northwest of Vrala. In the Dobruja Bulgarian troops have conquered and are pressing toward Macin. On the Macedonian front Struma section, the Bulgarian and Turkish patrols have made successful advances.

GERMAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Dec. 31.—Army group, Crown Prince Rupprecht. Northwest of Lille and on the Somme, a strong resistance, the battle line, and on isolated parts of the Aisne front, the fire increased temporarily. Advances of English and French patrols were repeatedly repulsed.

Army group of the crown prince. On the left bank of the Meuse the French during the day launched against the new lines on St. Etienne captured by a severe attack, introduced by strong fire. All were repulsed.

Archduke Joseph's front. In the snow covered forest of the Carpathians successful patrol service was done by the German forces. In Transylvania frontier mountains German and Austrian attacking troops, in spite of tenacious resistance, entered into entrenched positions and pushed far ahead in spite of strong counterattacks, during which the Russians left 10 officers and 100 soldiers prisoners, we taking also seven machine guns.

Von Mackensen's army. Our indefatigable troops are following the enemy on the wide front between the mountains and the Danube and a fight is progressing northeast of Viasul and Suteul, on the Buzul river and at Slobia; half way between Rimnicul Sarat and Plagieseni, in central Rumania.

Macedonian front. Only minor engagements of raiding detachments in Struma river plain.

GERMAN TOLL OF SHIPS ENORMOUS

BERLIN, Germany, Dec. 31.—During the month of November 133 hostile merchant ships, totaling 314,500 tons, were destroyed by the war measures of the Central Powers. Of these 244,500 tons were English. Besides this, 63 neutral merchant ships of 94,000 tons were sunk for carrying contraband to the enemy. The month's total was thus 408,500 tons.

Since the beginning of the war the Central Powers have destroyed 3,936,500 tons of hostile merchant ships, of which 2,734,500 were English.

TEUTONICS CONTINUE SUCCESSES IN RUMANIA

BERLIN, Germany, Jan. 1.—An official statement through the Overseas News Agency says that on the Moldavian frontier today the Teutonics captured two towns in the Zabala valley and several heights. They repulsed violent Russian and Rumanian counterattacks in Wallachia, the enemy being again driven back.

Between Rimnicul Sarat and Folcshani, and in the Dobruja, they are making more progress, having captured 1000 cannon and machine guns. In the Carpathian forest an enemy blockhouse was mined and south of Riga German raiding parties were repulsed.

WILSON'S MOVE MADE WITHOUT CONFERRING WITH ANY OTHER NATION, ASSERTS GOVERNMENT

British Press Expresses Hope Entente's Answer to President Will Be Courteous—Reply to Teutons Does Not Conclude Debate

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)

PARIS, France, Jan. 1.—The Entente reply to President Wilson's note to the belligerents will follow the course of the Entente answer to the Teutons. England and France have already agreed to the form of the note and it has been submitted to the members of the Allies.

BERLIN, Germany, Jan. 1.—"A flat refusal to end the war" is the way the Teutons regard the Allies' answer to their peace proposals.

The text of the Entente reply, as made public in Paris Saturday night just after its communication to Washington for transmission, was telegraphed to Berlin and has already been given wide publicity among the Central Powers. The general impression is that the Allies decline to consider stopping the conflict.

Expressions here are of regret at this attitude, because of the suffering to neutral nations in consequence of continued conflict. German comment adds that it is especially remarkable that the Entente note mentions "recognition of the principle of nationality," and "rights of nations and peoples," in view of the Entente's declaration that they will conquer Constantinople and the Dardanelles straits.

British Counsel "Courteous Reply"

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 1.—Wide comment on the diplomatic situation that has arisen comes from British newspapers. The Manchester Guardian today says: "We hope that the Entente reply to President Wilson will be in a different spirit from the reply to Germany."

The semi-official Westminster Gazette sees some prospect of further negotiations, saying: "The reply of the Entente Allies does not conclude the debate. It is to be hoped that the reply to President Wilson will be courteous."

"There is nothing in history analogous to this exchange of manifestos between belligerents while the armies are still locked in battle."

Wilson Move Made Absolutely Alone

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1.—That the United States stood absolutely alone in the move to sound the belligerents on peace terms was made known here today. Diplomatic circles here were today instructed to make it known to the governments that the United States stood alone in this kind of move. It was a move of the same order as the move of the same order.

No government has been asked to join in the move. The official statement issued today, in answer to the move, was a unilateral action of the United States. No attempt was made to get other nations to join in the move. The move was not a move of the same order as the move of the same order.

RICH PRIZE FOR GERMAN RAIDERS

(German Official)

BERLIN, Germany, Dec. 31.—A short time ago in the northern Arctic ocean off New Cape the Germans captured the steamer Suchan of the Russian volunteers fleet loaded with war material, bound for Archangel from America. The Russian ship's officers having been taken prisoners on board the German submarine and a German naval officer, together with a non-commissioned prize crew, having taken command of the steamer, she was brought to a German port accompanied by the submarine.

There it was discovered that the steamer had belonged to the Hamburg-American line, and was named the Suchan. She had been confiscated by the Russians in the port of Vladivostok at the beginning of the war.

Her cargo now captured is worth many millions. It is composed of 700,000 arshins, type 7.5 centimeters, 75,000 blasting grenades, type 7.5 centimeters, 150,000 cartridges, 250,000 fuses for blasting grenades, 100,000 time fuses, 25,000 arrows for fuses, 18,000 kilograms of trinitrocol, 175,000 kilograms of tube powder, 140,000 kilograms of black powder, 120,000 projectiles of type 30 centimeters, 150 other projectiles, 150 cylinders with acids, 1,230,000 kilograms of lead in bars, seven truck automobiles, 300 bales sole leather, 800 pools of barbed wire and 8000 pieces of railroad rails.

NO SECOND NOTE FROM WILSON, SAYS OFFICIAL STATEMENT UPON RUMORS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1.—An official statement issued by the government today declares emphatically that there was no second note on peace sent out by the president or the state department, following the president's move of December 20.

Various rumors have been about concerning such a second note, and it had been conjectured that the rumors were based on Secretary Lansing's two explanations. The first intimation that such a supplementary note had been sent out came in the reply of Spain to the note, the Spanish note making reference to this second communication, which appears to have been directed to the various neutral Powers, asking their cooperation in the effort to secure an understanding amongst the belligerents to the end of bringing the war to a conclusion.

PARIS, France, Jan. 1.—Official.—The Germans today began a violent bombardment against our trenches with big guns in the Champagne section, following with violent infantry attacks, but they were completely repulsed.

Former College Instructor Dies

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

SEATTLE, Washington, Jan. 1.—Alice Ball, instructor at the College of Hawaii, died today at the home of her parents here. Her illness began last March when she returned from a while staying at a sanatorium in her class.

Miss Alice Ball became ill last spring and returned home but came back again this fall. She broke down again this time. At the college this afternoon it was stated that it is doubtful if inhaling the chlorine gas was the direct cause of her death and believed that there were other causes contributing to her breakdown. She came to Hawaii from the University of Washington and had been here about two years. On the advice of physicians the college sent her home in the hope that she would recover from an illness entirely apart from the effects of the gas.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1.—New duties to be imposed upon a number of commodities and increased duties on others are among the strong possibilities of the very near future, according to an agreement reached yesterday among the financiers of the government.

POSTAGE RATE ON NEWSPAPERS MAY REMAIN AS NOW

Secretary Burleson Suggests Congress Ignore Recommendation He Made

Information that will be interesting to readers of and subscribers to the Honolulu Star-Bulletin and other newspapers and magazines and that is of special interest to Honolulu papers comes by the last mail. It now appears unlikely that postal rates which would be practically prohibitive on newspapers and magazines will be contained in coming legislation. Postmaster-General Burleson suggests to house committee on postoffice that it disregard the recommendation he made in his message of June 20 be disregarded.

Writing to Representative Moon, chairman of the postoffice committee, Postmaster-General Burleson says in part:

"Since writing my annual report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1916, there has appeared before me a committee representing the Agricultural Publishers' Association, also other representatives of periodicals and magazines, all of whom earnestly urged that no steps be taken at this time to increase the rates of postage on second class matter. These representatives claim that the war and other unusual conditions have recently caused an abnormal increase in the price of paper, and such increases, coming as they did after the contracts had been entered into for the advertising matter, seriously threaten the financial stability of these periodicals and publications.

"Because of these facts, which were not available at the time my report was written, I feel constrained to write you this letter and state that while I still adhere to the recommendations in my subject contained in my annual report, I feel that most serious consideration should be given to the representations of these publishers. If conditions are as stated by them it might be well to consider whether the increase in rates of postage on second class matter should be made at this time."

ations brought in many more taxes than did last year. While the increase was not as large as that of the individual income tax, the increase in the corporate income tax was very large. The total income tax for the year 1916 was $1,000,000, and for the year 1917 it was $1,500,000.

The increase in the corporate income tax was due to the fact that the rate was increased from 10 per cent to 15 per cent. The increase in the individual income tax was due to the fact that the rate was increased from 5 per cent to 10 per cent.

BOOZE AND GAS DO NOT MIX WELL

Too much liquor was the cause of a serious auto accident on Kalakaua Saturday night, of a bad motorcycle spill near the same place Sunday afternoon, of several other minor accidents and of over half of approximately 25 arrests made by the police on Saturday and Sunday.

C. W. Sleeper, said to have been under the influence of liquor, crashed into a liquor delivery wagon of Otani in the auto accident, careening into an electric light pole, scattering bottled goods all over the street and tearing the machine to pieces. No one was seriously hurt. Sleeper has been released on a $100 bond to appear Tuesday.

Chief McDuffie was following Sleeper and trying to catch him to arrest him for heedless driving when the accident occurred. The Japanese driver was thrown from his vehicle and Sleeper went through the windshield. A man and a woman who were with him escaped unhurt to hide in the bushes where they were discovered by McDuffie.

The motorcycle affair Sunday afternoon came when Louis Pua tried to take the turn from the right to the left side of Kalakaua near John E. Road where the new pavement is being laid. He was going to Waldfried with a friend riding tandem and had passed three autos at a terrific rate just before he swung out for the curve to be precipitated in the bushes.

W. H. Hutton, detective and police officer, who was in one of the cars which had been passed, was the first man on the scene. He called for the ambulance but when it arrived Pua had entirely recovered from the fall under his machine. Nevertheless he took a ride to the police station, charged with heedless driving and operating his machine without a license. He is out on $100 bond to appear Tuesday. The police say he had been drinking.

Other accidents and troubles which came to the attention of the police was the crash of John Curry's car with auto No. 627 on Beretania near Alapai Saturday afternoon and the fracture of Tai Sun Lee's shoulder when he fell from Edward Willie's truck at the corner of Queen and Nuanu streets the same afternoon.

T. K. Smith's bicycle was damaged on Hotel near Maunakea Sunday by an unknown truck, and auto No. 2474, driven by F. Bederman, ran into Chatter Sunday, injuring the animal so severely that it had to be shot.

Ray Ellis fell from the third floor of the Moana hotel Saturday, fracturing his leg.

H. B. Robinson had four attendees when he was taken to the emergency hospital Sunday night after a fight with his wife near Liliha and Vineyard streets during which the woman is said to have offered a forcible kiss and a scolding, instead, a violent bite. The police say both were intoxicated.

The wood-waste exchange established by the Forest Service for the purpose of aiding wood-using establishments in the closer utilization of wood waste has developed rapidly last year. The cooperators now number over five hundred, many of whom have reported successful purchases or sales of wood waste through the medium of the exchange.

MRS. C. N. ARNOLD TAKEN INTO FOLD

Mrs. Cecelia Nelson Arnold, widow of the late Charles N. Arnold, died Sunday, following a week's illness. The body was to be on view at Williams' undertaking parlors after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the same parlors. The body will be cremated and the ashes given burial in Nuanu cemetery, where the husband of the deceased is buried. The late husband was a Civil War veteran and prominent in G. A. R. circles.

Mrs. Arnold, who was one of the best known Hawaiian women of her day, was born in Honolulu on January 1, 1858, and would be 59 years old next Friday, had she lived. Her husband died here in 1890. She was educated at the Holy Cross school, Episcopalian, in Lahaina, Maui, and was one of the first students of that institution.

Surviving the deceased are Superintendents Charles N. Arnold and Arthur K. Arnold, a son; Miss Alice Arnold, Mrs. M. I. Gelf, Mrs. Arthur McDuffie, Miss Lillian C. Arnold and Miss Lela Lila V. Arnold, daughters, all of them, with the exception of Lillian, being at the bedside when their mother passed away. There are also eight grandchildren and a number of nephews and nieces.

Miss Lillian C. Arnold, who has been away in the mainland, will arrive in the Matsonia tomorrow morning from San Francisco, and expected to be with her mother at their joint birthday, which falls next Friday.

Mrs. Arnold was for many years connected with the Seaside Hotel at Wailuku and up to her death conducted the Halekani Hotel, also at Wailuku, which she owned.

St. Francis Hotel To Boost Hawaii Strong in 1917

"We are going to do our best to boom Hawaii in 1917," is the New Year greeting sent to the Hawaii Promotion Committee by the manager of the St. Francis Hotel. In a letter to A. R. Taylor, secretary of the committee, the manager announces that one of the booklets, the Hawaiian Primer, will be placed in every room in the hotel.

Taylor says that this offer guarantees one of the best bits of publicity that Hawaii could receive. The Palace Hotel has already asked for a number of booklets which would be given to all the guests of the hotel. Each arriving guest in the two big hotels will be given full information regarding Hawaii. The St. Francis Hotel also offered to place on display any advertising posters regarding Hawaii in a prominent place in the lobby of the Powell street hotel.

Records shooting on the National Guard rifle range came to an end yesterday. On account of the holidays only a few men of the guard have taken advantage of record shooting this year.

Lieut. Thomas Evans, the crack shot of the National Guard team that went to Florida last year, upheld his shooting ability by making the second highest score in the regiment this year. His score being 358 points, which puts him in the expert class and the winner of the trophy awarded by Maj. M. M. Johnson of the 1st Battalion John Stone, another member of the rifle team, made a good score, his total running up to 363.

On account of unfavorable weather during the past three Sundays on the range many of the former expert riflemen fell far below their usual scores. Opl. Albert Akana is the winner of a special prize offered by Capt. Henry O'Sullivan of Company A for making the highest score in that command.

JUDGE J. L. COKE QUITE WILLING

Circuit Judge James L. Coke for tomorrow to Federal Judge Charles P. Clemons, resigned.

This is the present day prediction of local political prophets who have been trying to figure out who would succeed Judge Clemons, whose resignation has been accepted, to take effect January 15.

A wireless despatch says it is understood in the national capital that Judge Coke will get the bench position and that it is likely he will be recommended to the president by Attorney General Gregory.

Judge Coke did not express surprise today when informed of the contents of the despatch, but declared he has heard nothing about it.

"I am far from dissatisfied with the position I now hold," Judge Coke says, "but any man would welcome a promotion of that nature. If the attorney general feels that I am qualified for the position I would be flattered and would accept the appointment. But the whole proposition is new to me."

It is reported that a cablegram recently was received in local official circles requesting information regarding Judge Coke's qualifications, for what is believed to be a possible appointment to the federal bench. But the person receiving this cablegram is required to keep its contents confidential and will not discuss it.

Samuel B. Kemp, assistant U. S. attorney, is being mentioned as a likely successor to Hon. E. M. Watson, former associate justice of the supreme court. U. S. Attorney S. C. Hubert also has been mentioned as a successor to Judge Clemons.

SERIOUS CHARGE CAUSES ARREST

On a charge made by a middle-aged Chinese man, Chew Tuck, of an infamous crime, A. B. Vierra, for some time with the Honolulu fire department, was arrested early this morning by the police.

Chew made the complaint to the police last night and was taken to the emergency hospital. Shortly afterwards Vierra was arrested behind the Hawaii Meat Company store, where the offense is said to have occurred. The police say he was identified by Chew and that there was sufficient incriminating evidence against him to bear out the charge.

Chief Thurston of the fire department said this morning that Vierra had been with the department at the Central station for about eight months but that his connections were severed last night—the end of the year—before anything was known of the latest charge. The chief had intended to file charges of drunkenness and neglect of duty against Vierra with the civil service commission and had already received Vierra's resignation.

Shackel Rose reports that Saturday night and New Year's Eve were especially quiet and orderly and that although extra precautions had been taken to handle any disturbance, nothing out of the ordinary occurred.

There was a rumor that the soldiers would mob the police out of spite for the trouble a week ago with the officers at the concert to a riot was in Kalia where a couple of civilians were said to be assaulted by a gang of soldiers. The crowd dispersed before the police could identify any trouble makers.

LONDON GAVE DENIAL TO CANARD UPON SOLDIER

In a letter to a friend, Lieut. James D. Wilson of the navy recruiting station, Minneapolis, Minn., the late Jack London on August 5, last year, just after he had returned to the mainland from Hawaii, emphatically denied he was the author of a statement to the effect that "being a soldier is the lowest aim in life."

London says, in his letter: "In reply to your inquiry I will state that I never wrote a line of this 'Good Soldier' canard."

My opinion is that it behooves a country like the United States to maintain a reasonable preparedness for defense against any country or nation that at any time may go out upon the way of war to carve earth space for itself out of weaker and unprepared nations."

SCHOFIELD NOTES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) FORT SHAFTER, Jan. 1.—The officers are all busy with numerous reports regarding efficiency of subordinate officers, regular muster and inspection returns, cards stating preference for certain stations and arms of service, property return and a vast amount of routine, statistical reports which are always necessary and required January 1 of each year.

The report of the 2nd Infantry library shows a great increase in the number of books of that collection due to the expenditure for new and important volumes from the library fund, collected by voluntary contributions from the officers of the regiment for the benefit of the command.

Chapel services during the week will be Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. and morning prayer at 10 a. m. on Monday, New Year's Day, and Saturday, Feast of the Epiphany, evenings at 5 p. m.

REPORT PINKHAM TO APPEAL FROM VAUGHAN OPINION

Understood He Will Act for Filipino Guardsmen; Says Nothing Definite

That Governor Pinkham is planning to appeal from the decision handed down by Federal Judge Horace W. Vaughan on Saturday denying Filipinos the right to become naturalized American citizens is the substance of a report that has gained circulation in National Guard circles.

Governor Pinkham today declined to affirm or deny the report. He said: "There is nothing to confirm. I am not ready to act. I have not read the opinion and have not yet conferred with the proper authorities. There is nothing definite, and cannot be until Wednesday or Thursday."

Alfred Ocampo, police officer and detective, whose petition for naturalization was denied in the decision, says that an officer of the National Guard told him that Governor Pinkham would appeal in behalf of the Filipino guardsmen. Ocampo adds he has not yet given thought to the matter of a personal appeal.

Judge Vaughan's decision has caused no little flurry in guard circles, especially among the Filipino companies. More than 100 members of Filipino companies already have filed in federal court their declarations of intention to become American citizens.

This rush of Filipinos to the court to secure their first papers began several months ago, shortly after Federal Judge C. F. Clemons filed a decision holding that Filipinos were eligible for American citizenship. Under the Clemons decision three Filipinos already have been naturalized.

OLD WORSHIPER OF STATUE REMEMBERED FIRST OF NEW YEAR

It has been a real "Happy New Year" for the statue worshiper.

A veritable shower of silver and cigars has fallen into his hands—and pockets—and his wrinkled face was wreathed in smiles as he took up his accustomed post in the shade near the Capitol entrance this morning.

The old fellow has had nothing to say, however, in fact, he never talks. But there is a light in his eyes that is as good as a spoken word of thanks when he stretches forth his hand for the gratitudes that those who pass along the street are wont to give him on New Year's.

A clerk of circuit court remembered him this morning with a handful of cigars and some silver. Others went out of their way to present their annual gift. But, with all of it, this strange worshiper of the statue never comments nor thanks. He only smiles.

Many Festivities and Receptions Usher in The New Year

BIG ORCHESTRA FOR RECEPTION OF ARMY HEAD

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION WILL BEGIN THIS EVENING AT CANDLE LIGHT

As a rule the Y. M. C. A. claims one night each year as its night, and New Year's night has been selected as the date for the big activities of the association. A program has been prepared for this evening which promises to eclipse anything held during last year at the association.

Beginning the new year the association will hold an open house and president's reception. Ladies have been especially invited to be present, and the event this evening promises to be both a social and athletic affair. The complete program will include the reception, music, athletics and a general New Year's program.

President and Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Larimer, with the members of the board of directors and wives will be in the receiving line at 8 o'clock. They will receive until 8:30 when the guests of the association will adjourn to the games hall.

Program Starts Early

The evening program will begin at 8:30, when the cafeteria, which is a rule open only to the men, will be thrown open to the members of the fair sex and it is expected that a number of parties will be given. During the dinner hour Kaul's quartet will furnish the music for the dinner.

Between the hours of 7 o'clock and 8 o'clock a moving picture show under the direction of Henry Bradford will be given in the gymnasium. Five films have been selected by the committee to make up the program. Following the exhibition of the films the reception will be held in Cooke hall. The hall has been redecorated and will present a pleasing appearance, as cut flowers have been used throughout in the decoration scheme.

Athletics and Music
Following the reception, members and guests will adjourn to the games hall where an athletic and musical program has been arranged. The Apollo Club will make its first appearance this evening and according to those who have watched the rehearsals, this musical organization will make a favorable impression at the debut.

Professor J. Warrick, who has made a decided success in the vocal line, both in Honolulu and on the mainland, will be heard twice during the evening. His first song will be "Even Braced Heart May Swell," by Gounod. His second number will be "A Tormentor's Love Song," by Couchois. During the evening the Y. M. C. A. orchestra will play selections from Victor Herbert's "Red Mill." The Apollo Club will sing Kipling's "Recessional."

One of the features of the evening will be the appearance of the Cantor Quartet, which made such a decided hit at the recent Healan show. Another number which scored heavily at the Healan show was the skillful "Over the Wireles Telephone." This will be presented at the open house meeting this evening. Exhibitions on the parallel bars will be given by C. A. Pease, William Schmidt, and M. C. Alexander. Following the exhibition the feds had All-Stars will meet in a championship match.

Club, director, George Andrus; first tenors, Philip Hall, Tom Carter, Theodore Awans and George Andrus; second tenors, W. H. Soper, Chester Livingston, Stacy Ayers and Leo E. Stiles; baritone, Stanley Livingston; C. F. Jenkins; Harold Vest, H. E. Newcomb, Frank Dunwell, Dr. S. D. Barbes, C. E. King and Earl G. Bartlett.

The orchestra includes George Andrus, director; violins, W. G. Robinson, A. R. Robinson, Harry Decker and Ralph Cuthbertson; cello, F. E. Stafford and Walter Beakbane; bass, Capt. H. Berger; flute, Sven Larsen and James Rodriguez; clarinet, R. K. Thomas; cornets, G. J. Boisse and Dr. J. A. Dungan; trombone, Fred W. Bekling; drums and traps, A. A. Peterson; and piano, A. E. Larimer.

In the "Wireless" are John Nene, Charles Ganzer, Harry Marshall, Neil Slattery, Harry Decker and W. H. Hutton.

350 ATTEND M. E. CHURCH SERVICES

Special services bidding farewell to 1916 and ushering in 1917 were held Sunday evening in the principal churches of Honolulu. One of the largest congregations to gather in a local church in years assembled at the Methodist church, more than 350 being present.

And the finest thing about our New Year's services was two real, old-fashioned conversions," says Rev. L. L. Looibourrow. "The coming forward of these persons formed a fitting close to the work of the church for 1916."

The evening service began at 8:45 o'clock, following two well-attended meetings of young people. The sermon was preached by Dr. J. H. Williams, whose topic was "Remembering and Forgetting." This was followed by motion pictures depicting the persecution of the early church.

After the pictures those present enjoyed a "get-acquainted" meeting, coffee and sandwiches being served. At 10:45 o'clock the closing service began, and about 150 persons remained to watch the old year out and the new year in.

Officers of the Salvation Army and members of the Christian and Central Union churches joined with the Methodist congregation in the services of the latter church.

FESTIVITIES RUN OVER TWO NIGHTS

New Year's Eve revelry extended over two nights instead of one, as 1916 was ushered out and 1917 given welcome, this being occasioned by the fact that the birth of the new year and new month came with the advent of a stormy morning. Thus it happened that most of the festivities were set a day ahead and occurred on Saturday night.

Downtown streets of Honolulu were gay, festive and fairly crowded on Saturday evening and early night though there was not quite the gaiety, life and bustle of other New Year's Eves. There was the usual tooting of horns, the usual gay crowds, the customary throwing of confetti, popping of fire crackers, but something seemed missing, and there was a sense of the premature in it all, a lack of spontaneity.

From all directions the crowds appeared to be drifting toward Bishop park where the band was playing and where an open air dance was held. Bishop from King to Hotel was the center of gaiety and noise for two or three hours, then the crowds drifted away, some to homes, some to restaurants, some to the dances on the Young roof and at Heine's Tavern, some to private entertainments or festivities and by midnight few remained on the streets.

With the approach of nightfall Sunday sounds of popping firecrackers came from various parts of the city. Downtown there were more than the usual Sunday evening numbers on the streets and unusual sounds as well. Squeals, popping and almost cowbells rang and automobiles filled with singing, laughing passengers sped hither and thither. And so the old year slowly expired until at midnight the birth of another year was noisily announced by tooting whistles, pistol fire and other noisy small arms and firecrackers and pyrotechnics. For half an hour or more this lasted, and then the silence of midnight fell, the revelry was ended, 1917 had been made duly welcome and the world might go on with its usual work and play.

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION WILL BEGIN THIS EVENING AT CANDLE LIGHT

Members of the Y. W. C. A. have been busy throughout the day decorating the association rooms for the open house this evening. A reception will be held this afternoon and dinner will be served to both men and women in the evening. The association has made plans to hold their reception at 8 o'clock in order not to interfere with the governor's reception or the open house meeting at the Y. M. C. A.

Beginning at candle light the following members of the board of directors will receive: Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. J. J. Shepherd, Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, Mrs. Charles T. Fitts, Mrs. F. B. Smith, Mrs. H. F. Jackson, Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. R. G. Moore, Mrs. C. R. Hemenway and Miss Alice Hopper. They will be assisted by members of the various committees.

During the reception refreshments will be served by members of the Tea and Coffee and the Girls' Guardian Society, all being dressed in Chinese costume. The decoration committee with

GUARD OFFICERS CALL ON PINKHAM

Officers of the National Guard stationed on Oahu called upon Governor Pinkham in a body this morning at 10 o'clock, meeting him at the executive chamber in the capital.

This reception by the governor is an annual affair which he holds always on New Year's day as commander-in-chief of the guard. White, with side arms and sash, and for those authorized, was worn.

Officers of the National Guard detailed to assist at the reception this afternoon are Capt. H. P. O'Sullivan, Henry Van Ousen, L. C. Buchanan, Frank L. Dougherty, G. K. Harrison and Sherwood M. Lowrey, and Lieut. Wilbur O. Woodward, Lawrence M. Judd and Willard Wayne.

The receptionist also was visited this morning for a little while by the governor and his staff of guard officers.

CHINESE DIVIDED ON NEW YEAR DAY

Chinese residents of Honolulu are celebrating the New Year. Flags of the republic may be seen floating from many of the house-tops and the Chinese pyrotechnics rank with the best display of the year. Many families are receiving in the custom of centuries and large groups have gathered together for a Chinese feast.

SCHOFIELD GIVES 1917 A WELCOME

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
Schofield Barracks, Jan. 1.—Schofield Barracks duly observed the New Year and the entire post enjoyed the day. All of the organizations had dinners that rivaled those of Christmas, and the larger number had amusements later or hither, where the New Year was started in a proper manner. A luncheon of a most novel kind was given by A. Company of the 1st Infantry, where it invited its friends in the garrison first to see the Imperial Stock Company at the theater and later to a Dutch supper in the amusements hall at the barracks, where a most attractive program was given.

At noon the various regimental commanders entertained for the officers and ladies of their regiments and in the afternoon practically the entire post turned out to play their respective games. Gen. and Mrs. Strong at the reception in Honolulu. This evening the various clubs in the garrison will keep open house for the officers and ladies. Gen. and Mrs. Charles G. Treat were at home on New Year's Eve and many called during the evening. During luncheon, while the regimental band gave concerts.

A fine concert was given by Band Leader Francis Leigh at the home of Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, 32nd Infantry.

More than 20 boys received instructions this morning and started out Beretania street where they came to a tree and received further instructions. After a race to the next post the boys became bewildered and it took some time before Smith and Jack Hirth reached the scene of the hidden treasure. Smith beat Hirth out by one minute.

LARGE MAIL IS ON MATSON BOAT

Bringing nine first cabin and seven steerage passengers to Honolulu from Yokohama the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela, Capt. Hans Thompson, commander arrived off port at 2 o'clock this morning, having been unable to get here Sunday afternoon owing to trouble with the valves of her engines which compelled her to leave for an hour and a half. She docked at Pier 6 at 8:30 this morning and was due to leave for San Francisco at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Cabin passengers disembarking here were G. Richter, a prominent business man of Shanghai, who will spend several months in Hawaii, accompanied by his wife, daughter and C. Smith; and a tourist party consisting of Dr. Norman E. Dittman, Mrs. J. F. Murphy and maid, and Mrs. P. Larsen and maid.

Interesting Through Passengers
Interesting through passengers on the Venezuela include E. Dulberg, on route to Germany, who has spent 42 years in the Chinese customs service, from which he was recently retired on a pension; C. Rasmussen, big game hunter and globe trotter, who has been hunting and exploring in India; F. Folger, a petroleum engineer, returning from Burma; Rev. McCrea, a Baptist missionary to China, accompanied by his wife and three children; Mr. McLearn, a mechanical engineer, who has been in Singapore for the past several months; Mr. Wohlgenuth, a fur dealer of Shanghai; A. B. Kittmiller, who has been teaching school in Singapore; A. N. Deroult, a Standard Oil man, and wife; F. M. Dearing and O. Warner, tea men.

Jolly Time Christmas
The passengers report having had a jolly time on Christmas Day. Chief Steward H. Werrey and G. McCormack, chef, were warmly complimented on the excellent dinner they served and their decoration of the dining saloon. An old-fashioned Christmas custom, in which the passengers gathered around the Christmas tree and sang songs, was arranged by Mr. Werrey. The youngsters aboard were made happy by heaps of candy and other presents.

Celebrated Old Year
Last night the ship's orchestra played the old year out and the new year in, with a special concert between 11 p. m. and 1 a. m. At midnight the liner's whistles and bells together with the bells of the passengers, celebrated a departing day.

For her first trip in the transpacific trade the Venezuela has made a decided hit, many of the passengers declaring her to be the most cozy and homelike ship they have ever traveled on. Much of this credit is due to Capt. Thompson, of whom the passengers speak very highly. Capt. Thompson is a skipper of many years' experience with the Pacific Mail and will be remembered as former commander of the China.

Cargo Is Valuable
Through passengers on the Venezuela are 43 cabin and 78 steerage. Through cargo is a capacity one, 3000 tons, every pound she can carry. It is worth easily a couple of million dollars as it included between 800 and 700 tons of rubber, worth $1,250,000; considerable silk and various Oriental merchandise of value. Honolulu cargo brought by the Venezuela was small, only 93 tons.

Steamer Goes 13 1/2 Knots
Purser E. R. Barrett reported a nice lot of passengers. Capt. Thompson said his steaming time from Yokohama to this port was 11 days and 7 hours against 12 days and 4 hours for the outward voyage. Pleasant weather was reported. The Venezuela did 13-1/2 knots from Shanghai to Kobe and the same from Kobe to Yokohama, excellent speed for a vessel of her build. Capt. Thompson slowed her down to 10 revolutions last night. He said he could have been in by 6 o'clock last evening.

Chief Engineer Hamilton and Chief Steward of the Venezuela left her at Yokohama and went to Vancouver on the Montego. They are bound for New York, where they will fit out the Colombia, due to leave San Francisco in March on her first voyage to the Orient.

With each day's delay costing her owners well above $6000, the China Mail liner China is three days late today and present indications are that repairs to her bursted main steam pipe will not be completed before tomorrow if at all. A new pipe may have to be put in.

This afternoon the China moved over from Pier 7 to Pier 6 after the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela had left. This morning it was planned to move the China to Navy Pier No. 2, but later it was decided to give the China Waller Pier 6. The T. K. K. liner Siberia Maru took the China's old berth this afternoon.

It now looks as though a new main steam pipe of steel will have to be installed, as attempts to brace the fissures in the old copper pipe have not met with success. The pipe is 7 1/2 inches in diameter.

The China was to have left Friday afternoon for the Orient. Her hour of departure was later set for Sunday evening, but now it will probably be tomorrow, as the Honolulu from Works could not promise to have the new pipe done and installed before then, although a tentative hour of departure had been set for 5 p. m. today at the steamer this morning.

CALENDARS OUT TOMORROW A. M.
Ten thousand of Alexander & Baldwin's steamer day calendars will be given away beginning tomorrow morning from the shipping department of the company, second floor of the Stangenwald building, also from the Merchant street taxi stand opposite.

According to Manager A. Hubert Jones of A. & B.'s insurance department today the demand for the timely calendars has increased that 1500 more have been printed for the first quarter of 1917 than were distributed the first of January last year.

The new calendar for the first quarter of 1917 bears the names of five new steamers not on the run when the last one was printed. These are the Persia, to arrive here in March on her maiden voyage; the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela and Ecuador, and the T. K. K. steamers Korea Maru and Siberia Maru.

"We have to print about 500 more every quarter to keep up with the demand," said Jones this morning.

VERY ROUGH VOYAGE HAD BY PERSIA MARU

At 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon the T. K. K. intermediate liner Persia Maru, which arrived at 1 p. m. that day from San Francisco, resumed her voyage to Yokohama, taking a number of steerage passengers from this port for the Orient.

Terrific bad weather was met by the Persia en route here from San Francisco. She made only six knots an hour the first day out from the coast and two the second day. Capt. K. Ozawa brought his vessel out of the storm without damage.

The Persia has a new ship's surgeon, Dr. L. W. Darrah, who succeeds Dr. C. J. Falon. The latter is said to have been "fired" by the T. K. K. for his failure to observe quarantine regulations in the case of a steerage passenger who died at sea on the last voyage over from Yokohama. The man's death resulted in absolute quarantine being placed on the Persia while she was here. Falon is said to have kept no case history of the sick man's disease.

Only 10 through first cabin passengers are on board the Persia, while the steerage list was also small.

The Matsun steamer Manda returned from Kahului and Kaunapali this morning and will steam for San Francisco at noon tomorrow from Pier 19.

SIBERIA MARU IN FROM YOKOHAMA
At 10:42 this morning the T. K. K. liner Siberia Maru was sighted off Barber's Point, coming from Yokohama. She entered port this afternoon following the departure of the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela. The China moved over to Pier 6 to leave Pier 7 clear for the Siberia, which is making her second eastbound voyage as a Togo Nisen Kaisha liner.

The Siberia brought 234 Asiatic steamer passengers, including 57 Filipinos, to Honolulu. Freight for this port was 1106 tons. The liner will leave for San Francisco at probably 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, taking the next mail to the States.

KAISER PRAISES TROOPS; CLAIMS RICH VICTORIES

In Speech From Throne Asserts Teuton Arms Prevail on Land and Sea

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles) LIEPZIG, Germany, Jan. 1.—On the eve of the new year Emperor William yesterday caused to be circulated to all his troops on land and sea a speech from the throne, calling on the children of the fatherland to remain steadfast to the ideals of Germany. He said in part:

"Soldiers of the Empire, another year of war is behind us. Germany has fought hard for its existence. We have made unheard of sacrifices but we have been rewarded by rich successes. Victory has perched on the double eagles of the Empire throughout the year.

"Throughout the year of 1916 the hopes of your enemies have been frustrated. In every theater of the world war the troops of the Fatherland have been victorious. German arms have been triumphant on sea as well as on land.

"A grateful country looks to you with unshaken confidence and is proud to rely on the valor of its soldiers who have not yet tasted the bitterness of defeat. Your incomparable and warlike spirit, your iron and never slackening will, your undying love for the Fatherland is a guarantee that victory will remain with your banners for another year.

TRUNKS OF OPIUM ARE BROKEN OPEN
Furnished with a good description of the man they are after, customs inspectors and agents of the custom house are combing Honolulu today to find and arrest a man known as B. Castoy, who, they believe, attempted to smuggle 401 tins of No. 1 Hongkong opium, worth $80 a tin, Honolulu prices, into this port on the Matsun steamer Manda.

"We think Castoy is a Spaniard. We have an excellent description of him and think we shall be able to get him," said Acting Collector of Customs Raymer Sharp today. "We have been working to apprehend the man since Saturday afternoon."

According to the acting collector, watch had been kept on two trunks billed to Castoy, who was a passenger on the Manda, since the trunks were put ashore at Pier 15 Tuesday. Inspector John Oliveira was detailed to watch the trunks. Shortly before noon Saturday Sharp gave orders to open them, Castoy not having appeared to claim them, evidently having fears that knowledge of their contents was suspected by the customs people.

Search of the trunks revealed the presence of 401 tins of No. 1 Hongkong opium, worth $50 a tin in Honolulu and $40 in San Francisco. At Honolulu prices this makes the seizure worth $32,080, of $16,040 San Francisco valuation.

No announcement of the seizure was made to the newspapers by the customs authorities, who withheld the news in order to have a better chance to capture Castoy. The news leaked out through some waterfront employees, who saw the trunks being opened and realized the contents were the illicit drug.

Acting Collector Sharp said today he believes the opium was sent from Hongkong into British Columbia or Mexico and was smuggled across the border from there to San Francisco, where it was put aboard the Manda to be smuggled into Honolulu.

LAWSON CAN SHOW WILSON EVIDENCE OF MANY 'LEAKS'
(Associated Press by Federal Wireles) BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 1.—Thomas W. Lawson, promoter, stock broker and publicity man, has sent a letter to Congressman Henry, offering to convince President Wilson of the necessity of suggesting a congressional investigation into the charges brought by Lawson that there is a government "leak" through which the stock manipulators of Wall Street have been informed of the intentions of the administration in advance.

The stock broker declares that he has positive information that the "leak of last week" was one of a series of such "leaks" which have resulted in the robbing of Americans of hundreds of millions of dollars.

"In particular," the letter continues, "I know of a few in which a number of men benefitted to the extent of $60,000,000."

INGERSOLL VEHICLE FOR LEAVING BIJOU TO BE 'A PAIR OF SHOES'

"A Pair of Shoes" will be used by the Ingersoll Musical Comedy Company as the vehicle in which to make its departure from the Bijou theater and from Honolulu. The shoes will be used tonight and again tomorrow night—then pau. These two performances will positively close the present engagement of these artists and with the closing Honolulu will lose one of the best musical aggregations seen here in some seasons.

Throughout the entire season the management has endeavored to cater to the desires of local theater-goers, and, by and large, it has met with unqualified success. There have been a few of the bills that have not met with instant favor, but the majority have scored immediately. Especially is this true of the last few weeks' offerings, which have been consistently above the average if it is given to local theater lovers to witness. "A Pair of Shoes" is right up in this class and should prove as large an evening's entertainment as any previous offering. It is 100 per cent comedy, while the singing and dancing averages about the same.

The entire company will bid farewell to Honolulu in this show and at its close will make a tour of the outside islands before returning to the mainland to take up the summer season's work in various parts of the country.

ROOMS ENOUGH, IS MARIE DORO IS VIEW OF TAYLOR EXPERT MILLINER

Because there are more hotel accommodations here this year than last and as there will be one less steamer, A. P. Taylor, secretary of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, believes that Honolulu will be able to accommodate all the tourists who arrive for the Carnival, although some may not be able to obtain the kind of rooms they desire.

"There are only a certain number of steamers to arrive here and the limit of their accommodations is known," said Taylor. "There may be 10,000 people write for rooms, but the fact remains that only a part of them can obtain berths on the steamers. The Northern Pacific will not run in February as it did last year, which makes even fewer berths available. There have been several new hotels started and additions made to old ones. I believe everybody will be accommodated."

C. C. von Hamm, secretary of the Territorial Hotel Company, said on Saturday that all requests for reservations for February were being refused and he has advised many to postpone their visit to Hawaii until later in the year. He says, however, that, as last year, a number of people who have made reservations may not come and thus open up rooms for others. Regardless of this fact the hotel company cannot promise accommodations until April. "We hoped to have the new wings at the Moana completed by February," he said, "but they will not be finished and ready for occupancy until May. We are doing everything possible to make room for the tourists. Six new cottages are being erected and in some cases rooms are being made smaller."

Speaking of the Knight Templars, Taylor says that large excursions like that cannot expect to obtain rooms in the same hotel but must be willing to scatter about the city.

LARRISON ASKS FOR BIG SURVEY

In a letter to Governor Pinkham Saturday George K. Larrison, district manager of the United States geologic survey, recommends an appropriation by the next legislature for the preparation of a topographic map of Maui, similar to that already prepared for Kauai.

Larrison shows that the geologic survey is willing to cooperate with the territory in preparation of the map. He points out the value of such a work from a military standpoint alone. Recommendation is also made for a topographic survey of a portion of Mauna Loa, and a letter from H. O. Wood, assistant volcanologist, is mentioned as urging this undertaking.

RAINS HEAVY BUT DAMAGE SLIGHT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, Dec. 29.—No damage has been reported from the heavy rains which fell in most parts of Maui last Saturday, Sunday and Monday, though some inconvenience resulted. Saturday's rain was so sudden and heavy throughout central Maui that the main road west of Paia was flooded so deeply that automobiles were unable to negotiate it until late in the afternoon. A number of machines which tried to go through were stuck, owing to the water being over carburetors or magnetos.

Good rains are reported from Lahaina and other parts of west Maui. The roads through most of the Maunaloa district are in bad condition on account of mud.

PROMOTIONISTS FAVOR AMUSEMENT PIER PLAN

That there is great need for an amusement pier in Honolulu was the consensus of opinion at the last meeting of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. Members of the committee believed that the project should be carried out for the entertainment of visitors, feeling that with the growth of the tourist business some place of amusement should be provided.

The committee expressed itself in favor of an amusement project where visitors can spend the evenings dancing, swimming and enjoying a musical program.

STAR-BULLETIN GIVES YOU
TODAY'S NEWS TODAY

"Common Ground," the current offering at the Liberty theater, with Marie Doro as the principal attraction, contains many interesting scenes and episodes, but probably the most unique is the evolutions of a hat.

Miss Doro makes one hat into 12—no mean task, it must be admitted, and were husbands to train their wives to be economical with their millinery to the same extent the funny man would be very shy on the matter.

Marie Doro is known as "The Kid," a worker in a paper flower factory. She is a child of the slums. She produces for herself a hat that is a monstrosity, but which she loves as none of the other girls has anything like it. She is removed from her slum environment and there is instilled into her child mind the elements of refinement and simplicity. During the 12 months of her mental metamorphosis the hat in question remains with the girl, but it undergoes as many changes as does its possessor until in its numerous changes her former friends would never recognize the object of their one-time envy. "Personally," says Miss Doro, "I do not recommend encouraging wives to remodel their millinery too often, although it might meet with favor from the head of the family."

EASTERN GIRL IS WON BY THE WEST

Hamlin Garland wrote a book and named it "Hesper of the Mountains." Wilfred North, Vitaphone producer, read the book and pronounced it good. He then undertook to translate the book to the screen and the result is to be seen at the Hawaii theater with Lillian Walker and Ewart Overton in the leading roles.

"Hesper of the Mountains" deals with a cultured young woman whose every environment had been luxury and refinement—a young woman with an idea that nothing is good unless it comes out of the East—meaning the Eastern portion of the United States. Circumstances force her to take up her abode in the West and she, promptly, despises and hates everything that is part or parcel of the West.

There comes a time when labor troubles are serious in the town in which she resides and she quickly makes up her mind that there is one thing for which the West must be given credit—breeding a race of men. With this changed viewpoint she rapidly assimilates the West and becomes a part thereof. Of course, there is a man in the story and it is the result of his misdeeds in the face of the gravest dangers that the maiden sees the light and gets a new idea of her adopted section of the country.

CONSTANTINE SYMPATHIZES WITH WILSON PEACE MOVE

ATHENS, Greece, Jan. 1. — King Constantine yesterday communicated a reply to the peace message that was recently promulgated by President Wilson. Although not committing his government to any definite action in the matter, the king of the Hellenes expressed warm admiration for the noble intentions of the President of the United States and his apparent sympathy with the nations that are suffering from the conflict.

In his communication the King said:

"The message of President Wilson cannot but contribute greatly to hastening a reestablishment of the normal conditions of life."

At a cabinet meeting held here yesterday the King discussed with members of the government the desperate condition in which the country was plunged because of the anomalous situation of Greece. He expressed the hope that the blockade which has been rigorously maintained by the Entente will be lifted not later than January 5.

BRITISH PRESS PRAISE ALLIES' REPLY TO TEUTONS
LONDON, England, Dec. 30. — The British press has received the text of the reply of the Allies to the peace suggestions of the Central Powers with enthusiasm and there have been street demonstrations of cheering approval in a majority of the cities of England and Scotland.

The Times, summing up the general effect of the note on the British people and on the other nations of the Entente, says: "Never before in the history of the world has there been such a union of the people for a common end. This is possible only because that end transcends all selfish and particular interests."

The Daily Despatch declares that the note issued at Paris is "a dignified refusal of pretended proffers of peace. No other answer than that which has been given was possible and public opinion had anticipated the tone and purport of the reply. The tone of the note will spur the Allies on to strain every effort to complete the work which has been well begun. It will also send a cold chill into the hearts of the enemy."

PARIS COUNCIL PLEDGED TO CARRY ON STRUGGLE
PARIS, France, Jan. 1. — At a meeting of the municipal council of this city held here yesterday a resolution was unanimously passed by the representatives of the various capitals of the Entente allies, pledging themselves to an indissoluble fraternity. The resolution in part read:

"At the dawn of 1917 we, the people of the various capitals now at war with the Central Powers, hereby re-affirm our law of unbreakable fraternity and again resolve on an unbreakable resolution to carry on the struggle until it ends in a decisive victory for the Allies."

BRITISH FREIGHTER HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DIVER
NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 31. — The presence of a British destroyer looting as the heaviest saved from destruction the British freighter Chicago City which arrived here yesterday.

According to the press the vessel, which left Bristol on the 11th, was stopped by a German submarine on the 14th when 150 miles off Fastnet rock. The members of the crew were on the point of entering the lifeboats to leave the ship to her fate when the funnels of a swift destroyer were seen coming up over the horizon.

With little ceremony the Teutonic sea was immediately plunged beneath the waves after the officer in charge had alerted the war vessel approaching.

BRILLIANT PAGEANT MARKS CROWNING OF KING CHARLES
BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 1. — With ancient rites and in the presence of 1200 Magyar nobles, Emperor Charles I of Austria was crowned King of Hungary yesterday. Sitting on the throne with the young king was his royal consort, Queen Zita, and together they received the homage of the flower of the proud people in Europe.

King Ferdinand of Bulgaria was the only foreign monarch who attended the coronation.

RUMANIA FORMS NEW CABINET AT JASSY
LONDON, England, Dec. 31. — Official notice was received here yesterday that the Rumanian government had formed a new cabinet at Jassy, the new capital which is in the north-east of Rumania. The reconstructed cabinet is formed as follows: Bratianu, premier; Vlaicu, minister of war; Constantin, minister of the interior; Cernomachevici, minister of justice; Greceanu, minister of industry and commerce; and Andonesco, minister of finance.

MISSING ALL
LONDON, England, Dec. 31. — From news received through the Exchange Telegraph at Amsterdam it is learned that Gen. von Hisinger, German governor-general of Belgium, is seriously ill with pneumonia at Brussels. The Kaiser, it is said, has sent von Hisinger a message of sympathy.

ATHENS, Greece, Jan. 1. — Count Di Bander, the Italian minister to Greece, yesterday presented the demands of the Italian government to the state department of Greece for full reparation for losses sustained by the Italian government during the recent clash with Greek troops.

ous records. If it does this port will benefit greatly, because every steamer calling in here for bunker coal spends money for provisions and supplies as well as paying for the fuel taken aboard.

W. R. FARRINGTON, president of Ad Club: For its members throughout all Hawaii, the Ad Club believes that 1917 will bring a sincere appreciation of the exceptional opportunity Hawaii offers for work in connection with American development in this part of the world. To Honolulu in particular the Ad Club believes that the New Year will bring great progress in the elimination of petty personalities and narrow politics. This will guarantee more time and energy for the great and mandatory work that must be done to lift Honolulu from the country town class and make a beautiful, well-kept city with an individually all its own.

A. P. TAYLOR, secretary Hawaii Promotion Committee: Hawaii has had an exceptionally good "tourist crop" during 1916 and the coming of the Great Northern and other lines has been a boon to travel here. One of the features of the year has been the visits paid the mainland by the members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. They have discovered new situations which will mean much to the promotion work in the future.

During the past year Hawaii has been placed on the map as a real summer resort as well as winter watering place, and lecturers, writers and travelers have set the stamp of their approval on Hawaii as an all-year-around resort. Hawaii has received more publicity through the press of the mainland in 1916 than ever before. It appears that the "tourist crop" for 1917 will far surpass that of the past year.

W. Y. NOLLEY, manager Federal Wireless: My wish for 1917 is that people send just as many wireless messages to the coast as they have done this year. Our business has been mighty good in 1916, thank you.

RAYMOND C. BROWN, secretary Chamber of Commerce: I wish every citizen of this city, the same as every member of the Chamber of Commerce, could be brought to realize that he owes to his city, to his neighbor and to himself, that participation in the work of the chamber which can only be limited by his maximum ability.

A. M. CRISTY, deputy city attorney: I wish that civic pride would not first look at its own pocket book before deciding on an issue.

ROBERT HORNBER, supervisor: I wish that all dogs were barless.

WILLIAM LARSEN, supervisor: My wish this year is that I won't have to change my mind again on any issue.

SHERIFF CHARLES H. ROSE: The best Happy New Year I can wish is no trouble for anyone.

CHIEF ARTHUR McDUFFIE: I hope everyone has the best kind of a New Year.

DR. R. G. AYER: Happy New Year to all good reporters and an extra one for the emergency hospital. I hope we have as much room as we need next year.

JAMES A. RATH: Our "babies' welfare" work starts January 1, so I have only one great wish: "Happy New Year" for better babies, better citizens.

FRED C. SMITH, Oahu Railway: My New Year's wish is lots of prosperity for Hawaii.

CAPT. DANIEL KAMAHU: I don't wish for any more rain for New Year's, but I'm not exactly in favor of a drought.

CHIEF CHARLES H. THURSTON: My New Year's wish is good luck for everyone and may all our fires be little ones.

PHILIP POIRIER, chief clerk Moana Hotel: Happy New Year to Mineral Products. May she never come down.

VALENTINO MORONI, manager Seaside and Moana Hotels: I can only wish for myself, the hotels and Honolulu generally the best tourist season ever.

D. L. CONKLING, city treasurer: I have resolved not to hold any hard feelings against the supervisors no matter what they do.

HARRY MURRAY, superintendent of the water department: I wish that I might be allowed to lay water pipes on top of the ground in order that the road department won't have to fill up the trenches after my gangs get through.

H. Z. WESCOTT, city purchasing agent: I wish that all the city departments would order their supplies through this office. As it stands now this office might just as well be abolished.

EUGENE BUFFANDEAU, clerk of the board of supervisors: I wish that the board of supervisors would continue under the progressive lines which they have laid out and that they are all respected.

HENRY FREITAS, building and school inspector: I wish that the legislature would not pro rata its appropriations for new school buildings and also give the supervisors more DAISY, the elephant: I wish that more children would come out to Kapiolani park and enjoy rides on my back. Don Hollinger needs the money to purchase more animals.

CHARLES ARNOLD, supervisor: I wish people would not object to the way I want to construct the roads of Honolulu.

T. B. THIELE, manager Young and Hawaiian Hotels: A happy New Year to our visitors, of course.

A. T. LONGLEY, superintendent Territorial Marketing Division: We want a bigger market for the New Year with more service done to the purchaser and producer alike.

MISS JANET DEWAR, superintendent Kapiolani Children's hospital: My New Year's wish goes out to the kiddies. May we ease as many little bodies of pain this coming year as we have the last and more, too.

W. P. S. HAWK, manager Marconi Wireless: Happy New Year to the "Popping Place of the Pacific."

CHARLES F. CHILLINGWORTH, prosecuting attorney: My wish is that there will not be quite so many cases on the police calendar this year.

SAMUEL F. CHILLINGWORTH, attorney: Happy New Year to Hawaii. Hope I see my 50th New Year in the islands. This is my 49th.

WILLIAM F. FENNEL, liquor inspector: I don't want so many drunks this year.

REV. C. H. MEVEY, Kalihit Union church: Happy New Year to the officers' reserve corps. I think it is a great thing.

ERIC ROBERT DUBBIN, Salvation Army: May our organization's good work in the islands continue throughout the next year.

CHARLES J. MCCARTHY: That the year just starting may be as successful throughout the islands from a financial standpoint as has the one just gone. I can't make a better wish for the territory than this one.

SUPERAGETTES WARNED NOT TO DISPLAY FLAGS AT INAUGURAL PARADE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1. — In reply to a request of the woman suffrage leaders to participate in the inaugural parade on March 4, notice was given that unless the organizations promised not to display banners demanding universal suffrage, they would not be allowed a place in the line of march. This action has been taken, officials say, to head off any possible demonstration that would interfere with the inaugural program.

PREMATURE PEACE MORE CURSE THAN BLESSING

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1. — That there is a strong sentiment in this country against further efforts to bring about peace in Europe until the time shall be ripe for such a move was evidenced yesterday when documents addressed to the nation at large and signed by 50 prelates and prominent laymen of various denominations throughout the country were made public.

These communications declare that the signers are united in the belief that premature peace in Europe would be "more of a curse than a blessing," and is to be avoided.

NO NEW YEAR HOLIDAY FOR NOVA SCOTIANS

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 1. — The imperial munitions board has issued a call to the munition workers of Nova Scotia calling upon them to give up their holiday today, as the number of shells sent to the war fronts has fallen below that promised by the board.

MINERAL PRODUCTS IN 1916 THREE BILLION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1. — From figures that have been compiled by the department of the interior the estimated value of all mineral products of the United States during 1916 is $3,000,000,000. This enormous figure is 26 per cent more than the products of 1915.

In a letter to friends at Saskatoon, Mr. F. Gifford, of the Ball Rock Farm, Maymont, Saskatchewan, Canada, says: "Thanks to Frutola and Traxo I am alive. I lay on my back for sixteen days, suffering the agonies of a dozen deaths. I began taking Frutola and was relieved of a great many gall stones. My health is now fully restored."

Frutola and Traxo are compounded from the original Edsall formulae at the Pinus Laboratories in Monticello, Ill. and can be purchased in Honolulu of Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale distributors and leading drug stores; a doctor's prescription is not necessary. Frutola is a pure fruit oil and acts as an intestinal lubricant and disintegrates the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, discharging the accumulated waste to the sufferer's intense relief. One dose is usually sufficient to indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a tonic-alternative that is most effective to rebuild and restore the weakened, rundown system.

MAIL FORMS FOR

INCOME RETURNS

Officials in the internal revenue office Saturday mailed blank forms
provided for the filing of income tax returns—for corporations above $75, 000 capital, below $75,000 and to individuals with incomes of $3000 or more.
Penalties are severe for failing to file returns whether any tax is due or not and special attention is directed to these.

In the class above $75,000 the penalty is one-half of the tax due or no exceptions; a fine of $500 or six months' imprisonment for such officers as are answerable for the failure to make returns. These penalties may be combined as deemed just.

The returns are to be made during the month of January, and any tax
due should accompany the forms
when they are sent back to the revenue office.

Other corporation returns and individual income tax returns are due on or before March 1, and these forms
were sent out today.

All corporations are required to file
whether they have a net income or not,
and individuals with net incomes in excess of $3000—irrespective of what source it is from—must file returns.
The penalty for failure of such corporations to file may be as high as $10,000 and for individuals from $20 to $1000.

ACID STOMACHS
ARE DANGEROUS
Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble
Said to Be Due to Acidity.

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure.

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure
of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity,
commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patient medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have acquired remarkable results by the use of ordinary disordered medicines, which by neutralizing the acidity of the food, remove the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub liniment on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless, so long as the contents of the stomach
remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of bisulphate magnesium from their druggist, and take a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass
of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co. and Holler Co.—Advertisement.

Try Murine Eye Remedy

SYRUP OF FIGS

FOR CROSS, SICK,
FEVERISH CHILD

If Little Stomach is Sour, Liver
Torpid or Bowels
Clogged

Mothers can rest easy after giving
"California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and
you have a well, playful child again.
Children simply will not take the time
from play to empty their bowels, and
they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see
if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love
it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold or a sore throat, diarrhea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing"
should always be the first treatment
given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle
of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made
by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size hand back with contempt any other
fig syrup.—Adv.

ALLIES DEMAND
REPARATION IN REPLY TO "PEACE" MOVE

Attempts made by other nations to bring about a pacific solution of what was purely a local conflict. Germany turned a deaf ear to all efforts made by the Allies to avert a general conflagration of Europe.

Ruthless Invasion
Instead the long-trained troops of the German Empire ruthlessly invaded Belgium, the neutrality of which country Germany had entered into a solemn pact to protect. It is this invading power which now asks us to discuss peace, that then haughtily proclaimed to the world that international treaties were mere scraps of paper and that the necessity of a nation knows no law.

"At the present moment these sham
offers for peace on the part of Germany rest wholly on scraps of paper.
They are based on the war map which Germany imagines is a permanent condition and upon which she is ready to talk peace. Germany must be taught to recognize that this 'war
map' represents nothing more than a superficial passing phrase of the great situation which the Allies have prepared to face and that their presented military positions do not represent the real strength of the German nation."

No Peace Possible
"Any peace concluded on such terms
as Germany suggests would be wholly to the advantage of the aggressor who
after two years finds herself baffled
and unable to attain a goal which she fondly imagined she could reach in
two months."

"The Allies are forced to assert
again and for all time that there is no peace possible so long as they have not secured reparation for violated
rights of nations and peoples, the recognition of the principle of nationality
and the free exercise of small states."

"There is no peace possible as long as the Allies have not brought about
a settlement calculated to end once
and for all the militaristic forces which for a long time have constituted
a perpetual menace to the peace of nations and that will afford an effective guarantee for the future security
of the world."

BACKACHE
(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

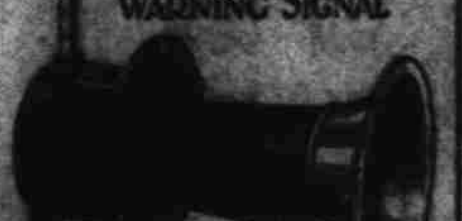

In spite of the best care one takes
of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order.
The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys.

The kidneys are the scavengers and
they work day and night in separating
the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized
and include such symptoms as backache, depressions, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state is to drink plenty of pure water and obtain a small amount of Anuric, which
is dispensed by most every druggist.
Anuric is inexpensive and should be taken before meals. It is much more powerful than any other remedy, and many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim to uric acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist for Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, and which is dispensed by nearly every druggist in
the land.—Adv.

People are realizing more and more
every day that the kidneys, just as do
the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an elimina-tive organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest,
and then the trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and
many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim to uric
acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist
for Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, and which is dispensed by nearly every druggist in
the land.—Adv.

(Associated Press by Federal Wireline)
PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 1.—One of the bitterest and most sensational political fights in the history of Arizona politics was given its most sensational chapter today when Thomas J. Campbell, the Republican candidate for governor at the November election, was inaugurated, but has been barred from occupation of the gubernatorial office in the state capital.

Governor George W. P. Hunt, the Democratic incumbent, who has been declared defeated, still claims the office, but was given no inauguration ceremonies. When Campbell went to the executive office he found them locked. Campbell attempted a forcible entry, but was repulsed by armed deputies, a precaution against a possible violent clash between adherents of Campbell and Governor Hunt.

The state canvassing board has declared Campbell elected by a majority of 30 votes. Hunt is contesting the decision, alleging fraud. The courts are still suspending the ballots.

Hunt declares that he will be in the capital tomorrow.

The official count of Arizona shows that Governor Campbell had a majority of 30 votes over George W. P. Hunt. The Democratic candidate for re-election, Hunt's campaign manager, in his opinion, is a "big game" player. He is a "big game" player. He is a "big game" player.

Kuhio Ready To Protest On Forbes' Visit

If Charles R. Forbes, superintendent of public works, goes to Washington on his present mission, he will meet with an emphatic rebuff from Hawaii's delegate, Prince Kuhio, according to a report which comes to the Star-Bulletin on unquestionable authority.

This paper is informed that prior to his departure for the capital, Kuhio told friends here that if Forbes went to the capital on a legislative or political mission, the delegate would file a protest with the secretary of the interior. Kuhio is quoted as saying that Forbes "huffed up" several pieces of legislation on his last visit to Washington. It was during that visit, too, that Forbes is supposed to have taken the "confidential" report on the Hawaii National Guard which has down a vigorous protest from Kuhio. It will be remembered that Kuhio and Forbes exchanged bitter personalities and criticism over the National Guard report incident. This report, made by an inspector-in-chief, is declared to have reflected seriously on Hawaiians in the guard as well as on the administration of former Adjutant Gen. Jones.

Many commentaries have been made concerning Forbes' mainline trip. He denied that it had any political significance and said he did not expect to go to Washington, but some people here have been saying that he would later be found visiting the capital.

INCOME TAX OF HAWAII HAS BIG GROWTH IN YEAR

Corporations Pay Nearly 72 Per Cent More Than They Did During 1915

Total collection made by the internal revenue office in the district of Hawaii amounted for the fiscal year of 1916 to $54,127.35, according to the report of the internal revenue department just made public.

This is the largest payment ever made by the local department to the central office and a portion of the largest collection ever credited to the whole department, for the total collections of all internal revenue offices of the United States was $12,723,287.71, a gain of $2,043,236.81 over the previous year.

Hawaii shows an enormous increase in percentage of taxes paid under the corporation income tax, the gain over last year amounting to 71.8 per cent. The year 1916 brought in $14,127.35 for the total income tax of $14,127.35, while the same taxes for last year were $18,655.77.

Comparison With New York.

In comparison with the corporation returns the earnings of individual corporations averaged twice as much in Hawaii as in New York, which state is the highest in amount of the whole Union. Hawaii's corporations paid 1.5 per cent of the total.

R. C. Brown to Ask the Local Chamber to Cooperate With Mainland Chambers

The suggestion made in the Star-Bulletin of holding a great Olympiad here to which schools of the mainland will be invited to send representatives, found concrete form today when Raymond C. Brown, secretary, announced that at the next meeting of the chamber of commerce he would recommend to that body that it get in touch with the mainland chambers and ask them to cooperate.

"I am heartily in favor of the idea," Brown said this morning, "and I see no reason why it cannot be done. My plan would be to get in the first year in 1917, which will give the boys time to get ready after school and return to time for the opening of school. It is no time now to hold it in 1917, but we shall have more time to advertise and it will probably be the means of greatly increasing the summer travel in that year."

Brown says that he would not confine it simply to track and field sports, but open it to all contests in which individuals and not teams were concerned. He says that it is too expensive to send teams, he believes, although it could be done if it were greatly added to the attractiveness of the event.

"There has been no suggestion made so far," Brown said, "which has met with such instant approval by all the people as this one."

By a strenuous attack they entered into the hostile positions and repulsed strong counterattacks. Between Himmels and the Buzau river our troops were again under violent fighting.

WILSON'S MOVE MADE WITHOUT CONFERRING WITH ANY OTHER NATION, ASSERTS GOVERNMENT

British Press Expresses Hope Entente's Answer to President Will Be Courteous—Reply to Teutons Does Not Conclude Debate

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireline)
PARIS, France, Jan. 1.—The Entente reply to President Wilson's note to the belligerents will follow the course of the Entente answer to the Teutons. England and France have already agreed to the form of the note and it has been submitted to the members of the Allies.

BERLIN, Germany, Jan. 1.—A flat refusal to end the war in the way the Teutons regard the Allies' answer to their peace proposals.

The text of the Entente reply, as made public in Paris Saturday night just after its communication to Washington for transmission, was telegraphed to Berlin and has already been given wide publicity among the Central Powers. The general impression is that the Allies decline to consider stopping the conflict.

Expressions here are of regret at this attitude, because of the suffering to neutral nations in consequence of continued conflict. German comment adds that it is especially remarkable that the Entente note mentions "recognition of the principle of nationality" and "rights of nations and peoples" in view of the Entente's declaration that they will conquer Constantinople and the Dardanelles.

British Counsel "Courteous Reply"

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 1.—A comment on the diplomatic action that has arisen comes from British newspapers. The Morning Guardian today says: "We hope that the Entente reply to President Wilson will be in a different spirit from the reply to Germany."

The semi-official Westminster Gazette sees some prospect of further negotiations, saying: "The reply of the Entente Allies does not conclude the debate. It is to be hoped that the reply to President Wilson will be courteous."

"There is nothing in history analogous to this exchange of manifestos between belligerents while the armies are still locked in battle."

Secretary Burleson Suggests Congress Ignore Recommendation He Made

Information that will be interesting to readers of newspapers and magazines and that is of special interest to Honolulu papers comes by the last mail. It now appears unlikely that postal rates which would be practically prohibitive on newspapers and magazines will be contained in coming legislation. Postmaster-General Burleson suggests to house committee on postoffice that it disregard the recommendation he made in his message of June 30 be disregarded.

Writing to Representative Moon, chairman of the postoffice committee, Postmaster-General Burleson says in part:

"Since writing my annual report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1916, there has appeared before me a committee representing the Agricultural Publishers' Association, also other representatives of periodicals and magazines, all of whom earnestly urged that no steps be taken at this time to increase the rates of postage on second class matter. These representatives claim that the war and other unusual conditions have recently caused an abnormal increase in the price of paper, and such increases, coming as they did after the contracts had been entered into for the advertising matter, seriously threaten the financial stability of these periodicals and publications.

"Because of these facts, which were not available at the time my report was written, I feel constrained to write you this letter and state that while I still adhere to the recommendations on this subject contained in my annual report, I feel that most serious consideration should be given to the representations of these publishers. If conditions are as stated it might be well to consider an increase in rates of postage on second class matter should be variable.

"Professor J. H. Burleson, a decided success, has been both in Honolulu and elsewhere. His first song was 'Bravest Heart May Swell,' by his second number will be 'Doctor's Love Song,' by Couching the evening the Y. M. C. at the opera will play selections from his leg.

One of the features of the evening will be the recitation of the poem 'The Red Mill,' by Herbert.

As the report doesn't tell this, Hawaii's reading public will have to guess at the answer. The report does show, however, that there is one man who, in point of income, towers above his fellows. That man, whoever he is, has a yearly income between $250,000 and $300,000, according to the report.

His nearest competitor is some $50,000 behind, for there is another individual in the territory whose income is between $100,000 and $200,000.

Eight persons in the islands get an annual income of between $100,000 and $150,000; there are 12 whose incomes are between $75,000 and $100,000; 15 whose incomes are between $50,000 and $75,000; 22 between $25,000 and $50,000; 20 between $20,000 and $25,000; 22 between $15,000 and $20,000; 22 from $10,000 to $15,000; 234 from $5,000 to $10,000; 135 from $4,000 to $5,000, and 172 from $3,000 to $4,000.

This is a total of 781 individuals who paid in $112,144.95 for the fiscal year of 1916, an average of $145 each. New York averaged $410 each.

Local drinkers of hard booze are falling off in revenue gained from these taxes can be taken as proof. Beer taxes have increased, on the other hand, showing that the miller quencher of thirst is taking the place of the hot stuff. The reverse is true in the mainland, judging by the figures.

Hawaii's tobacco revenue returns were $6,044.66, which looks small compared with Virginia's $6,671,192.42 from that source.

As an example of the prosperity which the United States has experienced in the last year might be taken figures for all corporation taxes of the Union. Not a single state or district showed a decrease, while in Kansas, Maryland, New Mexico and South Carolina the increase was more than 100 per cent. As stated above, Hawaii's was 11.8 per cent.

BOOZE AND GAS DO NOT MIX WELL

Too much liquor was the cause of a serious auto accident on Kalakaua Saturday night, of a bad motorcycle spill near the same place Sunday afternoon, of several other minor accidents and of over half of approximately 45 arrests made by the police on Saturday and Sunday.

C. W. Sleeper, said to have been under the influence of liquor, crashed into a liquor delivery wagon of Otaki in the auto accident, careening into an electric light pole, scattering bottles of beer all over the street and tearing the machine to pieces. No one was seriously hurt. Sleeper has been released on a $100 bond to appear Tuesday.

Chief McDuffie was following Sleeper and trying to catch him to arrest him for heedless driving when the accident occurred. The Japanese driver was thrown from his vehicle and Sleeper went through the windshield. A man and a woman who were with him escaped unhurt to hide in the bushes where they were discovered by McDuffie.

The motorcycle affair Sunday afternoon came when Louis Pui tried to take the turn from the right to the left side of Kalakaua near John Ena road where the new pavement is being laid. He was going to Waikiki with a friend riding tandem and had passed three autos at a terrific rate just before he swung out for the curve to be precipitated into the bushes.

W. M. Hutton, detective and police officer, who was in one of the cars which had been passed, was the first man on the scene. He called for the ambulance but when it arrived Pui had entirely recovered from the fall under his machine. Nevertheless he took a ride to the police station, charged with heedless driving and operating his machine without a license. He is out on $110 bail to appear Tuesday. The police say he had been drinking.

Other accidents and troubles which came to the attention of the police was the crash of John Ena's car with auto No. 827 on Beretania near Alapai Saturday afternoon and the fracture of Tai San Lee's shoulder when he fell from Edward Willis' truck at the corner of Queen and Nuuanu streets the same afternoon.

T. K. Sung's bicycle was damaged on Hotel near Maunakea Sunday by an unknown truck, and auto No. 2475, driven by F. Bederman, ran into Chowling on horseback near Fort Shafter Sunday, injuring the animal so severely that it had to be shot.

Ray Ellis fell from the third floor of the Aloha hotel Saturday, fracturing his leg. The Aloha hotel had four stitches on his leg at the emergency hospital.

MRS. C. N. ARNOLD TAKEN INTO FOLD

Mrs. Cecelia Nellson Arnold, widow of the late Charles N. Arnold, died Sunday, following a week's illness. The body was to be on view at Williams' undertaking parlors after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the same parlors. The body will be cremated and the ashes given burial in Nuuanu cemetery, where the husband of the deceased is buried. The late husband was a Civil War veteran and prominent in G. A. R. circles.

Mrs. Arnold, who as one of the best known Hawaiian women of her day, was born in Honolulu on January 5, 1858, and would be 59 years old next Friday, had she lived. Her husband died here in 1890. She was educated at the Holy Cross school, Episcopal, in Lahaina, Maui, and was one of the first students of that institution.

Surviving the deceased are Supervisor Charles N. Arnold and Arthur K. Arnold, sons; Miss Alice Arnold, Mrs. M. L. Gerst, Mrs. Arthur McDuffie, Miss Lillian C. Arnold and Miss Leinuala Y. Arnold, daughters, all of them, with the exception of Lillian, being at the bedside when their mother passed away. There are also eight grandchildren and a number of nephews and nieces.

Miss Lillian C. Arnold, who has been away in the mainland, will arrive in the Matsushita tomorrow morning from San Francisco, and expected to be with her mother at their joint birthday, which falls next Friday.

Mrs. Arnold was for many years connected with the Seaside Hotel at Waikiki, and up to her death conducted the Halekuanani Hotel, also at Waikiki, which she owned.

St. Francis Hotel To Boost Hawaii Strong in 1917

"We are going to do our best to boom Hawaii in 1917" is the New Year greeting sent to the Hawaii Promotion Committee by the manager of the St. Francis Hotel. In a letter to A. P. Taylor, secretary of the committee, the manager announces that one of the booklets, the Hawaiian Primer, will be placed in every room in the hotel.

Taylor says that this offer guarantees one of the best bits of publicity that Hawaii could receive. The Palace Hotel has already asked for a number of booklets which would be given to all the guests of the hotel. Each arriving guest in the two big hotels will be given full information regarding Hawaii. The St. Francis Hotel also offered to place on display, and advertising posters regarding Hawaii in a prominent place in the lobby of the Powell street hostelry.

CRACK SHOTS IN CLOSING CONTEST

Record shooting on the National Guard rifle range came to an end yesterday. On account of the holidays only a few men of the guard have taken advantage of record shooting this year.

Lieut. Thomas Evans, the crack shot of the National Guard team that went to Florida last year, upheld his shooting ability by making the second highest score in the contest this year, his score being 268 points, which puts him in the expert class and the winner of the trophy awarded by Maj. M. M. Johnson of the 1st Battalion, John Stone, another member of the rifle team, made a good score, his total running up to 263.

On account of unfavorable weather during the past three Sundays on the range many of the former expert rifle men fell far below their usual scores. Cpl. Albert Akana is the winner of a special prize offered by Capt. Henry O'Sullivan of Company A for making the highest score in that command.

JUDGE J. L. COKE QUITE WILLING

Circuit Judge James L. Coke for successor to Federal Judge Charles F. Clemons, resigned.

This is the present day prediction of local political prophets who have been trying to figure out who would succeed Judge Clemons, whose resignation has been accepted, to take effect January 15.

A wireless despatch says it is understood in the national capital that Judge Coke will get the bench position and that it is likely he will be recommended to the president by Attorney General Gregory.

Judge Coke did not express surprise today when informed of the contents of the despatch, but declared he has heard nothing about it.

"I am far from dissatisfied with the position I now hold," Judge Coke says, "but any man would welcome a promotion of that nature. If the attorney general feels that I am qualified for the position I would be flattered and would accept the appointment. But the whole proposition is new to me."

It is reported that a cablegram recently was received in local official circles requesting information regarding Judge Coke's qualifications for what is believed to be a possible appointment to the federal bench. But the person receiving this cablegram is required to keep its contents confidential and will not discuss it.

Samuel B. Kemp, assistant U. S. attorney, is being mentioned as a likely successor to Hon. E. M. Watson, former associate justice of the supreme court. U. S. Attorney S. C. Huber also has been mentioned as a successor to Judge Clemons.

SERIOUS CHARGE CAUSES ARREST

On a charge made by a middle-aged Chinese man, Chew Tuck, of an infamous crime, A. B. Vierra, for some time with the Honolulu fire department, was arrested early this morning by the police. The defendant is now out on a bond placed by his attorney of $500.

Chew made the complaint to the police last night and was taken to the emergency hospital. Shortly afterwards Vierra was arrested behind the Hawaii Meat Company store, where the offense is said to have occurred. The police say he was identified by Chew, and that there was sufficient incriminating evidence against him to bear out the charge.

Chief Thurston of the fire department said this morning that Vierra had been with the department at the Central station for about eight months but that his connections were severed last night—the end of the year—before anything was known of the latest charge. The chief had intended to file charges of drunkenness and neglect of duty against Vierra with the civil service commission and had already received Vierra's resignation.

POLICE TAKE PRECAUTION FOR NEW YEAR'S TROUBLE WHICH DOES NOT APPEAR

Sheriff Rose reports that Saturday night and New Year's Eve were especially quiet and orderly and that, though extra precautions had been taken to handle any disturbance, nothing out of the ordinary occurred.

There was a rumor that the soldiers would mob the police out of spite for the trouble a week ago with the officers but the nearest to a riot was in Kailua where a couple of civilians were said to be assaulted by a gang of soldiers. The crowd dispersed before the police could identify any trouble makers.

LONDON GAVE DENIAL TO CANARD UPON SOLDIER

In a letter to a friend, Lieut. James D. Wilson of the navy recruiting station, Minneapolis, Minn., the late Jack London on August 5, last year, just after he had returned to the mainland from Hawaii, emphatically denied he was the author of a statement to the effect that "being a soldier is the lowest aim in life."

London says, in his letter: "In reply to your inquiry I will state that I never wrote a line of 'Good Soldier' canard. My opinion is that it behooves a country like the United States to maintain a reasonable preparedness for defense against any country or nation that at any time may go out upon the way of war to carve earth space for itself out of weaker and unprepared nations."

SCHOFIELD NOTES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) FORT SHAFER, Jan. 1.—The officers are all busy with numerous reports regarding efficiency of subordinate officers, regular muster and inspection returns, cards stating preference for certain stations and arms of service, property return and a vast amount of routine, statistical reports which are always necessary and required January 1 of each year.

The report of the 2nd Infantry library shows a great increase in the number of books of that collection due to the expenditure for new and important volumes from the library fund, collected by voluntary contributions from the officers of the regiment for the benefit of the command.

Chapel services during the week will be Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. and morning prayer at 10 a. m. on Monday, New Year's Day, and Saturday, Feast of the Epiphany, evensong at 5 p. m.

REPORT PINKHAM TO APPEAL FROM VAUGHAN OPINION

Understood He Will Act for Filipino Guardsmen; Says Nothing Definite

That Governor Pinkham is planning to appeal from the decision handed down by Federal Judge Horace W. Vaughan on Saturday denying Filipinos the right to become naturalized American citizens, is the substance of a report that has gained circulation in National Guard circles.

Governor Pinkham today declined to affirm or deny the report. He said: "There is nothing to confirm. I am not ready to act. I have not yet conferred with the proper authorities. There is nothing definite, and cannot be until Wednesday or Thursday."

Alfred Ocampo, police officer and detective, whose petition for naturalization was denied in the decision, says that an officer of the National Guard told him that Governor Pinkham would appeal in behalf of the Filipino guardsmen. Ocampo adds he has not yet given thought to the matter of a personal appeal.

Judge Vaughan's decision has caused no little flurry in guard circles, especially among the Filipino companies. More than 100 members of Filipino companies already have filed in federal court their declarations of intention to become American citizens.

This rush of Filipinos to the court to secure their first papers began several months ago, shortly after Federal Judge C. F. Clemons filed a decision holding that Filipinos were eligible for American citizenship. Under the Clemons decision three Filipinos already have been naturalized.

OLD WORSHIPER OF STATUE REMEMBERED FIRST OF NEW YEAR

It has been a real "Happy New Year" for the statue worshipper. A veritable shower of silver and cigars has fallen into his hands—and pockets—and his wrinkled face was wreathed in smiles as he took up his accustomed post in the shade near the capitol entrance this morning.

The old fellow has had nothing to say, however; in fact, he never talks. But there is a light in his eyes that is as good as a spoken word of thanks when he stretches forth his hand for the gratuities that those who pass along the street are wont to give him on New Years.

A clerk of circuit court remembered him this morning with a handful of cigars and some silver. Others went out of their way to present their annual gift. But, with all of it, this strange worshiper of the statue never comments nor thanks. He only smiles.

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler's, astonishes Honolulu people. Because Adler's-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler's-ka is astonishing. YEAR'S DIVORCES NET BIG INCOME; $4160 IS HANDED TO TREASURY

Approximately $4160 was paid into the office of the clerk of the circuit court during 1916 as costs in the filing of suits for divorce. This amount is larger than for several years. According to the records, 320 divorce suits were filed in the circuit court during the year just closed, and for every suit that is filed $13 must be paid as costs to cover the filing. In some cases, however, when a woman of scanty means files a suit, she is required to pay only $4 for the necessary stamps.

"But," says Clerk Henry Smith, "we always manage to get the remainder of the costs." During the last year a record has been established in the matter of divorce suits filed. A majority of the complainants were Japanese. Desertion and non-support, with an occasional charge of cruelty, were the most common grounds.

Many Festivities and Receptions Usher in The New Year

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION WILL BEGIN THIS EVENING AT CANDLE LIGHT

As a rule the Y. M. C. A. claims one night each year as its night, and New Year's night has been selected as the date for the big activities of the association. A program has been prepared for this evening which promises to eclipse anything held during last year at the association.

Beginning the new year the association will hold an open house and president's reception. Ladies have been especially invited to be present and the event this evening promises to be both a social and athletic affair. The complete program will include the reception, music, athletics and a general New Year's program.

President and Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Larimer, with the members of the board of directors and wives will be in the building at 5 o'clock. They will receive until 8:30 when the guests of the association will adjourn to the games hall.

Program Starts Early
The evening program will begin at 5:30, when the cafeteria, which is as a rule open only to the men, will be thrown open to the members of the fair sex and it is expected that a number of parties will be given. During the dinner hour Kail's quintet will furnish the music for the diners.

Between the hours of 7 o'clock and 8 o'clock a moving picture show under the direction of Henry Bredhoff will be given in the gymnasium. The films have been selected by the committee to make up the program. Following the exhibition of the films the reception will be held in Cooke hall. The hall has been redecorated and will present a pleasing appearance, as cut flowers have been used throughout in the decoration scheme.

Athletics and Music
Following the reception, members and guests will adjourn to the games hall where an athletic and musical program has been arranged. The Apollo Club will make its first appearance this evening and according to those who have watched the rehearsals, this musical organization will make a favorable impression at the debut.

Professor J. Wanless, who has made a decided success in the vocal line, both in Honolulu and on the mainland, will be heard twice during the evening. His first song will be, "Even Bravest Heart May Swell," by Guend. His second number will be, "A Foreteller's Love Song," by Couchois. During the evening the Y. M. C. A. orchestra will play selections from Victor Herbert's "Red Mills." The Apollo Club will sing "Reveries."

One of the features of the evening will be the appearance of the Eastern Quartet, which made such a decided hit at the recent Heian show. Another number which scored heavily at the Heian show was the skit entitled, "Over the Wireless Telephone." This will be presented at the open house meeting this evening. Exhibitions on the parallel bars will be given by C. A. Pease, William Schmidt, and H. C. Alexander. Following the exhibition the Reds and All-Stars will meet in a championship match.

Club, director, George Andrus; first tenors, Philip Hall, Tom Carter, Theodore A. Wines and George Andrus; second tenors, W. H. Soper, Chester Livingston, Stacy Ayers and Leo B. Stiles; baritone, Stanley Livingston; C. F. Jenkins, Harold Yost, H. B. Newcomb, Frank Dunwell, Dr. S. D. Barnes, C. E. King and Earl G. Bartlett.

The orchestra includes George Andrus, director; violins, W. G. Robinson, A. R. Robinson, Harry Decker and Ralph Robertson; cello, F. E. Stafford and Walter Beakbane; bass, Capt. H. Berser; flute, Sven Larsen and James Rodriguez; clarinet, R. K. Thomas; cornets, G. J. Boisse and Dr. J. A. Dungan; trombone, Fred W. Behling; drums and traps, A. A. Feidreid; and piano, A. E. Larimer.

In the "Wireless" are John Ness, Charles Ganzer, Harry Marshall, Nell Slattery, Harry Decker and W. H. Hutton.

350 ATTEND M. E. CHURCH SERVICES
Special services bidding farewell to 1916 and ushering in 1917 were held Sunday evening in the principal churches of Honolulu. One of the largest congregations to gather in a local church in years assembled at the Methodist church, more than 350 being present.

"And the finest thing about our New Year's services was two real, old-fashioned conversions," says Rev. L. L. Lofbourrow. "The coming forward of these persons formed a fitting close to the work of the church for 1916."

The evening service began at 8:45 o'clock, following two well-attended meetings of young people. The sermon was preached by Dr. J. H. Williams, whose topic was "Remembering and Forgetting." This was followed by motion pictures depicting the persecution of the early church.

After the pictures those present enjoyed a "get-acquainted" meeting, coffee and sandwiches being served. At 10:45 o'clock the closing service began, and about 150 persons remained to watch the old year out and the new year in.

Officers of the Salvation Army and members of the Christian and Central United churches joined with the Methodist congregation in the services at the latter church.

FESTIVITIES RUN OVER TWO NIGHTS
New Year's Eve revelry extended over two nights instead of one, as 1916 was ushered out and 1917 given welcome, tide being occasioned by the fact that the birth of the new year and new month came with the advent of a cloudy morning. Thus it happened that most of the festivities were set a day ahead and occurred on Saturday night.

Downtown streets of Honolulu were gay, festive and fairly crowded on Saturday evening and early night though there was not quite the gaiety, life and bustle of other New Year's Eves. There was the usual tooting of horns, the usual gay crowds, the customary showering of confetti, popping of fire crackers, but something seemed missing and there was a sense of the premature in it all, a lack of spontaneity.

From all directions the crowds appeared to be drifting toward Bishop park where the band was playing and where an open air dance was held. Bishop from King to Hotel was the center of gaiety and noise for two or three hours, then the crowds drifted away, some to homes, some to restaurants, some to the dances on the Young roof and at Heine's Tavern, some to private entertainments or festivities and by midnight few remained on the streets.

With the approach of midnight Sunday sounds of popping firecrackers came from various parts of the city. Downtown there were more than the usual Sunday evening numbers on the streets and unusual sounds as well. Squibs popped and sizzled, cowbells jangled and automobiles filled with singing, laughing passengers sped hither and thither. And so the old year slowly expired until at midnight the birth of another year was noisily announced by tooting whistles, pistol fire and other noisy small arms and firecrackers and pyrotechnics. For half an hour or more this lasted and then the silence of midnight fell, the revelry was ended, 1917 had been made duly welcome and the world might go on with its usual work and play.

JAMES SMITH CAPTURES TREASURE HUNT PRIZE AT Y. M. C. A. TODAY

James Smith of the Senators won the treasure hunt prize at the Y. M. C. A. this morning. Twenty minutes after he had started out in search of the hidden treasure he uncovered a card which gave him a membership in the association for one year. The treasure was found on the lawn not three feet from the association building.

More than 20 boys received instructions this morning and started out Beretania street where they came to a tree and received further instructions. After a race to the next post the boys became befuddled and it took some time before Smith and Jack Hjorth reached the scene of the hidden treasure. Smith beat Hjorth out by one minute.

GOVERNOR HOLDS HIS RECEPTION
Beginning at 2:30 this afternoon, the big New Year reception by Governor Pinkham is being held at the residence of Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Hakefield and Lunalia.

With Governor Pinkham in the receiving line were to be Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Wade Warren Thayer. Ladies of the cabinet were to assist at the reception also.

The governor stood in the main reception hall of the big residence while the guests passed by to greet him. The room was set with red gladioli and Transvaal daisies.

On the big lawn, just to the right of the governor's residence, hung a huge American flag. Ferns and palms combined to make a simple and pretty scheme of decoration on the lawn.

The hallway back of the governor and at his left, also the entrance to the building, was set with decorations of red lilies and snapdragons. Tea and coffee were served in the house and fruit punch in the big temporary pavilion in front of the residence. Mats had been laid upon the lawn to walk upon as paths. The lawn itself was decorated entirely with American and Hawaiian flags, save for a few Oriental lanterns that hung in the pavilion.

Through the kindness of Mayor Lane the Hawaiian Band was present, playing from another pavilion just back of the first. The reception will last until 5:30 o'clock. Many of the guests will go from there direct to Waikiki, where Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong are to receive from 4 to 6 o'clock.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Jan. 1.—Schofield barracks duty observed the New Year and the entire post enjoyed the day. All of the organizations had dinners that rivaled those of Christmas and the larger number had amusements later or smokers, where the New Year was started in a proper manner. A luncheon of a most novel kind was given by the Company of the 1st Infantry, where it invited its friends in the garrison first to see the Ingersoll Stock Company at the theater and later to a Dutch supper in the amusement hall at the barracks, where a most attractive program was given.

At noon the various regimental commanders, entertained for the officers and ladies of their regiments and in the afternoon practically the entire post turned out to pay their respects to Gen. and Mrs. Strong at the reception in Honolulu. This evening the various clubs in the garrison will keep open house for the officers and ladies. Gen. and Mrs. Charles G. Treat were at home on New Year's Eve and many called during the evening. During luncheon, while the regimental commanders entertained, the regimental band gave concerts.

A fine concert was given by Band Leader Francis Leigh at the home of Col. and Mrs. E. W. Atkinson, 32nd Infantry.

CHINESE DIVIDED ON NEW YEAR DAY
Chinese residents of Honolulu are celebrating the New Year. Flags of the republic may be seen floating from many of the house-tops and the Chinese pyrotechnics rank with the best display of the year. Many families are receiving in the custom of centuries and large groups have gathered together for a Chinese feast.

Officers of the National Guard stationed on Oahu called upon Governor Pinkham in a body this morning at 10 o'clock, meeting him at the executive chamber in the capitol.

This reception by the governor is an annual affair which he holds always on New Year's day as commander-in-chief of the guard. White, with side arms, and aiguillettes for those authorized, was worn.

Officers of the National Guard detailed to assist at the reception this afternoon are Capt. H. P. O'Sullivan, Henry Van Gieson, L. G. Blackman, Frank J. Dougherty, G. K. Larrison and Sherwood M. Lowrey, and 1st Lieuts. Wilbur C. Woodward, Lawrence M. Judd and Willard Wayne.

The party also was visited this morning for a little while by the governor and his staff of guard officers.

GUARD OFFICERS CALL ON PINKHAM
In celebration of New Year's Day and to wish Consul-General R. Moroi, and through him the emperor, a happy and prosperous New Year several hundred Japanese gathered this morning at the Japanese consulate. From 9 o'clock until 10:30 a continuous stream of Japanese officials, priests, bankers and well known businessmen came to pay their respect, and to the emperor, silently facing towards the east, drank a small cup of wine.

Throughout the day all Japanese homes will be open to friends, and this evening various Japanese clubs will celebrate. Among these are the Japanese merchants' association, medical association and Yoto club. Practically all the Japanese stores, banks and printing offices were closed today.

Formerly the Japanese New Year came, as did the Chinese, in February, but 50 years ago, by a decree of the emperor, it was changed to agree with the Occidental calendar.

Firecrackers and noise making instruments have been the rule in the section of the city where the Chinese live and from early morning the children have shown their idea of the New Year by shooting off the various colored firecrackers, made in China.

A few older Chinese have taken no part in the celebration of the New Year, preferring to uphold the old customs by making their celebration at the time of the monarchy celebrations in China. As a rule, the younger Chinese of the city have adopted the new year as the period in which to celebrate and the Chinese throughout the city are doing their part to usher in 1917.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. have been busy throughout the day decorating the association rooms for the open house this evening. A reception will be held this afternoon and dinner will be served to both men and women in the evening. The association has made plans to hold their reception at 5 o'clock in order not to interfere with the governor's reception or the open house meeting at the Y. M. C. A.

Beginning at candle light the following members of the board of directors will receive: Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. I. J. Shepherd, Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, Mrs. Charles T. Fitts, Mrs. F. B. Smith, Mrs. H. F. Jackson, Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. R. G. Moore, Mrs. C. R. Hemenway and Miss Alice Hooper. They will be assisted by members of the various committees.

During the reception refreshments will be served by members of the Tse Mui Chai and the Girls' Guardian Society, all being dressed in Chinese costume. The decoration committee with Mrs. J. B. Guard as chairman has arranged palms and poinsettias with candles as the decorative scheme. During the reception the Hawaiian Girls' Club will sing, accompanied by their ukuleles. The Kaai quartet will play during the dinner hour.

Special provision has been made for the children, and all will be taken care of in the gymnasium. A program of games has been arranged for the young people. Dinner will be served in the cafeteria from 5:45 until 6:30. Men will be welcome at the dinner.

Beginning at 6:30 Miss Leonora Andersen will conduct a model gymnasium class, giving an idea of the work that is being done in physical training. This will be followed by class work in esthetic dancing. Beginning at 7 o'clock there will be a basketball game between the Normal Hookipa Club and the Hawaiian Girls' Club. The entertainment will be concluded in time for those who wish to be present at the Y. M. C. A. reception.

MONDAY, JANUARY 1, 1917.

THE WAR WILL GO ON.

THE COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON?

Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen opens bright with promise. There is promise to the world that the greatest and most exhaustive war in history may come to a close ere this year wanes into the past. There is the certain prospect that the United States will receive another blessing of remarkable material prosperity, and hope that this material wealth will be accompanied by the moral development without which mere riches constitute a curse instead of a blessing.

For Hawaii there is promise of another year of high sugar prices and large output, and of prosperity in other industries and business. Times here are "easy" and they will continue to be easy. Many considerable fortunes are being made, but the most gratifying feature of local prosperity is the fact that it is being "spread around."

The Star-Bulletin has several wishes for the New Year, besides that standing wish of health and happiness not only to our patrons but to all Hawaii.

We wish particularly for this territory better transportation facilities for passengers and freight to and from the coast. The merchants need it sorely in their businesses. It is needed to realize the full benefits of the tourist traffic.

We wish and are confident of a year of growth, of a bigger, cleaner, more aggressively colonized city in 1917 than in any year preceding.

We wish for the passage of the municipal bond issue, and for a municipal election next April and May fought out on real live issues instead of mere party lines, prejudice and outworn catch words.

We wish for systematic effort directed toward furnishing more amusement for the tourist.

We wish for closer cooperation between the people and their elected and appointed officials, and for a greater concentration of effort by these officials upon speedy action toward carrying through public improvements.

There are other wishes, but if even a portion of the foregoing come true in reasonable measure, Hawaii will have no reason to quarrel with the year 1917.

RESIDENT WILSON'S PEACE SUGGESTIONS

The full text of the president's note to the belligerents having been received here, it is evident that if anybody in Washington blundered in the issuance of this note, it was the secretary of state who attempted to explain it. The first "explanatory" statement which Mr. Lansing issued served only to arouse the suspicion that the note might have a double meaning, a suspicion which the president promptly dealt with. He called Mr. Lansing into conference and the latter then made his second "explanation," which, from one in his high office, is a plain and almost a humble apology.

As for Mr. Wilson's note, it is, like all of his state papers, a cameo of contemporary English. It is better than the majority of his official statements also in that there is practically nothing of the fine philosophy which he has a penchant for overdoing. It is direct and forcible.

As will be seen by a reading of the note, which is published on Page 5 today, the president finds ample justification for his unprecedented action. He points out precisely why the greatest of neutral powers cannot in justice and humanity allow the present opportunity to pass without directing the thoughts of the belligerents toward a definition of the terms for which they are fighting. To all the critics who question the propriety of Mr. Wilson's act, a careful reading of the full text of the note is recommended.

The president's course, historians have been quick to point out, has no precedent in world history. For the matter of that, neither has the action of the Teutons, undefeated belligerents, in proposing peace at this stage of the great war-game.

Readers of history point out that the nearest parallel in world history for President Wilson's action was President Roosevelt's move in 1905 to end the war between Russia and Japan. But in that case the president had been assured his proposal would not be disagreeable to either of the belligerents, and, curiously enough, it was through Emperor William of Germany that the preliminary soundings were introduced into the suggestion that President Roosevelt take the steps.

Before that time President Roosevelt had conferred with Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, and with Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister. In the Russian capital the American ambassador, George von Meyer, had conversations with Count Lamsdorff, the Russian minister for foreign affairs. In Tokyo, American Minister Grignon had conversations with Count Komura, the Japanese minister for foreign affairs. The outcome of all these preliminary moves was that President Roosevelt was assured that he would not be humiliated by a rejection of his action.

Therefore well-informed spectators of the new drama centering in Washington are firmly convinced that the president must have had some assurances that his note would not be brusquely ignored, and that the position of the United States as the possible mediator later on would not be imperiled.

There's

Germany's peace proposals have met an Entente reply which ought to be plain to the world as well as to the Teutons. The Allies have no intention of bartering for peace on any such terms as the Teutons will offer.

Quite evidently both sides will demand the maximum, and hope to get something between this and the minimum. But neither events in the war arena nor developments in ministerial and diplomatic circles indicate that the minimum of the two sides are at all coincident. It may be taken for granted that the Allies will not make concessions. The Teutons, to secure peace, probably would yield a good deal, but it is entirely unlikely that they would come anywhere near meeting the demands which the Allies must stand upon as absolutely essential.

For instance, the Allies certainly would insist on the full restoration of Belgium and a heavy indemnity for the outrages this country has suffered. Germany would probably agree to restore Belgium, but only with governmental strings upon the kingdom, and Germany is not likely to agree to the principle of indemnification. For if Germany once yields on this principle, she must pay indemnities to Russia, Serbia and perhaps Rumania.

The Allies must also insist upon the restoration to France of Alsace-Lorraine. It has been said with good reason that if the Entente group were to yield on this point, France would break from the group immediately. For France has consecrated the last drop of blood in the veins of her heroic people to redeeming the lost provinces.

The Allies must also recompense Italy by giving her the Austrian territory for which she is fighting, must recompense Serbia with a slice of Bulgaria, Rumania with Transylvania, Russia with the Dardanelles and much of Asia Minor, perhaps also with part of Austria.

These are objects which the Allies must insist upon. There might be slight changes, but this is virtually the minimum below which the Entente Powers cannot go.

Their maximum—put forward as a basis for trading in the peace conference—would be much more ambitious. The despatch from Copenhagen last week which suggested that the Allies would demand the partition of the German navy and the neutralization of the Kiel canal was treated here as a joke, but if the "irreconcilables" in the British government have their way, Germany is to be crushed not only as a military power but as a commercial power. Certainly the Allies hope to reduce the Teutons to such straits that they can carry out a program rigidly limiting standing armies and naval construction. They would also like to dispossess Germany permanently of her overseas colonies and possessions, for they fear German trade after the war.

Such drastic demands as reparation by Germany for ships sunk, on the basis of ton for ton; indemnification for every life lost in the submarine warfare; and the democratization of the German government show that the Allies expect to win the war after a struggle which will totally exhaust the adversary. The main point is that the Allies have no intention whatever of letting peace talk interfere with their war program. Their leaders declare that England has just begun to fight. With Lloyd George at the helm, and the whole country turned into a war-machine, their leaders should prophesy correctly. The Star-Bulletin believes that Germany's proposals will encourage the Allies in the belief that the enemy wants to quit.

JUDGE VAUGHAN'S DECISION.

Suggestions have been made from time to time in the past and are now renewed that the law requiring members of the National Guard of Hawaii to be citizens be repealed. The reason for the renewal of this suggestion is that Federal Judge Vaughan last Saturday handed down a very important decision denying the privilege of naturalization to Filipinos, and there are something like 750 Filipinos in the guard.

It is true that the status of Filipinos as regards naturalization is deplorable, due to the two conflicting decisions, the first by Judge Clemons, the second by Judge Vaughan. To the Filipinos it seems an injustice quite contrary to the treatment they have been taught is accorded those who dwell under the Stars and Stripes. Yet it would be a grave step indeed to repeal the law requiring members of the national guard to be citizens. The ideal of home defense—and Hawaii's guard is for home defense—is that of citizen defenders.

Prompt appeal to the highest tribunals, pressing the cases to early decision, is the wiser way of settlement. The war department has already approved the enlistment of Filipinos here, and their status as regards membership in the guard will be unchanged while the law and the facts are being threshed out in the courts.

ATTORNEY KINNEY ASKS ACCOUNTING

A suit for an accounting has been filed in circuit court by William A. Kinney, former Honolulu attorney and now residing in Nova Scotia, against Attorneys Mason P. Prosser, Robbins B. Anderson and Benjamin L. Marx, former law partners of the plaintiff. Kinney claims that, without any agreement having been reached, the defendants, on December 5, 1912, filed with the treasurer of the territory a notice of his withdrawal from the firm with the intent, it is alleged, to exclude him from participation in the profits from all pending and future business of the partnership.

Since the filing of the purported withdrawal, the complaint alleges, the plaintiff has been excluded from any part or share in the business, and that while he has received various small payments since December 5, 1912, these have amounted to but little. Plaintiff further alleges that defendants have retained either the whole or an undue proportion of two fees of $5000 and $10,000, which it is contended, were earned prior to December 5, 1912.

Kinney alleges that the defendants have refused to render a proper accounting to and settlement with him, and he asks that the defendants be ordered to pay what shall appear to be due him, including a fair value of his interest in the business. Attorney William B. Lymer is representing Kinney. It is understood that the law firm of Thompson, Milverton & Cathcart has been retained by the defendants.

LETTERS

DAMAGES TO THE COUNTY

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir: From one who believes that sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

Mauka side of King street, near Pawa Junction, is a hole dug by the water department, running right across the road. There have been broken springs and curses many on account of that hole.

It seems that there ought to be a law compelling those who dig up the road to cover it to the condition that formerly prevailed.

A woman the other day got damages for her injured foot. Why can't a man who owns a machine and who pays taxes, and a high tax at that, get redress for broken springs and damages to the car from the effects of that hole and other holes which the water works have dug and left dangerous to those who travel over them.

If your car is in any way damaged see a lawyer and bring a civil suit against the county. Might be the county would wake up to see that the tax payer has some kick coming, and do the right thing.

A TAXPAYER.

THE CONTRAST

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir: Apropos of the satisfaction and results of the National Guard of Hawaii encampment of instruction recently held at Red Hill, near this city, the following letter, written by one of the boys of the National Guard of the state of Alabama, recently mobilized at Montgomery, that state, for a session of instruction, to Hon. George Huddleston, Alabama's representative in Washington, is quite interesting. It follows:

"August 24, 1916.
"Hon. George Huddleston,
"Washington, D. C."

"Dear Mr. Huddleston: We have numbers of young lawyers and other professionals and businessmen in our battery, who are suffering great sacrifices by being here. I am one of the number. We do not feel like staying here, when the only advantage we get is sleeping out in the open air and teaching our stomachs that we can live on fat sowbells and peas. We get no military training here. As a matter of fact, it is impossible to get it. We have no horses and there is no prospect of getting any, and everybody knows a man can't learn and practise artillery without horses. Of course I have to be careful what I say, but I feel that I can say to you it is the greatest comedy of errors I have ever seen. Shakespeare would turn over in his grave in disgust if he could get a vision of it, and if he were here he would lower his head in chagrin and jealousy and order every volume of his famous Comedy of Errors burned up. You can't imagine the great hardship it is to the fellows. Several of them think it would help if you would make a speech in Congress before it adjourns, setting up facts above outlined and showing what a great injustice a supposedly democratic government does to its young men, citizens who have spent years and money in college training for life by herding them up like cattle

PUT OLD CARES BEHIND YOU

This is no time to fret or pine
For sorrows that are past.
Put these behind you, friend o' mine,
In mind alone they last.
With radiant bliss Dame Future smiles;
So come, be of good cheer.
Heed not false sorrow's cruel wiles—
'Twill be a glad New Year.

No matter, friend, whom you may meet
When on your "rounds" today.
Life is but short, let's make it sweet
For all who come our way.
Come, wear a smile, 'tis worth your while,
And wish all who are here.
In spite of Old Dame Grouch's wile,
'A bright and glad New Year.'

JAPAN MAY LEARN IN WIRELESS USE

"A good opportunity has been given me since my arrival to study wireless systems here," said Engineer M. Sakai of the Japanese communication department, who has been stopping in the islands to investigate the wireless systems on his way to the United States and Europe. "I am well satisfied and appreciative of what has been done for me by the wireless authorities."

The differences between the Kahuku wireless station and our Funabashi station in its wireless system are great. One is the Marconi system and other the German system. Therefore, the arrangements of the plants are also very different, but there is no difference in efficiency. Yet one thing that I particularly felt is necessity of an improvement upon our Funabashi station by adopting the Marconi duplex system.

"The duplex system of wireless is not used in Japan at present, though it has been taken up lately in the United States and some European countries."

"I understand that Marconi Telegraph Company is intending to adopt such system on this island soon. I was told that the wireless station at Koko Head is for that purpose. The principle aim of this duplex system is to establish two stations, with one station to be used only for despatching and the other only for receiving. We must adopt such system in our country as soon as possible."

"Our Funabashi station often received San Francisco messages direct without having a relay at Kahuku station, but it is not for the public, I believe, although it will soon be possible to communicate with San Francisco regularly. The wireless will be more useful than the cable, as it is quicker in communication and cheaper in rates."

"On account of war in Europe, and Japan is one of the allies, the United States government is very strict in examination of messages in order to keep strict neutrality, and we are not allowed to use cryptograph or private codes."

"At present there are only 20 communications per day on an average between the Kahuku and Funabashi wireless stations, but this will increase after the European war is over."

POLICEMAN LUHI HURT WHEN HIS HORSE FALLS

Mounted Policeman David Luhi of the Kaimuki district was injured this morning on his way to the station to report after his night's work when his horse, Halfax, which won the policeman's race not long ago, slipped with him on Beretania street, near Alapai, and crushed him severely. The policeman was found unconscious where he had fallen by a private-car driver, who picked him up and hurried him to the emergency hospital. He is resting there now in considerable pain, but out of danger with no bones broken.

FIRE DEPARTMENT HAS THREE NEW YEAR RUNS

The fire department last night made three runs in three hours, more runs for the one day than any time during the year.

At the Ah Leong block at Queen and Punchbowl street a mosquito netting was on fire; in one of Dr. Li's cottages on Kukul lane was another small blaze, and in one of the stores on King street, opposite the railway depot, a large bunch of firecrackers which was mysteriously set off furnished considerable excitement.

and training them in military science by having them pull the triggers of empty guns. We think we are men who can think and reason. None of us can see either the justice of it or the wisdom of it, either politically or economically. We certainly would appreciate your help."

LARGE MAIL IS ON MATSON BOAT

Bringing nine first cabin and seven steerage passengers to Honolulu from Yokohama the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela, Capt. Hans Thompson, commander, arrived off port at 2 o'clock this morning, having been unable to get here Sunday afternoon owing to trouble with the valves of her engines which compelled her to heave to for an hour and a half. She docked at Pier 6 at 8:30 this morning and was due to leave for San Francisco at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Capt. Thompson's disembarking here were G. Richter, a prominent business man of Shanghai, who will spend several months in Hawaii, accompanied by his wife, daughter and C. Smith; and a tourist party consisting of Dr. Norman E. Dittman, Mrs. J. F. Murphy and maid, and Mrs. P. Larsen and maid.

Interesting Through Passengers
The interesting through passengers on the Venezuela include E. Dulberg, en route to Germany, who has spent 42 years in the Chinese customs service, from which he was recently retired; a mission, C. Rasmussen, big game hunter and globe trotter, who has been hunting and exploring in India; F. Polzer, a petroleum engineer, returning from Burma; Rev. McCrea, a Baptist missionary to China, accompanied by his wife and three children; Mr. McLearn, a mechanical engineer, who has been in Singapore for the past several months; Mr. Wohlgemuth, a fur dealer of Shanghai; A. B. Kitzmiller, who has been teaching school in Singapore; A. N. Derouin, a Standard Oil man, and wife; F. M. Dearing and D. Warner, tea men.

Jolly Time Christmas
The passengers report having had a jolly time on Christmas Day. Chief Steward H. Verrey and G. McCormack, chief, were warmly complimented on the excellent dinner they served and their decoration of the dining saloon. An old-fashioned Christmas custom, in which the passengers gathered around the Christmas tree and sang songs, was arranged by Mr. Verrey. The youngsters aboard were made happy by heaps of candy and other presents.

Celebrated Old Year
Last night the ship's orchestra played the old year out and the new year in with a special concert between 11 p. m. and 1 a. m. At midnight the ship's whistles and bells, together with the yells of the passengers, created a deafening din.

For her first trip in the transpacific trade the Venezuela has made a decided "hit," many of the passengers declaring her to be the most cozy and home-like ship they have ever traveled on. Much of this credit is due to Capt. Thompson, of whom the passengers speak very highly. Capt. Thompson is a skipper of many years' experience with the Pacific Mail and will be remembered as former commander of the China.

Cargo is Valuable
Through passengers on the Venezuela are 48 cabin and 78 steerage. Through cargo is a capacity one, 3000 tons, every pound she can carry. It is worth easily a couple of million dollars as it included between 600 and 700 tons of rubber, worth $1,250,000; considerable silk and various Oriental merchandise of value. Honolulu cargo brought by the Venezuela was small, only 92 tons.

Purser F. R. Barrett reported a nice lot of passengers. Capt. Thompson said his steaming time from Yokohama to this port was 11 days and 7 hours against 12 days and 4 hours for the outward voyage. Pleasant weather was reported. The Venezuela did 13 1/2 knots from Shanghai to Kobe and the same from Kobe to Yokohama, excellent speed for a vessel of her build. Capt. Thompson slowed her down to 50 revolutions last night. He said he could have been in by 6 o'clock last evening.

Chief Engineer Hamilton and Chief Steward Macpherson of the Venezuela left her at Yokohama and went to Vancouver in the Montague. They are bound for New York, where they will fit out the Columbia, due to leave San Francisco in March on her first voyage to the Orient.

DELAY TO CHINA COSTS BIG SUM

With each day's delay costing her owners well above $5000, the China Mail liner China is three days late today and present indications are that repairs to her bursted main steam pipe will not be completed before tomorrow if at all. A new pipe may have to be put in.

This afternoon the China moved over from Pier 7 to Pier 6 after the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela had left. This morning it was planned to move the China to Navy Pier No. 2, but later it was decided to give the China Mailer Pier 6. The T. K. K. liner Siberia Maru took the China's old berth this afternoon.

It now looks as though a new main steam pipe of steel will have to be installed, as attempts to braze the fissures in the old copper pipe have not met with success. The pipe is 7 1/2 inches in diameter.

The China was to have left Friday afternoon for the Orient. Her hour of departure was later set for Sunday evening, but now it will probably be tomorrow, as the Honolulu Iron Works could not promise to have the new pipe done and installed before then, although a tentative hour of departure had been set for 5 p. m. today at the steamer this morning.

CALENDARS OUT TOMORROW A. M.

Ten thousand of Alexander & Baldwin's steamer day calendars will be given away beginning tomorrow morning from the shipping department of the company, second floor of the Steingewald building, also from the Merchants' street taxi stand opposite.

According to Manager A. Hubert Jones of A. & B.'s insurance department today the demand for the timely calendars has so increased that 1500 more have been printed for the first quarter of 1917 than were distributed the first of January last year.

The new calendar for the first quarter of 1917 bears the names of five new steamers not on the run when the last one was printed. These are the Maui, to arrive here in March on her maiden voyage; the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela and Ecuador, and the T. K. K. steamers Korea Maru and Siberia Maru.

"We have to print about 500 more every quarter to keep up with the demand," said Jones this morning.

VERY ROUGH VOYAGE HAD BY PERSIA MARU

At 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon the T. K. K. intermediate liner Persia Maru, which arrived at 1 p. m. that day from San Francisco, resumed her voyage to Yokohama, taking a number of steerage passengers from this port for the Orient.

Terribly bad weather was met by the Persia en route here from San Francisco. She made only six knots an hour the first day out from the coast and two the second day. Capt. K. Ozawa brought his vessel out of the storm without damage.

The Persia has a new ship's surgeon, Dr. L. W. Darrach, who succeeds Dr. C. J. Paton. The latter is said to have been "fired" by the T. K. K. for his failure to observe quarantine regulations in the case of a steerage passenger who died at sea on the last voyage over from Yokohama. The man's death resulted in absolute quarantine being placed on the Persia while she was here. Paton is said to have kept no case history of the sick man's disease.

Only 19 through first cabin passengers were on board the Persia, while the steerage list was also small.

There are 176 cabin and 16 steerage passengers, 613 bales of mail and 8344 tons of cargo on board the Matson liner Matsushita for Honolulu according to a wireless received Sunday by Castle & Cooke from Capt. Charles Peterson of the liner.

The Matsushita is on time and unless delayed today will arrive off port at 8:30 to-morrow morning, to dock at Pier 15 about 7:30. The wireless gives the following news about the steamer's big Honolulu cargo, segregating the items as follows:

Express matter, 11 packages; feed, 1197 tons; hay, 1139 tons; railroad delivery, 1430 tons; quartermaster, 557 tons; cement, five lots, 300, 276, 300, 116, 104, probably tons; fertilizer, two lots, 109 and 114 tons; brick, two lots, 80,000 each; box shooks, three lots, 11,863, 1988 and 126 bundles; steel and iron lifts, two 3-ton, three 3-ton, five 1-ton, one 7-ton, three 4-ton, four 6-ton, one 3-ton; 38 autos.

Hilo cargo is 684 tons, including 94 tons of feed, 11 packages of express matter and eight autos.

Among the Honolulu returners on the Matsushita are Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, who witnessed the launching of the new Matsushita flag ship Maui in San Francisco December 23 at the Union Iron Works. Tenney is president and general manager of Castle & Cooke, the local Matson agency.

The Matsushita steamer Manoa returned from Kahului and Kaunapali this morning and will steam for San Francisco at noon tomorrow from Pier 19.

SIBERIA MARU IN FROM YOKOHAMA

At 10:42 this morning the T. K. K. liner Siberia Maru was sighted off Barber's Point, coming from Yokohama. She entered port this afternoon following the departure of the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela. The China moved over to Pier 6 to leave Pier 7 clear for the Siberia, which is making her second eastbound voyage as a Togo-Korea-Kaisha liner.

The Siberia brought 234 Asiatic steerage passengers, including 57 Filipinos, to Honolulu. Freight for this port was 1100 tons. The liner will leave for San Francisco at probably 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, taking the next mail to the States.

PASSENGERS EXPECTED

Per Matson liner Matsushita, due Tuesday morning, January 2, from San Francisco: J. J. Scott, Mrs. J. H. Steingewald building, also from the Merchants' street taxi stand opposite. According to Manager A. Hubert Jones of A. & B.'s insurance department today the demand for the timely calendars has so increased that 1500 more have been printed for the first quarter of 1917 than were distributed the first of January last year.

The new calendar for the first quarter of 1917 bears the names of five new steamers not on the run when the last one was printed. These are the Maui, to arrive here in March on her maiden voyage; the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela and Ecuador, and the T. K. K. steamers Korea Maru and Siberia Maru.

KAISER PRAISES TROOPS; CLAIMS RICH VICTORIES

BERLIN, Germany, Jan. 1.—On the eve of the new year Emperor William yesterday caused to be circulated to all his troops on land and sea a speech from the throne, calling on the children of the fatherland to remain steadfast to the ideals of Germany. He said in part:

"Soldiers of the Empire, another year of war is behind us. Germany has fought hard for its existence. We have made unheard of sacrifices but we have been rewarded by rich successes. Victory has perched on the double eagles of the Empire throughout the year.

Throughout the year of 1916 the hopes of your enemies have been frustrated. In every theater of the world war the troops of the Fatherland have been victorious. German arms have been triumphant on sea as well as on land.

"A grateful country looks to you with unshaken confidence and is proud to rely on the valor of its soldiers who have not yet tasted the bitterness of defeat. Your incomparable and warlike spirit, your iron and never slackening will, your undying love for the Fatherland is a guarantee that victory will remain with your banners for another year.

TRUNKS OF OPIUM ARE BROKEN OPEN

Furnished with a good description of the man they are after, customs inspectors and agents of the custom house are combing Honolulu today to find and arrest a man known as B. Castoy, who, they believe, attempted to smuggle 401 tins of No. 1 Hongkong opium, worth $80 a tin Honolulu prices, into this port on the Matson steamer Manoa.

"We think Castoy is a Spaniard. We have an excellent description of him and think we shall be able to get him," said Acting Collector of Customs Raymer Sharp today. "We have been working to apprehend the man since Saturday afternoon."

According to the acting collector, watch had been kept on two trunks billed to Castoy, who was a passenger on the Manoa, since the trunks were put ashore at Pier 15 Tuesday. Inspector John Oliveira was detailed to watch the trunks. Shortly before noon Saturday Sharp gave orders to have them opened. Castoy not having appeared to claim them, evidently having fears that knowledge of their contents was suspected by the customs people.

Search of the trunks revealed the presence of 401 tins of No. 1 Hongkong opium, worth $80 a tin in Honolulu and $40 in San Francisco. At Honolulu prices this makes the seizure worth $32,080, of $16,040 San Francisco valuation.

No announcement of the seizure was made to the newspapers by the customs authorities, who withheld the news in order to have a better chance to capture Castoy. The news leaked out through some waterfront employees, who saw the trunks being opened and realized the contents were the illicit drug.

Acting Collector Sharp said today he believes the opium was sent from Tongkong into British Columbia or Mexico and was smuggled across the border from there to San Francisco, where it was put aboard the Manoa to be smuggled into Honolulu.

LAWSON CAN SHOW WILSON EVIDENCE OF MANY 'LEAKS'

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 1.—Thomas W. Lawson, promoter, stock broker and publicity man, has sent a letter to Congressman Henry, offering to convince President Wilson of the necessity of suggesting a congressional investigation into the charges brought by Lawson that there is a government "leak" through which the stock manipulators of Wall Street have been informed of the intentions of the administration in advance.

The stock broker declares that he has positive information that the "leak of last week" was one of a series of such "which have resulted in the robbing of Americans of hundreds of millions of dollars."

"In particular," the letter continues, "I know of a few in which a number of men benefited to the extent of $50,000,000."

ROOMS ENOUGH, IS VIEW OF TAYLOR

Because there are more hotel accommodations here this year than last and as there will be one less steamer, A. P. Taylor, secretary of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, believes that Honolulu will be able to accommodate all the tourists who arrive for the Carnival, although some may not be able to obtain the kind of rooms they desire.

"There are only a certain number of steamers to arrive here and the limit of their accommodations is known," said Taylor. "There may be 10,000 people write for rooms, but the fact remains that only a part of them can obtain berths on the steamers. The Northern Pacific will not run in February as it did last year, which makes one steamer less, and as there have been several new hotels started and additions made to old ones, I believe everybody will be accommodated."

C. C. von Hamm, secretary of the Territorial Hotel Company, said on Saturday that all requests for reservations for February were being refused and he has advised many to postpone their visit to Hawaii until later in the year. He says, however, that, as last year, a number of people who have made reservations may not come and thus open up rooms for others. Regardless of this fact the hotel company cannot promise accommodations until April. "We hoped to have the new wings at the Moana completed by February," he said, "but they will not be finished and ready for occupancy until May. We are doing everything possible to make room for the tourists. Six new cottages are being erected and in some cases rooms are being made smaller."

Speaking of the Knight Templars, Taylor says that large excursions like that cannot expect to obtain rooms in the same hotel but must be willing to scatter about the city.

LARRISON ASKS FOR BIG SURVEY

In a letter to Governor Pinkham Saturday George K. Larrison, district manager of the United States geologic survey, recommends an appropriation by the next legislature for the preparation of a topographic map of Maui, similar to that already prepared for Kauai.

Larrison shows that the geologic survey is willing to cooperate with the territory in preparation of the map. He points out the value of such a work from a military standpoint alone.

Recommendation is also made for a topographic survey of a portion of Mauna Loa, and a letter from H. O. Wood, assistant volcanologist, is mentioned as urging this undertaking.

RAINS HEAVY BUT DAMAGE SLIGHT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) WAILUKU, Dec. 29.—No damage has been reported from the heavy rains which fell in most parts of Maui last Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, though some inconvenience resulted. Saturday's rain was so sudden and heavy throughout central Maui that the main road west of Paia was flooded so deeply that automobiles were unable to negotiate it until late in the afternoon. A number of machines which tried to go through were stuck, owing to the water being over carburetors or magnetos.

Good rains are reported from Lahaina and other parts of west Maui. The roads through most of the Makawao district are in bad condition on account of mud.

PROMOTIONISTS FAVOR AMUSEMENT PIER PLAN

That there is great need for an amusement pier in Honolulu was the consensus of opinion at the last meeting of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. Members of the committee believed that the project should be carried out for the entertainment of visitors, feeling that with the growth of the tourist business some place of amusement should be provided.

with instant favor, but the majority have scored immediately. Especially is this true of the last few weeks' offerings, which have been consistently above the average. It is given to local theater lovers to witness "A Pair of Shoes" is right up in this class and should prove as large an evening's entertainment as any previous offering. It is 100 per cent comedy, while the singing and dancing averages about the same.

The entire company will bid farewell to Honolulu in this show and at its close will make a tour of the outside islands before returning to the mainland to take up the summer season's work in various parts of the country.

MARIE DORO IS EXPERT MILLINER

"Common Ground," the current offering at the Liberty theater, with Marie Doro as the principal attraction, contains many interesting scenes and episodes, but probably the most unique is the evolutions of a hat. Miss Doro makes one hat into 12—no mean task, it must be admitted, and were husbands to train their wives to be economical with their millinery to the same extent the funny man would be very shy on material.

Marie Doro is known as "The Kid," a worker in a paper flower factory. She is a child of the slums. She produces for herself a hat that is a monstrosity, but which she loves as none of the other girls has anything like it. She is removed from her slum environment and there is instilled into her child mind the elements of refinement and simplicity. During the 12 months of her mental metamorphosis the hat in question remains with the girl, but it undergoes as many changes as does its possessor until in its numerous changes her former friends would never recognize the object of their one-time envy.

Hamlin Garland wrote a book and named it "Hesper of the Mountains." Wilfred North, Vitaphone producer, read the book and pronounced it good. He then undertook to translate the book to the screen and the result is to be seen at the Hawaii theater with Lillian Walker and Evert Overton in the leading roles.

"Hesper of the Mountains" deals with a cultured young woman whose every environment had been luxury and refinement—a young woman with an idea that nothing is good unless it comes out of the East—meaning the Eastern portion of the United States. Circumstances force her to take up her abode in the West and she promptly despises and hates everything that is part or parcel of the West.

There comes a time when labor troubles are serious in the town in which she resides and she quickly makes up her mind that there is one thing for which the West must be given credit—breeding a race of men. With this changed viewpoint she rapidly assimilates the West and becomes a part thereof. Of course, there is a man in the story and it is the result of his manhood in the face of the gravest dangers that the maiden sees the light and gets a new idea of her adopted section of the country.

Each side desires to make the rights and privileges of weak peoples and small states as secure against aggression or denial in the future as the rights and privileges of the great and powerful states at war. Each wishes itself to be a peace advocate in the future, along with all other nations and peoples, against the recurrence of a war like this, and against aggression of selfish interference of any kind. Each would be jealous of the formation of any more rival leagues to preserve an uncertain balance of power amidst multiplying suspicions; but each is ready to consider the formation of a league of nations to insure peace and justice throughout the world. IN WAR ARENA
 ATHENS, Greece, Jan. 1.—King Constantine yesterday communicated a reply to the peace message that was recently promulgated by President Wilson. Although not committing his government to any definite action in the matter, the king of the Hellenes expressed warm admiration for the pacific intentions of the President of the United States and his apparent sympathy with the nations that are suffering from the conflict.
 In his communication the King said:
 "The message of President Wilson cannot but contribute greatly to hastening a reestablishment of the normal conditions of life."
 At a cabinet meeting held here yesterday the King discussed with members of the government the desperate condition in which the country was plunged because of the anomalous situation of Greece. He expressed the hope that the blockade which has been rigorously maintained by the Entente will be lifted not later than January 5.

BRITISH PRESS PRAISE ALLIES' REPLY TO TEUTONS
 LONDON, England, Dec. 30.—The British press has received the text of the reply of the Allies to the peace suggestions of the Central Powers with enthusiasm and there have been street demonstrations of cheering approval in a majority of the cities of England and Scotland.
 The Times, summing up the general effect of the note on the British people and on the other nations of the Entente, says: "Never before in the history of the world has there been such a union of the people for a common end. This is possible only because that end transcends all selfish and particular interests."
 The Daily Despatch declares that the note issued at Paris is "a dignified refusal of pretended offers of peace. No other answer than that which has been given was possible and public opinion had anticipated the tone and purport of the reply. The tone of the note will spur the Allies on to strain every effort to complete the work which has been well begun. It will also send a cold chill into the hearts of the enemy."

PARIS COUNCIL PLEDGED TO CARRY ON STRUGGLE
 PARIS, France, Jan. 1.—At a meeting of the municipal council of this city held here yesterday a resolution was unanimously passed by the representatives of the various capitals of the Entente allies, pledging themselves to "unflinching and fraternal" resolution in the struggle until it ends in a decisive victory for the Entente.

BRITISH FREIGHTER HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DIVER
 NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 31.—The presence of a British destroyer looming on the horizon saved from destruction the British freighter Chicago City which arrived here yesterday.
 According to the crew the vessel, which left Bristol on the 11th, was stopped by a German submarine on the 14th when 120 miles off Fastnet rock. The members of the crew were on the point of entering the lifeboats to leave the ship to her fate when the funnels of a swift destroyer were seen coming over the horizon.
 With little ceremony the Teutonic sea was immediately plunged beneath the waves after the officer in charge had sighted the war vessel approaching.

BREITLAND PAGEANT MARKS CROWNING OF KING CHARLES
 BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 1.—With ancient rites and in the presence of 1600 Magyar nobles, Emperor Charles I of Austria was crowned King of Hungary yesterday. Sitting on the throne with the young king was his royal consort, Queen Zita, and together they received the homage of the flower of the proudest people in Europe.
 King Ferdinand of Bulgaria was the only foreign monarch who attended the coronation.
 The new king left the city almost immediately after the royal ceremony for Vienna, where, he said, business of state affairs needed his presence.

RUMANIA FORMS NEW CABINET AT JASSEY
 LONDON, England, Dec. 31.—Official notice was received here yesterday that the Rumanian government had formed a new cabinet at Jassy, the new capital which is in the north-east of Rumania. The reconstructed cabinet is formed as follows: Bratianu, premier; Vintila, minister of war; Constantinesco, minister of the interior; Cantacuzescu, minister of justice; Greffo, minister of industry and commerce, and Antonesco, minister of finance.

VON BISSING ILL
 LONDON, England, Dec. 31.—From advice received through the Exchange telegraph at Amsterdam it is learned that Gen. von Bissing, German governor-general of Belgium, is seriously ill with pneumonia at Brussels. The Kaiser, it is said, has sent von Bissing a message of sympathy.

ATHENS, Greece, Jan. 1.—Count Di Bisdar, the Italian minister to Greece, yesterday presented the demands of the Italian government to the state department of Greece for full reparation for losses sustained by the Italian government during the recent clash with Greek troops.

 W. R. FARINGTON, president of Ad Club: For its members throughout all Hawaii, the Ad Club believes that 1917 will bring a sincere appreciation of the exceptional opportunity Hawaii offers for work in connection with American development in this part of the world. To Honolulu in particular the Ad Club believes that the New Year will bring great progress in the elimination of petty personalities and peanut politics. This will guarantee more time and energy for the great and mandatory work that must be done to lift Honolulu from the country town class and make a beautiful, well-kept city with an individuality all its own.

A. P. TAYLOR, secretary Hawaii Promotion Committee: Hawaii has had an exceptionally good "tourist crop" during 1916 and the coming of the Great Northern and other lines has been a boon to travel here. One of the features of the year has been the visits paid the mainland by the members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. They have discovered new situations which will mean much to the promotion work in the future.
 During the past year Hawaii has been placed on the map as a real summer resort as well as winter watering place, and lecturers, writers and travelers have set the stamp of their approval on Hawaii as an all-year-around resort. Hawaii has received more publicity through the press of the mainland in 1916 than ever before. It appears that the "tourist crop" for 1917 will far surpass that of the past year.

W. Y. NOLLEY, manager Federal Wireless: My wish for 1917 is that people send just as many wireless messages to the coast as they have done this year. Our business has been mighty good in 1916, thank you.

RAYMOND C. BROWN, secretary Chamber of Commerce: I wish every citizen of this city, the same as every member of the Chamber of Commerce, could be brought to realize that he owes to his city, to his neighbor and to himself, that participation in the work of the chamber which can only be limited by his maximum ability.

A. M. CRISTY, deputy city attorney: I wish that civic pride would not first look at its own pocket book before deciding on an issue.

ROBERT HORN, supervisor: I wish that all dogs were barkless.

WILLIAM LARSEN, supervisor: My wish this year is that I won't have to change my mind again on any issue.

SHERIFF CHARLES H. ROSE: The best Happy New Year I can wish is no trouble for anyone.

CHIEF ARTHUR McDUFFIE: I hope everyone has the best kind of a New Year.

DR. R. G. AYER: Happy New Year to all good reporters and an extra one for the emergency hospital. I hope we have as much room as we need next year.

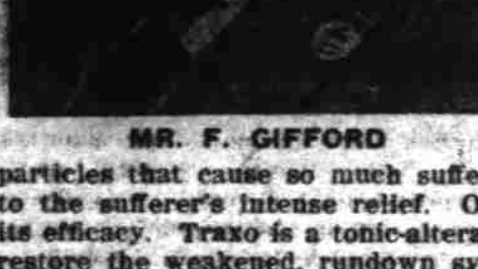

JAMES A. RATH: Our "babies' welfare" work starts January 1, so I have only one great wish: "Happy New Year" for better babies, better citizens.

FRED C. SMITH, Oahu Railway: My New Year's wish is lots of prosperity for Hawaii.

CAPT. DANIEL KAMAHU: I don't wish for any more rain for New Year's, but I'm not exactly in favor of a drought.

 Prominent Farmer in Canada Describes His Escape from the Operating Table.
 In a letter to friends at Saskatoon, Mr. F. Gifford, of the Ball Rock Farm, Maymont, Saskatchewan, Canada, says: "Thanks to Fruito and Traxo I am alive. I lay on my back for sixteen days, suffering the agonies of a dozen deaths. I began taking Fruito and was relieved of a great many gall stones. My health is now fully restored."
 Fruito and Traxo are compounded from the original Edsall formulas at the Pinus laboratories in Monticello, Ill., and can be purchased in Honolulu of Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale distributors, and leading drug stores; a doctor's prescription is not necessary. Fruito is a pure fruit oil and acts as an intestinal lubricant and disintegrates the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, discharging the accumulated waste to the sufferer's intense relief. One dose is usually sufficient to indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a tonic-alternative that is most effective to rebuild and restore the weakened, rundown system.
 A booklet of special interest to those who suffer from stomach trouble can be obtained by writing to the Pinus Laboratories, Monticello, Illinois.

 DAISY, the elephant: I wish that more children would come out to Kapolani park and enjoy rides on my back. Den Hollinger needs the money to purchase more animals.

CHARLES ARNOLD, supervisor: I wish people would not object to the way I want to construct the roads of Honolulu.

T. B. THIELKE, manager Young and Hawaiian hotels: A happy New Year to our visitors, of course.

A. T. LONGLEY, superintendent Territorial Marketing Division: We want a bigger market for the New Year with more service done to the purchaser and producer alike.

MISS JANET DEWAR, superintendent Kapiolani Children's hospital: My New Year's wish goes out to the kiddies. May we ease as many little bodies of pain this coming year as we have the last and more, too.

W. P. S. HAWK, manager Maroon Wireless: Happy New Year to the "Popping Place of the Pacific."

CHARLES F. CHILLINGWORTH, prosecuting attorney: My wish is that there will not be quite so many cases on the police calendar this year.

SAMUEL F. CHILLINGWORTH, attorney: Happy New Year to Hawaii. Hope I see my 50th New Year in the islands. This is my 49th.

WILLIAM F. FENNELL, liquor inspector: I don't want so many drunks this year.

REV. C. H. McVAY, Kailua Union church: Happy New Year to the officers' reserve corps. I think it is a great thing.

BRIG. ROBERT DUBBIN, Salvation Army: May our organization's good work in the islands continue throughout the next year.

CHARLES J. MCCARTHY: That the year just starting may be as successful throughout the islands from a financial standpoint as has the one just gone. I can't make a better wish for the territory than this one.

SUFFRAGETTES WARNED NOT TO DISPLAY FLAGS AT INAUGURAL PARADE
 (Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1.—In reply to a request of the woman suffrage leaders to participate in the inaugural parade on March 4, notice was given that unless the organizations promised not to display banners demanding universal suffrage, they would not be allowed a place in the line of march. This action has been taken, officials say, to head off any possible demonstration that would interfere with the inaugural program.

 WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1.—That there is a strong sentiment in this country against further efforts to bring about peace in Europe until the time shall be ripe for such a move was evidenced yesterday when documents addressed to the nation at large and signed by 50 prelates and prominent laymen of various denominations throughout the country were made public.
 These communications declare that the signers are united in the belief that premature peace in Europe would be "more of a curse than a blessing," and is to be avoided.

BABY REGIMENT, DEFEATS ROGAN AND WRECKERS

Mashaw Holds 25th Infantry to Two Hits in Game, Giving Them Chance for Flag

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Jan. 1.—On Saturday afternoon the Schofield Barracks fans were treated to one of the best, if not the best, baseball game of the season when they witnessed the great struggle for the post championship between the two teams from the East, the 25th Infantry and the 32nd Infantry. The game was played on the post diamond and fully 3000 men turned out for the fun, for everyone realized that it would be a battle well worth the seeing. Although in the former game between these evenly matched teams the "Baby" regiment won, yet the majority of the fans expected Rogan to send them home with a defeat in the second game. Rogan pitched his best, but the 32nd Infantry was too good with the willow and therein lies the story. It was a great pitchers' battle between the famous Rogan and Mashaw and Rogan found his match in the crafty Mashaw. Each pitched the full nine innings and when the smoke of battle cleared away the 32nd had a 3-1 victory.

The score came in the fourth inning, when a hot drive of Cassels to center gave him a safe first. He was advanced to second by Holcomb's single to center field. Austin, in center field, made a perfect throw to Fagin at second, who fumbled, the ball rolling across the diamond into the 32nd Infantry players' hands, allowing Cassels to round third and reach home safely. This proved to be the winning run and the grandstand went wild from there on until the end of the game.

When a base hit put the crowd on their feet, but after this run the 32nd never had a look-in, for not a single player reached first base. It looked like the 32nd would score again in the sixth when Holcomb reached third, but a fly out by "Chief" Kwiechnal to deep right closed this frame. Cassels again reached second in the seventh inning and it was then that Rogan showed his real ball playing by sending the next two to the bench.

Rogan pitched great ball and was fairly well supported, but his usual smile was missing, due probably to the heavy hitting by the 32nd Infantry. The costly error in the fourth by Fagin lost him the game, but even with this he kept his nerve and was as cool as always, putting out of some tight pinches. He struck out 12 and allowed seven hits. For the 32nd Mashaw surprised the crowd by his unusually good pitching and head work that never failed him at any point of the game.

The great sensation of the game was the wonderful control of his own recently developed "splitter." It worked perfectly and got the 25th's goat to such an extent that after the fourth inning, when the run was made, they never once made another hit. He struck out six, gave free transportation to but one and allowed only two hits.

Holcomb by his wonderful work with the stick was the other real star of the game, getting three hits out of the four times he faced the pitcher. Due to his hit also it was that Cassels made the winning run. Mashaw was well supported throughout.

This game places the 32nd Infantry at the top of the list with but two more games to be played, and these look pretty easy, which will in all probability give them the post cup.

ALL-STARS WIN FROM CUBLETS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Jan. 1.—The "Wreckers" having received a belated Christmas gift from the 32d Infantry baseball team Saturday in the form of a basket of nine perfect goose eggs, Company A of the two-bit aggregation, felt it incumbent to reciprocate and desiring to bestow their donation where it might be appreciated by the greatest number possible, challenged the finest of the 1st and 32d Infantry to a game of baseball for Sunday afternoon, which was accepted. The Castner boys scored nine runs, which is a good average per inning. The cublets negotiated one in the opening stanza. At that they did better than the regulars did Saturday afternoon. Where this particular aggregation resolved the hallucination they could defeat a picked team from the outfit stationed at Castner is not known; maybe the sunshine is more infectious at Leflithua than at Castner. The regular "Wreckers" failed to down the one team Saturday and the Wreckers are some ball team. (Holloway teams will verify.) At any rate the melee furnished some excellent practice for the boys from Castner and some excitement for the spectators, as did a couple of dog fights that interrupted the game for a short spell.

Very little improvement could have been made in the lineup that faced Company A. Any aggregation that can boast of the talent that participated in this game must be given some consideration and it is to be regretted that this bunch did not face the All-Americans in their recent visit.

The A Company lads were first at bat, Dandridge reaching first by swinging at a wild pitch; White, next up, cracked out a two-bagger, scoring Dandridge. Butler sacrificed, White perching on third. The next two were easy infield outs, holding White at the far corner. The picked team also negotiated one in their half of the first when Judd walked, being promptly advanced to second on McDonald's sacrifice, later scoring when Holcomb cracked out a two-sacker. The lads from the 25th did not score after this inning.

The Castner bunch made two in the fourth when Mathias walked, Dunlap singled, advancing the former to third. Holcomb also knocked out a one-bagger, sending Mathias over the rubber, and Stratton obliged with a two-sacker scoring Holcomb. Dunlap, previous to this was out trying to steal home.

In the fifth inning Judd reached first on error by Hawkins, wiped second and scored on Mathias' single to center.

The six furnished the Castnerites a trio of runs when Stratton started the performance with a single, placed on third by Chief's one-sacker, the latter stealing second, both scoring on Stratton's drive to center. Brinza sacrificed Stolpeck, who eventually scored on Judd's hit.

The "lucky" seventh netted two more for the 1st and 32d, when Mathias and Dunlap received life on errors, being scored on Stratton's triple. This frame ended the scoring. Holcomb and Stratton were the stars with the willow for the Castner boys, with three hits apiece, while McDonald, Holcomb and Mathias contributed the fielding features.

Great Falls Will Not Welcome Ayau

The signing of a Chinese shortstop named Ayau by Bill Lear for his Seattle club when Bill was with the All-Americans at Honolulu recently is apt to bring about a peculiar state of affairs, if the Oriental attempts to play with the Tillamums in Great Falls.

It seems that Great Falls has long objected to Chinese, and makes it unpleasant for those who happen along. It is not any city or county legislation, but a sort of "understanding," which has been in effect since labor unions became prominent there.

A Celestial named Wong Quo happened to land in Great Falls when there was a big strike on. Wong, not belonging to the union, was regarded in the light of an enemy. One night soon after he was visited by a delegation and told to move. Being possessed of more nerve than the ordinary Oriental, he refused to do so. Wong, so the story goes, was taken unceremoniously to the middle of the bridge which spanned the Missouri river and dropped into its waters. Luckily for the Chinaman, there was a sandbar close to where he was dropped and he managed to make his way to this point of safety and disappeared forever.

Ayau will probably not make good with Seattle, even if he brought to this neck of the woods. If he should, however, he is certain to meet with a warm reception in case he ventures into the forbidden land.—Portland Telegram.

The Portland Telegram evidently believes that Ayau will not make good in the Northwest League. Without a doubt the Portland newspaper will change its mind before the season is over. Ayau has played faster ball than any of the so-called short fielders in the league, according to the All-Americans who were here to see some fast play next season. Ayau is a player of good habits and should become a popular star with the Seattle team.

TESTING THE COST OF BREAD.

An interesting test made at the municipal workhouse of Toledo, O., would seem to indicate that bakers will not go to the poorhouse in that state at least even if they do sell bread at five cents a loaf.

The test which was made under the supervision of the city authorities was inspired by the Toledo Housewives' League. It was found that the total revenue from a barrel of flour made into bread was $16.41. The cost of the flour was $9.25, which would allow $7.16 for all other expenses and the profit of the bakers.

Of course the Toledo test does not go so far as to place the bread in the hands of the consumer, but it would seem that the margin indicated above between the actual cost of the bread and the cost of the flour is sufficient to cover the marketing cost and at the same time leave a profit.

The experiment is interesting as showing just what it costs to produce the bread, even if it goes no further into the matter.—Sacramento Union.

A resolution was passed unanimously by the customs officers in usual session at the New York Custom House declaring the conference in favor of the speedy enactment of a retirement law by Congress to cover Federal service employees.

SHAFTERITES IN CHRISTMAS PLAY ENJOY COMEDY

1 Company Dubs defeated the L Company Poorest in a farcical game at Shafter on Saturday afternoon. The features of the game were the umpiring of Mother Hubbard and the errors. The score was 8 to 4.

After the baseball farce came the fat man's obstacle race with Petrovsky and Lytle from 1 Company, Brunschwick from K. Palma and Haddigan from L, and Sineco from M Company, each carrying representative riding a hobby-horse, straight-away course, 50 yards, then a straight hurdle, then a straddle hurdle, then each man and steed passed through a flour barrel. Every man had to pick his own horse. The spectators felt sorry for Brunschwick, who selected a young colt apparently, for it broke away from him at the beginning of the course at the sight of the crowd and that prevented the big man from finishing as leader, perhaps. Petrovsky had a horse shoe in his pocket, and as he weighed in some one saw a rabbit's foot in his back pocket. He won, and very cleverly because he was so big that he burst the barrel into staves and he and his sorrel riding came in amid the wild cheers of the entire paddock. The horse Haddigan rode kicked him and he was led in front to the dispensary with a bleeding skull which was there so covered with iodine that he now has red hair, and the sergeant in charge of the dispensary was cross, very cross, because Haddigan would not allow them to treat the horse. "No," Haddigan bravely said, "pains it may hurt this fat old head but spare my country's horse." Pass on.

Then came the pig race. First the Roman populace to grace a Roman holiday in triumphal procession, escorted the captive pig, then they tarred him, then they greased him, then they greased him some more, and still more, then the judges arose and said, "Ready!" Now, they said, "catch the pig before he escapes to the hills," and then everybody breathed hard, then they stopped, then the captive pig was released, did he flee to the hills? Did he dash between wheelbarrow legs? Did he, amidst squeals of joy and triumph, throw the wrestlers to the earth? Did he look up to the west, virgin and the pitying audience and cry with bitter tears cursing down his porcine cheeks, "spare me?" Nix! That fool pig burst up the whole blame show. He stood up, rubbed the grease off his nose and ate grass. And that pig was advertised to be one from the wildest herd on the McCandless ranch, and he acted as if he had been brought up by hand. Nothing to do. So the race was run as a relay and was won after a brilliant contest by L Company with K a mighty close second, and that pig will get all that's coming to him if he yells another night like he did last Saturday night.

The whole affair was a success. A little laughter, a little fun, he a good thing for the best of men, and the third battalion is the envy of the entire post for what Capt. Crystal did for their happiness and which Lieut. Hardigg managed so well. Appended is a classical, statistical history of the ball game so that the men can keep a record of their batting averages.

32ND INFANTRY ALSO STARS IN SOCCER CONTEST

Defeats Champion 1st Infantry Team By Score of 4 to 2 in Great Game at Post

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Jan. 1.—Another of the 32nd Infantry athletic teams went on a rampage, this time the newly organized soccer team, which administered a 4 to 2 beating to the undefeated 1st Infantry team on the Castner soccer green Sunday afternoon. This is the first defeat sustained by the 1st Infantry this season, it having successfully met and repulsed all comers until tackled by the baby outfit.

About 1500 followers of the game turned out and were awarded by seeing a close and exciting game, hotly contested throughout the two periods.

Score, first half: 32nd Infantry 2, 1st Infantry 1.

The 32nd Infantry was the first to score, when Ballentyne interfered with the ball by touching, permitting Rand to kick goal. This after 15 minutes of play. The ball see-sawed up and down the field for five minutes, finally coming with striking distance of the 1st Infantry goal, Steger carefully nursing the ball and booting it between the standards for a goal. The 1st Infantry came back strong when Kilroy grazed one of the goal posts, the ball deflecting for a goal.

Score, second half: 32nd Infantry 2, 1st Infantry 1.

The baby outfit scored within the first five minutes of play when Elser kicked for goal. The 1st Infantry made its second and last goal when Keen fouled the ball with his hand, and the 1st Infantry getting a fair kick, Anderson negotiating the goal. A few minutes later Rand made a 20-yard boot for another point for the 32nd. This was the last goal of the game, the ball passing back and forth for the remainder of the half.

The lineup:

MAIL FORMS FOR INCOME RETURNS

AND THE

Officials in the internal revenue
office Saturday mailed blank forms
provided for the filing of income tax returns—for corporations above $75,
000 capital, below $75,000 and to individuals with incomes of $3,000 or more.
Penalties are severe for failing to file returns whether any tax is due
or not and special attention is directed
to these.

In the class above $75,000 the penalty is one-half of the tax due, if no exceptions; a fine of $500 or six
months' imprisonment for such officers as are answerable for the failure to make returns. These penalties may
be combined as deemed just.

The returns are to be made during
the month of January, and any tax
due should accompany the forms
when they are sent back to the revenue office.

Other corporation returns and individual income tax returns are due on or before March 1, and these forms
were sent out today.

All corporations are required to file
whether they have a net income or not
and individuals with net incomes in excess of $3,000—irrespective of what source it is from—must file returns.
The penalty for failure of such corporations to file may be as high as $10,000 and for individuals from $20 to $100.

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble
Said to Be Due to Acidity.

Cure.

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure
of stomach and intestinal diseases
have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine
times out of ten to excessive acidity,
commonly termed sour stomach or
heartburn, which not only irritated
and inflamed the delicate lining of the
stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary bisulphated magnesia, which,
by neutralizing the acidity of the food,
removes the source of the trouble.

He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be
for a man who stepped on a tack to rub liniment on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless, so
long as the contents of the stomach
remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of bisulphated magnesia from their druggist, and take a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass
of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, of necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in
all cases. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co. and Hollister Co.—Advertisement.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILD

If Little Stomach is Sour, Liver
Torpid or Bowels
Clogged

Mothers can rest easy after giving
"California Syrup of Figs," because
in a few hours all the clogged-up
waste, sour bile and fermenting food
gently moves out of the bowels, and
you have a well, playful child again.
Children simply will not take the time
from play to empty their bowels, and
they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see
if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love
it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing"
should always be the first treatment
given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle
of "California Syrup of Figs," then
look carefully and see that it is made
by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size hand back with contempt any other
fig syrup.—Adv.

ALLIES DEMAND REPARATION IN REPLY TO "PEACE" MOVE

tempts made by other nations to bring about a pacific solution of what was purely a local conflict. Germany turned a deaf ear to all efforts made by the Allies to avert a general conflagration of Europe.

Ruthless Invasion

"Instead the long-trained troops of the German Empire ruthlessly invaded Belgium, the neutrality of which country Germany had entered into a solemn pact to protect. It is this invading Power which now asks us to discuss peace, that then haughtily
proclaimed to the world that international treaties were mere scraps of
paper and that the necessity of a nation knows no law.

"At the present moment these sham
offers for peace on the part of Germany rest wholly on scraps of paper.
They are based on the war map which Germany imagines is a permanent
condition and upon which she is ready to talk peace. Germany must be taught to recognize that this 'war
map' represents nothing more than a superficial, passing phrase of the great situation which the Allies have prepared to face and that their present military positions do not represent the real strength of the German nation.

No Peace Possible

"Any peace concluded on such terms
as Germany suggests would be wholly
to the advantage of the aggressor who
after two years finds herself baffled
and unable to attain a goal which she fondly imagined she could reach in
two months.

"The Allies are forced to assert
again and for all time that there is no
peace possible so long as they have
not secured reparation for violated
rights of nations and peoples, the recognition of the principle of nationality and the free existence of small states.

"There is no peace possible so long as the Allies have not brought about
a settlement calculated to end once
and for all the militaristic forces
which for a long time have constituted
a perpetual menace to the peace of
nations and that will afford an effective guarantee for the future security

BACKACHE

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

In spite of the best care one takes
of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order.
The most important organs are the
stomach, heart and kidneys.

The kidneys are the scavengers and
they work day and night in separating
the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized
and include such symptoms as backache, depression, dizziness, irritability, headache, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state is to drink plenty of pure water and obtain a small amount of Anuric, which
is dispensed by most every druggist.
Anuric is inexpensive and should be taken before meals. It is much more potent than lithia and many find that Anuric dissolves uric acid as water dissolves sugar.

People are realizing more and more
every day that the kidneys, just as do
the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an elimina-tory organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest,
and then the trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and
many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim to uric
acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist
for Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, and which is dispensed by nearly every druggist in
the land.—Adv.

WIFE OR JAIL; TAKES JAIL

"You either can go home to your wife," said Magistrate Cornell in the domestic relations court yesterday to Israel Rideman of No. 207 Allen street, "or I'll send you to the island for six months."

Rideman had been arrested because he hadn't paid his wife $4 a week as ordered by the same court a month ago.

"I'll take the island, judge," he replied to the offer.

"You would rather have half a year in prison than go to your wife, who promises to support you in case you can't get work to support her?" inquired the surprised magistrate.

"Yes, sir, give me the island," said

INTELLIGENT SHOPPERS:

Are the ones who read what the progressive merchants are offering--and then cooperate with their efforts to assist their patrons by doing as much of their shopping as possible "with the merchant who advertises," because he is showing a disposition to please and help his customers by advertising. Furthermore it is in the stores of such merchants that one is most likely to find the things desired.
