Pledged to neither Sect nor Party.
But established for the benefit of all.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 7, 1887.

MUTUALLY DEPENDENT.

The planter cannot succeed without the mechanic and the laborer, nor can the mechanic and the laborer succeed without the planter. They are mutually dependent on each other, and it is the interest of each to serve the interest of the other, for thereby self-interest is promoted.
Nine-tenths of everything in this country lean upon the back of the planter, and without the "bone-andsinew" class to support him, he will have no back to lean upon. It is absurd for either to profess independence of the other. The planter knows this, but the other is sometimes too wooden-headed to perceive it.

"What dependence upon the planter has the laborer or the mechanic who earns his bread in Honolulu?" is a question just now propounded to us. We answer by another question or two: What employment would there be in Honolulu for mechanics, laborers, merchants, shop-keepers, lawyers, doctors, editors, or anybody else, were the planter dead and buried? Whence comes the means to maintain trade and manufactures, to erect buildings, to effect improvements, and in brief, to keep alive the capital city, if not from the planter?

We have frequently heard it said within the last day or two past, that the planter has too much of his own way, that too much consideration is shown him in legislation and administration, that he has become arrogant and should have his wings clipped, and much more in the same strain. This may be all true. We do not know, however, and do not believe, that it is.

It is certainly contrary to the genius of our Constitution to allow any man or class of men a superiority to others before the law, or to confer upon any the power of oppres-sing their fellow men of any color or country whatever; and we cordially endorse the Constitution. But while denying to the planter any special privileges or prerogatives, we would be very careful not to withhold any which are his natural heritage or constitutional legacy. Those who talk of "clipping his wings" are, unconsciously or not, seeking to "kill the hen which lays the golden egg." Considering the paramount importance to this country of the planting interest, no sensible man could ever wish to see it crippled with an oppressive embargo.
Enlightened policy and wise statesmanship are opposed to the imposition of burdensome restrictions and harrassing impediments to our one great industry. So far as can be, consistent with the general good, it should be encouraged and fostered by liberal legislation.

"LET THERE BE PEACE."

"Let there be peace," says the "Gazette." Amen, say we. Peace is what we want—"peace with honor"—and the maintenance of constitutional law; but not peace with dishonor, humiliation, and shuffling.
Unrest and disquiet have agitated this little community for years; but it was earnestly hoped that the popular uprising which culminated in a new Constitution would bring contentment, satisfaction, and peace.
When that document was scattered around the streets of Honolulu by the Marshal of the Kingdom, the people eagerly seized copies and retired to their homes, believing that an era of prosperity and peace had commenced. Since then but five short months have passed, and yet the hopeful and confiding people have seen that very Constitution—the bulwark of their rights and liberties—deliberately violated by the very men who assisted to draft it and were solemnly sworn to support it. Reflective men can feel no satisfaction nor cry "peace, peace" under these circumstances, knowing full well that if the Constitution can be violated in one article it may be violated in all. No, no, this kind of thing is not calculated to ensure peace, and it is not merely "a small circle of aspirants to office" who think so.

"HONOR THE KING."

The King is the Head of the Government, and as such the Head of the Nation. A Constitution emanating from the People and promulgated by the King on the 7th day of July, 1887, declares the Government of this Kingdom to be "A Constitutional Monarchy, under His Majesty Kalakaua, His Heirs and Successors."

Proper and becoming respect is at all times due to the King as Head of the Nation. A person wanting in that respect is either destitute of breeding or of the instincts of a gentleman.

When the unknown person signing himself "Junius" attacked the King of England in a series of published letters, he criticised the actions and conduct of His Majesty in the most cutting and scathing language, but always respectfully.
Never once that we can remember from our reading did he forget or omit the respect due the Head of the Nation. Junius was a gentleman, and the productions of his pen are specimens of classical English and plain, pointed, incisive, dignified criticism of men in high places.

Junius, an educated English gentleman, invariably evinced deep respect for a national Head whose course was subversive of the rights and liberties of the subject, and whose doings he undertook to dissect, analyze, and expose in language extremely severe; but here in this Kingdom of Hawaii, where the Head of the Nation is placed by the Constitution in the position of a reigning Sovereign, with responsible Ministers, and who has given unmistakable proof of his willingness to be guided by their counsel, becoming respect is sometimes wanting in speeches made in the House. This scents of the backwoods academician and not of the cultured gentleman.

AT SEA.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—It seems to me and many others that there is something "rotten in Denmark" with our whole reform. To prove this, one need not go far. The grumbling and dissatisfaction seem to increase daily, perhaps hourly, and what is more significant still is the fact that this fault finding is not alone confined to a class of men, whose intelligence, social standing or power is below notice, but seems to have taken root actually among the very best of this community.
Surely there must be some reason for this; certainly some explanation could be offered. Is it perchance that the very spirit and intent of our much expected new Constitution does not pervade and unite, invigorate or vivify every part of our little Kingdom? Striking discord where unity was expected, blighting hopes where certainties were looked for, lowering self-respect when all Hawaii had risen as one man to maintain the honor of their nation's flag?

If this new inaugurated order of affairs has not brought all and every one of the above mentioned evils about, still who would dare truthfully to aver that this has not been the case in a great many instances?
I don't think that any of those present will forget the disgust and disappointment when the new Magna Charta of little Hawaii saw its first light of day among the people who asked as with one voice, "was this what we were ready to fight for?" Was this the best the wisdom of the Kingdom would give us?
But our feelings at that time were quickly quieted. We had leaders and we had work to do. We were told that certain objections would be remedied "as soon as possible," and trusting to our champions we went ahead, finishing the work of our Leaders, and finished ourselves, our unity with it, flinging ourselves this very day without leaders, without one single man who would dare to say "come, follow me, these are my sentiments! this is my policy!" If I am wrong, please correct, and I will gladly be instructed; but if right, then I and many others say, give us a policy to follow, give us a leader either in the Cabinet or Legislature.

The question then with you gentlemen of the Cabinet and Legislature is, not whether you have a right to forsake the people and render them miserable; but whether it is not your interest to unite them and make them happy.

Don't let this Reform party be insulted by giving outsiders a chance to say, it was only "madness of many for the gain of a few"—and such a few!

It is not what you are told by the law you may do, but what you are told by gratitude, reason justice and policy you ought to do. Gentlemen, is a politic act the worse for being a generous one? Is no concession, proper but that which is made from your want of right to keep what you grant? And surely in this case you not only have the right but even the sacred duty thrust upon you to unite the people by giving them leaders.

Your very existence lies in the united following of the electors! I might be wrong again. Some one please point out the error.

I maintain further that if for no other reason but this one, the New Constitution is an insult to decency; it has dragged the majestic purity of the laws of the land into the mire by compounding felony! It has shirked a sacred duty! Verily, this New Constitution of Hawaii stands alone among the nations of the earth in its grand eloquent wisdom of holding up above the law fraud and felony. Is there a nation in the world that would accept or submit to it? Who would dare to deny the right of men to demand a change, under existing circumstances? Or is it that people are overawed by a certain puritanical breed who intend falling into the same ways of the old regime, with only this change, that they and theirs shall have all the good things now while formerly Mr. Gibson had them?

The times when the Calvinistic followers of Satan held high sway and commanded the people who were foolish enough to cater to the demands of those hypocrites have gone by. Now the electors with their majestic right and might dictate their wants to their representatives who are bound to carry out the sacred demands of their constituents, the Ministry meantime pursuing their policy, and responsible for their acts to the peoples voice? Have we this now? Or does it look as if we ever shall?

My grammar may be bad, my English worse, and my rhetoric faulty, yet I submit this, the feelings of many for the public to say whether or not these are facts.

FROM BAD TO WORSE.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Matters seem to be going from bad to worse in the Legislature. After the Hitchcock episode had cleared the political atmosphere somewhat, by a wholesome censure of the Cabinet for a violation of the Constitution, the Attorney-General confessed to further deliberate breaches of the organic law.

During Tuesday's proceedings the Attorney-General confessed to having retained three other lawyers, members of the Legislature, to act for the Government in certain cases.
A fee had been paid in one instance, and fees were promised in the other.
The members implicated are Messrs.
Castle, Smith and Kinney. As some of these gentlemen are known to have participated in drafting the new Constitution, which was approved July 7, 1887, they must have known that they were violating the express provision of Article 20 of that instrument, by accepting "emolument from the Government," besides forfeiting their seats in the Legislature. There is no ambiguity about the Article in question, and the disqualification expressed in it was put there to satisfy popular demand, and as the complement of "reform." It should therefore have been held sacred by its framers, who were placed in office by a popular uprising to give it effect. But the first opportunity that arises for trampling it underfoot and reverting to former practices, was seized upon with avidity by the Attorney-General.

Article 20 of the Constitution, so far as it relates to the qualification of members of the Legislature, reads as follows: "No executive or judicial officer, or any contractor or employee of the Government, or any person in the receipt of salary or emolument from the Government, shall be eligible to election to the Legislature of the Hawaiian Kingdom, or to hold the position of an elective member of the same." Under this Article of the Constitution the seats of the Hon. D. H. Hitchcock, W. R. Castle, W. O. Smith and W. Kinney are forfeited, and should be forthwith declared vacant by the Legislature. They are not competent to take part in any Legislative work, being absolutely disqualified. The duty of the Legislature is clear in the premises.

MINISTERIAL RESPONSIBILITY.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Ministers cannot now allege that they enjoy the confidence of the Legislature. A majority of 31 to 10 censured the Attorney-General for violating Article 20 of the Constitution; but as the preamble to the resolution declared that the Attorney-General acted in this matter with the consent of his colleagues the entire Cabinet is included in this condemnation.

If Ministers hold to the principle of responsible Government they should resign. If they had a modicum of self-respect they would do so; but if they should be lacking in appreciation of the spirit of responsible Government and were entirely innocent of self respect, then the Legislature should compel their resignation, by adopting an address to the King calling his attention to the resolution aforesaid, and requesting him to exercise the power of dismissal conferred upon him by Article 41 of the Constitution of July 7th, 1887. If the Legislature fails in this duty it will confess its unfaithfulness to the Constitution.

Every member swore to "faithfully support the Constitution of the Hawaiian Kingdom, and conscientiously and impartially discharge his [my] duties as a member of the Legislature." The solemn obligation of an oath should have some power in quicken the consciences of members of the Legislature. In this case, the course of duty is as clear as day. Let the country have a sample of
CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT.

NEGLECT OR BAD MEMORY.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The extra session being almost at a close is it not right to ask of the members of the House if they still bear in mind some words of their speeches made previous to election day? Or are we going to be, if not in all at least in part, deceived as were the supporters and voters of the old party?

We, the supporters of the present Government, fought during the last election or at least many of us did, with the only belief that every member who was to be elected under our banner (Reform) would stand firm for the good of the community at large, and not only for a clique or portion of it, namely the planters.
For instance, is not the Portuguese element in this country, who will remember the promises made to them, justified in saying one and all that they have shamefully been deceived.

According to the declarations of the Reform party our banner was to shine with the words "equality and liberty for all!" the poor being protected against those who wished to be our oppressors.

One of the most solemn promises,
i. e., (to the Portuguese) the Asiatic immigration stopped, and more still, the passports granted by the "old fraud" would be, if not cancelled, severely investigated and the parties identified. But where are all those promises? Where is their fulfillment? Alas! After the easy chair is gotten it matters not how.

By this time it must appear clear to all who are impartial, that it is not intended by the ruling clique to treat the Portuguese with true regard to equality of race or nationality. This clique is prejudiced against the Portuguese, and the common excuse that they are too costly and so on is only a hand full of dust thrown on their eyes, and an effort to prejudice people against them. I say the intentions of that clique is to screw them down and prevent them to get on a level with the other white people, because if they did, it is feared that other interests would be spoiled.

Instead of this narrow policy, clearly surprising from the Reform party, why does not this country or Government adopt the system so successfully carried on by our great neighbors, the United States of America, where not only Portuguese but every nationality is awarded the same rights and privileges. The only way that a nation can prosper is to allow every man to obtain fortune through his industry, but here where a part of our community is trying to hold the black snake and the infamous contract system over the laborer, we never will prosper; a few of the said clique, the planters, may thrive, but the laborers will remain slaves. And the dream of these islands being in the hands of the people in general and not of the planters, as we were told on the 30th day of June last, that dream is well nigh vanished by the neglect of fulfillment of the promises made specially to us.

UNDIGNIFIED SHUFFLING.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The reply of the Minister of Foreign Affairs to Rep. Kamao's question regarding the settlement made with two Hawaiians, seamen discharged from the Kaimiloa, is a miserable admission of incompetence or injustice.

Liwai and Moses stood on an even footing with other seamen on the vessel. The white men on the vessel were Hawaiian to all intents and purposes, and could not demand a more liberal settlement than native Hawaiians could. What right had the Hawaiian Government to apply the rules prevailing in the United States and British navies to the white men on board the Kaimiloa, giving them three months advance pay, and deny the application of the same rules to native seamen?

INVITATIONS are out for the "hop" ing of December 16th.

FROM THE MORNING STAR.
Letters received from Capt. Garland, master of the Missionary vessel Morning Star, state that Ruk was made on the 32d day out from Honolulu. The missionaries were all well and in good spirit. Mr. and Mrs. Treiber, new missionaries, were left at Ruk, and the Morning Star proceeded to Ponape. Arriving at Ponape on the 12th of August, the place was found in turmoil—war between the natives and Spaniards. The Spaniards, who were in their store ship wanted to charter the Morning Star to sail for Manila. Capt. Garland could not accept the charter, as it would involve distress among the American missionaries. The Star left Ponape on August 17, and on August 30 she was near Jaluit on her way to the Gilbert group. The Spaniards at Ponape expected a man-of-war to come to their assistance, and it is feared that the natives of Ponape will be exterminated by Spanish guns.

A RAILROAD ACCIDENT.
An accident happened to the construction train or stone cars, on Beretania street, just in front of H.
Bradley's residence, at 6:30 o'clock this morning. While the locomotive was pushing half a dozen cars, at the usual speed, the foremost struck some stones at the above place and jumped the track, carrying two other cars with it. Several Portuguese laborers, who were in the front cars, were thrown out.
One of the men had a leg broken below the knee, while two or three others received slight bruises about the face and body. The cars that jumped the track ran about 40 feet, but retained their balance and stood on their wheels. Doctors Miner, Brodie and McWayne soon arrived at the place to render assistance.
The circumstances of the accident, as related by an eye witness, reflect no discredit on the engineer, but throw the blame on the men in the first car, who were there to watch the track.

VIVE LA HUMBUC.
EDITOR BULLETIN:—After reading the first leading article in the "Daily Gazette," of this morning, I am led to exclaim, following the illustrious example of His Excellency the Minister of the Interior—rot! rot!!
ROT!!! Ta Ta.

DAMNING WITH FAINT PRAISE.
EDITOR BULLETIN:—A writer in the "Daily Gazette" of this date, in speaking of His Majesty's Ministers, says: "The members of the Cabinet, particularly those just on the threshold of public life, have developed many sterling qualities." * * * This is hardly fair to the veteran who holds the portfolio of the Finance Department. Comparisons are always unpleasant in such cases and more so when of such an invidious character. Following the policy of the Finance Minister, as developed in the English Loan matter, I had fancied that he, too, had "developed some sterling qualities." FEDERAL.

THAT HITCHCOCK RETAINER.
EDITOR BULLETIN:—A gentleman, writing to the "Gazette," accuses "Fair Play" of attacking the Chief Justice for an alleged opinion regarding the employment of Hon.
Noble Hitchcock to prosecute for the Crown on the Waimea circuit.
No attack or reflection upon the Chief Justice was made. It is not even pretended by the Attorney-General in his explanation, that the Chief Justice gave a judicial opinion on any question referred to him by that official. His Honor may have spoken informally to the Attorney-General, but this was not such an endorsement as should have been cited in the House as an apology for the gross breach of the Constitution of which the Attorney-General has been guilty. FAIR PLAY.

EXPLAINED.
EDITOR BULLETIN:—Your correspondent "Vox Populi" thinks my vote on what he sees fit to call the resolution of censure needs explanation, and I thought so before he did. Just before the vote was taken I arose and explained that I did not think it the province of the House to interpret the Constitution, and therefore I should vote against the resolution. That explanation became a part of the records of the Assembly. Now if "Vox Populi" will look at the resolution again he will see that it was simply an expression of the opinion of the Legislature on the interpretation of the Constitution. If the unconstitutionality of the action in question is so evident to "Vox Populi," is he afraid it would escape the notice of the Supreme Court if referred to them?
HENRY S. TOWNSEND.

PAHALA NOTES.
It has been raining heavily here, and there are indications of more to come.
The mill has been shut down two or three days, for repairs, but is now running again.
The country is recovering from the invasion of caterpillars, and is looking green again.
Five passengers arrived by the W.
G. Hall, on Wednesday night, on a visit to the volcano. We are glad to see our route patronized occasionally.

The Hawaiian Legislature.
28TH DAY.—WEDNESDAY, Dec. 7th.
MORNING SESSION.
The House opened at 10 A. M.
President S. G. Wilder in the chair.
Mr. Smith stated that after his election their firm was employed by the Attorney-General and their bill was $125, but under the circumstances he should not accept any compensation, as it might establish a bad precedent.
Mr. Navahine presented a petition from Kaupo praying for an appropriation of $1,000 for a school house. Laid on the table.
Mr. Smith reported from the Minister Thurston replied to Mr.

Townsend's questions, that the lowest bids in all cases have been accepted.

The supplies for Oahu prison are purchased by the jailer where he can purchase the cheapest. A numbered stub receipt is given to parties paying water rates, and the stub retained in the office of the waterworks from which the cash account is made up.

Minister Brown reported that 8 bills had been presented to the King for his signature.
Mr. Kamaoia offered a resolution that the Minister of Foreign Affairs request all the arms and equipments now in possession of the volunteer military forces be returned to him, to be kept by him until such a time as a law may be passed legalizing these companies. Laid on the table.

Mr. Baldwin offered a resolution to the effect that the commission appointed by the House to inquire into and investigate the feasibility of obtaining certain Crown lands for homesteads, be allowed a certain amount of money with which to carry on their investigations, and that all expenditures be reported to this House at the next regular session. Adopted.

Mr. Smith presented a resolution to the effect that Mr. J. A. Magoon hold the office of Clerk until he resigns, or another is elected.
Adopted.

Mr. Widemann presented a resolution that a committee of one be appointed to wait on the King and inform him that this House will be ready for adjournment on Saturday.
Withdrawn.
Mr. Daniels asked several questions regarding the session of Pearl river to the United States.
Recess until 1 P. M.

A REMEDY FOR THE COMMON WART.
It is very pleasing to know that a cure for the common wart, so unsightly and often so abundant on the hands and face, has been announced by physicians. According to the Medical Press, small doses of sulphate of magnesia taken internally will remove them. M. C. Rat, of Lyons, has drawn attention to this extraordinary fact. Several children treated with three grains of Epsom salts, morning and evening, were promptly cured. M. Aubers cites the case of a woman whose face was disfigured by these excrescences, and who was cured in a month by a dram and a half of magnesia taken daily. Another man reports a case of large warts which disappeared in a fortnight from the daily administration of ten grains of salts.

CROTON-WATER.
According to the Sanitary Journal, a district including 239 square miles, in which the water that supplies New York City is collected, contains a population of 20,000 persons, nearly 2,000 dwellings, the same number of privies and cesspools, nearly as many barn-yards and pig pens, and, in addition, cemeteries, slaughter-houses, and other sources of animal decay and filth. There is no escape for all this filth except by surface drainage, by which it is conducted directly to the aqueduct, and thence to the great reservoirs in New York City, whence it is distributed to the inhabitants of the metropolis.

Only Perfect Automatic System of Electric Lighting

in the World.

We are prepared to supply Local Companies, Mills, Railroads, etc., with dynamo running, from one to sixty lights each, and the largest machine is so perfectly controlled by its Automatic Regulator that it runs safely and economically at full speed with any number of lights below its maximum.

In all Desirable Qualities of Electric Arc Lights the Thompson-Houston

System has no Equal.

We furnish Arc Lights of Various Degrees of Illuminating Capacity, from 1200 to 100,000 candle power; and Incandescent from 10 to 750 C.P.

Are Light Machine, with Thompson's Spherical Armature.

The Thompson-Houston Dynamos have no equal for Simplicity, Compactness and Durability. The same has been said and admitted to be true of the Thompson-Houston Lamps. In the most exhaustive examination and competition with both European and American exhibitors in London, England, 1886, this Company was given the only Gold Medal for Electric Lighting.

At no city in the United States has it ever competed for city business that it has not been awarded the city contract. This cannot be said of any other Company in the world.

We have established upward of ONE HUNDRED LOCAL COMPANIES DURING THE PAST YEAR, and many more are being organized.

We request parties who contemplate putting in an Electric Light Plant to confer with our agent before adopting any other system.

Correspondence with active, energetic men, capable of interesting capital and organizing local companies, is solicited.

Local Lighting Companies Cannot Afford to Operate any other System.

Owing to the Automatic and Self-Regulating features of the DYNAMO MACHINE (broad and valid Patents for which are owned by this Company) sufficient saving is effected in power, attendance and repairs, as compared with any other system, to more than pay interest on the entire cost of plant.

Estimates, Price List, etc., will be furnished on application. Address,
