OUR SAN FRANCISCO LETTER.

Per Steamer Australia, San Francisco, November 7, 1890.

(From Our San Francisco Correspondent.)

Sugar News.

The Berlin National Zeitung says that the government is about to consider a method to effect a reform in sugar taxation, and that the scheme involves a fresh reduction in export bounties.

Men in New York who are interested in the beet-sugar industry characterize as bosh the report that any effort of Germany to prevent, by excessive duties, the sending to America of beet-sugar seeds would be a blow to the industry here. They say that this country is able to raise beets enough for the purpose of supplying the whole world.

A meeting was held at Sioux City, Iowa, on the 24th, for the purpose of securing pledges from the farmers for the production of sugar beets. H. T. Oxhard, the Grand Island sugar manufacturer, made a proposition to put in a plant at South Sioux City to cost $500,000 for a bonus of $150,000 in cash and real estate and a guaranty that 2,000 acres of beets would be raised in the vicinity next year. There is no trouble in getting pledges for the required number of acres. A committee has started for Grand Island who are prepared to put up a guaranty bond for the bonus.

Mission Rock Warehouse is being converted into the sweetest, stickiest storehouse about the bay just now. J. D. Spreckels & Bros. have leased it, converted it into a bonded warehouse, and are filling it full of their sugar with a view to obtaining the McKuley bill which their Republican brethren fastened on them. The terms of the lease are $1,000 per month, and the difference between that modest rental from now until April, and the duty on the 20,000 tons of foreign sugar the firm has coming here, is likely to add a pretty penny to the Spreckels' bank account. The lease was signed three weeks ago, the Rock became a bonded warehouse on Monday, and the matter was no secret when the big tramp steamers Remus and Algoma laid alongside and commenced to discharge. In addition to these vessels the British steamer Strathearn is now due from Java with a full cargo, the steamer Hounslo is nineteen days out from the same port, the steamer Eton is loading at Batavia, and so are the sailing ships Chrysomene, the Co. of Carthage and the Earl of Zetland, and at Manila the British ship Helga is taking on 2,000 tons, all destined for Mission Rock and J. D. Spreckels & Bros. It is doubtful if the refinery owned by the Spreckels will have to draw on the Mission Rock store for a pound of the bonded sweets before the 1st of April, for the reason that the Hawaiian Island crop of reciprocity sugar is lasting nearly all through the twelve months of this year. New sugar is expected from the islands by the middle of November or early in December, and this source of supply, added to the refinery's stock on hand, will pretty nearly suffice to supply the demand until the embargo is removed in April. If it does not, the new bonded warehouse preserves can be drawn on to the extent required, as in the case of any bonded goods, but the knowing ones do not anticipate that the Spreckels will have to pay any great amount of duty on this account. It is generally believed that the rush of domestic growers to get their sugar in before it comes into competition with free sugar, will also have a tendency to keep the refineries busy until the ramifications of the tariff bill furnish them with materials from foreign lands.

Foreign News.

Several paintings by Garnier, the French painter, illustrating the works of Rabelais, have been seized in London as indecent.

An encounter has occurred between Turkish troops and armed Armenians near Erzeroun, in Armenia. Seven soldiers were killed and fifteen wounded. Acting under orders issued by the Sultan, the Governor of Erzeroun summoned all the Moslems to the mosques, and called upon them to treat the Christians with respect.

Tariff negotiations between Germany and Austria have resulted in a reduction of three marks in the duties on rye and wheat imported from countries having commercial treaties with Germany and Austria containing the favored-nation clause. This will include imports of those cereals from the United States, and exclude those from Russia.

The dock strikes in London are approaching an end.

The Prince of Wales has bought a racing stable, taking Baron Hirsch as a partner.

The persecution of the Jews has been redoubled in Russia.

Bismarck has made arrangements to start a brewery at Friedrichsruhe. Several Hamburg capitalists are interested. The financiers will run it fifty years, paying rent to Bismarck.

The Vossische Zeitung of Berlin confirms the report from Warsaw that a number of persons leaving Russia for Brazil were fired upon by a Russian frontier guard at Slupca. The Warsaw report stated that nine persons were killed, and the Zeitung says that four were shot.

The State Department at Washington has just received from the United States Legation at St. Petersburg an English translation of the imperial ukase, issued August 28, raising the customs tariff twenty per cent on some and forty per cent on other articles of commerce.

The steamer Umbria was caught in a water spout on her last trip across the Atlantic, and narrowly escaped foundering.

Austria is wrestling with the question of a gold or a silver standard money. There is little chance for the gold standard being adopted.

The Canadian Fisheries Department has been notified of the formation at Victoria of a seal-hunters' union, the object being to double the price to be paid hunters for every skin they get. Heretofore the sealing owners paid $1.50 a skin, and they resent the increase, and threaten unless the hunters moderate their demands, to transport men from the Atlantic Coast to take their places.

A row has broken out among Stanley's lieutenants, showing that much bad blood existed on the recent African trip.

Sir Richard Burton, the discoverer of Lake Tanganyika in Central Africa, died at Trieste, Austria, on the 20th inst.

A bulletin regarding the condition of Grand Duke Nicholas, the uncle of the Czar, says that since he was taken to Alupka, in Crimea, he has been subject to convulsions and loss of memory. The action of his heart is feeble. His temperature is 38 degrees centigrade and his pulse 90.

Owing to the successful completion of the St. Clair Railway tunnel the Dominion Government has been asked to assist Senator Rowland's project for a tunnel across the Straits of Northumberland to Prince Edward Island. The cost of the work is estimated at seventeen millions. An English syndicate has offered to construct the tunnel if the Canadian Government guarantees 6 per cent. interest on the bonds for 100 years.

The Mexican Government has signed a contract with a French syndicate for the improvement of the harbor of San Blas, on the Pacific. The sum provided is $500,000. Senior Varilla, late director of the Panama canal, is the director for the French syndicate, and is now on his way to Paris to complete arrangements for the immediate commencement of the work.

Shipping News.

The schooner Argonaut, from Coos Bay for this port, went ashore on November 4th, one-half mile southward of Point Montara, near Sanisnton. The crew were saved. The schooner is of 185 tons net, was built in 1880, and was owned by the Simpson Lumber Co. Her hull was insured for $2,000 in the Fireman's Fund and $2,000 in the California Insurance Company.

The schooner American Boy from Gray's Harbor for this port was wrecked on the North Farallones on November 3d. The crew were saved. The American Boy was 173.89 tons, built in 1882, and owned by the S. H. Harmon Lumber Co. The hull was insured for $8,000 in the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company.

The British ship Earl of Zetland, Captain Cunningham, sailed from Probolinggo, Batavia, for this port on September 7th, with a cargo of sugar consigned to J. D. Spreckels & Bros. She put into Singapore with the captain insane and most of the crew down with the Java fever. Captain Cunningham, it appears, soon after leaving Probolinggo got an idea into his head that his officers were Indians, and were conspiring against him. He tried to shoot them, and they had to place him in irons.

The whaling fleet is arriving from the Arctic. The catch will reach about 150 whales.

The crew for the new cruiser San Francisco is on the way from New York. One hundred and fifty men will be brought from the East. The steamer Wilmington ran down the schooner Mayflower off Ballenas Bay on the 3rd inst., and all but wrecked her.

The Spanish steamer Vizcaya ran into a schooner off Barnegat, N. J., on the 31st, and both vessels sank. Nearly thirty lives were lost.

The State Commission of Rivers and Harbors, Chas. F. Reed, J. J. Crawford and C. E. Grunsky, have submitted their report to the Governor. It is too long a document for reproduction, but calls for a straightening out of the channels of the Sacramento, San Joaquin and Yuba rivers. The estimates run into enormous figures, but the results would amply repay the outlay.

The steamer Michigan arrived at Astoria, Or., on the 1st, after a wild race for life lasting seven hours. When about fifteen miles off Grays Harbor, at 4 o'clock A. M., a fire was discovered in her fore hold. All precautions possible were immediately taken; hatches were battened down, and every air hole that could be found was stopped up, and with every pound of steam that could be carried and every stitch of canvas to the breeze she flew down the coast. The steamer was scuttled at Astoria.

The description of the first of the new steamers for the China and Japan service of the Canadian Pacific shows a first-class ship of 5,700 tons and eighteen knots, with coal protection for possible conversion into a cruiser. Under the terms offered by the shipping bills, which will probably be passed during the winter, we may expect to see as good, or better craft, the products of American ship-yards, sailing out of San Francisco for the Orient and Oceania. If these bills do not pass we are likely to see our present Australian mail service go to the Canadian Pacific. The report of the first gun-practice of the cruiser Philadelphia shows remarkably good shooting. That was always a notable feature of United States naval warfare.

Sporting News.

Sunol will make an effort to beat 2:10 at the Bay District track, San Francisco, to-morrow, and Palo Alto will be sent against 3:12 while Stamboul will try to beat Nelson's stallion trotting record of 2:10.

O'Connor the oarsman says that no one but Australians have any chance in that country in aquatics. Nelson has lowered the world's trotting stallion record of 2:10.

Joe Thompson the Australian bookmaker intends to lay out a new race course in San Francisco. Slosson and Schaefer will play for the world's championship at 14-inch balk line billiards in New York in December.

McLeod has defeated McInerney again in a Graeco Roman wrestling match.

Maritime Canals.

Ex-Mayor Macaulay of Indianapolis has just returned to this country from Greytown. He says that thus far about $3,500,000 has been spent on the Nicaragua Canal and up to the present time the expenditures have in no case exceeded what was estimated on the work. No engineering difficulties were met that were not fully anticipated. Three thousand laborers are employed and excavation is about to begin.

La France Financiere says that "if work has seriously begun at Greytown as reported" it is dangerous to attempt to raise any more funds for the Panama ditch. The Panama Company has expended 1,600,000,000 francs and the work has hardly been begun, comparatively speaking. The South Sea Bubble and the schemes of John Law are not to be compared with the Panama scheme in the matter of total loss.

The official liquidator of the Panama Canal Company denies that the negotiations of Pyse with the Colombian Government for the extension of canal concessions have been ruptured. He admits, however, that the process of effecting a settlement with Colombia is slow and full of difficulty. Reliable advice from the isthmus describe the canal works as wrecked, and say that even the traces of the excavations are vanishing. The construction machinery is stated to be worthless now, and its condition is so bad that it will not bring the price of old iron.

The Corinth Canal across the Isthmus of Doriath which severs the Peloponnesus from the Greek mainland is approaching completion. It is four miles long and follows the line laid down by the Emperor Nero. It is to be ninety-six feet wide and thirty-six feet deep and at Corinth it will be crossed by a railway bridge 164 feet high. The cost is $14,000,000.

A copy of the TOURISTS' GUIDE gives more interesting reading about the islands than anything published.

HIS MAJESTY'S VISIT TO CALIFORNIA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

SIR: In order to correct any mistaken impressions, or any misapprehensions, which may exist in regard to His Majesty's visit to California on the U. S. Flagship Charleston, on Tuesday next, I state most authoritatively that His Majesty's journey will not extend beyond California, and that it has no relation to business, either of a public or private nature, of whatsoever kind, but has been projected solely in the interest of His Majesty's health.

J. A. CUMMINS,
Minister of Foreign Affairs.
Foreign Office,
November 20, 1890.

THE Paradise of the Pacific for November has been issued in season for the outward-bound mail. Some of its articles are new and well describe current events. But we regret to notice a disposition to indulge in personalities, and make it a partisan sheet, which it has never before been, and to aid in which the Legislature would not have voted assistance from the public treasury.

MR. BURCHARDT may or may not have said all that the Washington Post puts in his mouth, but if he did so, it shows indiscretion, and we publish the interview chiefly to illustrate how easily persons from these islands may say too much, and that it is generally better to say nothing, than to run the risk of being misrepresented. The trade between Honolulu and San Francisco will not show much falling off, nor will that port be a loser in the trade. Should a treaty, providing for full reciprocity between the Hawaiian Islands and the United States, be concluded, which is among the possibilities of the near future, the trade with San Francisco and the Pacific Coast will expand very largely and rapidly. So far as we can ascertain, there will be no diminution in the area of cane planting on these islands on account of the abolition of the sugar duties in the United States; on the other hand, every planter will strive to increase the quantity of sugar turned out, as an offset to the decreased value of his crop.

DREDGING THE BAR OF HONOLULU HARBOR.

By S. S. Australia on Friday Mr. G. F. Allardt, C.E., the engineer, who in addition to several costly and important works for private companies on this and other islands of the group, has surveyed the bar of this harbor with a view to its removal, left for the States to make further inquiries as to procuring the necessary machinery for clearing a passage of thirty feet deep through it, thereby enabling the heaviest ocean going ships to enter, and, when other projected improvements are carried out, to berth alongside the wharves of the city, and discharge and ship goods as easily at twenty-nine feet draft as they now can at twenty-one feet.

Mr. Allardt is of opinion that from the time his final instructions reach him to getting fairly at work on the bar might be within, say, four months, and that given the rate of progress already realized under very similar circumstances in San Francisco and Oakland harbors, twenty-five working days of eight hours each might suffice to clear the entrance.

The first thing to be done after the plans and specifications of the dredge itself have been prepared will be to build the scow here, whilst the machinery is in course of construction in San Francisco or elsewhere, so that neither shall have to wait for the other, but as the engines arrive from the Coast they may be set up here, and the work of dredging be begun at the earliest possible time. Another preliminary to be carried out here will be preparing a place of deposit for the material raised from the bottom.

An area of about ten acres will be selected on the coral flats east of the harbor channel, and this is to be surrounded by a suitable retaining wall and levee; on its exposed sides a wall similar to those built round fishponds, and on the sides not exposed to the action of the waves Mr. Allardt considers a suitable embankment would be sufficient. If the site at present proposed be selected, about 2,500 feet of pipe will be required to carry the material from the dredge to the place of deposit.

The "modus operandi" is thus described in Mr. Allardt's report to the Minister of Interior, dated July 19th last: "The work is to be done by what may be termed 'the hydraulic method,' that is, by pumping up the material in suspension, and transporting it by water carriage through sheet-iron pipes to its destined place of deposit, where it may be allowed to settle. The machine proposed to be used is the Von Schmidt Patent Dredge, and consists of a powerful steam engine and a centrifugal pump mounted upon a large scow. From the bow of the scow is suspended a heavy boom with movable joint, having at its outer end a rotary plow armed with a number of steel shares or cutters fastened to its periphery. When dredging is going on, the boom is lowered to the bottom, and the plow is made to revolve with considerable velocity, in that way loosening the material to be dredged. The material together with a large percentage of water is then sucked up through the suction pipe by means of the centrifugal pump, then forced by the same power through the transporting pipe to its final place of deposit," there it is enclosed by the levee or wall for holding back the debris laden water until it has time to settle, and then the clear water runs back to the bay by one or more openings left in the levee.

"In this way large tracts of lowland on the shores of San Francisco Bay were effectually reclaimed."

The total cost of removing the bar by this system is placed by Mr. Allardt at $98,000 or if it be found advisable to carry a part or the whole of the material to a more distant spot—a proportionate increase of cost for extra piping, etc., or as Mr. Allardt points out, having the levee and dredge at their disposal, the Government having cleared away the bar can turn round and deepen the entire harbor to a uniform depth of thirty feet at low water, by the expenditure, in all, of something under $200,000, and at the same time have an efficient dredging plant on hand for future work such as widening the channel on the bar if necessary. The present estimates are for a straight channel 200 feet in width—and keeping the harbor free from the debris annually discharged into it from the surrounding hills.

This vast improvement then may actually be accomplished within the next half year. The Legislature have done their part in voting the money $200,000 and the Minister of Interior seems ready and anxious to do his part.

The works already done by Mr. Allardt for the Railway and Land Company and the great fame for the Makaweli Plantation prove him to be an eminently safe and successful engineer, his calculations showing great foresight, and a keen appreciation and provision for the circumstances, prices and innumerable considerations to be reckoned with by an engineer, make his estimates thoroughly reliable. We wish him every success, and we hope to see the great White Star ships and the heavy ironclad warships that have hitherto been obliged to lie rolling outside, steam fearlessly in and take up their bulks at the new wharves yet to be provided concerning which we may have something to say before long.

Smoking is so common in Japan that all of the men and most of the ladies smoke, the girls beginning when they are about ten years of age. The ladies have pipes with longer stems than the men, and if one of them wishes to show a gentleman a special mark of favor, she lights her pipe, takes a whiff, hands it to him and lets him smoke.

PETITIONS TO THE BISHOP OF HONOLULU.

We have been requested to publish the following copies of petitions recently sent to the Bishop of Honolulu:

1. One with 52 signatures of members of the First Congregation calling upon the Bishop to dismiss Rev. W. H. Barnes, rector, and re-instate the Rev. H. H. Gowen and Mr. C. H. White, organist.

2. To the Right Reverend, the Lord Bishop of Honolulu: We the undersigned members of the Cathedral congregation desire to express our great grief at the condition, which seems to us most lamentable, of the work of the Anglican Church in Honolulu, and our strong opinion that no satisfactory changes can occur during your Lordship's continued presence in the diocese. We beg, therefore, respectfully, and in what we earnestly believe to be a sincere desire for the best interests of the church here, to ask you to consider whether the time has not arrived for you to resign the oversight of the diocese into other hands. [Here follow 87 signatures.]

3. My Lord: We, the undersigned members of the Second English Speaking Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu, feel it to be our duty to express our entire accord with a large number of our brethren of Your Lordship's Cathedral congregation in the wish that you may see the desirability of resigning the superintendence of the Anglican Mission in Hawaii. We do so in the firm belief that whilst Your Lordship is in charge of this diocese, peace and harmonious work cannot exist therein, and the well-being and hoped-for extension of our church in this country is impossible. (Here follows eighty-nine signatures.)

ANGLICAN CHURCH MATTERS.

We have been requested by the signatories of the following paper to publish it, as the expression of their opinion on the questions at issue:

Whereas,—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held on the 12th instant, the Bishop of Honolulu announced that he called the meeting of the Board and was presiding over it by order of the Supreme Court, and that he did so under protest, and that he then protested that the decision of the Supreme Court—

1. Starts with a pure assumption incapable of proof;
2. Rests on a basis not in accordance with the Constitution of the Kingdom;
3. Is not deducible by the received principles of interpretation;
4. Is not in harmony with itself;
5. Is inimical to the interests of the State as well as those of the individual, and further that the Bishop did refuse to put before the meeting a resolution regularly moved and seconded, alleging as his reason for refusal the same ground as that alleged by him for his refusal to call a meeting of the Board, which refusal has been set aside as unjustifiable by decree of the Supreme Court of this Kingdom, and further that the Bishop did refuse to permit any appeal from his ruling as President of the Board and chairman of the meeting, also did refuse to vacate the chair temporarily that the resolution might be put, and did again refuse appeal from his ruling, and refuse to put a resolution that the original resolution be put by the Secretary, and did finally, on this motion, having been put by the Secretary as demanded by the majority of the Trustees present, the vote being carried by a majority, did rise and leave the chair and the meeting, declaring the meeting to be at an end, and withdrew with a minority of the Trustees present, after having for upwards of an hour refused to put any proposed business before the meeting.

Therefore we, representing the said majority of Trustees at the said meeting of the 12th inst., do hereby declare our opinion and solemn conviction that the Bishop has hitherto refused to obey the mandate of the Supreme Court, which commands the Bishop "to call a meeting of the Trustees of the Anglican Church in Hawaii, a corporation, forthwith, for the consideration of the advisability of removing the building on the Cathedral precincts of the said corporation, at present in close proximity to the church building in course of construction for the Chinese congregation, and that the respondent pay the costs of these proceedings."

ABOUT POLITICS.

"When we find the most upright citizens taking no interest in politics, showing no zeal for the good government of the country, we may expect political stagnation and corruption. But when the best citizens manifest interest in public affairs we have good government and honest administration of public trusts. It is the duty of every man to take an active personal interest in the welfare of his country, and to see that the best citizens are elected to public places."

All true, every word of it. The truth is of a kind that needs to be often repeated. One of the great difficulties perhaps the greatest, in securing good government in this country, lies in the apathy and indifference to politics of so many intelligent and respectable people, who are otherwise good citizens, but who in this respect are not such. They take little or no interest in popular elections, and hundreds and thousands of them do not vote on election days. They leave the whole matter to be managed by political tricksters and their followers, and perhaps express their disgust without actively doing anything to prevent or cure the evils of which they complain. This is neither good sense nor good citizenship. Every one who has the right to do so should cast his vote on election days, and demand of every candidate for whom he votes, as the condition of receiving it, suitable intelligence and a good reputation for integrity and honesty. Were this the general practice of those whom the writer of the above extract calls "upright citizens," the consequence would be a great improvement in all the affairs of government. Political parties would be purer; better candidates would be nominated, and better officers of law would be elected. The whole body politic would be in a sounder and healthier condition, and numerous shady acts that are now tolerated, would be banished from the land.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.

Truly the National Reform Party shows no want of alacrity in appropriating any available credit due to their predecessors. Their jubilation over the prices bid for the lots of Government land on the south slope of Punchbowl is an instance. How is it that this new neighborhood has become such a favorite, and whence comes the water to supply the necessities of this promising suburb? If the late Reform Ministry had not effected all preliminaries, this district would be worth now no more than it was three years ago. The new road from Beretania street leading up along the foot slope of Punchbowl was designed to connect with the much-contemned Punchbowl road, and so the dwellers in the new villas after viewing the cocoanut grove of Waikiki and Diamond Head from their own windows can without much effort walk or ride up to the old saluting battery, and enjoy the ever-changing tints of the Waianae mountains, the yacht-sprinkled expanse of the Pearl Lochs, the waving green of the new rice, sugar and banana plantations stretching away to Honolulu and the cheerful, fussy locomotive carrying its freight and passengers to the new city and the newly cultivated estates, then may the "National" trumpeter smite upon his breast and exclaim, "Alone I did it!"

So, too, doubtless he will feel called upon to welcome the first deep-draft ship that passes through the Allardt passage with loud praises and congratulations on the foresight which set at work the survey and plans which we hope may eventuate in so splendid an achievement. It will be convenient, by that time, to forget that they were taken in hand and the practical part accomplished by direction of the Minister whose name being mentioned, was sufficient to set the Chiefs of the Party roaring themselves out of all sense of decorum, and to use language which often stretched legislators' privilege to breaking point.

For ourselves, we have no doubt that the bar will be cut through and the harbor dredged without finding the remains of the Punchbowl road at the bottom, where it was so often announced to be already deposited—the wish being then father to the thought. Now, however, the probability is that this road, its yet unfinished accessories and its yet unbuilt suburb, will be proudly pointed to as the creation, rather than the inheritance of those who succeeded the Reform Ministry.

Let us give both their due.

FRANKLIN'S WILL.

And now at this late day the will of Benjamin Franklin is contested, that is, one of his charities provided for by the will is disputed. It appears that by his last testament Franklin set aside one thousand pounds sterling each, for Philadelphia and Boston, to be used by those cities after a hundred years of investment in helping deserving young men to start in business. Franklin's idea was that at the expiration of the term the investment of the sums named and the re-investment of the earnings would produce more than one million dollars, the interest upon which would prove sufficient to aid several young men each year to start in a small way in a safe business, the recipients of the aid to be such as had capacity but no capital, and who, by reason of their correct lives and their good examples, were worthy of assistance. It was a noble conception, and for a hundred years has excited men to commend Franklin's breadth of charitable spirit.

But the investment of the sums has not turned out as Franklin calculated. Only about half as much has been realized as he anticipated. His heirs now come in and ask that the bequest be set aside, because it has failed of its purpose; that as the terms of the will have not been complied with, and cannot be within the time appointed, the will to that extent is void and the trust created has terminated, wherefore they ask that the money and its earnings be distributed among them. The case is already in the Courts of Pennsylvania, and it is probable that a long and tedious litigation will be maintained.

If the will is defeated, as is not unlikely, it will be but another instance of the failure of men, wise in their day, to so make provision by will for their beneficent contributions that the charities will become effective. The better plan for men of wealth to adopt is to be their own executors; to dispose of their charitable donations while they live, and not trust to the uncertainty of wills and trustee bodies.—[Am. Exchange.]

TUESDAY, NOV. 25, 1890.

A DISPATCH from the British government to the New Zealand government, dated Nov. 1, states that it had been decided to reduce the rate of letter postage to and from the Colonies to two and a half pence for each half ounce, thus adopting the Postal Union rate. It will now be in order for the Hawaiian government to arrange for a corresponding reduction on letters to and from the Colonies.

THE record of the rainfall, which we publish from month to month, is the first systematic effort to collect data regarding the rainfall throughout this group that has ever been made, and is not only interesting, but very valuable. We trust it will soon include every district on each island, and thus furnish complete statistics of what has heretofore been mere guess work. Those interested in keeping the rainfall in localities not now reported will always find Mr. C. J. Lyons ready to receive any additional information sent to him, regarding it or other meteorological occurrences that may be thought worth reporting.

THE census commissioner at Washington has published a statement to the effect that, in the clerical work of compiling the census statistics, he has found women better fitted and more expert for such service than men. He says that the average number of persons counted by his female clerks was 9,500 families, or 47,950 individuals, while the average number counted by his male clerks was only 6,587 families, or 32,935 individuals. In other words, the women did fifty per cent more work than the men for the same money. If we are not mistaken, this is the verdict in most cases where women and men come in competition in clerical statistical work.

THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

In the consideration of the Appropriation Bill passed and approved for the years 1890-92 the first thing which strikes one is of course the enormous total $4,774,171 as against $4,394,363 as estimated by the Reform Ministry.

The Civil List as appropriated appears to be less by $8,000 than that estimated, this sum however has been removed from the Civil List vote to reappear in the Department of Foreign Affairs with an additional $2,000 for "State Entertainments." However we are not inclined to quarrel with the $10,000 for that purpose.

The expenses of Legislature are $10,000 above the vote for 1888-90 and the estimate of the late Ministry which put them at the same figure.

The Judiciary Department takes $189,441 as against $173,100 of the last period and $173,881 estimated, the principal rise being occasioned by the establishment of two new Police Justices for Makawao and Ewa, an increase and remodeling of the District Judiciary and an improved rate of pay to some of the more important permanent officials.

The Foreign Department appears at $217,345 against $187,333.50 of the last period and $161,350 estimated. The immense increase is due to the expense of Foreign Agents including the Paris Exposition being raised to $17,000 (estimate $7,000) charging State Entertainments $10,000 in this department, raising the King's Guard to the standard of 1888. Band, flags, etc., from $37,000 estimated to $50,000, a well deserved increase for men who have served in the band for from five to twenty years, increase in "Education Abroad" and return of indigent Hawaiians, and finally the only reprehensible charge, $3,500 for C. C. Moreno, who might have got years ago whatever was justly due to him, had he sent in his claim properly authenticated when he ceased to have charge of the "youths."

Of the Interior Department it is only possible to point out in this mere general survey that the total vote, including Board of Health, stands at $1,388,436 against $1,057,248 of 1888-90. Of this excess, large sums are voted to quit-claims advanced prior to 1887, claims which might justly be described as incurred for fortifying the Palace and Palace grounds, for possible profits in carrying South Sea laborers to their homes, and other dead loss bargains of the pre-Reform government. In short, the total Interior vote exceeds that of the last period by $231,188, and the estimate of the late Ministry by $155,174.

Finance expenses want $109,200 more than the last appropriation, Board of Education nearly $52,000 more. Section 3 is also very heavy. Well may His Majesty caution his Ministers to be very careful.

ABOUT FOREIGN CONGRATULATIONS.

The Free Traders of Great Britain, says the San Francisco Bulletin, are rejoicing that the recent elections in America have been adverse to the Republican Administration. In their view the case has gone against Protection. During the next two years there will be good occasion to modify this opinion. The present tariff was outlined by the Republicans in the last Presidential canvass. The issue was squarely made and the Republicans won. There could be no time when the latter could suffer some reverses with so little permanent effect as now. There can be no legislation adverse to the present tariff by the next Congress without the consent of the party now in power. There is every prospect that the system of Protection now in force, will remain intact for many years. In the meantime, the practical working of it is far more likely to gain friends than to lose them. There is just now small occasion for the Free Traders of Europe to send over congratulations. The system of Protection is not dead. All that can be truthfully said is that the reaction which usually comes against the party in power at about the mid-term of its administration has come in this instance. There is no time when it could come and have so little significance. There is the usual sea-saw of politics. The return wave two years hence may be stronger than that which carried the present Administration into power.

The Republican organization has lost none of its strength. It suffered a temporary defeat when Cleveland was elected. But it rallied and carried the country four years later. It will rally again, getting rid of all bickerings and all divisions. Nor does the defeat of McKinley signify that the country has pronounced against the present Tariff. Long before the present law was enacted his district was gerrymandered by his political opponents as to make it next to impossible to overcome the adverse majority of 2,000 or more. But the fact that he made a gallant fight and came near winning, overcoming or changing the political opinions of hundreds in his district who had been arrayed against him, is to be taken into account. Had his old district remained for him there is no doubt that he would have been re-elected. There was far more significance in the defeat of Morrison, the author of one Tariff bill which contributed to the defeat of Cleveland. Morrison was unable to win in his old district, that had not been subjected to the gerrymandering process.

Andrew Carnegie, who is reported as reviewing the situation, takes this view of the result: "I want to say that it is simply a case of history repeating itself. There was never yet a triumphant party that did not feel the effect of a reverse during the middle of its success. Politics are simply a combination of reactions. They come in cycles of two years and fortunate is the party that gets the benefit of the reaction that comes in years when it counts as a sea-saw; and you can easily see how. I would prefer to be on the side that is down when the bump comes." That is just about all the significance that can fairly be attached to the recent reverses of the Republican party. The reaction in the other direction will be about as sure as was the one which is just now inviting foreign congratulations.

THE BILL RESTORING GOVERNORS.

The bills for establishing a governor on each of the four principal islands of the group, though introduced early in the session, did not come up for second reading until the 12th inst., with the recommendation by a majority report that bill No. 137 be amended and passed, which was done and was announced on the last day of the session as having received the royal signature.

The abolition of the office of governor and the distribution of the functions of the post in 1887 was unquestionably a national benefit. Beside relieving the treasury of a group of unearned salaries, it relieved the principal post or wherever the residence of the governor might be in each island of a hot bed of intrigue, spoils hunting and all their accompanying evils. Since 1887 according to the admission of Rep. C. Brown who was opposed to the abolition of the office, under the new arrangement the affairs of the Government had worked well, and moreover it was pointed out that there were certain official duties which in the present bill would conflict with existing law. And again it was so late in the session that the subject could not be thoroughly debated. What then was the object of rushing this bill through to signature at the close of the session.

The Appropriation Bill was passed and approved and so providentially there is no chance at least for two years of being burdened with Governors' salaries. They will have no pay, and no work—which is about fair—but then, why have Governors at all? The best friends of the scheme could only damn it with faint praise—it was merely honorary and so on. Rep. R. W. Wilcox suggests that Noble Parker might be made Governor of Hawaii and Noble Cornwell of Maui. True, but then again they might not, while holding seats in the Legislature. The men and women Governors who last held the positions were not persons of the same stamp as these estimable possibilities. Besides both the gentlemen named above, live when absent from the Capital, at considerable distances from any seaport, and the functions of a Governor, such as must be appointed under this bill, if any appointments under it be made, would consist largely in receiving and returning the visits of foreign officers of rank.

The suggestion we would make, and we offer it gratuitously to the Legislators of 1892, is that there be appointed a Governor, without territorial designation, who should reside in the capital city, receive and return calls, and without any administrative functions other than ceremonial, be at hand with his staff to perform the ornamental part of the functions of the former Governors of Oahu.

Under the new bill, perhaps the endowment of each sheriff with a cocked hat and an aide de camp would be the best way of filling the post of Governor.

A GREAT DISASTER.

The Wreck of a British War Vessel.—One Hundred and Seventy-three Lives Lost.

The British torpedo cruiser Serpent foundered off the coast of Spain. The Serpent was a twin-screw vessel of 1770 tons, and carried six guns. She was lost twenty miles north of Cape Finisterre.

The disaster occurred at 11 o'clock on Monday night, November 10th, a heavy storm prevailing and the night being densely black.

When the vessel struck, her keel was torn off and a great hole was stove in her bottom. She slipped off the rocks into deep water, and immediately foundered, tons of water rushing through the hole in her hull.

The majority of the officers and crew were below when the vessel struck, and she sank so quickly afterward that none of them had time to reach the deck. The disaster was so sudden that it was impossible for those on deck to get a boat into the water. The time between striking and sinking was so short that nearly all on board went down without making a sign.

It is stated that the Serpent had become partially disabled in a hurricane, and that it was necessary for her to repair before proceeding on her voyage.

Her commanding officer therefore decided to put into Corunna or Vigo, and while attempting to make the port the vessel was lost.

The official statement shows the loss of life to be 173. A reward has been offered by the Government for the recovery of the bodies.

Strange stories are afloat in regard to the ill-fated cruiser. It is alleged that she was bungled in building, and that her test trials under steam were farces.

R. M. S. Zealandia.

The Royal Mail steamship Zealandia, Capt. K. Van Oterendorp, arrived at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, 7 days and 21 hours from San Francisco. Sailed from the latter port Saturday, November 15, at 5:07 p. m. The first two days experienced light variable winds and fine weather. November 18th strong S.E. wind with heavy sea, 19th fresh N.W. gale with very high sea. At 7:45 a. m. passed the Alameda, bound east. On the 20th had squally weather with heavy N.W. swell, thence to port light variable winds, fine weather but moderate N.W. swell. On the 22d inst. at 12:45 p. m. passed the Australia, bound east. Her slow trip is owing to defective machinery and the rough weather.

The Zealandia brought 45 cabin, 39 steerage passengers, and 804 tons of cargo for this port, and had in transit for the Colonies 51 cabin and 46 steerage passengers and 840 tons of cargo. She left for Auckland and Sydney shortly after 2 o'clock next morning.

Dramatic Entertainment.

H. B. M. S. Nymph's amateur dramatic company gave a performance at the Opera House Saturday evening in aid of the Sailors' Home. The audience was not so large as it ought to have been. These gentlemen offered their services for this charitable object and should have been greeted by a full house for taken as a whole the entertainment was really excellent. The two farces were well played and well mounted. The light infantry drill by eight of the marines was a treat, the various movements being executed with wonderful precision. The marines were loudly applauded. The tableaux "Rule Britannia" was beautiful, and the solo by J. King well rendered. It is rarely a more effective tableaux is seen here. The songs and dances elicited well merited applause. One feature of the evening was the playing of the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Oscar Herold who presided at the piano. He introduced some new music which was most enjoyable.

The King's Embarkation.

On Tuesday His Majesty the King leaves on the Flagship Charleston for California. His Majesty takes leave of the Queen and her sister at the palace and entering the state carriage, attended by Hon. J. O. Dominis, A. S. Cleghorn, Col. G. W. Macfarlane, Chamberlain, and the staff officers, will be driven to the wharf at the foot of Fort street. Here he will take leave of the officials and other friends who desire to say good by. At 2 o'clock His Majesty will step into the launch and at once proceed to the Charleston. After being officially received on board, the Flagship will start on her journey. The intention is to arrive in San Francisco December 4th the day before the Australia leaves for Honolulu. His Majesty during his tour will be attended by Col. G. W. Macfarlane his chamberlain only.

Dance at the Palace.

On Friday a committee of ladies waited upon the King to obtain his permission to have a dance at the Palace this evening. His Majesty readily consented, and the invitations are issued by that committee. The dance is given on the eve of His Majesty's departure for the Coast, and also complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fowler and the Admiral and officers of the U. S. Flagship Charleston. The Hawaiian band will play for dancing.

THE BALL-TOSSERS ARRIVE.

Manager Hoogs Brings a First Class Team.—Three Games This Week.

Mr. Frank L. Hoogs arrived on the Zealandia, bringing with him a first class team of baseball players, to be known as the California Club. They are all well known and tried men, who will put up a good game of ball. Domiciled at the Hawaiian Hotel Cottage No. 700, a large number of our local players called upon them yesterday evening, and found them to be a very gentlemanly set of fellows, and, as might be expected, very enthusiastic about baseball.

Three games will be played this week, the first on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, the second on Friday, Hawaiian Independence Day, and the third on Saturday. The games will commence each day at 3:15 p. m. The boys will practice each morning from 10 to 12 o'clock.

The sale of season tickets has been large, and those wanting any should apply early. The team that will play against the Honolulu on Thursday will be as follows: Ward, catcher; Farrell, pitcher; Powers, 1b.; Creamer, 2b.; Howard, 3b.; Reilly, s. s.; Leveque, r. f.; Sharp, c. f.; Cahill, r. f. Leveque and Cahill are change pitchers.

Mail Notes.

The box containing the papers, etc., which were stolen from William Goodness' safe, some weeks ago, has been found with all the papers, in a cane field near Wailuku. The thief has not been caught although some queer reports are going the rounds.

The Wailuku sugar mill started grinding Wednesday; everything in the new mill working nicely.

The Waihee mill will not be finished for grinding till January.

It is reported that Wailuku had an aspirant for the Inspector-Generalship of Government Schools.

The brig John D. Spreckels arrived Friday at Kahului, fifteen days from San Francisco.

An addition to the Waihee Government School building will be put up during the holidays, Alex. Marshall having the contract.

Dr. Allen of Hana is reported as recovering from his illness, but is still at the hospital here. Dr. Moritz arrived from Kau yesterday in the Hall, but owing to the improved condition of Dr. A., will not probably go on to Hana to supply the doctor's place there.

November 22, 1890.

A Naval Service.

At the usual service on board the U. S. Flagship Charleston, Sunday morning, the musical portion was rendered by the choir and organist of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral. The service was held on the main deck. Admiral Brown, Capt. Remy and officers attended, and nearly every one of the crew was present. Chaplain Frank Thompson had charge, and read the prayers and lessons impressively. The choir sang the anthem, "Hymn of Peace," by Calcott, the solo being rendered by Miss Dora Dowsett. The hymns included, "All Hail the Power," "Hark, Hark My Soul," and the one for those at sea, all being sung with a will, the crew joining in. A nice toned reed organ from the Hawaiian News Company's music department was used on this occasion. The service was heartily enjoyed by all on board.

Royal Breakfast and Presentation.

A breakfast was given at Iolani Palace Sunday morning in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fowler. Those present were: Their Majesties the King and Queen, Hon. Paul and Mrs. Neumann, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fowler, Miss Inez Neumann, Miss Finckler, Hon. G. W. Macfarlane, H. M.'s Chamberlain, Mr. T. McKenzie Fowler, Mr. J. W. Robertson, H. M.'s Vice Chamberlain, and Mrs. Robertson.

After the breakfast their Majesties presented Mr. Fowler with a handsome mamo lei enclosed in a carved sandal wood case, as a wedding present. This gift of a rare royal feather necklace is the greatest compliment that can be bestowed.

The Volcano.

Advices from Kau by the W. G. Hall state that the volcano continues very active, and its light is seen every clear night from Punaluu to Honouliuli. Steam is occasionally seen rising from the southern slope of Mauna Loa, but no smoke or fire has been seen lately in Mokuaweoweo, the summit crater, either from Kau or from Hilo. The steam issuing from the numerous cracks and fissures south of the crater has been unusually intense, indicating great activity of the subterranean volcanic fires.

Death of Arthur Turton.

Arthur C. Turton died at San Francisco, November 8th. He was taken sick at Seattle and removed to his home in San Francisco, where he died, aged 23 years and 9 months. The deceased was a native of Lahaina, Maui. The funeral took place on November 10th, the remains being interred in the Masonic Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. G. P. Wilder, S. Monsarrat, W. H. Aldrich, J. I. Dowsett, Jr., W. Holt and F. Eaton. The Rev. Mr. Brewer of San Mateo College, where the deceased once attended, officiated at the funeral.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO LETTER.

Per R. M. S. S. Zealandia, San Francisco, November 15, 1890.

(From Our San Francisco Correspondent.)

Sugar News.

New York, Nov. 15.—Cuban centrifugal, 96 degrees, 5 52-100; granulated 6 1/2c.

The local market is steady, with rates based on 6 1/2c for granulated. The Eastern market is very quiet. The supply at San Francisco will probably be diminished by the failure of the Strathearn to arrive from Java. She is given up as lost.

Judge Pratt of New York has appointed H. C. Havemeyer, General H. W. Slocom and S. W. White as receivers of the Sugar Trust. The trust will very soon issue a new plan of re-organization, and its affairs will be conducted so as to conform to the laws as recently laid down by the courts.

The Secretary of Agriculture in his recently published annual report makes a very flattering reference to the beet and cane sugar prospects, and particularly to the former. The excellent condition of both crops is attended to. The outlook for the home sugar industry is considered favorable. An analysis by the department chemist of beets grown in various states from seed distributed last spring indicate a high per cent of sugar, and afford what is regarded as conclusive proof that large sections of the country are adapted to the successful culture of the sugar beet. The practical results obtained in Nebraska, California, and Kansas demonstrate the feasibility of home-grown sugar manufacture. Considering that Europe produced last year 3,625,000 tons of beet sugar, and that very material part of it was grown in soil and climate similar to that of the central United States, there seems to be no valid reason why this country should not in a few years be practically independent of foreign sources for its sugar supply.

A dispatch from Farnham, Conn., says that the French company which is operating a beet sugarie there has proved a success, the beets running from six to eleven per cent of saccharine.

Beet sugar production is receiving renewed attention throughout the United States. A dispatch from Berlin, dated the 13th, says: The National Zeitung says: The bill before the Federal Council provides for a gradual reduction in the tax on beet sugar. The payment of the bounty on beet sugar exported from the country begins in August, 1893.

The value of merchandise imports at San Francisco during October was as follows: Hawaii, $459,878; Philippine Islands, $358,019; Dutch East Indies, $308,029; Australia, $105,222 and Tahiti $27,105.

A Money Scare.

The past week has been marked by tremendous excitement on the New York money market brought about by a general bear raid all along the line on the Northern Pacific and North American bank, both controlled by Villard. In the hurry of the fact that the attack on Villard's broker firm went under, notably Decker Howell & Co. The North River Bank also had to close its doors. The culmination was on the 12th and 13th when all stocks and particularly the Villards were mercilessly attacked. Villard weathered the storm though rumors of his failure were rife at all times. In the movement the panic feeling extended to every stock. Sugar Trust dropped to 51, and all other stocks fell from 5 to 25 per cent. The market quieted down on the 14th and was in its normal condition. Money went as high as 188 but this stress was relieved by the New York clearing house. Among the houses, which went under were Chas. M. Whitney & Co., brokers, for $300,000; John T. Walker, Son & Co. for $300,000, and Decker Howell & Co. for over $1,000,000.

Trade with New Zealand. Consul Connolly at Auckland, N. Z., has made a report to the State Department in which it is stated that the value of imports from the United States in 1889 amounted to $1,712,180 an increase of $96,835 over 1888. The value of exports to the United States was $1,706,500 leaving a balance of $5,680 in favor of the United States. The total value of imports from the United States into all the colonies during the past ten years is stated to be $18,680,255 and the exports to the United States were $16,339,060 leaving the United States a trade balance of $2,341,195 after ten years.

This is considered exceedingly favorable in view of the fact that no particular effort has been made on the part of the United States to cultivate trade relations. The only method of building up trade is to foster the steam communication. Consul Connolly refers to the fact that for years the New Zealand Government has borne the most of the expense of the mail steamer service. In speaking of the failure of the government to renew the service Consul Connolly says: "The withdrawal of the Oceanic Company's steamers would be a deathblow to American progress in the South Pacific and would tend to alienate the friendly desire to trade with the United States that at present happily exists. It would require years of determined and unremitting effort to establish the friendship and prestige that we at present enjoy in the seas. I cannot too strongly urge the necessity of at least giving pecuniary assistance to old established lines whenever the importance of such lines demands it." Continuing the Consul states that the condition of the colony is as prosperous as could be expected considering that the total indebtedness is about $452,846,370 of which $442,846,370 is held abroad.

Monument to Tavernier. The big Consuelo which sailed on the 13th, had on board a granite monument which is to be built over the remains of Jules Tavernier, the artist, which was buried at Honolulu. The monument is a fine specimen of this sort and is suitably inscribed. It was purchased by an association formed for the purpose.

Blaine's Ideas Triumph. The Republican leaders have spent the past two weeks in casting about for the reason of their Waterloo at the polls on the 4th, and the results of their conference will be embodied in a plan of action to be pursued at the coming short session of Congress. The stance forth adherents of the McKinley Bill are loath to believe that that is what caused their defeat, but the general run of the leaders are firmly of the opinion that that measure was responsible for it all. Mr. Blaine has seen the opening now presented to him, and a reciprocity treaty has been concluded with Brazil, while others are pending with Colombia, Peru, Chile and Argentina. General E. Burd Grubb, the newly-appointed Minister to Spain, has the Cuban reciprocity treaty well in hand. Dispatches from Washington indicate that Blaine is working night and day on his cherished project, and that if he has the swing at present accorded him, he will make reciprocity the election issue of the campaign of 1892, as against free trade.

Burchell Hanged.

J. R. Burchell was executed on the 14th in the jail yard at Woodstock, Ontario, for the murder of F. C. Benwell in February last. He induced Benwell to leave England with him on the pretense of teaching him how to farm. He represented that he owned a vast farm in Canada, and told Benwell that by investing a small amount of capital he would soon become rich. After fleeing Benwell out of his money he lured him to a swamp near Eastwood and there killed him. The evidence against Burchell was entirely of a circumstantial nature, but it was so strong that, notwithstanding the fact that thousands of people petitioned for a commutation of his sentence, the authorities would not interfere.

Burchell met his fate bravely, never faltering during the ordeal through which he passed before the execution. He stoutly maintained from first to last that he did not fire the shots which killed Benwell, but would not say who did. His wife in their last parting urged him to confess, but this he would not do.

ATHLETIC STUDENTS.

The Pupils of Oahu College Celebrate the King's Birthday by a Series of Events.

The extensive grounds of Oahu College were the scene of a series of athletic sports Nov. 17th, held in honor of His Majesty's birthday celebration. There was a very large attendance of visitors including Mrs. A. F. Judd, Mr. Justice and Mrs. McCully, Rev. Dr. E. G. Beckwith, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Hyde, Rev. W. B. Oleson, Rev. A. N. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Hon. S. M. and Mrs. Damon, Miss Judd, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Prof. W. D. and Mrs. Alexander, Rev. H. and Mrs. Bingham, Rev. O. P. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Scott, etc.

Principal Hosmer and his wife and all the teachers did everything in their power to make the occasion pleasant for those who attended and succeeded most admirably—everybody thoroughly enjoying themselves. The sports were interesting and well contested. The Hawaiian band was in attendance and discoursed sweet music during the afternoon. The front entrance to the school was draped with the school colors, buff and yellow, and many of the students wore badges of the same colors. When the students desired to show their appreciation of any special event they would give the college cry as follows: "Oahu on, Oahu on, Punaohu, Punaohu, man a mau!"

Prof. W. T. Brigham and A. D. Bissell efficiently performed the duties of judges, the latter also taking the time.

During the progress of the pole vaulting George McDougall sprained his ankle, and later on two ladies came in close contact with the football, but were not injured. Following is the result of the various events:

1—Standing long jump. Seven entries. Won by Edward Damon, who covered 8 feet 5½ inches.

2—Running long jump. Four entries. Henry Hapai cleared 15 feet 10 inches, and took first prize.

6—Putting the shot. Eight entries. Ernest Lyman won with 33 feet 6 inches.

7—Tournament. Nine entries. This event was exceedingly interesting. Three rings were suspended in the air there being a distance of one hundred feet between each one. The contestants were on horseback, and riding at full gallop tried to get the rings on to a pole as they passed. Charles Hyde got eight rings and was declared the winner. James Judd being second with seven.

8—One hundred yards dash. Heavy weights. Six starters. Won after a capital race by Edward Damon in 11½ seconds. Henry Hapai second. Light weights—Norman Lyman 1st, Carl Maertens 2d, Chas. Hyde 3d. AN EDITOR

On His Own Brother's Suicide From Drink.

[A correspondent sends the following extract from an Ohio paper with a request to republish it. It is signed by the editor, and is one of the most pathetic temperance sermons that has been put in print for many a day.]

"For the sake of the living, in behalf of the many homes scattered all over our fair land which have grinning skeletons in their closets, am I not willing that the grave shall cover the faults of my poor unfortunate brother, who died by his own hand Thursday, May 31st, leaving desolate a wife and little family, murdered because of the cowardice of our boasted civilization, which permits the monster evil of our times, intemperance, to bring sorrow to the millions without a single argument to justify its existence."

"This happens to be my brother, with whom I played in childhood, who shared my early joys and sorrows, who rejoiced in my success and mourned my misfortunes, even up to the time of his untimely death, but to-morrow it may be your brother who falls into the great yawning abyss which swallows up, blights and withers all who approach its awful boundaries."

"In all of our broad land there is hardly a home which has not felt the hot breath of this monster demon and to those which have not there is no safety, no immunity, for you who curl the lip with scorn at the thought of your son, husband or brother because a drunkard—perhaps filling a suicide's grave—may awaken one day to the awful realization that stealthily the cold, clammy serpent has stolen into your peaceful, happy home and blighted your fairest flower."

"Like nearly all who fall under this awful curse, my brother when himself was a generous, warm hearted man, whose tender sympathy went out to all God's creatures but himself; honest, faithful, with but a single fault, and that more the fault of our embryonic civilization than his own. But I am hoping that his awful death and the deaths of the thousands who are going down every year as he went, are not in vain, and that they only serve their part in the great compensating law of nature, which is long suffering and kind, but which finally rights all wrong."

"To emancipate 4,000,000 slaves cost the lives of 350,000 of the bravest boys that ever sacrificed themselves on the altar of human progress, but to emancipate the whole human family from this pestilential scourge has cost rivers of blood and tears, and the battle is hardly begun, but the millions of blighted homes and little mounds caused by its cursed influence are crying out in tones which are being heard around the world, and some day the millennial morn of emancipation will surely come."—J. J. Stranshan.

Benefit Concert.

Tuesday evening the testimonial concert to Prof. Savvlet, gotten up by Bandmaster Berger, took place at the Hawaiian Opera House. The audience was limited in numbers. The programme opened with a March by the Hawaiian string orchestra, and later on they played two other pieces all being well rendered. A piano duet by Messrs. Widemann and Savvlet, and a zither solo by Mr. Wolf pleased the audience very much. Miss Nolte, Miss Patch, Mrs. Grey and Mr. Paul Isenberg gave vocal numbers in so satisfactory a manner as to be successful. The concert musically was a success.

ATHLETIC STUDENTS.

The Pupils of Oahu College Celebrate the King's Birthday by a Series of Events.

The extensive grounds of Oahu College were the scene of a series of athletic sports Nov. 17th, held in honor of His Majesty's birthday celebration. There was a very large attendance of visitors including Mrs. A. F. Judd, Mr. Justice and Mrs. McCully, Rev. Dr. E. G. Beckwith, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Hyde, Rev. W. B. Oleson, Rev. A. N. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Hon. S. M. and Mrs. Damon, Miss Judd, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Prof. W. D. and Mrs. Alexander, Rev. H. and Mrs. Bingham, Rev. O. P. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Scott, etc.

Principal Hosmer and his wife and all the teachers did everything in their power to make the occasion pleasant for those who attended and succeeded most admirably—everybody thoroughly enjoying themselves. The sports were interesting and well contested. The Hawaiian band was in attendance and discoursed sweet music during the afternoon. The front entrance to the school was draped with the school colors, buff and yellow, and many of the students wore badges of the same colors. When the students desired to show their appreciation of any special event they would give the college cry as follows: "Oahu oa, Oahu oa, Punaohu, Punaohu, man a man!"

Prof. W. T. Brigham and A. D. Bissell efficiently performed the duties of judges, the latter also taking the time.

During the progress of the pole vaulting George McDougall sprained his ankle, and later on two ladies came in close contact with the football, but were not injured. Following is the result of the various events:

1—Standing long jump. Seven entries. Won by Edward Damon, who covered 8 feet 5½ inches.
2—Running long jump. Four entries. Henry Hapai cleared 15 feet 10 inches, and took first prize.
3—Standing high jump. Five entries. Eugene Lyman was the winner with 3 feet 11 inches.
4—Running high jump. Five entries. Christopher Holt, a dark horse, cleared 4 feet 7 inches and won.
5—Pole vaulting. Four entries. This was easily won by George Angus who jumped in fine style and eventually got over 9 feet 4 inches and loud applause.

6—Putting the shot. Eight entries. Ernest Lyman won with 33 feet 6 inches.
7—Tournament. Nine entries. This event was exceedingly interesting. Three rings were suspended in the air there being a distance of one hundred feet between each one. The contestants were on horseback, and riding at full gallop tried to get the rings on to a pole as they passed. Charles Hyde got eight rings and was declared the winner, James Judd being second with seven.

8—One hundred yards dash. Heavy weights. Six starters. Won after a capital race by Edward Damon in 11½ seconds. Henry Hapai second. Light weights—Norman Lyman 1st, Carl Maertens 2d, Chas. Hyde 3d. Time 12½ seconds. Feather weights—Arthur Rice 1st, George Fuller 2d, Wm. Castle, Jr. 3d. Four other starters. Time 14½ seconds.

9—Throwing baseball. Nine entries. Won by George Angus who threw the ball 268 feet 6 inches.
10—Kicking football. Six entries. Won by Walter Haydel with 106 feet.

11—Two hundred yards dash. Heavy weights. Won by Eugene Lyman in 23½ seconds. Light weights. Norman Lyman 1st. Time 25½ seconds.
12—Tug of war. Heavy weights. The Boarders beat the Day scholars. Feather weights. Day scholars beat the Boarders.

13—Three-legged race, one hundred yards. Chas. Hyde and Clarence Cooke 1st. Time, 16 seconds.
14—Potato race. Won by Henry Hapai in 45 seconds. Nine entries.

15—Hurdle race. Eight entries. Won by Eugene Lyman. Time, 19½ seconds.
16—Mile race. Five entries. The race lay between Edward Damon and William Chamberlain, who ran a dead heat. Time, 7 minutes.

The prizes consisted of silver medals and badges, and were distributed after the sports were over.

NAVAL MATTERS.

Orders Concerning the Old Nipsic and the New San Francisco.

Orders have been issued from Washington putting the United States steamer Nipsic, now at the Mare Island Navy Yard, out of commission. The Nipsic will be at once dry docked and repairs to the extent of $40,000 will be put upon her.

The San Francisco is to be put in commission, and will most probably be ordered as the flag ship of the Asiatic Squadron.

The following orders concerning officers now on the Pacific coast have been issued at the Navy Department:

Gunner William Halford has been ordered to special duty connected with the preparation of the San Francisco for sea service. Lieutenant John M. Hawley, Ensigns John S. Parcell, J. K. Seymour, Hilary P. Jones and William G. Miller have been detached from the Nipsic and granted three months' leave of absence.

Past Assistant Surgeon F. J. B. Cordeiro and Past Assistant Engineer Harry Webster have been detached from the Nipsic and granted two months' leave. Past Assistant Paymaster Corwin has been detached from the Nipsic and ordered to settle accounts and granted three months' leave. Ensigns Parmenter and John D. McDonald have been detached from the Nipsic and ordered to the receiving ship Independence.

AN EDITOR

On His Own Brother's Suicide From Drink.

[A correspondent sends the following extract from an Ohio paper with a request to republish it. It is signed by the editor, and is one of the most pathetic temperance sermons that has been put in print for many a day.]

"For the sake of the living, in behalf of the many homes scattered all over our fair land which have grinning skeletons in their closets, am I not willing that the grave shall cover the faults of my poor unfortunate brother, who died by his own hand Thursday, May 31st, leaving desolate a wife and little family, murdered because of the cowardice of our boasted civilization, which permits the monster evil of our times, intemperance, to bring sorrow to the millions without a single argument to justify its existence.

"This happens to be my brother, with whom I played in childhood, who shared my early joys and sorrows, who rejoiced in my success and mourned my misfortunes, even up to the time of his untimely death, but to-morrow it may be your brother who falls into the great yawning abyss which swallows up, blights and withers all who approach its awful boundaries.

"In all of our broad land there is hardly a home which has not felt the hot breath of this monster demon and to those which have not there is no safety, no immunity, for you who curl the lip with scorn at the thought of your son, husband or brother because a drunkard—perhaps filling a suicide's grave—may awaken one day to the awful realization that stealthily the cold, clammy serpent has stolen into your peaceful, happy home and blighted your fairest flower.

"Like nearly all who fall under this awful curse, my brother when himself was a generous, warm hearted man, whose tender sympathy went out to all God's creatures but himself; honest, faithful, with but a single fault, and that more the fault of our embryonic civilization than his own. But I am hoping that his awful death and the deaths of the thousands who are going down every year as he went, are not in vain, and that they only serve their part in the great compensating law of nature, which is long suffering and kind, but which finally rights all wrong.

"To emancipate 4,000,000 slaves cost the lives of 350,000 of the bravest boys that ever sacrificed themselves on the altar of human progress, but to emancipate the whole human family from this pestilential scourge has cost rivers of blood and tears, and the battle is hardly begun, but the millions of blighted homes and little mounds caused by its cursed influence are crying out in tones which are being heard around the world, and some day the millennial morn of emancipation will surely come."—J. J. Stranahan.

Benefit Concert.

Tuesday evening the testimonial concert to Prof. Savlet, gotten up by Bandmaster Berger, took place at the Hawaiian Opera House. The audience was limited in numbers. The programme opened with a March by the Hawaiian string orchestra, and later on they played two other pieces all being well rendered. A piano duet by Messrs. Widemann and Savlet, and a zither solo by Mr. Wolf pleased the audience very much. Miss Nolte, Miss Patch, Mrs. Grey and Mr. Paul Isenberg gave vocal numbers in so satisfactory a manner as to be encouraged. The concert musically was a success.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Mr. Alfred Fowler and Miss Eva Neumann Married.

ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL WHERE THE CEREMONY WAS PERFORMED CROWDED TO THE DOORS.

A Fashionable Assemblage—The Reception, Presents, Music, Etc.

One of the most brilliant weddings that has taken place in Honolulu, was that at St. Andrew's Cathedral Wednesday evening, when Mr. Alfred Fowler and Miss Eva Neumann were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Miss Eva Neumann is the eldest daughter of the Hon. Paul and Mrs. Neumann, and has been a bright ornament in Honolulu society circles, from which she will be much missed. Handsome, highly accomplished, having travelled extensively, and charmingly gracious in manner, she has endeared herself to hundreds of friends. Mr. Fowler, the bridegroom, is the junior member of the well-known firm of Messrs. John Fowler & Co. of Leeds and London, England, and a gentleman of cultured taste, one who makes friends wherever he goes. He is a most excellent business man.

The invitations announced the ceremony for 8:15 o'clock, but long before that hour the cathedral was crowded in every part, and many hundreds of persons were simply unable to obtain admission. Even the windows were filled with people anxious to get a glimpse of the bridal party. There was no attempt at decorations, only two handsome bouquets of choice white flowers, which stood on the altar. The ushers were Mr. Oscar Herold, Mr. J. M. Monarrat, Ensign Blow and Cadet Gartley of the flagship Charleston. These gentlemen were kept quite busy showing the invited guests to their seats.

At 8:05 the organ struck up with a Wedding Hymn by Randecker, followed by a Wedding March by Warneford. Mr. Wray Taylor presiding at the instrument. During this time the groomsmen took their places at the head of the nave. At 8:20 o'clock the arrival of the bride was announced by the strains of the Lobengrin Bridal March. Leaning on the arm of her father, the bride advanced slowly up the aisle to the chancel steps, where she was met by the bridegroom.

Mr. T. McKenzie Fowler, a cousin of the bridegroom was best man, having accompanied Mr. Fowler from the Colonies for that purpose. Col. the Hon. G. W. Macfarlane, H. M.'s Chamberlain, and a close friend of Mr. Fowler's, was a groomsmen, the others being, Assistant Engineer Jones and Cadet Churchill of the Flagship Charleston, Messrs. John S. Walker, Jr., Ernest H. Wodehouse and Alicka C. Dowsett.

The maid of honor was Miss Inez Neumann, sister of the bride, who looked very pretty in a costume of pale green trimmed with pink and lace. The bridesmaids were Miss Agnes Walker dressed in pale blue, Miss Rena Herbert in white, Miss McGrew in acure, Miss Hattie Brown in rose, Miss Helen Wilder in lavender and Miss Delia Widdifield in canary color. Mrs. Neumann, mother of the bride, occupied a seat in the royal pew during the ceremony.

The bride looked perfectly lovely in a handsome costume of ivory colored satin, en train, trimmed with orange blossoms and wearing a white tulle veil.

After the bridal party had taken their position at the chancel steps, our popular clergyman, the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh, commenced the ceremony, performing it in such a manner as to deeply impress the vast assemblage, an undercurrent of melody issuing from the organ throughout. The bride was given away by her father.

After the ceremony the bridal party withdrew to the vestry to sign the register, while the choir of ladies and gentlemen sang the hymn, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." As they left the cathedral, Mendelssohn's Wedding March pealed forth from the organ.

Between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, King street. The parlors were decorated with flowers, flags and evergreens. A canopy of white tulle, wreathed with choice flowers, occupied one corner of the main parlor, and suspended from it was an exceedingly handsome marriage bell of white chrysanthemums and yellow roses. Under this the happy couple received congratulations, which were eagerly offered by their large circle of friends and other specially invited guests. Panels of different colored flowers, principally roses were to be seen in every direction, while the veranda with its decorations of flags and illuminated by many colored lanterns presented a very pretty scene. In one of the rooms on the wall were the initials in white and green, E. N. and A. F. The grounds were also illuminated with lanterns and torches. The Royal Hawaiian Band was present and under the skillful direction of Bandmaster Berger played a choice programme of music.

The presents were very numerous and of the most costly nature. The wedding cake, made by warm friends of the bride's family, was a very handsome one. Refreshments were served during the evening in abundance. After the reception, dancing was indulged in to a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will leave on the R. M. S. Mariposa, December 20th, for the Colonies, thence to England by way of India. The Advertiser extends its congratulations, and wishes them a joyful wedded life.

KING-BROWN.

A Very Pretty Wedding at St. Andrew's Cathedral. Handsome Decorations and Illuminations.

Mr. Wm. C. King of the firm of Messrs. King Bros., and Miss Nellie B. Brown, daughter of Captain John B. Brown, were united in marriage at St. Andrew's Cathedral on Nov. 18th at 7:30 o'clock p.m., the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh with much impressiveness. The cathedral was crowded in every part with friends of the contracting parties, and others. The front of the pulpit and the desks of the two front seats in the nave were very prettily decorated with choice flowers and evergreens. The lectern was in a garniture of green and white. Pots of ferns and palms stood on either side of the chancel. Mr. Wray Taylor presided at the organ, and played the Bridal March as the bride passed up the center aisle, leaning on the arm of her father. She was met at the chancel steps by the bridegroom, who was attended by the groomsmen, Mr. Geo. C. Potter and Mr. C. E. Coville. The bridesmaids were Miss Hattie N. Brown and Miss Lydia Fitzsimmons. The bride was given away by her father, Capt. Brown. Soft music was played on the organ during the entire ceremony. After it was over the newly-married couple repaired to the vestry to sign the register. They left the building to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

A reception was held later at the residence of Capt. John H. Brown, Bereania street, and was attended by a very large number of invited guests. The grounds and the house were most brilliantly illuminated with colored lanterns, the scene as seen from the street being enchanting. The happy couple received the congratulations of their numerous friends while standing underneath a pretty floral wedding bell. The presents were numerous and of a costly nature. Refreshments were served during the evening.

COLONIAL NEWS.

It has been fixed that the general election shall take place throughout New Zealand on the 5th of December, and at the present time candidates are addressing the electors in all the districts.

The Victorian Ministry resigned Nov. 1st, and Mr. Munro, the leader of the Opposition, has been summoned to form a new Government. Thirty-six members who voted with the last Government have resolved to form a united Opposition party under the leadership of Messrs. Gillies and Deakin.

The departure of Lord Carrington from Sydney, November 2d, en route for England, was witnessed by 200,000 people, and the route from Government House to the railway station was literally thronged with spectators. As His Excellency left the vice-regal residence he was bombarded with flowers, and his carriage was completely covered. The scene was most brilliant, and showed the high esteem in which he was held by Sydney residents. The Earl of Jersey, who succeeds Lord Carrington, is not expected to arrive at Sydney before the end of the year.

The New Zealand Herald says: When it was agreed that the San Francisco mail service should be continued the House passed a resolution that the contractors should have the option of coming to Auckland or to Wellington. Those connected with the latter port were exceedingly anxious to have the steamers call there. But the contractors have decided to make Auckland the port of call for the mail steamers, for the very good reason that the vessels could not reach Wellington in the time allowed by the contract. At the port of Auckland also there is a large dock, able to take in any of the steamers in case of necessity.

The strike of the seamen on board of the Union Company's steamers, of the wharf lumpers and coal miners, is now virtually at an end. It never had any justification, for the men themselves made no complaints of their hours or of their rate of wages, or of any other of the conditions of their employment. They struck because the seamen in Australia had struck, and in order to achieve a victory over the employers. But the unions found they were not so strong as they imagined.

NEW YORK, November 3rd.—A Herald Washington special says: "There will be no extra session of Congress. This conclusion was reached by the President yesterday. The information was imparted to me this afternoon by a gentleman whose relations with the President are of so intimate a nature as to give the utterances all the force of an ex-cathedral statement."

AFFAIRS IN HAWAII.

Mr. E. W. Burchardt, a member of the Hawaiian Islands Congress, arrived from Honolulu last night, and when asked at the Arlington for the news from his part of the world, responded readily.

"The leading issue with us," he said, "is the preservation of Hawaiian autonomy. The masses of the people—and I do not mean merely the natives, but Americans and Englishmen—want no other country to tamper with our affairs or seek to annex the islands. I was elected to the Legislature mainly on that issue, and got a large percentage of the American vote."

"You read all sorts of rumors here about uprisings and revolutions, but take my word for it, nothing of the sort will occur. Bush and Wilcox, two half-breeds and chronic agitators, are endeavoring to call a constitutional convention, their motive being to abrogate to a certain extent the property qualification for suffrage, and they made some threats of revising the constitution by force, if necessary. It was only talk, though some amendments are likely to be made. The house is divided into two classes, nobles and representatives, all sitting, however, as one legislative body. To be eligible as an elector for noble one must own $3,000 of taxable property, and it is this restriction that the agitators want abolished, so as to increase the strength of the native vote."

"I am fearful that the McKinley bill will do a great deal of harm to our sugar interests, and this is the feeling of all our planters. For one thing, it is sure to curtail the production of that crop on the islands. A friend who accompanies me to Washington, Mr. McFie, a large planter, intended cultivating 700 acres of cane this season, but owing to the new tariff law, only put in half that area. This is the case all over our country. But the bad effects of the law will not only be felt over there. San Francisco is certain to be loser. The trade between that city and Honolulu growing out of the sugar traffic is a big thing, and was mutually profitable. Now it will be largely checked by the admission of free sugar from other countries. I think the United States Government will find out in the long run that Mr. Blaine was correct in his opposition to free sugar without reciprocal concessions."

"The present order is not likely to be disturbed. King Kalakaua enjoys but little popular confidence or respect, but there is no desire for his dethronement. He is in a bad way financially just now, being heavily in debt, but as the crown lands are good for his obligations his creditors are not uneasy. He has a good income outside of his salary, but manages to spend it rapidly. * * * Socially he is well liked, and is a very plausible talker. His sister, Mrs. Dominis, a native Hawaiian, married to an American, would be queen in the event of Kalakaua's death."—(Washington Post.)
