YALE AND HARVARD NOT AVAILABLE

HONOLULU COULD NOT GET THEM IF THEY WERE DECIDED TO BE DESIRABLE.

The steamers Yale and Harvard, which are being a good deal discussed for a possible Honolulu-San Francisco run, are stated to be not available even if Honolulu business men should decide to go after them. They are new vessels, were built specifically for the Boston-New York run, and are faster than the Lusitania, but there is some question as to their fitness for a long ocean voyage. The Literary Digest has the following about them:

In their initial trips the Yale and Harvard, the new boats of the Metropolitan line, have already, it is claimed, captured the record for coastwise passenger and freight service. In a trial trip over the route some months ago the Yale made the run in less than fourteen hours, and the Harvard, on the 18th of this month, covered the same course on her maiden voyage in fourteen hours and forty minutes. The maximum speed of the Yale on the occasion mentioned above was 24.32 knots per hour. The average speed of the Lusitania on her maiden voyage was 23.01 knots. Both the Yale and Harvard are triple-screw turbine steamers, and their average speed of about 21 knots makes them the fastest passenger-vessels in American waters. Not only does this newly-established all-water service enable New York and Boston business men to leave either port at five in the afternoon and reach their destination by eight o'clock the following morning without the old discomfort of having to change from boat to train in the small hours; but as a freight route, according to the Brooklyn Standard Union, "it cuts at least a day, possibly more, from the quickest time heretofore made," between the two ports. But the real significance of the new line, adds the same paper, lies in the fact that it forms a link in what will ultimately be "an unbroken, closely articulated system of freight and passenger communication" between Boston, Philadelphia, and other seaboard cities of our Atlantic coast. At present the most prominent figure in the development of this system is Mr. C. W. Morse, who, as head of the Consolidated Steamship Lines Company, controls seven other lines in addition to the Metropolitan, with an aggregate of one hundred and eight steam-vessels.

The Yale is equipped with one high-pressure and two low-pressure turbines, which develop collectively 10,000 horse-power. Her motor equipment is thus described in The Nautical Gazette (New York):

"The high-pressure turbine is on the center line of the ship and there is one low-pressure and stern turbine on each side of the center line. Each turbine drives a shaft and a three-bladed bronze propeller wheel, so that there is one starboard, one center, and one port wheel. The starboard and center wheels are right-hand screws, and the port left-hand. When the ship is in the regular, straight-away ahead motion, steam is first admitted to the center or the high pressure turbine and after passing through this turbine is exhausted to the forward end of each of the starboard and port turbines, and from the after-ends of these turbines is carried to the condensers, which are in the wings of the ship."

HOSMER REPORTS ON KONA FORESTS

MEETING OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY YESTERDAY.

The Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry met yesterday afternoon, and a number of important matters were discussed. The subject of the malle pilau vine which threatens to become even more dangerous pest than the antana proved to be, was talked of very pessimistically. Another subject that was taken up at length was the best way to rid the Territory of the queen bees.

A request was received from the governor asking that the appointment of F. T. P. Waterhouse as a special representative to look into the rubber industry at Ceylon be made. Another matter of great importance that came up was the question of the bureau's part in the coming exhibition of the Poultry Fanciers Association. A number of reports from the various heads of the bureau were also read.

The following is part of Forester Hosmer's report.

"From August 29 to 31 I was on Maui, making an examination of the forest planting now going on in the lands of the Alexander & Badwin interests, in several localities near Hilo; in an inspection of a portion of the proposed Makawao forest reserve, where there is a question of forest planting; in a visit to the rubber plantations at Nahiku; and in an examination of certain problems in the Koolau forest reserve. At Nahiku I saw in some detail the groves of the several plantations and discussed with the different managers various matters in connection with rubber growing.

"So far as the growth of the trees goes, the outlook at Nahiku is most promising and from all present indications a satisfactory yield of latex seems assured. The problems of finding the best method of tapping and harvesting the rubber, involving as they do the training of skilled workmen, now loom large, but I am confident that a satisfactory solution will be found when the matter receives careful attention. With the trees growing at the present rate it will not be long before the older groves will be large enough to permit systematic experiments to be begun.

"On September 10 I started on the trip from which I have just returned. Going first to the Kona district on Hawaii, I made a thorough inspection of the forested area from Mt. Hualalai to the Kau district line as it is possible, without the cutting of numerous and expensive trails through the forest. Using existing trails through the woods as a basis, I made a general examination of the forest as a whole; including both government and private forest lands.

"On this basis I am prepared to make recommendations for the government land, as well as to the several owners, as to methods of managing this area, in accordance with the principles of forestry. Such reports are now in preparation; they will later be brought to the attention of the board.

"In this connection it seems to me appropriate to repeat the statement, made in former reports of mine, that the forest question in this Territory has two very distinct aspects. On the windward side of the islands, especially Hawaii and Maui, in districts where there is living water in streams, brooks or streams that is either made use of locally, or impounded for the irrigation of lands more or less near at hand, the forest is mainly important as a protective cover, and as such should be kept as nearly intact as may be. On the leeward side of the islands, on the other hand, where the only living water is found in occasional springs, a different treatment is indicated. Here the forest, excepting always such areas as may be necessary to protect the living water that does exist, is and ought to be considered in relation to its commercial value.

"So in the Kona district, having carefully studied the situation on the ground, I am in favor of lumbering the mature trees, both koa and ohia, for I believe that if the work in the woods is properly done and the areas cut over are handled subsequently in an intelligent way, not only will a valuable industry be added to the Territory, but also that the forests themselves will be in better condition than at present.

"Over considerable areas in Kona the large kot trees are dying, and in a few years will cease to have value either as a forest cover or as commercially important wood. The wise thing is to utilize this material while we may and then to manage the land on which it grew for the purpose for which it is best adapted. Some of the land now nominally under forest is unquestionably of greater value for grazing. Part of it can best be used for growing trees. The problem presented is to put it all to its best use, with due regard not only to strictly utilitarian use, but also to the indirect benefits which may result to the district from having a considerable body of forest on its mountain slopes. These points will be brought out in detail in my reports on the Kona lands."

An Order That May Hit Us

The news cabled two days ago that the Union Pacific Railroad system had stopped all construction work and was discharging from four to eight thousand men, was published as long ago as October 12, and very promptly denied by Harriman. That was before the panic had really begun, but not before conditions were such as to cause much apprehension. On the 12th there appeared a report that Harriman had sent out an order to cut down expenses all over his system, and discharge thousands of men. The order, affecting a dozen states and territories, seemed about to cause an immediate serious panic, when Harriman denied it, and calm was temporarily restored. Now the order has gone forth, and it is certainly a serious one.

In spite of all he may say regarding financial stringency, Harriman's action will look at by many as a move in his war upon Roosevelt. It has the appearance of a notice to the nation that railroads will not pay under the Roosevelt policy. The country knows that the railroads have built up enormous fortunes, and that every year they are congested with traffic, which means that there are not enough lines. The fabulously profitable deals Harriman has been able to make year after year answer the proposition that the roads do not pay.

Harriman's order of economy is a national event of the greatest importance. It probably directly affects more homes than the Wall street panic. It applies to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and in view of Harriman's claims of losses in running the steamers under present conditions might even be taken as the beginning of a policy of retirement that may place his big steamers alongside the idle Oceanic boats. It is to be hoped that this will never come to pass. But if the stringency of the money market forces the shutting down of railroad repair shops and the interruption of road-building in profitable territory, it may well cause suspension of a steamship business that does not pay.

Enterprising Policy

In taking up the Pearl harbor matter and deciding to have a representative to work for an appropriation, the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce is showing the kind of enterprise that makes cities great. The Chamber has already done a tremendous amount of effective work. Backed by the people of the city it is prepared to go ahead with the final efforts that are likely to bring complete and speedy success. This appropriation means more to the community than a new steamship line, and it will probably to bring the steamship line anyhow. After years of struggling over the proposition, the Hilo breakwater appropriation was put through Congress by a carefully prepared printed argument that was clear and unanswerable, backed by the presence before a Congressional committee of a man able to prove his case and whom no amount of questioning could embarrass or entangle. The same can be done with Pearl harbor, which should be made the special business of such a representative. Perhaps we might get the appropriation without such aid, but of that we cannot be certain. Delegate Kuhio has expressed himself as feeling that assistance of this sort would be of value, and he ought to have it. As Congress meets in a month, there is not much time to be lost.

It is all right to make jokes at Police Captain Parker because he went to sleep at a supervisors' meeting, but the Oahu supervisors have held meetings that would put anyone to sleep. Then again they have held meetings calculated to awaken a policeman, and more such are promised.

Remarkable Disaster

If the report cabled yesterday of 15,000, not 1,500—people being killed at "Karatagh" by the earthquake of October 21 is confirmed, the disaster is the worst since Martinique. The quake was reported by cable on the twenty-first, a Washington dispatch telling of a seismograph record made there, and at Florence, Italy. The Washington scientists calculated that the disturbance was probably in West Australia, in which they were evidently very far wrong, though their calculations were probably made as to distance, the direction being mere guesswork. "Karatagh" is probably Karadagh, a district and town in Persia. A mountain "sliding" on to a town and killing 15,000 people indicates a terrestrial disturbance that would make San Francisco's trembling look small. It requires a lot of mountain and a terrible avalanche to cause fatalities like that. The place is evidently far from telegraph lines, and it may be that later reports will be different. As far as the reports received go, the disaster is a very remarkable one.

The National Situation

"Since January first we have had a shrinkage in securities of fully, if not over, $3,500,000,000," says the last bank circular of Henry Clews and Company of New York, setting forth a feature of the national financial situation which makes the present "panic" unique, and at the same time comparatively undangerous: "Many good railroad shares have had their values cut in half during that period. The industrials have suffered even more drastic decline, being cut not only into halves, but into thirds and quarters. After such a tremendous shrinkage, it is almost folly to talk of panic. Violent breaks may be possible, but the chances of a genuine panic with all the disaster and derangement which that means are exceedingly remote. Had the developments which have recently taken place

QUEEN'S HOSPITAL MEETING HELD

NO MENTION OF THE HODGINS MATTER—QUARTERLY REPORT IS RECEIVED.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Trustees of the Queen's Hospital was held this morning in the rooms of the Planters' Association in the Stangenwald building. All the trustees and officers were present with the exception of T. Olive Davies. The regular routine business was taken up and the quarterly report of the directors was read. A number of new rules were discussed at the meeting, and the formulating of the same were referred to a committee. The Dr. Hodgins matter was never mentioned at the meeting.

The quarterly report was as follows: Honolulu, September 30, 1907. To the Trustees of the Queen's Hospital.

Gentlemen:—We have the honor to submit the following for the quarter ending September 30th, 1907:

The number of patients at present in the hospital is 62; viz: 23 Hawaiians (17 males, 6 females), 2 Chinese, 1 Japanese, 2 Koreans, 4 Porto Ricans and 30 of other nationalities; 29 paying.

The number of admission during the quarter was 216; viz: 68 Hawaiians (49 males, 19 females), 5 Chinese, 11 Japanese and 132 of other nationalities.

Discharged 217; viz: 49 Hawaiians (40 males, 13 females), 6 Chinese, 9 Japanese and 143 of other nationalities.

Died 19; viz: 7 Hawaiians (5 males, 2 females), 1 Japanese and 11 of other nationalities.

The causes of death were as follows: Chronic Nephritis 2; Acute Gastro-Enteritis 1; Gangrenous Appendix 2; Pyemia following infection of foot 1; Vitium Cordis 1; Typhoid fever 2; Cirrhosis of Liver 1; Fracture of base of skull 1; Acute phosphorus poisoning 1; Sarcoma of Ilium 1; Injuries received from fall 1; Cerebral Hemorrhage 1; Hypostatic pneumonia 1; Haematemesis from amyloid degeneration of viscera following appendectomy 1. Of these 3 died within 18 hours, 1 within 24 hours and 2 within 48 hours of admission.

The highest number of patients was 74, lowest 47, daily average 59; number of prescriptions 147.

The total number of patients treated was 330; viz: July 141; August 134; September 115.

The 216 patients admitted may be divided as follows: Indigents 80; Endowed Bed patients 12; Ward Pay patients 28; private room patients 48. U. S. M. H. patients 48.

There have been 31 major and 31 minor operations and 3 post mortem examinations.

Twenty-six cases were refused admission; of these 6 were suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis and 20 were not proper hospital cases; 42 patients were brought by the police patrol and 10 by the Board of Health ambulance and 36 patients, after receiving treatment did not remain in the hospital.

Respectfully submitted, DR. HOFFMANN, E. C. WATERHOUSE, M. D. W. G. ROGERS, M. D.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE.

There was fire in the two-story frame block on the mauka-Ewa corner of Kamehameha IV road and King streets at 7:30 o'clock this morning. It occurred behind a door among a lot of old clothes near a can of kerosene oil and the can was about to explode when big James Kupihea smashed in the door and chucked the danger out. The department soon had a stream drowning the blaze. A Japanese man and wife occupied the room but were away at the time, working at the fertilizer foundry. Cause unknown.

Fine Job Printing, Star Office.

occurred on the high level of a year ago, we might, indeed, have had to face a cataclysm. As it is, the stock market has endured one of the greatest declines in history; a decline equivalent to that of a great panic—but in an orderly and well distributed fashion. Losses have been enormous, but they have been admirably met, and considering their extent, the disasters following have been remarkably few.

Clews predicts a period of depression which may have great political and other consequences: "The question now of greatest moment of business men is: Are we entering a business reaction? Every indication points to an affirmative answer. Wall Street being the financial nerve center of the country is the first to feel a setback. From hence the wave of depression will spread to every section of the country with more or less severity. Improvements, enlargements and new enterprises of all sorts have been checked by the developments at the chief financial centers. . . . The greatest depression will probably be in the industrial districts; the agricultural sections being benefited by prosperity of the farmers. Still another department of business which has been hurt by the financial reaction is the real estate movement. Here, there has been wild speculation in districts connected with the great cities, but this, too, has been brought to a sudden stop by limitations of the money market. Last September the contracts for new buildings in New York fell off $7,000,000, or 40 per cent compared with the same month in the previous year. Clearings at the leading cities a week ago declined nearly 14 per cent. While the bulk of the shrinkage occurred in New York, it is observable that a number of interior points report declines in Clearing House returns. Nevertheless, the West is still optimistic, owing chiefly to the fact that farmers are well-to-do and getting profitable prices for all their products."

"RESPONSIBLE TO GOD ALONE"

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER SAYS HE IS ANSWERABLE TO GOD FOR INTEREST IN STANDARD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—John D. Rockefeller's private conception of himself, heretofore never allowed to become public, which is that he is only the steward of the Standard Oil wealth, responsible to God alone for his stewardship, was quoted yesterday by the Rev. Robert S. MacArthur, the rector of Cavalry Baptist church, before his regular young people's Sunday morning class.

The Rev. Mr. MacArthur, in the course of a defense of Mr. Rockefeller and the Standard Oil Company, said: "A few years ago some one asked Mr. Rockefeller privately why it was, since he had such a tremendous fortune, and his tastes were so simple, that he could not possibly use one-tenth of his income, he did not retire. Mr. Rockefeller then made a reply which he did not intend should be made public.

"I am the trustee of the property of others," he said, "through the providence of God, committed to my care. I am the steward of vast interests belonging in great part to widows and orphans and others who are actually and relatively poor. For this holding I am responsible to God. Were I to give up my interest in the Standard Oil Company I would imperil the interests of these people according to the popular supposition that my withdrawal would hurt the company's business."

The Rev. Mr. MacArthur was asked after his address about the correctness of the quotation he had cited. He said that it was absolutely authentic and he intimated that he himself was the one who had heard Mr. Rockefeller so characterize his position in the world. In his address, which was upon "The Virtues of the Standard Oil Company," Dr. MacArthur had something to say about the character of Rockefeller.

"When the hue and cry of the present times against Mr. Rockefeller and the company which he heads has passed away, I am confident he will take his place in the history of the world as a marvelous genius, the organizer of the greatest of industries and a generous giver for the welfare of the human race."

THE MANCHURIA BRINGS MANY PEOPLE

OVER A HUNDRED PASSENGERS FOR HONOLULU AND A VERY BIG MAIL—MOUNT TAMALPAIS RAILWAY MAN HERE AND WILL LOOK INTO POSSIBLE ENTERPRISES IN HIS LINE IN THE ISLANDS.

With five hundred and fifty-two passengers, 110 cabin for Honolulu, 119 cabin for the Orient and 99 Japanese, 204 Chinese and 20 deported East Indians in the steerage going through, the Pacific Mail S. S. Manchuria, Captain Saunders, this morning arrived from San Francisco. She left the coast on October 24, extending her passage to cover seven days to meet quarantine regulations, and was off port about 7 o'clock this morning, docking at the Hackfeld wharf in the presence of more than the usual large crowd about 9:35.

Eight days later mail was brought and amounted to 409 sacks. The Manchuria came in like a balloon, away out of the water, her decks towering above the Hackfeld shed. She is traveling very light, bringing but 178 tons of cargo for this port and carrying only 1,498 tons of freight for the Far East. She sails for Yokohama, Kobe, Nagasaki, Shanghai and Hongkong promptly at 5 o'clock this afternoon, taking a few passengers from Honolulu.

Among those traveling to the Orient in the Manchuria are Baron Mitsui, the Rockefeller of Japan, rolling in millions; Milton Getz of San Francisco en route to Shanghai on an important business trip; Chen-Ku Shen, Charge d'Affaires at the Chinese Legation, London, and a large number of missionaries. Millionaire Mitsui is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sprackels, Jr., are booked for Yokohama, but it is stated aboard the Manchuria that during the trip from San Francisco they arrived at the conclusion to give Honolulu an extended visit. Their movements are indefinite, however, and they may go through and make the prolonged visit to Honolulu, of which they have spoken so much, on the return from the Orient.

President S. B. Cushing of the Mount Tamalpais Railroad, accompanied by his wife and daughter, are Honolulu passengers, and are here to spend the winter and tour the islands in a automobile, taking in the Volcano and Haleakala. Cushing is reported as having in mind a scheme to run a railroad up to the brink of Kiluaea; in

GREAT QUAKE

HEAVIEST SHOCK SINCE SAN FRANCISCO'S TREMBOR RECORD—ED ALL OVER WORLD.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—An earthquake of great violence was recorded by the seismograph at the weather bureau today. The strong motion of the disturbance began shortly after 9 o'clock this morning and subsided about six minutes later, the approximate time, as first shown by the government instruments, being from 9:14 to 9:20.

The weather bureau issued the following bulletin:

"Just after the sheets of the seismograph were changed this morning a great earthquake was recorded, the record of which has not yet been entirely completed. The precise beginning of the disturbance cannot be made out as yet. The strong part of the motion began at 9:14 a. m., but its duration was relatively short and subsided at 9:20 a. m.

"The amplitude of the strong action was apparently as great as four-tenths of an inch at Washington. Full details of the record cannot be made out until the instruments have ceased recording and the record sheets removed for examination.

"The earthquake, which was one of the most violent ever recorded here, was also shown on the seismograph at the coast and geodetic survey magnetic observatory at Cheltenham, Md. The instruments there showed the vibrations began at 8:59 a. m., eastern standard time, and continued about two hours."

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The vibrations were traceable for an hour. The record shows that the disturbance originated about 3,000 miles from Albany, and the vibrations of one of the instruments were so violent as to exceed its limit for registering.

The official bulletin says: "The only disturbance comparison in violence that has been recorded this year is the earthquake of April 14, which was so destructively felt in Mexico. The present one may very well mark a continuation of the movements that have any event he is down here to "look over the ground" and study opportunities for such ventures, the Oahu Pail and similar world attractions on other islands of this group having been brought to his attention.

Colonel Samuel Parker of Honolulu returns to his home, as hearty and witty as ever. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chase and son are passengers for Honolulu. Chase is a pioneer California fruit grower and has heard so much of opportunities here for the raising of pineapples and citrus fruits, bananas, coffee and other crops and a careful investigation of business chances. He is also interested in the transportation business, as a producer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bemis are home again. Mrs. and Miss Brock have returned. Miss C. J. Carter is a Honolulu passenger.

James Crow, brother of Entomologist Crow of this city, arrived to spend the winter with his brother and sister-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cunha return to the islands. "Sonny" nearly bent the gangway coming on to the wharf.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Galt are once more in the semi-tropical metropolis. Mrs. A. Gartenberg, her two children and a maid are back. Mr. and Mrs. George G. Guld and child arrived. Mrs. C. J. Irwin and Raymond Irwin are also here. Judge S. B. Kingsbury returns to Hawaii and brings his bride.

George Lishman is home. E. P. Low has returned.

E. Politz of the San Francisco and New York financier is here on stocks and bonds business and the Kibei deal.

W. Dillingham is home again, having been to the mainland to make certain contracts. He arrives to learn that the mainland financial situation is much worse than it was when he left San Francisco seven days ago.

The Aubrey Robinsons of Kauai have returned. Mrs. N. S. Sachs is home.

Miss J. G. Carter, sister of ex-Governor George R. Carter of Hawaii, is a visitor here, the former governor being on hand to meet the lady.

been under way for some time in the Cordillera and Caribbean zones, to which may be traced also the earthquakes of San Francisco, Valparaiso and Jamaica."

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Inquiry among all the cable companies today failed to disclose any interruption of communication in the two Americas. Those lines which run through the West Indies and Central and South America were reported as working smoothly and the officials of the companies said that none of their offices or those of their connecting lines to the south had reported any earthquake disturbances.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The observatory of the Isle of Wight recorded a severe earthquake today beginning at a quarter past two in the afternoon and lasting over four hours. The distance of the disturbance is placed at 5000 miles. The observatory at Lapaich, Austria, also recorded an earthquake at practically the same time, lasting for two hours and a half at a distance of 6250 miles.

POLICE CASES.

Eight cases were on the calendar this morning at Police Court and were disposed of very quickly. Mrs. Marcellino, who was unable to appear yesterday morning on account of a shortage in her wearing apparel, was present, this morning clothed in her right mind, and was fined $3 and costs for being under the influence of the "demon rum." L. L. McCandless and James Armstrong who have not complied with the orders of the Supervisors regarding gutters on their buildings were present this morning in court, and their cases were continued until November 5 at 1:30 in the afternoon.

CHAPIN CASE

The cases of W. C. Weedon vs. W. C. Chapin, and W. C. Weedon vs. Mrs. C. W. Chapin, each for $5000 damages, was set by Judge Robinson this morning for Monday, the 18th of November. These cases have been on the calendar for a year or more, and have never come to trial, owing to difficulty in getting service on various parties interested. Weedon was run over by the Chapins, and demands damages for injuries. The defendants are represented by A. G. M. Robertson, while A. Perry is counsel for the plaintiff.

in today's papers that $5,000,000 in cash was on hand to meet all eventualities. At 9:30 a few depositors withdrew their accounts and an hour later hundreds were in line to take out their deposits at the main office at Thirty-fourth street and Fifth avenue and at the Harlem and Bronx downtown branches.

The $5,000,000 lasted until 12:30, when Vice President J. T. Brown announced that the bank had no more cash available, and payments were suspended.

NASHVILLE, October 22.—President Roosevelt in his address at the Auditorium today, said:

"There has been trouble in the stock market, in the high financial world, during the past few months. The statement has frequently been made that the policies for which I stand, legislative and executive are responsible for that trouble. Now, these policies of mine can be summed up in one brief sentence: They represent the effort to punish successful dishonesty."

"I doubt if these policies have had any material effect in bringing about the present trouble, but if they have it will not alter in the slightest degree my determination that for the remaining sixteen months of my term these policies shall be persevered in unswervingly."

"If to arouse that type of civic manhood in our Nation it were necessary to suffer any temporary commercial depression, I should consider the cost but small. All we have done has been to unearth the wrong-doing. It was not the fact that it was unearthed that did the damage. All I did was to turn on the light. I am responsible for turning on the light, but I am not responsible for what the light showed. It is impossible to cut out a cancer without making the patient feel for a few days rather sicker than he felt before. No material well-being can save this Nation if it loses the lift toward higher things."

"I will permit neither the demagogue on one side nor the reactionary on the other to drive me away from the course or policy which I regard as most vital for the well being of this Nation. And the thing most important to remember is that that policy has two sides. It would, indeed, be an evil for this Nation if we ever permitted to grow up a spirit which would discriminate against the honest man who achieves business success. There is nothing meaner than the hatred for the man who prospers constantly, simply because he has prospered, and I challenge the spirit of every good American when I say that the honest railroad man, the honest banker and the honest business man who makes a fortune by his exceptional business ability enables him to render exceptional service to the community."

"If ever there should be any temporary gusts of popular feeling that demand what is wrong, what is unrighteous, then the true servant of the people is the man who disregards that temporary wish of the people to do evil. (Great applause.) No man will stand more strongly than I will in the defense of property so long as it is honestly acquired and honestly used. (Cheers.) I will stand against crimes of brutal violence just as I stand against crimes of unscrupulous cunning. "There are certain gentlemen who say that I have talked against men of wealth as such. These gentlemen are blind if they see the facts in that light. I will protect in every way my power honest property. I will protect the honest man of wealth to the extent of my ability, and in no way can I ultimately protect the honest man of wealth so effectively as doing everything in my power to bring to justice his dishonest brother of wealth. (Great applause.)

"Our whole movement is simply and solely to make the decalogue and the golden rule of some practical moment in the business life of the community. (Great applause and cheers.)

NEW YORK, October 18.—Everything in Wall street went to smash this afternoon. Standard Oil stock made a new low record of 402, dropping thirteen points toward the close of the market. All of the directors of the Mercantile National Bank were forced out by the New York Clearing-house, which came to the assistance of a bank and as a condition demanded the resignation of the entire directory.

The break in Standard Oil was the climax of a day of wild excitement. Metal stocks led in the crash, but nearly every issue on the list touched a new low level. The stock of the American Smelting and Refining Company and Guggenheim Exploration suffered the most severe breaks. The Smelters broke more than six points and Exploration sold for 120 on the curb, this being a fall of fifty points. At the bottom prices there was heavy covering of professional short contracts that rallied the market an average of two points just at the close.

HACKFELD MATE ALIVE.

EBEN LOW AND THE WEST SHOW

CHAMPION ROPER OF THE WORLD WILL PROBABLY BE HERE SOON.

Eben Low, who has been making arrangements for the coming Wild West show which will be held at the League baseball grounds on December 14, arrived home today on the Manchuria. Nearly all the arrangements have been completed for the coming of a number of cowboys from the other islands and Charles Frazier who has had the matter in hand has received very encouraging replies from some of the large ranches, and those who are not going to send men to take part in the meet, will give financial aid to make the show a success.

Angus McPhee, the champion roper of the world, will be an hand two or three weeks before the date of the show, and it is very probable that a few others will come with him. Purdy who is at present on Hawaii, will be on hand and will do his best to take the honors away from McPhee. Purdy who won nearly every event at the last meet held here, is getting into shape and when the time comes for the show will be ready to prove to the people present, that he is as good as he was before.

SPORT NOTES

The rule forbidding any player using the links before a tournament is played, will be strictly enforced the day of the White Rock tournament the 10th of November at Haleiwa. Last Sunday a number of golfers played on the links at the Country Club before the tournament was started, and although some claim it is allowed, the committee who have the White Rock tournament in charge have decided that it will not be allowed at Haleiwa.

J. W. Harvey won for the third time yesterday afternoon the recent challenge cup offered by the Hawaiian Gun Club. Only three members were present at the shoot, and Harvey had little trouble in winning. His score was eight out of ten birds. The rules governing the past shoots for the recent cup offered by the club have not proved popular with the members, and it is very probable that shooting at unknown angles will not be attempted again.

The following matches were played yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament at the courts on Richards street: F. C. Atherton No. 24, beat F. S. Warren No. 25, 5-2, 6-2; A. T. Brock No. 21, beat A. C. Wall No. 22, default. To play Thursday October 31: Chester Livingston No. 24 vs. R. Vanhuizen No. 23. To play Saturday November 2: Richard Cooke No. 36, vs. winner of Livingston-Vanhuizen match; Laurence Kerr, No. 20, vs. W. L. Chillingworth No. 19. To play Monday November 4: Charles F. Brissel No. 18, vs. R. W. Perkins No. 17; F. C. Atherton No. 24 vs. A. T. Brock No. 21.

The All Hawaii baseball team will practice this afternoon at the regular time at the league grounds. The signals that will be used in the coming games with the coast team, will be tried out this afternoon for the first time. The boys are looking forward very much to their first practice game next Sunday morning with the Diamond Head team, and will probably take them into camp. The following Sunday the first game will be played with a Picked team from the Riverside League. The team is fast rounding into form and will be ready for the coast team when they arrive. Captain Bill Hampton is confident over the outcome of the series, and thinks the first game will be won by the home team.

FINNIGAN WILL SHOW UP TONIGHT

So much has been said by the press relative to "Finnigan the Millionaire," who holds court at the Opera House tonight, that there is little left to write about except it be to mention the company he will be in during the evening. The cast will be as follows: Mrs. Finnigan.....Mrs. McLennan Raftery (a detective).....Mr. Arnold Finnigan, hod carrier, etc. Mr. Hooley Patrick, his son.....Mr. Blackman Dutch Jake, a seamankeeper.....

Mr. Bergstrom Katy, his daughter.....Miss Bell Lady Hannah Lovejoy.....Miss McLain Count de Morney, a black sheep.....

Mr. Reinecke There will be specialties between the acts by Mr. Hooley and the Center children, something that will keep the minds of the audience busy until the Finnigan stunts begin again. A better show has never been put on here by amateurs and but few of the professional companies have done better work. The seats have been going like frogs at the grill. If you have not already bought yours go now to Wall, Nichols Co., Ltd., and get the best you can.

BERLIN PLANNING FOR VISIT OF TAFT

ANXIOUS TO SEE SECRETARY OF WAR WHO HAS NO MILITARY TRAINING.

BERLIN, October 12.—Not only the American colony here but all Berlin are looking forward to the visit of Secretary Taft, who has announced that he will arrive in this city about November 30th.

The American Chamber of Commerce is busy preparing the arrangements for the great banquet in the Secretary's honor, and every seat in the banquet hall has already been disposed of.

Germans are interested in Secretary Taft, first because they are anxious to see a man who is Secretary of War without possessing any military training or knowledge of military matters, and second because the papers here designate him as the man most likely to succeed President Roosevelt. It is also hoped that he will succeed in arranging the preliminaries of a permanent commercial treaty between America and Germany.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS
SACRAMENTO, October 31.—Governor Gillett, in response to the appeals of the Bankers' Association, has declared an indefinite period of public holidays until such time as confidence can be restored.

TO WORK FOR PEARL HARBOR

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DECIDES THAT A REPRESENTATIVE SHOULD BE SENT.

A special meeting of the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Chamber to decide on the advisability of sending a special representative to Washington this year to help secure the appropriation for the work at Pearl Harbor. Every trustee present was in favor of it, and a special committee was appointed consisting of Messrs Paxton, McStocker and Wodehouse to secure the services of a representative business man who understands the situation to go to Washington.

The trustees to a man decided that something should be done at once, and President Morgan was authorized to select the committee to pick out the man. One of the trustees pointed out the Bremerton Navy yard as an object lesson to prove, what good could be accomplished if an up-to-date navy yard was established at Pearl Harbor. The fact that the Big Four had spent about $160,000 here was also spoken of to show what it would mean to the business people here if Pearl Harbor was made a naval station, and the war would come here continually.

WILLIAM HOLT IS NOT GUILTY

MIX-UP OF WITNESS MARKS BRINGS PROSECUTION TO A SPEEDY COLLAPSE.

William Holt, charged with stealing two cows valued at $100 from the Dowsett Company, was acquitted yesterday afternoon by the jury which had been trying the case for the past three days, the verdict being directed by Judge Lindsay after the evidence was all in. There was practically no convicting evidence offered, the Territory having "fallen down" on the testimony of one witness on whom it had relied.

John Marks, the witness in question, and as a result of his testimony before the court, he is now under indictment for perjury, because he told a very different story before the grand jury when called into the case several weeks ago. Then he said that he, while employed by Holt as a cowboy, had killed the cattle in question, and had cut the Dowsett brand from the flank of each hide by Holt's direction. On the stand as a witness he said that the cattle killed were branded with the brand of George Holt, and that to keep peace in the family he had cut out the brands. The reason that he had told the other story to the Grand Jury, was that he had been driven to it under all sorts of threats from the police department, in case he refused to convict Holt, and he had done this after being "sweated" in jail for four days, and not allowed to see anyone except the police.

There promises to be some interesting developments when Marks is brought to trial on the perjury charge. He is ignorant, and does not appear to be very bright, as would be indicated by his incriminating testimony against himself while a witness in the Holt trial. A great deal of comment has been rife about the judiciary building over the statements brought out by Alex Robertson's cross examination of Marks, which would tend to put the police department in a very unenviable light. The general belief is expressed that Marks told the truth about the pressure applied to him by the police while he was held for four days without legal authority so to do, whichever one of his statements regarding the ownership of the cattle is correct.

There has also been some comment over the zeal shown by the prosecution in having the cowboy held for perjury. Notwithstanding the fact that Marks is himself under a separate indictment for cattle stealing, and was being held under bond, the grand jury was summoned for yesterday morning at the usual considerable expense, when the matter could have equally as well have been taken up next week when the grand jury assembles as it will do to continue its general investigations. There could have been no reason to think that the man would escape because he was already being held.

RHEUMATISM DISABLES EVANS.
NEW LONDON, October 12.—Rear Admiral Evans, who is here on his flagship Connecticut from Provincetown and other Connecticut officials an opportunity to inspect the big warship, is suffering from an attack of rheumatism in his right hand. So painful was the attack this morning that the Admiral was forced to have one of the knuckles lanced. All visitors today were greeted with his left hand.

COLONELS TOOK THE ROOSEVELT RIDE

THE NEW ARMY TEST NOT A VERY SEVERE ONE AS IT IS APPLIED IN THE NATIONAL CAPITAL—TWENTY-EIGHT MEN OF ARMY RANK STAND THE TEST, WITH WIVES FOLLOWING THEM IN AN AUTO.

WASHINGTON, October 2.—Twenty-eight military ornaments, mostly colonels and lieut. colonels, with a sprinkling of majors, made the test ride ordered by President Roosevelt, round about Fort Myer yesterday afternoon. The party left the post promptly at 2 o'clock and by a series of hasty walks, hard trots and mad gallops managed to land back at the starting point at 4:30 having made about fifteen miles in the record time of two hours and thirty minutes.

A Star reporter followed the bunch in a big touring car and by throwing in the reverse clutch and running four miles an hour backward managed to keep up with the procession and be in at the finish. An army motor-ambulance, loaded to the mizzen hatch with assorted restoratives, got stuck in the mud a couple of miles from the finish; but it didn't matter, as the pick-me-ups weren't needed. All of the colonels, lieutenant colonels and majors were as fresh as daisies at the finish. Of course, there's no telling how they feel this morning, but, after all, that's nobody's business—not even the President's.

NOT A VIOLENT TEST.

The test yesterday wasn't what might be called a violent ride. At a matter of fact, an octogenarian with the palsy could have gone the route yesterday while knitting a sock, and not missed more than a stitch or two. The weather was clear and cool, the autumn breeze a bit playful and only a couple of steeds out of the commissioned troops showed a glint of wet or fleck of lather.

Preparations for the ride were made with considerable solemnity. When the touring car with The Star reporter in the basket chuffed over the Fort Myer reservation line about 1:30 o'clock three sentries presented arms, the colonel's cook dropped a tray of dishes and a detail of non-coms in mufti, or whatever 'tis called, inspected the car for concealed cameras, or "kodaks" as all photographic apparatus is designated in army parlance. Having discovered nothing incriminating—they failed to look under the rear seat—the automobile was permitted to proceed, and a quarter of a mile or so further on it brought up abruptly against the south end of a cavalry horse, which happened at the time to be gazing northward. This injudicious animal was one of a long line of equines, each attended by a trooper. Some of the officers booked for the test were standing around, trying to act as if they didn't care, and others were mixed up in the picket line, saying flattering things to the horses they were to ride.

NEWSPAPER MAN UNEASY.

In the party were several newspaper men, one of them mounted on a large black horse with a deep-socketed eye and an aquiline rear view. This particular newspaper man appeared distraught. He did not join in the stand-up-to-eat variety of jokes that were being bandied about, and he appeared to have something on his mind. Finally he turned to The Star man:

"Say," he said, "ain't you sorry you can't ride with us today?"

The Star man confessed to the indictment.

"Say," the newspaper man said again "I feel sorry for you. I feel so sorry for you I could almost let you ride my horse. He's a nice horse. He looks funny from some angles, but he goes good. Gee! I should think you'd be miserable there in that automobile, with all the rest of us going to ride."

The Star man admitted all this.

The Star man admitted all this.

"Say," the newspaper man said for the third time, "I don't know when I ever felt so sorry for anybody as I do for you. It's a grand day for a ride. The only trouble is, I don't feel well. I've had indigestion ever since breakfast. I'm sorry, too, because I've been looking forward to this ride. I got a telegram from my office telling me to go, and of course I jumped at the chance. But I don't feel well. Say, I like you. You take my horse and I'll ride in the automobile. You don't want to? Well, I'm glad you refused. I'd hate to miss this ride."

HULL DOWN ON THE HORIZON.

The mount call was blown at 2 o'clock, and for a mile or so the newspaper man who didn't feel well and the horse with the aquiline rear view kept near the procession. They then gradually faded into the distance and soon were hull down on the horizon.

That was one of the two left-by-the-waysides. The other happened about midway of the route, when a cavalry charger kicked a hired-by-the-hour horse, ridden by another newspaper man, in the snout. In the resulting excitement the saddle turned on the hired hack, and this derelict never did catch up. That was the casualty list of the day, unless two pairs of split riding breeches can be counted in the total.

ROCKING CHAIR REVIEW.

Pish! Tush! The officer who is mustered out of the army as the result of yesterday's rocking-chair review should select a large tombstone of speckled pink granite and make arrangements to use it, not soon, but yet. Except for a couple of officers who declared their horses had been trained to jump up and down stiff-legged, there were no kicks. All the rest had equine osteomors.

During all the ride the officers rode in close order and were followed by four orderlies, with led horses, and the before-mentioned restorative-loaded ambulance. Back of the ambulance The Star touring car ran slowly on the reverse and behind The Star car a big red automobile, loaded with commissioned betterhalves crept along. 'Twas an odd-looking sight from the side, this test-ride procession.

DIVIDED INTO THREE PARTS.

The ride was divided into three parts, with rests of six minutes after the first and second. The third round ended at the fort. The division of time was as follows:

First round—Walk 15 minutes, trot 7 1-2, gallop 5, walk 1'. Total 42 1-2 minutes.

Second round—Trot 7 1-2, gallop 5, walk 15, trot 7 1-2, gallop 5. Total, 40 minutes.

Third round—Trot 7 1-2, gallop 5, walk 15, trot 7 1-2, gallop 5, walk 15. Total, 55 minutes.

The time provided for the whole trip including the two rests of six minutes each, was 2 hours 29 1-2 minutes.

The two-by-two order was kept pretty well, except during the brief gallop, when a frisky animal carrying Col. McCain, a gentleman who weighs considerably less, tried to dance the military schottische on the broad, expansive rump of the brewery animal carrying Col. Casey, who annoys the scales 260 pounds' worth. There was no harm done, however, and, after Col. McCain had chastised the refractory quadruped, the march was resumed.

LEPROSY SPREADS IN INDO-CHINA

PARIS, October 12.—The authorities of France's Far Eastern Colony of Indo-China are at their wit's end to know what to do to combat the terrible, increasing spread of leprosy. This horrible disease is making enormous strides among the natives, attacking them by whole families at a time.

The situation is so serious that the Governor-General has for some time been considering how, if possible, to stop its ravages, and in some measure to have the unfortunate victims cared for. There is no lack of lay nurses, men and women, and the question of

CUBANS STUDYING OUR COURTS.

NEW YORK, October 2.—Gen. Carlos Garcia Velez, Cuban commissioner of prisons, and Senor Felipe Diaz Aluz, judge of the first district court of Havana, were spectators in the Tombs police court this morning. Gen. Velez and Judge Aluz are members of a commission appointed by Gov. Magoon to study the courts and prisons of the United States. They have recently been attending the prison conference that he was particularly interested in the children's court, of which there is no counterpart in Cuba. He hoped that similar courts would soon be introduced into the island.

HOLT ESTATE AGAIN.

Judge De Bolt has ordered the reopening of the matter of the R. W. Holt estate case, in order that the dispute between the master in the case and the administrator may be adjusted. The Master's report some time ago failed to approve the accounts of Carlos A. Long, administrator, as regards some items of commissions and the reopening is for the purpose of revising these matters.

The third and last bowling game between the Custom House and the Oahu College team in the present series has been postponed until some time next week. Each team has won a game, and the final game will be watched with a good deal of interest.

This vessel is the first of the three new boats in the round-the-world service.

HAWAII WON HIM

ANOTHER VISITOR ENTHUSIASTIC
IN PRAISE OF ISLAND'S ATTRAC-TIONS.

The following is Promotion Secretary Wood's report for this week:

Honolulu, Oct. 31, 1907.

Chairman and Members Hawaii Promotion Committee:

Gentlemen.—For the past week we have had, as a visitor to our city, Mr. Edwin W. Stephens of Columbia, Mo., a journalist and publisher of note, who is about circling the globe. Mr. Stephens has called at our rooms frequently and at my request prepared a short statement giving his impressions of Hawaii, copies of which I shall take the liberty of sending out to some one hundred papers and magazines representing the Baptist Church in the United States and Canada. Mr. Stephens is well known to the members of this religious body being Moderator of the Baptist General Association and his words of praise of Hawaii will which follow will be read with interest by many thousands of people:

"My friend, Mr. W. J. Bryan, in his book, descriptive of his tour around the world, denominates the Hawaiian Islands 'A Pacific Paradise.' I have thought of 'The Ocean Oasis' as a good name for them. A trouble, I find, since visiting the islands is the tendency to run into superlatives and engage in such seemingly exaggerated forms of expression as to awaken incredulity of the part of those who have never visited the islands and to whom I may relate my impressions.

"I have traveled over practically all of the United States and over most of Europe. Nowhere have I enjoyed, in one place, such a combination of beautiful scenery, delightful climate, productivity of soil and such possibilities for the accumulation of wealth. The isolation of the islands is one of its chief attractions to one seeking either health, enjoyment or employment. It is a relief to escape the tiring bustle and friction of the mainland and to find quiet and opportunity for thought and rest and communion with one's self afforded by these islands. Nowhere in the world have I seen such blending of coloring or such variety of scenery in mountain, valley and ocean. Nowhere have I known such uniformity and delightfulness of climate and nowhere more profusion of flowers and rich tropical vegetation. It is a land of beauty and should give to the world a race of artists and poets.

"One of the features of special advantage is the intermingling of so many diverse races in such friendly and mutually helpful relations; and not the least important consideration attaching to the islands is the fact that they occupy a strategic, convergent place in the Pacific, rendering them a key to commercial and political power. It was a great day for the United States when they were acquired.

"Our Government cannot over-estimate the importance of thoroughly fortifying them. When their beauties and advantages are understood, I can see there will be a constant stream of visitors and home-seekers to them.

"I have traveled from Honolulu to Haleiwa, through sugar and pineapple plantations, without limit, and have been everywhere impressed with the beauty of the scenery, the glories of the climate and the exhaustless possibility of the soil.

(Signed) "E. W. STEPHENS."
Respectfully submitted,
H. P. WOOD, Secretary.

LAUKEA WILL EARN EXTRA MONEY

POLICE DEPARTMENT IS ABOUT TO HUSTLE TO ENFORCE VA-RIOUS LAWS.

Sheriff Laukea will enforce the rules of the road. Dick Lane, appointed Assistant Hack Inspector today, will tomorrow begin to get after all hacks left unfixed, whether on stands or elsewhere except in motion or with their drivers on their seats. If hackmen have not their rate-cards handy they will be pinched. If a tourist or a Honolulu man is overcharged the Jehu will suffer and if the rule of the road requiring vehicles to keep to the right and turn corners on the right side, is broken, hackmen and auto drivers will find themselves in serious difficulty.

Sheriff Laukea received official notice from the County Clerk today of the increased allowance for the police department, an increase of $620, $40 more than Laukea asked.

GOOD FOR WILLARD.
Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown, of Honolulu, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Perline, at the Vendome, San Jose. Mr. Brown is the owner of one of the large sugar plantations on the islands.—News Letter.

22 MILES PER HOUR

THE SPEED AT WHICH AMERICAN WAR AIRSHIP COVERED FIVE HUNDRED MILES.

ST. LOUIS, October 18.—Swinging through the air at a speed estimated at 22 miles an hour, the United States signal corps balloon No. 10, in which Aeronauts J. C. McCoy and Captain Charles D. F. Chandler of the United States signal corps ascended here last evening, passed over Illinois and Indiana last night and across Ohio today and at nightfall, when last heard from, was apparently about to land in the vicinity of Point Pleasant, W. Va. The distance covered on a straight line measurement is approximately 500 miles, and the voyage won for the aeronauts the Lahm cup.

The Lahm cup was instituted by the Aero club of America soon after the international races at Paris in 1906, at which Lieutenant Frank P. Lahm won the James Gordon Bennett cup for the Aero club of America. So joyful were the members of the club at the victory that the cup was named for the pilot of the balloon "United States" and it was put up by the club to be won by the aeronaut who traveled more than 402 miles, the distance covered by the "United States" in the Paris races, provided the start was made from American soil. Lieutenant Lahm never has held the cup and this was the first time it ever was won.

When the ascension was made last evening it was the intention of the aeronauts to remain in the air all night as a test of the gas to be used by the balloons in the international aeronautic contests which are to be held here next week. Considering the likelihood, however, that they might be carried a great distance, they went amply prepared for a long flight. Provisions in tin cans, self-heating by a lime slacking device, were stored in the basket and a number of different instruments for testing purposes were carried.

The balloon, with a capacity of 78,000 cubic feet of gas, was filled yesterday afternoon from the gas plant at Second and Rutgers streets. A number of members of the Aero Club of St. Louis and visiting aeronauts were present when the ascent was made at 4:10 p. m. The balloon ascended gracefully and suddenly veered as a sharp wind struck it and caused it to collide with the timbers that supported a high coal pile in a yard. The basket scraped a moment threateningly, but prompt work by the aeronauts in throwing out some sand ballast caused the balloon to shake itself free from the coal pile unharmed and shoot straight up several hundred feet. Then it swept toward the northeast and was soon lost to view in the gloom of the evening.

MAUNA KEA, 242, A. O. F.
Supreme Chief Companion Bros. L. Scheuern, of the local headquarters Ancient Order of Foresters, authorizes M. C. Pacheco to go to Hilo to institute the new lodge of Mauna Kea, No. 252, on November 5, or when convenient, the charter for which arrived today in the Manchuria's mail.

ALBATROSS SAILS TODAY.

As exclusively announced in yesterday's Star the U. S. F. C. S. S. Albatross, Captain Johnson, takes 15 Midway on her Guam and Manila trip, to land stores for the marines there, the Iroquois not being able to go on account of Captain Carter's illness. The Albatross sails at 4 p. m. today.

CAMPBELL GOES IN

that he had offered the job to a well-known engineer, but because an acceptance had not yet been received he preferred not to give out the name.

Superintendent Campbell's first work of importance will be the Nuuanu Dam matter. It is desired to get to work on this again as quickly as possible, now that the money is available for the work. He will draw up the specifications immediately and will decide on whether or not to call for tenders for completing the work, or to manage the work by employing day labor himself.

Superintendent Holloway was busy in his office this morning packing up his personal belongings and getting them moved out. He expressed himself as well pleased to turn over the reins to some one else, and declared that he would enjoy loafing a while. He has not, so he states, anything definite in view, but he does not intend to leave the Territory. On the other hand, it is understood that J. Hastings Howland, the Assistant Superintendent, who goes out with the close of the month also, has had an offer of a good position in the East and will probably shake the dust of Hawaii from his feet before long.

Campbell has made his selection of an assistant and states that he is awaiting a reply to an offer before announcing any appointment.

built entirely of cedar; double walls; concrete and stone base; marble slab floored conservatory with bathing pool in center. There are 5 large, lofty bedrooms, 2 toilets and large bath room; very large hallways and lobby; closets in every room; reception room; large living room; dining room; library 2 pantries; kitchen; stable; coach house; servants' rooms.

The view is unexcelled; looking down over the city, harbor and ocean, on either side are the valleys of Nuuanu and the falls of Kalihl, while in the rear are the famous pali bluffs and beautiful scenery of the upper Nuuanu. The climate is cool, snappy and bracing—recommended by physicians as a particularly desirable residence part of town.

The property almost adjoins the fashionable Country Club. There are good macadam roads, electric lights, telephones and water service, while the cars are expected to run by the place in two months. The lands are four acres with various kinds of soil.
