

COURT GAVE NO RELIEF

ADMINISTRATOR CAN NOT GET HOLD OF STOCK.

Judge Humphreys Gives Special Hearing to Petition of B. L. Marx This Morning—Minor Matters of Interest

The only matter of consequence passed upon by Judge Humphreys this morning was the petition for a hearing by R. L. Marx, administrator of the estate of the late John W. Winter. According to the statement of the administrator, among the assets of the estate

There were 110 shares of stock in the Hollister Drug Company. This stock was, however, held by certain parties as security for a indebtedness. In order to get rid of the indebtedness, the court asked that the holders of this block of stock be directed to return it.

Bishop & Company, Mrs. George W. Spencer and Phoebe A. Farnham appeared for the claimant. They claimed, claiming that the court had no jurisdiction over the subject matter so far as it related to claimant and, further more, claiming they had never been served with such process, they asked for a hearing. The matter was argued and the court sustained the contention of the creditors dismissing the hearing of the grounds of no jurisdiction.

W. R. Caulton, the court let the officers of administration upon the estate of the late August Kraft, W. R. Caulton qualified as surety, $5,000 being the amount of the bond.

Thos. J. O'Connell, guardian of Thome

Metcafe, filed an answer to the suit of the Honolulu Investment Co. against himself as guardian and others to quiet title, claiming that Metcafe has attained majority and is entitled to a jury trial and asking to be dismissed as one of the defendants as the action was filed against him as guardian.

Chang San Fai filed a petition yesterday asking for removal of administration upon the estate of Chang Tai, a resident of Honolulu who died in the Village of Ping Nam, province of Heong San, China in 1938. The petition was filed for January 25, 1940.

Judge Humphreys today dismissed Lau Tin and Lau Tong administrators of the estate of the late Tan Tseun otherwise known as Lau Chong. The bond was $25,000, Chu Gem qualifying as surety.

Letters of administration on the estate of the late Katie Ellen Sims were granted to William R. Sims yesterday by Judge Humphreys.

James A. Low was granted letters of administration upon the estate of a

EARTHQUAKE ON OAHU.

The fact that the shock was slight and that few people were awake at the hour, probably accounts for the earthquake not being more generally felt. The seismograph at Oahu College, however, in position, there would doubtless have been a scientific and indisputable record of the earthquake.

CHANGES IN REPUBLICAN.

Negotiations are in progress for the sale of $12,000 worth out of the $21,000 worth of stock in the Robert Grier Publishing Company, publishers of the Republican, held by Judge Humphreys. This sale if it goes through, will curtail the control of the paper and may result in a complete change in political leadership. Prior to the negotiations, for the Daniel Logan was offered the editorship of the paper and it is understood that he was to accept, but the negotiations for the sale leaves that matter abeyance.

CHANCE FOR QUICK ORDERS.

The attention of shippers is drawn to the fact that the steamship Mariposa leaves San Francisco for Honolulu direct, February 2. This will give merchants and others an excellent opportunity to send their orders by the China leaving here January 18, and have ample time to have them filled and shipped without delay by the Mariposa.

A LARGE CARRIER.

The evolution of shipping in the nineteenth century was something remarkable. The necessity for cheap transportation and fast service for those who go down to the sea in ships has led to the creation of large carriers with the smallest number of men possible to handle them. The changes in coast service have been particularly noteworthy.

WILL COME HERE.

SEATTLE, January 1.—Quartermaster Ruben has received advices from Nagasaki stating that the United States transport Athenian left that port bound for Seattle, where she will load another cargo of live stock and government supplies for the war department.

DISAGREE WITH MURPHY.

Local Ministers Believe in Legislating Against Liquor.
 There was a big crowd at Central Union Church last night to hear Francis Murphy. Previous to addressing the audience, Mr. Murphy called upon Rev. Kincaid, Rev. Pearson, and Rev. Cory for remarks. They expressed themselves as not agreeing with Mr. Murphy's sentiments regarding prohibition. In fact those gentlemen were declared in favor of legislation against the drink traffic.

KINGS ARE HIS CUSTOMERS.

A Birmingham manufacturer drives something of a trade in crowns. They are real ones of solid gold, with cap of crimson velvet, incrustations of garnet, topaz and other kinds of cheap but showy stones, and are supplied to the kings of Africa—of whom there are several hundred—at a highly satisfactory return of ivory and other merchandise.

REGULAR THING.

Grogan—I suppose you know it is the proper caper now not to give butter at dinner.
 Hogan—That's always been the rule at our boarding house. They serve oleo instead, you know.—Boston Transcript.

A GOOD THING.

There's one good thing when they feel dry.
 That business men cannot pass by. For far as of a trade in crowns, they stop to drink "Ringer" beer on draught or in bottle at Criterion.

MASTERLY PRESENTATIONSOLICITOR-GENERAL'S BRIEF ON IMPERIALISM.Presents the Whole Theory of the Administration Regarding Our New Possessions—Is Clear and Luminous.WASHINGTON, January 7.—All is ready for the great battle against imperialism in the Supreme Court tomorrow. An army of lawyers has gathered in Washington. The government will be represented by the Attorney-General and the Solicitor-General, while Senator Lindsay of Kentucky will take the same side in the fight in behalf of New York pilots. Although the leader of the struggle against the colonial theory of our new possessions is John G. Carlisle, the honor of opening the contest belongs to Frederick B.
Coudert Jr., whose brief is the strongest document yet submitted.But the Government has delivered a masterly blow in the brief of Solicitor-General Richards, which was completed today. The argument discloses the whole case of the McKinley Administration. It is the supreme climax in the most far-reaching case ever submitted to the Supreme Court. The Mc-Kinley Administration stands squarely on the ancient democratic doctrine of States' rights, holding that the Union is a union of States, and not of States and Territories, and that the States reserved to themselves and their people the powers not delegated to the Government.But the most surprising thing in the government's brief is the Solicitor-General's sweeping admission that the constitution of the United States does follow the flag, and that it is partly in force in Porto Rico and the Philippines.
This is the first time that the Government has recognized the existence of the constitution in any form in our new possessions. The Solicitor-General deals in his brief with the De Lima, Downs, Dooley, Armstrong and Crossman cases, which make up the ground work of tomorrow's struggle. The Solicitor-General refers to Chief Justice Marshall for conception of the American empire, composed of States and Territories. He deals with the very central factor in the situation, as follows: "The Territories are not an integral part, but possessions of this 'great corporation,' the governing unit, composed of the States, possessing and exercising sovereignty over the Territories, subject only to the applicable restrictions and limitations of the Constitution. It is true that every part of the national domain is within the jurisdiction of the Constitution, but it does not follow that every part is subject to all of its provisions. Each part is subject to some or more of them, but all parts are not subject to all.""Outside the limitations of the Constitution, its spirit requires the Government to treat all subjects of our imperialism with justice and equality under the law. Tyranny and oppression cannot constitutionally exist under the sovereignty of the republic, whose founders declared that all men are entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.""But these essential principles upon which the Government rests, these fundamental limitations in favor of personal rights do not come into the resident and Congress to provide trial by jury in Territories where the jury system is unknown, and where no proper jury can be had or to let crime go unpun-ished.""The Constitution which gave the United States power to acquire territory by treaty and imposed upon Congress the duty of disposing of and governing it, did not leave the National Government helpless by demanding im-possibilities."RAN ON TWO LEGS.A Remarkable Runaway on Fort Street.A horse belonging to L. F. Prescott distinguished itself by a remarkable runaway on Fort street yesterday, shortly after two o'clock. It ran for a whole block on its two fore legs, drawing a light wagon after it.At Fort and King streets the harness frightened the animal and it kicked at the wagon. Both its hind legs passed clean over the shaft and became fast between the back of the shaft and the bottom of the wagon. On its two fore legs the horse started to run and it made first class time down Fort street to Merchant street, where it stopped. It was still on two legs, with the hind legs fast. The animal remained thus until, becoming exhausted it sank over on the side and freed its hind legs by breaking the shaft. Both hind legs were a good deal skinned.MANY SUITS FOR INSURANCE.A number of suits for fire insurance growing out of the great fire last January were filed in the Circuit court this afternoon. The cases are as follows: Choy Look See vs. Scottish Union and National Insurance Co., for $500; Sing
Chan Co., vs. New Zealand Insurance Co., for $1,000; Ho Chai vs. The Insurance Company of North America for $1,500; Choy Look See vs. Royal Insurance Company, for $1,000; Wing Man Yuen Company vs. Scottish Union and National Insurance Company, for $500; W. W. Ahana vs. The Insurance Company of North America, for $1,000.
There are three others, all aggregating nearly $7,000.AWAITING COURT MARTIAL.Not until a court of naval officers is convened can the imprisoned sailor of the Iroquois be tried for his alleged desertion. He was recently taken off the Sudden and is now confined in irons aboard the government vessel. Inasmuch as the Solute will not be here before a month he will have an enforced imprisonment which would perhaps be unnecessary could a naval court martial be called when desired.ANOTHER LOSS ON SPAIN.The statement thrown out from Washington that the United States government will not pay the claims of European governments against Cuba for losses sustained by foreigners during the insurrection against Spanish rule is entirely proper. Nor should the new government of Cuba be made responsible for such losses. Spain manifestly is the power those claimants should turn to for compensation for losses suffered under Spanish rule.—Springfield Republican.FATHER MARQUETTE.The remains of Father Marquette, the intrepid missionary and explorer, are reported by Ann Arbor railway officials to have been found by workmen near Frankfort, Mich. Only the skull and some imperfect bones are left. They were found in the bed of a small stream, and there is evidence to show that Father Marquette was buried there.Note Heads, Bill Heads, Statements of finding employment.

HENRY VIGNAUD,

Secretary of the American Embassy at Paris, France.Stanley, it seems, had gone from Porto Rico to Paris, and had been employed at the exposition the past summer and autumn as an interpreter. The United States flag waves over his island home and he acknowledges alie-gence to the government of the United States of America, which had acquired Porto Rico from Spain. No one can think it surprising that a man whose flag is the stars and stripes should come to these shores to find employment. If Stanley has a country, the United States is the only one he can claim; otherwise he is a man without a country, through no fault of his own.But at New York this "learned and respectable Porto Rican gentleman" was detained by the United States authorities and treated as an alien immigrant. Since he could not produce the money required by law of aliens when they enter the United States seeking employment, he was kept in custody, "as a person likely to become a public charge." He may be deported like a pauper from Poland or Armenia.If the inhabitants of Porto Rico are ever to rejoice in their allegiance to the United States, this form of tyranny over them, when they attempt to enter our seaports, as aliens, subject to the same restrictions as the peasants and seagulls of southern Europe, is nothing short of an outrage upon every pulse-beat of our history. And that, too, whether or not the Porto Rican legislation can be turned into harmony with the letter of the constitution.—Springfield Republican.CORPORATION NOTICES.*McBRYDE SUGAR COMPANY.A special meeting of the stockholders

TO RETIRE.

Judge Humphreys of the First Circuit Court announces his intention of resigning. He does not say when his resignation will be sent in, but he does not intend to resign immediately and leave the community with two empty court rooms instead of one, and legal affairs which are now terribly congested, brought to a standstill. This is honorable of Judge Humphreys and as an honorable man one always expects him to act. He has found that to be Judge of the Circuit Court at a salary of three thousand a year, is a dead loss to an able lawyer, and that he is wasting precious time which should be devoted to his own private interests.

Judge Silliman Second Judge of the Court made the same discovery as Judge Humphreys some time ago, but he did not look at the matter in the light that Judge Humphreys is doing. He left his court to take care of itself and it has remained empty ever since, the new appointment never having been made.

The Star has disagreed from Judge Humphreys many times during his career on the bench, and may do so again while he remains on it, but it must also credit him with honesty of purpose and a keen desire to keep up the dignity of the lower courts at a high level. Judge Humphreys entered upon his duties with certain strongly formed prejudices. The continued exercise of those duties has shown him that some of those prejudices were unfounded, while others were perfectly correct. In point of fact Judge Humphreys sees both sides of the shield now, and will make the more successful member of the bar through having acquired that point of view.

It is however somewhat of a comment upon the lower judiciary that two able men who have occupied seats upon it, have found themselves, for financial reasons, unable to remain in them. It narrows down the future appointees, either to men of means, to whom the salary is no object, or to men who by taking the positions confessedly place themselves below Judges Silliman and Humphreys as to fee earning capabilities when practicing at the bar.

THE CANALS.

The Isthmian Canal question was a live question during the later decades of the last century, but even that is by no means the commencement of the idea. Saavedra dreamed of it more than three hundred years ago, just as Nero did of the Corinthian Canal over eighteen hundred years ago, and dozens dreamed of the Suez Canal, scattered over an almost unlimited series of centuries. Therefore to see the canal subject brought up Congress after Congress finding it turned down, is nothing to be surprised at. No canal, or in fact no great work has ever been accomplished without the very hardest of struggle and in the face of the most determined opposition.

Senator Morgan has ever been the most earnest advocate of the Isthmian Canal. As chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals on January 7, he presented a report in favor of the Nicaraguan Canal route. He is emphatic in his language upon the point. He says that either the bill now before the House should be passed or abandoned.

We, in Hawaii, are intensely interested in an Isthmian Canal. Give us the canal and give us the cable and we have the practical command of the North Pacific trade. Everything that swims on the surface of the Ocean and carries merchandise will have to come to our ports, one way or the other, and everything that comes into the ports leaves money behind it.

The Nicaraguan route has a great deal in its favor, especially if sail is used, because, owing to the winds or rather the calms, such a class of vessels would have to work southward from Panama to the equator, and the distance, sailing, from Panama to San Francisco would average 5,370 miles, while the same sailing distance from Nicaragua would be 3,240 miles. In time this would give an advantage as of 37 days or 14 days in favor of the Nicaragua route. The return voyage would show less difference—from October to April Nicaragua would have 4 days advantage, the remaining six months 5 days advantage. These facts are based on Maury's opinions.

But the whole of the argument does not rest upon the time of sailing vessels between Panama or Nicaragua and San Francisco. There is the building time consideration. At Panama the heavy work can be reached by rail now laid down, for the Nicaragua Canal a harbor must be constructed before the great work, the Dam at Boca San Carlos can be commenced. In point of time no one can calculate. De Lesseps thought that the Panama Canal would be completed in 1887.

Taking cost the estimate for the Panama Canal completion is now $38,835,000, while the Nicaragua Canal commission varies in its estimate from $18,113,790 to $134,818,308. It would probably be just as near to reality to put these figures down at $99,000,000 for Panama, and $119,500,000 to $135,000,000 for Nicaragua. When you are calculating the spending of millions what is a thousand or two. The actual expenditure is bound to exceed the estimate.

But at the present juncture there is this to be considered by the owners of the partly finished Panama Canal. If the Nicaragua Canal is constructed, the Panama Canal won't pay. The trade is coming from the United States, and the United States Canal will be used. It will also be used by European traders except those going down the West Coast of South America. The wisest thing for the Panama Canal people is to make a sensible proposal to the United States Government and let American energy finish what French visionariness commenced. If not the Nicaraguan Canal will be built and there will be nothing of the Panama Canal but a huge debt.

A NEW POINT OF VIEW.

What the results of Kitchener's policy with regard to the Boers may be remains to be seen. A committee of the Boers met him on January 3 and our latest advices from that direction are up to January 7, four days later. The committee, which was headed by Van Rensburg, a member of the First Volksraad of the Transvaal desired to bring about a peaceful solution of the present situation. As the reports appear in the telegrams Lord Kitchener expressed himself as willing to reach that solution, and also paid a high compliment to Boer bravery.

The conservative Boers have been willing for a long time to drop all hostilities, but the radical element has had the upper hand for many years. Any one who has made the slightest study of Boer history will see that. A certain section of the Boers have ever and constantly repudiated their own government and in many cases have defied it. One of this most brilliant Presidents, a man who devoted his private fortune to the advancement of the Republic was repudiated by the radical element, after the country had profited by his generosity, and died an exile.

With such knowledge before him it is no wonder that Lord Kitchener is careful over his negotiations. The Boer committee at Pretoria is one thing, the irresponsible raiders under De Wet and Steyn are quite another. To make absolute terms with the one, is only to court repudiation from both. Kitchener's position is an extremely difficult one, but in spite of apparently adverse circumstances there is no reason to think that he is either outwitted or outgeneraled. A man who once waited for success for fifteen years is a man who in the zenith of his career is not likely to make a failure of his plans, unless they are interfered with by those who hold power over him. But Kitchener is the kind of man who in a crisis, would defy power and act as he thought best. Nelson had this victory compelling attribute.

The United States has gone into the deporting business. Several important military and civil leaders of the Filipinos, who have fallen into the hands of the United States authorities in the Philippines, are to be sent to Guam where they will remain till the war is over.

That the Cherokees should desire to leave their splendid lands in Indian Territory and migrate to Mexico, is a matter which comes as a surprise. The Cherokees are advanced and educated Indians, and very many of them are personally wealthy, while their tribal wealth is very great. The land-hunger of their neighbors may be considered as a factor in desiring to move into a country where such land-hunger does not prevail as yet.

Francis Murphy, while one of the strongest advocates of temperance in the world, does not favor prohibition, and maintains that prohibition does not prohibit. Prohibition in this Territory would only mean an out-break of swine making and no amount of police supervision could stop it. On the other hand the work that Mr. Murphy is doing is most effectual, and though some who are convinced by his eloquence will slide backwards, there will be a plentiful crop of those who will advance and who will date their regeneration from the effect of his words.

It is not right to judge of the physical characteristics of the Porto Ricans by their appearance after two voyages and a long railway journey. The two importations of Norwegians we had many years ago, did not look particularly robust on their arrival after their long voyage round the Horn. Some of them who landed barefooted, practically from those Norwegian ships and are now occupying prominent positions and have amassed money. The conditions of life from which the Porto Ricans have come are probably worse than those of any immigrants who have come to our shores.

The fact that little or no news reaches Cape Town about the present condition of affairs in the field does not argue that there has been a success either way. Cape Town has been the headquarters of the correspondents who did not want to see any fighting, just as Key West was the headquarters of a similar gang during the Cuban Rebellion and War, and Hongkong of a like set during the Philippine war. Telegrams that emanate from Cape Town are apt to be misleading. What one wants are telegrams from Alival North, from Colenso, De Aar, Kimberley and such places, but Kitchener has shut down a firm hand upon dispatches from those places, and neither friend nor foe knows what is being done.

WORLD'S SUGAR MARKET

IMPORTANT FACTS INFLUENCING PRICES.

Estimates for Cuba Cut Down—For Java Increased—Large Increase in the World's Total Production.

Williams, Dimond & Co., in their circular of prices current under date of San Francisco, January 7, 1901, say:

Our last circular per Nippon Maru was dated December 5th, 1900.

Sugar.—The local market and prices for export continue unchanged, but granulated for local consumption still being quoted at 5.55c, and for export 5.40c.

Basis.—Dec. 5th to 15th, no sales; 17th, spot sale 200 tons at 43c; 18th to 26th, no sales; 27th, cost and freight sale 400 tons at 4.37c, likewise on same date to arrive sale 200 tons at 4.375c; 28th, to Jan. 3d, 1901, no sales; 4th, cost and freight sale 300 tons at 4.325c, and on same date spot sale 200 tons at 4.375c, since which no sales, establishing basis for 96 deg. centrifugals in New York on that date 4.35c, San Francisco, 3.95c.

New York Refined.—No changes from Nov. 7 to Jan. 2, 1901, declined on that date to 5.35c equal to 5.24c net cash, since which no change reported.

London Cable, Dec. 31st.—Quoted Java No. 15 D. S. 11s. 9d.; fair refining, 10s. 9d.; same date last year 11s. 3d. and 10s. 10d., respectively.

Stock.—Willet & Gray report Dec. 27th total stock U. S. four ports in all hands estimated Dec. 26th, 54,482 tons, against 21,465 tons, same time last year. Six principal ports Cuba estimated Dec. 25th, 3,500 tons against 3,500 tons last year. Total stock in all principal countries Dec. 27th at latest uneven dates 1,509,982 tons, against 1,557,965 tons; a deficiency under last year 46,983 tons. Total sugar crop of the world, estimated grand total, cane and bag sugars, to Dec. 27th, 3,375,500 tons against 3,339,323 tons; estimated increase in the world's production 1,936,127 tons.

California Beets.—We have again been blessed with general rains throughout this State, and the prospects for the coming beet crop at present would indicate an abundant supply.

Eastern and Foreign Markets.—The New York market throughout the first part of last month, in spite of the difference of buyers, continued fairly steady, but latterly the customary holiday inactivity manifested itself, and the few transactions recently reported were only for immediate requirements. The American Sugar Refining Co. has kept aloof from the market entirely, and the views of other refiners have been largely influenced by the weakness displayed in the London market, due doubtless to the increased estimates, large stocks, and absence of purchases for American account. Accordingly latest reports indicate a downward tendency, and a concession would require to be granted in the event of further sales.

Mr. Licht's December estimate of the European beet crop, announced 15th ult., foreshadows a total production of 5,550,000 tons, an increase of 150,000 tons over his previous figures, and in some well informed quarters even this is thought to be rather below the probable yield, for although the estimates of the factories are somewhat less, every indication points to an exceedingly large production, which, in connection with the high figures established in the cane estimates for 1900-1901, cannot help exerting great influence on the world's markets; nevertheless in determining values due allowance should be made for the natural yearly increase in consumption.

In Louisiana the grinding season is practically over, and former estimates of 250,000 tons are maintained. Reports from Cuba show that rain is retarding sugar making, with correspondingly small January shipments in prospect, and there is now an impression that Mr. Guma's estimate of a crop of 630,000 tons should be reduced to 600,000 tons.

The Java yield promises to be immense, and some are of the opinion that total production of 800,000 to 900,000 tons may be reached, although the official estimates are now placed at 700,000 tons.

Refined.—The New York Market for refined sugar has been exceedingly quiet and conditions have become more settled, although the trade shows no inclination to buy more than sufficient to supply immediate needs. Every indication points to the establishment of a harmonious agreement between Messrs. Arbuckle Brothers and the uniform list be established.

AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

McCarthy Charged With Detaining a Sailor's Baggage.

United States District Attorney Baird filed notice in the district court this morning of intention to institute proceedings against William McCarthy the sailors' boarding house master on a charge of having violated the American maritime law by keeping the clothes of a sailor, Henry H. Libby, as the name of the seaman who claims he has suffered at the hands of McCarthy.

According to the sailor, he has been stopping at the boarding house of McCarthy and having no money with which to pay his bill McCarthy refused to allow him to take away the clothes, inasmuch as Libby had the chance to leave on the John Currier last night this caused him considerable trouble. He had to give up the berth he had secured for himself. McCarthy the district attorney stated that McCarthy was once before charged with the same offense but on that occasion he promised to observe the laws. If found guilty a fine of $100 will be levied against McCarthy. The proceedings are quasi-criminal.

PEACE IN KENTUCKY.

Kentucky's Christmas day celebration was at least enthusiastic. Conservative reports place the number of killings at no less than 20 and that is not all, for as a result of this wholesale target practice it is feared that old feuds, which had almost died out, will be on again with renewed bitterness. What a time of peace and good will!—Springfield Republican.

GIBBON'S SERMON ON WAR

THE BALTIMORE CARDINAL'S OPINIONS.

Interesting Sermon on War in Relation To Christianity and to Our Own Country—Imperialism and Militarism.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 6.—Cardinal Gibbons today delivered a sermon at high mass in the cathedral in which he reviewed briefly the events of the century just closed with special reference to the wars which have been waged during that period as a preface to an urgent plea for universal peace. He incidentally touched upon the subject of the proposed increase of the standing army in this country, pointing out the evil results arising from the maintenance of large bodies of armed men in Europe and expressed the hope that similar conditions may never obtain in this country.

Cardinal Gibbons began by saying that the mission of Christ was one of peace. He continued:

"Before the advent of Christ, war was the rule, peace the exception, throughout the world. But although wars are less frequent and less inhuman in the Christian dispensation than in pagan times, it must be confessed that we are yet far removed from the millennium of universal peace.

"At this moment, after an enormous expenditure of men and money, England is endeavoring to bring to a successful close her war with the South African republics. It is stated that this campaign will cost England six hundred million dollars.

"And how does our own country stand on the subject of war? Although the cornerstone of the constitution is peace with all nations and entangling alliances with none, we have had on our hands four wars in the century just brought to a close. In 1812 we were engaged in the war with Great Britain, which was justifiable on our part because it was a war of defense. In 1846 the Mexican war occurred. Our terrible civil war began in 1861, lasting four years, and we have recently closed the war with Spain, which resulted in the loss to her and in the acquisition by us of all her foreign possessions.

"When we read of a great military campaign our imagination revels in the contemplation of the heroic achievements of famous generals. We listen with rapture to the clash of arms, the shouts of the victors and the sound of martial music. We seem to catch the spirit of enthusiasm by which the combatants were animated.

"But we take no note of the shrieks and agonies of the soldiers wailing in their blood on the battlefields. We have no thought of the sick and wounded lying in the hospitals and prisons. We are unmindful of something that mothers weeping and sighing for the loved ones far away.

"It is a subject of great concern to the friends of the gospel of peace that Christian Europe presents today the spectacle of a huge military camp. When we read of our legislators and statesmen that they may never be betrayed into imitating European governments by the establishment of formidable standing armies, God forbid that we ourselves, flushed with recent victories should ever become intoxicated with the wine of imperialism, of militarism, but may we always follow the traditions of the fathers of the republic.

"Hitherto we have presented to the world a beautiful spectacle. Europeans accustomed at home to meet a soldier or gendarme at every street corner, on arriving in this country have been filled with surprise and admiration that a nation of so vast an extent and with such an immense population contains an army of only 25,000 men. They have been forcibly impressed with the fact that they can travel from Maine to California without meeting a single soldier. They see that every citizen of the United States is a soldier without uniform, engaged in the active pursuits of life and ready at a moment's notice to defend his country. They would feel that we are a strong nation because we cheerfully bow to the majesty of the law, and are not confronted and intimidated by military satraps. May this fair picture never be defaced.

"God grant that the new century which has just dawned upon us may inaugurate a new era of peace."

Frank Andrade was admitted to practice in the United States courts by Judge Estes this morning, on motion of Lorrin Andrews.

GET ACQUAINTED.

The more people you know the greater your chance of finding us friends among them. The same principle obtains as to labor-saving conveniences. It is much better to get a light by pressing a button at your bedside than to rise, strike a match and set the gas going. The more things you know how to do, the more thoroughly safe-guarded you are in emergencies and times of trouble. It is ignorance along these lines which induces incalculable loss of time, money and health. "Oh, if I had only known of it in time," is the sad, doleful cry of multitudes who find themselves in the grasp of some disease from which a certain remedy might have delivered them. Now, information comes through the eye and ear. It is reasonable, therefore, to suppose that what we are now going to tell you about may be the most valuable intelligence printed in this newspaper. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Malt and Wild Cherry. It has no equal for the use of Invalids and Consumptives. In all cases of Fevers, Anemia, Nervous Debility, Pneumonia, Scrofula, Rheumatism, etc., it may be implicitly depended on. Progressive physicians endorse and prescribe it. Thin and wasted patients quickly gain new health and strength. One sufferer gained twelve pounds in weight from a single bottle. If you need it now take it now. If not, get acquainted with it and know what to do when occasion arises. One bottle convinces. Extracts from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

THE SIX MASTED SCHOONER

BIG FREIGHT CARRIER WITH A SMALL CREW.

Fore, Main, Mizzen, Spanker, Jigger and Driver Masts—12,000 Square Yards of Canvas.

Catch a view of the spars of the giant schooner George W. Wells a little to one side and you imagine that you see the masts of a squadron of schooners.
In her lines she is a yacht. A twentieth century machine the six-sticker has demonstrated herself to be in speed carrying capacity and economy.

The Wells, with the blue house flag of her consignees, Hanning, from the mizzen truck, lay off the Erie piers on Friday, but yesterday the long, graceful vessel was moved up alongside an Erie pier above Hoboken. She will begin discharging her freight of 46,000 yellow pine railroad ties today.

Here is the proof of the practicability of the sailing machine.
On August 14 last, when she went over-board into Penobscot bay, in the little seacoast town of Camden, Me., in the presence of 10,000 people, she received a lump sum of $120,000 in timber and metal. Figure that she cost $150,- 000.

Capt. Arthur L. Crowley, the young skipper-capitalist, of Taunton, Mass., who commands, and owns, perhaps, the biggest part of the new era schooner, receives 15 cents for bringing a tie from Brunswick, Ga., to Hoboken. That is $6,300 for one trip.

She carried 4,600 tons of coal from Philadelphia to Havana at about $1.50 a ton. That is $7,300. Earnings of $14,- 200 within five months, minus running expenses, is more than 9 1/2 per cent.

A little more than a year ago people were laughing at Capt. Crowley. They called him a dreamer. He found a man who had faith and money. He was George W. Wells, of Southbridge, Mass., millionaire manufacturer of spectacles, who had become interested in shipping.
Wells had started with nothing. He was born on a farm up in Woodstock, Conn.

The keel was laid and later the hamlet turned itself loose. Miss May Wells scattered white roses upon the bow and freed a flock of white doves, and officers of the Kearsarge and Indiana danced at the ball that followed the launching.

From the tip of her driver boom to the tip of her jibboom the Wells is about 425 feet long. On her keel she is 302 feet 11 inches long. On one trip she can carry as much coal as three of the Philadelphia and Reading colliers.

Builder H. M. Bean, of Camden, said in an interview on Nov. 29 that he believed in the practicability of a seven-master. Mr. Bean built the Wells, and there is talk in Maine of building a seven-master.

To run a full-rigged ship of the size of the Roanoke, queen of the Seward fleet, which is a slightly larger craft than the Wells, requires a crew of about thirty-five. The six-masted schooner carries eight men before the mast, two masts, engineer, cook, cabin boy—fourteen with the captain.

Sharp bows, a clean run aft, graceful curves and great length take away all appearance of bulkiness. Her frame is white oak, her planking and ceiling are hard pine. The lower masts are Oregon pine, each 119 feet long. Each topmast is 58 feet in length.

Her masts are known as fore, main, mizzen, spanker, jigger and driver. She spreads 12,000 square yards of duck in twenty-two sails—driver, jigger, spanker, mizzen, main, foresails, six gaff top sails, driver, jigger, spanker, mizzen and maintopmast staysails, and fore staysail, jib, flying jib, outer jib and balloon jib.

Her ground tackle is immense. One anchor weighs 8,250 pounds, the other 7,500 pounds. Rove into each is 800 fathoms of two and one-half inch chain.
She is 345 feet long on top, 48 feet 6 inches beam and 23 feet deep. Her gross tonnage is 2,970, her net 2,740. Cabins and staterooms are finished in ash, sycamore and cherry. There are hot and cold baths, steam heat, electric bells and a telephone line to the galley and the engine room.

"She sits on the water like a duck and sails like a bird," says her proud skipper. She can reel off more than 200 knots a day before the wind.—New York World.

WANTS AN ACCOUNTING.
Mary J. Montano has begun action against W. R. Castle for an accounting.
She claims that there is still a balance due her from the sale of land in Manoa valley.

dend of 25 cents per share today.

BELIEVES IN VACCINATION.

New York city may not be in as much danger of a smallpox epidemic as some people in their fears or prejudices have tried to make out. But one thing seems to be sure and that is the authorities are apparently taking the most effective steps to prevent an epidemic of the disease and to destroy the little foothold it has gained already. And what is still more encouraging is the fact that the people are aiding the authorities by taking advantage of the facilities offered for vaccination. It is estimated that 1,000,000 people have been vaccinated in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx since the "scare" began, and as the population of those two boroughs is about 2,000,000, one-half of the people have recently fortified themselves against smallpox. Such a wholesale resort to vaccination has probably never been witnessed before, and it ought to insure New York city against an epidemic of the disease for some years to come. It proves also that the great majority of the people have not lost faith in vaccination, notwithstanding the persevering efforts of the antivaccinationists to discredit it as a preventive.—Philadelphia Press.

CUBA REGAINING PROSPERITY

Sugar Industry Being Rapidly Restored To Former Size.

If the Havana Times is correct in estimating the Cuban sugar crop at 1,000,000 tons it is evident that this industry has been completely restored to its old-time prosperity, those figures indicating the annual average yield before the war. During the conflict the output fell as low as 250,000 tons per year, and owing to the destruction of many plantations it was feared that a long period must elapse before the industry regained its former proportions. If the figures of our Havana contemporary are correct, however, it is plain that the sugar interest is flourishing as vigorously as ever, and that means that the other industries of the island are prospering with it.—New York Mail and Express.

WILDER KEEPS CONTRACT

WILL CONTINUE TO ACT AS THE CARRIER TO MOLOKAI.

Interments May be Made in Moanalua Cemetery—Special Notices to be Printed for Hawaii by Health Board.

The efforts of Superintendent Reynolds of the leper settlement, to have the freighting business connected with that place taken away from the Wilder Steamship Company, ended in defeat yesterday at the meeting of the Board of Health. Bids for carrying freight and passengers between here and the leper settlement were opened. The Wilder company offered to do it at their old rate of about $800 a month while the bid of the Hawaiian Navigation Company was a few dollars lower.

Dr. Cooper remarked, after the bids had been opened, that as the amount which would be saved to the Board of Health, would be small there would be no necessity for changing, so the matter was tabled.

A communication inquiring whether people could not make interments in Moanalua cemetery as formerly was received from S. M. Damon. For many years the natives have been burying their dead on the hill on Mr. Damon's estate but a recent resolution by the Board of Health declared it illegal to bury any one within certain limits, except in regular plots. Attorney-General Dole said that the matter to be considered by the Board was whether the burying at that place endangered the public health. If it did not the Board had no right to interfere. In the opinion of George W. Smith the Board had no right to interfere with burials there. The matter was deferred until a list of plot holders could be obtained.

The following communication from Dr. Archer Irwin, government physician for the North Hilo district was read:

"Hakalau, Hawaii, January 11.

The President Board of Health.
Your letter of instructions concerning new duties of Government physician has been received. In reply I wish to ask the Board to adopt some measures whereby the general public may be informed of the law concerning registration of deaths, births and marriages, and more especially the penalty following its infraction. I would suggest the printing of notices in the various languages of our polyglot community and have them sent to the deputy sheriff of each district with instructions to post them in conspicuous places.

"Unless some such measures are adopted the community, especially the Oriental part of it, will go on dying and being born in the same old informal manner and it would work more or less harshly on them should the penalty of the law, of which they are ignorant and which hitherto has never been enforced, be visited upon them."

Executive Officer Pratt said that already notices in Hawaiian, Chinese, Portuguese and Japanese had been ordered printed.

A resolution passed at the previous meeting forbidding the erection of any building in the district bounded by Nuuanu, River, Beretania and Kukui streets was amended so that permits could be granted when the lots in that section were filled up and the erection of buildings would not endanger the public health.

The quarterly report of Dr. Richard Oliver, medical superintendent of the leper settlement on Molokai was read. There were 49 deaths, including 6 non-lepers. The malarial fever epidemic subsiding. There were two fatalities from this disease.

TO PROTECT OUR FISH.

The Hawaiian Fisheries Association met yesterday afternoon at the office of Henry Waterhouse and Company. The report of the committee on constitution and by-laws was adopted. The annual meeting will occur on the fourth Monday in January and the election of officers will occur then.

MERCHANTS TO ORGANIZE.

Prominent business men held a meeting at the office of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday to consider the advisability of forming a Merchants' Exchange along lines, similar to that of the San Francisco organization. Another matter discussed was the memorial which is to be submitted to the legislature, covering the merchandise tax.

MAY LAY ISLAND CABLES.

The following amendment to the articles of incorporation has been made by the Century Telephone Company: "The laying and maintaining of submarine cables, cords or wires, between the several islands or any of them in the Territory of Hawaii, and in connection therewith, to acquire, construct, own and maintain fixtures, including posts, piers, abutments or bridges and telephone stations necessary and beneficial thereto."

QUETED THE SUPERSTITION.
The ruler of a small German state has discovered one way of warding off the dire calamity which must result from having thirteen sit at a table. His little dominions is in the habit of giving little dinners and parties, to which only the social elite are called. At one of these exclusive affairs held lately the prince ordered a cover to be laid for Herr L., one of his cabinet council. Herr L. was a little late, and the rest of the guests had arrived when he presented himself at the door. A superstitious baroness exclaimed: "God gra! There are thirteen of us!" "Calm yourself, my dear baroness," said his serene highness. "Herr L. is not one of us; he belongs to a burgher family."—The King.

ANNEXATION'S BENEFITS.

The job of delegate to Congress from Hawaii was a special charm. The salary is $5000 a year, with 20 cents a mile for mileage. From Honolulu to Washington is a distance of 5000 miles which means $2000 additional for the delegate although you can travel between the two cities for $200. Delegate Wilcox is entirely satisfied now with annexation.—Springfield Republican.

WASHINGTON AND CAESAR.

George Washington talked over the telephone the other day at Kalama to Julius Caesar at Portland. The two noted personages are colored.—Tacoma Ledger.

BEAT OUT OF AN INCREASE OF HIS PENSION.

A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Company, general agents Hawaiian Islands.

HITS LABOR A BODY BLOW

UNIONS CAN NOT FINE FOR THE VIOLATIONS OF RULES.

United States Attorney Baird Warns Journeymen Carpenters and Bricklayers of Trade Restriction Law.

The authority and instruction given United States District Attorney Baird in proceeding against the various local trusts and combinations appear to have been of greater scope than had been first supposed. Not only are the merchants affected by the law but the labor organizations as well.

Mr. Baird is now consulting with the labor organizations and there is every likelihood that their rules will be amended in order to conform to the law, or else the organizations, themselves, will pass out of existence. Practically all of the business combinations, such as the plumbers trust have been broken.

The bicycle dealers were approached several days ago and warned that they could not enforce any rules which would tend to restrict trade or interfere with the rights of others. Mr. Baird was assured that as soon as a meeting could be called, steps would be taken to dissolve the obnoxious rules.

The journeymen carpenters and bricklayers have also been warned. This is a very important action by the Federal officials here and it will have immense influence upon labor and building interests in the territory. Mr. Baird's position is that while the journeymen have a perfect right to enter into an agreement to work a certain length of time a day, they have no right to attempt to enforce that agreement by levying heavy fines on the members. They must not moreover, attempt to interfere with any persons making a living, even though he should violate their laws about length of time to work a day. The right to earn a living is guaranteed every man and if he is willing to work ten or twelve or fourteen hours a day that is his own concern. His associates can not try to prevent it by levying fines.

The situation was explained to leading members of these two organizations. Meetings will be called within a few days and suitable action to conform to the law taken. Whether the organizations will pass out of existence is a matter for the members to settle. If they decide that they can maintain their organization without penalizing members who violate the various agreements, there should be no particular cause for their disbanding. Other trade organizations will be notified this week so that they can make necessary changes in their constitutions.
