FRUITS APPEARING.

Yesterday a young man of European birth told the writer he was going into certain productive industries in the suburbs of Honolulu, pursuant to the advice so generously bestowed by the press. He had intended to leave the country owing to business reverses, but upon further consideration decided to stay and test the rewards of independent labor in this land. It is to be hoped he and all who come to a like decision will not be without all the encouragement and support the community can afford. The success that we wish all such will amount to no less than furnishing examples of what can be achieved in that direction, which will ensure a very large demand for homestead lots, by a desirable class of settlers—men who will build up the nation—whenever the Government is ready to mete out available public lands for the purposes of the Homestead Act.
Now that practical results are beginning to follow the agitation of diversified industries, it is all important that young men desirous of carving out a livelihood and a competence upon that line should have the benefit, in their laudable efforts, of all the experience and knowledge obtainable in whatever departments of industry they may enter. To this end the press will doubtless continue to give a large measure of space for the publication of reliable information touching industries deemed adaptable to this soil and climate.
The work of the local newspapers in this regard, however, must of necessity come far short of the requirements of this critical juncture of domestic industry. Journalism here is not likely, for some time to come, to be strong enough to sustain special departments sufficiently comprehensive and well-informed to afford all the theory required for the guidance of, especially, tyros in the cultivation of the soil and kindred pursuits.
Neither will the very best special journals from abroad be adequate for enabling our people to deal in the best possible manner with the different conditions of things here from the localities where those are published. To a large extent, problems not already worked out in this air and soil will have to be solved by patient, practical experience. As has repeatedly been urged in these columns, co-operation among those interested in the development of native resources is one of the prime needs of the hour. There should be organization for purposes of interchange of ideas, information and experiences, and the securing of every other benefit of mutual helpfulness. An unanswerable argument for what is herein advocated is the citation of the case of the Planters' Company. The deliberations of that body in annual session, and the intercourse of its members, through the columns of its regular periodical, have undoubtedly contributed, in a very high degree, to the very respectable position this little kingdom has attained among the sugar-producing countries of the world.

FRISCO FUDGE.

Below is a specimen of rubbish sold for news on the Coast. It is from the San Francisco Chronicle:

"At the great banquet in Montreal on the 25th ult., the Queen's health was drunk in solemn silence, and the leading lawyers of the Province have volunteered to defend Riel, simply because he took up arms against the crown."

At the festive occasion in question, the Queen's health was honored in the usual fashion, when no personal representative of Her Majesty is present, by the band playing the national anthem. The banquet itself was not an especially great one, as the Montreals are great on banquets. Again, it is extremely doubtful if Riel's French sympathizers would care to admit that his movement was meant to be against the crown. His own statements leave no room to doubt that his main object, originally, was to obtain a large price from the Dominion Government for leaving the country. The disturbance, however, grew fast and large upon his hands, owing to real grievances his dupes had against the Government. Then he found himself in a corner and had to carry the hopeless business through to its end so bitter to him. Moreover, it is probably a gratuitous assertion that the lawyers for the defense have volunteered their services. Certainly, with the exception of Mr. Mercier, the Provincial Liberal leader in Quebec, reported engaged as advisory counsel, none of those retained occupy the leading places at the bar. They have yet to set the St.
Lawrence on fire, however promising their abilities may be of future distinction. The statements in the above extract are of a piece with the story that a French-Canadian regiment had refused to serve against the rebels. The fact is, the body referred to—the Sixty-fifth of Montreal—in taking the field, where it has done some of the severest and bravest work of the campaign.

A CORNER IN BIBLES.

The fact may not be generally known to our readers that the publication of the Scriptures in England is a monopoly, only the presses of the two great Universities being allowed to print copies of the Bible.
From the following remarks, which appeared recently in the London Times, it is evident that a monopoly in Bible making does not work much better than monopolies of other kinds:
"It is announced that the Old Testament is not to be published separately, except in a somewhat costly form, and that in the cheaper editions it will be bound up and sold as one volume with the New. They who have the New already by itself must buy it over again with the Old.
Though buyers of the Revised New Testament have no legal redress, they are undoubtedly threatened with a breach of moral faith. They were entitled, when offered half the Revised Version separately, to conclude that they would be given an opportunity of obtaining the other half similarly by itself."

For great corporations like the English Universities, this certainly seems like very small business.

SPIRIT DRINKING IN THE UNITED STATES.

Statistics indicate that the consumption of spirits in the above named country has by no means kept pace with the increase of population for the last twenty-five years.
We read that 31,000,000 people in the year 1860 consumed 86,364,574 gallons, while in the year 1884, only 72,990,837 gallons were consumed by 55,000,000 people. If the consumption in 1884 had been in the same ratio to the population as in 1860 it would have amounted to about 160,000,000 gallons. While there has been this great falling off in the consumption of distilled liquors, there has undoubtedly been a considerable increase in the consumption of wines and beer, which is on the whole a gain for the cause of temperance.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A long letter—almost too long to look at—from Mr. Z. Y. Squires, on the Chinese question, has been in hand for a day or two. It will be attended to as soon as possible.

A correspondent gives what we have headed "Good Advice," regarding protection from the mosquitoes. His plan is certainly more rational than attempting to intimidate the wretches by "cussing" them.

A serious complaint is made to us, upon indubitable authority, of Chinese laundrymen taking clothes to wash from lepers. The cases of the disease, from which this occurs, should be formally brought to the attention of the Board of Health. It is an outrage upon people who fear contagion to have the like of the above practised upon them by the wash-men. Even those who cherish the non-contagious belief must have a horror of contamination from such a means as that stated.

DON'T FORGET

Store, is being generally sold out, and must be entirely closed out before July 15. Great reductions in all goods. 53 1w

The schr Libolilo left Waianae at 5 o'clock last night and arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning with 1,108 bags of sugar. The captain reports the schr American Girl having left Waianae at 9 o'clock yesterday morning for Honolulu for repairs.
The schr Kulamann returned this morning from her first trip to Hawaii. She was away 16 days. She brought 2,030 bags of sugar. The captain reports rough and rainy weather.
Chulan's mill has suspended work. All of his paddy will now go first to Punaluu to be milled and then brought here. The Punaluu mill runs by water power. Mr Peck says it will cost no more to send paddy to Punaluu to be milled than it would to haul it here.
A new member of the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club went out in one of the club's canoes yesterday for a pull about the bay. When out between the spar and bell buoys he lost one of the rowlocks and the water being rough the canoe was capsized. ## LOCAL &amp; GENERAL NEWS.

The King's yacht Healani is on the Marine Railway.
STEAMER KINAI will not arrive till early Sunday morning, from Hilo via Keauhou and the Volcano.
The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society will meet at the residence of Mr. W. W. Hall, Waikiki, Saturday evening, June 27th.
LYONS & LEVEY will hold another large credit sale, by order of G. W. Macfarlane & Co., on Thursday, July 2nd. Particulars to-morrow.

ALL Americans or others willing to subscribe to the Fourth of July celebration fund, are requested to call at Mr. J. E. Wiseman's office, where the list is now open.

The intellectual part of the Fourth of July celebration will be somewhat different from last year's. Mr. Dole, chairman of committee, is arranging a very neat programme.

Mr. Hart, Road Supervisor, has a staff of workmen engaged tearing up the old wooden bridge opposite the Government nursery, and replacing it with a substantial stone culvert.

For the dust terrific there is no specific, but the ambulating and spattering water cart? In its circuit so short, round Queen street and Fort, it drenches pedestrians with consummate art.

SOME sports at Waikiki amusing themselves last evening by cannon practice with two guns left by the ill-fated S. S. City of Paris, caused folks in town to believe a ship was in distress on the reef.

It is gratifying to report that Capt. Howe, of the barkentine "Ella," shows marked improvement in his condition to-day, being now likely to entirely recover from the effects of his painful mishap.

OAHU COLLEGE.

ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES.

Yesterday afternoon, in addition to the visitors reported in the forenoon, there were present Hon. A. F. Judd, Dr. Bingham, Mr. F. W. Damon and A. A. Montana. The Professor announced for the first of the session, rhetorical exercises, being part of the work of Friday afternoon, which, if not taken then, would be crowded out for want of time. Miss Kate Rogers read pictures from Dickens in clear tones and good inflection. A dialogue, prepared by one of the students, was acted in excellent style by Misses Dillingham, Rogers and Wells, and Master Mossman. This was followed by an essay on "Self Help," by Miss Hattie Hitchcock. The paper entered very fully into the question of employment for women, and contained some very good ideas well expressed. A Latin class, in which were May Dillingham, Hattie Hitchcock, Horace Hall and Albert Lucas, was examined by Miss Spooner, and the Political Economy class, fourth year—Kate Rogers, Aimee Mossman and Addie Peterson—by Professor Merritt. After this came Language Lessons and French. In the former were five young men and six ladies. There are two classes in French, three—Misses H. Sorenson, A. Mossman and Nahora—in the first, and eight in the second. The first class was examined by Professor Marques. The spectators were invited to inspect the work of the book-keeping class. The author used is Bryant and Stratton. The books shown are generally characterized by superior penmanship and neatness in all the entries. The exercises of the afternoon were brought to a close with recitations. Oliver Carter delivered Wyatt's speech to the men of Kent, "Philip shall not wed Mary." Miss L. Dickson recited, with rare power and effect, "Scotland's Maiden Martyr." Miss Helen Sorenson gave "The Blacksmith's Story," with fine expression of the sentiment. The spectators present manifested deep interest, and seemed to be very much pleased with the exercises of the day.

PUNAHOU PREPARATORY SCHOOL.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

There was a large gathering of friends of this fine institution at the closing exercises, which were exceedingly interesting, this morning. Original compositions, in the main of a high order of merit, were read by the following pupils in Miss Hall the Principal's room: James Bicknell, Arthur Wilder and Ellen Bicknell. Recitations were delivered by Lottie Parmelee, Willie Wilder, J. Hassinger, George Angus, Mary Baldwin, Minnie Bailey, Fred Bickerton, Mary Lyle, Willie Chamberlain, Eva Bickerton, Janey Hare, James Judd, Cornelia Robertson, Emily Halstead, Walter Dillingham, Ida Whitney and May Waterhouse. Some of the efforts in this line were superb, notably that of Miss Minnie Bailey, who gave "Sandalphon."

As usual in this school the singing was excellent, a grand chorus of fourteen girls and five boys being magnificent.

The following is the pass list of those graduating into Oahu College. The highest possible marks being 100, it will be seen that very high figures have been attained by nearly all: Agnes Judd, 98.38; May Waterhouse, 98.16; Arthur Wilder, 96.56; Ellen Bicknell, 96.30; Minnie Bailey, 95.80; Willie Wilder, 95.60; Juanita Hassinger, 92.80; Janey Hare, 88.70; James Bicknell, 80.40. Mr. Merritt announced that class second of the past year would be class first of the ensuing one.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT.

A very good house was given the concert in aid of the Kaumakapili Church building fund last evening. Besides the royal patrons, many of the notables of the realm were in the front of the audience. Promptly at the opening hour, their Majesties the King and Queen, attended by the Hon. C. H. Judd, Chamberlain, entered, when a detachment of the Royal Band struck up, opening the programme with a selection of popular airs. The Wailohia Club gave a quartette, "Kaulilua," followed by a duet from a native lady and gentleman, Mr. Berger accompanying on the piano. Then Mr. Charles Turner, accompanied by Miss Carrie Castle on the piano, sang the old ballad, "Nancy Lee," with such style and power as made it a new song to ears that had heard it attempted a hundred times before. He cheerfully responded to an irrepressible recall with a repetition of the last verse. Miss Montague appeared first in the solo for the Kaumakapili choir in giving "Ka Oiwi Nani," with Mr. Berger at the piano. She captivated her native auditors in the very first notes, and each stanza ended in a storm of applause. Mr. Michiels gave one of his superior performances on the cornet, Mr. Berger making the piano harmonize, and then there was a native male trio, one of the singers thrumming the melodious guitar. Miss Montague then made her main appearance of the evening, with Miss Castle at the piano. The selection was the song, "Sing Sweet Bird," and it was sung in a manner that wrought the audience up to tumultuous enthusiasm. Of course an encore was persisted in, to which the songstress replied with, "Way Down Upon the Swanee River," making the very air of the room sweetly pathetic. Once, at least, the writer experienced a like effect from the effort of a great orator, when so pure and powerful was the utterance that one felt rather being inspired with the ideas than hearing them through the ear. The Wailohia Club gave a quartette, three female and a male voice, "Call John," and then a quartette extra to the programme, of male voices, Mr. Berger accompanying both. Miss Marion Kama gave the solo, "Nani Aale Wale," the air being "Swanee River," and she sang it well. In the closing piece, a chorus by the Kaumakapili choir, the audience was agreeably surprised by Miss Montague singing the solo for it. When a laugh broke from some of the native auditors at her heroic evolutions among the abounding Hawaiian vowels, she good-humoredly smiled in return, and the parting applause showed that the "Hawaiian nightingale" had won enduring remembrance in the hearts of the natives. The audience dispersed, in evident satisfaction with the whole entertainment, to the strains of "Hawaii Ponoi" from the band. The parts borne by the several choirs and glee clubs in the programme were without exception performed with happy acceptance.

Y. M. C. A.

A large assemblage of ladies and gentlemen responded to the invitation of the members of the Association to join them in the inauguration of their series of free monthly entertainments. Mr. P. C. Jones having taken the chair, the proceedings opened with the singing of a hymn and prayer. The programme of the intellectual and esthetic portion of the entertainment was as follows:—Piano Solo.....Miss M. Hopper Reading.....W. A. Kinney Solo.....Mrs. E. C. Damon Reading.....Judge McCully Song.....T. B. Walker Eight minutes' talk.....Mr. Fuller Quartette.....Mrs. E. C. Damon.....C. M. Cooke.....W. W. Hall

HAWAII ON EXHIBITION.

Dr. J. Mott Smith has written that the President of the Louisville Exhibition was highly pleased at having the Hawaiian exhibit, and accorded it a prominent place on the ground floor of the building, near the main entrance. Permission has been given by Mr. J. D. Spreckels for having Tavernier's picture of the volcano go with the exhibit. Everything was likely to be arranged for the opening time, August 15th. Dr. Smith urges that the exhibit be increased, and mentions that walking sticks, fans, perfumes, and native trinkets and jewelry are in demand. He has shipped to the Foreign Office a collection of useful seeds, collected by Mr. Coleman. No time should be lost if our Commissioner's suggestion above is to be adopted. That book rest just made by Mr. Miller on Hotel street is a sample of what might be added to the show. Besides being a finely made article, it contains almost every description of wood growing on the group.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Ah Lai, charged with attempt at burglary, was remanded until the 1st prox. Amai pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and battery on Mele (w.) on the 25th inst. This was a deplorable domestic breeze. Complainant testified to defendant, who is her husband, resenting her shutting the door that he wanted open, by taking her by the hair and striking her in the face, drawing blood from her eye. Amai was found guilty and fined $7 with $3.40 costs. Ah Kun pleaded not guilty to charge of assault and battery on Annie (w.) Testimony was given to the effect that defendant beat complainant upon her refusal to go and stay last night at his house. He was fined $10 with $1.40 costs.

THE RHYME OF THE RINK.

"You have come from the rink," said the maiden fair To the youth who was on her waiting;
"Pray tell me what's the attraction there To-night; is it fancy skating?"
He rubbed his spine, and his face betrayed His bosom's agitation;
"The same old attraction is there," he said,
"The attraction of gravitation."

HAWAIIAN LADIES.

Under this heading the following appears in the society department of the Alta California of the 25th inst.:

For several weeks past there has been stopping at the Palace Hotel a party of distinguished Hawaiian ladies, consisting of Mrs. S. J. Levey and her sisters, Misses Lizzie and Ellen Coney, who are the daughters of the late John H. Coney, at one time a well known capitalist of New York. Mr. Coney, who died four years ago, was wedded in early days to Miss Ena, a beautiful Hawaiian maiden. His eldest daughter became the bride of S. J. Levey, a Honolulu merchant. Since July, 1884, the party referred to has been traveling over the globe in company with Hon. and Mrs. Samuel Parker, who returned to Honolulu on the 15th of last month. T. F. H. Robertson also accompanied them. Mrs. Levey intended returning to Honolulu several weeks ago, but was detained here by the illness of her infant child. Mrs. Levey departs for home to-day upon the steamer Alameda. Her sisters will follow on the 1st proximo. In conversation with Miss Ellen Coney one evening last week, the lady, who is exceptionally handsome, expressed herself as being charmed with the tour of the world. When asked if she did not prefer this country to her tropical home, Miss Coney gave an indifferent shrug to her pretty shoulders, and, with a wistful look in her beautiful eyes, stated, "To me there is no place on earth like the Hawaiian Kingdom, where the enjoyment of lawn tennis and dancing is always obtainable."

GOOD ADVICE.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Great complaint is heard at all times about mosquitoes. Day and night they present their bills with an assiduity worthy of a better cause, but it costs but little to be freed from them, in a great measure, at least. Wire screen doors are almost effective, and, with the addition of a little care in connection therewith, can be made entirely so. Wire screen doors hung so that they open outward, on the pull not push plan, are such a luxury that no one who has tried them could be induced to give them up. They can be hung so as not to interfere with the blind doors or the ordinary ones, and are cheap and lasting. Some objection has been made to their rusting. This can be obviated by the following: First brush well with a straw brush or whisk broom; then varnish each side with a mixture of two parts spirits of turpentine and one part good furniture varnish. This mixture will not fill up the meshes, and will make the wires look like new.

A suggestion to those contemplating building new houses may not be amiss, as should they try it they will have no cause of regret. When the windows are being made, run a strip of one inch stuff on each side and one across the bottom of the frame; to this tack a piece of wire cloth, which will be of the same size as the upper and lower half of the windows. Cut the frame above to allow the net frame to run up when the window is raised, and below to allow the frame to go down. This ensures air, and excludes flies and mosquitoes, and the glass windows can replace the wire ones, at any time, without trouble. I would suggest to mine host of the Hawaiian Hotel, were he to try the wire doors in that otherwise unequalled hostelry, he would be so overwhelmed with the thanks of his fair guests, that a guard would have to be detailed for his preservation.

VENTURE.

THIS fast trotting stallion has been withdrawn from training and will now be kept for stock purposes exclusively. He has shown as much speed as ever and had it not been for an accident which befell him a few days before the race, he being dead lame on the 11th, we think that he would have given the gang a hard tussle for the money. He is now all right again, and is being regularly jogged at the track, and can show close to a 2:30 clip at any time that he is called upon. This kind of treatment has been found by long experience to be the right plan to adopt with a stallion, as by it he is not only a surer foal-getter, but also he will transmit a greater amount of speed, energy and vigor to his offspring. This plan is now the rule in all of the large breeding establishments everywhere.

To parties owning good mares this is an opportunity that should not be neglected, for Venture, with his fine breeding and great speed, I consider the most desirable stock horse in the country. Mr. Campbell tells me that of all of the horses that he has imported to this country, which is probably a dozen or more, he likes his colts by Venture better than any of them, which is surely proof enough of his qualities as a stock-getter.

Mares will be taken to the Park and returned free of charge. For any additional particulars apply to corner of Punchbowl and Queen Streets.
