

MUST QUIT THE BENCH TO BE NON-PARTISAN TO BOND MAKAWELI SPORTING SCHEDULE SAVED THE WAIALUA PEKING MAY BE LATE

MOVEMENT AGAINST JUDGE J. W. KALUA.

Maui People Feel Outraged and Are Uniting in a Petition to Have Him Removed at Once.

There is more trouble for Judge Kalua, circuit judge for Maui. Following the wave of execration which his work from the bench during the last term of court produced the people of Maui have started a movement to petition the administration to remove Judge Kalua. It is said that sentiment in Maui is almost unanimous against him.

In the evidence relied on to prove his unfitness for the office he holds, will be the papers in a suit brought against Kalua in his own court wherein he is charged with embezzlement and other misconduct, charges which stand undenied on the record and which it is said he admitted were true by refunding the money. He was charged with misappropriating public funds.

Practically all the lawyers of Maui will join in the effort to have him removed, although the effort will be by no means confined to lawyers, but will have the support and active assistance of all classes.

The Maui News of December 21, under the heading "Kalua Must Go," says:

"It has been the fixed policy of the News to avoid attacking private individuals, and there is no disposition to overstep that policy now."

"But individuals who occupy public positions are subject to public criticism for their official acts and the News would be remiss in its duty to the public if it should fail to voice public sentiment in those cases where a public official is derelict in his duties or so conducts himself as to unfit himself for the proper performance of his official duties."

"Judge John W. Kalua must go. The News, in taking up this fight, does so deliberately, and after mature consideration of the responsibility which it is assuming as well as the probable results. 'Thrice armed' is he who hath his quarrel just, and this paper will continue the fight until either Judge Kalua voluntarily steps down from the bench which he has disgraced, or until the toe of the presidential boot is effectually applied."

"To those who are intimately acquainted with the public career of Judge Kalua for the past few years, no specification of charges is needed, because his derelictions are well known and are threadbare subjects of discussion."

"But definite charges will be published by this paper, if Judge Kalua refuses to listen to its advice—and to an almost universal sentiment of condemnation among the people of Maui—and refuses to resign the judgeship of the Second Circuit."

"To those who are not familiar with the facts in the case, it may be suggested that drunkenness in public, on the streets, in the church, on the bench and at other places almost too sacred to mention, will be among the charges officially preferred. Intimate and confidential conversations between himself and prisoners who were afterwards to be tried before him, and promises made by him, it is not because he is towards inadvertently revealed to others, and which promises were afterwards scrupulously performed by him on the bench—will be enquired into, and the hidden motive for such promises, if any, will be dug up and brought to light."

"His ignorance of law, and his inefficient, not to say incompetent administration of it, the fact that his charges to grand juries and his instructions to petit juries, have to be prepared by his subordinate court officials is a charge which he will, if he persists in refusing to resign, be called upon to answer officially."

"Other grave charges will also be preferred against him, if he courts an investigation of them, but the present object of the News is merely to give him a mild intimation on a friendly way that his resignation from the judgeship of the Second Judicial Circuit would be considered an inestimable boon to the justice loving people of Maui."

"It will avail Judge Kalua nothing to claim that the present attack is inspired against him simply because he is a poor Kanaka, a claim which he recently made, and Hawaiians themselves are weary of such a claim made by him. It is not because he is Hawaiian, but rather because he is a disgrace to the position he fills, that his resignation is demanded and none will appreciate this fact so keenly as the Hawaiians of Maui, who are thoroughly conversant with Judge Kalua and his methods."

HOME RULE MEETING PLANS CHANGE.

No Politics, But an Extra Session Will be Asked for—Inviting Distinguished Speakers.

"The mass meeting called by the Home Rule party for January 29 to consider the authorization of a bond issue, is the outcome of an agreement made a year ago with Gay and Robinson whereby more lands would be available for the Makaweli plantation providing that the Hawaiian Sugar Company would on their part furnish a larger water supply."

The stockholders will on the 29th prox. be asked to authorize an issue of a million dollars although not more than forty per cent of this amount will be needed for four or five years. The money immediately to be placed in use will amount to about $350,000 or $400,000 and will be utilized for the purpose of building a ditch some ten to twelve miles long supplying the plantation with water from the Makaweli stream, a branch of the Waimea stream. The plantation is at present supplied entirely from the Hanalei stream.

The acquisition of new lands, the water supply and the resultant crops will in the course of a few years necessitate important additions or alterations in the mill and it is as a precautionary measure of saving funds for these future operations that the larger amount of bond issue will be asked for.

The executive committee of the Home Rule party held a meeting last night, at which plans for the meeting were discussed. A committee, with John Emmeluth as chairman, was appointed as an invitation committee, and the sending out of invitations is now being attended to. Governor Dole, Secretary Henry E. Cooper, Chief Justice Frear and Associates Galbraith and Perry, Judge Este, Judge Humphreys, Gear and Robinson, Col. Tom Fitch and many other well known citizens of the Territory will be invited to speak. Many invitations will go to the other islands on next week's steamers, and it is expected that there will be a considerable attendance from there.

The meeting is to be held on Saturday evening, January 4, in the drill shed. On Monday evening next the executive committee of the Home Rule party will meet to make further arrangements. The selection of a chairman is one of the matters to be brought up then. Prince Cupid, or Kalua, or some members of the legislature will be invited, unless it is decided that the choice should be left to the audience.

"There is to be no politics of any kind at the meeting," said Emmeluth, "and there is no reason why members of the judiciary should not attend the meeting. It is not to be a Home Rule meeting, but a meeting of citizens of the Territory to discuss two questions and two only—first the message of President Roosevelt, and second the development of Hawaii along the traditional American lines of progress."

In addition to these already named as invited there are all the heads of departments and the members of both houses of the legislature. These of course will not nearly all be able to attend, but all have been invited.

The invitations as sent out simply invite the recipient to attend the meeting and be heard on the subjects of the gathering. They are signed by Prince Cupid as chairman and Carlos Long as secretary of the committee of arrangements, nothing being said of any party organization. All such matters were kept out as it was thought that party terms might be thought to indicate political doings, and that the members of the judiciary would be kept away thereby.

STRUCK A HURRICANE

CHARLES E. MOODY LOSES ELEVEN SAILS.

Cabin Was Stove in by Waves and Completely Flooded—Storm Lasted for Eighteen Hours.

The ship Charles E. Moody, Captain Rasmussen, arrived yesterday afternoon, after a terrible trip of 25 days from Tacoma with coal. Captain Rasmussen says that the weather was frightful and the voyage was one of the worst in his experience.

The weather was bad almost from the start, but the worst blow was encountered December 3. A south to southeasterly hurricane struck the vessel and within a few hours had carried away eleven sails. The ship is practically helpless during the storm. The weather did not abate for eighteen hours. The vessel was rails under much of the time, and it was impossible for the crew to make their way along the deck except by the use of the waves that were constantly breaking over her. Everything movable on the decks was carried away.

The forward end of the cabin was stove in, both doors being smashed. The cabin was flooded and Captain Rasmussen did not have a dry stitch of clothing to his name, a few hours after the storm had begun. The loss of the sails will amount to $400.

THE POLO MATCH FOR TOMORROW UNCERTAIN.

Field Kept for New Year Game—Yacht Club Doings—Next Regatta Slated for January.

The polo match, according to the regular schedule of the association should take place tomorrow between the Business Men and the Hornets with the regular teams. It is somewhat doubtful at present whether the match will come off or be substituted for a practice game.

It was raining this morning at Kapiolani park and Lieutenant Hancock will report later in the day as to the condition of the ground. The association desires to keep it in as good shape as possible for the Myrtle benefit game on New Year's Day between the "Reds" and "Blues" and should the ground be too soft this afternoon will not run the risk of cutting it up by playing on it.

All members are particularly requested to be present at the Yacht Club meeting on Monday evening at the office of P. L. Weaver secretary of the Hawaii Yacht Club, when special matters of interest relative to the new club site will be discussed. It is probable that the club will erect the new building right away until the railroad runs to Puuloa, but will content themselves for the present with purchasing the land and making alterations in the buildings already upon it sufficient to make them habitable and useful for future regattas.

Weather and wind permitting the next regatta of the Yacht Club will be held on the first full moon of the New Year. The plan is to sail on Thursday the 23rd which would make the date Saturday the 25th. The present southerly winds have put a stop to yachting temporarily. The Gladys went down to Pearl Harbor last Sunday and took three hours to beat down to Puuloa, a run she usually makes within the hour. Other yachts were not so fortunate and one had to stay outside the locks until morning.

Charles Macfarlane's La Paloma has had her rigging taken out of her at Pearl Harbor preparatory to refitting her with a yawl rig. The foremast will be stepped in relatively the same position but will be placed perpendicular to the keel. The mast will be way out close to the taffrail. A new boom will have to be made, the old one belonging to the mainsail not being strong enough to carry the yawl sail. Formerly in a stiff breeze the boom had not sufficient rigidity to be distinctly seen bending wherever the wind pressure on the sail was strongest. The sticks were hoisted out at Pearl Harbor with a spar derrick and considerably lightened the yacht lifting her several inches out of the water. When the boom is trimmed off her bottom she will probably rise still higher. Her bottom is very foul and a lawn mover could be used to advantage.

The yacht club has great plans ahead for a big regatta in the near future, when many new and interesting features will be introduced. These have been outlined but are being rigorously guarded as secrets. The by-laws are being printed and bound and a booklet is to be issued with the names of the members, general information and regattas of all the boats belonging to the club. These will be grouped together in classes and will form a valuable and interesting record in years to come. It is at present proposed to charge owners of yachts desirous of having their boats' presentations in the brochure, a slight fee equal to the actual cost of the engraving, they also will be distributed free to every member of the club, extra copies for sending away being sold at a small sum to pay for the cost of publication.

The match game of the Association football league as arranged for tomorrow afternoon taken place between the Malle Illmas and the Hackfeld-Davies team at Makiiki at 4:15 between the following players.

Malle Illmas: Forward, E. Monro, J. Cummings, J. S. Boyle, C. Chamberlain, W. Wright, half backs, J. Brown, J. Crank, J. Anderson; backs, J. McGill, R. Anderson, goal J. F. Fenwick.

The Hackfeld-Davies team will probably be as follows with possibly one or two alterations. Forward, B. Clarke, Boardmore, Chapman, Morse, (captain) and Gould; half backs, Goldsmith, Attwell, Brett, backs, Ross and Dusenberry with Sinclair at goal. D. W. Anderson will referee the game.

THAT TRUMVIRATE AGAIN.

Thomas Fitch is quoted as saying within the last twenty-four hours that he was going to form a part of a new law firm which would be composed of Abram S. Humphreys, Frank E. Thompson and himself upon the recommendation of Mr. Thompson from Washington where he now is.

Dr. D. A. SCHOONER WAS PULLED OFF KANAPALI BEACH.

The schooner Waihua was pulled off of the beach at Kanapali last Wednesday and found to be uninjured. She was able to proceed to Kalaupapa and discharge her cargo of palm oil. This news was brought this morning by the steamer Mauna Loa which arrived from her regular run. On the Mauna Loa, returned Captain Johnson the master of the Waihua who had decided that he had had enough of the schooner and left her at Kanapali.

From the statements of officers of the Mauna Loa, it appears that the Waihua left Kahului on Monday bound for Kalaupapa. When in the channel a strong northeasterly breeze sprang up and Captain Johnson sought refuge at Kanapali. The wind shifted Tuesday night to the westward and drove the schooner ashore. Word was sent to Kahului to send the tug Leslie Baldwin to the assistance of the schooner. The Baldwin went immediately to Kanapali on Wednesday and succeeded in pulling the Waihua off.

No damage appears to have been done the schooner for she started to Kalaupapa. Captain Johnson her master left her and his place was taken by Captain Gardner, formerly captain of the Umpqua which was wrecked some months ago on the Hawaii coast.

ROUTE TO WAIKIKI.

THE WAIKIKI AND KALIA ROAD LINES.

Executive Council is Considering Waikiki Road as a Route for New Cars to the Beach.

Though the Rapid Transit Company has made no formal legal petition for permission to extend its line along the Waikiki road to the beach it has a property owners' petition to do so before the Executive Council, as stated yesterday, and the matter has been discussed by the heads of departments. It is regarded as a regular petition, as far as its consideration is concerned, as if made in the legal form to the Superintendent of Public Works.

It is understood that the matter of a right of way will be further discussed next week, and probably disposed of. As the matter now stands there are conflicting views held by property owners of different streets proposed for the road. Those who favor Kalia road claim that the driveway would be spoiled by putting tracks on Waikiki road, while on the other hand Waikiki road property owners have signed a petition to have the Rapid Transit on that road.

The franchise granted to the company by the legislature in 1898 left out of the bill, with the exception of the granting the franchise a provision that wherever a majority of the property owners along any road shall petition for a railroad on that street, and the Executive Council shall consent thereto, such railway may be laid thereon and continued for the unexpired term of the company's franchise.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

AGENTS SAY THEY EXPECT HER ON TIME.

According to Shipping Reports in San Francisco Papers the Steamship Was Late Leaving Yokohama.

It is reported in shipping circles that the City of Peking will be two or three days late in arriving here from the Orient. She was to have left Hongkong, December 7, Shanghai, December 11, Nagasaki, December 13, Kobe, December 15 and Yokohama December 17.

No record of the arrival or departure of the vessel is reported from any of those ports in the shipping news of the San Francisco papers and this fact is taken as indication by some shipping people, that the vessel will not result here on time, as she must have started late from Yokohama. She has an unusually heavy cargo for this port, about 100 tons of general stuff being consigned to local people. The loading of this stuff, together with other circumstances may explain the cause for the vessel being late, if such she proves to be. The last paper from San Francisco was December 19, but no mention was made of the Peking having left Yokohama, although she was to have sailed on December 17. This would indicate that she was two days late leaving Yokohama.

It is stated at the local agency however, that the vessel is expected on time and, in fact, the agents are looking for her any time this afternoon or evening and at the very latest, early tomorrow morning.

It was announced this afternoon by the local agents of the Peking that the vessel had left on time from Yokohama and should arrive here at any moment. The news was received by a private cable from Yokohama by way of San Francisco.

DISAGREE OVER EXCLUSION.

Home Rulers Are Not All of One Mind.

The Home Rulers at the meeting of their Executive Committee last night showed some differences of opinion over the Chinese question. Prince Cupid declared himself in favor of restriction of Chinese immigration, but not in favor of exclusion.

Prince Cupid thought that it would be good for the Territory if a number of Chinese were brought here to work, and he wanted to know who had fathered an exclusion resolution that passed at a recent meeting. Emmeluth declared for exclusion in emphatic terms, and stated that Delegate Wilcox was in favor of exclusion.

Mrs. Theresa Wilcox replied to Emmeluth objecting to her husband being quoted as favoring exclusion. She declared that she favored restriction simply Chinese immigration to Hawaii.

The latter went out to warn Martin not to throw any more stones and was promptly knocked down by Martin. Martin's case was continued until tomorrow.

THE WAIKIKI ROUTE

There is likely to be quite a controversy over the route of the Rapid Transit to Waikiki. The desirability of having the Rapid Transit tap the Park and even go through the Park, which its franchise allows, is plainly manifest to all. The point in controversy is how to reach the Park.

When the bill of the Rapid Transit was passed by the Legislature of 1898, the question of another line of rails upon the Waikiki road came up. The request of the Rapid Transit Company, or its implied desire is that it should parallel the present line of tram cars from McCully's corner to the Park. This would effectively close the road against any driving in private or hired vehicles, which under the circumstances would be a serious loss to the city, seeing that the drive out to the Park is about the only one that people can now take with any pleasure or safety.

The Legislature of 1898 foresaw this and distinctly barred the Rapid Transit Company from using the Waikiki road. Another route was chosen, and it was along this that every one supposed that the track would be laid. But the Rapid Transit people now come forward and through a petition by others want to undo the work of the Legislature of 1898. Not only should the Rapid Transit track not go along the Waikiki road, but the present tram car track should be removed as soon as the franchise runs out.

The result of paralleling the tracks as we find it now along King street should make any government chary of permitting a like condition on the Waikiki road. It is practically dangerous to take a team of horses out toward Moanalua at the present time. In fact no one who values his neck or his horses would undertake the job. It is one continued dodging of the cars of the rival lines. But in this direction it was a work of necessity. There was no alternative route, and it suited the convenience of a large mass of the public. But for the Waikiki proposition there is by no means the same good argument. The Waikiki road is the artery to the city's play ground. Numbers of people enjoy driving to the Park, and they are not rich people either. To deprive them of this opportunity of taking pleasure would inflict a hardship upon a deserving and extensive body of citizens. If they continued to drive there would undoubtedly be accidents, and these would be costly to the company besides being disastrous to the individuals.

If there were no alternative route, it might be argued that the convenience of even so large a body of people as like to drive themselves to the Park should give way to the interests of others who will use the Rapid Transit cars. But there are two routes according to the act, and the route that the Rapid Transit seem desirous of following is barred by the act, and barred by the foresight of men who gave the matter considerable thought, at a time when people thought very little of the future workings of the company.

The Star is a supporter of the Rapid Transit. The Star is certainly no supporter of Pain's arks. But The Star also finds its duty lies in preserving the rights of the public. To parallel lines along the Waikiki road, as proposed, when there is no public necessity for it, is to trench upon the rights of the public, and such a course should certainly not be taken.

HOME RULERS GET A SLAP.

The Home Rule Party must somewhat atone over the failure of their candidate to obtain the judicial honors which they had hoped for. It ought to be somewhat of a lesson to them that their influence is nil, while that of the other and tried Republicans means something. The Home Rule party has many lessons to learn, if it is capable of learning them, which is certainly doubtful. It certainly has not learned them yet in the full test degree. The Home Rule men think that they are the hub of the Universe upon which American politics turn, but repeated lessons may drive some of them to their heads.

The Administration is Republican and it is going to elect Republican candidates for office, who are backed by Republican senators and Representatives. The position of Wilson, the delegate from this Territory, is well known in Washington. Even at a distance of five thousand miles, in these days of telegraphic despatches and press reports, with many private reports as well, a man cannot play the double game which the delegate has tried, without being found out. He may be and is treated with politeness, but he is not trusted, and his schemes come to naught.

It is impossible to train with men on the Hawaiian Islands, who proclaim themselves enemies of the American and European element, who are fairly and squarely royalists at heart, and who would down any Republican that ever lived, if they had the power, and then go over to Washington to pose for a Republican, while secretly showing a hand to the democrats. Political duplicity has ever ended in political failure.

The meaning of the Home Rule party is now quite well understood, and through that thorough understanding has come the failure of Cleveland. A Republican on the mainland, he joined forces with the anti-Republican element here. He saw his error late, wrote the middle of the Legislature and begged in a very pretty manner, but the keen eyed politicians saw through the move, and met it, not here, but in Washington.

Had we had a Republican Legislature instead of a Home Rule Legislature the Territory would have come off a great deal better than it is likely to do now. Perhaps the voters will learn, perhaps they will not. If they do not they will have to wait for future lessons. But they must be beginning to distrust their leaders when they see how very little attention is paid to their wishes or advice. The Home Rulers thought that what was said here would go in Washington. They now find that what is said in Washington goes here with about 10,000 horse power force.

AMERICAN TRADE.

The fear of American production of iron and steel is constantly being repeated. Consul General Mason of Berlin keeps the State Department well informed upon the point. His latest statement, culled from the German press, is very significant of what Germany proposes to do if she can only get the opportunity.

The extract furnished in the report says:

"In the circle of large operators in the Lower Rhine-Westphalian iron and coal district, the efforts of the United States to supply the continent of Europe with iron manufactures and coal are regarded with great interest and growing anxiety. A leading ironmaster of the Ruhr district recently expressed himself to a small circle of technical colleagues to the effect that within a period of ten to fifteen years, America would be supplying all Mediterranean countries, including Austria-Hungary, with coal and iron. As reasons for this opinion, he stated that no other country can produce and transport iron in enormous quantities so cheaply and under such favorable conditions as the United States.

"When it is found that the necessary return freight from Europe for their coal ships is wanting, they will build their colliers so that they can use water ballast on their return voyage. The ocean-freight schedules of all maritime nations will be so depressed by this competition that the item of sea transportation will play practically no role in the economy of international trade. It will be then, even more than now, a simple question of which country can produce most cheaply, and that country will unquestionably be the United States, with its virgin soil and its inexhaustible mineral resources.

"An effective protection against this deluge of American products through high tariffs will be impossible, because the United States can dispense entirely with European manufactured merchandise, and thus be in a position to close its frontiers to foreign trade. Europe will then have but one recourse which can provide any effective resistance to America, and that will be when all countries here form a close commercial union or league. Otherwise, the material strength and resources of the contestants will be too unequal."

The importance of this utterance lies in the ideas contained in the last paragraph. There is no mincing the matter. If Germany could possibly carry her policy out, she would form a hard and fast European commercial league against the United States. Germany has been an alarmist in Europe upon this point for some considerable time. Her alarmist statements have frightened some of the other European nations, but there really need be no fear on our part, because we can be perfectly satisfied that it would be perfectly impossible to form a European league for any purpose, and certainly, least of all, for commercial purposes. European nations look with such different eyes upon commerce.

The Philippine free market will not be open long. The leak or break in our tariff wall must be closed at once, and Congress is quite alive to the necessity and is rushing legislation.

Wyoming has a sort of claim upon one Federal appointment in the Territory. This is not surprising. There is a considerable colony of Wyoming men here, and Wyoming's knowledge of Hawaii and interest in it is very considerable. Besides some of Wyoming's leading men have large financial investments here.

Wilson's scheme to make a national League of the Island of Molokai is probably one of the cruelest to his own unfortunate countrymen that could be devised. Fancy a horde of mainland lepers being let loose among the peaceful inmates of the settlement. It would be pandemonium upon earth, and would entail an army of guards to maintain order. And this comes from a man who prates of his love for his own race.

Admiral Schley has lodged a protest against the decision of the two non-fighting and retired Admirals, while it is stated that Sampson will make a like protest against Dewey's decision. From a legal point of view Schley is correct, but the popular verdict follows Dewey, and the verdict of history will be the same. King Canute could not make the tide go backward, and the two retired Admirals are not going to turn the tide of popular opinion against Schley, especially after the evidence has been published. Secretary Long is determinedly against Schley, but even he cannot stop the tide.

IMMUNITY FROM DISEASE

Do you know what water you are drinking?
Is it boiled and then filtered?
Your physician will tell you first filter and then boil it.

You can save all this trouble and be perfectly safe from all diseases that are transmitted to the system through drinking water, by using the Puritan water still.

This simple and inexpensive article can be used on your wood, coal or oil stove, and will supply beautiful distilled water. (Distilled water, you know, is condensed steam, mixed with pure oxygen).

Now that the heavy winter rains have set in, you should be more careful than ever.

Do not take any more chances.

You cannot make a better investment than to purchase one of our Puritan pure water stills.

No home should be without one.

We are the sole distributing agents for the Hawaiian Territory, and intend to push the sale of these all over the group, thereby reducing the great amount of suffering from malarial troubles.

You can see these machines working in one of our front windows.

CAPITAL AND LABOR

REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH

A Permanent Organization Effected to Attempt the Reconciliation of Labor and Capital.

NEW YORK, December 18.—The committee which was chosen by the conference called to consider plan for healing the differences between the capitalistic and labor interests of the country organized today, elected officers and issued a general statement of its mission. Senator M. A. Hanna was chosen its chairman, with Samuel Gompers first vice chairman.

It retains its connection with the National Civic Federation and becomes the industrial department of that organization. The statement which was issued expressed a determination to strive for industrial co-operation, to aid in establishing right relations between those who toil and their employers, to confer and advise with employers and employees when in conflict, to encourage agreements under which labor shall be performed and to arbitrate disputes when both sides to the dispute shall ask for such mediation. A determination to avoid discussion of abstract industrial problems was avowed.

The general committee met today in private conference to take up its work. Among those in attendance were Oscar Straus, Charles M. Schwab, S. R. Calhoun, Charles A. Moore, Cornelius N. Bliss, Lewis Nixon, J. J. McCook, R. M. Easley, Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, Frank Sargent and James Duncan. It was announced that a committee on plan and scope on which Senator Hanna, Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter and Messrs. Gompers, Nixon, Mitchell, Calhoun, Sargent, Bliss, Schwab, and Straus had been named, would present a preliminary report during the day, but all information as to the nature of the report was withheld pending its consideration. Before the meeting was opened today Chairman Straus made a brief statement for publication.

"I cannot tell you anything about the plan for putting into practice the peaceful projects of this conference," he said. "We are at work on it and in due time it will be made public. I believe every man named on the committee will serve. All of the labor leaders have accepted and in this epoch-making union of labor and capital no man can deny his services to a project that means such a great good for his country. The approval of the labor leaders means the co-operation of more than 2,000,000 organized workers. As we progress in this work it becomes more apparent that the chief cause of trouble in the past has arisen from misunderstandings. Never were truer words spoken than by John Mitchell yesterday when he who has seen more strikes than any there never was a strike which could not be averted if the opposing interests had first met and fairly considered their respective rights."

A YALE SMOKER.
Albert F. Judd will give an informal Yale smoker at his house on Judd street tomorrow evening in honor of E. M. Griffith. All itinerant Yale men not residents of the city are invited and expected to attend the smoker to their fellow graduates. There are two or three of these latter alumni in the city and it is hoped by the host that they will show up on Saturday. General preparations have been made by Yale men to entertain Mr. Griffith in the little spee time that will be left him between his forestry exploration on the various islands. He goes to Moanalua this afternoon with A. F. Judd after coming from the Fall this morning with Wray Taylor.

MASTERS REPORTS.
McBryde Stands Investigation With Flying Colors.

F. J. Russel, who was appointed by Judge Humphreys to investigate the value of McBryde bonds as master in the estate of Annie T. K. Carter, passing upon the accounts of Alfred W. Carter, has reached a conclusion that the bonds are all right. This conclusion is regarded by some as unsatisfactory to the object of the investigation. W. A. Kinney is heavily interested in McBryde, and the fact that the court of its own motion ordered an investigation into the bonds, is regarded as evidence of an effort to "get back" at Kinney, by injuring the plantation.

Russel examined a number of witnesses in the course of his inquiry, and reported at the end of the investigation that he was satisfied that the McBryde property was worth not less than $2,000,000, and was therefore ample security for the $750,000 bond issue to which the guardian had invested some of his ward's funds.

Russel's account report as master in the estate of E. P. Bishop has been filed, making reference of a number of accounts. He finds that the inventory is incomplete.

ITALY'S EMBASSADOR.
Italy has sent one of her most distinguished diplomats to represent her at the American capital. Signor Emanuele D'Annunzio comes from an old and distinguished family of Savoy, which was ennobled by the reigning house of that principality in the fourteenth century, since when it has occupied a leading place in the history of this department. The present ambassador entered the diplomatic service more than a quarter of a century ago, when he had hardly reached his majority. He was at once appointed to a position in the Foreign Office and soon promoted to the important post of secretary of the Legation at that time Berlin. Upon the accession of Orini he retained the important post, and during the long period of this ambassador's service he was not only his trusted secretary, but his valued friend and adviser.

THE CANAL.
It is the opinion of Representative James S. Sherman of New York, member of the House committee on international affairs, that the United States government would not take the Panama canal as a gift. But perhaps it would be well to wait and see what the Walker canal commission has to say on the subject.—Springfield Republican.

FILIPINOS WILL FIGHT.
Senator Turner of Washington, who represents a constituency in the thick of Imperialistic sentiment based upon commercial reasons, sees no hope of peace in the Philippines, short of conceding independence. He is quoted as saying:

"The Filipinos fought the Spaniards for 300 years, and they are confident that they can fight any power that attempts to control the islands, so we do not want them, we do not need them, and we will be a great deal better off without them. I have no doubt that the republican party will accept this view in due time.—Springfield Republican."

MAUI AND THE BAND

The Maui News in announcing the visit of the Territorial Band to Maui, says:

"It was at first proposed that the Band should stop over a week on Maui on their return from Hilo, but as they remain for two weeks on the big island, and two weeks on Maui it was thought better to defer the Maui trip till about the first of February."

Professor Berger impressed upon the Maui representative the fact that the band will pay their own way on Maui, and that no contributions for this purpose will be asked or even permitted from the people of Maui. In fact nothing will be accepted unless it be an occasional fresh lot of lime and malle.

It is desirable, however, that the citizens of Maui should arrange a program or schedule of appointments for the band, and also provide proper hand stands and light. Prof. Berger states that nothing save a violent Kona storm will prevent his arrival with his full band of thirty-two people on Maui on or about the first of February, for a fortnight's visit, and fully equipped with a full score of the latest operatic and rag-time music."

PRAYERS ANSWERED.

Canada has been praying for immigrants, but now when a chance offers it is raining with reluctance. Some 200 Scotch lassies have invaded Yarmouth, the home of the "bloater," for work in the herring curing, but instead of a welcome, up against but vain attempt at repulse greeted them, on the ground that the native labor of the town would suffer from the invasion.—Springfield Republican.

BOB A NIGHT.

Jan Kneiss, the young Bohemian violinist, who has been for the past two years the musical sensation of Europe, has begun his first American tour and is playing in New York now.

Kneiss is only 25 years old. He is the son of a poor market gardener, who when the boy was 5 years old, made him a violin and became his first teacher. Young Jan soon outstripped his father and the young player was turned over to another instructor. At 3 he performed in a concert at Prague with great credit, and began his studies at the Conservatory in that city. At 15 his performances made him a name throughout Austria and Germany, and for the past two years he has played to packed houses wherever he has appeared.

An interesting story is told of his first professional appearance. At the age of 18 he determined to provide for his family, his father having died a few years before. He arrived for that purpose in Berlin with a little more than a dollar and a poor violin. He obtained an engagement to play at a cyclist club's entertainment for about $10. It happened that a very important musical critic was present, who recognized Kneiss's ability and assisted him very materially afterward. It is said that he is to receive $1000 a concert for one hundred appearances on the present tour.

TRY TO BREAK A WILL

AUTHOR OF THE OCTOPUS IS A LITIGANT.

Was Inherited by His Father
Through the Mechanisms. It is Said of a Second Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—In a few weeks the machinery of the Chicago courts will be set in motion to break the will of B. F. Norris, formerly a well-known business man of San Francisco, who died in Chicago in October of last year. The story is one of love and divorce, of a poisoned mind and of sons well-beloved, disinherited.
It is alleged, without a word of explanation. One of the sons is Frank Norris, famous as the author of "The Octopus," "McTeague," and other California novels; the other, Charles G., is a student at the State University at Berkeley. It is Frank who, through lawyers J. A. Marsh of this city and Marston & Tuttle of Chicago, is instituting proceedings by which he hopes to break the will of his father. It he be successful, the younger brother will get part of the estate, which is valued at about $300,000. It is declared that the father, who had always shown great pride and interest in his sons, was induced through duress and under the influence of a second wife to cut them off practically without a cent, and that when the will was made his mind had been weakened through the intermittent use of powerful medicines.

For many years the older Norris lived with his wife and family on Sacramento street in the fashionable quarter. He was a devotee of Dr. Mackenzie's church and stood high in the community. Their home life seemed ideally happy and they entertained lavishly.

Mrs. Norris spent several years abroad for the purpose of educating the two sons, only to find on her return that her home had been broken up and that her husband had gone on a trip around the world—and not alone. Immediately the wife applied for and secured a divorce. The day following B.
F. Norris was united in marriage to Mrs. Belle Garvey, who, as Miss Bovee was already widely known in San Francisco. That was seven years ago. Norris, after settling $200,000 on his former wife, and breaking all his church and social ties, finally moved to Chicago, where, as one of the firm of B. F. Norris Alister & Co., he accumulated a large fortune.

It is alleged by those in a position to speak with authority that Norris surrendered his will and his judgment from the first to the new woman in the house and that his mind was affected by powerful medicines administered to quiet frequent and aggravated attacks of sick headache, to which he had been subject for a score of years.

CARNEGIE'S BIG GIFT

WILL STILL GO TO THE UNITED STATES.

The Iron King Says All Difficulties Will be Overcome—A German Professor Talks on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, December 18.—Andrew Carnegie was in the city today, and, with Secretary Root, ate luncheon with the President at the White House.
It is understood that the proposed gift of $10,000,000 by Mr. Carnegie to the Government for the establishment of a university for higher learning in this city was discussed, but the statement was made tonight that the matter is still undeveloped, and there is nothing to be said on the subject for publication. Carnegie left the city late in the afternoon. He was quoted as saying when he left the White House that there would be no trouble about the gift—that the matter would come out all right.

NEW YORK, December 18.—A cable to the Sun from Berlin says: Speaking today of Andrew Carnegie's offer of $10,000,000 for a national university at Washington, Von Stradonitz, rector of the University of Berlin, expressed the opinion that America must guard against the danger of fostering higher education at the expense of practical intelligence and development of native spirit.

"Too much learning," he said, "is not a danger, it is at least unprofitable. We," said Dr. von Stradonitz, "are suffering from it in Germany. We are burdened with an unproductive class who look with inherited scorn on those whose education has been merely in the art of bread winning. The evil manifests itself in Germany by the existence of an idle element which, lacking any higher occupation, serves as the recruiting sergeant of the enemies of social order.
The fundamental feature of American schooling, as a preliminary fitting for men and women in life's battles, is a splendid vindication in the strength of the American position in the world today. Carnegie's technical school endowment showed that he was fully in harmony with the American spirit, but his latest proposal I am unable to commend."

FORESTRY EXPERT ARRIVES.

Forestry expert E. M. Griffith from the Bureau of Forestry at Washington arrived on the Peru yesterday and commenced active work this morning with Commissioner of Agriculture Wray Taylor in visiting the forests of the islands, commencing today with Nuuanu valley. Wray Taylor, who has been expecting the expert for several weeks, has a plan of campaign already mapped out that will show Mr. Griffith practically all that there is to be seen in the weeks which he is able to spend here before joining his chief of department Captain Ahern in the Philippines.
Of the other islands, Maui will be visited on Tuesday with Hawaii next in order where valuation surveys will be made. While on Oahu Mr. Griffith will be socially entertained by the Yale Alumni of which college he is a graduate.

WASHINGTON, December 18.—Representative Wood of California today introduced a bill to establish a department of mine and mining.

A PLAGUE PREVENTIVE.

In England at the time of the great plague, it was reported that no one living in a tobaccoist's house fell sick of the disease. This caused a great demand for tobacco. Hoarne says in his diary: "I remember that I heard formerly Tom Hoarne, who was a schoolboy at Eton that year when the plague raged all the boys of that school were obliged to smoke every morning, and that he was never whipped so much in his life as he was one morning for not smoking."

A ROOSEVELT TERROR.

Joseph W. Bailey Jr., the eleven-year-old son of the Junior Senator from Texas, former leader of the House, some time ago developed a strong partisan opposition to his schoolmate, Archibald Roosevelt, son of the President. From partisanship, based on divergent political views, personal antagonism sprang up. Both boys attend the Force School, a public institution.
Young Joe came home from school at Washington, D. C., a few days ago and denounced Archibald as "a bad boy."
"Do you know what that Archibald Roosevelt does?" he said. "He fights.
He wants to fight every boy in school.
I thought I heard him swear, too. I ran against him going through the door today. I did not mean to do it. But do you know what he did? He doubled up his fist and knocked me down. I never did see such a fighter."

MANY CHEAP SMOKERS

BUSINESS FOR INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICE.

ABOUT $12,000 in Duty to be Collected Before the Manifests are Released by Stackable.

The release of about 400,000 Manila cigars that have been held in the custom house for payment of duty, will make a good deal of business for the Internal Revenue office. There is an internal revenue tax of 35 per hundred on such goods, making $12,000 worth of stamps to be bought from Collector Chamberlain before the goods can be released. Under the law the stamping is to be done before the goods are released, and the collector of customs has to see that no unstamped goods are released, so that all the internal revenue office has to do is to sell the stamps.

The order to release the cigars and other imports from the Philippines came from Washington in the following ruling, the dispatch being the one in the sending of which Honolulu was apparently overlooked:
"Treasury Department, Dec. 4, 1901.
"Sir: Referring to the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, relative to importations from the Philippine Islands, I have to confirm Department's telegram of the 2d instant, as follows:
"Discontinue requirement entry and collection of duty on merchandise shown by manifest of vessel to be shipped from Philippines. Allow free delivery of goods in bond. Detain cigars and cigarettes until internal-revenue stamps are affixed under circulars 31 and 35, current year. Refunds will be made by certified statement where protests are duly filed."

"With regard to the matter of refunds, I have to state that in addition to forwarding certified statements, as above directed, you will forward certified statements in cases where no protests have been filed, when so requested by the parties in interest, with a view to submitting estimates for appropriation to Congress should it be found that no existing appropriation is available.

"Respectfully, (5251) "H. A. TAYLOR,
"Assistant Secretary.
"Collector of Customs, Baltimore, Md."

The customs duty saved on the cigars is about 4 cents each. It is thought that most of the cigars in bond will be taken out in a short time.

INSANE PORTO RICAN.

Planters' Association Asked to Support Him.

The Board of Health yesterday discussed with W. O. Smith, attorney for the Planters' Association, a bill for $400 for the care in the Insane Asylum of a Porto Rican named James R. Cantario, who arrived here insane. He was one of the immigrants brought here by the planters. It is claimed that when the man arrived he was intercepted by the authorities, but that the Planters' Association, by Gilman, agreed to be responsible for taking care of him if he was allowed to land. Cantario was landed and soon after was sent to the asylum.

W. O. Smith contended that it was not fair to charge the planters with the expenses of supporting a man who became insane. He said that the Porto Ricans were not imported under contracts, but could work for whom they pleased and quit work whenever they wanted. The Planters' Association, at great expense, had exercised the utmost care in selecting the best Porto Ricans, but could be picked out for transportation here.

Dr. Pratt said that but for the fact that the planters had agreed to care for Cantario he would have been refused a landing and sent back home. The matter was finally postponed, to allow Smith an opportunity to look into the Superintendent of Public Works Boyd reported to the board that he had information that pigs were being raised in Hookah and Kilauea on swill and refuse. The matter was referred to the government physician of Kona.

Boyd also reported that he was doing all in his power to get money needed for Kewalo swamp, but that there appeared to be no funds available.

On request of Thomas Finch, permission was granted for Mrs. Alice Metcalf to go to Kalaupapa Molokai to confer with Mrs. Alice Metcalf a leper, regarding a lawsuit just instituted. The visitor will have to remain within the corral at the settlement during the conference.

WRIGHT DEMURS.

Treasurer W. H. Wright yesterday filed a demurrer to the amended complaint of Maclean and company, in which Judge Estee is asked to restrain Wright from issuing any more Primo beer licenses. Wright states that there is still no showing that the plaintiffs have been or are being damaged by the issuance of such licenses and that the plaintiffs have the right themselves, under their general licenses, to sell Primo or any other kind of beer.

KINDY CIVILIAN

EDITOR STAR: Of late there are numerous howls about Kewalo, being an insanitary district. It is a matter of fact, that the howl is right, but it will never make the district sanitary unless the government come in and improves the district by laying out a good government road to Waikiki, and the suburbs graded to the right height and orders all the property owners to fill in their places to the grade of the road, then have this long-talked-of ditch built so that all flooded waters can run into it without any further trouble.

SUGAR BOUNTIES SEEM DOOMED

WASHINGTON, December 17.—A communication to the press announces that the international sugar conference, at its meeting today, discussed the effects of high customs surtaxes on sugar.
The indications are that the delegates, who represent all the countries of Europe except Russia, favor the total abolition of sugar bounties in the countries represented. The delegates had pledged themselves to abstain from making any communication to the press, but this much was given out in connection with today's sitting.

The main point of today's debate was the imposition of countervailing duties and a discussion of the effect which the imposition of such duties by the United States might have in diverting the export of bounty-fed sugar to fresh markets, and thus generally upsetting the general system of bounty-paying duties.

The conference is doubtful of the efficiency of any action which it may take, in view of the fact that the United States and Russia are not bound by the dictum of the conference. The result may be to call another conference, to include the countries which are not at present represented.

SUPREME CHANCELLOR.

Head of the Knights of Pythias is Coming.

Ogden H. Fethers, Supreme Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias will arrive by the Sonoma in Honolulu. He is on a tour of inspection of the order. He is accompanied by Mrs. Fethers. A local committee of twenty-five will be appointed at once to arrange for the reception and entertainment of Mr. and Mrs. Fethers. During their stay here they will be at the Moana Hotel. They will be extensively entertained both by Pythian organizations and by individuals. A trip to the Volcano will be one of the events of their stay. It is expected that officers of both Oahu and Mystic lodges will be installed during his stay by the Supreme Chancellor.

Mr. Fethers' home is in Janesville, Wisconsin. He was one of the members of the Paris Exposition commission appointed by President McKinley.

ROCKEFELLER A WRECK.

NEW YORK, December 17.—Changed in appearance so that his old friends hardly know him, John D. Rockefeller returned to his home in Tarrytown.
The shaving of his mustache makes a surprising change in the appearance of the multi-millionaire. He seems much thinner and more sickly. His hair is falling out very fast and he is almost entirely bald. He seems to be more easily fatigued than heretofore.

On his estate of 2600 acres in the Po-cantic hills Rockefeller often works for ten days at a time in the fields, hoping thus to regain his strength, but thus far his efforts have been in vain.
After the day's exercise he sits down to a supper of crackers and skimmed milk, which is served at a temperature of 98-2-5 degrees, for nothing may pass his lips at a temperature lower than blood heat. He is a physical wreck.

IS YOUR HAIR FALLING?

The cause is a parasite in the hair-artistic repousse or engraved designs to enhance their beauty.

cious buying been enabled to offer these goods at from TWENTY TO THIRTY PER CENT BELOW USUAL PRICES and yet retain a fair margin of profit.

would grace any toilet table. PRICES

UTILITY IS AN ESSENTIAL.
To the up-to-date Christmas gift. The time of giving expensive and useless trifles is past. Here is a suggestion that has probably not occurred to you.

WHY NOT SPARKLETS.
Our supply of these outfits comprises many varieties made in designs to suit the furniture of the most elaborate dinner table. The gift would be thoroughly appreciated, and the donor remembered every time the compressed carbonic acid in the little capsules turned a glass of water, milk, lemonade or claret from a flat drink into a nectar fit for the gods, a sparkling, bubbling liquid charged with inspiration and health: AN IDEAL DRAUGHT FOR THE TROPICS—HEALTHFUL AND INVIGORATING.

We have a dual reason in urging these and a selfish one. Buy one for your friend and you will infallibly buy one later for yourself. They are not expensive FROM TWO AND A HALF DOL-
