THE PAST YEAR.

[CONCLUDED].

Labor immigration from the fresh field of Japan has been successfully conducted on a pretty large scale by the Government. Nearly two thousand of this nationality have been imported, and in general have given satisfaction on the plantations. There has been some trouble with them here and there, due, apparently, to the admixture of the cross of seaports among the laborers drawn from the agricultural districts of Japan. They are, however, a peculiar race to deal with, requiring consideration for their habits and tastes which has not been necessary in dealing with other imported laborers. In the difficulties that occurred with them, the question of extra-territorial jurisdiction loomed up, but our Government took pains to show that the admission of special Japanese inspectors was not prescribed by the Mikado's Government, but voluntarily conceded by the Hawaiian Government, by way of fulfilling pledges given of good treatment to Japanese immigrants, and of avoiding diplomatic discussion of trifling grievances. But a small proportion of the Japanese arrived were women. This ground of objection, a strong one urged against Chinese immigration, is promised to be diminished in the importations from Japan expected early this year. One shipload of Portuguese laborers, who come largely in families, has arrived during the year, and the Government announces a purpose of introducing more of this nationality, at the desire of some planters. Opposition to Chinese immigration apparently increased during the year. Although they are highly valued on the plantations, the trouble is they do not stay there, but swarm in the towns and environs when their contracts are up, where they are gradually absorbing trade and industry, and displacing white people and the native race. Notwithstanding the law forbidding the landing of more than twenty-five Chinese from one vessel, excepting those who are certified to have been here before, there has been a large excess of arrivals over departures of this nationality during the year.

The currency question was the weightiest matter on the public mind at the opening of the year. On the 1st of December previous American gold was established as the only legal tender for sums over ten dollars, and the Government was required to redeem all outstanding silver certificates, except those of ten dollars, in that coin. For a short time the process of redemption went on, the resources of the Government soon proving inadequate, and with early suspension of gold payments at the Treasury the twenty-dollar certificates went to swell the superfluous volume of silver circulation. A long but fruitless series of negotiations between the Government and the Chamber of Commerce only left the question in a most unsatisfactory state. Those in a position to do so, exact gold from their debtors; while others, whether having to make their payments mainly in gold, or otherwise, must be content with the depreciated silver. This compels a premium on gold, forming a heavy tax upon the community, from which those in a position to do brokerage business alone derive benefit. There is no doubt that the failure of the Government to observe the mandates of the currency law has proved a serious detriment to business and laid an onerous burden upon the public.

These Islands have been highly favored with visitations from foreigners of more or less eminence. Many of them delighted the large cosmopolitan audiences with which Honolulu astonishes most new visitors, by lectures upon the wonders of the world and of nature that they were familiar with by travel and investigation. Prof. Wayland, of Oberlin, spent a prolonged holiday here, and lectured on "Disraeli, Gladstone, and the English Parliament;" on his return home paying a high tribute in the press to the natural attractions and social institutions of this kingdom. Prof. Agassiz gave a profound disquisition from the platform on "The Theory of Coral Reefs." Genl. Van Buren, U. S. Consul-General in Japan, gave us a timely lecture on "Japan and the Japanese," just after the arrival of the first installment of Japanese labor immigration. Rev. Dr. Happer, a veteran American missionary to China, preached several times in the Congregational churches, giving interesting accounts of the gospel's progress in the Orient. Rev. Robert McKenzie, of San Francisco, lectured very entertainingly on the peculiarities of his countrymen the Scotch. Mrs. Hampson, a revivalist of world-wide reputation, conducted a season of evangelistic services in the Kawaiahao church, leaving a benign influence behind her. Lord Elphinstone with a party of English friends visited the Volcano and tarried a while at our superb Hotel; also, ex-Gov. Downey of California. Rev. J. Hemphill, a pulpit orator of Philadelphia, edited large congregations with well-merited and impressively-delivered discourses. Mr. P. Petrovitz, an artist of the Royal Academy, sojourned some weeks among the palms, leaving behind, among other souvenirs, an artistic portrait of His Majesty. Mr. Elisha H. Allen, Hawaiian Consul-General at New York, brother of Col. W. F. Allen, of Honolulu, spent some time on the Islands, bearing away a royal decoration in recognition of his signal services to the kingdom. Mr. Arthur Brown, a great English traveller, delighted an audience with a description of the Yosemite and its wonders. Major Dane, of Boston, gave a series of powerful lectures, describing travels in Europe, a visit to Constantinople, the naval battles of the rebellion, and Grant, going from us to celebrate the beauties of our island abode and the, to him, surprising social development of this kingdom, on other platforms. Rev. Jas. Taylor, of Yorkshire, England, and Rev. A. D. Miller, of San Francisco, were welcome visitors of a few days in the latter part of the year. A varied line of public entertainments was given our people by foreign companies, among which were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, who were enthusiastically received, as well for their high talent, fully recognized abroad, as for the fact that the fair cantatrice is the daughter of a citizen of Honolulu.

A large fire record begins with a slight blaze in a clothes closet in the Kawaiahao Seminary. Early on the morning of January 21st, a fire broke out on the corner of Fort and Hotel street, which swept away C. J. Fishel's dry goods store, P. McInerney's shoe store, the Germania market, the Elite ice cream saloon and C. Gertz's shoe store, Tregloan's tailor shop going with Fishel's place, and the City horse-shoeing shop and Wallace & Simpson's plumbing shop being badly damaged. A movement was set on foot to have the street widened at that point before rebuilding should be done, but nothing was accomplished. Feb. 19th two new cottages owned by Wm. Wale, on Alakea street, were almost totally destroyed. Soon after midnight, on the morning of May 3rd, a fire occurred on Fort street, almost directly opposite the scene of the conflagration of Jan. 21st, and, before it was subdued, the Enterprise planing mill, two cottages and "The Fountain" refreshment saloon were destroyed, and Dodd's stables charred along a whole side. An apprentice named Edward Gattrell, from the U. S. man-of-war "Hartford," who was sleeping in one of the cottages, perished in the flames. Sixty acres of cane were burned at Lihue, Kauai, May 19th. On the night of July 7th a cottage on the Royal Hawaiian Hotel grounds was burned, and the manager of the Hotel, Mr. Charles Tilden, who occupied it, was so badly burned in his bed, before he could be rescued, that he died on the 9th. A house on Nuuanu street, owned by Mrs. Bachelor, of Wailuku, was burned on Aug. 5th. There was a blaze of gasoline in Macfarlane's storage yard, Queen street, in the forenoon of Sept. 15th, which did little damage beyond destroying $100 worth of the fluid. On October 31st Mr. H. Macfarlane's schooner "Emma" was badly damaged by a mysterious fire that broke out on board before daylight, while the vessel lay in the stream. Mr. Macfie's house at Kilauea, Kauai, was badly damaged by fire on November 13th. Fifty acres of cane were destroyed at Honuapo, Hawaii, and the Star mill trash house, were burned at Kohala, same island, in November. On the 24th of that month a cottage belonging to Mr. A. J. Cartwright, and minor buildings belonging to others, were burned at Waikiki.

Some important additions have been made to the architecture of Honolulu, among which may be mentioned the new building of the St. Louis College, the Bishop Hall of Science in the Oahu College group, the Kaumakapili church towers, C. J. Fishel's store, the Chinese club-house, Chinese Y. M. C. A. building, the new Police Station, the chancel of the projected Anglican Cathedral, and a new stone tower on Kawaiahao church.

Following is Hawaii's necrology for the year, including persons dying abroad who had connections with the Islands:—

George H. Fassett, manager Hawaiian Hotel, Honolulu, January 10th, aged 39.

Hugh McDonna, an old resident, Honolulu, January 22nd, aged 70.

Mrs. Lowell Smith, missionary, Honolulu, Jan. 31st, aged 75.

Rev. Samuel Cheney Damon, D. D., chaplain of the Seamen's Bethel and pastor Bethel Union Church, Honolulu, Feb. 7th, aged 60.

C. H. Alexander, (of Makawao), Napa, Cal., Feb. 8th.

Geo. W. Spalding, former Attorney-General of Hawaii, Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 9th.

Capt. J. M. Oat, an old resident whose golden wedding had been recently celebrated, Honolulu, Feb. 24th, aged 75.

Mrs. John Magoon, Honolulu, Feb. 26th, aged 56.

Wm. Adams, son of Alexander Adams, first man to fly the Hawaiian flag in Chinese waters, Kaneohe, March 5th.

Thos. A. Cummins, native of England, came here from Roxbury, Mass., Waimanalo, April 19th, aged 83.

Her Majesty the Dowager Queen Emma, widow of Kamehameha IV., Honolulu, April 25, aged 49.

Julius L. Richardson, manager Waianae plantation, Oahu, May 8th, aged 48.

Robert C. Austin, Palama, June 18th, aged 38.

A. Unna, proprietor of Hana plantation, Maui, noted for benevolence, April 8th, aged 56.

Benjamin H. Austin, Second Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Honolulu, July 5th, aged 53.

Jacob Fisher, a favorite singer, July 5th, aged 27.

Henry A. Pierce, American Minister Resident in Honolulu 1876, afterward Hawaiian Attorney-General, San Francisco, July 28th, aged 77.

Geo. B. Kalaaukane, of a well-known native family, Oct. 15th, aged 63.

John Russell, barrister, Honolulu, Oct. 17th, aged 47.

Rev. Dr. A. D. Cole, father of Mrs. Rev. Geo. Wallace, Honolulu, president of Nashotak Theological Seminary, Wisconsin, Oct. 14th, aged 66.

Capt. Charles Brewer, founder of Honolulu firm of C. Brewer & Co., Boston, Oct. 11th, aged 81.

Conrad Menke, manager Humu-la Sheep Station, Hawaii, accidentally shot Oct. 25th.

P. P. Kanoa, member Hawaiian Privy Council, ex-Governor of Kauai, by accident, Nov. 10th, aged 82.

Rev. Abel Clark, native of England, Government school teacher at Waianae, Oahu, Nov. 22nd, aged 29.

Mrs. S. J. Lyman, missionary of 1832 contingent, widow of Rev. D. B. Lyman, Hilo, Dec. 6th, aged 80.

Several deplorable tragedies occurred on the Islands. A leper murdered two officers on Molokai, several natives came to their death in drunken brawls at various places, one maniac strangled a fellow inmate of the Insane Asylum, and C. Larisch, manager of the Kaneohe plantation on this Island, committed suicide. The schooner Kamoi sailed from Honolulu for Laupahoehoe, Hawaii, in September, having a crew of nine on board, and has never since been heard of. The schooner Pohoiki was capsized off Hawaii, and the boats in which the crew took refuge being swamped the captain's wife and two sailors were lost, and Captain Paahao was so terribly bitten by sharks that he died in a few hours. Among a not very large list of fatalities, probably the saddest is the killing of Mary Akona, by being thrown from a riding vehicle on the Nuuanu road, Oct. 3rd.

A few local odds and ends and the dead year may be left to bury its dead, while the living go forward to the duties of the new year, warned by the examples, encouraged by the favors, and strengthened by the experiences of the past. An earthquake shock early on the morning of January 13th shook up all the light sleepers of Honolulu. Nothing came of tenders invited by the Minister of the Interior, at the end of the old year, for improving the Honolulu Waterworks, but the management increased the supply of water to some extent by minor improvements. The Symphony Club broke up in January, but the Choral and Quintette Club has succeeded it. Senor Canavarro, Portuguese Consul's, scheme for having his people granted facilities for planting cane on shares was almost totally ignored by the planting guild. Line manufacture has begun on a large scale in Honolulu. The Mutual Telephone Company is operating an extensive line in competition with the Bell Telephone Company, and there is no sign of a movement for amalgamation of the corporations. The two ice companies have united, without materially raising the cost of the luxury to consumers. The discretion of the Privy Council, boasted of in the Legislature as a sufficient safeguard to the out districts in regulating the liquor traffic, has authorized retail licenses to be issued throughout the islands, the result being an increase of disorder in the vicinity of many plantations. Glanders has been all but exterminated from the live stock, by the vigorous action of the Government veterinarian, under instructions from the Minister of the Interior. Mr. Daggett, U. S. Minister Resident under President Arthur, has been replaced by Mr. Merrill, appointed by President Cleveland; while Mr. McKinley, formerly U. S. Consul, has departed with a commission as Hawaiian Consul-General for the Pacific Coast, being succeeded by Mr. Putnam, with the office raised to a Consul-Generalship. Mr. Daggett went ambassador to Washington, his mission being a secret until the BULLETIN a few weeks ago divulged it as an old claim against the American Government, but meantime sensational reports had gone all over the world that the errand was to negotiate the sale of the Islands to the United States. His Majesty has been decorated by His Holiness the Pope with the grand insignia of the first class of the Order of Pius. The new Pacific missionary steam barkentine "Morning Star," of the American Board of Foreign Missions, arrived from New England during the year, and made a trip to the Gilbert, Marshall and Caroline groups, returning before her due time to Honolulu with Rev. Mr. Sturges, an invalid missionary compelled to retire to his native America, and then going back on her errand of peace and goodwill. Other events for brief mention are: the manslaughter trial, upon which Prof. Wayland, who witnessed it, on his return to the United States highly praised our judicial system for the dignity and decorum characterizing the proceedings; the starting of a new bank by Spreckels & Co.; Mr. J. Marsden's visit to Jamaica in the interest of the planters, and the visits of the following named foreign war vessels,—French "Kerguelen," United States "Hartford," Russian "Djit," Italian "Cristoforo Colombo," and British "Satellite," and "Constance." A section of street railway was laid only to be buried, the object being simply to prevent forfeiture of the charter. As the year closed, politicians were preparing for the elections to the Assembly, to take place on February 3rd.

Mr. W. C. LANE, superintendent of the Kahuku Ranch, gave a family dinner party on Christmas Day, at which were present, with Mr. and Mrs. Lane, 11 children, 3 sons-in-law, 1 daughter-in-law and 8 grandchildren. We wish Mr. and Mrs.
Lane many returns, and re-unions of the same sort.

Mr. Molteno, barber on King street, and a Mr. Aylett have leased a piece of water-land between the Marine Railway and the Myrtle Boat Club house, on which they are building a bathhouse. The piles for the foundation are already driven and the house will be completed by the middle of next month.

The road down the Pali has been a continual source of newspaper comment for some years, but nothing has been done to mend it until within the last few weeks, when considerable improvement has been effected under Mr. H. Lloyd's superintendence. The road is now fairly passable for carriages and is in as good a condition as it is possible, probably, to make it, without having an entirely new road.

The further end of the P. M. S.
S. wharf is assuming an improved appearance. The telephone office has been neatly fitted within and nicely painted without. A new storehouse and carpenter shop have also been built, and made dazzlingly bright with a coat of whitewash. On top of the wharf shed, at the south eastern extremity, is a lookout recently built for the master of the tug boat, to be used instead of the old observatory in rear of the Inter-Island S. S. N. Co.'s office.

THE Anglican Church Chronicle for January is to hand. The editorial columns open with New Year Greetings. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh gives a graphic account of some scenes and incidents of travel in the land of the heather. Our reprint of Dec. 8th, from the San Francisco Bulletin, on "the Church of England in Politics," brings Rev. C. E.
Groser to the front with an article (to be continued) on "The Church of England." The paper is further occupied with a good digest of Church and other news.

LAST Thursday evening one of the sailors of the bark Elsinore, while skating at the Yosemite Rink, fell and dislocated his left arm at the elbow. It cost him ten dollars to have it replaced, and being unable to work he is paying two dollars and a half per day for a substitute on board ship. The sailor, in speaking of the accident this morning, said that he had fallen from aloft to the ship's deck without breaking a bone or even dislocating his collar, but to get on wheels with no brake was like riding on the tail of a tornado.

PAINTING AND MUSIC.

Yesterday evening Mr. J. D.
Strong gave an exhibition of his work in oils, water colors, and black and white, in the Hawaiian Hotel parlors. A goodly number of ladies and gentlemen took advantage of the occasion to combine pleasure with instruction, and to see our beautiful island scenery portrayed by the skillful hand of the artist. Detailed criticism of the pictures would be out of place, but we may mention that a view, in oils, of "Nuanu Stream before Kapena Falls," and another, in black and white, of a different portion in the stream, attracted considerable attention for their intrinsic beauty and delicacy of execution. Some of the other landscapes were not quite so happily realistic, but the portraits received universal commendation for their faithfulness. During the evening the Royal Band performed a choice selection of operatic and terpsichorean music in their usual splendid way, and contributed in no small degree to the successful manner in which the evening passed away. As usual the Hotel balconies and grounds were brilliantly lit up, and nothing was left undone by the manager and his assistants to render every one present perfectly comfortable. Mr. J. A. Palmer was on hand throughout to impart all desired information to spectators, his having managed the exhibition from its inception.

DIRTY POLITICS.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The P. C.
Advertiser this morning is painfully agitated by the nefarious conduct of certain naughty young men, who "dragged religion down into the dirty pool of politics" at a Sunday school convention at Molokai. The field was entirely open—why did not Kapena & Co. go there also, and give the Sunday scholars a hula and some gin, and talk lotteries and opium to them? Were they too sensible that their politics were dirty?

KALUAHA.

A CONTRADICTION.

In order to injure the reputation the United Carriage Co. has always enjoyed for its fair dealings with the public, some persons have wrongfully reported that the extra half-fare chargeable for responding to a telephone call emanated from the above company, who take this opportunity for contradicting it.
We also wish to inform our customers that no extra will be charged by any of our drivers when called by telephone, also that this company is using its influence in getting the extra half-fare struck off the new hack fares shortly to be issued.

STATEMENT.

THE undersigned, a Committee of Directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, appointed to formulate the views of the Board on the advantages offered by the Society to the public, report:— 1st—The Society issues all the approved forms of assurance, including Ordinary Life, Endowment and Tontine policies. It is immaterial to the Directors which form of policy is taken by intending assurers.
 2d—The Life and Endowment forms of policy provide for annual cash dividends and a surrender value; are indispensible after three years and payable immediately after proof of death.
 3d—The premiums on a Tontine policy are the same as on the Ordinary Life, but, while the latter is only payable in the event of death, the holder of the Tontine policy has the right to draw the whole of the reserve and the accumulated profits in cash at the end of a stated period; thus, during his own lifetime, after his producing years are past, he can, without any larger premium than on an ordinary policy, secure these greater advantages.
 4th—Experience shows that the return paid in cash on maturing Tontine policies approximates to or exceeds the amount of premiums paid by policyholders, so that the average cost of the assurance will be only about the interest on the premiums.
 5th—Tontine policies, like others, are paid in full in the event of death at any time during the term of the policy, and are incontestable after three years, and payable immediately after due proof of death.
 6th—Experience shows that the mortality is lower among Tontine policyholders, as the better lives seek this kind of assurance, which is a considerable source of profit.
 7th—Tontine policies will be made non-forfeitable under the laws of the State, if so desired at the time the assurance is effected.
 8th—The Tontine system is fair and just; its accounts are accurately kept, separate from all other business; the funds judiciously invested and improved, and the accumulated profits faithfully guarded and properly apportioned.
 9th—The Society has since its organization transacted a larger amount of new business than any other company, while its new business for the first half of the present year is $1,750,000 larger than that of the first half of 1884. It has Assets of $60,000,000; over $14,000,000 of Surplus, and its ratio of Surplus to Liability is greater than that of any other company.
