LIHUE TROUBLES

Chinese Commercial Agent on Situation.

INVESTIGATION WILL BE MADE

Laborers Must Receive Better Treatment.

Planters Methods are Brutal—De- ductions and Fines for Illness.

Goo Kim Fuey, Chinese Commercial Agent, in speaking of the disappointment he felt at not seeing the Chinese Minister to the United States, said:

"It was a great disappointment to us all, because the United Chinese Societies had made all preparations to give him a reception befitting a man of his station in public life. He was anxious, too, to meet our people and converse with them, as well as the officials of the Government. You know, there are about 20,000 Chinese here—quite a representation—and the Minister wished to see the Minister of Foreign Affairs and talk about a treaty between the two countries.

"I received a letter from Minister Cooper, notifying me of the action of the Board of Health. I communicated the contents to the Minister, and he at once asked me if I had attended the meeting. I said I had not. He then asked me how many men were present at the meeting, and when I told him five, he evinced great surprise to think that so few men could control so many people as are in the Islands. He spoke about the steamer having a clean bill of health, but I told him I was powerless to do anything in the matter.

"The affair was unpleasant to him and to the Chinese here, but I do not think we will hear of it again. He told Mr. Wong Kwai, so I have heard, that he 'considered the treatment about the same as would be accorded coolies,' but he did not make the remark in my hearing."

Mr. Goo Kim deprecated the idea that diplomatic correspondence would follow what the Minister is said to have considered a slight. In referring to the trouble among the Chinese at Lihue plantation, and the arrest of the 15 Chinamen, the Agent said:

"I have notified the Government within the past three days that I believed an investigation into the recent troubles on Kauai was advisable, and I guess when Minister King gets well enough the investigation will be made. Understand Mr. Taylor has been down there and investigated the affair, but I know nothing of his report. From what I have learned, the treatment of the men at Lihue is brutal. Just look at the condition of these men. They come here to work for $12.50 per month of 26 days. Of this $1.50 is taken each month for the savings bank. That leaves the laborer $11. If he is sick the doctor calls on him, and, after an examination, sends him to the field to work half a day without pay, and this, too, when their contracts call for free medical attendance. What right, I would like to know, has a plantation manager to demand service of his men and then refuse to pay them?"

"Another thing. If the work happens to be slack the luna will tell the Chinamen to go home and go to sleep. They have a half day's pay deducted for this, though they are not to blame. The contract calls for 26 days' work, and if the laborer is ready to perform it he should be paid for it. Another thing they have for economizing is to arrest men who complain of illness and fine them $2.25. I have written a number of complaints to the Government regarding the methods on some of the plantations, but nothing has ever come of them. Now, I think it is time something should be done, and unless some reforms are put into operation, we will have to follow the course recently adopted by Japan—stop emigration. If the planters do not have either Japanese or Chinese to draw from, where will they be? It will not be long before wages will go up to $50 a month, and if the treaty is abrogated, and wages go up, they may learn to treat our people better. It is only a few years since Chinese laborers on Hawaii were paid as high as $26 a month. Now they get them for less than half and treat them twice as bad. Managers growl because men get sick. What can they expect? Sometimes they are allowed five minutes for lunch, sometimes 15; it depends upon how far the men have to go, but if they are not ready when the time expires, they are told to get out, and are kicked if they do not hurry.

"When these facts are made known to my Government I think prompt action will be taken, and it may result in emigration from China ceasing. Our people have feelings the same as those of any other nationality. They are not brutes that they are to be kicked about and fined for not working when they are sick. Can you expect a man to retain his health who has only five minutes to masticate his food? That man is bound to get sick inside sometime, and when he does, he pays the penalty at the end of the month—$3.25. By the time the fines, deductions on account of slack work and savings bank money is all taken out of the man's wages, what does he have? What encouragement is there for Chinamen to leave their homes for Hawaii? If the planters do not want our laborers, I think the men can afford to stay at home, where they will get better treatment. There is a feeling among certain managers here that the more a laborer is abused the more work he can get out of him. The fight at Lihue was the result of that impression among the white employees on that plantation. The men are goaded to a point of desperation by the lunas, and in presence of the managers; then, when the Chinamen rebel at the inhuman treatment they are battered with clubs, shot and put in prison, while the white men, who are responsible for the trouble, are allowed to go free. What we ask is justice, fair treatment and the rights given by the contract which the men sign. If they do not get it, their contracts will cease."

KAU NOTES.

News of Interest From the Plantations and Volcano.

"We are having very dry weather, and the cane is commencing to feel it. If this state of affairs continues it will do great damage to the plantations. The water supply is getting very short, and it will be impossible to grind steadily."

"The Volcano is about the same; no fire, but plenty of smoke. The natives at Puna claim that the hot springs are getting warmer. Perhaps this may be a forerunner of a lava flow."

"The temperature of some of the springs and wells here in Kau have been taken regularly for the last six months and have shown little or no variation."

"A gang of men are at work on the Peter Lee road, and it will not be long before it will be in first-class order."

"The Mongoose have extended their hunting grounds to the beach, and now prefer ophids to rats. They wait for the sea to recede, then rush down on the rocks and pull the ophids off and eat them."

"Mr. Bethe, engineer at Pahala, has resigned and is succeeded by Mr. Sherman."

"Pahala plantation has received a compound Baldwin engine. It is a beauty. People expect it to pull twice as much as the old one."

"Mauna Loa received 2,430 bags of sugar from Punaluu and 4,400 bags from Honouliuli."

"Walter Dalloway of the Half-way House, had the misfortune to lose 12 dozen valuable eggs he was sending to Pahala on the stage. Some miscreant placed them on the stage so that they would fall off, which they did. It is needless to say they were strewn all over the road just repaired. Dalloway will make it hot for the guilty person, if he finds him."

SOCIALIST IDEAS

How the Labor Problem May be Solved.

SUGGESTS GOVT. SUGAR MILLS

Radical Changes Must be Made Carefully.

White Laborers Will Not Work With Asiatics—Something of Corporation.

MR. EDITOR:—If the sugar planters alone were interested in the solution of our labor problem I should not presume to offer any suggestions on the matter. But such is not the case. It is not long since the laborers of Spreckelsville gave the authorities and all the good people of Wailuku an ominous warning. That warning was plain enough to be understood, even by people as far away as Honolulu, and suggestive enough to be long remembered by every one who was in Wailuku during that time of suspense. It was a pointed demonstration of a state of affairs which interests all and justifies each in contributing his part toward the solution of the problem.

Our whole labor system, for many years, has tended to the degradation of labor. It tends towards the development of "barons" and serfs, of masters and coolies. The nations of the earth have been called upon to contribute their off-scouring toward the increase of our population. Few nations have sent us of their best blood. And the fact that the laborers are in most cases degraded has degraded labor itself in the eyes of the people. A similar state of things prevailed in the South when labor was performed by slaves. And a modification of this state of affairs has prevailed to the detriment of California, owing to the fact that certain classes of labor have long been relegated to the Chinese, European or American farmers, coming to this country, soon become dissatisfied with their part of the work which they see done, for the most part, by degraded laborers, though they were brought up to do just as arduous and just as disagreeable work in their native lands.

Commissioner Fitzgerald is right in his assertion that it is impracticable to change our labor in a short time; the change must be gradual. But does any one suppose that this gradual change can be made by putting in a few white laborers among the Asiatics and by gradually increasing the number of white men finally crowd out the Asiatics? If so, he has made small account of the white man's spirit.

No! Commissioner Fitzgerald is right again when he says that our whole labor system must be radically changed before it will be acceptable to white laborers. But his plans for the change, so far as I have seen them outlined in the local press, are open to the criticism that they are vague. Let us agree that a radical change must be made: what is that change?

White men will not take the place of the Asiatics. There can be no such thing as a supply of white coolies. The white man must have a radically different position, or may the country be spared such degradation! Experiments have been tried in the way of white men cultivating their own cane. White men can and will do more work in their own cane fields than Chinamen or Japanese will do in similar fields. But the experiments thus far tried have produced unsatisfactory results, owing to the power which the mill owners have over the planters.

Profit-sharing, where the laborer cultivates land which is so bad that the owners of the mill will not cultivate it, and where the same owners seize the lion's share of the profits after the cane is ripe, does not sufficiently appeal to the white farmer. But give the white man the profits on his cane above a reasonable compensation for grinding, and give him a fair deal, and it is my belief that he will be satisfied with his returns, and will do more work, and do it better than any of our present degraded laborers.

cured? Are the capitalists, the mill-owners, going to abdicate? Not unless the millennium is silently stealing in upon us. Granted that selfishness that overrides public good is short-sighted selfishness still prevails on this mundane sphere. If the common good is to be guarded as of more importance than any individual interests, society in its organized capacity, must become its custodian. There seems to be little hope that capitalists will so far set aside their immediate personal interests as to bring about conditions such as will make the cultivation of sugar cane by white laborers possible in time to save the country to our Western civilization.

The Government must intervene. Before proceeding further, let it be said again that the change must be gradual. The Government owns, practically, the whole of some of the plantations. When these leases expire, let the mills pass to the ownership of the Government on equitable terms, or if this is impossible, let the Government erect mills in their stead. Then let these mills be run for the common good. Let the charges for manufacturing sugar be such as barely to cover the cost, pay interest on the bonds with which the mills are built, and provide a small sinking fund eventually to pay the face of the bonds. Let the lands be cut up and leased to the white laborers on reasonable terms and in small tracts. Let these lease-holders work their holdings separately or let them form co-operative unions, as may seem best to them. But let all combinations of holders of Government lands be kept under proper restriction. Thus the conditions necessary to the introduction of white labor for the cultivation of sugar-cane will be secured.

Let it be borne in mind that this scheme is presented in outline only. The details and the extension of the scheme will be the result of mature and deliberate thought and experience.

"THAT KONA MUDDLE."

Retiring School Agent Makes Brief Statement.

Editor Hawaiian Gazette: Allow me space enough to say that the story printed in your issue of 23d of April is manifestly one-sided and unfair. I say this irrespective of the source of your information, and, while it is too prolix to reply in detail, I would like to notice a few points.

The fact of a teacher being away from his duties some hours a week was "brought to the notice of the department on former occasions by the Inspector General," and "the teacher should make up for loss of time by putting in extra work at other times;" the quotations are from a letter of the department, and gave me discretion, most certainly, to speak of and on the subject to the person concerned; it was my duty to see that a teacher gave the whole time, for which he was paid, to his school duties.

The 7th and 8th paragraphs are pervasions of fact and of truth, and seem to have been written to discredit me. As for the "claims of salary by three persons," let me say that the sum of $12.50 was allowed a month ago, and the pay-roll for them being burdened with a couple of $6 items, the sum of 50 cents passes again to the treasury. The person appointed by the department did not enter upon the work for a few days, and therefore, it was my rightful duty to engage pro tem. assistance.

These are not times to give the balance of favor to those who solicit support in objection, a man who has not recognized friendships or relationships in the discharge of duty and, in conclusion, I may say that my resignation, on April 10th, was not in consequence of any "advice."

Great Cure in East London.

At the back of the Mile End-road was once a house of sorrow and sadness. Up to eighteen months ago, Rebecca Emanuel bade fair to sustain the reputation of her race for the beauty of its womankind. Then the first symptoms of illness presented themselves. She became emaciated, and worn-looking; from being brimful of healthy energy, she became weak that the last exertion was too great to be borne, and all her friends gave her up for lost.

"We all thought there was no hope for her," said her mother, to a reporter of the East London Advertiser who called at No. 1 Beaumont-square, "Rebecca could not even go upstairs by herself. As soon as she had got up two or three stairs she would have to stop. He heart palpitated so much, and she was seized with such fainting fits, that she was absolutely helpless. Even a walk out of doors is impossible, for over and over again Rebecca would be taken with a fainting fit and have to be carried home. Then it was that we read of the wonderful cure of Mrs. Haydon, of Corbin-road, and heard of other similar cases, and we thought that even if a trial of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did no good they would, at all events, do no harm. So we got a box, and the immediate improvement was most astonishing. But there, you can see for yourself," said the mother as Rebecca entered the room—a graceful young woman of nineteen, looking the very picture of health, and of most vivacious manner. It was hard to imagine that but a few months ago she was lying on a sick bed, the despair of her relatives. "I was as ill as anyone could be," she said. "I could scarcely walk, to go upstairs was impossible, I shrank from my food, and could do no work of any kind. For four months I was under the care of a doctor, who certainly did all he could for me. I was induced to try a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The change was marvelous. Before I had used half the box my appetite began to return, the palpitation of my heart ceased, the fainting fits departed, and I began to feel a changed girl. I persevered with a second and then a third box, and the cure was complete. "Now," continued Miss Emanuel, "I can do my work without any weariness. I can go for a long walk without any fear of being overtaken with a fainting fit. It is now four months since I left off taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and although I have worked hard since, I have not felt the slightest return of my illness. I have not the slightest doubt as to the permanency of the cure."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not like other medicine, and their effects are permanent. They act directly on the blood, and thus it is that they are so famous for the cure of anaemia and rheumatism, scrofula, chronic erysipelas, and to restore pale and sallow complexions to the glow of health. They are also a splendid nerve and spinal tonic, and thus have cured many cases of paralysis, locomotor ataxy, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, and nervous headache.

Sold by all dealers in medicine and by Hollister Drug Co., Hobron Drug Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

A Competitor of Ours

said to one of our customers the other day, "They rent 'Rambler' because that's about all they are good for." The customer set him thinking when he said, "I should think that on account of the hard usage rented wheels get, it would hardly pay to rent any but the best." That's right, we rent "Rambler" and "Columbias" because they will stand hard riding better than any make we know of; and in our renting department we have a chance to see just what stuff is in wheels. So just put this in your hat, friend, a wheel that will stand the wear-and-tear of a renting department, will grow fat on the treatment given by the average owner. Give us another dig on "Rambler's": We are the agents.

May 12th Will be Date of Tennis Tournament.

Meeting of the Association Yesterday Afternoon—Players Getting Down Into Hard Practice.

A number of the members of the Tennis Association met in the office of the Hawaiian Safe Deposit and Investment Company, but as there was not a quorum present, nothing definite was decided on. The Tournament Committee read its report, and although, as stated, nothing was decided on, it is very probable that the association will accept it. Following is the report presented by the committee, through Samuel G. Wilder, of the Pacific Tennis Club:

"Mr. George C. Potter, President Hawaiian Lawn Tennis Association:

"Dear Sir:—Your committee begs to submit the following report:

"The date for the commencement of the tournament to be Wednesday, May 12; the first of the preliminaries taking place at 4 p. m. The matches to be played on the Beretania, Pacific and Valley Tennis Clubs' courts and the condition of said courts before the play to be acceptable to the Tournament Committee.

"It is further suggested that Mr. J. Q. Wood be asked to act as general referee. The events to be as follows:

"1. Men's singles.
"2. Ladies' singles.
"3. Men's doubles.

"The entries to close on Monday, May 10th, at 4 p. m., at the store of Thos. G. Thrum, Fort street.

"The rules governing the play to be those adopted by the United States Lawn Tennis Association of 1896, those of 1897 not having yet arrived.

"If mutually agreed the players need not change sides until after each set; otherwise, after the first and every two games."

The events named above will be open to amateurs alone. The entry fee will be a dollar ($1) for each player. Ladies' singles will be complimentary.

In the men's doubles, any participant being a member of any organized tennis club on the Hawaiian Islands, must have for his partner a man from the same club.

Non-members of any club, wishing to take part in the doubles, must select partners from sources other than the regularly organized clubs.

All entries will close on Monday, May 10, 1897, at 4 p. m.

The Tennis Association extends the following invitation to all those interested in the game:

"The Hawaiian Tennis Association will hold its second annual tournament in Honolulu, commencing May 12, 1897, at 4 p. m. All interested in the sport are cordially invited to attend the contest, whether they be residents or visitors. The club grounds, where the games will be played, will be open to welcome any who wish to attend."

It might be said that the tennis men are getting down to hard work, and are making a good showing. They intend to put forth some extra fine playing during the coming tournament.

TRUE FISH STORY.

Two South Sea Islanders Attacked by a Shark.

A story came down on the Mauna Loa yesterday that while fishing between Lahaina and Lanai one day last week, two South Sea Islander fishers in a canoe, were chased by a shark. The monster was an exceptionally vicious one and, coming close to the canoe snapped at it, leaving two teeth in the bottom to show that the snap had really taken place. The shock threw one of the men out but strange to say the shark did not make after him at all. It is thought that perhaps the South Sea Islander did not give the monster time to get around his way. The two fishers were not at all frightened by the attack and went on fishing quietly. It is said of the South Sea Islanders that they in their native home, hunt sharks, with pieces of hard wood fashioned into the shape of a knife and that they succeed in killing every one that comes within their reach. They wait until the monster turns to bite and then with rapidity and dexterity stab it in a vital part so that life becomes extinct in a very short time.

Oratorical Symposium.

Miss Harriet Hapai and Miss Ruth Richardson, of Hilo, and W. B. Godfrey, Jr., and others of Oahu College, have announced themselves as contestants in the prize oratorical symposium, to be given by the Hawaiian Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. The prizes aggregate $70 in gold, and the successful competitors will probably be asked to deliver their addresses at the public function on the Fourth of July next. The date of the oratorical competition will be fixed for about the 17th of June (Bunker Hill Day) and names should be handed in to the chairman of the committee, Rev. Douglas Putnam Birnie, not later than June 1st.

It's the Other Fellow.

Frank Arthur Medcalf, of Hilo, wishes this paper to state that he is not the Frank Metcalf, of Honolulu, who was cured of the opium habit by the Hagey treatment, and, notwithstanding his allusion to the Ho-lulu newspaper men as "low-priced smarties, who scribble for the Honolulu thunders," this paper is willing to return courtesy for courtesy. It is hoped that Frank Metcalf will never be taken for Frank Arthur Medcalf.

Hack Smashed.

Judge Luther Wilcox was spilled out of a Japanese hack while riding toward the Mauna Loa, close upon 1 p. m. yesterday. The Japanese hackman became somewhat confused when he got to the Custom House corner, on Fort street, and did not know exactly where to turn, so he left the whole thing to the good judgment of the horse, which capsize the hack near the Consolidated Soda Works, and then dragged it on its side across the street. The front wheels parted, and the horse started up toward the lumber piles. Turning the corner, the wheels struck a dray and remained behind. At last accounts the horse was going yet. The number of the hack is 54.

"SOCIALIST" AND WHITE LABOR.

We do not anticipate that the views expressed by our correspondent, "Socialist" will find favor among the majority of our people. It cannot be denied however, that he presents many truisms touching the employment of white laborers in the cane fields of Hawaii. One thing must be borne in mind: Replacing the Asiatic with the white man means something more than taking out one man and putting in another. White coolies are not to be had and if they were we would not care to have them. The white man cannot live on rice and cannot be treated as a slave. The very fact that he demands better treatment, that he seeks to make his home more attractive and that he will take an interest in what goes on about him, goes to make up his desirability. We want men here to raise the standard of labor, but simply bringing the men here and putting them at work in the field will not accomplish the desired end.

With the advent of the white man there must follow a change in the relation of the employer and employee. The manager who lets out to profit sharing combinations must do better than give them the side hills and gulches that he has been unable to cultivate with profit. The manager cannot expect to shave the cream, leaving the profit sharing companies the poorer lands, and expect to make a success of employing white men in the cane fields. The Asiatic will oft times accept whatever lands he can get simply because he does not require many advantages to enable him to do better than he has in his own country.

There can be no doubt that the scheme suggested by our correspondent could be carried out and white laborers would be thoroughly satisfied with the results. If our people could be educated up to making the experiment, it would be a God send to the country. The plan may be realized some day, but we hardly expect it in the near future. A great deal can be gained however, if the planters will take the initiative of dividing profits with the laborer. It may be that sharing the profits of the mill with the laborer will cut down dividends. A more general distribution of profits however, will put reasonable prosperity within reach of the large majority whereas the tendency now is towards extreme individual prosperity. We admit that the scheme is distinctly socialistic, but a little more socialism in our industrial customs will do no harm.

GOVERNOR BLACK.

The career of Governor Black of New York is attracting the attention of political students of that State who are wondering what sort of a man they have in their midst. During Black's early days as governor he was put down as the willing tool of the machine. He was nominated by the Platt machine and the people drew the conclusion that he waited for orders from the boss before mapping out his policy. Some of the best appointments were given to the rankest kind of machine politicians, and straightway the mugwump and anti-Platt papers began to howl.

The Legislature had been in session but a short time however, when it was found that Governor Black had a mind of his own. He began to make curious "breaks" not at all pleasing to the ring and the people wondered. So did the "machine." They have found in Black a queer mixture whose exact counterpart has never been found in the political game. He appears to recognize that he owes something to the organization that elected him. He has made appointments that demonstrated this. Apparently proof against popular influence, he was put down as beyond all hope.

Since the first flurry however, New Yorkers have become aware that they have a man of no little independence as their chief executive. Having paid his debt by appointments they find that Mr. Black intends to be his own governor. They also discover that the men placed in positions of influence do not all belong to the Platt combination. The governor appreciates the necessity of organization in politics, but it now appears that he is playing the game for Governor Black, not Senator Platt. He has a way of asserting himself, and advocating anti-machine measures that is making the "bosses' heads swim. It is not impossible that a new boss is making his appearance in New York politics. If so, Boss Black will furnish a shining example in the line of bossism. He can pay his election debts and still keep his administration in line with honest government.

The advisability of the Board of Health withholding the names of the dairies where cattle affected with tuberculosis are found is a matter that is open to argument. We presume the precaution is enforced to prevent a scare. Many people on hearing that diseased cattle have been found in the herd from which they have been supplied with milk would withdraw their patronage, after the inspection had been made and the remainder of the herd pronounced sound. We can appreciate the unnecessary hardship which some dairy owners might be subjected to through thoughtless action. But how about the dairies where a clean bill of health is given by the inspectors? The people hear that diseased cattle have been found in a certain section of the city. There may be three or four dairies in that section, and John Thompson and Tom Johnson are each kept busy notifying customers.

ers that their's is not the place. The men owning healthy cattle have a right to protection which should not be forgotten. They should be considered first. As it is they are liable to suffer as much, possibly more financial injury than the owner of diseased cattle. On the whole it seems manifestly proper for the health officers to protect the owners of healthy cattle and trust to the common sense of the public to avert a scare. What particular right owners of diseased herds have to extraordinary protection we have yet to discover.

HAWAII JOTTINGS.

While there may be some trivial objections to annexation, there can be so much said in its favor that all opposition must finally give way. Here is an opportunity for the United States to increase her territory, and get a valuable mid-ocean station, without cost, and without any opposing force except within her own boundaries. Will the United States refuse an acquisition that in a few years will be beyond our reach?—Independent, Santa Barbara, Cal.

Evidently the Advertiser has no objections to the annexation of Hawaii to this country, and while we believe that the United States has all the territory she needs, yet as a strategic point, both commercially and politically, the United States ought not to close her eyes to the importance of the position of the Hawaiian group.—World-Herald, Fairhaven, Wash.

TIMELY TOPICS

29th April, 1897.

The "Australia" brought the news yesterday that a special commissioner had left Yokohama on board the warship "Naniwa" for the purpose of investigating the recent difficulty with the Japanese immigrants here.

The prevailing sentiment is that no trouble need be apprehended on that score, and that after a little "roasting" the whole affair will blow over.

While on the subject of "roasting," perhaps it would not be out of place to mention the

EAST MAUI.

KAHIKUNI AND KAUPU.

[For the Advertiser and Gazette.]
A land where the blooms never blow in,
A land that is wasted and wan,
A land where the streams never flow in,
A land lying under a ban!
The slopes of the mountain are paven
With lava and ashes and sand,—
The mark of the fire-fiend engraven
On every road of the land.

The wind from the north as it passes,
With the cloud-rack driven before,
Whistles loud in the gloomy crevasses;
The boom of the surf on the shore
Sounds faintly and far in the distance,
Low rumbling through wave-worn
caves;
The cliffs with unyielding resistance
Meet the onset of tumbling waves.

Abroad in the far scattered spaces
The rocks are embowered in green;
The weft of the rank grasses graces
The rifts and crannies between
Dead rivers of lava and ashes,
And clefts that are sunless and deep;
The glint of a golden gleam flashes
On rocks where the soft mosses creep.

Passing on to the northward, the ranges
Grow brighter and glow in the sun,
The landscape in front of us changes,
Now where the red rivers had run
Are patches of green on the mountains,
And clefts with the weft of the bloom
Enwoven in steep by the fountains
That drip in a twilight of gloom.

The villages cling to the ledges
As nests of the birds to the eaves,—
O'erhanging the steep and their edges
Where nature a tapestry weaves,
Unfolded afar till it reaches
With green hands each boulder and tree,
And meets with its bloom on the beaches
The kiss of the Sibilant Sea.

Waialua's swift waters in thunder
Leap from the giddy green verge,
The arrows of Sunshine slip under
The leaves, to the foam and the surge,
And painted in hues opalescent
The spray that ascends from the deep,
Like diamonds and rubies liquescent
Hung over the face of the steep.

The cliffs echo back the low laughter,
And jubilant songs of the brooks
Wild vines clamber over the rafters
And droop o'er the blossomy nooks.
Far down in this blessed oasis
Lie blossoms of scarlet and gold,
And trailers from tips to the bases
The ramparts in mercy enfold.

The hau and the wild apples nestle
In depths of the unfrosted dells,
Lauhala with steep ledges wrestle,
The chimera of convolvuli bells
Are over the glen's verdant reaches,
The waters unfettered and free
Leap over the gold of the beaches
"To be sapped evermore of the sea."
CHARLES H. EWART.
Dalbeattie, Scotland, February, 1897.

LINCOLN TONIGHT.

Great Fun in Store for Patrons of Opera House.

Tonight at the Opera House, Frank Lincoln, the world-famous humorist, will make his initial bow to a Honolulu audience, under the auspices of the Hawaiian Amusement Company. Mr. Lincoln is an entertainer who has achieved a reputation as a humorist all over the world. His success tonight should be genuine.

FRANK LINCOLN.

Much of the future success of the Hawaiian Amusement Company will depend upon the box receipts at the performance tonight. If the members and their friends do not patronize the house, success of the enterprise cannot be expected. Mr. Scott has devoted his time to this performance, and his efforts should be rewarded by a generous patronage. Stockholders to the amusement company seem not to understand that they are not obliged to take all the tickets they are entitled to for this performance. They may take one or all, as they wish, and should secure them at once.

To Enamel Bicycles.

The Hawaiian Cycle Company, King street, near Fort, received a large supply of tools, which Mr. Geer, who has charge of the repair department, will use in the treatment of invalid bicycles. The stock is such that everything in the way of bicycle repair work may be done in this establishment. In addition to the large stock of tools, the Hawaiian Cycle Company has imported the only enameling oven in the country, and is prepared to enamel wheels in any shade desired.

FOR VENEZUELA ARBITRATOR.

Baron de Courcel Will Probably Be Chosen.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The name of Baron de Courcel, the eminent French jurist and diplomat, at present French Ambassador to Great Britain, probably will be suggested as the fifth or final arbitrator in the court of arbitration between Great Britain and Venezuela. The treaty of arbitration recently ratified by these two governments provided that the fifth arbitrator should be chosen by the four designated to represent the two countries, and in the event of their inability to agree on a fifth, then King Oscar of Norway and Sweden was to name the final arbitrator.

There appears to be little doubt, however, that the four arbitrators will reach an agreement, and with this end in view, semi-official inquiries have been made as to the availability of Baron de Courcel. His choice would add another notable name to a court which promises to be noted for the personnel of its members, who thus far are Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Brewer, in behalf of Venezuela, and Baron Herschel and Sir Richard Penn Collins, in behalf of Great Britain. The court will meet in Paris in the summer of 1898.

Morning Theme at the Christian Church tomorrow, "The Transforming Power of Christianity." Evening subject, "The Descent of the Holy Spirit." The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the evening service after the sermon.

FURNITURE NEWS
April furniture selling exceeds all months in the year with us. Not that the month makes the price; but our orders in December for April delivery saves us a lot, and you get the benefit. We can sell as cheap in July if there are any left-overs but there are not--often.

We are making new records this month--others may be tempted to copy, but where's the use, our prices are the lowest--everybody acknowledges that. Such values are not to be missed.

Enameled Iron Bedsteads

with full brass trimmings, are among the prettiest novelties introduced in the furniture line. We have a half dozen styles, one prettier than the other. Full width and length, made for wear and comfort. Kings sleep on the $12 style, why not you?

It's only fair to repeat the notice we have had before. We do reupholstering at a trifle above cost of material: this is an odd season and we must keep our factory men busy. It doesn't pay to spend even a little money in making over cheap furniture, but it does pay to reupholster really good frames.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin entertained over a hundred people at their home in Waikiki last night. Progressive euchre was the attraction of the evening. There were 19 tables in all.

After the playing had ceased dancing was indulged in to music by the Quintet Club. A delightful supper was served later. The spacious lanai was prettily decorated for the occasion with palms and ferns in profusion and leis strewn about.

Edwin Paris played a mean trick on his friends yesterday by sliding away for a trip to California on the schooner Alice Cooke. Edwin did not feel very well Thursday evening and Harry Penhallow, a son of the skipper of the Alice Cooke, inveigled him into the idea of going to the coast. He telephoned to E. O. Hall & Son, where he is employed, received their consent and forthwith started to pack his trunk. He got all the musical instruments he could muster and stowed them away in his cabin. When it came time for the Alice Cooke to leave the wharf his lady friends were there and he was bedecked with leis. Edwin will be away about two months. Most of this time will be spent in San Diego.

Those who wish to spend twenty-five cents most profitably will go to the Gleaners' Lawn Party on the lawn of Mr. W. R. Castle's residence, corner of Kinau and Victoria streets this afternoon. The ladies in charge have prepared a good time for the multitude and all that remains to be done is to go forth and taste.

The Government band will play on the grounds from 3 to 5 o'clock, so that there will be another attraction in connection with the lawn party.

Japanese ceremonial tea-serving can be witnessed at the tea booth.

The baby show begins at 4 o'clock. This will be free to all.

Miss Ethel Smith gave an afternoon tea to her friend, Miss Palmer, at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Hobron, Nuuanu avenue, Thursday. The decorations were among the prettiest that have ever been seen at a tea in Honolulu. The Government Band furnished music for the occasion. The guests comprised some 150 young ladies. Hon. Richard J. Sedden, Premier of New Zealand, and Mrs. Sedden, through passengers on the Alameda, together with Mrs. O. W. Ferris, of New York, and Mrs. J. S. McGrew, were present.

The Frawley Company, the first from abroad to play in the Opera House, rebuilt, and which gave so much pleasure to the people of Honolulu, have an engagement to play in San Francisco in June. William Lewers, whose talent as an actor has shown to such good advantage, both in the States and in Honolulu, has been engaged to play with the Frawleys, and will be here in Honolulu when the company returns for another season.

Mrs. Montague-Turner was very much disappointed in being unable to get away for the coast on the Alameda Wednesday on account of the lack of staterooms. She is booked to leave on the China sailing from Honolulu May 4th. It is just possible that Mrs. Turner is going away for good. Her friends in Honolulu will be most sorry to lose her from their midst.

Mrs. Penhallow, who left with her husband on the Alice Cooke yesterday, was laden with flowers by her many friends before the departure of the vessel. While in Honolulu Mrs. Penhallow was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers, Waikiki.

Mrs. H. H. Renjes gave a luncheon to Mrs. Howison and Mrs. Avery, at her home, Nuuanu avenue, Thursday. There were present, besides the guests of honor, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. J. O. Carter, Mrs. A. Fuller and Mrs. E. F. Bishop.

There are rumors of another engagement in society circles soon to be announced. The young lady is an accomplished musician and the young man has aspirations toward the vocation of a sawbones.

Mrs. H. F. Wichman gave a tea and entertainment to about sixty ladies at her home on Kinau street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wichman will give another of these pleasant functions on Tuesday next.

It is understood that another dance at Remond Grove is soon to be arranged for. It will probably take place on one of the coming moonlight nights.

Mrs. George Paris, who has been spending a very pleasant time at her home in San Diego, Cal., will go to Chicago soon. Mrs. Paris will be back here in October.

Mrs. H. F. Wichman will leave for the States on June 2d to be gone about six months on a visit to her people.

Mrs. Howison and Mrs. Avery will be at home to friends at Mrs. W. C. Wilder's Thursday afternoons.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer entertained friends at dinner Wednesday and Friday.

The Misses Kitchen will leave for the States on the Australia. They expect to be gone quite a while on a visit to relations and friends in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Atwater entertained at cards last Friday evening.
