THE SPIRIT OF YULE

JACK FROST'S ABSENCE FAILS TO AFFECT.

The Christmas sentiment abroad. Some compensations of the tropics. Store keepers satisfied.

Despite the lack of the outward and visible signs of Christmas as conventionally laid down in the story books, Honolulu bears upon its face within the past few days evidence of holiday festivity that is pre-eminently that of Christmas tide.

Sprigs of holly, cards with the legends "A Merry Christmas" or "Christmas Gifts," with here and there a Santa Claus or a representation of a snowy Christmas scene, are, aside from the nature of the goods offered for sale, about the only tangible evidences afforded of the "merry season."

But that the Christmas feeling is paramount in the hearts of the people at large, is plain to see. To watch the crowds, young and old, fathers, mothers, husbands, wives, brothers, sisters and sweethearts going on shopping expeditions and returning home with mysterious bundles heaped high in their arms, shows conclusively that it takes more than mere differences of climate to eliminate the feeling of "Xmas" from the citizens of this territory.

It is common to hear on the street, or in the car, some older man remark to his neighbor with reminiscences of the snowy landscape, frosty roads, and roaring fires of his younger days, "This doesn't seem a bit like Christmas does it?" to which his neighbor replies, "No, not a bit. But the seat beside both of them, and their own arms and laps, are filled with parcels that would half way stock a village toy shop if they were unwrapped, while in their inside pockets repose some special Christmas tokens for her who was once their sweetheart now their wife.

All the family have different hours for their shopping. Last night, tonight, the children are mostly left at home. They were brought down last week to see the window displays so that fond parents might see what most caught their vagrant fancy.

Afternoons are devoted by the ladies to purchasing surprises for their husbands, present or future, brothers or fathers and the evenings are made congenial by the couples shopping together on gifts that need no secret buying. Sometimes the folks meet in the late afternoon and go home together when there is a holiday of packages.

Hubby, when wise, bought his gift and smuggled it into the house weeks ago where he has hidden it, as he fondly imagines, safe from his wife's ken, while she, who will affect delighted surprise on Christmas morning, has long ago ferreted it out and replaced it exactly as it was. Oftener hubby leaves it until the last moment and comes home Christmas eve with a guilty look and clumsy attempts to divert his wife's attention from a palpable package in his pocket.

On the streets there are many children wide-eyed at the sights, some clinging to parental hands, others straying in a certain sense of the word, whose pleasure in Christmas and its gifts is mostly confined to the imagination stirred by beholding them through the plate glass windows. Honolulu has but few of these however, homes are scarce where some gift is not forthcoming and something extra provided for the meal. The very climate that makes it seem "not a bit like Christmas" bears to those who look beneath the heart of things a blessing in the absence of those waifs and strays of Northern Christmases, cold, hungry, ragged, freezing and starving to death, to whom the beautiful snow is too often greeted with a shudder and frost is a forerunner of misery. There are compensations in the tropics and, as a tram car was remarked, "There is ice on the sidewalks here in the early morning anyway."

Tonight will be the big night in town. Last night the jewellers, toy and book stores and dry goods emporiums were the most favored. Today comes the turn of the butcher, the grocer and baker and confectioner. There is little complaint among the shop keepers. Stringency lightened many purse strings but the spirit of Yule has loosened them again.

A LADY SAID. When she came into our store that she was surprised to see such an elegant stock of wall paper and after showing her the different designs we had her order, Beat's.

CONSTANT NECESSITY. A bath is in this climate a constant necessity. Taken at the Silent Barber Shop it is also a luxury.

THE LATEST FAD. Evening parties at the "Tea House" on the Heights is the latest fad.

SIGHTS OF KEWALO

HONOLULU'S SUBURB VENICE IN MUD.

A strange spectacle was witnessed this morning in Kewalo. It was a citizen of that happy suburb leaving his happy home to go to work. He held his pants under his arm and his shoes in his hand, and he waded to safety with an equanimity born of experience.

"How goes it?" shouted a passer-by in a buggy.

"O, maktai," said the citizen, who was a white man. "We are used to this."

When the citizen reached the Sanitary laundry building he laid his pants and shoes on a door way. Then he proceeded to wash his legs and feet at a faucet. This done he produced a towel from the back pocket of his pants, and used it on his legs and feet. The pants were then donned, the shoes put on, and the cheerful citizen proudly continued his way, looking with scorn upon other citizens too modest to adopt his methods of getting out of Kewalo.

"Why, there are fish that big in the streets of Kewalo," said one resident this morning, making a sign that indicated about 9 inches. "You can see the children fishing for them with lines. It may be great sport, but we would rather the fish were elsewhere. It may help the mother out if her children can drop a fish line and amuse themselves from the window, but the mothers would just as soon have more to do looking after the children, if they could live in a place less like a Venice with year's accumulations of mud and fish to make the water pleasant."

"I believe there are fish in Kewalo streets," said J. H. Boyd, Superintendent of Public Works, when told of the remarkable happenings in the bright little village. "But I wouldn't advise anyone to eat any of the fish. The fish at the sewer outlet are possibly not dangerous, but those that enjoy life in the thoroughfare of Kewalo must be. I took a drive there this morning."

"My buggy is a very high one, but it almost floated several times. If an ordinary express wagon were driven through the district, water would fill the body of the wagon and it would float. My buggy went into one hole in which I thought for a moment it was going to sink. The horse dragged it out, and I shall never forget the stretch that rose from the stirring depths. It was the limit. If cars hold a worse smell than that was, I hope I shall never encounter it."

The floods of Kewalo are permanent, but the present rain has added to them. People there now are confined to their homes. Some have the water in three or four feet deep in others the depth is less, but the mud is not less objectionable.

Kewalo citizens have made many howls, and this morning they began a new one. As a result, the meeting of the Executive Council this morning was largely devoted to Kewalo, and the district will probably be drained and improved at once.

AN EARLY CAR. A car on the Rapid Transit line will leave Alexander street for Kewalo, Christmas morning at 5 o'clock, for the accommodation of those who wish to attend the early morning service of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's at 5:20 o'clock.

BIG FAMILY SAVED HIM. Ah Leong was before Judge Wilcox this morning to answer to a charge of larceny in the second degree. The defendant had been employed at the Hawaiian Hotel from where it was alleged, he had stolen about 25 cents worth of sugar. It was stated that Leong had a large family to support so, out of consideration for the family, a note pros. was entered.

CHISHOLM ESTATE. The final accounts of the Hawaiian Trust Company as executor of the estate of the late Alex Chisholm have been filed, with a petition for discharge. The accounts show all debts paid and no assets in the hands of the administrator.

Waes Hael! Drink Hael!

Filling both cups and saying in the Saxon fashion, "WAES HAE!, Sir Sluggish Knight!" he snatched his own at a draught.

"DRINK HAE!, Holy Clerk of Copmanhurst!" answered the warrior, and did his best reason in a similar brimmer.

—Jenker, Chapter XVI.

The happy Christmas tide is here,
WAES HAE!
With merriment and goodly cheer,
DRINK HAE!
Gaily sounds the joyous song,
Old and young the strain prolong,
Rich and poor in mingled throng,
As, year by year, the yule tides glide,
In merry vein these words have cried,
WAES HAE!
DRINK HAE!

This chorus of the Saxon's sturdy strain
Reechoes down the eddying stream of time,
His voice resounds o'er continent and main
And mingles with our merry Christmas chime.
List to the bells, dear hallowed bells, that ring
And gently tell their joyous message bright.
List to the bells, list to the old waits sing.
List to the merry round of Christmas night.

The happy Christmas tide is here,
WAES HAE!
With merriment and goodly cheer,
DRINK HAE!

If few bells ring upon Hawaii's shores,
Hawaii's heart rings true to Christmas mirth,
Hawaii loves, she fervently adores
The yearly homage to the Savior's birth.
Dear Christmas tide! when heart strings are released,
Dear Christmas tide! that cheers the world worn brain,
Dear Christmas tide! 'tis not your joyous feast,
'Tis merriment makes me sing, your glad refrain—

The happy Christmas tide is here,
WAES HAE!
With merriment and goodly cheer,
DRINK HAE!
Gaily sounds the joyous song,
Old and young the strain prolong,
Rich and poor in mingled throng,
As, year by year, the yule tides glide,
In merry guise these words have cried,
WAES HAE!
DRINK HAE!

NO POLO TOMORROW OAKS FROM ACORNS

MYRTLE BENEFIT GAME HAS BEEN POSTPONED.

The Grounds are too Wet to Make it Safe to Play The Game—New Years Day.

There will be no polo tomorrow, rain or shine. The low lying nature of the grounds at Kapiolani Park entirely prohibit the game being played in rainy weather and even were the rain to cease, the ground would be too slippery for any degree of either safety, interest or enjoyment. There was some little talk of postponing the match until Saturday but today's rain has caused that idea to be abandoned also, as it takes more than three or four days for the ground to dry up sufficiently.

The field had been changed for tomorrow's match owing to the presence of two big puddles in front of the goals which made scoring a difficult matter. The match has now been definitely put off until New Year's Day when it will be played unless the present rain continues steadily for the next three or four days, which will mean further postponement. The ground at Moanalua is now almost levelled and next season will see a perfect field that will readily drain away and be good to play on the day following a rain storm.

The wet weather, in a minor degree, will interfere with the baseball scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at Makiki between the nine of the visiting Fifteenth Cavalry, champions of the San Francisco Presidio and the police team. If Jupiter and Pluvius shows signs of any respect for the sports of the day the game will be played however at 3 o'clock. The local team has Joy for pitcher and Leslie for catcher.

A COMPLEX PROBLEM SAY HE JOBBED THEM

THE BISHOP ESTATE UNIVERSAL PLAYGROUND.

No Suitable Locations Present Themselves—Question of Cosmopolitan Character of Children a Grave One.

The discussion on the question of a public playground as provided for under the Bishop Estate trust and arranged by C. R. Bishop several years ago, has again come up among the trustees, but seems likely to fall of immediate fruition from the complex problems of location and utility which present themselves in the arrangement of the scheme.

Under the terms of the trust a sum, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars was to be applied for the purposes of a public playground for the benefit of the youth of the community in general with the preferential spirit that is an essential of the trust, that the Hawaiians in particular are to reap to the fullest extent all of the benefits of the proposition.

The particular difficulties that present themselves against the immediate carrying out of the plan are headed by the lack of a central or suitable location. Several localities have been suggested, one being the ground lately filled in by the harbor dredgings on the other side of the Nuuanu stream bridge. This was objected to by J. O. Carter and others as being unsuitable in many ways, both by reason of its lack of centrality and the decidedly stum character of its neighborhood.

It is felt by the trustees that the environs of such a playground would play almost as important a role for the good or evil of the children frequenting it as the ground itself, also that such a playground would prohibit many parents from allowing their children to go there and thus defeat the very purposes for which the ground is designed.

Another suggestion has been made to place the playground at the head of Vineyard street, adjoining the ground leased by the Boys' Brigade for a similar purpose. The available property is not however large enough for practical purposes, and the playground would be subject to the same criticism as the other for its position which would rather help one section than benefit the whole community.

Available ground in the heart of the city or in a central position there is none. Ground selected beyond Diamond Head or in any of the outskirts while perhaps ideal in many respects would necessitate car fares for the children and thus bar many of the class which it is intended to benefit.

The playground was intended, and is intended, not for the children of those who could afford them private pleasures of books and the pleasant solitude and comfort of home life but rather for the children of the laboring classes alone. This idea is made terribly complex by the varied nationalities and their characteristics that go to make up the younger generation of the laboring class of Honolulu.

There are the Hawaiians, the aggressive Portuguese from whose ranks much of the hoodlumism of the city is recruited, the more amenable Chinese and the just as orderly Japanese. Young America would not at present, it is expected, be largely represented.

To control all these elements and make the ground a pleasure unalloyed by juvenile rowdism in all these classes is a problem, the easiest part of the demonstration of which would be the expense of a high fence and the continual maintenance of a guardian on the premises who would have to be possessed of rare tact and discretion to prevent the cinder track, the merry-go-round, the swings and other paraphernalia being entirely monopolized by the more aggressive and rough among the children which would mean the ultimate surrender of the grounds to them by the absence of the other races.

The dominant race it is imagined by the trustees, would prove to be the Portuguese in the end. From a philologist's standpoint the Latin races having outgrown their original civilization of their parent stock and also that of their own particular branch of the world's race have not like either the Hawaiian, Chinese or Japanese a remembrance to look forward to and are in consequence harder to teach, more incorrigible and less amenable to discipline than the other races mentioned. Neither is the motto "Honor thy father and mother" as prevalent among them as it is to the Oriental races as the result of their home training or rather lack of it.

Weighing these two problems of universal utility and location the trustees are reluctantly holding the matter in abeyance, fearing to start a playground that may in a short time be abandoned by the few to the disuse and disension of the many. The trustees are not bound by the terms of the trust as to whether the playground should be presented, intact or whether part of the money should be appropriated to its maintenance for a certain time or perpetually; but they do not wish to create an institution that will not be permanently of benefit to the community at large, the particular classes it was meant to reach in accordance with the general spirit of the trust.

FLYING JORDAN TROUPE WAS DISBANDED.

Mrs. Atlantis Says That Jordan Did Them Out of Their Salaries—She Had Benefit at Yokohama.

According to reports brought here by the America Maru last week, the Flying Jordan troupe disbanded in Vladivostok a couple of months ago. The Jordan family joined forces with a little circus company at that place, while most of the troupe were left high and dry so they claim, to make their way back to their homes as best they could. Mrs. Atlantis, the fire dancer, is authority for this statement, regarding the Jordans as she says she was one of the victims of Jordan. She was returning on the America Maru to San Francisco and when she reached home, something unpleasant about Manager Jordan will probably be told by her.

"The company did fairly well in Japan," she said, "but everything is on a cheap basis there and while the attendance might be big enough, it means only half the amount of money that the same sized house in America would bring. Jordan treated his company shamefully. He got in arrears several thousand dollars for salaries and finally in order to escape paying us, he disbanded the company in Vladivostok. So sorry the Luckies and the American cruiser Brokelyn joined in giving me a big benefit. It was one of the largest benefits ever given in Yokohama. As to Jordan, it is safe to say that he has kept plenty of money out for himself."

I was treated in the kindest way in Yokohama. The boys from the British battleship Goliath and the American cruiser Brokelyn joined in giving me a big benefit. It was one of the largest benefits ever given in Yokohama. As to Jordan, it is safe to say that he has kept plenty of money out for himself."

BURGLARS AT WORK

DR. WOOD'S OFFICE ROBBED OF CASH.

Burglars Broke Through Front Shutters and Secured About $20 in Cash. Believed to be Professionals.

Burglars were abroad in the land last night and made another haul. Dr. C. B. Wood was the victim of that raid. His office on Beretania street was broken open.

Entrance was secured by breaking in the front shutters. Inside, the robbers wasted no time apparently in searching about the suites of offices but went directly to Dr. Wood's desk and forced open the roller top. About $20 in cash was secured.

Apparently the offices of Dr. Day who occupies the same offices with Dr. Wood, were not entered for nothing appears to have been taken from that part of the building. Many valuable instruments might have been secured but that thieves did not bother themselves with that sort of plunder. It is thought from this incident, that the burglars now operating here are professionals from the States, who find the local field quite profitable to "turn a trick." In fact, practically every one of the recent robberies has been characterized by the thieves seeking only cash.

In these practical days a prudent man considers the welfare of his family and himself, is not without some kind of life insurance in a safe and well-managed old-line company. ELELEE

Arriving, Monday, December 23, am. schr. Robert Searles, Pittz, from Honolulu at noon.

REPORT ROUGH WEATHER.
The Nihau, Mikahala, and Ke Au Hou of the Inter-Island fleet. All this morning from Kailua ports. All of the vessels report plenty of rain on Kailua with rough weather along the southern coast. Heavy weather was encountered in crossing the channel.

OLYMPIC MAY SAIL.
The bark Olympic may get away for San Francisco Thursday, with a cargo of sugar.

NEED MOORINGS AT ELELEE.
It is reported by the island captains that the anchorage for sailing vessels at Elelee is becoming unsafe. The moorings have drifted close together and the result is that the sailing vessels can not moor as safely as they should, having to depend on their own anchors. The moorings should be relaid, it is said, for a heavy kama might pile a sailing vessel on the rocks.

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS.
The bark C. D. Bryant, Cally, cleared from San Francisco, December 14 for Honolulu. The steamer American, Morrison, cleared from San Francisco December 14, for New York.

SAN RAFAEL WRECK.
SAN FRANCISCO, December 15.—A diver walked on the deck of the wrecked ferry-boat, San Rafael, yesterday and positively established the location of the sunken vessel. The boat lies in such position and depth that the wreckers are confident she can be raised.

Local Inspectors Boies and Bulger of the United States Steamboat Inspection Service closed their inspection yesterday, and found both Captain McKenzie and Captain Tribble guilty of neglect of rules of the government. Captain McKenzie's license was revoked and Captain Tribble was suspended for thirty days.

GLOBE COMPANY CHANGES.
TACOMA, December 15.—Representatives of the Globe Transportation Company appeared before the Chamber of Commerce yesterday and asked that arrangements be made by which the company will move Tacoma its Puget sound terminus. The company is engaged in the Hawaii-Puget sound trade via San Francisco. A new sailing vessel is now nearly completion at Ballard and four other vessels are to be built. The first one will be launched next month and will have a carrying capacity of 1,400,000 feet of lumber.

WATER GETS UNDER SHED.
It is claimed on the water front that a mistake was made in the recent improvements on the Brewer wharf. In making that section air tight, the board of public works department raised the height of the makai end of the wharf but let the ground under the shed remain the same. The result will be, it is said, that the water will run under the shed and make that place difficult to work in, on account of the mud.

ADA FINALLY MAKES PORT.
After being weatherbound in various Kailua ports and disappearing for a week or so, the schooner Ada made port this morning. The little schooner has caused her owners, Messrs. Roth and Lansing, more worry than they probably ever experienced before. The vessel has been away nearly a month but was not damaged by her experience, the captain being fortunate enough to escape the bad weather by remaining in safe ports.

A GOOD THING.
There's one good thing when they feel dry.
The business men cannot pass by. For far and wide it's same you hear, They stop to drink of "Rainier" beer On draught or in bottle at Criterion.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

To whom does Christmas appeal? Exclusively to the young? Oh No! Jolly old Father Christmas is never represented as young. He is a rubicund old fellow with flowing hair and beard of white hair, and portly paunch with "fat upon lined." He is the leader of the young, he brings gifts to the babe, the school boy and the school girl, but he lightens the hearts of both doddering age and dancing youth. Christmas is for all times of life, and not for any one time in particular. It is the festival of the Christian world, and right merrily it is carried out in many a distant corner of the earth.

Christmas is to the child a season of delight, a vague and glorious time when aspirations and hopes may be satisfied by that all powerful saint, Santa Claus. To the old it is a season of memory sweet as the scent of lavender long closed in some forgotten armoire, and sweeter still in the rejuvenescence of the old feelings in the youthful present. One pities the curmudgeon who scoffs at Christmas, who can see in the merry children nothing but dirty faced lumps, and hear in the hearty laughter, that rises like the sound of silver bells upon the crisp air, only a discordant and disturbing sound. Poor, undisciplined being, what a sad condition of mind to be in. He has been described and he has been satirized, but the race of Scrooges, in spite of the lesson taught by Dickens, is not extinct yet. Thank heaven the race which believes in Christmas lives and multiplies, and is thankful.

Christmas is not the rich man's festival. It is essentially the poor man's festival. The preparation of the Christmas feast in the poorer homes of any city is the great event of the year. It may not be a grand feast, but it is one out of the ordinary, and the hearts of parents and children grow light as they make their eager preparations. How delightful to make those preparations one self, and not have them made for you. Be sure more joy is got out of pudding which every little toddler in the house has stirred, and which mother's clean white hands have shaped, than ever is obtained out of the pudding prepared by the most renowned chef in two continents. The Christmas feast is the family feast, and long may it remain so. There are many mothers who keep their hearts green, and those of their grown up children, through their kindness at Christmas time.

And is it not a beautiful idea that we should have a season which touches our hearts, which instructs the young by example to be generous and kindly, and which opens the callous and world worn to that touch of nature which makes the "whole world kin." The giving of gifts, the mingling of classes, which at other times do not mingle, is one of the happiest of the world's somewhat prosaic history. There are those who would banish gifts, as tending to ostentation of wealth. There is no such thing in the true Christmas present. A simple gift, a book, a bit of silk, a flower, are all that is necessary to show the kindly heart. The Christmas gift consists not in the value, but in the good feeling with which it is given.

Then again there are some who consider our old friend Santa Claus, own brother to Jolly Father Christmas, as really immoral. These stern precisians would do away with the glamour and poetry of Christmas. Happily they have not got the upper hand of the world yet. The world would not be a good world or a happy world, if it lost its Santa Claus and its many beneficent fairies who are clothed in the most beautiful thoughts of the human brain.

John Hendrick Bangs, and you certainly don't expect sentiment from him, touches the spirit of the hour in one of his books. Said the Idiot, a very wise and genial Idiot.

"Let's keep the children believing in Santa Claus, eh?"

"I agree," said Mrs. Idiot. "For the secret is out. You are Santa Claus to them."

"Heaven grant I may always be as much," said the Idiot. "For if a father is Santa Claus, and a boy or a girl believes in Santa Claus as a friend, as a comparison, as something that brings them only sincerity and love and sympathy, then may we feel that Tiny Tim's prayer has been answered, and that God has blessed us all."

Go then and be Santa Claus to your families and if you have none, to your friends, and everyone who reads these lines, will realize, what The Star hopes for and wishes to all.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

DELAYED MAILS.

There have been continued complaints about the mails upon the other islands, and the public has been patient. It was only a few days ago that The Star showed how there had been difficulty in readjusting our system, but that according to the officials every difficulty had been overcome and things were running smoothly. Things however are not running smoothly, far from it, and when mails do not connect, injury is done to business.

From the island of Kauai comes complaint that the local newspapers are sent sometimes regularly, and then none will come for a mail or so, and then a whole batch which has apparently been accumulating in the post office at Honolulu, will suddenly appear. Similar complaints come from other parts of the islands. The local newspapers are very particular in getting up their country editions in time to catch the various inter-island boats. The newspaper mail is put in hours before the steamers leave. Whatever fault there may be lies directly with the post office, and presumably with the post office in Honolulu.

On the mainland the greatest care is exercised over all mail matter, and newspaper mail services as much, if not greater care, than the letter mail. To the mass of country people, the arrival of the newspaper through the regular mail is a matter of importance, it keeps people in touch with the world. Not to receive a paper regularly is a matter of annoyance. To receive a whole batch of papers old and new together is an added annoyance.

And if it annoys subscribers it also affects business. For people who do not receive their paper regularly frequently do not want any paper at all. Thus through some laxity on the part of the post office, the general public is inconvenienced, and the business interests of the press receive injury. It is a matter which should be strictly investigated and explained.

Talking of investigation the management of The Star sent a letter to the postmaster for investigation, some time ago, and has not even yet received any communication as to whether said letter had been received, let alone any explanation as to why mail had gone astray. This is certainly not the kind of investigation which is needed with regard to the constant delay in newspaper mails. It is a subject which must be properly investigated or complaint will have to be made in Washington.

The law against "vags," male and female, should be sternly applied. There is no hesitation about applying the law in any of the large cities of the United States. Hard work has a wonderful effect upon a vagrant. It braces him up, puts his muscles in order and makes him hustle for a living.

It is always pleasant to hear of appreciation. Judge Eastman's generosity to the Waikiki-kai School is a pleasing and a deserved compliment to the teachers who are in charge of the school, and the children whom they instruct and discipline. Such spontaneous appreciation of honest effort is highly satisfactory.

As far as the Government tug is concerned, Superintendent Boyd would be delighted to have her put out of competition with private tugs, but he points out that should not the tug be on hand, and anything should happen to a ship because there was no tug, his department, and through that, the government of the Territory might be made liable. He would like a supreme court decision on the matter, if he could get it before that body.

There seems quite a little struggle in Washington over the third Judgeship, and candidates' chances are now high now low. If Judge Humphreys resigns there will be another pulling and hauling, and more heart burning. As things now stand it does not look as if Delegate Wilcox had the say in the appointments which he ought to have. If this prove true Delegate Wilcox will not be of very much value in other affairs affecting the Territory.

Another Pearl Harbor suit will probably last Judge Estee for some time. By the time the worthy jurist is through with presiding over this litigation, he will have a very intimate knowledge of what different standpoints men take when considering values of land. Of course he has had a large experience before he came here, but it is dollars to doughnuts that he has got more variety of opinions here upon land values, than ever he had in his life.

Attorney General Knox is probably beginning to understand territorial circuit court judges better than he did a few months ago. Judge Noyes of Alaska, who was supported by the Department of Justice against the charges brought against him by the residents within his jurisdiction, is now very likely to have his walking ticket presented to him. It was hard for Attorney General Knox to realize what autocratic behavior distant judges take upon themselves. When a man is separated by many miles of ocean, and more miles of land from his central authority he is apt to cut up foolish capers. The Attorney General is now getting on to the true merits of a good many of similar cases to that of Judge Noyes, and there will be several chops heard.

Marconi claims to have received a wireless message across the Atlantic. That is a fact not only of wonder, but of the highest commercial importance. It does not however help us with our wireless telegraphy which just now appears to be at a standstill. It has never been clearly explained why a system which works so well elsewhere, and which is reported as communicating with ships at sea, at considerable distances from land, should not act with the same precision between islands, that seem ideally placed for carrying on such communication with ease. Before we talk of getting communication between Konahuanui and Mouna Taimapais, we had better have all the islands connected satisfactorily by wireless telegraphy.

All Run Down

No Appetite. Weak. Discouraged.

Warm climates always debilitate the nervous system. The digestion is slow, and the liver becomes sluggish. Impurities in the blood accumulate, and you go about discouraged and depressed. All this may be quickly changed with proper treatment.

Mrs. C. Kennedy, of 25 Eskine St., North Melbourne, Victoria, sends us her photograph and this letter:

"I had lost my appetite, was very weak, and all run down. Nothing did me good, and I was discouraged. I then tried

SANTA CLAUS IS HERE

HE VISITS SEVERAL CHURCHES
LAST NIGHT.

Will Visit Several More This Evening.
Comes in Various Guises But Always in Pleasant Ones.

'Christmas festivities' for Sunday School children especially, were the order yesterday afternoon and evening.
At Central Union church at 4:30 o'clock the Christmas cantata, "Judge Santa Claus" was given under the direction of Mrs. J. T. McDonald. There was an address by Rev. William Morris Kincaid and a real "Santa Claus." Refreshments were served and packages of candy were distributed.

This Christmas at Central Union is the given year when the Sunday school contributions and other money's go to make Christmas "pleasant for the children in far-off lands. Presents and money were sent to the mission on Pleasant Island, in the South Seas; to Joe Castro on the island of Guam; and to several local institutions. One year the Central Union Sunday school receives, and the next they give presents.

St. Clement's Chapel held its Sunday School Christmas tree at 5:30 o'clock yesterday at the Rectory. A splendid Christmas tree was received from Vancouver by the Mission and was placed on the lawn under a large tent. From its boughs Santa Claus produced presents for all the children.

At the Christian church a Christmas party was given to the children of the Sunday School.

This evening the following Christmas tree exercises will be held.

Christmas Eve the Methodist Episcopal Church gives a Christmas tree and concert to the Sunday School at seven o'clock.

At the Chinese Church on upper Fort street, the Mills Institute with its associated Sunday and regular schools hold Christmas gathering.
Miss Horner, principal of Wai-ki-ki school has been busily engaged this morning in buying the gifts which will hang on the children's Christmas tree.
The funds for which $50, were generously provided by Judge Eastman a visiting stranger. Commissioner Wray Taylor presented the fir from the forest that are scattered on the slopes of Tantalus, thus making the tree a "truly" Christmas tree. The distribution of gifts and general jollification will take place on Christmas morning at 10 o'clock at the school rooms opposite the Moama hotel.

DIED AT FOUR SCORE AND TWO.

Mrs. Marie J. Wolter, who died yesterday after an illness of several weeks was the wife of J. Wolter and was born in Germany. Dying at the age of 52 years and 6 months, she leaves a husband and two children, a son and a daughter, Mrs. Marie Hien and E. H.
F. Wolter, besides grandchildren and great grandchildren to the fourth generation. The funeral will take place today at three o'clock from the residence of the deceased in Smith Lane, Fort street. The remains will rest in a vault in Nuuanu cemetery until the return of her son from Germany when they will be transferred to the family vault in Queensland, Australia.

FELL FROM THE ROOF.

Robert Manson, a plumber, fell from the roof of the Kamehameha Girl's School early yesterday afternoon sustaining injuries to which he succumbed within a few minutes of the accident.
Manson was working on the roof and had just told a fellow workman, George Hitchcock, a carpenter, that he was going to get his fire pot. A moment later he evidently slipped and fell to the foot of the three story building, a distance of about forty five feet.

Dr. E. C. Waterhouse, who was summoned, administered a powerful stimulant without effect the man dying in twenty minutes. The death was pronounced entirely accidental by the doctor and the police. The Plumbers Union took charge of the body and arranged for the funeral which will take place from H. H. Williams' funeral parlors today. Manson was a middle aged man who had been here for a little less than a year and was employed by W. J. England, coming here from Vancouver. He was a prominent member of the Journeymen Plumbers' Association.

BOUND FOR MANILA.

Bert Ross, a San Francisco newspaper man, is on the Hancock, bound for Manila, where he will take a position on the American. Ross was on the Evening Report and shortly before his departure from San Francisco worked on the Wasp. He is well known in Manila, having been there previously with the First California regiment.

CHANGES IN BRITISH ANTHEM.

The national anthem is now undergoing revision. Instead of "God Save Our Gracious King," the refrain will be changed to "God Save Our Lord, the King."

REWARD OFFERED.

The Wilder Steamship Company has offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the capture of the robber or robbers who stole the bag of mail from the Kilauea last Friday night or Saturday morning.

SCHLEY'S THANKS.

WASHINGTON, December 16.—Rear Admiral Schley has addressed the following letter to the Associated Press, which he asks to be published:

"WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—To the Associated Press: I beg to express through the medium of the Associated Press my gratitude and heartfelt thanks for the kind words and evidences of interest in my welfare which I have received from all parts of the United States. The magnitude of the correspondence renders it impossible for me to personally acknowledge the same and I therefore take this means of expressing my appreciation to one and all.
Very truly yours,

"WINFIELD SCOTT SCHLEY,
"Rear Admiral, U. S. N."

MORE PROTESTS AGAINST KNOX.

WASHINGTON, December 14.—Additional papers were filed with the Senate Judiciary Committee today by persons who are protesting against the confirmation of Attorney-General Knox.
The papers for the most part are complaints against Mr. Knox that there has been a prosecution of the "trusts"
by the Department of Justice.

FAMINE IN CHINA.

The Christian Herald's representative who is investigating the famine in China writes from Shanfu, province of Shen-si, that the autumn crops will furnish food for a few months, but, because the first successful crop in five years will not be sufficient to last until the next harvest is gathered, and he predicts a repetition of the famine in the coming spring.

He estimates that the deaths from famine in Shen-si province number 2-thousand or 20 per cent of the population.

He adds for 1901 1275 through villages south of the Wei-Ho river and during this time saw hardly 200 people. The whole region is desolated.

Who will do it?

You are going to have your house
Papered, Painted or Decorated.
Who's going to do it?
No one does or can do better work than we. Investigation proves that few do as good.
All we ask for it is a fair price—not high, not low. Either extreme is dangerous.
Any one who gives us work gets the best going at the fairest and squarest

IS YOUR HAIR FALLING?

The cause is a parasite in the hair-follicle eating away the delicate membrane which holds the hair-root in place. The only way to stop falling hair is to destroy the parasite which causes it.
Pacheco's Dandruff Killer does this,
and then feeds the follicles and roots and rebuilds the wasted tissue.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

Paragraphs That Give Condensed News of the Day.

Morgan has a fine parrot to be sold at auction Friday morning.

There will be no issue of the Hawaiian Star tomorrow, Christmas Day.

A treasury school warrant is advertised as lost. Payment has been stopped.

Phong Fat Co., 32 King street has many suitable articles for the holiday trade.

E. C. Macfarlane leaves by the Alameda today for San Francisco, to be married.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Pettus leave by the Alameda this afternoon to make their home on the coast.

Francis Murphy, Temperance Club, No. 1, has adopted a new constitution and set of by-laws.

A. Blom, Progress Block, will sell the balance of his Christmas goods at greatly reduced prices.

The Territorial Band will play at the Transport Hancock this afternoon and afterwards at the Oceanic wharf when the Alameda sails.

The Alameda sails for San Francisco at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Intending passengers are directed to be aboard not later than 4 o'clock.

The Chinese steamer passenger who escaped from the Alameda, when she reached port has been captured and is now aboard the vessel. He may not be permitted to land here by the immigration inspector.

Complaints are made that hoodlums throw rocks and other obstructions on the tracks of the Rapid Transit Company, especially in the Kalihi district.

A meeting of the Honolulu committee for the McKinley monument fund has been called for next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the office of Henry Waterhouse & Co.

Surveyor M. D. Monsarrat has completed a new map of Honolulu which extends eastward much farther than the ones at present in use, taking in Diamond Head and the tracts lying at the back of that promontory, together with a great deal of up to date information and additions to the city and its environs. The maps have been engraved and published and are now on sale at the Hawaiian News Company.

Special arrangements will be made to handle the large crowds who will attend this sale.

Everything offered must go. No room to carry goods over for another year. Everybody should come.

Our Line of Toys Suitable for GIRLS

IS THE LARGEST TO BE

FOUND IN TOWN

Don't Fail to See Our Display. Its Great.

Two—STORES—Two.

WALL, NICHOLS CO., LTD.

Desirable Gifts.

We would again call to your attention our line of TOILET SETS, BRUSHES, COMBS, MIRRORS of every description.

FOR GENTLEMEN.

MILITARY BRUSHES IN CASES by themselves or in combination with a clothes brush, exactly the thing for the bachelor's dressing table, or for the benedict's. Other varieties for gentlemen who prefer the ordinary shape. In EBONOID with solid backs from THREE DOLLARS. Also with sterling silver name and crest plates.

FOR THE LADIES.

Toilet sets of plentiful variety and artistic workmanship.

MIRRORS to complete a set or in combination with COMBS and BRUSHES. In EBONOID with or without sterling silver mounts. In the new metal COSMETON. LIGHT, DURABLE and IMPOSSIBLE TO TARNISH. These sets are most satisfactory. The metal is either oxidized to resemble gun metal, while elaborate designs are engraved upon the back showing the bright metal in relief, or the metal is frosted, with artistic repousse or engraved designs to enhance their beauty.

We have through timely and judicious buying been enabled to offer these goods at from TWENTY TO THIRTY PER CENT BELOW USUAL PRICES and yet retain a fair margin of profit. The goods are in no sense cheap and would grace any toilet table. PRICES FROM $3.00 THE SET.

UTILITY IS AN ESSENTIAL.

To the up-to-date Christmas gift. The time of giving expensive and useless trifles is past. Here is a suggestion that has probably not occurred to you.

WHY NOT SPARKLETS.

Our supply of these outfits comprises many varieties made in designs to suit the garniture of the most elaborate dinner table. The gift would be thoroughly appreciated, and the donor remembered every time the compressed carbonic acid in the little capsules turned a glass of water, milk, lemonade or claret from a flat drink into a nectar fit for the gods, a sparkling, bubbling liquid charged with inspiration and health: AN IDEAL DRAUGHT FOR THE TROPICS—HEALTHFUL AND INVIGORATING.

We have a dual reason in urging these and a selfish one. Buy one for your friend and you will infallibly buy one later for yourself. They are not expensive FROM TWO AND A HALF DOLLARS UP.
