MID-WINTER SUMMER FOR EAGER VISITORS

Many Features Planned for Entertainment of Tourists During Stay Here; Greeting at Hilo Was Hospitable

Honolulu welcomed a new steamer, a new transpacific service and 219 passengers this morning when the crack Hill liner Great Northern moved like the sea-queen and is into berth at Pier 6 at 11:10 o'clock.

It was a welcome not alone by Honolulu folk but by the mid-winter sunshine which makes of Hawaii the Paradise of the Pacific. Early-morning clouds that had wrapped the mountains in heavy fleeces and even sprinkled the city were rolled away and dissolved into mist under the winter sun of the sub-tropics, and it was a brilliantly beautiful morning that bade "aloha" to the travelers over the new route to the Isles of Peace.

Leaving Hilo at 1:30 this morn'g, the speed-queen of the Pacific was off port at 10:30, and half an hour later moved into the harbor, with a picturesque and hospitable greeting accompanying her progress. The welcome that awaited the Great Northern at Hilo was repeated and amplified in Honolulu.

Representing the administrative body and various commercial organizations of the city, a joint committee accompanied by the Hawaiian band and six girls from the Kameha-meha girls' school, left from the foot of Port street in the tug Makana as soon as the Great Northern was sighted to meet the vessel outside the harbor. Following are the names of those on the committee:

Representing the city, Mayor John

C. Launani, Chairman, Ed Towse, George Angus and Arthur F. Wall.
Chamber of Commerce, Raymond
C. Brown and Gerrit P. Wilder.
Commercial Club, J. M. Young and Charles R. Frazier.

Ad Club, J. M. Riggs and J. F. Child.
Only a short stop was made by the big liner, just long enough for the committee to climb aboard, and she then came on into the harbor. The six Hawaiian girls who have the honor of taking the ship to the visitors are Misses Katie Gregory, Rachel Fuss, Abbey Allen, Emmeline Kaina
Edith Oona and Emily Keapo.

Delight shone from the faces of every passenger on the Great Northern as the tug came alongside, the band playing "Aloha Oe," and the reception committee climbed up the gangplank.
All Decked With Leis.

As soon as the lei-girls set foot on deck they at once began distributing leis to passengers, officers and the ship's white-uniformed crew until everyone on board was wearing the distinctive Hawaiian tokens of greeting.

"It's worth coming 2000 miles to get the greeting we have received here," said Mrs. Florence H. Kendall of New York.

Mayor Lane, in behalf of the city of Honolulu, made the opening speech of welcome. He pointed out the various places of interest as the big liner proceeded up the channel.

"We are proud that we are living under the Stars and Stripes," he said, and a rousing cheer went up at his words. "On your right, you see Diamond Head, on the left Pearl City, where the United States is spending millions of dollars to make this port the Gibraltar of the Pacific."

"These millions of dollars are being well spent, and I live in the hope that more will be expended, as the life of these islands depends on adequate protection against invasion."

Offers Key to City.
"I hope you will be one in sounding the keynote of protection and seeing that Congress heeds to the wants of this Territory. Again I extend to you the key to our city."

A. P. Taylor, director of the Promotion Committee, as passenger on the ship, then introduced L. N. Brunswig, personal representative of President Robert N. Bulla of the Los Angeles chamber, whose greeting to Honolulu is printed in another column.

"Your greetings are most heartily appreciated," said Mr. Brunswig. "We accept the keys to your city and will see that they are properly used."

At the conclusion of the speechmaking Mayor Lane held an informal reception and shook hands with the passengers. The band went back to Pier 6, and when the steamer docked was playing "On the Beach at Waikiki" and other music of a distinctively Honolulu character. The pier was crowded with Honoluluans, and the Ad Club

ICE CREAM PEDDLER TO FACE GRAND JURY FOR WIELDING KNIFE

Charged with assault with a knife, Ah Sing, for 28 years a resident of Honolulu and for ten years known all over town as a peddler of ice cream, was committed to the grand jury today by Judge Monsarrat.
C. K. Wong, employed by Hop Sing
Kee in a restaurant on Aala lane, near King street, testified in court that Sing came into his place, ran all the cooks out and stuck one man in the arm with a knife. During the fracas, he said, Sing was burned by a ladle of hot soup, which one of the waiters dashed in his face.
Sing denied the whole story. He said he was beaten by a soldier, treated by Dr. Ayer, and on his way home was arrested for assault.

VISITORS INVITED TO STEAMER ON SUNDAY P. M.

Fred L. Waldron, head of the Honolulu agency of the Great Northern, announced this afternoon that the steamer will be open for public inspection from 3 to 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. The public is cordially invited to visit the liner.

GERMANY'S ATTACHES PERSONA NON GRATA; BOY-ED INVOLVED IN RECENT CONSPIRACY CASE

Naval Captain Connected With Em- bassy Reported To Be Active With Buenz

(Associated Press by Commercial Pacific Cable.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—It is learned this afternoon that Capt. Franz von Papen, military attache, and Capt. Boy-Ed, naval attache with the German embassy, are both persona non grata to the United States government.

Secretary Lansing has requested the immediate recall of both, the request being made to the German ambassador.

This action is the result of a cabinet meeting today, at which the decision was reached that the United States should ask their recall.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—It is understood in official circles here that one of the immediate results of the conviction of Hamburg-American Steamship Company officials of conspiracy to deceive and defraud the United States falls upon Capt. Boy-Ed, the naval attache of the German embassy. A report says that Secretary of State Lansing has informed Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that Capt. Boy-Ed is persona non grata to the United States government, as a result of the connection shown between his activities and those of Dr. Karl Buenz, resident director of the German steamship line, and Buenz's three subordinates.

Dr. Buenz and his subordinates last night were declared guilty by the jury which has heard the evidence of their complicity in the plots to send supplies from American ports to German warships. The naval attache's connection with the conspirators is said to be established.

Allies Firmly Set On More War

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 3.—The speculation as to whether or not a peace movement can be launched now finds the members of the Allied nations unresponsive and the British people firmly bent on waging war until the enemy is beaten.

Despite their reverses in the land campaigns, the Allies are not wavering, declared Bonar Law, secretary for the colonies, in a speech in the House of Commons today which answered recent rumors of peace prospects.

"It is useless to believe that Germany will relinquish Belgium, Serbia, Poland and Alsace until the Teutons are beaten," declared the minister.

It is the feeling here that men and munitions will finally win for the Allies and the advocates of peace are dwindling.

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 3.—Striking quickly from their mobilization camps in and around Odessa, the Russian commanders of the forces just outside the Balkan war arena have launched at Bulgaria a blow in retaliation for the Bulgarian campaign against Serbia.

News reached here today that the Russians have entered Bulgaria, but the route of their invasion is unknown. Nor is there any definite statement as to the number of men in the invading army.
An earlier report asserted that a Russian expedition of 400,000 men had started across Rumania to reach the war front.

Fear Greece Will Join Teutons Soon

PARIS, France, Dec. 3.—Newspaper comment here voices the fear that the diplomatic efforts of the Allies with Greece have failed and that the Teuton complexion of the Greek court is aiding to swing the country over to the side of the Central Empires. A rumor has it that Greece has been offered Monastir, the southern Serbia town on the verge of capture, and the rich Vardar valley from near Strumitza deep into Serbia, in exchange for Greek cooperation against the Allies.

Ford Delegation To Number 125

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—One hundred and twenty-five delegates on Henry Ford's "peace ship" will sail on Saturday for Europe, arriving at Christiania, Norway, their first stop, on December 15.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 3.—Henry Ford last night made his final will, preparatory to sailing for Europe, and arranged his business affairs for an extended absence. He declared today that he will visit England and Germany as a businessman, not as a peace advocate.

PARIS, France, Dec. 3.—The Portuguese cabinet has expressed its sympathy with the Allies and their cause but will adhere to a policy of neutrality.

yesterday southwest of Mitrovica, against isolated Serbian detachments.
More than 1200 Serbians in this section were captured.
"On the Flanders coast, two monitors of the enemy shelled Westende without effect.
"A French outpost near Nieupoit was surprised and several prisoners taken. On its western route a French biplane was forced to land because of the fire of German anti-aircraft guns and the operators, two officers, were captured.

"On the east front, Gen. von Linsingen's army of German troops near Podzarevievez and north of the railroad from Kovel to Sarny attacked a Russian detachment and captured 66 men."

BUCHANAN CASE WILL BE ON AGAIN MONDAY

The second trial of Eugene Buchanan, a corporal in the 25th Infantry, who is charged with second degree murder, will begin in Circuit Judge Ashford's court at 9 o'clock next Monday morning. It is alleged that Buchanan shot and killed his wife, Laura Buchanan, in their home in Kukui street several weeks ago. The first trial resulted in a disagreement by the jury.

A reserved question from Circuit Judge Stuart's court as to whether the demurrer filed by the respondent in the case of Capt. A. F. Cassels against Tax Assessor C. T. Wilder should be sustained, was answered in the affirmative by the supreme court today. The supreme court held that property on a U. S. military reservation owned by individuals is subject to taxation by the territory.

GOVERNOR GETS LAND FOR KOHALA GUARD COMPANY

Governor Pinkham today signed land documents which will provide a reservation for the National Guard in Kohala, Hawaii. The land is in two sections containing 9.6 acres and 2.4 acres respectively.

Brigadier-General Samuel I. Johnson stated today that the land will be used as a rifle range and also for drill practice.

Several other documents were also signed by the governor, as follows: Special homestead agreement—Keohehula Hana, Lot 48, Kailua; Hilo, Kailua; Nuihau, Lots 12 and 13, Wood Valley, Kau, Hawaii; Kailua, Lot 19, Kaimu-Makana, Puna, Hawaii; Francisco Vicente, Lot 21, Kailua, South Hilo, Hawaii.

Transfers—G. M. Hoopli to Emily Hoopli, Lot 18, Oahu, Hawaii; Marumara Putrin to Alexander Banderenko, Lot 15, North Hilo, Hawaii.

Homestead leases—Kaua Ane, Lot 31B, North Kohala; Ulenia Bell, Lot 12A, North Kohala; Victoria Kailua, Lot 30D, North Kohala; Kahookua Pillani, Lots 1 and 1A, Puhala, Waialeale, Oahu.

SILKS AND FINE SILK HOSE GET BURGLAR'S EYE

Thirty dollars worth of silks, silk hose, neckties and other articles of merchandise were taken from the Saegusa M. Shoten, a Japanese store at 1118 Nuuanu street, owned by Dr. Yonekura, by burglars who gained admittance to the place last night through a second-story window.

The roof of a shed in the rear of the store is near enough to the second story window for a man to pull himself from it to the window sill, and traps left in the dust on the shed indicate that this was the means used to gain entrance. Inside the store the burglar evidently took his time, selecting silk articles which pleased his fancy. Several bolts of silk are among the things missing today.

Another burglar is reported to have tried to obtain admittance to the home of Dr. Hasegawa last night, visiting the place three times, the first time at 8 o'clock, the second at 2 in the morning, and the last time about 3:30, when he was frightened away by one of the neighbors who appeared with a gun.

JAPANESE WILL HOLD SECOND MEETING TO TAKE UP PROTECTION

Thirty men were present at the Japanese mass meeting called last night for the purpose of planning to safeguard Japanese from robberies, which they claim have been too frequent of late. Dr. Negoro presided at the meeting, which was held in the Japanese Association Hall.

It was suggested that rewards be offered for the apprehension of burglars, and Japanese residents were urged to take steps to guard themselves against marauders, and to co-operate with the police.

The members present voted to form a committee called the Japanese Protective committee, which will handle all affairs pertaining to police protection. The committee voted to hold a mass meeting next Sunday evening at the Asahi theater to form further plans for police protection.

WITNESS IN SCANDAL OVER CITY JAIL GOES BACK FOR SIX MONTHS

R. C. Wilcox, alias R. C. Wilcott, pleaded guilty to gross cheat this morning in the police court, and was sent to jail for six months. Wilcox forged a check for $10, signing the name of J. J. Brown and passing the paper on Frank Antonio. The charge of forgery originally preferred against him was reduced to gross cheat today.

Wilcox has served a year in jail before. He is married, and had just obtained a position which would have paid him $21 a week when he passed the $10 check. He was one of the principal witnesses in the jail scandal investigation before the grand jury.

MYSTERIOUS AUTO FOUND TO BELONG TO SCHOFIELD MAN

The mysterious Ford machine found by the police on Nuuanu street Wednesday night was traced through several owners and today found to belong to Cpl. Kennedy, 25th Infantry, Schofield Barracks. The machine was at first thought to be the one used by Korean burglars.

It is thought the automobile was stolen by some young men, who went for a joy ride and then left it standing in the street.

In tracing the machine detectives found that W. A. Rathburn of Kahu-lu, in whose name the machine was registered, sold the auto two months ago to the Castner garage, and the garage sold it to Kennedy.

EVANGELIST TO TALK TO WOMEN ABOUT 'DECOYS'

Special Service Will Be Held in Union Church Sunday Afternoon at 2:45 o'clock

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM.

7:30 p. m.—Service in Central Union church. Address by Evangelist Brown on subject "The Old Hitting Post." Special music, with C. P. Curry, soloist, and leading.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM.

10:00 a. m.—Practical talk to Christian people by Evangelist Brown in Central Union church. No special subject has been announced.

7:30 p. m.—Service in Central Union church. Address by Evangelist Brown on subject "King David's Rathens." Special music by augmented choir.

A service exclusively for the women of Honolulu and for girls more than 12 years old will be one of Sunday's features of the Brown-Curry evangelistic campaign which has taken Honolulu by storm. The service will be held in Central Union church at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time Evangelist John E. Brown will speak on the subject "The Devil's Decoys."

All women of Honolulu are cordially invited to attend the service. It will not be the last of its kind, as the evangelist is planning another to be held near the close of the campaign. There will be a special musical program led by C. P. Curry, the soloist.

Evangelist Brown today asked the Star-Bulletin to extend a special invitation to the women generally of Honolulu to attend the service. "Assure them," he said, "that while my message will be for women only, and girls under 12 will be excluded, the message as a whole will be on the highest level. While I will deal with subjects which possibly are not ordinarily dealt with before mixed audiences, yet the subjects will be those in which all thinking women have a right to manifest more or less concern."

"I don't expect all women to agree with my viewpoint in considering these vital issues," Evangelist Brown continued, "but I do ask that which every thinking and honest woman ought to be ready to grant, and that is a careful, earnest hearing."

"Ideal Women." Next.

"Later in the campaign, I expect to deliver a second address to women and girls only, and the subject will be 'The Ideal Woman.'"

The first outside service was held this morning when Evangelist Brown and Soloist Curry visited Mills School in the morning. It is estimated that nearly 400 persons attended the service, including the students of Mills School and the Kawahana Seminary.

"I was told that this morning I spoke to persons of 36 different nationalities or combinations of nationalities," said Mr. Brown in discussing the meeting. "I was really astounded at the readiness with which they accepted my message. The topic was 'The Five Deaths.' One thing was evident to me. That was that the student body was more or less familiar with many of the characteristics of the American speech, of which every term I took in my morning talk, whether toward the ridiculous or an effort to touch something of the sublime, there was never a puzzled or a questioning look in any face I caught."

"They laughed heartily at my anecdotes and showed the deepest concern when I discussed some of the fundamentals of the Christian religion. The experience was unique to me and came as an agreeable surprise as well as a revelation. I realize that back of these conditions there are standing capable spiritual leaders who are directly responsible for what I saw or heard."

Morning Prayer Service.

The usual morning services were held in Central Union church at 10 o'clock, and was well attended. It was a service of prayer, and Evangelist Brown delivered an appropriate sermon.

Rev. Amos A. Ebersole, pastor of Central Union church, and one of those who has been hard at work on the business of the campaign, was stopped on the street this morning by a man who said:

"Say, is that man Brown giving you the hell-fire up there?"

"Not any more than he ought to," replied the minister. "Unless some people in this town do different than they are doing, they are going to have some very unhappy experiences some time."

Three big services will be held in Honolulu on Sunday by the visitors. The first will be the service for women and girls in the afternoon. The next will be a rally for young people in the parish house of Central Union at 6:15 o'clock in the evening, at which time Evangelist Brown will speak on the subject, "The Life That Wins." In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the evangelist will speak in Central Union church on the subject, "Unclean Lips."

A lion that escaped from his cage at Hempstead, L. I., as he was about to be sold at auction, caused a panic among the spectators. It was caught by the owner of the kennels where the lion was kept.

While his accuser and constable waited for him to change his clothes that they might arrest him on a charge of forgery, Monroe Boyce, a farmer living near Matawan, N. J., shot and killed himself.

MORE EVIDENCE CALLED FOR IN 'MUTINY' PROBE

The territorial grand jury yesterday began an investigation of the recent "mutiny" at the Boys' Industrial School at Waialeale which resulted in the escape of 54 boys from the institution. After hearing the testimony of a number of witnesses, the tribunal, according to City Attorney Brown, called for more evidence, and this will be presented at a meeting next Thursday afternoon.

It was learned today that the investigation by the grand jury was brought about largely at the instance of the department of public instruction, which already has begun a probe of the causes of the "mutiny." The names of the ringleaders were furnished to Attorney Brown by the department, according to Supt. Henry W. Kinney.

"It is the older boys who have been causing the trouble at the school right along," Mr. Kinney said today. "They are exercising a bad influence over the smaller boys who, without this influence, might be better subject to discipline."

Attorney Brown said today that several of the guards at the school will be summoned as witnesses before the grand jury. Superintendent Tucker will not be called as a witness, he added. Attorney Brown will endeavor to have the 15 ringleaders indicted on charges of unlawful assembly, according to a statement made by him yesterday.

CHRISTMAS PLAYS AT OPERA HOUSE

One of the Christmas plays to be presented by the "Children's Players" at the Opera House on December 21st and 22nd is called "Christmas Gold." It is the story of fuzzy worms, butterflies, beetles, crickets, spiders and fairies, and of little "Lisbeth" who loves them all.

In the opening dialogue between Katrina Kolp and her husband, Myra-heer Kolp, we learn that their little daughter, "Lisbeth" was spirited away by the fuzzy worms, as she lay on the grass watching her papa make a garden, because they wanted revenge on him for killing all of their brother worms.

It is Christmas eve and Mamma Kolp, presented by Mrs. Arthur Smith, is discovered, with a smile on her lips but tears in her heart, trimming a Christmas tree. Papa Kolp (Mr. Alexander Lindsay) discouraged and heavy-hearted, brings bright red candles and red, red apples for the tree, which is hung with presents for Lisbeth's little friends, Peter, Margo and Jan, the little lame boy.

Finally Mamma Kolp brings out Lisbeth's doll, which her papa had carved for her from a bit of wood. This is hung at the top of the tree, with a silent prayer and a cherished hope that Lisbeth will be returned to them this Christmas eve.

When all is quiet, the fuzzy worms, crickets, beetles and spiders appear to discuss the advisability of returning Lisbeth to her home. Just here, a weird and wonderful dance, arranged and directed by Mr. Corrothers and Miss Cunningham, is introduced, in which all of these tiny creatures take part, the crickets furnishing the music. The fun is interrupted by the appearance of the fairy and her two henchmen, whereupon they hide in cracks and corners until they are swept out again to assist in clearing the room. The spiders, always busy, cover the Christmas tree with a wonderful network of threads.

The good fairy, with the help of her henchmen, brings Lisbeth (little Helen Hitchcock) back from the big cocoon, where she has been sleeping, all of this time, thus lighting up the hearts of Mamma and Papa Kolp.

Instantly the room is flooded with light (the real light that each and everyone of us is seeking).

The spiders' web, spun round and round the Christmas tree, becomes as gold, and in the joy of the house all is gold, true "Christmas Gold" for Mamma and Papa Kolp and their little Lisbeth!—Advertisement.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The Hawaiian band will give a public concert at the Moana hotel, Waikiki, this evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Leahli Chapter, No. 2, Harmony Chapter, No. 4, O. E. S., will hold election of officers tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The meeting of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association has been postponed until Friday of next week.

Mrs. J. B. Reilly of Waikiki has received from her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Ellis of Fresno, Cal., a very large lemon. It is as large as a good-sized sugar-bowl.

Because no program was present a meeting of the Kamehameha Improvement Club, scheduled for last night, has been postponed until Thursday evening, December 16.

A shipment of "sealing-wax palm" seedlings has been received by the Outdoor Circle from Singapore and experiments in planting the trees in Honolulu will be made within a short time.

There will be an important meeting of the Kamehameha Alumni Association at its clubhouse, 1337 Fort street, this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

A meeting of the Outdoor Circle is scheduled to be held tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Lunailo and Victoria streets. The annual meeting will be held on January 7.

Memorial services under the auspices of the local lodge of Elks will be held in the Popular theater, Hotel street, at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning. A splendid program has been prepared for the occasion.

The third excursion of Y. W. C. A. members will be held tomorrow afternoon at which time a visit will be paid to the College of Hawaii. Professors Illington, Rock, Clarke and Chipman will conduct the visitors through the institution.

The employed boys of the Y. M. C. A. will hold another one of their famous ten-cent bean suppers at Cooke Hall on Monday evening. During the evening J. E. Brown, the evangelist, and C. P. Curry, the singer, will entertain the boys with a short talk and vocal selections.

Officers for the coming year will be elected and reports of the present officers will be presented at the annual meeting of the McKinley High School Alumni Association which will be held in the assembly hall of the school, 730 o'clock this evening. Miss Ethel Carter, president, will preside. All members of the association who are in Honolulu are requested to attend.

MORNING ON 'CHANGE

Olaa 6 per cent bonds have reached a new high level for this year and sold this morning at 95. The stock, too, recovered one-eighth from yesterday's temporary decline which swept the whole list after Wednesday's advance. Trading continues fair in quantity, but price fluctuations are uncertain, and within narrow ranges. The list as a whole is said to have reached a high level never before attained in the history of the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange.

MARKET VALUES OF REAL ESTATE MADE AN ISSUE

With a view to ascertaining the market values of the real estate at present owned by the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company, Charles T. Wilder, tax assessor for the first territorial division, was called as a witness for the petitioners today in the trial of the territory's injunction suit against the Rapid Transit.

The territory introduced in evidence the tax returns filed with the tax assessor by the Rapid Transit annually from 1906 to 1915, which showed the amounts at which the company had returned the value of its real property holdings on December 31 of the preceding years.

Wilder was cross-examined by the company's attorneys regarding the method adopted by the tax office in arriving at their assessment values. He testified that all public utility corporations in the territory, which included the Rapid Transit, were assessed under the law as an enterprise for profit and the total assessed value arrived at by the tax assessor took into consideration not only the tangible properties but the element of earnings, market value of stock and bonds. It was claimed by the territory that such a valuation based on an enterprise for profit would not be a sound basis for the market valuation of real estate or any of the other physical assets of the company.

Cross-examination of Mr. Wilder was to be resumed this afternoon.

TASHIRO TO WED HONOLULU GIRL LATE NEXT WEEK

Professor Shiro Tashiro, who has returned to Hawaii to study the relation between sea water and the human blood, has not completed his investigations as yet, but at intervals the Chicago professor has been studying the relation between the human heart and matrimony. The latter investigation has been completed and on Friday evening, December 9, the noted professor will lead Miss Shizuki Kawasaki, a Honolulu girl, to the altar at the Japanese Methodist church, and the chemist was so much impressed with the young Japanese maiden that he shortened his visit to Japan and hurried back to Honolulu. Miss Kawasaki is a daughter of K. Kawasaki, proprietor of the Kawasaki hotel. As soon as Professor Tashiro has completed his investigation of the sea water here the couple will leave for Chicago, where they will make their home. Professor Tashiro is one of the faculty of the University of Chicago.

Hurrah for Arrival of the Great Northern

At last someone has woken up and put on a direct steamer service between Los Angeles and Honolulu. Over 20 years ago I suggested this service to several businessmen over there and they just laughed and gave me a look-over as much as to say: "Oh, yes, he's crazy, but he is harmless," and here I am over here in Honolulu as a witness to the arrival of the Northern.

Oh, well, someone has to think about these things, but it is generally the case that while one person does the thinking and suggesting the other reaps the benefits. N. you who can profit. E. come from the.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1915.

BREAKING NEW SEAS.

The story goes that when James J. Hill was considering the building of two passenger steamers for the Pacific Coast traffic, his associates urged him to decide on vessels of moderate cost and "conservative" type—vessels suitable for carrying large freight cargoes and a medium number of passengers.

They pointed out that the mammoth liners Minnesota and Dakota had been largely "white elephants" (the Dakota, of course, was wrecked and lost years ago) and that he should go slowly in investing money in steamships.

And the story goes on that "Jim" Hill shoved his hands deep down in his pockets and said, "No, boys, I'm going to give the people that travel in our ships the best that money can buy them—the fastest steamers on the Pacific, the fastest in the world, likely, and they're going to know that the Hill interests never do anything cheap."

Part of the product of that conversation (providing it happened—at least, it is characteristic of "Jim" Hill) is evident in Honolulu today in the queenly liner Great Northern. The liner was here last February, welcomed gladly by the people of Honolulu. Even more welcome today is the fastest steamer on the Pacific, for this time she comes not on a special excursion, but on the initial voyage of what is hoped to be a regular service.

"Jim" Hill's Great Northern is anything but a "cheap ship." It is a monument to the empire-builder of the Northwest, from which its name is derived. Therefore it is just the sort of ship which should break the unsailed seas between Los Angeles and Honolulu and open up a new passenger-traffic route.

The Great Northern is now an asset of all Hawaii, and all Hawaii hopes that the venture will justify the faith that "Jim" Hill and Traffic Manager Cal Stone and the Hawaii Promotion Committee have in the ultimate financial wisdom of giving the tourist public a four-and-one-half day service from the coast.

PUNISHING THE "MUTINEERS."

The territorial grand jury is investigating the situation at the Boys' Industrial School, Waialeale, with the view, it is reported, of indicting a dozen or so of the lads implicated in the recent "mutiny."

The Star-Bulletin has no hesitation in saying that the information which the grand jury is likely to obtain regarding the outbreak will not represent the entire conditions at the "reform" school. The jury will probably get the outward facts—the cursing of a teacher, attempts to punish the first mutineers, the sudden uprising, the break of 54 boys for liberty, etc. Also from the school authorities the grand jurors will find out who appear to be the ring-leaders in the mutiny.

It is the facts behind this uprising which are the really significant facts. The "mutiny" is nothing more than the symptom of the disease. It is the climax of years of administration during which the boys have been growing more and more rebellious. Why? Part of the answer to that question was given yesterday in the Star-Bulletin with the publication of a long interview with Principal Tucker. In brief, despite the principal's evident sincerity, hard work and desire to keep the boys straight, his policies are not succeeding. He attempts to maintain discipline and maintains little but fear and resentment. The school is run with outward efficiency, but the boys are not only deeply discontented, but dangerously hostile.

There is such a thing as abuse of the spirit as well as of the body. This paper has no corroborated information that the lads at the school are abused on the body; as a matter of fact, though they are whipped with a heavy strap, it is doubtful if this punishment is excessive. But the abuse of the spirit—and by that is meant constant repression, the lack of individual encouragement and sympathy, and perhaps most of all, the lack of suitable recreation, arousing healthy competition and the instincts of clean sport—this abuse is quite as deleterious to active, restless, growing youngsters as abuse of the body would be.

The Star-Bulletin does not advocate cessation of hard work, and plenty of it, for the lads detained at the reform school. They are sent to the institution very often to correct habits of laziness, lack of concentration on any task, and aversion to mental or physical activity. They should be taught that doing hard work and doing it well is part of a real man's life. No progress is made without labor, much of it humble labor. But along with the labor, if these boys are to emerge better than they entered, must go hope, expectation of something higher, realization that the labor is a means to an end, and that end a more useful citizen. Most of the boys at the reform school are not lacking in intelligence enough to appreciate that.

The grand jury may indict the ring-leaders of the recent "mutiny" but that will neither be a punishment to fit the "crime," nor will it get at the root of the trouble at Waialeale.

CHINA'S DENIAL.

The official denial issued in Peking yesterday that China has been asked to become a member of the Entente group of Powers, or has even considered the possibility of such a step, probably means that Japan does not approve of the scheme. There is very little question that precisely this scheme was proposed by Britain, France and Russia. Rumors have been plentiful that Japan would not join the others in "requesting" China to come into the fold, and of course without Japan's invitation China cannot accept. Japan's reason is probably inextricably involved with her whole China diplomacy. Recent Japanese moves lead to the belief that the statesmen of Tokio would gradually isolate China from the European Powers, which would immensely improve the dominance Japan is already asserting. If China were brought into the Entente Alliance, Tokio could take no step affecting Peking without consulting the other members of the group. But if Japan can gently sever the diplomatic ties which are already tenuous between Peking and London, Paris and Petrograd, then will the wily statesmen of Nippon be able to sway China as they will.

The suggestion of Britain, France and Russia having failed of accomplishment, the diplomatic way out of the little difference of opinion is to "induce" China to declare officially that no such suggestions were ever made.

Whether as a result of wholesale criticism or not, the city road department gives signs of activity on Kalakaua avenue. This morning a gang of laborers was sitting ready to go to work during the day.

Faith moves mountains—and in sending the Great Northern here faith moved Hill.

NEW ZEALAND OFFICER ON NIAGARA HEARS OF FOUR BROTHERS KILLED

There is a New Zealand officer on the Niagara, Maj. F. S. Tyler, who is going home on a furlough from Gallipoli peninsula, but he asked to be excused from talking about war conditions yesterday when the liner was in port here.

"If it's all the same to you, old chap," he said, "I'd rather not talk about it all now. I got a bit of hard news last night and I'm a little upset over it yet."

Inquiry from one of the officers soon explained Major Tyler's modest request. The "bit of hard news" that came Wednesday by wireless told of four brothers lost at the front.

Mr. Mackenzie will leave for the coast next Monday in the Great Northern. Mrs. Mackenzie will follow a few weeks later.

ASHFORD HANDS OUT STIFF PENALTY TO C. MERSEBERG

Charles Merseberg, a young Hawaiian who was indicted by the territorial grand jury on two charges of second degree burglary, pleaded guilty to both charges in Circuit Judge Ashford's court today and was sentenced to serve 18 months at hard labor in Oahu prison in each case. The sentences will run concurrently.

ARMY NOTES

The transport Sheridan, due Sunday, is bringing the 7th Cavalry from Manila and almost all accommodations are taken. Information as to what passengers the boat can take from here to the mainland will probably be secured by the Quartermaster Department tomorrow. No word has come from the Dix, which sailed November 24 from Seattle for Manila with horses and mules for the army in the Philippines. A message from the Dix will probably reach here before the end of the week.

THE BOYS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL SITUATION.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir: I don't want to butt in on this Industrial School rumpus but I cannot fail to be interested because my father was for seventeen years superintendent of the State Reformatory of the state of Maine, and by that means I have some first-hand knowledge of methods of running such an institution.

When my father took charge of the Maine Reformatory School all the boys were kept in one central building, most of them tened bars, and, generally speaking, the prison system of control prevailed. There were cells and shacks, and Oregon boots on the tugs and the runaways.

After years of struggle, the so-called "cottage system" was established, under which the boys were put into cottages in groups of from thirty to forty boys under the direction of a separate master, maroon and teacher. There they had independent home life and were developed entirely on the honor system.

That system, started in the "Farrington cottage," has advanced so that when I visited the school during my recent trip the old central building was found to be utterly changed. The bars are gone, the high prison fences are no more; the old building has been remodeled and is now used only as a central administration building. The boys are all housed and cared for in independent "cottages." I have no doubt that the same system prevails in other states.

But even in the days of the bars and the walls the Maine school had honor rolls and carefully kept systems of merit and demerit.

My father went through the experience of a period of political investigation, wild stories told by the boys of mistreatment, and a special investigating commission. The administration of the school was upheld and the state eventually provided the funds necessary to improve the equipment and make reforms possible.

In reading the reports of the situation at the Industrial School it appears as if the worries of the superintendent have thrown him somewhat off the balance required for good discipline. A man can't maintain discipline by telling his troubles to everyone and complaining about the job he has in hand.

On the other hand the superintendent ought to have a plant and a force to work with that is in keeping with the modern ideas of administration for such schools.

The idea of substituting play for work doesn't sound right, although there ought to be organized play as well as organized work.

I am informed that the work of the Girls' Industrial School has become much more effective in the new quarters where the separation in cottages is possible. That is, handling the inmates in groups rather than mixing the good, bad and indifferent.

The general reputation of the Boys' Industrial School graduates has in days gone by been good. The principal recommendation has been that they know how to work, which is not always true of the graduates from some of our other institutions not under the head of reformatory.

Personal Mention

W. L. BOWERS of the Merchants' Patrol is critically ill at the Queen's Hospital. He was taken there Monday, with symptoms of appendicitis. His condition today was more critical than yesterday.

RICHARD B. BOLTON, clerk in the quartermaster's office in Honolulu, is still confined to the hospital with rheumatism, but is said to be improving rapidly. He will probably be at his desk next week.

GEORGE G. FULLER, assistant cashier of the Bank of Hawaii, has consented to take charge of the prizes and awards for the Carnival. Mr. Fuller will deliver what prizes to offer for the various events and contests, acting with the board of directors of the Carnival.

J. CLUNE, owner of a string of moving-picture theaters in California, the largest of which are in Los Angeles and San Francisco, is a passenger on the Ventura, which arrived today from Sydney. Mr. Clune came ashore immediately after the docking of the boat and is spending the day seeing Honolulu. He has been to Australia on a pleasure trip.

Canada has 1,055 weekly papers and 150 daily newspapers.

Zanzibar has 63,000 acres of land of which 240,000 are cultivated.

A canvass of hospitals and doctors at Vera Cruz, Mex., showed there was no yellow fever in the city.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—PHILIP DANKY: The Women's Outdoor Circle surely worked to make the reception to the Great Northern visitors a success.

—C. F. LOOMIS: "Ask me—I live here" appeared to be the password at the pier this morning when the Great Northern arrived.

—K. KAWAMURA, City Editor Nippon Jiji: The recent attitude of Governor Pinkham on the peace ship has not been well received by many of the Japanese of this city.

—LIEUT. OTIS SADLER: The inter-regiment football games have attracted an unusually large crowd this year, and the type of football played has been of a high class in the recent games.

—ENGINEER WHITEHOUSE: We are going to increase the gang of street cleaners. I am in favor of having them dressed out in white uniforms just as the "white wings" men are in the larger cities of the mainland.

—GEORGE B. CASE: The influx of visitors made a difference in the restaurants this noon. The passengers from the Great Northern all wore the leis and it made a very pleasing picture.

—ARTHUR F. THAYER: The University of Michigan alumni are planning for a big dinner in the future. It will hardly be one to celebrate the victories on the gridiron this year, but then Yale and Pennsylvania alumni are not celebrating, either.

—HARRY MURRAY: We have completed the meter house and garage at the Beretania pumping station, and are at work now on the lawn. We are going to have a nice park there when the grass gets to growing well. This is the "men's park" remember.

—FRED WICHMAN: It is pleasing to note the manner in which the members of the National Guard support the guard football team. We have had a good attendance at the games thus far and the team surely appreciates the support given by the members of the N. G. H.

—CAPT. NORRIS STAYTON: We are very much pleased with the result of the last bowling contest with a mainland team, and we expect to win tonight. Oakland has a strong aggregation of timber splitters, but we will make every effort to win.

—GORDON CAMPBELL: The new dance originated by Maurice, which is called the "Pacific Glide," should become popular in Honolulu. The steps are arranged so that three steps are taken making the trip from San Francisco to Honolulu and then six steps which interprets the trip from Honolulu to the Orient. A full stop is made, which is called the Honolulu Rest.

—W. R. FARRINGTON: I was flabbergasted at the supervisors' meeting last night when my friend Logan, speaking for the beauties of Honolulu, said that our city streets are much cleaner and better kept than those of a New England city where the streets were so lousy that he had to hang on to the picket fence to make his way. My idea is that Honolulu's appearance and condition should be better than the best. I think Dan's idea is the same. But we are not better than the best now, and no good is accomplished by trying to make ourselves think otherwise. The main streets ought at least to be kept free from weeds, as well as from dust and manure.

MID-PACIFIC TO ISSUE SPLENDID SPECIAL NUMBER

In a few days the big special number of the "Mid-Pacific" magazine will be off the press and on the newsstands in beauty and excellence, this illustrated guide book will surpass anything ever published in the territory it is claimed.

Containing as it does hundreds of illustrated pages on Hawaii and the Pacific, it is instructive, but the clearness of its half tones and the beauty of its art section in color are its main features.

Every copy that is sent to the mainland will advertise Hawaii most attractively, and already, according to the publishers, subscriptions are pouring in. It certainly makes an attractive Christmas or New Year's remembrance.

The cost is 50 cents a copy, and all orders should be sent in at once to the Honolulu Star-Bulletin on Alakea street.

STEVENSON IS CHARGED WITH THEFT OF $126

Blames Loose System of Book-keeping; Would Have Stayed Away if Guilty

Frank I. Stevenson, former foreman at the Schuman Carriage Company, will be arraigned in Circuit Judge Ashford's court at 9 o'clock tomorrow on two charges of embezzlement brought against him in indictments returned by the territorial grand jury yesterday afternoon.

The first indictment alleges that Stevenson on last August converted to his own use $75 belonging to the carriage company. It is reported that at the time of the alleged embezzlement Stevenson was acting as a collector for the company. The second indictment alleges that on June 8, this year, he converted to his own use $51.65 of the funds of the company. Stevenson was arrested a few hours after he had returned to Honolulu from Florida, where he went with the National Guard rifle team.

That he had never used a cent of the money of the Schuman Carriage Company, and that a lax system of keeping accounts at the place was the primary cause of a misunderstanding which led to his arrest, was the statement made by Stevenson this morning to a friend, just after he was taken back to jail to stay until a new bond was arranged.

Stevenson claims that he frequently collected sums and turned them into the office of the Schuman Company and later found the money had not been credited to him. He says it is not the custom of the Schuman office to give receipts when money is turned in, and that the system of bookkeeping was so loose that frequently his account showed that he was over instead of short. He also claims that when he first came back to Honolulu there was a larger shortage charged against him than at present, that he proved this sum had been paid in by him and the amount he was charged with embezzling was then reduced about $300.

In speaking of the affair Stevenson has frequently stated that he would never have come back to Honolulu if he had been misappropriating the funds of the Schuman company, as the charges extend over a long period and naturally if there had been embezzlement it would have been discovered. He says he landed here after his trip with the National Guard rifle team in a calm frame of mind and with no idea in the world that he was to be arrested that day.

Stevenson was injured in an auto accident while working for the Schuman company, and his legs are now giving him a great deal of trouble. Today he was barely able to walk, and spent most of his time sitting on a chair in the court of the city jail.

SHE SAYS HE STOLE, HE SAYS SHE SPENT MONEY WHILE DRUNK

Jonah Davis, a Hawaiian cabinet maker, with a place at 809 Richards street, where he makes ukuleles and polishes calabashes, was sent to jail for four months yesterday on complaint of Mrs. Amelia Saunders, a Hawaiian, that he stole $30 from her. Mrs. Saunders went to a friend's house and Jonah was one of a party which drank a good deal of wine. He is said to have extracted the money from her pocket.

Davis said that Mrs. Saunders got drunk, spent all her money and was afraid to tell her husband, so she accused him of stealing it.

BIG INVITATION BALL FRIDAY OF CARNIVAL WEEK

Directors Decide That Opening Night Shall Be Devoted Exclusively to Ad Club Masked Ball

Opening night of the 1916 Carnival has been turned over to the Ad Club without reservation, and will be featured with a big masked ball to be held at the armory, following opening dancing to be held at the Palace grounds, according to a decision just communicated to W. R. Farrington, president of the Ad Club, by J. F. C. Hagena, the Carnival president.

Under the new arrangement Guy H. Butolph, who had been asked to be chairman of the masked ball committee, will take charge, instead of the directors' ball, which will be given Friday night of Carnival week, and will be an invitational and not a subscription affair.

The Carnival decorations committee will decorate the armory for the masked ball, cooperating with the Ad Club and the Carnival will assume the costs of the decorations.

Official information that the Hawaiian Department will sanction the participation of troops on Oahu in the Carnival has been given the board of carnival directors, and as part of the program for the troops an athletic meet and a military tournament are being planned. The tournament will be held Saturday afternoon at Kapiolani park. A request that the navy also take part in the Carnival has been sent to Rear-Admiral Clifford J. Bouch, commander at Pearl Harbor. Marston Campbell, chairman of the pyrotechnic committee, has announced that John A. Young and N. H. Denison will be in charge of the marine events, and Capt. Norris Stayton, U. S. A., will have charge of placing searchlights.

A Japanese director is to be selected by representative Japanese businessmen, and will be placed on the board.

BILL OF MOVIES SHOWING HAWAII

Visitors who arrived in the Great Northern, as well as Honolulu folk, are to have a treat offered them in the form of a motion picture exhibition at the Opera House next Sunday evening.

The films displayed will be typical of Hawaii, and will include some of the finest films secured throughout the islands by R. K. Bonine, the local photographer. The entertainment will be a veritable "Night in Hawaii," and something which should not be missed by those visitors who find that they will not have time to visit the other islands.

Among the scenes to be shown at the Molokai leper settlement, the great crater of Haleakala (House of the Sun), a native lau fishing scenes, military life in Hawaii, Honolulu in Carnival time and other scenes of interest.

Seats are on sale at the Territorial Messenger Service, Union street.

Another barn on the estate of John D. Rockefeller, at Tarrytown, N. Y., was destroyed by fire of unknown origin.

Caroline E. McGrath obtained her divorce from John Joseph McGrath, alleged opium ring leader and fugitive from justice, in Circuit Judge Whitney's court today. She was called to the witness stand and testified that, during the last 60 days, her husband has declined to provide for her support. The decree was issued to take effect today. The divorce summons was returned to circuit court last Wednesday, bearing a signed statement to the effect that it had been served on McGrath in person in San Francisco on October 4. McGrath is wanted by the territorial authorities on a robbery charge.

DANCE AT THE SEASIDE HOTEL

There will be the usual delightful dance at the Seaside Hotel tomorrow evening. The visitors by the Great Northern, the local society folk and the officers of the army and navy with their friends are cordially invited.—Adv.

CANNOT FORECAST WEATHER HERE WITH ONLY ONE STATION

Andrew M. Hamrick, meteorologist of the United States Weather Bureau, stationed in Honolulu, was the principal speaker before members of the Hawaiian Engineering Association at a meeting held in the library building last night.

Mr. Hamrick's address dealt with rain and the causes of rain, and with weather forecasting. He said that the one small station here did not allow accurate forecasting for long periods ahead and that 12 hours was about the limit of time the Weather Bureau could look ahead, and that the chief function of the Weather Bureau here is to gather records and study conditions, not to forecast.

Before the address, William R. Baringer, P. W. Blunt, L. C. Cain, Charles F. Eckart, U. Matsui and E. Q. Smith were elected active members of the association, and R. R. Craik, H. Gooding Field and J. C. Hedemann were elected associate members.

REMODEL M'INERNY BLOCK NEXT APRIL; PUT IN NEW FRONTS

As soon as material which has been ordered from the mainland arrives, the McInerny block at the corner of Merchant and Fort streets is to be completely remodeled. Modern store fronts are to be put in for the space occupied by the McInerny Clothing Store and the Trent Trust Company. The old awnings are to be removed, and the clothing store building will be entirely renovated inside and out.

The improvements on the front will extend from the store of Peacock & Company on Merchant to the Fitzpatrick Cigar store on Fort street. The McInerny store will take the space formerly occupied by Kruger, watchmaker, on Fort street, the partition between this store and the clothing store will be removed and the rear wall will be moved back.

Material for the work is not expected until early in April. The United States is suffering from a dollar bill shortage, according to Treasurer John Burke, who says that the demand for the one dollar bill is so great that the treasury has not been able to meet it. Judgments aggregating $150,000 have been filed at Charlestown, W. Va., against Col. John T. McGraw, democratic national committeeman from West Virginia, and a number of his business associates.

CHILDREN'S FETE TO BE REPEATED IN ALL VARIETY

W. R. Castle Grounds Will Be Scene of Picturesque Carnival

The dressing-room is all ready for the little children who are to entertain the people of Honolulu tomorrow afternoon. The grounds and garden of the W. R. Castle home on Victoria and Kinohiwa streets are in readiness for as great a crowd as may wish to come.

The pageant was very successful when held at the armory. Many who were anxious to come had to remain away, hence the demand for a repetition. The children who are representing the flower and vegetable kingdom are all so well trained in their respective parts that comment is unnecessary.

Frank Dougherty will be the "mega-phone man" and he will announce each section and keep the road of march clear, so that all may see. Nothing but punch and cornucopias will be for sale.

Much amusement has been planned for the children's entertainment. It is safe to say that the grown-ups are going to enjoy the garden party as much as the little folks. Mrs. Bolton has charge of the music.

A clarion call will follow the megaphone announcement. The children will walk single file, except where grouping will be more natural.

The following is the order of march:

1. Piped piper.
2. Small elfins.
3. Rainbow float.
4. Flowers, Anglo-Saxon, with fancy float in center.
5. Butterflies, first section.
6. Peacock.
7. Flowers, Hawaiian.
8. Smaller birds, first section.
9. Flowers, Portuguese.
10. Butterflies, second section.
11. Flowers, Chinese.
12. Butterflies, third section.
13. Vegetables.
14. Birds, second section.
15. Fruit.
16. Animals.

"OO-YI MY CORN-N!" H-M, USE "GETS-IT"

Then You'll Have No Corns to Bump! Your Corns Will Come "Clean Off," Quick!

Did you ever see a corn peel off after you've used "Gets-It" on it? Well, it's a moving picture for your life! And you hardly do a thing to it. Put a little "Gets-It" on; it dries at once. There's nothing to stick. Put shoes and stockings on right over it. No pain, no fuss, 48 hours—corns gone. "Gets-It" never hurts the true flesh, never makes the toes sore. If you have tried almost everything else for corns, you will be much more surprised to see how quickly and easily your corns and calluses will come right off with "Gets-It." Quit limping and wrinking up your face with corn-wrinkles. Try "Gets-It" tonight on that corn, callous, wart or bunion and you'll be glad you read this. "Gets-It" is sold by all druggists, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Honolulu and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Fort and Hotel streets, and Hollister Drug Co.

JAPANESE ON COAST LOOK TO HAWAII FOR FINAL SETTLEMENT

The Japanese-American Club met Wednesday evening at Japanese Y. M. C. A. in their weekly business discussion of plans for good citizenship. Dr. M. Miyakawa was the speaker of the evening and in a short talk urged the young Japanese to work for a better understanding with Americans. He asked that the young men of Hawaii set an example of how the Japanese can become good citizens and stated that California is looking to Hawaii for a settlement of the problem.

Dr. Miyakawa gave a number of his experiences in California when he was legal counsel for the Japanese children who were asked to leave the schools in that state. The speaker said that he had worked hard to settle the question, and was entirely satisfied when the decision was reached that Japanese could attend the public schools. He stated that he was pleased to know that the Japanese of Hawaii are working along the right lines for a better understanding between the two races.

New York's smallest theatre is the Bramhall Playhouse, seating only 225 persons. The stage, however, is large enough for the ordinary play. Fifteen white long term convicts escaped from the convict camp at Sandy Mush, near Asheville, N. C.

"QUALITY INN" OPEN TOMORROW

Handsomely-Fitted Refreshment Parlor Caters to Discriminating Tastes

"Quality Inn" Honolulu's latest evidence of up-to-date business alertness striking out in a new path to meet the favor of men and women of discrimination, will open tomorrow its handsomely-fitted quarters on Hotel street, and will offer at once a refreshment parlor distinctly different from anything else in the city.

Quality Inn is created to satisfy the need for a place where every appointment is artistic and pleasing and where, at the same time, there will be served a dainty luncheon, afternoon tea and refreshments suited to a variety of appetites and always appealing to the busy man or busy woman.

"Quality and Service," the motto of the inn, is carried out in outward aspect as much as in the internal administration. With exceeding care and attention to the finer instincts, the proprietors have planned everything to cater to the discriminating.

A large, airy, cool and well-proportioned room, paneled in a wood whose beauty and appropriateness at once strikes the observer, is the Quality Inn, 82-84 Hotel street. In fact, the beauty of this wood itself is worth a visit. It is southern red gum, and this paneled is said to be the only specimen of this rich, beautifully-grained wood anywhere in Hawaii. It has been imported from California. All around the room, and around the well-equipped soda fountain, are these panels. The tables were made to order and the chairs, which will finally be used, were also made to order, but the chairs selected have not arrived. Nevertheless, very pretty chairs have been secured until the others reach here.

Though delayed by the closing of the Panama canal, which shut off some much-needed equipment, and in getting other articles from manufacturers or retailers, the inn will open as planned, tomorrow morning.

The lighting is indirect, even the chandeliers carrying out the modern plan of indirect illumination. The inn has a seating capacity of 100. The candy counter and soda fountain are two strong features.

Another feature, and one which is bound to make the inn popular at once among the representative women of the city, is the ladies' dressing room and telephone booth, and for the busy woman downtown will be a welcome convenience.

The effect of the whole inn is one of coolness, rest and relaxation, and in its comfortable chairs and around the pretty tables appetites are bound to be stimulated for the toothsome edibles and refreshing ices which will be served. The decoration of the upper walls and ceilings adds to the atmosphere of ease and relaxation. The walls above the paneled are gray and the ceiling is done in ivory the decorative trimmings being restfully simple. The decorative scheme to be seen at its best should be viewed by the indirect illumination at night.

In the fixtures and in the preparation of everything served, emphasis is to be placed on cleanliness through and through. Everything is sanitary. All the water used, for instance, will be filtered. Nothing has been spared to insure that the food and daintily-served shall be clean, sweet and wholesome.

Quality Inn is under the direct management of Robert C. McLean who, by the way, is entitled to active membership in the mythical "Come-Back Club." He was born here, and after 23 years of business elsewhere came to Honolulu last spring. After deciding on these premises as fitting a need for Honolulu, he returned to the mainland this summer and spent months in careful selection of furnishings and equipment.

Emory & Webb are the architect and the Pacific Engineering Company the contractors in doing the work. White Brothers of San Francisco furnished the wood and panels, the Puller Company of San Francisco the mirrors, and E. W. Ellis the show-case and soda fountain. The decoration was done by Ed Wickman. BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-21

Dimond & Company furnished the tableware.

The dispenser in charge is C. G. Bush, a man of wide experience.

Quality Inn will be open from 8 in the morning to 11 at night. The luncheonette, a feature which is expected to prove very popular with mid-day diners, will be served from 12 to 2, and afternoon tea will be served from 2 to 5.

A well-chosen line of candies and refreshments has been secured. Foster & Crear's candies—the famous candies sold at the ferry depot, foot of Market street, San Francisco—will be handled. Rawley's products will be sold here.

This afternoon the finishing touches are being put on this new resort. Tomorrow delf waitresses in neat blue-and-white costumes will be ready to meet the patrons of this up-to-date and attractive lunch and refreshment room.

In Russia there are enough people to purchase Great Britain, Germany and France with a considerable number left over.

Coffee, tea and cocoa were added to the list of products whose sale will be regulated by the German government.

A SUCCESSION OF FINE DAYS ON TRIP NORTH

"A fine trip all the way," was the description Purser Robert S. Acheson of the Oceanic Line steamer Ventura gave of the voyage from Sydney to Honolulu. The Ventura docked this morning at 8:30 o'clock, bringing two passengers, Miss E. W. Watson and Mr. M. Getz, for Honolulu. The liner has 25 first class, 80 second class and 25 steerage passengers for San Francisco.

The Ventura, the purser says, encountered very little rough weather on the trip, the worst part of the voyage being between Sydney and Pago Pago, American Samoa. This was the first call of a northbound Oceanic steamer at Pago Pago for 11 months, and accounts for a day's delay in the arrival of the vessel here. The Ventura took mail at Pago Pago, a disagreement with the postoffice authorities having been settled and a contract signed to take mail to and from the Samoan islands.

The Ventura is filled with freight for San Francisco from Australia, and room had to be made for the consignment here, which consisted of 3700 bunches of bananas, 3200 cases of canned pineapples and 700 bales of hides. The Ventura will sail this afternoon at 5 o'clock from Pier 10.

WILL EXPERIMENT WITH NEW VESSEL IN PINE BUSINESS

To ascertain the best conditions under which pineapples may be shipped from Honolulu to the mainland to meet a steadily growing market, the territorial marketing division will forward about 400 crates of the fresh fruit to its agency in San Francisco on the steamer Great Northern on Monday.

According to Superintendent A. T. Longley, arrangements have been made whereby the fruit will be divided into lots, and each lot will be shipped in refrigeration at different degrees of temperature. If the fruit arrives in San Francisco in good shape under these conditions, the division will know the temperature in which the fruit should be stored for future shipments. In case the experiment proves a success, the division intends to make large shipments of the fresh fruit to the mainland each time the Great Northern leaves here. Superintendent Longley added that in case the experiment is successful, the division will receive every assistance from the Great Northern officials. This assistance has been assured, he said.

The division today received a cablegram from W. A. Anderson, its agent in San Francisco, to the effect that a shipment of Alea-grown pineapples, forwarded from here in the last Wilhelmnia, reached the mainland 100 per cent good. The shipment consisted of 65 cases. On the other hand, 130 cases of Waialeale-grown pineapples, the coast with loss of 33 per cent. It has been found that the Waialeale-grown fruit becomes affected with the black rot while in transit, says Mr. Longley.

From now on, the division will secure the majority of its fresh fruit for shipment from Alea and Waialeale.

TAISO MARU CAPTAIN SENDS HIS ALOHA TO FRIENDS IN HAWAII

Capt. M. Kanno of the Japanese training ship Taiso Maru, who was in Honolulu the latter part of September, has written from Yokohama to friends in Honolulu stating that the voyage across the ocean was successful and that all were well on board. The Taiso Maru arrived in Yokohama on November 3. Capt. Kanno stated in the letter that he was very much impressed with the people of Hawaii, and wanted to thank them for their many courtesies during his stay here.

KANAHILE-NAKAPAHAU—In Honolulu, December 1, 1915, Samuel Kanahile and Mrs. Lakaepa Naka-pahu, Rev. Samuel K. Kamalopili, assistant pastor of the Kaunakapili church, officiating. Witnesses: Mrs. S. K. Kamalopili and Mrs. Rebecca Keawehaku.

Judge Sanford's trial jurors, with the exception of those who served in the first trial of Eugene Buchanan, will be wanted in court at 9 o'clock next Monday morning.

Members of the Rothschild family are fighting in three armies, three in the British, three in the Frankfort branch in the German, and two of the Austrian family with the Austrian army.

On the ground of failure to provide, a suit for divorce was filed in circuit court today by Ne T. Li against Kim Yui Ho. This is the first divorce suit to be filed since the first of the month.

HARBOR NOTES

Among the vessels that are expected to arrive here at any time is the Marion Chilton, bringing oil for the Associated Oil Company.

On account of being unable to pass through the Panama canal, the steamer Camino has sold its coal cargo to the United States government at Colon.

Many passengers are expected on the Matson steamer Matsonia, which will arrive here Tuesday morning. She has 5200 tons of cargo for Honolulu and 1570 for Hilo.

Paint is to be applied to the interior of the custom-house, something which has not been done since the building was first erected. N. Stecher has been given the contract for the job.

A $3000 salvage claim by the port of Portland for rescuing the Peruvian bark Judith and towing her into port has been submitted, but Capt. Bard says it is exorbitant and he will not pay it.

Passenger lists of the Oceanic Steamship Company are printed in gorgeous colors, the central piece of the folder being a purple sea, green shore lines and an orange-gold sky, bearing under it the legend "Sunset Calm, Honolulu."

November was a slack month in regard to the number of vessels arriving here, there being a total of but 41. October brought 51, September 55, August 58, July 53, and June 53. The slight showing for November is caused by the blockade in the Panama Canal.

In the U. S. Coastwise trade the canal route is from 7463 to 8940 miles shorter than the route through the Strait of Magellan, depending on the ports between which the voyages are made. From New York to San Francisco is 5262 miles by the canal, 13,135 by Magellan.

With a wrecking crew and wrecking gear aboard, the steamer Chehalis, in command of Capt. J. Kettleson, sailed recently from San Francisco for Papeete, Tahiti, to salvage the German steamer Walkure, a 2500-ton vessel which was sunk in the harbor of the French port shortly after the war broke out.

Inquiries made by the Pacific-Alaska Navigation Company through the customs department at Victoria, B. C., relative to port charges and regulations, would indicate that the owners of the Admiral Line have under consideration the inclusion of Victoria as a port of call by steamers plying in the coastwise service out of Seattle.

Portland is behind on all off-shore shipments of grain and flour this season, due to the lack of tonnage. The grain docks are piled high with grain, the tracks lined with filled cars and the interior warehouses still full. The season thus far has resulted in an 800,000-bushel shortage in United Kingdom shipments and 550,000 in California. Flour shipments have been light and hardly changed over last year.

Rear Admiral Winslow, commander of the Pacific fleet, reported to the navy department that he had taken aboard his flagship, the San Diego, all the passengers and crew of the steamship Fort Bragg, which went ashore near Point Palmilla, Cal.

Who's Who on the Great Northern

(Compiled by A. P. Taylor, director of the Hawaii Promotion Committee)
The Great Northern made the slogan of "The Honeymoon Isles" a reality, for six honeymoon couples were aboard, and were the center of interest to their fellow-passengers. They came from all parts of the mainland and some of the couples had been married only a few hours before the steamer left Los Angeles.

Among the honeymooners were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mortensen of Ord, Neb., or at least they will make their home there, for they were married in Los Angeles, the bride having been a resident of Lincoln. A particular part of Mr. Mortensen's baggage consisted of 28 golf sticks, which compelled the attention of the entire train crew out of Los Angeles. His favorite trumps in the cardroom was hearts. Mr. Mortensen is assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Ord.

W. G. Metzger and bride hall from Chicago. The bride's emerald earrings were the envy of every other woman on board. They will remain several weeks in the islands. Ray Cole, superintendent of the Dole pineapple plantation on windward Oahu, is returning to the isles with a bride from Massachusetts who will be a charming addition to the smart set of Honolulu.

Bride from Alsace-Lorraine.

From Gold Hill, Nev., comes another bridegroom, Paul Hohnwald, his wife being a native of Alsace-Lorraine, although she left that war-stricken country just before the war. In addressing each other they used the front portion of their name and forget the latter part.

Dr. Woodworth of Chicago is accompanied by a bride, and also by his daughter.

The list of passengers included representatives of many lines of industrial enterprise, and many social leaders in their home towns.

L. N. Brunswig is the special representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and brought messages from President Buile to present to President Waldron of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, and also left a message to the Hilo Board of Trade. Mr. Brunswig is the head of the Brunswig Drug Company of Los Angeles and hopes to be able to lay the foundations for a large commercial interchange between Los Angeles and the Hawaiian islands. He was a classmate of M. d'Anglade, formerly French commissioner at Honolulu.

One Went to Kohala.

Rev. J. J. Corwin of Eureka, Cal., left the vessel at Hilo to go to Kohala, where he will enter upon his Episcopal ministerial duties.

C. M. Lyons, deputy registrar of the La Salle Extension University, Chicago, comes to the islands on a special trip to arrange for the extension of the university's educational work and will personally visit on each of the five islands a large number of persons who have made application for entrance to the courses of study. He will make his headquarters at the Young hotel.

G. A. McDermott, representing D. C. Heger of San Francisco, is making one of his periodical trips to the islands and will spend Christmas in Honolulu. This is his sixth visit to the islands.

Mrs. Mary E. Case of Los Angeles and Mrs. A. W. Faithful of the same city came to the islands together to visit with their sons, the proprietors of the Sweet Shop.

S. F. Clark of Portland is the general purchasing agent of the Great Northern Steamship Company and the North Bank railway system.

Dr. Nathaniel P. Green of Glendale, Cal., a wealthy physician of the fruit belt of the Golden State, is making a return trip. Dr. Green was so anxious to be the first member on board of the "Come Back Club" that he was the first one to don a dinner suit.

Dr. C. H. Head, a prominent physician of Helena, Montana, accompanied by his wife, makes the trip to the islands to get away from the approaching blizzard weather of his state. They expect to return on the Great Northern, but may decide to remain in the sunshine for many weeks.

Fred Blumford may leave in Honolulu. He has been in Nevada, and is supposed to be another addition to Internal Revenue Collector Haley's Nevada delegation. He is a well-known ballad singer.

Woman Mine Owner.

Mrs. Florence Kendall of New York, a wealthy owner of mines in Montana and other western states, may remain several weeks.

A. W. Sawyer, a wealthy resident of Pasadena, is accompanied by his wife, Arthur Blum, a cotton broker of New York, is making a pleasure trip.

H. D. Welsey, who is the oldest man on board and hails from Walla Walla, is a retired mining man who has roamed all over the West in pursuit of mining riches and has found them. Although the oldest man, he was as young as the youngest in the deck sports.

Hugh Mackenzie is making the trip as the representative of the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company, and as the personal representative of Traffic Manager C. F. Stone. Mr. Mackenzie, while a young man, is regarded as an authority on steamship and railroad tariff rules. Of pleasing personality, Mr. Mackenzie did everything possible to make the trip a success and the passengers comfortable.

Mrs. A. Uhl, a wealthy resident of Piedmont, Cal., and owner of the Uhl paper establishment of San Francisco, is making her first trip, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Constance Uhl.

The latter returns soon to attend school, but Mrs. Uhl plans to remain several weeks.

C. H. Campbell is a corporation lawyer of Detroit, Mich.

Lionel Walden, the artist, is returning to Honolulu after a long absence. He has several commissions to execute. Mr. Walden is a member of the Legion of Honor of France.

J. W. Sells of St. Louis and wife will remain several weeks. The Sells have spent many winters in the Caribbean Sea, but decided that a pleasant change would be in the Pacific this year. Mr. Sells is a pianist and gave the passengers many pleasant hours in the music room, particularly with his improvisations. He controls a wholesale ice cream property in St. Louis.

R. H. Reyk is in the cotton business and hails from Berkeley. F. T. Caughey is in the seed and grain business in Detroit, Mich. Miss Marie Sloope of Davis City, Neb., will remain three months in Honolulu, visiting with friends.

Col. John R. Wiggins, a builder of Philadelphia, is accompanied by his wife and will remain until the December 26 Great Northern. Frank J. Kelley, president of the Star Wall Paper Mills of Joliet, Ill., is aboard. F. E. Mackentepe is an attorney of Cincinnati. John E. Schreffer is a rancher at Sycamore, Cal., where he has 2400 acres of grain and stock land.

Mr. and Mrs. Seel of San Francisco may remain about three months on business. He is the representative of the Studebaker corporation of America at San Francisco. C. P. Dorland, a retired attorney of Pasadena, accompanied by Mrs. Dorland, will remain over one boat.

Mrs. Ella M. Kay, Watseka, Ill., is en route to the Philippines and will sail on the Logan about December 13. E. P. Kennedy of Boston operates 65 retail tea and coffee stores on the mainland. J. Heynes and F. Albers are from Holland.

Miss J. M. Lightfoot of Muskogee, Okla., and Miss B. A. Reynolds from Los Angeles are making the round trip. Miss Fenton and Miss Harris of Kansas City, Mo., had no intention of making the trip, but an hour before the vessel sailed from San Francisco they wired their families for money for a trip but did not state they were going out into the mid-Pacific region. The connections between the receipt of the money and getting aboard were so close that they almost had to be pulled aboard through a port. As their mothers did not know their whereabouts, they were known aboard as "The Runaway Girls," and among the most popular.

T. A. Winter of Pasadena is president of the Richfield Oil Co., and is accompanied by Mrs. Winter. Rev. M. G. Howard and wife are from Sitka, Alaska, accompanied by Mrs. DeGroot and Mrs. Vanderbilt. Mrs. Margaret Richley, wife of Architect Richley, is returning home to Honolulu.

John E. Nolan, a member of the detective force of San Francisco, will take a prisoner back to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burr of Philadelphia are making a pleasure trip. Left Boat at Hilo.

Mrs. A. C. Thomas, wife of a well-known Hiloite, left the vessel at the Big Island port. Mrs. C. N. Hamilton, Miss Hamilton, Miss Dunlap, of Long Beach, California, are making a pleasure trip. Roy Winber, a Portland real estate merchant, and wife will remain in Honolulu until January 15. H. T. Barr of Seattle comes to take charge of the credit department of the von Hamm Young Company. Captain Ramwell of Everett, Wash., is president of the American Towboat Company and American Packing Company, and is making a pleasure trip accompanied by his wife.

H. T. Whitney is a train man of Portland. J. A. Workman is also a train man from the same city. G. W. Stinson, accompanied by his wife and daughter, is a banker of Pasadena, on a health and pleasure trip. E. H. Chambers, a real estate man of Columbus, Nebraska, is accompanied by his wife, and in the same party are also Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Splice. Mr. Splice is a competitor of Mr. Chambers in business, and both decided to take the trip together, to keep their business "fifty-fifty."

Going on to Guam.

Mrs. Marjorie Tiller, Omaha, Nebraska, whose husband is in the navy, will meet her husband when the Logan arrives from the coast and they will go to Guam, where Mr. Tiller is to be stationed. Later they will go to Japan. Miss Pearl Letellier, Los Angeles, is on a six months' pleasure trip. Miss Mary Mayfield, Waco, Texas, may remain six or seven months.

Mrs. McGowan and daughter, Miss Leonore McGowan, of McGowan, Wash., on the Columbia river opposite Astoria, where the McGowan Canneries are located, will remain in the islands for several months. They will visit with Captain and Mrs. Philster of Fort Ruger.

Miss Mabel Miller of Kansas City is making a two weeks' visit to the islands, accompanied by Miss Caroline Fenton. They will visit with Miss Jessie Benedict.

Mrs. George L. Rogers and Miss Lucille Rogers, Gardiner, Maine, will remain at the Moana Hotel for a few weeks.

Miss E. Wofford of Portland, Oregon, will remain in Honolulu about a month. Miss J. H. Churchill of Boston will remain all winter at the Pleasant hotel.

Mrs. C. V. Sturtevant, wife of the agent of Fred L. Waldron & Company in San Francisco is returning home on a visit. Miss Lyle, who has been attending the Berkeley High School, is returning home for the winter holidays.

S. T. Carr of the Hawaiian Electric Company is returning home after a month's visit at the exposition. Returning Honoluluans.

Among the islanders returning were Mrs. I. M. Stainback, wife of the attorney-general. She has spent the past six months on the mainland. C. P. Morse, general agent of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, who has visited the New York office of the company, and made the trip to the Atlantic via the canal; Frank Alexander of the McBryde plantation, Kawai, accompanied by Mrs. Alexander, and L. H. Beadle of the Trent Company, who made a quick business trip to San Francisco. Mr. Beadle was prominent in the deck sports and was the "bride" at the mock marriage on board.

W. E. Devereaux, accompanied by his wife and three children, is returning to the islands from a visit of several months on the coast. Mrs. C. R. Frazier is returning from two months' absence on the coast. R. W. Filler, superintendent of the Hilo Railroad Company, was invaluable on board in giving direct information about transportation on the Big Island. His set of beautiful views of Hawaii resulted in a large party making the Hanaui rail trip.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGSCleanses the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quick

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels; no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—adv.

was there with banners of welcome appropriately inscribed.

Fine work directing the tourists to places of interest, and giving information, was done by 100 members of the Ad Club, working in 10 teams of 10 men each.

Each man wore a yellow ribbon bearing the words "Ask Me, I Live Here." The teams were all on Pier 6 and as the Great Northern neared the dock, they assembled and on a club yell, sang their songs, and flourished their banners of welcome.

One of the teams was a Y. M. C. A. team, each member wearing a hat-band ribbon with the letters "Y. M. C. A." printed on it. President W. R. Farrington of the club met the first passenger down the gangplank, and the other team members greeted the rest.

Harry L. Strange was chairman of the Ad Club's committee, and the captains included W. R. Farrington, A. E. Larimer, Ed Towse, C. B. Gage, J. D. Levenson, Tom Sharp, J. M. Riggs, Charles R. Frazier and J. F. Child.

Jonah Drawn Into Sea.

Several unusual features accented the Great Northern's initial voyage, according to passengers on the Hill liner. To make sure that the initial voyage would have no hiccups, the ship's crew constructed an effigy of Jonah, and when the liner started from San Pedro, hurled him overboard, bag and baggage. Result, a perfect trip.

On the way down to San Pedro the Great Northern raced and beat the crack coastwise steamer Yale, the swiftest boat until the Great Northern started, on the San Francisco-Los Angeles run. The Hill liner, with her 24 knots, beat the Yale into San Pedro by several hours. The latter boat makes the trip in 18 hours.

Six bridal couples were on board the steamer as well. They were the life of the ship, particularly Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Cole of Hecla. A rousing send-off was given the boat in San Francisco, Pathe Weekly cameramen being present, photographing the departure. Had to Slow Down.

The run from San Pedro to Hilo was made in exactly four days and 12 hours. The first day the Great Northern made 462 miles, the second 502, and then Capt. Ahman had to slow down because he was getting ahead of his schedule.

The Great Northern sailed from Hilo at 1:30 o'clock this morning, an hour and a half beyond sailing time, because passengers returning from the volcano were delayed by motor car trouble. She passed Diamond Head at exactly 10:30 o'clock, and was allowed to enter without the usual medical examination of passengers, this having been given at Hilo.

The Great Northern brought a total of 219 passengers here, 149 first class, 53 second and 17 third. She unloaded 183 sacks of mail, including 10 tons of parcel-post matter. Freight for Honolulu was 630 tons. The ship's entire ice-house capacity has been engaged by coast meat packers to ship beef from San Francisco and San Pedro to Honolulu. Returning, the ice-house space will be filled with fresh fruit.

No Gangplank There.

When the Great Northern was about a day from Hilo, Capt. A. Ahman was informed by wireless that there was no gangplank available at the new Kihuna wharf.

"Make one," he radioed in return. A temporary structure was hastily thrown together, and it worked finely, although the swell caused the ship to heave away from the wharf every few seconds. The gangplank moved with the ship, so that everyone got ashore quickly.

Although it was widely heralded, the Los Angeles Examiner's excursion de luxe failed to materialize, and the number of passengers from that city when the Great Northern docked today was small, none of them coming under the Examiner's guidance.

"The Examiner's excursion was given up," was the statement of A. P. Taylor yesterday at Hilo. Mr. Taylor boarded the ship at Los Angeles harbor (San Pedro).

HILO IS HOST TO OFFICERS OF BIG LINER

Banquet Given Last Night at Seaside Club By Big Island Board of Trade

Marking the establishment of a permanent era of good feeling between the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company, the Hilo Board of Trade, and the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and Promotion Committee, a banquet was held last night at the Seaside Club at Hilo, given by the Hilo Board of Trade in honor of the captain and officers of the Great Northern, which made its first call there yesterday morning.

Because he had to be on duty all night, Capt. A. Ahman felt he could not attend, but he sent to represent him Purser John S. Ford. Dr. H. B. Elliot was toastmaster, and in his opening address struck the keynote of the occasion—good will between the people of the Hawaiian Islands and the Great Northern.

Carl S. Carlsmith made an informal talk along the same line, which was responded to in an effective manner by Purser J. S. Ford in behalf of the officers present, including Chief Engineer J. B. Morris, Surgeon J. R. McAdory and others.

On behalf of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, L. N. Brunswig, head of the Brunswick Drug Company, one of the largest wholesale drug firms in the Pacific southwest, said he hoped the Great Northern's regular visits to Hilo and Honolulu will result not only in improving trade and commercial conditions between Los Angeles and the islands, but will result in a better understanding and appreciation of the people of Hawaii and those on the mainland.

Speaking as a Honolulu, A. P. Taylor, director of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, welcomed the Great Northern to Honolulu, and stated that the giant liner's triangular trips to Hilo and Honolulu will be of value in every way.

LOS ANGELES TO GO AFTER SHARE OF ISLAND TRADE

L. N. Brunswig Says His City Now Has Necessary Transportation in Hill Liner

Predicting a substantial increase in the amount of business done between the Hawaiian Islands and Los Angeles as a direct result of the Great Northern, L. N. Brunswig, president of the Brunswick Drug Company, member of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and acting as the personal representative of President Robert Bulla of the Los Angeles chamber in extending that body's good wishes to Honolulu, this morning gave aloha to the islands.

"We feel that with the advent of the Great Northern here, what we have been seeking for years has been attained," said Mr. Brunswig. "While I am a pioneer in this movement to develop larger business relations between Los Angeles and the Hawaiian Islands, I am sure that my report on conditions here will influence Los Angeles wholesalers and manufacturers, to follow in my footsteps."

"Los Angeles manufacturers have heretofore been unable to compete with San Francisco in securing a share of island trade, because there has been no direct line between Los Angeles and Honolulu. Now that the Great Northern is making regular trips on the triangular run, we are possessed of adequate transportation facilities to the islands—something we did not have before and which put us out of the running when it came to competing with San Francisco."

Concerning the Great Northern, Mr. Brunswig declared he has made 28 ocean voyages and that none of them was as enjoyable as this. "I never saw a more pleasant lot of officers, or more effort put forth to please passengers and make the voyage pleasant," he said. "The trip was a constant joy."

Mr. Brunswig is head of the French Red Cross for the Pacific coast and stated that he intends to endeavor to organize a Honolulu branch of the order, among those in sympathy with France and the Allies.

HOLD ALL DAY SALE OF FANCY WORK ON LANAI OF HAWAIIAN HOTEL

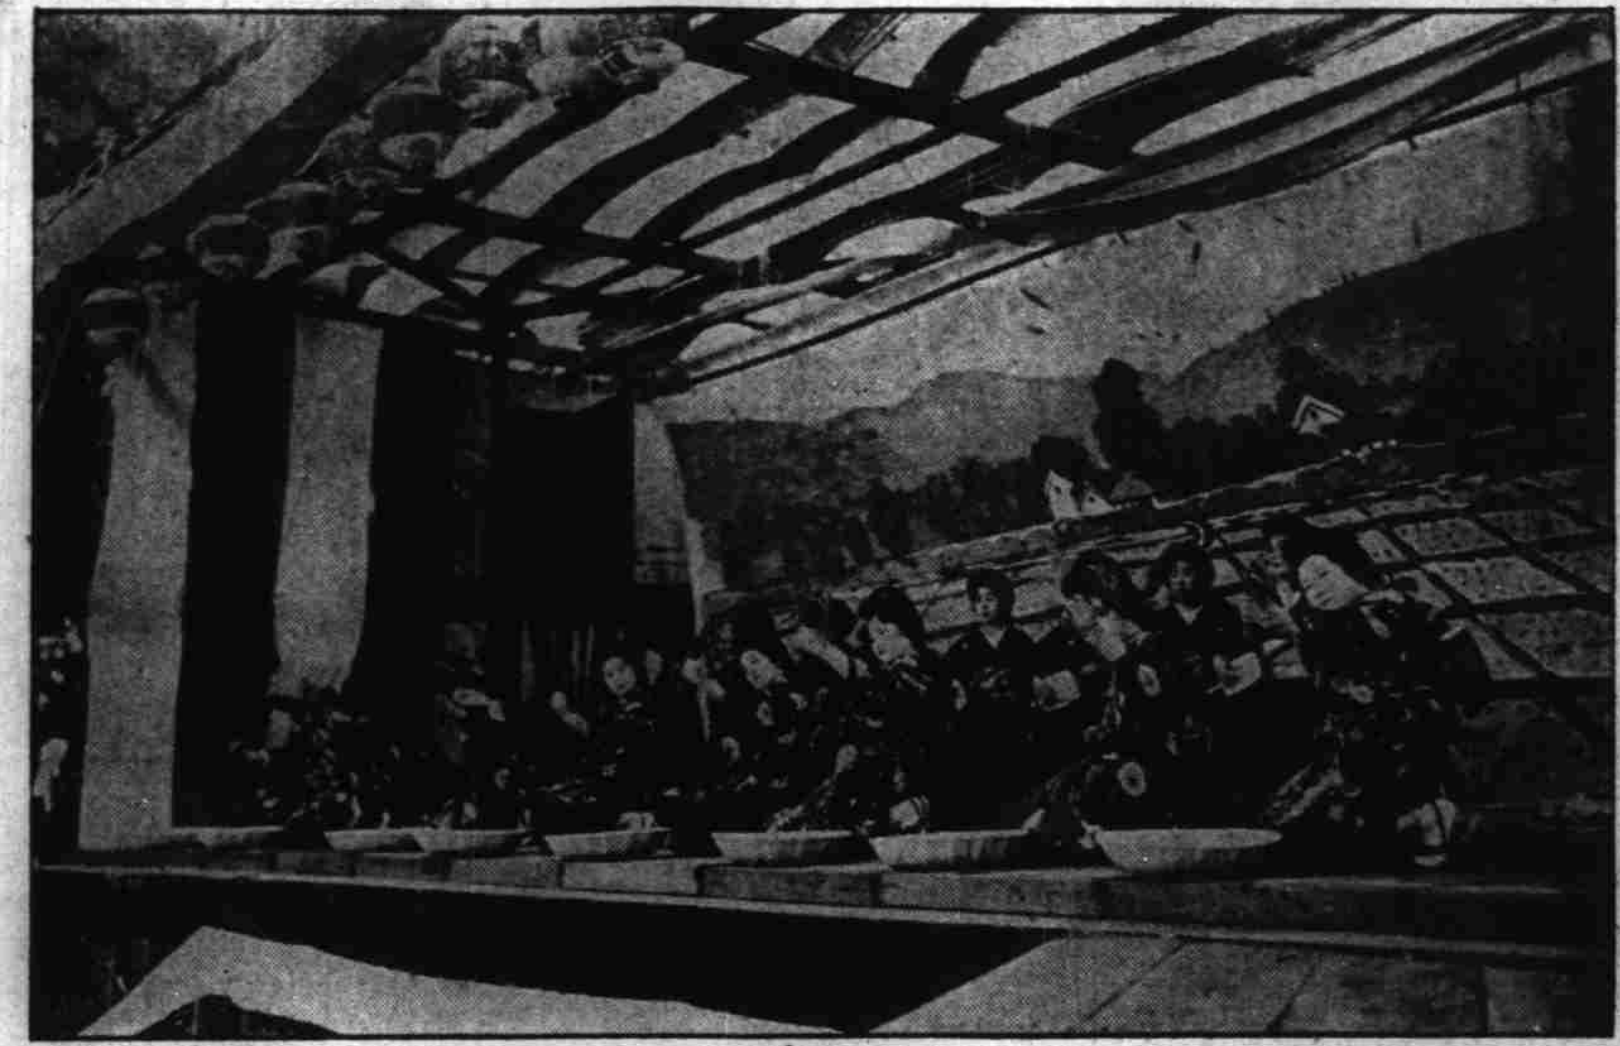

The annual sale of fancy work by the Golden Circle Sewing Club will be held tomorrow on the lanai of the Royal Hawaiian hotel. A novel feature will be the arrangement of the booths which will be alphabetically arranged. The letter displayed over the booth will be the initial letter of the article sold in that booth.

Those in charge of the various booths will be: Mrs. W. R. Riley, Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. MacLean, Mrs. Anna Wright, Mrs. K. B. Porter, Mrs. C. F. Merrill, Mrs. Clarence Crabbe, Mrs. H. H. Williams, Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. Crockett, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. A. Pratt, Mrs. Wilkins.

There will be a luncheon served at noon consisting of salads, baked beans, sandwiches, tea, etc. The sale will continue all day Saturday.

Cardinal Mercier of Belgium will visit the Vatican to confer with Pope Benedict.

Thirty-six of Honolulu's Geishas To Be Seen In Dances of Old Japan

View of one of the most successful Geisha dances given at Consul Arita's during the coronation festivities, which will be repeated this evening.

On the stage of the Opera House this evening—that same stage where great concert singers have stood, where society and problem plays have been acted and where grand operas have been presented—there will be shown this evening a unique spectacle when a faithful reproduction of a bit of old Japan at festival time will be staged, and Honolulu's 36 prettiest Geishas will dance.

Instead of "conventional interiors," dungeon scenes, vistas of business streets or "rural drops," the setting will be a Japanese landscape with rice fields in the foreground, and, of course, Fujiyama in the distance. For one of the features the setting will be embowered with cherry blossoms, for another chrysanthemums and red maple leaves will predominate, while the slender Geishas, clad in graceful silken kimonos, will dance and sing the songs of Japan to the accompaniment of samisens and tsumuzis.

The Japanese show is being put on by the Japanese coronation committee. The dances, with a few exceptions, will be the same as those presented at the Japanese consulate here November 14, and all of the proceeds will go to making up the balance needed for the purchase of the $800 fountain which the Japanese of Hawaii are giving to Honolulu in commemoration of Yoshihito's coronation last month.

PROMOTION WORK GETS RESULT IN GREAT NORTHERN

Chairman Berndt Says "Dream of Hawaii and Los Angeles is Realized"

By EMIL A. BERNDT, Chairman Hawaii Promotion Committee

With the arrival of the "Great Northern" today there has been realized the dream long cherished by Hawaii and Los Angeles to bring into closer contact the two big tourist centers of the western world. The "triangular" route, for which great claims have been made, is today an actual certainty.

It is hard to follow the sudden culmination of events which led to the inauguration of this much desired service and to have the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company lead off in it was not in evidence six months ago. The promotion committee and the entire community are jubilant over this great event and extend to the Hill liner their best wishes for continued success in the Hawaiian field.

The Promotion Committee feels highly elated over its successful efforts in bringing this palatial liner here. It means before long another such vessel or even a larger and faster one with local requirements given particular study. Just think of going to the coast in 4½ days—would that not enthrall anybody and infect him with the "Wanderlust?"

Through the affiliated Hill steamship and railroad lines Hawaii is tapping a rich field hitherto untouched which will bring very noticeable results. Some 168 agents scattered throughout the mainland of the United States representing these interests are now working for us and one can easily see that our benefit must be substantial. Besides, this new liner, the "Queen of the Pacific," brings us directly to the door of Los Angeles, the biggest single tourist mecca of the western coast, a field we have always wanted to work.

We can safely say that the entry of the Great Northern into the Hawaiian passenger service is one of the greatest, if not the greatest, boons of recent years. It is the driving of the first nail for a bigger Honolulu as a tourist center.

Hawaii appreciates the honor now afforded it to travel on the biggest palatial greyhound of the Pacific and promises to do its share to make the venture the big success it deserves to be.

ALOHA! GREAT NORTHERN.

The program as announced will consist of four feature dances and the coronation moving pictures may be another feature of the evening program. One of the Japanese theaters has received the official coronation film from Klotz, and the committee is making an effort to have this film for this evening. The picture shows Geisha girls dancing in the streets of Klotz and many other features of the coronation period.

The first dance to be given will be the production of the "Klotz Meisha" or Klotz Beauty. In this dance the 36 Geishas will portray the beauties of the ancient capital. They will dance the dance step symbolical of the temples and the mountains, and the fans used in the production will form a picture of many of the interesting spots in the Japanese city. This dance will last half an hour.

The second dance will be the "Honolulu Meisha" or Honolulu Beauty. This is one of the prettiest of all dances and all of the beauties of this city are interpreted in the dance. The waving of fans depicts the breakers at Waikiki. The Pali and Nuuanu valley are described in the dance, and each interpretation is brought out clearly to the audience.

OLD-TIME FEAST FOR VISITORS AT CORAL GARDENS

When the passengers on the steamship Great Northern take part in the special luau and hula at the Coral Gardens tomorrow they will be introduced to an entirely new menu of eatables, all of it cooked in the ancient Hawaiian style in "imu" and out of doors. There will be a fine orchestra of Hawaiian singing boys and dancers in costume to the weird music of a mele player, but the luau itself will be the center of interest. A. L. MacKay has arranged that during the feast an entire pig will be taken from the imu to show the guests the method of cooking by hot stones under the ground.

The bill of fare as prepared for the guests at the luau is as follows: Puaa laulau (pig cut up and cooked in ti leaves among hot stones), Puaa kalua pua (a whole pig cooked underground surrounded by and filled with hot stones), Moa me ka niu (chicken cooked in the milk of coconuts), Hee me ka niu (squid cooked in the same way), I'a laulau (fish cooked in ti leaves), Ophi (a shellfish found on the rocks, where the heavy surf breaks), Limu (edible seaweed), Kukui lua mona me ka niol (a relish formed of kukui nuts and chili peppers), Uwala Hawaii (sweet potatoes Hawaiian style), Kulolo (a species of pudding made from taro and coconut), Na'u pia (a starch and coconut pudding with special flavoring), Koele palau (a dish made from mashed sweet potatoes and coconut), Po'a mai'a me ka pia (a pudding of bananas and starch with a coconut flavor), Ma'i'a kolua (bananas cooked underground and steamed), also fresh grated coconut served in the coconut shell.

Two of these special puddings were prepared yesterday and then placed over the fire. They will cook for nearly two days and be ready to serve at noon tomorrow. The Puaa laulau will be placed among the hot stones of the imu tonight and will also be served hot. Some of the puddings, however, will be served cold and cut into slices, both red and white puddings. These special puddings are always looked upon by the Hawaiians as great delicacies and experts in their preparation take great pains in the selection of only the best materials and follow a careful formula which has descended from their ancestors.

Guests at the Coral Gardens tomorrow who have secured the "all expense" tickets from the Hawaii Tours Company, will meet in front of the company's office, 76-78 Merchant street, near the postoffice, between 9 and 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, where automobiles will be in readiness to take them to the Coral Gardens, returning with them from the other side of the Nuuanu Pali in the afternoon, leaving there as soon after 3 o'clock, or even earlier, as may be desired, so as to avoid confusion.

Two large glass-bottom boats, each with an Evenwood motor, and a third boat with glass boxes, will carry "all expense" ticket holders to the gardens of coral without extra expense. While the luau is especially in behalf of the steamship Great Northern's passengers, others will be welcomed. The "all expense" ticket for $6, includes auto transportation over and back, the luau and dancing, the glass bottom boat and the use of the ground and cottages by the ladies. Those desiring to use their own automobiles and to attend just the luau itself, which includes the dancing and other entertainment, can secure tickets from the Hawaii Tours Company for $3, and reservations will be made until this evening, as there is a limit on the attendance.

LOCAL AGENCY FOR STEAMSHIP, F. L. WALDRON LTD.

Firm Makes Special Arrangements for Handling Business Expeditiously

The firm of Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., of which Fred L. Waldron, president of the Chamber of Commerce, is head, is the agency for the Great Northern and has made special arrangements for expeditious handling of the multitude of details involved in looking after the new steamship passenger service.

At the firm's offices, 816 Fort street, the interior has been remodeled to give more space for the shipping department and a new entrance constructed, which will permit of handling a much larger crowd at one time than formerly. It is anticipated that the shipping department will be one of the busiest branches of the business, now that the Great Northern service is fairly under way.

Mr. Waldron was one of the Honoluluans who declared from the first negotiations of Traffic Manager Stone here that he believed the Great Northern would establish its service between Hawaii and the coast and for a long time he had a standing bet of a suit of clothes—which nobody took—that his judgment would be vindicated. It was.

CRESCENT CITY TENDERS ROUSING ALOHA TO HILL LINER PASSENGERS

Special Train Takes Visitors From Wharf to Town; Kilauea at Its Best

Expressing their hospitality in no uncertain terms, all the residents of Hilo united in welcoming the Great Northern when the palatial liner tied up at the new territorial wharf at Kihuna bay yesterday morning. The big boat was the first large passenger ship to call at Hilo direct from the coast and every Hilonian joined heartily in recognizing the significance of the occasion.

Although the steamer was sighted at 6 o'clock in the morning it was nearly 10 before she had been given pratique and had come alongside the big new wharf, the roof for which has not yet been put on.

As soon as the Great Northern had passed quarantine, and started to move over to her berthing place, the Hilo Board of Trade's reception committee immediately gave the starting signal to the engineer of the six-car special train. On the committee were Chairman J. W. Russell, George H. Vicars, Ted Guard, P. C. Beamer, G. A. Cool, E. N. Dayo and J. A. Scott.

With nearly everybody of any public spiritedness in Hilo on board, the special which was arranged for by W. H. Hussman, general freight and passenger agent of the Hilo railroad, moved rapidly around the crescent formed by the city's beach.

Band Played "Hilo March."

In the first car was the Hilo band. The engine was at the rear of the train, so that the musicians seemed to be drawing the train by their music, rather than the locomotive pushing it by hard work. The bandmen played as their opening aloha of greeting the "Hilo March," composed by Henri Berger of Honolulu. Joaquim Carvalho led the musicians.

Each of the committee members, and several score of enthusiastic Hilo citizens, who believe in the future of the hustling Hawaii municipality, wore a handsome yellow ribbon on which was printed the words, "Ask Me, I Live Here." Everyone did, too, by the way.

As the giant steamer drew up alongside the wharf, 14 young girls, Hilo's prettiest, busily began to arm themselves with paper leis, to which were attached cards bearing this message: "Aloha from the people of Hawaii, the Scenic Isle." The cards were designed by the Hawaii Publicity Commission, George H. Vicars, chairman. Had Temporary Gangway.

Some trouble was experienced in getting a gangplank alongside, but a forward port was soon opened and a temporary gangway, built for the occasion, was run up from the wharf, with passengers crowding around, intent to be first to set foot in Hilo. Although Fred L. Waldron, Honolulu agent for the Great Northern, had the opportunity to come ashore first, he chivalrously gave the honor to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mortensen of Ord, Nebraska, one of the six honeymoon couples on board. Mr. Waldron went over from Honolulu to welcome the boat's arrival in Hilo, and boarded the ship in the stream.

Both were appropriately laden with leis by the girls. Those who decorated the passengers as they came ashore were the following young women and girls of Hilo:

Miss Maile Vicars, Miss Blodwen Forbes, Miss Eleanor Patton, Miss Jean Moses, Miss Young Pong Ah Ping, Miss Margaret Pa, Miss Mary Pa, Miss Josephine Pa, Miss Katherine Pa, Miss Tsuna Horikawa, Miss Itane Okubo, Mrs. G. R. Sims, Mrs. J. D. Easton, and Miss Ah Hun Leong. George Vicars, Jr., and Herbert Vicars assisted in supplying armfuls of leis.

That the leis were appreciated was shown by the fact that all the passengers were still wearing them at 1 o'clock this morning, when the Great Northern sailed for Honolulu.

Climb on Special Train.

The liner's passengers were brought in to the business center of Hilo in the special train. The downtown streets were gaily decorated with American flags in honor of the occasion, and the Crescent City generally seemed to be imbued with the spirit of festivity.

Sightseeing was begun shortly after noon, when a special left for Paauilo, to give the tourists an opportunity to observe this section's scenic beauties. Others of the Great Northern's passengers rented motor cars and made the trip to Kilauea Volcano without waiting for their fellow travelers to return from the Paauilo trip. The latter delegation left in a special train for Glenwood late in the afternoon, going from Glenwood in motor cars furnished by the Volcano Stables and Transportation Company, Ltd., of which C. E. Wright, president of the Hilo Board of Trade, is manager.

In this way, they were able to obtain a superb view of the volcano by night. The great pit of molten lava was a magnificent spectacle last night and many who made the trip said they intended to return again and visit the volcano night and day for a week in order to "see all I want to of it" as one woman tourist said.

Supt. R. W. Filler of the Hilo Railroad personally conducted his party of sightseers, and under his watchful eye everyone managed to reach the boat before she sailed. Passengers were taken out in launches from the Waikaele boat landing.

Each of the Great Northern's passengers going ashore at Hilo was presented with the following message of greeting by the Board of Trade reception committee of that city: "Aloha, Greeting."

"Welcome to you from the people of Hawaii, the Scenic Isle."

"On the occasion of this your first visit to our lovely land, we give you hearty greeting."

"Glad are we to see you, and we wish you to take away with you nothing but pleasant memories of this, your first landing place in the sunny Isles of Peace."

"We cannot, perhaps, shake you all by the hand, but we ask you to take the will for the deed, and, during your short stay with us, we ask your acceptance of the freedom of our city."

"For your convenience we have listed a few of the sights in the sections you will visit, and we trust that you will consider every man you meet as ready and willing to be of service to you and to add to the pleasure of your stay."

"The Scenic Isle awaits your pleasure. Come again and see more of it next time. We have four thousand square miles of scenery within our boundaries, and from our tropical coastal regions, with their ancient ruins and bounteous store of legend and of history, to our snow-crowned heights, 14,000 feet above the sea, you will find very much to choose from. And so—once more—Greeting and Aloha."

FINDS MANY PEOPLE LIVING TODAY JUST LIKE LOT OF BIBLICAL DAYS

Evangelist Brown Takes Slap at "Once a Week Christians" and Methodists

Old "Judge" Lot, that interesting old testament character, and the members of his family were a peculiar lot of folk. From a standpoint of duty to God and church they were "backsliders." And today there are people who go to church and profess to lead strict Christian lives who are "backsliders" of exactly the same type as Judge Lot, Sister Lot and the Misses Lot.

So declared Evangelist John E. Brown in his talk in Central Union church last night. The big revival meetings seem to be gaining both in interest and attendance. The church was comfortably filled. Special singing by the augmented choir and the audience, and a solo by C. P. Curry were distinct features. Chaplain Scott, 25th Infantry, offered prayer.

The lesson last night was taken by the evangelist from the first few verses of the 12th chapter of Genesis, which relate Abraham's journey into the promised land and his settlement there.

Talks of Lot of Today. "I am going to talk to you not of the Judge Lot that lived long ago; but as I know Judge Lot and his family," said the evangelist. "God called Abraham to go into the new land, Abraham started to go, taking his father and Lot, his brother's son. Abraham and Lot came close to the border of the Promised Land, and there they lived for many years.

"God calls some of us to leave the land of unrighteousness and death and go into the land of righteousness and light. Some of us have gone, but others have only started and found it a big job to cross the border to become a Christian. The problem is 'Shall I go all the way?' Probably some have tried to convince the Lord that it wasn't necessary to go all the way. Perhaps some have tried to compromise by giving up this or that.

"But God says all the way or none of the way. Perhaps some have hesitated to come clean for God, and eased their consciences by going as near the border as possible without crossing. They have given up this and that. They have joined the church and are living the life of the 'professor.' But while they are 'professors' they are not 'possessors.' Has Pity and Tears.

"For this sort of people I have only sympathy—only pity and tears. Most men think that they can lead a Christian life without Jesus Christ. But I say, if you are going to be in the church and make it a profession, get to Jesus Christ."

The evangelist, with the aid of brief humorous stories, illustrated that class of people who go to church once every Sunday—when it doesn't rain—as a sort of duty. He referred to this class as "stubby stuff."

"Back in Arkansas," he added, "we certainly have got a lot of stubby stuff in our churches. I use these homely illustrations because I find that they stick."

Mr. Brown dropped his subject for a moment at this juncture to talk about his nose.

"The reason my nose is so long is because I never stick it into other people's business," he said, all seriousness. "It has nothing to do but just grow."

The evangelist added that some people have got just enough religion to make them miserable. "It is just a sore thumb," he said, "but they wouldn't cut it off for anything."

After Abraham's father died, the evangelist continued, Lot and Abraham started on their way into the land that God had promised Abraham. They went into Egypt and stayed there many years. Both got rich and then they had a difference. "But we can't afford to quarrel," said the wise Abraham.

"And I wish a lot of church members had the same spirit as did old Abraham," said the evangelist.

So Abraham and Lot parted, and Lot pitched his tent toward Sodom, that "gay Paree" of the old, old days. It was a wicked city, and the evangelist drew a vivid picture of it.

"And when you see a member of the church pitching his tent toward Sodom," he declared, "I don't care what excuses he makes, it is only a question of time when he will be down in Sodom, bag and baggage."

Domestic Compromises. The evangelist pointed out that some wives have said to their husbands "If you will go with me to the house of God, I will go with you to your places of amusement."

"And I have never known a woman to make this agreement and not lose, finally, all spiritual influence which she may have had," the evangelist added.

"You can't get your loved ones out of hell by jumping into hell with them," the evangelist declared, with emphasis. "And to those who have jumped into hell after their loved ones, I say you get back to God! The commandments have not been revised, the sermon on the mount has not been recalled. The fact that you drift or backslide is no evidence that God changes."

"This Lot of the 20th century says that the churches are too exclusive; that if the church would blend its amusements with the world's amusements, those who are out there in the world can be purified."

Had to Cut Theater Adrift. "Not very long ago the theater was one of the staunchest handmaidens of the church. But the church soon found that it would have to cut loose from the theater or die.

"I have heard criticism regarding the tactics used by Billy Sunday in talking about these things. Perhaps I may be criticized for what I say here tonight. But I want to tell you, folks, I'm soothing syrup, I'm castoria beside Billy Sunday. You wait until he gets here. I am going to work just as hard as I can to pave the way for Sunday's coming here. I pray that I may be a John the Baptist for Billy Sunday in this community."

"Some folks say that what the church needs is to get the spirit of the age. No! The spirit of the age is leading away from God and church. Some church members don't believe in revivals. Neither does the devil. I believe in revivals because of the type of church people who knock them."

"When it comes to saving men, it is the old, old story of the man who is downright loyal to Christ."

Map at Methodists. "These present-day Lots are not converting the world very fast. Lot was a Methodist. I know he was because he backslid. The Methodists are preaching backsliding and the rest of us are going out and practicing it."

"Sister Lot was a member of the church. She was a 'once.' She went to church once a week, if it didn't rain. But Sister Lot didn't go to prayer meeting; she didn't go to church on Sunday evening and she didn't believe in revivals. She went to church on Sunday morning—if it didn't rain—doomed out like a Christmas tree with all the presents on it. But Sister Lot didn't believe in revivals. She had no interest in the work for missions. But if the church was going to give an ice cream party or an oyster supper, Sister Lot took an interest. She sent her servant down to turn the handle of the ice-cream freezer, perhaps."

"They say that the revival does not last. Neither does the rain or the snow. The old Presbyterian church is taking the lead in revivals today, after it had stood out just as long as it could. Those who talked against the revival found that the church was coming to a standstill."

Want Records Compared. "If you don't believe in revivals, what do you believe in? I believe profoundly in the thing that brought me to God—the revival. I have believed in the revival for 35 years. If you don't, put your record beside mine."

"There is a tendency to sneer at revivals, and Billy Sunday is an answer to the prediction that the revival would soon be dead. Let the revival spirit sweep these islands."

Regarding the Misses Lot—the daughters of Judge Lot and Sister Lot, the evangelist had little to say. He left that to his audience.

"After you have known Judge Lot, shut your eyes and see the offspring—those dear girls who wouldn't sing in the choir and who wore high-heeled slippers and low-heeled gowns."

"And all up and down the land you will find folks who are doing just as the Lot family did," the evangelist concluded.

YOSHIHITO CREATES NINE NEW JAPANESE BARONS FOR REALM

(Special Cable to Hawaii Shipper) TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 2.—Emperor Yoshihito bestowed upon nine prominent Japanese the title of baron yesterday.

The names of the Japanese who will hold the rank of baron are Dr. K. Yamakawa, president of the Tokio Imperial University; Y. Tanaka, member of the house of peers; Dr. C. Hozumiya, professor in Imperial University; I. Morinura, T. Mitake, K. Okura and T. Furaka, prominent business men; Dr. K. Yokota, a prominent lawyer, and S. Omori, governor of Kioto.

BRITAIN MAY REFUSE FORD PARTY LANDING

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—The British embassy has indicated that unless the members of the Ford peace party are provided with the requisite passports, showing them to be neutrals and on private business in the war zone, they will not be permitted to land in Great Britain.

POISONOUS GAS FACTORY DESTROYED

GENEVA, Switzerland.—The poisonous gas factory at Dornach, Alsace, which was attacked Friday by French aviators, was virtually destroyed, according to a report which has reached here from Basel. The manager and 42 workmen are said to have been suffocated by fumes resulting from explosions, while other employees who were overcome have been sent to hospitals.

BEET SUGAR MILLS SHOW INCREASED OUTPUT FOR 1915

Colorado Leads In Production With California a Good Second

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—The beet sugar factories of the United States turned out 122,000 more tons of granulated sugar this year than in 1914, the total production being 865,200 short tons, according to an announcement made yesterday by the department of agriculture.

Colorado leads in production among the beet sugar states, its total output for this year being 257,900 tons, with California a good second with 203,200 tons.

The average consumption of sugar in the United States for the past five years, ending June 30, 1914, according to the department of agriculture report, is 3,957,000 short tons, or nearly 83 pounds per capita. Approximately half the sugar consumed in the mainland United States is imported from foreign sources, Hawaii and the insular possessions and the sugar beet section of the mainland about equally dividing the other half in their supply.

JAPAN LOSES TRACK OF INDIAN REVOLUTIONISTS

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)

TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 2.—Two Indian revolutionists, who made their way to Japan from India, have been ordered by the Japanese government to leave the country, but the time allowed was so short that they could not take a steamer for the United States before it expired, and they have disappeared, presumably into hiding. The British government requested that Japan expel them from the country. Mithru Toyama, a noted liberal of Japan, who has been connected with Chinese revolutionists, urged the government to permit the refugees more time in which to leave the country, but his request was denied.

IN WAR ARENA

HUGE SLAV ARMY IN RUMANIA, SAYS REPORT

PARIS, France, Dec. 3.—Persistent but unconfirmed reports are in circulation in Athens and Bucharest that the Russian advance upon Bulgaria by way of Rumania has been begun, and that a Russian army of 400,000 men is already across the Rumanian border and on its way to the Danube. Official circles refuse to discuss the report, which appears to be generally believed.

TEUTON SUBMARINE SUNK OFF EGYPTIAN COAST

LONDON, England, Dec. 3.—Athens despatches announce the sinking of a German submarine, which had been operating near the Egyptian coast. The U boat came to the surface within range of the coast defense guns of the British and was riddled before it could submerge. The crew was drowned.

TURKS CLAIM GAINS IN GALLIOLI

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey, Dec. 3.—An official statement of the fighting on Gallipoli records a number of Turkish successes.

"Near Anafarta, on the Allies left, we have captured a section of the entanglements and seized a section of the trenches, taking a number of prisoners," says the communique.

"Near Arburna our artillery destroyed several ammunition cars, while the attempt of the enemy to rebuild their shattered trenches at Kanlis and Kule were frustrated."

BRITISH GET SETBACK IN MESOPOTAMIA

BERLIN, Germany, Dec. 3.—The British expeditionary force invading Mesopotamia with Bagdad as its objective has been disastrously defeated and is in full retreat, according to an Overseas despatch from Constantinople.

This despatch quotes Turkish headquarters as announcing that the Turkish troops are now pursuing the British along the Irak front, making the recent defeat complete. The British losses in the fighting between November 5 and November 25 amount to more than 5000, the British having removed 2900 wounded to their rear in one day.

Among the wounded is Sir K. Omel, the political agent attached to the British headquarters.

AERO SQUADRON ORDERED TO GO TO PHILIPPINES

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 3.—The Second Aero Squadron has received orders to sail for Manila on the January transport. This squadron is made up of six junior military aviators and thirty-five mechanics, with four hydro-aeroplanes, all under the command of Capt. William Lay Patterson.

YOSHIHITO OPENS JAPANESE DIET

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 3.—At the first meeting of the diet here today, Count Tokugawa was elected speaker of the Kizoin, the upper house, and M. Kaneko of the Doshikai, the government party, speaker of the lower house.

There was no outbreak by the opposition on the questions which the government expects to be causes of trouble. The 37th Imperial diet opened at 10:30 o'clock this morning. His Imperial Majesty Yoshihito read the address, which was well received by the members present.

BREMERTON YARD WILL MAKE SHELLS FOR NAVY

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 3.—Orders have been received at the Bremerton navy yards from the navy department to prepare to begin manufacturing naval projectiles on March 1. The first order upon which the navy yard shells will work calls for 2500 six-inch shells and 10,000 three-inch shells.

was yesterday placed by the war office in complete command of all the armies of France except those in North Africa. This gives Joffre the command of the forces in France, Belgium, Alsace, the Balkans and Gallipoli.

NO PEACE FOR MANY SUMMERS, SAYS SHAW

LONDON, England, Dec. 3.—Bernard Shaw, addressing a meeting here last night, discussed the possibility of an early peace by saying:

"Dismiss this peace idea from your heads. It will be many summers before there is peace again in Europe."

KARL BUENZ AND CO-CONSPIRATORS DECLARED GUILTY

Officials of Hamburg-American Line Will Appeal Case to Higher Court

Bulletin's Washington correspondent NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 3.—Dr. Karl Buenz, resident managing director of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company, and three subordinate employees of the Hamburg-American, were found guilty yesterday of conspiracy to deceive and defraud the United States by sending supplies from American ports for German warships on ships sailing under fraudulent clearance papers.

The jury, after seven hours of deliberation, determined the four defendants guilty on the first ballot. Immediately after the verdict had been rendered, notice of an appeal was filed, and it is regarded as certain that the appeal will be perfected.

A statement made by Assistant District Attorney Wood, after the verdict of guilty had been recorded, expressed satisfaction at the outcome, because, the attorney said, the men certainly are guilty.

LAWS MUST BE OBSERVED

"This verdict means," he said, "that the laws of the United States must be observed by all citizens and by all belligerents and their representatives resident in the United States. It means that if these laws are violated the government decrees that whoever amongst the violators can be discovered will be prosecuted, whatever their standing."

The four defendants heard the decision of the jury calmly.

WINSLOW ASKS PROTECTION FOR U. S. CITIZENS

U. S. Admiral Puts Safety of Americans Up to General Carranza

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) TOPELOMBAMPO, Mexico, Dec. 3.—Admiral Winslow reached here yesterday, laying an immediate demand before the general in command of the Carranza troops that he furnish ample protection to the American residents throughout Sinaloa. Gen. Munoz stated in reply that he was doing and had done all that lay in his power and that he would continue to protect the Americans so far as was possible.

Admiral Winslow finds that when they raided the American homes at Los Mochis the Villa Yaguis confiscated thirteen hundred miles, looted and burned the houses and barns of the Americans, including the consulate and the home of the consular agent, and captured and carried away as a hostage an American named J. D. Dillingham.

Dillingham was captured on November 20, but escaped and reached this port yesterday, where he took refuge on the cruiser San Diego. He says that the Indians forced him to act as their chauffeur for a machine they had stolen.

BRITISH REQUISITION U. S. STEAMER HOCKING

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 3.—Evan E. Jones, the American consul general at Halifax, Nova Scotia, in a despatch to the state department states that the British admiralty, which ordered the seizure of the steamer Hocking and under which order the vessel was taken to Halifax, has now requisitioned the steamer for the use of the British government, without waiting for any prize court proceedings.

Sixteen persons were slightly injured by the explosion of a high hand bomb in a Chicago apartment house. A machine gun company, which will be a part of the West Virginia National Guard, was organized at Huntington.

PINEAPPLES FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Fruit extra choice; selected and packed under Wells-Fargo supervision.

Wells Fargo & Co., Honolulu, T. H.

Gentlemen: While in Honolulu last August I had four crates of pineapples shipped to different places for presents to my friends. I have learned since that they reached them in splendid shape and were delicious and very satisfactory.

I now want to order a crate of 12 for myself. I would like them by December 15th. I enclose draft for same.

LATEST IN TEAL SHOWS GIVEN IN CHINATOWN GARB

Costumes and Setting For Musical Comedy are Unusually Attractive

"A Night in Chinatown" is the Bijou bill for the latter half of the week and the Teal company makes of it a more than passable show. With some amusing situations, cleverly-exaggerated characters and more than ordinary stage-setting and costuming, the effect is entertaining for the theater-goer, even though the interest drags somewhat for the first half of the last act.

Art Phillips and Harry Marcelle, the scenic artists, have created for the first act a scenic setting that is realistically Chinese. The scene is supposed to be the interior of a "joss-house" and by the lavish use of red paper strips covered with illegible characters, a sort of shrine with Buddha sitting in golden repose and punk sticks burning continuously, the atmosphere is consistent. The fortune-hunting Lord Dunby mingles with Pagsley Martin, a henpecked old husband, and Doc Jaxbo, a street fakir, and is after the hand of Martin's daughter, Marion. Meanwhile Jack Mason, a newspaper reporter, is also after Marion and Marion prefers him to the monocular Englishman. The love affairs constitute the main plot but most of the action concerns the highly-developed jags acquired by the henpecked husband and the street fakir.

Fritz Fields supplies most of the real humor with his impersonation of the somewhat disreputable fakir; Claude Kelly is the henpecked husband; Madeline Rowe, the daughter, and Homer Long, the newspaper reporter, while Roy Kinslow takes the role of the lord. In each case the portrayals are unusually good. A bit of clever impersonation is that of Art Phillips as the mayor of Chinatown. He appears as the sly and scheming Sun Lee, with a pretty daughter, Sing Wee; Pansy DeLaCour carrying this role adequately.

Some particularly catchy choruses are given in this bill, two or three in the joss-house being worthy of mention, while the opening chorus of the second act is attractive.

Hazel Lake and Raymond Teal put on a coon-shouting specialty in the second act that gets some hearty laughs, though their clever work in blackface would get across better with better songs. Mere shouting is not enough. In the first act Miss Lake appears as a Bowery girl and sings "He's My Pal" with instant results of applause.

Tonight one of the features will be the chorus girls' contest.

MYRTLE STEDMAN MAKES NEW HIT

The famous love story "The Wild Olive" is well known as a novel and a stage play. As an offering of the silent drama the same story takes on a new aspect, and is even more interesting. At the Liberty theater last night a big house greeted the debut of a new stellar combination, Myrtle Stedman and Forrest Stanley, "The Wild Olive" being their first vehicle as a team.

Spectacular in story and spectacular in scenery "The Wild Olive" is one of the most elaborate of the Morosco-Bosworth bills ever presented at the Liberty and is a worthy addition to the Paramount Picture service. From the lumber camp in the rugged Allegheny mountains to the gay, cosmopolitan life of the capital of Argentine, with scenes produced with the faithfulness that has earned for Oliver Morosco a place among the leading theatrical men of America today, the story is one of deep heart interest. Besides being a clever actress Miss Stedman is included in the "big five," meaning the five most beautiful women on the moving picture stage today, while Stanley is the leading man of the Oliver Morosco Stock Company, which plays the Burbank theater, Los Angeles.

"The Diamond From the Sky" and "A Pathe Weekly are the other items on the program.

'FINE FEATHERS' BIG ATTRACTION

"Fine Feathers," Eugene Walters' masterpiece as a stage offering, was presented yesterday and will be repeated today and tomorrow at the Hawaii theater in picturized form. The change from speaking to silent drama has not deteriorated the offering.

Janet Beecher, a popular screen actress, is seen in the role of Jane Reynolds, the young wife of Bob, who is dissatisfied with the possibilities of her husband's meager salary of $25 a week, because of the limitations that are thrown around her desire for "fine feathers." Through the suggestions of the wife the husband becomes involved in a shady transaction and the "fine feathers" are forthcoming. The price, however, is too large and retribution eventually overtakes the couple, but not before the young wife has suffered untold agony and is thoroughly repentant.

The photography is above the average in this offering. Thrilling scenes abound, while the "night life" of New York City is shown in all its glamor. The feature is shown twice each evening, with a daily matinee.

"DON," ONCE FAMOUS AS "SPEAKING DOG," DIES NEAR DRESDEN

DRESDEN, Germany.—"Don" the "speaking dog," who a few years ago made the rounds of American variety theaters, and is said to have made more money for his owner than any dog ever had made, is dead. He passed away at a very respectable old age at his birthplace near here, whither he had gone when he ceased to be a theatrical drawing card.

"Don" was the property of a forester named Ebers, who marvelled at the animal's uncanny trick of imitating the human voice. Dr. Bosseler, director of the Hamburg zoological garden, became interested in "Don" and finally was instrumental in getting the theatrical engagement for him. Eventually Ebers' daughter toured Austria-Hungary, Russia and finally the United States with the dog.

HARP ORCHESTRA ORGANIZED BY PHILADELPHIA MUSICIANS

Philadelphia has the distinction of supporting a harp orchestra. A musical organization of this character is doubtless very unusual as a permanent institution, although a band of harps only may have been heard occasionally both here and abroad. The orchestra, consisting of 14 harpists, is composed entirely of women and girl players who have been banded together through the endeavors of a local musical club. Its concerts are strikingly new to Philadelphia and have attracted considerable interest.—Popular Mechanics.

STANDISH O'GRADY, LEADER OF IRISH MOVEMENT, IS DEAD

LONDON, England.—In the death of Standish O'Grady, which is announced from Hale, Cheshire, England, modern Irish literature loses one of its most brilliant representatives. As poet, essayist and historian, O'Grady's work is generally regarded as the starting points of the so-called Celtic Renaissance.

O'Grady was in turn lawyer, journalist and author. He was a native of Tipperary and 60 years old.

THREE ACTS FOR POPULAR ARRIVE FROM AUSTRALIA

"The Property Man," with Charlie Chaplin, the movie comedian, furnishing the fun, opened last night at the Popular theater to an audience that filled the house. It proved to be by far the funniest play Chaplin has presented in Honolulu. From the beginning of the first reel to the end of the piece, he kept his audience in an uproar of laughter. There was not a moment during the play that "The Property Man" failed to make fun.

Another feature at the Popular is "The Wages of Sin," a drama of New York crime. The plot deals with a social problem involving the status of criminals. The story told in the picture centers about Harry Vaillo, Sam Schepps and Jack Rose, members of the gang of gunmen who committed the celebrated Rosenthal murder. All three of these men appear in the movies.

Aside from these "leaders" Manager Hughes is showing other pictures. The steamer Ventura, from Sydney, brought three vaudeville acts for the Popular and they will be added to the bill tomorrow. They are stopping off here under the contract which Manager W. R. Hughes recently closed with the Fuller-Brennan vaudeville syndicate of Australia, and will continue on to the mainland after their Hawaii appearance.

NO STOMACH PAIN, GAS, INDIGESTION IN FIVE MINUTES

"Pape's Diapepsin" is the Only Real Stomach Regulator Known

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that's just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach regulator in the world.—Adv.

ROSE OPPOSED TO ABOLISHING MOUNTED SQUAD

Thinks Policemen on Horses Have Uses; Favors Five More on Motorcycles

Motorcycles to supplant the use of horses for policemen are not strongly favored by Sheriff Charles Rose, but he is willing that five new officers be added to the present motorcycle squad of three, making a total of eight men for the motorcycle squad.

In a letter to the board last night through Supervisor Robert Horner, chairman of the police committee, the sheriff outlined his objections to the proposed adoption of motorcycles.

"I am of the opinion," he states in his letter, "that a change of the entire mounted force would be inadvisable. As a patrolman an officer on wheels would not work very well except for the purpose of catching speeding autos."

Sheriff Rose also calls attention to the fact that rainy weather would render the motorcycle useless as a means of conveyance. In parades and carnivals he says that the machine would be of little avail in keeping back the crowd.

According to the suggestion made by the sheriff for the eight men on a motorcycle squad, these officers would be divided into two separate watches, four in the daytime and four at night, to be stationed along the four most important avenues.

Considerable discussion arose after the letter had been read. Supervisor Arnold stated that he believed the motorcycle was as valuable as the horse, even in parades, and moved that the question be referred to the police committee for consideration when the budget is made out in a few days.

Police Force Big Enough.
He thought that the present police force is sufficient, and advocated the lessening of the so-called "back inspectors." He believed that the motorcycle force should be increased by at least half.

Supervisor Logan suggested that suburban citizens be asked to cooperate by calling up the station when in need. That plan used to work, he said. Mr. Horner opposed the motorcycle on the strength that it is too easy for a person in the crowd to push the "cop" off the machine and stop him.

"What good is a motorcycle in the suburbs," said Larsen. "Your motor cop comes along with his bazoo blowing and his bright lights on, and all the criminals in the neighborhood can hear him advancing. Horses are the thing for the suburbs."

"Yes," said Arnold, "but we find these mounted patrols out on Kalakaua avenue and King street. Did you ever catch a speeding auto with a horse?"

As nobody deigned to answer the question the mayor called for a vote on Arnold's motion to refer to the police committee. The motion carried.

MURRAY WANTS MAN TO COLLECT OVERDUE BILLS

Harry E. Murray, general manager of the water department, wants a collector to work on sewer bills that have been due the city for a long time. In a letter to the board last night Mr. Murray stated that the books of the sewer department show outstanding sewer charges amounting to approximately $7321.90, including a penalty of 10 per cent.

These bills, according to the manager, date back to a period of four or five years. He suggests that there are two ways in which they may be collected, by employing a collector or by amending Ordinance 65 so as to place the water and sewer departments in one department. He believes, however, that the collector system is the better, and his letter to the supervisors advocated this.

Murray proposes that the prospective collector work on a commission basis, that he receive 10 per cent for bills outstanding before January 1, 1915, and 5 per cent for bills between January and June of this year.

As the water manager can appoint his men, but cannot fix their salaries, his letter was placed on file and the clerk was instructed to advise him to take up the matter with the mayor, who will bring the matter of fixing a salary before the board at its next meeting.

MEMO'S OF MEETING OF CITY SUPERVISORS

The next meeting of the board will be on Tuesday evening, December 7, at 7:30. The meeting last night adjourned at 10:30. Mr. Hollinger was not present.

Owing to a slight error in the advertising for bids on the number plates for automobiles and motorcycles, the board postponed the opening of bids for 10 days.

John H. Wise, superintendent of Kapiolani park, was granted his request for a week's leave of absence. The leave was given with full pay for the period. Mr. Wise will begin his vacation on December 23.

PICK CONCRETE AS BEST PAVING FOR KALAKAUA

Supervisors Assured of Backing of Ad Club in Road Work; Discuss Cleaning Streets

Kalakaua avenue is to have a concrete pavement with a covering of bituminous material. This was the decision reached by the supervisors last night following a lengthy discussion in which the engineer, private citizens and members of the board had a part. Supervisor Arnold proposed the motion, which provided the change from the former plan of warrenite.

"I am in favor of either warrenite or concrete," said Mr. Arnold, "but for the sake of getting this project ahead I move that the original resolution for Kalakaua avenue improvement district be amended to read 'concrete' instead of 'warrenite'."

Engineer Whitehouse stated after the vote had been taken that he would bring in the amended resolution on Tuesday night, the date of the next meeting.

Representatives from the Chamber of Commerce, the Ad Club, and private citizens all declared that they would back up the supervisors in the matter of laying permanent paving.

Albion Clark, spokesman for the Ad Club, declared that his organization is behind any move for better streets and permanent paving. He said that concrete is being used in the States and is satisfactory. C. B. Gage also spoke for the Ad Club along the same lines.

Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, suggested a larger street cleaning gang in line with the "white wings" of mainland cities.

Larsen Favors Concrete.

Supervisor Larsen called attention to the money that has been wasted on streets by the frequent changes in style of road building. He said that concrete is substantial, and is the only solution for Honolulu's road question. "We can do nothing better for the public than to lay concrete streets," he said.

W. R. Farrington was convinced that the crying need of the city is for a permanent road system. He had seen on the mainland what communities of less wealth and population are doing, and felt that Honolulu is "behind the times."

"One reason for this is that the citizens are either indifferent to or opposed to improvement," said Mr. Farrington. "The supervisors must have the support of the citizens."

Mr. Farrington also stated that the streets of Honolulu are dirty in comparison with those of most mainland towns. He said that he thought taxpayers would approve of an expenditure of money for keeping the streets clean.

Several of the supervisors spoke briefly on the question. Supervisor Horner remarking that it is gratifying to see people getting around to concrete roads. He wished to thank those who had spoken on the subject for the interest they had shown.

Engineer Whitehouse's report, which was read at the first part of the meeting, outlined clearly and concisely the various advantages and disadvantages of warrenite, asphalt macadam and concrete. He stated that the disadvantages of concrete on Kalakaua avenue are practically nil.

WILL SOON CALL FOR PAVING BIDS FOR MANOA WORK

Bids are practically ready to be called for in the Manoa improvement project, which will involve an outlay of from $225,000 to $250,000. Supervisor Arnold having reported to the board last night for the city engineer that all the preliminary work is complete.

The resolution providing for the call for bids passed first reading and was ordered printed. The bids are to be closed 45 days after the date of the first publication of the call, including Sundays and holidays. Manoa valley will be the first of several improvement projects that are to be put through on the frontage plan.

during the month of November amounted to $161.50, which sum has been deposited with the treasurer. Fifty-nine plumbing permits were issued by the inspector.

In response to a request from the navy department the city and county last night granted permission to establish a water pipe and power line along a proposed county road from Puuloa station to Pearl Harbor.

Permission has been granted by the federal government for the city to secure quarry rock from the military reserve near Diamond Head. The road to and from the quarry will be put in better condition before hauling commences.

Supervisor Arnold suggested that Chairman Horner of the police committee consider the thorough renovating of the entire police station with paint or cement wash. Supervisor Logan advised a detailed investigation of needed improvements to the building.

labor conditions in Norway are better than they have been in the last five years. The national employment offices in the capital, which has branches throughout the country, registers only 110 seekers for employment for every 100 vacancies. A year ago there was an average of 209 applicants for the same number of vacancies. Wages are higher than ever before.

Hoppe and Yamada Will Come to Hawaii Soon

American and Japanese Billiard Champions Will Play Series of Games Here—C. N. Marquez Announces Tour of Cue Artists Early in Year—Hoppe Recently Defeated Best Billiard Stars in Eastern Games—Local Japanese Will Give Great Nippon Player Reception

Willie Hoppe, champion billiard player of the world, will come to Honolulu early in 1916. With the billiard in clever execution of shots and on champion will come Koji Yamada, the many occasions has played up to the greatest Japanese player in the world standard of the champion.

Hoppe and Yamada have been planning on a trip to Hawaii for some time. When asked this morning regarding a trip to Hawaii for some time. When asked this morning regarding a trip to Hawaii for some time. When asked this morning regarding a trip to Hawaii for some time.

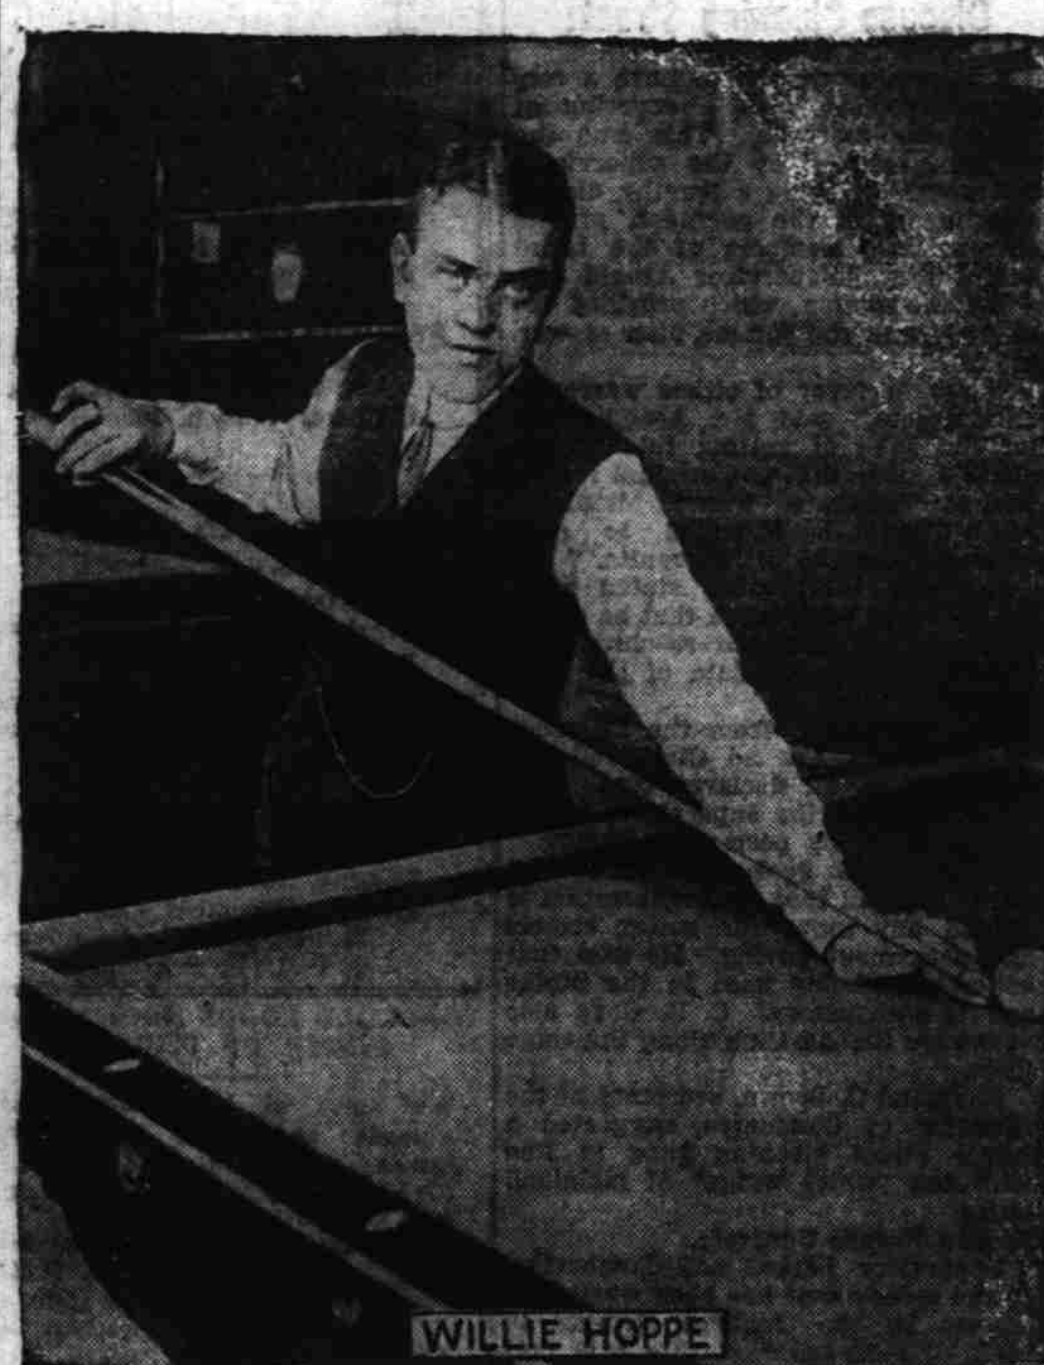

Hoppe is without doubt the greatest boost for the sport in Honolulu, billiard player the world has ever and the Honolulu people will witness seen. In his recent games in Boston some great contests. The two players and New York against Slosson, Mayer are the greatest drawing cards in the and Yamada, he has conceded his billiard world today.

In a recent game with Yamada, who would be given a welcome when he Hoppe approached the record by run, arrived here. Although many of them ning out in six innings. In his first said that Hoppe would be a favorite two turns at the table he annexed over the Japanese, they asserted that 410 points, and looked sure to break the Nippon player would give the all records, but Yamada played a safe champion the hardest contest.

game and Hoppe was blanked in the Hoppe and Yamada will tour the fourth inning. In the game with Slosson-United States arriving in San Francisco, the champion scored 500 points to cisco early in the year. The exact 43 for the veteran.

Yamada has been a great drawing card for them in the armory card in the East, and has played great or one of the Japanese theaters. This games against the best cue artists in will be one of the biggest sporting the country. In a recent game with events ever staged in Honolulu and Joseph Mayer of Philadelphia, Yamada the champions should draw banner ran 111 in his last inning giving him crowds here.

They Will Play in Honolulu

KAMEHAMEHA AND LOCAL BOWLERS PUNAHOU GIRLS MEET OAKLAND TO SWIM TODAY FIVE TONIGHT

This afternoon in the Punahou tank the girls from Kamehameha will endeavor to defeat the Punahou girls on their home grounds, so to speak. As usual the meet will arouse much keen rivalry between the schools as is always the case when Punahou and Kamehameha meet.

Capt. Irene Ahrens is confident of a victory but the Kamehameha captain thinks different. The coaching has been of the highest order. Mrs. Agnes Driver, athletic instructor, and Ruth Stacker are the coaches for Punahou and Kamehameha respectively. Mrs. Driver is well acquainted with the aquatic tricks and although not as good a swimmer herself as Ruth Stacker, she nevertheless is a good coach.

The girls from Kamehameha will not be handicapped by having the swim in unfamiliar waters as several times during the past few weeks, the tank has been especially reserved for them. Thus they have been afforded an opportunity of getting used to the turns.

It is very doubtful which team will finally win but it is safe to say that the meet will be very close.

Event 1. Swim across tank and back again—(Punahou) M. Chapin, A. Pratt; (Kam.) G. Hirth, M. Della, M. Miller.

Event 2. Diving off lower board—(Punahou) Q. Meyers, A. Pratt, E. Breckons, I. Ahrens, E. Murray; (Kam.) G. Hirth, D. Mahikoa, M. Miller, K. Bivard, H. Hughes.

Event 3. Breast stroke—(Punahou) A. Meyers, A. Pratt, M. Chapin, I. Woods, I. Ahrens, E. Murray, M. Scudder; (Kam.) G. Hirth, D. Mahikoa, M. Miller, M. Brood, H. Hughes, B. Gross, H. Cockett.

Event 4. Double-hander race across tank—(Punahou) R. Woods, I. Woods, none entered for Kam.

Event 5. Overhand (crawl) stroke, 2 lengths—E. Breckons, I. Ahrens, M. Scudder, A. Pratt; (Kam.) H. Brood, G. Hirth, D. Mahikoa, H. Cockett, M. Crabbe, B. Gross, H. Hughes.

Event 6. Diving off second board—(Punahou) R. Woods, M. Chapin, E. Breckons, I. Ahrens, E. Murray, M. Scudder; (Kam.) G. Hirth, H. Hughes, M. Miller, H. Cockett.

Last night's match—Cosmos 2, P. B. C. 1.

Tonight—Honolulu vs. Oakland.

The Cosmos showed real form in the Y. M. C. A. bowling league last night and took two out of three from the P. B. C. team, which also showed class. It's getting to be a rare thing to see a game under 800 in the "Y" league these days.

A total of 867 gave the Cosmos the first game and the P. B. C. came fast at the finish in the second and nosed out a victory, 825 to 811. The Cosmos won the rubber in a very close finish by 19 pins.

O. P. Soares did the best work of the evening, with an average of 182. Frank Benson, who is slated to bowl on the first team against Oakland tonight, made good with a 181 average as anchor man for the Cosmos. Pete Bernal did his best evening's work of the season and averaged 178. Azevedo and Gomes both averaged 175 for the P. B. C. Lineup and scores:

Event 11. Backward stroke—(Punahou) R. Woods, E. Murray, E. Breckons, A. Pratt, M. Scudder; (Kam.) H. Brood, B. Gross, H. Hughes.

Event 12. Relay, two lengths—All.

25TH INFANTRY AND TRAVELERS PLAY TOMORROW

Baseball is in the air this week and the fans will be treated to three games tomorrow and on Sunday afternoon. The feature game of the week will be between the two fast organizations—the Chinese Travelers and the 25th Infantry teams. These clubs will meet at Athletic park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Captain Lai Tin has announced that the Travelers will go after the 25th with a vengeance as the Chinese were defeated by a margin of one in the last contest. The Travelers will have in their line-up many stars of the team which made such a record on the mainland and the addition of three players will strengthen the team. Lang Akana, one of the best players in the city, will be in the outfield tomorrow against the 25th. With Lang Akana, En Sue and Yamashiro in the pasture the Travelers should present one of the best outfields that have played here this year.

Kan Yen will be stationed behind the plate and Kekoa will be on the mound. The organization has been working out in fine shape, and a victory over the 25th is to be expected. The Schofield team has always been a favorite among the real fans and they are certain to start something tomorrow. They have not as yet announced the pitcher to oppose the Travelers but it is expected that either Jasper or Waterhouse will be on the hip.

Profits of the Krupp works at Essen, Germany, last year amounted to $21,500,000, against $7,500,000 in 1913. Pattern lots Nos. 1 and 2 of the Baldwin Locomotive Works at Eddystone, Pa., were destroyed by fire.

National Guard and Shafter to Meet Tomorrow

They have closed the gates at the Yale bowl. Franklin field is deserted and Marshall field is covered with snow. There are no moleskin artists cavorting around Ferry field. But Honolulu will have the gridiron game tomorrow afternoon at Mollili field when the strong 2d Infantry squad meets Fred Wichman's aggregation of National Guard players.

Lieut. Charles Lyman is confident that the Shafter team will win another game when they meet the Guard team and their recent victories have given them a big chance for a victory. The backs have improved in getting away from the ball and the forward line has proved that they can withstand the shocks of most hammering backs. The ends have improved in their work and it is certain that they will show better football than in previous games.

Bill Ross has been out with the guard team this week and the players have been wearing out the rough spots that proved to be the stumbling block in the 1st Infantry game. With Staff Austin, Jimmy Hart, Dr. Peden and Bill Ross in the backfield the guard should at least gain on the Shafter team. The line has been strengthened and with Brash and Inman at tackles the guard squad will be in shape to stop the onrushes of the Shafter backs.

Lieut. Lyman has not yet announced his line-up and the team may be shifted around as a number of new men have been showing up well in practice. The sentiment around the city appears to be about even as to the winner, although the National Guard followers state that the home team has a slight edge. Both teams have defeated the Schofield eleven and the result tomorrow will perhaps decide the championship.

STAR-BULLETIN GIVES YOU TODAY'S NEWS TODAY.

ENTRY LIST HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED FOR BIG Y MEET

One of the largest entry lists in the history of local swimming has been received for the meet which takes place in the Y. M. C. A. pool tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. A number of the stars like Lane, Cunha, Rowat, Fuller and Carter will appear and there will be 40 other men of varying experience.

The twelve events will be well contested and a strong entry list has been received from the Myrtles and Healanis. The Knights of Kamehameha have entered a large team and if numbers count they should win the meet. The H. A. C. while lacking stars has also entered a large number of men in the various events.

An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged and tickets are on sale at the Y. M. C. A. office or from any of the team captains. A. B. Carter, Edgar Methven, Sam Kahalewai and Roy Graham. Bleachers have been provided for a good crowd and weather conditions seem to be favorable for a good meet in the Y. M. C. A. pool.

Japan's forests are being cut away at a rate of 1,000,000 acres a year. The marvelous fiber of the mulberry tree, utilized in the Japanese paper called Hashikira, is the basis of the material that Rear Admiral Yokoyama has proposed for collapsible lifeboats for submarines.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER TO THESE ARGUMENTS? Some folks claim that it's the players alone who make a football team great; others claim it's the coach.

Well, Michigan had Yost back in 1903 and 1904 and 1905—and it still has Yost. It had Heston Reddon, Snow and several others back in those "point-a-minute" days—but they are gone. Michigan was great in those days—but it isn't great now.

Harvard had Brickley, Pen-nock, Bradley and Hardwick in 1913 and 1914—and also it had Percy Haughton as coach. Those 1913 and 1914 machines leaped to the crest of the football world.

Harvard in this year A. D. 1915 still has Monsieur Haughton, but Brickley, Hardwick, Bradley and Pen-nock are gone. And Harvard isn't the "champ."

On the other mitt, we call your attention to Washington and Jefferson College. Last year it had Spiegel, Cruikshank, Patterson, Fleming and Young. Also it had Bob Folwell as coach. The W. & J. team in 1914 was a wonder. The 1915 team retains none of the 1914 stars—but it retains Folwell. And W. & J. this year seems to be just as powerful as it was last year.

What's the answer?

Home Course in Advertising

To be Conducted in this Paper by Alex F. Osborn, Instructor in Advertising, Buffalo Y.M.C.A. High School
IN 90 CHAPTERS A CHAPTER A DAY

PURPOSES OF THE COURSE—(1) To increase returns for the retailer who now advertises. (2) To show the non-advertising retailer how he can lower his prices, yet increase his profits. (3) To suggest to the jobber and manufacturer a cautious method to create demand and increase good-will. (4) To prepare the person with latent advertising ability for a place in this new "profession."

This course, when delivered personally to a class of students, costs $15. It is equivalent to a correspondence course which costs $95. The entire 90 lessons will be given exclusively with this newspaper free of charge.

CHAPTER XVII.

WHAT DETERMINES SIZE OF AD?

In seeking to find an answer to the question: "What size should an ad be?" many experiments have been made. These have tended to build contradictory conclusions. Some tests, for instance, would prove that a full page is four times as effective as a half page, and a half page is three times as effective as a quarter page. But such proof is fallacious. In fact there have never been enough cases to establish any such law.

These experiments, purposed for determining some kind of a law, are made on the basis of a few advertisements. For instance, they ask a man to look through a magazine and see what ads he can remember. Then they have another man do the same thing. Then it is found, after adding all these ads up, that the subjects recall four times as many full page advertisements as they do half page ads.

But, alas—so many different kinds of foreign factors enter into such a test that the conclusions can't be final. For instance, a man may remember a full page advertisement of Williams' Soap because that is the kind with which he himself shaves. So, if he recalled a Williams' Soap ad that wouldn't mean that he recalled it solely on account of the fact that it occupied a large space.

What's the use? We can never fix any universal law that will determine all questions of space. Yet there ought to be some possibility of knowing just how big a space you should use for a certain kind of an article under certain conditions. By experiment you can find such an answer rather conclusively. But, even then, if you were to use those same tests in different parts of the country you would never know with any mathematical certainty. For the quarter page you use in the East and the half page in the West will bring various results. And if the sales in the West are over twice as great as in the East that would not necessarily prove that your half page is over twice as effective as the quarter page. Other causes may have brought the result.

Size depends on the kind of a product you have to advertise and upon the merchandising conditions which surround your proposition. For instance, suppose that your product wins a voluntary sort of interest on the part of the reader—people look for your ad, and read it of their own accord. Then you do not need as much space as if you required an involuntary attention—as if you had to make your prospect read your ad in spite of his instinct. In other words, if you advertise a cream separator in an agricultural publication, you would enjoy a voluntary interest because people in the market for that kind of thing at the time would probably, of their own accord, look through the advertising pages of that publication for some kind of cream separator. Therefore, they would look at your ad with a purposed attention.

On the other hand, if you were advertising an aeroplane you would probably find very few of the readers who would be in the market for such a luxury. Practically no one would look purposely for a proposition such as your ad presented. Therefore, in order to force attention, you would have to shout louder. Consequently, you would have to use bigger space.

Take an example less far-fetched than an aeroplane. Suppose you have to advertise some soap. Nobody says, "Where's this week's Journal—I want to see if there are any soap advertisements in it." Yet, Mr. Farmer frequently says, "Where is this week's Journal—I want to see if there are any cream separator advertisements in it." So, in regard to your soap, if it is to get attention it will have to work for it, and in order to create that unwilling interest, it must talk through fairly large space.

Luckily, it is often true that the more universal the possible demand for a thing, the less voluntary is the interest required. The reason may be that that which is of universal need is usually made by so many different manufacturers that it is continually and widely advertised. For instance, take the case of cleaning powders. They are advertised and advertised. By virtue of that fact, readers become used to cleansing powder ads. When people do pay attention to them, it is not because of their will but because the power of the copy compels their interest in spite of their apathetic instinct.

Articles of universal demand enjoy a great enough sale so that the expenditure necessary for increased size of space is warranted. But on the other hand, if the demand is limited and specific, as, for instance, in the case of rubber roofing, you could not afford to use such big space because so small a percentage of your readers would happen to be in the market for that thing at that particular time. Yet, by this same lucky coincidence you would not need such big space because those readers who were earnestly in the market for rubber roofing at that time would be seeking out such advertising. They would apply toward it a voluntary rather than an involuntary

CLAIMS FRENCH SHOT WOMAN AS TRAITOROUS SPY

By HERMAN BERNSTEIN.

PARIS, France.—This is the story of a French young woman who was executed by the French military authorities in Belleme, the little Franco-Swiss frontier village.

This war has produced numerous instances of inhuman brutality, of heroism, of self-sacrifice and of romance, but the circumstances surrounding the fate of this young woman will rank among the most tragic and pathetic "human documents" of the war. It is the story of a woman who died for love. To help her lover, she committed high treason and paid with her life for it.

Women have figured prominently as spies in every war. In this war their role has also been conspicuous. Some have betrayed their country for money, others have betrayed it for the love of adventure, and still others have betrayed it for the sake of love—following blindly the man who leads them away along the fascinating and dangerous path of crime. This young woman was a victim of love.

Not a word has been written about her death. Not a sigh, not a tear, not a prayer from her friends and relatives. For they did not know what had become of her. The French newspapers did not record the end of this woman, who paid with her life for her darling, mad desire to help her Austrian lover, who sought to secure French military secrets.

Caught: Shot Within Hour.
Her name was Suzanne Raynal. She was the wife of Louis Raynal, a lieutenant in the artillery of the French army. She was 28 years old when she was put to death. The husband, 12 years her senior, was at the front when she was shot. Her lover was shot with her. He broke down, quivering and crying hysterically, while she kept bracing him up, repeating: "Have no fear! Have no fear!"

She begged the officers to have them shot together, not separately. She declined to be blindfolded, held her lover by the hand and kept murmuring: "Have no fear! Have no fear!"

There were no prayers. No priest was allowed to administer to them the last rites. Within one hour after they had been trapped by the military authorities at the frontier, they were shot. The victim of love faced death with a strange spirit of bravado, with peculiar courage, while the man whimpered and cried and begged for mercy. Husband and the Front.

Several weeks ago I met in Paris a distinguished French diplomatist with whom I discussed many incidents of the war. Our conversation turned to the many varieties of spies and provocateurs and to the motives that prompted them to betray their country.

Then he told me the story of this young woman who met her end so bravely at the French-Swiss frontier. There were tears in his voice as he related the details. "For he knew the woman and he knew her husband."

"She came to the ministry of war with her lover. They were taken to a room, where they met an officer who told her that he would be glad to arrange the matter for her. Then the police did what is usually done in such cases. The officer walked out of the room for a short time, leaving on the table near them a number of important-looking documents. The man took some of these documents, and after the officer had returned and had given them the letter they asked for they went away."

On the following day they reached Belleme, the Franco-Swiss frontier. They were searched, and the papers taken from the war department were found on the woman. Within one hour both were shot. She met her death bravely. She held the man by the hand and tried to brace him up. He was crying helplessly and hysterically. The Eternal Enigma.

"I can not forgive myself for having mentioned the incident to the press," he concluded. "The French diplomatist. 'Nor can I forgive myself for interest and therefore you would get their attention even if your space were small.

The advertisement which appears to be regular news-matter strategically enjoys the voluntary interest which a reader naturally applies to the kind of news matter which such an ad stimulates. This steals attention, even though it have neither contrast, novelty or size. Nor does such even need illustration, except as the illustration may pretend to be a regular newspaper illustration. For, in so far as this kind of "reader" advertisement looks like news matter which it is not, in that far it wins attention.

But the ordinary display advertisement is obviously a paid ad and, as such, makes no claim on the attention of the reader, except in so far as it can win the reader's eye, either through merit of display, or through some other kind of interest-getting quality. Here enters the illustration—the strongest simple factor in all advertising. For the illustration is both word and picture at one and the same time. Some things it can describe as no language can describe them—and transmits its message at a glance rather than through tedious perusal.

The picture is usually used to describe the article which the ad presents. But a good illustration can very profitably describe the argument as well as the article. When employed to explain in one quick flash the meat of an argument, the picture is apt to take the form of a caption. For instance, call to mind the picture of the man looking into the mirror and seeing the wrinkles on his face in proof that he is getting haggard from working too hard. The use of "Sanatogen" is the answer. Thus one illustration can suggest more virtues of that nerve remedy than any number of words could convey—because mere words could never create so vivid an impression. Moreover, in many cases, unadorned words often fail even to win a superficial reading.

ORDINANCE NO. 96.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND ORDINANCE NO. 56 KNOWN AS THE "TRAFFIC ORDINANCE" AS AMENDED BY ORDINANCES NOS. 63, 64, 88 AND 93, BY AMENDING SECTION 32 THEREOF.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU:

SECTION 1. Section 32 of Ordinance 56, known as the "Traffic Ordinance," as amended by Ordinances Nos. 63, 64, 88 and 93, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 32. LIGHTS. From thirty minutes after sunset until thirty minutes before sunrise there shall be displayed on the front of every automobile, or other similar vehicle while being operated, driven along or standing upon any public highway, at least two lamps, one on each side, giving a reasonably bright light in the direction in which said automobile or other similar vehicle is traveling or facing, and so placed as to reflect upon the road in the direction in which it is proceeding or facing, and there shall be displayed on the rear of every such automobile, or other similar vehicle, one tail light, which shall display a red light visible from the rear, and a white light which shall reflect upon the number in such manner as to make such number plainly visible and legible during the hours specified.

"Every prestotype or acetylene headlight with a burner of more than five-eighths (5/8) of a foot capacity per hour, so displayed or used on any such automobile or other similar vehicle, shall be screened by frosted, ground or corrugated glass, such frosting, grinding or corrugations to be of a permanent character and covering the entire face of the glass; and every electric headlight so displayed of used shall be screened as above provided, or, in lieu thereof, equipped with frosted globes, the frosting on which shall cover the entire globe, and be of a permanent character, or in lieu of said frosting on said electric globes, said electric globes shall be fitted with that mechanical contrivance or device known as 'Perrin No. 6' or such other mechanical contrivance or device, of equivalent efficiency for the elimination of glare, dazzle or excessive brilliancy from electric headlights, as may have been approved previous to the said use thereof by the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of Honolulu by resolution requiring not more than one reading for its adoption.

"MOTORCYCLES. The foregoing shall apply to motorcycles, motortricycles and other similar vehicles, except that no tail light, and only one headlight, shall be required, and the reflection of lights shall not be deemed applicable.

"OTHER VEHICLES. Every animal drawn vehicle shall display two lights, one on each side thereof, showing a white light visible within a reasonable distance in the direction towards which such vehicle is proceeding or facing.

"All animal driven vehicles shall display, at least one light plainly visible upon approaching from the rear, whether identical with a light used as a front light or otherwise."

SECTION 2. This Ordinance shall take effect from and after the date of its approval.

Introduced by W. LARSEN, Supervisor.

Date of introduction: November 2, A. D. 1915.

Approved this 30th day of November, A. D. 1915.

not having made an effort to see her again in order to warn her. Perhaps she might have been saved. The act of the police department was, after all, a piece of provocation.

"He died in defense of his fatherland, which his wife, through her blind love for a spy, had endeavored to betray. Perhaps as he was dying of his wounds his last thoughts and prayers were for his home and for his wife."
