BRITISH WAR SPIRIT IS FLAMING HIGH

Great Reenforcements Will Go to South Africa.

LORDS ROBERTS AND KITCHENER ORDERED TO THE FRONT

Major General Lawton Killed in the Philippines—Other Telegraphic News of Special Interest.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Ominous silence continues regarding Generals Buller and Methuen. Some interesting details of the battle of Colenso have been received to the effect that the fight was a drawn battle and that British troops are keeping an eye on the abandoned guns, while one telegram records their recovery by a party of volunteers. But there was no confirmation of these reports. The names of 137 non-commissioned officers and men who were killed have been forwarded instead of 117 as at first reported.

There was no fresh news from General Gatacre. General French had another encounter with the Boers on Tuesday, when the New Zealanders distinguished themselves under a heavy fire. The latest dispatch of Saturday from Modder River refers to an exchange of shots between the Boers and General Methuen's outposts. The Boers still hold their position at Magersfontein. The town of Jacobsdal is also in their hands.

But little credence is placed in the report that the guns lost by the British were not captured by the Boers. Had the story been true General Buller must have referred to it. Buller's artillery cannot now muster much more than thirty guns, while the captured British weapons have no doubt been mounted in the Boer lines and can be used, since the ammunition wagons seem to have been lost with them.

Anxiety in Pall Mall.

Remarkable, indeed, were the scenes in Pall Mall yesterday. Of late at the War Office we have grown accustomed to see ladies in magnificent toilets, wives, mothers and sisters of officers at the front, and modestly clad relations of soldiers elbowing each other in their faces and the same heaviness of heart. It was in the center hall and outside in the streets that the scene yesterday was quite new. Instead of the usual war news seekers bands of stalwart, athletic, big-boned young men were assembled. They were of a build which showed them to be of a race accustomed to live an outdoor life. They had healthy-looking color in their cheeks. All of them were well dressed, most of them affecting a jaunty colored waistcoat, sporting hunting cravat, leather gaiters and boots which looked more like those made for a day's shooting than those which are generally seen in swell Pall Mall. They came in crowds; they were eager, talked much and kept darting in and out of the doors and passages of the War Office. Many of them saluted Lord Chesham and Lord Lansdale, who each remained for a considerable period.

All of these able-bodied, sportsman-like youths differed from the usual crowd, inasmuch as they were not there with the usual question, "What news?" nor were their faces anxious. Their expression was eager. What they wanted to find out, what they were there for, was to know how they could get to the war—how they could be embodied in England's citizen army of irregular troops.

Volunteers Eager.

According to the War Office during the day from throughout the country came offers of service from 100,000 of yeomanry and volunteers, all prepared to equip themselves under the terms of broad latitude of the rule as to clothing, which really only restricts them to neutral colors, so as not to be too conspicuous targets for Boer sharpshooters. Further offers of voluntary service were coming in so fast yesterday afternoon that it was impossible to attend to them. They came by post, by telegraph wire and cables from the east and the west, Australia, Canada, Malta and the Cape, and from almost every region where the British colonies flourish.

Everywhere the war fever is visible. People thought the war fever was great when war was declared, but it was nothing to what on every side is witnessed today, and what was most remarkable is that women are just as keen as men. Almost every woman, be she a star in society or on the stage, tells you with deep yearning that she wants to be a nurse. If men and women were to be allowed to have their own way just now Great Britain would very speedily be depopulated and find its populace on African soil.

The wave of enthusiasm which is rolling all over the country is being fanned by all public speakers and newspapers.

Last evening Sir Richard Temple talked of an army of 150,000 men. The War Office tonight considers that it can get all the men and horses it wants. Lord Wolseley, who has been openly severely attacked, has completely changed his views, and is now for all the cavalry that can be mustered.

Officials in the artillery depots and manufactories are working double gangs, night and day, in strenuous efforts to get fresh batteries to replace those taken, while the manufacture of Lyddite shells is being rushed to its utmost capacity.

At the army clothing depot the staff has been nearly doubled and works night and day, like all other departments, in getting khaki uniforms completed and packed for the front.

People are really almost forgetting Christmas in the absorbing enthusiasm of war. Tradespeople would be hard hit were it not that they manage to recoup in money spent for the enormous number of presents to be sent out to South Africa for officers and men.

But altogether from today on we might easily imagine that England had commenced a new war, much larger and more interesting than the first. Such is the dominating note among the English people this day. All say forward: none say enough.

Section D Again.

The announcement that the men of Section D of the army reserve are to be recalled to the colors is significant of the strain which the present situation has imposed upon the resources of the regular army. The whole army reserve consists of four classes of sections, A, B, C and D.

Section A is a small reserve of 5000 men. Section B consists of men who have completed their color service and are working out in the reserve the remainder of their engagement. Section C comprises men who for various reasons have been transferred to the reserve before completing the normal period of service with the colors. Section D is a supplemental reserve consisting of men who on completion of their first period of engagement are enlisted to serve for a further period of four years in reserve, and are not liable to be called out until after the rest of the reserves.

The calling up of Section D is therefore an indication that other sections are or very shortly will be used up.

The total strength of the reserves, according to latest returns, was 82,005 men. The army in South Africa will in the immediate future, according to the War Office plans, be increased fully 50 per cent. Three full divisions of the regular army are now in process of arrival at the Cape, on their way thither or under sailing orders. Large drafts to bring regiments already at the front up to full war strength to replace the wastage caused by casualties are being sent out.

The great force of volunteers and yeomanry which is to be organized will still further swell the number. The total of reinforcements already arranged for follows: Volunteers, 70,000; yeomanry, 30,000; fifth division, 11,000 (about 6,000 already landed at the Cape); sixth division, 11,000; seventh division, 11,000; cavalry brigade, 12,000; reinforcing drafts, 12,000; Canadians and Australians, 2,000. Total, 83,000. Deducting casualties, these reinforcements will bring the British forces in South Africa to 120,000, not including the colonial and irregular troops of Cape Colony and Natal, which probably will number 30,000.

The action of the city of London, through the Lord Mayor and Corporation, in resolving to pay the entire cost of equipment of 1000 city volunteers, entailing an expenditure of about 100,000 pounds sterling ($500,000), is but typical of the feeling prevailing in England at present. From all sections come enthusiastic replies to the call for volunteers.

Fears for Methuen.

LONDON, Dec. 21, 4:45 a. m.—The gravity of the military situation is again becoming accentuated in the public mind owing to the complete absence of news. Nothing has been heard from Lord Methuen since Sunday, and it is feared that his communications have been cut. If this be so his position is critical.

A correspondent of the Daily News, telegraphing from Modder river last Saturday, says: "The Boer position, already formidable on December 11th, has since been greatly strengthened, extending for a distance of twelve miles. It is entrenched according to the most modern methods throughout its entire length; wire fences have been placed before all the trenches at every point; guns have been put in position, and there is every evidence that the Boers are well supplied with ammunition. Only a powerful attacking force can hope to make a successful attack."

The Times, in an article from the pen of a military expert, laments the dispersion of the British forces, quotes the maxim of Napoleon in favor of concentration, and regrets that Lord Methuen did not retire to Orange river a week ago.

The latest dispatches received seem to show that the British forces are standing on the defensive at all points. General Buller is ordering the troops now arriving at Cape Town to proceed to Durban to reinforce the Natal column. Absence of news from him has led to a surmise that he is trying to join General White by a flank movement.

The appeals for yeomanry and volunteers are being responded to with the greatest enthusiasm in all parts of the country. Lord Wolseley proposes that the force being raised by the Lord Mayor of London be called "The City of London Imperial Volunteers." The Government expects the total of yeomanry and volunteers to reach 8,000. Baron Chesham will command, with Lord Lansdale as Adjutant General.

The papers are now generally joining in free criticism of the Government and the War Office as day by day fresh proofs of unpreparedness come to light. Special stress is laid upon the failure to provide proper transport, which compels the columns to stick tight to railways, and upon the inferiority of the British artillery.

One of the results of the coal famine in the Sheffield district indirectly arising out of the war is that several important steel firms are not able to get coal even from their own collieries a few miles distant. They will sue the railway companies for non-delivery of coal. One of the big armor-plate works has shut down partially.

A. J. Balfour, in his unofficial capacity, has written to the Earl of Hardington dwelling upon the importance of the movement to raise enough money and volunteer forces for South Africa. He suggests and offers to assist a public fund to augment the necessarily limited allowance made to the men by the Government for equipment.

Queen Will Stay at Windsor.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Court News has issued the following announcement: "The arrangements made for the Queen's departure from Windsor have been postponed until after Christmas, as owing to the present state of affairs in South Africa, the Queen is unwilling to be at a great distance from London."

Not for years before has the Queen decided to spend Christmas away from Osborne. Her decision to remain at Windsor, in touch with the Cabinet, shows in a measure the gravity of the crisis and of the anxiety Her Majesty feels for the welfare of the country. She is, nevertheless, in fair health. Saturday morning she took her usual drive, and just before dinner that evening she received Lord Wolseley, who, with Major General Sir Henry Peter Ewart, crown quarry to the Queen, dined at Windsor.

The Queen's graceful act in presenting a flag to the American hospital ship Maine is highly appreciated by her own people, as well as by the Americans in London, and the morning papers express the hope that the incident means something more than a pretty ceremony.

"Black week" as last week is now universally called, has evidently aroused the Government and the War Office to a full sense of their responsibility and of the magnitude of the task before them. The papers unanimously applaud this awakening, despite the fact that they recognize that the heroic measures now decided upon savor rather of weakness than of strength. Rumor has it that the question of expense has really been at the bottom of the half-hearted measures hitherto adopted, and it is not unlikely that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and other members of the Cabinet, will resign.

It is high time that something very energetic was done. The British losses in killed, wounded, prisoners and missing throughout the campaign now reach the enormous total of 7,630. The general feeling forebodes a serious reckoning for the Government when the time comes.

The Daily Chronicle hints that General Sir William Butler, who was recalled from the Cape command because of his Boer sympathies, long ago advised the Government that the prosecution of Mr. Chamberlain's policy would make heavy reinforcements for the Cape imperative.

The Daily News says: "The Government's decision is either a council of panic or the confusion of utter miscalculation."

Rising of Cape Dutch.

STERKSTROOM, Dec. 15.—As a result of the British reverses the whole country northward is in rebellion. The natives there, as well as those in Basutoland, are said to be much disturbed and losing heart respecting the strength of the British.

Sterkstroom is situated in Cape Colony about eighty miles south of the Orange Free State border. General Gatacre's forces are now in the midst of a region in British territory where the inhabitants have turned against the English flag.

Buller Superseded.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Shortly before midnight the following notice was posted at the War Office:

"As the campaign in Natal, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Government, is likely to require the presence and undivided attention of General Sir Redvers Buller, it has been decided to send Baron Roberts of Kandahar and Watertford as commander in chief in South Africa, with Lord Kitchener as chief of staff."

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The War Office today issued the following announcement:

"Acting upon the advice of the military authorities, Her Majesty's Government has approved the following measure: All the remaining portions of the army reserve, section D, are called out. The Seventh Division, which is being mobilized, will proceed to South Africa without delay. The commander in chief in South Africa has been authorized to continue to raise at his discretion local troops mounted."

"Nine battalions of militia, in addition to two battalions which have already volunteered for service at Malta and one for service in the Channel Islands, will be allowed to volunteer for service outside of the United Kingdom, and an equivalent number of militia battalions will be embodied for service at home."

"A strong force of volunteers, selected from the yeomanry regiments, will be formed for service in South Africa."

"Arrangements are being made for the employment in South Africa of a strong contingent of carefully selected volunteers. The patriotic offers which are being received from the colonies will, so far as possible, be accepted, preference being given to offers of mounted contingents."

Krueger's Peace Terms.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—A cable to the San from Cologne says: The Magdeburg Zeitung has received a telegram from the Transvaal agency in Brussels which confirms the statement that President Krueger is ready to sign a treaty of peace, provided no further rights are asked for the Uitlanders than they enjoyed before the war, and also Great Britain pays the war expenses incurred by the Boers. If Great Britain continues the war, the dispatch says, President Krueger and Styn will ask the Cape Dutch to proclaim the independence of Cape Colony.

GEN. LAWTON DEAD.

Falls Like a Hero at the Head of His Men.

MANILA, Dec. 20.—The circumstances surrounding the heroic death of Major General Lawton at San Mateo, at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, show the nobility of his character.

When Captain Ethelbert L. D. Breckenridge was shot General Lawton assisted in taking the young officer to a small depression, which, it was thought, offered sufficient protection.

Bullets rained about the tall form of General Lawton as he exposed himself above the embankment. Officers about him called the General's attention to the fact that Filipino sharpshooters were aiming at him. They begged him to be careful. General Lawton resolutely replied: "I must see what is going on in the firing line." He then started off and had traversed about fifty feet, when he met his aide, King and Fuller, returning. As they approached him General Lawton suddenly paled and clenched his hands.

"What is the matter, General?" exclaimed King.

"I am shot through the lungs," replied General Lawton. He pitched forward with blood gushing from his mouth. He did not speak again, for he was dead.

General Lawton's staff officers were grief-stricken. Their sorrow is so great that they cannot talk.

Manley Lawton, the 12-year-old son of the General, who accompanied his father in the entire northern campaign, stood outside the gate of his Manila home tonight, waiting for the arrival of the body.

"How I dread to see my father dead!" he exclaimed. "The brave boy was overcome with grief when the ambulance with a big cavalry escort thundered down the street and came into view."

Mrs. Lawton was packing up in a dazed way, getting ready to return

Body Reaches Manila.

MANILA, Dec. 20.—Major General Lawton's body was brought from San Mateo to Manila this afternoon, his staff and a squadron of cavalry acting as escort. It was found necessary to bridge the river.

The funeral will take place from his late residence here, a mansion formerly occupied by a Spanish general. The body has been placed temporarily in a vault in El Pao cemetery, where many of the American soldiers have been interred, and a guard of honor will be maintained. When Mrs. Lawton and her four children shall have completed their arrangements for returning to the United States the remains will be taken on a transport with an escort of officers for final interment, as it is thought probable here, in Arlington Cemetery.

General Lawton's death has caused universal sorrow in Manila. No American officer had greater popularity among all ranks, and in his dealings with the natives he commanded their respect and confidence to a remarkable degree. The Mayors whom he installed in the neighboring towns are arranging to attend the funeral in a body.

To Lawton's executive ability and personal leadership is chiefly due the brilliant execution of the plan of campaign in North Luzon, which has scattered the insurgents from San Isidro to the Gulf of Lingayen. That section of the island, which had to be traversed during the very worst season of the year, presented difficulties considered by all acquainted with it to be almost insurmountable, but General Lawton thoroughly covered the program assigned him. When he reached Tayug and found that the other division had not arrived, he went through to Dagupan on his own responsibility. Although he imposed great hardships upon his men, he invariably shared their lot cheerfully.

Thirteen Americans, including three officers, were wounded in the engagement at San Mateo, where General Lawton was killed. Captain Breckenridge's wound is not considered dangerous, although the bullet penetrated his arm and side.

It is estimated that the insurgents numbered 500, and that half of them were armed with rifles. The Americans numbered 1,300, but the command had been much depleted by sickness.

The wagon train found the roads impassable and was obliged to return. The insurgents retreated to the northeast, leaving six dead. They have other forces near Taytay. This region, although close to Manila, has proved the most difficult from which to dislodge the enemy. It is now reported that the insurgents intend to concentrate at Santa Cruz, Laguna province, and in the district east of Laguna de Bai.

The American secret service reports that Aguinaldo has joined the Mariquina force.

MARCONI'S COHERER.

Wireless Telegraphy Improved at American Hands

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 17.—Bold researches by Professor Reginald Fessenden and his assistant, Professor Kitner, in the electrical laboratory of the Western University of Pennsylvania, have resulted in the production of a receiver for wireless telegraphy that is 2,000 times more sensitive than the so-called "coherer" of the Marconi system.

In speaking of the discovery today Professor Fessenden said: "Although we have improved the receiver so that it is 2,000 times as sensitive as the original one, we realize that we have not yet begun to see the limit. Marconi, in his brilliant experiments, has demonstrated that messages can be sent over ninety miles. As our receiver is several hundred times more sensitive, it is clear that the messages can be sent by our method very much farther, though just what the limit is I would not like to say. It at least should be possible to send messages across the Atlantic with poles less than 200 feet high. The ultimate distance must be checked by actual experiment before it becomes a scientific fact in the strictest sense."

NO ALLIANCE WITH RUSSIA.

Spain Will Not Cede Her African Possessions.

MADRID, Dec. 17.—Senor Silveira, the Premier, replying to a question on the subject in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, said the report of an alliance between Spain and Russia based on the cession of Ceuta, the Spanish seaport town in Morocco, opposite Gibraltar, was without foundation.

"Neither now nor in the future," he declared, "will Spain on any account cede her African possessions."

Sultan's Son-in-Law Steals His Wife's Jewelry.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—The flight of the Sultan's son-in-law, Mahmud Pasha, on Thursday with his wife's jewels and all the money he could collect has caused a great sensation here. It has now been ascertained that he sailed for Marseilles on a steamer and the Turkish Government has telegraphed to the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Delcasse, asking for the arrest of Mahmud on his arrival at Marseilles and his return to Constantinople on the charge that he was implicated in a plot to assassinate the Sultan. This accusation.

DREAD THE PLAGUE.

New Orleans Alarmed Over a Bubonic Patient.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 18.—The British steamship Willowdene, Captain Anderson, from Rio Janeiro via Santos, coffee-laden, arrived at Port Eads this morning and is now at the Mississippi quarantine station. The vessel will be put through strict fumigation. The ship took on part of her cargo at Santos, and both the English and American Consuls testified that the bubonic plague exists there. The American Consul testifies that the ship was thoroughly disinfected, and since then she has been at sea thirty-six days with not a case of sickness aboard. The Cotton Exchange and other bodies are urging the Board of Health to refuse to permit the cargo or ship to come to the city, even after disinfection and detention.

SOUTH SEA MAILS.

Bids for Quicker Communication With Australia.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The Postmaster General today signed a call for bids for furnishing improved mail service between San Francisco and Sydney, New South Wales, for an optional term of either five or ten years, beginning November 1, 1900, under the subsidy act of 1891.

The chief significance of the action is the substitution of vessels of American register in the Pacific service, the enlargement of the service to seventeen outward trips per year instead of fourteen, and an expected saving of four days in the passage, thus, in connection with expedited railway mail service, making the shortest route possible between Sydney, New York and London. Bids are to be received until March 31st next, must provide for steamers of the second class, of not less than 5,000 tons, not less than sixteen knots speed and stops are to be made at Honolulu, Hawaii, Apia, Samoa, and such other points as the Postmaster General may select.

TRADE IN THE ORIENT.

Proposed Commission to Investigate Conditions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Senators Gallinger and Foster both introduced bills today in the Senate authorizing the appointment of commissioners to investigate trade conditions in the Orient. The commission in each case is to consist of five members. Senator Gallinger's bill provides for one commissioner from the Eastern States, one from the Middle States, one from the Southern States, one from the Western States and one from the Pacific Coast States. Senator Foster's bill provides for two commissioners from the Atlantic Coast States, two from the Pacific Coast States and one from the Middle West.

Senator McMillan introduced a bill for the construction of a Pacific cable from San Francisco to Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines, the route to be decided by a commission; Senator Foster a bill to authorize the leasing of lands west of the ninety-ninth meridian for grazing purposes.

DANGER TO THE CABLE.

Matters Are Now Complicated By a Spanish Grant.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The United States Government itself will probably feel the baneful effects of a cable monopoly, for which Spain is responsible. Spain granted a concession to the Eastern Extension Cable Company, under which that corporation has the exclusive landing rights for all cables joining the several islands of the Philippines or connecting them with other countries.

It is apparent that the effect of the cable concession granted the Eastern Company will be to cause that corporation to protest against the violation of its rights by the United States, which proposes to run a line from a point on the California coast to Luzon, via the Hawaiian, Midway or Wake Islands, and to establish international and governmental cable communication with Japan, between the Islands of Luzon and Formosa, and with China between the Island of Luzon and some commercially desirable Chinese port. The laying of this cable will naturally injure the value of the Eastern Extension Company's concession and materially reduce its business, now conducted over the Hongkong-Manila line.

Under the decision of Secretary Root in the matter of the concession held by the Western Union, this Government, under the terms of the treaty of peace, will be required to respect the rights possessed by the Eastern Extension Company. This is apparently the opinion of Major R. E. Thompson, who was chief signal officer of the army of the Philippines, whose annual report is published as an appendix to the report of Brigadier General Greely, chief signal officer.

"The Hongkong cable," Major Thompson states, "formerly terminated at Bollnau, but under the Spanish authorization of March 30, 1898, it was extended to Manila. A Spanish decree granting this extension also appears to concede the monopoly of cable privileges between Hongkong and Manila to the cable company until the year 1940, and, what is of still greater present moment, the decree gives the company the exclusive landing rights for a long term of years for all cables join-Commercial Advertiser.

WALTER G. SMITH - - - EDITOR

THURSDAY DECEMBER 28

The city is again quarantined and the battle with the plague is on in dead earnest.

Philippine news contains the cheerful item that Lieutenant Gilmore has been rescued by the American troops. Next thing he will have to be saved from the eager publishers.

The old Spanish monopoly of the right to connect a cable with the Philippines ought not to cause much trouble if a mere million will sweep it away. A million or so does not necessarily count in trans-Pacific communication.

It is comforting to know that the Nicaragua canal still has a chance. A report is current that the Craig-Grace syndicate, which got a concession after that of the Maritime Canal Company expired, has come to grief and that the original franchise will be restored. In that event the canal may have a fighting chance in this Congress despite the power and influence of the railroads.

The presence in Honolulu of Hon. Arthur Sewall, late Democratic nominee for Vice-President of the United States, is a matter of special interest, not the less so because it may result in some commercial advantages to this port, where Mr. Sewall's ships are already frequent visitors.

The death of Major General Henry W. Lawton is one of the severe losses which the unfortunate war in the Philippines has visited upon the American army and nation. General Lawton was one of the most dependable soldiers in the service. His military experience, began in 1861 and it continued through thirty-six battles, gallantry in which won him a distinguished service medal at the hands of Congress. After the Civil War Lawton went through several Indian campaigns and finally crowned his experiences by capturing Geronimo. In the Spanish war he commanded a division of Shafter's corps and did great work before Santiago. His splendid services in the Philippines, now ended so untimely, are facts of recent history.

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

The Advertiser's plea for an early meeting of the Council of State and the appropriation of $100,000 or more to provide Honolulu with permanent works of sanitation met with an affirmative response from the general public. We now await official action which, we are told, will follow a report of Mr. Rowell, the Superintendent of Public Works, upon the cost of providing filters for the Nuuanu reservoirs.

Let it be hoped that Mr. Rowell will act speedily so that the crisis which alone legalizes the appropriation of money by the Council of State may not pass before the money is taken out of the surplus. The moment the city is declared free of infection and the quarantine raised, the power of the Council of State to appropriate lapses and nothing can restore it save a recurrence of the plague, the outbreak of war, the presence of invasion or an enabling act by Congress. In default of these everything would have to be referred to a Legislature which may never meet or to a municipality which may deem filters of less importance than paving and the construction of a City Hall.

The time to strike for permanent improvements is now. Many are needed beside the reservoir filters. Streets must be widened, alleys cut through certain blocks in Chinatown, property condemned, possibly a Sanitary Police organized. In no other way can Honolulu make reasonably sure of escaping future plagues. We have had three visitations of small pox one of which cost hundreds of lives; we have had cholera and now the bubonic plague is here. Nobody knows how soon the yellow fever, a case of which was lately landed in Astoria, may be introduced. It is indispensable that every measure necessary to insure cleanliness, pure drinking water, and the admission of sunshine into damp and dark places, should be taken now. If the chance is lost it may not recur for a long time. Alarm is easily allayed and leghardy readily inculcated in this climate. A few weeks from now it may be impossible to get anything done.

Call the Council of State together as soon as possible. So far as we can learn from careful inquiry the community desires that it should meet and set apart as large a portion of the surplus as may be necessary to put Honolulu in the way of easily handling and obliterating every dangerous malady that appears within its limits.

BISHOP ESTATE NUISANCES

The extension of Kukui street from Nuuanu to River streets is becoming an abuse for which the trustees of the Bishop Estate, which controls the property, are responsible. The basic part of the new roadway is largely made up of such filth and rubbish as have been lately burned in Chinatown and the leases of frontage to Chinamen for building purposes are made with no sanitary restrictions whatever. Shacks have already gone up along the way which, in six months' or a year's time, will be a menace to the health of the entire neighborhood.

We have heard it said within the past few days by responsible citizens, and we believe it to be true, that the trustees of the Bishop Estate are more to blame for the filth of Chinatown than any other persons in this place. They control large areas there which are covered by the worst and most squalid tenements, and we can hear of no case, save a very recent one, where they have compelled the occupants to keep the premises clean. Indeed, by a species of rack rent they have discouraged improvements, sanitary and otherwise. And now they are deliberately setting up a fresh nuisance for future Boards of Health to combat. Have these comfortable gentlemen no other thought than the selfish one of dividends? Have they no care for the welfare and safety of the city as a whole?

There has been considerable criticism of the Board of Health and there may be more. But we can tell the Board how to win enthusiastic applause from every disinterested citizen, and that is to carry out its present program of compelling private property-owners to clean up, with special reference to Bishop Estate nuisances. It would be a cheerful and pregnant omen if the authorities would treat the Bishop Estate as if it did not have a dollar or a friend in the world—treat it with the impartial severity when it insists on maintaining plague spots which might be visited on a pauper Chinese hut. We should then begin to have some hope of the kind of a reform movement the majority of Honolulu people have been aching for these many years.

GREAT BRITAIN'S CRISIS.

The gravity of the situation in South Africa has finally aroused a realizing sense in England. There is now no more talk, such as Mr. Chamberlain and his friends were wont to indulge in, of an "imperial parade" through South Africa. Visions of Christmas dinners at Pretoria and of the expulsion of Presidents Kruger and Steyn to some new St. Helena vanished in the battle smoke of Nicholson's Nek and now the Tugela river rolls between the British army and a fair start into the outskirts of the Boer country. All illusions are gone and Great Britain, having commissioned Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener to go to South Africa, will give them a command worthy of their dignity and rank and of the formidable task in hand. At last the war with the embattled farmers of the Transvaal is being treated almost as if it were a life and death struggle with some commanding power. Before it is over Great Britain may have a larger force in South Africa than it had at Waterloo or in the Crimea.

With such an army it is sure to win unless Russia and France make up their minds that the psychological moment has come for an attack on the British power. There is every sign that these allies are watching their chance. Russia, balked by Great Britain in the nearer Orient, longs for revenge in the farther East and in India. The ambition of the Czar is to be the primate of Asia. France wants to retrieve Fashoda, to regain lost ground in Egypt, to efface the poignant memory of Waterloo. Against these ambitions Great Britain, in all the panoply of her splendid prestige, has stood almost alone. Suppose that prestige to be overthrown by a handful of Boers, and what may not happen? The hope of some turn of the military tide in South Africa and the world's respect for Britain's splendid navy is now the Queen's chief reliance. Nevertheless the danger of that supreme trial of strength between England and her ring of enemies is nearer than it has ever been before.

God speed England! She has been unjust to America at times and to all the world besides. The prejudice against her is natural, but it must yield to reason, and the reason that presses with most force upon Americans is that if England is crushed the United States will be left to bear the hatred of Anglo-Saxon institutions alone. The great republic will succeed in heirship to the emitties which British democracy has created. Europe having been made Cossack the plan of the monarchies and the mock republic of France would be to make America the victim of Cossack greed. Already Europe has talked of a commercial league against us. We are as cordially hated there as England herself—hated and feared. It needs no prophet to foresee that if the mother country is ever ruined our Monroe doctrine and our protective tariff will bring the European powers down on us like the pack of wolves they are. So we say, all ancient prejudices aside: God save England and give her a happy issue out of all her troubles.

A WORD TO CHINESE.

The Chinese merchants may be acting in good faith, according to the promise given Attorney General Cooper, but the common crowd are doing their best to conceal the sick. It is only by accident that the later cases of plague were discovered. Evidently the superstitious Mongols are afraid of cremation, feeling that the spread of the bubonic malady is of small consequence to them beside the preservation of the bones of their dead intact for shipment to China.

In this emergency there are several things which may be done. Chinatown being in an ironbound quarantine all business and inter-communication may be inhibited there. To enforce such rules Colonel Jones' regiment of the National Guard, possibly the Regular Army garrison, certainly the Citizens' Guard and as a last resort a picked body of Japanese residents may be used. The Japanese are doing their best, with their usual intelligence, to abate the plague and from their intimate knowledge of Chinatown they might be of great use in spying out concealed cases. They are not afraid of the Chinese while the Chinese are plainly and for good reasons afraid of them.

We trust that these intimations will be promptly conveyed to the denizens of Chinatown by their local newspaper and by their interpreters. We say to them plainly that in undertaking to balk the plans of the Board of Health for the safety of the city they are playing with fire. That is something the white people cannot and will not tolerate. Before submitting to anything of the kind they would apply, throughout the Mongol quarter, the most rigid rules and penalties of martial law. What martial law would mean to Chinamen who sought to evade it is a question which might be of testamentary interest to their heirs, but could not be of prolonged interest, in this world at least, to the offenders themselves.

Terrible Pains

In the Stomach—Dreadful Head-aches—Face and Neck Covered With Boils—Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla—Skin is Now Clear.

"I was covered with boils all over my face and neck. I had dreadful headaches and pains in my stomach. I took medicines, but was not much benefited, and I procured six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking the first bottle I could see an improvement. When I had taken a few more bottles the boils had all gone, my skin was clear, my appetite returned, and my health was entirely restored. I am thankful I ever found such a blood purifier as Hood's Sarsaparilla. I paid out a good deal of money for useless medicines before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. F. BECKWITH, Horlock, Maryland.

A BURIAL SITE

Urgent Need for a New Cemetery.

Present Accommodations Inadequate --Old Graves Used Again--Difficulty in Selecting New Area.

The rapidly decreasing area in both the Nuanu and Makiki cemeteries is a matter which demands the immediate consideration of the authorities. Some few months ago the question of a suitable locality for a new cemetery was thoroughly gone into and a decision formed in favor of the Kahauiki site; but as the proposed land has been taken by the Federal Government for military purposes, and also in view of the fact that the local Government cannot dispose of any crown lands, the matter has been allowed to drop.

Very shortly, however, a move of some kind will be imperative. Nuanu cemetery is closed to any but people of average means, who can afford to pay heavily for the expensive grave-cutting in the rocky portion now remaining unoccupied. Makiki cemetery is used only for poor citizens, and bodies are buried there without any regard to the nationality of the deceased. The unoccupied space there is now reduced to such narrow limits that the remains of the most recently deceased person are laid side by side with the last buried; thus a Chinaman may be laid next to a haole, whose grave is adjacent to that of a Jap, a negro or a representative of some other nation. In the Makiki cemetery all available space is already the property of private owners, and no further lots can be procured.

The Catholic cemetery on King street is already overcrowded and old graves are opened for the reception of new occupants. Kawaiahao cemetery is also full and no further lots can be obtained. In Nuanu cemetery private plots belonging to the various friendly societies are full, and deceased members are interred outside in the general burial grounds; this is especially the case of Pacific Lodge No. 822 and the Odd Fellows.

In selecting a new site it is necessary to secure at least an area of seventy acres, and of this area about half will be required by the various churches and friendly societies of Honolulu. It is a difficult matter to secure a block of land of this area suited to the purpose and easy of access to the city. A suggestion made some months ago to set aside the interior of Punchbowl Hill raised a storm of objections by a large section of the people. Unless prompt attention is given the subject, the disposal of the dead will become a matter of considerable trouble in the near future.

RETURNS FROM VACATION.

Dr. Miner and Family Arrive by the America Maru.

Dr. F. L. Miner returned by the America Maru yesterday in company with Mrs. Miner and daughter, after a three months' vacation spent on the Mainland. The health of all has been greatly benefited by the trip and the Doctor speaks with considerable pride of an increased weight of thirty pounds, gained through hunting in a country covered with six inches of snow. Most of the time was spent in and around Bartlett Springs, California, after which a two weeks' stay was made in Salinas and San Francisco.

While in the latter city the automobile, which arrived here lately, was purchased, and, as though to demonstrate that his love of good horseflesh had in no way weakened through this purchase, a thoroughbred animal was secured and sent down by the last Australia. The automobile will be used exclusively at night, but the Doctor still stands by his old favorites for day work.

Dr. Miner speaks in strong terms of the evident prosperity on the Coast. The copious rainfall throughout California has made the country look splendid. The trip down by the America Maru was most delightful. Captain Going devoted himself to the enjoyment of his passengers in every way and turned a usually tedious voyage into a most enjoyable holiday excursion.

THE CABINET MEETING.

Quarantine Guards Pay Schedule--Railroad Subsidy.

At a meeting of the Cabinet held yesterday morning the following pay schedule for members of the National Guard on quarantine duty was approved: Privates, $2 per day; corporals, $2.25; sergeants, $2.50; first sergeants, $2.75; second lieutenants, $3.77; first lieutenants, $4.08; captains, $4.84; adjutants, $4.84; majors, $6.74; lieutenant colonel, $8.07; colonel, $9.41; sergeant majors, $3; musicians, $2.25.

Minister Cooper made a lengthy report on matters connected with the plague outbreak, referring particularly to the appointment of a commission for the inspection of Chinatown, to the inspection of Chinese and Japanese quarters from Waikiki to Kalihi, and also to the experiments in connection with the probable presence of plague bacilli in sake and soil.

Minister Damon reported in the matter of the application for a subsidy by the O. R. & L. Co. amounting to $10,500, that the appropriation with the exception of $700 was exhausted.

The question of the land sales special deposit balance of $24,500 was held over until final action has been taken by Congress in regard to local matters. The applications of W. J. Coelho and Aaron Ku to be appointed notaries public were referred to the Attorney General for investigation and report.

NAVAL REPORT

The Olympia's Surgeon on Plague.

Bubonic Deaths Not Constant in Occurrence and Number Shown by Official Figures.

The appended report of A. F. Price, U. S. Naval Medical Inspector, written from the U. S. Flagship Olympia is noteworthy as it bears directly upon the plague at present in Honolulu. People are prone to believe that the plague, when once it gains a foothold in a community, will sweep off the inhabitants by hundreds. So deeply is the opinion settled in their minds that they are loth to believe that the cases of death reported so far in Honolulu are bubonic, merely because so many days intervened between the first and recent deaths. The Medical Inspector's report mentioned was incorporated in the annual report of the Surgeon-General of the U. S. Navy to the Secretary of the Navy, 1899, and the report is as follows:

"Plague:—The bubonic plague was present at Hongkong when the ship arrived there February 17, and the number of cases was increasing daily in spite of the isolation of the sick and energetic disinfection of houses and personal effects. The record was as follows: January 8, two cases; January 15, no case; January 22, two cases; January 29, two cases; February 5, five cases; February 12, five cases; February 19, nine cases; February 26, forty-seven cases; March 5, twenty-two cases; March 12, sixteen cases; March 19, thirty cases; March 26, forty-two cases; April 2, forty-two cases; April 9, one hundred and six cases; April 16, ninety-seven cases; April 23, one hundred and twenty-seven cases. It appears that during May and June the epidemic reached its highest point, about forty cases daily. Quite a number of fatal cases occurred among non-Asiatics. The disease is extremely fatal in the Chinese, the mortality being from eighty-five to ninety-five per cent.

"It is thought that the rate of mortality is somewhat lower in Europeans. There was a severe epidemic of this disease at Hongkong in 1894, and a more serious one in 1896. The disease in each of those years was comparatively limited in extent until April or May, when it assumed an epidemic form and lasted until about the end of June."

HARBOR DREDGER WORK.

Will Reach Depth of Twenty-Six Feet—Much Progress Made.

The Oahu Railway dredger has already begun the work of dredging out the spit of land and mud flats on the mauka side of the present railroad coal wharf and warehouses. The muck and soil is being pumped back on the Ewa shore line. The dredger will work from a point almost centrally located between the Sorenson wharf and the railroad coal wharf, and dredge to a depth of twenty-six feet. A line of survey stakes extends up toward the mouth of the Nuuanu stream, marking the proposed line of wharf extensions. The dredger has already been engaged in this new work for the last week and has removed the mud bank on which the battered rowboat has been stranded for some time. The dredging will be pushed directly up to the railroad embankment and a uniform depth attained all along the railroad frontage.

With the Government dredger cleaning out the entrance at the mouth of the Nuuanu stream, and the railroad dredger working in its present location, this upper part of the harbor will eventually be available for supplying much of the shipping, both deep water steamers and cargo ships, with necessary wharfage. Lately the Naval Row has been filled with all kinds of craft, which were compelled to await a turn at the docks. This congested condition of the lower part of the harbor will be greatly relieved by the construction of the railroad wharves.

JUDGE WILCOX'S MATINEE.

The Christmas Afternoon—Arrest of Hackmen—Two Sailors.

The Police Court had a less varied assortment of offenders yesterday than on the day previous, the only star cases being several for assault and battery. A bellicose Jap named Sukamoto, who attempted to play a tattoo on a native, was fined $10 and costs. Two German sailors from the ship Paul Isenberg, charged with assault and battery on the person of H. Rose, the first mate, were brought up with a round turn to the tune of $6 each and costs for their fun.

Two hackmen were arrested for violating a section of the hack regulations which prohibits them from tying up their vehicles on a main thoroughfare and going inside a public place. Both men had tied up in front of saloons and gone inside evidently to slake their holiday thirsts. A vigilant officer, however, found it necessary to escort them to the station and give them a chance to explain to his honor. The judge considered it necessary to charge one of them $5 and costs for his information, while in the other case the circumstances were different and the hackman was given some worldly counsel and told to tie up no more.

Ah Fork, charged with unlawful possession of opium, was discharged.

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks, and to some older ones. Doane's Ointment never fails. Instant relief and permanent cure. At any chemist's, 50 cents.

Liner America Maru Is Outside.

San Francisco Shipping Notes--Kinfaun's Long Trip from Liverpool--Planter Sails.

The waterfront yesterday was a scene of quiet compared with Tuesday's hustle, as only one Island steamer sailed. Today the Mikahala and Iwalandi will sail for leeward Kanai ports. The America Maru arrived late in the afternoon and anchored in the offing owing to the health conditions existing. She will sail for Yokohama at 7 o'clock this morning, taking the mail and some coal, but no freight or passengers. The only passengers booked on the vessel were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wheatley. The brig J. D. Spreckels was sighted off Diamond Head late in the afternoon with general cargo from San Francisco and will anchor in the stream this morning. The British bark Kinfauns was towed into the harbor yesterday with merchandise from Liverpool, whence she sailed for Honolulu on March 20th. She put into Cardiff for repairs, sailing from there on August 2. The Hongkong Maru, due from Yokohama tomorrow, will probably anchor outside. The following passengers are booked on her for San Francisco: W. A. Bowden, Y. C. Leftwich, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lurtson, E. R. Edgerton, Young Lack, Col. A. G. Hawes, E. D. Motts, Wm. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Bethase and E. H. Diamond.

New Ship for San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—Captain N. R. McLeod, for the past three years master of the brig Lurline, has resigned his command to Captain Turloff, formerly of the barkentine Monitor. Captain McLeod will leave on Saturday night for Scotland to superintend the completion of a new steel barkentine being built on the Clyde for Hind, Rolph & Co. of this city. The vessel is to be launched in May, and McLeod will sail in command of her. Hind, Rolph & Co. have a large fleet of sailing vessels now plying between this port and Honolulu, but it is not likely that the new vessel will be added to the fleet at present, or while she flies the British flag. But the outlook for shipping for the coming year is bright and there promises to be a demand at this port for tonnage of all description.

Joined the Kosmos Line.

J. V. C. Comfort, formerly purser of the America Maru, and for many years connected with the Pacific Mail Company, has been appointed freight agent of the Kosmos line.

Merchandise for Maui.

The steamer Kaulani, from San Francisco for Kahului, has an assorted merchandise cargo. Among the principal shipments were the following: 161,609 lbs rolled barley, 750 bbls cement, 1 bale dry goods, 21 cs hardware, 15,110 ft lumber, 3 pkgs machinery, 305 cs oils, 51 cts wheat, 51 pkgs railroad material, 100 sks middlings, 250 bbls lime, 47 bales hay, 100 lbs and 16 cs manufactured tobacco, 603 sks bran.

Forty-Eighth Departs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—The transport Grant set sail this evening for Manila with the Forty-eighth colored regiment. The baggage of the soldiers was transferred from Angel Island by the steamer Caroline to the Grant, and by 2 o'clock in the afternoon the regiment was on board. Once on board, the soldiers regaled their friends and the crowds on the wharf with songs and cheers. The men had been cooped up for several weeks in the detention camp at Angel Island, and any sort of freedom was welcomed by them. Repairs have been made on the Grant during her stay in port, and she goes away in good condition. Chief Steward Herbert has considerably augmented his staff, and if his department on the way out is as satisfactory as on the trip over, there will be no cause for complaint.

On the America Maru.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—The America Maru will sail tomorrow at 1 o'clock with a full cargo and about sixty cabin passengers. Such a crowd of passengers going away at this time of the year is something unprecedented in the Oriental trade. At this time last year a steamer left here with one passenger.

San Francisco Shipping.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—The Hawaiian steamer Kaulani, built here for the Wilder Steamship Company of Honolulu, sailed yesterday on her maiden voyage, taking a full cargo for Kahului.

The transport Grant will sail for Manila on Wednesday with the Forty-eighth Infantry (colored). This will probably be the last full regiment sent to the Philippines, although recruits will probably be sent from time to time.

The steamship Zealandia, formerly of the transport service, is lying at the Broadway wharf. Up to this time none of her officers have been discharged, and there is a general feeling aboard that the steamer will soon go to sea again. Rumor says that the Zealandia is going into the Hawaiian trade.

NOTES.

The Mauna Loa, from Kona and Kan, is due today.

The schooner Annie M. Campbell loads lumber at Tacoma for Honolulu.

The schooner Bertie Minor sailed from Eureka for Honolulu with redwood lumber on December 20.

The cargo of the barkentine Planter for San Francisco yesterday consisted of 14,986 bags of sugar, 1,787,525 pounds, valued at $69,247.

The steamer Ke Au Hou returned yesterday from the wreck of the Kilo-hana, having been unable even with the aid of the tug Iroquois to get the unfortunate steamer off the reef. She will perhaps be abandoned as a complete loss.

The following are the officers of the America Maru, L. E. Bemiss succeeding J. V. Comfort as purser; Commander P. H. Going, Chief Officer M. Rehberg, Chief Engineer A. H. Seaver, Purser L. E. Bemiss, Freight Clerk L. M. Ver Mehr, Surgeon R. De Pue Rickety.

FILTER WATER

Board of Health Favors
Reservoir Plant.Awaiting Estimate of Cost Before Asking Council of State to Make Necessary Appropriation.

There is a unanimous feeling amongst the members of the Board of Health to filtrate the water of the Nuuanu reservoirs so that at the source of the city's supply all danger to the health of the inhabitants will be removed. The subject of filtering the reservoir water supply has been brought up before but in each case was pigeon-holed and no action has been taken up to the present emergency.

President Cooper of the Health Board was asked yesterday as to his personal views in the matter, and stated that he was most certainly in favor of the proposition. "Either the reservoir water supply should be filtered, or closed in," said he. "It is a proposition which will cost altogether something like $100,000, but no matter what the cost, it ought to be carried out. The Superintendent of Public Works has the matter in hand at present and as soon as his estimates are ready they will be presented to the Board for approval. The Council of State will then probably be asked to convene to make an appropriation as an emergency measure."

Mr. George W. Smith of the Board said he was very much in favor of the filtering measure, and that it was a matter which should be pushed until an appropriation was made for putting the plant into operation. For years the measure had failed of support from the legislature and there had been a seeming opposition to installing the system. "I hope," concluded Mr.
Smith, "that we can hammer away at the project until an appropriation comes for the Board to go ahead with the work."

Dr. Wood is also favorable to the project and will press the proposition upon the Council of State.

The following report of the Minister of the Interior to the legislature assembled in 1890, is evidence that even a decade ago filtration was deemed necessary for the general health of the city.
The report, in full, reads:

Filtering.

The subject of filtering the water supply of the city has more than once been the subject of report to the Legislature. The large expense incident to a proper system of filtering has heretofore prevented the application of a principle which has been admitted by every one to be necessary to the securing of proper drinking water for the city. Special attention has been paid to this subject during the past period, and inquiries and investigations made as to the best method of securing the desired result. The conclusion arrived at has been that the Hyatt Pure Water Company's system of filtering will secure by far the best results for the money expended. A filtering plant which will probably be sufficient for the immediate present, to be located in Nuuanu Valley below the storage reservoir, with running expenses for the biennial period, will cost not to exceed $28,500. The system is such that it can be extended at any time by the simple attachment of additional filtering tanks. An appropriation is asked for the purpose of carrying this proposition into effect. The water from Makiki Valley it is believed will not require filtering after the water is brought down in the pipe, which is now on the ground ready for laying, as it will then run through the main instead of through the open ditches as at present.

The above recommendations, and amounts proposed to be spent, are large, and may appear to some members of the House to be beyond what the country can now afford; but I am confident that an examination of the facts and requirements of the service will convince the House that the expenditure at the present time of this amount of money for the purpose indicated will be economy, and is fully warranted by the importance of the water works service and the additional revenue which will be derived therefrom.

JOSEPH MARSDEN BACK.

Gives Views on Italian Laborers and How to Get Them.

Mr. Joseph Marsden returned yesterday on the steamer America Maru, after an absence of nineteen months spent chiefly in European traveling.
His meeting with Count Tolstoi has already been alluded to in these columns. A portion of Mr. Marsden's time was occupied in investigating the question of contract labor for these islands, in Italy. The result of his efforts, as well as those of Mr. Damon, who returned a few days ago, is already known, the United States government having expressed an objection to the immigration of laborers to Hawaii under the contract system.

"The Italians would make admirable laborers on our plantations," said Mr.
Marsden to an Advertiser representative,
"and I believe some arrangement can be made to secure a large number of families. Married men are, of course, the kind we want, for they would bring their families and remain.
Once a few families get settled here, there is no doubt that they would induce hundreds of other families to join them. They cannot realize how attractive the conditions are here. Some damage to our plans has been done by misinformed Italian newspapers in New York city, which published the allegation that Italians who had come over to Hawaii were treated as abject slaves, the overseer driving them to the field with a lash. This remarkable story was pictured out, and naturally had a very discouraging effect upon the Italians who had begun preparations for a journey to the islands.

"A prominent shipping firm in New York city gave me a suggestion which I think is a good one. This firm imports something like fifteen cargoes a year from Italy, and naturally has a large influence among the immigrants from that country. The head of the firm told me that during the winter months hundreds of Italians arrived in New York city and had considerable difficulty in obtaining employment.
Many, if not all such immigrants, I was suggested, could be secured for Hawaiian plantations if, say, a party of twenty-five families could be first brought over and made to see how very agreeable the conditions are here both as regards the constancy of employment on the plantations, and the wages.

"Italian laborers in New York and other parts of the East are paid $1.25 a day, out of which they have to pay house rents, buy fuel, and support their families. This is not so easily done during the severe winter months in the East. The $1.25 a day under those conditions does not compare favorably with what the Italians could do here, where they would get $16, $1 and $20, with free house rent, free firewood and employment all the year around. Of course, the expense of getting the laborers and their families here would have to be advanced, and no doubt there are firms which might become sponsors for them.

"The Italians, I feel sure, are the most desirable class of laborers for our plantations. They would, too, find life here similar in many respects to the existence they have led in their native land."

DON'T NEGLECT

A Common Case of Piles—It may Lead to Serious Results.

(From the Sydney Herald.)

When people generally understand that all such fatal diseases as fistula, ulcer of the rectum, fissure, etc., almost invariably begin in a simple case of piles, they will learn the wisdom of taking prompt treatment for the first appearance of trouble in this quarter.
Doan's Ointment will certainly cure
every form of piles—itching, bleeding, protruding, or blind piles—and hundreds of lives have been saved by using this cheap, effective remedy right at the start, because at such a time a single pot will effect a cure, while in the old chronic, deep-seated cases, several pots are sometimes necessary before a lasting cure is effected.
Here is a case:

Mr. William Gilliver, of the well-known firm of Gilliver & Curtis, railway and general contractors, and whose private address is "Avoca," Bankstown, has written the following unsolicited letter, which we herewith publish in full:

Dear Sirs:—In justice to you and suffering humanity I write to say that I suffered from itching piles for 22 years. I tried many doctors and pre-tently well all kinds of patent medicines, but got relief for a short time only.
Seeing your Ointment advertised I bought a pot and did not use more than one-half of it, not six months ago, and I am perfectly cured. You may use this as you wish.

Yours gratefully,
WILLIAM GILLIVER.

It cannot be repeated too often that Doan's Ointment will cure itching piles. IT WILL CURE THEM ABSO-LUTELY. But do not take the manufacturer's word for this; ask or write Dr. Gilliver; he knows, for it cured him, and he lives in Bankstown, a suburb 12 miles from Sydney. Is not that the best possible kind of proof? Could there be better?

Doan's Ointment is sold by all dealers at 50 cents per box or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Holister Drug Co., Honolulu, agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Only the highest grade of RED RUB-BER is used in the Stamps made by the HAWAIIAN GAZETTE CO.

Only last week we examined the beer brewed by the Capital Brewing Company of Olympia, Wash., and it is a perfect illustration of the quality of beer which we are always glad to commend, for the analysis showed it to be entirely free from any trace of any injurious substance. Such a high grade of beer is most beneficial in its use, for none of the pure malt and hops have been displaced by harmful ingredients.
Every hygienist will concur with us in saying that a beer of such superior excellence is a very wholesome beverage. Physicians often have occasion to prescribe a pure beer for cases of debilitation, and they can safely order
this beer, made by the Capital Brewing Company.

L. H. Dee has in his keeping the American Journal of Health and can be seen by anyone.

This beer can be had in bottle or on draught at the HOFFMAN, corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets. A large assortment of the very best of American and foreign liquors we are pleased to sell you and give you value for the benefit of your health.

Yours,
L. H. DEE,
Proprietor of HOFFMAN.

HON. A. SEWALL

Arrives Yesterday by America Maru.

Father of U. S. Special Agent-- Views on American Politics and Policy in Pacific.

Hon. Arthur Sewall of Bath, Me., who was the candidate for vice-president of the United States on the Bryan ticket three years ago, was among the passengers arriving on the steamer America Maru yesterday from San Francisco. He will visit his son, Harold Sewall, in Honolulu a few weeks before continuing his voyage to Hongkong and Manila, and expects to make a brief stop in this city on his way home a few months hence.

Unlike Mr. Bryan, Mr. Sewall is something of an expansionist. At any rate, chatting with a representative of the Advertiser, Mr. Sewall said: "No, I differ from Mr. Bryan regarding our territorial acquisitions. Now that we have taken them I am heartily in favor of holding them and making the most of them. Give them a uniform government, say like that of four territories in the United States. I do not know just what Senator Cullom proposes, but a territorial form of government would no doubt be most satisfactory, and I believe it will be adopted before long. It is not wise to place obstacles in the way of the administration's efforts to settle this question of placing our new colonies on a sound foundation. This is an age of progress, and we should take advantage of it."

"Annexation has of course been a good thing for Hawaii, the islands having probably doubled in value since coming under our jurisdiction. The islands will continue to increase in importance, too, and Honolulu is bound to become a great seaport and in all respects a much finer city than it is at present. The Philippines, Porto Rico and Cuba will also grow in importance and wealth. Cuba, like the others, will naturally become ours and should be given territorial government."

"I believe the heads of the Republican and Democratic tickets will be the same as before. McKinley will be nominated, and it appears to be pretty well understood that Mr. Root, secretary of war, will be the candidate for the vice-presidency. Will I accept a place with Mr. Bryan? Well, I am not a candidate. I do not think, furthermore, that it would be good policy to have a candidate from a section of the country where the party cannot expect an electoral vote. But the Democratic party is deserving of my best efforts, and I should probably not decline a nomination."

"But as for the issues of Democratic party in the last campaign, the country is in too prosperous a condition to warrant the expectation that they would win in the next contest. The entire country, from one end to the other, is extremely prosperous. Money is plentiful, and while times are so good people will not strive to have proposed reforms adopted. The issues may be brought forward when conditions change again for the worse, but there is no hope of their adoption under the present situation."

Commenting upon the territorial acquisitions of the United States Mr. Sewall said: "What the United States should be considering is the partitioning of China with a view of securing her share of territory which is before long to be divided among the nations." He appears to have a full realization of the tremendous future growth of American commerce in the Pacific.

V. M. C. A. Free Entertainment.

Next Monday being New Year's day, there will be a reception to young men from 12 to 2 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. hall. In the evening at 8 o'clock, the annual free entertainment will be given. Members are asked to call at the Association Hall and obtain tickets to distribute among their friends. The program will be an interesting one. The Amateur Orchestra will contribute three numbers, Mrs. Royal D. Mead a violin solo; Miss Matilda Walker a piano solo; Mrs. H. C. Austin and Miss Lillian Dymington give vocal numbers; and the Hon. Alex. Young an address. Other numbers will be announced later.

No remedy has as good a right to that title as Kickapoo Indian Oil. It is good for internal and external use; it is pain's most powerful panacea. No one can say "I won't" have neuralgia, rheumatism, earache or any other acute pain, but everyone who has a bottle of Kickapoo Indian Oil in the house can say with confidence "I won't" have neuralgia or any other pain long. The power of this oil over pain is marvelous. Toothache, earache, headache, neuralgia and rheumatic pains, dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, colic, cramps, and all acute pain yield instantly to it. You are always proof against pain with a bottle in the house. Hobron Drug Co., agents for Kickapoo Indian Remedies.

COLUSA SUNK

A Bark Well Known in Hawaii.

She Strikes Near the Carmanah Point Lighthouse—Captain and Crew Lost.

VICTORIA, Dec. 17.—A letter received here today from Lighthouse Keeper W. P. Daykin, who is stationed at Carmanah Point, gives news of the stranding of a bark, the identity of which he was unable to learn, and her subsequent release. At the same time Asa Drinkwater, a prospector of Alibi, comes forward with a story brought to him by the Dodge Cave Indians, which goes to prove that the bark seen on the Point, which was none other than the overdue Colusa, afterward foundered. The Indians watched the waters cover her.

That the Colusa has gone down and that Captain Ewatts, his wife and the crew have gone down to a sailor's grave in the waters they have sailed so long seems to be a certainty. Many have surmised that the bark was lost, but the surmises have been based on nothing more than the fact that she was so long overdue, coupled with that of her unseaworthy condition, she not having been repaired properly after the accident she sustained when entering Kahului on her last trip from San Francisco. The letter received from the lighthouse keeper, who has been unable to get word here for some time past owing to the collapse of the telegraph wire, was as follows:

"On the morning of the 18th two of my boys heard some rifle shots. Thinking it was some one signaling to them, they returned toward Bonilla Point. On the same rock that the Duchess of Argyle struck they saw a bark, the identity of which they could not ascertain. There was a thick fog, with light, baffling winds, heavy rain and a heavy surf on the beach. When first seen she was lying over considerably; her anchor was down, but her stern, as she swung, caught on the rock. A big sea struck her and she swung clear and straightened up to her anchor with her head out to sea, but her stern well in the small bay at the Chusapis waterfall, between and within a few yards of the wrecks of the Duchess of Argyle and the Puritan.

"The boys, being unable to cross the river to get home, ran down to Kilde, about two miles east of Bonilla, where they could open the wire, and then tapped with the ends of the wire, calling me, and said there was a vessel on shore at Bonilla. There being no Indians here I telephoned to Cloose to my eldest son to come up at once and bring assistance, which he did. At 1 a. m. the fog cleared, when I saw a bark dangerously near Bonilla. She was heading about west, but the wind hauled and she headed off shore. When the boys returned they said it was the bark they had reported, that a breeze sprung up off shore which enabled her to get clear, but they think she was badly damaged and shipped her cable. It was a miracle that she ever got clear, especially with the heavy surf running. She seemed a medium-sized vessel, rather smart-looking, painted black with a white stripe around her. She had double top-gallant yards and I think a skysail. Several pieces of redwood were picked up near where the bark went ashore."

Asa Drinkwater says that when he was on his way down he heard of the foundering of the vessel from the Dodge Cave Indians. The Indians said the bark, which from the description given must have been the same one seen ashore on Bonilla Point, was carried up in a northwesterly direction before the heavy gales, and when the vessel was about opposite Long Beach it was seen to roll from side to side and went down rapidly as though her bottom had fallen out or her seams parted. This was about the beginning of December. Many different Indians told the prospector the same story of the foundering of the vessel, and he says he has every reason to believe the report is true. Since the Indians told the prospector of the disaster they have gone to the big podlatch now in progress at Esmenanza from up and down the coast, and they have not reported the foundering of the vessel to the local customs. An effort will, however, be made to reach them and get their report.

After the vessel went down they watched for boats, but saw none. Then they searched the beach and rocks for wreckage without avail. Not a man or vestige of anything from the wreck seems to have reached the shore. Of course, it has not been proven definitely that the lost vessel is the Colusa, but everything seems to point to that having been the case.

Has Been in Hard Luck.

The Colusa is well known in the San Francisco trade, having been owned there for nearly a generation. In 1889 she was one of the smartest barks on the coast and was then in command of Captain Backus. The captain has not been in the vessel for many years, but always retained his interest in her and is now one of the principal sufferers by the loss of the vessel. In those days G. F. Smith & Co. were the managing owners, but during the last few years A. H. Paul has looked after the vessel. The Colusa left San Francisco Sept. 6 last for the Hawaiian Islands. During a storm she went ashore and was got off again after some difficulty. She was taken to Kahului, where an examination showed that her forefoot and part of the hull were gone. It was decided to send her to the Sound for repairs, and on October 21 she sailed in ballast for Departure Bay. On November 30 the Call in telling of the then overdue fleet said: "The old Colusa is out thirty-nine days from Kahului for Departure Bay, and she is the vessel for which the gravest anxiety is felt, as she was ashore on the island of Hawaii and was on her way to the Sound in ballast for repairs."

Why not generate your power from one CENTRAL station? One generator can furnish power to your Pump, Centrifugals, Elevators, Pumps, Railways and Hoists; also, furnish light and power for a radius of from 15 to 30 miles.

Electric Power being used, saves the labor of hauling coal in your field, also water, and does away with high-priced engineers, and only have one engine to look after in your mill.

Where water power is available it costs nothing to generate Electric Power.

THE HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC COMPANY is now ready to furnish Electric Plants and Generators of all descriptions at short notice, and also has on hand a large stock of Wire, Chandeliers and Electrical Goods.

All orders will be given prompt attention, and estimates furnished for Lighting and Power Plants; also, attention is given to House and Marine Wiring.

KUKUI STREET

Too Much Rubbish in the Roadbed.

Bishop Estate Responsible for T. I.
and for Insanitary Building Projects of Chinese.

The question of sanitary building is one that is at present getting the attention of officials and property-owners. In past years too little has been done and the results of indiscriminate building have been made painfully evident during the last two epidemics which have visited Honolulu. It was believed that the cholera scare would set matters right; and it did to some extent, where private persons were interested; but the landed estates, which for years had leased building lots at high rentals to Chinese and others, returned almost immediately to the old practice, which holds that a dollar to a land-leaser is worth more than the health of the community.

Sanitary building, since the plague outbreak, has again been brought prominently forward in official circles where it has been hoped the authorities would receive the support and co-operation of the land owners who lease largely for building purposes and property owners generally. This support has been and will be largely given, but in some quarters the disposition is again cropping up to continue building operations on the old lines, which have been so fatal to Honolulu. Some of the land-leasers here are also ignoring the suggestions and policy of the authorities and continue to measure sanitation with the amount of "cent per cent." to be returned to the pockets of their respective corporations or estates.

The continuation of Kukui street is a case in hand. The new portion is now open from Nuuanu avenue to the river. The roadway leading from Nuuanu, where it leaves that street, is at least three feet above the surrounding land. The filling in of the street has been largely done with rubbish which has been covered with earth and coral in places; this awaits the first heavy rains to discharge a noisy seepage upon the surrounding building lots and under the buildings now erected or in course of construction.

The construction of new buildings is now going on at both ends of new Kukui street and it will not be a great while before the entire street, on both sides is lined with tenements stores which will be occupied by Chinese, Japanese and natives. The manner in which these are being constructed is most objectionable. At each end of the new thoroughfare the buildings are placed on a level with the roadway and are boarded up on the sides next the street, leaving a low-lying, filthy breeding space extending throughout. This space varies in depth from three feet at Nuuanu street to one foot in the middle of the block and is the same at the river end of the street.

The land on the makai side of the new street is especially objectionable, in its present state, for building purposes as the drainage naturally runs in that direction. On the side of the street toward the river end of the extension are fifteen or twenty tenements and dwelling houses, mostly occupied by Chinese and natives, whose occupants will be fully exposed to the evil effects of the surface drainage, especially that coming from the elevated roadway. Add to this the unhealthy condition of the numerous privy vaults on this side of the street, with the well-known filthy living habits of the residents, and it is difficult to see how the district when fully built up can escape an epidemic, if, indeed, it does not turn out a hot bed of disease under ordinary conditions.

That such a system of unsanitary building is endorsed by those who own the property is shown by the fact that the leases for the buildings, thus far erected by Chinamen, have been given within the past month or six weeks; and, it is understood, other leases can be secured upon the usual terms, without conditions as to the kind and quality of buildings to be erected thereon. In fact the continuation of Kukui street is the repetition of the abuses of Chinatown in a respectable quarter of the growing city. For this the Bishop Estate is chiefly responsible.

A CLEVER JOURNALIST.

A San Diegan Who Comes to Join the Advertiser Staff.

Frederick Bennett of the San Diego Union arrived by the America Maru yesterday and will join the Advertiser's family of writers. His old paper speaks of his departure from the Southern California seaport as follows:

Frederick Bennett, long a trusted and valued member of this paper's staff, and for nearly two years, city editor, has resigned and will shortly leave for Honolulu, where he has accepted a responsible position on the Commercial Advertiser. Mr. Bennett has rendered faithful and efficient service to this journal, and his work has always been of a very high class. His sterling traits of character have endeared him to his associates on the Union, who will keenly regret his going. The position, however, that has been tendered to him in Honolulu is an exceptionally good one. So, while regretting his departure, Mr. Bennett's friends, both on the Union and in the community at large, will be pleased with his good fortune, and all will wish to this clever newspaper man the highest success in his new field.

Hawkes' Cut Glass

In their town. Can a stronger argument be brought to bear to convince you that "Hawkes' Glass is the peer of all makes? "Hawkes' Glass" is seldom advertised; some makers' names are far better known because of widespread advertising. We wondered at this and made inquiries. This is the result: The "Hawkes" factory, already one of the largest factories in America, works at its full capacity the year around; there is no time to write ads; all hands are busy making their famous goods.

It takes months to fill an order for their glass, but when finished it is the finest production in the world.

We are exclusive dealers in "Hawkes' Cut Glass and carry a large stock of all their cuttings. It costs no more than doubtful makes.

NEW CASES OF PLAGUE

First Regiment Called Out After Midnight—Scenes and Incidents of the Scare.

*****
An autopsy was performed last night on the Chinese young man who was found dead at the gateway of the Chinese hospital. His was a suspicious case, and the postmortem developed the symptoms of bubonic plague which have been observed in all the previous fatal cases with a more pronounced showing in the axillary gland of the right side. Here the gland was badly swollen and a bubo of considerable size was cut out and preserved for bacteriological examination. The left inguinal gland was also swollen, and both were filled with the same bloody serum which was discovered in the other cases. The heart was filled with fluid not yet clotted, and the abdominal cavity contained serum. No official statement coming directly from the Board of Health has been issued that the man came to his death from bubonic plague, but the announcement will probably come from the Board today. Prominent physicians who were present at the autopsy were certain of the cause of death as above stated.

All day yesterday the physicians and agents of the Board of Health were kept busy responding to calls to examine cases of sickness in every part of the city. Considerable opposition on the part of the Chinese is being met with in spite of the promise made on Tuesday by the Chinese Consul and merchants that they would do everything in their power to assist the Board of Health.

In cases of sickness the Chinese failed to report to the Health Office and smuggled the patients from one section to another. In one room in Chinatown which had been visited by the inspectors very often was found a sick Chinaman who had been kept in hiding for several days. The Chinese seem to think that if a case of sickness is found in their house or place of business the quarantine will be placed around them and they immediately devise plans to get rid of the patient.

Considerable opposition toward the Chinese Consul and Vice Consul has been manifested for several days, and despite the advice of the Consul the Chinese continue concealment as before, much to the exasperation of President Cooper and the Board of Health in general.

The proprietor of the tailor shop on King street, from which the Chinaman who died at Pawaa came, was sent out to the Chinese house on Sheridan street accompanied by his little boy where they will be quarantined. Five of the original inmates of the house who escaped when the body was discovered are still at large, and the police are making a hunt for them.

Dr. Mitamura yesterday evening reported a sick Japanese in a building near the corner of Smith and Pauahi streets called Kobayashi's hotel. After several visits were made to the place Dr. Mitamura said he considered it a serious case and asked that the Board remove the patient to the Kakaako isolation hospital. Dr. Wood decided it was best to carry out this recommendation, and also has quarantined the premises.

The only death reported during the day was that of a young Chinaman who had been sent out of Chinatown yesterday afternoon to the Chinese hospital with the evident intent of avoiding the Board of Health inspectors. Dr. Garvin and a health officer went out at the request of a Chinese physician and found the body of a young Chinaman in the lane just outside the gates. They were told that the man had come out during the afternoon saying he was sick and had applied for admission to the hospital, which had been refused. The Chinaman lay down just at the yard entrance and died shortly after.

At 7 o'clock three health officers and a reporter of the Advertiser went out to the hospital and found the man within the gates covered with a blanket. He was a young man scarcely twenty years of age and evidently a worker in a shop. The reporter learned later that the man had been brought to the hospital in an express wagon and came from a store on Nuuanu street facing Pauahi street.

At 8 o'clock last evening a hack drove up to the Health office followed by some native boys. The hack held a Chinaman who was said to be sick and had been found at King and River street on the Ewa side of the stream just as he was about to be placed in another hack. The natives around there objected to the Chinaman's removal as they feared a quarantine. The hackman became frightened and drove away hurriedly. The sick man could not stand and lay on the sidewalk. The natives called a second hack and brought the patient and a Chinaman who had been assisting him, to the Health office. Doctor Garvin, upon examination found that the man had a swollen inguinal gland covered with a plaster, and the circumstances were sufficient to have the man sent to Kakaako as his temperature registered 102.5. The Chinaman had twice been refused admittance at the place where he was found. It was learned that his brother is Chong Song Say, who keeps a store on Maunakea street.

from where the sick Chinaman probably came. He is not expected to live until this morning.

Minister Mott-Smith has sent by the America Maru official communications to the Hawaiian Sanitary Inspectors at Yokohama and Hong Kong, notifying them of the prevalence of the plague here, and that Honolulu is at present an infected port.

Judge Carter has appointed as his assistants for examining the Chinese and Japanese houses between Waikeke and Kalihi, the following gentlemen: J. O. Carter, Jr., H. M. Mott-Smith, C. H. Parker, P. T. Phillips, James Spencer, W. J. Coelho, F. T. P. Waterhouse, A. L. C. Atkinson, John Mitchell, J. O. Young, W. A. Castle, A. V. Gear, George Waterhouse, P. M. Lansdale, W. M. King, Allan Judd.

Quarantine Established.

Minister Cooper last night ordered out the First Regiment to quarantine the district which is described in the By Authority which appears in another column. By the time this paper goes to press the entire district will once more be surrounded by a bayonet guard, which will be far more strict than the last quarantine. Col. Jones by midnight had been able to gather a large part of the regiment together, and Marshal Brown gave orders to bring out the reserve mounted and foot police to assist the military.

The case of death at the Chinese hospital has, by the establishment of the new quarantine, been pronounced officially a plague death.

New passes will be issued today in lieu of the passes issued during the first quarantine.

BY AUTHORITY

Board of Health Office, Honolulu, December 28th, 1899.

AMERICA MARU

How Christmas at Sea
Was Celebrated.

Meets the Gaelic -- Sports and Fun
End with a Splendid Dinner
--Ball at Night.

The observance of Christmas was a notable event on the steamer America Maru, which arrived yesterday afternoon from San Francisco. Capt. Going's popularity among the passengers had already become well established, and his plans for the occasion were heartily entered into by all the sixty-one cabin passengers. The first noteworthy event of the day, however, was the passing of the steamer Gaelic, two days out from Honolulu, bound for San Francisco. When directly opposite the Gaelic, and about half a mile distant, the siren of the America Maru sounded a long salute, which was responded to by blasts from the Gaelic's deep whistle. Both vessels signalled their names. It was the first sight of a vessel of any description seen by those on the America Maru since leaving San Francisco four days previous. The first feature of the Christmas programme was a candy-pull in the saloon, in the afternoon, nearly all the passengers participating. Old and young alike enjoyed the old-fashioned fun.

The principal event, of course, was the dinner at 7 o'clock and the magnificence of the spread was a subject of general remark. Globe trotters declared that they had never seen the equal of the dinner on shipboard anywhere. The menu was elaborate, the turkey, goose, quail on toast, terrapin and plum pudding constituting but a small part of the fine dinner. Champagne was served in generous style, besides sherry, claret and other wines. At each plate were bon-bons, fancy Christmas cards and artistically printed menu cards, a separate sheet containing the programme of dances for the ball, which took place later, on the starboard side of the promenade deck.

Near the end of the dinner, Hon. Arthur Sewall arose and proposed a toast to the commander of the America Maru, Capt. Going. The captain responded happily. A toast, proposed by Chief Officer Rehberg, was also drunk to the ladies, on sea and land, and one by Dr. De Pue Riekey to the guests of honor at the captain's table, Miss Gertrude Schallenberg, of San Francisco, a bride-elect, who is journeying to Manila to become the wife of Capt. Fitzhugh of the Thirty-sixth infantry. A toast to the officers of the steamer was also given.

At 9 o'clock in the evening the whistles and bells on the steamer with a great din announced the arrival of Neptune and his wife, Aphrodite, impersonated by Chief Officer Rehberg and Dr. Riekey, respectively, who were dressed in weird costume, and caused great merriment as they went about the gaily-decorated decks delivering messages from the mermaids and sea-elves. Before the couple left, the ball had opened, music being furnished by Dr. Anderson on the piano. A Virginia reel was one of the most enjoyable numbers. Later, T. M. Starkey sang operatic airs, and the evening passed with great hilarity, winding up with a late supper.

The affair was in all respects very well planned, and thoroughly enjoyed. The passengers expressed their appreciation of Capt. Going's efforts in a memorial, which was placed on his table yesterday at the luncheon hour.

Opera at the Orpheum.

"Said Pasha" was presented again last night with brilliant pageantry and sparkling music. The company is thoroughly at home, and sings with their usual vim. The engagement is a success and the management has evidently not overestimated its own capabilities, a fact which should be appreciated by the public. "Il Trovatore," which will be remembered as the great musical success of the engagement at the Opera House, is the bill for tonight. Mr. Parmley was excellent in the title role, while Miss Andrews and Miss Leekley were ably efficient. It should attract a large house.

A. S. Cleghorn Returns.

Hon. A. S. Cleghorn arrived home yesterday on the America Maru from San Francisco. He left Honolulu early in October, intending to go on to Washington on private business, but was taken ill in San Francisco, and spent five weeks in a hospital there. He found it inadvisable to proceed to Washington, but expects to return to the Coast again in the spring, when he will go East.

Chicago Smith's Fortune.

In a bedroom over the Reform Club there long lived an old gentleman who was known as "Chicago Smith." His personal expenditure could not for years have exceeded £200 per annum; but report said that he was rich beyond the dreams of avarice, and that the chief desire of his life was to die the richest man in England. A few weeks ago he did die. Particulars of his will appeared in the newspapers, and greatly to the surprise of those who knew him, it was proved at less than £60,000. Was Chicago Smith a fraud? Had he been honored on false pretenses as a mine of wealth? Not at all. He left about £9,000,000. All this was in house property in Chicago, and real estate abroad owned by an Englishman, pays in England neither estate nor legacy duty. Of this vast fortune, Mr. Smith left £3,000,000 to his nephew and the same amount to a married niece, and he also left them residuary legatees; this will bring them in another million each. The remaining million was left in various legacies.—London Truth.

The Y. M. C. A. New Year's reception to young men will be held in the large hall next Monday from 10 a. m. till 2 p. m. In the evening an entertainment will be given. A good program is being drawn up, and the affair promises to be a big success.

Hing Lee Chan of the Orpheum block, who was arrested a few days ago for selling oleomargarine for butter, was tried day before yesterday and fined $5 and costs for the offense. The defendant set up that he had purchased the oleomargarine of Lau Fat Leong, at the corner of Punchbowl and Queen streets, and that it was billed to him as butter. Yesterday the latter China man was brought up and the keg was produced as the original container, which, upon examination, was found to contain a very faint imprint of the word "Oleomargarine." This he said was bought of Messrs. Theo. H. Davies & Co. On the recommendation of the Marshal the man was discharged, as he evidently had acted in good faith. It is learned from a reliable source that the wholesale dealers will probably be cited today to explain why they have not complied with the law in plainly marking their oleomargarine.
