there is none to transgress; a loose, illdefined body of enstems and precedents takes the place of a constitution.

Next in authority to the Saltan is the Premier or Grand Vinier, himself frequently an adventure of alies origin, appointed and reasoned by the few of the Sultan, without reference to the wishes or necessities of the people. A crafty Armentian, a suitable Greek or force Albanian, or a renegrade from central or western Europe may hold this unstable appoint mentalways subject to summare dismissal. Our English and German importers are more interested in securing the banedis which result from a continued and assured production of sugar at a substantial profit than they are in the small commissions on their imports from England and Germany. They would have little to import from any source if this country shall have to give up making sugar. We hope to hear the views must allow a distinct the procureous eminence, but the making sugar. most able, and least scrappions of them all, are at all times hable to find themselves over weighted, corwitted, dismissed or de-graded by irregular and often unrecogniz-able influences. With a depoted treasury, with our practices staring us in the lace, it is rank fully to spend even $2,000 or such a receive expectation, and this the debt of the country is undestry in difficulties, with hard times staring us in the lace, it is rank fully to spend even $2,000 or such a receive expectation, and this one is as likely to cost $3,000 as $2,000. Economy in small things to what will asset in making a country's finances look healthy mestered of sick. As to the appointment of Mr. Ahole, it is a patient fact that he was not chosen for the ability, but that he was not chosen for the ability, but that he was not chosen for the ability, but that he was not chosen for the ability. But that he was not chosen for the ability, but that he was saintly liberally rewarded by the Minister of Foreign Affairs for the man not of his voting in the session of the Legislature part chosed.

Fance sach conjectures as we can form by reading American newspapers, Haine is likely to be elected. The attack on his private character made by an Indiana pormalist is not likely to harm him, in view of makes to the Caveland search, and the can only hold his post just a finite prominent Kentincky democrats declarative for the Caveland search, and the care only hold his post just a finite prominent Kentincky democrats declarative reprehensible they down him to be otherwise.

For our own part, we cannot say that

United States, we should not hesitate to advocate universal free trade at these Isl ands. As it is, we see no reason why that treaty should not be made more desarable to the people of the United States than it is, and therefore less open to attack from their solds by making all American manniatines or products free of duty. We should then go as far as practicable in the direction of free trade, and at once strengthen the treaty and redieve our people from a large portion of the unjust tax atom which lies at the root of all systems of enstones duties.

For the second time France has blundered berself out of Egypt. The French are not only vexed, but regret in their heart of hearts, the cellapse of the conference. Had the nation been causifully informed of the question, it would never have permitted its government to be made the origan of the Huist Bussue, to the detriment of the follower, for the French are instinctively the foss of oppression. At best, the Bond-Heiders formed only the red herring trailed to throw England off the real scent. The aim of France was, to regard the position a formidable looking submarine boat, not submerged up to latest advices, was also constructed at this factory. On the merit side of

THE PARLIAMENT OF PRANCE. The Congress does not present a blook. The seeds of dissolution seem taken root hard and fast in the mini poorum. It was hoped to finish the wo means, perhaps, commencing danger, occaing meeting was extremely unruly, bu popular assemblies when excited do not semble Louis XIV., the courtiers; the viva semble Louis XIV., the courtiers; the vivac of the French cabracter only makes the of ference more marked. The government or nitted the error of voting down the minor and strangling all discussion. That was be but certain to create great irritation and py voke reprisals in every form. It was fun-mentally another great blunder, to view Congross, the highest political power in-realm, as subordinate to the Senute and Clin-ter of function the mere voting machine. At Port Arthur the works are formidable and might prove a sewere check to the French arms. It is known that ever 366 torpedoes electric and contact, have been laiff at the mouth of the harbor in triple lines. Should the place be captured however, the French would find immense quantities of munitimes of war accumulated there during the past three years. The parrison at Fort Arthur are An-Kwei mon, who are not much noted for bewary. Once sweep away the torpedoes and the place would fall. The guns in the forts are principally Krupps, of heavy callber, and Shanghui-make Armstrongs. The question will be, can the reaim, as senorcinate to the Semis-acri-ber of Departies: the mere voting machin ministry whose position had already seriously shaken. The expectation is an econsative of the situation require, the Ferry's revision hill be carried, even wi necessities of the situation require, that Ferry's revision lail be carried, even with its faults, and so close the Congress. The o potents of the cabinet are all able men terril in earnest; in a white beat at the prenier, a full of expedients. If M. Ferry be defeate anarchy is the consequence.

THE ANARCHISTS.

The Americksta held a violent meeting; it stated that they desired to be in no may compared with the deputies sitting at V sailes, who were simply "bandita." M. Mahimself a deputy, arowed the Congress v positively "abominable," and M. Laisant, other deputy, agreed the hest thing to do, w to suppress it. Only fifty members of meeting volunteered to march then and the on Vermallies. Summer Days in Old Castine

"the, the old place ain't what it used to be, dreamly hume a primeral fisherman through his nose, as he views a throng of Broadway dressed visitors lumging upon the plants of so called "Queen Anno" cottage. And the saline relic of by—going generations is right. Castine has modergone wondrons changes during the past few years. It used to be a fishing town, but now the landlady deals out only salt mackerel from the New York market, and descriptions. ground of the riscous summer it is the trampin einter it is only a trille less desolate than Lad, branklin Bay. One thing however, remains nelunged; the fogs. And a Castine fog is a g indeed. It comes to stay, sometimes for eks, shutting out the weeks, shutting out the rays of the sun, moon and stars as effectively as a mighty lid of white selow. It makes the streets dim at no and the big elms from through it like giant specters. It makes its way indoors, and your friend across the room looks shadowy. It dims speciers. It makes its way indoors, and your friend across the room books shadowy. It dims the luster of glossy collars and cuffs and makes wild havec with crimps and frizzes. But it has its good traits too, for it gives the ladies of Castine a softness and purity of complexion rivalling that seen in the Channol Isles of England, and to the lawns and trees it gives a depth of lustrous green that can scarcely be imagined in places where the grass and leaves are scorched and blistered half the time.

But then Castine isn't perpetually in a fog. There are many sumy cloudiess days. And then there is a view of Penobscot Bay and its multifudinous related that is indescribably beautiful. The town too, is a fine sight, with its houses more than a century old, and its attreets over-arched with elms that were lusty trees "in the good old colony times when we were under the King."

There are some well-preserved old customs prevalent in Castine, and at least one of them has caught even the iconoclastic summer bearier in its stares. This is the hay-rack party, of which the straw ride of New York and New Jersey is but a feeble and unavailing instation. Far out in the country, when the evening stars are twinkling, an old stone farm-house that has endured many an Indian siege, is reached. It stands in a garden of hollybocks and peppies and is half covered with honeysockies and roses. In troop the hay-rack rides into the kig kitchen, with the beams of the floor above so low that the heads of the tallest models, chickens, and cider that is equal to champage, are discussed. God estimates us not by the position ware in, but by the way in which we fill it. A little three year old girl in Santa Clara valley, seeing a rainbow for the first tim called her mother to the door, and said Mamma, come and see what a beautiful ribbon there is in the sky." Aquatic birds outnumber the land birds because their food never fails, not because they are more prolific. The fulmar petre lays but one egg, yet it is believed to the most numerous bird in the world.

A writer in Hygime Protique states the proof by soaking them for some hours in thick soap water. The compound forms a fatty acid within the leather and makes it opervious to water.

Professor Wood, the naturalist, says the cockroach has 3,000 teeth. It would seen that the value of this information to science scarcely compensates for the obvious ob-jections to which the operation of counting a cockroach's teeth is open.

Two doctors were disputing by the bed-side of a patient. "I tell you the liver is diseased," said one. "Nonsense; nothing of the kind. It is the spleen." "Very well. we shall see at the post morten who is in the right." Great sensation on the part of the patient, whom, in the heat of the argument, they had forgotten.

There is no better has not in literature than the reply of a garl who heard her father criticised severely across a dinner table. The careless critic paused a moment to say, "I hope he is no relative of yours Miss L.," and quick as thought she replied with the utmost nonchalance. "Only a cor

In a few days the Government discovered that the offensive article was an extract from Macaulay's History, and the newspaper man was let out.

The State of California is 700 mile long, with an average width of 220 miles, making an aggregate area of 98,634,240 acres. Of this amount 65,000,000 are adapted to agriculture, 15,000,000 to graz ing, 4,000,000 are swamp and overflowed land, and 14,034,240 are lakes, bays and precipitous mountains. The Federal Gov ernment has granted to the State 10.782. 160 acres of public land.

The noblest undertaking the Grand Army of the Republic has set itself about is raising money for the wounded and un cared for soldiers in the South who need surgical aid and wooden legs to stump around on. Charities of this kind, rend ered by brave men to brave men, do more to knit up fraternal ties and destroy old mities than volumes of effusive writing and speechmaking.

A correspondent of the Scientific Ameri can has made some calculations on how long it would take to fill the Sahara with water from the Mediterranean Sea. He finds that it would require 4,000 years for the water from the Mediterranean to fill the Valley of the Jordan, which is 1,000 feet below the former, the water to flow feet deep, with a velocity of four miles ar bour. With a channel 100 times this capa city it is possible, he says, to limit the filling to forty years. At the same rate it would take 20,000 years to fill up the Cas pian Sea to the sea level, and thousand years to fill up the Sahara. An Italian has invented a new car An Italian has invented a new carriage-wheel, in which the iron rim is united to the base by semi-circular slat spokes. The cur-valure allows them to serve both as spokes and springs. The result of experimental trials is said to have surpassed the anticipations of the inventer. The Minister of Finance will find it is order to publish an account of the receipts and expenditures of the government. far as memory serves us no quarterly re port was made in December of 1883, but then we got the account of the full bien nial expenditures, as soon as the Legisla ture met and the task of finding out its short comings, which were many, fell upon the Finance Committee. No report was made for the quarter ending June 30th, so that on September 30th we shall be jus six months behind in our knowledge o how our money has been spent for us. It is to be hoped that the Minister will com ply with the law, and moreover he will comply with it fully, and not give such a meagre statement as was published Sep tember 30th 1883. The law calls for "statement in detail;" it also calls for a comparison with the same quarter of the preceding year. We may gently point out that this has not been done.

Ir will be well for the public to remen ber that the last day for receiving depre cinted silver at the Treasury other than the Hawaiian coinage, will be the last of this month. Neither do we think that Cleveland is the kind sador or travelling prince is all that is seen of him. the opinion of our best financial thinkers here, and the Legislature has endorsed their opinion. The writer says:

"In respect to the first rises in still time to pre-tent the debasement of the standard of value to the level of a dollar of light weight, worth horslittle more than eighty cents in gold; but every year's delay will bring the country means to the insyst-

Their present status is that they cannot pay their indebtedness to parties whom they have been owing far some time back. We know of one account of over $10,000 which they owe and are unable to pay. They have moreover, been obliged to ask time upon the bonds which fell dies on the first of this month.

By the 15th of October the first ship ment of silver coin to San Francisco oneh to be made, a gentleman thoroughly ac quainted with the resources of the country and a keen thinker on financial matters tells us that he has grave doubts as to the ability of the government to carry out the law. That with the many expenses to most, even the incoming taxes will not

The present condition of affairs remi one very forcibly of Pheton when he bor-rowed the chariot of the sun. He found himself utterly unable to control the fiery. The position of a pilot is by no means a steeds and nearly set the world on fire. Our Cabinet possesses not one member who understands even the radiments of financial policy and it has driven its chariot in such a way that it no longer has any control over it. The crash is coming, when our little world may be set on fire; unfor tunately there is no Jupiter to hurl his thunderbolt and save the little orb. The people of Hawaii must look forward

bers of society, who therefore ought to bear their proportionate share of the expense of the government. In a representative form of government, it is particularly essential that those who have the voting and have a pecuniary interest of their own, in the way money is voted and tares imposed. If it were not for poll, road and school taxes, which are the same for all tax payers, there would be a large number of our voters and legislators who would view with utter unconcern the manner and extent of raising public revenues, except as they reaped the benefit of the outlay. The except task owners of taxes on real estate up to three hundred dollars in three centuries it may not be out of place. real estate up to three hundred dollars in t value, was a piece of folly, which many deem to be unconstitutional, as it takes away from a large number of voters all responsibility or care for the management of public moneys, and fails to require of them their proportionate share of the pubhe burdens in return for the protection

The method of raising a revenue by cm tons duties on imports is regarded with favor because it is a kind of burden which carries the least friction. It cannot be layor because it is a kind of burden which carries the least friction. It cannot be evaded easily, and is distributed equally. Every one who uses imported dutiable articles must pay the duty in the enhanced price of the articles. The equality of this taxation is however, one of its most objectionable and unjust features. Rich and poor bear it alike, the former by buying more cheaply and easily at whole sale, having the advantage. A claim often made in favor of raising taxes in this way is that by discriminating in favor of articles of home production and against like articles of foreign production, home industries can be fostered. This fallacy, as we regard it, has long been exploded in Great Britain in favor of free trade. It has no basis in this country, for we have no man affectures or other industries to call for protection.

If it were not for the opportunity which is afforded by our taxation of imports it.

If it were not for the opportunity which is afforded by our taxation of imports to negotiate a treaty of reciprocity with the chy, tom sered by a fitful and uncertain better than when he is

Moreover we not only have grave doubts relative to Mr. Aholo's abilities as a scientific thinker, but we have absolutely no doubt as to the uselessness of the expedition altogether. If such an expedition were necessary, there, of course, can be no doubt that ade Commission. If the editors in sary, there, of course, can be no doubt that Professor Alexander is the proper man to be sent; but of what particular advantage the country is it to be represented at this meeting? Absolutely ad. The whole thing is a matter of vanity on the part of certain European States, who insist upon meridian at variance with the Engli speaking nations of the world. Does Haoffice are not anxious to make this country solid, but they are trying simply to puff it up into a bubble reputation, which the

With a depleted treasury, with our printo spend even $2,000 on such a useless exto spend even $2,000 on such a useless expedition, and this one is as likely to cost $4,000 as $2,000. Economy in small things is what makes money for a family, and economy in small things is what will assist in making a country's finances look healthy instead of sick. As to the appointment of Mr. Aholo, it is a patent fact that he was not chosen for this ability, but that e was not chosen for his ability, but that ner of his voting in the session of the Legslature just closed.

Much to be regretted as is the public discussion of Blaine's or Cleveland's alleged immoral ities, it shows that there is a healthy moral sentiment in that courtes to which it is a sentiment in that courtes to which it is considered in that is seen of him.

The Sultan has various methods of making known his will to his Ministers and their subordinates. On certain important questions His Majesty holds what is called a contract the courtes of traveling prince is all that is seen of him. With regard to the second there is perhaps this difference, that while in the United States there may be uncortainty with regard to the force may be uncortainty with regard to the second there is perhaps this difference. It would be far more a matter of haps a cunuch or other slave to add a signature for form's sake, to his Imperial Irealth as this is called.

Of course the commerce of these islands by no means large enough to warrant ar pilots going 90 to 100 miles to sea, and taying away ten days at a stretch. All our pilots are required to do is to be promptly on hand off Diamond Head, when a vessel is desirous of making the port. That they are not promptly on hand is a notorious fact. Not only have sailing vessels to wait, but it has happened not even once or twice only that steamers have

The position of a pilot is by no means a sed of roses, and elsewhere men go into the business who mean to work hard. Here it is a somewhat dilitate employment. Elsewhere there is the keenest competi-tion, here there is none; if a question arises as to "turns," it can be easily settled by an amicable game of euchre at the office on the wharf. We do not say this is ac nally done, all we mean is that things Slip along in a happy-go-lucky fashion.

THE affairs of Egypt have been so promnently before the world, so long and so ecently that every reader of contemporary here to supply a rough sketch of the government of Turkey itself during the last few years.

The Turkish Empire, as is well known, occupying the south eastern extremity of Europe and the south western portion of Asia, commanding both shores of the Dar-danelles, the sea of Marmora, and the Bos-phorus, with the unrivalled situation of its capital, Const antinople, is a possession of such vast importance, that all the world quently an adventurer of alien origin, ap pointed and removed by the fat of the should then go as far as practicable in the direction of free trade, and at once strengthen the treaty and relieve our people from a large portion of the unjust taxation which lies at the root of all systems of customs duties.

Our English and German importers are mentalways subject to summary dismissal, with our reflectence to the wishes or necessities of the people. A crafty Armenian, a subtle Greek or fierce Albanian, or a renegade from central or western Europe may hold this unstable appointment and removed by the sat of the subject to summary dismissal, without reference to the wishes or necessities of the people. Associated with which result from a continued and assured the Grand Vizier are certain other funcproduction of sugar at a substantial profit, than they are in the small commissions on called in deference to the usage of more civilized countries a Cabinet. Oftentimes able, and generally unscrupulous men occupy this precarious eminence, but the most able, and least scrupulous of them all, are at all times liable to find themselves over weighted, outwitted, dismissed or de-

From time to time, a bad harvest, a de-preciation of prices, an earthquake, or what not, threatens whole provinces with financial ruin, the Sultan to conciliate foreign, rather than domestic opinion, issues an edict commanding the strictest econospeaking nations of the world. Does Ha-waii expect to be heard in the matter? We trow not. It is on the part of the gov-ernment which engineered this item through the Assembly, simply an adver-tising dodge. The present incumbents of a fresh loan, followed invariably by the reply from the exhanges of the world that no advances, can be made but at ruinous pin point of criticism pricks as easily as discount, and thus the debt of the country

Only two hundred years ago battering at the gates of Vienna, and to-day unable at the gates of Vienna, and to day mable to maintain itself in its own Capital, its very independence held only on sufferance, and that by reason of the jealousies of its great neighbors. Only seven year ago stripped of large fertile provinces, avow-edly on account of incurable misrule, such as is faintly outlined above.

The Labor Problem. Erron Gazerre-We have looked and wor lered, and as time goes on and experience ripens that hundreds of thousands of dollars should be expended in searching over the world for laborers and bringing them here, running both the government and planters into debt to do pt, when Chinamen come here without cost if permitted to do so. For rough work—"Hewers of wood and drawers of water," all things considered, none equal the Chinese. As they are industrious almost beyond comparison, they will hunt for and perform a low class of labor necessary in our civilization, that no others will perform. They are such reliable and constant plodders, that for most plantation labor we believe they are preferred to all others by four-fifths of the planters on these islands. They are our labor stand-bys; all the other classes are too few to make more than a ripple upon our and bringing them here, running both the govern are too few to make more than a ripple upon our labor market. The Chinamen are as easily sond upon a plantation as so many sheep, and as harmless, and if hired from some basiabout as harmless, and if hired from some business Chinaman, dozens of them are no more trouble than one native or Portuguese family, in fact less so, if the planter assumes to satisfy the demands of the latter's stomachs and to remove all their real and imaginary ills.

The running in debt to bring Portuguese, Japanese, or others here, is zertainly expensive besiness, if not an unwise policy, particularly at this stage of our sugar interest. Many may be runned by faxition and debt while experimenting for cleany labor in this coulty and tardy manner, when just as good and cheap and an abundance of it, can be obtained from China free; only say "Come Joka." After all this expenditure and debt, the past twelve months has buggit us that it will not cheapen labor it Chinamen are shut out. The Portuguese and others brought here at such great expense, are hardly sufficient to fill the depleted ranks of the laborars. How then can it be expected that labor will be cheapened if laborare do not increase in number? Many Chinamen go into business on their own account; manufacturing, a rice culture, gardening, etc. and instead of being die and many leave the country, thus, from many causes, laborers become fewer in number, and it is a grave question for planters to face, whether they will not have to pay higher wages instead of cower in the next few months and thus supplement our hard times. Indeed, the planters of Hamakna, Hawaii, are not so confident now, as they were one month ago, that they will be able to retain their present help for the month of October without raising their wages.

The low prices of sugar and depression of pusiness has no effect on this class of labor, and the only effective way to chaspen it is to multiply it, and that can be easily done without money, by in-riting more to come. And let them come until the labor market is fully supplied. Not supplied and that can be easily and let them come unti-riting more to come. And let them come unti-the labor market is fully supplied. Not supplied at $25 per month, but supplied at $12 to $14 per month. That would be as large wages as is paid other sugar producing country for the cleas

The average rise of spring tides at Lady Franklin Bay was found to spring tides at Lady Franklin Bay was found to be eight feet. At Cape Sabine the highest ider rise 12 feet. Surf was only observed twice during the away rears. At Lady Franklin Bay the average temperature of the water was 23° above zero or a degrees below the freezing point. Wolves weighing minety pounds were killed around Fort Conger and there are forces and other animals there. Of fish there is a wonderful scarcity. Perhaps the greatest surprise of the expedition was the taking from lake Alexander, a fresh water lake fiftee feet above the sea level, a four pound salmon From the bay or sea only two small fish with taken during the entire two years, and few are to be found north of Cape Sabine. The vegetation at Lady Franklin hay was about the same as a Cape Sabine, and comprised messes, lichens, will lows and saxifrage. Some storms were frequen and rain fell rarely. The highest velocity of the wind was registered during a terrifle snowshorm seventy miles an hour. Lockwood's trips to the north in 1882 and 1885 were productive of the miss valuable results. Standing, on the 19th of May is each year, where Dr. Hayes had formedly stood a about the same day, Lockwood, from an elevation of about 2000 feet, using his stronesst class of about the same day, Lockwood, from an elevatio of about 2,000 feet, using his strongest glass o Hall's basin and Robeson's channel, could discer nothing but ice packs. Here it was that Dr. Haye claimed to have seen his open polar sea.

The Late Prince of Orange.

The following extract from the Fortnightly Be ier, shows very clearly the condition of affairs caused by the death of the Prince of Orange. The ders. He says :

The death of the Prince of Orange has attead particularly attention because he was the las male of the Orange line of the house of Nassan that it should be a barrier against any interestempt of the French to resume his policy, if an same love of war and personal aggrandizement be called by that name. With this object the pers made an artificial kingdom of the Netherian including Belgiom, which fell to pieces wit including Belgiom, which fell to pieces wit including Belgiom, which fell to pieces were or pelled to see their handiwork destroyed, they we far from consenting to give up their tright of citral over the fragments of the barrier raignants France. The position both of Belgi and the Netherlands has consequently been set by treaty, and cannot be no diffied without component. In the case of the latter the question of the property of the same king descend by a different St. now ruled by the same king descend by a different of inheritance. In the grand duchy of Lembourg the Salic law prevails, and it must separated from the crown of Holland on the de of the present king, whose only surviving chil a daughter. There will then be considerable dently in deciding as to who is really entitled to a daughter. There will then be considerable culty in deciding as to who is really entitled; the duchy, and with the help of a little good will a pretty quarrel on the subject may be got in tween France and Germany. Neither is the very clear as regards Holland itself. It is that, as the Salie law does not exist there that, as the Saile law does not crist there, it throne will descend quietly enough to the presenting's daughter. But if she should die young very considerable difficulty will present itself it settlement. Failing a direct representative of thing, his heir must either be the Count of Nassa the representative of the elder and German line the family who was deprived of his territory! Prussia in 1866, or else a gentleman at presencionel in the German army who descends from the Princes of Orange by marriage. If it we perfectly certain that the Dutch would be left settle the matter for themselves no anxiety he be felt on the subject. They would choose one the two candidates, or perhaps they would choose in the two candidates, or perhaps they would choose in the subject. They would choose one the two candidates, or perhaps they would choose for the subject. EUTTON GAZETTE:- The writer notices the w. this side, but there are many good things on th Lahaina side which that impossable barrier de Lahaina side which that impossable barrier of prives us of. Daily there may be seen horse los of mangoes, breadfruit and fish carried over the horrible road, which arrive at the market in an thing but a marketable condition. Probably the is no country in the world where such a barriwould have been allowed to interfere so long wit traffic as that impassable road has. That $50,00 is ample to make a fine wagou road round the bas of the succept offers to build it for that am Labor is very low at the present time and there are Chinese capitalists who would be glad of a opportunity to semalor their

One would think that the powers that be were in league with the steamship companies in compalling us to both travel and carry our goods by bost instead of the natural way overland. We, perhaps cought not be expect much from a quasi government which will take our road taxes and use then for buying camon and paying for wild cat creaty alone of favorities to all parts of the world, but we know that we have rights that ought to be respected, one of which is good roads.

With that one exception, Mani has very far roads and probably if the government shower even the intention to celeve us in that respect, the citions might nome forward and help out, both yines and carra, and money otherwise than the the subgictious tax. May the time scon come when the village of Lahaira, which is not deserted as it provess, may be more closely our accted with the may be more closely out sected with ing town of Wallakn, by a road which the community had to pay or bear the loss on the miserable token of value. Let the government begin now to do something for the people and it may gradually be more respected by its tax-paying pporters. Walluku, Sept. 11th, 1884.

School Accomodations.

Maus, Sept. 13th, 1884. Entron Gazarra: Speaking of the transfers of money from one appropriation to another, Mr. Hishop said that the school money had been used by the Ministry for other purposes so that money could not be obtained for the begitimate purposes for which it had been appropriated. The schools on Maui have felt it as much as any. In Hamshnapoko there was no building for the school and the people allowed the church to be used for a schoolhouse until it was found that the children were shousing the furniture. Then the Haiku plantation allowed the curryetic school mistress to use the packing room of the old Haixu Mill. She borrowed keroseene cases and by placing boards across them formed seats enough to accommodate the pupils. This is one of the distresses of a country district which has had its claims for school accommodations ignored by the present cabinet.

The school at Ulupalakua not having seating room for the pupils, more than twenty of them have to six on the floor. The school board knew well of these troubles but lacking money they had to stand over until next term. When a cabinet, to carry out its purposes, will abstract money from the acroel funds and road taxes as it has been proven that this one did, and still endeavor to make the people believe that they are governed according to the curritinion, it is about time the people do not object, the treatment they get is good enough for them.

"Wainee Sept 4 1884."

Mr. Manle is no doubt a valuable public servant and it is evident that our enlightened Government appointed him solely for the good of this country. We would call especial attention to the concluding paragraph. There is a grien mystery about this "inspection of all persons" which we fail to unravel. Why should they be inspected? How will they be inspected? By whom will they be inspected? By whom will they be inspected? Why should only "persons" liable to taxation be inspected? The critizens of Lahama feel much exercised over the matter, and a petition is, we hear, being circulated and numerously signed to get the Attorney-General, the Deputy Attorney-General or the Deputy Deputy, which ever may happen to be on hand, to give a legal opinion on the matter.

Meantime the citizens are doing a power of thinking, and they ponder over what kind of an assessment Mr. Maule can make, and how he will get along when he leaves English as she is writ and takes to English as she is writ and takes to English as she is writ and takes to English as she is given and cross child indicates it.

The attention of the authorities is directed to this matter in the hope that they will have the dangerous cavities fixed or eise well-lighted o nights.

Cross of "hand in" disturbed the quiet of the evening in the upper part of Numanu valley last Saturday evening. It was only a party of "simple natives retoraing from fown, who had imbiled more than their fill of git, and who first refused to pay their express driver and then attacked a woman without rhyme or reason. The Advertiver was quite right when it said that our streets were remarkably free from dranken men, oh yes. What a pety the writer of the article alluded to was not present on this occasion, it would have established his theory so thoroughly. Had it not been for the prompt arrival of a number of foreign residents the woman would have been seriously injured.

THE ARSENAL AT CANTON.

Canton is the strategic city in South China.

It is the great stronghold of the military power and the center from which troops will be sent to harass the French in Tonquin. It is the conjective point for the French fleet. The capture of Canton would go far to end the war. It has a population variously estimated at from 1,506,000 to 2,000,000, and fully one third of the population live on boats. It is on the Chu-Kinag or Pearl river, eighty miles from the sea. Fourteen miles below Canton, at Whampon, there is a large granite graving dock and wood and mud docks. A large force of brave and skilled Chinese soldiers are staticoed at Whampon under a skilled commander, and the river approaches to Whampon and theore to Canton are no doubt carefully lined with torpedoes. He Never Asked Again

A Belgiau botel keeper is capecially sweet" of Russian customers, "They are ago, see you," he states; "they dispute not not. He strike them and say stern follies. I had courage I. I feared me not of him. I go to his room and say. "Mister, the count, I am the proprietor: what will you?" Sir, he say, 'I will thank you pull me off the boots!" My first smitiment is de lui allonger une claque—to give him a smack; but I master myself and say. "Wait only two minuties, Mr. the count; I have an order to give." So I run to my wife and tell her to give me my dress cout, my gloves gray peatl, my gibns, my pantaloons black. In two minutes behold me, of great tenue. I go back to the count; I say to him. 'Chaly in dress of gala can the proprietor of this botel take off your boots, and, my faith. I take them off in one two. He raise himself, bow himself, and thanks me very politely. By and by, in three weeks, he TRUSSES! TRUSSES! TRUSSES! taking off Mr. the count's boots by the orietor in a firess coat and gray-pearl gloves, 80 france. He frown his sychrows when he read that, but he not say one word. He pay that addition integrally. Never he ask me more to serve him as a pull-boot,"—Burling-

This thought ought to be an added insluce ment to us all to shrink from transgression, in the least as in the greatest. Even though we suffer for them, and we ourselves must also Perfumery!

Super for them, and we ourselves must also be sufferers notwithstanding our pardon. As Faber says of evil babits, so it might be said of single evil deeds: "Habits of sin, when put to death as habits, leave many evil legacies behind them." No truth is super than "Whatso. ever a man soweth, that shall be also reap."

The fortune left by the Duke of Albany s estimated at £16,000. It all goes to his oung wife.

Of the Prince of Wales' three daughters the Princess Victoria seems to possess the greatest sense of authority. She is taller than her elder sister, of more decisive countenance, and has brighter eyes. She is said to resemble the Queen more than the other children, and to be more like her grandmother in character as well.
