ILLINOIS IN DOUBTFUL COLUMN.

Last week we published articles from the New York Herald, a Republican newspaper, which showed that the Democrats will likely carry New York, Maryland and West Virginia. The Herald has this to say of Illinois.

Next to New York, Illinois with its twenty-seven electoral votes is the greatest of the debatable States. The situation there is peculiar in that there is factional fighting on both sides. The republicans began the disturbance and when Deneen was nominated for Governor finally in the State Convention, through the influence of the national administration, it looked as though Illinois would certainly be in the democratic column on election day.

The fight among the republican leaders was overshadowed almost immediately by a still more bitter contest among the democrats. John P. Hopkins and Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, entered upon a struggle for the control of the State machinery and delegation to the Democratic National Convention which has left the democratic party in Illinois rent into factions, which seems irreconcilable.

These chapters in party history are too recent to require rehearsal. The deadlock in the Republican State Convention that was precipitated by the fight of Governor Richard Yates for renomination was strongly contested on both sides.

ACCUSED THE PRESIDENT

When Deneen was finally nominated as a compromise candidate the leaders of the Yates faction accused President Roosevelt of interference and declared that they had been defeated by the use of Federal patronage. A natural feeling of resentment followed the Convention, and threats were made openly that Mr. Roosevelt stood small chances of carrying the State.

Democrats had hardly ceased congratulating each other on the prospect of carrying Illinois when the fight between Hopkins and Harrison began. The two men were rivals of long standing for the control of the democratic machine and Mayor Harrison had been uniformly successful in gaining the upper hand. This time, however, Mr. Hopkins formed a combination with the Bryan men in the State, most of whom were in sympathy with the candidacy of William R. Hearst. He ran the State Convention "under the gavel," as the Western phrase goes, unseating contesting delegations by the score and making himself master of the situation.

He agreed to permit the Illinois delegation to be instructed for Mr. Hearst, but the hollowness of this concession was shown as soon as he arrived at the National Convention, where he offered the vote of Illinois to the Parker managers on the first ballot. They refused the offer, but the Democratic National Committee, and later the Committee on Credentials and the Convention itself threw out the contests that had been raised in the interest of the Harrison faction.

FEELING OF BITTERNESS REMAINS.

Mayor Harrison has expressed loyalty to the democratic national ticket, and the announcement is made that he has invited Judge Parker and William J. Bryan to speak from the same platform in a great democratic mass meeting to be held on August 20. The feeling of bitterness between the two factions, however, has in no wise disappeared and there seems little prospect of harmony in Illinois on either side. At the beginning of the campaign the situation appears to make Illinois at least debatable.

The record of the State shows that it has gone democratic only once, when Grover Cleveland carried it over Benjamin Harrison in 1892 by 27,000 plurality. Blaine carried it over Cleveland in 1884, by 25,000 and Harrison carried it four years later by a margin of 22,000.

The alarm that was felt by the commercial interests of the State was made apparent in 1896, when Illinois buried Bryan under a plurality of 132,000. McKinley carried the State again when he ran a second time, by 95,000 plurality. The rejection of Bryanism and the democratic adoption of principles which contain nothing to alarm business men add an element of uncertainty to the situation, already complicated by factional differences.

AS TO MR. BRYAN.

Mr Bryan must at least be commended for his frankness. Those people who have always regarded Mr Bryan as nothing more nor less than a socialist will now feel that they have been fully vindicated.
 Certainly no bolder bid for the support of the socialist element could be made. No one denies that there is a constantly increasing socialist element in this country. It could not be otherwise so long as the tide of foreign immigration continues at its flood. We have no idea that socialism will ever prevail in the United States. It will be met and handled the same as populism and all other isms are met and handled by true Americans. Democracy and socialism will eventually appear under one head and in that form the issue will be fought out in the arena of American public opinion.
 The prospect may seem to be a gloomy one to conservative members of the Democratic party, but they can not deny that these observations and conclusions are warranted. The Democratic party has been misled, and pandered to socialism.
 It was less than two years ago that even the Democracy of the empire state crawled in the dust before the socialism propagandists and adopted a platform demanding the purchase of the coal mining properties by the federal government. Parties like individuals usually reap according as they sow. The character of future Democratic harvests is not difficult to determine.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

It is news to learn at this late day that the owner of this paper had ever been approached, on behalf of the Democratic party, for the purchase of his printing plant. As far as known, nothing was ever broached directly to him or to any one in connection with him.

Sure, Governor Carter wants a County Act, but he wants it so modified as to leave out the most salient points, so that he or any other who may succeed him in the future may become the chief dictator in the bunch. Go it, Lord George; you are right in line to getting it.

With Tim Murphy, Huihui, Sylva, Ackerman and about everybody else wanting to fight there should be a lively pugilistic mill in Honolulu very soon. If, however, the scrappers would do as much in the ring as they do in hot air and the newspapers the sport would be decidedly better.

What we want here is a land law based upon the general law of the United States, subject, however, to a few modifications. Over there, for instance, they have plenty of land.
 A married man is given 160 acres and a single man or woman 80 acres.
 Owing to the limited area, we could not do that here. In all other respects the United States land laws are just what we should have. They are infinitely better than Dole's cumbersome system, now in vogue.

We modestly suggest that the Advertiser secure a cannon from the Government and fire a salute of twenty one guns from the top of the Von Holt building when Port Arthur is captured. As the Territorial Government still possesses two field pieces, not in service, this scheme should be easily feasible; and as the Advertiser has become the official organ of the "Japanese party" in Hawaii, there should certainly be no objection from that side. Let 'er "boom!"

The Democratic of this island met last evening and made a good start.
 The adjournment to September 24 was a good thing, because that will give the members of the two conventions ample time to select their men for the Senate and House. This is a Democratic year, but there must not be overconfidence. The candidates should be selected only after mature deliberation. It must not be a case of "the man seeking the office" that wins, but of "the office seeking the man" that is successful in the convention.

A San Francisco despatch says:
 "Commissioner North has referred to Washington the question of the landing Tuesday of Mrs J W Brewster (formerly Melaine Afong) whom he claims is a Chinese and should have passed inspection before going ashore." Commissioner North is either a fool or is unfamiliar with cases in regard to the Afong family that came up prior to annexation.
 We consider the action of Commissioner North to be highly insulting and believe that Mrs Brewster has an excellent case for heavy damages, if she cares to press it.

Paddy Ryan's Good Government club is an organization to be recognized seriously. It has always been claimed that forty men, banded together with a single motive, could control the political situation of San Francisco or any other large city.
 If that be true, 278 men, combined together in a definite movement, will certainly be able to accomplish a great deal more. It may not be a cause for surprise that the Good Government club holds the balance of power in the coming election.

THE DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION.

The Fourth and Fifth District Conventions of the Democratic party met in joint session in Waverley hall last evening and perfected permanent organization. Permanent officers were elected, but the business of nominating candidates for the Senate and House was postponed until September 24. On that date the two conventions will come together at 10 o'clock in the morning for the nomination of Senators.
 At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the Fourth District will meet at some place, to be designated later, and the Fifth in Waverley hall to nominate candidates for the House of Representatives.

Col. C. J. McCarthy called the joint meeting to order last evening and stated its objects. He was then elected temporary chairman. W F Erving was elected temporary secretary, and F W Weed interpreter.
 A credentials committee and a committee on permanent organization were appointed. The former reported 80 delegates from the Fourth District and 57 from the Fifth. The election of permanent officers was then proceeded with and the following were chosen: Col C J McCarthy, chairman; L R Medeiros, secretary; F W Weed, interpreter; H J Mossman, sergeant-at-arms. After setting 10 a m, of Saturday, September 24, as the time for the two conventions to get together and nominate Senators, the meeting adjourned.

Immediately after the adjournment of the general convention the Fourth District Convention met.
 P O Sullivan was elected chairman, Kahalepuna, secretary and F Weed, interpreter. After the reports of the committees the following permanent officers were elected: P.
 O'Sullivan, chairman; Kahalepuna, secretary; F W Weed, interpreter; Matt Haffern, sergeant-at-arms.
 The meeting then adjourned to 2 p. m., of Saturday, September 24.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Fourth District, the Fifth District Convention met. F Harvey was elected temporary chairman and E L Like temporary secretary. After the reports of the committees on credentials and permanent organization the following were elected permanent officers: F R Harvey, chairman; Edward Hana-pi, secretary; J K Prendergast, interpreter; Charles Kumukahi, ser-gent-at-arms. After arranging a number of details the convention adjourned to Saturday, September 24, to convene immediately after the adjournment of the joint convention.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

THE INDEPENDENT 50 cents per month.

The steamer Mikahala leaves this evening on her usual run to Kauai.

C. J. Day, the actor, will leave in a few days for a visit to his old home in England.

District Attorney Breckons and family returned in the Ventura yesterday from Wyoming.

W. A. Love, of Honolulu, was married at Portsmouth, Ohio, on August 4, to Miss Edith Moore.

Visiting Mystic Seiners arrived in the city yesterday by the Oceanic Steamship Ventura and are receiving attention from their brethren here.

The C. A. S. Co's steamer Manuka arrived yesterday forenoon from the Colonies and left after 6 o'clock last evening for Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Prof. Zamloch, the noted wizard who is well known here, arrived in the Ventura and will begin an engagement at the Orpheum Saturday evening.

The office of THE INDEPENDENT is in the brick building next to the Hawaiian hotel grounds on Beretania street, Waikiki of Alakea. First floor.

A business meeting of the Executive committee of the Democratic Central Committee has been called for 5 o'clock this afternoon in Waverley hall.

The Doris arrived in port last night from San Francisco and sailed today for the Orient. Having left the same day as the Ventura, she brought no later mail.

The steamer Likelike arrived last evening at about 5:30 o'clock. She had to take 75 tons of coal to Kahului was the cause of her delay; but she left again later on her usual run at 10 o'clock.

Mr and Mrs Jesse Snyder have, by cards received, announced the marriage of their daughter, Iona, to Mr. Haughton College Bickerton, which event took place in San Francisco on the 3rd instant. They will be at home in this city after September 15th, on Hackfeld and Prospect streets, Punchbowl slope.

Jerry Burningham, purser of the steamer Likelike, left last evening on a vacation, by the steamer Manuka, on his way to England by way of Vancouver, accompanying his mother whom he met here and who had come up by the same steamer from the Colonies. He will later visit the St. Louis Exposition and other points in the States on his return and that before returning to resume his duties.

Secretary Atkinson left suddenly last Sunday evening by the freighter Hawaiian for Kahului, where he intended spending a few days. And yesterday he left there for Hilo by the same vessel, intending to remain there till after the convention next week, and then return with Governor or Carter to Maui and both make an official tour of that Island before coming back to their respective offices.

Death of Mrs. A. Mackintosh.

A telegram was this morning received, addressed to both H. M. von Holt and Arthur Mackintosh from their sister Bertha (Mrs. F. W. Glade) from Dresden, announcing the death of their mother, Mrs. Alexander Mackintosh, which occurred there yesterday. The immediate cause of death was apoplexy and it came upon her suddenly and removed her from life without much suffering. The sad news was universally felt here keenly among those who knew her and her family well and sorrow is being expressed on all sides.

At the time of her death, she was about sixty five years of age. She was born in London and came here with her parents, the late Mr and Mrs Thomas Brown, in 1846. Her husband, the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh, and two daughters by her first marriage, were present at her death.

District Court Doings.

At today's session, the five Chinese rioters (not highway robbers) of Waiakua had their cases fully heard and were all committed to the Circuit Court. The eleven Chinese gamblers were each assessed $5 and costs. Ah Kai, larceny second degree, to tomorrow, also Choy Hung, for vagrancy, and Sung Loy, also for vagrancy, was nolle pro'd.

Palama alias Chong Chun, assault and battery on Ah Chock, was fined $5 and costs; Togunaga, for the same offence on Tami Shirahishi, was nolle pro'd; John Hansen, vagrancy, one month's imprisonment and costs; Yoshida and Kagi, assisting in maintaining a lottery, fined $20 and costs each; Wo Hop, leaving his horse in a hack untied, $5 and costs; Domingo Ferreira, heedless driving, $5 and costs; and J. W. Edwards, who was arrested at Iwilei last night and charged with carrying concealed weapons, forfeited his cash bail of $25.

Executive Clemency.

Governor Carter today signed a pardon for one Kauka of Hanalei, Kauai, restoring him to his civil rights. Over thirty years ago, he was convicted of larceny and sentenced to 15 lashes. Since that time he has been an exemplary citizen. Not having exercised the right to vote, he petitioned the Governor for pardon, and on ascertaining the facts, he has granted the petition.

A petition for pardon has also been made in favor of B. H. Brown, former captain of police of Hilo, but he is of the opinion that the offence upon which he was convicted was only of recent occurrence and would not care to new grant it.

Arrested For Assault.

W. Barnhardt, the drayman, was taken in by the police at about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon on Fort street for assaulting Superintendent Pratt of the Rapid Transit Company. He had a dray with a large iron safe on it near the Club Stables and as it stood on the track and in the way of passing electric cars, Mr Pratt undertook to lead it away, and in doing so, Mr Barnhardt, so it is said by those who saw, ran up from behind and struck Mr Pratt in the face. The patrol wagon was called for and he was taken down.

Kauai Beats Maui.

Kauai defeated Maui in the polo game at Moanalua yesterday afternoon by the score of eighteen to six. Maui undoubtedly did better team work, but Kauai had the advantage in horsemanship.

The bus service from the end of the car line was very unsatisfactory. After the second load taken out, the busses did not return and from fifty to a hundred people were left standing in the road and were obliged, finally, to return to the city.

Passengers Departed.
