THIELE NAMED THE HEAD OF THREE HOTELS

Succeeds Hertsche as Manager of Young, Moana and Royal Hawaiian Hostleries

CONSIDERED GOOD MAN FOR HIS NEW POSITION

Company Directors Made Selection at Meeting Called Yesterday Afternoon

Theodore B. Thiele, manager of the Moana hotel and one of the best known and most popular hotel men in the territory, was named yesterday afternoon to succeed J. H. Hertsche as general manager of the Territorial Hotel Company, owning and operating three leading local hostleries.

The Alexander Young, the Royal Hawaiian and the Moana hotels, operated by the Territorial Hotel Company, will be under Thiele's management as they were under Hertsche's. The Moana has had a resident manager, Thiele, but whether this plan will be followed out in the future is uncertain. It may be operated by the downtown management. No changes, at least, will be made at present.

Manager Thiele expects to move to his downtown office within a day or two. His appointment took effect yesterday afternoon, following a meeting of the directors of the hotel company, and he took charge at once.

The new manager has had a wide experience on the coast. He has been connected in one capacity or another with hotels in San Francisco, Del Monte, Seattle and Honolulu. Prior to coming here he was connected in an executive capacity with the Butler Annex in Seattle. He came to Honolulu February, 1910, and has been the resident manager at the Moana since. He has many friends among the local and traveling public and is regarded as a hustling and up-to-date hotel man.

JAPANESE HELD 'UNDESIRABLES' BEING DEPORTED

Five Returned Excursionists,
However, Recommended to Washington Favorably for Landing

Enforcement of the federal immigration laws against alien immigrants declared undesirable because of their being classed as immoral persons, has led to the deportation of Tsudome, a Japanese of ill-repute, and will lead to the deportation of two others, Oshima and Kawal, today, according to news from the federal immigration station.

Furthermore, eleven other Japanese falling under the ban for the same reason are likely to be deported soon. They have been recommended for deportation by the inspector in charge and the papers in the case sent on to Washington, as a decision is required there owing to the matters involved.

The facts as ascertained by the Star-Bulletin today show that the immigration staff has been conducting an examination of such cases for some time past. Tsudome was sent out on the Hongkong Maru and Oshima and Kawal are to be deported on the Shinyo Maru today.

Another case in the same category, that of Matsuye, is held up pending the decision of the federal court on an application by the attorney for a writ of habeas corpus. Tori, a Japanese prostitute went with Tsudome. Inquiry by the Star-Bulletin at the federal immigration station has shed new light on the facts in the case of the five excursionists detained pending inquiry and decision as to whether they should be landed. It was stated this morning that a board of in-

UNCONFIRMED RUMOR SAYS PINKHAM'S NAME WITHDRAWN BY WILSON

An unconfirmed rumor passed along the streets today that L. E. Pinkham has had his name withdrawn by President Wilson as a nominee for governor of the territory. According to the rumor a message conveying this information has been received by a large business firm of Honolulu. No confirmation of the rumor has been made, and persons seen regarding it were disposed to discredit the truth of the report.

Pinkham Protest Story Denied Committee Has Not Yet Acted

All Facts of Complaint Against Confirmation to be Laid Before President--
He Will be Given Opportunity to Examine Them

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 22.—The report that the committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico has decided to protest to the president the nomination of L. E. Pinkham for governor is erroneous.

The committee has done nothing definite for or against the nomination, but in instructing Chairman Shafroth to confer with the president is affording the president an opportunity of examining the protests and withdrawing the nomination if he is convinced that Pinkham is a non-resident of Hawaii and is a Republican. Otherwise the committee will investigate thoroughly the situation, hearing Pinkham's answer to the complaints.

No conclusion is in sight. Senator Vardaman of Mississippi, a member of the committee, and others declare that the opposition to Pinkham is based on the allegations that he is a Republican and not a resident of Hawaii.

C. S. ALBERT.

The cablegram above was received this afternoon in response to a cable instruction from this paper to its Washington correspondent to ascertain the exact status of the Pinkham nomination, and in particular to investigate the truth of the report that the committee had decided to protest Pinkham's nomination.

A report this morning that the nomination has been withdrawn is evidently without foundation.

MUNICIPAL FISHMARKET IS PROPOSED

Present Institutions Must Conform with Law Before
Licenses Are Granted

INSPECTORS NEGLIGENT IN PRESENTING REPORTS

Health Committee Demonstrates Intention of Making a Big Clean-Up

A municipal market to take the place of the present insanitary ones was hinted at last night as the next project to be undertaken by the city and county when the committee on health of the board of supervisors met in the chamber of the city fathers to agree upon the changes and the better regulation of the two markets, which have been before the committee, an subject of investigation, for the past fortnight.

Declaring that unless the fish markets are cleaned up at once, and overhauled as directed, steps will be taken to condemn immediately the places, stop all business there, and put up a municipal market in its stead, the health committee showed a spirit of determination to protect the public from purchasing foodstuffs which reach them after being exposed to the dangers of insanitary conditions.

Supplementing the report submitted to the special committee appointed to investigate the two markets, which has been adopted, the committee set

1ST INFANTRY NOT PLEASED WITH CASTNER

For fifteen months the officers of the 1st Infantry have been existing under canvas, in a dust-swirled camp on the Lihue plain. Now the majority of them are in new quarters at Castner, and a straw vote among the families which have recently moved, as to the comfort and convenience of the new quarters, might prove illuminating to the War Department authorities, who decreed that the concentrated post system should be established on a reservation where many thousands of acres are available, and where plenty of ground could have been used for housing the troops, without restricting the maneuver area.

That the new infantry post at Castner is a "lemon," to drop into the vernacular for an adequate description of the place, is the opinion of the great majority of 1st Infantry families who have moved down there. The houses are unsuited to the climate, there is a lamentable lack of space around each dwelling, and the interior arrangements are worse than those at Fort Ruger, and that, say army people, is the worst thing that

EARNshaw SAYS HARRISON GOOD MAN FOR PLACE

New Governor-General Has Made Study of Conditions in Philippines

NUMEROUS CHANGES ARE EXPECTED IN COMMISSION

Filipinos Well Pleased With the Selection Made by the President

"Congressman Francis Burton Harrison, as governor-general of the Philippines will in my opinion give the islands a real American government, and an administration highly pleasing and satisfactory to all classes of people," was the comment offered this morning by Resident Commissioner Manuel Earnshaw, who has been representing the Philippines at Washington, and who is now en route to Japan, as a passenger in the T. K. K. Shinyo Maru.

"The news received by the Star-Bulletin Wednesday that Congressman Harrison was the selection of President Wilson for the head of affairs in the islands, is the result of much deliberation as well as careful study of the situation upon the part of the president and his advisors."

Commissioner Earnshaw is of the opinion that the new appointee is well equipped to take over the exacting duties of his new office. "He has been a member of congress for a number of years and has made the welfare of the Philippines a matter

SIX MURDER CASES ARE ON THE CALENDAR

Six murder cases in which a total of eight persons will fight for their lives against the charge of murder in the first degree, are scheduled for hearing in Judge Robinson's division at the next term of circuit court in Honolulu, beginning September 2. All but one have developed in the present year. Two men are accused of wife murder, one man and woman of child murder and four men of slaying their fellow men.

This is probably the largest number of capital crime hearings ever appearing on the calendar of the first circuit court in any one year, and undoubtedly will keep Judge Robinson's division occupied the greater part of the coming fall and winter.

On the opening day of the fall term the court will plunge into the remarkable array of criminal business, the first case called to be that of Franklin Lee Whaley, who shot and killed his wife in the office of the Mutual Telephone Company on the night of May 4. The wife, Maria Nalwi Whaley, died almost immediately. Whaley was placed under arrest, indicted and duly arraigned, pleading not guilty. A. D.

Prominent Figures in Mexico During The Present Crisis

DOUGHERTY AND RAWLINS NAMED FOR SAME JOB

Local Attorney Appointed and Later Superseded by Carnivall Director

Complications have arisen with regard to the appointment of a resident Portola commissioner for the territory of Hawaii according to a special mail dispatch received by the Star-Bulletin this morning from the Portola festival committee in San Francisco, which is to the effect that James D. Dougherty, director-general of the 1914 fiscal parade and mid-winter carnival, has received the appointment as commissioner.

In a dispatch sent out by the Portola committee less than two weeks ago, William T. Rawlins, the local attorney, was named as the resident commissioner, and since that time has been acting in that capacity, principally by arranging to take a team of Hawaiian swimmers to San Francisco to compete in the aquatic sports which will be a feature of the festival. The dispatch received this morning says that Mr. Dougherty has been named commissioner, and that he will

SENATOR JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS IS OPENLY OPPOSING PINKHAM

Democrats of California, Also, File Protests Against the Confirmation of the President's Choice on the Ground That He Never Has Fought the Battles of the Bourbons

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

By C. S. ALBERT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 11.—While waiting for the final communications to come in from Honolulu, and preceding the calling of a committee meeting on the Pinkham nomination, Senator John Sharp Williams, the leading advocate of Edward M. Watson's selection, has been active to the utmost degree. He has button-holed any and all Democratic senators who might be induced to stand with him on the proposition to fight the nomination of Mr. Pinkham on the floor of the senate and secure its rejection, if the President could not be persuaded to withdraw it. Several of those disaffected because of the President's action in patronage matters promised Mr. Williams to lend a helping hand when the crisis came.

In order that nothing might be overlooked which could be used to advantage in a fight, Senator Williams has been securing all possible information regarding the past and present of Mr. Pinkham, his career, his service to Hawaii and his possible attitude toward the Democrats of the territory, if confirmed as governor. This data will be spread before the committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico when that body assembles to take up the protested nomination.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS CENTER TARIFF EFFORTS UPON SUGAR

May Defer Action Until New Member Is Chosen from Alabama

By C. S. ALBERT.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 11.—When Senator Joseph F. Johnston, of Alabama, died, thereby reducing the Democratic majority in the senate, Republicans who oppose placing sugar on the free list were much heartened, and the Democrats correspondingly depressed. With the avowed determination of Senators Thornton and Ransdell, of Louisiana, to vote against the sugar schedule, the Democrats had but 48 votes, while the Republicans mustered 47. This slender margin opened up all kinds of possibilities. If Senator Newlands, who refused to bind himself in caucus, voted with the Republicans, giving them 48 votes to the Democrats 47, the assistance of Vice-President Marshall would count for nothing. It spelled disaster and defeat for the Democrats. There remained the possibility that Senator Hitchcock, who openly with-drew from the caucus, might antag-

UNCLE SAM WARNS REBELS AND FEDERALS WILL BE HELD TO ACCOUNT FOR VIOLENCE

Commanders of Both Forces Receive Telegrams from Secretary of State Bryan—President Wilson's Message on Mexico Will Not Contain Recommendations

[Associated Press Cable]

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 22.—President Wilson will read to congress personally next Tuesday his message on the Mexican situation. It will summarize the main points of the Lind note, and reiterate the government's attitude, but will contain no recommendations, it was stated today.

[Associated Press Cable]

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 22.—Secretary of State Bryan telegraphed today commanders of both the federal and constitutional forces in Chihuahua that the United States will hold responsible the perpetrators of violence on American citizens.

This is the first warning of the kind that the United States has issued, and if it is disregarded, it is reported that more summary measures will be taken.

The warning applies to both rebel and federal forces anywhere in Mexico and is intended to be transmitted through the commanders.

U. S. Can't Stop Thaw Now

[Associated Press Cable]

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 22.—Both Secretary of State Bryan and Secretary Wilson of the department of labor have telegraphed to Lieutenant-Governor Glynn and Governor Sulzer of New York informing them that the government is unable to interfere with Thaw on Canadian soil.

SHERBROOKE, Quebec, August 22.—According to Thaw's legal counsel, he is advised to buy property in Canada and become a British subject to avoid extradition. Thaw spent a restless night. He is closely guarded by the Canadian authorities.

CHICAGO, August 22.—A conference committee of 200 American bankers today condemned the administration currency bill now before congress.

SUPREME COURT MAY BE ASKED FOR OPINION

The Dowsett Estate and Henry Smith, acting as trustee for the heirs of John Meek, this morning gave notice of their intention to fight to the last ditch the effort of Attorney General Thayer, for the territory, to acquire title to the valuable tract on the makai side of King street, at Smith street. As a result the suit will be taken up shortly in the court of land registration, whence it undoubtedly will go to the supreme court. The attorney general is inclined to think the affair will not be finally settled until it has gone through the supreme court of the United States.

This case, as published in the Star-Bulletin several months ago when the attorney general first undertook it, revolves around the legality of a grant made John Meek in 1839. Though Captain John Meek held the land in question for years before that date, and his heirs have held it to this day, the territory contends there is a flaw in the title, because the grant by King Kamehameha III in 1839 was never officially approved by the land commission. No record of the land commission's award can be found.

At intervals during the last few years the present holders of the valuable business property as well as the governor, have sought a compromise but have been unable to agree on terms. The territorial executive a few years ago offered to settle with them for a certain price, but they declined to pay the amount he set.

MANY WITNESSES ARE HEARD IN CHALMERS' ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION

Thirty-three witnesses have been examined by the grand jury in the Chalmers automobile accident. The jury resumed its sessions at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Whether the Chalmers inquiry will be finished today is not known, though it is thought only a few more witnesses remain to be questioned.

MERCHANTS WILL ENTER FLOAT IN PARADE OF 1914

With a view to taking an early start toward preparations for the part which it is to play in Honolulu's 1914 celebration, the merchants' association, at its meeting yesterday afternoon, voted to appoint a committee to take charge of this work, and select a design for the car which the committee will enter in the Floral Parade February 21. A motion to this effect was offered by Ed Towne and immediately adopted, thus making the merchants' association the first organization to start the ball rolling toward a greater Honolulu celebration. Among other matters of business, the subject of the present friction between the local Japanese and the federal board of immigration, relative to the detention of the five Japanese excursionists was taken up. The question was first taken up when George Guild made a motion that the association take steps to investigate both sides of the controversy. Mr. Guild said that the Japanese were friendly with the merchants of the city, and that the association could properly make an investigation in justice to the Japanese. The motion, receiving no second, was not considered further.

Police Notes

Upon a warrant sworn to by K. Matsumoto, charging assault and battery, William Allen, said to be a luna at the Hawaiian pineapple cannery, was arrested yesterday afternoon.

When John Prestley and Louis Roscowki, both intoxicated, started to raise a rough-house because they were refused admittance to the Kukui street dance-hall last night, Police Captain Kahanamoku proceeded to place them under arrest and escort them to the police station for a quiet night's rest.

I. Fujitani, the owner and rider of a bicycle, figured in a collision with another cyclist last evening and to have been rendered partly unconscious, and was picked up by a passing automobilist and left at the gate leading into his premises on Young street. Later the Japanese was sent to the hospital for treatment for minor injuries.

Edward Lord, charged with speeding his automobile while traveling along King street some weeks ago, was discharged at the conclusion of a hearing of the case before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning.

The court took into consideration the testimony offered by Lord and also a companion driving a trailing machine, who declared that the cars were going at a rate not to exceed 25 miles an hour. Special Officer Chilton, who made the arrest, took the stand and insisted that Lord was driving his machine at a thirty-mile-an-hour clip when he was overhauled and asked to appear at the police station.

HONOLULU IS FOUND DEAD ON COAST

Jeremiah Changos' Death Is Surrounded by a Great Deal of Mystery

Identified by a laundry mark as a former resident of Honolulu, the cloud of mystery hanging over the death of Jeremiah Changos, at one time connected with the Union Grill of this city, and later with the Hilo Hotel, whose naked body was found on the beach near Robin, California, August 1, is slowly giving way; and according to information just received here from the coast, Honolulu may be able to throw some light on the question of whether Changos met death by murder or suicide.

Married in this city last June, only to engage in a bitter quarrel with his wife a few days later, and in the end to give up his Hilo position and secretly sail for Vancouver, the man was followed to the coast by his bride, it was learned this morning.

In San Francisco, where he became the manager of the Orpheum Grill, he saw little of his wife, the latter says, and left her without money. She also says that before he disappeared he told his bride's mother that he proposed to leave the city and end his life in such a way that it would be impossible to identify him.

A number of days elapsed before the body of the man was found. The skull was fractured, and knife and bullet wounds were found in the torso.

Why Changos gave up his position here so suddenly, whether solely on account of his quarrel with his wife, or for some other reason which may relate to his death, is a question the California authorities are anxious to have answered, and which may be answered by the associates here. The only reason given this morning, however, for his sudden departure was his quarrel with his bride.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—JOHN BARLEYCORN: You'll notice that the petty bickering over the governorship is not centered on the ability and capacity of the man the president has named, but upon personal factionalism and technicalities, which in their final analysis will put the people of Hawaii in the same class with Mexicans and citizens of the South American Republics. The president might well assume that the people of Hawaii are crazy with the heat, when the very unpleasant row with Carter, the newly-elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, is followed up by a Kilkenny scrimmage which is a perfectly good argument for the president to ask for a change in the Organic Act in order that he may send here a special commissioner to pacify Hawaii.

The recent Illinois legislature supported education handsomely. In addition to appropriating $4,700,000 for the state university, the legislature made the following notable enactments: A million-dollar addition to the state distributive fund; a certifying bill that put Illinois in the front rank, according to State Superintendent Blair; a free high school tuition act, long clamored for; a law permitting local school boards to levy 2 per cent instead of 1 1/2 per cent for operating expenses, when authorized by vote of the people; and the creation of the position of state high school inspector at $4000 a year.

Kindergartens in Worcester, Mass., cost on an average $31.56 per pupil for the year; elementary grades, cost $34.01; high school, $66.50.

Alleging non-support, Mary Davis has filed a petition in circuit court asking for a divorce from John Davis.

Dr. John F. Cowes this morning was granted a divorce from Caroline Cowes, whom he accused of extreme cruelty. Libellant also was given the custody of the two minor children.

Notice of the divorce petition of Karen T. Morgan, asking legal separation from John V. Morgan, has been served on the latter at Hilleboro, Texas. Libellant alleges desertion, and asks for the custody of the minor child, Daisy Fern Morgan.

A competitive examination, under the rules of the United States Civil Service Commission, for the positions of clerk and carrier in the post office of Honolulu will be held Wednesday morning, September 3, commencing at 9 o'clock. Applications will not be accepted unless received by Acting Secretary Stackable of the civil service board, before half-past four o'clock on the afternoon of September 2. The examination will be held at the custom house.

An amendment to the bylaws of the Wai'alae, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club was made at a meeting of that organization last evening by which it will be permitted to name delegates to attend the meetings of the Central Improvement Club. Among other matters of business it was reported that the clearing up of the sidewalks along the Wai'alae road, Kaimuki, was progressing satisfactorily. The meeting was presided over by T. M. Church.

W. I. Kaiwi, a native Hawaiian, who was formerly a member of the crew of the United States battleship, Connecticut and who is now suffering from leprosy, has been taken to Seattle and placed in an isolated camp at Sand Point, near Port Townsend, there to await the arrival of the transport Dix, on which he will be taken to the leper settlement at Molokai. Kaiwi contracted the disease in the east and later was removed to Mare Island, San Francisco, from where he was taken in a baggage car to Seattle.

The annual meeting of the Honolulu Commercial club will be held at eight o'clock this evening, in the rooms of the club, McCaskey building, at which time the board of governors to serve during the coming fiscal year, will be elected. At a meeting tomorrow noon, this board will elect the officers of the club. Prior to the annual meeting, a dinner will be served at six o'clock, the speaker of the occasion being Alfred Noble, the noted engineer who is now in Honolulu on a tour of inspection of the dry dock at Pearl Harbor.

Because the Inter-Island steamer schedules will not fit the occasion, the dates of the second annual convention of the civic and commercial bodies of the territory have been changed from September 17, 18 and 19 to September 22 and 23. This change will allow the visiting delegates to arrive in Honolulu on Saturday September 20, at which time the annual regatta will be in progress, and they will be able to spend Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in town. The last two days will be devoted entirely to business of the convention.

The annual meeting of the Oahu Railway & Land Company will be held in the rooms of the company, Stangenwald building, at eleven o'clock Monday morning, August 25, at which time officers will be elected to serve during the coming fiscal year. Reports of the retiring officers, as well as others of interest to the company, will be presented. The present officers of the company are: B. F. Dillingham, president; M. E. Robinson, 1st vice-president; H. M. von Holt, 2d vice-president; F. A. Schaefer, 3rd vice-president; W. F. Dillingham, treasurer, and A. W. Van Valkenburg, secretary.

Funeral services over the body of Mary K. Radway, wife of J. M. Radway of this city, who died at her home in Kaimuki at six o'clock last evening, after a brief illness, were held at three o'clock this afternoon at William's undertaking establishment, interment following in the Nuuanu cemetery. Mrs. Radway was 44 years old, and leaves, beside the husband, a son and daughter, John A. Radway and Katherine M. Radway, both residing in Honolulu. The deceased was born on Kauai, and was the daughter of Hiram and Mary Fredenburg, who are the descendants of a line of Hawaiian chiefs. She was well known.

MAKE BOOTBLACK A ROAD PATROLMAN

NORWICH, N. Y.—"Monk" Brussell, for the last twenty-five years a bootblack here, has been appointed patrolman on the state highway. He got the job through the influence of Stephen Ryan, a local political boss, who is a personal friend of Gov. Suizer.

"Monk" does not smoke, he does not chew, he does not drink, and he ranks as a good citizen, although some of the highbrows are "up in the air" at having to be bossed on the state highways by a shoeshiner. His salary is $25 a week. When not otherwise employed, he reads works on politics and political economy.

$50,000 FOR SAFETY

Fifty thousand dollars is none too much to spend for Honolulu's safety.

That is the amount estimated for the installation of new fire alarm and police call boxes. The city electrician, Mr. Frazee, reports to the civil service commissioners that this sum will bring the city up to date in appliances.

Honolulu's present safety-device systems are antiquated, inefficient and dangerous—dangerous because they give a false sense of security. The police department is handicapped by lack of boxes enough to cover the outside districts; the fire department is even more handicapped. There are large sections of Honolulu where neither kind of protection is afforded.

The Waikiki beach district is particularly exposed to fire danger. Hydrants and alarm-boxes are practically non-existent. Yet this is just the district where cottages of light construction are numerous, and where, moreover, a fire would leave tourist-visitors without place to go.

An increase in fire-detection and fire-fighting devices will result in an actual financial saving in the community, for with alarm-boxes and hydrants sufficient to cover the present exposed districts, the insurance rates will be lowered. The sum total of the saving will amount, in a year or two, to more than the cost of the boxes.

The supervisors will be asked to make the appropriation. The public treasury is not inexhaustible, but the supervisors were elected because they told the people from the stump that they could solve the city's pressing problems. This is one of the most pressing.

PALAVES AND PAVING

Honolulu's paving discussion, rapidly assuming the proportions of a controversy, is not likely to be settled by talk.

Those who are promoting or who are interested in rival kinds of paving are naturally not going to agree on any one kind as most desirable. Reports as to the experience of other cities are conflicting almost to the point of absurdity. A resident of North Yakima, Wash., now in Honolulu declares bitulithic is the ideal material; yet at the same time the Seattle Post-Intelligencer publishes an article which tells of a $150,000 bitulithic contract abrogated because of the protests of property-owners. Carl Fisher, a national highways expert, is quoted in the San Francisco papers as advocating cement-concrete; but King county, Washington, after experimenting with vitrified brick, has just let contracts for twelve miles of brick-paved road. Meanwhile the local board of supervisors is talking of giving asphalt-macadam another trial on Kalakaua avenue.

The average taxpayer of Honolulu is at sea when it comes to a definite paving policy. The board of supervisors seems as much at sea.

There are three ways by which Honolulu might determine conclusively what materials and methods should be used in street- and road-building.

1. Honolulu might call in a consulting engineer of such an established reputation in highway construction that his word and his decision would be instantly accepted by the people and his plans immediately carried out by the supervisors.

2. Honolulu might refer the paving problem to a board of investigation named from among competent local engineers, with a prominent and public-spirited financier of the city to represent the business phases involved.

3. Honolulu might carry on scientific tests of various kinds of materials laid by various kinds of methods, and adopt the material and method that stood the test and gave the best all-around satisfaction.

A number of months ago the Star-Bulletin advocated the establishment of a road-testing laboratory either at the College of Hawaii or in the department of public works. As a result of the arguments favoring such a laboratory, the College of Hawaii will install a large amount of equipment within a few weeks. A good deal of it has already arrived, and there is hope that the regents will purchase more. The college will be equipped, though in a small way, to carry on these scientific tests. The students will be given courses in road-making in this laboratory, and it will be held subject to the use of the public.

If a real test of paving materials is desired, an experimental road could be laid in the city where traffic is fairly heavy, and a few yards or rods of each kind could be put down and the results noted. The traffic and weather conditions would then be alike for all kinds of material.

The disadvantage of this method is that it would take a year or two for a fair trial. Meanwhile, the city's paving policy would be unsettled and important work delayed. There ought to be enough in the experience of other cities, studied by an impartial board of engineers, to guide Honolulu.

ONE CERTAINTY

One certainty is that Immigration Inspector Halsey knows the technical rules of the immigration service a good deal better than his critics. He referred the case of the five detained excursionists to Washington, taking the position that it was not within his power to make a final decision either for or against their landing here. The board of inquiry at the station here is stated to have favored their landing but questions were involved that caused the matter to be referred to headquarters. A decision from Washington is now awaited.

Uncle Sam's laws and Uncle Sam's regulations must rule in this community. If they are irksome, appeal for a change may be made. But a personal attack on the official who is administering the laws as he sees them is distinctly out of order until the proper authorities have gone into the facts.

Venustiano Carranza, referred to in this morning's wireless dispatches as "one of the most aggressive members of the Mexican cabinet," and "believed to be instrumental in Huerta's final rejection of the plans submitted by Envoy Lind," is not a member of the Mexican cabinet nor is he one of Huerta's advisers. In fact, he is the most implacable enemy of the Mexican dictator. Carranza is governor of the state of Coahuila and ever since Madero's death has carried on unflinching war against Huerta. Obviously, he could have had nothing to do with Huerta's rejection of Lind's plan.

Nearly a million and a half dollars has been spent on roads in the territory during the last fiscal year. Yet, strange to say, the loan-fund commission plan, so far as it relates to road-building, has been anything but a shining success. It is costly, unwieldy, unsatisfactory both to the commissions and to the contractors who do the work.

Dr. Pratt's reappointment is welcomed by the territory at large. He has made a good record as president of the board of health and the circumstances being such that Governor Frear could not pass action on to his successor, the naming of Pratt was the logical course.

Harry K. Thaw's pampered life is not worth half the fuss that is being made over it. But if it costs a hundred thousand dollars to bring this luxury-crazed product of misspent wealth to justice, the effort and the money will be worth while.

The Star-Bulletin tomorrow will begin publication of the testimony of Attorney S. M. Ballou, of the sugar planters' association, before the senate lobby probe committee. It is as interesting and illuminating as that of ex-Gov. Carter.

The would-be assassins who put a bomb and six sticks of dynamite behind Mayor Gaynor's chair were evidently determined to take no chances on another recovery.

Two adjacent newspaper headlines—"School for Defectives Is Planned" "Mayor May Change His Mind and Cancel Anti-Music Order."—Nough said.

The report that Pinkham's name has been withdrawn reminds one forcibly of the paternal relationship existing between the wish and the thought.

Another veteran topic of territorial conversation, the Waiakea land question, looks as if it would soon be eliminated.

A good many banana claims are shrivelling up under the fierce light of official inquiry.

Nobody but the Advertiser can hear any "get-together" talk in Democratic ranks.

STEAMSHIP RECORDS.

MAYOR FERN AND THE BAND.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir: Would you kindly afford me a little space in your valuable journal. I see by your issue of last evening that Mayor Fern contemplated receding the order to the Hawaiian band playing at the hotel concerts, dances, etc. Speaking from a working man's point of view I sincerely hope he will stick to his colors. The band is, I understand, for the enjoyment of the general public. The band has disappointed the same on several occasions to gratify the guests and tourists of our leading hotels. Why don't these people attend the concerts in the open spaces allotted for that purpose. The only pleasure we have these sultry evenings is to take our evening and families in the cool of the evening and listen to the band.

Thanking you in anticipation, yours truly,

WORKING MAN.

THE WAIAKEA LANDS.

Honolulu, T. H., 22nd Aug., 1913.
Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir:—In your issue of yesterday, the 21st inst., there appears an article regarding the release of a tract of land in Hilo by the Waiakea Mill Company to the territory. As the writer of the said article does not seem to have been in full possession of all the facts, I shall be obliged if you will make room for the following statement:

During 1912 the commissioner of public lands requested the directors of the mill company to release a tract of about 216 acres of land in Hilo for the purposes of home-building, which tract was marked out by the commissioner on a blue print submitted to the mill company and which (as the mill company was given to understand) had the approval of the residents of Hilo. No compensation of any sort was offered by the commissioner, he informing the mill company that he was not in a position to offer compensation.

In December, 1912, the directors of the mill company acceded to the request of the commissioner, and offered to release the land asked for without compensation.

No sooner was this done than the commissioner and the mill company were informed that the land so released was of no use to the residents of Hilo and that they did not want it.

In February, 1913, the directors of the mill company were asked if they would surrender a tract of land in a different location and of approximately the same area as the first tract. Again no compensation was offered. This is the tract that the directors of the mill company have now agreed to release.

It is clear from the above that your allusion to "offers of trades or exchanges that have been refused" and your statement that "the territory has at times made offers to give leases on other government lands which, for the company's purposes, were considered just as good as the Hilo tract, but all were rejected," were written under a misapprehension of the facts of the case.

Trusting that you will insert this correction.

Faithfully yours,

F. M. SWANZY,

President, Waiakea Mill Company.

during his brief stay at Honolulu today. Harrison stands well with the wheel horses of the Democratic party, having been its candidate for governor of New York in 1904.

Mr. Earnshaw will leave the Shinyo Maru at Yokohama, and will remain there awaiting the arrival of Governor-General Harrison.

"I may be called upon to return to Washington before accompanying the new official to the Philippines. I forwarded a series of wireless messages from the Shinyo to the coast yesterday which will serve to arrange for a meeting at the Japanese port."

Judging from remarks dropped this morning, the new governor-general is in line for an extensive series of entertainments upon his advent in his new field of duty.

can be said about any quarters. It is admitted here that the entire blame rests with the war department. There is no criticism of the work of the Q. M. corps in the Hawaiian Department, which merely worked on plans submitted from the nation's capital, but that the result has been a lamentable failure is the general opinion. The scheme of construction and post architecture is modeled after the German plan, which is that adopted by several other European countries, where land for army barracks is of almost fabulous value, and where the quarters and barracks must be constructed, in the extreme. The houses are so closely set that every sound is heard from house to house; there are no adequate servants quarters, and absolutely no storage room.

"Look at the navy quarters at Pearl Harbor, and then compare them with the army quarters at Castner," said an officer of the Hawaiian department this morning. "The deadly parallel is apparent. The navy has well-designed and commodious quarters, suitable to the climate, and built for much less money than the army is paying for ridiculous residences. Castner is worse than Ruler, and that's handing it about the worst knock possible."

Who Will Pay.
In the meantime, officers of the first battalion of the 1st field artillery, who arrived from the Philippines on the transport Thomas yesterday, are moving into the tent-houses vacated by the infantry officers. The question now comes up whether or not officers who spent several hundred dollars fitting up their canvas homes of personal investigation," declared the returning commissioner.

Governor General Harrison, said Mr. Earnshaw, left Washington for the Pacific coast in time to take passage in the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria, which vessel is due to arrive at Honolulu on Sept. 16 on the way to the Philippines.

A clean sweep in the personnel of the Philippine commission is predicted by Mr. Earnshaw. "There may not be any amount of undue haste displayed by the new administration at Washington, but many important changes in the insular government are bound to follow the selection of the new chief executive."

The selection of Francis Burton Harrison as governor-general is looked upon by leading Filipinos as a decided victory for ultimate independence of the islands. This much was plainly intimated by commissioner Earnshaw.

have anything coming from those who have taken them over. In the case of permanent improvements on military reservations, the officer making the original outlay has no claim for reimbursement on removal, but in the present case the tent frames, etc., are removable, and it is quite possible for them to tear down their temporary domiciles and sell the lumber.

Are the artillery officers ready to pay for value received? That is the question that is being asked by those who have real coin at stake, and the query that remains to be answered. If the field artillerymen are assigned to these tent quarters, they have a deal of common-sense on their side, if they refuse to pay for improvements that they did not order, and that they had nothing to do with it. Also, several of them have nearly completed their tropical tours and justly feel that they do not care to spend money for a home that they will occupy for only a few months at most.

Plenty of Water.
The water question at Schofield has been partially settled by the piping of the Castner supply to the infantry and cavalry cantonments, and the installation of a pumping plant. There is plenty of water in the old system to look after the field artillery, and it is believed that the water famine at the big brigade post is over for good and all.

BUSINESS SUCCESS COMES TO GIRLS WHOSE AIM IS HIGH

Training of girls in preparation for a business career has come to be an important subject in thousands of homes for girls all over the land, and graduates of grammar, high school and college are looking forward to the opening of trade in the fall when they may make their bow to the great business world around which they have woven a glamor of roseate hue, and from which they hope to gather in abundance the golden coins that to their imagination seem to shine out in beckoning rays from great heaps piled high in the offices and department stores. Only a few years ago it was considered a disgrace for a woman to be employed in an office or behind a counter, but since she asserted her right to be self-supporting, instead of dependent upon the male members of her family, the subject of preparation for her work has received more and more attention, until it is said today that she cannot have too much preparation, and that it should begin in childhood.

This age of competition requires the highest and best equipment in order to complete successfully with the great army of workers who are aiming for the same goal—a position sufficiently high to furnish at least elbow room. Not only is the education that may be obtained from books, or the practical training to be derived from actual experience, all that she needs to make her successful, but long before she learns her A. B. C.'s may begin the lessons which are sometimes the hardest to learn, but without which no girl can hope to win success in the business world, the lessons of courtesy, punctuality, obedience, industry and thoroughness. Although business houses frequently take inexperienced help with the expectation of teaching them the business, they do not expect to give their valuable time to training which belongs to the home. The girl who is allowed to be saucy in her talk, careless in her habits, discourteous to her elders or her companions, will either be an absolute failure in the business world or she will have some hard lessons to learn, lessons which would have been learned much more easily in childhood. Many a successful private secretary in an office, or buyer or department head in a great store, recognized that her success is largely due to the careful training in these essentials, training from the mother whom she may at one time have thought stern and strict, but whom today she thanks for the lessons which have made her path to success smoother than it could otherwise have been. Although it is not always possible for a girl to have a college or even a high school education before beginning her work, she will find that the broad education derived from a study of the higher branches is of untold advantage and in many ways if she has been deprived of these she can increase her knowledge by attendance at evening school and by good reading. A study of languages for the one who is to be a buyer in a department store and will take frequent trips to different markets of the world will be found helpful. Even if there are interpreters furnished, and it is not an absolute necessity in transacting the business to be able to speak the language, it is a great convenience for, as one buyer said recently, "It is such a slow process to be obliged to have interpreted everything that is said." There are few of the high school or college studies, a knowledge of which will not be of advantage to a girl in business, and even if she cannot apply some things which she has learned, she will have had the training which will enable her to grasp other subjects more readily.

American people look with contempt upon idleness. We are a nation of workers. Everybody that is anybody is doing something, and it is good for us to work and to work hard for a reasonable number of hours a day, and it is essential to success. "Hard work overcomes every obstacle," some one has said, and if the girls are taught to work, if they are given some duties to perform every day in the house, and compelled to do them well, they will form habits of industry that will speak for advancement to the positions which command the high salaries. But there is no royal road that leads to success; those who have reached the exalted positions have paid the price, which is hard work.

Many happy experiences are in store for the girl who will enter the business world in September, and there will be experiences of the other sort, but they will all combine to teach, to strengthen and lead her to higher efficiency and success if her determination is to succeed, and if she has been taught these essential principles from childhood. She will face problems which will come as a surprise to her; she will learn that many flowers bloom by the wayside, but some that look most alluring carry thorns; there are sweet briars, roses, daisies and violets, and she must know that upon the choice she makes depends her success or failure.

Enthusiasm, courage and determination to succeed, with which many of these girls are starting in the business world, are to be admired, and no word of discouragement should be given. For the girl who will meet every difficulty as a stepping stone over which she may mount to higher efficiency, welcoming every experience that will increase her knowledge and her value as a worker, there will be joy and satisfaction—joy in the accomplishment of her ideals and satisfaction in the realization of the fact that she has a part in the great business world and that she has won success; that her energy, activity, determination and common sense have enabled her to reach her aim—a successful business woman.

ANNUAL HAWAIIAN NIGHT IS PLANNED AT HOTEL STEWART

The annual Hawaiian Night at the Hotel Stewart, San Francisco, will be held this year during the first week in September, and will doubtlessly be attended by the large colony of residents of Hawaii now spending the summer in and about the Bay City.

The custom of holding this annual gathering was established by the management of the Stewart hotel some years ago, and became an event looked forward to by the residents of the islands who are in San Francisco or vicinity at the time it is held as well as by their friends and those interested in the Hawaiian Islands. As usual, the lobby, parlors and private dining room of the hotel will be given over to those attending, a dance will be held, and the music provided by a Hawaiian orchestra. The decorations will be of flowers, leis and flags typical of Honolulu and the islands. The exact date of the gathering this year has not as yet been determined upon, as it is aimed to place it subject to the arrival from Camp Perry, Ohio, of the members of the rifle team of the national guard of Hawaii, who are to be in San Francisco about the first of September.

DOCTOR PRATT SAYS TWO-YEAR TERM IS SHORT

As stated in the Star-Bulletin yesterday, Governor Frear reappointed Dr. J. S. B. Pratt to the presidency of the board of health and the latter is now in office for another two years, unless he chooses to resign before the expiration of the term, or the territorial senate in 1915 refuses to confirm the appointment. Even in the latter event, Dr. Pratt may continue in office eighteen months longer.

Discussing the situation yesterday, Dr. Pratt commented on this phase. "This is the only territorial department, the head of which serves for a two-year term," he said. "All the other members of the governor's cabinet are given four-year terms. In justice to the department, and regardless of who may be appointed, the president's term should be at least as long as that of the other officials. It takes at least six months for a new man to familiarize himself with the details of the position, to be able to outline a program of action, to marshal his forces, and see that all the business is handled to the best advantage to the people."

"Some of our lines of endeavor require painstaking preparation, close study, and then a lot of patient waiting before they are accomplished. For instance, I have been trying, almost ever since I came into office, to have those insanitary lands at Hilo reclaimed. And now we are just on the point of realizing success in that plan. There are many other health plans that require the same sort of persistent 'plugging' to accomplish, and health work in the islands is too important to have them ignored or neglected, as they are certain to be to some extent if a new president were appointed every two years."

"The value of the longer term is recognized by the chief executives, who have invariably retained their health board presidencies longer than the mere two years given them by law."

'SUMMONED' TO SHOW THAT THEY ARE ALIVE

[By Latest Mail]

BERLIN.—The newspapers are publishing a story from Heidelberg which throws a characteristic light on the bureaucratic practices of German officialdom.

It appears that a workman named Heinrich Sommer desires to have 14 persons who emigrated to the United States in 1862 officially declared dead.

The oldest, who was born in 1776, would therefore now have attained the age of 137 years. Others were born in 1799 and 1805.

All of these persons are now summoned to appear at the Town Hall of Heidelberg on February 27, 1913, at 10 a. m., and in case they refuse to do so, they will officially be declared to be no longer in the land of the living.

SUGAR SINGLED OUT FOR ATTACK OF DEMOCRATS

olize free sugar and the situation thus became much worse.

Two dilemmas confronted the Democrats. One was to defer consideration of the sugar schedule until a successor to Mr. Johnston, could be chosen, or the governor obtain authority from the Alabama legislature to make a temporary appointment. The other was to open up negotiations with the Republicans and seek to secure a few Progressive votes. It was determined to try the negotiation plan first and learn what could be accomplished. Overtures were made to Senator Poindester, the solitary Bull Moose member of the upper branch in congress. He flatly refused to make any promises whatever. He announced that his course would be to vote for such features of the tariff bill as seemed sufficiently progressive and vote against those that appeared reactionary. He did not indicate how far he would go in the direction of free sugar.

Democratic leaders then conferred with Senators LaFollette and Kenyon, regarded as the most radical of the Progressives. They were offered concessions but would not accept them. Their demands were greater than the Democrats could concede without incurring the disapproval of President Wilson.

A plan then was devised to hasten the final passage of the tariff bill. The majority leaders wanted Senators LaFollette and Smoot, representing the Regular and Progressive factions to agree to an early vote on the bill in return for putting such duties on farm products as would meet the cry of "discrimination against the farmer." The negotiations came to nothing, for the reason that the Democratic leaders would give no assurances concerning the duties on farm products after the bill went to conference.

The Democratic leaders do not deny that the constant cry of "discrimination against the farmer" by the Republicans is getting on their nerves. They fear it will cost the Democrats votes.

As a result of the various conferences held, it became evident that the senate Democrats will take no chances on success. They will make certain that they have sufficient votes to approve the caucus action before considering the disputed schedule. If necessary, they will wait until another strict party Democrat can come in from Alabama. They will take no chances on Newlands or Hitchcock.

act in cooperation with Mr. Rawlins, who "was recently named Portola athletic commissioner." The dispatch further says that Mr. Dougherty is heartily in favor of Honolulu's entering a float in the Portola parade. This matter was recently advocated locally, but was opposed by Secretary Wood, of the promotion committee. The dispatch received this morning says:

"James D. Dougherty, director-general of the mid-Pacific carnival to be given in Honolulu February 16 to 22 next, has been appointed resident Portola commissioner for the territory of Hawaii. He will co-operate with William T. Rawlins, of Honolulu, recently named as Portola athletic commissioner, by John A. Hammersmith, chairman of the Portola Athletic Committee."

"I believe Honolulu should enter a float in the Portola festival," said Commissioner Dougherty at the Hotel Stewart. "It would be a splendid thing for the islands, and would prove invaluable in creating fresh interest in the big carnival to be given there next February. Upon my return to Honolulu, I will immediately take steps to lay the plan before the proper persons."

"Dougherty, who is a governor of the Commercial Club of Honolulu, has just returned to San Francisco after a tour of the United States on behalf of the Mid-Pacific Carnival."

"Honolulu should make the most of this opportunity presented by the Portola Festival," he continued. "The Portola has attracted attention in all parts of the country, as I have found on my trip, and Hawaiian participation would do much to focus attention on the islands. Honolulu should put in a float typical of its own attractions—which would make it unique—and should send a big delegation as well."

"This is a matter of great importance for the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Association and the Hawaii Promotion Committee."

"The Portola, in which the whole Pacific Coast will participate, is to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean by Vasco Nunez de Balboa, making Hawaiian interest of especial significance."

"In conference with the members of the Portola Festival Committee, Dougherty today declared his belief that his city and territory would make a display in San Francisco next fall which would outdo all other forms of outside participation in novelty, beauty and attractiveness."

"I want to see Honolulu stand side by side with San Francisco in this

LIEUTENANT BUMP TO INSTRUCT THE GUARD OF HAWAII

Col. John W. Jones, adjutant of the national guard of Hawaii, this morning received the following special order mailed from Washington August 9:

"Special order 185.—First Lieutenant Arthur L. Bump, Twenty-fifth Infantry, is detailed under the provision of an act of congress, approved March 3, 1911, as inspector instructor of the organized militia of Hawaii. He will proceed to Honolulu for directions accordingly, reporting to the governor of the territory of Hawaii."

Lieutenant Bump is stationed at Schofield Barracks with the Twenty-fifth Infantry, but at the present time is on the mainland, having gone there a month ago to coach the rifle team of the Arizona national guard which is now competing in the annual match at Camp Perry, Ohio. Upon his return, he will assume his new duties.

PROF. W. A. BRYAN JAPANESE, HELD IN INTERESTING LECTURE UNDESIRABLE, BEING DEPORTED

"America's Lost Possessions in the Pacific" was the subject of a lecture delivered by Prof. W. A. Bryan of the College of Hawaii, at the Young Men's Christian Association last evening.

Professor Bryan narrated the history of many of the smaller islands in the South Pacific, telling of the discovery of Laysan and the Marquesas islands and numerous others by American captains, and the manner in which they have been gobbled up by more greedy and aggressive maritime powers. "This raised the question of international law as to whether nations must have subjects living on a discovered island in order to retain its original title by right of discovery," said the speaker.

The story of Professor Bryan's adventures during his exploration of Marcus Island was concerned with this point of law. On June 29th, 1883, Captain Rosehill, an American sailor, discovered and formally made claim to Marcus Island in the name of the United States. When he left the island he hoisted on a beam above the tallest palm an American flag and posted on the tree a notice of his claim on behalf of his country. When Rosehill returned to Honolulu he at once forwarded to Washington a formal statement of his achievements in the name of his country. In 1892, Captain Rosehill, commanding the ship Whalen, left Honolulu with a small party of sailors and scientists, among which was Professor Bryan, to visit his island and investigate its commercial possibilities. Armed with official documents from the department of state which asserted his ownership of the island, and letters from the Japanese consul in Honolulu to any chance Japanese fishermen there, the party left with no forebodings of the trouble ahead.

Barely had the ship left Honolulu harbor until the Japanese here communicated with their home government and warned them to reinforce any Japanese claim to Marcus. A steamer at once left Tokyo with an officer and marines, who were stationed on the island and awaiting the coming explorers. Great was the astonishment of the little party on the Whalen when they approached Marcus and discovered flying above the palms a Japanese flag, and numerous Orientals scurrying about on the beach. A counsel of war was held aboard the Whalen and it was decided to land a party and thus give the Japanese an opportunity to openly contest the ownership of the bit of land. It was with fast-beating hearts that the scientists and Captain Rosehill put across the reef in a small boat for none in the party had previous experience in international or marital difficulties.

The Japanese lieutenant in command protested the landing of the party, but allowed the scientists to set up their work. In a few days they became suspicious and ordered the party of Americans to leave the American soil. The matter of the ownership of the island has been long contested by the two nations, but no amicable settlement has as yet been reached and the tangle of red tape ever grows more complicated.

quity after investigation, made recommendation to Washington favorable to their landing. This recommendation, it is stated, was made known to the Japanese and yet after that the criticism continued. The questions raised by direction of the department must be referred to Washington and while a final decision in Washington is pending, the immigrants are detained here.

It was their detention that was taken up by the Japanese press as an abuse of the law. An interesting point in connection with the immigration work is that neither Filipinos nor aliens coming in from the Philippines are subject to the immigration laws. The Filipinos are neither aliens nor American citizens, under these laws, but American subjects. The Filipino immigration is not subject to the laws regarding aliens.

MUNICIPAL FISHMARKET IS PROPOSED

out explicitly what improvements must be made before a merchant license will be granted to the vendors there.

The following are changes directly to be made: New counters of stone, metal or glass must be put in; new gutters around the counters must be installed; glass fronts two feet high must be put up, so that customers may not handle the wares; better drainage for counters; install slop sinks; put in new and better ice boxes or chests; provide for an inspectors' room in a conspicuous place; keep all live poultry from the market; rearrange all stalls to get all of one kind of food together.

The committee also agreed to draw up a set of regulations to apply to the market.

The question of who is to bear the expense of the improvements was raised by Mayor Fern; and though the committee was of the opinion that it was not concerned with that matter, the members gave it as their opinion that both the vendors and the corporation controlling the markets should pay for the work.

Before passing from the subject, the two inspectors of the market were criticized for their failure to put in a report. Before the appointment of Gabriel Keawehehu and David Kahaleaahu as inspectors, weekly reports were made, showing the number of fish put on sale, whether fresh or fresh, and the kinds and number of the different fish brought to the market. It was brought out at the meeting that since these two inspectors have been appointed, no reports have been made, and that they are now six months behind in the records.

The inspectors stated that they were making efforts to prepare the back reports, which they would hand in as monthly accounts of the fish business done at the markets. They promised to have them in within a few days, which promise they also made about two months ago.

ALL-HAWAIIAN BALL-PLAYERS WORK OVERTIME

By WM. F. DESHA
(Special Star-Bulletin correspondent with the All-Hawaiian ball team.)
BARABOO, Minn., Aug. 10. — The All-Hawaiian ball team is going right along winning games and giving musical entertainments. If it wasn't for the fact that we like it, and are having a great time, we might be considered overworked, but we are getting the best of treatment, seeing new places, and generally enjoying ourselves. Also, we are doing some first-class boosting for Hawaii. The attendance at our concerts and lectures, and the questions asked us about the islands, proves that beyond a doubt. It rained all night and so we could not play today. We were scheduled to play Baraboo (Red Sox). Green got $250 guarantee, rain or shine. It's our first day off since we started in playing our first game in Brush, Colo. We boys all went to church this morning and after lunch were entertained at the Elks Lodge No. 665. They gave us a swell time during our short stay. At 4 p. m. all the boys took in the Ringling Bros. winter quarters. It's certainly a big place. They've got 21 big buildings in which they train to keep their stock for the winter. Boys have been playing well of late, especially our pitching staff. Tomorrow we play Staughton and then Madison. We expect to be in Chicago in a week. Up to date we have played as follows:

We have made $385 for the last month. Doing very well, I think. We've got 117 slides made, and now using, of different scenes back home; our own lantern. Mr. Green advertises a lot. Many—in fact, all—of the places we've been in, the people know nothing of Hawaii. They hear of our concerts weeks before we arrive and when we give one you can't find space to even stand. After the concert, the boys are generally invited by some to visit their homes. We sometimes go when we are not tired, and have great times. We stay as late as 12:30 to 1 a. m., and then they try to keep us all night. Green's Hawaiians are certainly advertising Hawaii, and if there won't be any increase in tourist travel this next year I'll be much surprised.

BREAK OF LUCK FOR THE GIANTS

How the Giants can get a bunch of runs after some one on the other side muffs a fly ball was a topic of discussion among some of the Philadelphia players. It was related how New York got four runs recently after Fred Kohners had muffed a fly which would have prevented scoring had he held the ball. "That's nothing," "Sherwood Magee had not muffed a fly ball in three years. At least, no one remembers ever seeing him make a rank miff, and he can't remember himself when he ever did. But he lost a ball in a game with New York about a month ago and the Giants got four runs." It is a funny way those Giants have. They make about as many blundering muffs and errors as any club in the business, and yet their mistakes seldom help their opponents. One could burn a barrel of midnight oil recounting games in the last three years that the Giants have won through the most remarkable kind of ill-fated breaks against the other club. We can't forget the battle at Forbes field one day last year when the first hit off Adams was a scratch by Larry Doyle after two men were out and the crowd was yelling for a no-hit game. Then Murray hit a pop fly behind second that should have retired the side. Some one yelled, "Take it Artie." Two Arties—Hofman and Butler—tried to take it. They had answered to their own names, of course. The ball fell safely. Up came Merkle. Over the left field wall went the ball. Home went a saddened crowd of 18,000. Forbes field fans sadly shaking their heads. New York had won 3 to 2.

William Wrubel, aged 9 years, is suffering from a punctured lung, broken arm, jaw and ribs and other injuries, as a result of falling from the roof of the Middletown High School building, 40 feet, to the sidewalk.

Championship Polo Game Tomorrow

WHEN OLD-TIME RIVALS CLASHED LAST YEAR

This picture was taken during the third period of last year's memorable match between Oahu and Maui, which was eventually won by Oahu, 8 to 7, in an extra-period game. The score, as shown on the board in the background, was 4 to 3 in favor of Maui, and Oahu was defending the maki goal when the picture was taken. The action shows a hot scrimmage near the home goal line, with both sides making a desperate attempt to get possession of the ball. On the extreme left of the picture is Harold Rice, Maui No. 2. Next is David Fleming, Maui back, who is trying to get in a back-hander toward the goal posts, and is being ridden off by Sam Baldwin, Oahu No. 1. Frank Baldwin, the Maui captain and No. 3, is waiting just behind the forwards, ready to pounce on the ball whichever way it is knocked. On the right are Harold Castle and Arthur Collins (in helmet) in full gallop after the flying spicule.

CHINESE BECOME DEMON BATTERS ON THIS TRIP

The Philadelphia Inquirer of August 10 gives a four-column picture layout of the All-Chinese ball players in action, and a column of type to a description of the play. Certainly the local men are getting newspaper publicity, and the regularity with which they win games is almost monotonous.

Here's the boost that the big Philadelphia daily gives the Orientals: "That little band of yellow men playing under the name of the Hawaii University team, once more invaded our fair city yesterday and the result was as before, a defeat for a local team, the crack Strawbridge and Clothier nine being the victims 'this time on their field at Sixty-third and Walnut streets. The final score was 9 to 5, but it did not need for a trio of timely circuit drives over the left field fence, the Celestials might have come in for one of the few defeats they have suffered during their long pilgrimage through the country. They came to this city with a reputation of being weak hitters, but if this be true, then Ty Cobb isn't worth his salt and Frank Baker should quit before he gets to the gate. Kanyen and Ayau were the worst weaklings with the war club yesterday, for outside of getting two singles, a double and three homers between them, their offensive powers were very poor, indeed."

The diminutive Ayau delivered two homers in succession, one in the second and one in the fourth, scoring a team mate in front of him each time, and me to be outdone by his partner around the keystone sack. Kanyen duplicated one of these drives a few moments later. Great Hitting. This kind of clouting was enough to dishearten any team, but the store boys kept plugging away all the time, and, bespited by several substitutions, played bang-up ball till the finish, with the exception of the fifth inning, when the Chinese ran wild on the bases, while their opponents were frantically heaving the ball in all directions.

In the sixth, Leibert, the State College boy, ascended the mound for the store team, and from then on the Pac East representatives acted as though they were in a trance, five of them swinging vainly at the elusive slants served up by the relief pitcher. He whiffed the side in order in the eighth inning and altogether gave out an excellent impression, making many a rabid Strawbridge and Clothier rooster bemoan the fact that he had not started the game.

A young Mongolian by the name of Luck started in the box for the invaders, but the suggestiveness of his name did not appear to effect the home team to any great extent, and he was shifted from the scene after the third inning to make room for one Foster, who is credited with being the best hurler the aliens carry. He failed to live up to this reputation, for the locals found his delivery without much trouble. He was as tight as a

JOE ENGEL MADE ODD BREAK-IN

During the early spring days of 1912 a young ball tosser applied for admittance to the ball park in Washington, where Clark Griffith, Wax Johnson, Herm Schaefer and other Nationals were romping about. He was too bashful to speak to anybody, just watched the athletes perform. The next morning the same kid was on hand. He had read about the great Johnson, Walsh, Coombs, Bender, Wood and other pitchers. He was a pitcher, too. Rather on the lots in Washington he curved 'em for the semi-pro teams, and as he usually was, he thought he'd like to become acquainted with the big leaguers.

The kid chatted with members of the Nationals, asked who was manager, and if he could talk to him. "Griffith is manager," he's standing over there," informed one athlete to the youngster. The kid walked over to Griffith.

"I'm a pitcher. I'd like to toss a few to your hitters," was his opening sentence to Griffith.

"Where do you hail from?" flashed the Fox.

"Right here! Pitch on Saturdays and haven't lost a game for a year," returned the youngster.

"Go to the dressing room, put on a suit and let me take a look at you," answered Griffith.

The youth appeared, went to the hill and pitched during the batting practice.

The players gave Griffith the merry ha ha. They wanted to know where the boss plucked the novice. When the ball came near the place usually the sluggers lifted it over the heads of the outfielders.

All the time, though, Griffith was watching his new entrant. He saw that he had a lot of speed and a fast breaking curve. But the kid was awkward, and didn't have the proper delivery.

Came on Fast. As the youngster improved with each day and began to show dazzling speed, he was introduced to his idol, Walter Johnson. Always chummy with aspiring kids, Johnson took an interest in the new acquisition. He drum in the pinches, however, and this alone saved the Chinese on several occasions.

The store team was game even to the end and pulled a rally in the ninth, which, however, fell short by several runs. Kennedy, the Ursinus football star, opened the inning with a splendid drive to center, but Ensue rushed over and intercepted the ball for a pretty catch. Undaunted by this, McGrath came through with his fourth safety of the day, a single to left, and stole second. Mack hit a scorching shot on which Ayau made a pretty stop and throw, getting his man at first, while McGrath moved up to third.

Bodine was inserted into the game at this point as a pinch hitter for Farren and made good in every sense of the word with a Texas League line right, McGrath scoring, but Wrigley ended the inning and the game with a fly to Akana in left field.

MACK HAS GREAT TEAM

Connie Mack has a wonderful combination, though it may be possible to pick flaws in it when compared with some of the other great teams that baseball has developed in past years. It never looked more like Mack's team re-appearing than at the present time. He has a big lead, and his team is playing consistently good ball. It is meeting all comers and beating them, and, if anything, is showing better form as the season progresses. While the pitching staff does not look formidable on paper, leave it to your Uncle Cornelius to get all there is out of it. Astounding is the improvement which the two youngsters, Brown and Houck, are showing.

showed him how to throw the fast one, the movement with the shoulder, how to curve the one down around the knees and the fast breaker high on the inside.

After a few lessons Griff and the players were surprised. In a few weeks the batters began popping the fast one and hitting easy grounders on the curves.

When it came time to make the first trip, Griffith asked his strange tosser how he'd like to make a trip with the team.

"Do you think I can pitch?" was his answer.

"I don't know, I'll try you out," returned the boss.

The Nationals made several trips, and when a game was practically lost the kid got a chance to show himself. Sometimes he got away all right, sometimes he didn't.

The 1912 season was over. This kid had a bunch of experience. The past spring he was a regular member of the team, was along on the practice tour and watched every move made by his favorite, Johnson.

Finally the kid got a chance to show himself at the start. He won, allowing only a few hits and a run or two. Then it was that Griffith realized he had a wonderful pitcher.

Recently Joe Engel beat the Browns 1 to 0, with three scattered hits, showing almost as much stuff as Walter Johnson. Joe Engel is the kid who introduced himself to a major league ball park in the spring of 1912, and members of the Nationals declare he'll be just as good a pitcher as Walter Johnson.

Furthermore, Joe Engel celebrated his twentieth birthday last April.

More than a billion eggs are on ice, according to the report of forty-five public refrigerators of the United States, just issued.

W. W. Christian, a cabinet maker of Atlanta, Ga., was sandbagged by a man after refusing him a cigarette. When he recovered he swore he had no desire to smoke again.

Ray Pfanschmidt, slayer of his father, mother, sister and Miss Emma Kaempfen, a young school teacher friend, was sentenced at Quincy, Ill., to be hanged Saturday, October 18.

MAUI-OAHU MATCH STIRS INTEREST OF EVERY POLO FOLLOWER

The big polo match of the year, the finals for the inter-island championship, will be played on Moanalua field tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Oahu and Maui are the contenders, both having administered a decisive defeat to the team of the 4th Cavalry. The winning team will get possession of the Wichman perpetual challenge cup, emblematic of the Hawaiian championship, and will win a leg on the California Feed Co. cup, which was won for the first time last year by Oahu. This cup must be won three times to become the permanent property of any team.

This year's schedule works out far better than the arrangement in force last year. In 1912, what proved to be the great game of the tournament came first. Oahu beat Maui in the opening contest. Then Maui had a walkover with the 5th Cavalry, and it was apparent that Oahu would have an easy time with the cavalry, winning its second game and the tournament.

This year the best is saved for the last. The old-time rivals have beaten the soldiers by about the same proportionate scores, seeing that Oahu played only six periods against the cavalry, to Maui's eight. Now the third game of the tournament brings Maui and Oahu together, in a battle that promises to become historic. It's a toss-up, with both sides hoping for a victory and each a little scared of the other. Even the most rabid polo fans from both islands shake their heads when it comes to picking a winner. They know which way their preferences lie, and might risk a box of cigars on the result to back them up, but when it comes to doping the game with any certainty, they back right down.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock, with the two teams lined up as follows:

OAHU—Walter Macfarlane, No. 1; Sam Baldwin, No. 2; Harold Castle, No. 3; Walter Dillingham (capt.) back. Arthur Rice will be in uniform as first substitute.

MAUI—Harold Rice, No. 1; Arthur Collins, No. 2; Frank Baldwin (capt.), No. 3; David Fleming, back. Burns and Clark substitutes.

The rival captains met together yesterday afternoon and agreed on Laurence Redington as referee. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

There are still a few auto parking reservations to be had, and these are on sale at E. O. Hall & Son. The tournament being now half over, the price of reservations for the two remaining games is reduced to $5.

Tuesday afternoon the All-Hawaii team will go up against picked opposition, and this, the final game of the senior tournament, is second in interest only to the inter-island championship match tomorrow.

"The greatest need of rural schools is better supervision, removed entirely from politics, and a longer tenure of office," says J. B. Arp, county superintendent of schools, Jackson county, Minn. "Every county or rural supervisor should be appointed on merit of service and education, and not be restricted to any county or any state."

RUGER FANS SEE CLASSY CARD OF MAT AND RING ENGAGEMENTS; SOMETHING DOING EVERY MINUTE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

FORT RUGER, August 22.—Nine classy bouts in the ring, with two wrestling matches as an added attraction, furnished amusement Wednesday evening for fully 300 officers and enlisted men from Forts Ruger, Shafter and De Russy, who came to the former post as guests of the men of the 159th company, Coast Artillery Corps, at the second open boxing show given by them in as many weeks. It is the rule of the Athletic Committee of the company to give one public show monthly, but so many requests had been received for an opportunity to witness the sport that it was decided to throw the seats open to anyone, and the result was the largest crowd that has been present at any time at one of the "blow-outs."

The programme was even better than the one staged last week, and as the seating capacity had been enlarged by the erection of bleachers on one side of the ring. For two hours and a half, with practically no delay between bouts, there was mixing of the "soldier" kind and every bout brought forth a generous response of applause from the spectators.

On Time. Promptly at seven o'clock Morris and Vogt of the 159th company were called into the ring, and started the show. These two men weighed in at 122, Vogt being slightly the better conditioned. These boys are two of the most popular scrappers of the post, always mixing and fought four rounds to a draw. Vogt, on a longer road, in the general opinion, would whip Morris, but at four rounds it was anybody's fight. Vogt is the faster of the two, but Morris has a savage wallop in either hand, and stands toe to toe, which is slightly to his advantage. Many calls were heard for a longer fight between them, but that treat was waived by those in charge for the next show.

Rogers and Pollard, two 158 pound men from the 159th Company went on for the second bout. Pollard had it all over Rogers, who stayed for three rounds and half of the fourth. Pollard fought under cover most of the time the impression being that he has got something which he hesitates to show until the occasion requires it, when many look for a big surprise. Rogers is a new man at the game, and was game to the core, but could not stand up against a wall as good as Pollard.

Some Marathon. The next bout between Ernst and Hammell, of the "heavy" company, was a cross between a marathon race and a "black face" stunt. Ernst put out the comedy to the delight of the participants in the ring side seats, and both men indulged in Soldier King's favorite pastime. Referee Hartwig declared the bout a draw, neither man being damaged perceptibly when the gong rang at the end of the fourth round.

The fourth bout, between Bauer and Rowland, of "I" company, Engineers, was one of the best of the evening. This bout was staged as an exhibition by the request of the Athletic Committee. Bauer, undoubtedly, is one of the classiest men on the island, while Rowland made a great showing, considering who he was fighting. Bauer was in much the better condition of the two, and the pace that he set had its effect on Rowland before the third round was over. Bauer is a finished fighter with a punch in either hand. Rowland was on the defense, with the exception of two or three rushes which he made when forced back to the ropes, and was given a glad hand for his staying qualities. Both men received an ovation as they climbed thrush the ropes after the bout.

Very Classy. Following closely upon the Bauer-Rowland go was the classiest bout of the evening, between Williamson of the Engineers and Corporal Perry of the 105th company. This bout had attracted a great deal of attention, Williamson being rather an unknown quantity before the bout, but a "bear" after it. Both men were in good condition and the mixing started at the first tap of the gong. Williamson surprised Perry with his speed in the first round, landing several wicked rights on the kidneys which made the artilleryman wince. Perry came back strong in the second round, and they fought from gong to gong. Williamson, for his weight, carries a terrific punch, which he knows how to use. In the second Perry landed two jabs to the face which made the 105th company men howl with delight. The third round was even, both men wading into the fighting as if a championship were at stake. Neither had any perceptible advantage, however, when the gong rang to finish. Williamson rushed Perry to the ropes twice, but in turn was forced back to the opposite side by Perry's rushes. Bauer was now in Williamson's corner, and the fighter was watching him every second. Following Bauer's advice with five seconds to go, Williamson "reached to the ground" and came up with a terrific right uppercut which landed flush on Perry's jaw, flooring him. The gong rang after the count of one, and Referee Hartwig awarded the decision to Williamson. It is probable that a return bout will be arranged between these two men at the next show, and it should prove to be a hummer. Perry had not trained long enough to do himself justice, and it is expected that, when they mix it again he will give the Engineer a new argument. Perry is one of the gamest men in the post, as well as a good scrapper, and every one wants to see them mix it again. Williamson is willing, so everything looks bright for another go between the two.

Grapplers Given Chance.

Mullins took the next event, a wrestling match, from Postell in a handy manner, winning the first fall in 3 minutes 42 seconds with half Nelson. The second fall and the match went to Mullins in 2 minutes 18 seconds with a hammerlock. Postell was the favorite when the two went to the mat, but Mullins sprung a surprise by winning in two straight falls.

Crawford won the second match from Fry in straight falls, making short work of his opponent. The first fall was gained in 3 minutes, 11 seconds and the second in 57 seconds. Crawford outweighed Fry about 20 pounds, and the smaller man could not hold out.

More Boxing.

Corporal Hill and Private McAndrew, both of the 159th company started the boxing again with one of the cleverest bouts of the night. Both men are very fast, and the latter surprised everybody at his showing, as Hill is touted as "some" boxer. The referee held up both of their hands as a token of a draw when the fourth round was over, the decision being to the satisfaction of everyone.

Murphy and Rebarsky, at 175 pounds put up the next exhibition over the three round route and if they had known how to land their punches there would have been a different tale to tell. Both played for the body entirely, with the result that no damage was done, and the bout resulted in a draw.

The next go, between Hampton and Cowan was the slugging match of the evening. More punishment was taken and given in this bout than in any other of the meet. Both men were game and stood toe to toe, giving and taking in a great manner. Hampton had Cowan groggy when the gong rang at the end of the second round, but did not have strength enough in the final, third, round to land the punch needed, while Cowan, on the other hand, seemed to recuperate. This ended in another draw, both men leaving the ring much the worse for the scrap.

Waldman, in the ninth and final bout, wound up the evening in a blaze of glory by scoring the only real knockout of the evening, against Nation, in the second of their scheduled three round go. Waldman had a little on his opponent in the matter of reach, and a slashing right to the jaw after one minute of fighting in the second stanza put Nation down for the count. Nation showed class, however, and with a man of his size, could be depended upon to make a good showing.

Wrestling Deft. Just before the show was wound up, Corporal Allen of the 105th company challenged Sergeant Burton of the Quartermaster Corps at Fort Ruger for a wrestling match, best two out of three falls. The latter, although in the bleachers, did not respond with an acceptance, however, although arrangements for the go may be made at a later date. Sergeant Burton is an old hand at the game, and would give Allen, who has also shown class, a good run for his money. The former has been out of the game for some time, however, and has directed his efforts solely to amuse those who want to see other matches with well directed witticisms and puns.

Corporal Hartwig, 159th company, and Corporal Williams, 105th company alternated as the third man in the ring, and all decisions were received with satisfaction. Sergeant Brant, 159th company, acted as timekeeper. The Athletic Committee of the company, which had the show in charge, received many compliments on the manner in which the events were run off, as the amusement did not last during as instant in the whole show.

LEGAL NOTICES.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii, At Chambers—In Divorce. Hisayo Kubota, libellant, vs. Shinsuke Kubota, libellee. Libel for divorce.

Whereas, it appears to the court that Shinsuke Kubota, the above named libellee, does not reside in this territory, but in parts unknown to the libellant, and that the libellant does not know the address or residence of the libellee and has not been able to ascertain either after reasonable and due inquiry and search for six months after the filing of the libel herein:

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that notice be given to the libellee by publication thereof at least once a week for six successive weeks in the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, a newspaper suitable for the advertisement of judicial proceedings published in the Territory of Hawaii, of the time and place of hearing of said libel, to-wit Saturday, the 4th day of October A. D. 1913, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of said day or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, in the court room of said court, in the court house, in Honolulu, City and County of Honolulu, in the Territory of Hawaii, the first publication to be on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1913.

Done at Honolulu, Hawaii, July 18, A. D. 1913.
(Signed) W. J. ROBINSON,
Third Judge First Circuit Court, Hawaii.
5600—July 18, 25, Aug. 1, 8, 15, 22, 29.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

One of the most aggressive members of the Mexican cabinet against the plan of receiving Special Emissary Lind at the City of Mexico or listening to peace proposals until the United States first recognizes the government under Provisional President Huerta, has been Venustiano Carranza. He would have this country raise the embargo on the exportation of arms to Mexico allowing the privilege only to the Huerta forces. He is recognized as one of the strongest forces in the provisional government, aside from Huerta, and is believed to have been instrumental in Huerta's final rejection of the plans submitted by Envoy Lind.

For Protection.
The placing of sufficient American troops in Mexico to act as a constabulary to protect American lives and property is provided for in a resolution introduced in the senate at Washington today by Senator Boies Penrose. The resolution declares this would not be an act of war.

"The administration has asked for $100,000 to take Americans out of Mexico," said Senator Penrose, after announcing he would not discuss his resolution. "I think they have a right to be there under our treaties and under international law. We have no right to attempt to break up their homes and occupations. Rather than appropriate this pittance of $100,000 to make this wholesale removal, I would appropriate this twenty-five million dollars to keep them where they are and protect them."

Situation Deadlocked.
The Mexican situation is practically deadlocked, according to the representations today of Washington officials. President Wilson is firm in his determination not to recognize Provisional President Huerta of Mexico, and Huerta considers that the proposals technically have not been submitted to him because he has not been recognized by the United States. The situation, government officials say, is a difficult one to deal with, but it is not critical.

Another Message for Congress.
President Wilson, shortly will send a special message to congress, giving the exact status of the peace negotiations this country is now attempting in Mexico. It will carry the text of the message Special Emissary Lind carried to the City of Mexico, on account of Huerta's rejection of the mediation plan. Lind, accordingly was ordered to remain in the Mexican capital until further notice.

Harry K. Thaw, with chances in his favor of escaping extradition, has at least until next Wednesday morning at ten o'clock to enjoy the first freedom from American police restraint he has experienced in the past several years. It was decided last night after a conference between counsel representing both sides, that the hearing of the application for a writ of habeas corpus will be held next Wednesday.

Must Prove Bribery.
Assuming that Harry K. Thaw escapes deportation, which is believed likely at Ottawa, the authorities today said that New York's only hope of extraditing him will be on the grounds of bribery of the attaches of Matreawan. This is an extraditable offense. This would have to be proven first in the New York courts, and subsequently in Canada.

Evelyn Doubts Thaw.
Bitter denunciation of Harry K. Thaw was voiced in New York this afternoon by his ex-wife, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, as she was preparing to go to a matinee under guard. "The man is crazy," she said, "it is absurd to think that Harry loves me. He is controlled by his egotism. When he learned of my success on the stage he was furious. He wanted me in the gutter and only able to get out with his help. When he found that I was independent, he determined to escape and kill me."

Declaration that he had received hundreds of anonymous letters threatening him with death unless he stopped advocating the passage of the bill regulating loan sharks, was voiced before the house insidious lobby problems in Washington this afternoon by Representative Johnson of Kentucky, chairman of the committee which considered the Dyer bill. To that effect Johnson showed an affidavit signed by Patrolman Spencer Roberts that a man named Cornwall told him that he (Cornwall) followed Johnson for three nights hoping for an opportunity to slay Johnson. Johnson asserted that he once scared a man away whom he believed to be Cornwall, by drawing a revolver. Johnson said he did not want protection, assuring the committee that he is amply able to take care of himself.

Details of a desperate fight in which Vernon Whitney, governor of the province of Jolo, killed two Moros and himself suffered five blow wounds reached Manila today. Whitney was on a trip of inspection when the two Moro fanatics attacked his interpreter. Whitney ran to the assistance of his servant and in a hot hand-to-hand fight killed both of the Moros. His wounds are not serious.

Eighteen persons were injured when the Venice "owl" train of the Pacific Electric Railway left the track near Venice shortly after midnight. Many of the injured were Los Angeles newspaper workers returning to their beach homes after their usual nightly work. They were taken to a hospital at Santa Monica. No one was fatally hurt.

Telegraphing from Albany, Acting Governor Glynn today formally commanded the Canadian immigration authorities to surrender Harry K. Thaw to New York authorities. Immigration officials answered that such action would be impossible until proceedings pending at Ottawa and at Sherbrooke are finished.

The president today appointed A. C. Miller, S. W. Stratton and F. Lamson Scribner, respectively assistant to the secretary of the interior, chief of the bureau of standards, and attache of the department of agriculture. They will be the government's representatives at the San Francisco exposition.

Three persons were killed at Pola, Austria today and five were wounded including Admiral Lanjus, as the result of an explosion while a naval gun was being tested.

The senate this afternoon voted, 39 to 38, against a one-cent-a-pound duty on raw flax. Free flax was sustained by a vote of 30 to 37.

ONE DOSE MAKES INDIGESTION GO

All Stomach Distress Quickly Ended with "Pape's Diapiesin"

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; it's certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. It's millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—advertisement.

Fort Shafter Notes
(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
PORT SHAFTER, August 22.—Mrs. P. D. Glassford and family, wife of Captain Glassford, First Field Artillery, are house guests of Mrs. Benjamin H. Watkins, while quarters are being made ready for them at Schofield Barracks.

Mr. John C. Dew of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, a patient in the Department Hospital, will be sent back to the States today. Mr. Dew has been stationed in the Philippines for several years and a few months ago was called to New York City from Manila on some important work and while returning to his station in Manila was stricken with acute Bright's disease, and taken from the transport here. His home is in New York City.

Lieut. and Mrs. Clement H. Wright, Second Infantry, will take advantage of a leave of absence for three months and sail on the Thomas today. They expect to spend the greater part of their leave with relatives in Ohio.

The wife of Private Acayan, a Filipino in the 25th Infantry band, was operated upon at the department hospital Wednesday night for acute appendicitis and is getting along nicely.

Upon the recommendation of his commanding officer, Corporal John R. Day, Company C, Second Infantry, is returned to grade of private.

Private James T. Nelson, Company E, Second Infantry, has been detailed as assistant regimental librarian.

Miss Hortense Short of Schofield Barracks is visiting the Misses Lennihan.
