PROHIBITIONISTS PROMISING PLENTY BOOZE OUR YACHT HAWAII CAUGHT IN CALM

Our Hawaii Got Into Calm

SAN PEDRO, Cal., July 12.—Failing winds cut down the lead of the yacht Hawaii soon after she left this port in the transoceanic race on Sunday.

Seven hours after the start, the Hawaii was becalmed in the lee of Catalina Island. The yacht Sweetheart was five miles in the lead and the Mollie trailing behind.

ASSIGNMENT OF TEACHERS

The assignment of practically all teachers for the public schools on the islands of Oahu, Kauai and Maui have been made by the commissioners of education, which body continues its deliberations at the Judiciary building.

The selection of the teachers continues to occupy the greater portion of the session.

For the island of Oahu, including the city of Honolulu, the following instructors have been selected for the coming term:

Waialae—Miss Emma Kalua.
Waikiki—Mrs. Ellen Kenway.
Miss Afton Oatley.
Molokai—Mrs. J. N. Bell, Mrs. Martha Bonke, Miss Agnes Creighton.
Manoa—Mrs. M. D. Brown.

Prohibitionists Promise Liquor

Circular Tells Hawaiians They Can Save Money And Send To The Coast

Unqualified assurance to the Hawaiians that they can obtain liquor under the operation of a prohibition law, such as is now being advocated by the Thurston Woolley followers, is contained in the latest circular in Hawaiian that has emanated from the headquarters of the prohibitionist party.

This circular expounds with convincing finality the true basis of the platform that Woolley has frequently modified in an effort to secure votes at the plebiscite on the 26th of this month.

The intention of the document is to dispose of some of the charges that have been made against the good faith of the promoters of the prohibition propaganda and in proceeding along those lines practically acknowledges the utter failure of the prohibition scheme and promises the Hawaiian, and the man of small means generally, that he will be able to obtain liquor just as readily from mainland sources as the well to do citizens of the Territory.

The assertions contained in this remarkable document will probably surprise some of those who have been sincerely led into a belief that a Woolley law would be a good thing for the Territory.

GRAPHIC STORY OF HOW JEFFRIES MET DEFEAT IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT

Unable To Reach His Fast And Clever Opponent

By HARRY B. SMITH.
"CHRONICLE" HEADQUARTERS, RENO (Nev.), July 4.—James Jeffries could not come back. We found that out this afternoon in the blazing sun of Nevada, when the former champion, the man who was once considered all-powerful and with none to dispute his right to the title, sank before Jack Johnson, the most wonderful big man that the prize-ring has ever seen. It was in the fifteenth round of a contest as unequal as I have seen, a fight in which there was but one winner from start to finish, that Johnson put on the finishing touches and after knocking the helpless Jeffries down three times settled most decisively the question that brought some 14,000 spectators into Reno.

It was pitiful in a way, this van-

OLD EMPLOYEE IS REWARDED

O. K. Freeman, one of the few remaining members of the old guard connected with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, who has been at sea in the capacity of purser on several liners operated by the steamship company for many years, was missed from his familiar place behind the purser's desk in the China when that vessel came up to her berth at the Channel wharf shortly after eight o'clock this morning.

F. D. Bates, who is well and favorably known to the traveling public and shippers, as the freight clerk of the steamship Siberia, and lately associated with the China in a like capacity, has been promoted to the purser's office in the old reliable liner.

Bates was on hand with a cheery greeting to the quarantine, immigration, customs and newspaper men when the China slowed down outside the harbor after her five days and nineteen hours run down from San Francisco.

"Pop" Freeman, as he is known to the oldtimers and thousands of people who have had to do with the China during her long and faithful career as a transpacific liner, has been given a berth in the San Francisco office of the Pacific Mail. Mr. Freeman has well earned his reward.

AVIATOR ROLLS KILLED.

BOURNEMOUTH, July 12.—Chas. H. Rolls, a son of Lord Llangattock, was killed here today by a fall from an aeroplane.

MUCH HAY BUT FEW PASSENGERS

The United States army transport Sherman was the third arrival from San Francisco today. The troopship, well laden with baled hay, but carrying few passengers, came alongside the Oceanic wharf at noon, after a seven-day voyage from the California port.

There are no regular organizations on board the Sherman. Her cargo, however, is one of the heaviest in many voyages, consisting of over two thousand tons of hay, besides consignments of machinery and appliances intended for the new fortifications at Grande and Corregidor Islands, which guard the entrance to Manila Bay.

The transport experienced good weather on the way down from the Coast. One hundred and forty-eight first and second-class passengers are traveling by the vessel.

The freight intended for the quartermaster and navy departments is also stowed on the main decks, it being the intention of the government to rush supplies to the Philippines at this season of the year.

Captain E. V. Lynam is now in command of the vessel. He was formerly in charge of the destinies of the Thomas. The latter vessel is now undergoing extensive repairs.

PROHIBITION IS FARCE SAYS C. C. VON HAMM

Merchant Declares It Would Be Blow To Hawaii

"I am not in favor of prohibition," said C. C. von Hamm at his office this afternoon in response to a question as to his views on the question now agitating the public of Hawaii.

Mr. von Hamm said that the whole thing to him was a farce, for in his old country such a thing was never heard of and the people themselves had charge of their own conduct. As a result there was but little drunkenness for liquor could be obtained at all times.

"What do you think the effect on the business of the country would be, should prohibition carry?" was asked.

"I think it would result in stagnation of business in a short while, especially in the line of tourist travel which is so important here. I was talking with one of the men in our garage a few days ago who went through a prohibition era in Portland, Oregon. He was in a garage there and within a few months from the time prohibition went into effect nearly all the men were discharged, there was no business for them. In a few months more the wave had run its course and the people came back to a license system for the town was practically dead. This happened about seven years ago."

Speaking further on the question, Mr. von Hamm said he was not a believer in prohibition for it would not prohibit and besides being bad for the business community it would be bad for all the people, especially the Hawaiians.

"I am not in favor of large consumption of alcohol," said he, "but under the prohibition regime everyone could get liquor from the coast. Instead of being able to buy a bottle or a drink, however, a man would have to get a case. As a result of this he would probably have a number of his friends in and there would be a general 'good time'."

"I believe in high license and local option but not in prohibition. Under the present law the voters may do away with saloons in any district they wish," he concluded.

BOARD MAKES WORK PUBLIC

After being in session behind closed doors for many hours yesterday, the Board of Education commissioners made public late yesterday afternoon the results of their work and the momentous decisions to which the public was not entitled, according to them, until after everything was cut and dried.

Besides the appointment and assignment of teachers for the coming year, the most important matter taken up at the meeting was the new centralization scheme which has been worked up by Superintendent Pope during the past few months.

By this plan a more direct and thorough system of supervision is possible, the whole Territory being

THIRTY-EIGHT COME ON MATSON LINER TO VIEW FIRES OF KILAUEA CRATER

Wilhelmina Brings Big Delegation To Pele's Shrine

GEORGE BECKLEY'S REMAINS BROUGHT FOR INTERMENT

The fame of Kilauea Volcano, on Hawaii, has become deep-rooted on the mainland, if the present exodus from the Coast can be taken as a criterion of what is in store for the Hawaiian Islands, in the possession of this sterling tourist asset.

When a party of thirty-eight people from the United States, taken passage at San Francisco for Hilo by the Matson Navigation liner Wilhelmina, their destination being the shrine of Madame Pele, it is safe to assume that the extended campaign of promotion inaugurated by the local commercial bodies is bearing fruit.

The Wilhelmina is scheduled to sail for Hilo at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening. Thirty-eight passengers, who booked at the California coast port, will continue to the Hawaiian Islands.

SELECT RIFLE TEAM TONIGHT

This evening the final selection for the rifle team that is to go to Camp Perry and represent the N. G. H. there in the annual shoot, will be made, and nineteen men are to be picked.

The team will leave for the coast on the Sierra, which is scheduled to sail on Wednesday, July 20, and it is thought that the N. G. H. men will do better than they did last year when they finished half way up the list. J. Stone, who won the individual average for the Hawaiian team, may make the trip, and Major Riley is certain to go.

The final figures are being worked out now, and the results of the different shoots that have been held during the past week, will be published in a day or so. It is understood that several men who, while not the highest in competition, ran very close up to the leaders, will make the trip, but much depends on the meeting tonight.

DENIAL FOR FALSE REPORT

In an attempt to inject a side issue into the plebiscite campaign the Advertiser this morning published an article declaring that the anti-prohibitionists were engaged in a "combine with Achi to control the Republican party or to dump it on election day."

It is further stated that "a nice little job, whereby the liquor dealers are to go into politics with the ultimate idea of upsetting the present liquor law was uncovered yesterday."

These statements are branded absolutely false by those mentioned in the article.

Charles G. Bartlett declared this morning that Achi has no connection with the anti-prohibition campaign, and that the only issue being considered is the plebiscite on the 26th of this month.

The anti-prohibition campaign is based on a defense of the existing law and the attempt to show that the anti-prohibitionists will attack the present law if they win is branded as another effort to mislead the voter.

With the time for the plebiscite but two weeks from today, the prohibition organ is apparently engaged in an attempt to befuddle the public, and being unable to deny the self-evident merits of the existing liquor law—which the anti-prohibitionists are upholding—have resorted to an effort to show that the law will be upset finally, anyway, and have proceeded to concoct the dreams about Achi and a "conspiracy" and "treachery" to the Republican party.

Pinchot To Help Out Kent

NEW YORK, July 12.—Gifford Pinchot will go to California to take the stump in behalf of Hiram Johnson, who seeks the Republican nomination for Governor of the State, and William Kent, the insurgent Republican candidate for Congress from the Second District, in place of Congressman McKinley.

The announcement of Pinchot's plans was made today after the former forester, who was removed from office by President Taft, had held a conference with Colonel Roosevelt.

It is assumed that Roosevelt is entirely in sympathy with the movement in favor of Johnson and Kent. The latter has been one of the most ardent of Roosevelt's supporters and became a national figure through his work in the Chicago city council.

William Kent is very well known in Honolulu, where he has twice visited, and renewed acquaintances with his former associates of Yale. He is now making his home in Kentfield, Cal., and during the graft investigations and trial was an active worker with Rudolph Spreckels and Francis J. Heney.

MISS M'CABE WRITES OF TRIP

Miss Mary McCabe, the advance guard of the Bulletin contest visitors to San Francisco and the Yosemite Valley, finds that a cordial greeting is awaiting the Bulletin's young woman all along the line. Miss McCabe writes to the Bulletin of her arrival in San Francisco and the watchfulness of everyone along the way for her comfort, as follows:

"Just a few lines to let you know that I have arrived safely. Had a very pleasant trip, and everyone on board seemed to be so good to each other. That made the trip all the better for everybody.

We arrived Tuesday afternoon and there were several of my friends to meet me at the wharf. I was more than surprised when a gentleman came on board and asked for me. I didn't know who he was but he told me that he was Mr. Laifu, manager of the Hotel Menz. I didn't know that he knew that I was coming ahead of the other girls. I thought it was so kind of him to come and meet me, and he wanted me to go right to the hotel, but I had to tell him that I was so sorry I couldn't, as one of my friends wanted me to go to her home.

"I told him that the rest of the party will come on the next Wilhelmina, and then I will come to the hotel or some time before I went back to Honolulu.

"Just at present I have so many invitations to go and spend a few days with my other friends.

"San Francisco has improved a great deal since three years ago, and I am glad to go a trip up here and see the changes with you, yours truly, divided into districts of several schools and one supervising principal being a supervisor for the other schools in the district. This plan is in line with that adopted several years ago in the public schools of the Philippines.

MARY MCCABE.

BOARD MAKES WORK PUBLIC

The first of the districts will be formed from the schools of Kaula and Nihau, containing seventeen schools and sixty-five teachers; the second district will be Oahu, with seventeen schools and forty-eight teachers, the supervision to be in charge of the superintendent, assisted by principal of the Normal School; third district will be Maui, Molokai and Lanai, containing thirty-nine schools and eighty-two teachers; Hawaii is divided into two districts, the fourth being East Hawaii, with twenty-seven schools and sixty teachers, and the fifth being West Hawaii, with twenty-six schools and sixty-nine teachers.

The Honolulu schools are considered by themselves in the centralization scheme, and have been divided as follows, with the principal of the first group the supervisor of all:

Kaahumanu, 14 teachers; Manoa, 1 teacher; Moiliili, 3 teachers; Wai-iki, 2 teachers.

Royal, 19 teachers; Pohukaina, 1 teacher; Pauoa, 2 teachers.

Central Grammar, 9 teachers; Central Primary, 8 teachers.

Kaliuli, 14 teachers; Kaula, 9 teachers; Maemae, 4 teachers.

Kalihi-waena, 10 teachers; Kalihi-uka, 1 teacher; Moanalua, 1 teacher; Kalihi-kai, 1 teacher.

Total, 13 teachers.

In the report of the secretary, the balance on hand in the appropriation for teachers' salaries is shown to be $394,885.68. The July and August payrolls will amount to $60,859.46, which will leave a balance on hand, August 31, of $334,026.22.

There are fifty-three teachers at present employed, who shall be entitled to increases amounting to $283.33 a month on September 1. By the plans now under consideration the department will be able to save a total of $438 a month. Increased expenses necessitated by the supervising principals' salaries will leave $462 to be deducted from the payroll.

This sum for ten months, added to the increases necessitated by the increased salaries of the fifty-three teachers for the same time, forms an additional expense to the department of $7458.30. The board has a surplus under its appropriation amounting to $13,969.20, from which is to be deducted the increased expenses, leaving $6515.70.

The board now estimates that with this assured surplus it can place ten more teachers, leaving a total surplus, over all increased expenses, of $1515.70 at the time the appropriation expires.

The entire meeting is reported to have been harmonious with the exception of the appointment of a principal for Holuolua school, the name of Mrs. Scott in this connection raising a vigorous protest from Commissioner Muir. She was not appointed.

In his report submitted to the board, the superintendent suggested that the Legislature be requested to permit the income derived from the work of the Girls' Industrial School to go to the school, this income amounting to about $200 yearly.

All the revision of school laws and other work of a like nature was carried over to another meeting of the board.

More teachers are needed to properly carry on the work of the schools, but there is no money available to employ more teachers than during the past year.

Life certificates and diplomas were granted as follows: Miss F. K. Hindt, a life diploma; Miss Alice Winter, a grammar grade certificate on her credentials; Mrs. C. O. Hottel, a life certificate; Mrs. Ida Knight, a life diploma; Miss Katherine McIntyre, a life certificate; Mrs. Vincent, a life certificate. The commissioners also accepted the certificate of Miss A. L. Arms.

The following were denoted as holidays during which the schools are to close: Labor Day, if during school time; Thanksgiving, Washington's Birthday, Good Friday, Decoration Day and Kamehameha Day. The holidays to be observed on the school premises are Arbor Day, Lincoln's Birthday, May Day and Flag Day.

The greater part of the day was taken up in the assignment of teachers, and the following were made: Laupahoehoe—J. V. Marcel, Mrs. J. V. Marcel, S. J. Maluo, Pohakupuka—A. J. Ignacio, Miss E. Macy, Hakalau—E. S. Capellari, Miss Capellari, Miss Katy Sadler, Honolulu—A. V. Carvalho, Miss Ivy Borden, Miss Louise K. Bal, Paul Tallett, Miss M. Kamakaili, Pepeekeo—Miss Gladys Rickard,

"GENERAL'S DILEMMA" THURSDAY NIGHT

"The General's Dilemma" and not "The Rehearsal" will follow "The Three Twins" at the New Orpheum next Thursday night. Although the popularity of the present bill would easily justify its continuance for the balance of the week the Orpheum management has decided to adhere to its original plan and change the program twice weekly. "The General's Dilemma" is built especially for artists who can show their versatility in separate numbers and according to arrangement some splendid items may be looked for. Miss Rockwell will again change her program of songs, while Miss Schuyler will do something in the way of a novel specialty. Miss Steek, Miss Canfield, Miss Atkins, Harry Garrity, Harry Stuart and Harris McGuire will be included in the cast. The musical numbers have been provided for by Charles Justi.

TUESDAY JULY 12, 1910

"From my own experience in portions of the United States where prohibition laws were in force, I believe that a strict and rational regulation under such a law as we now have, in the hands of judicious and right-minded men, will do more for the cause of true temperance than prohibition, and will be far better for all concerned."

"Whenever prohibition is voted upon, many drinking men favor it. They believe it will help them. Many moderate drinkers, carried away by processions of children and the prayers of women, vote for the measure. It has been my personal observation that in a short time many of these men become sneaks and liars and lawbreakers to get a drink."

Bishop H. B. Restarick.

Oyster Bay is not as big a place as Beverly, but it seems larger.

Aviator Curtiss will shortly drop in on Hawaii on his way to China.

Has Woolley ever done anything that the people of Hawaii endorsed? Why, then, vote for his scheme of Prohibition?

Prohibition will bring about widespread labor troubles in the main industry of Hawaii? Why, then, should you vote for Prohibition?

If many more parties take a jaunt to the top of Mount McKinley, we shall begin to believe that Cook made it, but forgot to tell the truth after he got back.

Prohibition further proves its weakness when the campaigners find it necessary to invent side issues of partizan politics with which to mislead the voters from the main issue.

Prohibitionists who want Prohibition for the other fellow but demand rivers of booze for themselves are flocking with birds of a feather if they vote with the Prohibition and Perjury combination.

Our local baseball clubs are dealing out some great games lately. If you can't get off early enough in the afternoon to witness the opening of a game, just drop in for the twelfth or fifteenth inning. It is worth while.

Alonso Gartley has explained some reasons why he is a Prohibitionist. Why should he not at the same time explain why he is a total abstainer, and also what he has done to reduce the consumption of liquor by the other fellow?

Circulars of the Woolley-Thurston Prohibition propaganda make promises to the Hawaiians that under Prohibition they can get all the intoxicating liquor they want from the Coast. Yet they say they want to save the Hawaiian. As a matter of fact, all that Thurston and Woolley love about the Hawaiian is his vote, and after that is once secured they will kick him and his rights overboard.

PROHIBITION INCREASES USE OF LIQUOR.

So long as we believe that the object sought is sound and right, viz.: the "reduction of the consumption of liquor to the lowest practicable minimum," we must not be frightened off by obstacles. L. A. Thurston speaking for the Prohibitionists.

They seek a reduction of the consumption of liquor.

They also claim that during recent years the amount of Prohibition has increased so that it includes a very large section of the country and many millions of population.

According to the Prohibition theory the extension of prohibitory areas should bring about a steady reduction in the consumption of liquor.

Figures from the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue show that during the last year—when Prohibition was making its alleged gains—the average increase in the use of alcoholic beverages in the United States was 244,574 gallons a day compared with the corresponding period in 1909.

The tabulation for the first nine months of the current fiscal year follows:

Average daily increase in withdrawals of distilled and fermented liquors for consumption for the first 9 months present fiscal year (gallons) .. 244,574

Total increase in collections on distilled spirits for same period ... $9,815,497.54

Total increase in collections on fermented liquors for same period. $1,876,528.00

Total increase in consumption of distilled spirits for same period (gallons) 8,923,179.58

Total increase in consumption of fermented liquors for same period (gallons) 58,172,368

This is the way Prohibition accomplishes the purpose that Thurston declares to be the aim of the Woolley-Thurston combination.

With such practical demonstrations of the failure of Prohibition to accomplish the aims of its supporters, of course the voters of Hawaii will vote "NO" on Prohibition and thereby sustain the Hawaii-made license law.

MORE LIQUORS CONSUMED UNDER PROHIBITION.

Local Prohibitionists claim that their purpose in asking for Prohibition which they know will not prohibit, is to decrease the consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Official records show that during the season of Prohibition activity on the mainland, the sale of beer increased 90,000,000 gallons and the sale of spirits upwards of 11,000,000 gallons.

So the Prohibition claim, as usual, falls utterly.

Prohibition neither prohibits nor decreases the consumption of alcoholic beverages.

MIXING PROHIBITION WITH PARTIZAN POLITICS.

In the last days of their campaign the Prohibitionists are trotting out their little stunt of trying to mix politics with the Prohibition issue.

Only a few days ago they promised that they would have many "stunts" for the closing days of the campaign.

Now they come forward with a story of an alleged effort of liquor dealers to control the Republican party in the coming fall campaign.

Their whole statement may be taken as a falsehood. It is sprung merely to mislead the voter from the main question of the hour—Prohibition.

It is a sample of the trickery and the treachery of the campaigners who are pretending to set a highly moral example to the community.

First the Prohibitionists said the vote was for or against the saloon. Now they come forward with a yarn with which they hope to frighten a few votes into their list through complicating the situation with partizan politics.

If there were any truth in the statement of the effort to gain control of the Republican party or any other party, it does not affect the issue on which the Plebiscite is called.

The people of this Territory are yet in control and will so remain. They will settle one thing at a time.

Prohibition is the present threat. The people will vote that down. After the Plebiscite, they will attend to the next question that has to be met—the protection of the political organizations of the Territory from control by factionalists, operated for factionalists, at the dictation of bosses.

Neither the intolerant Prohibitionist, who disgraces the cause of good morals and fair play, nor the low dive-keeper, who gives the evil character to the liquor traffic, can

HOW TO VOTE

When you receive your ballot at the polling place on July 26—the day of the plebiscite to determine whether Hawaii is to continue under the best liquor law in the United States or be afflicted with a Woolley-made statute—the voting form will appear as follows:

SPECIAL ELECTION JULY 26, 1910.

TERRITORY OF HAWAII

Vote by marking a cross (X) after the word "Yes," or "No" in the square ruled space provided for that purpose.

Koho ma ke kaha ana i ke'a, (X), mahope o ka huaolelo "Ao," a i ole, "Ao," maloko o ke kua i rula ia, i hoonakaukau in no ia mea.

Shall the legislature to be elected in November, nineteen hundred and ten, be requested to pass, at its first regular session, a law prohibiting the manufacture or sale within the Territory of intoxicating, spirituous, vinous, and malt liquors, except for medicinal and scientific purposes?

the Acting Governor told of a few things which Governor Frear had done while on his trip, including a stop at Washington and interviews with President Taft, Secretary Baileger and other officials.

According to the text of the letter which was written on the train just before reaching Chicago from the east, it was some warm in that part of the United States and he evidently was in the midst of a heat wave of no mean temperature.

The Governor sails from San Francisco today on the Manchuria for Honolulu.

President Schwerin of the Pacific Mail Company will be a passenger on the big steamer to the Orient.

THE CANADIAN-Australian liner Makura from Australian ports by the way of Suva is reported by cable as having sailed from the Fiji port and due to arrive here on or about July 19th. The vessel is bringing a small shipment of merchandise and supplies. The local agents report accommodation for thirty-eight passengers to the coast.

The rising generation should be trained to temperance and to rely on strength of character, and not be put into a straight-jacket to make up for lack of character.

Drink if you want to, but be temperate.

CALIFORNIA OIL INVESTMENTS.

$1000 invested in the stock of the Claremont only a comparatively short time ago is returning $1598 in dividends, and the shares can now be sold for $13.653. This is one of the many instances we can cite you where large returns have been made in oil stocks.

The officers of the Lincoln Mortgage & Loan Co. make frequent trips through the oil fields to inform themselves at first hand of the condition of properties whose stock they offer to the public. They are the largest dealers in oil stocks in California.

A branch office has been established here for the accommodation of their many clients on these Islands, who are now able to make their purchases of oil stocks in Honolulu.

Of the active low-priced stocks we recommend the immediate purchase of shares of the Ventura Oil Development Co. at 15c. each. The progress of this company has been very rapid and its present outlook indicates a quick advance in the price of these shares in the near future.

This stock offers an excellent opportunity for the small investor to make large profits. Take your shares now. It is your opportunity. Your fortune. Buy without delay.

Fine weather characterized the five days and eighteen hours voyage of the Wilhelmina. The trip down from San Francisco left little to be desired as far as the weather was concerned. A merry crowd of passengers declared this morning that they had enjoyed every minute of the time spent at sea.

The count by quarantine, customs and immigration officials showed ninety-eight cabin and nine second-

Before returning to the Coast the Wilhelmina will leave 2018 tons of consignment are six automobiles—three for E. O. Hall & Son and an equal number for the von Hamm-

While at Hilo the Matson steamer will leave 636 tons of freight and take on a quantity of sugar.
The Wilhelmina cleared San Francisco several hours in advance of the Pacific Mail S. S. China, and in consequence brought the greater bulk of the mainland mail. The postal authorities received 223 sacks from this vessel upon her arrival at the

this morning.

All flags on the Wilhelmina were half-masted as the vessel steamed through the channel, out of respect to the memory of George C. Beck-to Honolulu for interment. The remains of Henry Deacon, a well-

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Physicians Prescribe Castoria.

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: 1st, The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; 2nd, That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; 3rd, It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for castor oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any opium, morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrup, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a medical journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Child's Journal of Health.

The signature of Dr. H. Fletcher is prominent evidence of the fact that Castoria stands first in its class. In my twenty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place.

WILLIAM BELMONT, M. D.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

"I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

B. A. BUCHANAN, M. D.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

"I take pleasure in recommending your Castoria, having recommended its use in many instances, and consider it the best laxative that could be used, especially for children."

NATHANIEL K. KING, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

R. E. ESKILDSON, M. D.,
Omaha, Neb.

"Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate of children."

J. B. ELLIOTT, M. D., New York City.

EXPECT SUGAR TO ADVANCE

SELLERS ARE FIRM AND HOLDING SUPPLIES

Warm Weather Increasing Consumption of Refined—Retailers Are Caught With Small Stock on Hand.

The Federal Reporter for June 28 reports as follows on the sugar market:

Raw Sugar.—There has been a decided improvement in our sugar market, with all refiners showing a disposition to make purchases at advancing prices. The business started yesterday, when the Federal Sugar Refining Company bought 10,000 bags Porto Rico Centrifugals, for second half July shipment, at 4.30c. c. i. f., basis 96, and 10,000 bags Porto Ricos, for August shipment, at 4.35c. c. i. f., basis 96. This was followed by the Warner Sugar Refining Company late last night buying 10,000 bags Cuba centrifugals, for clearance on Saturday, and 12,000 bags, for prompt shipment, at 2 15-16c. cost and freight for 96 test, advancing the spot quotation to the parity of 4.30c. duty paid for 96 centrifugals. This morning London came higher, at 14s. 11 1/4d. for June, July and August beet options, the equivalent of 5.10c. duty paid New York, and Arbuckle Bros. bought 42,000 bags Porto Ricos, in port, at 4.30c., and 20,000 bags Cuba centrifugals, on the spot, at 2 15-16c. cost and freight, which is the same equivalent duty paid. The American Sugar Refining Company bought 15,000 bags Porto Ricos, adroit, at 4.31c. for shipment to Boston. This took care of all the sugar obtainable at under 3.00c. cost and freight, the equivalent of 4.35c. duty paid. There are buyers of second half July shipment, at 1-32c. under this, but no sellers, and even at the 3.00c. basis for July shipment, the offerings are moderate, not being in excess of 75,000 bags to 100,000 bags. Sellers are very firm in their ideas, and today are not offering any sugar for August shipment. That the situation, based on supply and demand, warrants higher prices, is unquestioned, and now that sellers have finally shown enough confidence in their position to hold back their supplies, thereby forcing refiners to make purchases at advancing figures, it will not take the underlying conditions long to assert themselves, in the way of better values. The market closes strong, with a tendency in sellers' favor, and the spot quotations on basis of 4.03c. duty paid for 96 centrifugals, 3.89c. duty paid for 89 Muscovades, and 3.55c. duty paid for 89 molasses sugars.

Europe.—Values abroad have shown an improvement. This morning's quotation of 14s. 11 1/4d. for the current and next month is, even at the advance here, 89 points over our spot quotation. The market closes strong, with upward tendency, as follows: June—Buyers 14s. 10 1/4d., equals 5.17c., duty paid New York. July—Buyers 14s. 11d., equals 5.19c., duty paid New York. August—Buyers 14s. 11d., equals 5.19c., duty paid New York. October—December—Buyers 11s. 4 1/4d., equals 4.40c., duty paid New York.

Javas.—There is nothing new in the situation. Refined Sugar.—In sympathy with the improvement in raws, there is decidedly more inquiry for refined, with every indication that there will be a heavy business on the next buying movement, which cannot be long delayed. The warm weather of the past two weeks has resulted in an increased consumption of refined sugar, and the retail trade, who have been running on a strictly hand to mouth basis, have found themselves in no position to supply this increased demand, with the result that the distribution by the jobbers has increased materially, and stocks are being rapidly depleted. With seasonable weather from now on, we will have the usual heavy summer consumption of refined sugar, and jobbers, bearing in mind that the retailer has no stocks, will do well not to allow their supplies to run too low. At 5.15c., cash less 1 per cent, f. o. b. New York, which is the price all refiners are now quoting, refined sugar is good property, and the indications point to an advance to the 5.25c. basis within the near future.

THE UNITED STATES army transport Sherman is scheduled to sail for Manila by the way of Guam at eight o'clock, on Thursday morning. The vessel will discharge about seventy tons of cargo at this port and while remaining here will take on seven hundred tons of coal.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LOS ANGELES

The Patient Suffered Terrible Agony, Fingers Were Swollen to Twice Their Normal Size and Even the Heart Was Affected.

The cure of Mrs. E. M. Bowles, of No. 1717 Highland Court, Los Angeles, Cal., of a very severe case of rheumatism is sufficient reason why any sufferer of this disease should give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a thorough trial. She says: "As a result of several attacks of the grip, I was finally left in such a condition that I felt a victim of inflammatory and muscular rheumatism. The attack came on suddenly and settled in my arms, shoulders and limbs from the knees down to the feet. My heart soon became affected. I was obliged to go to bed as soon as I was taken sick and for over two months I was helpless. The pains were terrible and drew my arms up tight to my sides. My fingers were swollen to nearly twice their natural size and I could not pick up my handkerchief even. I couldn't feed myself or bear to have the sheets touch me. My feet were swollen and sore and gave me great pain. I had terrible pains in my head which the doctor said were rheumatic and there were frequent pains in my back. "My home was in Canada, and a doctor from Toronto treated me for over a year. Then I gradually stopped using his medicine until I quit entirely. I was able to get up from the bed for a few minutes only and had to be helped in everything I did. While in this condition, a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In a few days I noticed they were helping my back. The rheumatic pains began to go away and I felt better generally. I improved so much that I was able to sew and finally was able to do all my housework. I have been in the best of health since taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can recommend them very highly for rheumatism. "If you have failed to get relief from your rheumatism, you cannot afford to neglect giving these blood-making pills a trial. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have also cured aneurism, chlorosis, general debility, after-effects of the grip and fevers and should be given a trial wherever a tonic for the blood and nerves is needed. Our booklet, 'Diseases of the Blood,' will be sent free upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y."

The China met with fine weather all the way down from the Coast. Eleven passengers leave the vessel at this port. The through list to Japanese and Chinese ports numbers nearly one hundred persons. In the Asiatic steamer over one hundred are returning to the Orient.

Ninety-three tons of freight will be left here before the vessel sails for the Far East at 5 o'clock this evening.

The steamer is taking out a rather light cargo to Oriental ports. This includes 100 tons cotton, 400 cases dried fish, 300 rolls leather and shipments of canned goods and general merchandise.

A few days out from San Francisco, two deaths took place among Chinese steamer passengers. Their remains were embalmed and will be taken to Hongkong, there to be turned over to the authorities.

A considerable shipment of coal will be taken on here. The vessel will remain at the Channel wharf during her stay in port. There are no people of distinction or note on board the vessel. The usual number of globe-trotters and missionaries are going out to the East by the ever-popular China.

GUILTY OF CONTEMPT

Wong Lee was adjudged guilty of contempt of court by Judge Robinson this morning, but sentence was suspended until Saturday morning. Wong should have paid alimony to his divorced wife and also paid attorney's fees according to the order of the court, but this he has failed to do and so was cited for contempt. He was represented by Attorney Quinn, who succeeded in having sentence postponed until Saturday. In order that Wong might sail on the Mauna Kea this morning, upon which vessel he is cook.

Wong will appear again in court be left here before the vessel sails for the Far East at 5 o'clock this evening.

The Simplest, Strongest, and Most Convincing Cream Separator Arguments

We can not believe that there is a sensible man living who would put his own money into the purchase of any other than a DE LAVAL cream separator, for his own use, if he would but first avail of the opportunity open to everyone to SEE and TRY an improved DE LAVAL machine before buying any other.

It is hardly possible to say more than this. It is hardly possible to put the simple truth in plainer words. It would hardly seem possible to say it more convincingly.

The TRIAL of a DE LAVAL machine is free to every responsible man thinking of buying a cream separator.

CLEVELAND TO PLAY VISITORS

SAILORS AND JAPANESE TO TRY CONCLUSIONS

Big Crowd of Jackies Expected to Attend at Athletic Park—Visitors Play Oahu College Alumni Saturday.

This afternoon at the Athletic Park there will be a game of baseball that should attract a fine crowd of fans, although it is hard for the followers of the game to get a half holiday so early in the week. The Waseda team will go up against the Cleveland boys, and as the men are old opponents, a rattling good game should result.

Today will not be the first time the teams will meet, as over in Japan the Wasedas met the Cleveland nine three times. The sailors won out over in the Far East, and two games out of three went to them.

The Jackies have a good nine, and the rest of the crew always turn out to root for their shipmates. It is sure to be a lively game, and the Japanese will have to play ball if they want to win. The Wasedas have been very successful so far and have only lost one game. The Japanese "varisty" men are getting better every day, and there does not seem to be a junior team that has much chance of defeating them.

Oh, the big fellow who is about the best allround man in the team, plays a fine game at first, and he is always right on the job. He is a first-class pitcher, also, and with the stick can hit with the best of the present-day players at the Athletic Park.

The game will start at half past three o'clock, and by that time a big crowd of fans should be present. "Kiddo" Chillingworth will umpire the game, and he knows all the points and can be relied upon to do the right thing by both teams.

On Saturday next the Wasedas will go up against the Oahu College Alumni, and it will be then that the visitors will go up against a team that should give them the go of their lives.

On Sunday the visitors will play the Chinese Athletics, and another tight game, should eventuate. The C. A. Cs. are playing good ball nowadays, and with a little luck should make the Wasedas extend themselves. Apau is feeling good, and his pitching will be watched with interest by the fans who saw the first struggle between the Wasedas and the C. A. Cs.

DOTS AND DASHES.

"I tried to get going and I couldn't." That was Jeffries' remark after he was beaten by Johnson. It was the old, old story of a man looking well outside, but absolutely "all in" as regards his stomach.

The race for the Governor's Cup will take place next Saturday, when the yachts will start for the run around the Island of Oahu.

Billy Delaney, who seconded Jack Johnson, says that within two years Al. Kaufman will be world's champion.

JOHNSON TALKS AFTER CHAMPIONSHIP BATTLE

Was Confident That He Was Jeffries' Master, and Only Wondered When He Would Put Jeff Out.

Jack Johnson got a great reception at Reno when he returned from the scene of the big fight. He drove up in an automobile and as he approached his hotel the crowd caught sight of him and cheered. He did not have a mark on him and looked just the same as he has for months past.

Over $200,000 was taken at the gates and Tex Rickard, the chief promoter, expressed himself as very well satisfied at the way the show was patronized. There were three thousand "standing room" tickets sold at the gates, and there was no spare space anywhere.

After the fight Jack Johnson made a statement to the following effect: "It was no easier than I expected. I knew that I had the big fellow from the very start. I was not hurt at any time. The treatment I received in the ring was alright; I was treated like a gentleman. I knew I was Jeffries' master from the time we sparred off; I knew I had him and the only question was when should I knock him out. As for Sam Langford, I am ready to take him on any time he makes a real noise. I shall have great satisfaction in doing the same thing to him some time, since he has taken occasion to abuse me."

Johnson starts at once on a vaudeville circuit and will not fight for one year.

BIG YACHT RACE.

HAWAII STANDS GOOD CHANCE

CAPTAIN WILDER MAY BRING IN HONOLULU'S BOAT FIRST

Local Yacht Starts Off Well and Should Have Considerable Lead in a Few Days—May Finish on July 24.

Now that the trans-Pacific race is under way the prospects of the Hawaii winning out may be considered, and the fact that right at the start the Honolulu representative took the lead and was a mile ahead when last seen, gives people an idea that at last Hawaii is coming into its own. Of course there is a long way to go before the race is finished, but a good start is everything, and the way the Hawaii is reported to have got under way and shown her heels to all the rest of the yachts augurs well for the position the local boat is going to occupy at the finish.

All the hopes of Hawaii are centered on the yacht of the same name, and if she wins there will be joy in this little old burg. And there seems to be every chance of the Hawaii coming in first with a lead that will give her first place notwithstanding the big handicaps she has to allow the other yachts.

According to the cablegram received yesterday afternoon, the yawl Mollolou was the first to cross the starting line and the schooner Sweetheart was close behind her, while the Hawaii was the last to get going on the long journey.

The Hawaii, however, soon caught up to the other craft, and when last sighted was well ahead. Captain Wilder went straight out to sea and gained an advantage that was lost to the boat last year when she was hung up along the coast for a day or more. Captain Wilder and his crew will crack on all sail and no time will be lost on the run down. The Hawaii is expected to enter Honolulu harbor on or about Sunday, July 24, and should she win the race there will be a great time all over these islands.

DOTS AND DASHES.

Tom Bundy and Trow Hendricks defeated Long and McLoughlin for the Pacific doubles championship on July 4, and a great match it was. The score was 7-5, 6-8, 6-2, 3-6, 7-5, and the total games of 29 to 26 shows what sort of a struggle the match was. Miss May Sutton and Miss Hotchkiss played an exhibition match and the former won two sets straight, 6-2, 6-0. The ladies' singles championship went to Miss Sutton, who defeated her sister, Mrs. B. O. Bruce, by a score of 6-0, 6-1.

The Mu Hocks beat the Palamas by a score of 14 to 8 on Sunday morning at the Athletic Park. Nigel Jackson has taken on the job of scoring and is doing the same good work as he did last year.

All four teams in the Marine League are now tied and each company has won one and lost one game.

WILL SOON FIRE BIG MORTARS

Expect to Have Shell-throwers at Fort Ruger in Firing Condition by October—Central Control of All Forts.

According to authority on the subject the big mortars which constitute the battery of Fort Ruger, will belch forth real shot and shell before the end of the year, but it will be only in war practice. It was not thought that the mortars would be given this test before some time next year, but it seems that things are working along in such a satisfactory way that the mortars will be in shape to have the test sooner than was expected.

These guns have only been fired on one previous occasion and at that time it is stated that the foundations under a number of the guns were damaged to such an extent that considerable work was necessary to repair the same.

The fire control system in Diamond Head will direct the "movements" of the big guns when in practice and also in actual war. When everything is connected up as is proposed, this system will control the actions of the guns at all of the forts on this island.

SAILORS WERE HOSTS FOR MANY

The sailors of the Cleveland last evening fittingly entertained at a Homeward Bound Ball on the roof garden of the Young Hotel, at which scores of soldiers, sailors and civilians were present. Captain Rodman of the Cleveland and other officers of the two cruisers were present.

The homeward bound pennant, colors and jack were all used in the decorations of the pavilions. Lending the places of honor over the other flags used to make bright and cheerful the interior of the dancing rooms.

In charge of the dance were the following:

Floor managers—C. V. Pohl and C. A. Hoffman.

Secretary—D. Fairbairn.

Treasurer—A. S. Lorenson.

Reception—F. Bristol, J. A. Snoddy, W. R. Dolan and R. W. Crocker.

Decorations—S. Steiner (chairman), H. Abraham, L. G. Guenther, S. Wosowski, W. R. Easter and B. P. Ham-jey.

Arrangements—F. J. Waldman, (chairman), C. J. Marek, G. W. Riley and F. W. Kaczmarek.

NEW UNIVERSITY CLUB HOUSE

The new home of the University Club is expected to be finished in side of the next eight or ten days in cluding the painting and decorating. A gang of plumbers are doing that branch of the work and it is expected that they will have finished by the time the other mechanics have gotten through with their work.

The rooms in the new building are well laid out for the use to which they are to be put. A special feature of the arrangement of the inside is in the fact that the three rooms, which run parallel with Hotel street can be thrown into one, if the occasion requires for the purpose of a banquet making a dining room thirty feet wide by eighty five feet long.

The Hotel street end of the wing will be set apart for the use of women. These two rooms are colonial throughout and will be the prettiest apartments in the building.

It is expected that the Club will be occupying the new club house before the end of the month.

SIERRA REPORTS

The following wireless message has been received by the agents from the S. S. Sierra:

"S. S. Sierra, At Sea, July 11, 1910, 8 p. m. 847 miles from San Francisco light ship. Fresh N. E. winds. Moderate sea, dark gloomy overcast. Bar. 30.32, Air. 65. 73 cabin 2 steerage passengers, 118 sacks mail and Wells Fargo express, 1502 tons cargo."

CALIFORNIANS VISIT VOLCANO

Chas. S. Brown, acting for the German-American Savings Bank, Los Angeles, who has just returned from a three-day horseback tour of the island of Oahu, that he may understand its topography and agricultural development left today with several others of the party for the Volcano of Kilauea. While there he will also make a study of the island of Hawaii, that he may give reliable data to those intending the trip to the Islands.

When a boy would rather be present than a football hero, he may be said to have struck his gait.

DANCE

—The—
ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCING will hold its first quarterly dance on THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 4, at 8 o'clock. Odd Fellows' Hall. GOOD MUSIC AND A GOOD TIME

NEW SINGER AT PARK.

Miss Ethel May, who made her initial bow last night at the Park Theater to a Honolulu audience, is a vocalist far above the average, and her rendition of two songs was a pleasant change from the hackneyed verses in the picture shows. She is fitted with a melodious voice that has been well trained. Her songs were more or less familiar to music-lovers, and the applause which greeted her showed real appreciation. She is petite and pretty, and has a fascinating manner.

George Gardner is one of the good old school of Irish dialect singers. He has a pleasing tenor voice. He sang an old song, "I'm Not Meself at All," and for an encore he gave "The Blarney."

The Desmonds did one of their best acts, their dancing being particularly good. The vaudeville attractions are more and better than have been seen at any of the theaters here.

GARFIELD OUT FOR GOVERNOR

CLEVELAND, July 11.—James R. Garfield, ex-Secretary of the Interior, who served under the Roosevelt administration, tonight delivered the opening speech of his campaign for Governor. The address was an occasion for a big insurgent demonstration. Garfield and his supporters expect to place Ohio in the insurgent ranks along with Iowa, Wisconsin, Kansas, Nebraska and Indiana.

Garfield has gained a good deal of notoriety since he left the cabinet
by espousing the cause of Gifford Pinchot, the deposed forester, and by lining up with the insurgents on all occasions. He is one of Colonel Roosevelt's most intimate acquaintances, which he depends upon as an asset in his fight against the conservative wing of the party in Ohio headed by Wade Ellis, Senator Dick, Henry W. Taft and other prominent friends of President Taft.

In past elections Ohio has shown itself strong in favor of the conservative element in the party, but the insurgents are strong, as indicated by the way they threw down partisan barriers and voted for Judson Harmon, a Democrat, for Governor.
The insurgents or progressive Republicans have started out with the argument that unless the party nominates a progressive, Harmon will be reelected. Harmon has already been named by his own party.
Garfield claims to be the people's candidate.

HOT WAVE STILL HOLDS.
NEW YORK, July 11.—The past two days have been the warmest experienced here in many years. There have been seventeen deaths from heat in the past thirty-six hours, and scores are prostrated. Other deaths are expected if the temperature does not fall very soon.

SUBMARINE IS RAMMED.
PROVINCETOWN, Mass., July 11.—
The gunboat Castine rammed the submarine Bonita today during the naval maneuvers here, and it was only by quick work in beaching the submarine that the craft and her crew were saved.

ECZEMA A GERM DIS- EASE

Myriads of Microscopic Animals Infest
the Skin of the Sufferer.

When the skin of an eczema sufferer itches and burns in untold agony, do you know what is going on within the pores of that skin?
Myriads of microscopic animals are gnawing at the flesh, breaking down the fine cells and causing festers, thick scales and that terrible itch.
The germs multiply faster than Nature can throw them off.

Now, there is only one way to get rid of these germs—they must be killed in their lodging places. Dosing the stomach or trying to cure the blood will not, of course, kill the germs, and that is why all the blood remedies fail in eczema; that is also why salves which do not penetrate can do no permanent good.

Ordinary oil of wintergreen properly compounded in liquid form will penetrate the pores of the skin and kill the eczema germs. If properly mixed with thymol, glycerine and other ingredients (as in D. D. D. Prescription) this wash will build up the tissue of the skin and promote its healthy growth, giving Nature a chance, while killing the germs faster than they can multiply.

ommends D. D. D. Prescription, also

GRAPHIC STORY OF BIG FIGHT

quicker than the hope of the white race to see a man of his own race wrest back to his own race the title that he had relinquished. It was pitiful, yes; but the round after round of fighting in which Johnson handled the burly Jeffries as he pleased, the style in which he blocked every punch that the grizzly bear attempted to land, had prepared the crowd for the ending that was bound to follow.

Defeat Follows Awful Beating.

Jeffries' knockout may not have been so much the result of any single collapse as of the punching to which he was subjected and the collapse that was bound to come. As early as the sixth round it was evident to those of us who sat at the ringside that Jeffries was a beaten man and that it was only a question of how long Johnson would permit him to last.

"Just one chance—may be he will land a punch that will settle Johnson," was the forlorn cry of the Californian's friends, but their plea was faint-hearted and was never realized. It was a quick ending when it did come—quicker than most had expected, and dramatic to the degree. The native gameness in Jeffries was what made the big fellow stand up twice after he had been knocked down, only to fall the final time from a well directed left uppercut that Johnson sent in with plenty of force, but not viciously.

Jeffries Twice Knocked Out.

As a matter of fact, Jeffries, by rights, should have been counted out the first time he fell. Timekeeper George Harting tolled the count with uplifted finger, but Tex Rickard, unaccustomed to his position and excited at the tenseness in the air, lost track of affairs. He permitted Jeffries to stand on his feet, and though the seconds jumped into the ring to assist the fallen man, he waved them back. Then came the second knockdown and Jeffries fell sprawling through the ropes, with one eye closed and blood trickling from mouth and nose.

Even then the old-time vitality in the fighter forced him to a standing position, but his strength was lacking, and the big bulk of bone and muscle fell, practically inert, as Johnson rained in the punches for the third and last time.

There has already been discussion as to whether Jeffries was counted out before the gong sounded the end of the fateful fifteenth round, but there is no question that it was properly ended, and no question of the complete triumph of the black.

Helpless and unconscious, Jeffries was carried to his corner by his seconds and intimate friends. Johnson waited the while to give the final handshake that ring custom demands. Then the crowd, ever fickle, ever inclined to turn to the winner, showed its attention upon the negro and shouted his name as he turned his grinning face toward them to acknowledge the reception.

Jeffries' Stamina All Gone.

Jeffries, the defeated, was not the man who had been watched by thousands, not the man whose presence in training quarters had impelled hundreds to lean against fence pickets in order to have a glimpse of him. "The king is dead; long live the king." So it was with Jeffries. A new champion reigns—not a new one, perhaps, but a man who has now the clearest of all rights to his title—and the homage was turned toward him.

Race feeling? There was none manifested this afternoon. Jeff, as he half walked and was half carried from the ringside, was accorded the applause that is due a fallen monarch. But, aside from the pity that comes to the loser, there was no thought given to the fact that he had been defeated by a colored man.

Closed Eye Beginning of End.

There are many who argue that Johnson could have won in any of the early rounds and that he was fighting for his friends and the moving pictures. Be that as it may, it was after the sixth round, when he closed Jeffries' left eye and landed almost at will with vicious lefts and rights, that the white fighter showed an utter lack of stamina and fought after a fashion that stamped him as a loser sooner or later.

The youth had fled from the big frame, and there was nothing but the desire to keep him going. With no strength to punch or ability to fight aggressively, nothing more than a hollow shell Jeffries put up a sorry fight, so sorry an affair that the crowd came away from the arena disappointed at the fight as a fight, and with the outcome. It was the old mistake that so many in the history of athletics have made. The trainer rubbed Jeffries into shape, as one of the critics expressed the condition.

All the Old Stamina Gone.

They took fat off the outside of his person, but didn't tone him up inside. But, with all the utter lack of fighting ability that was displayed by Jeffries, it is due Jack Johnson to give him full credit for his remarkable battle, mapped out in rare form by a general of the pugilistic game and never departed from. For all he may have felt, as he said, that he was the master of Jeff from the moment they came together in a clinch, Johnson fought his own contest and his own style.

It must have been after the sixth round that Johnson considered himself a sure winner, for it was then that he commenced to use a straight right, a dangerous punch when an opponent has anything of a wallop left. He laughed and joked with the crowd, winked his eye at Corbett, who had been boisterously noisy during the opening stages, and time and again told Jeffries to try to land a body punch.

His defense was the marvel that it has always been claimed for him. Jeffries brought first blood, more a scratch than anything else, in the first round with a left, but otherwise Johnson was untouched. He boxed in superb style, blocked the attempted punches of Jeff after a fashion that must have bewildered Jeffries and contented himself for the most part with landing the effective uppercuts that have won so many of his contests for him.

Black Aggressive and Confident.

And there was more to the Johnson fight. He was aggressive this afternoon as I have never seen him before. The confidence that has been imbedded in him in the long years that he has been seeking a match with the white man came to the front, and once he was absolutely certain of his man he came to the front in a style that will win for him many friends. He out-boxed Jeffries, as it was natural to expect, and what is also to the point, he out-fought him. There were men in the audience who have not seen Johnson in his recent fights, who did not understand how he has improved. The work of the black opened their eyes this afternoon and the accorded him the credit due for the fighting.

Little of the personal element that was expected and that has been written about was in evidence. Johnson's smile, that was glittering at all stages of the fight, showed no ill-will toward Jeffries, and the taps that he gave his huskier opponent as they came together frequently in the clinches, were indication of no desire to beat and punish the man he was facing.

Nor was Jeffries ill disposed toward the man he was later to face as the rightful champion. Even Johnson in his statement says that in the exchange of words between the heavyweights there was nothing suggestive of a quarrel or dispute. It was a cold business proposition, and as such Jeffries took his medicine, painful though it was.

Body Slowly Defeated Californian.

Unquestionably the body blows, the short jolts that Johnson sent to the body, did more to wear Jeffries down than anything else. It is quite true that the white man was bothered when the clever negro closed his eye, but it was after Johnson changed tactics and directed his blows to the body that the keen students of form and condition noted that Jeffries was breathing heavily as he came to his corner and that his legs were shaky as he faced the other man, who was always circling him in the center of the ring.

Jeffries attributes his defeat to a weak stomach that was unable to stand punishment, but he does not do justice to the blows that were rained in on him, and the effect they had on the frame of a man in no condition to stand such punishment.

He was just as far from being the Jeffries of the days gone by as Johnson was different from that black man who fought Marvin Hart in San Francisco once upon a time, and who was roundly hissed and booed for his indifferent work.

The Jeffries of old had retrograded and the Johnson had become a wonderfully improved man, both in his defense and his aggressiveness, a style that is born only of confidence.

Tried to Save Knockout.

The men in Jeffries' corner stuck to their forlorn hope long after partisans of supporters of the white had acknowledged defeat. The first knockdown that Jeffries had suffered should have been enough. But there was Jim Corbett, even then trying to taunt the black, and Jack Jeffries, brother of the man who was beaten, stubbornly refusing to give up.

"For God's sake, Jack," yelled Sam Berger, "throw in the towel and stop this fight."

And when Jack shook his head in refusal just as Jeffries had dropped to the canvas for that third time, while the timekeeper was tolling the seconds and Rickard following in the ring, Berger stepped through the ropes. He was too late to save the knockout for it had been counted off just as the gong was changed. Jeffries was out for all time to come and a hush fell over the audience as his massive form was carried to his corner, where he could better be revived.

The two men had come from their corners in that fifteenth round evidently in determined fashion. Johnson met Jeffries well in the center of the ring. The Californian looked a bit fresher, if anything, but, as he had, Johnson blocked him, as he had done so many times before, and they came to a clinch. The clinch was a long one. Jeffries was leaning heavily on the colored man and Jack was quite satisfied that it should be so.

From the outside Corbett shrieked some advice to the white.

"Do as they told you, Jim," chuckled Johnson, who followed it up with a left to the stomach, that plainly hurt Jeffries.

Jeffries Twice Knocked Out.

As the tired Jeffries partially broke away from the embrace Johnson shot in three wicked lefts to the face. He repeated with another and Jeffries slowly sank to the floor of the ring. Johnson stood off as Rickard rushed toward the fallen man.

Twelve seconds were in reality counted by Harting, but Rickard did not hear the count and allowed Jeffries to stand on his feet. Jeffries arose more slowly than he had been dropped, and as he partially stood, and staggered around the ring, Johnson hit him first with a left uppercut and then with a right.

Jeffries had not the human endurance to stand the strain. For the second time he fell and so helpless was he that his huge body sprawled half out and half inside the ropes, with his face turned toward the moving picture machines. There was a rush of his seconds to assist Jeffries to his feet as the count was being called, and there were enough of his advisers in the ring during the round to have disqualified Jeffries had the referee been so minded. Rickard merely pushed them back and as the retired champion once more faced his cunning opponent there was a wave of pity as Johnson used the right to the jaw and then finished his work with a left uppercut, a blow that sent James J. down for all time to come.

Jeffries Completely Out.

It is of small moment that Berger entered the ring to stop the fight. Johnson was not to be cheated of his rightfully won knockout. It was his by all the usages of fistiana, and to the credit of Tex Rickard be it said that he allowed no claims of disqualification of seconds stopping the fight, but rather gave to the victor the spoils.

"May the best man win," was the motto of promoters, of the Governor and of that veteran announcer, Billy Jordan.

The best man did win. No one of us can gainsay that, black man though he is.

As has been said, the fight was a disappointment. It did not have the elements of contest and went down in annals as the most one-sided big fight that ever took place. Jack Munroe was heralded as a joke when he stayed less than a round with Jeffries some six years ago, and now it happens that Jeffries will be referred to in history as the man that was.

Even with all that, there were some surprising features. We could not tell in that first round or even in the second, as we thought we would, what the end of the story was to be. Jeff-fries was less aggressive, less vicious in his work, but Johnson, sizing up his opponent, as he always does, held back and did not strike until his time had come.

Little to the First Round.

There was little in the first round save an exhibition of the wonderful defense of the negro. Johnson landed the first punch, a left to the face, but Jeffries, with a light left to the face, brought the first blood. A right cut on the underlip, which afterwards bled quite profusely.

Johnson opened the second round with two left hooks to the face, and Corbett called from the corner, "He wants to fight, Jim. Let him."

From that third on it was altogether a Johnson fight, although the tide did not turn until the sixth, Jeffries tried his far-famed rushes many times, but discovered that he was not landing on the champion.

The fourth and fifth rounds were much the same. Jeffries was trying to land, but could not place a glove where it would do harm. Johnson was contenting himself with punches to the body, that were weakening, even if they did not show to such spectacular effect.

The sixth was where the story was told. Jack opened the sixth round by hooking Jeffries repeatedly with lefts. As they broke from a clinch, Jeffries tried to rush his man, but missed fire and was once more in an embrace.

That eye bothered Jeffries considerably in the seventh. The defense of the Californian was a minus quantity, and his efforts to land a punch were not pleasant to watch for those of his friends who were spectators.

"He's a beaten man," was the remark as he went to his corner distressed of mind and body. The remark was true.

Ultimate End Foreseen Early.

The Jeffries supporters were trying to save their money before the eighth, and were trying to get their bets down at even money—an offer that was scorned by the short-enders who had gambled on John Arthur.

There was but one round, the eleventh, in which the Jeffries crowd had a chance to cheer. Johnson had started the round in grand shape, and Jeffries had been subjected to some terrific right and left punches that were the hardest blows of the fight. Jeffries was apparently in bad shape in the early part of the round, but he recuperated, and landed a right to the face that apparently staggered Jack. At least the crowd thought so; but those in the press seats could see that Johnson was merely stalling. It was a fast round, and had the crowd on its toes.

From the beginning of the twelfth to the end of the fifteenth, there was only one story—what Johnson did. He fought as he pleased, and left wide openings, because he knew that Jeffries was a whipped man, and had nothing left. He had lost his execution, his defense and his strength. After that it was a foregone conclusion what was to happen.

MARRIED WEEK SEEKS DIVORCE

After being married but one week Edith Sole Lang has asked for a divorce from her husband, Edward Lang, of the Orpheum Saloon, alleging all sorts of vile and disgusting behavior.

The couple were married on June 18 and on June 24 they separated after Lang had told his wife to go out and make some money for him to pay a debt of $35.

There are other allegations in the complaint which do not reflect favorably upon the character of the defendant.

Temporary alimony is asked in the sum of fifty dollars monthly until the matter is settled.

CHAPTER IX.

HOW BOB FITZSIMMONS WAS TRICKED INTO FIGHTING ME.

AFTER half a year at home, with a lot of good hunting, I began to feel like taking on another fight. But I didn't care to look for little ones. I felt near enough to the top of my class to want a fight for the championship. Things were going along this way in the spring of '09 when all of a sudden we heard from Billy Brady in New York.

Brady had been out of ring affairs for a long time and busy with theatrical stunts, as he told me afterward, when one day a gentleman came into his office with a proposition. He wanted known as a theatrical man and not as a promoter. Anyway, boxing had been dead in New York for some time, and there had been few good matches.

But the game came up again in great shape, and people began clamoring for the champions. Billy was sitting in a cafe one day talking the situation over, and as he talked he got enthusiastic.

"I have a great chance here," he said. "I know a big fellow out west who can whip Fitzsimmons and take the world's championship. He's fought here in the east, but he didn't make much of an impression. People don't know him the way I do. The time is ripe to spring him, and I've got a good mind to take a flier in fighting again."

"Why don't you?" asked the party on the other side of the table.

"By George, I will!" exclaimed Billy Brady.

He did. He took charge of the Coney Island A. C. and wired Billy Delaney to see me and get me to come east again. In a few days we were on this way.

When I was actually in New York Brady began planning a way to get Fitzsimmons to fight me.

"You can beat Fitz," Billy told me. "I know very well I can," I said. "Then it's Fitz we've got to get for you," said Billy.

Brady knew in a general way that Fitzsimmons was either nearly flat broke or that he had all of his ring earnings tied up in some way. Being in the theatrical business, he knew a lot of inside things about various people. He heard somewhere or other that Fitzsimmons, after a stage tour just finished, had failed to pay the printers' bill for his theatrical posters. The bill was something around $400 or $500, and the printers had been unable to collect.

Brady, who was a customer, too, dropped into the printing company's office in an incidental sort of way and in the course of conversation said: "I hear you have some trouble getting money from Fitzsimmons. I suppose he's a little short just now. He hasn't fought for a long time."

The printers acknowledged that Fitzsimmons didn't appear to be rolling in ready wealth.

"Well," said Billy, "that could be fixed up easily enough. Next time you call on Fitz with the bill why don't you suggest that he take on some dub for an easy fight and get a few thousand dollars? He hasn't been in the ring since he won the championship at Carson two years ago, and the people are crazy to see him again."

fight at my club down at Coney Island and pay him good money for it. He can take on this big clumsy guy, Jeffries, that I've just brought on from California. He can beat Jeffries with any trouble. It'll be easy money."

"I'll mention it to Fitz," said the printer, getting interested. "It sounds good, and I'd like to see Fitz in action again myself."

Brady did another thinking stunt.

"The preliminaries won't need to cost much when we've got a champion like Fitzsimmons for a headliner," he went on, "and I won't have to give that big stiff Jeffries more than a few dollars. As soon as the fight is over I can send him back to the coast and get rid of him, so I'll save money that way too. I figure that I can give Fitz 65 per cent of the receipts, win, lose or draw, and still make enough to cover all expenses and have a fair profit left over. Tell him that he can have 65 per cent, and we'll draw the biggest house on record."

Brady had struck the right scheme. Fitzsimmons listened and agreed to fight.

So we got Fitzsimmons, and at last the thing I'd been dreaming about ever since that day when I walked down the street with Charlie White at Carson had come true. I had my chance to fight for the championship of the world, and I made my mind right then that I'd either win it or they'd carry me out of the ring on a stretcher. I didn't intend to take the trouble to provide the stretcher either.

Now that I was really matched work started in earnest. We got a cottage at Allenhurst, N. J., not far from the beach at Asbury Park.

Back of our cottage was a handball court built. It was like the handball court Corbett had at Carson except for the fact that it wasn't roofed over. The weather was fairly warm now, and I like to work as much as possible in the open air. Beside the cottage there was a croquet court. Croquet may be a ladies' game, but nobody would have thought so if they'd seen Tommy Ryan and big Ed Dunkhorst, the "human freight car," at it. Then it was more like football. Tommy had a little on Ed. They used to bet a quarter a game. One day I was acting as referee, and Tommy had won about a dollar and a quarter from Dunkhorst. Ed had only two bits left, and he was sore. Tommy just wrenched the ball with his mallet before making a shot and mowed it an inch or so. Dunkhorst jumped in and claimed a foul. As referee I decided that there was no foul. Dunkhorst started to holler, and Ryan turned on him.

"You big quitter!" yelled Ryan, and he reached over with his mallet and cracked Dunkhorst on the nose. The blood flew all over the front of his shirt. That broke up the game.

My training staff at that time consisted of Billy Delaney, my special adviser, and Ryan and my brother Jack and Ed Dunkhorst. Ryan was middle-weight champion. Jack weighed well above 200 and was game and clever. Dunkhorst was like an elephant. He weighed over 300. He was covered with layers of fat that made him like a punching mallet.

I didn't do much work the day before the fight, for I was ready and fit and only needed a day's rest.

I never ran my weight down so low while training for any other fight. When I came east to meet Armstrong I weighed just 245 pounds stripped to fighting trunks in the ring. Now, ready to meet Fitzsimmons, I scaled exactly 204 pounds. I had run myself to a shadow. Two days before the fight I weighed just 206 pounds stripped and let everybody around camp see me on the scales. The day before the fight I went with a number of reporters to the baggage room at the railroad station. There, on the baggage scales, in jumpers and a light sweater, I weighed an even 210 pounds.

I never attempted to make such low weight again, as I know I'm stronger and have more endurance when I carry forty pounds more flesh on my bones.

On the way up to New York I went sound asleep on the train and slept an hour. In New York we all had lunch and then went to Proctor's and saw a vaudeville show. After the show we went to Coney Island by train.

Fitzsimmons was a great favorite, of course. Few people knew anything about me. I was a stranger. At Ben Cohen's hotel—a great gathering place for sporting men—the most famous sports in America had gathered.

In the beginning Fitzsimmons was a 3 to 1 favorite, but as the talk about his great fights grew his friends began offering more and more. Before we were in the ring the betting was 3 1/2 to 1 on Fitz, and some put up 4 to 1.

I heard all about the odds, but that didn't worry me at all. I felt absolutely sure that I'd win. Of course I knew that Fitzsimmons was a great fighter and that he knew more about boxing in a minute than I did in an hour. But I had it all figured out. I hadn't the slightest fear that he'd knock me out. The only thing that bothered me was the idea that he might be able to close both of my eyes and that in that case it would be hard to find him. But all the time I expected to get him in the end.

When we reached the Coney Island A. C. there was a feeling of nervousness in our little party. Brady and Delaney thought I was on edge, and perhaps I was a little. It was a pretty big occasion. In a couple of hours I was going to either have my head knocked off or beat the world's champion and put myself in line for a whole lot of fame and a big bunch of money. It was either to the top or back to the hills for me, and nobody knew it better than I did.

Still, if I was nervous I didn't feel it, and I thought the boot was on the other foot. I thought Brady and Delaney were about ten times as nervous as I was. They weren't in training like myself, and they hadn't lived out of doors in the hills. They were to win or lose a pile of money on what ing in the shade of the trees, where nobody could recognize us. And on the way Billy Brady unfolded his plan.

"Jim," he said, "we don't know what tricks these fellows may have up their sleeves, and we might as well spring something first and get them guessing. I have a corking scheme. We can pull it off easy, and it's a winner."

"It's all right, Jim," put in Delaney. "Sure winner," said Brady, slapping me on the back.

"Well," I said, "what is it?"

Billy looked around to make sure nobody was within hearing.

don't care a snap of your finger whether he's Fitzsimmons or some bum preliminary scrapper.

"Now, here's the way you're going to do it. When you are stripped to go into the ring and waiting for the call you stretch out on the cot just opposite the door in your dressing room. Sprawl yourself out to look as big as you can. Fitz's dressing room is only a few steps away. I'll go to his door and call Martin Julian out. I'll get into a discussion with Julian over the rules. We can't agree, and I'll say, 'Damn it, get Fitz and come into Jeff's room here and let Fitz settle it himself.' Fitz will be
