EPIDEMIC THREATENS RUSSIAN IWILEI CAMP TO PROTECT PLANTATION LEASES

Death Visits Russian Camp

Boy Succumbs To Diphtheria But Quarantine Not Planned

One Russian boy six years of age is lying dead of diphtheria in a hut made of bage; his baby sister of three is suffering from the disease and will probably die within a few hours and two other suspicious cases that look like diphtheria are developing at the Iwilei camp. Dr. Bruce Mackall and a Bulletin representative visited the camp this morning, and the doctor, after looking at the dead child and the other sick children, advised the Board of Health inspectors to stop anyone from entering the camp.

Russians must, for the safety of the city, be placed in quarantine. President Mott-Smith, of the Board of Health was communicated with, but up till 11 o'clock could not be located. It is probable that the Russians will be sent over to Quarantine Island and once more resume their old quarters. Maxine, the father of the dead boy, did not inform any of the police officers that his son was sick yesterday and it was not till the visit of Dr. Mackall to the camp that it was known that the father was in jail.

DEMAND PRESENCE OF PERELSTROUS RECORDING FEE MORE THAN VALUE

Russian Agitators Are Lighthouse Site Costs $100 Before District Court

Vasileff, who is the alleged self-appointed Moses, chosen to lead the Russian people from out the slough of dependency and poverty to a life of affluence and indolence, played another card this morning, when through one of his henchmen he demanded the presence of J. W. Perelstros, the labor agent, at the District Court tomorrow morning.

Perelstros has not been making himself very conspicuous around the police station since the recent outbreak of the immigrants. He has likewise studiously avoided making his appearance around the Russian camp over at Iwilei.

The labor agent is wanted as a witness in the case of four Russians who are charged with having for the two weeks past been leading lives of indolence, being vagrants and having no visible means of support.

With Vasileff in the prisoners' dock at police court this morning were Bluff, Surupove and Krechok. The last named was arrested yesterday upon a vagrancy charge.

In addition to demanding the presence of Perelstros as a witness in their behalf, Vasileff asked that the entire contingent of Russians now encamped at Iwilei be summoned to testify at the hearing which has been postponed until tomorrow morning.

One hundred dollars was the appraised value of 3.4 acres of land recently condemned by the Federal government for a lighthouse sight on Maui, and the recording fee in the Bureau of Conveyances amounted to $135.50.

The final proceedings were finished in the Federal Court before Judge Dole on March 17, and the papers in the case were filed late yesterday afternoon in the recording bureau.

It is on Pauwela Point, Maui, that the Department of Commerce and Labor desired land for a much-needed lighthouse, and so suit for condemnation proceedings was brought in the United States Court against the Haiku Sugar Company and others for the land in question.

In the findings of the court, the sugar company was granted $100 in full for the land wanted, the others in the case being considered to have no claim upon it.

It is understood that work on the lighthouse will commence soon.

COSTLY BEACON WILL BE BUILT

Title to the land wanted at Kilauea, Kauai, for the largest lighthouse in the Territory has been obtained, and in the near future work will be commenced on the structure by the Department of Commerce and Labor.

This new beacon will cost $75,000, and at that will be the most expensive structure built for a lighthouse in the islands.

Kauai Will Vote Down Plan For Prohibition

Says Senator Fairchild On Attitude Of County

The voters of the county of Kauai are prepared to resist almost unanimously the attempt of the prohibitionists to upset the existing law governing the liquor traffic.

Senator George Fairchild, who led the fight at the last regular session of the Legislature to prevent the liquor interests from securing an amendment to the present law, now declares that the opposition he then voiced in behalf of his constituency to the tampering with the law, now applies with equal force and effect to the plan of the element led by John G. Woolley.

"Kauai is absolutely satisfied with the existing law," declared Senator Fairchild this morning. "There is no reason for a change. The administration of the law is in the hands of the people and gives the license boards wide power and discretion, something that it surely desirable by local conditions.

"I believe that Kauai will stand exactly where it stood when the liquor people tried to upset the law at the last regular session of the Legislature. The same argument applies now and I feel that the great majority of the voters in the county will uphold the present law. It has proven workable and efficient. If there is a local preponderating sentiment favorable to prohibition in any county of the Territory, the people can have it. If they want prohibition how would it be possible to obtain it with more effectiveness than under the operation of the existing law?"

Senator Fairchild also stated that in his opinion the people should be content with benefits that are at hand and appreciated, and not plunge into the unknown. He stated that the tinkering with the liquor law and the Organic Act tended to produce uneasiness and uncertainty, with nothing to indicate where it will all stop.

The statement by Senator Fairchild is the first shell thrown into the ranks of the advocates of prohibition, blind pigs and swipes for the common people and an uninterrupted flow of liquor from the coast for the people of means—the Territory in the meanwhile securing additional evils accompanied by a loss of revenue and efficient control. Oil Lands Will Be Sold

NEW YORK, May 3.—The statement was made here today in financial circles that the directors of the Southern Pacific Railway are contemplating selling the oil land holdings of the company for the benefit of the stockholders. The oil lands of the Southern Pacific are now valued at a hundred millions of dollars, and if the plan is carried out the owners of the railway stock will gain a magnificent income.

CONVICT ESCAPES FROM WORK GANG

Sam Kahl, a Hawaiian, who is serving a sentence for larceny, escaped from the prison gang that is working out at Maunaloa Valley, this morning at half-past seven o'clock. The man was in company with the two cooks who were conveying food out to the gang, and when some distance from the place where the other prisoners were at work, he remarked: "I'm going to beat it from jail. I don't want any more of that. They are too busy with Grace to trouble me. So long, may not see you for some time."

The man ran into some bushes and disappeared at once, and although the matter was reported immediately by the cooks to the guard, no trace of Kahl was found. The guard upon hearing of the escape at once sent the other prisoners in search of the man, and the passengers on a Maunaloa car were treated to the sight of a big bunch of the striped brigade hunting high and low for Kahl. As the car approached, some of the prisoners were seen on the top of telephone posts and other vantage spots from which they scanned the surrounding country.

The gang appeared to be eager to find the escaped man, and they went at the task with a willing spirit. It is thought that there will be no trouble in capturing Kahl, and he will not again be allowed a chance of getting away.

GERRIT WILDER SEES FRUITS AND PYRAMIDS

Gerrit F. Wilder has forwarded post cards to the Bulletin editor from his various stopping places in touring the world. From Singapore, under date of February 20, "I have been so interested in the new fruits which I have seen in the markets at cities I have visited. Many of them quite new to me and new to Hawaii. I hope to introduce some of them to our island home. Having a fine trip."

The latest mail brought a post card from Cairo dated April 5. "Here I am in the center of the world wonders. I climbed the pyramid of Cheops on April 1."

The photograph shows that his climb up the pyramid might have reminded him of going to the top of Konahuna, but except that here he would have no one to help him along.

Protection For Plantation Leases

Latest Change In Organic Act Amendment Bill Before Congress

An important and the latest proposed amendment to the Organic Act in relation to the public lands is that no land under lease may be homesteaded until the growing crop has been harvested, thus protecting the lessees—the planters—from loss.

In the Manchuria mail Governor Frear received a late copy of the act from Washington with this important proviso which has been inserted since the bill was first reported by committee.

In speaking of the matter this morning Governor Frear stated that several weeks ago he had written to Washington suggesting that this important clause should be inserted in the act before final action was taken on the bill, and he supposed that the insertion had been made as a result of his recommendation.

Formerly any public land was open to homestead at any time and when so taken the lessee had to lose any crop that was planted, no time being given them to harvest.

Under the new proviso plantation owners have a guarantee that any crop they put in they will be allowed to harvest before the land or any part of it can be given over to homesteaders.

ALDEN BESSE IS BEFORE COURTS

Seized At San Pedro For Claim Of $1200

Again the American bark Alden Besse is before the courts, this time on account of being seized in California waters for a liability incurred before the present owners took possession of her.

The complaint filed by Miller Salvage Company, Ltd., recently against M. E. Hammond, S. M. Damon and W. T. Bottomley (Bishop and Company) and is a bill for injunction to prevent the sale of 12 shares of the capital stock of the Miller Salvage Company which was paid to the Los Angeles Hawaiian Commercial Company in part payment for the bark.

From the complaint it appears that on November 9, 1909, the Los Angeles company sold the Besse to the Miller company for $6,000, part of which was paid in the stock of the buying company.

Prior to this sale however the ship was liable for a bill of $1,200, and last month while lying in the harbor at San Pedro was seized by a United States marshal to satisfy this claim.

Bishop and Company as local agents of M. E. Hammond and the Los Angeles Hawaiian Commercial Company hold the stock referred to and an injunction was issued two days ago to prevent them from disposing of it.

RUSSIAN DAY AT DISTRICT COURT

Provided another postponement of the number of cases before Judge Andrade is not requested, tomorrow will be "Russian Day" at the District Court.

Nicolas Suerbelle, charged with having employed threats upon his wife, in that he declared that he would put her out of existence by the knife route, will come before the tribunal for a preliminary hearing.

Vasileff and three companions who are alleged as vagrants and refusing to work thereby rubbing along without a visible means of support will have a hearing after a series of three postponements.

It is more than likely that several additional arrests upon a vagrancy charge will be made by the police before the session of the court.

"A cloud of witnesses" from the Russian camp is threatened. The health authorities however may interfere.

LOCAL MASONS HONOR MASTER

Grand Reception and Ball At Young Hotel Tonight

The combined meeting of the blue lodge Masons last evening at Masonic Temple was a reception to Grand Master W. Franklin Pierce of the Grand Lodge of California, was all that could be desired, as the temple was filled with representative Masons eager to welcome this distinguished Mason to these islands.

Grand Master Pierce was properly received as he entered the lodge room, and after an introduction to the brethren by the Master he made some very pleasing remarks, nearly all of a Masonic nature.

Handshaking was then in order and the Grand Master had a pleasant word for each and every one in the room.

Tonight, in honor of Grand Master Pierce there will be a reception and grand ball at the Young hotel. Invitations have been sent to every Mason in the islands to attend but should there be any of the brethren who have not received an invitation they are expected to attend.

"We want to get all Masons within hailing distance of Honolulu out," said a member of the committee last night.

"We are particularly anxious to get hold of visiting Masons and their families, as we have no records of them and consequently have been unable to send them invitations. We will appreciate it greatly if the newspapers will make this fact known. No Mason should stay away just because he has not received a notification, though we have tried to reach everyone of whom we have any record."

Today the Grand Master is being entertained with the sights of the city. He has expressed a desire to see a sugar plantation and it is probable that desire will be satisfied tomorrow with a trip to Honolulu plantation.

The Masters and Past Masters of the city lodges will entertain Grand Master Pierce with a dinner tomorrow night, which promises to be a grand affair.

Thursday will be given over to Honolulu Commandery, Knights Templar, of which Grand Master Pierce is a distinguished member.

The Grand Lodge of California of which Grand Master Pierce is the head, is the sovereign body to which all of the blue lodges in this Territory owe allegiance. The visit of the Grand Master is therefore a great event among local Masons.

Nasano Nakamura has filed suit for divorce from Rinta Nakamura, alleging that the latter deserted him here in Honolulu after being married since 1902. The marriage was performed in Japan early in 1902 and the couple came here in June of the same year.

LEGISLATORS SLASH RAILROAD BILL

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—The Insurgents in the Senate have succeeded in emasculating the Tait railroad bill. The traffic agreements and merger features have been wiped out entirely, and other portions of the measure have been so amended that there is little left of the bill as it was originally submitted.

The section creating a court of commerce appeals alone remains unchanged, the Insurgents having chopped and mutilated almost every other paragraph.

In discussing the fate of his bill today, the President stated that the Administration can not be blamed for the attitude of the Senate, and intimated that the Administration has kept faith in its honest effort to secure the passage of an effective railroad regulation bill.

THOUSANDS CHEER PORTUGAL'S SHIP

S. Gabriel Is Welcomed By Officials At San Francisco

The following account of the reception accorded the Portuguese cruiser S. Gabriel at San Francisco is published in the Chronicle of April 22nd. The cruiser is expected here May 10th:

"To the accompaniment of the cheers of thousands of former subjects of her flag the Portuguese cruiser S. Gabriel sailed through the Golden Gate yesterday afternoon, and, after being officially inspected and passed by the quarantine physician, came to anchor in man-of-war's row. The first vessel of the Portuguese nation to visit San Francisco, the S. Gabriel, was the recipient of a warm welcome from the past and present citizens of that country now domiciled in this city, and arrangements have been made for over a week of hospitality to the officers and men of the ship.

In addition to the numerous tugs and launches of every size and description which met the war vessel as she came in the harbor, the Golden Gate carried a delegation of leading citizens, including the Mayor, representatives of the various civic bodies, the deputy collector of the port and a committee of the Portuguese residents of San Francisco, headed by their Consul-General. Every boat was liberally decorated with the entwined flags of the United States and Portugal, and a band on one of the larger boats alternated the two national anthems.

Reception Committee's Visit.

Just as soon as the vessel came to anchor opposite the Ferry building the Golden Gate drew up on the port side and the reception committee ascended to the deck of the cruiser. There the visitors were welcomed by Commander Antonio Alvares Jervis d'Albuquerque Ferreira Pinto Bosto and his officers. They were escorted to the Captain's cabin, where they were welcomed in a short speech by the commander.

Deputy Collector of the Port Willam B. Hamilton extended a welcome to the Commander and his ship in the name of the President of the United States and Collector Stratton. Mayor P. H. McCarthy then welcomed the cruiser in the name of the city and assured the visitors that everything would be done to make their visit enjoyable.

In addition to those mentioned the reception committee included the Portuguese Consul-General at this port, Dr. Ignacio Duarte, and the following members of the local colony: M. T. Freitas, Dr. J. de S. Bettencourt, Dr. J. B. de Faria, Dr. M. M. Enos, V. L. Figueiredo, Dr. J. L. Azevedo, R. A. Eucora and J. Silveira. The various commercial bodies were represented as follows: Chamber of Commerce, John A. McGregor; Merchants' Association, M. H. Robbins Jr.; Merchants' Exchange, James Rolph Jr.; Portola reception committee, E. D. Peixotto.

For the purpose of welcoming to its initial port of call in United States waters the first warship of this Government to come to this country, Viscount d'Alte, Portuguese Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington, arrived in San Francisco last night from the East."

KAHAKULOA BROUGHT OUT OF WILDERNESS

(Special to the Bulletin.)

WAILUKU, Maui, April 29.—A telephone was placed in the house of Policeman Kanehalei at Kahakuloa last Thursday and now the most isolated and secluded valley on Maui is connected with civilization by telephone. The Telephone Company, the Maui Board of Supervisors and the Bulletin have been the factors in carrying out the dream of ages of Kahakuloans. It is no easy matter to connect Kahakuloa by telephone when it is known that Kahakuloa is thirteen miles from the county seat across a wild picturesque country sparsely inhabited. Makaliu Ranch, four miles this side of Kahakuloa, is also connected by telephone. The next advance agents of American civilization to which villagers now look forward with great anxiety is a local postoffice and mail carrier, for it takes longer time now for mail to get there than it does to reach Washington, 5000 miles away.

TEN RUSSIANS ARRESTED QUIETLY

Ringleaders In Riot Are Taken To Police Station

Yesterday afternoon at half-past five o'clock Sheriff Jarrett and a squad of police officers proceeded to the Russian Camp at Iwilei and arrested on bench warrants, nine Russians who had been indicted by the Grand Jury. The men are the ringleaders in the riot that occurred at the police station on Friday last.

There was not the slightest trouble at the camp and as Martin Grune, who acted as interpreter, called out the names of the Russians who were known, they stepped out from the main body of immigrants. The names of the three men only were known and the remaining six were identified by the police officers who were on duty at the police station on the day of the trouble there.

One Russian had been arrested on Nuuanu Street before the posse went down to the camp, and he admitted that he was one of those who had been in the front rank of the rioters.

The men arrested were Baldin, P. Nikitin, N. Stanishkoff, Stephen Kiriloff, Terepki Bosharoff, Michael Jewakinooff, S. Wasilik, Aleksei Inakauti, Simien and Maxim Zacharoff.

The arrival of the police in automobiles and on horseback utterly surprised the Russians, and they offered no resistance when ordered to assemble outside the camp. About three hundred men gathered in a bunch and the police officers quickly picked out the men they wanted.

As soon as the nine wanted men were identified the police patrol wagon was telephoned for and it soon arrived on the scene. The nine men were quickly placed in the hurry-up wagon and conveyed to the police station, where they were booked and sent below to the cells. Some of the men had considerable money in their possession when searched, and other articles were found on them.

This morning the whole bunch had a conference at which some matter was discussed at length and some decision came to. As soon as Maxim was called by the Sheriff and allowed to depart to see his dead son, the rest of the prisoners started up an animated conversation, and evidently sent messages out to their comrades at the camp.

The expected trouble did not occur at the camp yesterday but if anything had cropped up, there would have been plenty of police and specials to have quelled the plikiia.

DEMITRI STANISKOFF INDICTED BY JURY

Territorial Body Accuses Russians Of Rioting

In its deliberations yesterday the grand jury returned an indictment against Demetri Staniskoff and others for rioting.

The true bill returned by the Territorial Grand Jury is returnable in Judge Cooper's court, and charges Demetri Staniskoff and his companions with inciting a riot Friday evening in front of the police station, at the time it was necessary to turn on the fire hose and call out the reserves to quell the disturbance.

All day yesterday the Territorial jury was investigating the affairs of the Russian camp and the conditions under which the undesirable immigrants are living, and it is likely that other indictments of another nature will be found shortly, as the whole matter is still being investigated.

Some of the women of the camp have been up before the jury and questioned as to the moral condition of the camp, but as yet none have been found who will verify the common reports around town of the conditions there in which the men are reported to be living off the shame of their women.

The men charged with inciting a riot will be up for hearing before Judge Cooper tomorrow.

FAILED TO PAY AGREED UPON

Marston Campbell, Superintendent of Public Works, has filed a suit against Hu Fat, lessee of a certain tract of Kapaia land for which he has failed to pay the rent due.

On April 6, 1908, Fat leased the lands in question from the Department of Public Works for a term of five years from June 1 of that year. He agreed to pay a yearly rental of $2092 semi-annually in advance.

One thousand and forty-six dollars was due on the lease December 1, 1908, but up to the present time he has failed to settle, according to the complaint, although asked to do so several times.

The court has ordered Hu Fat to appear at the January term, which convenes on January 9, 1911, to answer to the complaint filed by Campbell.

The man who chooses pleasure as the object of his life has no real heaven, but is like a boat that beats up and down and drifts and drifts to and fro, merely to feel the motion of the waves and the impulse of the wind. Men with means in Honolulu appear to be having a fit for fear the price of sugar will go up, and the worst they have predicted regarding the high price of stocks realized.

Grand Master Pierce will find the Masonic order in Honolulu as husky, healthy, peaceful and kind-hearted as his hosts have found him to be. That is enough to satisfy anyone.

Mr. Woolley says he hopes he will not be misquoted. This is interesting, coming from an agent whose only hope for success is his ability to misrepresent true conditions and pull the wool over the eyes of the people.

Senator Fairchild voices the sentiment of not only the people of Kauai when he says that the present law for dealing with the liquor traffic is quite sufficient to satisfy all the demands for Prohibition, if the people really want it.

E. P. Weston has proved that a mere matter of years has nothing to do with a man's ability to walk across the continent. It is all a matter of what he makes up his mind to do. That's the case with most everything in this life.

Mr. Woolley admits that he made a mistake in Washington. He has changed front so many times on the liquor question in this Territory that his whole record is a continuous line of mistakes, judged by the standards of his own statements.

When the Southern Pacific decides to sell its oil lands for the benefit of its stockholders, you may assume that the Southern Pacific concludes that oil has seen its best days.

So the Prohibition agent says that the plebiscite will be a good test of Hawaii's ability for self-government. The Prohibition agent is the only representative who has thus far insulted the citizens of Hawaii by openly charging them with being incapable of self-government.

When Japanese spies go around sketching British defenses, they land in jail. Our authorities give them a little friendly talk and turn them loose. Our policy represents one of two things; either we have great confidence in the Japanese or we are not afraid of any nation on earth, and don't care who tries to get a sketch of our forts.

PROHIBITION GAME

Prohibition's organ says that it is not afraid to have the Bulletin publish the remarks of Agent Woolley before the Senate committee. We are pleased to hear this.

The only thing that now remains in doubt is why the Prohibition organ has been trying to make a row about it.

An answer to this question is probably found in the well-known plan of Prohibition forces to stir up some sort of a side issue so that they may call names and thereby hope to distract attention from the overwhelming demerits of their cause.

CONGRESS AND SUGAR LANDS

Reference has been made in these columns to the determination of Congress that the lands of the new possessions shall not be "gobbled up" by corporations, whatever becomes of the lands of the mainland. This is suggested by the following from the bill before Congress to amend the Organic Act of Porto Rico:

"Section 68. That no corporation shall be authorized to conduct the business of buying and selling real estate, or be permitted to hold or own real estate, except such as may be reasonably necessary to enable it to carry out the purpose for which it was created, and every corporation engaged in agriculture shall be restricted to the ownership and control of not to exceed three thousand acres of land; and this provision shall be held to prevent any corporation engaged in agriculture from being in any wise interested in any other corporation engaged in agriculture. Any transaction, device, or contrivance the legal effect of which would be to vest in any corporation the ownership in or control of more than three thousand acres of land shall not be effective as to the excess over the amount vesting such ownership or control of said three thousand acres, and the excess acreage in question shall by virtue of such attempted purchase, contract, device, or contrivance escheat to the people of Porto Rico, which escheat shall be determined by a legal proceeding in the name of the people of Porto Rico, conducted in the United States District Court of Porto Rico by the attorney-general, and any stock issued by a corporation for the purpose of obtaining, directly or indirectly, control of land in excess of three thousand acres, as aforesaid, shall also escheat to the people of Porto Rico, upon proceedings in the court and by the authority as above provided. Any corporations holding lands in excess of the three thousand acres limit at the time this law goes into effect shall be required to dispose of the excess over and above three thousand acres within a period of five years and until they do so dispose of said excess the same shall be subject to a graduated increase in taxation, said excess being taxable, at the end of one year, at the rate of fifty per centum more than ordinary taxes as provided by law for similar property, and at the end of two years at twice said rate, and thereafter said rate of taxation on said excess shall annually increase at the rate of fifty per centum until the same is disposed of. Corporations, however, may loan funds upon real estate security, and purchase real estate when necessary for the collection of said loans, but shall dispose of the real estate so obtained where the same would constitute an excess over three thousand acres, within five years after such purchase, and under like taxation penalties as aforesaid. Corporations not organized or residing in Porto Rico and doing business therein shall be bound by the provisions of this section."

It appears from the committee report that this new rule for the disposition of the lands of Porto Rico is framed with special reference to the sugar industry of the islands. After discussing the various phases of the question as presented by various interests, the committee in its report says: "Having considered all the reasons advanced on either side, your committee thinks it desirable, in the interests of the small planters, to keep the limit of acreage very much below what is desired by the larger corporations, while increasing it somewhat above the limit fixed in the present law."

The present Porto Rico law, generally known as the Foraker Act, limits the amount of agricultural land that may be held by a corporation to five hundred acres, but, providing no penalty for violation of the law, it is a dead letter. Whether this law for Porto Rico may be regarded as an Administration measure, this paper is not informed, but the particular reference in the committee report to the small planter is a very strong indication that the bill carries out President Taft's frequently-expressed objection to passing over all agricultural lands in the tropics and semi-tropics to corporate control.

After reading the Porto Rico bill, it is obvious that the Committee on Territories took a very conservative course when dealing with the land provisions of the bill to amend the Organic Act of Hawaii.

At the Congressional hearing at Washington even Woolley admitted that the island of Kauai was "controlled by rich, good men, who are the political leaders there." It remains to be seen whether the mainland will exclude Senator Fairchild from the honorable category because he believes that the administration of the liquor law on the island of Kauai is efficient and refects the sentiment of the voters. Woolley Admits Mistake. John G. Woolley, who will be the leader of the prohibition campaign, made a number of calls upon his supporters in the city this morning. He has already given voice to some of his ideas on the approaching plebiscite and his statement is characteristic of the extremist advocates of prohibition. "It is a fine test of the capacity of the people for self government," he says, "and I think from what I know of the crystallization of the sentiment of the people that they will pass upon it emphatically and squarely and that the Legislature will deal fairly with it."

The inference to be drawn from this statement of Woolley's is that the people of Hawaii are to have their supreme and first test of the qualification of self-government on July 26th—and that a man who does not vote for prohibition is not competent to cast a ballot.

Incidentally Woolley acknowledges that he made a mistake when he silently stole off to Washington and attempted to force the Curtis bill through Congress without giving the people of the Territory a chance to express their sentiment.

"The Prince won out in his fight contention," says Woolley, "but I made the best fight I could, and I am glad now that he won out, for from what I have thought of it I think he is right about it, to submit this matter to the people themselves."

Woolley To Speak. Woolley will speak to the members of the Hawaiian Prohibition League next Thursday night. President J. K. Nakao and his lieutenants, who have been feeling the pulse of the native Hawaiians on prohibition, are getting everything in readiness for Woolley's first address.

Among the names mentioned as interpreters for Woolley is that of Fred K. Beckley, the Hawaiian interpreter of the Judiciary Department. Whether he would consent to do so remains to be seen. Beckley's ability and competency as a Hawaiian interpreter and translator is well known throughout the Islands. He is highly educated and knows the English and Hawaiian phrases well.

The place where the meeting is to take place will be announced in the future, and in the meantime the agents who are working in the interests of the prohibitionists will be instructed, he is reported, to submit their reports to the so-called central committee.

PRACTICAL PROHIBITION

(From New York Evening Journal.)

Eleven Killed By Prohibition

Here's One Plain Proof of the Effect of Driving Out Mild Stimulants and Dragging in Strong Poisons.

relatively harmless stimulants, ELEVEN PEOPLE HAVE JUST BEEN MURDERED BY A PROHIBITION BRAND OF WHISKEY.

You can not get light beer or light wine in Westerly, Rhode Island—that's against the law. And those that want to evade the law of course don't deal in beers or wines, which are bulky and difficult to hide. They deal in the vilest kinds of whiskeys and other highly alcoholic spirits easily concealed.

The druggists also in that blissful prohibition territory do a thriving "medicinal whiskey" business. And the other day one of these prohibition druggists helped out the undertakers of the neighborhood by killing eleven citizens with one mixture.

This druggist of Westerly, while "mixing a medicinal whiskey" and mixing it good and strong to please the prohibition trade, used wood for Infants and Children.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotic if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

MYSTERY PLAY IS ONE OF INTENSE INTEREST

"The House of a Thousand Candles" tickled the gallery gods. They stamped and howled their approval at the Opera House last night when the dramatization of the well-known novel by the McRae company was presented for the first time. Even the more dignified and plutocratic and there were about enough of them to fill two-thirds of the lower portion of the house, accorded the performers a generous measure of praise and acclaim. At the conclusion of each of the four acts, many a dainty glove was in sore danger of disruption through violent applause.

"The House of a Thousand Candles" was the medium in which at least a dozen of the McRae favorites displayed their ability in assuming extremely difficult roles. Had the management taken as much pains in the arrangement of the stage setting for "The House of a Thousand Candles" as was done in the presentation of "The Wolf," for instance, the effort would have been materially appreciated by the playgoer who seeks the nearest approach to realism on the stage.

A Frankfort-on-Main drop displayed as the background to an Urbana County, Ind., stage setting had a tendency to cause one who had been absent from the States for some years to wonder if he had not missed too many boats.

In the outdoor scene depicting the lodge and grounds surrounding "The House of a Thousand Candles," supposedly set down in the wilds of Indiana, the substitution of a few shingle roofs, dilapidated red barns, disheveled hen coops and slab-sided neighboring residences, so dear to the average American landscape, would have proved a welcome sight. Medieval architecture displaying a wealth of sixteenth century gabled roofs and towers is conceded as rather out of place in that part of the great American republic where hop poles and pumpkins are staple products of an honest and hard-working husbandry.

The interior of the home of the eccentric John Marshall Glenarm was shown as well as the existing scenic properties of the company would permit.

In the presentation of the piece, George Webb, as John Glenarm; Griffith Wray, as Larry Donovan; and Louis Morrison, as Bates, a butler, about equally divided the honors. Charles Royal displayed his versatility in assuming the role of John Marshall Glenarm. In taking the "old man" part Royal surprised his friends.

Morrison, as Bates, a butler, was practically the "whole show." He had much to do with bringing about the storm of applause coming from the gallery.

Miss Oswald, as Marion Deverex, carried her part to the satisfaction of the majority of those present.

The role of Gladys Olivia Armstrong, "a sweet young thing" of the usual age, was somewhat overacted by Miss Edith Elliott.

The show, taken as a whole, was well acted out and worthy of a good house tonight and tomorrow night.

CRICKET.

OPENING MATCH ON SATURDAY NEXT

HONOLULU CLUB AND
BISHOP & CO. TO PLAY

Prospects Bright for Coming Season—
Oldtimers Will Play Game—
Makiki Grounds in Good Shape.

Next Saturday is the day set for the opening of the cricket season in Honolulu, and everything points to a successful day. All the cricketers are looking forward to the moment when the umpire will call "Play," and there should be a big turnout of both players and spectators. The opening games in the past have always been good, and although the batsmen are generally a little out of form so early in the season, a line on the form they may attain later on is nearly always obtainable.

Most of the regular standbys of the Honolulu club will be on deck, and such stirring players as Bob Anderson, McGill, Morse, McLain, Withington and several others will have a try with either the bat or ball. Buchly is away at present, and may not be back till later in the season. He is a good bat once he gets his eye in, and generally manages to get a few runs.

The G. O. M. of local cricket—R. A. Jordan—will again take up the game, and he is looking younger every day. There is no doubt that he will pile up many runs during the season, and if put on to bowl will take a lot of wickets at low cost.

Anderson is always in fairly good form, and he only needs a little practice to put him in the century-getting class. It is often remarked that it was a pity for cricket's sake that Anderson did not remain in the British Isles. He had the makings of an international cricketer in him, and would have gone far in the game if he had had the opportunity. However, what was England's loss was Hawaii's gain, and Robert is settled in Honolulu and giving the locals a treat every time he goes to bat. And the champion is a good man with the ball, too, and at times rolls the wickets down in great style.

Bishop & Co. will go up against the H. C. C. on Saturday afternoon, and a fine match should result, as both clubs will have the best men they can possibly get. The bankers are a strong bunch of cricketers, and some of them were at one time stars of the Territory at the English game.

The Makiki ground is in good shape, and the pitch has been fixed up in readiness for the opening game of the season. The trees that were planted around the park have grown wonderfully, and the whole place looks good at present.

The ladies will be present in force and afternoon tea will be dispensed during the interval for refreshments. Cricket will boom this coming season, from all indications.

SECOND HALF OF HANDBALL SERIES

The second half of the handball match between the Camp Very and the Y. M. C. A. teams, was started Monday afternoon on the Y. M. C. A. court. The first half was played on the Camp Very court and the Camp Very team was 21 points ahead at the end of the first struggle.

Yesterday Blanchard of the Y. M. C. A. team started the ball rolling by defeating Sterling of the Camp Very team 45 to 13. Marcellino went one better by defeating L. R. Williams 45 to 12. Both Sterling and Williams defeated their men on the Camp Very court, but Blanchard and Marcellino more than made up for the points they lost in the first round. The matches this afternoon will be between Webster of the Y. M. C. A. and Picariello of Camp Very, and Johnston of the Y. M. C. A. and Queenan of Camp Very. The first game will begin about 3:30. The public are invited.

BARRY'S BEAUTS.

TEAM MANAGER MAKES SOME REMARKS

ORIGINAL BEAUTS WERE NOT AT LEILEHUA

Hospital Co. Will Play Cavalry Any Time in Honolulu—Fighting
Fifth Most Hospitable.

Sergeant Barry feels that an article entitled "A Joyous Gloat," which was written by a man who signs himself "A Cavalry Rooter," is an uncalled-for bit of spittlework. The sergeant writes as follows with reference to the matter:

"There is no doubt in my mind that we have landed on the so-called 'Count' of Leilehua. It was certainly not one of Uncle Sam's Fifth Cavalry boys who wrote that article in the morning paper. As soon as we arrived at Leilehua the first question that was asked me was, 'Where are Soares, Williams, Bushnell and the rest of the Beauts?' The Cavalry lads were sorry that I could not bring my best team along. I explained the reason why and told them I had brought the best I could under the circumstances.

"We were given a fine dinner and a room to dress in; nothing could have been better than the way the Fifth boys treated us. We then went to the diamond, where a big crowd of fans had congregated, and among them was a civilian who made himself very conspicuous and objectionable. It was doubtless he who wrote the article about the game.

"The Fifth Cavalry boys play good ball, and they are a fine set of fellows. They beat the Hospital Co. good and hard, but not so badly as I expected, considering the team I had. A Leilehua man umpired and some poor decisions were given against both teams.

"I would like to play the Fifth Cavalry with my regular team, and would be willing to wager a new hat that the team that won the championship of the islands last year can beat the Cavalry."

Of course, everybody knows that the team that went to Leilehua on Sunday was not the original Barry's Beauts. The only time the Beauts can be seen in action will be on Saturdays. A number of the men are signed on with the Oahu league clubs, and have to play at the Athletic Park on Sundays.

Barry has to find a team for the First Regiment on Saturdays, and then two lines for Saturday and Sunday games of the Hospital Co. He is handicapped in having to take some of the most inexperienced men in the regiment out for the Sunday games, and therefore has not a chance of winning. The article complained of follows:

Schofield Barracks, Honolulu, H. T.
May 1, 1910.
Gentlemen: It is almost a shame to record it, but it is a fact, and as Commodore Perry once said on the occasion of his victory over the British on Lake Erie, "We have met the enemy and they are ours," the only variation from historical fact in this case being that the enemy was Sergeant Barry's much-vaulted "Beauts No. 1." The manner in which the aforesaid Beauts were trimmed by the crack baseball team of the Fifth Horse was and is a caution. The Beauts came to Leilehua with the avowed intention of taking the scalp of the Cavalry in no uncertain fashion, but after a very one-sided conflict they managed to gather together the remnants of the Beauts and take the 3:45 p. m. train, a wiser and much sadder aggregation than when they arrived here bent on wiping up the earth with the Fifth.

Your correspondent was unable to keep tally on anything but the runs and outs of the game, for the outs were so numerous in the Hospital Corps team and the runs so numerous in the Cavalry team that it would have required a counting machine to have endeavored to tally anything else.

The score by innings was:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Fifth Cavalry 0 1 4 3 0 1 2 4 0
Score, 15 to 4, in favor of the Cavalry.

Bill pitched a magnificent game for the Cavalry, striking out ten men of which we had record, and how many more it is impossible at present to state. Of the Hospital Corps score, two of their runs were obtained on errors with two men out, and they may consider themselves lucky that the score was no worse. After the Cavalry had obtained five runs, the Beauts changed their pitcher, but no use, for the Fifth Horse landed on the second pitcher the same, the climax coming in the eighth inning, when with three men on bases Shepherd of the Cavalry landed on the leather for a home run, and the game was all over but the shouting. It is sincerely hoped that if the Hospital Corps detachment of ball-players need any more "First Aid Treatment" that they will come to Leilehua, where the same will be administered. Yours truly,
A CAVALRY ROOTER.

INTER-SCHOOLASTIC BALL GAMES IN FULL SWING

St. Louis College Nine Defeats Kamehameha-Saints Are Strong Bunch.

On the Alexander Field yesterday afternoon the second game in the inter-schoolastic series was played, and the St. Louis nine had no difficulty in defeating the Kamehameha by a score of 11 to 3.

The Saints' lineup looks like a strong team, and some very familiar names are to be seen on the list. Franco, Dreier, Markham and Ahana are good enough for anything and the Kams were up against a fine lot of ball tossers.

The game was much enjoyed by all present, and a rooting was a thing of joy while the play was on. The Alexander Field is a good one for baseball, and the spectators can see everything in comfort.

Tomorrow the Punahou and High school will play, and a fine exhibition of the national game is expected to eventuate. The schoolboys are playing great ball and some of the lads show promise of graduating to the league before very long. The lineups for yesterday's games were as follows:

Saints—Ahana, lf.; Chinito, ss.; Yamashiro, p.; Franco, 2b.; Dreier, 1b.; avier, c.; Markham, 3b.; Thevenin, rf.; Hoopal, cf.

Kams—Bal lf.; Noa, ss.; Kalai and Milikas, p.; Apau, 2b.; Lucas, 1b.; Milikas and Kauli, c.; Achieu and Kalai, 3b.; Kamalopoli, rf.; McGowan, cf.

NEWS NOTES FROM KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS

The seniors will have their class-day exercises on Saturday afternoon next in the form of laying a cornerstone on the new athletic field. There will be no sports on that afternoon, because the ground is not yet settled down. The dedication of the field at this time does not seem to suit the boys, because the field is not in first-class shape yet.

"The cadets beat the National Guard by a mile," was one of the good remarks made by Major Dunning, the inspecting officer, last week after inspecting the cadet battalion.

The class of 1907 will hold its class reunion on Saturday evening, May 14, at the boys' dining hall.

The junior class gave a farewell dance to its graduates at the girls' school last Saturday evening. There were quite a number of the faculty present.

The Kamehameha Cadet Battalion will pass in review before Governor Peary some time next week.

The baseball team is improving a great deal lately, and with two pitchers to use, the team will be hard to beat.

SPORTS
JACK McFADDEN GOES TO HILO FOR FIGHT

De Mello and Jonathan to Box—Al Wilson Managing Show—Another Match on June 4.

Jack McFadden left for Hilo this morning, and he is going to the Rainy City in order to fight De Mello, the Crescent City champion. Jonathan knows that he is up against a good man, and he has left no stone unturned in his efforts to get into the best condition.

Al Wilson is managing the show in Hilo, and he has arranged some interesting preliminaries to the main event. Some of the best pugilists of the big island will don the gloves, and several Honolulu people will also be at the ringside on the night of the contests. As soon as McFadden returns from Hilo, which will be about May 21, he will get things going for a second show, which he will pull off on June 4. He promises that he will stage three good bouts and that the excitement will be just as great as at last Saturday's show.

Dick Cullen will probably be in town by that time, and it is possible that he may have a go at some aspiring lightweight. The show pulled off by McFadden last week was a good one, and as long as he can put on the same kind of contests he is sure of big houses.

BOXING BOOM NOW ON STRONG; MUCH FIGHT

Challenges Flowing In All the Time—Interesting Bouts Promised for Near Future.

More challenges in the boxing line are pouring in and the latest is from J. F. Pearl, who writes that he will take on any 125-pound man in Honolulu for six rounds. Box 214, Honolulu, is Pearl's address, and the challenge is printed for what it is worth. Jack McFadden is alluded to as the man with whom Pearl would like to do business.

Then another challenge that is attracting attention is one from Sarconi to Friedman of Lihoua. The "Bugs" wants to have a go at the Fifth Cavalry man, and will be willing to fight him a fifteen-round go.

Sarconi accepted the challenge of "Young Gans" at the ringside last Saturday night, and now if matched with Friedman, will have two scraps on his hands. The Camp Very lad is always looking for stoush and seems to enjoy boxing as much as he does roller skating.

Another challenge to a boxing bout is slanted by Tim Harrigan, who says that it would give him great joy, baggorah, to have a tussle with Simmons of the Thetis. The latter hurt his hand in his fight with Sarconi on Saturday night, and may not be able to box for some time. Mr. Harrigan may, however, be accommodated later on with a match with some one else.

BAND CONCERT.

The Hawaiian band will play the following selections at Thomas Square this evening at 7:30 o'clock: March—The Thunderer. Sousa Overture—Café of Bagdad. Boieldieu Serenade—Love in Idleness. Macbeth Selection—Adrienne Lecouvreur. Cilea Vocal—Four Local Songs. Ar. by Berger Selection—Yedda. Metra Breezes—From the South. Myddleton The Merry-makers. Myddleton The Star Spangled Banner.

You will never succeed if you spend half your time telling what you are going to do and the other half in explaining why you didn't do it.

TRADE RELATIONS HIS OBJECT

M. Zamoto Will Endeavor to Stimulate Commercial Traffic Between Japan and United States.

M. Zamoto, who has been in charge of the Oriental Information Agency, recently opened in New York, was a through passenger to Japan by the Manchuria. He will remain in Japan for a few weeks and again return to the States.

While the vessel was in port Zamoto was entertained by the Mochizuki Club at Waikiki.
"One of the things which I shall endeavor to do while in Japan," Zamoto states, "will be to impress on Japanese editors the necessity of disregarding any rumors of an unfriendly feeling for Japan in the United States. No such feeling exists among intelligent persons here."

The agent seems to think that the business men of America are not taking the interest they should in commercial affairs with the Far East. The principal object of his trip at this time is to give a boost to trade relations between the two countries.

"THE SPOILERS"

"There's never a law of God or man runs north of 43."

"The Spoilers" is a great play, great from the fact that it is real, it is a tale that is told by a man, perhaps once in a life time. A tale of impulsive emotion of brute strength and courage, of swift and passionate love and hate—vigorous, forceful, mighty.
It is the story of the hunger for gold dug out of the hills, and the blinding hunger of men for women's love.
A story of today that is true of all men and real women since time began. It appeals to all classes, its dialogue is so human that it reaches right over the footlights and grasps your attention so firmly that we forget for a time that we are in a theatre, and imagine that we are away up north of 43, actually taking part in one of the most gigantic struggles for the right in the history of man. And when we leave the theatre, the scenes we have been through, the pleasure we have derived from these scenes remain in our memory for months to come.

The dramatic situations in the "Spoilers" are intense, its pathos brings tears to our eyes, that come right from the heart, and yet it contains more laughs than anything that has ever been written or produced on the English-speaking stage. And yet from first to last there is not a suggestion of coarseness or buffoonery, or forced effort. Throughout the play there prevails naturalness and an atmosphere of realism, of things that actually happened, and are depicted to us just as they happened, without the rough edges being trimmed. The most admirable characteristic of the play is that every character is taken from life, written around people who lived in Alaska and who took part in this wonderful event.

ably strikes the women as a baneful

Why Congress Opposed Prohibition For Hawaii

A full transcript is obtainable of the proceedings before the Senate Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, when John G. Woolley attempted to show that the people of Hawaii are incapable of self government. The official transcript of the proceedings is as follows:

(Woolley's Statement Continued.)

The military and naval interests of the United States require immediate action against the liquor traffic in the Territory.

Congress has full power in the premises.

The better element of the people of the Territory desire congressional intervention, and the better element of the whole nation will heartily approve such action.

It is quite true that the passage of the Curtis bill will not entirely relieve the situation. But it will give the natives, the soldiers, and sailors a better chance and help the Territory forward more hopefully toward good government, home rule, and statehood.

I have just received the following cablegram from Honolulu:

"Hackfeld Company withdraw from liquor association because association continually violates law. Keep up the fight. We back you up enthusiastically."
ANTISALOON.

The Hackfeld Company is the greatest mercantile concern in Hawaii. It is a German company, and it sells alcoholic liquors in large quantities at wholesale. I could not claim it as an ally, or a friend of drastic liquor legislation. But the action it has taken at this time is strong corroboration of the evil days this have come to the Territory while Mr. Kalaniana'ole has been waiting for home rule to save his people.

Just one word more. I produce a telegram from the ministerial union dated the 7th:

THE CAUSE OF NEURALGIA

Must Be Understood Before the Disease Can Be Cured So That it Will Stay Cured.

The reason that neuralgia so often recurs after the ordinary treatment is not because it is incurable but because these treatments fail to remove the cause.

Neuralgia has been correctly called the cry of the starved nerves for better blood.
Its most common cause is debility. In every case of neuralgia it will be found that the general health is run down and that consequently the nerves are not receiving sufficient nourishment. Cold, dampness and decayed teeth are sometimes indirect causes but only to the extent that the body is unable to resist, owing to its debilitated condition.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills afford the most effective treatment of neuralgia.
They build up the general health and fully nourish the underfed nerves in the only possible way by building up and purifying the blood.

Mrs. Thomas Stott, of No. 211 Jackson street, Redwood City, Cal., who was cured of neuralgia, says:

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills helped me right away and in a short time completely cured me of neuralgia. I had been suffering for nearly a year from neuralgia in my head. The pains were sharp and cutting and were through my temples and the back of my head. They were worse whenever I was out in the wind or night air. I suffered a great deal and many times I could hardly keep up. I was also troubled occasionally with cramps in the stomach."

"I was led to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through reading about them in a newspaper. I found them a great relief and was entirely cured. I now keep them in the house and always recommend them to my friends."

Neuralgia is an insidious warning that the nervous system is feeble because there is a lack of pure red blood and therefore a lack of nourishment to the nerves. This dependence of the nerves upon the blood for their nourishment and health is fully described in our booklet, "Disease of the Nervous System," which will be sent free upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have also cured sciatica, St. Vitus' dance, partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

MRS. MOORE NOW CHAPERONE LEADER

Many Single Ballots Were Cast For First Daily
Count

The first daily count in the Yosemite California Contest contained surprises only in the chaperone contestant. Mrs. W. C. Moore, the candidate whose name was entered in the contest several weeks after the contest began, with a block of seventy thousand votes, yesterday deposited another big block of almost fifty thousand votes and moved to first place.

This is the first time for several weeks that a Honolulu candidate for chaperone has been in the lead, as the outside island readers have been casting the most votes for the other two leaders—Mrs. Beggs and Mrs. Stimson.

Mrs. Zeave, a former Honolulu candidate, had to withdraw from the contest on account of being called to the Coast. She will not return until September.

There were no changes among the trip contestants so far as yesterday's scoring is concerned. A rather large number of paper ballots were cast, some of the contestants having as many as seven or eight hundred of the single votes.

Get Friends to Help.

If you have any friends who desire to assist you, send them up to the contest manager, and he will give them a receipt book and show them how to go about getting the votes. Call on the contest manager at any time, and he will aid you in any way possible.

New Subscriptions and Old.

A number of inquiries are made daily as to the votes allowed on new and old subscriptions. Votes are allowed on both, but only when the renewals pay in advance. New subscribers means increase in circulation. Therefore no one will be allowed to change the name of the old subscriber from one member of the family to another, in order to receive more votes.

New subscriptions mean people who were not on our books at the time the contest was announced.

The Wilhelmina, the pride of the Matson Fleet, the new steamship recently built and placed on the Honolulu-Hilo run, is the ship that will take the Bulletin Contest Party to California. The party will leave here on July 20th, the bookings having already been attended to which assures the members of the party of good staterooms, and the name of the ship itself is assurance of an enjoyable voyage.

Week Following Yosemite.

According to the plans now made the Bulletin Party will stop in San Francisco the first week after arrival there. During this week side trips will be made to the state university, Mt. Tamalpais, and the mint. In addition a thorough tour of the city will be made which will take the rest of the week. At the end of that week the party will start for Yosemite Park where five entire days will be spent in viewing scenic wonders. Returning from there excursions will be made to other parts of the State and another week will be spent in San Francisco.

Return Voyage.

The Bulletin Party will leave California by the Wilhelmina which sails from there on August 31st. This homeward trip promises to be a merry one. It was with difficulty that passage could be reserved for this boat as it is at the time when all the school teachers are returning to the islands in order to take up their fall terms of school, but the tour manager was insistent and the bookings were made for this steamer. YEE CHAN & CO., Cor. King and Bethel the Bulletin Party and the Bulletin management wanted to be able to assure all candidates who are teachers that they could get back in time to take up their schools at the beginning of their terms.

Club Premium Vote Offer.

The premium offer appearing today's paper is the only premium offer for subscription clubs that will be made during the contest and this and the regular vote schedule will not be deviated from in any manner. There will be no triple offers; no big vote days; nor any other reward in the way of votes for any subscription work, other than that now being offered.

The premium offer is a liberal one and no limit is placed on the number of clubs any candidate may secure in one week and every candidate is given credit for the subscriptions that are sent in by friends unknown to her during each successive week.

Contest Closes May 28, 8 p. m.

Monday, May the twenty-eighth, is the time set for the close of the contest and all votes and subscriptions MUST be in the Bulletin office on that date. The closing hour will be at 8 o'clock p. m. on May 28th, and those depending on the mails to bring their subscriptions to the Bulletin office MUST have all votes and subscriptions in the ballot box before 8 o'clock p. m. on that date. The judges for the final count of the ballots will be chosen from prominent business men of Honolulu; their names will be announced in due season. Each contestant will have the right to select a friend or relative to represent her and look after her interests during the final count of the ballots.

Special Notice.

Subscribers sending in subscriptions to the Bulletin must always mention the names of the contestants they wish to vote for, as all ballots are filled out in full before leaving office. You can hold back the ballots as long as you wish.

Every subscription payment made on or since March 7 entitles the payer to votes. Present receipts and votes will be issued. You vote for two candidates—a trip and a chaperone contestant. An equal number of votes, as given in the standing vote schedule, are issued for each contestant.

Nominations Not Closed.

The nominations are not closed, and will not be until the end of the contest. You could, if you wish, nominate a candidate on the last day of the contest.

"For Rent" cards on sale at the Bulletin office.
