AMBULANCE HITS STREET CAR; MOTORMAN JAILED

While responding to a hurry call early this afternoon, the emergency hospital ambulance crashed into a Hotel street trolley car at Nuuanu and Hotel streets, and smashed the street car fender. No one was injured, and the ambulance was undamaged. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of E. Klemme, motorman of Rapid Transit car No. 44, for heedless driving. It is alleged that the motorman failed to stop his car to give the ambulance the right of way. He claims he did not hear the siren on the ambulance. This is the second motorman to be arrested within two weeks on the charge of heedlessly running his car.

KAPAA DRAWINGS TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Drawing for the homestead lots in Kapaa district, Kauai, will be held on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the Kapaa courthouse. This drawing was delayed for several months through the mandamus suit filed by Mrs. Julia Loane, whose name and that of her husband were rejected because they had both applied for lots. The court sustained the land office in rejecting the names.

NUUANU RESIDENTS DEMANDING RELIEF AND DECENT WATER

Declare Condition of Reservoir Liquid is Intolerable; Many Get Water Downtown
It was announced this afternoon that a meeting of Nuuanu residents has been called for 8 next Monday evening at the Country Club to discuss the water situation, and that Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, president of the board of health, and Fred G. Kirchhoff, city water superintendent, will be asked to attend and speak from their knowledge of the facts.

Nuuanu residents are stirred to indignation action by the condition of Nuuanu reservoir water, and this morning there was the beginning of a meeting.

Meeting downtown and talking over the situation, a half dozen businessmen declared that relief must be furnished the section within a few days, and that schemes which will take a year or two to work out will not meet the emergency.

Among those who this morning began canvassing the situation are George H. Angus, Attorney W. W. Thayer, Professor John M. Young, Walter L. Emory and Albert F. Judd. That 50 per cent of Nuuanu residents are now coming downtown every day and getting pure water in containers; that everybody has to boil the Nuuanu liquid, and that such of the liquid as flows through the pipes is dirty and ill-smelling—too disagreeable even to bathe in—are some of the conditions which have aroused the district to righteous anger.

"The presence of typhoid is the last straw," say the Nuuanu folk. "It is obvious that if the board of health were forced to forbid this entire district from using the surface water from the reservoirs, provision would be made for us to get artesian water."

"What we want is to get this water without delay, without waiting for the final emergency. An emergency exists now. We know there are many millions of gallons of artesian water running to waste in the city now—water which is available for the city. The Hawaiian Electric company, Oahu Ice company, Rapid Transit company and Young hotel all have artesian water and after it is used in the plants it runs to waste. This water is perfectly good."

"We of Nuuanu are paying for good water and we are entitled to get good water. Talk of a filtration scheme is all right, but the talk is getting us nowhere so far as the present emergency is concerned."

"Nuuanu water is not safe from typhoid and we feel that immediate relief should be forthcoming. It is time that Honolulu should recognize that an emergency exists and should take steps adequate to cope with an emergency."

FOOD PLEDGE WEEK HERE IS POSTPONED

"Food Pledge Week" did not begin in Honolulu today, as was expected. J. F. Child, federal food commissioner, announcing that the food commission is not yet ready to start the local campaign. Considerable printing will have to be done and other matters attended to before the work of signing up the housewives begins.

Thirty food pledge cards have been received by the food commission from pupils in the Honokohau, Hawaii, school. The cards show that every child has a garden.

Waive Censor REGULATION FOR NIPPON PRESS

MacAdam Authorized to Grant Permits to Organs of Known Loyalty

Permits required under the Trading with the Enemy Act for the publication of foreign language newspapers were verbally given this morning by Postmaster D. H. MacAdam to the publishers of the four Japanese newspapers in this city. The written permits will be issued as soon as Postmaster MacAdam can learn just how a permit of this nature shall be worded. The verbal permission was granted at a meeting this morning between the four Japanese newspaper publishers and Postmaster MacAdam, when a telegram from the postmaster general at Washington was read, informing Mr. MacAdam that it was in his power to grant the permits.

The act requires that all foreign language newspapers must file with the postmaster of the city in which they are published a translation of any article printed "respecting the government of the United States or any nation engaged in the present war, its policies, international relations, the state or conduct of the war or any matter relating thereto." However, permits may be issued which will not necessitate these filings, to any publication which is deemed of such a solid and respectable character that it would not contain material detrimental to the United States or its allies in the conduct of this war. The question regarding in whose hands this power was settled this morning.

Postmaster MacAdam this morning received a cable from the solicitor for postoffices which said that pending permits to be issued by the president of the United States on applications from publishers and owners of publications printed in a foreign tongue all such publications in Hawaii would be excepted from the requirements of section 19 of the trading with the enemy act.

"This means," said Mr. MacAdam, "that it will not be necessary for the Japanese, Chinese, Korean, or any other foreign language publication in Honolulu, to file translations of their political articles with the postoffice before the issue can be accepted for the mails. This, however, is only a temporary arrangement made to give the publishers' time to file application for permit to continue publication."

TERRITORY IN DEAL FOR 10,000 ACRES PARK LAND

With the acquisition of two portions of land on the island of Hawaii approximating 10,000 acres, negotiations for which are now under way and are expected to be completed in a few days, the territory will have secured possession of the whole of the Mauna Loa park area.

This is the announcement made this afternoon by Land Commissioner Bertram G. Rivenburgh, who also stated that he received a communication in today's mail from Acting Park Director Horace M. Albright of Washington that prospects are bright for a sufficient congressional appropriation to send down engineers and officials from the national park office to look over the situation.

One of the pieces of land to be acquired by the territory under the deal now pending is in Keaunohu and belongs to the Bishop estate. The other is in Kahuku and belongs to Parker ranch. The crater of Mokuawewe is within the confines of the Mauna Loa park area.

Commissioner Rivenburgh will accompany the visiting congressmen to Hawaii next week and will point out the various areas included in the national parks that have been set aside there. Settlement of the Kilauea lands has not yet been made.

Sammies Halt Balloting to Watch Battle

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)

WITH AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Nov. 5.—Members of the New York contingent of the American expedition to France today cast their ballots in the Gotham mayoralty election as shells fell thick and fast around them.

At one time the election voting was halted while the soldiers watched an aerial battle between British and German airplanes. Later the casting of ballots was resumed.

Pole With a Name Locked In Cabin On Board Steamer

Captain Refuses to Take Any Chances With Foreigner Ordered Deported From U. S.

GAINING admission to free America is almost an impossible thing in war times must be the thought of B. Balcorikewich, if he is a Pole, as he claims, for he is held a prisoner in his stateroom aboard a Maru steamer in port today, following his deportation from the United States under the Trading with the Enemy Act.

Violent objection was made by Balcorikewich when the ship's commander ordered him locked in his cabin this morning, following the docking of the vessel. He protested that as a cabin passenger he was entitled to consideration and that his word should be sufficient proof that he would not attempt to escape.

But as the Maru commander, Captain A. Tataka, is responsible for his return to the Orient, he would take no chances with the deported passenger and ordered him locked up.

A tentative turn to his accent, the fact that he is educated, and had trouble in properly identifying himself are said to have caused the federal authorities to order his deportation. Balcorikewich declares "he was not permitted to correspond with those in America who would have vouched that he was not an alien enemy on espionage service, as it is said it was suspected."

The ship's officers would give out no information concerning Balcorikewich, but he pleadedly urged a Honolulu mail to a letter for him to his uncle in Chicago, before he was locked up in his cabin. The Honolulu wisely refused to do so. Then Balcorikewich asked that a "government official by the name of Brown" be told of his plight. He declared this government man had investigated him when he was here and knew he was a represented.

Balcorikewich says his Chicago uncle is the well known publisher of a Polish newspaper in that city.

Beef Jumps 7 1-2 Cents In Month Declares Dealer

A communication received by J. F. Child, federal food administrator, from the Hawaii Meat Co., says that the letter from the food commission, asking the company to give its reasons for increasing the wholesale price of beef one cent, has been referred to A. W. Carter, one of the directors, who is now on Hawaii.

A letter from a retail beef dealer was received today to the effect that a month ago he paid 16 cents a pound for beef, 15 cents six months ago and 13 1/2 cents a year ago. He is paying 22 1/2 cents a pound for loin beef and selling it for 30 cents. Chuck steak is costing him 17 1/2 cents and he is charging 22 cents. He pays 18 1/2 cents for round steak and sells it for 22 1/2 cents.

AUSTRIAN PREMIER'S VISIT TO BERLIN MAY BE FORECAST OF NEW TEUTONIC PROPOSALS

FOOD SHORTAGE STARTS ROW BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY—GERMAN DRIVE AGAINST ITALY RESULTS IN FURTHER ADVANCE ACROSS TAGLIAMENTO RIVER

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Nov. 5.—It is believed in well-informed diplomatic circles here that the visit to Berlin of the Austrian premier, Czernin, may be preliminary to another peace offer by the Teutons.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Nov. 5.—Austria's food difficulties have in the past two weeks become notably sharper. The acuteness of the situation, as winter comes on, has been brought about by the flat refusal of Hungary to agree to the Austrian proposals to supply her grain, says the German paper Allgemeine Zeitung.

An extraordinary session of the crown council of the Dual Monarchy has been called to discuss Hungary's obligation to supply the sister state with foodstuffs.

ROME, Italy, Nov. 5.—The Germans on the Italian front have delivered another sharp attack, crossing the Tagliamento river, and intensifying the pressure against the Italian northern wing.

SOUTHERN NEGRO SEGREGATION IS HELD UNLAWFUL

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—That segregation of negroes under the Louisville ordinance plan is unlawful and the Louisville ordinance unconstitutional was the gist of an important decision handed down today by the supreme court of the United States.

The Louisville negro segregation ordinance was appealed to the supreme court from the court of appeals of Kentucky after all the courts in that state had declared it unconstitutional. The ordinance became effective on May 11, 1914, and its purpose was to "prevent conflict and ill feeling between the white and colored races in the city of Louisville and to preserve the public peace and promote the general welfare by making reasonable provisions requiring as far as practicable the use of separate blocks for residence, places of abode and places of assembly by white and colored respectively."

The ordinance does not attempt to confine members of either race to certain sections of the city, but furnishes a means whereby in the future a separation of the two races into white and negro sections will be gradually accomplished. The city block is made the unit and members of each race are prohibited from moving into a block where the majority of residences are occupied by those of the opposite color. The ordinance in no way affects the right of occupancy of houses acquired prior to its passage.

Persons desiring to erect new buildings must obtain from the building department of the city information as to whether the block upon which the building is to be erected is either white or colored, and the application for the building permit must state for what purpose the building is to be used and by what race. The ownership and devolution of property are in no way affected, merely the occupancy in certain cases is restricted as stated.

N. Y. IS ENDING WARM CAMPAIGN

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Tonight will see the close of one of the hottest campaigns that Greater New York has ever witnessed in the course of a municipal election. Friends of all of the three leading candidates are claiming victories, but shrewd political observers insist that the result will probably be very close.

The campaign which closes tonight and in which the ballots will be cast tomorrow has been a triangular affair, with a fourth candidate, a Socialist, at no time considered an important factor. John Purroy Mitchell, the present mayor, has made a battle for reelection which commands the respect of even his opponents and his enemies.

The annual social of the Seamen's Institute will be held in the assembly hall of the institute, corner of Alaska and Halekua streets, next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

RAILROADS MUST GIVE POLITICAL FACTS TO PUBLIC

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—By a noteworthy supreme court decision today, the interstate commerce commission is given wide powers of investigating expenditures of railroads for political purposes. The court held that President Mifflin H. Smith and other officers of the Louisville and Nashville railroad must answer the commission's questions.

The proceedings grew out of the refusal of President Smith, Third Vice-President Addison R. Smith and Attorney George W. Jones to answer certain questions asked during an investigation conducted in 1916 by the commission under a resolution introduced by Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, directing inquiry into the Louisville & Nashville's practices and relations with other railroads; whether it had sought to prevent other railroads from entering its territory, or maintained political or legislative agents, or made political campaign contributions or attempted to create sentiment in favor of railroad plans and against rate reductions.

The investigation opened in Washington in May, 1916, and proceeded without incident until questions were asked regarding the railroad's political expenditures which the three witnesses refused to answer on advice of counsel. The questions were asked by commission.

In refusing to respond to the questions, President Smith contended that the commission had no authority to "investigate political questions or questions as to whether or not common carriers have engaged in political activities, in attempts to create public sentiment in their favor or their plans or attempts to prevent another carrier from entering their territory." He further contended that the commission's power was purely statutory and that neither by statute nor under the Lea resolution did it have such authority. The railroad men charged that the introduction of the Lea resolution was the result of a fight between the railroad and Senator Lea.

J. F. Child, federal food commissioner for Hawaii, has received a radio-gram from the national food administration in Washington, D. C., to the effect that the revenue tax on transportation, personal or otherwise, will not apply to the official business of the administration. Detailed instructions are coming from Washington.

DRAFTED MAN MUST RETURN FOR ARMY DUTY

Everett Charles Edwards of San Francisco, the first drafted man from the mainland to be sent back for duty in the national army by a local exemption board, will leave on an army transport. Upon arrival he will go to American Lake.

Edwards was called to military service through Division 12, San Francisco, on September 11, according to evidence which Honolulu Board No. 1 has gained, but he arrived in Honolulu on September 28. He claimed at that time that he had not received any notice to report to his own board before sailing for Hawaii. He had been employed on one of the Matson boats, he said, and supposed that was the reason he had not received notice of any call.

Chairman H. Gooding Field said today the drafted man came here with a young wife, whom he had married after registration. She is said to have remained in Honolulu two days and returned to the mainland. Edwards secured a clerical job in the city. The matter of his service was turned over to Chairman Field by Maj. F. J. Green, and Mr. Field wirelessly at once to San Francisco. A message came back at once stating that Edwards was not exempted and that he must report immediately.

"Edwards remarked this morning," said Chairman Field, "that he was afraid it's going to be pretty cold at American Lake."

ECONOMY IN LIVES URGED BY HUN CHIEF

FRENCH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 8.—Military leaders in Germany have begun to recognize that the waste in human lives must be checked.

Military orders, signed by Quartermaster General Ludendorff, have recently been taken from German prisoners, emphasizing the need for economizing the nation's "human material."

Ludendorff, while placing the utmost importance upon economy of shells, concedes now that economy of lives is more important, and must hereafter take first place.

Out of 14,000,000 men who figured on the army rolls, the Prussian army machine now only has about 6,500,000 left in the fighting ranks. Germany is beginning to realize the grave significance of this tremendous loss of man power.

General's Order
Ludendorff's order, translated from the copy taken on a German prisoner, declares:

"The consumption of munitions has remained constantly very high recently on the fighting front, in spite of the fact that the combative activity has generally diminished.

"In particular the consumption of shells for mortars and heavy field howitzers is much greater than the production.

"This is serious. However, the superior direction of the army can not issue a new general order for a further restriction in consumption of munitions, because our loss on all fighting fronts continues to be very high and could become even higher if further general restrictions were made. Economy in men is even more important than economy in munitions.

"It is necessary to try to obtain an improvement in these two points. To this end it is necessary to use munitions as carefully as possible, according to orders previously given, and also to regulate the tactics of our fighting methods according to regulations given and the circumstances so as to diminish our losses.

Wasteful Warfare
"According to orders which we have seen, and according to the complaints of the troops, it is no longer in doubt that we persist in our old ways of seeing things and that we continue along those wasteful lines on certain occasions. These tactics are in the first-line positions.

"Too severe fighting for possession of ground, even a trench element, which is of little tactical value, without importance and even disadvantageous to defend.

"Hasty counter attacks without information from the artillery.

"Too dense occupation of the first lines.

"Large reserves kept too close or in the open when no attack is planned.

"Too much artillery fire against positions where there is no enemy, such as destructive cannonading of empty trenches, useless barrage fire and cannonading, especially at night when there is not sufficient information for regulating the fire."

Wire Messages
TAXED 5 CENTS

And now the war tax has hit radio-grams and cablegrams!

It was announced at the office of the naval radio today that, until further notice, a war tax will be imposed on all messages, the tax to be paid by the sender of the message. This tax will be 5 cents on all messages, whether costing one dollar or $10 to send, and affects all classes of messages. For example, a night letter of 12 words to San Francisco, which costs $1 to send, will cost $1.05.

The Commercial Pacific Cable Co. has also announced that a war tax of five cents will be charged on all messages sent over its lines.

There will be no war tax on country calls over the lines of the Mutual

Medal-Bedecked Art Smith, Flier, Is on Way Home

and his many decorations given him in the Orient.

RETURNING to the United States after seven months in the Orient, Art Smith, the aviator, is aboard a Japanese steamship which arrived off port this morning. Young Smith, who became famous by his loop-the-loops at the San Francisco exposition, and acquired the name of the most daring flier in the world, is bound for San Francisco, where he will confer with a number of businessmen regarding the launching and operation of an aero plant. Smith will probably be made president of the company, which is planning to locate its factory at Fort Wayne, Ind.

Smith passed through Honolulu en route for the Orient in April. He had already received requests from prominent clubs in Japan to fly under their auspices, and many amusement concerns had closed engagements with the young American aviator to appear in exhibition flights. After flying for several months throughout the Japanese Empire, Smith went to Formosa and then to Korea, where he thrilled the Japanese by his hair-raising stunts among the clouds. He also gave exhibition flights in Mukden, Dairen and Shanghai. He planned to visit Peking and Tientsin, but the disastrous floods in that section prevented him visiting the big Chinese cities. He flew in 54 cities, however, during his stay in the Orient.

Smith received 54 decorations for his skill while in Japan. The most coveted is the Order of Merit bestowed upon the American flier by the officials of the Imperial Aero Society of Japan. He was also decorated with an order of the Rising Sun.

The factory which is being planned for Fort Wayne will occupy all of Smith's time when he gets back to the coast. In case the plans are not completed, or the men now in charge do not think it practicable to go through with the plans, Smith will join the aviation section. He has been enrolled in the American flying squadron reserve since 1913.

When asked if he had heard of the death of Frank Champion, the American aviator who was killed last week while giving an exhibition flight in Tokyo, Smith was much affected.

"I knew Champion well, and what's more, I flew in that same old monoplane in which he was killed," said the young aviator. "That was the worst machine I ever flew in. Do you remember those nigger chasers? The kids used to have on the Fourth of July? The kind that twist and turn and dart all over the place? Well, that's just what Champion's monoplane was like. It was the most hilarious joy ride I ever had."

With Smith is his Japanese secretary, K. Imatsu.

SCHUMAN COMPANY IS READY TO WIT EMBARGO TEMPORARILY

Foresightedness on the part of the heads of the Schuman Carriage Company in stocking up with new automobiles some time ago will aid the concern in temporarily withstanding the effects of the rumored embargo on automobiles on ships playing between the coast and the islands. Prospective buyers of Hudson Super-Sixes, Chalmers, Overland Country Club cars, Oakland, Oldsmobiles and Franklins will be pleased to learn that the Schuman Carriage Company still has quite a number of new series of each model on hand. Even should an embargo for two months be declared the company will be able to continue doing business until the first of the year with the stock on hand and the new shipment may even reach here before the embargo is officially declared.

Owing to an error it was reported that the company had only one new model car for sale.

It is rumored that an increase in all cars will be made shortly.

Telephone Co., as the minimum charge for such calls is 10 cents and the law provides that a tax shall be imposed only on calls costing more than 15 cents. This affects some of the other islands where as high as 20 cents is charged for country calls.

Newark, N. J., will hereafter be governed by five commissioners.

The commissioners will be elected in a special election in five weeks.

SMOKES, CANDY, AUTOMOBILES ARE LUXURIES

Food Commissioner Child Holds
That Necessary Foodstuffs
Have Right of Way

Spirits, wines and liquors. Cigars, cigarettes and tobacco. Candy.

Automobiles used as pleasure cars. Those are a few of the things that J. F. Child, federal food administrator, considers luxuries, and things which, under the new embargo on luxuries, may be barred from Hawaii during the period of the war.

He points out that the value of candy imported to Hawaii each year is valued at about $230,000, while the value of tobacco imports probably amounts to more than half a million dollars.

"If there is not ship space to bring four and other necessary foodstuffs to the islands," says Mr. Child, "then practically all other commodities will be considered luxuries. But what will be classed luxuries will depend largely on the food commissioner at the other end of the line. It will not be up to me, but up to him. It is also going to depend on the ability of shippers at the other end to convince the food controller that certain items are not luxuries.

"I believe that within a few months the American-Hawaiian steamers will be placed back on the local run and this, of course, will greatly relieve local conditions. The sugar crops will have to be moved, as sugar is badly needed on the mainland. And I firmly believe that, if these boats are put back, they will not come to Hawaii with empty bottoms as has been the custom, I understand, in the past."

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The drill team of Pacific Rehekah Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., meets on Wednesday evening at 7:30 for initiation drill.

The case in police court of Dr. H. Clemmens, Dr. Davidson, C. W. Hetscher, E. J. Davis and G. J. Leonard was postponed until November 10, owing to their attorney, E. C. Peters, being detained in circuit court.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

E. A. MOTT-SMITH—Somebody every once in a while bobs up and tries to throw dust on my city management plan by saying that I want to include the electric lights management. The plan does not include the control of the electric lights, nor the police and fire departments. Those departments all come under overhead expenses, and can not well be handled in any plan of one-head city management.

Felix Frankfurter and Walter Lippman, confidential assistants to Secretary of War Baker, have been designated for special labor negotiations in the West.

Articles of incorporation were filed at Dover, Del., by the Seale Tractor Co., capital $11,000,000, to manufacture farm and sugar mill machinery.

I-I. SEEKS TO LIFT INJUNCTION

Again taking its case to circuit court, the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. has filed a motion to dissolve the temporary injunction and restraining order secured against it by the public utilities commission. It recently took the case to federal court, but a motion to remand the cause, filed by the utilities commission, was granted by Federal Judge Vaughan.

The temporary injunction enjoins the steamship company from refusing to obey an order of the commission commanding it to return to the schedule of passenger and freight rates in effect in 1915.

It is the contention of the company that the new schedule of rates which went into effect October 15 was approved by the federal shipping board, and that the company is without authority to change these rates without authority from the board. It has been obeying the injunction, however, since its issuance, and has returned to the old schedule of rates.

In its motion filed in circuit court the company contends that the utilities commission has no jurisdiction over the subject of the reasonableness of rates, prices and charges maintained by the Inter-Island or the company of the same. It also claims the commission has no jurisdiction over its business.

It is claimed that the commission was without jurisdiction in making the order, as the steamship company is under the complete control of the shipping board.

MORE GUARD OFFICERS FINISH EXAMINATIONS

The following officers of the national guard were announced today from army headquarters as having passed the federal examinations for grades as follows: Capt. Sherwood M. Lowrey and L. M. Judd for captains; 2nd Lieut. Walter S. Eyring and Richard N. Benny as second lieutenants, and Capt. David L. Mackaye as second lieutenant. Promotions by appointment subject to future examination have been made for a number of these officers since they received orders to take examinations for the foregoing grades.

NO GREAT RUSH TO SELL BONDS, SAYS M'CARTHY

Because the plans and specifications for most of the projects contemplated in the legislative appropriations this year have not been prepared as yet, Treasurer C. J. McCarthy is not offering the sale of territorial bonds actively at the present time.

Treasurer McCarthy said today that he does not believe that it would be good business to borrow the money at this time and pay out interest at 4 per cent when the banks in which territorial money is lying are paying 2 per cent to the territory. If any purchasers desire to secure bonds he will not refuse them, but until the improvement projects are ready for work to begin he will not press the campaign. He believes there will be no difficulty in disposing of the bonds at the proper time.

Thus far the sale of territorial bonds amounts to $525,000. The first improvement project to come under the new fund will be the Kona-Kau road on Hawaii to be built for $50,000.

URGE JAPANESE TO SAVE FOOD

"This is your war, Japan's war!" Thus begins a circular letter which is being spread throughout the local Japanese community by the woman's committee of the territorial food commission calling upon the Nipponese to conserve food. This is but a new phase of the food conservation campaign begun shortly after the woman's committee was organized. The letter to the Japanese reads as follows:

"To the Japanese People of Hawaii Territory, Men, Women and Children:

"This is your war, Japan's war. Won't you help to win the war? Food is going to help decide the war. You who cook and all who eat can use food with care and prevent waste. Conserve food and do your part. Food is a military necessity. Your Allies and the men who fight your battles must have wheat, milk, meat, sugar, and America must supply these.

"Don't waste these or any other kind of food. Regard this as your patriotic

CONGRESS PARTY GIVES PUBLICITY TO THE ISLANDS

Committee on Public Information Makes Announcement of Patriotic Trip

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—Wide attention on the mainland is being paid to the forthcoming visit to Hawaii of the important congressional party which will arrive there on November 7.

The committee on public information gives publicity to the trip and its attendant features in the following announcement:

"Members of congress who are assembling at St. Louis today for a journey to Hawaii will participate in a series of patriotic meetings in the West before sailing for the islands. These meetings, it is announced, will be under the official auspices of the several states and cities in which they are held. En route from St. Louis to San Francisco the Hawaiian congressional party will not only urge subscription to the Liberty Loan but speeches will be delivered explaining America's war purposes, and the causes that led to the entrance of the United States into the European conflict.

"Patriotic rallies will be staged at St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake, San Francisco and other cities. Mayor Rolph of San Francisco has telegraphed to the party that 'the largest mass-meeting ever held in San Francisco' is promised the night of October 31. At Salt Lake the Governor of Utah will preside at the patriotic meeting and at Denver, St. Louis and Kansas City the Chamber of Commerce of each city is cooperating with state officials.

"The Congressional party will visit Hawaii to study general conditions there and gain knowledge of its legislative needs. The party will comprise:

"Senators King, of Utah, Myers, of Montana; Poindexter, of Washington; Ashurst, of Arizona; Smith, of Arizona.

HOUR SET ASIDE FOR PEOPLE TO MEET SENATORS

Congressmen Will Be Kept on Jump Every Hour of Stay Here

Out of their round of inspections of United States troops, training camp, National Guard and island industries, not to mention receptions, banquets, luncheons and luau, sandwiched in between, a morning spent in the territorial executive chambers and a rush for the inter-island steamer in the afternoon, a brief period has been set aside when the visiting congressmen will give ear to the cry of the people. This special "people's hour" will immediately follow a luncheon given on the roof of the Alexander hotel next Saturday. At that time, and then only, will the people have an opportunity to see all the congressmen together when some specially arranged program is not being carried out.

"Of course everything that is done for the party while it is here will go to the credit of the people in general, and not to some particularly favored few," said Raymond Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, "but I thought it was only fair that the public should have some little bit of time which everybody could feel belonged to everybody, so the committee on entertainment set aside this special time on the roof of the Young hotel, immediately following the luncheon on Saturday."

The governor's reception in the throne room on Friday evening, and the ball which will follow at the armory, promise to be brilliant affairs. Other entertainments have been arranged so that practically every hour of the time the congressional party is in Hawaii has been filled, if not with some sort of entertainment, then with some special need of the Territory that should have the attention of congress. This hour or two on the roof, before the steamer leaves for Hawaii, is the only time that can be left open to the people in general.

On the other islands, the respective committees on entertainment have filled the program quite as completely as has been done on Oahu. One feature of the trip to Hawaii and Maui will be a banquet, dance and a public meeting.

Thursday of this week the party will visit Kailua school and then cross the Pali to Waimanalo to inspect the territorial lands proposed for a war department reservation, which work will be followed by an old-fashioned Hawaiian hukilau, when the fish netted will be cooked on the beach and eaten by the congressional party.

After their trip to Hawaii and Maui the party will return to Honolulu for a few hours on Monday, November 19, leaving again that afternoon for Kauai. Thursday morning, November 22, they will return from Kauai, and will be taken, that same morning, to Schofield Barracks, where they will be the guests of General Wisser. Following a review of all the troops at Schofield, a buffet luncheon will be served to the party.

A visit to Kona and Kau, with particular attention given to the tobacco and coffee industries on Hawaii, will take up part of the time of the party on that island.

The party will arrive at Kailua, Hawaii, Sunday morning, Nov. 11. Part of the party will remain in the Kona district overnight, while others will proceed to the Volcano house to be joined by the others the following morning. Monday and Monday night will be spent at the Volcano. Tuesday morning after a luncheon at the Volcano house the party goes to Hilo and will be guests at a banquet there that evening. Wednesday a trip will be taken over the Hawaii railroad. Wednesday night will be a public meeting at Hilo. Thursday will be a luncheon at the Hawaii Yacht club and probably another banquet that night, after which the party goes to Kahului, Maui.

TAYLOR'S CHARGES OF IRREGULAR PAVING ARE MADE IN FULL DETAIL

Letters Filed With Supervisors
Show Complaint as Far
Back as Oct. 17

Civil Engineer James T. Taylor's charges of irregular work in the Laimi improvement, as published in the Star-Bulletin Saturday, have been placed formally before the board with three letters which he wrote to City Engineer Cantin concerning the alleged flaws in the work.

The board on Saturday referred investigation of the charges to Cantin and the road committee.

The letters detailing Taylor's complaints are as follows:

"Honolulu, T. H., Oct. 17, 1917.
"A. S. Cantin, Esq., Engineer, City and County of Honolulu.

"Dear Sir: In regard to the construction work which is now progressing on Laimi Improvement District No. 7 and Park street, I wish to notify you that the work which has been done and is being done on Park street is not being performed according to the plans and specifications.

"I especially call your attention to the heading No. 22, 'Defective Work,' on page 12 of the specifications, which does not relieve the contractor, although the defects are overlooked in the inspection. Up to the present time the work on Park street has not been done in a satisfactory manner, and I am not personally satisfied with the inspection, inasmuch as the contractor is not required to carry out the specifications in the construction of the concrete roadway.

"I also call your attention to heading No. 46, entitled 'Protection in Curing,' page 20 of the specifications, which reads as follows:

"Immediately following the pouring every portion of the newly poured section shall be covered and protected from the sun, wind or rain by canvas covered frames of substantial construction, until the concrete has hardened, when it shall then be kept flooded until a sand, earth or other approved covering be placed. These canvas covered frames shall be constructed in such a manner that no portion of the canvas or frame will come in contact with the concrete. As soon as it can be done without damaging the concrete, the surface of the pavement shall be covered with not less than two (2) inches of sand or earth, which covering shall be kept wet by continuous sprinkling during the day for at least 14 days.

"There has been no attempt on the part of the contractor to protect the concrete by the use of the canvas mentioned in the specifications as quoted above. The climatic conditions in Nuuanu valley require that this portion of the specifications be carried out strictly according to their full intent and meaning, otherwise the pavement will suffer considerable damage, which is not intended by the specifications.

"The concrete already laid on Park street has suffered from this condition. There is no good reason that I know of why this part of the specifications should not be complied with, and I request that you give this matter your immediate attention."

Work Still Irregularly Done

"Honolulu, T. H., Oct. 23, 1917.
"Mr. A. S. Cantin, Engineer, City and County of Honolulu.

"Dear Sir: I wish to call your attention to the fact that (notwithstanding your verbal instructions to the inspectors on the construction work now being done on Park street, Nuuanu valley, in Improvement District No. 7, that the contractor, John Duggan, must perform the work in accordance with the specifications) that the work is still being done without complying with the specifications.

"The last section of concrete which was laid on Park street by the contractor, John Duggan, was not laid in accordance with the specifications for said work.

"The template or strike board used for surfacing and shaping the concrete was materially defective.

"I personally called the attention of the inspector to the same, and it was very clear that the template was defective.

"You are hereby requested to require the contractor to comply with the specifications for the construction of Park street.

"Your attention is called to the following specifications which are not being complied with, as follows:

"37. Width, Thickness and Crown.

"38. Measuring Materials.

"40. Mixing.

"42. Proportions.

"45. Surfacing and Shaping.

"46. Protection and Curing.

"Considerable cement which has been condemned by the inspector was used in the concrete work on Park street.

"P. S. I have personally inspected the work which was done during the week ending October 29, 1917, and my requests are based on my personal observation."

More Details Given

"Honolulu, T. H., Oct. 29, 1917.
"Mr. A. S. Cantin, City and County Engineer.

"Dear Sir: Supplementing my letter of October 23, 1917, I wish to call your attention to the following details of the specifications, referred to, which are not being carried out according to the specifications.

"37. The last section of concrete poured on Saturday, October 27, was not poured to a depth of five inches.

"38. Measuring Materials. Much of the materials used in the concrete work on Park street has not been measured according to specifications.

"40. Some of the materials used in the concrete work on Park street has not been mixed according to specifications.

"42. Proportions. Much of the mixture used is lacking the proper amount of cement. Three days' run which I personally inspected showed a loss of over 100 bags of cement and more than 20 per cent.

"45. The strike board or template was not constructed when used on the last section of concrete on Saturday, October 27, to give a depth of concrete of five inches.

"I give these details to show where and how some of the defective work is being done."

MACHINE SEPARATES ROCK FROM THE SOIL

The only rock and soil separating apparatus on the islands that is capable of screening the soil to a state of unpalatability has been purchased by the Honolulu Construction and Draying company and placed in operation at the Mollilihi and Kapahulu quarries. By means of a bucket elevator and screens the soil and rock is hoisted to the apparatus from an unusual depth, which makes the soil free from weeds and the generally present insidious Japanese nut-grass. The value of this feature to the citizen who desires soil for garden and lawn purposes is inestimable.

The soil which is produced by the machine after many refining operations is coffee colored. The screening operations render the soil finer than the finest sand.

The draying company is also prepared to furnish the city with small rock, which allows the constructors to sell the material to the city engineers at a minimum cost. The city may now macadamize its smaller side streets at about half price. The draying company employs about 500 men and 150 horses, which enables them to fill contracts promptly. The procedure now in use on a number of side streets is to lay the small rock, roll and cover with a binder. Several streets in the Kaimuki district have been prepared in this manner and are showing no signs of wear.

The quarries are producing lava rock, which is in great demand by the monument people. It is much harder to work than Vermont granite and it gives better wear.

NEW BUILDING PERMITS

Permit was issued last week to the Territory of Hawaii, as owner, to erect doctor's dwelling in connection with the insane asylum. The building will be of frame, and will cost $3770. Its location being on School street, opposite Asylum road.

Other permits issued November 2, were: To H. Nishihara, J. G. Robello, owner, addition of one bedroom to residence on Laimi road, Nuuanu valley, to cost $410.

Samuel G. Wilder, owner, small dwelling in Judd street, to cost $525.

FALL RALLY OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES IS FULL OF ACTIVITY

What proved to be one of the most successful rallies of the Oahu Young People's Christian Union was held Friday evening at the Methodist church, Beretania street.

More than 250 people attended and the evening started with a supper served at the church. During the supper there was a pantomime play called "The Co'ed Entertains" in which Miss M. Harriman, who has rare dramatic ability, took the leading part.

After supper the meeting convened in the church proper.

W. A. Horn of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. read a selection from the scriptures. Rev. J. L. Hopwood gave an address on "Officers of the Societies' Duties." This was followed by a very able address by Miss Marguerite C. Hearsey on "Work of the Committees."

Miss Grace Channon, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., spoke on "The Need of the Executive Committee."

An interesting part of the meeting was the awarding of the banner for the society showing the best percentage of attendance. This year three societies were tied for first place. Beretania C. E. Society with 57 members had 57 present. Kakaako with 31 members had 31 present and Makiki with 28 members had 28 present. In this case each of these three societies had a percentage of 100. It was decided to give the banner to Kakaako this year.

The principal address of the evening was given by Rev. L. L. Looft-bourrow. His subject was "Not Yours, But Yours." Mr. Looftbourrow's message was very clear and to the point and his young audience was made to understand that none of them should be "a slacker" in the work to spread the kingdom of Christ on earth. He remarked how wonderful it would be if all would be as willing to be drafted in the service of Christ as those who are willing to be drafted in the service of their country.

Rev. A. V. Soares of the Portuguese Protestant church gave the benediction and prayer.

CIVIL WAR TALE AT THE LIBERTY

Dorothy Gish in almost any photodramatic offering is a double attraction. This little star is one of the "rapid rising" variety and appears to "have arrived" not only in a hurry, but also permanently. In "The Little Yank" Miss Gish appeared at the Liberty theater last night and will continue through the early portion of the week. "The Little Yank" is a stirring tale of love and hate, engendered by sectional patriotism as it has been understood in the United States only during the dark days of the civil war.

In the role of Sallie Castleton, a fair daughter of the Southland, whose family had cast its lot with the Northern cause, Miss Gish is most admirable. The story deals with the return home of Lieutenant James Castleton, brother of Sallie and officer in the Federal army. He graphically explains to Sallie and her girl friends the need of bandages and hospital supplies in the army of the Northland and the girls immediately set about preparing these necessities.

Meantime a young Southern sympathizer organizes a band of scouts, surrounds the Castleton home and takes prisoner the young lieutenant and his companion, Major Rushton. By a clever ruse Sallie liberates the Union officers, saves the supplies and undertakes to pierce the Confederate lines and deliver the needed supplies to the North. On her journey she meets Captain Johnnie of the South. They are immediately attracted to one another and the shipment of supplies is diverted to the Southern cause. Thus is found not only father against son and brother against brother, but also sister against brother in the great national strife.

Drill every night this week until Friday will be held by most of the companies of the 1st Hawaiian Infantry at the armory in order to get in final shape for the encampment at Kawaia. Yesterday was a busy day at the armory, with the supply detachment packing equipment and otherwise getting ready for the camp.

TRACE DISEASE TO CONSTIPATION

One of the points on which different schools of medicine practically agree is, that about 95% of all human disease is directly traceable to intestinal putrefaction of stomach wastes due to inactivity of the bowels, or constipation. The eliminative process is an essential factor in digestion and on the proper functioning depends the welfare of the entire system.

Constipation is a condition that should never be neglected. As soon as the bowels evidence the slightest disposition to slow up, a mild laxative should be taken. The combination of simple laxative herbs with opium, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended as a corrective, acting gently, in an easy, natural way, without griping or other pain or discomfort. A trial bottle of this excellent family remedy can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 436 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

WAR TAXES HIT 'MOVIES' HARD

Neither war times, war taxes nor war prices appear to have any particular effect upon the pleasure-seeking populace of Honolulu, provided the attendance at the photoplay houses may be taken as a criterion. As an example the Hawaii theater is usually sold out early in the evening upon the change of program, this being particularly noticeable with the Sunday evening performance. Last evening, the first Sunday on which the slight advance in prices had been made, showed no falling off in the waiting line and no decrease in the size of the audience.

Theaters showing films are particularly hard hit by the latest war taxes and have in consequence been compelled to make slight advances in prices. Not alone are these houses compelled to pay the theater tax, which calls for 10 per cent on the gross intake of the house, not figured in dollars and cents, but in tickets sold and seats used, the idea being that free passes call for the tax the same as paid admissions. In addition there is the recently imposed tax on motion picture films of three-quarters of a cent a foot. This tax, naturally, is visited largely by the producers upon the exhibitors.

There is a possibility that the current attraction at the Hawaii has not a little to do with the crowds of yesterday evening. Frank Keenan is always a strong drawing card and in "The Bride of Hate" he heads a photodrama that is far from the beaten path and comes well within the heading of "the unusual."

COMEDY STILL REIGNS AT BIJOU

Not even the rain can quench the enthusiasm of Honolulu amusement lovers for Monte Carter and company's attractions. Despite Saturday night's downpour two big houses were on hand to witness the performances which in itself is a tribute to "Izzy's" drawing powers.

A new play, "Paradise Alley," takes the boards at the Bijou tonight. It teems with the eccentricity typified in the atmosphere of New York's east side and furnishes a locale in which "Izzy" will feel right at home and act as an incentive to superlative effort.

One delightful feature about the Carter shows is that there is just enough of a plot to hold the interest and not weary with dramatic details. Interspersed with enough vaudeville and comedy to make them a palliative for the tired feeling by chasing away the glooms of the day. They provide rest and recreation at one and the same time. To this end they are bent.

So tonight's show, like its predecessors, will feature fun, music, song and patter. Several new song hits will be included on the program and will give Ethel Davis and Betty Butterick and the male trio opportunity to enhance themselves in the good graces of their audience. The dancing girls are on edge as usual and will give an interesting repertoire of ensemble effects, made doubly interesting by appealing costuming. "Paradise Alley" runs until Wednesday evening and promises a paradise of pulchritude.

HONOR OCTOGENARIAN ON HER BIRTHDAY

WAILUKU, Maui, Nov. 2.—On Tuesday afternoon the residence of D. C. Lindsay at Pala was thronged with many visitors who called to pay their respects and bring tokens of their affection and esteem to Mrs. C. C. Loveland, who celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday. A huge birthday cake and a bower of flowers helped to make the occasion one long to be remembered. Mrs. Loveland is one of the people on Maui, who in spite of her age, has preserved her health and youthful spirits. She is a universal favorite, loved by everyone.

Mrs. Frank T. Crawford of Wailuku entertained a large party of her friends with dominoes and cards last Tuesday. Halloween decorations were served and everybody had a delightful time.

BAZAAR BRINGS $1500 TO KAIMUKI CHURCH

Nearly fifteen hundred dollars was added to the building fund of the new Catholic church in Kaimuki by Saturday's bazaar. From the opening at 10 in the morning to the closing at 10:30 Saturday evening a continual stream of people poured in and out of the Pan-Pacific building in Bishop square, where the bazaar was held.

Sales of fancy work, delectable things for the table, flowers and more useful wearing apparel were on sale throughout the day. A poi luncheon or luau, served in the middle of the day, drew hundreds to the grounds. Music was furnished during the luncheon hour by the Hawaiian band and by Father Ulrich's mission band in the afternoon.

Nuuanu Entitled to Relief

Nuuanu residents are becoming tired of an intolerable condition of dirty water. Action to relieve the situation is what they want, and they are entitled to just that.

Nuuanu water has been dirty, ill-smelling and potentially dangerous ever since the reservoirs were built. The recent typhoid outbreak brought home the glaring fact that the water-supply as now handled is a menace, that even under normal conditions it is disagreeable.

There is plenty of artesian water going to waste in and around the city to solve this emergency problem.

Nuuanu residents demand that it be solved.

What About the Paving Contracts

James T. Taylor's statements to the board of supervisors last Saturday, backed by the letters simultaneously filed with the board, call for prompt, fearless and expert investigation.

His complaint in written form that cement is being "skimped" on the Laimi contract deals with an individual case, but his oral statement that if the board will investigate, it will find some of the Honolulu contractors together in this alleged "skimping" system, is a general charge which cannot be ignored.

The fact is still fresh in the public mind that Supervisor Mott-Smith found it advisable to secure, at his own expense, an inspector for another paving project.

The Chamber of Commerce's committee on municipal affairs has recently had up this matter of inspection; so had the Ad Club. It is a matter of vital importance when in the next few years Honolulu will spend millions of dollars on road work. Hundreds of thousands may easily be frittered away through incompetent, lax inspection.

If there is no such wholesale "skimping" as Mr. Taylor intimates, the contracting firms should be freed from the stigma which inevitably rests upon them from a charge of this sort made before a public body.

It is justice to both Mr. Taylor and the contractors that the board's investigation be immediate and thorough.

If, as some of the contractors are said to allege, it is impossible to comply with the specifications, why issue such specifications? If it is impossible to get a "mix" with the proportion of cement called for in the specifications, these specifications ought to be sent to the scrap-heap. But Mr. Taylor says it is not impossible; and that, after he had made an issue of it, and after the city engineer had reinforced his inspection corps, the Laimi contractor was able to get in the required proportion of cement. This also is something that calls for explanation.

The Laimi incident is comparatively small, but the whole question of adequate inspection and of living up to paving contracts is involved.

New York's Election

Mayor Mitchell of New York is up against a political combination almost impossible to beat. The vote of Greater New York is split three ways—the candidates for mayor being Judge John F. Hylan, the Tammany man; Former State Senator William Bennett, and Mitchell. Tammany has always won a three-cornered election, since the Tammany vote is fairly solid. This year Tammany Hall is fighting harder than for some elections past, for the faithful braves have been out of the feed-trough so long they are shabby at the heel and thin of stomach. Bennett has a fine organization and a following of disgruntled Democrats as well as Republicans.

Mitchell has been such a good mayor that he has made numerous enemies—the common condition in American municipalities. He has feared neither political nor social influence, and his vigorous campaign for improvement among the charitable institutions won him enmity among the clergy of his own creed. Mitchell is running independently and perhaps his greatest handicap is that in the primary election there were serious frauds perpetrated in his own camp. No one was quicker than Mitchell to demand a ventilation of this unsavory mess, but the exposure hurt him greatly.

In the election tomorrow Tammany will benefit by the division of voters between Bennett and Mitchell. Each of these has on his side many good men. Mitchell is supported by the majority of New York papers.

A victory for Mitchell will be one of the most spectacular things of the political generation. A defeat for him, under the conditions, will show principally that the forces of good government cannot afford to divide, and if they do divide, they simply elect the reactionaries and plunderers.

One effect of the Austro-German drive into Italy has been that of silencing the noisy peace party. This party has been howling for Italy to make peace advances to the Central Powers ever since Cadorna's men took Gorizia and occupied much enemy territory. The peace advocates immediately began an agitation which has smelled strongly of pure commercialism. They wanted to trade on Italy's conquests, and were willing, if their words read correctly, to do it at the expense of the Allies. At one time it was said that French statesmen protested strongly to Rome against the audacious freedom allowed the Italian peace-talkers, insisting that it was injuring the entire Entente cause. Now that the sacred soil of Italy is invaded and the country is threatened with Belgium's fate, these pacifist gentry are perforce silenced.

For the Portuguese Red Cross?

While not generally known, it is a fact that there are 75,000 Portuguese soldiers on the western front in Europe, occupying a sector of their own next to the British, under their own general, who in turn is under Gen. Haig.

Each month the Portuguese government sends 3000 troops to keep up its quota at full strength, the wastage of war and invalidism taking its toll here just as it does in all the armies along the great trench-line.

The Portuguese Red Cross has its arduous duties among the Portuguese soldiers, and it is to carry on the work with the military organizations that funds are now being solicited in Hawaii among the Portuguese and Portuguese-American residents.

Yesterday's campaign was especially among those of Portuguese blood. The campaign will continue until Sunday, November 25, and an opportunity has now been given for those of other bloods to contribute. The five downtown "stations" where such contributions will be received are Silva's Toggery, Ideal Clothing Company, Popular Clothing Company, Gonsalves & Company and Vieira Jewelry Company.

The Star-Bulletin is glad to bespeak for the Portuguese Red Cross the assistance of the community and to recommend its worthy cause to the public.

A Nation Saving Food

Food Pledge Week on the mainland was a tremendous success. It was estimated Saturday night at Washington that one out of every four families in the nation had enrolled under the flying banner of Hooverism.

More than five million families will help save the nation's food—help in a definite and organized way—as a result of this "drive."

The great response to the food-savings campaign emphatically answers the question sometimes heard in Honolulu, "Is there anything to this food-saving movement on the mainland? Is it worth while for Hawaii to deny itself?"

The answer to such queries is a loud, long and unmistakable "Yes!"

England's spirit of self-sacrifice reduced the wheat consumption of that nation by 25 per cent. Yet in England there was no such widespread popularity of substitutes for wheat such as we have in the United States. A large part of our population lives much more on corn-meal than on wheat.

There are districts in the South where wheat bread is unknown; there are other districts, embracing millions of people, where the common term "bread" means corn-bread, and wheat-bread, infrequently used, is referred to as "light-bread." In other words, our country can turn readily from wheat to corn consumption, and thereby conserve the precious wheat more needed elsewhere than in America.

Hawaii need have no uncertainty about the definite value of food-saving. There need be no feeling here that our efforts in this direction are of no avail.

As a matter of fact, Hawaii has double the reason for saving as obtains in any other part of the American commonwealth. We must save for home reasons quite as much as for the reasons of a foreign war. Our own cargo space has just been drastically restricted. We will pull through, of course, and will probably be well taken care of, but right now we must not build on hope of any such plentiful ship transportation as we have usually had in the past ten years.

The Star-Bulletin has heard of one family in Honolulu where food economy has been put into use with such intelligence and good results that today this family's living expenses are 25 per cent lower than a year ago, though meanwhile the cost of living has materially increased. Doubtless there are many others with as good records. Aside from the national and patriotic viewpoint, it is very much to the benefit of families and individuals in Hawaii that they plan carefully to conserve their food.

The Star-Bulletin today publishes further draft lists, compiled from the drawings made last Thursday. The amount of labor involved in printing these lists is very large indeed, but the deep interest in the draft throughout the territory and the eagerness with which the Star-Bulletin's lists are awaited each evening has entirely justified the extra expenditure of effort.

The navy censors have invented a new way for Hawaii to "Hoove." We are to be allowed only one cable address. These luxuries must be given up, you know.

This embargo on motor-cars is a terrible blow to the woman who had just made up her husband's mind to buy a super-six.

Every time the Teutons withdraw another mile or two on the west Berlin announces there was no fighting of importance today.

Since the new postal rates went into regulation there is an additional demand for the self-licking postage stamp.

We notice by the morning paper that Hoover is rhyming with chef d'oeuvre. Are there no limits to the horrors of war?

Germany's navy hasn't won much glory from the latest engagement.

Italy knows now how Russia has been feeling.

PORTUGUESE RED CROSS 'DRIVE' IS WINNING; $7000 IS EXPECTED

PORTUGUESE RED CROSS
CAMPAIGN FIGURES

Total actual cash received up to this morning, $2200.

Total assured in cash and promises to date, $2500.

Amount expected from Oahu for campaign, more than $3000.

Total amount expected from territory-wide campaign, $7000 or more.

With more than $2000 to show as their first day's collections, the workers in the Portuguese Red Cross drive started out this morning on the second day of their campaign.

So far only Honolulu has been heard from, and the drive, which is a house to house campaign, covers the entire territory. Every Portuguese in Hawaii will have an opportunity to become a member of the Red Cross before the drive is finished, and any one of any other nationality who wants to contribute will be allowed that privilege, but most of the soliciting will be done among the Portuguese by the Portuguese.

To give every one an equal chance business houses at various points will take subscriptions. The five houses in Honolulu taking subscriptions are Silva's Toggery, Ltd., 91 South King street; Vieira Jewelry Co., Ltd., 113 South Hotel street; M. Gonsalves & Co., Ltd., 74 South Queen street; Ideal Clothing Co. and Popular Clothing Co. Dr. L. R. Gaspar is one of the joint treasurers of the campaign, and at his office yesterday all day people came bringing their donations.

Although this campaign is called the Portuguese Red Cross drive for membership, it does not mean that it is to be for the Portuguese Red Cross, but for the Red Cross, and the organization in its work of caring for the sick and wounded in the war, where 75,000 Portuguese are now fighting with the Allies. Donations of any amount will be acceptable, the aim being to swell the fund to as big a sum as possible. Portuguese plantation employees and others not having the money on hand they wish to subscribe may set down the amount opposite their names and pay it later.

The central committee having charge of the drive is composed of the following: Senor A. L. C. Pessoa, president; Prof. E. G. Costa and Dr. R. Gaspar, treasurers, and J. R. Ponte, clerk. The city districts and canvassers are as follows:

TRAINING CAMP AT SCHOFIELD TO END IN 3 WEEKS

Three weeks more will bring to a close the reserve corps training camp at Schofield Barracks and the candidates are striving hard for the final drills and tests that will determine ultimately whether or not they shall receive commissions or be dropped into the discard. Ten weeks of training ended Saturday.

The week has been a hard one with close order work in the morning the company in battalion drill formation, and the afternoons devoted to the work deemed necessary to get the men into shape for hard service. Considerable study has been given during the week to trench attacking, the meaning of "waves" by which the attacking party advances in real warfare being worked out and explained by illustrations.

On Wednesday morning the entire school went to the post parade ground to witness a review of the entire brigade. The following day after drill an attack in battalion formation was made by Companies A and C, with B held in reserve.

The attack was made across an open plain for a distance of a mile or so, the men advancing at short intervals and dropping to cover from the enemy's fire.

At the end of the mile, Captain Thomas H. Lowe, who had charge of the men, suddenly announced that they had been flanked by the enemy who was pouring a hot fire on them. Orders for retreat were given and back over the long course the candidates ran with an imaginary hail of lead sweeping them from the rear.

Some 20 or 30 of the retreating force dropped by the wayside over the long course, not from bullet wounds, but from exhaustion. Orders were given to take the names of every individual who had thus fallen. They are talking yet of that retreat.

Map sketching has held an important place during the week, the requirements being for the completion of a road sketch, a position sketch and an outpost sketch. Sketching must be done at 2 miles an hour, a speed which cannot quite be realized until one has tried it.

As one of the rookies remarked to-day sketching gets to be a foot race toward the last 15 minutes or so.

FIRST ROUND IN "Y" COMMERCIAL BOWLING TO CLOSE THIS WEEK

The first round of the Commercial Bowling League on the Y. M. C. A. alleys will finish this week. Tonight the Financiers and the Printers will roll, Wednesday night the Financiers and the Sugar Factors and Thursday night the Federals and the Sugar Factors.

The bowling committee will meet early this week to take up the schedule for the second round and the playing of the Pacific team. Practice has already commenced for the Pacific team.

The second round of the series promises to be better than the first in the Commercial League. The weaker teams have signed up stronger bowlers and have been getting in more practice, while the workouts for the big league should improve the rolling of others. The Pineapple Factors have added H. S. Canario to their bowlers, while the Sugar Factors are adding a couple of stronger men and generally improving with practice.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

CALIFORNIA'S AMBULANCE MEN REACH ALBANIA

(By Associated Press)

SOMEWHERE IN ALBANIA, Oct. 1.—Twenty-six Californians who form one of the ambulance sections of the American field service, are the latest arrivals in Albania. All of them have driven in France and experienced the intensive warfare that goes on there, and who find the work here much harder though just as interesting.

The shocking condition of most of the roads is as largely responsible as any other factor for making the work more difficult. The country is mountainous and breakdowns are the regular order of the day. As frequently as not wheels come off or break and the ambulances have to be left on mountain roadsides until assistance can reach them.

Many of the "posts" are perched on hillsides, often in plain sight of the Austrians, and their trenches are frequently in view. By the same token the Austrians can see the ambulances as they climb up and down. But warfare in this section is not only "gentlemanly," so that the Americans are never fired on, but the transport of munitions up the hills is so difficult that it is never wasted on moving objects and is saved for definite stationary objects.

Air raids are frequent and exciting but the natives seem to get the worst of them. That is principally because the Austrians seem to choose just that time for raiding that the French are over Austrian territory, and none of the aviators ever seems to get hurt.

The Americans had great difficulty at the beginning with the food, water and climate, but are used to them all now. In between their duties they find time to study the native population which in general is ragged and poverty-stricken. Many of them speak English, since they have been in the United States as contract laborers.

Much of the country has been badly devastated by this and preceding wars, many villages have been razed and deserted, while scarcely a one but shows evidence of the struggles. Prices are sky high, and going higher all the time. Bread, which used to sell for thirty centimes per loaf before the Balkan wars, is two francs per loaf now, and has been five francs per loaf during the past winter. The population would have starved in fact if it had not been for the French army, because the people had sold its food supply to the Austro-German forces.

BUSINESS FIRMS ARE BACKING ENCAMPMENT

Though many business houses of the city have a large number of employees in the national guard, few requests for the men to be let off from attending the encampment at Kawaia have been received. None of the requests were granted.

Schuman Carriage company is said to have the largest number of men in the coming encampment among local business houses. The call will take away 17 men from this firm. They asked to have one of the men excused but the next day withdrew this request.

FORT KAMS TRIM TOWNIES WHILE 'Y' BEATS 32ND MEN

"Scotty" Schuman's Men Prove No Match for Soldiers at Moiliili Field Saturday—Whitcomb's Crew Swamp Schofield Eleven

THE Oahu Football League opened its season on Saturday afternoon, the Fort Kamehameha squad trouncing the Town Team at Moiliili Field by a score of 13 to 3, while the Y. M. C. A. grid warriors traveled out to Schofield to scalp the 32nd eleven to the tune of 19 to 6. Both games were hard-fought to the finish.

So far as Granddaddy was concerned the game between the Townies and Fort Kamehameha proved pre-season conclusions, but Whitcomb's eleven sort of upset the dope by trimming the soldiers at Schofield. Both khaki teams had been picked to beat the civilians.

Perfect Alibi
The defeat of the Town Team brings out a perfect alibi. If J. Atheron Gilman had been allowed to don a Townie uniform things might have been different. But Gilman was on the lines powerless to aid his mates as they went down to defeat before the onslaught of the Fort Kam grid-ists.

Lewis for the winners was the big star of the day, making a run of 85 yards for a touchdown and notching the most yardage for his team throughout the rest of the session. Bill Inman for the losers was also a brilliant light smashing through the Fort Kam line at all times.

Lost Chances
The Townies had a chance shortly after the battle opened to score, but when Schuman tried a forward pass, Lewis intercepted and through a broken field made his great run. Wade missed the kick. Sumner fumbled the ball when the second chance came for the Townies to score, but a moment later Inman saved the Townies from defeat with a drop kick.

Lewis shoved the ball over for another touchdown in the third period after a series of line bucks. Lewis also kicked the goal.

AT SCHOFIELD.
The Y. M. C. A. team went out to Schofield Barracks Saturday and came back with the scalp of the 32nd team, having won the game by a score of 19 to 6.

It was a clean, hard game throughout. Bill Davis, Captain Herman von Holt, and Whitcomb starred for the visiting team while Fleishmann shone for the soldiers.

The Way It Went
Just before the first quarter closed Bill Davis made the first touchdown for the "Y" on an end run following a short line smash. The angle was difficult and the goal kick failed. Neither team managed to score in the second and both tallied in the third.

Hackett put over the counter in this period by grabbing a fumble and going 35 yards for a touch. Fleishmann, for the soldiers, retaliated after some short snappy runs. Whitcomb fell on a fumble punt towards the end of the game in the soldiers' territory and Davis shot across the line for the final touchdown. Cummings kicked the goal.

FIRST FATALITY IN HAWAII FOOTBALL RECORDED

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

COLLEGE OF HAWAII, Nov. 4.—The first fatality in the history of football in Hawaii occurred during Saturday's College of Hawaii vs. Kamehameha game at Kamehameha field, in the death of Mariuchi Kuwamoto, Hawaii's star athlete. Mariuchi, who was 28 years old, was well known in Honolulu scholastic circles. He has been prominent as a track man, football and baseball player from the time he first entered McKinley high school to his senior year in college. He stood out amongst the majority of Oriental students at the college because of his happy personality, exceptional ability and gridiron endurance.

Hurt Before

It was because of these sterling qualities that his college companions find difficulty in believing so energetic and healthy a young man could die as a result of so trifling an incident as a collision with a teammate. Death was due, however, to a combination of accidents. Twice previously during this season he had to be carried from the football field unconscious as a result of blows on the head, the second one being sustained in a scrimmage with Fort Kamehameha only ten days before. The collision in Saturday's game was, to external appearances, a body collision and the ascribed cause of death, concussion of the brain, must have been occasioned when his body struck the ground.

Mariuchi was most conscientious in the spirit with which he studied and played. He first entered the sugar technology course at the college about six years ago, but on the completion of his sophomore year was compelled to work for a few years on a plantation before he could get enough money to continue his education. He re-entered the college last year, thus putting him in this year's graduating class. His death is all the more pathetic in that he was the eldest son of the aged father of a family of ten children. His father placed all his hopes of the immediate future in Mariuchi's graduation this year, especially as the next eldest son in the family is in Japan, and the remainder of the boys are very young.

Immediately after the accident, which occurred when there were only two minutes of play left, Dr. Hobdy pronounced his temperature and pulse normal. There was no reason at the time for thinking he was more than stunned. Professor Crawford, who has very kindly attended to all injuries during the college games, took Mariuchi to his home, gave him a hot bath, a stimulant, and placed him in bed. His condition remained normal until shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday night when his temperature started to rise. Dr. Jackson, called in, advised his immediate removal to a hospital, but within thirty minutes after his arrival in the ward Mariuchi quietly passed away. News of his death came as a sudden blow to his fellow students.

Services Today

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Makiki Japanese Christian church. The parents have graciously allowed the students of the college to undertake the burial. His teammates will be the pall-bearers, and the college glee clubs will sing the funeral hymns. There will be no exercises at the college in the afternoon.

DUKE KAHANAMOKU IS FIRST IN OUTRIGGER CLUB GRIND

First Round of Outrigger Canoe Club Swimming and Sailing Regatta Big Success—Higgins Canoe Wins Sailing Race Sunday

THE first round in the Outrigger Canoe club swimming and sailing regatta staged Saturday and Sunday proved a huge success. Much latent swimming talent among the men and women members of the club brought out in the swimming races and the sailing race yesterday was one of the best staged in Hawaiian waters.

The big swimming race Saturday was of course the mile and a half grind from Castle's pier to the Outrigger diving stand at Waikiki beach. Duke Kahanamoku won out in 27 minutes 52 seconds which is declared to be excellent time considering the breakers that were running. Twelve swimmers started but Duke branched off from the field and took a course nearer to the shore. The wisdom of his course soon became apparent for the tide and wind slowly carried him back into the course while the others, taking a direct line, were carried out and had to buck the current to come back.

As They Came In

Carlis A. Walker, formerly of Fort De Russy, finished second, and as Duke Kahanamoku was a special entry, Walker really won the race so far as the members of the club entered were concerned. His time was 30 minutes flat. Ernest "Kid" Cooke was third and Dickson Hitchcock was fourth, while Arthur Alexander swimming his first race, finished fifth. A year ago Alexander landed in Hawaii unable to swim a stroke.

The following finished in the order named: Gay Harris, 37:26; Edric Cook, 38:17; Hardy Harvey, 39:54; H. S. Wilkinson, 40:02; F. Richardson, 40:15; Miss Josephine Hopkins, 40:48; and A. H. Tarleton, 42:39.

The other races Saturday also brought out much new talent. In the 50 yards for ladies, Miss Josephine Hopkins finished a length ahead of Miss Eleanor Lyser. Miss Louise Drew came in third. The boys' 35-yards went to Bouldin Burbank, Frank Morse and Lloyd Schmidt coming next in order named. In the men's 50-yard Gay Harris distanced Preston Chapin and Werner Smith. In the 100 yards for girls little Miss Eleanor Lyser won easily with Helen Martin next and Erma Tarleton third.

SAILING RACE.

On Sunday afternoon, Ronald Higgins' old war canoe came in first in the sailing race off the reefs at Waikiki.

Duke Kahanamoku steering No. 4 canoe got off with a flying start, leaving the others on the line. Then Center in No. 3, Cook in No. 2, and Norgaard in No. 5 managed to break away. Higgins steering No. 1 was last to start and first to finish.

Close Finish

Rounding the turn off Castle's point Center broke a boom which put him out of the race and on the second turn Norgaard experienced trouble. Cook overhauled Duke at Brown's turn and seemed to have the race clinched when Higgins came up, passed Duke and edged towards the leader. The race was a neck and neck affair to the finishing line, Higgins winning out, by a narrow margin. To make it more exciting, Duke meanwhile had come up and neared Cook to the finishing line. The winning crew was: Ronald Higgins (skipper), Harold Harvey, Franklin Richardson, Ronald Watt, J. Wollaway, Gay Harris, crew, and Dorothy Martin, passenger.

RAH RAH BOYS BLANK CADETS IN HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

HAWAII 12, KAMEHAMEHA 0

FINAL COLLEGE GRID GAME PROVES FATAL TO MARIUCHI

IN a hard fought battle, College of Hawaii defeated Kamehameha cadets by a score of 12 to 0 on the Kamehameha field Saturday afternoon. The game marked the conclusion of the college football season without a single defeat, but resulted in the first football fatality in Hawaii, the death of Mariuchi Kuwamoto, who had a large share in each one of the college victories.

Despite the absence of Davis the college proved invincible against Kam's heavy attacks. For the most part the ball was in Kam's territory with Brash, Pammel and Mariuchi carrying the ball. The deciding factor in the game, however, proved the offense of the college line which seemed unexpected to Kam, who enjoyed quite a different state of affairs in the game three weeks previous. Kam's back field was much stronger than in the previous game, with Aaron, Coleman and Groves doing the heavy work and yet this added efficiency was more than overbalanced by the aggressive attacks of Albrecht, Bromley, Hayselden, Chalmers and Wung.

First Quarter
For the first quarter the ball did a lot of see-sawing, with most of the saving engineered by the college. Line bucks were in order on both sides. During the second quarter Kong, who started out as Hawaii's left half back, wrenched his knee and Mariuchi substituted. In this quarter both teams started passing. Brash's first passes, however, were unfortunate. Hohu intercepted one when Kam was defending its 20 yard line, and then Kam started a steady crawl toward Hawaii's goal, but a forward pass of Coleman's was caught by Pammel, who, with the aid of excellent interference on the part of Mariuchi and Bromley, found a clear field to touchdown. Brash failed to make the field goal.

Albrecht received the kick-off and by the aid of good interference and his own straight arms made a drive 60 yards diagonally across the field. The college remained around Kam's 20 yard line for a few minutes when a forward pass by Brash to Mariuchi carried the ball to the 4 yard line. The half was called with the ball in that position.

Fumbling
The third quarter was characterized by fumbling and punting. At the very start Coleman intercepted one of Brash's forward passes but Crabbe later fumbled and Mariuchi secured it for the college. Then Bromley punted the ball clean over Kam's line. The ball was carried out to the 20 yard line and Aaron punted. Bromley repeated his over-the-line kicking stunt at intervals, the third quarter ending with the ball on Kam's 21 yard line.

The fourth quarter started off with a clever fake play by the college when a place kick formation was called by Ballentyne, but Mariuchi, who was hugging close behind Chalmers, took the ball straight through Kam's amazed line and deposited it six yards from the goal line. In the next play Brash smashed through Kam's right guard for a touchdown. The place kick for goal was a difficult angle and Albrecht's attempt failed.

The Fatal Pass
It was five minutes later that Aaron attempted the fatal forward pass. The ball passed right between Mariuchi and Pammel and both men made a dash for it. They leaped from the ground at the same instant and the force of their collision was heard all over the field. Mariuchi fell to the ground with the groans of a man who has had his breath knocked out, and after Coach Crawford gave him respiration aid, his breathing became normal. Except for the fact that he remained unconscious and had to be carried off the field, nothing more was thought of the matter and the game was resumed with Denison in his place. The game ended with the ball near the center of the field.

Mariuchi was examined on the field by a physician, who found his temperature and pulse normal, although he was unconscious till 9 o'clock when his temperature became very high. Dr. Jackson was summoned and advised the instant removal to a hospital. His condition did not improve, and within half an hour he died, without having regained consciousness.

MARU BRINGS 17 PASSENGERS HERE

Harold Moroney, official representative of the Army and Navy News, is returning to New York aboard a Japanese liner after a six months' business trip through the Orient. He was in Manila, China and Japan, in his official capacity, as special correspondent for the semi-official military publication. He will remain a short time in Honolulu.

A number of Russians, said to be on a diplomatic mission to Washington, are aboard the Japanese liner. When questioned as to their identity or their trip to the national capital, they refused to talk. They are P. Apotoloff, A. Grozinoff, George Lordkipanidze, N. Petrov, V. Proffen, B. Slubodinsky, Alexander Touchtsoff, and Sverge Zeliguine.

Several prominent Japanese businessmen are aboard the liner, bound for the east. M. Ishimura is manager of the Yamashita Steamship Co. of London, and is bound for England. K. Kimura, member of the Furukawa Gomei Kaisha, of New York, is returning to the eastern city on business. S. Takagi, son of Baron Takagi, prominent physician of Japan, is bound for San Francisco. He is an official of the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha.

The weather coming across from Japan was excellent, although while two days outside of Yokohama the winds held the ship back. Officers of the ship had not been notified of the German sea raider in the South Pacific. One of the ship's officers, when asked if any further notice had been given the American employees of the company that hereafter the Japanese would occupy their positions, declared that nothing official had been given out by the company. He declared it was mostly rumor, and did not believe any such steps would be taken.

Seventeen passengers are booked for Honolulu, among them being C. H. Rattrey and Mr. and Mrs. F. Snowden, who have been in the Orient for some time.

About 2,500 cartloads of food and supplies are being delivered daily by railroads at the various draft and national guard camps.

SEVEN STEAMERS ARRIVE, KEEPING FOSTER ON JUMP

It has been months since there was so much shipping in port as there is today, with at least two more vessels expected to arrive before evening. Honolulu water front docking facilities were taxed to the very limits, the arrivals being spread all away along the front from the railroad wharf to the naval slip.

Much of the excessive shipping was unexpected, until late radio advices were received by the customs, quarantine, naval and harbor officials late yesterday evening. Three of the arrivals were scheduled ones, but a steamer due in port yesterday failed to get to Honolulu until this morning and a Dutch steamer scheduled to arrive from the Orient came in a day or so later than expected.

Unreported vessels, including two tankers and a schooner, were other arrivals which helped to add to Harbor Master Foster's problem of finding wharves for all the ships.

For the first time for many months a passenger steamer was docked at the makai end of pier 16 on the Ewa side. Farther up the dock ahead of her there are a couple of Oahu Shipping Co. boats and a deep sea schooner.

A United tanker was the first to be given pratique and she was quickly followed by the Maru from San Francisco. Then an Associated tanker passed quarantine and quickly following her came a Dutch steamer and also a Maru from the Orient.

It was about 9:30 o'clock when the last of these vessels mentioned was docked, and at the same hour an Oceanic liner was sighted.

Two more vessels, a government transport from Manila and a Dutch ship from San Francisco, are expected to arrive before evening. If these come in as expected it will make nine arrivals of transpacific ships today.

TENYO GROUNDS IN TOKIO BAY

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji) YOKOHAMA, Nov. 5.—The Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Tenyo Maru, which ran aground near the entrance to Tokyo bay, is expected to be pulled off the rocks today. Scores of tugboats and small craft have gone to her assistance.

Just how the accident occurred has not been learned. The Tenyo was on her way to Honolulu when she grounded. All the passengers were immediately taken off. The extent of the

TAKES TREASURE TO THE ORIENT

Only a limited amount of the 2400 tons of through freight aboard a Maru steamer in port today is steel and treasure, and none of the steel is plates. There is half a million dollars worth of silver metal in the cargo which is consigned to an Oriental mint.

There was one stopover passenger F. A. Hollabough, aboard the Maru. Of the through passengers a number are government officials.

H. Grebst, former Swedish consul general to New York, is aboard the steamer bound for Stockholm by the Oriental route.

T. S. Lynn, who has been the Chinese charge d'affaires at the Chinese embassy in Brazil, is bound for his home. He is accompanied by his family, which consists of Mrs. Lynn, four sons and a daughter.

L. A. Endres is bound for Kobe where he will take command of a British transport.

Dr. H. A. Stone is an American dentist who is going to the Orient to locate.

G. Hutchinson, a naval architect, accompanied by Mrs. Hutchinson, is on his way to Singapore.

F. B. Simmons is a member of the big import and export firm of that name in Hongkong. He is returning from a business trip to the states.

GOOD TIME MADE ON LONG VOYAGE

Fifty-three days out from Sydney, a Viking Navigation Co. motor schooner is in port to take aboard fuel oil. She has a cargo of 1400 tons of copra and some hardwood on her deck. Although five days out from Sydney the cylinder heads of the auxiliary engine were cracked. This has not seriously interfered with the vessel's voyage, during which she traveled nearly 7000 miles. Her course has been far to the east, according to one of the ship's crew, who declared the schooner was near to the South American coast. In all the long voyage the schooner sighted no other ship. Capt. A. G. Svenson is in command of the schooner, which is bound for Portland.

damage had not been ascertained, but hopes are held out that it will prove to be of small consequence and the liner can proceed with her voyage within a few days.

The Tenyo Maru is one of the finest vessels under the Toyo Kisen Kaisha house flag and capable of an average speed of seventeen knots. She is of 6284 registered tonnage and can carry 1000 passengers in all classes.

ENTERPRISE IS MINUS BLADE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) HILO, Nov. 2.—Kuhio wharf had an unusual visitor yesterday morning when the steamship Enterprise went alongside and docked. The steamer was forced to do so on account of the necessity of fitting a new blade to her propeller. It appears that on the voyage down to Hilo from the coast the blade dropped off and was lost.

The vessel is being lightened by the discharge of some fuel oil and this will allow of her being dipped at the bow so that her stern will rise in the air and the mechanics can get at the propeller and fit a new blade.

The Enterprise is expected to leave for the coast soon with a cargo of sugar.

U-BOAT VICTIM

STOPS IN PORT

Marked about his face and still partially crippled in his lower limbs, as the result of contact with pieces of an exploding torpedo, D. Brown, a Scotchman, is aboard a steamer in port today bound for the Orient. Mr. Brown was on a British steamer when it was torpedoed by a German submarine in a lower passage-way when the torpedo struck the ship, the flying fragments striking him in the head and knocking him unconscious. He was discovered and taken off with the other passengers in the lifeboats, and eventually landed in Ireland. Mr. Brown is an iron works man from Calcutta, India, where he is now bound.

HARBOR NOTES

The steamer A. J. Chanslor is expected in Hilo shortly to load 6,000 tons of molasses for the Western Industries company, of Crockett, California. There are 8,000 tons in tanks there and 4,000 more contracted for but still at the plantations.

The steamer James Makae arrived yesterday morning from Honolulu with a cargo of merchandise for local merchants. On her return trip the Makae will carry a good cargo to Mahukona and Kona ports. Captain Diggs of the Makae is gratified with the amount of freight he is getting here to the island points above named. He hopes soon to be able to get down to a regular schedule. This will be to the benefit of the steamer, as well as the merchants of Hilo. The trade is there, those who should know say, and all that is necessary for the merchants and the steamboat people to properly work it up.—Hilo Tribune (Nov. 1).

Leon S. Grabow came down on the Enterprise as purser. Mr. Grabow has made several trips to Honolulu, but this is his first trip to Hilo. He has had a varied experience as purser, as he was formerly purser of the Roanoke, the ship which was swamped a year or so ago off the coast near Santa Barbara. She was loaded to the guards with powder and other war munitions. Captain Dickson and his wife were lost. Grabow was also purser of the steamer Bear, formerly on the San Francisco-Portland run, which was wrecked off Cape Mendocino, just below Eureka, on June 14, 1915. This was not far south of Humboldt bar, where the cruiser Milwaukee was wrecked last summer while she was trying to pull a submarine off the sands. Grabow is relieving Purser Russell, who has been called into the naval reserve.—Hilo Tribune.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions will be held on Tuesday, November 6, at 2:30 in the Bible school rooms. The Hawaiian committee will have charge of the meeting. Special attention is called to the missionary service to commemorate the Fiftieth anniversary of the Woman's Board of Missions (of the Atlantic) to be held in the church Sunday evening, November 11, under the auspices of the Woman's Board of Missions for the Pacific Islands.

A telegram of congratulation on his promotion to the rank of general was received by General Pershing from Marshal Joffre.

DUTCH STEAMER IS QUARANTINED

For the second time since she has been calling at this port a Dutch steamer from the Orient is held in quarantine today. Upon her first call here on her way via the Panama canal from Holland to Batavia she was also held in quarantine. From what can be learned disease is not the cause of the vessel being quarantined, but a failure to have a proper report of the death and burial at sea of a fourth-class passenger.

Questions directed at the waterfront frequenters as to the reason for the ship being quarantined, however, are answered usually by the reply: "She's a Dutch ship and this one is in Dutch with port officials here."

PASSENGERS EXPECTED

The steamer Enterprise on her last trip from the coast to Hilo had the misfortune to break one of the blades of her propeller. It was necessary to make repairs before leaving, so the Hilo Iron Works undertook to do the work without placing the Enterprise in drydock, and this was successfully accomplished. The vessel was loaded down at the head sufficiently to expose the propeller and the vessel was towed to Kuhio wharf, where the work was done.—Hilo Tribune.

We can make your Clothes Earn You Money!

When you were a school boy, do you remember the laughter that greeted the appearance of that ill dressed new comer?

Do you recall his embarrassment?

Later on you found he was as bright as anybody in the class. Remember how surprised you were! His appearance was against him. You could not reconcile so careless an attire with ability and brains.

On a larger scale this happens in business every day. Ability, poorly dressed, tries to get a hearing and fails, because the busy merchant hasn't time to investigate everyone who may have ability, but who doesn't look his part.

McInerney clothes will help you look your part. They have real individuality, not only in fit and material, but in style and workmanship.

Dorothy Dix Talks

DOROTHY DIX SAYS.

The wonder is not that married people split, but that the melting pot of matrimony turns out as good a product as it does.

BY DOROTHY DIX.
The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

"PEOPLE often wonder," said the woman in gray, "why so many married couples, who really love each other and try to do their duty, get along so inharmoniously together, and particularly why in-laws may at times fight like cats and dogs."

"I think that the wonder is all the other way about, and that the amazing thing is that a man and woman, coming of different blood and traditions and brought up with different ideas and tastes, adjust themselves to each other as well as they do in the close confines of matrimony. And it's a marvel that any woman can ever come into another family without causing friction."

"It's one of nature's grim little jokes that, while our opposites attract us before marriage, our opposites repel us after marriage. We fall in love with a man or woman because he or she is entirely different from the kind of people to whom we are accustomed, but after we are married this very difference irritates us and gets on our nerves. And it makes us persona non grata, as the diplomats say, to our in-laws."

"It might not make for the good of the race for each of us to marry our double, so to speak, but it certainly would make for peace and happiness in the domestic circle. Also, it would stop divorce and make matrimony one glad sweet song, for, after all, the people we really enjoy are not those with whom we are in a perpetual argument, but those who think as we do from politics to pie, and who look at life from the same point of view that we do."

"But we don't marry our likes. When a young fellow goes to pick out a wife, instead of selecting a girl of his own circle, he hunts around and finds one who differs in every respect from his mother and sisters, who really represents his ideal of womanhood, and he marries this outlander, plumps her down among his own folks and expects them to fall on each other's necks and for everybody to be happy and congenial."

"Is it surprising that a man and a woman, who see everything in the world from a different angle, clash? Or that women of different families, with different ideas on every subject under the sun, when suddenly thrown into the intimacy of family life, jar on each other? The wonder to me is that the melting pot of matrimony turns out as good a product as it does."

"Take my own case, for instance. I come of a reserved New England family, where individuality and personal liberty amounted almost to a fetish. From the time I can remember I had my own room, my own desk, my own clothes, my own books, my own belongings."

"My privacy was sacred. My mother would no more have thought of opening one of my letters or rummaging through my desk than she would have taken such liberties with the President of the United States. Nor did she ever catechise me about where I went or what I did. She welcomed my confidences, but she would have thought it beneath her dignity and mine to try to find out anything that I did not voluntarily tell her."

"Well, along comes John, a young Lochinvar out of the West, big, hearty, expansive, with not a single reserve in his whole makeup. Of course we fell in love with other because we were the different poles of humanity, and we were married and went West to live among his people."

"His sisters received me with open arms, and, what was to me, a shocking and vulgar curiosity. They asked me a million intimate questions that made me feel that I was being put through a third degree, but which I now know was inspired by only a friendly and affectionate interest in me. They pawed over my trousseau and tried on my hats and gowns and even borrowed such of my finery as suited their tastes."

"I cannot tell you with what repulsion this filled me. It made them seem savages to me, and I mortally offended them by giving them the things they had worn, because I could have no more put on a garment that had touched somebody else's flesh than I could have used another person's tooth brush.

"At first my in-laws were just bewildered. Then they became indignant, and to this day they dislike me and think me stuck up and proud, when there's nothing the matter with either of us except that we were just raised so differently."

"And my experience with my husband came near to being a tragedy. Never shall I forget the morning I came in to breakfast and found that he had opened one of my letters and was reading it. I flamed into a sudden passion at what I considered the indignity, and we had a scene that left scars that ache to this day. I felt that my rights as an individual were being outraged. He felt that a wife had no individuality aside from her husband."

"But there are things that my mother and sisters write me that are not intended for anyone but me to know."

"I'd tell you anything about mine," he replied.

DATES SET FOR SAMMIES' PARTIES

Enlisted men coming from the state of New York are asked to meet at the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for the purpose of organizing the New York State Club.

This was the first November date decided upon at the meeting of the Woman's War Council at the Y. W. C. A. Friday, when the principal subject discussed was the entertainment and welfare of the United States enlisted men. Other dates that will probably be filled with some kind of specially arranged entertainment for the soldiers are: November 15, when a social evening will be given at Central Union church; November 17, when the Lanai Players will give another performance for the soldiers; November 18-24, opening of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. On November 28, a chowder supper will be given to all enlisted men who are sons of D. A. R. members.

Although the distinguished Ohioan will be absent, the reception planned by the Buckeye club to be given to Senator Harding and all Ohio enlisted men at the Country club, November 19, will probably be given on the date set, with the Ohio soldiers themselves as guests of honor.

A business meeting of the Maui Athletic Association was held at the Bank of Maui in Wailuku last Wednesday to discuss the possible meets with teams from Honolulu and Hilo, the first to take place on Maui, the second, the marathon race, in Hilo. It was decided that because so many men were leaving for the National Guard encampment it would be impossible to consider either proposition.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bailey of Los Angeles, who are visiting the islands for a few weeks, spent several days on Maui. Mr. Bailey was born in Wailuku, where his father was manager of the Wailuku Sugar company. He reported that he felt at most lost, and had some difficulty in

"But he couldn't understand and for many years the letter proposition was a sore subject between us."

"John and his family were also the kind of people that talk things over to them. They tell all their plans, their hopes, their ambitions to anyone who will listen. To me this has always seemed the weakest kind of babble. I simply can't do it, and because I don't proclaim from the housetops what I intend doing, they consider me secretive and look upon me with an eye of suspicion."

"All the trouble there has ever been between John and myself and between me and his family goes right back to the way we were brought up, and the difference in our temperaments, and that is what makes me say that it is a pity that nature is guilty of such a blunder as the attraction of opposites."

LIBRARY SHOWS JUVENILE BOOKS

A display of juvenile books suitable as Christmas gifts for children, ranging in mental growth from the baby age straight through high school, is now being made at the Library of Hawaii, in Miss Loeb, the children's librarian, in charge, and ready to assist mothers and all others desiring good books for children in making their selections.

The books for boys of the grammar and high school age are particularly interesting this year, many of them new and timely, like "Three Years Behind the Guns," and other books pertaining to the war. Popular classics are these to choose from also, as well as other books for a permanent library. The boys' books are on a table in the walk-in-makal corner of the circulation room.

Books for girls cover the girls' classics of other years, with some new books added by some of the newer authors. These books are next to the boys' books, nearer the circulating counter.

Books for the little tots have a table all their own and are beautifully illustrated.

Booksellers in town have promised to cooperate with the library by having on hand most of the books displayed, and there is in addition lists of books recommended by other libraries that may be had by early order.

A display of books on vocational training is also being made at the library before they are put into general circulation.

HONOLULU'S MILK CONTROVERSY HAS PARALLEL IN DENVER, COLO.

Producers Wage War on Dairy Association With View to Preventing Rise in Price

Honolulu's recent milk controversy, which resulted in the Honolulu Dairy Producers' Association cutting down the price of milk from 15 to 14 cents a quart to the consumer and arranging to pay the producer at least 9 cents a quart, has had practically an exact parallel in Denver, Colo.

According to the Denver Post, the producers have begun a fight on the Denver milk trust by establishing a central depot and, as the Post headlines sum it up, have prepared to "cut out bandit profit of Denver retail dairymen's association and prevent price advances." Here is the story published in the Post:

"The days of the milk truce in Denver are numbered. No longer will the owners of the big milk distributing concerns be permitted to fix the retail price of milk at will, and screw up the price to the consumer whenever they deem the time ripe to extort additional profits out of the consumer under the pretext that they have been compelled to pay more for milk to the producer, that the price of bottles has been raised or that they are compelled to pay higher wages to their help."

"The Colorado Milk Producers' association, composed of more than eight hundred dairy men—the men who own the cows which produce the milk—has declared open war upon the Denver Retail Dairymen's association, the name under which the 'trust' is officially known. Unwilling longer to carry the yoke placed upon them by the big distributing concerns and determined to obtain a fair price for their milk, the members of this association have decided to enter the milk distributing field in Denver and fight the 'trust' to a finish."

Want No Increase
The people of Denver may rest assured that there will be no further increase in the price of milk. If anything, there may be a slight reduction from the present price. The members of the Colorado Milk Producers' association say the present price, in view of the prices paid the producers by the trust, is exorbitant, though they take the view that the producer does not receive for his product the price he should get.

"Figures prepared by the officers of the Milk Producers' association show the trust is now making a clear profit of 30 per cent upon all milk handled, not taking into consideration the profit derived from the addition of skimmed milk to pure milk which runs above 3 per cent of butter fat. Three per cent butter fat is the minimum demanded by the city regulations, and if milk delivered by the producer is richer the distributor adds skimmed milk until the butter fat content is reduced to 3 per cent, giving him an additional profit."

"Here are the figures of the Milk Producers' association to prove their contention:
Paid by distributors to produce a gallon ..... 22c
Cost of bottling, pasteurizing and distributing, etc., a gallon ..... 12c
Total cost to distributor ..... 34c
Retail price of milk, at 12c a quart, 48c
Net profit of retailer, a gallon ..... 14c
"It was their inability to induce the distributors to pay them more than 23 cents a gallon, though increased cost of farm labor and feed warrants such an increase that prompted the Milk Producers' association to decide to go into the distributing business on its own account. Its members feel that by entering the distributing field they will not only be able to obtain a fair price for their product, but at the same time break the trust's hold upon the city and prevent further increase in prices."

Plan Central Depot
Plans are about completed for a large central milk depot in this city, from which the members of the association will distribute the milk shipped in by its members. Not only will the association go into the retail business, but in connection with the depot it will install an enormous plant, equipped for the manufacture of butter, cheese, ice cream, condensed and dried milk. The trust will be fought from every angle.

"Already more than $30,000 is at the disposal of the association for the building of its plant. Dairymen are rapidly joining the association and furnishing financial support, and those in charge of the association believe their plant will be in operation within a short time. A site for the central station already has been selected but its location has not been made public for the reason that the trust will, if possible, attempt to prevent the sale of the property to the association, realizing that the advent of the association in Denver would mean loss of a great percentage of its present business."

"With the exception of a few dairymen who market their own products, the men who own the herds near Denver are members of the Colorado Milk Producers' association," said Henry R. Rhone, general attorney for the association. "We will experience no difficulty in obtaining all the milk that is brought into Denver. Practically every producer will ship his milk to us and will be glad to do it, because we will pay him more than the trust will pay him. The exceptions will be producers upon whose property the members of the trust have mortgages. They, of course, will be compelled to sell to the trust as heretofore."

"With the trust paying the producer 22 cents a gallon present retail prices in Denver are outrageous. We figured it out and have found that the trust makes 30 per cent net, if the cost of handling the milk is figured at 12 cents a gallon. Twelve cents is ample and is not a bit too low."

"The producers have stood domination of the trust as long as they could. Not only were they compelled to accept a low price for their product, but they were at the trust's mercy when it came to the testing of butter fat. Dairy herds cannot be maintained with milk bringing only 22 cents a gallon. Feed costs much more and the wages of dairy hands have gone up sky high. The producers were confronted with the problem of either selling their herds or going

MANY ATTEND Y. W. CLASSES

The month of October shows a remarkably fine record in the educational classes of the Young Women's Christian Association. During the month there were 52 classes with a total attendance of 890.

Many young women are taking advantage of the business course and it will be necessary to start second classes in January in each division of the Commercial department. Twenty-six Japanese women are learning English and incidentally acquiring many American customs and ideals through classes particularly for this purpose.

Other young women are learning practical, efficient and economical methods of cooking, sewing and millinery. With the first of the year, many new classes will be started and the opportunity will be given those who were too late to enroll in the fall term to take up the work they desire.

into business for themselves. "We have studied the situation carefully, and have come to the conclusion that we can afford to pay the producer 23 or even 30 cents a gallon for milk, handle it in our own plant and then make a fair profit at the prevailing retail price. Our association, by going into the retail business in Denver, will not only help the producer, but will stand between the trust and the consumer. The people of Denver can rest assured that there will be no further increase in the retail price of milk. The producers will see to that."
