CHINATOWN HAS A BLAZE

SERIOUS FIRE IN MAUNAKEA ST. THIS MORNING.

Four House Burned—Foreman Clark Meets With a Dangerous Accident While Bravely Doing His Duty.

The fire whistle at 3:45 this morning took the department to the mauka side of Maunakea street above Pauahi, one of the densest sections of the city. Captain Renken of the mounted patrol and a couple of policemen were the first persons on the scene. They found flames rising from the rear of a two-story wooden block and directly in rear of a Japanese ice cream saloon. Overhead was a succession of lodging-houses. On either side, in the same and an adjoining block to the right, were a Chinese store, a laundry, the ice cream parlors spoken of and a carpenter shop.

When Renken saw the fire it had attained such proportions that the block was doomed. His work was to get lodgers out of the house, assisting the fire department. In the meantime Nos. 1, 2 and 3 engines and the chemical machine began a terrific battle against the fierce flames. The entire street on that side is a solid continuation of wooden shells, which burned like tinder. Streams of water were turned from every side upon the burning block and adjoining houses. After an hour's work the flames were subdued.

Mahi, an old native, owned the destroyed block. His loss is complete. A house occupied by Mahi, just in rear of the block, was also damaged considerably by the flames and water. The block on the right, owned by Mrs. Waterbury, was damaged about $100. A Chinese store in that block was left a complete wreck. Loss, $200. The remainder of the personal property destroyed is not yet known.

At the most serious stage of the fire, John Clark, senior foreman of engine No. 2, ascended the stairs in rear of the burning block. The supports of the landing had been burned away, and when the foreman reached the platform it gave way and went down with a loud crash. Immediately below a water tap stood up about six feet above the ground. It was poor Clark's luck to fall astride of the top of this. The sharp point entered the body in front of the pelvis and penetrated upward, inflicting serious internal injuries and laying the bowels open. Clark's comrades rushed to his assistance, and saved him from an immediate death by fire. He was promptly removed to the hospital, where he is lying in a very precarious condition. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

KAMAIAINAS RETURN. Among the arrivals by the Mariposa this morning were: A. C. Alken and wife and P. J. Alken, of Paia, Maui; A. D. and F. F. Baldwin, of Haiku; Prof. Elmer E. Brown and wife, the former to lecture before the Normal school; Dr. A. B. Carter, wife and children of Easton, Penn., on a visit to Mrs. John Ena, a sister to Mrs. Carter; Mrs. Harriet Castle Coleman, Dr. Grossman, and Robt. Lewers, who have visited the Coast; W. P. Whitely, a well known traveling man of San Francisco, who returns from a vacation pleasantly spent at several resorts in California.

GONE TO SUB COMMITTEE

FORAKER, MORGAN AND DAVIS APPOINTED.

Morgan's Annexation Bill—Islands to Be Under Stars and Stripes March 4, 1898—China and Portugal Willing.

MORGAN'S BID. WASHINGTON, June 23.—Senator Morgan today introduced a bill for the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. The bill provides that the islands shall become a Territory of the United States in accordance with the terms of the recently negotiated treaty. The date set for the extension of the laws of this country over the islands is the 4th of March, 1898, but it is specifically provided that they may be put in force at an earlier day if Congress so directs.

Senator Morgan said that his bill was intended to carry the annexation treaty into execution in case it should be ratified by the Senate, or to provide for its ratification by the joint action of the two houses in case the Senate should refuse to act.

SUB-COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The Hawaiian annexation treaty formed the principal topic of consideration by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations at its brief session today. The treaty and accompanying papers were read and referred to a sub-committee consisting of Senators Foraker, Davis, and Morgan, with instructions to investigate the entire question and report to the full committee. The papers read included the protest made by Japan against the annexation. The document did not call out much comment, but all that was said was of a character to indicate that the members of the committee did not regard it as likely to lead to serious complications, though requiring the most respectful consideration.

The sub-committee will consider all the complications likely to grow out of annexation, including those referring to the trade relations of the island. This will involve a study of all of Hawaii's treaties with other countries. The inquiry will require considerable time, and no effort will be made by the full committee to take the subject up until the sub-committee shall be able to report on all the details. The realization of this fact has led the members of the committee to conclude that it is improbable that the committee as a whole will be able to pass upon the subject during the present session. The complexion of the committee is believed to be eight for ratification and three against it. There is a possibility that the number of those in favor of it may be increased to nine.

TILL DECEMBER.

It may be stated as extremely probable that the matter will be held in abeyance by the sub-committee until Congress convenes in regular session next December, for the double purpose of permitting the committee to make its investigation as thorough as possible and to permit the Executive to exert its best efforts through the use of diplomacy to persuade Japan of the unwisdom of her course. It is understood in this connection that this delay is in accordance with the wishes of the Administration as formulated to members of the Senate.

The opinion was expressed in the committee that a document of the character of that filed by Japan would, if presented by a nation more nearly the equal of the United States, lead to very serious difficulties, but there is a general desire to extend unusual consideration toward the Asiatic state, not only because of the uniformly friendly relations existing between that country and this, but also because it is felt that Japan's success in her war with China may have had the effect of arousing a spirit of combativeness which is not warranted in the opinion of the members of the committee by her relative size and importance as compared with the United States.

MESSAGE ON ANNEXATION

PRESIDENT SHOWS THE STEP TO BE A CONSUMMATION.

An Able Exposition of Events for Eighty Years Which Have Led to the Present Position of Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The following is the President's message introducing the Hawaiian Reciprocity treaty: "I transmit herewith to the Senate, in order that after due consideration the constitutional function of advice and consent may be exercised by that body, a treaty for the annexation of the Republic of Hawaii to the United States, signed in this Capital by the Plenipotentiaries of the parties on the 16th of June. For the better understanding of the subject, I transmit, in addition, a report of the Secretary of State, briefly reviewing the negotiations which have led to this important result. "The incorporation of the Hawaiian islands into the body politic of the United States is the necessary and fitting sequel to the chain of events which from a very early period of our history has controlled the intercourse and prescribed the associations of the United States and the Hawaiian islands. The predominance of American interests in that neighboring territory was first asserted in 1820 by sending to the islands a representative agent of the United States. It found further expression by the signature of a treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation with the King in 1826—the first international compact negotiated by Hawaii. It was signally announced in 1843, when the intervention of the United States caused the British Government to disavow the seizure of the Sandwich Islands by a British naval commander, and to recognize them by treaty as an independent State, renouncing forever any purpose of annexing the islands or exerting a protectorate over them. "In 1851 the cession of the Hawaiian Kingdom to the United States was formally offered, and although not then accepted, this Government proclaimed its duty to be to preserve alike the honor and dignity of the United States and the safety of the Government of the Hawaiian Islands. "From this time until the outbreak of the war in 1861, the policy of the United States toward Hawaii and the Hawaiian Sovereign toward the United States was exemplified by continued negotiations for annexation, or for a reserved commercial union. The latter alternative was at length accomplished by the reciprocity treaty of 1875, the provisions of which were renewed and expanded by the convention of 1884, embracing the perpetual cession to the United States of the harbor of Pearl river in the island of Oahu. "In 1888 a proposal for the joint guaranty of the neutrality of the Hawaiian islands by the United States, Germany, and Great Britain was declined on the announced ground that the relation of the United States to the islands was sufficient for the end in view. In brief, from 1820 to 1893 the course of the United States toward the Hawaiian Islands had consistently favored their autonomous welfare with the exclusion of all foreign influences save our own to the extent of upholding eventual annexation as the necessary outcome of that policy. "Not only is the union of the Hawaiian territory to the United States no new scheme, but it is the inevitable consequence of the relation steadfastly maintained with that mid-Pacific domain for three-quarters of a century. Its accomplishment, despite successive denials and postponement, has been merely a question of time. While its failure in 1893 may not be a cause of congratulation, it is certainly a proof of the disinterestedness of the United States, the delay of four years having abundantly sufficed to establish the right and ability of the Republic of Hawaii to enter as a sovereign contractant upon a conventional union with the United States, thus realizing a purpose held by the Hawaiian people and proclaimed by successive Hawaiian Governments through some seventy years of their virtual dependence upon the benevolent protection of the United States. "Under such circumstances, annexation is not a change; it is a consummation. The report of the Secretary of State exhibits the character and

MR. GIBSON CAN HAVE IT

OFFERED DEPUTY INSPECTOR GENERALSHIP.

The Principal of the Wimea School Wants More Time to Consider—Mr. Scott to Get a Plum.

The position of deputy inspector general of schools has been offered to T. H. Scott, principal of the Government school at Waianae, Kaala.

It is not known positively whether Mr. Gibson will accept. He has written to the Board of Education requesting more time in which to consider the matter. This the commissioners have granted him. A definite answer is expected from Mr. Gibson prior to the regular board meeting next week.

The friends of Mr. Gibson are urging him to take the job, but it is just possible that he will refuse to give up his warm attachments at Waimea. Should his answer be in the negative, it is said that the claims of a lady teaching in the Honolulu schools will be considered.

John F. Scott, the retiring deputy inspector general, will be given a very acceptable appointment, it is said, under the Educational Bureau. He will probably be made principal of one of the important schools.

WILL SURPASS ANYTHING.

Honolulu People Will Decorate Their Stores and Homes.

From the store keepers who have American and Hawaiian flags and bunting in stock, it is learned that the decorations to be made in Honolulu this year will surpass anything of the kind attempted in this city before. Hundreds of flags and yards and yards of bunting and other decoration goods have been sold this week and there can be no doubt but that these goods will be played on the Fourth. The business portion of the city will be most elaborately decorated. The down town streets will be a perfect bower of flags. C. A. McCarthy and James Dodd will build a large arch across Fort street between their establishment at the corner of King and Hotel streets. Other elaborate displays will be made in the business portion of the city. The residences will not be overlooked. Honolulu will be dressed in holiday attire from Waikiki to Nuanu, and Manoa to Kalihi on the Fourth of July.

SELF-IMPOSED MISSION.

At a special session held after the prayer meeting at the Methodist Church last evening, a resolution was unanimously passed to the effect that the local congregation had in no way authorized anyone to attend the California Conference in their interests. This resolution was sent this morning to Dr. M. C. Harris, presiding elder. Its object is distinctly to let the presiding elder know that C. V. Sturdevant in no sense represents the local church. Mr. Sturdevant's self imposed mission is evidently very distasteful to the Methodists of Honolulu.

VERY NEAR INDEED.

The treaty will certainly come before the Senate in December, but the latest telegrams from Washington tell us that it is yet quite on the cards that it may be brought up during the extra session. That it has a strong backing in the Senate is shown by the canvass recently made, which shows 57 for the treaty, 21 opposed and 11 undecided. Of these latter many are inclined to favor, but wish to hear the arguments for and against.

There are several contingencies that might bring about more speedy action, but of this we may be certain, that whether the annexation treaty is taken up or not, the exemption clause will pass in the tariff bill. For this there is the authority of Senator Frye.

That annexation has bitter enemies and powerful enemies is certain, but nothing in this world worth gaining can be got without a fight. We have made a great step forward, and now we must put in our whole strength to carry the last fortress of the anti-annexationists. The battle is all but won. We have the support of the executive of the United States, of the majority of the Senators and the unanimous opinion of all true Americans in our favor. Victory is close at hand.

PROTESTS.

The text of the treaty and President McKinley's message are now before the world, and the various countries and governments are chewing upon the information that they have received.

Japan is the only one of the nations that has made any formal protest, and it has taken up the matter mainly from the point of view of the future citizenship of its subjects. The telegram says:

"The main objection made by Japan is that the treaty will abrogate the rights given Japanese residents of Hawaii by the treaty of 1871. By that agreement all the rights and privileges of other foreigners in Hawaii were granted the Japanese."

Minister Hoshi contends that many Japanese who became citizens of Hawaii through naturalization cannot have their citizenship confirmed by the United States if the treaty becomes effective. The laws of the United States have been construed to exclude Japanese from exercising the franchise in this country, and after annexation those who have obtained naturalization in Hawaii will find themselves unprotected by any Government."

This is disingenuous. There are no naturalized Japanese in Hawaii and there are never likely to be. A copy of the Constitution of the Republic of Hawaii would be a good thing for many people to study. There are constantly mistakes being made with reference to naturalization here. The paragraphs concerning it were very carefully framed and intended to meet contingencies like the present.

The United States Government has, however, drawn up a very careful reply to Japan and has backed up its proposed action by citation and precedent. In work of this kind, Secretary Sherman is in his element and he will delight in quoting international law. Whatever he does in this line will be masterly.

From England, there is only a whisper heard at present and not likely that there will be any authoritative utterance on the subject. The British Government has never been satisfied to consider the Islands within the American sphere. Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Minister at Washington is reported as saying: "one thing about Hawaii may be said, though England and America are not likely to quarrel over the matter." Evidently Sir Julian looks for no protest from his country.

Portugal we know is favorable to annexation, and China intends to do no protest.

Looking out into the world sure has not met with the storm of opposition that might be expected. For this is a mighty move for the United States, and it is bound to arouse the jealousy of other nations. But the step is a grand one, and will redound to the credit of McKinley as a far-seeing statesman.

PURE MILK.

The report upon tuberculosis in cattle presented to the legislature of the State of Massachusetts, which appeared in these columns yesterday and is concluded today, throws much light upon a matter which is of great importance to the public at large.

Milk is one of the great necessities of life. That milk should be pure and good is even more essential than that beef should be. Milk is used by the helpless and very young, and man, like any other animal, is especially careful of his young. That bad or vitiated milk has been the cause of death in many a family, is true, and this must have been the case here, though the chances for such vitiated milk here are far less than they are in the crowded centers of the outer world. Where cows are well fed and have plenty of air, the milk is apt to be pretty good. The chances are very much against its being vitiated.

Now the large dairies around Honolulu are well kept and airy, the animals are well fed and the stock is of a superior quality. It would surprise people to know how much has been invested in milk. One dairy that has long supplied the town has over one hundred thousand dollars invested in stock, land and buildings. Another claims half that amount. Some of the cattle imported have cost as high as $1000 and the general value is from seventy-five to one hundred dollars a piece.

Of course, the presence of tuberculosis in cows naturally draws the attention of the Board of Health to the condition of the animals here, and following upon the plans adopted in the United States a number of milch cows have been tested and slaughtered. The Board has been very properly interested in the health of the public and has taken the greatest pains to protect it.

What the dairyman desires to get at is whether there is an absolute necessity for the slaughter of all animals that show reaction to the tuberculin test. His side of the contention is that the test is by no means infallible, and that great caution should be used in slaughtering.

The question of compensation will also come up before the legislature. It is no light thing for a man to see twenty or thirty cows, each worth a hundred dollars slaughtered out of his herd.

The report published by the Star gives the very latest information upon the matter, by the very ablest men in the United States. It is calculated to allay any needless panic with regard to tuberculosis, which is evidently not so dangerous as it has been represented to be.

The Japanese Press should remember that the brains and strength of this community is Anglo-Saxon and that they are not dealing with Chinamen. Up to the present, Japan's foreign policy has been put in competition with an astute, but utterly lymphatic race. It is a very different matter when it comes to dealing with the white, whose ideas of freedom have been derived from the free air of the western States. Hawaii is the outpost of the Anglo-Saxons in the Pacific and will remain so.

One of the hardest of the things in this life is to stand firm. He who can stand firm plays the winning cards in the game. Especially is it necessary to stand firm when the cards are nearly played out, when the game seems almost won. It is then that vacillation is fatal, and when dealing with the game of life nearly criminal. To have reached a point which has won the approbation of all careful thinkers, to have maintained it with energy and acumen, and then to flunk when it comes to the last struggle, looks puerile and ridiculous. The bold course wins, and it is to be hoped that none who have the care of the fortunes of our state will ever depart from that line of duty.

One of the greatest troubles connected with the giving of a lawn party is the supplying of sufficient accommodations for the guests. The telephone boys, if they would talk, could tell of Mrs. So and So asking Mrs. — to let her have a table or two and a few hundred feet of awning to use at her lawn party.

We have something new in the table line that will not only do away with all this bother, but will please those invited and make them wonder why it is that Mrs. So and So's parties are such a success.

The LAWN TENT is a large canvas made to fold up as an umbrella. The base is a round table capable of accommodating from 6 to 8 people.

The tent is raised by turning a crank under the table; when desired to be out of the way or released, a spring does the work. The price of the Lawn Tent is $60.00 a great reduction over former quotations.

Many times invalids would enjoy the pleasure of these lawn parties if they had some conveyance suitable to their condition.

We have an excellent Portable Folding Invalids Chair that can be propelled by little or no exertion by those in attendance, and can be adjusted in many different positions to relieve the occupant. For the "Unexpected Guest" it makes a very comfortable bed.

Keep It Out of Your Mouth.

The practice of wetting a lead pencil on the tongue before using is an unclean habit, to say the least, and perhaps also a dangerous one, says The Medical Review. Recently a woman of fine bearing and elegantly dressed stepped into the counting room of one of the papers of a large city to insert an advertisement. Having a pencil of her own, she picked up one that was tied with a string to a red used ice-cream cone. At once she moistened the lead with her tongue and began to write.

An elderly woman who was standing by reminded her that the pencil had just been used by an old man, ragged and dirty, greasy and filthy, who also had contracted the same habit of wetting the pencil on his tongue every time he wrote a word. The disgusted woman flung the pencil away and scolded the young man behind the counter until he had sharpened a brand new pencil for her use and benefit.

The habit is a foolish one. Instead of making the pencil write more freely and clearly, it hardens it and makes it write irregularly. Newspaper men and those who use lead pencils a great deal never dampen the lead in the mouth or with a sponge. Besides being injurious to the lead, it is a dangerous habit, inasmuch as disease has been known to be conveyed in that way into the system.—Philadelphia Times.

It is better to spend a little money in advertising now, than to hold a fire sale at a latter date.

now, to save themselves from the resentment of the people, have requested the American Government to annex Hawaii, and if Great Britain proposes to allow this most important coaling station to pass into the hands of the United States without opposition."

REPLY TO JAPAN.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The State Department has practically completed its reply to the Japanese protest against the Hawaiian annexation treaty. The reply is understood to be a strong legal defense of our position, which, without in any sense abating our claims, does not disclaim to support them by much citation of precedent and international law.

NO PROTEST.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Cabinet was in session fully two hours today. The Hawaiian treaty was discussed at length, and it is stated as a settled fact that the Administration does not now entertain any expectation of getting a vote on the treaty in the Senate before the December session of Congress.

Neither the Chinese nor the Portuguese Minister has made a protest against the Hawaiian treaty of annexation. Viscount de Santa Bryso, the Portuguese Minister, says he has no doubt but that the Portuguese colony in Hawaii will be as well protected under the United States laws as under the present regime on the islands, and he sees no reason why Portugal should lodge a protest against the treaty.

THE LATEST NEWS.

At noon of June 23 Lorrin A. Thurston telegraphed the following dispatch to parties in Honolulu in time to catch the Mariposa:

Radical action by Japan in Honolulu may force immediate consideration of treaty. Otherwise indications are it will go over to December. Frye assures me he has no doubt exemption clause will be retained.

The Crimson Rim was the wheel which carried John H. Witts from San Francisco to New York in the shortest time on record. Witts set out on his Crimson Rim from San Francisco May 14, and as he finished in New York June 24, last, his record for the distance was 41 days, 1 hour and 45 minutes. Up to that time the best record for a transcontinental trip was 48 days. "There is but one Crimson Rim; it is the Syracuse." From one end of his rough journey to the other, Witts never changed his mount. It carried him through the mountain passes of the Sierras, across the prairies of the West, over the turnpikes of the East, without a hitch. He paid no visits to the repair shops. The most that he had to do was to borrow a wrench from a friendly Sycamore in Chicago. One puncture, and one only, delayed him for a short spell. The Sycamore rider swears by his wheel. Why should he not? Is there another mount to match it?

WHERE IS THE FLAG?

The Peking Expected to Find the Stars and Stripes Flying On Her Arrival.

The officers and passengers of the steamship City of Peking expected to find the American flag over Hawaii upon their arrival at Honolulu Monday. From the decisive news received at Yokohama prior to their departure, they confidently anticipated that the last acts of annexation had preceded them to this city and that they would land in the United States much earlier than ever before on the same voyage.

Thus, as the Peking moved up the channel last evening, an officer came on deck and turned his glasses upon the Government buildings.

"Where is the flag?" inquired he, in amazement.

He could scarcely believe his ears when told that Hawaii was not yet annexed. A few moments later this fact, which was news to them, had been communicated to all the officers and passengers aboard ship.

They crowded on deck and discussed the situation. All were surprised; but when told that the Peking had brought four days later news to Honolulu, they began to see through it all. "Why, they haven't heard about annexation, yet," an officer repeated a dozen times on deck. And it was true. For the second time in a year the City of Peking had brought the most important and vital news of the day from Yokohama and around the world.

WHAT A WOMAN CAN DO.

She can rumple up fifty dollars' worth of dress goods, and buy a reel of thread, with an order to have it delivered four miles away, in a style that will transfix the proprietor of the establishment with admiration.

She can—but what's the use? A woman can do anything or everything, and do it well. She can do more in a minute than a man can in an hour, and do it better. She can make the alleged lords of creation bow down to her own sweet will, and they will never know it. Yes, and more than that, she can tell good beer from bad. That's why all sensible women insist on having "Re" or "Beer." They know it's the healthiest and best bottled beer to be had. Phone 783.

WHO IS HE?

A Strange Man Who Says the Cemetery Is His Home.

Residents on King street, near the Catholic cemetery, were disturbed yesterday by a rough appearing man who made appeals upon them at their homes for money.

At one house he insisted to the mistress that he had been there earlier before in the day and was told to return when the husband would be at home. When informed by the lady that he was mistaken, the man attempted to prove his assertion by reminding the lady that she was busy making lace curtains.

The lady asked the man to return at half-past six last evening. He inquired the number of the house and was informed that there was no number, but he might distinguish the premises by its location near the cemetery. He replied that the cemetery was his home.

Quite a few persons noticed the man walking along King street talking and moaning to himself.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. Va., and one of the most widely known men in the state, was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered. My physicians told me that nothing could be done for me, and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Company, recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst; but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured." For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co. wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

THE ANNEXATION TREATYFULL TEXT OF THE DOCUMENT GIVEN.

Some Differences Between the Former Treaty and the One Now Before the Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The following is the full text of the Hawaiian treaty sent to the Senate yesterday:

"The United States of America and the Republic of Hawaii, in view of the natural dependence of the Hawaiian Islands upon the United States, of their geographical proximity thereto, of the preponderant share acquired by the United States and its citizens in the industries and trade of the islands and of the expressed desire of the Republic of Hawaii that those islands should be incorporated into the United States as an integral part thereof, and under its sovereignty, have determined to accomplish by treaty an object so important to their mutual and permanent welfare. To this end the high contracting parties have conferred full power and authority upon their respective appointed Plenipotentiaries, to wit:

"The President of the United States; John Sherman, Secretary of State of the United States.

"The President of the Republic of Hawaii; Francis March Hatch, Lorrin A. Thurston, and William A. Kinney.

"Article I.—The Republic of Hawaii hereby cedes absolutely and without reserve to the United States of America all rights of sovereignty of whatsoever kind in and over the Hawaiian Islands and their respective dependencies; and it is agreed that all the territory of and appertaining to the Republic of Hawaii is hereby annexed to the United States of America under the name of the Territory of Hawaii.

"Article II.—The Republic of Hawaii also cedes and hereby transfers to the United States the absolute fee and ownership of all public, Government or Crown lands, public buildings or edifices, ports, harbors, military equipments and all other public property of every kind and description belonging to the Government of the Hawaiian Islands, together with every right and appurtenance thereunto appertaining.

"The existing laws of the United States relative to the public lands shall not apply to such lands in the Hawaiian Islands, but the Congress of the United States shall enact special laws for their management and disposition; provided, that all revenue from or proceeds of the same, except as regards such part thereof as may be used or occupied for the civil, military or naval purposes of the United States or may be assigned for the use of the local Government, shall be used solely for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Hawaiian Islands for educational and other purposes.

"Article III.—Until Congress shall provide for the government of such islands all the civil, judicial and military powers exercised by the officers of the existing Government in said islands shall be vested in such person or persons and shall be exercised in such manner as the President of the United States shall direct, and the President shall have power to remove said officers and fill the vacancies so occasioned.

"The existing treaties of the Hawaiian Islands with foreign nations shall forthwith cease and determine, being replaced by such treaties as may exist, or as may hereafter be concluded between the United States and such foreign nations. The municipal legislation of the Hawaiian Islands, not enacted for the fulfillment of the treaties so extinguished, and not inconsistent with this treaty nor contrary to the Constitution of the United States, not now in force, shall remain in force until the Congress of the United States shall otherwise determine. Until legislation shall be enacted extending the United States' custom laws and regulations to the Hawaiian Islands, the existing customs relations of the Hawaiian Islands with the United States and other countries shall remain unchanged.

"Article IV.—The public debt of the Republic of Hawaii lawfully existing at the date of the ratification of this treaty, including the amounts due to depositors in the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank, is hereby assumed by the Government of the United States, but the liability of the United States in this regard shall in no case exceed $4,000,000. So long, however, as the existing Government and the present commercial relations of the Hawaiian Islands are continued, as hereinbefore provided, said Government shall continue to pay the interest on said debt.

"Article V.—There shall be no further immigration of Chinese into the Hawaiian Islands, except upon such conditions as are now or may hereafter be allowed by the laws of the United States, and no Chinese, by reason of anything herein contained, shall be allowed to enter the United States from the Hawaiian Islands.

"Article VI.—The President shall appoint five commissioners, at least two of whom shall be residents of the Hawaiian Islands, who shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, recommend to Congress such legislation concerning the Territory of Hawaii as they shall deem necessary and proper.

"Article VII.—This treaty shall be ratified by the President of the United States by and with the advice and consent of the Senate on the one part, and by the President of the Republic of Hawaii, with the consent and advice of the Senate, in accordance with the Constitution of the said Republic on the other, and the ratification hereof shall be exchanged at Washington as soon as possible.

"In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the above articles and have hereunto affixed their seals.

"Done in duplicate at the city of Washington, this sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

"JOHN SHERMAN (Seal.)
 "FRANCIS MARCH HATCH (Seal.)
 "LORRIN A. THURSTON (Seal.)
 "WILLIAM A. KINNEY (Seal.)"
