DEMOCRACY SWEEP BY SILVER SEAS.

Chicago Platform Declares for Free and Unlimited Coinage.

BRYAN NAMED FOR PRESIDENT.

Was a Dark Horse—Won on Fifth Ballot—Fall to Endorse Cleveland—Money the War Cry—McLean Probable Vice-President.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 10.—William J. Bryan of Nebraska was selected to-day as the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in the campaign for the Presidency of the United States. Yesterday when the handsome young Nebraskan mounted the rostrum in the convention hall to close the debate on the party platform he was considered the merest possibility in the race for the honor to be conferred. Half an hour later, when he concluded his great rhetorical effort, name brought forth hearty cheers that told the story of the firm hold he had upon those who could make or unmake him in his Presidential aspirations and upon the thousands of on-lookers.

The battle of the ballots was fought with a doggedness that showed a firm determination on the part of those pledged to particular candidates to be consistent in the desire of their hearts, but little by little the standard of Bryan was pressed nearer and nearer to the point of vantage. At first he gained slowly, then a great leap would be made as some delegation of the formidable numbers would throw in its lots his cohorts. The fourth ballot was reached and the result was still uncertain, but at its end Bryan was all but within the goal.

Delegates and audience became excited when it became apparent that the Nebraskan had gathered many recruits from the bland forces, and cheer after cheer went up from floor and gallery. A rumor went round the vast hall that Illinois, consistent as Missouri in adherence to the lifelong champion of free coinage of silver, was wavering, and when Governor Altgeld and his associates withdrew for consultation the excitement drew to fever heat. Change followed change in the ballots cast by the various States and all went to the

he had become a seeming probability. With the hours of the night his chances grew, and when the convention resumed business this morning he had been established as Richard P. Bland's most formidable competitor.

As the balloting progressed his popularity among the delegates became more and more apparent, and his strength in votes went by leaps and bounds until the culmination came in the capture of Illinois and Ohio and the withdrawal of Bland with the consequent transfer of Missouri to the Bryan column.

There were no glaring transparencies, no life-sized lithographs, no special bands of music to attract to the eloquent lawyer and newspaper man. The modest banner of the William J. Bryan Club, a Nebraska organization, was the only conspicuous emblem of the Bryan cause.

During the night a standard had been prepared bearing the concluding words of Bryan's speech of yesterday—"No crown of thorns, no cross of gold"—and this alone was the most suggestive outward indication that the Nebraskan was in the race to stay. But it needed no artificial means, such as these, to keep Bryan's name to the fore. His striking presence, his earnest bearing, his wonderful melodiousness of voice as exhibited in this speech, had not faded from the minds of delegates and spectators, and every mention of his man from the Platte, and when Illinois, Ohio, and finally Missouri, threw their strength to his support the race had been won, and William J. Bryan stood forth in triumph as the leader of his party.

Exhausted by cheering the name of the Nebraskan, the vast congregation in the convention was slow to avail itself of the opportunity for displaying the full extent of its vigor, but it gradually rose to the demands of the occasion, and turned loose a volume of sound that made the iron roof tremble in unison. Every man and woman in the hall was standing as the Bryan supporters on the floor grasped the guidons indicating the positions of the various States and marched in triumph through the aisles bounding the square spaces reserved for delegates, and as the guidons of other States joined the procession the cheering became madly intense.

Bland's banners, Boies banners and emblems of other candidates fell into line, and the culminating point in the enthusiasm was reached when the Bland band, bearing the Missouriian's name, took step with the rest and bent their endeavors to "Dixie's" quickstep. When it was all over people fell back in their chairs weak and exhausted and listened quietly to the formalities which concluded the session.

To-night's session was held for the purpose of selecting the candidate for Vice-President, but without proceeding to a ballot an adjournment was forced until to-morrow at 10 A. M., when efforts will be made to complete the business of the convention.

YALE BEATEN IN ENGLAND.

Nearly Two Lengths Behind the Englishman at Finish.

POOR MATERIAL IN YALE BOAT.

Englishmen Say Defeat Is Due to Bad Oars—Cook Had no Faith—Cordial Treatment of Americans—How They Could Have Won the Race.

HENLEY, (England), July 7.—The Yale crew was overmatched and fairly and squarely beaten to-day at Henley. Leander crossed the line a length and a half in advance of the American boat and there is no reason why it should not be admitted that the victors should have made it two lengths, perhaps three if they had chosen to do so. The most satisfactory feature of the result is that the Yale men frankly admit that their opponents on the whole are better oarsmen and won on their merits. Not a man in the Yale boat would dream of suggesting that the Englishmen jockeyed or tried to trick them in any way, and the Britishers may rest assured that no post-mortem pamphlet containing base insinuations will be issued when the Yale crew goes back to America.

More than this, it should be said with equal emphasis that the treatment of the visiting oarsmen from beginning to end has been most cordial and hospitable.

There are certain interesting things to be said about the reasons of Yale's easy defeat in the first heat of the great race. It was due mainly to two things: Lack of sufficient time for the men to adapt themselves to local conditions, and failure to adopt the best measures for competing under these conditions. It is probably true that the Yale men were not up to the average university standard of recent years, and that the preparations for a short race are very different from those necessary for a four-mile race. It should also be said that unwarranted interference by one or more persons who came over with the American oarsmen seriously handicapped them in their training. An important factor in the result was the oars used. Whatever may be true of the new London course, it is a fact that the Yale oar blades were too broad for the crew's best work in the dead, glassy water of the Thames. It is the unanimous opinion of the English coaches that Yale was defeated by Leander's narrower oar blades. The Americans pulled to their boat-house after the race and Trevor Jones said to a representative of the Sun:

"I can now tell you what I was not willing to say yesterday. In my opinion Yale's defeat was due to her oar-blades being too wide for this heavy water—in fact, for any water. Your crew led to Fawley court, half of the course, and if you had had proper oars they would have led to the finish. All of our coaches agree with me in regard to your oars. I expected Yale would defeat Leander. Your crew rowed a gallant race, one of the finest ever seen on English waters. With narrower oar-blades and, perhaps, a little more body swing, giving more time for breathing on recovery, Yale would be all right. I cannot speak too well of the way Yale pulled out the last ounce of power."

Trevor Jones' opinion is endorsed by all the coaches, even by Cook. It was on this point chiefly that the interference by outsiders arose, and certain members of the crew positively refused to row with the new oars. The result was Yale was obliged to row the first half at a killing pace in order to keep up with Leander, whose stroke was a point lower than the visitors'. Yale led at the half-way post by twenty feet, then Leander spurred and went ahead. The Yale crew to-night elected F. H. Bailey, '97, who rowed No. 5, captain for next year.

Satoli's Successor.

ROME, Italy, July 5.—The Pope has nominated Monsignor Diomedea Tamconis Papal delegate to the United States in succession to Cardinal Satoli, who is expected to arrive here on July 15.

Turkish Christians Elect Provisional Government—Satoli's Successor Appointed—Nansen not Heard From Serum Discovered for Lockjaw.

HAVANA, Cuba, July 4.—Colonel Drualla reports that with 620 men he left the Conchita estate near Bolodron province of Matanzas, marched toward La Jagua and found the rebel parties, commanded by Laceret, Roque and other leaders, occupying a strong position behind stone fences.

The troops dislodged the rebels after a strong resistance and a bayonet charge caused them to flee in all directions. The insurgents left twenty-three dead on the field. The Spanish loss was four killed and fifty wounded.

Surgeon-General Losada officially states that the number of sick troops in the whole island is 6810, besides 695 who are suffering with yellow fever.

Cuban Proclamation.

NEW YORK, July 4.—The Herald's cable from Havana, July 3, via Jacksonville, July 4, says: Cubitas letter announces the text of an important proclamation issued by the Marquis of Santa Lucia, the rebel President, favoring an American protectorate or the formal annexation of the island to the United States once independence from Spain shall be attained.

SERUM FOR LOCKJAW.

German Scientist Discovers a Method for Treating the Disease.

BERLIN, July 7.—Dr. Blumenthal, First Assistant Professor at Leyden, will publish Saturday a scientific report on the treatment of lockjaw by serum which the medical fraternity looks forward to with interest. Dr. Blumenthal gave me the following extract for "The Examiner":

"I discovered and show by numerous examples why serum has failed in the treatment of cases of lockjaw. Lockjaw poison clings to the spinal tissues with such tenacity as to defy neutralization by serum. The experiment I made proved, however, that if while the lockjaw poison is circulated in the blood, serum is injected, the poison is destroyed."

More Honors for Americans.

LONDON, July 8.—After a very brief period of rest following the banquet in their honor last night, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts went to Windsor to-day. At Windsor they were welcomed by the Mayor and Corporation of the town, who presented a formal address, to which Captain Walker made a fitting reply.

At 1 o'clock the Queen arrived in a carriage in which was also seated the Princess Frederick. They were entertained by an exhibition drill.

England's Sugar Bounty.

LONDON, Eng., July 8.—In the House of Commons to-day Right Hon. George N. Curzon, Parliamentary Secretary for Foreign Affairs, stated in reply to a question by Sir Charles Vincent that the Government was not disposed to take the initiative steps toward the abolition of the sugar bounty system.

Defeat of Mashonas.

SALISBURY (Matabelland), July 8.—Forty whites and 100 Zulus repulsed a strong force of Mashonas at Briscoe's farm, killing twenty-five. There have been further massacres and in some instances Mashona native police have killed their officers.

No News of Nansen.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Russian Consul-General at this city has received a report from the several Governors of the northern section of Russia in which they state that Explorer Nansen, who attempted to reach the north pole, had not been heard by them.

Renounce Turkish Rule.

ATHENS, Greece, July 5.—As an outcome of the insurrection in Crete against Turkish rule, the Christians of the island to-day elected a provisional Government, and decided to proclaim the union of the island with Greece.

FIRST DAY'S SESSION.

Hill and Gold Men Turned Down at Outset.

CHICAGO, July 7.—In the magnificent and capacious Coliseum in Jackson Park, beneath clear skies, with a cool, invigorating breeze snapping at the flags and trappings, and the blue waters of Lake Michigan stretching away to the north, the Democratic National Convention met to-day. After a brief, but decisive battle in the arena, the silver men indicated their supremacy.

Chairman Harrity called the convention to order, his voice easily being heard over the tumult to the furthest corner, testing the acoustic qualities of the hall with satisfactory results. The chairman faced the assemblage for several minutes while the ushers swept the aisles clean of knots of conferring delegates. The gavel descended at ten minutes before 1 o'clock.

After the prayer Harrity announced that David B. Hill had been selected by the National Committee as temporary chairman.

A minority report was read by the National Committee man Clayton substituting John W. Daniels of Virginia. The minority report was accepted by a vote of 556 to 349. This was the first victory for the silver faction. At 4:43 p. m. the convention adjourned for the day.

REFUSE TO ENDORSE CLEVELAND.

Second Day Shows Great Strength of Silver.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The battle of giants was waged all along the line today, with the silver men in control in the committee rooms and in the convention. No quarter was shown. The committee on resolutions, where they had a majority of twenty, crushed the minority platform, and with a few modifications adopted the platform adopted by the sub-committee last night. It declares briefly for the free and independent coinage of silver without the co-operation of any other nation; for a tariff for revenue only, sufficient to pay the expenses of the Government economically administered; for a constitutional amendment for an income tax; against Federal interference in local affairs; against a third term; for simplicity and economy in national affairs; against a refunding of the Pacific railroad debt; condemns the issue of bonds in time of peace, and gives a mild endorsement to the civil service law.

Senator Hill, following the Biblical injunction to turn the other cheek, after the resolutions which inferentially condemned the President at three distinct points had been adopted by the committee, offered a plank commending the Administration for its honesty, fidelity and courage. By a vote of 27 to 17 it was defeated.

The net result of the day's session was the seating of the Nebraska delegation. This was the signal for a wild demonstration in honor of Bryan, the "boy orator of the Platte," who is now everywhere recognized as a formidable dark horse.

With the forcible speech of Senator White on taking the chair the permanent organization was perfected and at 9:30 o'clock the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

GOLD MEN DIE HARD.

Events of Third Day—Silver Platform Adopted.

CHICAGO, July 9.—At 10:52 Chairman White dropped the gavel. The buzz of thousands of voices gradually subsided and the delegates took their seats. The New England delegations, with the exception of a few stragglers, had not arrived. The New York delegation, however, headed by Hill and Whitney, were in their places.

The reading of the platform was concluded without marked applause. Then the report of the minority was read by J. H. Wade of Ohio, former reading clerk of the House of Representatives.

The minority report was signed by David B. Hill of New York, William Vilas of Wisconsin, George Gray of Delaware, John Prentiss Poe of Maryland, Irving W. Drake of New Hampshire, C. O. Homan of Maine, P. J. Farrell of Vermont, Lynde Harrison of Connecticut, Davis E. Baker of Rhode Island, Thomas A. C. Woodcock of Michigan, James E. O'Brien of Minnesota, John E. Russell of Massachusetts, Robert E. Wright of Pennsylvania, William R. Steele of South Dakota, Allan A. McDermott of New Jersey and C. D. Rodgers of Alaska.

After this was received Senator Hill presented resolutions to amend the silver plank of the platform.

Senator Tillman was recognized and offered resolutions denouncing President Cleveland as deserving impeachment. The entire reading of Tillman's resolution was fiercely hissed.

A great oratorical battle then followed. Senator Hill lead and was followed by Vilas and Russell. Then W. J. Bryan made the silver speech that electrified the convention and placed him among the leaders for the Presidential nomination. Cheer after cheer and yell after yell from the silverites followed the many telling points of his speech.

When Bryan closed there was great cheering. Many States carried their banners to the Nebraska delegation. Texas started, followed by Georgia, and nearly every State staff was carried in quick succession to Nebraska. None of the gold State banners were taken from their fastenings. The convention cheered wildly as the Illinois standard was taken to Nebraska, and all silver staffs surrounded Nebraska except Indiana. Altgeld said it was the finest speech he had ever listened to, and added, "I don't know but it may nominate Bryan."

There was a procession about the aisles, led with the State standards of Kentucky and Nebraska, and others following.

Order was restored at last, and on the call of the previous question on Hill's motion to substitute a gold for a silver plank the gold men were defeated by a vote of 628 for silver to 393 for gold.

Senator Tillman got upon a chair and withdrew the resolution of censure he had read during his speech. He said: "The vote taken is equivalent to a vote of censure. Where an affirmative proposition is negated its converse is affirmed. A brave man never strikes a fallen foe. I withdraw the resolution of censure."

There were a few cheers mingled with more hisses.

Upon Hill's demand the vote was then taken by States on the adoption of the platform. It was taken in almost total silence. As New York and Pennsylvania cast their big blocks of votes against the platform, however, there was considerable cheering.

The result was announced—628 to 391, with one absent—and the revised Democratic creed had been sealed, signed and ratified.

At the evening session nominations for President were begun. Senator Vest nominated Richard P. Bland of Missouri. Governor Overmeyer of Kansas seconded the nomination. Ex-Senator Pat Welsh of Georgia nominated William J. Bryan of Nebraska. Senator Turpie of Indiana nominated Claude Matthews, which was seconded by O. T. Trippett of California. Frederick White of Iowa nominated Horace Boies. John Rhea nominated Blackburn of Kentucky. The Massachusetts delegation nominated ex-Governor Russell, and A. W. Patrick placed the name of John R. McLean of Ohio before the convention.

At midnight the third day's session was brought to a close.

THEY BOLT DEMOCRACY.

New York Herald and Sun Support McKinley.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 10.—The Herald will to-morrow print the Sun's editorial of to-day, bolting the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago, with this addition: "These are our sentiments and those of every true, honest and loyal American whose word is as good as his bond."

HOW IT WAS DONE.

Details of Five Ballots to Name Democratic Nominee.

CHICAGO, July 10.—At the opening of the fourth day's session Chairman Harrity placed the name of Robert E. Pattison of Pennsylvania in nomination. Mr. Miller nominated ex-Governor Penoyer of Oregon, after which the nominations were closed and the great battle of ballots began.

On the first ballot Alabama divided its vote between Russell and Boies. Massachusetts delegates purposely absented themselves.

Michigan's delegation was polled, and several of the delegates when their names were called responded in loud tones: "I decline to vote." Others simply said, "Not voting."

Minnesota brought Adlai E. Stevenson's name before the convention, but not a solitary cheer greeted it.

New Jersey being reported, the chairman of the delegation rose and said New Jersey respectfully declined to vote, whereupon the galleries broke into cheers and hisses. The chair requested that such demonstrations cease, and a delegate shouted: "They are all Republicans and ought to be put out!"

The State of New York adopted the same course as the State of New Jersey. On being called, ex-Governor Flower rose and said: "In view of the platform adopted by this convention, I am instructed as a delegate from the State of New York to say that the delegates have agreed not to participate in the selection of candidates for President and Vice President, and therefore they decline to vote."

North Carolina voted solid for Bryan. Ohio gave 41 votes to McLean, South Carolina stood by Tillman. Nineteen of the Wisconsin delegation declined to vote. Massachusetts finally cast its vote for Hill.

The chair announced the result of the first ballot as follows: Bland 223, Bryan 105, Boies 86, Blackburn 83, McLean 54, Matthews 37, Campbell 2, Pattison 95, Penoyer 10, Russell 2, Stevenson 2, Tillman 17, Teller 8, Hill 1, absent and not voting 185.

The result of the second ballot was announced at 1:18 p. m., as follows: Second ballot—Bland 281, Boies 37, Matthews 34, McLean 53, Blackburn 41, Pattison 100, Bryan 197, Penoyer 8, Stevenson 10, Hill 1, Teller 8, not voting 160.

The third ballot was then begun at 1:30 p. m. New York on the third ballot, as on the second, remained mute when the name of that State was called, and the clerk repeated the call in his loudest tone, but without result.

The result of the third ballot was announced at 1:50 p. m., as follows: Bland 291, Boies 56, McLean 54, Bryan 219, Blackburn 27, Pattison 97, Stevenson 9, Hill 1, absent or not voting 162.

At 2:45 o'clock the fifth rollcall was begun and it soon became evident that Bryan would secure votes enough in this ballot to nominate him by the necessary majority. When Kentucky, which was one of the States which did not join in the procession, was reached, Mr. Rhea, who had put Senator Blackburn in nomination, rose and withdrew Kentucky's candidate. Bland's name was withdrawn and finally Senator Turpie of Indiana mounted the platform and said, amid great noise and confusion, that the delegates from Indiana had stood from first to last for the distinguished chief magistrate of Indiana, but in view of the wave which had just swept over the convention he was now authorized to withdraw the name of Governor Matthews and to cast the vote of Indiana for William J. Bryan of Nebraska. (Cheers.)

"In view of the unity which should prevail in the convention I move that the nomination of W. J. Bryan be made unanimous." (Cheers.)

After the vote of Texas had been shifted to Mr. Bryan the chairman put the question on Senator Turpie's motion to make the nomination unanimous, and declared it carried, only a few votes in the negative coming from the Pennsylvania delegation.

When the announcement was made all order was cast to the winds. The delegates and the audience began to cheer and wave hats, flags and banners, while the march around the sections was again taken up, all the State emblems being this time carried in the procession.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Conference of the Leaders Held, but an Understanding is Not Reached.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 11.—A conference on the Vice-Presidential nominee was held at the Sherman House to-night. Nearly every State except the gold States was represented. Governor Stone of Missouri, Governor Altgeld of Illinois, Senator Daniel of Virginia and other prominent leaders were present. John R. McLean, Governor Matthews, C. Fred Williams and Joseph Silby were talked of, as were others who have been mentioned in connection with the second place in the ticket. The relative strength of each man was considered and a message was sent over to Mr. Bryan to learn his position in regard to the men most talked of.

At 12:30 a. m. no decision had been reached as to who should be placed in nomination. The consensus of opinion was that candidates from the South and from States east of the Alleghenies were unavailable. This practically killed the chances of Silby and Sewell of Maine, George Fred Williams and the several candidates from the South.

The split in the Ohio delegation, which was divided between John R. McLean and Allen W. Thurman, made it unlikely that either of these candidates would be selected.

Governor Matthews of Indiana seemed to stand the test of criticism better than most of the other candidates.

WHO BRYAN IS.

Born in Illinois—Noted for His Eloquentary Power.

William Jennings Bryan was born in Salem, Ill., March 19, 1856. He was graduated from Illinois College at Jacksonville in 1881. To make his way through the Union College of Law at Chicago he worked in Lyman Trumbull's law office and became a favorite with that distinguished jurist.

From his earliest years he had a fancy for public speaking, which developed his oratorical powers. In 1880 he won second prize as the representative of Illinois College in the State collegiate oratorical contest. He was valedictorian of his college class and came within one vote of being elected to the position in the law school. From 1880 he spoke in political campaigns. In 1887 he removed to Lincoln, Neb., and formed a law partnership with a fellow classmate. "I don't think that fellow knows much law," said a veteran practitioner concerning Bryan soon after the latter began to practice, "but he can talk like the devil."

Bryan belongs to the anti-Cleveland wing of the Nebraska Democracy. He has served several terms in Congress and was appointed on the Ways and Means Committee by Speaker Crisp.

In religion Mr. Bryan is a Presbyterian, but he remarked once that he had never read the confession of faith, and although he did not know much about the religion he was born in that faith, and would stay in it.

Mr. Bryan married in 1884 to Miss Mary E. Baird, the daughter of a merchant in Peru, Ill. She studied law and was admitted to the bar in Nebraska.

Next Year in San Francisco. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 10.—It is settled that San Francisco will have the convention of the Christian Endeavorers next year. That much was announced officially to-day by General Secretary Baer.

COL. MACFARLANE AS A FINANCIER.

Successfully Floats a Big Hawaiian Loan in London.

NOW SELLING AT A PREMIUM.

The Spreckelsville 7 Per Cent. Bonds Converted into Those Bearing 5 Per Cent.—Spreckels in London at the Time—Experience is Necessary.

G. W. Macfarlane arrived by the Australia yesterday, flushed with the success of his recent mission to London, where he negotiated a loan for three-quarters of a million dollars on behalf of the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company of Maui, or better known as the Spreckelsville Plantation, which is now owned or controlled by Messrs.
C. A. and Rudolph Spreckels, sons of the millionaire sugar king. California and Eastern papers in their telegraphic dispatches from London, recently announced briefly the success of this loan, and with a view of learning the exact facts, a representative of the Advertiser last night called on Col. Macfarlane at the Hawaiian Hotel, and an interview was courteously afforded the representative.

The following information was given in answer to the question, "Can you, give us, Col. Macfarlane, for the information of our readers, some particulars of the recent bond issue in London?"

"To begin with," said the Colonel,
"the difficulty of placing a good Hawaiian security in San Francisco and New York (where they should be better known) has been long understood by commercial men interested in these islands, and as the Spreckelsville Company had a large number of their old issue of first mortgage bonds maturing this year, which were bearing 7 per cent interest, the Messrs. Spreckels conceived the idea that a conversion of these bonds might be made in London, at a lower rate of interest, and some months ago they placed in my charge the issuance of their new Hawaiian sugar bonds in that market."

"After collecting certain data and information about the property I proceeded directly to London, and succeeded in forming a syndicate among certain financial men there, who guaranteed the issue of a 5½ per cent bond, or debenture, to the London public, and a London Stock Exchange quotation for a certain commission."

"A successful issue was made last April and the amount subscribed within forty-eight hours. In fact, the subscribers to the loan discounted their payments, mostly at 2 per cent per annum. Immediately upon the issue, as the representative of the English bondholders, I proceeded directly to San Francisco and there completed the new deed of trust with the company, and through the courtesy of the president and directors I was elected a director on their board, and with them executed the new debentures, which were at once forwarded to London, to the English trustees, Sir William L. Young and Sidney Hoffnung Goldsmith, and on telegraphic advices from me of the forwarding of the bonds, the money was immediately cabled to the company's credit, with the Anglo-Californian Bank in San Francisco, and has now been paid out, and all the old bonds of the company have been cancelled. The new ones run for twenty years, and redeemable at any time after five years, at the option of the company; i. e., they are known as 5-20's, and are secured on the real estate, improvements and the floating assets of the company, as well as the unpaid liability of the stockholders. The company is now on a splendid financial footing, and owing to its very prosperous year and heavy crop prospects next year, I should not be surprised to see, within a twelve-month, the company redeeming its bonds by purchase in the open market."

"This is practically all the facts connected with this loan, to which your paper is welcome; but I attribute my success partly to luck, as well, perhaps, as to management."

"Is it true that Claus Spreckels was in London when the issue was made?"
"Yes! He was there the very day of the issue, on his way, I think, to Germany, and I do not believe he knew it was coming out until he saw it announced in the London morning papers. I refused interviews to the San Francisco papers, as it was freely circulated there that I had taken up this business and put it through from motives of business revenge against Claus Spreckels, owing to my past business differences and litigation with him. This I utterly disclaim; nor have his sons ever discussed such a matter with me. I took it up as a pure matter of business, and Mr. Claus Spreckels or any one else could have engaged me on such a good proposition. I thoroughly believed in the security offered me, and conscientiously felt I could recommend it to my London friends. The bonds are now quoted at 104, having been issued at par. I had some difficulty at first in inducing my friends to take a Hawaiian industrial bond, at a less rate of interest than a Hawaiian National or Government bond, which bears 6 per cent interest; but in view of the expected conversion of the latter at a lower rate, I was able to carry my point."

"You speak of a London Stock Exchange quotation for your bonds. What is the value of this?"
"Simply it means you will have a quotation for your security in the principal money center of the world, and with this quotation you can, if you need it, at any time, take your security into any English bank and have 90 to 95 per cent advanced on its quoted value, and not pay over 2 per cent per annum for the accommodation, while your security is drawing, say, 5½ per cent per annum, thus enjoying the difference on the investment and getting back nearly all the money originally invested. Clever investors and capitalists by this means make many good turns on their capital with steady securities."

SNATCHED FROM DEATH.

When Hope Had Almost Fled She Was Quickly Saved.

A Remarkable Story That Shows
What a Little Thing May Save a Human Life.

From the Courier, Saginaw, Mich.

Many strange things come within the observation of a newspaper man, and none are stranger than those that show on what little things hinges life or death, or what small things may snatch a victim from a yawning grave and restore him to life and usefulness.

A striking illustration of this fact recently came under the observation of a Courier representative while in the little town of Elba. There he met Mrs.
Arthur Howland, wife of the keeper of the village hotel, and she told the following story:

"About five years ago I went to bed one night as well as ever. In the night I was taken with violent cramps, which lasted all night long. I was in terrible distress. My husband called in a physician, who injected morphine to quiet the intense pain. In the morning I was taken with vomiting, which continued for two days and nights. This was accompanied by continuous pain. For a year I was in this condition, and I paid out a large sum for drugs and medical attendance. It was all unavailing, and I had no relief whatever. I began to despair of relief when a lady friend recommended 'Pink Pills for Pale People' to me."

"I had tried many remedies and had but little faith in anything, but I had my husband get a box of Pink Pills for me. I had not taken over five doses when I felt relief, and within two months I was entirely relieved, not only of my stomach trouble, but also of a fearful headache that had troubled me for years. For several years I had been unable to do my own work. I had fallen away so much that doctors said I had consumption, and my friends thought I could not survive the complication of troubles that had fallen on me."

"Pink Pills restored me to health and activity. I now do my own work, am happy all day long, and when I look back to my years of suffering I feel that I cannot say enough in praise of them.
I would like all suffering persons to try them."

This is only one of many wonderful cures that have been reported as following the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
Diseases that have baffled skilled physicians for years have, in many cases yielded, as if by magic, when Pink Pills have been tried by the sufferer.
Their effect has been quick and permanent in such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, that tied feeling resulting from vitiated humors of the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a valuable specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness, and in men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature. The use of this medicine is followed by no ill effects and it may be given to children with perfect safety.

Pink Pills are put up in glass vials, both outside wrapper and vial bearing the full trade mark "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." These pills are sold by Hollister Drug Co., Holron Drug Co., and all dealers in medicine.

SATURDAY, JUNE 18.

The Democratic platform says nothing of annexation, and in fact ignores the idea that the United States ever had a foreign policy. The repudiation of President Cleveland's administration, however, is as complete as it could be, and should the party candidates be successful at the polls they would probably inaugurate a new deal in foreign as well as domestic policy.

The reports of the returning financiers indicate that Hawaiian securities are by no means at a discount in the financial centers of the United States and England. As Mr. Jones will naturally have the first option on floating the refunding loan, we trust that he will stick to his American text and so strengthen the financial ties between Hawaii and the United States.

The second newspaper for Hilo is no longer a possibility. The plant has been purchased, and unless some unforeseen circumstance arises, the Hawaii Herald, an independent weekly, will soon be launched into the troublesome seas of Hawaiian newspaperdom. We wish our soon-to-be esteemed contemporary all the joy and success that the promoters of the scheme may hope for.

The suggestion recently made to form a general charitable association in Honolulu has been received with more favor than the most sanguine had dared to hope. During the summer vacation period it is hardly probable that any move can be made to bring about this combination of forces, but the prime movers will be none the less active. It is hoped that those interested in the work will give what personal attention they can to collecting data regarding the management of similar institutions in other cities, and endeavor to formulate a general scheme that may be presented later in the year.

DEMOCRACY BOWS TO SILVER.

The Populists have captured the Democratic party of the United States. The prediction made early in the history of President Cleveland's administration that at the next Presidential election one of the great political parties would either die a hard death or take on such a new form that its own mother would not know it, has been fully realized. By the platform adopted at Chicago the Democrats have practically formed a new party, although the name still survives.

The victory of the silver forces was complete, and although there was no bolt of delegates from the convention, the silence of 160 delegates when the ballots for the Presidential candidate were taken is indicative that the Eastern Democracy will seek more rational and less socialistic candidates on which to bestow their honors. The two important features of the platform are the declarations for silver and the repudiation of Cleveland's action in sending Federal troops to quell strikers in the West. The tariff is placed second to the monetary question, and prevention of the importation of pauper labor from Europe is named as the only protection required for the American laborer. A paragraph of sympathy is given the Cuban patriots, but the platform pays no attention whatever to the foreign policy. "Silver coinage at a ratio of 16 to 1" is put down as the panacea for all American woes, and with this motto as their guiding star the Populist Democracy will go into the political fight of 1896.

In naming their candidates the Democratic convention repeated the history of the hard fought Republican battle of 1880, when Garfield was named as the party candidate. Bryan of Nebraska went to the convention practically unknown as a Presidential possibility, and it was his inspiring oratory rather than his political prominence that finally gained him the honor of becoming the party leader. There can be no doubt that Bryan is a good candidate. He is more generally known for what he hasn't done, and consequently has few enemies. From this fact alone he may well be classed as a typical candidate. One redeeming feature about his nomination is that it sounded the death knell of Altgeld's supremacy, although the platform shows the iron hand of the Illinois Governor.

As to the political battle that is now fairly set in motion, the whole situation is completely changed from that of any campaign since the war. The Populists will undoubtedly endorse Bryan, and the solid South and West will be pitted against the East. The doubtful territory now comprises the Middle Western States, and possibly California in the extreme West. Never since the war have the political parties gone into a campaign on such distinct and clearly defined issues. There is no begging the question with either combination. The platforms are worded to the point, and the people of the United States will decide whether their nation is to be degraded to the position of Mexico, Japan and other silver countries or hold its place among the strong commercial nations of the world.

Japanese Coal.
Japanese coal will be brought to the markets of San Francisco in competition with the standard grades that have been in use by manufacturers for years. The owners of the mines at Kobe have reasoned that the present time is auspicious to introduce Japanese fuel into America. The miners at the Newcastle mines have been on a strike for some months and there has been a scarcity of coal from the Australian fields ever since. Five large steamers are loading with Japanese coal for this port, and two more are under charter to carry similar cargoes within the next thirty days. — San Francisco Examiner.

Blood Poisoning

13 Running Sores Gave Way to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Gentlemen—Thirteen years ago I was in Cour De Alene, now called Fort Sherman, Idaho. While there I went in swimming one day and caught cold, chilling the bone in my leg, causing a fever sore on my limb. The sore continued about three months, continually rotting my leg until it got up to my knee, when I had the limb amputated. My leg was so rotten that after the limb was amputated the foot dropped off. From this state I got blood poisoning and had Thirteen Running Sores on my body. These sores continued from three to four years, my blood being in a terrible condition. After this I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I used three bottles and found it did me good, so I kept on until I had used ten bottles or more. My blood was completely cleansed. The sores stopped running and have not troubled me any now for six years. My appetite and digestion are good and I am perfectly well. I owe my cure to Hood's Sarsaparilla.' P. S. Before JUDD, C. J., FREAR and WHITING, JJ.

The circuit judge having sustained a de-murrer to a bill in equity for want of necessary parties and on other grounds, this court, sustaining the ruling as to necessary parties, sends the case back to the Circuit Judge for amendment as to parties and without prejudice to the new or the present parties to further appeal after her final on the other grounds upon which the Circuit Judge sustained the demurrer.

OPINION OF THE COURT
BY JUDD, C. J.

The bill herein was filed in the Circuit Court, First Circuit, on the 11th of last March. It prayed for an accounting, the appointment of a receiver, etc.
The case involved the construction of two certain deeds of trust made by Mr.
C. Afong, the father of the complainants and husband of the principal respondent.

Demurrers were interposed which alleged, inter alia, that Mr. C. Afong was a necessary party; also that Mrs. Henrietta C. Whiting and Tony Afong, children of the said C. Afong, were necessary parties. All these are absent from this country. Other grounds of demurrer were made, which raised questions not now necessary to consider, and the construction of the trust deeds as to the ownership of the surplus income from the trust fund, and the decision upon this point would determine the question of respondents' liability to account. The Court below sustained the demurrers on all the points, finding C.
Afong, Mrs. Henrietta C. Whiting and Tony Afong necessary parties, and that the surplus income was Mrs. Julia C.
Afong's, and allowed the complainants to amend and file an amended bill in compliance with its decision. The complainants appealed to this Court.

On the case coming up for argument, the complainants moved to have the case continued until the next term of the Court, which motion this Court, after argument, denied. The complainants then filed an abandonment of their appeal against the decision sustaining the demurrers, that Mr. Afong, Mrs.
Whiting and Tony Afong were necessary parties, and accepted the decision of the lower Court on this issue, but without prejudice to their appeal upon all other issues raised by the demur-rers and decided adversely to them below.

We find here an anomalous condition of affairs. There are conceded on all sides to be necessary parties to this litigation, whose interests are involved and who are not made either parties complainant or respondent herein, and who have had no opportunity to be heard upon the matters decided by the lower Court. This Court cannot undertake to hear and determine questions affecting the interests of these absent persons, unless they are made parties and have had an opportunity to come into Court. The Circuit Judge should allow the complainants to amend their complaint by adding the parties found to be necessary, without prejudice to complainants' right of appeal upon the other substantial questions raised upon the deeds of trust. To require the complainants to amend their bill by alleging therein the Court's construction of the deeds of trust, as indicated in its decision, could not have been intended by the lower Court in requiring in its decree that the amendments should be made "in compliance with the decision rendered herein."

We hold that the case should be sent back to the Circuit Court, First Circuit, with the direction to allow the bill to be amended by making Mr. C. Afong, Mrs.
Henrietta C. Whiting and Tony Afong parties, and that they be allowed to be heard by the said Court, if they shall so desire, with leave to take such appeal from the decision to be made by the Court as they may be advised, without prejudice to the right of the present complainants to thereafter present their appeal before this Court upon all questions raised other than the nonjoinder of the parties.

Decree accordingly.

Costs of this appeal to be paid by complainants.

We call attention to the fact that Mary Afong, who first appeared by a next friend, has had her name stricken from the bill as party complainant, and is not a party at present.

Messrs. Kinney & Ballou for complainants; Messrs. Hartwell, Thurston & Stanley and A. G. M. Robertson for respondents.

THE COURT MARTIAL.

Attorney Robertson's Absence Causes Another Postponement.

The court martial ordered to try Captain John Good, Jr., met in the great hall of the Executive building at 7:30 last night. There were present Lieutenant Colonel Fisher, president; Captain W. A. Kinney, judge advocate, and Majors McLeod, Potter, Laukea and Cooper.

The proceedings were opened by roll call, after which the judge advocate read the minutes of the previous meeting, which included the order for the court martial, signed by Minister Cooper. There were only a few persons present in the room besides a few officers connected with the military, but to those who took the trouble to go to the building the proceedings seemed to be of interest.

Judge Advocate Kinney, representing the prosecution, stated to the court that he had visited the prisoner and was told by him that in the absence of his attorney he would ask that the proceedings be postponed until his return. He had no complaint to make regarding his confinement and expressed himself as being well satisfied to remain where he is until he could see his attorney.

In reply to a question by Colonel Fisher, the Judge Advocate said Mr.
Robertson had gone to Kauai to secure witnesses in a trial here, and should be back on Sunday morning at the latest.
Should he return today, the speaker thought it would not give him time to see the witnesses of the accused and bring the trial off tonight. As representing the prosecution, he would say that there was absolutely nothing in the charges to warrant the case being brought to trial without the defendant having time to go into the case properly prepared. He would object to swearing in the officers of the court, for the reason that the prisoner wished to be represented by counsel from the very beginning of the trial, and to swear in the officers would mean a beginning.

In view of this, President Lieutenant Colonel Fisher asked the wishes of the court, and it was decided to postpone the case until Tuesday night, at 7:30.

Put a ring around the word
--opportunity-- the occasion makes it. Never in the history of mercantile transactions in Honolulu have the people had such a golden opportunity to select a lamp as today. A manufacturer who had more than he knew what to do with, more than he had space to put them, wrote us of his troubles. We had none of our own so we listened to him. Our stock of lamps is the result of his tale of woe and you get the benefit.

A black lamp that will give a bright light is not a fad, but a style that will remain until "New Hawaii" shall become old. Being sombre in color they furnish with any decorations you may have in your room and any color shade that suits your fancy will look well on the lamp.

For a dinner table nothing furnishes the table better than black banquet lamps.
We have them, not cumbersome, but of a height that will beautify rather than detract from the other features.
We have piano lamps, hall lamps, boudoir lamps and every other character of lamp that ever was made.
The prices are so low that it would injure our business to put them in this column.

What Is PURIFINE?

It is the new disinfectant which has superseded all other disinfectants, being a scientific compound, having no odor, yet possessing the qualities of a powerful disinfectant.

The automatic distributor should be placed in every house in Honolulu where odors and germs of disease exist. They are placed free of charge, taken care of and kept working day and night for $1.00 per month. It's an innovation, but on scientific principles, and appeals to everyone of common sense.
The idea is this: The distributor drops two drops a minute, day and night. Foul odors are killed, yet no disagreeable smell of carbolic acid or crude disinfectants takes its place. You don't know that a powerful disinfectant is being used if you judge by the lack of odor.
But it's doing the duty—doing it well. Can we show you the "Ideal Automatic Distributor"? Our Mr.

PAPERS and COMPOUNDS

The base of P. & B. PAINT is a mineral which is practically INDESTRUCTIBLE, while the solvent is one of the HEAVIEST and most penetrating LIQUIDS known. This combination, the result of many years' experiment and research, contains therefore, the very essentials of a perfect preservative coating for all substances, viz:

Penetration and Indestructibility.

Neither salt nor fresh water, alkali nor acid solutions, make any impression on surfaces coated with this paint.

No. 1 P. & B. PAINT is the thinnest and is used where penetration is preferred to a surface coating. It dries rapidly leaving a coating equal to that of one coat of good metallic paint. A gallon covers from 300 to 400 square feet of smooth surface.

No. 2 P. & B. PAINT is medium heavy and is the STANDARD grade for all purposes. It penetrates deeply and leaves a coat equal to two or three coats of good metallic paint. It is of especial value for roofs, iron work, pipes, tanks, barrels, etc. A gallon covers from 200 to 300 square feet of surface.

No. 3 P. & B. PAINT is a heavy paint of good penetrating quality. It dries readily and leaves a protecting coating equal to four or five coats of good metallic paint. It is the paint to use on fence posts, telegraph poles, conduits, submerged timber, piles, etc., and wherever special surface protection is required. A gallon covers about 150 to 200 square feet of surface.

ROOF PAINT is an ideal paint for this special purpose and comes in RED and BROWN COLORS, although its first cost is more than other preparations, its durability makes it the cheapest in the end and it has such great FIRE RESISTING QUALITIES as to be virtually fire-proof.

P. & B. PAPERS. These are positively water-proof and vermin proof, also impermeable to heat or cold. In hot climates every house should be lined (especially the ceilings) with the paper; the cheaper grades are unexcelled for lining for house matings. They are perfectly odorless and are incapable of receiving odor.

P. C. JONES RETURNS.

Satisfied That He Will Float the New Hawaiian Loan.

Hon. P. C. Jones is home from a trip to the East. He left Mrs. Jones and daughter in Philadelphia, where Miss Jones will enter school preparatory to entering Bryn Mawr college for a course extending some three years.

In traveling East Mr. Jones was accompanied by Hawaiian Consul R. P. Rithet, of Victoria. While in New York these gentlemen interviewed a number of prominent bankers and financiers regarding Hawaiian securities, and particularly loan funding proposition. Mr. Jones says Eastern capital can be easily secured for the Hawaiian loan. As Mr. Jones was not authorized to make any proposition touching financial affairs of the islands, nothing in that line was attempted, but numerous interviews with money men clearly demonstrated their willingness to handle bonds of the Republic.

Mr. Jones spent a few hours in Boston renewing old acquaintances. He will go East again in September and before returning with Mrs. Jones will, when the loan is secured, place the majority of it in New York and other Eastern cities. In this he will have the valuable assistance of Mr. Rithet.

Mr. Jones says he will make one more trip to the States, after which he will be content to remain in the islands for all time, dividing that between Honolulu and Waikane, the only condition being that the Pali road must be graded to admit of more easy travel. In order to accomplish this Mr. Jones is willing to advance the Government the necessary amount of money to carry out the work.

TODAY'S SHOOT.

Changes in make-up of "Sawed-offs" and "Shorties" Teams.

There have been changes in the make-up of the "Sawed-Offs" (Company D) and the "Shorties" (Company B) teams which will probably result in considerable difference in the outcome. The limit of height has been raised from 5 feet 5 1/2 inches to 5 feet 7 inches which lets in F. Zerbe and W. H. Charlock for the Company D men and P. H. Foster and C. Riley for Company B. Following is the make-up of the teams that will shoot at Makiki butts this afternoon:

"SHORTIES" (COMPANY B).

Corporal Waity (captain), Sergeant C. Atherton, Private Wm. Bolster, Private Henry Hapai, Private P. H. Foster, Corporal W. Schmidt, Private E. Olson, Private F. Cook, Corporal W. C. Weedon, Private C. Riley.

"SAWED-OFFS" (COMPANY D).

Corporal W. Nott (captain), Private W. Wilder, Private F. Vida, Private W. H. Charlock, Private F. Zerbe, Private B. Burnett, Private J. McGuire, Private C. Ramsey, Private S. Decker, Private K. Porter.

MINSTRELS TONIGHT.

Best Show on Earth Will be Given Tonight.

The performance at the drill shed by Company D Minstrels tonight will surpass any minstrel show given here by amateurs since the "good old days" when Faxon Bishop and Harry von Holt engineered the Kaimiloa into safe harbor 'mid peals of laughter from the largest audience ever seen in the old Opera House.

While some of the numbers are the same as given last time, there has been such an improvement made that they will not be recognized. Finney will juggle clubs as they were never juggled before, and the singers and comedians will do their best to entertain the audience. Seats may be had at Benson, Smith & Co.'s, Hotel and Fort streets.

NEW MILL MACHINERY.

Onomea Plantation to Have a Six-Roller Mill and Corliss Engine.

It is understood that E. D. Tenny will leave by the Australia Tuesday for St. Louis, Mo., where he goes to purchase from the Union Iron Works a new six-roller mill and Corliss engine for the Onomea plantation, to cost in the neighborhood of $40,000.

Nurses for Queen's Hospital.

J. F. Eckhart, superintendent of the Queen's Hospital, has returned from a three months' sojourn in the East and on the coast. He attended, as a delegate from Honolulu, the Supreme High Court of Foresters at Ukiah, Cal., visited and personally inspected a number of hospitals throughout the East and West. Mr. Eckhart brought down two nurses from California for the hospital.

N. F. Burgess, wife and son have returned to the Islands. It is the intention of Mr. Burgess to open a sanitarium on the lines of those in the East. G. W. Burgess, who was book-keeper for Benson & Smith, and recently graduated as a physician, will be in charge of the medical department of the sanitarium.

RIVAL HILO PAPER.

The "Hawaii Herald" to Issue About August First.

C. S. Bradford, formerly City Editor of the Advertiser, returned from the coast on the Australia. While away he purchased a complete plant for a newspaper to be published in Hilo, and of which he will be the editor. The paper will be run in opposition to the Hilo Tribune, but on independent lines. It will have neither policy or politics to interfere with it, and will be conducted with a view to bringing the big island into prominence before the world.

In the conduct of the paper Mr. Bradford will aim to do the greatest good to the greatest number, and with an unlimited capital behind the company it is expected that the interests of Hawaii will be protected.

The paper will be issued as soon as the plant arrives from the coast on the Annie Johnson, probably August 1st.

The officers of the new company are: President, C. G. Campbell; vice president, C. S. Bradford; secretary, C. E. Cawley; treasurer, Dr. W. L. Moore; auditor, J. S. Canario.

James Torbert Married.

Another Honolulu young man has joined the army of benedicts. James L. Torbert, one of the best known and deservedly popular young men of the Islands, was united in marriage to Mrs. Lulu Heywood. The ceremony took place on July 10th at 2 p. m., in the First Presbyterian Church, San Rafael, Cal. Rev. McDonald officiating. Only a few friends were present. Hawaiian Consul Chas. T. Wilder was groomsmen, and with James Campbell of Ewa represented the immediate friends of Mr. Torbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Torbert came to San Francisco shortly after the wedding and remained at the Occidental Hotel until Saturday and took passage by the Australia.

Mrs. Torbert is a sister of Mrs. McCartney and Miss Birch Fanning, and formerly resided in Honolulu. The bride and groom will reside at Mr. Torbert's home near Pearl City, and go there this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Torbert received the congratulations of a large number of friends on their arrival at the wharf.

"Ox Blood"

THE SHADE OF TODAY!

We have it in "Razor," "Orient" and "London" Toes. The "Ox Blood" shade is a very dark burgundy, or wine; rich and silky in finish, superior in quality, and porous in texture. This makes it an unequaled and our sales already show that it is appreciated.

Summer Shoe

FLIES

Do they annoy you? Do you want something that will endanger the life of every fly in the house? Not simply scare them away, but actually catch them, hold them fast—kill them is a sticky paper designed for catching flies—and it does it too. It seems to attract all the flies in the house. Once caught, they never get away. It's better than scaring them away (to come back again) with ill-smelling smoke. Use an up-to-date fly-extirminator. Try it to-day.

Tanglefoot Fly Paper

Two large sheets 5 cents.

A TONIC

You need a tonic sometimes—perhaps now. You are run down, have that tired feeling. Haven't got the snap, vim and life you ought to have.

Why don't you take a good tonic? That's probably what you need.

Strong's Beef Iron & Wine is a very palatable preparation, containing the three most valuable ingredients—beef, iron and wine. It's a tonic that will put you square on your feet again. It will give you vim, life, vitality; dispel nervousness and weakness.

Why not begin this rational building-up treatment to-day?

ANOTHER NEW STEAMER.

Large Steel Vessel for the Wildcat Steamship Company.
C. L. Wight, president of Wilder's Steamship Company, returned by the Australia yesterday. During his absence Mr. Wight contracted with the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, for the construction of an iron vessel to be used along the Hamakua coast. The new boat will be used for freight purposes, but so constructed as to accommodate passengers when it becomes necessary to repair either the Claudine or Kinan. The vessel will be 183 feet in length, beam 30 feet, with a carrying capacity of 700 tons, costing $90,000, and is contracted to be ready for delivery within seven months. W. A.
Johnson, superintending engineer of the Wilder Company, remained at the coast and will supervise work on the ship. A name for the new boat has not been decided upon, but it will probably be named in honor of President Wight.
The Lahua and Kilaua Hou, it is said, will be laid up.

ARRESTED AT NEW YORK.

Captain Baker of the Ship Kenilworth in Trouble.
NEW YORK, July 10.—Captain Jas.
Baker of the American four-masted ship Kenilworth, which arrived from Honolulu Wednesday, was arrested today and held in bail by Commissioner Shields. The charge against Captain Baker is that at the time of the collision between the Kenilworth and the schooner Flora A. Sawyer on May 13, 1894, he failed to attempt to render assistance, many lives being endangered as the result of the negligence. The collision occurred off Barnegat. The captain asserts that there was a dense fog at the time, and the schooner disappeared from view of those on the Kenilworth.

Exciting Race from Honolulu.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 10.—The American ships Kenilworth and Henry Villard, both from the Sandwich Islands, arrived in port yesterday, one hour apart, after an exciting race. The vessels were in company to the last twenty-three days of the voyage. The Kenilworth dropped anchor first. The Kenilworth left Honolulu about the same time as the Villard left Hilo.

The Hawaiian ship Roderick Dhu arrived in San Francisco July 6th, 16 days from Hilo, and the schooner Allen
A. on July 7th, 18 days from Kahului.
