Thanksgiving Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, November 2.—President Roosevelt today issued his proclamation fixing Thursday, November 28, as a day of national thanksgiving. It follows:

A PROCLAMATION.

The season is nigh when, according to the time-hallowed custom of our people, the president appoints a day as the especially occasion for praise and thanksgiving to God. This thanksgiving finds the people still bowed with sorrow for the death of a great and good president. We mourn President McKinley because we so loved and honored him;
and the manner of his death should awaken in the breasts of our people a keen anxiety for the country, and at the same time a resolute purpose not to be driven by any calamity from the path of strong, orderly, popular liberty which, as a nation,
we have thus far safely trod.

Yet in spite of this great disaster, it is nevertheless true that no people on earth have such abundant cause for thanksgiving as we have. The past year in particular has been one of peace and plenty. We have prospered in things material and have been able to work for our own up-lifting in things intellectual and spiritual. Let us remember that, as much as been given us, much will be expected from us; and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds. We can best prove our thankfulness to the Almighty by the way in which on this earth and at this time each of us does his duty to his fellowmen.

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 28th day of this present November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their wonted occupations and at their several homes and places of worship, thank the Giver of all good for the countless blessings of our national life.

In witness whereof I have here-unto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this second day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-sixth.

(Seal) THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

By the President:

JOHN HAY,

Secretary of State.

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room, where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lauai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases.
Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

THE LEPERS.

The Board of Health is again making one of those egregious mis- takes for which it is now becoming prominent. The members, who know very little about affairs in Ha- waii are constantly furnishing the most dangerous political ammunition to the party, which they in- dividually want to kill. The Legis- lature has the power to do away with an appropriation for the Board of Health and the Settlement. At the meeting yesterday Dr. Moore, who is a member of the Board of Health, made a report of his visit to the Settlement in which he claims that everything was in excellent condition, and that the best way to punish malcontents, as he calls the unfortunates, who do not find every- thing excellent, is by sending them to Kalihi. The conditions at the Receiving Station must indeed be horrible, if it is to be used as a home for "deported" Lepers. The Board of Health, if it possesses any com- mon sense, would know that the "deportation" system would mean, that every able-bodied leper would become a "malcontent," and when reaching Kalihi would soon be at large again.

The next Legislature will un- doubtedly pass a law making the Health department a bureau subor- dinate to the Superintendent of Public Works, and pass such appro- priations which will be sufficient to pay the salaries of the officials of the bureau and reasonable extra fees for government physicians called in as advisors on the medical questions arising under circum- stances, which could not be met by a layman.

The change in the territorial government which will shortly occur, and the extra session of the Legislature, which the new governor will call, will finally "fix" the Board of Health, and the Lepers will find that they once more are the wards of true friends.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Topic of the Day: Have you received a Federal Court bench war- rant under the Edmunds' Act?

The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year, A little too warm for whiskey hot, And a little too cold for beer.

What people don't know about

Turkey and the Sultan would fill three thousand volumes. Even if Smyrna was taken Turkey would exist, until Russia raises money enough to buy the country from the Turkish Colonel Mezmaz, called Sultans or Pashas. The idea of a French or American fleet intimid- ating the Turkish government is amusing and ridiculous. In the first place the attacking navies would go under, and secondly an attack on Constantinople would be of small consequence to the Turkish government. The commercial power in Constantinople is in the hands of Greeks and Britishers, and the Turks do not like any of them. Smyrna may be a valuable annex to the empire, but even without it the Sultan's power will stand in spite of everything—until Judge Estee is sent to Constantinople to enforce the Edmunds' Act.

What kind of government have we got any way? The official organ states this morning that "in order to get information in regard to the pending application of M. Freeland for a hotel liquor license at Lahaina a visit was paid by Governor Dole this morning to the Moana Hotel and the Waikiki Inn." If Mr. Dole patronized booze personally we could understand a morning trip by him on the free appetizer route. But he is not a man who would go beyond sparkling sodawater. How undignified and disgraceful it is, for a governor to visit hotels to find out whether he should grant a liquor license or not. Has the Territory got a Treasurer, who issues licenses, and a High Sheriff who approves or dis- approves of them? Is the Governor doubtful of their ability to mind their business? If so why does he not remove them? Treasurer Wright and Sheriff Brown have the confi- dence of the people, otherwise they wouldn't hold their offices, and yet Mr. Dole, cannot leave to them, where licenses shall be granted. We are opposed to crowding a place with more liquor stores than it has now, and Lahaina has a full share of them and is a very virtuous town, as Bishop Sereno will testify to but we think it is humiliating to the Territory to have the Governor trotting around, and investigating matters which should never have been and never will be again within his jurisdiction. His action is an open affront towards the Treasurer and the High Sheriff.

The Philippine War.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Lieutenant- General Miles has adopted the fol- lowing arrangements for sending troops to the Philippines to replace the four regiments of short term men which are to be brought home within the next few months:

Two battalions of the Twenty- eighth Infantry to sail from San Francisco on the Grant on the 15th instant; one battalion of the Twenty eighth Infantry to sail from San Francisco on the Warren, Dec. 1; a squadron of the Eleventh Cavalry to sail from San Francisco about Dec. 15, on a transport not yet se- lected; a squadron of the Eleventh Cavalry, stationed at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, to sail from New York on the Crook about Dec 1; a squadron of the Eleventh Cavalry, stationed at Fort Myer, Va., to sail from New York on the Buford on January 15.

In addition to the troops named, it is proposed also to send a large number of recruits for the purpose of filling the quotas of depleted regiments in the Philippines. The Eleventh Cavalry and the Twenty- eighth Infantry aggregate about 2,400 men, and the present plan is to send out with them about the same number of recruits, thus pro- viding nearly 5,000 fresh soldiers for the relief of those coming home.

Favorable to the Canal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Nicaragua has given notice of the termination of the treaty of 1887, granting the United States authority to build a canal across that country. Also the treaty of 1870.

Geo. Ade's Modern Fables

Once there was a man who Jawed his Children.

He hectorated them and found Fault and was as full of Regrets as a British General in South Africa.

He thought that the Cherubim ought to sit up straight all Day and keep their Hands folded.

Pa had impaired Circulation and Fur on his Tongue and a kind of Jaundice Complexion, and therefore Life was a sad and serious Game to him. He wanted the children to take the same Gloomy View of the whole demitition Grind. He was in a Blue Funk most of the time, and it was his earnest Desire that the whole Universe should wear a Black Border in order to be in Harmony with his own measly state of Melancholy.

So when he had nothing else to do he fixed up restraining Rules for the Kids. He told them they must not waller in the Grass or Climb Trees or get into Scraps. When he commanded them to keep out of Fights and Wrangles he seemed to overlook the Fact that they were the immediate Descendants of a rambustious Individual who always had two or three Law Suits on hand and went about with a Chip on his Shoulder.

He came down on them like 1,000 of Brick if they failed to be Polite. He told them to say "Yes, Ma'am" and "Thank You" and always show Respect for their Elders, because that would be the only Chance that some of the Elders had to have any Respect shown to them.

He was a Stickler for Table Manners. It worried him if the Children failed to get a graceful Grip on the Knife and Fork and he insisted that they add "Please" whenever they shot in a Request for more Chow.

Furthermore, Pop leaned over from the Olympian Heights of his all-round Superiority and talked down to the Offspring about Habits of Industry. It cut him to the Quick to learn that they had played Hookey and scooted up the Alley when Mamma wanted them to run Errands. He said that in his younger Days he had been a great Help to his Folks and used to make his own Money and pay for his own Clothes.

To hear him tell it, he had been a Model Youth. He always wound up a Lecture by telling how he went to Sunday School and always had the Golden Text cinched and captured the Prize for reciting off 200 verses of Scripture.

Sometimes, when the three Children realized what a Sweet Child their Male Parent had been they felt ashamed and discouraged, because they knew they never could Buck Up and duplicate his juvenile Career. It was pretty hard to understand how and why such an Angel had grown up to be a grumpy Kicker, but they had Daddy's Word for it that he had been the original Fauntleroy, and whatever he said went.

"When I was your Age," he would say to his trembling Flock, "I never wanted to eat between Meals, and I used to Buckle down to my Lessons every Evening, until Mother would take my School Books and hide them to prevent me from ruining my Eye Sight. I never was Cruel to Dumb Animals, neither was I rude to little Girls."

This very remarkable Man had two Boys and one Girl who were permitted to live in the Shadow of his Greatness. The oldest child was a Boy named Wallie. He was about 16 and running principally to Legs and Red Neckties. He was at the Awkward Age. His Voice was changing and he had outgrown his Clothes and he wobbled and stepped on himself when he walked. He went about bumped over as though he had been dried across a Barrel.

Wallie was passing through the Calf Period. He was a little too old to Spank and not quite old enough to heed the Voice of Reason. He put in a lot of Time combing his Hair. It seemed to him about time to drop out of School, because he certainly knew it all. He wrote Notes to Girls a few years older than himself, and furthermore he had got away with his first Cigarette. Luckily, Papa did not know. Papa was an end-to-end Smoker and burned up about a dozen Black Cigars every Day, but it would have broken his Heart to learn that any Child of his used Tobacco. The old Gentleman was very rough on Wallie. He gave him the Gig at every opportunity, for he had no sympathy with Puppy Love and he hated a Dude, and he actually accused the boy of being Lazy. Papa had been such a Busy Bee all his Life he had no Patience with a shirking Drone.

About the time that this Extraordinary Person had his three Children cowed and subdued his Mother came on a Visit. The Children gave a glad Whoop when Grandma loomed up at the Front Gate. Their own Mamma usually played Second Fiddle to Papa, but Grandma took Orders from no one. While she was at the Helm the Children had one long Picnic. She staked them to Spending Money and she stood between them and many a Scolding.

She had been a stern and Spartan Mother with her own Children, but the Grandchildren could have anything they wanted. They got on the Soft Side of the good Old Lady, and anybody who was Mean to them stood an elegant Chance of hearing something Drop.

For several days after she arrived the Czar of the Household continued to publish Edicts and bark at Wallie and Carry after the manner of all Autocrats who are swollen with Pride and Power. Grandma held in as long as she could, and then One Day at the Dinner Table she veered around and gave him a Broadside that was a Beaut.

"Won't you ever get tired of badgering these persecuted Lambs?" she demanded. "Instead of nagging them all day and telling them how Bad they are, you ought to get down on your knees and give Thanks that you've got three such lovely Children. The idea of you abusing poor Wallie! When you were his Age you read Yellow-Black Novels and put Oil on your Hair and wanted to jump into the Well because the School Teacher wouldn't elope with you. It makes me so dratted Huffy to hear you correct Bob and Ruth. You seem to forget that when you were little you always spilled Stuff over yourself at the Table and wasn't worth your Salt at doing Chores and had a Temper like a Cross-Cut Saw. I raised six Children and you gave me more Trouble than all the others put together. You were so Dumb at School you had to drop back two Classes. All you wanted to do was to tear out with those Tongs and kill Birds with Nigger-Shooters. I'm glad your Children take after their Mother instead of you."

There he sat, Blown Up and the Search Light turned on him. He was caught with the Goods.

After that he didn't care to Peep. The children were ready to pull his Record on him. So it was a Happy Home.
