HAWAII'S "BLUE" LAWS

CONSTITUTION and LAWS

Framed by the Missionaries.

LAWS of the HAWAIIAN

ISLANDS.

If the property be destroyed or injured by the providence of God, as by fire, the overturning of a vessel, a strong wind or the like, then the man shall not pay damages, he shall pay damages only for his own fault.

If this law be proclaimed in any village or district, then the day of its proclamation shall be the day on which the law shall take effect at that place. But even if it be not proclaimed it shall nevertheless take effect on the first day of September of the present year, at all places on these Hawaiian Islands.

All the words in this law having received the approbation of the Nobles and Representative Body, we have hereto set our names on this twenty-third day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, at Lahaina, Maui.

(Signed) KAMEHAMEHA III.
KEKAULUOHI.

CHAPTER XXI.

LAW RESPECTING PARENTAL DUTIES.

It is a great misfortune to children not to be well taken care of, nor is the misfortune theirs only, the nation also suffers for before many years the parents will all be gone, and all the business will be developed upon the children, not merely the business of husbandry, but that of government also. Wherefore this is a matter of great importance, and it is well for parents to reflect and take care of their children and enlighten them. It is well for the law also to aid the parents in taking care of their children, wherefore in a council of the Nobles and Representative Body, the words of this law were approved.

1. Parents and they only have the direction of their children without interference from others. If any one interfere with them in their management of their children, the law shall aid them and punish him that interferes according to the aggravation of the offense, in the estimation of the judges.

2. If parents wish to commit their child to the care of another, it is well for them to go before an officer, and make their agreement in writing and he being a witness to, the correctness of the transaction, and signing his name as such, the writing shall be legal. If there be no writing or no officer sign his name, the child can not be transferred.
The true parents still have the direction of the child.

3. If a parent see his child to be in fault, he ought to instruct or punish him according to the nature of his fault, and the same also of foster parents. They commit no crime by inflicting pain on a mischievous child. But those who punish unmercifully commit a crime, and shall be fined as those who commit an assault.

4. But if a parent maltreat his child, or do not furnish him with food, clothing and other necessities, or chastise him unmercifully, it shall be the duty of him who sees it to inform the judges. And it shall be the duty of the judges to bring him to trial, and on evidence of his crime, the judges shall have a right to take the child and give him to a good man, and the parent shall be fined to a sufficient amount to pay for the care of the child, and the fine shall be given to the child's new guardian.

5. If one man criminally entice the child of another into sin, he shall himself be fined as one actually guilty of the sin. But if it be not a crime in law yet it is a crime in the estimation of the parent, and at variance with his command, then the judge shall look at the nature of the offense and shall fine him who enticed the child to violate his parents' instruction, according to the magnitude of the crime in the estimation of the judges.

6. If the parents are not agreed in relation to the child, then the father's decision shall stand in law, though if the mother be the higher chief, then the decision of the mother shall stand, and not the father's. This requirement however does not apply to those children of chiefs who have been given away previous to the enacting of this law, and afterward the parent died.

7. If a child be left without natural parents on account of their death or absence, then the foster parents shall have the direction of the child. If the child be illegitimate then the mother shall have the direction of him, but if the mother be unfaithful, the judges shall have power to take the child from her at their discretion.

HAWAII : HOLONUA

PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Rightness.

HONOLULU, AUGUST 8, 1894.

BAD FORM.

Very few members of the government seem to be possessed of a great deal of tact or of common sense. It is not to be expected that the government will be able to do much for the people, but it is painful to notice the blunders which the men who have gained a certain prominence—not altogether unenviable—commit so frequently and so publicly. Yesterday Dr. Albert Francis Judd entertained a large number of people at a "luncheon" given in the honor of some young schoolmates of his sons, who are here enjoying their vacation. As stated there were a large gathering of people all presumably socially friendly to Mr. Judd and his esteemed family, but differing distinctly in political ideas. There were officers of the United States navy and members of the diplomatic body. Nevertheless, politics had to be dragged into the affair and by whom? By the president of the Hawaiian republic, Mr. Dole. Ignoring the feelings of many of the guests, ignoring the presence of foreign diplomats or other representatives of foreign powers, Mr. Dole had to launch into a panegyric over the glorious days when these youngsters had risked their lives by standing guard somewhere around Kakaako in a most peaceful town of which the United States troops virtually had possession. He even went further and indicated that they might again be called into similar dangerous service, although he did not hope that the necessity would arise. As the boys presumably are going back to school within a few weeks, it seems that the president must be looking for trouble. No wonder the Philadelphia could not leave.

The dragging of politics into society, church, schools and private entertainments is the surest way to continue the ill-feeling now existing in the community and which ultimately will bring ruin to the country. Fancy Kakaako standing up at a private entertainment where people politically opposed were present and exhorting the young to adhere to the monarchy and "go for" the reform party. But then Kakaako was possessed of great tact—in fact he was a gentleman. That's the difference.

CITIZENS AND DENIZENS.

We pointed out in a recent issue, how fruitless it is for the government organs to advocate registration. We had hoped that the Advertiser, would have given an explanation of how it is possible for anybody, who was not naturalized previous to the 17th of January, 1893, to become a voter under the present constitution. The Advertiser, is as dumb as the proverbial oyster, and confines itself to exhort the people in general terms to register and vote. Let us for the sake of argument imagine that a number of kamaainas here, who never before were citizens, should now desire to take the oath of allegiance to the Republic, and become voters. How are they going to do it? How can anybody at present, become naturalized? According to the constitution, the manner in which citizenship can be granted shall be regulated by the Legislature. Nothing has so far been done. According to the constitution, the issuing of naturalization papers are wholly within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. The Judges are not here and nobody can perform their duties. It is, therefore, impossible for any tax-payer, although, otherwise qualified to become a citizen of Hawaii, and entitled to representation. If the Advertiser can interpret the situation differently, we shall be pleased to hear it.

The fact is, that the government does not want any foreigners, who are opposed to it to vote. The Hawaiians are alright. If the natives registered, the government would make a big display of its numerical, and there would be no reason for the United States, or any other country, to refuse to recognize the republic of Hawaii. Of course, the foreigners who are in the pay of the republic, have been attended to and can become voters on special certificates, even if they only have stranded on this beach a few months ago, and never paid a cent taxes, or have the slightest intention of remaining longer than their government job lasts, or, until they have saved enough to get out of the country.

Letters of denization are arranged for the nice people, who sympathize with the revolutionary government; but, who lacked courage or inclination to assist in the original movement, and consequently cannot get the "special" certificate. When the question of letters of denization was before a committee of the Convention, there was some inclination to abandon the system altogether. It was held that, if the country was good enough to live in enjoying all the rights and privileges of a citizen, it was good enough to swear allegiance to. In the debate, several prominent tax-payers were mentioned, whom it would be especially desirable to grant letters of denization, as they were friendly to the government, but unwilling to forewear their allegiance to their native countries. We noticed, that one of these patriots for whose benefit the denizen clause was inserted in the constitution was not patriotic enough to send for his letters patent of denization and serve as a juror at this term.

It will be seen, then, that the government has provided for the coming election, in such a manner, that only its pronounced supporters will be able to vote. But, any government which is afraid of opposition is bound to fail, and a republic, which fears a popular vote, is an anomaly and a fraud.

HARD TIMES POLICY.

During the present hard times it would well become the people who have made their fortunes in this country to loosen their purse strings and spend all the money they can afford. Every dollar thus spent may help fifty or a hundred other people to spend a dollar more than they otherwise could. If there is anything that our local rich people are likely to want in the future now is the time to busy.

HAWAIIANS ABROAD.

How the Paradise of the Pacific is Advertised.

Copious tears trickled over the port rail of the steamer Australia yesterday afternoon and mingled softly with the briny waters of the bay. The Hawaiians were sailing back to their sun-kissed isle and all hands wept, as is their wont when leaving scenes they have learned to love. It was an extremely affecting spectacle, and one that moved the heart of the hardest.

Tears could not have been shed more freely had each dark skinned islander been standing beside the newly made grave of his only parent. Long-drawn sobs smote upon the air, broken only by the silent tear when it struck the water and the joyous oath of the haka who hadn't room to turn round on the dock. Then amid a perfect torrent of tears the steamer let go and swung clear of the wharf.

Before she had straightened up the lady Honoluluans had so far forgotten their anguish as to dance the hula-hula on the deck while the gentlemen went below to subdue their over powering grief with copious draughts of gin. Yet the Hawaiians hated to leave us, and it nearly broke their tender hearts to do so. The burning mountain and the somnolent bull who used to doze and dream of home in front of the village were left behind. They go home by the next steamer in company with the embalmed remains of that 100-year-old turtle, which aged rapidly in this climate and died far away from the joyous scenes of its early youth. Perhaps it was the crushing thought of forsaking the mountain, the bull and the late turtle that caused the emotional natives to weep so freely.

But they are gone, and with them departed one of the best remembered features of the Midwinter Fair. With the exception of Mr. Opu each one of the Hawaiians, from the smallest baby to the old gray-whiskered patriarch who rode the bull, looked prosperous and happy. The Pele quartet, which played the taro-patches and sang so sweetly in front of the village, went back home in tan shoes and white-boy coats.

As for the hula-hula girls they will doubtless be received in the best families on their triumphant entree into Honolulu. It has been a long time since anything so gorgeous as those dancing maidens has disturbed the peace and quiet of the water front. In many instances their toilets bordered on the spectacular, and the most subdued wardrobes among them reverberated above the hum and turmoil of traffic.

One of the ladies appeared on the dock in a dress so red that had it been torn or cut the fabric would undoubtedly have bled. She also glided in a hat which would have given an autumnal landscape some valuable pointers on color. This lady was Miss Emilio. The premier hula danseuse, who was imported from Honolulu along about the middle of the season at an enormous salary.

Before leaving home the lady caused a report to be circulated in the islands to the effect that she was departing on an extended pleasure trip to America, and would probably visit Europe ere she returned to the tropics. But when the agile and voluptuous Emilie landed in the village at the Fair, Webster, the press agent, immediately sought out the reporters and had them herald the advent of the dancer.

They did so to a considerable extent and also printed pictures of the distinguished lady traveler from Honolulu cavorting on a platform in scant attire. This dreadful expose, which Emilie knew would reach her home by the return steamer, drove the unfortunate maiden to seek solace in the flowing bowl. She said she never would go back to Honolulu, but would die on a foreign shore. However, in the accumulation of wealth and plaudits Emilie forgot her resolve and decided to go back as the best dressed lady in the aggregation and cut a wider swath than ever before. As she passed up the gangplank yesterday the dock wallopers bowed low and said she must be a daughter of the Queen.—S. F. Chronicle.

EDITOR HOLONUA:

The Advertiser of this morning in its local news column publishes a statement that I (if it means me) have taken the oath of allegiance to the Republic. This is not true, and I cannot imagine where the Advertiser reporter received his information from.

By publishing this you will confer a favor upon the undersigned and others who are surprised at the "previousness" of the Advertiser reporter.

In "Puddenhead Wilson's Philosophy" Mark Twain says: "Put all of your eggs in one basket—and watch that basket." Eggs are not the only things to which this applies, we can make it fit stoves and change eggs into dollars and make it read—Invest your coin in a Pansy Stove—and the stove will watch itself. We have been watching these stoves for the past five years, and find them the best iron stove sold in this market for the money. Where else than at our store can you get a stove that will do everything that a $50 stove will do and get it for $15? Echo answers, "the place isn't built." We have sold hundreds of these stoves in Honolulu, and never had a complaint. Two weeks ago, we sold one to a gentleman on Hawaii, and yesterday he ordered another for a friend. The stove sells itself through its fuel saving qualities, and because, it is a good baker. You can get other styles of stoves if you are not particular as to the quantity of fuel you burn or how your food is cooked. There's no dyspepsia in meals prepared on a PANSY.

We received last week a lot of wire clothes-lines that hold washed clothes without using pins. It is a sort of double wire arrangement and the pieces are held in between; the harder the wind blows the tighter the pieces are held to the line. There is absolutely no danger of the clothing being torn as there is nothing sharp about the line. While the cost is a trifle greater than rope, this new style will last so much longer that it is economical to buy the pinless line.

The CLAUSSE is one of the new fangled saw-edge knives that cuts warm bread without leaving it heavy and iced cake without making crumbs. There are two or three different makes of these knives, all on the same principle and each one pronounced the best on earth by the manufacturers. We selected the Clauss, which we believe as a disinterested spectator to be better than its neighbors. You never had anything in your life that give as much satisfaction for a dollar. If you were buying the other sort you would get only one.

The favorite sewing machine in any community is the one that does the most for the least money and which runs the easiest. In the "Wertheim" you have a machine that sews three distinct stitches—The Lock, Chain and Embroidery and runs easier than any other machine, and you pay twenty dollars less for it. Economy stands boldly every side when you buy a Wertheim. In tucking the chain stitch is preferable, but in other kinds of work, the lock stitch is the best. If you buy a machine that sews the lock, unless it is a Wertheim, it won't sew a chain stitch. There's no particular saving in buying a machine with but one stitch, the Wertheim does three and saves you lots of trouble and work.

We've just unpacked six casks of stand lamps that were built for hard times. They have metal bases and are decorated so as to make a very neat appearance in a room. We don't think you can get as good a lamp anywhere else for the money, try as hard as you please.

Our stock of table cutlery, spoons and forks is as large as you will find in any store in San Francisco, and our prices compare favorably with those in New York.

LOCAL NOTES.

Admiral Walker, and staff called on Captain Hawes this morning.

It is rumored that Mr. John Kalua will be appointed sheriff of Maui.

Lost a small Fox Terrier a reward will be given for his return to Jos. Tinker, City Meat Market.

The usual health statistics for July, have not yet been presented for publication.

Smith's busses have proved a boon to the community and the enterprise deserves patronage.

The cabinet held a meeting this morning. The Circuit Court was kept waiting in consequence for nearly an hour.

The Trousseau auction was well attended and the contents of the doctor's cellar and kitchen fetched good prices.

Messrs. F. S. Dodge and W. A. Wall have returned to town again from their survey of roads on Hawaii.

There will be an open air concert by the band, at the Queen's Hospital grounds, this afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock.

The President of the Board of Health having returned from his visit to Hawaii the Board met for business this afternoon.

The Councils will meet tomorrow afternoon; and, it is reported, will discuss the jury question.

The drought still continues; care should be used against even unintentional waste of the present meagre supply of water.

The kite-flying season is now at its height and the ingenuity of Asiatic residents is daily displayed in the sky.

The bicycle meeting next Saturday at Kapiolani Park promises to be a great success. The boys are training with a good will and swift wheels can be seen speeding along King street early and late. Who are the favorites?

Advices from Hawaii and Maui state that very few citizens have registered.

Remember, the HOLOMUA is only FIFTY (50) CENTS per month, delivered at your residence.

The bark Velocity is 82 days out from Hongkong. Some anxiety is felt in regard to her fate.

Members of the Healan club, in good standing, are requested to meet, at the Hawaiian Hotel, tomorrow evening.

Line-men of the telephone companies are kept busy now-days in clearing the wires of the debris of wrecked kites.

Just after the 9 o'clock gun was fired last evening a large and beautiful meteor was seen to fall to the south-east of the city.

The town seems to be well supplied with empty cottages at present. Landlords, however, still stick to "before the war" rates.

The Healan Boat Club holds an important meeting to-morrow evening at the Hotel. May the club revive and get a move on.

The Bell telephone employees, with the aid of some unexpected visitors, gave an excellent impromptu concert last evening on Merchant street.

The creditors in the community are not overjoyed but the debtors are much pleased at the prospective departure of the local "orthorynchus."

Joe Tinker has lost a fox-terrier and is offering a reward for its recovery. It is sincerely hoped that the terrier hasn't hidden in the sausage machine.

It is stated that the U. S. Vice Consul - General Mr. W. Porter Boyd has been promoted to a consular position in Australia and will shortly leave for his new post.

The Mannerchor Harmony meet this evening in the parlors of the Pacific Hotel. Practice will be commenced promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

A junketing trip around Oahu is proposed for the well-paid Board of Registration. The question is, "What will the harvest be?"

There is considerable practice shooting being done, of late, at the galleries on Hotel street. Clean scores are often made by supposed "suspects" of the extinct p. g. people.

P. D. Isenberg advertises a fine "Midnight" stallion colt for sale. The horse will be brought into town to-day and can be seen during the week at the Pantheon Stables.

A luan was given in the "backyard" [vide "Tiser"] of Mr. A. F. Judd to the visiting collegians yesterday afternoon. There was speech-making, afterwards some thing to drink and then the usual parting words.

"Poker" Dan who is reported to have taken $127 worth of gold cure looks today as if he had fallen in with some one who had used a goldbeater's hammer on him. He has put several heads on other people now he knows how it feels himself.

The new management of Sprecelsville are making a great number of changes on the big plantation with a view of running it on a more economical basis. The numerous natives and Portuguese laborers are being rapidly replaced by cheap Japanese.

FOR SALE.

A FINE "MIDNIGHT" STALLION colt belonging to P. D. Isenberg. The colt can be seen at the PANTHEON STABLE from to-morrow.

LOST.

A small Fox Terrier, a reward will be given for his return to JOE TINKER, City Market.

ADVERTISER FAKES.

The new British Minister resident, Captain Hawes, did not call on President Dole yesterday as stated in the Advertiser.

Mr. Antone Rosa did not take the oath to the republic as stated in the Advertiser. The fake was undoubtedly gotten up for the purpose of injuring Mr. Rosa and will probably cause a libel suit.

Good Advice.

[From Our Dumb Animals]

There seems to be a great deal of trouble at Washington about the Hawaiian islands away out in the Pacific ocean three thousand miles or more from our mainland, with a population of only some 90,000, of which only about 20,000 belong to American and European nations, the rest being natives, Chinese, Japanese, etc.

Why not (1st) let them have their own government and manage their own affairs; (2nd) grant to all nations who want them there stations for coaling and repair of vessels; and (3rd) make these islands, as Princeton, Nantucket and other indefensible places have been made in the past, —neutral territory in case of war!

G. T. ANGELL.

FAR FROM HOME.

Hawaiian Ferns in "Frisco."

The S. F. Examiner of the 23rd ult. has the following:

Adolph Sutro has bought the Hawaiian village at the Midwinter Exposition. The purchase includes all the appurtenances with the exception of the volcano of Kilanea, which is to be taken to Chicago or New York.

Mr. Sutro will tear down the buildings and utilize the glass windows for extending his hot-houses for delicate plants. He will make an attempt to rebuild the village at or near the Cliff House. The thousand or more Pula ferns will be added to his fernery at Sutro Heights, and the palms will be planted near the parapet, so that they may be seen and enjoyed by the seals on the rocks.

The houses that are made of matting and bamboo will be taken on Sutro Heights, and will be put up at convenient points for picnic parties, but no attempt will be made to keep them in the form that was given them by the natives of Hawaii. The material of which they are constructed, while exceedingly light, is very durable, and will make picturesque summer houses to which visitors may resort for rest and recreation.

The collection of ferns thus obtained by Mr. Sutro is said to be one of the finest ever exported from the Sandwich islands, comprising some rare varieties seldom seen, even in the gardens of the rich planters and settlers of the island republic. It was feared that they would not be able to withstand the ordeal of transportation to this climate, but they appear to thrive well. None of the curiosities are taken by Mr. Sutro, as the greatest part of the collection is owned by the Hawaiian Government, and will be sent back home on the next steamer.

LADIES' COLUMN.

You have all been reading this Column for some time and expecting something to drop—well here goes for a little flyer as we say in Mercantile Parlance. We have a counter devoted to Wash Dress Goods this week, they are worth looking at, and at the same time making a guess on their Value. Remember you need not buy them unless you want to—but you can call and guess on their Value—and the Lady guessing the nearest to the retail value of these Goods can have her pick of a Dress Pattern for nothing, those that are not good guessers won't make a very bad mistake, if they buy the goods outright at our figures. So come in and make your guess, the pools close Saturday—the winner gets her Dress, Monday, August 13th.

There is nothing the matter with Scotch Dimity when you can get 6 yards for $1 or Toile du Nord for children's School Dresses or Ladies Dresses at 8 yards for $1. Remember these goods improve everytime they are washed.

Something new in American, English and French Percal for Shirt Waists and Dresses—these Goods are the finest ever shown here and make up lovely.

32 inch wide Cotton Duck at 15 cents a yard is another thing you can make no mistake in—all Fast Colors—we have an elegant line of Linen Duck.

Now don't forget to come in and guess on those Wash Dress Goods. We have something for the Second Best Guesser but we won't mention it.
