Citizen Labor Crowded Out on the New Kaimuki Road.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:

When the members of the Legislature passed an appropriation of $13,000 for the widening and grading of Kaimuki road they believed that the work could be done by citizen labor and that Hawaiian and other citizens would be given a chance to earn a few honest dollars, but unfortunately they were mistaken, for on going out that way on Tuesday I saw some 300 or more Japs and Chinese working on the road but not one single Hawaiian, Portuguese or white. Upon investigating this matter I find that a large number of citizens, both Hawaiian and white applied for work on Monday, but were told that their services were not needed.

While on the subject of citizen labor I would like to add that these conditions put me forcibly in mind of how things are run in South Korea, Hawaii. The conditions are almost the same, plenty of road work—plenty of citizens ready to take it—and Japs and Chinese filling the places that belong to voters. Mr. Editor, something ought to be done at once to give our citizens and voters a chance to work instead of keeping a lot of Japs, Chinks, and other vermin on the government works, and drawing government pay.

WM. J. WRIGHT.

Kashumani Remembered.

Kashumani, wife of Kamehameha I, commonly referred to as "the good Queen," is to have a magnificent tablet to her memory in Kawaiahao church. The tablet, which is of Italian marble and has already been prepared, is inscribed as follows:

In memory of Elizabeth Kashumani, daughter of Keeaumoku and Namahoa. She was born at about 1773 at the foot of the hill Kauiki on East Maui; became a wife of Kamehameha I at thirteen, and was his favorite until his death in 1819. After the death of Kamehameha I in 1823, she wisely ruled the Hawaiian people as Queen Regent until her death in 1832. Although naturally proud and haughty she early in her regency accepted Jesus as her saviour, was baptized in Kawaiahao in 1825, and labored earnestly to lead her people to Christ. She was spoken of by the American Missionaries as "a distinguished reformer of her nation, a kind friend and benefactress of the Missionaries, and a faithful comforter of the infant churches in these isles." As she was falling asleep in Jesus at the age of about 59, in the beautiful valley of Manoa, just before the dawn of June 5, 1832, fully trusting her Saviour, she repeated the following lines of a valued Hawaiian hymn:
"Eia no au e Iesu, e, I nana oluolu mai ia'u."
(Lo, here am I, O Jesus, Grant me thy gracious smile.)

Thomas Cummins' Estate.

Thomas J. Cummins left an estate in money and stocks valued at $25,572.82. It is to be divided in quarters between the three daughters, Maria, Elizabeth and Lydia, and the two children of deceased's sister, Mrs. Maria M. Barry, of Roxbury, Mass. J. O. Carter is made executor, to serve without bonds. The will was executed December 30, 1896. A petition for probate, etc., was filed yesterday.

The American ship Tillie E. Starbuck arrived in port this morning from Newcastle with coal. She made the trip in the remarkably good time of 37 days.

NON-DISEASED INMATES.

Now that the Board of Health has decided, so 'tis reported, to remove from the Molokai Settlement certain well persons who have made themselves obnoxious and most objectionable and who originally went there as assistants (kokua) to their diseased and helpless husbands, wives, parents, children or friends, and among them some who are now declared not to be diseased nor are in the least tainted, but who were originally condemned as diseased to that living grave or earthly hell. Some of these people have become attached to that place, all their interest being centered there, and now they are to be removed, not knowing where to go to and where to earn a precarious living. In our opinion, the Government should first provide them with work before making a wholesale removal, as some of them may have to sacrifice all that they have in the Settlement before leaving.

But there is another phase to this removal proposition. If leprosy is contagious as is claimed for it by our medical fraternity, then why attempt to remove them? Those that are to be removed, although they show no sign of the disease and no visible taint may be internally tainted. Contamination for years may, in due course of time, if this theory of contagion is correct, force the disease upon them, as their systems may be highly contaminated with it. But if this theory is not correct, our medical men may as well now come out with the truth and declare the disease non-contagious and non-communicable. Our own opinion is that it is non-contagious, but communicable by frequent and careless contact. We may be wrong in such an opinion and liable to err, yet we do not deem ourselves infallible and immaculate, but are ready to hold ourselves open to conviction.

Yet again, there is another phase which is a theory about to be exploded in this proposed deportation. For years, any one suspected of having the disease was, after a medical examination had been made by a board of examiners from whose decision there is no "appeal," deported to that "hell hole on earth" and rightly and properly called by Hawaiians "the land of suffering" and "the living dumping ground of death," where all meet death while still in the land of the living. It is a veritable "hell on earth," so to speak, and a sure "living death," for once one enters there, there is no returning; but there one lingers without any attempt whatever being made to treat the disease till "death claims its own."

Hawaiians have claimed, and rightly too, we believe, that many are condemned to that "living death" on the merest pretense. The "suspect" law came in very handy as a means of ridding any one showing the least sign of suspicion by giving information, generally through spite, ill feeling and jealousy, with political animosity wrung in. Many were no doubt sent there without the least sign of the disease, but on the condemnation of medical examiners they had to go to their "living death," on whose dictum they have no means whatever of redress. But what could the masses do? The medics had the upperhand and were deemed infallible, that is, they were not liable to err. What they said was law and there was no denying their prejudiced judgments, in many instances.

And now, the Board of Health is to let loose among the community a lot of people who were once declared as diseased, but not now diseased. How can we account for the judgment of our immaculate medical men—for once they were and now they are not? In this, a great problem is before the Hawaiian people and it behooves them to see that none of them are to be deported in the future by slipshod condemnation to that confounded and ill-timed "living death."

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Col. C. P. Iaukea strikes the keynote of clean, American, political when he condemns the "bossism" and "machine" methods of the Republicans in these Islands. Probably in no other part of the United States would some of the incidents of the last election have been tolerated and the "machine" control since the election rightly calls for the condemnation of every good citizen. The sooner this Territory is absolutely rid of "bossism" and "machine" politics the better for it. Colonel Iaukea has set a pace in the right direction.

Tomorrow Honolulu will be in almost instant communication with every part of the civilized world. Happenings anywhere may be known here as quickly as in San Francisco, New York or London. Orders for goods may be placed or countermanded by our merchants on the sailing dates of vessels in New York, Hamburg or Hongkong as easily as arranging details of business across the street. In time of war, if such should ever come, Honolulu would be in position to view the stages of activity contemporaneously with other great centers. Tomorrow will be a red-letter day for the Islands.

They are now discussing in the eastern papers whether labor, as the Railway Gazette says: "Is anything more than a horse power machine or a kilowatt hour so far as it relates to civilization." This is a very easy solution of the question from the plutocratic standpoint. If the laboring man can be considered a mere beast of burden with no mind to educate, no heart to develop and no soul to consider, it will enable the financiers to deal with him without any conscientious scruples.

Every now and again a Chinaman is arrested for harboring a woman and charged with restraining her of her liberty. That cases of "Chinese slavery" are now few and far between is well understood; and they are becoming fewer as time goes on and the Celestial population thins out. But why is it we do not hear of "Jap Slaves"? It is notorious that a system of slavery exists generally in Honolulu among the subjects of the Mikado. Is any effort being made to stop it?—Or are the wily Japanese too smart to be caught?

If a regular army officer is to be detailed to instruct the National Guard, Lieutenant Newton—if he keeps up the tactics employed with Company A last night—is not the proper man for the purpose? National Guardsmen enlist in times of peace to prepare themselves for service in war. There is no considerable remuneration for frequent drills and the irksome routine of regimental duties. What the men have in view is a state of efficiency in time of national trouble. Lieutenant Newton has too many "damns" and other blanks in his vocabulary to instruct National Guardsmen, men who turn out to learn and not to be cursed at.

Thomas Fortune's plan to colonize the Philippine Islands with American negroes may look well on paper, but we would like to ask if the Filipinos have been consulted in the matter? Those islands belong to them, and they have the first say in such a matter, by all right, human and divine. We do not believe that the Filipino people favor an influx of negroes into their country; in fact there is every reason to believe that they most positively disfavor it. The Republican party will keep on monkeying with the Filipinos until, at some time when the United States has complications elsewhere, there will be a case of George III. and Washington over again.

The Paradise of the Pacific regrets that the Midsummer Fair is not to be repeated this year and says that the one of last year "proved the only means of bringing their (the merchant's) newest wares and special trade articles directly before the whole public." We fail to see it. If there ever was a fool enterprise in these Islands it was the Midsummer Fair of last year. It cost a lot of money and proved of no imaginable advantage save to display in a new place the yard-cloth, pumpkins, bottle pickles, bicycles, window curtains and carpet tacks seen every day down town. Not five cents of outside money came to it or came to the Islands on account of it. The money spent on the absurd project might just as well have been fed to the shark, and would have done far more good had it been given to the Salvation Army or some other charitable institution.

It seems to us that Superintendent Cooper should get through his nut the sentiment of this community in regard to labor on public works. Responding to a general and united expression the Legislature passed a resolution distinctly prescribing that only citizen labor be employed on public works. If Representative W. J. Wright is correct in the statement published elsewhere that Japanese and Chinese are being employed on the Kaimuki road, and that citizen labor has been denied employment there, the Superintendent of Public Works deserves the most pronounced censure and condemnation. The contractors for the roads are not materially to blame. Their business is to make money, and a dollar saved on wages is a dollar gained. The plain duty of Mr. Cooper was to prescribe that the contract be carried out with citizen labor. In failing to carry out the wishes of the people and instructions of the Legislature, the Superintendent of Public Works has committed a flagrant error and his act should be severely impeached.

The Gisaburo Decision.

Following is the decision of the President in the Tanbara Gisaburo murder case, as submitted to Marshal Hendry:

Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America. To all whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, Tanbara Gisaburo, a Japanese, was convicted in the United States Court for the District of Hawaii of a murder committed on the high seas on July 30, 1902, and on October 31, 1902, was sentenced to be hanged on December 26, 1902; and Whereas, on December 24, 1902, the Governor of Hawaii granted to the said Tanbara Gisaburo a reprieve until the decision of the President of the United States might be made known upon his application for executive clemency; and

Whereas, an application for executive clemency on behalf of the said Tanbara Gisaburo has been considered and denied by me; Now, therefore, be it known, that I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereunto moving, do hereby approve the reprieve granted by the Governor of Hawaii to the said Tanbara Gisaburo and continue the said reprieve, in all its effects, until noon of Friday, the fourteenth day of August, 1903, at which time the said reprieve shall cease and determine."

The signature of the President follows, together with the seal of the Department of Justice.

On August 14th, therefore, Tanbara will pay the penalty for his crime, that of murdering Captain Jacobson of the schooner Woods, and after all is over, Marshal Hendry will fill in the following and forward it to Washington:

"To the Attorney General: Received warrant for the reprieve of sentence of Tanbara Gisaburo until noon of Friday, August 14th, 1903, and stayed the execution accordingly, and executed the said Tanbara Gisaburo on the day of _____, 1903."

"U. S. Marshal, District of Hawaii."

Two Parties Alike.

In an interview with a representative of the Chicago Record-Herald James H Eckles, former comptroller of the currency, speaking of the campaign of 1908, says: "The issue will be on revenue revision. The monetary question is eliminated, the currency question is not a party one and cannot be made so, expansion is accomplished, and as far as the trusts are concerned one party will be quite as denunciatory as the other. The republicans cannot and will not revise the tariff except with an upward tendency. The public who are consumers and many important manufacturing people want a revision down, and to get it they must go outside of the republican party. Conservative democracy can be of much benefit to the country at this time, and I hope we shall see it become an active force. It will be observed that Mr Eckles sets aside imperialism and the trust question as well as the money question as being unworthy of consideration, but he forgets that there are many republicans who object to a currency system devised for the exclusive benefit of the financiers and who also object to the trust system as well as to imperialism. Such people must go outside of the republican party to get reform on these lines and yet if the principles of the democratic party are to be practically identical with those of the republican party, republicans who favor reform will not be encouraged to abandon one republican party in order to join another republican party.—The Commoner.

Warm Stuff, This.

Colonel C P Iaukea sends the following communication to the Advertiser in regard to his candidacy
for the office of sheriff:

In presenting my morning compliments kind Editor, let me at the same time thank you for mentioning myself as a mover in a Citizens' Party for the coming election, and placing my name at the head of the movement as Candidate for County Sheriff.

I am not so sure that my ambitions will lead me to this distinction. This I desire to say, however, that if there was ever a time in the history of this Territory for the good citizens to take matters into their own hands and show by their votes that they will have none
of "bossism" and "party machine"
in local politics, it is now; especially after the strange spectacle which
this community recently witnessed,
of a so-called republican party executive conniving with republican members of the House to elect a Home Ruler Speaker; and white Republicans at that! Bah!

Yes, Friend Advertiser, I shall gladly help to head a movement of good citizens for good government.
As for seeking the office of County Sheriff or any other office in the gift of the people, I regard it as an honor to be so elected than to receive such appointment at the hands of a centralized and un-American government such as exists today.

Respectfully,
C P IAUKEA.

Cable Open Tomorrow.

The cable around the world will be opened tomorrow for general business. The last link, that between here and Manila, is now in perfect working order. Following out his promise Mr Mackay has reduced rates upon the opening of the full line, the new rates being as follows per word:

San Francisco, 35 cent; Midway, 35 cents; Guam, 60 cents; Philippine Islands, Luzon, (Manila, etc.)
90 cents; all other islands, $1; China,
$1.01; Japan, $1.32.
