ON THE COVER
The high chief Kalanimoku was said to be 56 years old when Robert Dampier portrayed him in this 1825 pencil drawing. Dampier served as the official artist and draftsman aboard the H.M.S. Blonde when it was given the solemn duty of returning Kamehameha II and his wife Kamamalu to their homeland after their untimely deaths in London in 1824. The Bernice P. Bishop Museum Archives.
