OUR TELEPHONES.

Whilst it may be truthfully said that the Hawaiian Kingdom is behind the advanced nations of the age in some provisions of the public service, it cannot be truthfully said that the industrial institutions of the country, which depend on private enterprise for their existence and maintenance, are much inferior in their parts and productions to similar institutions in the most progressive countries.

There is one thing in the way of private enterprise in which Honolulu is said to be ahead of the rest of the world, and that is in the matter of telephones. In this small town, which in a big country would be called a village, we have two telephone companies and two telephonic services, the Bell and the Mutual.

The cheapness of the services is, no doubt, a main cause of its being so generally patronized. Nine dollars a quarter for business establishments and six dollars for private residences is certainly a very moderate charge.

On the principle that cheapness indicates inferiority of quality, one would infer that our telephone services must be of an inferior character. The inference is wrong. The services are equal to the best, and superior to most.

ting messages through our telephones, compared with those they have been accustomed to in other countries. So also with the prompt attention and patience of the operators. Even to us this is a matter of surprise; that is, the patience of the operators. For some people are very hard on the telephone and the operator. They are constantly calling to the "Central" to connect with and ring up somebody, and if it is not done immediately, they want to know the reason why, with all the imperious importance of the Emperor of Russia.

Altogether our telephone system is something to be proud of and grateful for. Its extensive use, its cheapness, and its excellence are features which, in this line of civilization, place Honolulu in the front rank of advancement. For our streets and side-walks, and the various other public requirements which it is the duty of government to provide, were only half so good, what a highly favored, happy, and contented people we should be!

JOSS NOT YET AHEAD.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Our genial friend of the P. C. Advertiser in his issue of the 19th seems to be gently exercised about the "fascination to many minds of the hopeless task of proselyting the teeming millions of China."

Our friend pays an emphatic tribute to the success and value of the work of Christian missionaries in these islands, but thinks that it is threatened with extinction by the great Chinese invasion of heathenism, and that this Chinese assault upon Hawaiian Christianity is utterly ignored by the advocates of missions to China.

A very interesting feature of this work is the presence here of perhaps two hundred Christian Chinese immigrants converted at home, who are full of faith and good works—also the existence of large numbers of Chinese converted here, many of them by the efforts of our native pastors.

The debauching of native females by Chinese is indeed an enormous evil. It is only greater than that practised by white men, as the number of Chinese are greater. I think it true that Chinamen who are married to Hawaiian wives care for them more diligently and successfully than white men generally do.

As to any "social and religious supremacy attained by Chinese in this country," or likely to be attained, our friend's imagination must have got upon a wild ramble, and the "various forms of moral and religious activity among our people" are probably not so misplaced and nullified as he surmises. The almost incredible treatment lately accorded here to a wealthy Chinaman does not look much like his race having yet approximated to "social supremacy."

are almost cherubic in comparison with the demonic visages of Hawaiian gods.

It may be reasonably expected that with the effort and attention which is to be hoped for from good men and women of all the races and churches here existing, neither "Joss" nor Kanaloa will become enthroned in Hawaii nei, despite the "Ball of Twine" Society or any other club house.

KAUAI NOTES.

On Friday evening, the 11th inst., Mrs. Elmer, of Kealia, died suddenly of heart disease. Her remains were brought to Lihue and were buried in the private cemetery belonging to the Rice family.

On Tuesday, one of the German luns of the Lihue plantation, had his leg broken by the wheel of a bullock cart. He was made as comfortable as possible by Dr. Walters. The services of this popular doctor are always in demand, and there is probably no busier person on Kauai.

Master Chas. Wilcox, after a very serious illness, is now pronounced out of danger, and is very slowly recovering. One of the lady teachers of the Lihue School has spent all her leisure time at the little boy's bedside.

It is rumored that Mr. Lucas, principal of the Lihue School, has tendered his resignation to the Board of Education. A portion of the freight that left Honolulu on the 8th inst., was not landed until the 14th, owing to the high waves and winds that prevailed.

Kauai, Feb. 18, 1887.

A MERITED DECORATION.

H. W. Schmidt, Esq. the Swedish Consul, officially informed His Honor Judge A. Fornander, on Saturday last, of the latter's decoration by the King of Sweden and Norway with the Order of the North Star. It will be pleasing to the judge's numerous friends to learn that he has been distinguished by this high honor, which he has certainly merited by his patient researches and his valuable literary productions.

The deceased had resided in this city for the past 35 years, and was widely known for her religious spirit and Christian bearing. SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS.

The subject last night of the Seventh day Adventist services was the line of prophecy recorded in the 8th chapter of the book of Daniel. This prophecy is an outline of the world's history from the time Medo-Persia became the second universal kingdom.

These subjects are made not only interesting to the lovers of Bible study, but also to those who enjoy the study of history.

To-night the subject will be the two thousand three hundred days of this same chapter. Mr. Curtis proposes to show to-night what the mistake of Mr. Miller was in the great advent movement of 1844. All are invited to come and hear.

A PASTORAL ADDRESS.

The Rev. Geo. Wallace has addressed the following pastoral to his parishioners:—

To the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral—Dearly Beloved in the Lord: We are entering upon another Lent. It is a time set apart to repent of sin, and sorrow for it; to remember Christ's sufferings and death; to change our life, and deny ourselves in all ways.

The keeping of the season outwardly is a yoke and burden and nothing more; the keeping of it as a time holy unto the Lord, in the spirit and not in the letter, will bring us the blessing of God. Faithfully your friend and pastor, GEORGE WALLACE.

THE RAINFALL.

On Friday evening last, the sky became overcast, and a light air set in from the southward, gradually increasing in strength during Saturday, and culminating in sudden squalls and heavy bursts of rainfall about midnight of Saturday. This state of things continued throughout Sunday, the wind at times blowing in fitful gusts from the south, accompanied by heavy rains. So it continued throughout the day, causing the streets to be almost entirely deserted, and preventing the usual attendance at the several places of worship. The rainfall from 6 A. M. yesterday to 6 A. M. to-day was 1.05 inches at Dr. McKibbin's residence. The sea broke heavily on the reef yesterday and to-day. The total rainfall for 48 hours prior to 9 o'clock this morning, as reported by the Government Survey Office, was 1.17 inches.

MR. F. L. CLARKE reports the rainfall at his residence—at the entrance to Puna Valley—as being 1.20 inches for the 24 hours ending this Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The greater parts of the rain fell between 8 o'clock and noon of yesterday.

D. 1886, do solemnly and faithfully pledge my oath and swear full allegiance to His Majesty Kalakaua the First, King; his heirs and successors to the Throne and Government, and shall defend with the utmost of my power, bravery, strength, skill and courage the attacks of his enemies from personal harm or injuries to his body; support and maintain the laws of the Kingdom, the observance of law, and order, and to uphold with integrity the honor and dignity of the Sovereign and State at the hour of peril. I furthermore swear to maintain and observe all military laws, rules and regulations when commanded by His Majesty or his authority, and render obedience to the commands of my superior officers and to abide by the constitution and provision established for the regulation of the corps. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and signature this—day of—A. D. 1886, in presence of—enrolling officer.

FORT-STREET CHURCH.

THE PASTOR'S RESIGNATION.

On Sunday morning at the Fort-street Church the Rev. J. A. Cruzan read the following resignation from the pulpit:—

To the officers and members of the Fort-street Church and congregation:—Dearly Beloved: I hereby resign the pastorate of the Fort-street Church, my resignation to take effect at the close of my sixth year of service—September 1st next.

As it is my desire to sail for America at the beginning of my annual vacation, I present my resignation now in order that you may have ample time to arrange for a successor to take up the work at once on my departure.

In this connection I wish to express the heartfelt gratitude and appreciation of my wife and myself for the love which has ever marked your treatment of us; for your cordial cooperation and help in our work for the Master; for your large-hearted liberality in material things, and for the charity with which you have overlooked our short-comings. We never expect to find a more indulgent, loving and thoughtful people than you have been. In return we have tried faithfully to serve you and our Master, and to build up this church of Jesus Christ.

You will always have a large place in our hearts, and we shall not cease to pray for this church where six of the best years of our lives have been spent, that God's blessing may abide upon it, and that His favor and prosperity may rest not only upon the church as an organization, but also upon each worshipper before her altar.

I remain, yours, with regard, J. A. CRUZAN, Honolulu, February 19, 1887.

From the German: Four hunters (who have just fired simultaneously at a rabbit and failed to hit it): "Well, I wonder who missed that time."

SUPREME COURT.

AT CHAMBERS—BEFORE PRESTON, J.

MONDAY, Feb. 21st.

In re application of Thomas Rain Walker, British Vice-Consul, for the liberty of on Peter Hensen, now in the custody of the Marshal. Mr. L. A. Thurston for petitioner; Mr. Paul Neumann for respondent.

After the Court had been detained about fifteen minutes for the arrival of the Marshal, Mr. Neumann, in reply to His Honor, as to what authority he had for arresting and holding, cited Section 628 of the Civil Code as sufficient warrant for the Marshal to hold the man. Also Articles 12 and 13 of the treaty between Sweden and Norway, and the Hawaiian Islands.

His Honor ruled that the two treaty sections cited, referred to deserts only, and Section 628 of the Civil Code to mutineers only. He did not think that any consul was justified in making such a request as had been made by Consul Schmidt of the Marshal. It was a privilege, and to avail himself of that privilege, the law must be strictly followed. It is clear the law intends that before an arrest can be made, some offence cognizable by law shall be stated, but without any allegation that the party to be arrested had been guilty of some offence, there is no authority to arrest. Therefore, in the absence of that allegation there is no authority for the Marshal to arrest this man. When the law prescribes that certain forms shall be complied with in order that a man shall be arrested, it is unlawful if he, the Marshal, makes the arrest without said law in fully complied with. His Honor decided that Peter Henson the man who had been confined, had been illegally detained, and he ordered him to be released.

Henson left the Court a free man.

THIS DAY'S DOINGS AT THE POLICE COURT.

The roll call of drunks was called, aggregating eight offenders for inebriety, all of whom paid the ordinary fine of $5 each and $1 costs.

Two assault and battery cases contributed $10 each to the Court funds, and one case was remanded to the 24th, the complainant being unable to appear, he being in the Queen's Hospital suffering from a bad bite by the prisoner.

A Chinese hack-driver was fined $2 for not obeying Police Officer Macy.

Jno. Dawson, the sailor charged with larceny, was again remanded, owing to the complainant not being present.

A nol. pros. was entered in the case of Thos. Flowers, who is alleged to have committed an assault and battery on board the steamer Likelike, whilst the vessel was anchored at Hana, Maui. His Honor ruling that he had no jurisdiction in the matter.

The gambling case of last week was next called and again remanded to 28th. One of the defendants in this case is a Chinese ex-policeman.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.

The wife of the Mayor of Leeds has received a letter from the London Committee respecting the "Woman's Jubilee Offering," the object of which is to receive contributions towards a gift to the Queen from the women and girls of all classes, grades, and ages throughout the United Kingdom, irrespective of religious creeds, political opinions, and all other distinctions or differences in life, as a mark of loyal appreciation of her public and private character during the past fifty years.

It is proposed that the contributions shall range from 1d. to £1, and be collected by the wives of lord-lieutenants of counties, members of Parliament, mayors, aldermen, and clergy of all denominations. The wife of the Mayor has acceded to the request of the committee, and has placed herself at the head of the movement in Leeds.—[Home News.

Great Excitement in Wales about a Marvellous Cure.

Living Six Years Without Going to Bed.

MR. EDITOR:—While spending a few days at the pleasant seaside town of Aberystwyth, Gwyneddshire, Wales, I heard related what seemed to me either a fabulous story or a marvellous cure.

The story was that a poor sufferer who had not been able to lie down in bed for six long years, given up to die by all the Doctors, had been speedily cured by some Patent Medicine. It was related with the more implicit confidence from the circumstance, as was said, that the Vicar of Llanyrdy was familiar with the facts, and could vouch for the truth of the report.

Having a little curiosity to know how such stories grow in travelling, I took the liberty while at the village of Llanyrdy to call upon the Vicar, the Rev. T.
 Evans, and to enquire about this wonderful cure. Though I felt a stranger to him, both he and his wife most graciously entertained me in a half hour's conversation, principally touching the case of Mr. Pugh, in which they seemed to take a deep and sympathetic interest, having been familiar with his sufferings and now rejoiced in what seemed to them a most remarkable cure.

He strongly vouched Mr. Wm. Pugh's character as a respectable farmer and worthy of credit. I left the venerable Vicar with a lively sense of the happy relation of a pastor and people, feeling that he was one who truly sympathized with all who are afflicted in mind, body, or estate.

On my return to Aberystwyth, I was impressed with a desire to see Mr. Pugh, whose name I had just mentioned. His farm is called Pwncmawr, signifying "above the dingle," situated near the summit of a smooth round hill, overlooking a beautiful valley in which is situated the lovely ivy-mantled Church of Llanyrdy. I found Mr. Pugh, apparently about 40 years old, of medium height, rather slight, with a pleasant and intelligent face. I told him I had heard of his great affliction and of his remarkable and almost miraculous relief, and that I had come to learn from his own lips, what there was of truth in the reports.

Mr. Pugh remarked that his neighbors had taken a kindly and sympathetic interest in his case for many years, but late their interest had been greatly awakened by a happy change in his condition. What you report as having heard abroad, said he, is substantially true, with one exception. I never understood that my case was ever given up as hopeless by any Physician. I have been treated by several Doctors hereabouts, as good as any in Wales, but unfortunately no prescription of theirs ever brought the desired relief.

Fifteen years ago, he said, I first became conscious of a sour and deranged stomach and loss of appetite, which the Doctors told me was Dyspepsia. What food I could hold in my stomach seemed to do me no good and was often thrown up with painful retchings. This was followed after a time with a diarrhoea and a raw soreness of the throat, which the Doctors called bronchitis, and I was treated for that, but with little success. Then came shortness of breath and a sense of suffocation, especially nights, with clammy sweat, and I would have to get out of bed and sometimes open a door or window in winter weather to fill my lungs with the cold air.

The Vicar remarked that he presumed his name had been connected with the report, from his having mentioned the case to Mr. John Thomas, a chemist of Llanon. He said Mr. Pugh was formerly a resident of their parish, but was now living in the parish of Llanddeiniol.

This medicine they administered to me according to the directions, when to their surprise and delight no less than my own, the spasm ceased. I became at ease, and my stomach was calmed. My bowels were moved as by a gentle cathartic, and I felt a sense of quiet comfort all through such as I had not before realized in many years. I could walk around the house and breathe comfortably in a few hours after I had taken the medicine. I have continued to take the medicine daily now for something over two months, and I can lie down and sleep sweetly at nights and have not since had a recurrence of those terrible spasms and sweatings. I have been so long broken down and reduced in my whole system that I have not tried to perform any very hard outdoor labor, deeming it best to be prevented by over-exertion I may do my self injury before my strength is fully restored. I feel that my stomach and bowels have been and are being thoroughly renovated and renewed by the medicine. In fact I feel like a new man.

Early in this last spring I had a still more severe spasmodic attack, and my family and neighbors became alarmed, believing that certainly I would not survive, when a neighbor, who had some knowledge, or had heard of the medicine, sent to Aberystwyth by the driver of the Omnibus Post, some seven miles distant, and fetched a bottle of Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup.

I have been much congratulated by my neighbors, especially by the good Vicar of Llanyrdy, who with his sympathetic wife have come three miles to shed tears of joy on my recovery.

I bade Mr. Pugh good-bye, happy that even one at least among thousands had found a remedy for an aggravating disease.

About six years ago I became so bad that I could not sleep in bed, but had to take my unquiet rest and dreary sleep sitting in an armchair. My affliction seemed to be working downward into my bowels as well as upwards into my lungs and throat. In the violent coughing spasms which grew more frequent, my abdomen would expand and collapse at times it would seem that I should suffocate. All this time I was reduced in strength so that I could perform no hard labor and my spirits were consequently much depressed.

Believing this remarkable case of Dyspeptic Asthma should be known to the public, I beg to submit the above facts as they are related to me.

FREDERICK THE GREAT.

The Berlin Bouras Courier has exhumed this anecdote of Frederick the Great:—One autumn day he was reviewing the annual provincial manoeuvres, and, as ill luck would have it, everything seemed to go wrong. Finally one division of the Hussars made such a bad blunder that the King could no longer control his wrath, but spurred his horse, raised his cane in the air, and galloped after the captain. The latter, not being anxious to feel the weight of the king's cane on his shoulders, also spurred his horse, and after a long chase succeeded in escaping. Next day the General called on the King, and among other things announced his regret that Captain So-and-so had sent in his resignation; he did not know why, he said, but the Captain had told him something had happened which made it impossible for him to remain. "I am sorry to lose him," the General added; "he is one of our best officers;" "Indeed," said the King; "then tell him to come to me during the parade." When the King espied the captain at the parade, he rode up to him and remarked, "I have promoted you as a major. I wanted to tell you yesterday, but you were too fast for me."

ROW GERMANY TREATS SPIES.

The Paris Matin gives its readers the following information respecting the treatment to which persons arrested as spies are subjected in Germany:—"Some five years ago a Belgian subject was arrested in Germany on suspicion of being a spy in the pay of the French Government.
 No trustworthy evidence against him was forthcoming, and the charge was sustained merely by the testimony of an entirely irresponsible individual. Nevertheless the accused was condemned to ten years' imprisonment, after having already suffered eight months' confinement on suspicion. He has since been to all intents and purposes as one dead to his family. It has only been with the greatest difficulty that he has succeeded in obtaining permission from the authorities to write a few lines every quarter. In this epistle, moreover, he is compelled, under threats, to sing the praises of the regime of which he is the innocent victim. He has to herd with thieves and assassins, and although suffering from a most painful physical illness, is on no account permitted to see a physician. The Belgian Government has, it is said, repeatedly made efforts to obtain, if not the release, at all events the better treatment of this unhappy man, but in vain." The writer of the article maintains that numerous other instances of a similar kind could easily be quoted.

RAILWAY ACCIDENTS.

A number of frightful railway accidents are reported from America.
 None of them, however, display any particularly new features, and it is becoming more and more generally established that the dangers faced by railway travellers are always much the same. The worst accident —that on the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, where the Chicago express over-took a freight train unawares, and wrecked itself before its way could be stopped—repeats many of the appalling features of the well-known accident at Abergele, in North Wales. In the most recent case the goods train ought to have been shunted. In both there was a steep gradient which affected the goods train, and in both a number of victims were burnt alive by the devouring flames that soon enveloped a portion of the train. In the other recent American accidents, although the loss of life was small, death was also caused by conflagration, the most terrible end that can well be conceived. How far these disasters were due to carelessness may never be decisively settled, but it is to be feared that railway traffic in the United States is managed more recklessly than in other parts of the world. Accidents caused by the overhauling of goods trains upon the same track could never be possible under a strict employment of the block system, such as is in force on the best English lines. But American railway enterprise is not to be checked, even at the risk of burning passengers alive.—[Home News.

HOW TO GET RID OF A WIFE.

They do these things better in Persia. No man thinks of murdering a wife of whom he is tired, but he sends her as a gift to some bachelor friend whom she has taught to admire her and who is too courteous to refuse. The Shah sets this example, and by this means his beloved spouse of the time being is young, handsome and loving and his married life is a perpetual honeymoon. There is no sewing up in sacks, no poison, no bowstring.
 The favorite cabinet minister or general is informed that he will be favored with a wife from the royal harem, and he smiles and accepts.
 The Persians have always been reputed a wise people and their wisdom in the matrimonial line is suggestive.—[N. Y. Mercury.

RESPECTFULLY SOLICITS A continuance of the patronage of those who occasionally require an express for SHIPPING, MAKING CALLS, &c.
 The manager also desires to state that the Company's drivers have earned a reputation for CAREFUL DRIVING, CIVIL-ITY AND STRICT ADHERENCE TO THE LEGAL RATES OF FARE, thereby avoiding the necessity to use cards, showing the time they have been engaged and the amount received for fares.

The protection which this Company offers the public against overcharging, incivility, or heedless driving, lies in the fact that the majority of their drivers have, by steady application and strict attention to business, become owners of the teams they drive. Furthermore the numerous calls for the COMPANY'S CAR-RIAGES, demonstrate beyond a doubt, that so far, satisfaction has been accorded to the public. Parties who desire to ride behind a certain horse or driver, can always suit their choice, as the drivers are not in the habit of changing about from one stable to another.

Discretion in charging, is a special
