FIRE BONDS SELL.

At a Sharp Advance Over First Price Fixed.

Honolulu, Sept. 5.—Fifteen fire claims bonds were sold at public auction by J. F. Morgan, Thursday for 97. This is the highest price so far obtained for the bonds, but it is predicted that the bonds will still sell at par in Honolulu. The fifteen $1,000 bonds were purchased by Harry Armitage after spirited bidding. The bidding was started at 95 and went by halves to 97, at which they were knocked down to Armitage.

The last sale of fire claims bonds was at 96, also at auction, the purchaser being E. Faxon Bishop of Brewer & Co. When the fire claimants were so anxious to get at the million dollars brought by Treasurer Agent MacLennan a few months ago, they made a deal with several of the banks by which the bulk of the bonds were purchased at 90. Even at that figure the banking concerns were reported as reluctant to take the bonds, but now it is said that they would just as soon have the entire issue at a considerably higher figure. There are still bonds to the amount of $57,000 in the hands of the government and it is predicted that if they are held much longer an offer at par may be forthcoming.

War Is Certain.

Constantinople, Turkey, Sept. 5.—It is now generally conceded that war between Turkey and Bulgaria is inevitable. A revised ultimatum is ready for transmission and its receipt is regarded as the signal for the beginning of hostilities. The Turkish newspapers have taken an increasingly inflammatory attitude and the whole country is so thoroughly stirred that a general outbreak is feared at any time.

The Porte, fully realizing the seriousness of the situation, has informed the Powers that it cannot guarantee the safety of the foreign legations. The fanatical people are stirred to the highest pitch of excitement.

Paris, France, Sept. 5.—It is alleged that the French Government has entered into an agreement with Russia to aid Bulgaria in the coming conflict with Turkey.

Berlin, Germany, Sept. 5.—The rumor is published in German newspapers that Turkish troops have already crossed the Bulgarian border.

London, England, Sept. 5.—In the British diplomatic circles there is activity pointing to intervention of European Powers to prevent war between Turkey and Bulgaria. The British statesmen fear the aggressive policy of Russia and its known readiness to assist Bulgaria should the opportunity offer.

Prepared for War.

Sofia, Sept. 7.—King Ferdinand's minister met in council today and decided that Bulgaria should maintain the strictest neutrality pending a solution of the present difficulties. King Ferdinand has returned and is in command of the situation. In the event of a declaration of war by Turkey, it will be met fearlessly. Preparations for war are apparent on every side.

There are continued reports of atrocities. Fifty villages have been burned and many people slaughtered. A number of minor engagements have been reported with small losses.

Bogota, Colombia, Sept. 7.—A new canal treaty that will be accepted by the Colombian Congress is being generally discussed. Congress adjourned today to meet on the 20th, when it is anticipated the fate of canal legislation will be definitely determined.

MARVELLOUS SITUATION.

Maui Home Rulers Cannot Find Candidates for Ticket.

Maui, Sept. 5.—The Home Rulers of Maui are in a quandary. They cannot find candidates possessing the requisite qualification for their county ticket. It is simply a question of bonds. There are men enough and to spare who are most willing to serve their county but they cannot find responsible bondsmen. Hon. F. W. Beckley, who came to assist the Mauites, has left the island, so it is reported, in disgust. Senator D. Kalanokalani still remains, strenuously attempting to straighten the tangled political threads.

The Home Rule convention opened on the third at the Wailuku skating rink and has had continuous session, day and evening, since then, most of the time behind closed doors. Their proposed slate up to date reads: "Oily" Wm. White for sheriff, John Richardson for county attorney and Messrs. S. E. Kaiue, T. B. Lyons, Louis Kookoo and W. H. Cornwell, Jr., for supervisors. On dit—that Billy White, who is a schemer, suggests that the Home Rulers keep their nominations open until after the Republican convention, on the 14th.

A New Railroad Record.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 6.—A new world's record was made today on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. A run of one hundred and twenty-eight miles was made in one hundred and twenty-five minutes including stops and other delays.

There have been records of one hundred miles an hour reported, but this has always been for short distances, and the record was made by deducting the time for stops.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTER.

B. F. Dillingham Talks of Future Business Conditions.

Honolulu, Sept. 2.—Among the passengers from San Francisco in the Sierra this morning was B. F. Dillingham, who has been absent from the Territory since June 9 of this year. During all that time he was in San Francisco attending to various important matters of business which he went up to attend to. Mr. Dillingham, when seen this morning, stated that he had accomplished everything he had gone after and felt perfectly satisfied with his trip. He did not care to go into details about what he had done.

Continuing, Mr. Dillingham said: "I found while on the coast that the cable men there were very much pleased with the increase in business over the wire between San Francisco and Honolulu. The increase had been steady from the beginning, and though growing steadily, the business was then as good as the cable people had ever had reason to expect.

"I want to say that among the financiers on the coast confidence is fast being restored in Hawaiian securities. They feel perfectly confident that the islands are now going ahead. They know the crops are increasing and that next year we will have about 450,000 tons as our output, which is double what it was in 1898. I had quite a lot of talks with those men on the coast and I made them see a great deal of good in a country that could double its exports in six years.

"People have wondered at our shortage, but when I put the matter plainly before the people on the coast they saw good reason why we should have been short. Last year's crop was 355,000 tons. In 1899 the price of sugar was $90. In 1902 it had dropped to $67. Right there was a loss of $8,000,000 to the country. In the meantime the cost of labor increased 50 per cent and the advance in cash and the loss caused by the difficulty of getting work done took four or five million dollars more. Then came the plague fire with a loss of two millions more. This was all in the three years between 1899 and 1902, and at the same time we had to meet the expansion of new business with an outlay of some fifteen millions, swelling the grand total of loss and additional output to about $30,000,000. Is it any wonder we were short?

"All that has stopped, and now if we get what we expect next year we will be in fine shape again. Many of us are looking for four cents on our sugar. This will bring the plantations a return of some $30,000,000 on the 450,000 tons. All the plantations ought then to pay 6 per cent and put by a sinking fund. There will be a distribution of from three to four millions of dollars in dividends, and, besides this, the plantations will be able to pay off a great deal of their indebtedness.

"Confidence in Hawaiian securities is being steadily restored. There is also a feeling among individuals that the reciprocity treaty with Cuba will fail. This will help us out a great deal. It is the general feeling that the United States has already done enough for Cuba.

"The general feeling towards the islands is much better and people are beginning to see that the losses sustained were the fault of the speculating element on the coast rather than the fault of the islands and the people here. I made many friends during my trip and succeeded in increasing confidence in the islands."

Clergyman Arrested for Burglary.
Hillsboro, Oregon, Sept. 5.—A clergyman named Kennedy has been arrested here for burglary. He is charged with the robbery of an entire family at the point of a pistol after an unsuccessful attempt to chloroform them.

Sold Military Secrets.

Berlin, Sept. 3.—Several soldiers arrested here for treason confess that they sold the secret of the new German bombs to France.

Chief Justice of England.

London, Sept. 3.—Chief Justice Alverstone will be chairman of the Alaskan Boundary Commission.

LIPTON BEATEN.

Reliance Wins Third Heat and the Race by Four Minutes.

New York, Sept. 3.—The Reliance established her supremacy over the Shamrock III today by winning the third race of the series a full three miles ahead.

A seven-knot breeze greeted the big boats this morning as they were towed from their moorings and prepared for the start. There was little expectation that the Shamrock would win, but the usual crowd of boats assembled to witness Lipton's final contest for the cup. The course was fifteen miles to windward and return.

The Reliance crossed the starting line four seconds in the lead and kept her winning pace to the outer mark, which she turned ten minutes ahead of the Shamrock.

On the home run a fog hung over the course at intervals and marred the race from the sightseers' standpoint. The Reliance was seen to be hauling steadily ahead and finally crossed the line with the Shamrock three miles in the rear. An ovation of cheers, bands and steam whistles greeted the Reliance as she crossed the finish line.

Roosevelt Attacked.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 2.—A sensation was created today when the public got its first knowledge of an incident at President Roosevelt's home during yesterday evening.

An unknown man, well-armed, tried three times to pass the guards about the President's house. On each occasion the man was stopped and finally put under arrest. There is little doubt that the man would have made an attempt on the life of the President had he succeeded in reaching the house.

When examined today it was apparent the man is insane. The guards and officials at the President's home have little to say of the incident beyond admitting the attempts to pass the guards. The President gives the affair little attention.

Sultan Promises.

Constantinople, Turkey, Sept. 3.—Answering the report that Christians are in danger of massacre at the hands of fanatical Turks, the Sultan has notified the Powers of his determination to protect all foreigners regardless of their religion. The Turkish Government is undoubtedly doing all that it can to assure the safety of foreigners. The danger lies in its lack of control over its subjects.

Alaska Commission.

London, Sept. 3.—The first session of the Alaskan Boundary Commission was held today. The principal work of the session was organization and discussion of methods of procedure. It was decided that the oral argument of the three counsellors for each Government shall commence in two weeks, closing on October 9th.

Murder and Suicide.

New York, Sept. 3.—Henry Edson, son of a former mayor of New York, shot and killed Mrs. Pullen because of her refusal to elope with him. Afterward he committed suicide.

Aguinaldo's Good Advice.

Manila, Sept. 3.—Aguinaldo, in a public letter, urges his countrymen to go into agriculture and improve its methods, to attend the public schools and stop gambling.

Sofia, Sept. 3.—A battle has occurred at Smilovo between 500 insurgents and eight battalions of Turks. Thirty-five insurgents were killed and sixty Turks. Famine confronts thousands of Bulgarians at Monastir.

Burgas, Sept. 3.—The Austrian steamer Vaskapu en route to Constantinople, was destroyed by three explosions. Twenty-nine persons were killed. It is believed Bulgarians are responsible.

Charlotte, Sept. 3.—A passenger train went through a bridge at this place today. Seven persons were killed and a score injured in the wreck.

Panama, Sept. 2.—A revolution is threatened in case the canal treaty is left unratified.

POLITICS ON OAHU.

Men Talked of at Capital City for Office.

Honolulu, Sept. 1.—Supervisors John Ouderkerk, A. Hocking, Wm. H. Hoogs, F. W. Macfarlane and E. F. Bishop, from the Fourth District and Jas. A. Low, W. W. Goodale and Frank Pahia from the Fifth.

Sheriff—Arthur M. Brown.
Attorney—W. T. Rawlins with a possibility of others.

Treasurer—S. E. Damon.
Clerk—Harry Murray, Wm. Savidge and possibly others.

Tax Assessor—J. W. Pratt.
Auditor—No takers yet.
Surveyor—No takers yet.

The above is a list of candidates for various county officers who have so far made themselves known. Why there have been no applications for the office of auditor is a mystery. There is $250 a month in it for some bright Republican. In the office of Surveyor there is only $600 but there is little to do and a man can keep his own private office.

Much has been said about the county clerkship and the name of A. V. Gear has been published in the morning and one of the afternoon papers as a candidate for that office. Mr. Gear stated this morning that he had never spoken of the clerkship to anyone, nor had he any idea of running for any office under the county. Therefore, the stories about his candidacy, first for supervisor and then for clerk, have been but the vapors of vivid imaginations. However, before the convention comes together, the two announced candidates may expect to see active opposition. There will certainly be other candidates in the field.

As has already been stated in the Bulletin, A. M. Brown for Sheriff and J. W. Pratt for Tax Assessor, need not trouble their heads. They will surely secure the Republican nomination.

Much talk has been indulged in on the streets with reference to County Treasurer, and the name of S. E. Damon, of Bishop & Co., has been prominently mentioned as a suitable man for the place. The only question was on his willingness to run.

Mr. Damon was seen by a Bulletin reporter this morning and in answer to a question, said: "I will do what the Republican party wish me to in the matter. If they give me the nomination I will accept it and run for the office with the intention of doing the work for two years only and then giving someone else a chance. I am in the hands of the Republican party in this matter."

A. G. M. Robertson will not consider the office of County Attorney for any other office under the county, so that puts out of the race one good man the Republicans were counting on.

There will probably be a sharp contest for supervisors, particularly in the Fourth District which, according to the terms of the County Act, are allowed four of the seven members of the Board. John Ouderkerk should go in with flying colors and both A. Hocking and Wm. Hoogs as good hard Republican workers who are popular with the masses, like Mr. Ouderkerk, should climb right up to the top notch so far as votes are concerned. It is thought that before many days there will be other candidates in the field so that the convention may have more names to choose from.

In the Fifth, Jas. A. Low will run at the head of the ticket. He will not only secure the nomination but the election also because he is popular with all. A Home Rule leader said yesterday that his party would vote for Mr. Low because they would be sure of a square deal from him. Mr. Goodale, manager of Waialua plantation, is also a good man for supervisor. He should carry a large vote.

It is predicted that before the county convention sits, there will be plenty of candidates for all of the offices under the county.

Senator D. Kalaauokalani changed his mind this forenoon about leaving in one of the steamers sailing at 12 noon and will go in the Maui to the island of that name. The Home Rule county convention of that island is to be held in Wailuku on the 3d inst. and it is his intention to be present at this important gathering of delegates. The dates of the various county conventions are as follows:

East Hawaii—September 10.
West Hawaii—September 3.
Maui, Molokai and Lanai—September 3.

Oahu—September 30.
Kauai—September 17.

Jesse Makainai, one of the most active of the Home Rule leaders, left for Kona today to be present at the convention of the West Hawaii delegates. He will return by the next steamer.

Senator Kalaauokalani will probably be back here next Sunday and his next trip will be to Kauai to see that all goes well there. He will remain for the convention.

The policy of the Home Rulers all over the Islands will be to support those of the Republican nominees they feel will do the right thing in office and to put up their own men where nominees of the Republican party do not seem to be suited to their tastes.

The apportionment of delegates according to voting strength will be the same with the Home Rulers as with the Republicans.

DAVIS APPEALS.

Will Try To Be Reinstated as a Lawyer.

Honolulu, September 2.—George A. Davis returned from San Francisco in the Sierra this morning for a short period of rest on the advice of his physicians. He was not in San Francisco very long before he was taken ill and found it necessary to go to a hospital. He rallied under the watchful care of Dr Winslow Anderson, and it was on his advice that he returned home. Mr. Davis will remain in Honolulu for some weeks, after which he will return to the coast to continue the fight for the protection of his rights. Seen by a Bulletin reporter this afternoon Mr. Davis said:

"No, I am not back to stay. I shall return to San Francisco as soon as I have recovered my strength here. I shall then finish the work of doing what is necessary to protect my rights, which is already well under way.

"I intend to take three avenues of appeal. In the first place, I shall file a petition for a writ of error and assign the errors. Secondly, I shall appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the Ninth Circuit and, thirdly, I shall appeal direct to the Supreme Court of the United States.

"If these three avenues of appeals fail, then I propose to file the charges against myself in the Circuit Court of the Ninth Circuit, the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the United States, with the stipulation that the record of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii in the case shall constitute the record of appeal.

"More than this I do not care to say. The work has been started and I have received every encouragement in the world."

What is Pain Balm?

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and, while adapted to all the ordinary uses of a liniment, has qualities which distinguish it from other remedies of this class. Pain Balm is especially beneficial for rheumatism. Thousands of cases can be cited in which it has effected a cure when the sufferer had previously tried the best medical service without securing relief. Pain Balm is positively guaranteed to give relief in the most severe cases of chronic or acute rheumatism.

Pain Balm heals bruises, burns and scalds in less time than any other treatment. It is "antiseptic" that is, it prevents putrefaction and by so doing, generally prevents an unsightly scar remaining after the injury is healed. For lame back, lumbago and neuralgia, Pain Balm has no equal. It has the quality of "getting to the right spot." No sufferer from these distressing affections should defer a trial of this remedy. One application gives relief. Try it. The Hilo Drug Co. sells it. *

THE USUAL BACKING.

The Hilo Tribune complains that Sheriff Andrews is trading promises of places for promises of support, and says it is dishonest. Yet the editor of the Tribune knows that in the State from whence he came a political candidate who didn't make ante-election promises of this kind would be set down either as a fool or a freak. It is only in Hawaii that political enemies are rewarded with office.—Advertiser.

It is just such backing as the above from Honolulu that has unfitted the simple and honest soul of Sheriff Andrews for further use as a public official on this Island. He has been made to believe by his Honolulu advisers and sponsors that any old action would go, and that he need fear no consequences no matter to what extremes his arbitrary will might carry him. It is because Andrews has abused his discretionary powers—powers that have been enlarged many fold by those in Honolulu who have petted him for a decade; it is because of this abuse that the people of this county do not longer want him for Sheriff.

As the Advertiser says, politics is largely a trading game. But the Advertiser would not sanction the demoralization of a police force for the sake of the political advantage of its chief. The acts of Andrews are too transparent. If they are not official errors they are political blunders. The Sheriff's agent, the editor of the Herald, has been offering police jobs right and left to anti-Andrews delegates. The department has been shaken from top to bottom and overhauled from Hilo to Laupahoehoe to capture the nomination for Sheriff Andrews.

Honolulu is doing nothing new in backing up Andrews and would do so to the end of time.

WHO MAY VOTE.

Committeeman Thos. C. Ridgway, in response to an inquiry addressed to Election Registrar C. R. Buckland, received the following:

Both the Governor and the Attorney-General have looked into the question of qualification for voting at the coming county election, and have agreed in the opinion that only those voters who were registered for the election of 1902 can be allowed to vote next November, and that they must also vote in the precinct in which they were then registered. This may work hardship in some individual cases, but the law seems clear on the subject. There will be no meetings of the Board of Registration.

WITH W. H. Smith as County Attorney no Sheriff whom the people may elect will be handicapped because of inexperience with the law. The acknowledged capabilities of Mr. Smith as a lawyer will guarantee the proper discharge of the numerous duties which in the past have been bunglingly done by the Sheriff. Under the county law the Sheriff ceases to be the whole thing.

THERE has not been a more irresponsible statement made in this campaign than the assertion in the Herald that the anti-Andrews men wish to name three or more Supervisors from the Hilo precinct.

AMONG the names mentioned for Treasurer of the County of East Hawaii are: C. A. Stobie, F. S. Lyman, R. A. Lyman, A. E. Sutton and E. W. Barnard.

THAT acclamation nomination given J. U. Smith yesterday indicates that he is widely known among the Hawaiians.

Stacker's Stackassity.

The shades of night were falling fast. When arm in arm together they passed; The Devil and Andrews both wearing a scowl, Says the Devil: "This Loebenstein makes me howl."

Oh stay, the maidens sighed and winked, The Devil tickled his bald pate and blinked;

The Devil was Stacker of Herald fame. The gossips they—well its all the same.

The wild bull shieth at sight of red rag, And Stack he's an adept in graft and in swag.

So Andrews and he, they made a combine, But their slate, it was smashed by bad Loebenstein.

This Loebenstein with great big words did put up quite a talk, And he did say that he did think the Sheriff was a gawk.

His speech was long, his tongue was loose, the row it then began, When he did bawl with lots of gall of things American.

Said Lieb, "these resolutions to which please give attention, Are just to keep this Andrews out, and I would further mention,

Five Supervisors we're to have, from Waipio Gulch to Puna, But two from Hilo are enough, you'll get your way the sooner."

But now the storm is over and peace it once more reigns, And the Allied Trades they back Lieb up with 550 names.

They claim no social greatness, all working men are plain. But Todd they'll have for Sheriff and loyal will remain.

YOU BET.

The Home Rule party held its County Convention yesterday at the Hawaiian church in Puuoe. There were over fifty delegates and all precincts were represented.

Hon. F. W. Beckley was made chairman of the convention and called it to work in a characteristic speech. Joseph Oliver was chosen as secretary.

The first business of the convention was the nomination of candidates for Supervisors. The following five names were the choice of the convention: E. H. Lyman, J. Palau, C. R. Blacow, R. H. Makekau, T. K. Lalaken.

"Frear's Frivolities."

We are fortunate to have a visit from this world famed artist, who has been appearing with such extraordinary success in Honolulu. He is returning to play there again after his performances here this Saturday and Tuesday in Spreckels Hall.

The Advertiser says: "Never has such laughter been heard within the walls of the theatre. The crowded house fairly reeked with laughter for two and one-half hours. Frear is certainly the best entertainer we have ever had, and all who were present last night will be present again tomorrow night for his change of program."

Frear is reported to be the greatest traveler in the world, and has appeared before a greater number of royalties than any other artist. His credentials on view at the plan office are well worth perusing. All should certainly be present to see the best show that will ever reach Hilo.

See advertisement. Plan and tickets at the Owl Drug Store. All Hilo will be there on Saturday night.

Wailuku Bridge.

The members of the Road Board and the property owners on Bridge street are disappointed with the plans for the new bridge over the Wailuku on that thoroughfare. The plans call for a bridge only three feet higher than the level of the old bridge.

This leaves the steep grade on the Puuoe side of the river practically unaltered. There will be an effort made to have the plans modified by the Department of Public Works.

There will be no services at Waiakea Mission Sunday evening, the children having been invited to attend the union services at Haili Church. A special train will run from Waiakea at 7 o'clock p. m. if fifty or more round trip tickets are bought.

The sale of tickets for the charity ball indicates that there will be a large company at Spreckels' hall this evening. A new orchestra has been provided consisting of ten musicians from the Hilo band. The ladies in charge are to be congratulated for their work.

August G. Serrao died at his home in Hilo yesterday after a long illness. The funeral will be held at 4 o'clock today from the Portuguese Christian Church. The deceased had been a well known business man in Hilo for the past five years. He came to the islands from Jacksonville, Ill.

EXCLUSIVE LINE.

Wireless Telegraph Has its Own Line to Mahukona.

Manager Cross of the Wireless Telegraph is in the city to look after the installation of the through telegraph line from Hilo to Mahukona.

The line is now being run and will be completed in a few days and as soon after as possible, a telegraph operator will be put in charge of the Hilo end of the line.

The island system has been greatly simplified. As now arranged there is but one relay station, Lahaina, between Oahu and Mahukona and within two months, Mr. Cross says they will send messages direct from Oahu to Mahukona.

Mr. Cross has made a number of improvements on the original Marconi system which accounts for the steady improvements in the service.

He has his improvements protected by applications for patents.

This week, Superintendent Cooper made an official test of the lines and upon his acceptance of the service as satisfactory the government subsidy will be available for the wireless company.

After Cooper's approval the tolls on wireless messages will be reduced to ten cents a word.

The Hilo office of the wireless will remain at the office of the Hilo Telephone Company.

Union Meeting.

The last union meeting was under the auspices of the Portuguese church and was well attended. The scriptures were read in the English, Hawaiian, Japanese and Portuguese languages.

Special music was well rendered by the Portuguese choir, and the Haili choir assisted in the hymns. Miss Shaw of Honolulu, accompanied by Miss Sarah Lyman, charmingly rendered two solos.

Little Miss Canario recited a very appropriate selection. Short addresses on temperance were made by Rev. F. L. Nash in English, Rev. Mr. Kekuewa in Hawaiian and Rev. Mr. Silva in Portuguese.

The next meeting will be next Sabbath evening, Sept. 13, and will be under the auspices of the First Foreign Church.

While there may not be such a diversity of tongues, the exercises will be interesting. Special music will be rendered, among other things selections by the S. S. Quartette of Waiakea.

Mrs. Black will recite and Mrs. F. L. Nash will speak on "The Woman With the Lamp." The public is cordially invited.

TO CAN PINEAPPLES.

Meeting of Growers Held to Consider Plans.

A number of Hilo's leading agriculturists are interesting themselves in the formation of a company to establish a pineapple canning factory to provide a market for pineapples already planted and to encourage an increase in the acreage of one of the most profitable Hawaiian products.

A preliminary meeting to canvass the situation was held at the office of Chas. Furneaux last Wednesday afternoon. Those in attendance were E. S. Lyman, Chas. Furneaux, E. E. Kelsey, L. D. Brown, C. L. Clement, A. C. McKenney, R. A. Lyman, Geo. Paty, R. I. Lillie and a representative of the TRIBUNE.

Mr. Furneaux was made chairman of the meeting and C. L. Clement, secretary. The object was stated to be to ascertain the available pineapple crop for the years 1904 and 1905 and to find out the amount of capital necessary to equip a canning factory with facilities that would give a certain market for all the pineapples that may be raised in the environs of Hilo.

These matters were discussed informally and committees appointed to secure the desired information.

C. L. Clement and R. I. Lillie were appointed a committee to secure detailed information concerning the cost of establishing and operating a cannery. E. E. Kelsey, Geo. Paty and F. S. Lyman were appointed to canvass the community and find out how many pineapples will be produced in 1904 and 1905.

From inquiry it was found that those present represented a crop for 1905 of at least 25,000 pineapples, without setting out more shoots.

It is estimated that 20,000 pineapples went to waste this year in the Hilo District on account of no market. The meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

NEW PRODUCT.
 New Value Discovered in the Algaroba Tree.

Honolulu, Sept. 3.—Gum Arabic, a product of the algaroba tree whose threefold virtues as a shade tree, firewood provider and dispenser of fattening cattle food, so highly recommend it to Hawaii, opens another possible avenue of profit to island agriculturists and adds another attribute to the kiawe.

The algaroba trees, particularly the younger ones, are full of resinous sap which exudes freely upon the bark being slashed. The product after selection and slight refinement is the commodity known as Gum Arabic.

The product is used to some extent medicinally in prescription work, but to a greater extent mechanically in mucilaginous compounds. The price has lately gone up from sixty-seven to ninety five cents per pound in what is termed the mass or crude form, sometimes known as shorts.

J. W. Girvin, once connected with the foreign office, experimented in gathering the gum and sent some away for classification and valuation. The price at that time was not apparently enough to make the experiment on a large scale appear profitable but the owners of algaroba groves should find the gum gathering, which is not injurious to the growth of the tree, a nice addition to the sale of cordwood and kiawe beans at fifteen cents the sack.

Harry Roberts, who grows many fine mangoes and papaias, has on his premises a gamboge tree which is in flourishing condition. The gum from this is an important feature in color and stain manufacture from the artist's box to the decorator's broader work. It is also a medicinal value of a powerful purge being used principally by veterinarians in their prescriptions.

The price of gamboge is not so encouraging as gum raising although the exudations are prolific. Present prices range from twenty to twenty-eight cents the pound for third, second and first pickings, with eleven and one-half to twelve cents quoted for "sorts."

ATKINSON RESIGNS.
 Honolulu, Sept. 3.—A. L. C. Atkinson resigned yesterday as a member of the Central Committee of the Fourth District and as member and secretary of the Territorial Central Committee and as member and secretary of the Executive Committee. Following is Mr. Atkinson's letter:

Honolulu, Sept. 2, 1903.

Dear Sir:—I beg leave to submit my resignation as a member and as secretary of the Territorial Central Committee, and also my resignation as a member and as secretary of the Executive Committee of the Territorial Central Committee of the Republican Party of Hawaii.

The duties of these Committees have taken up so much time that I am compelled to take this course so as to give more attention to my law practice.

I wish to say that I am glad to have been on the Committees during the last year when so much has been done towards organizing and placing the party on the firm basis it is today.

I feel that the future of the party cannot be brighter, from the fact that so many capable men of this community are interesting themselves in its welfare.

I am, Sir, Yours faithfully,
 A. L. C. ATKINSON.

Port Arthur, Sept. 7.—The announcement that Japan will purchase the Island of Sambak, one of the best strategic points in its sphere of action, has created a profound sensation in Korea.

EUROPEAN BOUNTY.
 Sugar Subsidy Discontinued in European Countries.

Honolulu, Sept. 1.—Today marks a new era in the sugar industry of the world for it is the day when the Brussels convention goes into effect in Europe.

According to the terms of the convention the bounty system, which was pernicious in its effect, meets its death blow today and the whole system is to be rearranged.

This bounty system has had the effect of increasing the beet sugar production of continental Europe to such an extent as to have brought about the enormous surplus in the last two years of raw sugar and consequently forced the price down to where it has been.

The bounty system became such a great burden to the people of Europe, particularly those of France and the whole thing was on such an artificial basis that the convention was called about a year ago and the decision to abolish the bounty was arrived at.

The Brussels convention will have the effect of reducing the price of sugar to the retainer in the open markets. Some of the beet sugar manufacturers, who depend on the bounty to keep them going, will be forced to the wall and with the reduced price to consumers the consumption will increase proportionately. With the readjustment incident to the abolition of the bounty, the surplus will gradually disappear and the sugar industry will get down on a firm basis.

Says 'Twas Wedding Affair.
 Constantinople, Turkey, Sept. 1.—Five arrests have been made of Turks suspected of participating in the attempted assassination of Vice Consul Maglessen. The Porte claims that the shot aimed at Maglessen was not the result of feeling against the Consul or Americans, but was a stray shot coming from an altercation at a wedding celebration.

Reports of outrages continue to come in from all directions where there are Christians. Villages have been plundered, the inhabitants massacred and homes and business places destroyed by fire.

The recent honors de Witte has received at the hands of the Czar are practically official recognition of the strong influence de Witte has been known to exert in the Russian administration for several years.

EUROPEAN BOUNTY.
 Sugar Subsidy Discontinued in European Countries.

Honolulu, Sept. 1.—Today marks a new era in the sugar industry of the world for it is the day when the Brussels convention goes into effect in Europe.

According to the terms of the convention the bounty system, which was pernicious in its effect, meets its death blow today and the whole system is to be rearranged.

This bounty system has had the effect of increasing the beet sugar production of continental Europe to such an extent as to have brought about the enormous surplus in the last two years of raw sugar and consequently forced the price down to where it has been.

The bounty system became such a great burden to the people of Europe, particularly those of France and the whole thing was on such an artificial basis that the convention was called about a year ago and the decision to abolish the bounty was arrived at.

The Brussels convention will have the effect of reducing the price of sugar to the retainer in the open markets. Some of the beet sugar manufacturers, who depend on the bounty to keep them going, will be forced to the wall and with the reduced price to consumers the consumption will increase proportionately. With the readjustment incident to the abolition of the bounty, the surplus will gradually disappear and the sugar industry will get down on a firm basis.

Says 'Twas Wedding Affair.
 Constantinople, Turkey, Sept. 1.—Five arrests have been made of Turks suspected of participating in the attempted assassination of Vice Consul Maglessen. The Porte claims that the shot aimed at Maglessen was not the result of feeling against the Consul or Americans, but was a stray shot coming from an altercation at a wedding celebration.

TOBACCO IN HAWAII.

Conter Will Have 106 Acres in Kona for Experiment.

Mr. Conter of the Federal Experiment Station is to be given a public land concession for the proposed experiments in tobacco culture. At an Executive Council meeting it was decided to allot him somewhat more than 106 acres of land in Kona under the homestead provisions of the Land Act. The right of entry to Mr. Conter is to be given under very favorable conditions, as the Government realizes that the success of the tobacco industry in that locality would mean a great deal for the cause of small farming.

The Council approved the application of Quoy Yick In for a lease of 2 3/4 acres, classed as rice and taro land, in Pauoa Valley, the term to be five years and the rental $220 per annum.

Commissioner E. S. Boyd submitted an application for John Hind for permission to kill off the wild cattle in the forest reserves of Puuauahulu, Hawaii. The request was made as in the applicant's own interest, with incidental benefit to the public forests.

The Council feared that the granting of the permission might open floodgates of trouble, as other ranch owners would be liable to ask for a similar privilege of entrance upon the public domain. It was decided to refer the matter to the Board of Agriculture and Forestry. That body has already under consideration the matter of exterminating wild sheep in the mountains of the big island.

Japanese Gunboat.

Peking, China, Sept. 1.—A considerable sensation has been caused in diplomatic circles by the action of a Japanese gunboat captain in preventing the entrance of a steamer at Yongampho. The steamer was a merchant craft under the American flag but chartered by Russians. Yongampho is not an open port. The Russians who chartered the American steamer are highly incensed over what they consider the high handed action of the Japanese.

MAUNA LOA QUEEN.

Did Up the Kinau in a Race Over Smooth Seas.

Honolulu, Sept. 2.—The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company's colors are privileged to fly triumphantly this morning. There was a race from Honolulu to Lahaina yesterday between that company's flagship Mauna Loa and Wilder's Steamship Company's flagship Kinau. The Mauna Loa won, as stated in the following wireless telegram received last night by President J. A. Kennedy of the I. I. S. N. Co.:

"The Mauna Loa arrived at Lahaina at 6:14 p. m. Running time six hours four minutes. The Kinau arrived at 6:32. Running time six hours twenty-two minutes. Sea very smooth. Kinau flying light. Mauna Loa deep load."

It is claimed by Mr. Kennedy that the Kinau had a start of one minute and ten seconds in getting under way from the docks. This would make the corrected time of the Mauna Loa's passage nineteen minutes ten seconds better than that of the Kinau.

What makes Mr. Kennedy all the prouder of his steamer's beat is the fact she has been in the water three months collecting barnacles upon her skin, while her rival came off the dry dock last week with her plates thoroughly polished for the contest of speed. He recalls the Wilder jubulations over the last previous race between the two crack passenger boats, when the Kinau, again but newly cleaned, defeated the Mauna Loa in foulest condition by the small matter of fourteen minutes.

Salonica, Sept. 7.—Sixteen battalions of Turkish reserves have been called to join their colors.

Berlin, Germany, Sept. 7.—The Powers have declined to accept the Austrian-Russian proposal for coercive action in settling the troubles in the Balkans. The diplomatic action of Germany will doubtless be accepted, but it is anticipated that this will be devoid of practical results.

Cattle Beets for Hawaii.

Honolulu, Sept. 2.—A new industry in the shape of raising beets for cattle feeding is given promise by specimens of the white beet raised in Kona, Hawaii, by Henry Willgeroth, a horticulturist of that district, who is much interested in the possibilities of the agricultural by-products of the Territory.

The specimen submitted by Mr. Willgeroth shows a young beet weighing about five pounds and capable of attaining perhaps twice that weight. The vegetables grow freely in virgin soil without fertilization or other than natural irrigation. Other districts and other soils than Kona might possibly require such aids. In the western beet belt of Colorado, Utah and Arizona sub-irrigation is necessary to bring the sugar beet to perfection. It is not Mr. Willgeroth's intention to propose or promote beet sugar for Hawaii, the beet grown by him being purely a feed plant and as such very valuable.

The plants do not exhaust the soil with any appreciable rapidity. They can be planted to advantage about three feet apart, which would give 480 plants to the acre. At an average of seven and one-half pounds this would mean something over eighteen tons of feed to the acre.

The beet has undoubtedly a large fattening value. The beet sugar factories supplement their profits quite largely by feeding ill conditioned cattle into market prime upon the waste from the sugar. The beets as grown in the Kona district are splendid fatteners and local stockmen state that they should find a ready market. At present the Kona beet seems to have no enemies.

WOULD SHOOT DAVIS.

Smith of Advertiser Makes a Wild Guess.

Honolulu, Sept. 4.—"I'll kill you on the spot, you blackmailer!" It was Smith—Walter G. Smith—editor of Thurston's organ, who used this blood-curdling language, and set the people on a rapidly traveling Wilder avenue car to calculating the element of chance in a wild leap into the street for safety.

Swinging his arms wildly in the air, his face ashen and his voice trembling from excitement and the conjurings of a fright, inspired imagination playing havoc with his nerves, Walter G. Smith thus addressed himself to George A. Davis, who, like the other passengers in the car, had paid his fare and demanded nothing more than a peaceful ride to his destination.

It looked like swift destruction for Davis, whose only offense was a pardonable desire to blow his nose. Smith was on his feet and he declared before the whole car his intention to kill Davis on the spot. "A dreadful catastrophe was expected, and it is now a question with some of those who witnessed the scene if action cannot be brought for the use of threatening language. However, such a case might fail, since it is necessary in actions of the kind that the plaintiff shall express fear of the defendant.

At all events, Davis wanted to blow his nose, having contracted a severe cold since his arrival the other day. He naturally felt for his handkerchief, oblivious of the close proximity of danger, and then came the explosion from a rear seat, when everyone expected to hear the awe-inspiring report of a revolver and see Davis stretched out on the floor a dead man.

An eye-witness tells the following story of the exhibition of unparalleled bravery on the part of Thurston's editor in the face of the enemy:

"It was between 5 and 6 o'clock and we were going home from our daily toil on a Wilder avenue car. Among the passengers were Governor and Mrs. Dole, George A. Davis and Walter G. Smith.

"Mr. Davis got up from his seat and walking forward to where Governor and Mrs. Dole sat shook hands with them and asked after their health. He then turned and walked back to his seat, feeling in his hip pocket for his handkerchief as he did so.

"Walter G. Smith seemed to scent danger for he bounded from his seat like an india rubber ball, and in a voice that had lost much of its depth he shouted out these words:

"Don't you put your hand in your pocket to me. I won't stand it. I'll kill you on the spot, you blackmailer!"

"Davis quietly turned to the excited editor and said: 'What's the matter with you? I'll put my hand in my pockets if I want to. I haven't anything in my pockets. I haven't anything in my pockets.'

"Smith, evidently seeing what a beautiful show he had made of himself, and that, too, in the presence of the Governor, sat down, shifted a few of his bundles which had shared some of their owner's excitement, and then remarked, very weakly, 'You ought to be in jail.'

"It was a strenuous scene for a few moments. Davis was naturally angry at being interrupted so uselessly when he wanted to blow his nose, and he was emphatic when he said he hadn't anything in his pockets. Smith's face showed that he had suddenly keyed himself up to do great and daring deeds in the face of the enemy, before the Governor of the Territory, and on a fine, bright afternoon.

"I have heard a rumor around that Smith pulled a gun and covered Davis, but he didn't get that far. I don't know what he had in his pocket."

HOUSEHOLD MOSQUITOES.

New Haunts Are Discovered by Dr. Cofer.

Honolulu, Sept. 2.—The work of the mosquito campaigners has resulted in the bringing to light of many unsuspected haunts and breeding places of the pest, some of which it was hard to imagine tenanted by wrigglers until actual investigation showed the proof.

Dr. Cofer, whose work on Quarantine Island has set so striking an example of what may be accomplished in ridding localities of the mosquito, is the discoverer of one of the breeding places not searched for wrigglers.

"Down in our office," said the medico, meaning the offices in the Customs building, "we were greatly troubled with day mosquitoes, and for a long time I was unable to locate them. Finally, as a last resort, for the articles in question are washed every day, I had the cuspidors investigated, and found them to contain wrigglers by the myriad.

"The source was thus discovered, but the mystery remained unsolved, as I could not imagine how the larvae were able to breed. I had seen the cuspidors washed every morning and filled with fresh water and yet there were the wrigglers. Next morning I investigated more closely and found an elucidation.

"The cuspidors were of the regular type, with sloping top centering toward the opening, somewhat on the plan of the unspillable ink bottles. The boy in washing turned on the fresh water, rinsed the container by giving it a circular movement and then turned it upside down, refilling from the top. Now, the turning upside down of the cuspidor empties some of the contents, but most of it fills up behind the sloping walls of the top and goes unchanged. The wrigglers are somewhat shaken up but not exterminated. Hence these bites.

"The remedy? Cuspidors with lids that can be taken off, or a little unslaked lime in the water. One thing in connection with the crusade should be remembered, and that is that empty tins should be collected regularly and never allowed to accumulate over night. Spasmodic attempts are productive of slim results. On Quarantine Island, where it was a comparatively easy matter to get rid of the mosquitoes, a regular inspection for tins and cans is necessary, and it is astonishing how they accumulate."

Another place to which the householders should look is furnished by the custom of placing the legs of meat safes and ice chests in shallow tins containing water as a preventive against the attacks of ants. This water is frequently left unchanged for days and furnishes a happy breeding ground for Mrs. Skeeter. Lime in the water will stop all danger from these sources.

THE KOHALA DITCH.

Gehr Demands an Investigation by Grand Jury.

Honolulu, Sept. 5.—An investigation of the charges made against A. C. Gehr and others connected with the Kohala water controversy will be made by the Grand Jury and the papers are now in the hands of the Attorney General.

This is the result of the initiative of Mr. Gehr, who demands a searching investigation of the direct or implied charges of his opponents that there have been corrupt methods employed in his relations with the Territorial officers.

Roosevelt Reviews Labor.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 7.—President Roosevelt was the central attraction in Syracuse today, when the opening ceremonies of the New York State Fair were combined with the big Labor Day celebration. The President during the forenoon reviewed the mammoth labor parade representing the labor organizations and every trade in the city. Following the parade the Presidential party adjourned to the fair grounds, where fully 50,000 people were assembled and participated in the formal opening ceremonies. Roosevelt was greeted with the most cordial enthusiasm from the crowds that included the representative men and women of city and country.

DITCH CONTROVERSY.

Governor Dole Hears the Claims of Contending Parties.

Honolulu, Sept. 2.—Hearing on the Kohala ditch controversy before Governor Dole commenced in the Executive chamber at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Governor opened the proceedings by reading the correspondence that had passed between himself and Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock. He had enclosed a copy of the application of the Kohala Ditch Company in his letter to Hitchcock.

"The opinion of the Attorney General, to the effect that the question of rights of way for water systems were in the hands of the Governor, were in the province of Territorial officers to grant, not requiring the permission of the Secretary of the Interior, was referred to by the Governor at the meeting.

F. S. Dodge, E. B. McClanahan, W. O. Smith, Samuel Parker, A. C. Gehr, A. W. Carter and J. W. Jones were among those present.

There seemed to be some misunderstanding to start with as to the status of the ditch proposition.

The Governor understood that the two parties anxious to secure the water privileges, Samuel Parker et al. and A. C. Gehr et al., had come to an agreement in the matter. He referred to the long conferences on the question and stated that he had been informed by the different parties that an agreement existed between the Hawaii Ditch Company and the A. C. Gehr people.

Attorney Wundenberg denied that there was ever any agreement as to a combination of interests and stated that the Governor had been misinformed if he had been told by individuals of the Hawaii Ditch Company that there was a combination.

Attorney McClanahan stated that in one of the former conferences he had stated before the Governor that, for the purpose of determining the matter of issuing the license, the two parties could be considered as a combination; as a matter of fact, there was no combination, and he (McClanahan) had so stated.

The Governor said that the ditch company urged their large control of water as a reason for there being no competition in the matter, the Gehr people not controlling enough water to warrant their undertaking the proposition.

It was a question, the Governor said, to be decided after hearing arguments in the case. The Gehr people wanted to take up the matter as it was left when Hitchcock, in 1901, closed proceedings.

Gehr thought the whole question should be placed on the old footing, said the Governor.

Here there was more argument as to the existence of an agreement between the parties. Samuel Parker suggested hearing Gehr and J. W. Jones. Gehr said that was what he was there for and proceeded to present his case.

The Governor declared he had believed there had been a bona fide combination. He remembered, however, that there was a string out somewhere.

The question now was whether there should be competition for the rights or whether the old standing should be the present basis of proceedings.

The matter is now going on.
