BULLETS FOR STRIKERS.

The Troops Will Fire if Any Missiles are Thrown.

Philadelphia, August 29.—Having exhausted every other means of preserving the peace and protecting the non-union men from violence on their way to and from the mines, Brigadier General Gobin, in command of the troops now in the coal fields, tonight issued an order that the soldiers shall shoot any persons detected in throwing stones or other missiles, and that if any of the mob resist the authority of the troops they shall freely use their bayonets. The Panther Creek Valley has been in almost continual turmoil this week, and the troops stationed there have had some difficulty in protecting the lives of the workmen. Tonight the situation in the valley has improved greatly, and it is hoped by the military authorities that the lawlessness and abusive language directed towards the soldiers will cease.

Shenandoah (Pa.), August 29.—General Gobin returned to headquarters from the Panther Creek region tonight. He received the report of Major Gebhart and made a personal investigation of the conditions there, and tonight issued an order in which he says:

"It is very evident from the recent conduct of the riotous element in this section that the conservative attitude with which the troops have heretofore borne insults had been misunderstood, and has encouraged this element to repeated assaults upon the men in the performance of their military duty. This can no longer continue and I have personally informed the Chief Burgess of Landsford and Tamaqua, and directed the informant to be furnished to the authorities of Summit Hill and Coaldale, that the troops will no longer submit to insults or violence from any source. You are therefore directed to arrest any person using insulting language, epithet or violence towards the troops while in the discharge of their duty. Have such parties arrested and taken to your guard house for future disposition. In moving troops, place reliable, competent and skilled marksmen on the flanks of the command and arm your file closers with loaded guns and instruct them that in case of attack upon the columns by stones or missiles where the attacking party cannot be reached, the men thus selected shall carefully note the man attacking the column, and being certain of their man, fire upon him without further orders. For the execution of this duty select none but reliable men, who will make no mistake. On a general mob, if resisting, use your bayonets and butts vigorously if at all possible before resorting to volley firing."

FAVORS ORGANIZATION.

Duke of Abercorn Scores Government for Alleged Blindness.

Dublin, August 29.—At the annual meeting today of the Irish landowners, the Duke of Abercorn made an address in which he voiced approval of the idea of promoting a land trust, and predicted that such a trust would be a valuable means of defeating the system of boycotting, blackmailing and conspiracy, which the Duke said, had arisen almost entirely because the imperial Government was strangely blind to its growth and unwisely deaf to the warnings and protests of the Irish loyalists.

Heavy Earthquake Fell.

Rome, August 29.—A violent earthquake shock is reported to have been felt at Fabriano this afternoon.

LONDON COMMENT.

Journals Are Interested in Monroe Doctrine.

London, August 28.—President Roosevelt's declarations on trusts and the Monroe doctrine are both the subjects of extensive comments in the London press this morning. The discussion of the former matter centers less upon the intrinsic merits of the trust question than upon the outcome of the Presidential struggle with the party leaders. All the newspapers express admiration of President Roosevelt's courage and boldness, but hesitate to predict the result.

The Daily News says: "Many chances are on Mr. Roosevelt's side. St. George goes out to meet the dragon, and the wishes of the whole world will be with him in his fight."

The Daily Telegraph expresses the opinion that the trust question will prove to be the most epoch-making issue in American politics since Bryan's schism on silver, and says there is absolutely no discernible limit to the vista of political convulsions, vicissitudes and divisions which may be the outcome thereof.

The morning Post and the Daily Chronicle both admit that Great Britain has no cause to cavil at what they characterize as "President Roosevelt's modified interpretation of Monroeism," which, plainly stated, they declare to be a sanctification of the status quo on the American continent, and which the Post says means that British possessions in the Americas are to be secured by what is practically a United States guarantee.

The Chronicle thinks the matter wears a different aspect to the Continental powers, who see in South America the last and most tempting field for colonization and for new markets. This paper doubts, however, whether any power will risk the tremendous chances of war with the United States, be the prize ever so seductive. "One thing seems clear," says the Chronicle, "if Monroeism is ever seriously challenged it will be soon. The United States appears to realize this and is building a fleet to defend the doctrine."

The Times says it believes that President Roosevelt has reassessed Monroeism in a more distinct and definite form than it has been presented to the world by any person with authority to speak on the subject since the policy of the doctrine came into being, and says: "As Monroeism is defined by President Roosevelt in strict conformity, indeed, with its original conception and objects, it is a policy to which Great Britain has nothing to take exception and which we have no interest in obstructing, and at the same time we have no reason to object to the protest of the United States against the acquisition of new territorial rights in North or South America by any of the European powers."

Welcome Rains in India.

London, August 29.—An official dispatch received here from Lord Curzon, Viceroy of India, confirms previous reports of a great improvement in agricultural conditions as a result of a general rainfall in India, but says that more rain is needed before the serious pressure for relief work will be materially diminished.

British Steel Combine.

London, August 30.—The Standard says it has learned that negotiations are still in progress for the creation of a British steel combine on the lines of the United States Steel Company, but that they have not yet reached a very definite stage.

TO CRUSH THE DUTCH.

Intermarriage of Boer and Briton in South Africa Opposed.

The Hague, Aug. 29.—Considerable indignation is being expressed here over a report that the British, being determined to crush Dutch influence in every possible way in South Africa, are discouraging matrimony between Boers and Britons. The story goes that fifty English women who desired to avail themselves of Chamberlain's emigration scheme have been rejected because they admitted that they were Boer sympathizers, and stated that if they married in South Africa they would wed Dutchmen. It is also stated that Sir John Ardagh, one of the royal Commission just sent out to South Africa, advised the Government to oppose mixed marriages wherever that could be done, as the children of such unions would be trained in Boer ideas.

It is the opinion here that General de Wet's book on the war will put an end to the favor with which he is at present regarded in England. It is said that the volume is likely to produce a sensation, especially as it will contain certain documentary matter found in the possession of captured British officers.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PLAN.

Protest in South Africa Against the Burden that is Expected.

London, Aug. 29.—A dispatch from Pretoria to the Times, in which the correspondent voices the popular protest against the attempt to increase the tax on mines with a view of making the new colonies contribute to the cost of the war, says that well founded reports credit Joseph Chamberlain, British Colonial Secretary, with the idea of getting from $250,000,000 to $500,000,000 from the colonies for this purpose.

"It is well to face the facts," says the Times correspondent, "and the facts are that for many years to come there will be no prospect of the Transvaal having any surplus above what is necessary for the proper development of the country. It is obvious that any attempt to exact even $250,000,000 would permanently hamper the resources of what at best will for years remain a poor country, dependent upon a single industry."

SUBSIDIARY SILVER.

The San Francisco Mint to Coin a Quarter of a Million a Month.

Washington, August 29.—Preparations are being made for the coining of $250,000 per month in subsidiary silver for the Philippines at the San Francisco mint. Cable inquiry has been made of Governor Taft as to the amount of coin required and how long the mint should work. Correspondence is being carried on between the Bureau of Insular Affairs and Superintendent Leach relative to the new coins. The designs for the new coins are expected soon from Manila. An official of the bureau said that the silver for the coins would be purchased in the open market.

Seeks Naval Station.

London, August 28.—Private advices from Paris say it is reported there that Sir James Lyle Mackay is trying to secure from the Viceroy of the Yang-tse valley a concession for a permanent British naval station at the mouth of the Yang-tse Kiang, but that it probably will not be granted, as the other powers will certainly object. Nothing confirmatory of this statement has thus far been obtained in London.

SCHOOL PROGRESS OF HAWAII.

The Cosmopolitan Character of the Pupils in the Islands.

Statistics of the Public School Department which will probably be included in the Superintendent of Public Instruction's report to Governor Dole, throw interesting side-lights on the personnel of the teachers and pupils of the territory.

The total enrollment in all schools of the territory, public or private is 17,518, the public schools taking in 13,189 an advance of 6000 pupils since a decade ago. There are 143 public schools, the female pupils numbering practically six thousand to the male classes of seven thousand and odd. Female teachers predominate largely. Out of a total of 380 276 are "school mams." The private schools, numbering 54, average about the same way.

The cosmopolitan nature of the population is well shown in the eleven divisions that have to be made. The native children of pure Hawaiian consanguinity have lessened somewhat in number but those of mixed blood have, on the other hand, increased, in all a gain from ten years ago of some 500 children who claim Hawaiian ancestry. The totals show 7772 pure and part Hawaiians.

The Portuguese have almost doubled their numbers. Japanese children have come rapidly under American educational methods in the last decade. In 1892 the Japanese children in the schools numbered a scant sixty while now they are close to two thousand. The Chinese have also increased but in a lesser ratio. At present there are fourteen hundred attending.

A surprise comes with the children of the Porto Ricans who have been in the territory barely two years. Six hundred of these are growing up under the inculcated principles of American manliness and independence. Americans number 812 nearly half of whom are in private schools. British 240, divided about equally between public and private schools. Germans 337, with more than half taught privately. Portuguese 4124, nearly three thousand attending public schools, Scandinavian, 74 public, 24 private. An eighth of the Japanese are taught in private establishments. In the public schools every teacher has an average of about 34 pupils to take charge of while in the private schools the ratio is reduced to 19.

In totalling the teachers of the entire territory under one head, 424 are females and 185 males, making a total of 609. Of these 149 are Hawaiian and part Hawaiian, 329 American, 56 British, 11 German, 23 Portuguese, 10 French, 15 Scandinavian, 3 Belgian, 5 Japanese, 6 Chinese and two of unclassified nationalities.

There are 56 schools on Hawaii, 30 on Maui and Lanai, 9 on Molokai, 33 on Oahu, and 15 on Kauai and Niihau. These figures allude to public schools only.

Learning sewing in the public schools are nearly six thousand on the islands as a group; knife work shows 536, agriculture, 5010; lauhala and bamboo work, 565; mat weaving, 275; drawing, 8191; singing, 8204, and manual training, 2090.

Under six years of age in the public schools are 198 boys and 149 girls, from 6-8 years, 2385 boys and 1719 girls from 8-15, 4362 and 3862, above 15 288 and 226. In private schools, under 6, 262 boys and 288 girls; from 6-15, 1711 and 1486 and over 15, 345 and 582.

LARGE GOLD SUPPLY.

Uncle Sam Has More Than $500,000,000 in His Coffers.

Washington, Aug. 23.—All previous high water marks in the supply of gold held by the United States Government were surpassed today when the amount of yellow metal in possession of the treasury reached $568,797,306.82, which exceeds by more than a million dollars the record of two months ago. The items comprising this immense aggregate are: Reserve fund, $150,000,000; gold coin held for redemption of gold certificates, $358,120,089; gold coin and bullion in general funds, $66,677,217.82. This is the largest gold supply held by any Government.

MONT PELEE'S WRATH RENEWED.

Volcano is Again in a Violent State of Eruption.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Aug. 27.—A dispatch received here from the island of Dominica, dated yesterday, August 26, at 6 p. m., says:

"Since 2 p. m. today (Tuesday) prolonged noises in quick succession have been heard from the southward. There is every indication that Mont Pelee is violently erupting."

Efforts made to communicate by cable direct with the island of Martinique have proved unsuccessful. The French Cable Company has no cable working to that point and the company's officials are unable to say when communication with Martinique will be resumed.

Chicago, August 27.—"Mont Pelee may assume a Krakatoa type of volcano, and in that case there may be another great disaster in the West Indies," said Louis H. Ayme, United States Consul at Guadalupe. He was the first representative of this government to arrive at Martinique when that island was devastated by Mont Pelee's eruption May 8. Ayme held in his hand a dispatch stating that Pelee was again in a state of violent eruption. What he fears most is that a tidal wave may follow the continued eruptions, and a tidal wave, it should be remarked, is likely to affect not only Martinique, but the entire chain of islands.

"Krakatoa is the name of a volcano which blew the top of a mountain off several years ago," said Ayme in explanation of his statement. "The report was heard 2400 miles away. It began to erupt in February and continued to mutter for months after. This may prove to be the case in Martinique. Mont Pelee may blow the top off the mountain and then there will be serious trouble."

BOERS FEAR KAFFIRS.

Say the Peace of South Africa is Threatened by Them.

Vienna, Aug. 23.—The Fremdenblatt today publishes an interview with an Australian who traveled from South Africa to England on the steamer with the Boer generals, Botha, Dewet and Delarey. The Australian is credited with saying that in the course of a conversation General Botha said to him:

"It is probable that England has no need to fear further trouble from the Boers, but the civilization of South Africa is threatened by the Kaffirs. England armed these savages, brave but untrustworthy tribes, to fight for her. Now the war is ended and the Kaffirs have not returned their arms, but have retreated with them to inaccessible places in the mountains, where they are reported to be engaged in daily shooting exercises and preparation for war. Unless the English authorities display the greatest energy the Kaffirs are likely to cause great trouble."

Still After the America's Cup.

London, Aug. 28.—Discussing Sir Thomas Lipton's forthcoming challenge for the America's cup, which will be dispatched in September, the Yachting World remarks: "To give the holders of the cup longer warning would be to present them with additional opportunities for preparing their defense." Then, confirming the press dispatches regarding Sir Thomas Lipton's preparations, the Yachting World says: "When the challenge is officially announced it will surprise most people to find how far forward the arrangements really are."

The Yachting World concludes its comment as follows: "Now that he has entered his third year of work for the America's cup honors, Sir Thomas may proceed assured that all sportsmen in Great Britain are with him."

AS A POLICEMAN SAW IT.

On Monday, September 1, 1902, Sheriff L. A. Andrews and Captain H. T. Lake might have been seen driving behind two spirited mules along the beautiful fern bordered road to the volcano.

We left Hilo on the 7 a. m. train for Mountain View, the terminus of the railroad, where we found an officer with the Sheriff's team awaiting our arrival. From the terminus of the railroad to the Volcano House is fourteen miles of a dream of ferns, heavy foliage and great creeping vines. The morning was grand and it seemed as if all nature was smiling at the first appearance of the sun for a week. It had been raining steadily for a week, and the sun striking the heavy foliage made the great drops of dew look like immense crystals dancing and sparkling in ecstasy at the appearance of old Sol. Here and there the saucy minah bird flew and paused on some great leaf to caw a protest at our intrusion. Numerous Japs passing in stages would bow and say comba and make a broad smile (evidently glad to see us go out of town, as they were on their way in). Strange how those people smile when they see me leaving town.

After a drive of a little over two and a half hours we arrived at the Volcano House, where we found mine host Waldron ready to attend to our wants. After seeing that the mules were fed and housed we proceeded to prepare for lunch, and it was a very welcome sound to hear the bell ring announcing it to be ready. And did we eat, well I should say so; the bill of fare was strictly up to date. We had three different kinds of meat and my! those vegetables grown right outside the door, in fact I ate so much beef and carrots that I really have been ashamed to look a cow in the face ever since. The Sheriff is a man that don't say much, but eats a whole lot, and I tell you he must have been as hungry as I.

After lunch we strolled out to the spacious verandah and got comfortably settled in large armchairs and the Sheriff proceeded to tell us some stories of Hawaiian myths. Sheriff Andrews is acquainted with the myths and folk lore of Hawaii and tells you stories of the ancient Hawaiians in such a fascinating way that you are really charmed. Perhaps you would like to hear one.

Once upon a time, so the legend goes, Pele (the goddess of the volcano) was very much incensed at her consort, Kamapuaa, who was a god from Oahu, and threatened to destroy Hilo, Hamakua and Kohala lands that she had given him. At this Kamapuaa was very penitent, and begged of Pele not to destroy his lands. She relented and entered into a solemn covenant with Kamapuaa never to cross the Wailuku river.

And it is a fact, she never has. There have been numerous flows, but none of them have ever crossed the Wailuku. They have been along the Puna side of the bank, and one has even flowed down the center of the stream, but none have ever crossed it (you know lava is very eccentric, stops for nothing and sometimes crosses a stream when it seemingly could flow smoother by continuing straight). So the people of Hilo are safe. If Pele comes to Hilo all we have to do is to go over to Puueo and there we will be safe. As we sat there we congratulated each other that if Pele got angry we could get out of the way by doing the hot foot over to Puueo.

After a little we decided to go down into the crater of Kilauea and visit the crater itself. The crater is many acres in extent and has the appearance of a huge punch bowl. Access to the crater is by easy descent to a depth of 150 or 200 feet. We rode across lava, a sea of lava heaped up and piled up in every conceivable shape and form. In some places it looks like huge cables piled up and twisted into curious shapes, in others it looks like ancient abandoned castles, and in others like immense folds of coarse cloth thrown together in confusion. In a word a pen is unable to describe it all as one would have to note each peculiarity as he sees it. In some places the path lies between huge piles of lava and now and then we would have to stop and admire the fantastical formation of the flow. Here and there immense cracks in the lava appeared from which was emitting sulphurous vapor. I stopped and held my handkerchief over one of these cracks and in an instant it was ablaze.

At last we reached the crater itself, and taking a point of observation on the brink, gazed down 900 feet and saw a sight that was awe inspiring. The sea of molten lava at the bottom was about 500 feet in diameter. Here and there fountains of fire were spouting, rising to a height of maybe 100 feet and throwing a spray of fire that was grand to behold. You talk about a Fourth of July pyrotechnical display, but Pele could give it cards and spades and big casino and then beat it out. Every now and then a roar would be heard and it seemed that all the imps in hell were playing with the souls of the damned, and then a little spark of fire would appear in a crack followed by another and another until it would all unite and look like the firing line of a body of troops firing in volleys. This line of fire would gradually get bigger and bigger, other lines would appear out of the cracks and then the whole would break up with a mighty roar and the bottom would be a sea of hissing, waving and tempestuous molten lava. It looked like pouring off time in a gun factory or foundry.

We stood there for hours, riveted to the spot, gazing in open wonder at the work of One who holds the universe in the palm of his hand, and compared with it the mightiest work of man looks like a mere nothing. Dante's Inferno could have been made more realistic if he had journeyed to Kilauea.

A German lady tourist standing near me, said in a broad German accent, "Captain, dot looks like hell, oh but it looks like hell." "Well," I answered, "I have never been to the headquarters of his satanic majesty, but I guess it does and if his quarters look anything like this it must be a h— of a place. LAKE.

PROVISIONAL TROOPS VICTORS.

Many Men Are Killed on Both Sides During Fighting in Hayti.

Cape Haytien, Aug. 26.—The village of Limbe, eighty-two miles north of Port-au-Prince, has been attacked and recaptured by the troops of the provisional government. Limbe was in the possession of Firminite soldiers from the Arribonite district. The fighting was severe and lasted from midnight last night to midday today. Many men on both sides were killed. The town was destroyed by fire.

The defenders of Limbe were reinforced by marines landed from the gunboat Crete-a-Pierrot, which is in the Firminite service. General Norde has gone forward to take command of the troops of the provisional government.

A battle also took place today at Marmelade, but details of this engagement are lacking. Cape Haytien is calm.

No Fair Will Contest.

San Francisco, Aug. 26.—There will be no prolonged and bitterly fought legal contest over the estates left by the late Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Fair. The desire of the relatives of both the decedents to bring about a peaceful settlement was accomplished yesterday. All the terms of the adjustment will not be made public, but it is admitted that the relatives of Mrs. Fair will receive her entire estate, which approximates in value $300,000. Whether or not they will receive a consideration for abandoning their claims upon the property left by Charles L. Fair the attorneys who were instrumental in effecting the settlement refuse to say.

According to the deed that was filed yesterday in the Recorder's office, the relatives of Mr. Fair relinquish all their claims on the estate left by Charles Fair. For doing this, the document states, they are to receive the sum of $10 in gold coin.

PLANT BANANAS.
A PROMISING BUSINESS.

The arrangement made by Peter Lee to pay cash at the wharf for bananas is an important step for the people of the Hilo district. Formerly there was no transportation facilities and banana growing was a neglected industry. With the coming of the Enterprise it was discovered that means of transportation alone would not awaken a sleeping business. There was trouble at the market. The commission men could not be depended on to give the attention to their small consignments necessary to secure satisfactory results to the shipper. Untrained in the science of packing bananas for long voyages, the growers sent their fruit over-ripe and improperly packed. As a result they received disappointing returns. Rotten Hilo fruit is no better than any other rotten fruit.

But Mr. Lee has effected an arrangement with Porter Bros., one of the strongest firms in San Francisco whereby the fruit of the Hawaiian grower is accepted on his own premises and cash paid for it on the spot. Mr. Lee will see to it that every proper precaution is taken in the selection and packing of the fruit. Captain Matson will further equip the Enterprise as a banana carrier and Hilo's choicest fruit will arrive in San Francisco, the property of Porter Bros. Their own interests will demand that they bestow all diligence in distributing these shipments promptly.

The scheme gives every promise that the "Hilo banana" will become as famous as "Yakima spuds" or "Missouri pippins." There is reason to believe that banana growing will extensively increase under this stimulus. Mr. Lee says the market cannot be overstocked, because inferior fruit will be displaced by our superior shipments. Captain Matson says he will provide the carrying capacity for all that can be grown.

LAST Friday night the lava lake in the bottom of Kilauea crater disappeared and the big cavern was in darkness. Visitors Wednesday this week say the bottom of Kilauea looks as dry as an extinct crater. At night there are seen feeble glimpses of light along cracks and jets of steam and smoke emerge from fissures in the black crust of the recent lake of fire. The sudden termination of the brilliant show disappointed many people. But old timers say that this is one of Madam Pele's tricks and that the activity may be renewed at any time with increased power.

THE Senatorial Commission will arrive in Hilo by the Claudine next week. This vessel will leave Honolulu at 9 a. m. Wednesday arriving here Thursday. Judge Little has offered the use of the Court room to the Commission while in session in Hilo. In Honolulu, the Commission has made all its deliberations public and no doubt the same course will be pursued here. There are many matters on this island which will be brought to the attention of the Senators.

THE fickleness of the volcano is its most disagreeable quality. Like all fickle creatures, however, it keeps the public and those interested in a state of expectancy which is not wholly unpleasant.

SINCE the Boer war has become a thing of the past and King Edward has been crowned, the foreign news has dropped back to its old time level of monotonous interest.

DAKOTA SETTLERS. Boyd Sets Aside Tract in South Kona for Their Use.

Land Commissioner E. S. Boyd has reserved land for the delegation of Dakota farmers which is coming to Hawaii to settle. Mr. Boyd has received letters to the effect that the farmers will be here within less than a month. All arrangements are being made through Franz Bucholtz of Kona, Hawaii, whose own splendid farm on Hawaii was the means of inducing the Dakota men to settle in the Islands.

Commissioner Boyd has set apart a tract of land in the South Kona district, Hawaii, and each of the new settlers will be allowed to take up from five hundred to a thousand acres as range land. Later, if they demonstrate that the soil in that district is of a quality suited for small farms, adjoining land will be classified for homesteads. Altogether, only six or seven farmers with their families will come in the first delegation, but if they prove successful in their undertaking others will speedily follow. The new settlers have about $150,000 to invest in their farms, which should be ample sufficient to provide for their necessities until such time as the land begins to produce an income.

Why Not Register.

Voters should bear this in mind and be on hand.

J. W. MASON HOME AGAIN.

Talks of Coast Conditions and Hawaiian Improvements.

J. W. Mason, manager of the Hilo Mercantile Company, came home by the Enterprise from an extended business trip to the Coast. Mr. Mason brings home the usual story of prosperous business conditions on the Coast. He states that while San Francisco is not undergoing a boom, yet all classes of business men are radiant and happy over the volume of business. Money on the Coast has not been so easy in many years.

Mr. Mason reports that the piling and the sawed lumber for the new Hilo dock is on the way now. The contract for furnishing these materials was secured by the Hilo Mercantile Co. The Kona sailed from Fort Madison, Washington, first of September with 1,200 piles. A little later the R. C. Shade sailed from Grays Harbor with 1,000,000 feet of lumber, three fourths of which will go into the new dock. These vessels will arrive about Sept. 20 when active work on the dock will proceed at once.

While away, Mr. Mason scored another business success in securing the contract to furnish the Pacific Cable Company with nearly five miles of galvanized pipe. This pipe has been shipped from the factory at Pittsburg and will arrive in Honolulu in due time. It will be used to enclose the cable from the landing to the central cable office in the Young building.

Mr. Mason reports that the company of San Francisco bankers who came to Hawaii one year ago and made investments aggregating three quarters of a million dollars will come again in October. They came for the purpose of comparing the conditions as they now exist with those of a year ago, and are ready to put more money into Hawaii if the situation warrants.

Rebuking an Editor.

A recent issue of "Comfort," a mail order journal published in Maine, in answer to a query as to whether chickens and eggs could be profitably raised in this Territory, advised adversely.

The September issue of Side Lights published a communication on this subject from Ben Kuhns of Kaiwika, as well as an account of the Horner method of raising chickens in large numbers. Other topics of interest will be the advance report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction; a new light on the land laws of Hawaii and some pertinent facts thereto for the Senatorial Commission; co-operation in land cultivation in Hawaii, and the scheme of making paper from bagasse. The number is interesting from cover to cover.

Boarding School Changes.

Mr. McStocker has been sent for, however, to accompany his wife and son back to Hawaii. A wireless message was sent to him when the Korea came in.—Advertiser.

TO BOOM BANANAS.

Peter Lee Has Solved the Problem and Deserves Cooperation.

Peter Lee came back from San Francisco an enthusiast over the possibilities of the banana trade. He has formed the best of connections in San Francisco and will devote his whole energies to up-building of the banana growing industry in the District of Hilo.

Mr. Lee is prepared to pay better prices for bananas than have ever been offered here before. It is a "cash at the wharf" system. The planter takes no risk of fruit spoiling in transit. The bunches must be big ones. They must be cut two weeks before ripening begins, and the bunches must be packed properly with dry leaves. For such bananas Mr. Lee will pay 50 cents per bunch weighing 40 pounds and every pound additional weight he will pay 1 1/4 cents. This rate gives the grower 75 cents for a 60 pound bunch. Mr. Lee will at once put in thirty or forty acres of bananas in Oloa and from his investigations in the San Francisco market, he has no fear that overproduction in the Hilo district is possible.

"In San Francisco," says Mr. Lee, "I found that the Hilo banana was rated by all dealers, from the commission firms and wholesale houses to the dagos on the street, as superior to those from Panama, New Orleans, Honolulu or any other source. The Hilo banana has a flavor that gives it the right of way in the market at higher prices than will be paid for other bananas. I have gone into this banana business because it opens up for the majority of the land owners in our district such a sure road to prosperity. I went through the commission houses at San Francisco in the interest of the Hawaiian banana growers. I found them all willing to handle our stuff on the old basis of 10 per cent. I told them we must have a better arrangement. When I called at the house of Porter Bros., I found a firm that will lead us out of the wilderness. I told them we wanted cash on the wharf at Hilo and we wanted a good stiff price. They had a talk with Captain Wm. Matson about me and when I saw them the next day they were ready to make Hilo most flattering terms. I am authorized by Porter Bros. to pay cash for good well packed bananas. Porter Bros. allow me to pay what my judgment approves. They know I'm a planter and intend working for the planters. They believe however that this arrangement will be the beginning of a great industry here and a fine shipping trade between Hilo and San Francisco. Porter Bros. run all the risks in the shipping and I propose to see that our first class fruit is sent. I can care for 2000 bunches at once. Captain Wm. Matson will help the industry along in every way in his power. He proposes to put on the Enterprise additional facilities for handling banana shipments.

"I believe in one year, if the people will take advantage of this opportunity, that Hilo bananas will be famous throughout the Pacific Coast and that our productive capacity will not begin to equal the demand. Everybody should remember that already in San Francisco Hilo bananas are counted the best in the market, but when they are badly packed they are considered the worst.

"I do not want any small bunches. I recommend that people through the district go into banana raising. The proper connections have been made to insure a certain market at good prices.

"I propose also," said Mr. Lee, "to make shipments of pineapples and alligator pears. Alligator pears retail in the market at 50 cents each. I know they can be shipped for 12 days in San Francisco."

Mr. Lee would be glad to hear by letter from any who are interested in banana growing.

Thin Blood

Thin blood always makes trouble. Your circulation is very poor, you have cold hands and feet. Your nerves are weak, you are despondent and discouraged. Your stomach is bad, you have indigestion and sick headache. Your muscles are weak and you can hardly drag about the house. But there is a prompt cure.

Mrs. M. Archer, of Hobart, Tasmania, sends her photograph and says: "My blood was so thin and my circulation was so poor that my fingers were cold and blue all the time. I lost all energy and was almost lifeless. But Ayer's Sarsaparilla soon restored vitality to my whole system. It purified my blood and made it rich and healthy. I believe it is the greatest medicine in the world for the blood."

STUDY EARTHQUAKES.

International Conference for Studying Nature of Temblors.

Washington, Aug. 17.—An international investigation of earthquakes will probably be the next great inquiry jointly taken up by the leading nations of the world. Emperor William is taking the initiative in this movement, doubtless not desiring to have the Czar of Russia suggest all the propositions having a tendency to bring civilized peoples closer together.

Germany has invited the United States, all the European countries, Mexico, Japan, Argentine and Chile to participate in the conference for the study of seismological problems. The invitation was given directly to the State Department by Count von Quadt, the German Charge d'Affairs. He acted under instructions from Berlin. It is proposed to hold the international conference sometime next spring.

All countries invited to participate are expected to send delegates. They will naturally be scientists of high standing, especially those whose duties bring them in contact with the general topics of earthquakes and disturbances of the earth's crust. No action looking to calling the conference will be taken until a considerable number of the nations required to send delegates have replied to the invitation sent by Germany.

INTERVENTION IN VENEZUELA.

Berlin Press Suggests Appointment of a Commission.

Berlin, Aug. 25.—The Cologne Gazette, a newspaper which often expresses the views of the Foreign Office on foreign affairs, advocates the intervention in Venezuela of one of the several powers whose citizens have financial interests there, particularly the United States, Germany and France, and suggests that the intervention take the form of an international commission to control the customs receipts for the benefit of the bondholders, avoiding meddling with local politics. The paper believes that General Matos, the revolutionary leader, can be induced to consent.

London, Aug. 26.—The Daily Mail, in an editorial article on Venezuela's defiance of European powers in maintaining a blockade and seizing Dutch vessels, declares it to be impossible for Europe to allow a piratical and predatory Government of this type to disturb the commerce of the West Indies and the security of the Caribbean Sea.

"This time Venezuela must be taught a lesson," says the paper. After inveighing against the Monroe doctrine the editorial concludes: "America should keep her disorderly states in order and chastise them when relying on their weakness and her protection they offend against international law."

JORDAN'S BOAT UPSET.

Professor and His Party Narrowly Escape Drowning.

Tutuila, Aug. 11.—During his visit in Tutuila Dr. Jordan, his wife, and other members of the Commission, had a narrow escape from drowning. He wished to proceed to Nunuili, about four miles west of Pago Pago, and the commandant of the station had placed at his disposal the whaleboat Wheeling in tow of a steam launch. When opposite the town the party attempted to get ashore in the whaleboat through the passage of the reef. In doing so the boat capsized and all were cast into the sea. The doctor and Mrs. Jordan were some time under water, but fortunately for all the Samoans who formed the boat's crew, with Ensign Marble, U. S. N., were enabled to save them. The commandant's son was with them and a couple of Samoans got him ashore through the surf.

The Fish Commission has had remarkable success in Samoan waters in pursuing its researches, and it is reported that more than 600 varieties of fish have been collected. This is the highest record yet made by the professor and his associates.

STEEL COMBINE ANSWERS.

Progress of the Great Law Suit Against Trusts.

Trenton, N. J., August 27.—The United States Steel Corporation today filed in the Court of Chancery an answer to the amended bill of complaint of J. Aspinwall Hodge, Bernard Smith and William H. Curtiss, to restrain the proposed conversion of $200,000,000 7 per cent preferred stock into $200,000,000 5 per cent second mortgage bonds. The answer denies that the books of the corporation show Curtiss to be the owner of any stock of the concern. Smith, it is averred, did not own any stock of record until June, 24, 1902, after the plan of conversion had been adopted, and that the stock now recorded in Smith's name was voted in favor of the plan. Hodge, it is admitted, owns 100 shares of stock, but it is alleged that he was not present at the stockholder's meeting when the plan was submitted and that his stock was not voted either by himself or by proxy.

It is denied that fifteen or more of the directors of the Steel Corporation are members of the syndicate through which preferred stock was to be converted into bonds. It is admitted that some of the directors are members of the syndicate, but that this fact was communicated to every stockholder in the circular 17, 1902.

The answer says the directors in the syndicate are a minority in the board of directors, but that they are large stockholders and favored the conversion plan because they believed it would be advantageous to them as stockholders. It is denied that any stockholders had been offered special terms in connection with converting their preferred stock into bonds in order to secure their affirmative votes for the plan. It is denied that the $50,000,000 of additional capital which it was proposed to obtain was needed for purposes that were chargeable to the earnings of the company.

The answer then takes up the line of the argument made in the affidavit made of George W. Perkins, chairman of the finance committee, filed last week, in which Perkins claimed that this additional $50,000,000 was needed to pay for improvements and to give the company a larger surplus to permit it to do a cash business and be protected against a money stringency in the event of a business depression. The answer says the earnings of the corporation for the year ending March 31, 1902, were $111,502,054; for the month of April, 1902, $12,320,766; May, $13,120,390; June, $12,220,362; July, estimated, 11,900,000 or at the rate of $150,000,000 a year. An inventory is filed to show that the Company's property is worth $1,400,000,000 more than the combined par value of the preferred and common stock. It is stated also that the company's surplus is now $65,000,000. The answer emphasizes the point raised by Perkins to the effect that the conversion would reduce the fixed charges of the company and be advantageous to all stockholders, both preferred and common.

What is Pain Balm?

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and, while adapted to all ordinary uses of a liniment, has qualities which distinguish it from other remedies of this class. Pain Balm is especially beneficial for rheumatism. Thousands of cases can be cited in which it has effected a cure when the sufferer had previously the best medical service without receiving relief. Pain Balm is positively guaranteed to give relief in the most severe cases of chronic or acute rheumatism.

Pain Balm heals bruises, burns and scalds in less time than any other treatment. It is "antiseptic" that is, it prevents putrefaction and by so doing generally prevents an unsightly scar remaining after the injury is healed. For lame back, lumbago and neuralgia, Pain Balm has no equal. It has the quality of "getting to the right spot." No sufferer from these distressing affections should defer a trial of this remedy. One application give relief. Try it. Hilo Drug Store sells it.

The only desirable means of reaching the Volcano. Connections at Mountain View with stages daily—morning trains going; afternoon trains returning. Fare from Hilo for the round trip $8. This route is through Olaa plantation, the largest in Hawaii, virgin forests of koa and wild ferns, and through many coffee farms.

The natural wonders of Puna make that district the most interesting spot in Hawaii. One can spend a most delightful day exploring the underground caves, swimming in the famous Hot Springs and resting on the cool shores of Green Lake.

Excursion tickets between all points are sold on Saturdays and Sundays, good returning, until the following Monday noon.

Commutation tickets, good for twenty-five rides between any two points, and thousand mile tickets are sold at very low rates.

HONOLULU ELKS.

Extend Grand Welcome to Bishop Restarick of Episcopal Church.

Honolulu Lodge of the Order of Elks did itself honor brilliantly in a reception to Right Reverend H. B. Restarick, Episcopal Bishop of Honolulu, a member of the order. The assembly hall of the lodge in its handsome quarters at Beretania and Miller streets, was decorated in elaborate and tasteful style with American and Hawaiian flags, palms, plants and flowers. The reception was at 8:30, when a long procession of ladies and gentlemen advanced to the head of the hall to extend a welcome to the distinguished ecclesiastic who has lately taken up his home in Honolulu. A bevy of ladies assisted the lodge officers in receiving.

When the assembly was seated after the reception it filled nearly the entire floor and a large number of the members of the order and their gentlemen guests were happy in availing themselves of standing room.

Among prominent guests of the evening were Rev. Canon A. Mackintosh and wife, Rev. Canon Kitcat, Rev. Arthur Evans of Los Angeles, Mr. Fyler, secretary to Bishop Restarick; Messrs. Guard, Peek, McKinney and Gehr of the Hilo Lodge of Elks; Hon. John M. Thurston, Judge Estee, Lieutenants Davis and Newton, U. S. A., and Assistant Paymaster F. McWilkie, U. S. N.

An overture by the Hawaiian Quintet Club opened the literary and musical program, which was called off by A. E. Murphy, chairman of committee.

Between the vocal numbers came humorous monologues by Allan Dunn and Mr. Brien, causing uproarious mirth, music by the Hawaiian performers and a piano solo by Captain Berger.

Bishop Restarick delivered his reply to the address of welcome next to the closing orchestral overture and preceding the 11 o'clock toast to absent brothers, which ceremony he explained in happy terms to the assembly. The Bishop's speech was largely expressive of his delight with the scenes and people of his new home. He dwelt somewhat on the principles and practices of the Elks, telling in that connection that he esteemed it an honor to have been accorded life membership in his own lodge. Elks were among the last to bid him godspeed from the California shore and the first to welcome him upon the waves that dance upon the Honolulu harbor entrance. He made a beautiful allusion, in referring to the 11 o'clock rite, to the ocean as carrying to his imagination, messages of aloha and fond remembrance between friends upon both shores. Bishop Restarick justified the diversions of the Elks lodgeroom, claiming that innocent jollity is good for tired folks. The day when clergymen deemed it necessary to wear solemn faces had passed away. He told of a sedate bishop in England who while frolicking with his children ambled on all fours inadvertently into a company of church folks awaiting him in his parlor. The Bishop raised a great laugh on Canon Mackintosh, whom he represented as terrifying Mrs. Restarick in California by saying Honolulu people painted mosquitoes yellow and sold them as canaries to tourists.

Refreshments consisting of fruit punch, sandwiches and cake were served to everybody at the conclusion of the program. Some of the giddier of the assembly remained for a brief hop.—Bulletin.

SUGAR REFINERIES IN CANADA.

Federal Company of New York Plans Some Important Business.

Vancouver, B. C., August 28.—A special dispatch from Montreal says C. A. Spreckels, president of the Federal Sugar Refining Company of New York, spent today in this city and Ottawa with a number of the local capitalists, chiefly business friends of Sir William Van Horne, who is largely interested with Mr. Spreckels. He obtained from the Secretary of State letters patent incorporating his company in Canada with a capital stock of $6,000,000. Besides Mr. Spreckels the incorporators are W. Cooke, R. D. McGibbon, T. Chase Casgrain, M. P., and Fabre Rurvor, all of Montreal.

The object of the company, as officially set out, is to establish sugar refineries operated under the special inventions and methods of Mr. Spreckels and to carry on business in Canada. In an interview Mr. Spreckels stated that steps would immediately be taken leading to the building of two large refineries in the Dominion, one at Montreal and the other at Vancouver.

Sir William Van Horne is a shareholder in the refinery at present located at Vancouver, and B. T. Rogers, manager at Vancouver, is stated here to have been offered by Mr. Spreckels the management of a monster plant to be erected either at Seattle or San Francisco. Mr. Spreckels claims that his company has obtained practical control of the output of the Hawaiian Islands.

MILES COMING.

General of U. S. Army Ordered to the Philippines.

Washington, August 26.—The War Department this afternoon gave out the order issued to General Miles to go to the Philippines. It is signed by William Cary Sanger, acting Secretary of War, and is as follows:

War Department, Washington 26, 1902.—Sir: I have the honor to state that your application for authority to inspect the portion of the army serving in the Philippines is approved by the President. You will sail about the 15th of September and inspecting the condition of the army will give particular attention to its instruction, discipline, and supplies of all kinds.

It is the understanding that in that capacity, though of superior rank, General Miles will not interfere in any way with either General Chaffee or his successor, General Davis, in the direction of the army in the Philippines. He will critically examine the conditions as he finds them, devoting his attention entirely to matters of army administration and not to political affairs, and the results of his work will be embodied in a set of reports. It is believed here that he will be accompanied by at least two members of his staff namely, Lieutenant Colonel Whitney and Colonel Reber, the latter his son-in-law. Colonel Maus, who is the inspecting officer of the staff, also may accompany General Miles, if his health, which is somewhat impaired at present, permits.

Bodies of Fairs Shipped.

Paris, Aug. 27.—The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair were withdrawn from the Madeleine tonight and taken to the railway depot, where they were packed in separate deal cases, exactly similar to those used in shipping goods. The personality of the Fairs will be lost until the boxes reach New York on the American line steamship St. Louis. There were a few wreaths on the cases in the railway carriage, which will be removed before they reach Havre.

FASTEST IN NAVY.

New Battleship Maine Makes Record for Speed.

Boston, Aug. 23.—The new first-class battleship Maine raced around the cape on her trial course to prove her right to fly the United States ensign. Her contract calls for a speed of 18 knots an hour for four continuous hours of steaming, and though on one six-mile leg she dropped to 17.30, on her fastest she reached 18.9, and this was followed by other speeds equally agreeable. Thus at the end her mean speed developed, without tidal allowances, was given out as 18.3. This is not official, as the Navy Board has not completed its figuring and will not for some time, but this is the statement made by the Cramps.

There is a little feeling that she was expected to go over this mark, but as it is she stands today as the fastest battleship in the American navy, for the Illinois, which up to this time has held the record, did only 17.84 on her fastest leg.

When the Maine was coming over at one time she is understood to have been pushed to 18.95, but it is explained that this is the first time a trial trip of this sort has been run under service conditions with unpicked coal and with an ordinary crew of stokers.

ITALY'S KING AT BERLIN.

Victor Emmanuel Welcomed by the Germans.

Berlin, August 28.—The entry of King Victor Emmanuel into the city today and his drive through the Unter den Linden was advanced purposely half an hour from the published time, as a precaution against possible disorder. Consequently the great crowds which were packed into the place an hour before by the police at the Brandenburg gate were astonished by the arrival at a brisk trot of a gorgeous cavalcade surrounding a six-horse carriage, in which sat Emperor William and a small man in a dark uniform, pulling at a blonde mustache. The carriage stopped and the crowds ceased cheering in order to see what would happen. The chief burgomaster, Herr Kirschner, advanced and read an address of welcome from a parchment scroll. Behind the burgomaster stood, bareheaded, a hundred representatives of the city in evening dress. The reading was over in less than a minute. The Italian King then turned to the German Emperor and asked him if he should reply. The Emperor shook his head negatively, and the King thereupon shook hands with Herr Kirschner and thanked him.

Washington's Ancestral Home.

Chicago, August 21.—The ancestral home of George Washington may be brought from England to this country. A cable from London today says: Northamptonshire real estate agents advertise for sale at public auction in September the ancestral home of Washington in the village of Banbury, eighty-six miles from London. The property includes the ancient manor house and 204 acres of farming land.

Tradition says that the manor house was once occupied by Queen Elizabeth. It is a quaint, moss-covered stone structure, containing fifteen rooms, including a drawing-room. The walls are decorated with antique carvings, among which is the Washington coat-of-arms, said to have been the origin of the Stars and Stripes. It has been suggested that the British Government acquire the property as a kind of international memorial. The price asked by the owners is $27,500. Should it not be sold for that price it probably will be transported to the United States and exhibited at the St. Louis Exposition.

Natives Grow Troublesome.

Johannesburg, August 26.—A strong force of British troops has been dispatched to the western border of the Transvaal ostensibly to relieve troops ordered to India, but it is currently reported that this step is taken owing to disturbances among the natives. Rumors are also current here of an intention to annex or establish a protectorate in Swaziland, where a strong force of constabulary is now posted.
