(a) Gratituous issues of food to the Rongerik population continues. This burden will cease about 15 October 1948 when they are resettled on Kili. Salvaged building materials were furnished as related in paragraph 1 (a) above.

(b) Although the pecuniary wealth of this district may not be as great as in former times the Marshallese seem to have a great feeling of security in the fact that their possessions will not be misappropriated or taken from them without due process of law. This in itself is a stimulant and is motivating the younger people to use their initiative to the maximum. In general they seem to be pleased with the present administration.
