The rehabilitation program in the atolls of this district now consists mainly of bomb disposal on a few islands. A team will be sent out this month and the atolls of Wotje, Jaluit and Mili cleared of unexploded bombs. Repatriation should also be completed in April as only those natives remaining on Majuro have not been returned to their home atolls.