Marshallese custom is reflected in the facts brought out by the investigation mentioned above. The Paramount Chief of UJAE signed a deed (transfer of title) to two islands of that atoll offering permanent transfer of title to the people of RONGERIK (EX - BIKINI) if it should be decided they resettle there. Similar offers were made by the people of Wotho.

Construction in this area is retarded somewhat by the limited availability of nails and other materials, however, this fact can but make necessary wider use of native materials which is encouraged at all times.
