JUDGE GREGGIE OF ALAMEDA DEAD

A FINE FELLOW ON THE BENCH, WHICH MIGHT WIN MANY IN THE COLD.

Judge William K. Groves of the Alameda Circuit Court, who has been ill for over a month, passed away at an early hour this morning. Judge Groves was a former Californian, having served as a Justice of the Peace and as a Judge of the Alameda Superior Court. He was elected to the Bench by the Democratic party as its candidate in the 1896 election, and served as a Judge of the Superior Court until 1901. He was afterwards appointed to the Circuit Court, and served as a Judge of that Court until his death.

The news of his death was received with great regret by all who knew him. Judge Groves was a man of great ability, and was highly respected by his colleagues and by the public.

CUBA SUGAR PLANTATIONS.

SUGAR GROWING—SAYS THEY REAP VICTORIES FROM FIFTEEN TO TWENTY YEARS IN SUGAR BLACK. NO WASHING, BLEACHING, ET CETERA.

Frank G. Carpenter, giving some information of Cuban sugar growing, says Cuba is the leader in every way. Cuba is a country to be looked at, and along the route one sees sugar plantations, sugar factories, and sugar warehouses. There's sugar harvest, and all the raw sugar is sold to the public. The raw sugar is sold from the plantations, and all the year round. From this raw sugar we get cane sugar, which is the best sugar in the world. "Flower Holders," in Glass and Pottery

Long and narrow, short and broad—are as true as passions or violets. Yes, in very early stages of the floral kingdom that bloomed in Hawaii all the year round.

The price for a new season runs as low as twenty-five cents and you will be surprised to see what this small sum will buy.

money buys larger things and more substantial beauty. The writer also attests.

We will be glad to show you.
