THE RAILROAD MAGNATE DEAD
HARRIMAN DIES IN EASTERN HOME

HONOLULU MAN OWNS FIRST AMERICAN FLAG RAISED IN CALIFORNIA

LAST HOURS OF GREAT FINANCIER
(Anonymous Press Cable to The Star)

AUGUST, 1903—The satellites of the Harriman family and Mr. Lee were at the bedside of the financier when he passed away. It is believed that the sick man spent much of his time during the last few weeks at the Harriman estates on Long Island and at his country home in New York. His condition had been improving for the last few days, but on Saturday evening it was discovered that he was seriously ill. The time was about 8 o'clock, and his condition was much worse than had been expected.

Mr. Harriman was a great railroad magnate, and his death is a great loss to the railroad world. He was born in 1838 and died at the age of 65.

The body of the late Mr. Harriman will be brought to Honolulu for burial in the family vault at the cemetery at the foot of Diamond Head.

NO DECISION IN BIG FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, September 3—The ten-round battle between Jack Johnson and Mike McNeil was over yesterday. Johnson had the better of the fighting all the way through, but was unable to knock out his opponent. There was an agreement that if Jack men won on their last at the end of the tenth round there should be no deciding. Eddie Rowan, re- sumed by the referee, was given a wide margin by the two boxers.
