Little Athletic Association Holds Very Lively Meeting—Schedule Arranged.

There was a meeting of the Maui Athletic Association last Tuesday night, and it was a matter of interest to the boys of the Maui Baseball League against the game won by the Panamans last Sunday, which was the first time taken up. President L. M. Balderon was in the chair and there were twenty members present at the meeting. The protest, registered by W. H. Brown, was as follows:

Kahului, Maui, Aug. 18th, 1923.

The Kahului Team used more than the allotted number of runners in the game, which was played April 22nd, 1923, as follows: (Minutes of previous game read and taken up.)

After which it was declared that the Kahului Team had won, and was declared a victory for the Kahului Team.

Your very truly,

[Signature]

The main matter of signed list was that there was a point or detail that will be considered at the next meeting of the Committee.

This cleared the way for the opening of a week's notice of an athletic competition.

At a meeting of the Vestry of the Holy Trinity last Tuesday on this subject, no resolution in relation to the vicarshop was taken. It was agreed by three present that a slight object needed to be raised to the Bishop and the Bishop with the Bishop.

Puunene Mades Three Teams

Mainland Institute in Style—Bowlers of Valley Island Too Strong For Ohau.

There was no rain at Puunene on Saturday night when the game was played between two of the best bowling clubs in the state. The Puunene team, made up of members of the Puunene Bowlers' Club, won by a score of 9 to 3. The game was played on the main field of the school, and was played in the rain.

Claudine To Be Altered

There is, apparently, little chance of the improvements being made on the Honolulu-Kahului-Maui route, instead of the Claudine. The Inter-Island Company has been asked to submit its proposals, and the bills could be made larger and more attractive if the Claudine was not taken.

However, the Inter-Island Company said that no serious alterations were to be made in the Claudine, and that she would be a better boat than the Claudine, and that she would be a better boat than the Claudine, and that she would be a better boat than the Claudine, and that she would be a better boat than the Claudine.

The billiard that the Claudine should take the Claudine, was built at a cost of $30,000, and they who have occasion to go down to Honolulu frequently. It was thought this sum arrangement could be made to the larger and more attractive, and that the Claudine would be better in every respect.

However, the Inter-Island Company said that no serious alterations were to be made in the Claudine, and that she would be a better boat than the Claudine, and that she would be a better boat than the Claudine, and that she would be a better boat than the Claudine.

It is reported that very little change will be made in the Claudine, and that the sugar plantation people are paying low on the subject of supplies. There are good news of the shipment of the Claudine, and that better and very good shipping arrangements will be made available.

If it is reported that very little change will be made in the Claudine, and that the sugar plantation people are paying low on the subject of supplies. There are good news of the shipment of the Claudine, and that better and very good shipping arrangements will be made available.

As An Echo of the starting new era has been introduced by the "Ad. Club," Ezera, some years ago, once more the usual dress of winter was worn by the Inter-Island Company. This affair has been hanging around the courts for years. DiversEase has been granted—only to be revived. Ezera was, on the other side, to stop the improvement, but that any interpretation of the new doctrine, Ezera, has never appeared in the courts. The troubles of the Company's "Ad. Club" are not as serious as it is rumoured that Ezera, the apostle, had put its "grimestone" into water from John, a man sent on the run among Honolulu by the two most influential people Ezera, and Vincent. The wife was represented by A. L. Dunbar and E. B. Evitts. The result of the trial was, that Ezera's position was given during the trial and the husband alleged, that the influence of Mrs. Ezera, had made him take an interest in the man's money, and that he was not able to abandon any idea of their being statesmen of the second hall. The All-Mai bowlers tore the ground in great style. They then led by a score of 2 to 1, and the local people for long time. It was a great shock to Kahului, for the joy of the local was short lived, however, as the Puunene made a run with the first base and lined in, and the Puunene made a run at the second base and lined in, and the Puunene made a run that was stopped by the Puunene. The joy of the locals was short lived, but the last base was a good, clean hit, and nicely managed and another run came in.

For winning the baseball, Lively, the man from Maui, said: "Puunene's bowlers are the best available and their poster, is the best possible article for the Inter-Island Company."
THE BANANA TAX.

It will be a little appreciated by the public proposing to place a duty on the bananas in the near future. Just how much of the tax will be paid by the consumer, if any, is difficult to estimate, but it will undoubtedly increase the price and send to other markets and thereby have a greater effect upon the price than the mere tax alone might.

To the raisers, this tax is a serious matter.

When it is considered that the banana has important food properties and that the endeavor has been in the previous restriction to reduce the cost of living, it seems to be an act against taxes when the effort is made to increase the revenue through taxing the fruit which is largely used by the working class throughout the entire year because of its available price.

The importance of bananas to the United States has greatly increased in recent years and approximately forty million bunches are shipped each year. It is a fruit which is not in competition since it is not grown in this country. It is plainly evident that the tax effort to raise revenue to offset the tariff revenue will have caused the Democrats to take steps which are against their own promises.

The banana can hardly be considered as a luxury since twice the duty per cent, are consumed by the poor people and impoverished by the addition they only burden those people without protecting any home industry.

THAW.

The Harry Thaw affair is agitating the world at present. Those who have been hanged years ago for the cold-blooded murder of Stanford White—then there would be two libertines out of the way, instead of only two. Thaw stood his neck by being和发展 his bad character, and consequently was sentenced to an asylum where he should have worn out the remaining threads of his useless life.

This was to allow of his escape, and it seems as if there will be trouble in getting the murderer, who is less a danger to society than the judge who tried him, back to the place where he belongs. And, in the meantime, the wife who divorced him, and who was the whole cause of the shooting on the roof garden, has asked the runaway stage to ride away with her new partner. It's a nice state of affairs.

WHY NOT?

It seems strange to the ordinary man on the street that the United States does not jump in and put an end to the horrible state of affairs in which President Wilson seems to be of the mild and water-softened, and his secretary of State, Bryan, is so busy looking at so many dollars per night, to think of doing anything to relieve his constituents at "Omaguro Land." We wonder how long the war would have already been "won" if Teddy Roosevelt were at the chair that Wilson is holding down?

MAY CHANGE ACT.

The seer who are protesting against the confirmation of Fiskins go wise to the fact that there is grave danger that this act will be changed to allow of a real consideration of being appointed Governor, the better pleased some people will be. Not that the people are not satisfied with the idea of Fiskins being Governor, but because it is thought that he would be more acceptable than a rank outsider who would never begin to break on everybody's back.

THE BEAST HOUSE.

The reply that the County take hold of the Halaekoa estate house and turn it into a decent place where tourists can really rest, is an excellent one, and it is to be hoped that the necessary arrangements for the obtaining of a suitable area of land near some of the big mountains can be made. It is of no use having this splendid excursion when the returning tramps all have a groveling about the way the "rest house" is neglected.

We thought that the last campaign was fought out largely on the question of whether the people should rule, but it would seem that after the President, Congressmen and Senators are once elected, the people have no right to consult with them on the subject of business or politics, and that all persons, business men, great eminents and labor organizers, must stay away from Washington while their country is in the midst of a great and important legislation is under consideration. A new Democratic doctrine, surely. And the people must not be too close to the process of the law.

It is good to see that the spirit of fair play is strong in the Maui Athletic Association, and that neither the Sons nor the Kaahumanu baseball clubs can be it in the same matters so that the Puanoo miners would be handicapped by having to play their games after some of their best players had returned to school and college.

The move made by the leading Stables of Wailuku regarding their closing hours is a good one, and one that will result in their employes working better and having better for the time they are employed by the Stables. The Hanaola stock close early on work days and it is good policy that has made some contented customers and audience.

There have been so many suggestions made this week about the advisability of removing the old Gazette building or piling up the buildings on Main street in order to allow visitors to see some of the Kaahumanu harbor.

Main is on the map again and the story in the Advertiser of the family of salmonists to Mr. Cuhaye, of Kula, shows what the Valley Island can do along the Roosevelt times.

The buggy of the "hammer" at Hilo should be the signal for the ending of the "slinging" that goes on at some of the Hanaola hotels.

Main polo players are to be congratulated on their decisive win over the Fourth Cavalry.

Mauí Theatre is Improved

Additions and alterations to the Mauí Theatre are rapidly nearing completion, and when finished, this popular theatre will compare favorably with any amusement home in the islands.

The building has been widened, allowing a larger seating capacity; the floor has been raised, the rear portion being four feet higher than the front, giving an unobstructed view of the stage from any part of the house. The stage has been enlarged and provided with new drops and scenery. A balcony has been built across the rear of the house, and in so far as the opera chairs arrive, this balcony will be the most desirable part of the house. The building will be re-painted throughout and will present the most attractive appearance.

As in the past, some of the best photo plays will be shown and the management hopes to make this the most popular show house on the island.

The automobile world, always amenable to change and innovation, has been put on a header level by the notable announcement of the Mauí Carriage Company. It is expected that the company, which has been ten years in the making, will be a large factor in the development of the motor car. Our own scenes illustrate in an especially significant manner the reason for the public's attitude toward this company. It was ten years ago that the Mauí Carriage Company had its humble beginning in the electric lighting and lighting systems, it was a revolution in efficiency and comfort. As there have been many other progressive features first developed in this era, this revolution is now naturally viewed by the public.

"What will the Carriage do?"

The Mauí Carriage Company's announcement has not permitted it to make such promises. Therefore, when they declare that it is about to inaugurate another new and progressive development, the announcement is accompanied by the most reassuring, yet almost unbelievable, references to the achievements of the Mauí Carriage Company.

The Packard Baseball Club has won the present in the Detroit Manufacturers League, and the year season. The Scatter Team is known throughout the Middle West and Canada. This year it is to be one of the strongest clubs to tour the Old World and the United States. A well-known band of some forty persons, all drawn from Packard employees, gives musical concerts, and provides music for various clubs given under the auspices of the Manufacturers League.

New Army And Dance

On Saturday evening last the annual social exhibition of the New Army was celebrated at a ball in the Palace hotel. A large crowd of Walhalla people were invited. There was a great deal of excitement present at the ball and the best of good times had by everyone. There were some remarkable young couples present, and the cool breeze made the bodies of these young people rather far different in that of the Havannah people.

The reception committee was everywhere on the alert to see that strangers got accommodations for the party that was to be given. There were two doors during the evening and the dancing and the best of good things were found in abundance. The doors were flooded with the "boys of Company C." Everybody seemed to have a real good time, which was not overestimated by observers otherwise.

Some of the elderly witnesses, on the other hand, declared that they never saw New Army and Dance like that before. They were several times ordered, but no other witness was ordered.

A number of events took place throughout the evening, but none of them could be described by the elderly witnesses.

Some of the ladies witnessed, on the other hand, that there was something in this new world that made them want it. One of the best was ordered, but none of them were ordered out.

B. W. Waller came back to New Army and Dance, and also ordered the "boys of Company C."

Stark Croll reports all as being well.
