

JEFF M'CARN QUILTS JOB IS RUMOR THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY DOES NOT DENY

Report Says Resignation Was Forwarded to Washington Following Indictment

WILL ENTER PLEA IN THE FEDERAL COURT MONDAY

Attorney-general Will Give the Matter Immediate Consideration; Further Gossip

A persistent rumor today has it that Attorney-General J. C. McReynolds has been offered by cable the resignation of United States District Attorney Jeff McCarn, put on the wire yesterday after the federal grand jury had returned a true bill against McCarn. It is also rumored that the latter has received notification from the attorney-general that the resignation will be considered at once.

This report, which circulated around town this morning, was not denied by the U. S. district attorney when he was questioned and given an opportunity by the Star-Bulletin to put a speedy end to it, as he has to other such rumors, by denying its truth.

He refused to deny that the report was true, but at the same time he did not confirm it. When he was told of the report he said simply: "You will have to get along with that report as best you can. I have nothing to say about it; nothing at all."

Strikingly different was the statement he made the day after the encounter with Claudius McBride, for which he is now held under federal and territorial indictments, his attention being called at that time to a report that his resignation had been sent to Washington. He denied emphatically the truth of the report.

This morning when he was informed of the rumor, which was directly after his plea to the federal indictment had been continued until Monday, he remained silent for a few seconds before saying anything; then he made the statement as given above.

McCarn was present in court this morning when his case was called. During the reading of the indictment which charges him with assault with a dangerous weapon upon Attorney McBride, he remained standing. His counsel were grouped about him, and when the indictment had been read, J. Lightfoot, of the district attorney's counsel, rose and asked the court to allow the defendant until Monday morning to plead. No objection to this request was made by Alexander Lindesay, Jr., the special assistant to the attorney-general, who conducted the investigation before the grand jury, and is now appearing as special prosecutor in the case. The court granted the request.

A dozen or more members of the grand jury were present in court. The rear of the room was fairly well crowded with persons who have been following the case.

THIRD BOWER TRIAL TAKES PLACE SHORTLY

Jeff McCarn Gives Evidence That He Intends to Carry Out Intention to Convict

Assurance was given in the United States district court this morning that George A. (Bert) Bower will stand trial again soon on the same statutory charge, which has resulted so far in two mistrials. E. A. Douthitt, one of the attorneys for Bower, appeared in the court to ask time within which to file a bill of exceptions to the ruling of the court on his motion for a dismissal. The motion was made on the ground that as there had been two mistrials, the defendant was entitled to have the case dropped. The motion was denied by Judge Clemons yesterday, and during the session of the court this morning U. S. District Attorney McCarn stated that the case would be taken up again soon for its third trial.

The case has attracted widespread interest, both from the character of the charge, and the avowed intention of the district attorney to convict Bowers.

The report of George F. Wright as commissioner in the partition suit brought by May Kahaku against Kalehu Aila et al, was filed in the circuit court this morning. The report recommends the partition of the land involved in the suit, and the sale of a small building on the property to one or another of the litigants.

POSTMASTER IS QUIETLY WORKING FOR MORE HELP

Map, Showing Details of City Delivery Being Prepared For Washington

Postmaster William F. Young is "keeping mum and sowing wood" in his efforts to secure two additional men for the local department—one more carrier and one collector.

Under the direction of the postmaster and the superintendent of delivery there is being prepared, in the post-office building, a mammoth map of Honolulu, on which will be shown all necessary data to enable the department in Washington to carefully study the conditions existing in this city and place before them in a striking manner the virtue of the requests for more help by Mr. Young.

The map is being divided into "carrier districts," each district being colored in order that it will stand out prominently and show, at a glance, just how much territory each man is supposed to cover in his daily rounds.

Detailed information, such as the number of residents in each block, distance between blocks, etc., will be included in the map, which the postmaster expects to forward to Washington in the next mail.

With the addition of two men the department will have 15 delivery carriers and two collectors. At the present time one man is collecting mail in the entire city and the postmaster is positive that a city of the size of Honolulu this evil will be remedied and one man will have spare time to attend to other department duties.

One extra carrier will allow for a smaller division of territory and also insure the more thorough covering of the city's "dark" territory. At the present time one man covers all that is possible of Kalahehi, being compelled to make the trip by street-car from the postoffice to the Kalahehi district, where he picks up a horse and buggy and is able to make deliveries to about one-half of the district.

The postmaster proposes to remedy the Kalahehi difficulty by the establishment of a branch office at the end of the car line, Waiata road and Twelfth avenue, from which the Kalahehi carrier will work. He proposes that a messenger carry the mail on the cars to the branch office and that the carrier spend all of his time in Kalahehi. It also is possible that Ft. Ruger mail will be delivered from the Kalahehi branch, thus saving a trip from the fort to the postoffice and return.

NEW OFFICERS DON UNIFORMS THIS MORNING

Two new officers to fill vacancies in the police department have been appointed by Sheriff Charles Rose and they donned their uniforms and stars today.

Edward Ross, who recently passed the civil service examination and whose name topped the eligible list has been selected to serve as a foot patrolman. Ross has resided in this city for some years and possesses an extended acquaintance. He takes the place on the force caused by the resignation of Officer A. Dankberg, who departed for Mexico some days ago.

Fred Belmont, who two years ago was a member of the detective staff and served in the capacity of court interpreter, was today notified to take up his duties with that branch of the service. Belmont, it is stated, has a good knowledge of Spanish and it will be a part of his duty to act as interpreter in district court in the hearing of cases where Porto Rican and Spanish defendants or witnesses are called.

Belmont has been detailed by Sheriff Rose to report to Captain of Detectives Arthur McDuffie.

Alumni night for the St. Louis college boys is one with which no other engagement is allowed to interfere. That's next Saturday night at the old dining hall in the college grounds. All the old boys are making their plans to be there and it is likely that some of the old-timers from the other islands will drop in.

Honolulu chapter, No. 1, Rose Croix, will have a meeting in the Masonic temple this evening.

NATIONAL GUARD OF HAWAII MAY BE DISBANDED

Plan to Substitute United States Volunteers for Territorial Troops

PRESENT ORGANIZATION WOULD BE TAKEN OVER

Oahu in Position Where Citizen-Soldiers Would Meet Only National Crisis

Major-General William H. Carter.

That the National Guard of Hawaii may go out of existence and a body of United States volunteers be organized in its stead, is a military possibility that has just become known. Major-General Wm. H. Carter, commanding the Hawaiian department, is favorable to such a change as being in the best interests of an efficient citizen-soldier and the plan meets with the general approval of the army authorities. It will require congressional action to create the U. S. volunteers, and territorial action to muster out the National Guard.

General Carter has given the matter of army reserves exhaustive study, and is regarded as one of the best posted men in the country on this angle of national defense. Since coming to Hawaii he has made a close study of the home defense problems of the islands, and has considered several plans for strengthening the regular establishment in the event of a war.

"I have a great respect for the organized militia of the country," said General Carter this morning to a Star-Bulletin reporter, when asked to talk of the proposed change. "and I think I fully appreciate the spirit of the officers and men who serve with state troops, often at considerable personal expense and inconvenience. Hawaii is in a somewhat different position from mainland states, however, in that the militia is not likely to be used in any emergency where the regular army would remain inactive. It would probably be a federal need that would call the guardsmen out, not a territorial one. This being so, I am inclined to think that United States volunteers might prove a good move here. I have also considered the organization of troops similar to the Philippine scouts for Oahu, but they would be in addition to the territorial troops, and not in place of them."

The plan as talked over at army headquarters calls for a short enlistment period, probably two years, and the military training of as many citizens as possible. Re-enlistments will be encouraged, experienced men always forming the nucleus of the organization, but an attempt will be made to train as many men as possible. (Continued on page two.)

POLITICAL YARNS REFUSE TO RUN TO FORM IN THESE DAYS

Now is the time when political yarns of all sorts are coming to the aid of the parties, and here's one of those spread by members of the Lahui organization:

A few days ago Secretary of the Territory Thayer went to Maui to make a stump campaign on behalf of the county bond issue, now before the voters in the form of a plebiscite. Hot on his heels went D. K. Kahalo, and the story was spread around Honolulu that Kahalo, who goes against the bond issue, No. 1, had given out just why, but it was not to be a political move of some kind.

Thayer returned to Honolulu and so did Kahalo, and upon an explanation was given to the Lahui men to the effect that Kahalo had been fighting the Maui bond issue because Secretary Thayer some weeks ago refused to put the Lahui party on the official ballot. It was declared that the Lahui leader campaigned against Thayer on Maui until Thayer capitulated and that when the territorial sec-

PRIMARY LAW FIGHT IS NOW IN PROSPECT

Socialists Refuse to Participate in Nominating Primaries, Saying Act Is Unconstitutional

SECRETARY THAYER HOLDS CAN'T RUN IN ELECTION

Unless Party Conforms With Requirements, Names of Candidates Won't Go on Ballot

A fight involving the constitutionality of the new direct primary law is in prospect as the result of the attitude taken by the Socialist party here and the determined stand of Territorial Secretary Wade Warren Thayer.

It has come to the point where the Socialists refuse to participate in the direct primary and Secretary Thayer holds that unless they do participate, names of Socialist candidates cannot appear on the regular election ballot in November.

Some time ago Secretary Thayer, in getting ready for the primary and elections, began making up the roster of the ballot. He wrote to all the parties drawing their attention to the provisions of the primary law and particularly to the official definition of a party. This definition requires a regular organization platform central and county committees, etc. The secretary will not put the party names on the ballots until a satisfactory proof is given that the party is regularly constituted in conformity with the primary law provisions.

On June 22 he received the following letter signed by "J. Edwards," secretary local Honolulu Socialists:

"I beg to inform you that the Socialist party intends to nominate candidates for the general election but will not enter the primary as it considers the primary law and more especially the section quoted by you, as unfair to a party, unconstitutional, and it reserves its right to enter the general election under proper party designation."

New Secretary Thayer holds that it is obligatory upon candidates to run at the primary and if they don't they cannot appear as party candidates at the general election.

"The candidate must run at the primary or his name doesn't go on the ballot," said Secretary Thayer today. "Unless the Socialists conform with the provisions of the primary law, their names cannot appear on the general election ballot. I shall have to refuse them that right, and of course to settle it they will have to take the matter into court, perhaps on a mandamus suit. The primary law is plain in this respect, though it is neither so plain nor so invulnerable in some other respects."

MAP, IN MAKING, WILL SHOW NECESSITY OF KALIHU CHANNEL JOB

A map of Honolulu harbor, showing the Kalihu channel, the dock facilities of the harbor, and the obvious need of the channel being made a part of the harbor to accommodate the marine traffic here, is being prepared by John W. Caldwell, superintendent of public works, for the maritime committee of the Chamber of Commerce. This map will probably be sent to Washington as a part of the evidence being accumulated to prove the absolute necessity of the Kalihu channel project being carried out if Honolulu is to hold her own in the Pacific trade.

Schofield lodge, F. & A. M., will have a special meeting at Schofield Barracks this evening, for work in the first degree.

GUERRERO WILL PLEAD FOLLOWING INSANITY REPORT

Joseph Guerrero, who was indicted by the grand jury Wednesday and yesterday, declared to be insane by Dr. N. B. Emerson, appeared before Judge Robinson of the circuit court, together with the six other alleged offenders who were indicted at the same time, and was given until July 11 to plead. It was stated that the insanity commission was about to take up Guerrero's case, and for that reason his plea should be reserved pending the determination of the sanity issue. Guerrero was indicted on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He was committed to the insane asylum yesterday by Dr. Emerson.

John Waiama and Joseph Kaahakai, both indicted for burglary in the first degree, pleaded guilty, and were sentenced to one year at hard labor. However, on motion of Attorney B. C. Peters, mittimus in the former case was withheld until a motion can be made.

BENEFIT BALL GAME AT 4 O'CLOCK TODAY

At 4 o'clock this afternoon at Athletic park, the pick of Oahu's diamond talent will try conclusions with the fast University of California baseball team. The game is for the benefit of the Leahi home, and the advance ticket sale gives promise of a record crowd.

Henry Bushnell, of the Portu-guese Athletic club, has taken the stars from every team of the Oahu league, and with so much good material in sight, the exact line-up will not be known until the men take the field.

Sloan, who is slated to pitch, worked out yesterday for the 2d Infantry against the 4th Cavalry, in the Army league game, and will be started. Probably Lawton will oppose the collegians.

Before the ball game there will be a two-mile foot race, in which Soldier King, Frank Search and Sergeant Cameron will compete. King will give the others 100 yards handicaps, as at the finish of the race.

NEW YORK DRYGOODS FIRM FAILS FOR $35,000,000; ONE OF THE WORST IN HISTORY

H. B. Chafin Co., Affiliated With Prominent Retail Firms Throughout the Country, Has Assets Estimated at $40,000,000—Failure Taken as Indication of General Business Depression in United States at Present Time.

[Associate Press service by Federal Wireless.]
NEW YORK, June 25.—H. B. Chafin Co., a vast wholesale dry goods house, failed today. The liabilities of the company are placed at $35,000,000 while it is estimated that the assets should reach $40,000,000.

The Chafin company was affiliated, through the United Dry Goods Company, with prominent retail firms throughout the entire country and its business ran into hundreds of millions annually.

This failure is one of the most severe and also one of the heaviest that has been reported in the United States in a number of years, and one of the worst commercial catastrophes in the history of the United States. It is taken as an indication of the depressed business conditions of the country.

GREECE WANTS NAVY EQUAL TO COASTLINE, SAYS MINISTER

[By Latest Mail]
LONDON.—The question as to what extent Greece and Turkey are purchasing battleships is attracting considerable attention, since upon the action of these powers the future rest or unrest in the Balkans largely depends. In the course of a conversation with a Monitor representative M. Gennadius, the Greek minister in London, said he had known for some time past that his government was anxious to increase the naval efficiency of Greece. Such action, the minister explained, was only natural and a duty binding upon any government.

Referring to the report of the pending purchase of the United States battleships "Isho" and "Mississippi" M. Gennadius was unable to give further information, beyond what appeared in the press, having received no official communication on the subject from Athens. It was, he added, all important for Greece to possess a navy adequate to the protection of its extended coastline. He did not, however, imply by this that Greece had any aggressive policy towards Turkey. On the contrary the one desire of Greece at the present was to preserve peace so as to be able to repair the ravages made by war.

"With a neighbor, however, like Turkey, my country fully recognizes," the minister continued, "that she must be strong and prepared for all eventualities." It was, he said, for this reason and because Turkey was making additions to her navy that Greece was making efforts to increase her naval strength.

The average man might just as well fall in love, for he is to make some kind of a fool of himself.

SALVATOR IS BACK FROM UNIQUE VOYAGE. GERMAN CRUISER THETIS OFFICERS MAY DRYDOCK HERE. TRAIN GUNS IN PRACTICE.

Completing a voyage from inland California, where the vessel proceeded up the Sacramento river, for the discharge of a full shipment of preserved pineapples, the little schooner Salvator, 15 days from San Francisco with a quantity of supplies for the Libby, McNeill & Libby cannery at Kalama, is an arrival at the port today.

The facilities offered at this port for the drydocking of a large vessel, may be put to a severe test with the berthing of the big German cruiser Nurnberg in the inter-island floating drydock here.

Officers and men in the United States revenue cutter Thetis are now engaged in the annual gun practice in island waters.

HARBOR NOTES

Lumber, fertilizer and general cargo has been supplied the inter-island steamer W. G. Hall scheduled to sail for Kaula at 5 o'clock this evening.

Per steamer Claudine from Maui ports—J. Chalmers, Aha, Mrs. Tamara, N. C. Field, N. Ito, A. A. Wilson, T. Chong, S. Hirokawa, W. Green, L. Tobriner, L. Quansam, Mrs. G. McNeil, W. Lucas, H. B. Morris, 40 deck.

CRUISER LEIPZIG NATIONAL GUARD OF HAWAII MAY BE DISBANDED TOMORROW

Steaming from Tsingtau, north China, en route to Mazatlan, Mexico, the German armed cruiser and man-of-war Leipzig, built in 1904, and for some years stationed on the coast of Asia, is due to come to a berth at Honolulu tomorrow morning.

No formal program of entertainment has been planned by the German colony for the 390 officers and men on board the Leipzig, as the vessel will remain at the port for a very short time. The stay at Honolulu will be marked by the loading of 650 tons of coal besides taking on a quantity of provisions.

The Leipzig is proceeding to Mexican waters to relieve the German cruiser Nurnberg, which has been ordered to return to station at Tsingtau. The latter vessel is expected to arrive at Honolulu about July 18.

Captain Michael Healey, popular mariner, and for some time past master of the United States army transport Thomas, has left the Pacific coast for Washington, New York and Boston, to remain on the Atlantic sea board for one month.

All of the Victoria whaling steamers have cleared for their summer cruises out of the coast stations, the last of which will be the Steamer Tanager, from Vancouver, B. C., a few weeks ago.

Only meagre reports have been received by the Canadian North Pacific Fisheries, Ltd., from the stations as to the success the whalers are having in their pursuit of the big game.

Insurance for the fleet of oil tank steamers on the Pacific Coast owned by the United Steamship Company and the Union Steamship Company has just been renewed in the London market under the title of the British Union Oil Company's fleet.

While the steamer Nogat, formerly operated on the windward Kaula run, is laid up, the Likelike, a larger vessel has been selected to cover that route.

Indications point to the prompt dispatch of the Pacific Mail liner Korea for Japan and China ports at 5 o'clock on Friday evening. The vessel is due from San Francisco at an early hour in the morning.

Taking freight for Pepekeo, the inter-island steamer Maui has been dispatched for the big island today. The vessel will return with a full shipment of sugar destined for transshipment to the Pacific coast.

While at Kahului, the Matson steamer Honolulu will receive a part cargo of sugar. This vessel will call at several island ports before steaming for San Francisco direct with more than 8000 tons of the product.

Barkentine Griffiths Ready for Sea. The barkentine J. M. Griffiths was reported ready to proceed to the north Pacific coast, the last of a shipment of lumber having been discharged at Kahului, Maui, at the time the inter-island steamer Claudine called there.

Claudine Towed Defender to Sea. The schooner Defender, discharged of a shipment of lumber and general cargo at Hana, Maui, was yesterday taken in tow by the inter-island steamer Claudine and conveyed to some distance at sea.

While the details of the project are by no means complete, the suggestion is that the present guard organization be taken over in its entirety, as a starter, the men having been given the opportunity to re-enlist under the United States, and the officers being commissioned by the president, in the grades they now hold.

In the event of the change, the new National Guard armory would probably be purchased from the territory by the federal government and continued as the home of the citizen-soldier, after being properly fitted up and equipped.

A major of infantry from the regular establishment would be detailed as colonel of the Hawaiian regiment, for a four-year tour.

Outside of the medical department, no staff officers except those included in the regimental organization, would be required, as the regiment would be a part of the regular army establishment on Oahu, directly under the commanding general, and supplied from the various regular supply departments.

One reason why the proposed change would be acceptable to the guard itself, is the financial problem which the National Guard of Hawaii is up against. The last legislature pruned the armory appropriation to such an extent that the regiment moved into a half-finished building.

GREAT NORTHERN TO FIGURE IN TRAFFIC

That the "Great Northern," the first of the steamships being built to ply between San Francisco and Astoria by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railways, will be launched on July 1st and her mate, the "Northern Pacific," will follow her a month later, was the statement of local representatives of the roads.

POLICE STINGS

The theft of a number of chickens from Kaimuki residents, brought R. Machida to book at police station, where, arraigned at district court this morning, the defendant was sentenced to serve one year at the city and county jail.

For becoming a common nuisance to a number of residents of Manoa valley, Jose De Mello, was found guilty of vagrancy when called before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning and was sentenced to serve two months at the city and county jail.

Joseph Guerrero, now committed to the territorial insane asylum, will not be called upon to face charges brought by the police alleging an assault with a weapon. When the case was brought before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Brown moved for a nolle prosequi. Guerrero is charged with having impersonated a police officer and also to have offered gratuitous insults to a number of people including several enlisted men from the United States army.

DETENTION HOME FOR LEPEIS TO BE ESTABLISHED ON HAWAII CONTINUES TO INTEREST MEMBERS OF CONGRESS

The proposal in Congress that there should be a national detention home for lepers established in Hawaii has been up for discussion in Congress a second time.

The Star-Bulletin published the discussion on June 4. It is now learned that the subject came up again on June 11, and the Congressional Record reports the following:

Mr. Mann. Can the gentleman from New York tell us what is the cost of maintenance of the leper hospital in the Hawaiian Islands?

Mr. Fitzgerald. Originally there was an appropriation of $50,000 a year to maintain it, but it never cost that much annually, and the item was merged with other items. I will try to ascertain exactly how much it costs.

Mr. Mann. This leprosy hospital is maintained in connection with the leper colony of the Hawaiian Islands?

Mr. Fitzgerald. Yes. It is on the island of Molokai.

Mr. Mann. At whose expense is the colony maintained? The local government?

Mr. Fitzgerald. I am not certain. I am inclined to think the Territory of Hawaii maintains the colony and we maintain certain medical officers. Some of them are on duty at Honolulu and make the examinations of the lepers before they are committed to the institution. Others are stationed at the institution itself.

Mr. Mann. Has the gentleman made any inquiry as to whether the maintenance of this leprosy hospital has resulted in our acquiring any further information concerning the spread of cure of leprosy?

Mr. Fitzgerald. I do not know whether it has or not. One man, I believe, has become very expert. Just how much practical information has been gained I am unable to say.

Mr. Mann. Well, the gentleman knows that a few years ago the Public Health Service desired to have set aside some place in the United States, which place was to be in Arizona or New Mexico, a tract of land 10 miles or more square, for the purpose of having a leprosy colony, in that is the proper name for a leper colony, in the United States, to which lepers might be transported. That failed, although the bill was reported favorably to that effect, on a vote in the House, owing to the opposition of the local people.

Then we established this leprosy hospital for the purpose of seeing if we could get information which would show how to cure leprosy or prevent its spread. I do not remember just how long that hospital has been maintained but I think it would be interesting to know if they had acquired any valuable information. I do not mean to criticize if they have not because that is something very difficult to learn about.

Mr. Fitzgerald. Three years ago the committee made some inquiry. I think in 1910. I have sent for the hearing. They went into the matter fully. In 1911, for the fiscal year 1912, the estimate was $33,000 for maintenance of the hospital. In 1911 the appropriation was $45,000. In 1910 we reappropriated the unexpended balance of $20,000 appropriated in 1909, and in 1909 they expended out of the $20,000, $11,815. The leprosarium had not been in full operation. It only went into full operation on the 1st of July, 1910, if I recall correctly. They were making investigations then both at Honolulu and Molokai. I will be able to find the information, but I am not certain whether—

The Chairman. The time of the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Mann) has expired.

Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman's time be extended.

The Chairman. The gentleman from New York asks unanimous consent that the time of the gentleman from Illinois be extended for five minutes. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

Mr. Fitzgerald. I think it was the 1st of July, 1909, when it was in full operation for the first time.

Mr. Johnson of Washington. If the gentleman from New York (Mr. Fitzgerald) will permit me, I desire to state that I happen to have in my hand now seven or eight pamphlets on the subject of leprosy, issued as the result of work carried on at the United States leprosy investigation station at Molokai, Hawaii. These bulletins have been issued under the direction of the director, Walter B. Brinkerhoff, M. D., and are most interesting.

Concerning the point which the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Mann) has interrogated the chairman of the Appropriations Committee, let me say that with the acquisition of Hawaii by the United States leprosy became more than ever a national problem. Representations were made to Congress urging the establishment of a leper investigation station on the island of Molokai, in order that advantage might be taken of the excellent opportunities afforded by the leper settlement for scientific study of the disease. As a result, Congress passed an act, which was approved March 3, 1905, providing for the investigation of leprosy in Hawaii. In accordance with the provisions of this act a suitable tract of land was ceded by the Territory of Hawaii to the United States and steps were taken to establish thereon a hospital station and laboratory of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service.

That station has been cared for in each succeeding appropriation bill, and the information contained in these pamphlets—seven in number, issued from 1908 to 1913, including two in 1910—contains the latest and most reliable information concerning leprosy, which has caused terror for 3000 years but which now, happily, is being considered in a more rational manner than heretofore.

Mr. Chairman, in 1899 there were known to be 278 well-authenticated cases of leprosy in 21 separate States and Territories of the United States. In the first American census of Hawaii, in 1901, the fact was disclosed that of 37,635 native Hawaiians, 1 in 40, or 25 per 1000 were known lepers, while among 116,366 foreign-born persons in Hawaii there were but 63 known lepers. Leprosy seems to have had its greatest spread in Hawaii in 1863, and the Molokai colony was established in 1866. In the 40 years from 1866 to 1905, a total of 5853 cases were sent to Molokai. Now the disease is decreasing there.

One of these pamphlets contains the leper law of the Territory of Hawaii, approved in April, 1909, and appropriating $40,000 for a leper hospital on the island of Oahu. Thus it appears that Hawaii is doing its part in this great work.

One pamphlet, issued by this same bureau, deals with leprosy in the United States of America, showing 139 known cases reported through the health authorities—50 in Louisiana, 20 in Florida, 20 in California, 16 in Minnesota, 12 in Texas, 8 in Massachusetts, and so on.

I notice the state of Washington is credited with one case at that date. Mr. Chairman, the disease has increased in the United States since then, as the reports of the Surgeon General show.

On this subject I think it may be of interest to the House to know that the great danger and fear of leprosy, the reason why there has been such a determination on the part of various localities not to permit a leprosarium to be established, is on account of the slowness with which this disease seems to take hold.

Leprosy takes a long time to develop, and there are cases on record where 40 years have elapsed before the disease manifested itself, and instances of where from 15 to 18 years have passed by before the disease betrayed itself are frequently met with. As it is a bacillary disease, it may be communicated by physical contact.

This renders it extremely dangerous to a community for a leper to be at large, while its insidious character and the length of time it takes to develop makes it exceedingly difficult of discovery until it reaches an advanced stage.

These reports tell of the case of a man named Keenu, a condemned murderer, who was given his life on condition that he be inoculated with the bacillus of leprosy. Dr. Edward Armstrong performed the inoculation September 20, 1884, and 14 months afterwards the bacillus were still in his wound without any symptoms of the disease developing, and three years elapsed before the leprosy showed itself.

One bulletin, No. 39 of the Public Health Bulletin, discusses flies and mosquitoes with relation to leprosy, and the author comes to the following conclusions:

Certain data, taken together with the well-known habits of certain of these flies, establish the truth of the following statements:

First. That given a bacilli-discharging leprosy ulcer (and practically all leprosy ulcers due to the breaking down of a leprosy nodule do discharge bacilli), unprotected from the attacks of flies, these insects will convey the bacillus of leprosy to the skin of nearby healthy persons.

Second. That such insects will contaminate the foodstuffs of such persons with these organisms.

Third. That these insects deposit their feces on every conceivable surface, and such feces, becoming dry and pulverized, will in the form of "dust" convey the bacilli to the nasal mucosa of nearby persons.

That given such an unprotected ulcer, and the usual number of flies, this contamination of the skin and mucosa of nearby healthy persons will not be an unusual event, but will occur again and again, through an indefinite length of time, and the number of bacilli thus conveyed to healthy persons will be enormous.

This much the experiments show; but the below-mentioned points at once present themselves, and can not in our present state of knowledge be answered by laboratory data:

First. Is the skin (or abrasion of it), the mucosa of the digestive tract, or the nasal mucosa capable of being infected with leprosy?

Second. Are the bacilli that have been discharged from an ulcer and afterwards passed through a fly's digestive tract alive and capable of infecting man?

Third. Do epidemiological and clinical observations bear out the supposition that flies help to spread leprosy?

As to the first of these, we know that by some means lepra bacilli do gain entrance to the tissues of man. It is difficult to conceive how this is brought about, except that the bacilli penetrate one or more of the surfaces mentioned as being frequently contaminated, directly or indirectly, by the fecal contents of flies.

Mr. Chairman, in some other pamphlets I have read of an Irishman who, after 22 years' service in the Indian army, returned home a fully developed leper, dying of the disease a year and a half later. During this time his brother slept in the same room with him, sharing his bed and wore his clothes. This intimate intercourse was the most dangerous possible.

Three years after the ex-soldier's death the brother, who had never been outside Ireland, developed leprosy. In that case it is possible the disease did not manifest itself for four and a half years after it was contracted.

You can gather from these examples how insidious and dangerous this disease is, while its being incurable and horrible in action renders it imperative that no effort should be spared to hold it in check, but to stamp it out.

Mr. Mann. Did not the gentleman introduce a bill recently for the purpose of having a leper colony established?

Mr. Johnson of Washington. Yes; I did. I introduced two bills, one for a leprosarium to be built by the United States on some island, and the other authorizing the Surgeon General to negotiate with the officials of Hawaii for the care of our lepers on one of the islands or at the colony there.

I have had talks with Surgeon General Blue, and he feels sure that wherever the United States undertakes to go and put such a sanitarium there will be objection. He hopes now it can be placed in the center of one of the forest reserves in some of the western States.

Mr. Mann. Does the gentleman think that the people of his State would be willing to have such a colony located in Washington where, I take it, it is almost impossible in that climate to transmit leprosy from one person to another?

Mr. Johnson of Washington. I feel very sure that they would not. The first report of a leper in the state of Washington is that of what appears to be a rather celebrated case, that of John R. Early, who was given money here in the District of Columbia and went to New York, and then bobbed up later in western Washington. That was some four years ago. Now, then, one year ago, in the center of the district that I have the honor to represent, a farmer developed leprosy, and, as I understand it, he had not been off his farm for several years.

It is that sort of development of the disease that has alarmed our people. In another locality in my district the case of a Japanese leper has turned up in the past two weeks, and there is a great hue and cry between the State quarantine and the Federal quarantine as to the question of jurisdiction. I hope that Congress will look into this leprosy problem. I hope that, in connection with the sad case that now exists on the outskirts of this city, it will do something. I hope Congress will provide for the care of those people.

Mr. Seldomridge. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

The Chairman. Does the gentleman from Washington yield to the gentleman from Colorado?

Mr. Johnson of Washington. Yes.

Mr. Seldomridge. Do the agents of the Public Health Service have the right to exercise police power in the matter of keeping lepers in custody?

Mr. Johnson of Washington. I understand they have.

Mr. Seldomridge. I do not understand that they have such power.

Mr. Foster. In traveling from one State to another the States have no control, but as to people living within the States the State boards of health have the power to take them in custody.

Mr. Seldomridge. I understand that the United States had no power to prevent the escape of this man Early—from Fishermans Island. I think it was.

Mr. Johnson of Washington. Fishermans Island is in Chesapeake bay, I understand.

Mr. Seldomridge. I mean that island in the state of Washington. What is the name?

Mr. Johnson of Washington. Diamond Head Station, which is not an island. The quarantine regulations provide that a leper can not be moved into the States without the permission of the States themselves; and, so far as I know, the only State that has ever protested against the transmission of a leper is the state of Colorado.

Mr. Seldomridge. It would make no difference, then, if the board of health had the power to keep those lepers in the place where they desired. As I understand, the Public Health Service has recognized the fact that they are without the police power to detain and prevent the escape of lepers when they are once placed in any sanitarium or location.

Mr. Johnson of Washington. Mr. Chairman, I have some conclusions reached by Surg. Gen. Blue, and I ask permission to place a small portion of that in the Record later, together with

AERIALISTS PLAN TO MAP UPPER AIR CURRENTS

By Use of Balloons Information Will Be Sought That Will Serve to Guide Aeronauts

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK.—A task of exploration has been found for Rear-admiral Robert E. Peary, which in the opinion of the aeroplane builders and flyers may produce results of the utmost importance to the new art of aerial navigation.

The task is that of sending balloons high up into the air at different parts of the country and from the data about air currents thus obtained to prepare the world's first map of its air oceans.

It is the intention of the Aero Club of America, which has announced its plan to undertake the mappings of the air oceans, to have the task done so thoroughly and completely that when the maps are finally finished an airman can take to the air from any city in the United States with a map spread out before him showing as much needful data about the air as the seaman now has available in taking to the sea.

Admiral Peary will not be left alone to undertake the enormous task of making the aerial maps. A large committee of Aero Club members has been named to assist him. It is proposed to spread a propaganda in favor of making an air map of the whole world, until each country undertakes the task for itself and then exchanges data with the others so that final editions of the aerial maps may be complete for every place in which an airman may possibly wish to travel.

The plan for making such a map has been maturing in the Aero Club of America for more than two years. The National Geographic Society has also had it under discussion and it is now proposed to bring about a close cooperation between the two societies in working up the necessary data.

Alcohol was an acquired taste. It is the accessibility of alcohol that gave me my taste for alcohol."

DR. W. C. HOBDDY TO GIVE FIFTH LECTURE TONIGHT

The lectures on sex education which are being conducted by the Y. M. C. A. health league will be continued this evening. Doctor W. C. Hobddy will give his fifth lecture in the course of six. It will take place in Cooke hall, the Y. M. C. A. assembly room, at 8:15.

A large number of men and older boys have taken advantage of this course of lectures on such an important but little discussed subject. The health league feels well repaid for its efforts and will watch for further opportunities to offer lectures on health topics to the young men of Honolulu.

The lectures tonight and next Thursday evening conclude the present series. Single admission may be secured for each lecture by those who do not hold season tickets. Doctor Hobddy will give an opportunity for all those present to ask question on the subject of sex hygiene at the close of each lecture.

CITIZENS WAIT FOR SUPERVISORS; SOME LOSE THEIR PATIENCE

Representatives of the Manoa Improvement Club and the Chamber of Commerce committee on city and county affairs were disappointed last night when they appeared in the chamber of the supervisors to take part in a public hearing on the proposed improvement of the lower Manoa road under the provisions of the direct frontage tax statutes. For only one supervisor was present.

Lester Petrie, chairman of the roads committee, who was the only supervisor present, apologized for the absence of the other members of the board, and Mayor Fern took it upon himself to set Saturday, June 27, at 12:15 o'clock for the Manoa project to be taken up.

This is the second meeting on this proposed improvement work which has fallen through in the same way, and a few of those present last night, who were also present at the other meeting which was not attended by the supervisors, did not hesitate to criticize the supervisors rather warmly.

The Manoa Improvement Club is fathering a project for the improvement of lower Manoa road, but protests have been made against this work, and it was to hear both the advocates for the project and the protesters that the hearings were set.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE
Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live. Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."

WAILUKU CONCERT BY MRS. HOWARD IS A BIG SUCCESS

Representative Audience Attends Recital; Pretty Dance by Miss Starkweather

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] WAILUKU, Maui, June 24.—At the Wailuku Alexander House gymnasium last Saturday evening one of the most representative audiences ever seen on Maui was present to enjoy the first Maui appearance of Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard. She was assisted most ably by Mrs. Louise Chisholm Jones and Harry Washburn Badwin. Miss Mary Hoffman was as usual a very able accompanist for all the artists.

The evening has been pronounced by far the best musical entertainment ever given on Maui.

Dr. Ian McLaren decorated the gymnasium for the evening. Bamboo, hanging baskets, ferns and palms transferred the big floor and gallery into a perfect garden. Artistic taste was everywhere displayed. The built-in platform was just the thing for the performance, and added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening.

The committee of ladies of the Women's Aid Society in charge of the evening included Mrs. Enos Vincent, chairman; Mrs. H. B. Penhallow and Mrs. A. C. Warner. The audience was composed of people from all over Central Maui, Lahaina and Kula.

In response to invitations sent out by the Alexander House gymnasium committee, Miss Sue Starkweather and the members of the dancing class at the gymnasium, some 250 people gathered for a reception and dance last evening. A committee of the dancing class had charge of the decorations of the gymnasium, and the big hall was most attractive. The many friends of Miss Starkweather's dancing class from all parts of Central Maui were present to enjoy the merry evening and in the reception line were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lufkin, Major and Mrs. W. E. Ball, Judge and Mrs. W. A. McKay, Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard, Miss Charlotte L. Turner, Mrs. John Weddick, Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Dodge. Other members of the gymnasium committee, and friends of Miss Starkweather who were expected were unable to be present. After all guests had been received, the grand march was formed, led by Miss Starkweather, Mr. Paul Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Lufkin, Major and Mrs. Ball. Some 50 couples were on the floor. The gymnasium orchestra furnished the music.

Miss Starkweather leaves Maui this week to go directly to her home in Berkeley, California.

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-Tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity.

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure.

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicine; as well as of medical treatment for the stomach stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary bisurated magnesia which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach with itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub liniment on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack, and the foot will heal itself.—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless so long as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of bisurated magnesia from their druggist, and take a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases. BIG FLEET TO MEET IN 1915.

That the fleet of warships that will assemble at Hampton Roads early in the year 1915 and steam through the Panama Canal headed by the historic Oregon, will be the largest ever assembled, will be the largest ever assembled, made certain by the first report of the United States navy department. The officials of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition have been notified by the navy department that 11 foreign nations have accepted the invitation to send ships. The list now includes Austria, Russia, Japan, Germany, France, Italy, Argentine Republic, Greece, Spain, England and Portugal. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt said on a recent visit to San Francisco that the United States Navy would have more than 55 warships in line. The great war fleet will be an unprecedented feature during the time of the exposition.

According to Commissioner William Williamson of the graft commission, the report of that body will be completed about the middle of next month. It will be practical and constructive in its findings, according to the commissioner, and will include the recommendation of several proposed legislative enactments to cover the various tax conditions now existing.

NEW TODAY

Friday
A convict named O'Rourke, one of the "honor" squad, took it into his head to run away last week from the Illinois State prison at Joliet. He went to Chicago, and after enjoying five days of liberty, his conscience began to trouble him. He had given the warden three times over his word of honor that he would not run away, and now thought of the possibility that his act might reflect upon the other members of the squad, and that the freedom they enjoyed might be withdrawn from them. O'Rourke decided to have his comrades punished for his own fault, so he telephoned the warden when he might be found in Chicago, and a letter was sent and brought him back.

COMMISSIONERS AWAIT MOVE BY SHERIFF ROSE

At a short meeting of the civil service commissioners last night a letter was received from Sheriff Rose asking that a competitive examination be held for the position of clerk to the deputy sheriff, and that upon legal advice he is confident his appointments of Daniel Kamahu, as captain, J. J. Enright as sergeant, and J. K. Kaneupu as chief clerk are valid, and that he will therefore "stand pat" on them.

The following is the letter:
"Honolulu, T. H., June 24, 1914.
"Civil Service Commission, Honolulu.
T. H.

"Gentlemen:—In going over the list of eligibles furnished me by the commission, I have been unable to find one qualified to fill the position of clerk to the deputy sheriff, nor has anyone on the eligible list applied for the same, and I respectfully ask that the commission call a competitive examination for the position, said examination to be held at an early date. Owing to the fact that at the time this position was made vacant by the promotion of J. K. Kaneupu there was no one on the eligible list who, in my opinion, was competent to fill this office, I appointed J. S. Kalakela and under these conditions I respectfully request that he together with anyone so desiring be allowed to participate in this examination.

"With reference to the promotion of Daniel Kamahu as captain, J. J. Enright as sergeant and J. K. Kaneupu as chief clerk in this department, I have this day been rendered an opinion from my attorneys, Thompson, Wilder, Milverton and Lymer, that the promotions are valid under the law and I propose to stand by the promotions made by me.

"Respectfully yours,
"CHARLES H. ROSE,
"Sheriff, City and County of Honolulu.

The commission had the letter read and tabled, without comment.

Chairman Edings explained after the meeting that as the sheriff had shown his intention of carrying the matter into court, the commission would "sit back and wait for him to move." The commission has taken the position that all these appointments are invalid for the reason that the promoted men did not take the civil service examinations for the positions they were appointed to, and it has instructed the auditor to hold up their pay.

THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First, weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh yourself again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scale and tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive.

Morning on 'CHANGE

Stocks are perceptibly weaker today, both in prices and in volume of business. Hawaiian Sugar is the sole exception to declining rates. Of this stock two lots of 10 shares each were reported sold at 25.50, and 12 point more is asked with 1-4 less bid. Pineapple also fell off between boards, as shown by a sale of 45 shares at 36.50, or 14 point down. On the board Ewa declined 3/4 point in a sale of 10 shares at 17.50. Oahu declined one point in a sale of 25 shares at 14.75, which is now the asked price. The cause of the recession of the market is no doubt the shading down of the price of sugar the past few days.

He went to Chicago, and after enjoying five days of liberty, his conscience began to trouble him. TENDERS WANTED.

Sealed tenders, endorsed "Tenders for Supplies, Oahu Prison," for furnishing Oahu Prison, at Honolulu, for the period from July 8, 1914, to June 30, 1915, with Fresh Beef (carcass), will be received at the Attorney General's office at the Executive building, Honolulu, until 12 o'clock noon, July 7, 1914. The approximate quantity required and other information may be had upon application at the Attorney General's office, tenders to be based upon the quantity stated, but the Attorney General's Department does not bind itself to purchase the whole or any particular part of the quantity stated, such quantity being stated merely for the convenience of bidders in submitting their bids.

Tenders must be accompanied by a certified check equal in amount to five per cent of the tender, and must be submitted in accordance with and subject to the provisions and requirements of Act 62, Session Laws 1909.

The supplies shall be of the best quality and delivered at Oahu Prison in quantities required and subject to the inspection and approval of the High Sheriff.

Dated Honolulu, June 26, 1914.
I. M. STAINBACK,
Attorney General.

S. K. MAHOE OUT FOR SEVENTH TERM IN HOUSE

S. K. Mahoe of Waiaina announces his candidacy for representative of the fifth district. On six previous occasions Mr. Mahoe has represented this district, and makes the following announcement:
"To the voters of the fifth representative district:
"In answer to numerous and urgent requests from friends and voters of the fifth district, and believing in my ability, and experience in the welfare of the community, I have consented to become a candidate for the house, and hereby announce myself for such nomination.
"As a member of the house of representatives, I have served six terms. During such times it has always been and will be my earnest aim and desire to work for the interest of the people and of the Territory at large.
"As a Republican, I pledge myself to abide by the platform of the Republican party, and to support policies which are for the greatest good of all, regardless of politics. Again soliciting the support of every good citizen and voter. I am, very respectfully,
"S. K. MAHOE,
"Waiaina, Oahu, June 24, 1914."

JACK LONDON'S 'SEA WOLF' TO BE SHOWN ON SCREEN AT YE LIBERTY

Jack London, writing one of his latest successes, in his beautiful grounds in "The Valley of the Moon."

Jack London's animated novel of the terror ship "Ghost" a brute at times, and with a total disregard for all others, Mr. Bosworth achieves real distinction. Throughout the eight parts of the picture there is a succession of scenes of intense dramatic interest, and that showing the collision between the two ferryboats on San Francisco bay is probably the most realistic ever filmed. The company enacting the various roles of "The Sea Wolf" is one of the largest and most capable ever assembled for a motion picture production. Jack London, himself, put in eleven weeks personally supervising the production of "The Sea Wolf."

EMPIRE THEATER

A great ranch owned by the Miller Brothers located at Bliss, Oklahoma, is now given over to the production of moving pictures. On the Miller estate of more than 100,000 acres once a colony where eastern invalids were wont to gather for recuperation, the presentation of a host of western pictures are now planned and carried into execution. "The Two Ranchmen," a gripping and thrilling drama in which a bevy of clever stars are seen, and which is a feature at this afternoon and evening performance at the Empire Theater, is staged and acted on this famous ranch. The picture will feature G. M. Anderson, perhaps one of the most photographed men in the business today.

"Light on Troubled Waters," is a film among a selection of late mainland releases that tells a story of the seacoast in which the courage of a girl to save her sweetheart's vessel after a gang of desperadoes and wreckers have imprisoned her, is depicted with much clearness. The production abounds in a host of interesting situations.

"The Hindoo's Charm" is another drama of unusual power. For a comedy the program contains "Bob Buys an Auto," declared as funny in the extreme.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.
• PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded.—Made by PARIS-MEDICINE CO., Saint Louis, U. S. of A.

Huron Blyden, clever actor, member of "The Players," appearing at the Bijou theater.

The Bijou, as it is one of the best, immediately after this play was launched in New York, seven road companies formed and toured the mainland and today you will find according to theatrical reports no less than four companies playing this great piece from city to city and not counting the numerous first class dramatic stock companies that are using it at least once a year. The play will be admirably cast and each member will have ample opportunities to display ability. Mr. George Webb will be seen in the leading role of James Smith, superintendent of dockage of the Latin American Steamship Company, a part well suited to him. Mr. Guy Hittner will have the famous part, Captain Williams, one of the strongest character roles written. Misses Oakley and Ragan will be happily cast. "Paid in Full" will be the last offering before the closing week. Commencing Monday night the Players will be seen in three of the biggest winners, "The Barrier," and Wednesday and Thursday "The Girl of the Golden West." Friday and Saturday "Within the Law." All records at the Bijou should be broken the last week with these three plays. Seats are now selling for the entire week. Tonight an attractive souvenir photo of George Webb will be given to all who attend.

The color of the moment is "majesty blue," which may be described as a pale hydrangea blue, but must not be mistaken for the pale blue hydrangea.

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] FORT SHAFTER, June 25.—Principal Musician Rapp and Color Sergeant Clarkson were the only members of the non-commissioned staff and band of the 2d Infantry that succeeded in qualifying as expert pistol shots in the course for those detachments. In the 1st battalion of the regiment, no enlisted men qualified as first-class men with the pistol, and among the officers of the battalion the following named secured first-class qualification and will fire the expert test as soon as the range is available: Lieutenants Lonkanecker, Wright, Silvester, Polhemus and Lyman.

Considerable speculation is being indulged in by the officers of the 2d Infantry as to who may be detailed as additional inspectors-instructors for the battalions of the militia during the prospective joint encampment of that organization and the 2d Infantry. It is understood, the Manchu law is now suspended, then all of the officers are available; but, should that fearsome law be operative in its restrictions, few, if any, officers are eligible for detachments from their respective companies for the duty in question without Col. French taking the risk of having his own pay stopped during the period that any officer remains away from his company. While, as above intimated, it may be true that no officer, whatever his grade, is a Manchu, owing to the Mexican situation, it is certainly a fact that no official intimation from army headquarters has been received that establishes the question as one settled beyond risk or doubt. The matter is an important one both to the 2d and to their brothers of the militia, as such details are important to the latter in that they supply additions to the list of trained instructors for the various companies and to the 2d Infantry it means that certain officers will be detached throughout the entire period of the camp from their respective and proper commands. Col. French, who has been assigned to command the joint camp by orders from the headquarters of the Hawaiian Department, will be the officer upon whom will rest the decision as to whether he is able to comply with orders directing him to supply such details without risking his pay as colonel during the period of detachment. It is believed that the fact that the officers who may be detached are in the same camp with their respective companies is not a compliance with the Act of Congress and would not be so held by the Treasury authorities.

Two vacancies now exist in the grade of 1st lieutenant in the 2d Infantry. The additional vacancy has been caused by the transfer of Lieut. Evan E. Lewis from the regiment to the unassigned list as directed by the latest orders from Washington. The other vacancy in the grade was caused by the resignation of Lieut. Herndon Sharp. Unless these places be filled by the transfer of officers now in the states and due for foreign service it is probable that they will remain unfilled for some time to come as no promotions to the list may be expected until the fitness for promotion of 1st Lieut. Bruno T. Scher shall have been determined. This latter officer has been blocking promotion for some months, due to his failure to pass the physical examination. It is understood that he will come up for re-examination in July of this year.

The proficiency test for the companies of the 2d Infantry will be undertaken on the Fort Shafter range this year and not be held at Schofield Barracks as was the case last season. This decision is most satisfactory to the regiment as it will enable the various companies to go through the prescribed test under conditions approximating those under which instruction and record individual firing was performed. In addition it will obviate the march to Schofield Barracks and return, and the consequent absence from barracks for an indeterminate period dependent upon the weather that may be encountered at the Lalehua post during the time set apart for the test.

The 3d battalion of the 2d Infantry will not take part in the camp at Red Hill with the 1st Infantry, N. G. H., and the 1st and 2d battalions of the 2d Infantry, but will remain at Fort Shafter and will later take its turn at field duty when the entire 2d Infantry

FINE PROGRAM MARKS ANNUAL SCOTT MEETING

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, June 24.—The Scott Literary Society which meets every Wednesday evening in the post school house was the scene of great festivity this evening, the occasion being the annual reception tendered to all the enlisted men of the garrison. A special feature of this reception was the presentation of a silver pitcher and tray to Chaplain O. J. W. Scott, by the Ladies' Glee club, at the solicitation of Mrs. Wm. Penn, its president, in honor of his recent promotion to captain.

After the usual program had been rendered refreshments were served. To Mrs. Penn is due the credit for the success of this entertainment as she made all the arrangements and a brilliant success crowned her efforts. The following program was rendered: Vocal solo—Mrs. Evans. Address—Mr. Hilson, representing the Ladies' Glee club, presenting the silver pitcher and tray with a few appropriate remarks. Chaplain Scott responded at length and included many subjects which brought applause. Piano solo—Mrs. J. M. Thompson. Shakespearean recitation—Mr. Carson, Richard III, Scene I, Act I. Vocal trio—Messrs and Miss Scott, 'My Wild Irish Rose.' Vocal solo—Mr. Hunter, accompanied by Mr. Brown. Violin solo—Mr. James. Recitation—Mrs. Barnes.

IE HEADACHY, DIZZY, BILIOUS, "CASCARETS"

Your Liver is full of Bile; Bowels Clogged, Stomach Sour, Tongue Coated, Breath Bad. Get a 10-cent box now. You're bilious; you have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.—advertisement.

goes out for regimental work and problems. This detachment will leave Maj. H. O. Williams in command of the post while the regimental headquarters is away.

1st Lieut. Allen V. Gullion, formerly a member of the officers list of the 2d Infantry and now on duty at the State University of Kentucky as military instructor, was among the recent graduates in the law department of the university and received his degree as Bachelor of Laws at the commencement exercises. Lieut. Gullion is a brother-in-law of Lieut. Laurence O. Mathews of the 2d Infantry.

Miss Eleanor A. Lenihan, daughter of Major and Mrs. M. J. Lenihan of the 2d Infantry, who has been a patient in the department hospital for some time, has so far recovered as to be able to be taken to her home. This was done yesterday afternoon and the change of surroundings will undoubtedly hasten her convalescence already well along.

Upon the recommendation of the commanding officer, Company L, 2d Infantry, the following promotion and appointment in that company has been announced in regimental orders of June 18: Cpl. Limuel F. Hill, to be sergeant, vice Hancock, discharged. Lance Cpl. William Hayes, to be corporal, vice Hill, promoted.

DIVORCE DECISION IS HANDED DOWN BY THE SUPREME COURT TODAY

A wife who deserts her husband because she is jealous of another woman with whom she believes her husband to be in love, has not sufficient grounds in this reason alone to legally entitle the wife to desert her better half.

This point is made in a decision handed down today by the supreme court, which sustains the lower court's decision in the divorce action of J. Nishihara vs. Toki Nishihara. The decision is written by Associate Justice Watson. The woman had left her husband to go to Japan and learned, she said, on returning here that her husband was in love with another woman, and gave that as the reason for refusing to live with him. The court held that under the circumstances, the husband was not prevented from establishing desertion as a ground for divorce, as the wife did not offer proof to show that her husband's relations with the other woman were illicit or improper.

HIT OR MISS IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

AFTER a precocious babyhood in the 70's and 80's, lawn tennis went through a sickly youth, when even gloomy forebodings of an early death were predicted; but, having outgrown these early weaknesses, it suddenly came to its full strength, and its manhood is as virile as that of any game.

To lawn tennis must be conceded the honor of being the most cosmopolitan and the most widely known of all games for these are now few places in the habitable globe where it is not played. It means even more to continental nations than to America. Here it is one, and an important one, of many games played with a moving ball. Abroad it is practically the only existing one of these games, and therefore in the modern development of games it has been seized on with avidity by the athletic youth of these nations.

It is a mere commonplace to say that there is a "boom" in lawn tennis. The demand for courts, the enormous entries for the tournaments of the season, the crowds that flock to see the championships at Newport are all convincing testimony. It is equally unnecessary to point out at this time of day the many merits of the game, especially for busy men, for it combines nearly all the advantages imaginable, which may be summed up as plenty of competitive enjoyment and good exercise to be obtained in a short time.

Pioneers and Modern Masters. Whether the greatest modern players are better than those of the past is a debatable question, but one which speculation and comparison can bring no certain answer. The great players of the past were largely pioneers and the discoverers and inventors of new methods, new strokes, new services have all led to a speeding-up of the game. The old irreverent name of "pat-ball" has deservedly almost died out, and though a soft ball can never be hit with quite the same joyous delight as a hard one, especially in a court whose limits must preclude the full half-volley, yet how hard the lawn tennis ball can be hit within limits is quite astonishing.

The service and smashing of McLaughlin, the general pace, the relentless and pitiless accuracy of Wilding's game, the brilliance of the methods of some of the French and German school, the delivery of placing of some of the older players, the perfection of footwork of Parky, the cleverness of combination of some double players all proclaim it a brilliant game. A hard five-set single of today belies successfully such contemptuous sneers as "Let indiarubber pellets dance on grass where female arts the ruder sex surpass."

Natural Ability and Practice. But between first-class lawn tennis of the brilliant type and the lowest rung of the ladder there is a wider gulf than at most games, and lawn tennis can be the most feeble and futile of things. Natural and inherited ball game ability counts, of course, and counts for a great deal. The greatest players in lawn tennis, as at all games, have the genius for it in them and have learned it and thought it out for themselves. But even they have not become great or even good without long practice and hard work. There never has been and never will be a really "dark horse" at lawn tennis. Nevertheless, it is a game where practice of the right method is of other to produce natural ability. There are players on the verge of Davis cup teams today whose natural physical abilities for all games are not conspicuous. What brain, practice, and perseverance can do for one man they can do for another, and no one need despair of improvement.

CROSS AND MARSHALL "Y" TENNIS WINNERS

Cross and Marshall were the winners in the tennis matches yesterday afternoon. Cross took his two sets from Hatch 6-1 and 9-7. Marshall was not pushed in his match with Johnston and won with the same score in both sets, 6-1.

These two men meet this afternoon at 4:30 in the second round. (Camp and Littlejohn furnish the other match.)

RITCHIE-WELSH MILL IN LONDON ON JULY FOURTH

For the first time in many years, a boxing match that is international beyond dispute will take place when Willie Ritchie, champion lightweight of the world, and Freddie Welsh, holder of the English title by virtue of his decision over Mat Wells, meet in a twenty-round bout before the Olympia Club in London on the Fourth of July.

There is many a slip twixt the cup and the lip, it is true, and with so many tangles and postponements, one can't blame the sporting world for wondering whether there will be still another bit of worriment. However, with Ritchie on the high seas, the worst of the hurdles seems to have been passed, and if Ritchie has taken the precaution to have all of the details observed and the forfeits posted, there is really no reason for further delays.

Oddly enough, the match is to take place on the one greatest holiday of the United States, the anniversary of the independence of this country from foreign rule.

Curiously enough, as well, the fate lines of Ritchie and Welsh have crossed and recrossed until one might almost say it has been far more than a coincidence. As you will remember, it was really through Welsh that Ritchie was brought to the front prominently.

Up to the Welsh match in Los Angeles, Ritchie was little more than an ordinary boy of the four-round game, promising, to be sure, and yet not otherwise marked. Persistence was his chief virtue and through the sticktiveness that brought him into the ring on every possible occasion to be introduced, Ritchie was more or less widely known in local circles.

Willie was sparring partner to Paclay McFarland when the Chicagoan was training for Tommy Murphy. At the same time, Wolgast was stricken with appendicitis and on twenty-four hours' notice, Promoter Tom McCarey was without an opponent for Freddie Welsh. With no definite understanding, Ritchie jumped a train for Los Angeles and showed up at McCarey's headquarters. There was the usual dickering for terms and even when Ritchie went to the arena it was far from settled. Remember that Ritchie is a novice pure and simple. He didn't win, but it was considered at the time an achievement of no small moment.

Indeed, it made Ritchie. Following that, the champion-to-be went East and finally took Joe Mandot into camp decisively in a no-decision ten-round bout in New Orleans. Came the four-round bout with Wolgast and finally the championship match itself. All of which, as you can see for yourself, hinged on the ability of an untried boy to stand twenty rounds against Welsh, then in his prime and considered quite strong enough a card to send against Ad Wolgast.

Later the paths of the same boys crossed when the Vancouver, B. C., match was arranged. The outcome of that affair caused a world of discussion. Ritchie, seeing he had no real prospects of forcing the promoters to go through with their offer, left Vancouver in a hurry. Naturally this called down upon his head a certain amount of condemnation from people who did not fully understand conditions.

And until the night before the California boy sailed, there was still much doubt for the disagreements continued. However, the troubles are no further delays, for there has been quite enough time to straighten out the last possible cause for a hitch of any sort.

How the Rules Will Work Out. In this country, discussion as to the outcome of the bout hinges chiefly on the proposition of whether the rules in England, which call for clean breaks and no hitting in the clinches, will be of any decided advantage to Welsh.

Indeed, if the match were slated for San Francisco the chances are that Ritchie would be an overwhelming favorite. On the other hand, with new rules to govern, there is room for debate. Welsh is deemed the cleverer boxer of the job and set away type, rather than the out and out fighter of the aggressive school. He is certainly more experienced as a boxer than Ritchie, and on the surface it might easily appear that the rules would be a distinct advantage to him.

FIRST INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCH WAS PLAYED SOME TIME AGO--600 B. C.

1-ENGLISH POLO TEAM. 2- PRACTICE GAME BEFORE BIG MATCH.

INTERNATIONAL polo was a recognized sporting feature some 2500 years ago, and that being the case (national) titles have changed hands so often that America needn't cry very long over her vanished glory. It isn't the first time that one country has been licked by another on the polo field, not by a long shot.

Delving into the history of the game, The Nation prints the following interesting sketch:

Chugan (mallet), as the Persians called polo, flourished under their Sassanid kings, under the Byzantine emperors at Constantinople, and under the invading dynasties that ruled India and introduced the game. At the court of Akbar it helped in the training of cavalry officers. From India it has spread throughout the world; in ancient times through Tibet into China and Japan; in modern times, adopted by the English, through the western world. In Tibet polo lingered in a somewhat primitive form, and it was from the adjacent region, Manipur and Gilgit, that English tea and indigo planters first had knowledge of the game. The Tibetan pulu (ball) was the derivative Anglo-Indians used for the modern name. Since then Australia, South America, Egypt, South Africa, and the Philippines are among the countries familiar with what, in the twelfth century, the Greek emperor Manuel Comnenus, and his Byzantine princes played at Tmfwyvbykuj which retains the original Persian name, suggesting definite rules and a regular field for play.

But it is to the Persian Homer, Ferdusi (940-1020), and his immortal epic, the "Shahnama" ("Book of Kings") that we turn for glowing description, as well as for the first record of an international match. In 600 B. C. the exiled Prince Seavish, with seven Iranians, amazed Afrasiab King of Turan, with whom he took refuge by the ease with which he defeated his Turkish team.

The "shahnama" also states that Gushtasp (Hydaspes) was expert at polo; his clouts caused the ball "to vanish among the clouds." Besides these references, the "Shahnama" contains a delightful episode of recognition. Shapur was born during his mother's term of disfavor, and hearing that he has an heir, King Ardashir (226-241) commands a polo match, and from a number of well-favored youths recognizes his son by the daring and brilliancy of his play. Ouseley thinks he saw this incident of Shapur's recognition in a ruined sculpture near Persepolis. Nizami, another Persian poet, records a game played by the Amazons of his time. The beautiful Shirin, dear to Persian romance, played with her handmaidens against a team composed of the king and his courtiers.

The picture above does not show Prince Seavish's crack team, which defeated King Afrasiab's team, for the "Turkish Trophy." It shows the four stalwart Britishers who lifted the present international trophy from the American four at Meadowbrook, ten days ago.

What with boosting Hawaii, attending banquets, seeing the educational sights of the country, and incidentally playing about a game a day, the traveling Chinese ball players are certainly leading the life strenuous. They are getting their bumps, from all accounts, but considering the long jumps and constant traveling, the showing of the team taken as a whole, is highly creditable.

A good idea of what the Honolulu boys' daily program consists of, is obtained from a letter dated Bellefonte, Pa., June 10, just received by Pung En Pee from his brother En Sue. In part it is as follows:

"It is three months since we left home, and we have been in New York, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, and other small eastern cities. We played two games in New York city, winning one and losing one. We beat Columbia University on Decoration Day, 4 to 2 and then lost to the Cypress Hill team, 8 to 2. This team we defeated three times last year, but this year we found that they had hired four extra players to strengthen their team, and they proved too much for us.

"From New York we beat back to Pittsburgh on the eve of May 31, a ride of 500 miles, arriving at 9 a. m. June 1. We played that afternoon and lost to Duquesne university, 3 to 1. From here we went to Indiana, Pa., and beat the Penn. State Normal school, 11 to 2. Apau pitched. From Indiana we went to Breckenridge, Pa., and played a twilight game, which started at 6 o'clock. Kekoa pitched and we lost, 7 to 4. From there we went to Vandergrift, Pa., playing the Vandergrift team, which also beat us, 2 to 1. The game was called on account of rain, so we still had a chance to win.

"In this town we visited the largest tin sheet and plate mill in the world. The manager of the ball team showed us through the plant, which employs 10,000 men.

"Saturday, June 6, we played at Camden, N. J., where we beat the Camden Athletic club 9 to 1, with Foster in the box. Sunday afternoon we played just across the river at Elizabethtown and lost a 10 inning game, 7 to 0, Apau pitching. On Monday, June 8, we played Lehigh university, at South Bethlehem, and won, 5 to 3. Foster pitched.

"Yesterday we played and defeated Penn State college, 8 to 6, before the largest crowd to see any of our college games this season, about 5000 people. It was commencement day, and many old grads who attended the reunion saw the game. Governor Tener of Pennsylvania, president of the National League, pitched the first ball of the game.

"From State college we came this morning to Bellefonte, about 20 miles, by rail, and here we are when this letter closes.

"The team has played to date 75 games, winning 50, losing 25, and tying 2."

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] 4th Cavalry 5, 2nd Infantry 4. SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, June 23.—The Cavalry won a nip and tuck game from the doughboys from Fort Shafter yesterday afternoon, a game that was thrilling because it was close, and a game that was mighty well played by both teams after the fourth inning. The less said about the early part of the game the better, for it was not the brand of baseball that brings big crowds to the Athletic Park.

The Cavalry were the first to score when Duncan made an easy trip around the bases in the first inning. First he was hit by the pitcher, went to second on an error, stole third and came home on Lerwitz' wild throw.

The 2nd Infantry tied the score in the second frame, Burton bringing in the run, as the result of a series of errors contributed by the local team. Both teams scored two runs in the fourth inning and the score was again tied.

From the fifth inning on it was a pitcher's battle between Button for the Cavalry and Sloan for the Infantry, with glib-edged support by both teams. Button was working hard for every man that came to the bat and with very good success. Sloan seemed to be taking things easy, and delivering a slow ball that was always hit, but either in the air or slowly along the ground. He struck out no one after the second inning. He delivered but three balls in the fifth inning, all three of which were hit to Sterquel on second base for easy outs. In the seventh he repeated this performance, two going to Sterquel for assists and one a fly to center field.

The two second basemen, Sterquel and Bachus, were the shining lights of their teams and played their position to perfection until the ninth, when Bachus fell down on his ninth chance and allowed the 2d Infantry to score a run which would have won the game had not Sterquel, in the last half of the same inning failed on his 12th chance and allowed the cavalry to score the two runs that did win the game.

The most sensational play of the game was Burton's one-basis drive in the eighth after Fitzpatrick's hot grounder, and perfect throw to first before recovering his balance, retiring the runner by a small fraction of a second.

The work of the umpires in this game was exceptionally good. Collins had an excellent eye for balls and strikes, and Hill was always close to the plays on the bases and in positions where he could make no mistake.

TIN AND BRASS STRONGER THAN SILK AND SATIN

Last Saturday the boys of the hardware department of T. H. Davies & Co. lured the team from the dry goods into Mollhill ball park and there did dire things to them, with baseball bats. Score 8 to 0.

Twice the dry goods team got a man as far as third, but whenever this occurred Willie Hollinger and his agate ware infield would tighten up. Next Saturday the cloth boys expect to turn the tables.

The line-up was as follows:
Hardware—Hicks 2b, Hollinger p, Joseph c, Nett lb, Boyd ss, Morton rf, Marquis 3b, Gouveia cf, Turner lf, Dry Goods—Kajavaona p, Clark lf, Holokai 2b-ss, Horn c, Gunn rf, Gomes 3b, Koko 2b-ss, Rawlins lb, Oplio cf.

PROTEST OF COAST DEFENSE OVERRULED

Following the Army league game at Schofield yesterday there was a meeting of the representatives on the Army league committee from the 1st Infantry, 2d Infantry, 4th Cavalry and 1st Field Artillery, to decide whether or not the game between the Coast Artillery and the 25th Infantry played June 13 and won by the latter team,

SOLDIER SECOND TEAM TRIMS THE REGIMENTAL NINE

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, June 25.—The second team of the 25th Infantry trimmed the first team to the tune of 9 to 8 Monday afternoon. The game was played as a result of a challenge by a team composed of aspirants for positions on the regimental team, and as a result of their defeat the latter team are required by agreement to give a party to their victors.

Though the second team made more errors and fewer hits by one than the first team, they tightened up at critical moments and were able to connect with the ball at times when a hit would count.

The regimental team was ahead until the 8th inning, making 6 runs in the first three innings off of Scott, but were unable to do much with Dunlap's offerings during the last six frames. Dunlap pitched star ball for the second team.

When the 8th inning opened the score was 8 to 6 in favor of the first team. McDonald who was in the box allowed a number of hits and with ragged support behind him for the fraction of a minute, the second team chased across the three needed runs to win the game.

Second Team—Cross, c; Scott, p-cf; Amos, lb; Smith, 2b; Johnson, 2b; Ramsay, ss; Rhodes, 3b; Dandridge, lf; Dunlap, cf-p; Palmer, rf.
First Team—Swinton, c; McDonald, p; C. Smith, 1b; Cullens, 2b; Williamson, ss; Collins, 3b; Woods, lf; Washington, cf; Phillips, rf.
A large crowd attended the game and the cheering could be heard all over the post.
7 to 3, should be thrown out and played over again, on account of a protest by the Coast Artillery. After a careful examination of all the evidence submitted by both sides, the committee decided that the game should stand as a game of the series. According to the rules of the league this decision is final.
Indications point toward an excuse of satin for fall dresses, to succeed in a measure the now favored taffetas. Among the novelties promised are woolback satins suitable for suitings.

OFFICERS WILL PLAY CLUBMEN AT SHAFTER

Next Saturday following the Army league game between the 1st and 2d Infantry regiments at Fort Shafter, the officers' all-army team that was defeated by the University club at Schofield Barracks nearly three weeks ago, will play a return game with the ex-college players.

The team to represent the University club will be selected by Mr. A. L. Castle, while the army team will be selected by Lieuts. Saunders, O'Hara and Lyman from the officers at Schofield Barracks, Coast Artillery posts and Fort Shafter respectively. Both teams are expected to be composed of practically the same players as upon the occasion of the first game.

CURED.

Tibbits MacGee awoke that morning with such a pain in the chest that he had to use both arms to dress himself.
By breakfast time it was no better. "I've heard a Turkish bath is good for a thing like this," said MacGee. "I think I'll take one."
At McPlumpey & Cohen's Turkish baths he was first laid on an ice cold tombstone and slapped by an ex-patriated Turk until he promised himself never to spank his little son again.

Then he was pushed forcibly into a small room without doors or windows to escape by a and a 13 horse-power fire hose turned on him until the water gave out.
After that he was strung up by the heels and paddled with a carpet beater to induce circulation.
When circulation had been induced to the rate of a mile a minute, the entire working force of seven Turks seized him and played medicine ball with him for 25 minutes.
The pain in his chest was gone forever.

Many beautiful floral offerings distinguished the funeral.—New York Sun.
Stude—Don't you ever sweep under the carpets? Janitor—Yes; I always sweep everything under the carpet.—Yale Record.

PACIFIC CALLED MEETING PLACE OF CONTINENTS

General Sir Ian Hamilton has been inspecting the military forces of the Australian Commonwealth. He is now performing a similar duty in New Zealand. On Tuesday he made a speech at Auckland in which he explored the reasons for the anxiety of Australia and New Zealand to equip themselves for defense by land and sea. "The meeting-place, not of nations, but of continents," "Here," he says, "it may be decided whether Europeans or Asiatics are going to guide the destinies of the world." He glanced at China and sees a vast and mysterious upheaval of new forces which threaten to break the immemorial indifference of its millions. No longer is the East prepared. In Matthew Arnold's phrase, "Let the legions thunder past" and "blaze in thickest array" in the United States, in Canada, in South Africa, the problem of the Asiatic invader is acute. He lives, as Sir Ian Hamilton rather brutally puts it, on rice and monopolies business. The white trader can not exist in competition with him. He makes "corners" in all the merchandise of petty trafficking. He can live where the white man would starve. He knows no need of recreation. His hours of work are limited only by legal compulsion. His whole being is one struggle to hoard infinitesimal profits against his return to his own country, free because he is rich. This is the immediate problem as it faces the people of Canada, South Africa, the United States, and to a less degree, Australia. But it is only the advance guard, so to speak, of a far more immense and difficult problem—the conflict of East and West for survival in a world whose empty places are getting filled up all too rapidly. To the home-keeping Englishman this conflict seems no doubt, a remote and impracticable thing. He is apt to refuse it even a thought. To the Australian or the New Zealander—living under the shadow of Japan and the East, one of a minute outpost planted by Europe in the midst of an ocean fringed by Asiatic countries—it is a very different thing. Sir Ian Hamilton's speech provides an admirable illustration of the effect which Australia and New Zealand have upon the Englishman who visits them. He has borne expert testimony to the excellence of the system of land defense created in these two dominions during the last two or three years. Both systems exact registration for military service from those who are approaching manhood, and Sir Ian Hamilton—whose pen was lately employed in countering this patriotic movement here—has not hesitated to confess that his opinions have been considerably modified by what he has seen there. But, better still he has been taught to understand the instinct which is the motive power of these preparations for defense. Australia and New Zealand are, he says, "Close to the danger zone." The zeal with which they have

MEXICAN CRISIS ALREADY HAS COST $4,573,136

WASHINGTON, D. C.—When the "further urgent deficiency bill" making provision for more than $6,000,000 for the present fiscal year largely on account of the Mexican crisis, was before the house an interesting statement had been prepared by the war department to show exactly the approximate amount of deficiencies in appropriations of the quartermaster's department of the army, due to the Mexican situation to June 30 last. This made a total of $4,573,136. It includes $1,100,149 for subsistence, $2,429,970 for transportation of the army, both along the border and to Mexico, and numerous other items relating to pay on account of increased strength of the army by reason of the Mexican trouble. Of the total amount in the deficiency estimates on account of Mexico covered in the bill the government already is obligated for $1,624,852. The figures presented show that fitting up chartered ships for troops and animals cost $110,000. For horse-shoes and nails alone the bill carries $25,000. "So," said the visitor, "you intend to become a physician when you grow up." "Yes, sir," said the youth. "And why have you decided upon the medical profession?" "Well, a doctor seems to be the only man that keeps on getting paid whether his work is satisfactory or not."—Ladies Home Journal.

MANY FOREIGN STUDENTS ATTEND COLLEGE IN U. S.

(By Latest Mail) WASHINGTON.—There were 4222 foreign students in attendance at colleges and universities in the United States in the year 1913, according to figures just compiled at the United States Bureau of Education. This is an increase of 57 in two years. These students are not concentrated at the larger and better-known institutions, as might be expected, but are distributed among 275 different colleges, universities and schools of technology. The number given includes only regular students of colleges or graduate grade; if students enrolled in preparatory departments, short-term courses, summer schools and independent professional schools were included, the total would be very much larger. Canada has the largest representation—653 students are from the Dominion. China and Japan are not far behind—there are 594 Chinese students and 336 from Japan. Of the other Oriental or Asiatic peoples, India is represented by 162 students; Turkey by 143; Korea by 13; Persia by 21, and Siam by 13. Latin-America is strongly represented. Cuba sends 209; Costa Rica, 29; Guatemala, 15; Honduras, 12; Nicaragua, 18; Panama, 28; and Salvador, 19. Mexico heads the list with 223 students. From South America, Argentina sends 43 students to our colleges; Brazil, 113; Bolivia, 3; Chile, 12; Colombia, 37; Ecuador, 16; Paraguay, 2; Peru, 25; Uruguay, 2, and Venezuela, 7. Abundance of higher education opportunities in the British Isles and on the Continent of Europe has not prevented nearly 800 European students from coming to America to go to college. Great Britain and Ireland are represented by 212 students, and Germany sends 122. The others, in order of numbers, are: Russia, 14; France, 45; Sweden, 41; Italy, 38; Austria-Hungary, 34; Switzerland, 29; Norway, 26; Greece, 22; Spain, 20; Netherlands, 19; Bulgaria, 15; Roumania, 6; Belgium, 4; Portugal, 3; Montenegro, 1. Even Australia and Africa have students at colleges in the United States. There are 56 students from New Zealand.

TEDDY DEFENDS PERKINS; MAKES THREAT TO QUIT

Scrap Now on in Bull Moose Ranks May Split Up Party

NEW YORK, June 25.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—One of the first acts of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt upon his arrival here yesterday was to vigorously defend George W. Perkins, whose resignation as chairman of the national executive committee of the Progressive party was brought about recently as a result of an attack made upon him as a leader by Amos R. Pinchot, brother of Gifford Pinchot who is seeking election to the United States senate on the Progressive ticket in Pennsylvania.

Stands by Perkins.

"When they read Perkins out," declared Roosevelt, "they also read me out, too. I am not a candidate for the governorship of New York. I am enjoying good health and expect to deliver a few speeches in the campaign now opening."

In a statement yesterday, Roosevelt further declared that the payment of twenty-five million dollars by the United States to Colombia for having secured the right to build the Panama canal, as provided for in the pending treaty with that country, was merely the payment by this country of belated blackmail.

If the proposed treaty is right, said Colonel Roosevelt, then the presence of the United States in Panama is wrong. Panama, he said, should therefore be restored to Colombia, and the United States should abandon the Canal Zone.

The Machine Age

If we science teachers wish to avert a humiliating catastrophe, there is but one thing to do; go to work and develop an efficient industrial science in the schools. This is the only thing that will satisfy the present demand of the public and convert the schools of a machineless age into educational institutions that will turn out pupils competent to understand and to cope with this age of machines. For machines are one of the products of science; and if they have caused misery and slavery among workmen and have reduced human beings to machines, it is because they have been owned and manipulated by men who did not possess the scientific spirit. Machines are bound to master and to control men who try to manage them with words or with the ideals of the past machineless age. Only men with the true scientific spirit are able to understand the real meaning of machines and to use their power for the uplift of humanity. Only men with the sacred faith can ever hope to master and to control them permanently.—Professor C. R. Mann in Science.

'FISH MARKET' SALOONS MUST GO, IS DECISION OF LICENSE BOARD

Will Be Given Until January 1 to Find Location Outside of Tabu "Zone"

MANY PROMINENT PERSONS PRESENT AT GATHERING

Leilehua Beer Garden and Waikiki Licenses Held Up Following Charges and Protests

Acting on the recommendations of several representative citizens who appeared before it yesterday afternoon and made short addresses, the board of liquor license commissioners decided to "fishmarket" the saloons out of the so-called "fishmarket zone." In order that no unnecessary hardship may follow on this decision, the commissioners decided to give the saloons until the first of the year to find new locations outside of the zone.

The liquor license board met in the senate chamber yesterday afternoon to consider the 19 applications before it. These had been held over from the previous session for one reason or another, the ones for the fishmarket saloons because of their location, the Waikiki Inn because License Inspector Fennell had charged that liquor was sold there to minors, the Leilehua Beer Garden on the request of the Anti-Saloon League.

Several prominent citizens were present when these applications came before the board yesterday to fight against the saloons in the fishmarket zone, on the ground that their presence was a menace to the best interests of many persons, particularly the Hawaiians who visit the markets to purchase food and end by purchasing an overabundance of booze. For the protection of these persons who have to fight the temptation of these saloons—must go it was asserted in several different ways by the speakers at the meeting.

Some of the speakers on this subject were Judge S. B. Dole, Rev. J. W. Wadman, L. Andrews, Mrs. J. M. Whitney, Frank C. Atherton, Mrs. Emma Nakulua, Mrs. May T. Wilcox, George P. Castle, W. A. Bowen and George W. Paty. Attorneys E. C. Peters and M. F. Prosser were present, representing a few of the saloons under attack.

Shortly after 5 o'clock the board went into executive session, and after deliberations reported out that it would pass 14 of the licenses applied for, would deny two, and leave three for final determination later. It also reported that all the fishmarket zone licenses would have to get new locations by the first of the year or lose their licenses.

The three licenses held up are the Waikiki Inn, the Leilehua Beer Garden, and the Kakaolu saloon. Inspector Fennell was not prepared yesterday to prove his charge that the Waikiki Inn sells or has sold liquor to minors, which was the reason the application in this case was postponed; the military officers had recommended several changes in things as conditions for the renewal of the Leilehua Beer Garden, and its proprietor, Clifford Kimball, asked time to make a compromise with the authorities. One recommendation was that no bottled beer be sold; he wished the right to sell bottled beer, conditional upon its being opened before sold.

The applications denied were those made by William Larsen and Choy On. Larsen wished to open a saloon at Watertown, against the wishes of the military authorities; Choy On wished to open one in the crowded district of the city.

The following were the licenses granted:

The Fashion, the Encore, the Kentucky, the Pacific, Royal Annex, Rosa & Company, the Anchor, Wing Chung Lung, S. Ozaki, Prost Saloon, Banzai saloon, the Kilohana, the Progress and Diaz & Moniz.

Mrs. Wilcox, who said she wished to speak for the children, summarized the booze evil at the markets with these words:

"The saloons near the fishmarkets are the nets that catch the most. The drinking of husbands and fathers is responsible for the poor condition of the children. These men come to the markets, particularly on Saturday afternoons, to buy food for their families, but they are caught in the saloon nets, spend all their money for drink, and go home penniless to a hungry family."

Mr. Bowen expressed the situation in this way:

"The great fact here is that these saloons touch the pockets of the provider. By having them near the fishmarkets, he runs the risk of not being able to provide for his family. There is a growing sentiment here against anything that is a menace to a workingman's family."

Judge Dole pointed out the right of the commission to drive the saloons out of the district, saying that the law vested them with that power, and that the commission had every right to use it.

HONOLULU DRUGGIST HAS VALUABLE AGENCY

The Hollister Drug Company has the Honolulu agency for the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-ika, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple remedy has powerful action and drains such surprising amounts of old matter from the body that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. BASIS OF PEACE PLAN REACHED BY CONFERENCE

U. S. Will Recognize Provisional Government; No Indemnity Will Be Asked

NIAGARA FALLS, Ontario, June 25.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Terms composing satisfactorily all the differences existing between the United States and Mexico were concluded by the mediators here yesterday. The protocol has been signed.

Under the terms of the agreement the mediating countries shall recognize the new provisional government yet to be selected and from henceforth the diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico shall be resumed.

The United States demands no indemnity. A commission will be appointed to adjust the private claims against Mexico.

"Did he decide to marry her?" "Yes; but she reversed his decision."—Smart Set.

"Girls are not what they used to be." "No?" "The old-fashioned girl who used to blush every time she saw the family wash hanging on a line has a daughter now who is competent to discuss eugenics."—Baltimore.

ZACATECAS NOW IN HANDS OF REBEL FORCES

EL PASO, Texas, June 25.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—The stubborn attack of the Constitutionalists, under General Villa, waged against Zacatecas during the past several days, resulted in a victory for the rebels at sundown yesterday. General Villa led his victorious troops into the strongly fortified Mexican city.

MANY DEAD FROM ELECTRIC STORM IN MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO, June 25.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Seven persons are known to have been killed and many injured, and crops have been extensively damaged, the result of an electrical windstorm which has been sweeping over Minnesota and Wisconsin. The crop damage will amount to thousands of dollars.

Germany's Iron Production

The figures dealing with Germany's raw iron production published by the Association of German Iron and Steel Workers, record a total output of 4,614,730 tons for the first three months of this year. Here we have 120,000 tons more, or 12 per cent less than for the same period last year. But in the present state of the market this output is a heavy one. If we compare it with the figures of five years ago for the same months, that is to say for the first quarter of 1909, we see that the total output has risen to the enormous amount of 50 per cent. Since July, 1912, the daily production has never fallen short of 50,000 tons, and, consequently, if we except the month of February, the monthly output has always exceeded 1,500,000 tons. Such figures were unknown in the past and they mirror exactly Germany's industrial development. At the same time we recognize, if we come to compare the figures for the different kinds of iron

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Beautify your Hair! Make it soft, fluffy and luxuriant—Try the moist cloth.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—advertisement.

Life Insurance organizations in the United States and Canada distributed last year $418,300,000 in claims paid and $225,250,000 in payments for premium savings and surrender values to annuities, and in foreign countries, a grand total of $646,550,000. The aggregate of insurance written in the United States in 1913 by the regular companies was almost $3,360,000,000, an increase of $152,000,000 over 1912. Fire losses throughout Illinois during May totaled $1,216,590, according to the state fire marshal.
