U. S. TERRITORY AND CITY HUNT OPIUM GANGSTERS

Federal Probe of Illicit Operations Likely to be Launched By Grand Jurors

EVIDENCE PILING UP, SAY THE AUTHORITIES

Other Hauls Made by Swindling, Robbery and "Badger Game" are Charged

Federal, territorial and municipal officials are now engaged in pursuit and prosecution of what is expected to be the largest gang of opium smugglers uncovered in Hawaii since annexation. It is learned that the arrest of John T. Scully, Jack McGrath and H. B. Lewis by the police within the last 48 hours is closely connected with a sweeping federal investigation of opium smuggling. Though the charge lodged by the police against the men is that of robbery, they are alleged to have been involved in a far larger field of operations—that of smuggling into Hawaii and selling the poppy drug for which an illicit market always exists. It is learned also that the queer chain of circumstances that led to the police arrests had already been in part brought to the attention of the federal authorities, who were at work on a series of allied cases when Inspector Carter of the customs force notified the police that three Chinese men were waiting at the customs house believing themselves under arrest. The "Badger Game" Learned. Police investigation of the Chinese trio resulted in the discovery that they had been tricked by men who represented themselves as customs inspectors and pretended to catch the Chinamen purveying for the contraband drug, as told in the Star-Bulletin yesterday. They were taken, it is alleged, to the home of McGrath and when they refused to buy opium on finding it suspended, they were robbed of $100 at the point of a gun. It is asserted. They were told that they were under arrest by customs men for trafficking in opium and sent into the customs house, where, after they had waited for some time, the situation of Inspector Carter was attended and the four came out. From what could be learned today at least two other similar variations of the "badger game"—where the victim is trapped and robbed by men impersonating the police or other officials—have been worked on Chinamen here within a comparatively short time. The identity of the operators in these two cases has not been disclosed.

WIRELESS: EVERYBODY O. K. BUT THE GOAT, AND HE DIED ON THE VOYAGE

The Knights of Pythias excursion to Maui is turning out a huge success. Foster Davis, one of the well-known local Knights, says so and as he is along he ought to know. The Star-Bulletin received the following wireless from Mr. Davis today: "We arrived at Kahului O. K. at 6:45 this morning. We had a rather rough trip but everybody is well and happy but the goat. He died en route."

MRS. DANIELS TO COME TO HAWAII WITH OFFICIALS

Extra Session of Congress Would Keep Away Some of Leaders

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Secretary Daniels has not completed the personnel of the party that will accompany him on his visit to Honolulu. Many of those invited are waiting to ascertain whether or not there will be an extra session of Congress, and on how early a date after March 4 it will be convened. A speedy resumption of congressional duties would prevent Representative Mann and many others who would like to make the trip from participating. It has been definitely announced that the wife of Secretary Daniels will be a member of the party.

GAS CO. VOTES STOCK ISSUE FOR NEW GENERATOR

A new stock issue of $50,000 was voted at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Honolulu Gas Co., Ltd., today. The purpose of the issue is to increase the capacity of the plant by the installation of a new generator. The new generator will have a capacity of 1,500,000 cubic feet, which will make the total capacity of the plant more than 2,000,000 cubic feet. This will assure a steady supply for consumers in the event of any accident. The new stock will be offered to shareholders at par and to others at market value.

A. & B. DIRECTORS IN INSPECTION OF MAUI HOLDINGS

John Waterhouse of Alexander & Baldwin, returned this morning from Maui, where the Alexander & Baldwin directors spent three days in their annual inspection of the company's holdings. The Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co. and Maui Agricultural Co. plantations and the Kahului railway were gone over. The plantations were found to be in good shape, with a large crop favored by warm weather. If the warm weather continues the output of Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar should be $5,000,000 and that of the Maui Agricultural Co. $7,500,000. If these yields are obtained they will be larger than the first estimates made.

Governor Outlines Plan That Meets Approval of Lihue Plantation

RAILROAD AND CANNERY PROJECTS MADE CERTAIN

Territorial Officials Work Out Agreement Which Promotes Open Competition

After many weeks of careful deliberation Governor Pinkham has fixed upon the terms of an agreement satisfactory to the Lihue Plantation company which will result in the early construction of a railway line on Kauai by that concern, the Kapaia homesteaders thus to be afforded transportation facilities to the Lihue mill and thence to the port of Ahukini. The terms of the agreement were made public today. The territorial executive, discussing the subject, places stress on the fact that he is establishing a foundation for competition in the matter of transportation, which of course eventually should redound to the benefit of the homesteaders.

WARRENITE FOR MANOA PAVING IS NOW FAVORED

City Officials Practically Decided on Material For Hill District

Warrenite, a bituminous asphalt pavement mixture, the patent of the Warren Brothers Construction Company of Boston, will be laid in Manoa valley, according to statements at the city hall today. This pavement is similar to bituthic, which is manufactured by the same concern. The decision to use warrenite has been arrived at by City Engineer Whitehouse, Mayor Lane and members of the board of supervisors, after much discussion. It is cheaper to lay and it is said that it is a more satisfactory type on hilly roads or streets than bituthic. The use of this patent paving will reduce the cost to $1.93 per square foot in the Manoa valley as against $2.15 for bituthic.

Norway and Italy Stirred Over Order of Germany Endangering Neutral Ships

Newspapers Say Proclamation Violates Established Usage of War

[A. P. by Fed. Wireless] COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Feb. 6.—Norway is indignant at the German proclamation declaring a war zone around the British isles and warning neutrals that the Germans in attacking the enemy may not be able to safeguard neutrals in the zone. The newspapers of Christiania as well as those of Rome express resentment at the proclamation. They say it violates well-established international usage and respects neither the rights nor the dignity of neutrals.

JAPAN INFORMED CRUISER ASAMA MAY BE SAVED

[Special Cable to the Hawaii Shipto.] TOKIO, Japan, Feb. 5.—Captain Yoshioka of the battle cruiser Asama, calling to the naval department here from the west coast of Mexico, reports that his ship is aground off Port San Bartolome, 40 miles south of Cedros island. Every effort is being made to clear the vessel, he says, and the Asama is not yet in danger of breaking up. No lives have been lost.

DREAD CATTLE DISEASE CLOSES STOCKYARD

[A. P. by Fed. Wireless] WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 6.—On account of new outbreaks of the dread foot-and-mouth disease, the interstate commerce commission has ordered the stockyards at Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Jersey City, Pittsburgh and Columbus, O., closed until further notice.

ROCKEFELLER GETS $5 AS FEES FOR HIS TESTIMONY

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 6.—John D. Rockefeller, whose fortune runs up into several hundreds of millions, received a $25 witness fee today for testifying before the commission on industrial relations. He also got $3 for mileage. He signed the receipt in a sprawling, shaky hand.

CUSTODIANSHIP CAUSE OF HITCH

Negotiations for the amicable settlement of the Smart will case are "in statu quo," as the lawyers say, with every indication that relations between the counsel of the opposing sides are very much strained. As told in the Star-Bulletin yesterday a hitch has developed in the conferences over the custodianship of the minor child, Richard Smart, and for the present, at least, the conferences are ended. Overtures on one side or the other for the renewal of these may be made at any time. Unless they are renewed a question on which the attorneys appear extremely doubtful today, the big fight will be resumed in court shortly with all its original vigor. An explanation of the present situation that is going around today is that the lawyers, after a recent session at which temperatures arose to a high heat, are now undergoing the "cooling off" process.

"WAR ZONE" ORDER IS HELD NOT TO INJURE U. S. TRADE; AIMS TO HIT BRITISH ISLES

NEUTRAL COUNTRIES NEVERTHELESS RESENT PROCLAMATION—CAMPAIGN IN POLAND AND EAST PRUSSIA ASSUMES CRITICAL ASPECT FOR GERMANY—BERLIN SAYS ENEMY REPULSED—WESTERN FRONT COMPARATIVELY QUIET

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 6.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, declared today that Germany does not intend to molest American vessels laden with foodstuffs for the enemy's countries. He says he hopes that England will not make a reconsideration of this attitude necessary by seizing ships like the Wilhelmina, which are on the way with food for Germany.

Washington Learns Routes to Europe Open Outside of German "War-zone"

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 6.—The official text of the German proclamation placing the British Isles in a "war zone" shows that the navigation routes north of the Shetland Islands and the eastern portion of the North Sea, also a strip of thirty nautical miles wide along the Dutch coast, are out of the danger zone. The waters immediately surrounding the British isles comprise the zone.

Gen. von Hindenberg Lunges at Warsaw While Russians Are Flanking

LONDON, England, Feb. 6.—Gen. von Hindenberg is continuing his costly lunges at Warsaw with German troops, while farther north the Russians, after crossing the Bzura river, seriously threaten to outflank him. The issue is still undecided, but the Russians maintain that the initiative is now theirs, although new attacks are expected. The more complex and strategically important struggle in the Carpathians is dragging along indecisively.

Artillery Duel on West Front Goes On

PARIS, France, Feb. 6.—Official.—There are only artillery engagements in progress today along the entire western front. Our guns have brought down a German captive observation balloon and exploded an ammunition depot.

Berlin Says Russians Are Repulsed

BERLIN, Germany, Feb. 6.—All the Russian attacks on the East Prussian frontier and in Poland have been repulsed. The Germans have taken 1000 prisoners and six machine guns.

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

The following cablegram was received last night from official German sources: "WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—The chief of the admiralty staff of the German navy issues the following official communication: "England is on the eve of shipping numerous troops and large quantities of war material to France. Against these transports will proceed with all means of warfare at our disposal. Peaceful shipping is earnestly cautioned against approaching the northern or the western shores of France, as it is threatened with serious danger by confounding it with ships for warlike purposes, and around Scotland is recommended as the best track for the North Sea." The following cablegram was received yesterday afternoon from German official sources: "WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5.—Headquarters report, February 5: "On the whole western front there are only artillery duels. An isolated French attack against the German positions northward of Perthes was without success. "On the East Prussian frontier renewed Russian attacks south of the Memel River were repulsed. Strong Russian attacks against the positions recently taken by the German east of Bolimow were equally unsuccessful. The number of prisoners taken there since February 1 is about 25 officers and 6000 soldiers."

KONA TOBACCO CO. DECIDES TO GET FOREIGN EXPERT

A specialist will be engaged in Germany to solve problem of proper fermenting. An expert in fermenting will be brought from Europe by the Kona Tobacco Co., Ltd., to improve the Kona tobacco crop so that it will be able to compete with tobacco raised in any part of the world. This was decided on today at the annual stockholders meeting of the company. J. F. Hackfeld will be asked by letter to select an expert in Germany and engage him for local work. "We are told that our tobacco is perfectly good and that it makes good cigars," said W. R. Castle, who was re-elected president today, "but our trouble has been in fermenting. As soon as we have solved the problem of proper fermenting we can raise tobacco profitably. The financial report for the year showed that the losses were less than last year. A director's meeting will be held some time in the next month to map out financial operations for the year, and it is understood, to raise more capital. J. P. Curtis was elected general manager, officially, taking over the duties he has exercised since the withdrawal of Supt. Böttelsson. The officers, all of whom were re-elected, are W. R. Castle, president; C. G. Owen, vice-president; J. F. C. Hagena, secretary; Georg Rodiek, treasurer; J. P. Curtis, general manager; A. Hanelberg, auditor.

The Church and Industrial Welfare

A Report on the Labor Troubles in Colorado and Michigan

(Following is the fifth instalment of a report entitled "The Church and Industrial Welfare," dealing with the recent labor troubles in Colorado and Michigan and written by Rev. Henry A. Atkinson, secretary of the Social Service Commission of the Congregational churches and associate secretary of the commission on the church and social service of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ of America.)

might have been avoided had the operators been willing to meet representatives of the miners and discuss the issues with them.

Concerning Use of Private Detectives. We strongly deprecate the practice of allowing private companies to bring hired men into the community at the time when passions run high and still more their being given authority as special officers of the government by state and local officials.

Concerning Importing of Strike Breakers. The mining companies imported as strike breakers men of many nationalities, unable to speak English, or to understand the situation into which they entered.

Concerning Freedom of Speech, Intimidation, and Deportation. It has become too common a practice in industrial wars for the management of the industries by means of intimidation and other force, or through the services of citizens committees and alliances—purporting to represent the vested interests—to take away all rights of free speech on the part of the strikers.

Concerning Arbitration. It is generally conceded that the mining companies deny their difficulties in Michigan and Colorado

CADILLAC REPORTS BIG BUSINESS DONE AT 1915 SHOW IN NEW YORK

Previous retail sales records were shattered at the 1915 New York automobile show, so far as the Cadillac Motor Car company is concerned.

"Cadillac dealers have always done a big business at the shows," remarked Sales Manager Howard, "but this one has been the most successful of all. This is especially true of the closed car types, limousines, sedans and coupes."

"Of course, the factory has not pretended to do any business, as our entire product of the new eight-cylinder cars for the coming year was covered by contracts from dealers some months ago."

All through the week numerous expressions of disappointment were heard from persons unable to get within seeing or hearing distance of the Cadillac cut-open chassis, with its eight-cylinder, V-type engine.

The Cadillac exhibit displayed four styles of the new eight-cylinder as follows: Seven-passenger touring car, five-passenger sedan, five-passenger sedan and seven-passenger limousine.

"We could have used twice the amount of space available," said Sales Manager Howard. "The cut-open chassis, with its eight-cylinder engine, attracted such crowds that many were unable to get close enough to see it. I believe if we had the space to show a half dozen of them they all would have been surrounded, most of the time."

WOMAN IS FREED AFTER ENTERING PLEA OF GUILTY

After having pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor without a license and having had the date for sentence fixed, Louisa Kalalahu, a Hawaiian, was allowed to withdraw this plea and enter one of not guilty in federal court today.

According to counsel, Mrs. Kalalahu probably pleaded guilty through a misunderstanding. She and her husband, Sam Kalalahu, now in Oahu prison, were jointly indicted on the same charge. It developed today that prior to Mrs. Kalalahu's case being taken up in court, she was told by Mr. A. Thomas, then special assistant to the attorney-general, that if she would pay the special tax and penalty to the collector of internal revenue nothing further would be done with the case.

Mrs. Kalalahu paid the money, which amounted to $18.75. When the case was brought into court she pleaded guilty. The date was fixed for her sentence and in the interim an investigation of the circumstances was begun by her attorney who had been appointed by the court.

A Feminine Characteristic:

It is perfectly natural for a woman to go among her woman friends, telling them of "the bargain sale where I bought this $25.00 dress for $18.50," or even, at times, to be a bit hyperbolic, in quoting the amount of the reduction. She considers it no disgrace to acknowledge the price paid for an article. Why should she? It's good business to take advantage of opportunities which save you money.

A Masculine Characteristic:

Quite to the contrary of the above cited feminine characteristic, it is very seldom that a man speaks of a purchase after the manner explained above. In fact, regrettable as it may be, it might be said that more often a man would be more likely to quote the original value, or even a trifle above—than the price at which he really bought the article. (You men understand this.)

The Moral:

You merchants who cater particularly to men; you can rely, less than any other class of merchants, upon the "mouth-to-mouth" advertising. It is up to you to go after each and every man, directly.

Advertise the Truth Yourself!

Don't run the risk of any hypocritical quotation of the price of YOUR merchandise.

You Cannot Afford To Do Otherwise.

You must work harder than any other class of retailers to obtain the maximum amount of business due you.

Then—

You merchants who specialize in women's goods can reap a DOUBLE HARVEST from your advertising. By reaching the greatest possible number of women FIRST-HANDED, you enhance your chances for an increase in business owing to "passed-on" advertising at least 50%, for it is almost a certainty that every woman who makes a purchase from your store will tell at least one other woman of her satisfaction.

Mayor Lane, City Engineer Whitehouse, Supervisors Quinn, Hollinger, Arnold, Ahla and Horner and Purchasing Agent E. J. Botts started off early this morning in two automobiles for a detail inspection of the roads around the island.

A supply of newspapers and cigars was taken along to be handed out to "the faithful" at the various stops. City Engineer Whitehouse carried with him the plans and specifications for the improvement of the Waiatale-Waiatale road.

SPECIAL SHIPPING

The Pacific Mail liner Siberia, with about 50 passengers for Honolulu, sailed from San Francisco this afternoon. Unless detained by rough weather the vessel should arrive here on Friday.

Castle & Cooke have been advised that the Japanese steamer Tenyo Maru sailed from Yokohama for Honolulu today. The vessel will bring about 1000 tons of Oriental cargo for delivery at this port.

Departing from Honolulu on January 13, the schooner Caroline today arrived at San Francisco. The vessel completed the trip in ballast.

Rough weather may delay the arrival of the British steamer Director from Seattle. The vessel is expected to arrive here on Sunday afternoon or Monday morning.

HILO AND HER TOURIST PROFITS

Between $5000 and $10,000 is what Hilo is figuring on getting from the two-day visit of the Great Northern excursionists next month. This is 6 per cent on between $85,000 and $150,000; which amount, by the way, would build quite a bit of road on Haleakala. Without the convict-built road into Kilauea, Hawaii could not possibly entertain such an excursion party.

Without an automobile road to the top of Haleakala, Maui will never be able to get such a crowd to come. Maui is known on the mainland almost entirely through the fame of our "House of the Sun," and it is ridiculous to imagine that steamship companies and excursion bureaus will send their patrons here when they know that this chief wonder is inaccessible. Hilo is now talking of extending the Kilauea road up to the top of Mauna Loa. It is a big undertaking but it is likely to be accomplished before the Haleakala road is built unless Maui wakes up to her own interests.

DORMITORY FOR HIGH SCHOOL.

The sooner the people of Kauai come to a realization of the fact that adequate dormitory arrangements are vitally essential to the success of the high and grammar school, the better for the school, the better for Lihue and the better for Kauai. We dislike very much to keep harping, as it were, on this subject, but it seems necessary to remind the Kauai public again that unless dormitory accommodations are provided prior to the opening of the next school year, the Kauai High and Grammar School will become purely and simply a Lihue institution.

An oversight, perhaps, but the arrangement of the Honolulu Carnival committee whereby the hibiscus show is set down for a Friday shuts out completely any thought of exhibits from Kauai, for the reason that the U. S. Marshal J. J. Smiddy is reticent about the matter but he is understood to be active in running down the members of the gang. Their method of securing the "dope" and its distribution, in all the ramifications from simple selling to robbery and the "badger game," will be looked into.

At the city attorney's office it was learned today that Attorney Robert W. Breckons may be named a special prosecutor to run down the opium operators. When Breckons was district attorney, his prosecution of the "dope" handlers made him thoroughly familiar with the manifold twists and turns of the smuggling game and the new federal statutes on the subject are largely of his writing.

The appointment of Mr. Breckons will probably be decided upon by the attorney-general and the city attorney, it was reported today. If named to assist in the prosecution in the territorial courts, it is presumed that he will work in cooperation with Marshal Smiddy and the federal authorities.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY WILL HAVE PLENTY OF WORK

Smuggling and Statutory Offenses Scheduled to Be Probed

A large volume of work awaits the federal grand jury which will be called into session at 10 o'clock Monday morning. According to the commissioner's docket several opium and statutory matters, and at least one bigamy case, are scheduled for investigation. The session probably will last a week. The federal trial jurors will not be called until the close of the Carnival.

The San Francisco marshal was scheduled to leave for Honolulu this morning with William Desmond, a civic engineer formerly in the employ of the local quartermaster department, who is wanted by the federal authorities on a bigamy charge. Desmond is alleged to have married Annie Medeiros while in Honolulu, at which time he had a wife in Boston, Mass. Accompanying the marshal are the Medeiros girl and Mrs. Desmond, who have been summoned as witnesses in the case.

The majority of the opium cases brought before the commissioner during the past two months have been bound over for grand jury investigation. Several cases of a statutory nature have taken a similar course. It is expected that the grand jury also will investigate the case of Jack McGrath and Henry B. Lewis, who are alleged to have impersonated customs officers in a recent escapade which resulted in their arrest by the territorial authorities.

At the close of the coming session the grand jury probably will be dismissed.

INTERNATIONAL DINNER TO BE GIVEN BY Y. M. C. A.

The various nationalities affiliated with the work of the Honolulu Y. M. C. A. will be represented at an international dinner planned by the association to be held after the Carnival. The object of the dinner will be to acquaint the leaders of the various races with the work of the association and to strengthen the bonds of friendship among the races in Hawaii.

A feature of the dinner will be addresses by members of each of the racial groups. The secretaries of the association and the heads of committees also will speak, and there will be a musical program. No definite date has been set for the occasion.

Open house prevailed at the Y. M. C. A. last night for the students and teachers of Punahou academy, about a general invasion of the bowling alleys, gymnasium and billiard rooms, and some lively games on the "maple boulevards" furnished entertainment of an exciting nature. In a game of indoor baseball the faculty beat the seniors by a score of 13 to 1. In the bowling alleys Miss Mabel Wilcox won high score with 68, Charlotte Walker took the prize for the best bowling form and Elsie Gay, with two strikes and a spare to her credit, won out in the number of "strikes".

Did you ever stop to think that Fire Risk and Fire Insurance Premiums would be reduced if you used Westinghouse Motor Drive?

Our Chief of Power will gladly you details

The motors themselves are exceedingly safe. You eliminate your heavy line shafts, which are a constant menace because their journal boxes are apt to overheat and set fire to the accumulated oil, waste, and dust. Then by using central station power you get rid of your engine and boiler room, which must otherwise be in communication with your plant. You can wall up your heating boiler with a fire-proof wall.

It is a fact that insurance premiums on motor driven plants are lower in many localities than those on plants with line shaft drive.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

FORT SHAFTER, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Lloyd F. Fredendall was hostess at the largest affair given at the post during the past week. Her invitations were for a buffet supper given on Tuesday evening after the meeting of the garrison dancing class and her guests included a number of other friends than those comprised in the class. During the hour of dancing instruction and a following impromptu hop that lasted until well after ten o'clock the farther end of the library in the regimental mess adjoining the hop-room, remained screened from view. When the screens were withdrawn a beautiful supper table with decorations of brilliant red flowers and lighted candles shaded with the same cheerful color was disclosed. At this table Mrs. Ernest V. Smith and Mrs. J. E. Bell served creamed chicken and mushrooms with accompanying sandwiches while at an adjoining table Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln presided over the coffee service. Later, Fredendall with characteristic hospitality attended to the wants that were supplied by the buffet of the regimental mess. In this cheerful endeavor he had many cheerful assistants from among the younger officers present. The guests of the evening included Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Capt. and Mrs. A. C. Knowles, Capt. and Mrs. C. S. Lincoln, Maj. and Mrs. E. V. Smith, Capt. and Mrs. Robert McCleave, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Riggs, Capt. and Mrs. F. B. Malone, Capt. and Mrs. W. E. Bell, Lieut. and Mrs. J. R. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas Spencer, Lieut. and Mrs. Robt. R. Love, Lieut. and Mrs. Homer Preston, Mrs. J. B. de Ford, Mrs. H. O. Williams, Capt. G. H. Jamerson and Lieut. A. K. Polhemus.

Owing to the fact that the transport did not reach quarantine in time to dock on Thursday evening no opportunity to entertain passing friends was afforded the garrison. General and Mrs. Hoyle, Col. May and Col. Erwin all had many friends in the post, but all of these were unable to do more than make brief calls and wish the voyagers a pleasant voyage home. The travellers named are returning from a tour of duty in the Philippines. Gen. Hoyle has already passed to the retired list, the order being effective in his case on the 15th of last month, while Col. May, who has been commanding the 24th Infantry, will retire on March 25th, upon his own application, after more than 35 years' active service. Col. May has been granted a leave of absence for one month and 12 days to take effect upon his arrival in the states, and upon expiration of that leave his retirement order takes effect.

Monday night at the 2d Infantry mess was a gala night with auction for the diversion for ladies' night at the club. Six tables were in the playing list of guests with Mrs. Lenihan and Mrs. Gee as hostesses. And after five lively rounds of the game Mrs. Smith was declared the lucky individual for the evening and was awarded an attractive prize. Among those playing were Capt. and Mrs. Knowles, Capt. and Mrs. Lincoln, Capt. and Mrs. Bell, Capt. and Mrs. Key, Maj. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. de Ford, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Lenihan, Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Black, Lieut. Longenecker and Lieut. Greene.

The last meeting of the dancing class for the present series will take place next Thursday evening and Mrs. Homer N. Preston will entertain the class and additional guests with a supper after the lesson. The enthusiasts for dancing contemplate an additional series after the Carnival shall end and will endeavor to secure Mr. Couvain as teacher and will enlist additional members of the class. The evenings spent in the present series have been so enjoyable that the members are loath to see the class discontinued.

A number of the ladies of Fort Shafter have developed an interest in skating within the last fortnight and, in consequence, have begun with lessons at the rink in town. Mrs. Malone, Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs. Smith are among the number who have taken up the pleasant diversion. Among the officers the interest is not yet keen, although Maj. Williams and Lieut. Campanole have been noted as occasional visitors at the Fort street rink on Tuesday evenings.

The Misses Lenihan entertained with an informal tea for the young people of the garrison and a few additional friends from without the post on Friday afternoon preceding regimental parade. After the officers had departed from the festive occasion for the ceremony the ladies adjourned to the lawn near Col. French's quarters to witness the always interesting march past of the troops as they passed in review for the regimental commander.

Capt. Geo. H. Jamerson, 2nd Infantry, has applied for a leave of absence of three weeks that will be utilized in a trip to San Francisco to meet Mrs. Jamerson and their young son and accompany the family on their return to the islands. Capt. Jamerson expects to avail himself of his leave next month. Mrs. Jamerson is now at her home in Ionia, Michigan, but will leave for the Expedition about March 1 and spend that month in San Francisco.

Lieut. C. C. Gee, Engineer Corps, was a departing passenger by the transport Logan on Friday, as was also Lieut. W. C. Rose. Lieut. Gee goes to San Francisco to take his examination for promotion to the grade of captain and expects to return to Fort Shafter by the Logan that will sail on its return trip on March 5.

53 HIGHEST AWARDS IN EUROPE AND AMERICA

Mrs. Gee did not accompany Lieut. Gee but will remain in their quarters at the post during his absence.

Miss Lewin of Paso Robles, who has been much entertained at the post during her Hawaiian visit, now expects to depart on her homeward journey by the Matsonia, sailing this week. Miss Lewin has been a popular visitor and has made many new friends, both in the service and in Honolulu during her extended visit in the islands.

Lieut. Campanole contemplates applying for an extended leave that he will utilize in a visit to Europe, providing the necessary indulgence and special permission therefor be granted him. His plan now is to leave the post on the May transport and so direct to New York and spend the entire summer on the Continent. Lieut. and Mrs. Fred A. Cook entertained the garrison club on Tuesday evening at their quarters in the cantonment. Only the regular members of the club participated in the games and the supper that followed. In the evening's play Capt. and Mrs. Bell carried off the honors and accompanying prizes.

Lieut. Nicholas W. Campanole was host at a delightful luncheon at the Country Club last Sunday. His guests that gathered about a handsomely appointed table were Mrs. de Ford, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Bell, Miss Alexander, Maj. and Mrs. E. V. Smith, Maj. Williams, Capt. Jamerson and Mr. Staiback of Honolulu.

Lieut. V. W. Bolles did not avail himself of the leave of absence recently granted him and therefore did not take passage on the Logan as had been contemplated by him, but will go to San Francisco later, as Mrs. Bolles has postponed her return to Fort Shafter until later in the year.

Mrs. Frederick F. Black has sent out her cards for a bridge tea for the afternoon of February 11, when she will entertain a number of her friends of the garrison and from Honolulu.

Mrs. Randolph, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, and who was indisposed for a few days, is now happily quite recovered from her illness, and the fact is of much gratification to all of her friends.

The next garrison hop will take place on Friday evening of the coming week. Dancing will commence at 8:30 and the entire orchestra of the 2d Infantry band will be in attendance. A number of dinners will precede. Among those so entertaining will be Capt. and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln.

Col. and Mrs. Francis H. French are entertaining with a dinner at their quarters in the main garrison this evening.

Lieut. and Mrs. L. O. Matthews entertained informally at dinner on Friday evening for Miss Lewin and Capt. Mudd.

Have You sent in the number?
of YOUR Waltham Watch?

"25 years in the Wilds of Hilo---and still keeps best of time."

Wichman & Co. I herewith send in the number of my Waltham Watch as evidenced by the figures 795,439 on the movement.

This watch was presented to me by Alatau T. Atkinson, Principal of St. Alban's College during 1877. I believe it was purchased from M. McInerney, whose old store was on the present site of the McInerney building, corner Fort and Merchant streets.

In April of 1878 this watch went with me to the Wilds of Hilo and Hamakua---about 200 miles from anywhere---and for 25 years went through all the vicissitudes of a rough plantation life; such as being lost in a plow field and stepped on and buried by the team (recovered because a few links of the broken chain remained exposed); rolling down an embankment in a locomotive accident; wrecked on the rocks of Laupahoehoe landing and dumped into the sea; dropped down a cesspool, and has fallen innumerable times from my pocket.

But regardless of all these various episodes, the watch still goes ticking merrily along, keeping the best of time.

Yours truly,
WM. GREEN, City.

That $50 Waltham Watch will be presented to the writer of the best true account of---
"Why I Bought my Waltham" or "How It Has Served Me."

Winner has choice of Lady's Convertible Bracelet Watch or Gentleman's "Opera" Watch.

THROW DOUBT ON WOMAN'S STORY OF AUTO ATTACK

Police Drop Case, Saying Evidence Withheld by Principals in Joy-Ride Mix-Up

With her hair disheveled, her clothes covered with dirt and mud and with a long scratch on her face, the wife of Private Merleman of Schofield Barracks staggered up to the door of the Huiatua Villa at Waikiki late on the night of January 28 and asked for protection from alleged friends with whom she had been riding in an automobile. News of the alleged assault has been suppressed to enable the police to conduct an investigation without interference. Those at Huiatua Villa declare their belief in the story told by the woman, Mrs. Merleman, who had been staying at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham on Alakea street, and whom she was introduced to a man named Turner. The latter explained to her that his wife had separated from him and he desired a reconciliation. He asked Mrs. Merleman to assist him towards that end, she said. Accordingly they got into an automobile and was introduced to another couple. The other man's name, she said, was O'Brien, while the woman was called "Heleen." They stopped at Waikiki Inn for a drink, she said, and beer was ordered. This beer, she thinks, was drugged, for immediately afterward she became semi-conscious. Her story of subsequent happenings was somewhat vague. A taxicab was ordered at the Huiatua Villa and Mrs. Merleman was taken to the Graham residence. The driver of the taxi said that a big touring car with three occupants followed the smaller machine to the Graham home. Lemmer Beckley, driver of the taxicab, said that Mrs. Merleman halted the touring car on its arrival in front of the Graham home and walked over to the touring car to demand the return of her rings. Henry Huiatua, previously had noticed the big machine standing outside the Moana hotel and had no difficulty in getting the names of the occupants. The car is owned by Sam Searle, an employee of the Schuman garage, and Turner. They told Huiatua that they had lost one of the members of their party. This department has been investigating the matter since it was first reported. Captain of Detectives McDuffie said today, "but after we had attempted to locate the woman concerned and found that she had dis-

HOMESTEADERS ON KAUAI NOW ASSURED MARKET

The provision that the territory should give the company a right-of-way across the government lands between the company's mill and the Kapaa homesteads, to build a railroad connecting the Kapaa government branch railway with the railway of the company, for the purpose of making a direct line of communication between the mill of the Libue Plantation company and the homesteads; the new line to extend from the mill thence to the Ahukini landing, thus giving the homesteaders the opportunity to advantageously cultivate cane and have a direct outlet for any other products through the port of Ahukini. The homesteaders also, under the agreement, are to cultivate a small portion of their holdings in cane, to go to the Libue mill at a selling price based upon the price for centrifugals being 16 cents, New York price. The entered agreement was contingent on the consent of the government to a clause therein providing that the railway should have right-of-way for a line over the settlers' holdings. In our negotiations with the governor, the superintendent of public works and the land commissioner, extending over a period of about four months, the governor has agreed to grant free rights over all public lands for a period of 21 years for the purpose of constructing a railroad, and to approve a similar agreement on the part of the homesteaders covering similar rights over their grounds, the right to be for a railroad and roadway," said Attorney Thompson. The governor has also agreed to approve such planting agreement as the homesteaders may elect to make with the Libue Plantation company. The company, or its assigns or some person or corporation on its behalf, has agreed to apply to the legislature for a franchise as a railway and common carrier to the end that it shall in the event the harbor of Nawiliwili is improved so as to make it a port of call for deep-water steamers—have the privilege of running to any wharves constructed by the territory. The entire scheme is intended to give the homesteaders and the additional lands which, on the expiration of present leases, may be opened for settlement a continuous rail and water haul to Honolulu or to the coast." Attorney General Investigator. The governor has been carefully investigating the question whether rights of this sort can be granted by the territory in that particular section without at the same time bestowing upon the recipients a practical monopoly of the transportation privileges. Before reaching a final decision he caused the attorney-general to examine the legal phase of it, and received an opinion which upholds him in his position. The Governor's Attitude. In his communication to the Libue Plantation Company, through its legal representatives, the governor says: "It is the intention of the administration to, at the earliest possible moment, define its general policy toward chartered common carrier transportation companies. This policy will be applicable to the purposes of your clients who have indicated their intention to, at once apply to the legislature for a charter to establish a railroad on the east and southeast sides of the island of Kauai, specifying its ultimate destination and terminal shall be at the harbor of Nawiliwili when a suitable deep water wharf shall there be established. It is understood this railroad shall connect with the government owned railway at Kapaa, where the government may direct. "It will be the policy of the government to grant a free right of way over all public lands subject to the approval of the governor, as is now the rule of the government. "It will be the policy of the government, where any lands revert to the government, to grant or confirm any rights of way, provided they are first approved by the governor. "It will be the policy of the government to continue its customary approval of planting agreements between those termed homesteaders and the mill. "The railroad I regard strictly as a common carrier under governmental approved rates to be established without discrimination. "Pending organization and charter, the governor, as controlled by law, will grant a license on an agreed right of way established on the above conditions. "Formal papers will be exchanged as soon as possible to prepare." When the home team wins, then the strain begins. And it tells on the press box gang. Who imperil health digging up a wealth Of metaphor and slang. When the team goes down in its own home town. Then the baseball writer squirms. TUNNEL UNDER CHANNEL WOULD HELP THE ALLIES (Associated Press) LONDON, England.—Notwithstanding the war, the group of enthusiasts who for years have advocated the construction of a tunnel under the English channel between France and England have lost none of their ardor for the enterprise. On the contrary, they are pushing the scheme along with more than usual vigor, pointing that were the tunnel in operation at present it would be of inestimable advantage to England in rushing troops to France. England's Committee on Imperial Defense had the tunnel project before it when the war broke out. War came before this committee had time to report its findings to Parliament, and it is not likely therefore that any action will be taken until peace is declared. Backers of the project insist, however, that they are ready to begin work immediately. James L. Martin, United States district judge for Vermont, dropped dead in a railway station at Montpelier. The Great Eastern Railroad has asked the British parliament for permission to issue 1,000,000 pounds of new stock.

LAYSAN ISLAND SUBJECT OF MAGAZINE ARTICLE Laysan Island and its wealth in guano deposits has been brought to the attention of the reading public through an article in the Saturday Evening Post entitled "Laysan, What Does it Mean?" written by Emerson Hough. The basis of the article is a report made by Prof. Homer Dill, who, with a party of scientists from the University of Iowa, visited the islands in April, 1911. Mr. Hough pays a tribute to the work of Prof. W. A. Bryan of the College of Hawaii in investigations made as to conditions on various islands near the Hawaiian group, including Laysan. He mentions "King" Max Schlemmer of Honolulu and his project to introduce rabbits and guinea pigs on Laysan. The author criticizes any neglect which has been accorded Laysan, saying that there is no excuse for the wanton slaughter of the birds by poachers who are after wings and skins. He urges that Laysan and similar islands be patrolled in a more adequate manner and that the birds be afforded the protection due them. Hundreds of acres of winter wheat in Oklahoma are infested by the Hessian fly.

W. T. RAWLINS IS BACK WITH NEWS OF THE SWIMMERS

W. T. Rawlins, president of the Hui Nalu, was a returning passenger in the liner Korea yesterday evening. While in San Francisco Rawlins had several conferences with coast swimming officials, both as to the Carnival meet here this month, and regarding the P. P. I. E. meeting later in the year, when a big delegation from Hawaii is expected to make the trip north to compete.

"Miss Frances Cowells, the latest sensation among the girl swimmers on the coast, is a very speedy performer," said Rawlins. "From what I hear she may be expected to do some fast work here. Miss Becker is also swimming in fine form now, from all accounts. Cliff Cowells is considered top-notch as a diver, and his exhibitions here will certainly be sensational."

Miss Becker is due to arrive here Monday morning. She will be met at the dock by members of the Hui Au Kal, and escorted to the Seaside Hotel, where she and her mother will remain. Miss Becker will do her training at Waikiki.

EMPIRE PROGRAM HAS EDUCATIONAL FEATURES TODAY

What with juvenile players who have been assigned important parts and a frontier battle scene in which Indians attack and soldiers defend a fort, a realistic program of new photographs will be an offering at the Empire theater bill today. Beginning with the matinee comedy as well as educational features will be shown.

Chief among the fun-makers will be John Bunny, ably assisted by Flora Finch, Jack Harvey, Lillian Burns, Jack Bulger in a laughable skit called "Bunny Buys a Harem." It is one of the best of a series of playlets written by George Ridgeway.

The picturesque surroundings at the home of the Navajo Indians in New Mexico and Arizona are to be shown in a series of beautiful scenes incorporated in an educational feature. The making of the famous Navajo blanket will be depicted in detail. Taken from an exceptionally well favored position a pleasing picture of the Grand canyon of the Colorado will be an added attraction.

The first animated cartoon by J. H. Bray to be displayed in this city is featured under the title "Colonel Heem Lar, Farmer."

A Keystone comedy, "Mabel's Bear Escape," will close the program.

OUTRIGGER CLUB AUXILIARY MAY TAKE 100 MORE

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe Club will be held at the Library of Hawaii, on Tuesday afternoon, February 9, at half past three o'clock. A motion to amend the constitution so that one hundred more members may be taken into the club will be introduced. Notice of the amendment having been given at the directors' meeting held January 7 and posted in the club lmal immediately after. This will give a membership of five hundred, divided as follows: Townspeople, 484; service (army and navy), 35.

MAYOR ASKED TO GREET BIG EXCURSION PARTY

Mayor John C. Lane will be asked by the Promotion Committee personally to meet the steamer Great Northern, scheduled to arrive in Honolulu, February 12, with about 400 tourists. This decision was made at a meeting of the committee yesterday.

Resident Fair Commissioner H. P. Wood in a letter to the committee says that interest in the excursion is rapidly growing in San Francisco. Mr. Wood has forwarded a large quantity of literature to the East which will be placed aboard the Great Northern for the convenience of those who will visit the islands.

The Promotion Committee has taken a hand at boosting Hawaii's exhibit at the exposition. Toward this end the business houses will be urged to have printed on their stationery and letter heads some sentiment appropriate to the occasion. "Visit the Hawaii Building at the Exposition, S. F." has been suggested.

Honolulu's Boy Scouts will leave for Kaneohe Hale, windward Oahu, at 2:30 o'clock next Friday afternoon on their annual encampment. They will be in camp two days, returning to Honolulu the following Sunday afternoon.

ALPHIN MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY PROMISES A TREAT FOR HONOLULU

With 10 clever and pretty girls in the chorus, patrons of the Bijou theater are promised a dancing and singing treat when the Alphin Musical Comedy company opens an indefinite engagement at the Bijou next Wednesday night. The chorus wardrobe is said to be the most elaborate which has ever been brought to Honolulu by a musical company and Director Hughes sends word that he has a trunkful of the latest mainland popular song hits. Several novelties will also be given at every performance.

The principals number eight and include Ethel Davis, leading woman; Inles Mendel, comedian; Bessie Hill, soubrette; George Ford, leading man and clever dancer; Grover Schepp, character man, and others.

The 22 members of the company will arrive on the steamer Sierra Monday and will open the following Wednesday night in "The Candy Ship."

Not simply an "interested look," but real "enthusiastic ACTION," is what will make the Carnival a success. Really!

SAMOAN DANCES GIVEN AT THE BIJOU TONIGHT

Honoluluans will be given a genuine treat tonight at the Bijou theater when they will be given opportunity to see the troupe of 28 native Samoans en route to the San Francisco exposition perform their strange dances and hear them sing their weird songs. Through the activity of the Bijou management in securing this novel performance for tonight, Honoluluans will be given the Samoan treat before the world's fair visitors. The large party of native South Sea islanders arrived yesterday on the Niagara and will remain here until the sailing of the Matsoula. Included in the party are several royal chiefs and chieftesses of their tribes. They were recruited in American Samoa by Harold K. Knox, who has the Samoan concession at the San Francisco fair and who is under heavy bond by the United States government to insure the safe return of the entire party to their native homes. Because of the isolation of American Samoa the islands are rarely visited by travelers and the entertainment at the Bijou tonight will be an innovation. In giving their dances and songs the natives will appear in their native costumes, consisting mainly of a tapa skirt and strings of beads. The Samoans will be an added attraction to the regular vaudeville and moving picture bill.

GOLF GOSSIP

BY JACK NEVILLE

Besides the clubs that we might term standard types there are a few models which, while not popular to a wide degree, still have merits when used in the right place that should commend a trial and consideration from the golfer.

The spoon is built on lines similar to the brassie. It should have slightly more loft and a shaft a little more springy. This club is a kind of substitute for the cleek and has advantages over the cleek in some respects.

For instance, the spoon may be played from a comparatively poor lie. Again it is rather easy to control the flight of the ball, for a shot played with the spoon, if hit half decently, will have practically no run.

The spoon should not be played against a wind, but is valuable when, under normal conditions, about 175 yards are to be gained. The swing should not be lazy, but sufficiently snappy to make a good quick contact with the ball.

Overwinging is a serious fault when handling the spoon, whereas the follow through cannot be overemphasized. The back swing, which is really the vital part of every stroke in golf, should be of the upright variety. Just before the club head comes to the ball it is well to impart a kind of slap catching the ball and ground together.

This club is not made to dig into the turf after the ball, but furnishes best results when the head skims through the grass and picks the ball up as it travels.

The driving iron is a powerful club with many good points. The name of it may be misleading to some golfers not thoroughly familiar with all the kinds of golf.

It comes in handiest when a high long shot with a little run is desired at the end of the flight. Another good use for the driving iron is approaching a player when the ground lies not too irregular. This club is an admirable one to use.

The driving masher is a club usually found in the possession of golfers whose styles are of the eccentric pattern. I cannot recall ever having seen this make of club in the bag of any really excellent player.

If smothering is avoided and the ball hit clean, a shot of exceptionally long distance should be the result. The short face of the driving masher seems to enable one to keep the ball very accurately on the line.

The popularity of center shafted clubs seems to be somewhat diminishing. The one form that has survived successfully is the Schenectady putter. While in the East last summer I talked with the man who designed this make of club. He named it after his home city, and it is now known throughout the golfing world.

RITCHIE WILL MAKE WEIGHT FOR F. WELSH

(By Latest Mail) SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion, has signed up for a bout with Freddie Welsh in New York at 135 pounds.

The figure named is the same that the men made when they boxed in London for the title last summer. Ritchie is not worried about his ability to get down to the figure.

In the meantime Willie is considering an offer to box Sam Robideau in Philadelphia prior to the Welsh bout. Robideau is the lightweight who attracted attention by knocking out Gilbert Gallant a week ago.

Ritchie wants to be in New York three weeks before he meets Welsh and he may have difficulty in arranging a suitable date in Philadelphia. He is to play a week at the Empress in a dancing and gymnasium act and he figures that the work he will do on the stage will be a good start on his preparation for a bout with the present champion.

The first boxing show held under the new law, which was put on at Dreamland rink last Friday evening, indicated that the sport of the gloves will not be altogether dead in this city.

It is understood that the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York is arranging to import French gold coin from London. The Italian tank steamer Lampo sailed from Philadelphia with the first certified cargo to leave an American port.

The city of Regina, Saskatchewan, has accepted an offer from the Bank of Montreal to negotiate $1,750,000 treasury bonds.

NEWPORT MADE FIGHT TO RETAIN TENNIS CLASSIC

(Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.) NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 6.—At a meeting of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, held here last night, the West Side Tennis Club's courts were selected as the place for the next championship matches.

This action on the part of the association brings to a close a bitter fight that has been waged in tennis circles for several months past. First came a circular by the Tennis Players' Committee, favoring the transfer of the event from Newport, and then came a statement from the other side, detailing the reasons why no change should be made.

Eight holders of the singles championship, headed by R. N. Williams, 2d, are named on the committee as favoring Newport. "We do not believe in railroadng the national championship away from Newport on a month's notice and without affording all of the clubs in the country a fair voice in the matter," said Mr. Bull today.

"R. D. Wrenn, as president of the association, feels that it would be improper for him to sign a circular favoring either side of the question, while H. L. Doherty, the Englishman, who won the title several years ago, has not been approached.

"Holcombe Ward is the only national singles champion who has come out as preferring the West Side Club. "Of the men who have signed the circular favoring Newport, ten are from New York City, including four national champions, and the others rep-

SEVEN BASEBALL GAMES ON CARNIVAL SCHEDULE

The Carnival baseball schedule was finally decided on yesterday afternoon, at a meeting called by Chairman M. B. Henshaw. Besides the regular games there is a chance that one or two extras will be sandwiched in.

February 20, 4 p. m.—Maui vs. Asahi. February 21, 3 p. m.—All-Oahu vs. 25th Infantry. February 22, 1:30 p. m.—All-Oahu vs. All-Chinese; 3:15 p. m.—Maui vs. 25th Infantry.

February 23, 4 p. m.—Chinese vs. Maui. February 27, 4 p. m.—All-Oahu vs. Asahi. February 28—Chinese vs. 25th Infantry. Note—But seven-inning games will be played February 22, the time being taken off to allow the walking races to finish between the two games.

BASEBALL SEASON IN THE CANAL ZONE OPENS

PANAMA, C. Z.—With the beginning of the dry weather which lasts until May, the baseball season on the Canal Zone began in earnest with the formation of a new eight-team league. All the players are either employees of the Panama Canal or enlisted men in the various military organizations stationed on the isthmus.

Every team is pledged to refrain from professional practices and betting on the games is absolutely forbidden by the Panama canal government, which will dismiss any one from its services found guilty of doing so.

Immediately after the formation of the new league Col. George W. Goethals, governor of the Panama canal, announced that he would not only present the winning team of the season with a handsome pennant, but would also give various valuable prizes to individual players.

U. S. AUTHORITIES ARE WAITING TO NAB JACK JOHNSON

(Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.) EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 6.—The treasury department, at the request of the department of justice at Washington, has instructed the immigration authorities along the Mexican line to watch out for Jack Johnson, the pugilist, and to arrest him if he can be caught on American soil.

Johnson is booked to fight a championship battle at Juarez, Mexico, on March 6, with Willard, and it is thought that he may attempt to reach the Mexican border city by way of the United States.

Johnson, who has been living in Paris, is a fugitive from justice, having been indicted by a federal grand jury in Chicago on a "white slave" charge. Johnson jumped a $30,000 bond and escaped into Canada, going from there to Europe.

BOOST WEEK ON EXCHANGE; LARGE PROFITS ARE REAPED

This has been a big week on the stock exchange, big in point of activity and results. The total of shares bought and sold runs well over 10,000, their value thousands of dollars greater than a week ago.

The continual rise of sugar from the high mark of 4.20 last Saturday to 4.64 this morning, with every indication that the crest of the wave has not been reached, has been of course the dictating influence. Continuous rumors emanating from Washington that there is a growing inclination to keep sugar off the free list next year has helped furnish a strong background. There are reasons to believe that congressmen will turn to sugar as a means of wiping out the deficit in the governmental exchequer.

There is practically not a security in the sugar list that has not made a marked advance during the week. The range of trading has been widened so as to take in many stocks not ordinarily dealt in and of course in the speculative securities, like Olan and McBryde, trading has been relatively enormous. This has been particularly true of Olan, of which several thousand shares have been sold. When change opened this morning Olan was quoted at 6 1/4, a rise of 1/4 in a week. A week ago it could have been bought for 5, showing a rise of 25 per cent. As for McBryde its price last night was 6 1/2, as against 5 a week ago.

Waiialua, Hawaiian Sugar, Ewa,

COMMERCIAL NOTES

Three Hampshire hogs are being imported by Frye & Co. from Washington for their hog ranch. This is the second lot of Hampshires imported in the last few months.

Favored by somewhat warmer weather plantations are making good progress in harvesting the crop. Grinding has been going fast on many of them. Ewa up to last week had turned out 8240 tons, Waiialua's grind amounted to 4383 tons.

The estimate of the 1915 sugar crop as gathered from different sources is 612,230 tons. The amount shipped up January 1 was 73,277 tons. If the estimate holds good the crop will be about 5000 tons short of 1914, when the yield was 617,230 tons.

Amendment to the present license law is recommended by Territorial Treasurer McCarthy as a means of adding to the territory's revenue. A large sum of money has been lost the territory, he says, because of the lax system of recording licenses.

Kauai's representation in the cargo of the Washingtonian, the American-Hawaiian liner that was sunk off Delaware breakwater, was worth $13,641. This consisted of 23,894 bags of sugar from Makawell and 1975 cases of canned pineapples from the Lawai cannery.

The first shipment of a cargo of 700,000 blocks of ohia wood, bought from the Hawaiian Development company for use in the construction of three piers in San Francisco harbor, is on its way to the coast in the schooner Delancey, which sailed from Honolulu last week. This is the largest order that has come from the coast for this wood.

J. H. Schnack completed negotiations this week for the purchase of two pieces of property in Kalihi. One is a tract measuring three-quarters of an acre near Waena park, bought from the William Mutch Co., Ltd., for $2900. The other, purchased from Joe Kubie, consists of about an acre back of Kalihi road, near the Kamehameha schools. The consideration for this was $2250.

Thirty-two building permits were issued in the last week, the high mark for the year. The value of the building operations represented is $45,160. The most valuable structure is that of the new Epiphany mission house at Tenth and Paloa avenue, Kaimuki, which will cost $4630. Next is the residence of H. W. Mist in Manoa valley near Adolph street, to cost $4250.

Facts About Sugar in a recent issue gives an estimate for the entire domestic sugar crop for 1915. It places the total at 1,850,000 tons, a decrease of 200,000 tons over last year. The figures, given in long tons, are: Hawaii, 550,000; Porto Rico, 315,000; Philippines (exports), 225,000; Louisiana and Texas, 160,000; beet sugar industry, 600,000. The Cuban estimate, however, also is below last year's, being 2,515,000, as against 2,560,000 tons.

A MESSAGE TO THIN, WEAK, SCRAWNY FOLKS

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative function of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point.

Caution:—White Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co., and Hollister Drug Co.—advertisement.

Germ Cells and Hens' Eggs

A TEMPERANCE SERMON By Dr. John W. Wadman

Who is Dr. August Forel? He is a Swiss biologist of international note. His scientific researches have made a profound impression. His laboratory investigations and conclusions are accepted as authoritative. He is the man to whom the prohibitionists of Maine recently applied for the latest scientific deductions in regard to the nature of alcohol, its physical and psychological effects on the human system. Too long has the liquor traffic been fought on ethical grounds alone. The scientists and economists are now lined up in battle array. Under such sustained fire both in Europe and America the Citadel of King Alcohol is losing, in surprising measure, its power of resistance. Some of these days the walls will fall and the monstrous monster will be smitten to the earth never to rise again.

But what about Dr. Forel? Let me tell you. On December 5 he wrote an article in a German paper in which he discussed germ cells and hens' eggs. It appears that an acquaintance of his had 160 eggs in an incubator placed in a shed, ready to be hatched. All were due to hatch the same day, but when they appeared, instead of straight-legged, well-shaped little creatures, every third chick that pipped its way into the world had either crooked legs, useless wings, a twisted back or some other deformity. Moreover, instead of 160 chicks, only 79 were hatched, and these included only 78 deformed ones. The rest died in their shells, not having vigor enough to make their way out. Worse yet, instead of keeping alive after they were fairly hatched, 40 of the chicks died within four days.

The incident awakened unusual interest. An investigation was made. Dr. Forel was asked to assist. What do you think was found? In the cellar of the shed was discovered a small still. The owner was making brandy, and while the chicks were developing in their shells the fumes of the alcohol penetrated the incubator, with results as indicated above. Dr. Forel immediately began experimenting. So did Dr. Forel, another noted biologist. Their results are now published and accepted as scientifically true. Namely, that the fumes of alcohol damage germ cells. Chicks in egg shells exposed to alcoholic vapor either die before being hatched or turn out to be deformed like imbecile or idiotic children.

They began also tests with guinea pigs. The experiments were most unique. The results were exactly the same with the hogs. The offspring exposed to alcoholic fumes either died at birth or soon after birth, while the survivors were mostly deformed.

Just about this time a noted specialist of Bern, Switzerland, Dr. Bezzola, head physician in a national institution for weak-minded children, noticing that nearly always when imbecile children were brought to him for examination and treatment, someone would say, "The father or mother drank," determined by actual tests to know the truth.

Scouring the latest census reports he found that for 10 years the total number of births in Switzerland had been 534,621. He tabulated the average number for each month and discovered that in some months the proportion of idiots born was much larger than in other months. This was quite a clue.

Next he looked up the life history of 2196 feeble-minded persons who were the inmates of Swiss asylums and made note of the birthday of each one of them. He wished to know when the children were born, so that he could count backwards 40 weeks and find out just when the babies began to develop from germ cells. He thought this might show him what the condition of the parents was at the time.

He tells us that in Switzerland there are certain definite seasons each year when what he calls "drunk-festivities" are most abundant—New Year's and carnival, the vintage and the harvest seasons. Dr. Bezzola speaks of these as "alcohol-rich periods."

From July to September, however, wealthy people and poor people alike are drinking less. They are busy with summer travelers and summer occupations; they keep regular hours with fewer festivities. These are the "alcohol-poor months."

With these facts in mind Dr. Bezzola turned to the birthdays again. Here, then, are his scientific conclusions: "When drunk-festivities are most abundant in Switzerland, the largest proportion of imbecile children receive the gift of life. "In over 90 out of every 100 cases of weak-minded children born in Switzerland, alcohol is the direct agent or cause."

A little later Dr. Demme, another noted specialist, reached the same conclusions about independent lines of scientific investigation, while our own Dr. Gordon of Philadelphia, well known to Americans in biological research, having carefully inquired into the cases of 118 families where both father and mother used alcohol, found that out of the 200 children born to them, while using alcohol, 150 were epileptic.

He also studied 20 families where the grandfather as well as the parents used alcohol. Here he found 26 imbecile children, and 35 who were epileptic, while every one of the others was defective in one way or another. These are all scientific facts and can be wholly authenticated. Have we not here, to say the least, considerable food for thought? What a deadly blow science is giving booze!

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND SPEAKS STRONGLY FOR FIGHT AGAINST SALOON

Archbishop Ireland says: "Catholic theology does not teach that saloon-keeping is, in itself, a sin. If the saloon-keeper happens to be the ideal one, never selling to men who are likely to become intoxicated, never selling to minors in violation of the law of the land, never opening his saloon on Sunday, never tolerating blasphemy or obscene language at his bar, never turning his saloon into a den of unjust and injurious political machinations, in a word, observing in his business the whole law, civil and divine,—he may be absolved and admitted to communion. Saloon-keeping is, as a rule, an evil occupation; ever it hangs a heavy cloud of social and religious disgrace; ever the ideal saloon-keeper cannot rid himself of its shame, and upon him, as upon his whole class, the church frowns in anger and sorrow and from Catholic gatherings and organizations she bids him retire to corners of silence and obscurity.

The American saloon is responsible for the awful intemperance which desolates the land and which is the physical and moral plague of our time. In the saloon is dealt out that drink which intoxicates, and there temptations in use are deliberately planned and multiplied. Let us waste no words on the saloon, on the possible or ideal saloon. It will be time enough to discuss it when it is discovered. The saloon as it exists today trades in and fattens upon intemperance, and at its door must be laid all the dire evils which accompany or follow from intemperance.

"What can the Catholic church do if she is loyal to her professed principles, but raise her hand in opposition to the American saloon, and put herself clearly on record as its unswerving antagonist?

"The Catholic church renounces her own life and principles when she ceases to combat with all her might intemperance in its causes and alliances. The American saloon is her mortal foe; between the church and the saloon there can be no truce."

GEORGE CASPAR IS HOST AT ENTERTAINMENT FOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS

An informal musical of delightful character was tendered the members of the Central Union Christian Endeavor society and their friends by George Caspar at his residence on Wilder avenue Thursday evening. The grounds were illuminated by Japanese lanterns, which gave a soft radiance to the house.

About 65 young people gathered on the broad lawn and enjoyed songs rendered by Miss Helen G. Caldwell of the department of music of Oahu College. Mr. Caspar's violin program was as follows:

Minuet... Gluck
Masurka... Wieniewski
Aus der Helmit... Smetana
Minuet... Beethoven
Gavotte... Rameau
Schon Rosnerin... Kreisler
Miss Pearl Sutherland was accompanist. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

BIBLE STUDY TO BE FEATURE AT CENTRAL UNION

Supt. Vaughan McCaughey Outlines Plans of His School For the Coming Year

One of the many interesting features of the annual meeting of Central Union church was the novel device by which Vaughan MacCaughy, Bible school superintendent, brought out the main heads of his excellent report. Doggers so cleverly printed as to bring out very clearly the important features of 1914 and the plans for 1915, were distributed throughout the audience just as he rose for the address and in this way his hearers had an excellent syllabus of the report.

The outline presented in 1915 was as follows: "1. Recommendations and aid from religious education committee. "2. An adequate plant; for the entire program of religious instruction; for use every day in the week. "3. Establishment of an educational council. "4. Development of missionary and social service work of the school. "5. An increase in the weekly school time—a 90-minute session. "6. Better utilization of music in the religious life of the school, church and community. "7. Lay support of adult classes—five classes per week. "8. Standardization of courses throughout the school. "9. Closer correlation of school and church—securing a more general attendance of the pupils at the morning service. "10. Deepening the spiritual life of the school—definite enrollment at adolescence of all our boys and girls in church membership and in some form of religious work."

WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CENTRAL UNION WILL HAVE UNIQUE SOCIAL

The Women's Society of Central Union church has invited the ladies of the congregation and any strangers or visitors in town to a "Get Acquainted Social" next Thursday, from 3 to 5 o'clock in the parish house. New-comers are invited, not only to meet each other, but to enjoy the opportunity of knowing some of the older members of the church who will make a special effort to be present on this afternoon.

The special guests of the afternoon will be Mrs. Luther Severance of Hilo, a former member of the church and well known in Honolulu, and Mrs. L. L. Van Slyke of Geneva, N. Y. Mrs. Severance is a sister of Mrs. Ormel H. Gulick, and the late Dr. A. B. Clark. Mrs. Van Slyke was for several years the leader of the choir in the old Fort street church.

Miss Charlotte Powers, reader, and Mrs. Bessie Abbott Howland, vocalist, will present Hans Christian Andersen's "The Little Mermaid," which Mrs. Howland has arranged and set to music. This is an unusual opportunity to enjoy a performance of high literary and musical excellence.

BIBLE TEACHERS WILL DISCUSS FEASIBILITY OF LONGER SESSIONS

Following is a sample of the snappy sort of notice the secretary of Central Union Sunday school sends out. The attendance at teachers' meetings is increasing under these stimulating announcements: "Some of the teachers and officers say that 60 minutes are not enough for our Bible school session. Do you favor the proposed 90-minute session? It will mean more time for actual lesson teaching, but we will have to get up earlier on Sunday mornings. We'll talk this over next Monday afternoon, February 8, at 4 o'clock. There are some recommendations from our finance and mission committees to be considered at the same time. Be there with your opinions."

INTERESTING MUSICAL PROGRAMS AT CENTRAL UNION CHURCH SUNDAY

The musical programs at Central Union church Sunday are as follows: Morning services—Prelude No. 21 (Chopin); anthem, "Saviour, When Night Involves the Skies" (Shelley); response, "Come Unto Me" (Mars-ton); offertory solo, "Behold the Master" (Passeth by) (Hammond); Mrs. Hall; postlude, "Veret" (Batiste). Evening services—Prelude, "Elevation" (Batiste); anthem, "Agnus Dei" (Gounod); offertory solo, Mrs. Hall; postlude, "Ite Missa Est" (Batiste).

About four inches of snow covers the important wheat growing section of Kilekikat valley, Wash. An oculist cannot remedy the snow.

Brevities From The Anti-Saloon League

The visitation of the public schools in the interests of the educational campaign has been continued during the week, including an address to the Young People's Temperance society of the Kakaako mission Wednesday afternoon.

Col. Lyman W. V. Kennon of the 25th Infantry, Schofield Barracks, has invited Dr. Baker, national superintendent, to address the men of his regiment in connection with his visit here this month. Chaplain Scott will make the necessary arrangements. In addition to the services already planned to be held at Temperance Sunday, February 23, an open air meeting for the several hundred boys and girls of the Lincoln-Lee Legion of Honolulu will probably take place in the afternoon of that day in Thomas square or the Palace grounds, the idea being to rally the children to the cause of temperance.

Not a week passes but what crimes take place, well aired in the press and stated to be mostly the direct results of booze. Kaula has had another such murder. The Garden Island boasts of her superior control of the liquor traffic inasmuch as no retail saloons are allowed, and yet crime and booze go hand in hand in frequent occurrence even there, if the press truthfully tells the tale.

A Minnesota grand jury has recently returned 12 separate indictments against a Round Lake saloonkeeper, charging him with being the cause of a fatal collision between an automobile and a buggy, in that he furnished the liquor that made the young man drunk who was driving the automobile.

Seven hundred and five boys and girls of Kauluwela school, Honolulu, grouped beneath the shining folds of Old Glory waving gently above their heads, stood in front of their beautiful school building last Wednesday morning with Mrs. Isabel L. Creighton, principal, in command and listened with eager, intelligent interest to an address on temperance and morals. It was inspiring to hear the whole group with one loud uplifted voice answer the teachers' question as to what the teachers taught them regarding the nature of alcohol: "They teach us that alcohol is a poison." The traffic in old booze is bound to be brought down and made to lick the dust when these children grow up—if the traffic does not cease long before that.

MEMBERS' MEETING IS PLANNED BY CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS OF C. U.

The Christian Endeavor meeting at Central Union church Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock will be a "Members' Meeting," but that does not imply that only members are welcome, for all young people are cordially invited to attend. There will, however, be a roll call of the members and each member is particularly requested to respond to his name with a verse taken from the Gospel of Matthew. Glenn E. Jackson, president of the society, will lead the meeting. Miss Jessie Buchanan of the music department of Oahu College will be pianist and a special musical program is planned.

ALBANY MINISTER HAS OBJECTION TO BILLY SUNDAY'S "HELL"

[By Latent Mail] ALBANY, N. Y.—"For love of Mike!" declared the Rev. J. V. Moldenhauer at a meeting of the Albany Ministerial Association when a fellow minister suggested that the Rev. Billy Sunday be invited to conduct a revival here. When the Rev. J. Addison Jones deflected Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Moldenhauer exclaimed: "If you like the kind of hell Billy Sunday is yelling about, why don't you preach it in your own church and use the kind of language Sunday uses?"

"I don't preach the kind of hell that Sunday does in my church because I don't have to," retorted Jones. "I wouldn't even listen to Sunday, considering the sort of language he uses," broke in the Rev. E. R. James of Rensselaer.

The Rev. Dr. Jones declared Sunday was just the man to "chase the devil into the Hudson river."

NEW MEMBERS WILL BE RECEIVED AT CENTRAL UNION CHURCH SUNDAY

At the Central Union church Sunday morning new members will be received into fellowship and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper celebrated. Dr. Doremus Scudder will speak on "The Great Feast," the 19th address in the series, "The Gibraltar of the New Testament." In the evening he will speak on "Two Civic Examples."

NEW OFFICERS IN CHARGE AT CENTRAL UNION

Revised Method of Election Proves Its Value When Given Initial Try-Out

The new method of electing officers which Central Union church tried out for the first time at its recent annual meeting seems definitely to have proved its value. Although all the voting members of the church did not return their preliminary ballots a sufficient number were received to give the tellers a clear idea of the desires of the church and these nominations formed the basis of the final ballot. One of the new features of this system is that it brings to light new material which might otherwise wait longer for discovery. The officers elected were as follows:

Deacons—William A. Bowen, Joseph P. Cooke. Deaconesses—Mrs. Harriet W. Hobdy, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Waterhouse. Counsellors—Arthur F. Griffiths, Paul Super. Clerk—Ernest T. Chase. Treasurer—Clifton H. Tracy. Bible school superintendent—Vaughan MacCaughy. Chief usher, term of two years—Charles H. Atherton. Chief usher, term of one year—Frank C. Atherton. Trustees—Charles H. Atherton, Benjamin P. Dillingham, Frederick J. Lowrey.

ANNUAL MEETING OF ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE FEB. 26

Rev. P. A. Baker, National Superintendent, Will Open the Three-Day Convention

Dr. J. W. Wadman and his co-workers are now actively engaged in preparing plans for a convention to be held February 26, 27, 28 in the Kawaiahao church by the Anti-Saloon League of Hawaii on its new and broader territorial basis.

Delegates will be elected by all churches and missions throughout the islands and are expected to be present at this conference when measures will be considered and plans made for a more extensive work during the year, under the auspices of the league. An interesting feature in connection with this conference will be the presence of Rev. Purley A. Baker of Ohio, national superintendent. Dr. Baker is a national figure. He is the leader of the forces cooperating to secure national prohibition for the United States. He is gifted with unusual administrative ability and is a platform speaker of national note. Dr. Doremus Scudder has invited Dr. Baker to speak in Central Union church on the morning of February 26, and on the evening of that day a mass meeting will be held in the opera house and addresses given by Dr. Baker and other speakers of local prominence.

FEB. 28 IS SET AS UNIVERSAL DAY OF PRAYER

Occasion Will Be Observed By Associations and Churches of Honolulu

Sunday, February 28, has been set by the World Student Christian Federation as the "Universal Day of Prayer" for students. The federation, which has branches in every country where there are students, has for many years asked the churches to unite in praying for the students of many lands. These days of prayer have done much to center the interest of religious leaders upon the importance of the student population.

A call for the local observance being sent out by the Inter-Church Federation to the ministers of the city. The ministers are to be asked either to preach special sermons on student life or to make mention of the needs of students in their pastoral prayers. The increasing number of students and their enlarging influence should be brought to the attention of all Christian people. In the call issued by the World Student Christian Federation and which was written by Dr. John R. Mott the following statement is made: "Never in the history of universities and colleges has there been such need for united intercession on the part of Christian students and all other Christians who recognize the boundless spiritual possibilities of these centers of learning, as in this fateful moment of the life of the world. Never have the minds of students been occupied with so many unanswered questions involving issues of life and death. Never have they been so willing to respond to religious reality. The list of objects of intercession includes the following: "Let us pray that in every country special efforts may be put forth to improve the present wonderful opportunity—the like of which has never been known—to see before students the claims of Jesus Christ. That the officers and leaders of the student movements, in the countries now at war, at this time when so many of their colleagues and members are at the front, may be given special wisdom and power to meet the added responsibilities."

being erected on Kewalo street is being made with unusual rapidity and that the prospects are that by the first of March it will be about complete and ready for the installation of the furniture. It is going to be unique, not only in architectural design but also in the matter of conveniences both for the religious and social activity of the church.

GOSSIP

LICKITY-CLICK, whirr-r-r-r, followed by a dull thud, has become a familiar sequence of sounds to those in the vicinity of the skating rink. And why the noise? Society has gone skating crazy. There is seldom an hour during the day or evening that society folk do not visit the rink.

Gradually the skaters as they gain more confidence in their prowess are leaving the inner wooden circle and are sliding upon the cement floor. Of course there are many "Irish" promoters for seemingly the cement floor does not always keep its place but comes up to meet the skaters. Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell, the charming wife of Colonel Bromwell, is leader among the skaters and it was through her activity that the popular Skating Club was organized. Mrs. Bromwell, who has recently come from Washington, D. C., was considered by all, one of the most graceful skaters at the nation's capital, and was a member of a select roller club where which held its meetings in the early mornings and the society folks resorted to music. During her visits to Paris, London and Berlin, Mrs. Bromwell attracted much attention through her graceful skating, for in the European cities, too, skating is one of the most popular forms of entertainment.

The service folk here are among the most earnest devotees of skating and the officers and ladies spend much time at the rink. The Tuesday Evening Club meetings are among the largest and most popular affairs of the week, and usually the members of the club are wearing their evening frocks for simple suits of serge or silk which have found more serviceable. The meetings are preceded by a score or more dinner parties and dinner skating has almost entirely replaced dinner dancing.

Simple frocks or suits are worn by most of the women who take an active part in the skating. Mrs. Charles Bromwell usually wears a cloth costume of green silk crepe and a jaunty straw hat.

Mrs. Arthur Wilder has been seen a number of times in an attractive suit of brown velvet with brown hat and shoes to match.

Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, another most devoted of the new sport, wears a simple suit of dark blue satin and a white hat.

Mrs. Walter Dillingham has appeared at the rink a number of times in a serge suit with white toque and a white hat.

Miss Alice Macfarlane as a rule wears a light shirtwaist and heavy skirt.

The Academy girls, who usually spend Friday afternoons skating, make a specialty of wearing middie suits and simple skirts.

Among those who attract attention because of their graceful skating are Mrs. Charles Bromwell, Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Miss Hazel Burr, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Betty Jones, Miss Lila McDonald, Judge Dickey, Lieut. Bolter, Dixon, Nott, John Redman, Captain Kelley, Mr. Robert Couvain and Mr. Herbert Dowsett.

Among those who attended the skating rink on Tuesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Erdman, Mrs. Charles Bromwell, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Dickey, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin Shepherd, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Miss Wilhelmnia Tenney, Miss Ruth McChesney, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. Will Cameron, Mrs. W. Montague Graham, Miss Charlotte Power, Mrs. Neave Abbott Howland, Miss Helen Murphy, Lieut. and Mrs. F. C. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coombs, Mr. and Mrs. McHenry, Mr. Will Warren, Mr. Clarence H. Olson, Lieut. Ellis Lando, Mr. Leo Mudd and Mr. Ed McHenry.

The de Guignes and Miss Chase entertained.

seen cantering along the boulevards. San Franciscans were in hopes that Mrs. Christian de Guigne, Jr., and Miss Yeabel Chase would take part in the coming event, for they are both excellent horsewomen. Mr. and Mrs. de Guigne and Miss Chase, however, have spent the past fortnight in Honolulu and will return to the bay city too late for the show. This trio of San Francisco folk are outdoor enthusiasts and take a leading part in the polo and golf tournaments. Miss Chase is from San Mateo and is one of the most attractive young women in California's smart set. Mrs. de Guigne is a charming matron. Among the recent affairs given for the visitors was a dinner by Mrs. Harold Dillingham, and tea by Mrs. Gerrit Wilder and numerous other parties.

The party left for the volcano in the Matsunisa and will return to this city Monday morning. On Wednesday they will depart from the islands in the Matsunisa.

A Week-End Party.
Mr. George Ahlborn was host at a jolly week-end party last Saturday and Sunday when he took a number of young folks around the islands. Chaperoned by Mrs. Ahlborn, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Ruth Soper, Harry Lucas, Walter Argabrite and the host, motored to Hialeah where they took part in the moonlight dance. On Sunday they continued on their way around the island, stopping at the Arthur Walls' country place at Waialeale for luncheon.

Mr. Ahlborn is noted for his pleasant entertainments, but this last party has been termed the best of them all.

Maj. and Mrs. Case Entertains.
One of the very delightful affairs of this week was the dinner at which Maj. and Mrs. D. B. Case entertained on Thursday evening for Miss S. L. Merrill, a visitor in Honolulu. The affair was given at the Pleasanton hotel and a charming arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums ornamented the table at which covers were laid for Miss S. L. Merrill, Col. and Mrs. Francis French, Maj. and Mrs. Michael Leatham, Mrs. Avret, Miss Elizabeth London, Miss Betty Case, Maj. M. A. De Laney, Maj. George Blakely, Mr. Robert White, Mr. Bert Clark and the host and hostess.

Lieut. and Mrs. William Munter Entertains.
Mrs. William Munter was hostess at a charming bridge party on Thursday evening at their home on Keananuku street. Quantities of yellow chrysanthemums and crapeolis in vases and jardiniere were arranged about the house with pleasing effect. When the scores were added Mrs. Fred Damon was given a dainty gold hatpin as first prize for the ladies and Lieut. Humbert received a silver bottle opener. For the consolation Mrs. M. T. Clegg was awarded a popular book of fiction. Lieut. and Mrs. Munter's guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Damon, Dr. and Mrs. Ormond Wall, Lieut. and Mrs. Davis, Capt. and Mrs. James Brown, Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ellis, Mrs. A. Hoeking, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazier, Lieut. and Mrs. George Humbert and Mr. Harry Hoffman.

An Informal Bridge Party.
Mrs. L. C. Ables was hostess at an informal bridge party at her attractive home on Keolu street on Thursday afternoon. Twenty-four guests were bidden to the delightful affair.

Thursday Afternoon Bridge.
Mrs. Antonio Perry was hostess for the Bridge Club on Thursday afternoon at her home on Emma street. The first prize, an artistic salted almond dish, was given to Miss Katherine Woodford, and Mrs. George Brown received a tulip fairy lamp as the second prize. Among those present were Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Edward Dekum, Mr. Arthur Hodgins, Mrs. Schmutzler, Mrs. F. J. Lindeman, Miss Katherine Woodford, Mrs. M. T. Clegg, Mrs. L. E. Davis, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. C. G. Haiser and Mrs. Stuart Johnson.

Brightly colored pansettias and crotons were arranged about the house with charming effect.

Red Cross Benefit on Kauai.
Under the auspices of the Mokihana Club, a benefit for the American Red Cross Society is to be given tonight at Kiloana, the Kanae home of Mrs. Albert Wilcox. An attractive musical program has been arranged, after which there will be a dance. Some of the latest dances will be portrayed by the members of Miss Cassel Lewis' class. Refreshments will be served and there will be a sale of leis and candy.

For Miss Irma Ballentyne.
Miss Irma Ballentyne, the much feted fiancée of Mr. Clifford Watson White, was the guest of honor at a delightfully appointed luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at which Miss Violet Atherton entertained. Shasta daisies and maidenhair ferns were arranged attractively on the table and place cards ornamented with old shoes and rice marked the covers for the guests. Those present were Miss Irma Ballentyne, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Mrs. Theodore Cooke, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Pearl Sutherland, Mrs. Edward B. Loomis, Miss Sara Lucas, Mrs. Jack Guard, Miss Florence Gurrey, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Dorothy Wood and the hostess.

Visiting Honolulu.
Captain and Mrs. F. H. Foucar have as their house guest, Mrs. F. W. Foucar, Captain Foucar's mother. Mrs. Foucar will remain in Hawaii indefinitely and during her stay here will be entertained by her daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Freeman to Entertain.
Mrs. Freeman, wife of Captain Geo. Freeman, U. S. A., has issued cards for an at home from 4 to 6, at her home on Anapuni street next Friday afternoon.

Lulu for Visitors.
The home of Col. Sam Parker at Waikiki was the scene of an old-time luau today at which Mr. and Mrs. Adam H. Dickey of Boston, Massachusetts, were the guests of honor. In a grass-covered lanai looking out upon the breakers at long tables laden with rare Hawaiian delicacies were seated nearly a hundred guests. Green and yellow, the colors of Hawaii, predominated in the decorations and quantities of flowers and ferns, relieved by golden crapeolis were strewn upon the tables.

During the luncheon hour and afternoon a Hawaiian quintet club sang airs of Old Hawaii, much to the delight of the strangers. In all its appointments the affair was typical of the Hawaiian hospitality which has been sung on two continents.

Prior to the luncheon an informal reception was held during which time the guests were presented to Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, who graced the affair with her presence.

The hosts and hostesses of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin K. Kea, Mrs. Emma Nakulua, Mrs. C. J. Lorrain, Mrs. Thomas Kiakona, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stone, Mrs. Annie Macfarlane and Mrs. Harry Davidson.

Covers were laid at the affair for Queen Liliuokalani, Mr. and Mrs. Adam H. Dickey, Mrs. C. S. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. John Aimoku Dominis, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Stacker, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Lillie, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Newell, Capt. and Mrs. Christian Lorenzen, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Beckley, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin K. Kea, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. J. ## Announcement, of Interest to Women

We have just received a new line of dress goods from the mainland, via the Matsonia, and are offering the ladies a splendid opportunity to learn of the style changes, etc.

The fashions of each new season are always interesting to women folk.

This season, we carry a special note of interest, for this year the majority of the fashions are of American design.

Quite naturally, our Spring showing of dress fabrics is not entirely complete just yet. However, the styles now being shown are a faithful forecast of the styles to be worn the coming season. The woman who buys her dress materials or shirtwaists now has the added advantage, not alone of wearing an advanced style, but of securing, as well, extra service because of her purchase being made early.

A visit to our ladies' furnishing section, at this time, should prove doubly interesting.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and peachy white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a grayish appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness, leaving a delicately clear and refined complexion.

For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

of a cessation of the merry round of entertainments that have been interesting society folk during the winter. Whether or not the social clubs and dancing classes will close during that period is not known at present, but as the Mid-Pacific Carnival will open shortly after the season of fasting begins it is quite probable that Honolulu at least will postpone the observance of Lent for their own convenience.

There will be a number of Bible classes, and if they follow the custom established some years ago, the members of the Minute Club will meet more often during the season and will sew for the poor. This year perhaps the useful little garments which their busy fingers will fashion will be sent to Belgium.

A February Wedding.
This morning's mail brought the following invitation to Honolulu society folk:
Mr. and Mrs. Clinton G. Ballentyne request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter, Irma Louise to
Mr. Clifford Watson White on Thursday evening, February the eighteenth nineteen hundred and fifteen at half after eight o'clock. 1559 Thurston Avenue Honolulu, Hawaii.

The wedding of Miss Ballentyne and Mr. White will be one of the largest affairs of February. Miss Ballentyne, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne, is one of Honolulu's most charming girls and her many friends here regret that she has chosen to make her home on the mainland.

It was during a visit to the Northwest that Miss Ballentyne met Mr. White, and their marriage this month will be the development of a pretty romance.

Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard's Recital.
Society folk and music lovers, are looking forward with more than usual interest to the recital to be given by Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard on the Young hotel roof garden on Tuesday evening. The only feature of the whole entertainment which has brought any regret is that it will be Mrs. Howard's farewell concert in Honolulu, for on Wednesday the talented pianist will sail for the mainland. Assisting Mrs. Howard will be Mr. John Gifford, the young violinist whose work Honolulu

College Club Honors Mrs. George Huntington.

Mrs. George Huntington of Ohio was honored at a Hawaiian luncheon today, given at the Courtland by the College Club. Mrs. Huntington is honorary vice-president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in America, and is well known throughout the United States. She has been visiting Honolulu for the past few weeks where she has been the guest of honor at several of the large functions and has given a number of talks to various clubs and associations.

The interior of the Courtland today resembled olden Hawaii. In the center of the large dining room a long table laden with Hawaiian things to eat was decorated entirely with hibiscus and ferns. The room itself was artistically arranged with hibiscus and malle.

After the luncheon, the guests listened to selections given by Hawaiian authors, among them being Mrs. Walter F. Frear, whose sweet poems are generally admired; Mrs. Francis R. Day, who has made a name for herself with her pen, and Mrs. W. C. Hobdy, who read from Miss Anna Paris' "Lei Aloha."

A miniature Hima lei was attached to the guest cards.

The members and their guests who attended were Mrs. George Huntington, guest of honor; Mrs. A. C. Alexander, Mrs. H. E. Alexander, Mrs. Royal D. Mead, Miss Grace Power, Miss Berggren, Mrs. Carl Andrews, Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mrs. Charles Simpson, Mrs. Wood, Miss Nora Sturgeson, Miss Mabel E. Boshier, Mrs. Theobald Richards, Miss Clara Brewster, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. W. A. Bryan, Dr. Minetta Burnham, Miss M. Barnard, Mrs. Francis R. Day, Miss Justina Day, Miss Helen Cummings, Miss Mabel Jackson, Mrs. W. J. Forbes, Miss Elizabeth Eaton, Miss Elizabeth Higgins, Miss Antoinette Foster, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. William F. Gaynor, Mrs. William B. Thomas, Mrs. Bruce, Dr. C. Gilman, Miss Florence Yarrow, Mrs. A. F. Giff, Mrs. J. A. Clemence, Mrs. W. C. Hobdy, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss M. never occurred to her until Director-general Dougherty asked her if she would help out. Mr. Dougherty had heard of Miss Brown's success on the coast in amateur productions.

Miss Brown is said to have a splendid stage appearance, and a voice of excellent quality and timbre. She will probably remain here until the end of February. Many affairs are being planned in her honor by her friends here.

Poi Supper for Mrs. C. A. Seaverance. While the members of the Bar Association entertained Mr. C. A. Seaverance of St. Paul at the University Club on Wednesday evening Mrs. Seaverance was the complimented guest at a poi supper at the home of Mrs. Bernice Wilbridge. Ferns and bright hibiscus blossoms were strewn upon the table cover and each guest was given a carnation and malle lei. Covers were laid for Mrs. C. A. Seaverance, Mrs. C. S. Holloway, Mrs. B. L. Marx, Mrs. Robbins, B. Anderson, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Miss Parke, Miss Annie Parke, Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. F. W. Kieban and the hostess.

Talented Visitor to Appear in "The Sho-Gun." Society is waiting with keen interest for the production of "The Sho-Gun," which will be seen during Carnival week. This interest rose several points yesterday when it became known that Betty Brown of Seattle, who has distinguished herself there in several amateur productions, had agreed to take the amusing role of Oneco-O-My.

Betty Brown arrived here only a week ago, and the possibility of playing a leading role in "The Sho-Gun"

Mrs. C. Hedemann Entertains. Mrs. H. W. Lyon, wife of Admiral Lyon, was the guest of honor at an attractive dinner party on Wednesday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. C. Hedemann entertained at their home on Judd street. A dainty arrangement of sweet peas and maidenhair ferns was attractive as the table centerpiece. Covers were laid for Mrs. H. W. Lyon, Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Montague Cooke, Jr., Mr. E. A. F. Newcomb, Mrs. Garret, Miss Burroughs, Mr. von Holt, Professor and Mrs. William A. Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hedemann.

Tea at the Courtland. The reception room and halls at the Courtland hotel were transformed into a power of flowers on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. McCly Higgins was hostess at an informal tea. Quantities of purple and lavender asters were arranged in the reception room and in the hall vases and jardiniere of gorgeous American beauty roses and Japanese lilies were tastefully arranged, while from the ceiling huge hanging baskets of rare ferns were suspended. In the dining room a profusion of carnations, ferns and potted plants were attractive. Here from a large table refreshments were served the guests who were seated in small groups about the smaller tables. When her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, who was one of the guests, entered the room, the members of a Hawaiian quintet club rose, and sang the national anthem, "Hawaii Pono!" and when she departed the boys played "Aloha Oe."

During the afternoon Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. John Palmer, and Mrs. Jack Doyle received with Mrs. Higgins. Among those who called during the afternoon were Queen Liliuokalani, Mrs. C. P. TALES OUT OF SCHOOL FROM PEGGY TO POLLY.

Honolulu, February 4, 1915.

Dear Polly: We are continually reminded by society folk that there is to be a Mid-Pacific Carnival, for there are scores of parties being planned already for the different events on the program. But no one has spoken of a valentine party. Perhaps it is because all lesser celebrations are forgotten when there are so many plans to be made for the Mid-Winter Carnival. But what fun an oldtime valentine party would be with the house all strewn with red hearts and with the guessing games and country postoffice. I have been told that there are a number of engagements to be announced in the near future and I wonder that the girls do not make the announcements at valentine parties, for at that time there are so many interesting ways of "telling the secret."

I think that the military ball is perhaps interesting society a little more than the other events. Already parties are being made up for the dance, which promises to be a wonderful affair. The other day I told you about Mr. Tarleton's reading up on court etiquette and dress and that he found something to interest Honoluluans. Well, he has confided his secret to me, but it is so good I shouldn't keep it any longer. He thinks that the full dress suits of the men are too dull and somber looking for a carnival ball and he has suggested that the men wear a broad band of green and gold ribbon across their shirt fronts. I told some of the young men about the new decorative effect for their full dress regalia and they were delighted—they said that they would feel like court gentlemen. Of course Mr. Tarleton has not left the ladies out of his green and gold color scheme. They are to have fluffy little wrist bracelets with bows and streamers. Someone thought that anklets would find more favor with the fair dancers because they are so popular on the mainland just now, but the supporters of the bracelets won out.

No one will ever make me believe that the Honolulu youngsters have not followed in the footsteps of their money-making ancestors. A few weeks ago a little miss of perhaps 12 years asked her mother for a subscription to a child's magazine. Making some inconsequential excuse mother turned the question aside. Just the other day the little lady received a copy of the magazine with a somewhat lengthy article about herself and a six months' subscription to the periodical. Her mother questioned her closely and received this staggering reply: "Well, mother, you were so busy with your parties and things that I just thought I'd have to earn the subscription. You remember the night I asked you how to spell all those words? Well, you thought I was studying my lessons, but I was writing the story of my life."

Society is still skating mad; the ladies skate in the morning and afternoon and the business men forego the pleasure of luncheon and visit the skating rink between 12 and 1 o'clock. Among those who have mastered the art exceptionally well is Mrs. Charles Bromwell. Perhaps one reason for her success on rollers is that she resists the temptation to wear a party frock to the rink but instead is seen in a chic tulle suit, a jaunty little turban and neat boots. Thus far I have heard of no accidents to the fair skaters but some of the men have had rather unenviable experiences. Mr. M. F. Prosser has had to remain away from his law office and is nursing a broken wrist, while Walter Ryecroft is confined to his home with a more serious injury—a broken leg. I have not done any of the skating yet for I am sure that I would not skate on my feet.

When the news of Maurice Augur's wedding came to Honolulu the younger folks were all very much interested because Maurice is an island boy, but the interest is doubled now for the last mail brought word that Maurice and Bernice Bowman eloped and that Mrs. Augur knew nothing of the marriage until she was told that the couple were spending their honeymoon in the south. Young Mrs. Augur's grandmother, with whom she has lived, is very much pleased with her granddaughter, for, like the younger girl, she, too, eloped when she was 18. One of the younger girls is very much amused because after having been neglected for several months she is receiving scores of letters and numerous boxes of candy from a young college chap who visited Honolulu last summer. He gave himself away, she says, when he intimated that he expects to return to the islands in June. Like so many others, he is just looking for entertainment. The young lady says that he made the grave mistake of confiding to her all the accomplishments of his Berkeley girl, for she knows now that the candy, photographs and letters mean nothing more than requested invitations to parties and dinners.

Something entirely new has been brought to us in the announcement line. The marriage of the young couple is have been at private homes and when the Moana hotel gave a series of dinner dances with Marco and Fanchon Wolf as entertainers the affairs bordered closely on the cabaret line. But now the announcement has been made that the real cabaret evenings are to be given at the Popular theater. The first of the series will be on Saturday evening and a number of society folk have reserved tables for the occasion. Among them are Governor Pinkham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kiebas, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane and Lieut. Harris.

I have written far more than I intended, Polly dear, and it is 'way past bedtime. Lovingly, PEGGY.

Linen Shower for Miss Block. Miss Amelia Block, whose engagement to Percy J. Levey was recently announced, was the recipient of many beautiful gifts at a linen shower given in her honor at the residence of Mrs. I. Scharlin Wednesday night. About 20 of Miss Block's friends were present. Miss Block and Mr. Levey will be married at 8 o'clock the evening of February 18 in the Methodist church, Rev. Edwin P. Brace officiating.

Informal Dinner. Captain and Mrs. J. Whitham entertained informally at dinner this week for Captain and Mrs. F. H. Foucar and Major Delaney.

Chowder Supper at the Outrigger Club. Mr. and Mrs. Adam H. Dickey of Boston, were the guests of honor at an enjoyable chowder supper and surfing party at the Outrigger Club on Tuesday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Larsson entertained. Baskets of fruit and Hawaiian flowers decorated the long tables at which the guests were seated and during the dinner hour and evening a Hawaiian quintet club played songs of the islands. After supper the guests spent several hours seated around a huge bonfire on the beach. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Adam H. Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. Will G. Newell of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Innes Little, Mr. and Mrs. Ranny Scott, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ginaca, Mrs. James T. Stackler, Miss Ruth Stackler, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Coombe, Miss Genevieve Swain, Miss Ethel Fairweather, Miss Claire Kelley, Miss Kate Kelley, Mrs. Frances Hansen, Miss Nina Byers, Miss Alma Wilson, Miss Laura Wilson, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Taylor, Miss Clemence Gifford, Mrs. Shaw, Ralph Wilson, Albert Wilson, John Gifford, Sam Stackler, Werner Smith, Ainslie McKenzie and Ronald Higgins.

Magoon-Lindley Nuptials. At a simple but impressive wedding, Miss Ruth Dorothea Lindley became the bride of Mr. Alfred J. Magoon on Thursday afternoon. "The Terrace," the home of the bride's mother on Judd street, was a veritable bower of roses and ferns caught with streamers of soft white tulle. As the musicians of a Hawaiian quintet club played the Lohengrin wedding march the bride entered the room with her mother. She was a picture of girlish loveliness in a gown of soft white satin and silk net with a long veil fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Thelma Lindley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was charming in a simple frock of pale blue crepe de chine. Mr. John Henry Magoon supported his brother as best man. After the ceremony an informal reception was held and while the hundred or more guests conversed Mr. and Mrs. Magoon slipped quietly away to Kaalawai, the summer home of Mr. Magoon's parents, where they will spend a fortnight. Upon their return to town they will occupy a pretty little bungalow on Keeaunoku street. Mrs. Magoon is a graduate of Punahou academy and is known as one of Honolulu's most charming young girls. Following her graduation from the academy she visited the mainland where she remained for nearly a year. She is a daughter of Mrs. E. B. Lindley and a niece of Mrs. S. B. Deverill of Katala. Mr. Magoon is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alfred Magoon of this city and one of Honolulu's prominent young business men. The marriage of the young couple is the volcano and have been entertained extensively both here and on the Big Island.

Among the prominent arrivals in the Matsonia this week were Senator-elect Warren G. Harding, accompanied by Mrs. Harding and Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Sawyer who, as is the senator, are from Ohio. During their stay in this city Mr. and Mrs. Harding will be guests of Governor Pinkham and will be entertained extensively by other society folk.

Civil Engineer and Mrs. C. W. Parks, who returned to Honolulu recently, are stopping at the Young Hotel for a short time before going to their quarters at the Pearl Harbor naval station. While they were stationed in Honolulu some five years ago, Captain and Mrs. Parks made a host of friends among the town as well as the service folk who are delighted to have them "return to the fold."

Of much interest to Honolulu society folk is the report that Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, is to visit Honolulu in the spring. Miss Wilson, who, since the death of her mother, has presided at the White House as its hostess, is one of the most charming figures in Washington society, but her friends say that she is far happier presiding over the household than "gadding about at parties."

Miss Berry of Honolulu, who has been here for three weeks on a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Frank King of Mountain Brow, departed for her island home on Wednesday. This was her first visit to California and she was well impressed with the beauty and charm of the Golden State. Miss Larry is an unusually pretty girl, with large dreamy eyes and beautiful golden hair. She is highly accomplished and a musician of more than ordinary ability.—Redwood (Cal.) Gazette.

The Outrigger Canoe Club, together with the Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe Club, has attained a membership of one thousand. The club bathhouses have been moved to the adjoining property and work has commenced on beautifying the grounds of the club proper. It is believed that final operations will be completed before the Carnival begins. The Outrigger Club has always been the scene of social doings and when the dancing pavilion is rebuilt many of the dances will be held at the popular club.

The many friends of Mrs. Jack London, who met the charming lady during her visit here some years ago, will be delighted to learn that she is to return to Honolulu in March. With her husband, the famous novelist, Mrs. London visited Honolulu in the "Snark" and was entertained extensively. After remaining for some weeks in Honolulu Mrs. London will go to Hawaii where she will be the house-guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Goodhue.

Receiving at the first of their informal at homes, Mrs. John E. Baird, with their guests, Mrs. Pentland and Miss Funston, were at home at Mrs. Baird's beautiful Waikiki place on Tuesday afternoon. During the afternoon about twenty-five ladies called to meet Mrs. Pentland and Miss Funston who are the houseguests of Mrs. Baird. During the remainder of her stay in Honolulu Mrs. Baird will receive callers on the first and third Tuesdays of every month.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Baird and Miss Funston sailed for Hawaii in the Matsonia to pay Madame Pele a short visit.

Visalia Girl Engaged. From the far islands of Hawaii comes the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ella Rath to Mr. George W. Gonsalves of Honolulu. Miss Rath is very well known in Visalia, where she lived for a number of years, having attended the local schools and graduating from the Visalia high school in 1909. She was always very prominent in the younger society set of this city and on a recent visit here with her sister, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, was the motif of a number of luncheons and parties.

Mr. Gonsalves is a very prominent young businessman of the island city, having entire charge of his father's estate, who is a wealthy planter of the island. Betrothal cards announcing the date of the wedding as April 10 have been sent out and have been received by several in Visalia.—Santa Rose (Cal.) Press-Democrat.

Mrs. Henshaw an Honored Guest. Mrs. Frederick Henshaw and her daughter, Miss Elinor Tay, entertained some of their friends yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Fritz Henshaw, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Frederick Henshaw, who, with her husband, is here from Honolulu. Mrs. Henshaw, Jr., was Mary Henderson of Oakland, and the elopement over a year ago was a pleasant surprise to their friends at the time. Since that time the young couple has been living in Honolulu, having come here a short time ago on a visit.

Mrs. Henshaw had her home in Taylor street done very prettily in roses. At the table were Mrs. Daulton Mann, Miss Dorothy Danforth and Miss Ruby Bond. There were about 40 or 50 to call during the afternoon.—Examiner.

Mrs. George Clark will sail from Honolulu to her home in the Bay region, having spent two months in the islands. For a while she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellinger. On her return Mrs. Clark will entertain friends from the East, who are coming to visit the exposition.—Oakland Enquirer.

CABARET PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT AT THE POPULAR THEATER ELABORATE

Miss Nellie Clifford, a member of Shanley's Cabaret De Luxe, which will entertain at the Popular theater for an indefinite engagement, commencing tonight.

An elaborate program has been outlined for the initial appearance of the Shanley Cabaret De Luxe at the Popular theater tonight. Aside from this feature of the bill there will be given the regular photo-play offerings, including Pathe Weekly, Perils of Pauline, 17th episode, and Miss Hazel Dawn in a Paramount feature, "One of Our Girls." Besides the photo-plays will be girls galore, in song and dance specialties that are up to the minute.

The company includes Miss Trixie Leach, Miss Nellie Clifford, Miss Pauline Bennett, Miss Elizabeth Meyers, Miss Vera Laurence, Miss Katherine Costello and Miss Eudye Mae Taylor. The performance will commence at 7:15 o'clock sharp and the cabaret entertainers will appear 8:15, with an entire change of program each Wednesday and Saturday matinee.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Charles Willard entertained in honor of Mrs. Lyman Kennon on Saturday last by giving a charming bridge-luncheon of eight covers. The guests were invited for 11 o'clock and a number of rubbers of the interesting game were played before luncheon. The high scores were held by Mrs. James Higgins and Mrs. Charles Meals, who were given card-table covers of attractive design. Mrs. Kennon as guest of honor was presented with a cover also as a souvenir. The luncheon table seemed unusually pretty with its effective massing of Shasta daisies, coreopsis and nasturtiums. Places were laid for Mesdames Lyman Kennon, Carl Reichmann, Charles ma Kennon, Carl Reichmann, Charles Mitchell, William Maps, Ernest Goss and the hostess.

On Sunday Mrs. Kennon was the guest of honor at an attractive dinner given by Mrs. Joseph Daly.

One of the jolliest parties ever given at Schofield was the buffet supper, which later turned into a hop, given by Capt. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Deems, which was by way of being a farewell, as the Deems are among the home-going passengers on the Logan on Friday. The delicious supper of three courses was served at the Hopkins quarters, with the regimental band serenading delightfully just outside. After supper, led by the band, joyously playing "Tipperary," the entire company marched, two by two, to the Mounted Service club, where the evening was enthusiastically passed in dancing. Those present were Capt. and Mrs. Deems, Col. S. D. Sturgis, Col. John McMahon, the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon, Maj. and Mrs. William Cruikshank, Capt. and Mrs. George Apple, Capt. Ferris, Capt. and Mrs. Roger Mason, Lieut. and Mrs. Percy Deason, Lieut. and Mrs. Russell Maxwell, Capt. and Mrs. William Browning, Capt. and Mrs. Pelham Glassford, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph Daly, Mrs. Henry Lantry, Mrs. George Whitsett, Capt. and Mrs. William Chitty, Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Dr. Creighton, Lieut. Bernard Peyton, Ballard Lyerly, Kenny Palmer, Capt. Harry Williams and Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Naylor.

Mrs. Walter Pridden gave a most enjoyable auction party of eight tables on Thursday afternoon. The winners of the high score of the afternoon were Mesdames Sears, who was given a dainty water-color of a Hawaiian scene; Mrs. George Whitsett, whose prize was a cut crystal vase; Mrs. Pelham Glassford, who won third prize, a candlestick of lustrous falence, and Mrs. Irving Phillipson with lowest score was given the consolation, in the shape of a guest towel. At the close of the playing a salad course was served, with Mrs. Charles Taiman pouring coffee at a table decorated with a large silver bowl filled with fluffy yellow and white chrysanthemums. The guests were Mesdames John Wisser, Charles Taiman, Ralph Harrison, George Apple, Frank Simpson, Frank Burnett, Velle, Albert White, Charles Everett, Harry Wells, Jesse Ladd, American Mitchell, Clyde Crumpp, Seth Cook, Pelham Glassford, William Nalle, Campbell King, George Bailey, Henry Fales, Robert Sears, George Harris, William Chitty, Irving Phillipson, Rawson Warren, William Forsyth, Elmer Rice and Miss Anna Carpenter. Mesdames Ruttenutter, Baker, Alken and Martin came in at the tea hour.

Mrs. George Apple gave a bridge afternoon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. John Wisser. There were eight tables of players who progressed at the end of four hands at each table. Mrs. Wisser as guest of honor was presented with an embroidered guest towel. Mrs. Rice won the first prize, a picture, the second went to Mrs. Reichmann, also a picture, the third was won by Mrs. Howell, a shell plate, and the consolation was given to Mrs. Whitsett, in the shape of a dainty dress hanger. The guests were Mesdames John Wisser, D. L. Howell, George Bailey, Carl Reichmann, William Maps, John Hunt, Charles Willard, James Parker, Arthur Cassells, Carroll Neal, Percy Deason, Frank Burnett, Frank Simpson, Velle, Campbell King, Henry Fales, Irving Phillipson, Edward Carey, Walter Pridden, Elmer Rice, Clyde Crumpp, George Whitsett, George Harris, Douglas McCaskey, Jerome Piliow, John O'Shea, William Forsyth, James Higgins, Charles Everett, Robert Harold and Louis McKinlay.

Capt. and Mrs. Pelham Glassford entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Col. and Mrs. Lyman Kennon. Lavender was chosen for the predominating color note of the dinner table, a glass basket filled with sweet peas in shades of lavender and pink and glass candlesticks with lavender silk shades formed an effective centerpiece, while crepe paper bon-bon baskets and place cards in the shape of sweet-peas carried out the color scheme. Covers were placed for Col. and Mrs. Kennon, Maj. and Mrs. Ralph Harrison, Capt. and Mrs. American Mitchell and Capt. and Mrs. Glassford. After dinner tables were placed and the pivoting game of auction was played with Col. and Mrs. Kennon holding high scores at the end of the evening, winning the prizes, which were framed typical photographs of Hawaiian scenes.

On Tuesday Maj. and Mrs. Charles Taiman were dinner hosts, entertaining in honor of Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Velle. Mrs. Burnett's house-guests. The table decorations were very dainty, carried out in sweet-peas and yellow chrysanthemums on the different small tables used to seat the guests, who were Mrs. Simpson, Col. S. D. Sturgis, Mrs. Velle, Capt. Grosvenor Townsend, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Janda, Capt. and Mrs. Frank Burnett, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Fales, Capt. Harry Williams, Dr. Johnston, Lieut. James Uilo, Capt. and Mrs. Campbell King, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Knight, Maj. and Mrs. William Cruikshank, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Pridden, Maj. and Mrs. George Bailey, Miss Stella Myer, Mrs. George Whitsett and Capt. and Mrs. Clyde Crumpp and Lieut. Wallace Piliow.

monthly moonlight hop took place at the Hallewa hotel with a number of the Schofield people present. Capt. George de Grasse Catlin was host at one dinner-table which seated Gen. and Mrs. John Wisser and Col. and Mrs. D. L. Howell and Capt. Catlin. Lieut. George Whitley gave a dinner there for Miss Welcome Myer, Maj. and Mrs. Charles Taiman, Lieut. and Mrs. George Harris, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Sears, Lieut. and Mrs. Irving Phillipson and Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Pridden. A beautiful cluster of American Beauty roses formed the central decoration of a prettily appointed table.

Mrs. Charles Meals gave an enjoyable auction party of four tables on Wednesday. The pivoting game was played with Mesdames Harrison Hunt, Reichmann and McAfee winning the highest score and the very attractive prizes, which were boxes of assorted stationery. Present were Mesdames Livingston Watrous, Henry McCleave, Carl Reichmann, Jesse Ladd, Edmund Butts, Frank Burnett, Frank Simpson, William Chitty, Henry Fales, Ralph Harrison, John Hunt, Ernest Goss, Charles Everett, Larry McAfee and Velle. Tea was served at the close of the afternoon.

Lieut. and Mrs. Richard Kimball gave a delightful supper on Tuesday last, the guests later going to the 1st Infantry hop. African daisies and feathery ferns proved an effective decoration. Places were laid for the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon, Lieut. and Mrs. William Gance, Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Lieut. Ballard Lyerly and Bernard Peyton and Lieut. and Mrs. Kimball.

Miss Anne Carpenter gave a dinner on Tuesday preceding the hop in the 1st Infantry club. Covers were placed at a table prettily decorated with pink carnations for the Misses Walter Ayer and Gertrude Hopkins.

Lieuts. Piliow, Little and Fomeson, Mr. McCaulay and Lieut. and Mrs. Jesse Ladd. Later the party attended the hop.

Capt. and Mrs. Sherrad Coleman entertained at dinner on Friday of last week for Maj. and Mrs. Harrison, Capt. and Mrs. William Chitty, Maj. Julius Penn and Miss Louise Coleman. The graceful flowers in the central decoration of the table were tiger-lilies and the other appointments were carried out in orange color.

Mrs. Harold Naylor entertained the Luncheon and Reading club at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Joseph Andrews, who accompanied Lieut. Andrews when he sailed on the Logan on Friday. Present were Mesdames Ivens Jones, Livingston Watrous, Joseph Andrews, William Nalle and the hostess.

On Wednesday evening Maj. and Mrs. George Bailey were hosts at a delightful dinner, entertaining Gen. and Mrs. John Wisser, Col. and Mrs. Lyman Kennon, Col. and Mrs. Carl Reichmann, Chaplain and Mrs. William Alken, Maj. Julius Penn and Miss Stella Myer.

Mrs. Joseph Janda gave a delightful 5 o'clock tea on Wednesday for Mesdames D. L. Howell, John Thomas, William Alken, George Harris, Harry Knight, Albert White and the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon and Marion Smith.

Lieut. and Mrs. Dodds of the Field Artillery have as their house-guest Mr. William H. Dodds, Sr., of Detroit, Michigan, who arrived on the Matsushima and will make a visit of some weeks.

Capt. and Mrs. George Apple entertained at dinner last Saturday night for Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Deems, Capt. and Mrs. William Ennis and Lieut. and Mrs. Percy Deason.

The bi-monthly Monday club was entertained by Mrs. George Apple,

MAJ.-GEN. BELL TO COMMAND THE WESTERN DEPT.

Relieves Gen. Murray, White Maj.-Gen. Funston Will Command Border Troops

Major General J. Franklin Bell, at present in command of the Second Army Division at Texas City, on the Mexican border, will proceed as soon as possible to San Francisco to relieve Major General Arthur Murray of the command of the western department. General Murray is to retire from active duty April 23 of this year, and previous to his retirement will take advantage of an extensive leave of absence.

General Murray has been in command of the western department since June, 1911.

He was appointed to West Point military academy from Missouri and graduated into the artillery corps in 1874. In 1890 he was appointed instructor and assistant professor of natural and experimental philosophy at the artillery school at Fort Monroe. In 1887 he was appointed judge advocate general of the department of Missouri. He took up the study of law while a lieutenant, and in 1896 was assigned as instructor of military science at Yale.

When the Spanish-American war broke out he was appointed captain of field artillery and served through the Cuban and Philippine campaigns. In 1901 he was detailed to the command of Fort Totten and of the submarine defense school.

In 1906, while Murray was still a lieutenant colonel, Secretary of War Taft desired to make him chief of artillery. It being contrary to law to place any one less than a colonel in the position, he was immediately raised, two lieutenant-colonels having seniority voluntarily resigning to allow the advance. Since that time he has been given two more rapid promotions.

Gen. Bell will be relieved at the border by Maj.-gen. Frederick Funston, Brig.-gen. Tasker Bliss, also on duty at the border, has been appointed assistant chief of staff, and Brig.-gen. T. F. Davis will relieve him of the command of the border troops.

BADGES EXCUSE MEN SERVING WITH COLORS

LONDON, Eng.—The admiralty and war office are now issuing blue enamel badges with the words "on war service" to men employed by firms engaged on government war contracts. The badges show that their wearers cannot be spared for enlistment in the army, as they are needed at home to provide material and equipment.

Elaborate precautions are being taken to prevent any of the badges falling into unauthorized hands, as in case of the adoption of conscription their possession would be presumptive evidence that a man was excused from military service. Each man that receives one is told that the badge is government property and that he must give a receipt for it.

COUNTRY AWAKING TO NATIONAL GUARD NEEDS

Newspapers and periodicals throughout the country are carrying on the crusade for a larger organized militia, to provide a force of trained men in the event of national need, and repeated warnings from those who really understand the deplorable and military unpreparedness of the United States are being more generally heeded.

The military establishments of the various states are "passing the word" and the following bulletin issued by the National Guard of Maryland is equally applicable to Hawaii: STATE OF MARYLAND, Office of the Adjutant General, Annapolis, 28th December, 1914. Bulletin No. 5.

The following editorial in the Evening Sun, Baltimore, 26th December, 1914, is regarded as of interest and importance to the National Guard and is, therefore, published for the information of all: THE NATIONAL GUARD.

The country's hostility to a large standing army is partly inherited from English thought and feeling, and partly due to the conviction that it is unnecessary by reason of our isolated position. In England a large standing army has been viewed for generations with suspicion, because of the fear that it might be used against the liberties of the people. And even in the face of the tremendous forces organized on the continent and ready for use almost at a moment's notice, British statesmen refused to institute compulsory military service or to increase the regular military force to anything approaching the numerical proportions of the German, French and Russian armies. This attitude is in accordance with English traditions and with the spirit which has inspired English political development, which has placed the preservation of popular freedom above the fear of attack or the desire of aggression. But what the English might have done—and what they probably will do after this war—was to provide for the systematic encouragement and stimulation of military training by such generous expenditures and by such recognition as would have tempted all classes of citizens to become members of volunteer organizations. Had this been done as thoroughly and persistently for the last 10 or 15 years as the situation demanded, Great Britain would not have been forced to wait for months to put forth her power until she could "lick" raw recruits into shape, and until the "hay-foot, straw-foot" men from her shops and factories and fields had learned the rudiments of military education.

We are not likely, in the near future at least, to find it necessary to call a million men together against an invading enemy. But if the unexpected ever should happen, it is vitally important that we should not be in the condition in which Great Britain found herself at the beginning of this war. There is a safe middle course between British army unpreparedness and German overpreparedness, and that is by increasing our volunteer militia forces and bringing them up to the highest standard of efficiency.

Off again, on again; hats doffed and caps worn again. Enlisted men on pass can wear the service cap instead of the service hat, according to a decision of the commanding general. A change in the uniform regulations, issued a few weeks ago, abolished the service cap for Oahu troops. Some of the officers and men liked the change and some didn't, especially those who use automobile transportation exclusively. Infractions of the regulation resulted in the following communication and indorsement, which are self-explanatory.

Off With The Hats; On With The Caps

Fort Shafter, H. T., Jan. 9, 1915. From: Commanding Officer. To: Commanding General, Hawaiian Department. Subject: Infractions of Uniform Regulations.

1. Numerous reports have been made by the provost guard that enlisted men on duty at department headquarters including the depots and corral, and at the department hospital and from various garrisons appear on the streets of Honolulu wearing service caps instead of hats and without collars, indicating a general disregard of U. R. 77, as announced, and 115.

2. The orders to the provost guard are to order "to return to their stations all enlisted who appear in not in proper uniform," but the infractions of uniform regulations have become so numerous that it is necessary to submit this report in order that proper corrective action may be taken.

F. H. FRENCH, Colonel 2nd Infantry, 1st Ind.

Headquarters, Hawaiian Department, Honolulu, H. T., Feb. 2, 1915. Returned to C. O., Ft. Shafter, H. T.

1. In view of the fact that the issue of caps to recruits is to continue and the present force has already drawn them, the department commander authorizes the wearing of caps on pass and during the evening until those on hand are worn out; this is not to conflict with any special orders prescribing uniform for occasions, by post commanders.

2. White collars should be worn on pass regardless of character of headdress.

By command of Maj.-Gen. Carter. ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL, Department Adjutant.

FIELD LABORATORY IS LATEST BRITISH HELP

[Associated Press] LONDON, Eng.—England has just put into the field a scientific novelty

This is a course which is in strict accordance with the principles and genius of our government and which is free from the dangerous tendencies of militarism pure and simple. The man who belongs to our National Guard is not set apart or separated from his fellow-citizens, as is the case, to some extent, with the man who becomes a professional soldier. He does not lose touch or sympathy with civil life, he does not change his viewpoint as a citizen. He is still one of the people, and his soldiery is only a small and incidental part of his citizenship. He merely becomes qualified to protect his country in case of emergency. If for the next 10 years the majority of our young men would join some volunteer military organization and make themselves proficient in the manual of arms, the fear of a war problem in this country would be absolutely obliterated. The million men whom Mr. Bryan says we could summon to the flag in a day would be, if summoned now such as Great Britain has had in her training camps for months—men full of courage and enthusiasm, but without the slightest idea of how to fight. But after a decade of voluntary training, in which the majority of our young men participated for a longer or shorter period, we could assemble in the course of two or three days armies which in magnitude and efficiency could cope with any foe that might succeed in landing on our shores.

We think the individual states and the government are not only justified but are in duty bound to make very large provision for this purpose, far larger than has ever been made before. The National Guard ought to be greatly increased and every means should be adopted to give it additional efficiency. It will cost money to do this, but it will save money in the long run. Our own branch of the National Guard is in healthy condition, but it is 800 men short of its small peace quota of 3000. This is not creditable to the state, and Adjutant General Macklin's appeal for increased membership comes at a time which ought to inspire patriotism as well as create a realization of the necessity for preparation. Maryland ought to have twice 3000 men ready to respond to the call of duty, and the state could far better afford to increase its appropriation to this object than to give money to many of the purposes for which it has been frittered away. But we ought at all events to bring our ranks up to the full peace quota now required of us, and we earnestly hope that it will not be long before the adjutant general can report that this has been accomplished. Military training is even more worth while than learning to dance or to acquire any of the minor accomplishments that every young man is anxious to possess. It helps to develop manhood, physically and mentally, and when free from the taint of professional militarism tends to form the highest type of self-respecting, self-reliant Americanism.

NATIONAL GUARD NEWS

Maj. W. E. Bal, commanding the third battalion, with headquarters at Wailuku, Maui, was a visitor at guard headquarters this week.

1st Serg. George W. Baker is the latest recruit to the commissioned personnel of the 1st Infantry, being appointed second lieutenant this week. He will be assigned to E Company, his old organization.

In compliance with the request of the board of officers which drew up the program for the military athletic meet at Kapiolani park during Carnival week, that one officer of the national guard be designated to act as an official, Capt. L. W. Redington has been named by the adjutant general.

Orders were issued from the adjutant general's office Thursday for the 1st Infantry to parade with the regular army troops February 22, in compliance with an invitation from department headquarters for the national guard to take part in the parade. The regimental parade order has not been issued as yet.

Maj. Rose has ordered battalion drills for the second battalion on the evenings of Tuesday, February 9 and 16, the five companies—K being attached—forming the battalion have not been together for a formation since the joint camp at Red Hill last July. Company commanders are making a special effort to secure a full attendance, so that the battalion can be in shape to make a good showing in the Washington's Birthday parade.

Capt. George B. Schrader and Lieut. Mark Houghtaling have been relieved from the non-commissioned officers' examining board of the 1st Infantry. The board is now composed of Capt. Laurence W. Redington, 1st Lieut. John Hilo, 2d Lieut. J. L. K. Cushingham and 2d Lieut. Gustav Schaefer. No examinations will be held until after February 22, but company commanders are to submit to the president of the board as soon as possible the names of candidates in their respective organizations.

The smoker given by Company A Thursday night proved a winner in every way, a lot of pleasant surprises being in store for everyone. Details of the entertainment were in the hands of 1st Serg. Harold Godfrey, who went away above the expected in providing features, musical and otherwise. 1st Lieut. P. M. Smoot, the company commander; 2d Lieut. Cushingham and Capt. Henry P. O'Sullivan, now regimental quartermaster, but for some years past captain of A Company, were all on hand. As a "family party" the smoker was a big success.

ORDERS OF THE HAWAIIAN DEPT.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your hair! Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—advertisement.

With Honeymoon at Honolulu. Miss Bennet Donlin and Peter Nelson have returned from Sparks, where, last evening they attended the wedding of Albert J. Caton, assistant cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Reno, and Miss Charlotte Cagwin. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, Rev. Father Horgan officiating. Mr. Nelson acted as best man for the groom, who, with his bride, is well known in this city. The young couple left last evening for the Coast en route to Honolulu, where they will spend a brief honeymoon.—Carson City (Nevada) Appeal.

HERE'S A WAR STORY THAT'S FULL OF COLOR (Latest Mail) LONDON, Eng.—Chemical blonde horses are not wanted in the British army. It was thought at first that white horses could be utilized at the front by dyeing them a khaki blonde. But the results have been far from satisfactory. A battery of 24 white horses was treated to a coat of yellow lately and sent on duty for 10 days in rough weather. On their return, they were all a beautiful bottle green. No dye has yet been discovered that will hold its color on a horse that is being worked.

HANDSOME TAPESTRY HUNG DINING ROOM

THE agreeable effect of tapestry used sparingly in this handsome dining room inspires me to write something about tapestries in general.

In the making of tapestry, as in the making of life, the busy weaver's finished product is hidden from him. Neither, to carry the parallel a little farther, can change the finished tapestry any more than he can change the finished product of his life. The artist in paints or words or architecture can change his painting or his written article or his building, but the tapestry weaver's work must remain as it is woven. Talent and skill and "broche," which is not a shuttle nor yet a bobbin and for which there is no equivalent word in English. The picture is developed upon the warp by the wool carried by the broche.

The number of warp threads which are covered by one pass of the broche and one thread of the wool are only as many as are included in a single shade or tone of color.

In background scenes and skies the wool thread may cover at each pass from thirty to sixty warp threads, but when personages or their costumes are being woven it rarely covers more than two or three. In high art haute lisse tapestries, well filled with personages, the

But the person who likes a wide and varied information will find much pleasure in tracing the history of tapestries. They have been used at great tournaments, at the funerals of important personages, at royal marriages and at the coronation of popes, emperors and kings. Great generals carried them to war. As banners in patrician homes they have always occupied the place of honor, and in churches they have helped to add to the mystical feeling of the worshippers. There are two museums in Europe devoted exclusively to the exhibitions of tapestries and textile products—the Gobelins in Paris and the

BECAUSE OF THE WAR

BECAUSE OF THE WAR many of the spring modes will be distinctly military in character—in fact, the smart style suits for midwinter wear are decidedly military in effect and so replete in their trimming motifs, with the various insignia which distinguish the dress uniforms of the various legions, one can almost recognize the regimentals. Well liked is a Russian Cossack uniform in which can be traced the tendency of the spring styles toward the full skirt and fitted bodice.

Colors for cloth suits are dubbed with new names. All of these are of war-like character. Battleship gray is the name for that color, of which a famous war correspondent spoke as so subtle a tint "it dissolved into the mists of the landscape." In passing let it be noted that the name is a neutral nom de plume.

Hand shades are everywhere. New violet sing soles about the colors which will bloom in spring fashions, while they call our attention to the efforts already being made to provide a cheerful atmosphere among the trades by an early introduction of colored millinery, colored hosiery and shoes and very brightly colored veils and other dress accessories.

Later on we shall speak of godet folds, organ plaits and circular skirts as innovations. The close cut shoulder and the tapering waist will also enter into the scheme of things entire, and don't be at all surprised to see tight fitting sleeves, buttoned from waist to elbow, bodices tightly fitted, with a row of knobby buttons traversing the line from waist to throat with orderly nicety and severity.

NEW YORK RESTAURANTS.

LUNCHEON and tea hours in the evening seasons, but whereas all the restaurants are busy and brilliant from 6 o'clock on only a few favored ones enjoy popularity at luncheon and tea time. This favor shifts from season to season, and the tea place you found so gay on your last visit to New York may be as dull and quiet as a country railroad station between trains when you stroll in this year. New Yorkers go where the crowd goes, and fancy is fickle in restaurants as in everything else. To see New York at tea in the restaurants one must "know the ropes" and go to the right places—where dancing is the feature or where the English custom of permitting women their cigarettes after the cup of tea is followed.

Brown and dark green seem to be the favored restaurant colors, and with both of these shades blouses of the fashionable sand color predominate. This sand shade is a very pale tan, somewhat the tint of natural or unbleached silk, and natural silk stockings are having a great vogue.

HINTS ABOUT SPRING HATS AND COLLARS

YOU must wear strings on the back or the side of your hat coming spring if you would be strictly in the modish picture. The motor hat illustrated here shows you just how chic the style is. The hat was developed in beige suede with a square crown, and a narrow English brim. A band of beige grosgrain ribbon encircles the hat, with two ends falling over the brim in the back. On the ribbon band are appliqued flat chrysanthemums of leather.

In the center of the picture a novel collar and vest of lace are shown. The vest is buttoned straight down the front with tiny black velvet buttons and is finished at the top by a straight high collar of the velvet. Emerging from the top of the velvet collar is a lace collar, which falls to the shoulders in the form of a cape.

Cravatted styles for wear with the severe new shirts are in vogue, as well as the lingerie topped velvet or silk made choker effects. The ascot, which offers a white neck-band with a colored tie for folding, is a warmly welcomed vogue. Striped silks and satins are in the very heyday of vogue supremacy. These charming waists tone beautifully for wear with the neutral tinted tailleur of cloth.

These striped silks, as well as the novel effects, figure very largely as modish touches for blouses of lace and chiffon made along rather severely cut lines. They are selected for the modeling of collars and cuffs for these waists, lending a touch of supreme elegance and tonal beauty to these otherwise rather fragile appearing blouses. In odd contradiction, blouses of crepe de china, satin, corduroy or crapes are made with trimmings of white pique.

These newer neckwear styles, which in the beginning seemed to be sky reaching in character, are now fashioned to turn over the collar band. Turnback cuffs and collars of embroidered lawn, batiste or linen are in splendid style position. They promise to continue their vogue until the next season and may develop along very charming lines. Bits of real lace, oddments of Valenciennes and other laces of this character can be used to splendid advantage in making these new style collars and cuffs. It may be that with the introduction of the new style quaintness which characterize the revival of ancient modes now dominating all style tendencies, fashionable women will busy themselves, as did the women of old, in making yards of hand hemstitched founcings for the trimming of summer frocks or in whipping and rolling ruffles made of very sheer linens for the adornment of their finer gowns. To make neckwear is to indulge in very dainty handwork, the counterpart of which commands high prices in the shops.

experience he must have to make a finished product that will be satisfactory to himself and others. So it came about that only very great artists in the days of the best period of tapestry weaving were employed to weave tapestries. A tapestry is a decorative painting in a fixed and permanent form, and the weaver, who is the brush, palette and painter, is the painter of pictures. There are two kinds of tapestries—"haute lisse" and "basse lisse," or "upright warp" and "horizontal warp." The Gobelins are woven in haute lisse, but at Beauvais, Aubusson and Malines only basse lisse is used.

artist-weaver can weave only about a square yard in the course of a year. At the Gobelins this square yard costs about $350, which does not include taxes, insurance, interest on cost of plant, rental for the apartments of the weaver, etc.

Crocetti in Florence. Those exhibited at the Gobelins have been selected with especial care so that each piece shall be an object lesson to the student. Most tapestry historians fail to award Flanders her just rank as the greatest of all the centers of tapestry weaving. For over three centuries the Flemish tapestries eclipsed all others in magnificence and excellence, but gradually France, as she grew in importance, absorbed the weavers and ateliers of Flanders, and at the present time France has it about her own way with the tapestry art.

SEMI-TAILORED SUITS WILL BE IN VOGUE AGAIN

According to the advance styles for spring, there is every reason to believe that semi-tailored suits will be popular and that they will embody many new ideas. Among these are yokes of a wide variety of shapes and styles, some of these extending across both the front and back, some in the back alone and others in just the front, and of all shapes, including round, square and crescent shape. The lower part of coats will show much more fullness, and will be set on to yokes either shirred or plaited, and others will be set on plain and the fulness at the bottom be made through the flaring effect, being plain where it joins the yoke.

Yokes also appear on the skirts, and it is thought that they will be one of the leading style features of skirts for the season. The skirt is set on in gathered form or it is plain with yoke set over it. The double skirt effect with the all-around yoke is a new feature that promises to be a leader among the styles for next season.

SKIRT HANGERS.

Skirt hangers are easily made and can readily be sent through the mail, says the Detroit Free Press. About 12 inches of mercerized belting is required for a pair of skirt holders. Cut the belting into two equal pieces; fold one piece in half and lay the fold against the top of a three-inch safety pin, by stitching the goods close to the pin. Then sew the two ends together in a French seam, enclosing a bone ring. Before joining the ends, cross-stitch a flower spray or the recipient's initials on the front of the hanger. The skirt is attached to the band to the pins and suspended from the hooks by means of the rings. These hangers solve the problem of a crease-less skirt.

RECIPES TRIED AND FOUND VERY SUCCESSFUL BY WOMEN OF HONOLULU

WHITE BROTH.

Place in large urn on moderate fire, heavy knuckle of veal; cover with cold water, add handful salt and skim when boiling. Put in two large, well scraped carrots, one turnip, one whole onion (peeled), one parsley root, three leeks and some celery. Boil on slow fire for six hours. Strain and keep for general use.

BANANA PIE.

Free enough bananas from skin and coarse threads to fill a cup, when the pulp is pressed through a sieve or ricer. To the pulp add 1 beaten egg, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cracker powdered fine, 1/2 teaspoon salt, little cinnamon, 2 tablespoons molasses, 1/3 cup cream, 1/2 cup milk. Mix thoroughly and bake until firm in a fry-pan lined with pastry as for squash pie.

CRUST FOR MEAT PIES.

One quart flour, 3 tablespoons of lard, 2 1/2 cups milk, 1 rounded teaspoonful of baking powder, 1 tea- spoonful salt. Work up very lightly and quickly and do not get too stiff. Flour over ingredients for pie.

BEEFSTEAK PIE.

Cut steak into inch-long pieces. Stew with bone barely covered with water. Parboil a dozen potatoes. When both are cooked put in a layer of beef, with salt and pepper and a little chopped onion; then on of sliced potatoes, with a little butter and so on until the dish is full. Flour over all the gravy in which the meat was stewed (first thicken with flour). Cover with crust and leave slit in middle. Bake in moderate oven.

BAKED APPLE PUDDING.

Six large, firm apples (grated), 3 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 4 eggs—whites and yolks separate, juice of 1 lemon and half the peel. Beat the butter and sugar to a cream, stir in the yolks, the lemon, the grated apple and lastly the whites of eggs. Grate nutmeg over the top and bake.

until nicely browned. Eat cold with cream.

BAKED TOAST.

Dip each slice of toast as it comes from the toaster in boiling milk, butter, salt and lay in a deep covered dish. Have enough boiling milk in a saucepan to cover all well. When the slices are packed salt and pour in melted butter. Cover closely and let stand in hot oven for 10 minutes before serving. This is very good for invalids.

PLAIN GINGERBREAD.

One cup molasses, 1/2 cup lard, 1/2 cup butter, 1 tablespoonful soda dissolved in hot water, 1 tablespoonful ginger, 1/2 cup sour milk. Thicken with flour to a soft dough. Warm the molasses, lard, butter and ginger and beat them for 10 minutes before adding the milk, soda and flour. Roll out, cut and bake in a quick but not too hot oven. When cooked brush over with whites of egg. Keep in tight tin box.

SHIRTWAIST AND SKIRT FAST- ENED TOGETHER SECURELY.

One woman says she has solved the question of fastening her shirtwaist and skirt together securely and economically, without pins to bother with or tear the waist, and she can dress much quicker than ever before. Her device consists of three large hooks, two in the back and one in the front, sewed securely to the corset four inches below the waist line, and tapes fastened in loops to the belt of the shirtwaist to correspond with the hooks, the right length to hold the waist in place when the tapes are slipped over the hooks. The waist cannot slip up, and the skirt band will stay in place without help if the band is sufficiently tight. The belt of the shirtwaist is stitched on the inside of the waist, so there is no chance of its showing above the band of the skirt.

CHOICE OF VEGETABLES.

Selection of the vegetables for dinner has much to do with the success of a meal. Those which resemble each other should be avoided, as squash, sweet potatoes and parsnips, and with these pumpkin pie should be omitted; also, more than one vegetable requiring the same kind of dressing, as

TIPPERARY HAT NOW IN FASHION

Dame Fashion has prepared a special skypiece for sympathizers with the allies—the Tipperary hat.

And get this—no hat of the kind and style was ever worn in Tipperary, as can be proved by any stonemason who ever lived in that famous county. The Tipperary hat is the outcome of the popularity of "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary," which is sung by the British expeditionary force and condemned by some of Tipperary as misrepresenting them. On the cover of the song sheet is the picture of a Highlander, wearing a Scotch bonnet. Now, Dame Fashion, being somewhat confused on geography and the distinct costumes of the various arms of the British forces in the field, has jumped to the conclusion that the bonnet worn by the Highlanders is a Tipperary product, so they have modeled their creation on the lines of the Scotch bonnet. A score or so of these "Tipperary" hats are now being worn by Portland girls.
