The submarine F-4 has been raised 12 feet, and again rests on the bottom, slightly inshore from her original position.

This was the announcement of naval officers when salvage work was knocked off at 7 o'clock this morning after a night of strenuous endeavor at the scene of operations. There is 12 feet more cable on the drums of the hoisting gear than when a start was made to break out the F-4 from her berth in the sand, which is the best of proper to those in charge that upward progress has actually been made.

The smallest of the four wire cables around the submarine parted about 2 o'clock this morning, under the terrific strain, and this afternoon a heavier cable is being substituted. Actual lifting operations may not be resumed until tonight or tomorrow morning.

Diver W. F. Loughman, who for nearly four hours Saturday was a prisoner 225 feet below the surface of the water, unable to go up or down, owing to the fouling of his life line around one of the holding cables, is reported better this afternoon. He is not absolutely out of danger but everything points to his recovery. He is able to take nourishment and to talk to his companions, but it will probably be some days before he completely recovers from the terrific nervous and physical shock of his experience. Diver Frank Crilly, who went below and freed Loughman at the risk of his own life, is suffering no ill effects.

BROTHER OF ENSIGN LOST IN F-4 ARRIVES FOR VESSEL'S RAISING

J. I. Parker, brother of Ensign Timothy Parker of the F-4, arrived in Honolulu aboard the Sonoma this afternoon from his home in Murray, Kentucky. Parker will stay until the F-4 is raised and then return to Murray,
where he is in the jewelry business.
While here he will stay at the Young hotel.

HOUSE SPLIT ON VOTE; KUPIHEA HOLDS HIS SEAT

Member Under Fire as "Morally Unfit" Loses In Move to "Investigate" Judge Ashford

The house this afternoon vigorously debated whether to expel Representative Kupihea.

Representative Aiu, who exonerated Kupihea in his minority report, spoke at length against the Rawlins resolution of expulsion.

The vote was reached just before 3:30 o'clock. The vote was 15 for and 10 against, the resolution of expulsion thus being lost, as it requires a two-thirds vote to pass the measure. Unless there is a reconsideration of some sort Kupihea will retain his seat.

Following is the vote: Ayes—Brown,
Coney, Cooke, Crockett, Fassoth, Garcia, Huddy, Isenberg, Lota, Lyman, Rawlins, Tavares, Watkins, Williamson, Holstein, total 15. Noes—Aiu, W.
H. Crawford, E. J. Crawford, Goodness, Hale, Kaupiko, Kawewehi, Kula, Makekai, Nawahine, Silva, Vieira and Waiahoio, total 10.

Fernandez was excused just before the roll call because of illness.

Kupihea attempted to cloud the issue, it is asserted, before the consideration of Rawlins' resolution of expulsion came before the house as a committee of the whole by the introduction this morning of a resolution to investigate Judge Ashford, following the charges made by Kupihea last week, when he attacked the jurist's private character.

In his resolution Kupihea said that "if the charges of the representative from the Fifth district are found to be true, then the continuance of Judge Ashford on the bench would be a travesty on justice." Copies of a special committee's report on the requested investigation, according to the resolution, were to be forwarded to the delegate to congress, the chief justice of the United States Supreme Court, and to other Washington officials.

Representative Kawewehi moved that the resolution be referred to the judiciary committee, which meant probably death to the purposes of the investigation. It was said, and Ma-kekai seconded the motion. Kupihea bucked at this and demanded a special committee. At this juncture Representative Norman Lyman of Hawaii arose on a point of order and moved that the resolution be indefinitely postponed and excluded from the records of the legislature.

"This legislature has nothing to do with the appointment of Judge Ashford and it does not mean to fight anybody's personal fights. I say let the person making these charges make them where necessary or advisable action can be taken on them and prefer his charges with the proper authorities," Lyman declared.

Kupihea attempted to object, but Speaker Holstein decided that the point of order was correct and the house bade goodnight to the Kupihea resolution to "investigate" Judge Ashford. Early in the day the Kalili representative presented a petition signed by several voters asking that he be retained as a member of the house.

Leo M. Frank's legal fight for life has taken a place among the celebrated murder cases of recent years. Seven times since his conviction in August, 1913, the lower and supreme courts of the State of Georgia refused to grant Frank a new trial or to set aside the verdict; three times the sentence of death was passed upon him and twice appeals were made to the United States Supreme Court, the first being unsuccessful and the second resulting in the decision today.

REPORT U. S. SENDS NOTE ON CHINA, POINTING OUT TREATY

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wirelesso]
LONDON, Eng., April 19.—A Reuter's despatch from Peking says that the United States has sent a note on the China negotiations to both China and Japan, indicating that the United States has certain treaty rights in China from which she will not recede. The Chinese believe this note will have a "valuable moral effect" on the situation.

MAWSON, NOTED POLAR EXPLORER, A VISITOR HERE

Sir Douglas Mawson on Way to Australia—Sees Little Hope
For Stefansson

Sir Douglas Mawson, the great polar explorer who was recently knighted by King George in recognition of his contribution to science during his two years' stay on the Antarctic continent completed in February of last year, is a through passenger on the Sonoma today bound for Australia.

Sir Douglas comes from a three months' lecture tour of the eastern states, in which he told of his wonderful experiences in Antarctic winters, before scientific societies of universities. He lectured for one month in the Broadway theater, New York, there being such a demand that the explorer had to speak every day and night during the month. He is now on his way to resume his chair as head of the geological department of the University of Adelaide. He will lecture there for six months and then return to Europe. He says that the war has upset polar exploration.

Dr. Mawson's expedition resulted in the largest addition to Antarctic geography contributed by one party. He explored 1200 miles of Adlie land, the existence of which has been in doubt since it was first sighted by Admiral Wilkes of the United States Navy in 1822.

The chief feature of Mawson's expedition was the fact that he was in touch with civilization almost all of the two years spent on the Antarctic continent. The great advance made by science in recent years enabled him to study the polar regions in the ice bound regions of the southern plateau, and at the same time report conditions to Australia 2000 miles to the north.

The great explorer lost two of his men in the winter of 1912, and escaped death himself only by stumbling onto a cache of food. He is in company with Lieut. Ninnis and Dr. Metz, left the main base at Commonwealth Bay for a sledging journey inland to explore portions of the great ice cap of the seventh continent.

Speaking about the Stefansson expedition seeking the uncharted land north of Canada Dr. Mawson said:
"There is little hope that Stefansson is alive. He and his two companions are on drifting ice and it may be that Stefansson's wonderful knowledge of Eskimo life might enable him to live under conditions which no other white man could survive. He had only 70 rounds of ammunition when last heard from March, 1914."

Sir Douglas is a thorough scientist and believes in taking advantage of the best that science can give for polar research. His expedition kept in touch with civilization throughout its two-year stay in the Antarctic by use of the use of the wireless.

When asked about his future plans the navigator and scientist replied that he would not be headed for the Antarctic for some time yet as a few years will be required to arrange the scientific reports from his last expedition for the Australian Society for the Advancement of Science.

"This war in Europe has placed a damper on polar research," said Sir Douglas. "People do not want to give money for expeditions for the advancement of science when the chances are good for them to go hungry within the year."

AVIATOR GARROS A PRISONER, SAY GERMAN REPORTS

Official Cablegram Declares
Famous French Flier
Taken By Enemy

One of France's most famous and daring aviators, Garros, has been taken prisoner by the Germans, according to a cablegram today from official German sources. The cablegram says:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—
Headquarters report, April 19:
"South of Ypres the English have been ejected from small German positions which they still occupied. English attacks along the railroad between Ypres and Combines broke down with very heavy losses."
"Near Gelmunster the French aviator Lieut. Garros has been taken prisoner."
"Between the Meuse and the Moselle there are only artillery duels to day. French attacks against the Combines position and in the Vosges failed."
"On the east front the situation is unchanged. French and English reports about victories on the west front are all inventions, as the regular reports of the German headquarters sufficiently prove."

[Associated Press by Federal Wirelesso]
BERLIN, Germany, April 19.—Lieut.
Roland Garros, the famous French aviator, has been taken prisoner by the Germans at Ingelmunster.

The following cablegram from official German sources tells of the fighting on Sunday:
"WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—
German headquarters report, April 18:
"The English after some blasting yesterday rushed a German position on a height southeast of Ypres. They were at once repulsed in a counter attack. Fighting continues."
"In Champagne the French blasted a trench in a position taken April 16 by the Germans. Between the Meuse and the Moselle there are only artillery duels. In the Vosges southwest of Stotsweiler the Germans took a French
position."
"Southwest of Metzeler the Germans took an outpost back before a superior force of the enemy."
"On the eastern front the situation is unchanged."

HOUSE TO PASS ON COMPENSATION BILL TOMORROW

Employees liable to injury received another jolt today when Chairman W.
T. Rawlins of the judiciary committee, reporting for that body, recommended to the house of representatives that the percentage in favor of the injured workmen in Senator Castle's workmen's compensation bill be reduced once more. The report was adopted.

The bill originally provided that where death results within six months after an injury to an employee, the employer was to pay to the widow 50 per cent of the deceased's salary, and if there be children, the employer to pay 50 per cent, but if two or less children, then 30 per cent. The senate reduced these figures by 10 per cent each and the judiciary committee of the house reduced them another 10 per cent each today. The measure will come up for third reading tomorrow.

EXPERTS DECLARE SITUATION SHOWS GERMANY AND AUSTRIA CONCENTRATING ON THE EAST

BRITISH BEGIN IMPORTANT DRIVE ON GERMAN LINE IN BELGIUM—BERLIN DENIES ATTACKS ARE SUCCESSFUL —REPORT VON HINDENBERG PRESIDES AT COUNCIL OF WAR WHICH DECIDES TO PRESS EASTERN CAMPAIGN

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wirelesso]
LONDON, England, April 19.—That the Germans have abandoned their plans for a general offensive in France is inferred from the intimations of official communications to the Italian cabinet and the text of German official statements.

It is said that hope of penetrating further into France has been abandoned.

TO CONCENTRATE ON THE EAST?

LONDON, England, April 19.—A despatch from Geneva gives the impression that the Austrians and Germans have decided to concentrate their strength on the campaign against the Russians in the east.

It is reported that a council of war has been held with Gen. von Hindenberg presiding, which determined upon a transfer of Austrian heavy artillery from the German positions around Verdun to Poland. It is reported further that the council decided to send to Cracow the Hungarian artillery which has been used on the western front.

French Claim Drive on German Positions in Belgium Succeeds

LONDON, England, April 19.—The British have begun a sharp drive against an important section of the German line which holds Belgium. The fighting is severe.

The French claim that the British attack has resulted in the capture of 200 yards of German trenches.

Scientific Daring Nearly Sends Haworth Man Into Crater Fire

[Special Star-Bulletin Wirelesso]
HILO, April 9.—A narrow escape from death in the volcano of Kilauea was recorded yesterday when J. F. Haworth, the kite man here with a scientific party to take volcano photographs for Harvard University, unsuccessfully attempted to swing a man by a cable above the crater. The man was to be swung over the crater in a box strung on a long cable line. The cable broke and parts of it fell into the fiery pit. The man was on the edge of the crater and escaped.

House Tables Bill to Destroy Cattle But Has Another Plan For Regulation

Destruction of cattle affected with bovine tuberculosis under the Lyman bill, will not take place within the next two years against the wishes of the owner. The house of representatives adopted the report of the committee on agriculture today and tabled the bill, with the consent of its introducer. The committee introduced the following concurrent resolution as a substitute:

"Be it resolved by the house of representatives, the senate concurring, that the governor of the Territory of Hawaii shall, as soon as practicable after the approval of this resolution, appoint a commission of three members, who shall thoroughly examine and investigate the subject of milk and dairies, and consider ways and means for the revision and improvement of the existing laws as it shall deem advisable. They may, in their discretion, employ legal counsel in their work. Said commission shall serve without compensation. The sum of five hundred ($500.00) dollars is made available for the expenses of said commission, and the commission shall make a report of their work to the governor not later than October 1, 1916, with their recommendations, together with such bill or bills as are necessary for the effectuation of such recommendations."

Two hearings were held by the committee and several dairymen appeared and registered a protest against passage of the bill on the grounds that it would work a hardship on cattle owners and is ineffective and unnecessary.

ARTESIAN WATER BILL DECLARED GREATLY UNFAIR

That House Bill 338, introduced by Representative William Williamson, to regulate the use of artesian water, is discriminatory against the Hawaiian Electric Company, the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, the Alexander Young Hotel Company and the Honolulu Iron Works and that it is "obviously an attempt to curb the use of artesian water by those companies," as one expressed it, was declared by several speakers at the public hearing of the house committee on agriculture early this morning.

Partly as a result of the hearing and partly owing to the fact that an act has just been approved calling for the appointment of a commission to investigate and inquire into the water resources of the territory and to report and recommend such legislation as is needed for the regulation of artesian water flows, the committee in its report to the house today recommended that the bill be tabled. On unanimous vote the bill was tabled.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES SOON MAY GET $25,000 FROM W. G. IRWIN ESTATE

That the Associated Charities of Honolulu may yet get the $25,000 bequest from the estate of the late William G. Irwin, who left this amount to "United Charities of Honolulu," is evidenced in a report from San Francisco that Judge Coffey, in passing on a bequest of $25,000 to the Associated Charities of San Francisco, has handed down a decision to the effect that the words "united" and "associated" mean the same thing.

In Mr. Irwin's will he left $25,000 to the "United" Charities of San Francisco and a like amount to the "United" Charities of Honolulu, Associated Charities being the proper names for both organizations.

Judge Coffey, says the report, holds that it was undoubtedly the intention of Irwin to bestow his bounty upon an actual and existent institution which was in fact an association of charitable organizations, and as the Associated Charities is the only organization of that sort in this city it should have the money.

The governor today nominated Samuel P. Woods as a member of the Hawaii county board of supervisors from Kohala, to succeed Ernest K. Kanehala, resigned. The senate will be asked to approve the nomination.

CONGRESSMEN ON VISIT TO HAVE BUSY NINE DAYS

Committee on Entertainment Makes Plans for Giving Guests Plenty to Do

A tentative program for the entertainment of the congressional party during its stay in Honolulu was outlined this morning at a lengthy meeting of the sub-committee of the general committee in Secretary Thayer's office. The distinguished guests will be in this city nine days and the sub-committee went over the plans in detail, appointing certain of its members to assume charge of plans for certain days.

The point was emphasized, however, that the plans now prepared are merely tentative and may be revised at later sessions. Another meeting has been called for 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, at which William McKay, chairman of the entertainment committee on East Hawaii, appointed by the Hilo Board of Trade, is expected to be present.

Though a separate sub-committee will have charge of the transportation feature of the congressional junket, Walter Dillingham suggested that for the trip around Oahu and the various sightseeing journeys about the city the private automobile owners of Honolulu be called upon to take charge of various members of the visiting crowd. Accordingly Frank Thompson, R. W. Shingle, Delegate Kuhio and Carl Widemann were appointed to confer with the transportation committee and to extend a call to the automobile owners of the city for their assistance.

Major Gen. William H. Carter, Rear Admiral C. B. T. Moore and R. W. Breckons were appointed additional members of the entertainment committee.

One of the big features of the junket will be the reception and ball given by the governor. This, as tentatively agreed on, will take place the evening of the party's arrival at Honolulu from the mainland, May 3. It is proposed that the governor, assisted by Delegate Kuhio, give a big public reception in the throne room of the old palace building, at which the general public will have the privilege of meeting the members of the territory's guests. Following the reception and beginning at 9:30 or 10 o'clock the governor's ball would begin at the armory. This likewise would be a public affair, to which everyone would be invited.

The following day would be given to visits to the public schools, the Bishop Museum, the aquarium, Forts Healy and De Russy, with possibly a luncheon downtown by the Ad Club. A suggestion by L. A. Thurston which met the committee's approval is that Superintendent Kinney of the department of public instruction be asked to arrange a demonstration by the pupils of one big school; a flag-raising and salute of the Stars and Stripes by the youngsters and a brief choral program in the open air, somewhat after the manner of the exhibition staged on the capitol grounds in the last carnival.

Accordingly May 4 probably will be set aside for that feature, in connection with the visit to the schools. W. R. Farrington, assisted by L. A. Thurston, was appointed to assume charge of the day's program.

On the next day, May 5, the congressmen and their friends probably will be taken to Pearl Harbor and Lelehu, and Maj. Gen. Carter, Admiral Moore, Dillingham, C. R. Forbes and A. L. C. Atkinson were appointed a committee to have charge of that day's program.

Secretary Thayer received a cable from J. R. Desha today giving a revised list of the visiting party. It will include a total of 127 persons instead of 137 as formerly announced. Of these, 12 expect to continue their trip to the Philippines, while 16 will remain in Honolulu until June 5 instead of returning with the main party to the mainland on May 20.

The revised list is as follows:

Senators.
Albert B. Cummins, Des Moines, Ia., Chicago, wife.
T. W. Hardwick, Sandersville, Ga., Chicago, daughter.
Ollie James, Marion, Ky., Chicago, wife.
James E. Martine, Plainfield, N. J., Chicago, wife.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

Leoprosy is made just cause for divorce in the bill passed by the house second reading today.

Senator Iaukea's bill to compel district magistrates to prepare complaints for poor creditors in cases involving less than $25 passed second reading in the house today.

On the recommendation of the finance committee that the bill be tabled because it is of a private nature, the house killed Kuppela's measure to appropriate $500 for reconstructing the Hinanaga Nui dam in Kailua today.

Both Sunday services at Kaunakakai church were well attended by members of the legislature. In the morning the Rev. S. L. Desha, senator from East Hawaii, spoke on "Peace," and in the evening Rev. S. K. Kaulili, chaplain for the house of representatives gave a lecture on "Wisdom."

ATHLETES WILL BE GIVEN RIBBON EMBLEMS TONIGHT

Ribbons won at the track meet on Alexander Field Saturday will be awarded to the victors at a joint supper of the Employed Boys Club and the Kamehameha Club in Cooke Hall at 6 o'clock tonight.

Bronze efficiency emblems will also be awarded to the victors in the recent decathlon meet. Charles Loomis, secretary of the boys work, will present the Y. M. C. A. awards.

A musical entertainment is planned by the boys and a general good time will mark the evening as a beginning of one of the busiest weeks ever known in the boys department.

"ADVERTISING" SUBJECT FOR AD CLUB LUNCHEON

All readers and buyers of advertising will be interested in the program of the Ad Club for this week Wednesday. Prof. A. L. Andrews of the College of Hawaii will give an up-to-date talk on the psychology of advertising and an invitation has been extended to L. A. Tilley of the famous Studebaker corporation to give his sketch of who pays for the advertising. These talks will be short and to the point, brimful of value for the men who sell and women who buy, and sell.

Plans for Maui.
Plans of the Valley Islanders for the two days' entertainment of the congressional junketing party are complete. The distinguished visitors from the national capital will have the opportunity to see everything worth seeing on Maui.

On the party's arrival at Lahaina the morning of May 6 the guests will take breakfast there, afterwards making the famous automobile journey over the Pali road to Waialuku, having luncheon at the county seat and then visiting the many points of interest, including Iao Valley. Those who desire to ascend Haleakala will spend the night at Olanda, arising before daybreak to finish the journey to the summit on horseback and witness the gorgeous spectacle of sunrise from that magnificent vantage point. In the afternoon a huge luau will be served at Waialuku or Kahului, and the party will embark at the latter point for the journey to Kailua, Kona, Hawaii.

HOUSE REPORT HOLDS AGAINST HILO ELECTRIC

Recommending that Senate Bill 24 pass so that the Hilo Electric Company and other corporations can be prosecuted for extortion, the house of representatives today voted to force payment of an "inspection fee" by James C. Turner, a Hilo electrician and competitor of the company.

Between the months of November, 1914, and February, 1915, the Hilo Electric Company, Ltd., contracted from Mr. Turner on five different jobs which he had done for the sum of $15 as inspection fees. In each instance the money was collected on the ground that the company deemed it advisable, before they furnished any current where wiring had been done by Mr. Turner, to make an examination of the work done by him.

"At the hearing Mr. Moeine, the manager of the Hilo Electric Company, Ltd., admitted that there was no authority granted the company by charter, by any territorial law, or any county ordinance to make a charge for an inspection for work not done by the company. He admitted further that this money was collected for the benefit of the Hilo Electric Company, Ltd.

"As to Mr. Moeine's contention that the Hilo Electric Company, Ltd., would be liable if it turned on its current in a house which had been wired by Mr. Turner in a defective manner, your committee cannot agree. We believe that the Hilo Electric Company, Ltd., would not be responsible in any event since they had not done the wiring and all they had to do at the request of any owner was to connect up their wires with the wires already in the house and placed there by somebody else at the request of the owner.

"At the hearing it was suggested by the chairman of your committee that some adjustment of this matter should be made between the company and Mr. Turner, but there seemed to be no desire or disposition on the part of the Hilo Electric Company, Ltd., through its manager, to accept this suggestion.

"Your committee feels that this collection of $2.50 as inspection fee for a job done by Mr. Turner was not authorized by law and is unfair in that on many occasions inspection work was done in a very short time and by men whose daily wage was equal to or less than the amount charged as an inspection fee."

SENATE ADVANCES BILL REGULATING PRACTISE OF MEDICINE IN HAWAII

The health committee of the senate in a report this afternoon recommended the passage of House Bill 262, relating to licenses to practise medicine and surgery in the territory and requiring that licenses be given only to those persons who are graduates of medical schools. Senator Rice argued that the passage of this bill would deprive many Hawaiians and Japanese from a livelihood obtained from the practise of lomilomi and massage. The bill passed second reading and probably will be amended on third reading to clear up the lomilomi and massage question.

A message was received from the governor recommending, with the consent of the senate, the appointment of Samuel Barker Woods as a member of the Hawaii board of supervisors. Senator Rice moved that the matter be passed, saying that the message probably was a mistake on the governor's part, as it is not necessary for the senate to confirm such appointments.

SENATE REDUCES FUND FOR TERRITORIAL REPAIR

Amended by Senator Wirtz so as to make the initial fund $10,000 instead of $50,000, senate bill 110, which provides for the establishment of a fund for the repair or replacement of any territorial building damaged by fire or otherwise, passed third reading in the upper house today.

Before a vote was taken, Senator Rice argued against the establishment of a fund of $50,000. He said that the Territory could not afford it. Senator Metzger, who introduced the bill, argued for it. The differences were settled by Senator Wirtz's amendment, the vote of those present being favorable to it.

SPECIAL SHIPPING SONOMA IN PORT AFTER ROUGH VOYAGE

Boats were expected to arrive here today by trans-Pacific mail ship over the Oceanic route, but the Sonoma, which was expected to arrive from San Francisco at 10 o'clock, was delayed by a rough voyage. It was expected to arrive at 10 o'clock, but it was not until 2 o'clock that it arrived. The vessel was held back by a strong wind. In leaving the Coast it was caught with the largest gale in its history. The steamer will proceed to Australia by the way of Pago Pago at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Sonoma brought 27 cabin and seven storage passengers. It is carrying 21 cabin, 29 second class, and eight storage passengers to Sydney. More than 300 sacks of mail were landed at the port. The vessel left some telephone stores and general cargo.

Much of the damage done the vessel by storm had been repaired when the vessel reached port. Several crates of large snakes are going through to Australia. They belong to a theatrical company on board.

AN APPEAL FOR CHINA.

Only an informed and courageous belief that China is gravely menaced by the Japanese demands could bring from the missionaries of China such an appeal as that cabled to President Wilson, reported by the Associated Press last Saturday.

The missionaries of China are not acting without reason. About a month ago they outlined briefly their opinion and sent it to the president. Since then there has been nothing to indicate that America is contemplating a firm protest to Japan, and the missionaries realize that unless America acts, the statesmen of the island monarchy are likely to impose their will upon the floundering young republic.

On Thursday last the Star-Bulletin published the Japanese demands in full, thus giving Hawaii its first knowledge of the nature of these demands. Doubtless there will be denials that the demands are as printed, but this paper had unquestionable authority in publishing the five groups Tokio proposes for dual agreement.

It needs only a casual reading of these demands to convince anyone that an agreement on the part of China would transfer sovereignty from China to Japan. Not only through political, commercial and military advisers, but through actual administrative officials in Shanghai, Manchuria and other provinces, Japan would be ruling in China as surely as if the Elder Statesmen sat in Peking.

The progress of the negotiations is peculiarly uncertain. Japan has been reported as waiving a number of the demands. These reports were made with much emphasis immediately after the United States despatched a polite note of inquiry to Tokio. Japan at once disclaimed any intention of seeking unfairly to control China. Yet Chinese alarm and resentment since then have increased rather than diminished.

To do this, Japan has insisted upon the utmost secrecy. A despatch from Peking—undoubtedly genuine, since it was allowed to appear in Japanese papers—rather naively illuminates this point:

PEKING, China, March 29.—Despite the frequent warnings of the Japanese minister to the Chinese government that the proceedings of the negotiations should be kept absolutely secret between both parties only, the proceedings each time are reported in the English papers here in detail and are subsequently translated in the Chinese papers, which are making use of them in stirring up popular minds against the negotiations. The Chinese authorities thus never listen to the Japanese minister's warnings, but rather make use of them in favor of their country.

It is to Japan's interest to keep the demands and negotiations secret for two reasons, because publication of the demands in detail will show the world the extent to which China will be subjected to Japanese control and commercial exploitation; and second, because if Japan can succeed in keeping from her own people the knowledge of these demands in detail, she can "save her face" if she is forced by external pressure to waive some of the important features.

And this last reason is a very weighty one with Japan just now. There is restiveness in the island monarchy—dissatisfaction with its limitations—intense ambition for more world action. Japan demands room for expansion. Her people clamor for "a more vigorous policy" with China. Plainly, this means for Japan to take what she wants in China, bluntly and with force if necessary.

If Japan is forced to waive some of the demands—and the people at home learn of it—there will be an unquenchable surge of protest, which might even overthrow the Okuma ministry. Hence Japan, foreseeing the possibility that she cannot get everything she demands of China, wishes to avert home dissatisfaction by making the Japanese people think all of her demands have been filled.

This is acute diplomacy, but it was conceived without reckoning with the able journalists of China. British and American newspapermen there were not long in finding out the nature of the demands and in giving them to the world, piecemeal at first, but finally in pretty definite form. And then began the protests in China such as the 5000-word appeal cabled to the president.

China's only present hope is that the United States will not be a benefit baseball game.

States will voice a firm protest. If this hope fails, Japan will succeed. That, in the opinion of observers, means that China, with all her unpreparedness, will fight. Perhaps it will not be the Yuan government that will fight. But the people will strike out blindly. They will not endure the overlordship of Tokio.

A SIMPLE AND LOGICAL SOLUTION.

The legislature is evincing a disposition not to appropriate territorial moneys for the federal experiment station work. Probably it is because the federal authorities did not fall in readily with the plan for amalgamation of the territorial and U. S. experimental branches here.

The reason is not sufficient to cause the territory to withdraw its support of the federal work. Such a withdrawal would be unfortunate from every standpoint. If the legislature wishes to keep part-control over the funds, there is a very simple solution—appropriate the money for experimental work to be done through the College of Hawaii in conjunction with the federal experiment station.

RAISING THE F-4.

Although all hope of saving the crew of the submarine F-4 is past, by all means the vessel should be raised. Aside from sentimental reasons, Secretary Daniels is right in saying that the operation must be carried through regardless of cost, in order to ascertain the cause of the accident. If the submarine was lost through some structural weakness, it is highly important that the fact be established. If it failed to rise because of trouble with the machinery, that point must be cleared up. The navy is about to make substantial additions to its submarine fleet. It cannot afford to ignore any lessons that experience may offer.—New York World.

The time is getting short to perfect several important pieces of legislation. Among these is the naval militia bill, which has passed the senate and is in the hands of a house committee. That committee should report it out as promptly as possible. It is one of the bills that ought to be put through without needless delay.

Col. George Harvey has fallen out with Josephus Daniels and hands the secretary of the navy a few stiff jolts in the latest issue of The North American Review. It will be recalled that the last man Col. Harvey fell out with and berated was elected president.

The action of the Italian government forbidding the publication of news of military operations after April 1 is perhaps as conclusive an indication as any of Italy's preparedness for war.—New York World.

As the 1915 session draws nigh unto a close, we are afraid those who confidently predicted a scrap between the legislative and executive branches of this great commonwealth are doomed to disappointment.

Pessimist—the chap who knows the legislature is going to raise the territorial income tax, and after the session hopes to be able to say, "I told you so."

The Mexican general reported killed by the kick of a horse was found to have five bullet-holes in him. The Mexican horses must be of a peculiarly deadly variety.

Reading some recent specimens, we agree with the philosopher who pronounced the poems of the female more deadly than the male.

However, there is much to be thankful for. The Cucaracha slide has not done it for some time.—Chicago Daily News.

You may make, you may publish traffic laws if you will—the unconcerned speed-fiends will shatter them still.

Nuuanu water problem solves itself—for a few minutes—with the timely assistance of some rain.

It should be emphasized that the legislators really make laws much better than they play ball.

Charity excuses a lot of things, even errors in a benefit baseball game.

HIS WISH.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin: Sir: Men and women are not the only ones by any means whose thoughts go out to the widows and orphans of the F-4 men. Here is an incident from a recent family dinner. After the chicken course, the father and the five-year-old Jackie broke the wishbone. Father and Jackie pulled and Jackie got the long piece. "Now," said father, "you can wish for anything you want." "Anything I really want?" said Jackie. "Yes," said Dad. "I wish," said Jackie, "that they get those poor men out of the submarine tonight."

WHO WROTE TIPPERARY?

Honolulu, T. H., April 14, 1915. Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin: Sir: I wish to reply to an article from the Los Angeles Examiner regarding the authorship of Tipperary which appeared in your paper of April 12 and the Los Angeles Examiner of April 13. The Mr. Harry H. Williams in question, both in London and America, are one and the same, as the photos published in the Los Angeles Examiner, the London Sketch and the Music Trades prove the identity of the man who wrote the words to "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," also "Long Long Way to Tipperary." Can two men write the same song words? So why claim there are two Harry H. Williams. You will also bear in mind that this is not a claim of authorship, but of musical composition, theme original with the composer, Mrs. Smythe Jay. I lay no claim to the words.

According to the publishers (Bert Feldman & Co.), advertising and the newspaper accounts, there seems to be a difference of opinion as to the real composer. Some accounts saying Williams may have written it, others that Jack Judge wrote it and the publishers claim they are all part composers. The article in the Motion Picture News of January 9 states clearly that Jack Judge, the former of the three, is responsible for the composition. Why is it that the publishers don't come out and contradict these different opinions? Why are they noncommittal regarding the music theme? They seem to stand mute regarding this. Anyone who has ever played music at all can easily recognize the difference between the introduction and the verse of Tipperary as old familiar airs of an Irish jig and "The Wearing of the Green" revised.

I regret very much that my "Yaki ma" march was introduced to the public in this form. The march complete of which Tipperary chorus is my march trio, is a march of musical range and variety in the minor mode, taking a little over one octave. Ron do music is usually classed among the better grades. I presume this is why the chorus of Tipperary appealed to the great tenor, John McCormack. Did anyone ever hear of Jack Judge as a composer prior to 1911 and 1912? The first publication of Tipperary seems to have been his initial bow to the public in the composer world. His personality is easily recognized and would be very hard to duplicate.

Thanking you for your space, Yours very truly, MRS. SMYTHE JAY. The Original Composer of the Theme Used in the Chorus of Tipperary.

PLANTATIONS AND SMALL PLANTERS.

Kurtistown, Hawaii, April 15, 1915. Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin: Sir: Hearty congratulations, Prince Kuhio. It's very refreshing to have a man come out in the open and tell what his honest convictions are without regard for the awful consequences that may come from not thinking and acting exactly as sugar interests want him to do. No doubt an overwhelming majority of the people on these islands believe as Kuhio does, but are not in a position to say it—that re-organization of methods by the large plantation interests should be made and not until this is done will real prosperity come to the many and not the few.

The Advertiser under date of April 14 says editorially with this caption: "Serious Blunder Threatens." "Kuhio appeared before a legislative committee yesterday and urged the passage of a resolution requesting Congress to send a congressional committee to Hawaii to investigate the relationship between the small farmers and the plantations. One most substantial reason why such a resolution should not pass is that it contains the broad implication that there is something wrong worth investigating" etc. etc.

Mr. Advertiser, it costs the mills of Hawaii approximately $15 to manufacture, bag and market a ton of sugar. This includes a fat commission paid to their agents. Sugar today is quoted at $94 per ton. The homesteader at Oloa working under the Reber contract would receive under the most favorable circumstances a net of sugar $33.33—$60.67 going to the plantation. Mr. Advertiser, do you think this an equitable division? If you grow the cane and receive this amount from a rich corporation, you would change your mind about "their being nothing wrong worth investigating."

Five corporations practically control the territory of Hawaii politically and commercially. Of all Hawaii's broad fertile acres only some 59,000 remain under government title, the balance, with the exception of an insignificant amount held by homesteaders is owned or leased by the sugar people. Sugar cane is the crop that appeals to the small farmer, always a market and failure of crop unknown. The same mill takes the lion's share of the profits, in many cases all of it. When protests have been made at this condition of things the small grower has been termed a kicker, sorehead, agitator, etc., and told he had better get into some other business, and he generally does. Plantation people claim they can grow cane cheaper than buy it from outsiders. Evidently this is true and explains the discouragement that generally comes to the homesteader who grows cane. What is the result? Recently the newspapers published the sale of some Kaa home-lands to John Buck, one of Hutchison Sugar Company's stockholders who in turn, no doubt, made them over to the plantation. This is the history of much of the homesteading on Hawaii. Is it reasonable to suppose the homesteaders would sell their land if they were making a good living from it? Certainly the blame for it does not all rest on the plantation shoulders, although a great deal of it does. If a liberal contract, something like the San Carlos Milling Company in the Philippines, offers—60 per cent to the grower, 40 to the mill and the mill buys the cane on the ground. This kind of an agreement and the refusal on the mill's part to purchase land from a homesteader, homesteading on Hawaii would not be a failure.

You further say, Mr. Advertiser, that "Kuhio traveled all over the group with Mr. Fisher, then secretary of the interior, and heard all the homesteaders and small farmers and plantation managers had to say." Yes, Kuhio did and that is how, I believe, that he found out that the homesteader in the territory is not prospering and the reason of it and further that it would be a very hard matter to get any one on the islands independent enough to act as arbitrator for those interested.

Here is something else that Kuhio heard at the Fisher hearing, that Governor Frear, who was present, had recommended to the land board that deeds be given to the Waiakaa Mill Company for camp sites and rights-of-way for their railroads over the government land under lease to the Waiakaa Mill Company and whose lease was to expire in five years. Under this 30 years' lease the territory had been receiving the sum of 3 cents per acre per annum and the plantation, so it has been claimed, could have paid in dividends some years, if they so desired, 100 per cent.

The reason for recommending that deeds be given to W. M. Co. for these valuable rights was that the W. M. Co. would pay for the land and place its camp sites in a sanitary condition. Further along in Governor Frear's report he had said that the chief source of contagious diseases that threatened the public came from plantation camps. It was further brought out at the hearing that the Waiakaa Mill Company under a former administration had acquired title to their mill site and valuable water rights. This matter was brought to Mr. Fisher's attention, as is now mentioned, to show the powerful influence sugar has on these islands when it sways no less a man than our chief executive, a man of unimpeachable integrity, whose only excuse for his action was that the Waiakaa people would put their camps in sanitary condition. The lack of so doing by a private individual would have landed him in jail.

Mr. Fisher was a man of discernment and the homesteaders who appeared before him had reason to believe that had he remained in office he would have helped them solve their problems.

When the Hawaiian Sugar Planters Association was making the fight in Washington against free sugar it was stated by its representatives that it courted the fullest investigation of its business and had nothing to conceal. And now when the homesteader after struggling many years under adverse circumstances claims the mills are not treating him fairly and asks the people whom the H. S. P. A. told they had nothing to conceal, to come here and judge the matter they loudly protest as if this being done.

Luncheon at Country Club Sums Up Progress in Beautifying City

(By An Outdoor Circle Member.) One hundred and sixty ladies, each one labeled with her name, sat down in the beautifully decorated lanai of the Country Club on Saturday to a luncheon in honor of the organizer of the Outdoor Circle, Miss Frances Lawrence. At each place was a well-kept up booklet containing the bylaws and membership list of the Circle and a slip on which was printed a verse by Mrs. Arthur G. Smith, which was sung by all with great gusto: "Hawaii 'tis of thee, Sweet island in the sea, Of thee I sing, Land of hibiscus charm, Land of the royal palm, For peaceful days and calm Our thanks we bring."

During the discussion of the courses the guests listened with great pleasure to various jingles, descriptive of the beauties or trials of the different districts of Honolulu. Mrs. Lewis led off with a heart-felt song of the joys of living in Manoa valley. She was ably assisted by different enthusiastic dwellers in that eral of these concerns will expire very shortly and they have informed the circle that they will do no more advertising in this form. One of the worst abuses incident to the billposting business in Honolulu, she added, is the retaining on boards and buildings of dead signs and the posting of unpaid-for signs to make it look as if the boards were being liberally patronized. Mrs. Thurston was profuse in her praise of the work which the circle has done in its anti-billboard fight. She declared that this island is too small and the scenery too grand to be marred by bill boards. "We are trying to make this a city beautiful," she said in conclusion, "and to do this we have to do away with these ugly signs. We are going to keep eternally at this billboard business until ultimate success crowns our efforts and we have indeed a 'city beautiful'."

Mrs. Cox again—So much for what we have done. For what we are now doing Mrs. F. J. Lowrey alone can be the spokesman and she has earned the right to speak by her valiant work. "Let a fellow sing of the little things he cares about if a fellow fights for the little things he cares about." Mrs. Lowrey's paper followed and was listened to with great interest. Mrs. Lowrey said that the circle today is 300 strong and then asked what the organization is going to stand for. She suggested that the following slogan be adopted for this summer: "First—Plenty of water. "Second—Good roads throughout the business district first. "Third—A sidewalk law that can be enforced—and then enforce it."

Deep down in every woman's heart there is always a big desire to improve things, to clean things up and after that to beautify, the speaker said. She then called attention to the fact that before the circle can do anything permanent it first must clean up the city. She advocated an annual clean-up day, at which time every property owner would be compelled to either remove his fences or put them in perfect order. She spoke with warm approval of the work of Superintendent of Public Works Forbes in putting the palace grounds in order after the Carnival. Aside from the improvement of the palace grounds, Mrs. Lowrey urged the following other improvements: "Tree planting in the Auwailiuli district, vacant lots, the rechristening of the old Fort street school on May 3, improvement of a 'placid park' a road from upper Puunui to Nuuanu valley. In proposing the fourth toast the toastmistress said, "When the ancient prophet described the blessed land he showed the advanced state of prosperity by the vivid phrase: 'Your old men shall dream dreams and your young men shall see visions.' Have we not arrived at that happy state?" Mrs. Holdy then told of entrancing visions of future achievements. The fifth toast and the first to be drunk standing was the following: "Now that we have gloried in our accomplishments and nerved our spirits for the work in hand and dipped into the future, it is time to take account of the 'very pulse of the machine—for such corporate work is only possible under wise and enthusiastic leadership." Those of us who were part of that little Kiloahana Club realize how our president in an uncommon way fulfilled Lowell's description of the woman born to command. "The reason firm, the temperate will, endurance, foresight, strength and skill"—for there have been many hard knocks to endure, much need of constructive imagination to foresee, strength for real hard work and skill to harmonize many diverse elements. So that it is with admiration and affectionate appreciation that we older members would pledge our president; but before asking you to lift your glasses I will ask Miss Damon in the name of the new members and our whole circle to toast our president, Mrs. Lowrey. This Miss Damon did very gracefully. There is a story told of Giotto that when the pope, wishing to invite to Rome the most skillful painters of the time, sent his messenger to bring examples of their work. Giotto taking up a piece of paper with one flourish of his hand drew a circle which seems to have convinced his holiness of his superiority. So today we celebrate the artist who drew together this circle. Mrs. Frear had written a toast in her honor which, as Mrs. Frear to her regret and our own, could not be with us, was read by Mrs. Moore. Two dainty children in gorgeous costume of king and queen of carnival entered bearing wands, one tipped with a beautiful pink hibiscus, which was presented to Mrs. Lowrey; the other, a lovely white, named in honor "the Outdoor Circle," which passed into the possession of Miss Lawrence. A verse by Katherine M. Yates was read at this time. The festivities were then brought to a close by Mrs. Wright singing a very clever adaptation of Kipling's "On the Road to Mandalay."

The address of Miss Frances Lawrence, in whose honor the affair was given, was, in part, as follows: "I thank you for the honor you have done me today. I do not deserve it, for I have done none of the work. However, I want to say that I am proud to have had even the smallest part in starting this great movement for a more beautiful Honolulu. "We who work with little children can appreciate better than anyone else the relation of environment to the physical and mental welfare of the people. "This meeting today takes me back to the weekly meetings of the first executive committee three years ago. No one but the members of that committee will ever know the many obstacles and difficulties, the daily, hourly discouragements this committee had to meet. "But our chairman, Mrs. Lowrey, was equal to the task. She saw in every difficulty a challenge. She met every disappointment, no matter how great, by two encouragements a little greater. By her enthusiasm, her disinterested purpose, her unbounding en-

NO SUBSIDY FOR DIESEL ENGINES SHERIDAN COMES

JAPANESE S. S. LINES FOR A-H BOATS IS PROPOSED WITH MANILA CARGO?

The dissolution of the Japanese diet without taking action on granting subsidies to steamship lines operating from Japan to the east coast of the United States, through the Panama canal, has set back the starting of such lines, according to the opinion in shipping circles. This opinion is strengthened by a letter received by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce from Consul-General George H. Sedmore at Yokohama. The letter follows: In reply to your letter of the 9th ultimo on the above subject, I have to inform you that, although previous to the recent dissolution of the Imperial Japanese diet there was a rumor that the three principal Japanese steamship lines, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha and the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, were each trying to obtain a subsidy for a service through the Panama canal, yet when the diet dissolved without passing the subsidy bill for the year 1915 the attempt to establish such a service was given up. No absolute information can be obtained from the companies as regards the establishment of such a service without the aid of a government subsidy, but should any further information come to hand this office will immediately notify you thereof.

BIG TASK OF ORGANIZING NAVAL RESERVE UNDERTAKEN BY OFFICERS

Navy Department Strongly In Sympathy With Plan to Build Up Organization of Veterans for Service on Short Notice—Admiral Victor Blue Explains Method

BY C. S. ALBERT.

Washington, D. C., April 17.—The work of organizing a naval reserve, comprising 25,000 experienced men, is being undertaken by the officers of the navy department. It is estimated that it is possible to secure from 10,000 to 15,000 men who should be organized with a reserve. In fact, the law which became operative March 2 is being carried out. It is intended to vigorously push the campaign for enrollment until the estimated number have offered their services.

The situation is expressed by naval authorities that within six months they will have the civilian navy established as a reserve and that the country thereafter may have no fear that its floating defenses will be short of men to handle the ships and the guns.

The reserve is to be composed of men who have had excellent records in the navy during the last eight years, and who have been honorably discharged. In other words, it will represent the cream of the men who have come out of the service during the last few years.

Charges have been made repeatedly that the present navy is at least 15,000 men short; that the Atlantic reserve fleet which is now out of commission could not be used in the case of war and that the navy is in a precarious condition because of this shortage. The reserve is expected to meet this situation without incurring the expenses that would be added to the nation's budget if 25,000 additional sailors were added to the service.

Each sailor in the service costs Uncle Sam approximately $600 a year so that 25,000 new men would cost $15,000,000.

The reserve system will be operated at a nominal cost and officers insist that the experienced men will be of more value to the navy in time of actual war than so many younger men.

Plan is Explained.

The following extracts from a letter just sent out by Admiral Victor Blue explain in detail the new plan:

"There will be organizations of the reserve in every community where there are two or more members. They will be required to report at a designated place in their own community once each quarter for muster and inspection and to sign pay roll. Failure to so report will cause forfeiture of pay.

"Calling them into active service on board ship for drills and exercises is optional with the department. When so called they will receive travel and subsistence and full pay of their ratings.

"It is the intention, in this regard, to ascertain and suit the convenience of the men as far as practicable as to the time of such active service, as is done in the case of the naval militia.

"Due consideration will be given to the occupation of the man and its requirement of his services.

"Read carefully the act and note the following:

"(1) You must be a citizen of the United States.

"(2) Your last discharge must have been honorable to enable you to join the reserve.

"(3) If you decide to join the reserve within four months from date of discharge your pay will be $20 per annum if you have served 4 years in the navy or for a minority enlistment; $60 if you have served 8 years, and $100 if you have served 12 years.

"(4) If you serve 16 or 20 years in the navy you can be virtually retired on 1-2 or 1-2 pay.

"(5) If you re-enlist in the navy your previous service will count to give you these advantages.

"As you know, men usually get to be chief petty officers before they have 16 or 20 years' service, and their pay in the reserve would run from $35 to $50 or more per month.

"(6) If you join the reserve after four months and within eight years from date of discharge your pay will be $12 per annum, and you will get an outfit of uniform when first called into active service. You can, however, increase this pay by serving another enlistment in the navy, and then enlisting in the reserve within four months from date of expiration of such enlistment. In this connection remember that all your previous naval service counts in figuring out the pay you will receive.

"(7) Men in the reserve will be given a distinctive badge or button indicating their membership in the reserve as well as their honorable service in the navy.

"(8) When called into active service

PARADISE TOURS TO BRING PROFS. FROM MAINLAND

Under the auspices of the Paradise Tours a large party of professors from eastern colleges is coming to Hawaii about the middle of July and will spend one month in the islands studying Hawaiian geology and natural history.

George H. Barton, director of the Teacher's School of Science, Boston, is to lead the party which will be made up as soon as the school year is over. The present plan is to visit Yellowstone park, then the expedition at San Francisco and land in Hawaii in mid-July for one week's scientific survey on each of the four large islands. This itinerary will land the scientists back at their faculty posts in time for the fall term.

LEO FRANK MUST DIE UNLESS HE'S GIVEN A PARDON

interest in Atlanta has given the case because of its having been brought into a municipal political controversy, which involved attacks on that city's police and detective departments and wrangles among factions in the city administration.

Soon after the trial ended the case came in for agitation which spread all over the country.

Mary Phagan was murdered April 26, 1913, on a Southern holiday in observance of Confederate Memorial Day. Shortly after noon of that day she was seen to enter the pencil factory in Atlanta, where she had been employed and where she went to obtain wages due her. Her body was found next morning in the basement of the factory, with a cord tied about the neck.

Leo M. Frank, a young Jew, a college graduate and married, whose home had been in Brooklyn, N. Y., was superintendent of the pencil factory. Three days after the murder, Frank was arrested on suspicion and on May 8 Frank and a negro watchman at the factory, New Lee, were held by the carcer for the grand jury's action. Lee subsequently was released. Sixteen days later "Jim" Conley, a negro sweeper at the factory, made a confession to the police in which he accused Frank of having killed the Phagan girl, and declared he had helped to dispose of the body. Conley, who was one of the chief witnesses for the state at Frank's trial, was convicted as an accessory after the murder in February, 1914, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment. He began his term last July.

Frank was placed on trial in Superior Court, July 28, 1913, Judge L. S. Roan presiding. Judge Roan died March 23, 1915, in New York. A verdict of guilty was returned August 25, Frank being sentenced to death. In his statement to the jury at the close of his trial Frank said he had seen Mary Phagan in his office in the factory a few minutes before the time the state contended she was murdered; that he paid the girl her wages and that she left his office. The theory of the defense has been that Conley, who was about the building when the girl entered, and who had been drinking, attacked and killed the girl after she left Frank's office.

In October, 1913, Frank's attorneys filed a motion for a new trial, alleging 103 errors in admission of testimony and conduct of the trial, and also charging that demonstrations by the crowd within and outside the court room during the trial had interfered with a fair verdict. Judge Roan denied the motion and the Georgia Supreme Court affirmed his action February 17, 1914. A motion for rehearing of the appeal was denied by the State Supreme Court two weeks later.

An extraordinary motion for a new trial and a motion to set aside the verdict were filed simultaneously in superior court April 16, 1914. Among the grounds alleged in the motion for a new trial was that of newly discovered evidence. The motion to set aside the verdict was based on the ground that Frank's constitutional rights had been violated by the trial court. His attorneys alleged that Frank had not been given a fair trial because of the "spirit of mob violence that pervaded the court room;" and also that his constitutional rights had been violated because Frank and his attorneys had been absent from the court room, without Frank's consent, when the verdict was returned. This absence, it was claimed, was at the request of the presiding judge who was quoted as saying he feared mob violence against Frank and his lawyers if a verdict of acquittal were returned.

The extraordinary motion for a new trial was denied by the superior court May 6, and the decision was affirmed by the state supreme court October 14. The superior court on June 6, 1914, dismissed the motion to set aside the verdict on constitutional grounds, by sustaining the state's demurrer to the motion. The supreme court affirmed this action November 14, 1914, and six days afterwards the supreme court refused to certify a writ of error to the United States Supreme Court.

To review that action, application was made first to Justice Lamar, then to Justice Holmes and finally to the entire Supreme Court of the United States, for a writ of error. All held that the decision of the Georgia Supreme Court could not be reviewed because its acta was based on grounds of procedure, namely, that the plea for setting aside the verdict should have been advanced at the time the motions for new trial were made.

Application was made December 19 to Judge Newman of the Federal district court for Northern Georgia for a writ of habeas corpus, alleging Frank had been convicted without due process of law; that the trial court had lost jurisdiction over him during the trial because it was "dominated by a mob hostile to the prisoner," and that Frank had been absent from the court room when the verdict was returned. Two days later Judge Newman refused the writ of habeas corpus, holding that to grant it would mean that a Federal court should review the action of the state courts in a manner not warranted by the law of the country, and that, too, after the Supreme Court of the United States had decided no federal question remained for consideration in the case. Judge Newman also refused to issue a certificate of "probable cause" for appeal to the Supreme Court, but it

JAPANESE PRESS HOLD DIFFERENT VIEWS ON KUHIO

Two local Japanese newspapers, Nippo Jiji and Hawaii Shippo, took exception to Prince Kuhio's anti-Japanese speech at the hearing of the military bill last week declaring editorially that the congressional delegate spoke from ignorance of the racial situation in Hawaii.

However, the third Honolulu Japanese sheet, Hawaii Hochi, has taken an opposite stand on the question and denounces the other Japanese papers as meddlers in American domestic politics. The editors of the two former papers have chosen to disregard the following editorial clipped from the Hochi for April 16:

"We profoundly deplore the unstrained language used by our Japanese contemporaries in commenting upon the views of Prince Kuhio, the honorable delegate from this territory to the United States Congress, on the subject of compulsory military training. We believe they have gone to the limit of American forbearance. We apologize to the American people for their rude manner, and discourteous, heedless expressions, which ignore the common susceptibilities of all mankind. We believe it is language like this which prompted Senator Britten of the committee of naval affairs to say that the next war of the United States is to be with a Pacific power, meaning thereby Japan. The American people are long-suffering and patient, but they resent such language as used by the Nippo and the Shippo as much as any other people.

"Our people should be particularly guarded in the use of language in matters relating to international relations, and more particularly in commenting upon the domestic policies of the United States. We should strictly refrain from taking the side of any party. To us who are aliens living within the United States there is no Democrat or Republican or Home Ruler; they are all Americans and nothing else.

"It is not Prince Kuhio alone who says we are undesirable. Why should he alone be disparaged by the Nippo and the Shippo? Governor Pinkham has said the Japanese should be made to bear the major part of the expenses required for the destruction of consumption; and the Territorial Legislature has passed a law disfranchising the Japanese who failed to report birth within six months after birth; and the Republican party has passed a resolution petitioning Congress to disqualify the Japanese from bidding on government contracts. We do not and cannot indorse the policy of selecting Prince Kuhio for attack out of many who are more hostile to Japanese than His Highness. We believe it extremely unwise to become the tool of opponents of the Prince. The foolishness of the Japanese papers is astonishing. The opponents of Prince Kuhio are advocates of the commission government, while the Prince is a staunch advocate of the continuance of the present representative, self-governing form of government. If the Prince be discredited, and his opponent prevail, commission government will be the next program. And what does it mean? It means the disfranchisement of the rising generation of American citizens, among whom are a large number of Japanese blood. We do not believe in meddling with American domestic politics, but if the Nippo and the Shippo cannot resist the temptation, then let them exercise a little more prudence and wisdom, so that their support might not be given to the enemies of their race.

"On reaching the capital, about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the visitors will be comfortably ensconced in automobiles and will be driven about the city and shown all the points of interest. The trip will include a run through Rock Creek park and a visit to Arlington, besides an exterior view of the White House and probably an interior glimpse of the Capitol, which was burned by the British in the war of 1812.

"Strategic points will be noted by the soldiers on their trip, so that the Reserve Army may be distributed to the best advantage in defending the national capital, should it ever be called on to do so. The soldiers also may call at the War Department to pay their respects to Secretary Garrison, their commander.

"Following their drive the army will visit the National Press Club, where the photographs of the members will be recorded in the visitors' book for the edification of the soldiers and the discomfort of the opponents of an adequate defense. An informal reception will be held and the question may be settled whether the pen is mightier than the sword.

"Twenty guests are expected to dinner, of which a feast will be served by the soldiers and also by some of the civilians. The commissary has been replenished for the 'mess,' and the routine menu of camp life will not be followed.

"The invaders will evacuate the capital on the midnight train to the north."

"Mr. Augustus P. Gardner requests the honor of your presence at the mobilization of the Reserve Army of the United States. The troops will report at a dinner to be held in the Blue Room at the New Willard Hotel on Saturday, April the tenth, at 7 o'clock."

"Nor will the dinner be the only hospitality offered to his guests, as Mr. Gardner has prepared a program for their entertainment which will keep them busy throughout their stay in the capital. At the instant of their invasion they will be captured, but will be tendered the freedom of the city."

BANQUET FOR ENTIRE RESERVE ARMY OF UNITED STATES IS HELD

BY C. S. ALBERT. (Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—The banquet given by Representative Gardner of Massachusetts for the entire Reserve Army of the United States has been productive of much merriment and some consideration. Mr. Gardner arrived here a week in advance of the dinner and began putting the concluding touch on all arrangements. He handed out a program of the coming event which contains a mixture of humor and ridicule. The statement follows and speaks for itself:

"At least 50 per cent and probably 50 1/2 per cent of the Reserve Army of the United States will be mobilized in Washington on April 19, as guests of Congressman A. P. Gardner at a dinner to be held in the Blue Room of the New Willard Hotel. Of the 16 men composing the army, eight have sent positive acceptances to Mr. Gardner's invitation, and a ninth member also expects to be present.

"Besides these premier guests of honor Mr. Gardner also hopes to have present Secretary Garrison and Assistant Secretary Breckenridge of the War Department and former Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, to each of whom he has sent the following invitation:

"Mr. Augustus P. Gardner requests the honor of your presence at the mobilization of the Reserve Army of the United States. The troops will report at a dinner to be held in the Blue Room at the New Willard Hotel on Saturday, April the tenth, at 7 o'clock."

"Nor will the dinner be the only hospitality offered to his guests, as Mr. Gardner has prepared a program for their entertainment which will keep them busy throughout their stay in the capital. At the instant of their invasion they will be captured, but will be tendered the freedom of the city."

"On reaching the capital, about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the visitors will be comfortably ensconced in automobiles and will be driven about the city and shown all the points of interest. BIG MONEY FOR SMALL FARMERS IN THE ROSELLE

Chicago Company Will Take From $50,000 to $100,000 Worth in 1916 Alone

Between $50,000 and $100,000 stands ready to be parcelled out among the small farmers of the territory in 1916 if they will turn their efforts to growing roselle that year.

This is the statement of A. T. Longley, superintendent of the Territorial Marketing Division, who says that arrangements now are being made by the division to supply a large Chicago concern with the fruit during next year. The fruit, which is used for making jams, jellies, syrups and a non alcoholic drink, and which is increasing in popularity all over the United States, may be extensively grown in these islands with comparatively little trouble, says Mr. Longley.

At Haku, Maui, especially good crops of roselle have been grown for a number of years. There has never been too much rain to spoil the crops as was the case at Nahiku recently. W. J. Wills, one of the pioneer roselle men of Maui, says that the fruit may be grown at a profit if sold at the price the Chicago company offered a year ago, when it first investigated the possibilities of the industry in Hawaii. A section of Kaupo, Maui, was put out to the fruit last year, the report being that it did very well. There are several places on Oahu, especially at Wahiawa, where the fruit has been grown with success.

Mr. Longley says that the Chicago company with which he now is in communication, uses roselle valued at from $50,000 to $100,000 each year. He adds that an endeavor will be made to keep the production here within the amount needed by the Chicago company, as it is the only company that uses it in any great quantity.

Superintendent Longley reports that several New York men want to have Hawaiian pineapples, shipped to them via the Panama canal. There is some doubt, however, whether a shipment by that route would arrive in good condition. The division expects to make a trial shipment within the month.

Island poultry is doing very well now, says Mr. Longley, the only trouble being that the market does not get enough fattened chickens. Eggs are getting scarce and the price is going up. The retail price now is 40 cents and the wholesale price 35 cents. It is expected that the price of eggs will continue to go up during the entire summer.

2ND BATTALION HAS SURPRISE FOR THE THIRD

Sunday's Game In 25th Infantry Battalion League Upset the Dope Box

Table with 3 columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Rows for 25th Infantry Battalion Series, Third Battalion, First Battalion, Second Battalion.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HOFIELD BARRACKS, April 19.—The hitherto invincible Third Battalion met its Waterloo yesterday when it played the Second Battalion.

The first seven innings saw some of the tightest fielding ever seen on this diamond, each team pulling out one run during that portion of the game.

In the first half of the eighth, the Second Battalion began to make things hum. With a base on balls and two singles they put a pair of scores across and before the period was up two errors in the outfield had added two more tallies.

That was a bitter enough pill for the leaders to swallow but in the ninth they fared still worse. Knocking O'Neal out of the box with five hits for a start, they wound up by clouting Johnson all over the lot and making the score read 13 to 1.

This proved to be the final score and the worst defeat ever inflicted in the battalion series.

Johnson, J., pitching the last three innings for the Second Battalion, proved his worth by fanning four of the nine men who faced him and allowing no hits.

Score by innings: R H E

Score by innings table with columns R, H, E for Second and Third Battalions.

Batteries—Waterhouse, Watson, Johnson, J., and Caldwell for Second; Shaw, Butterworth, O'Neal, Johnson, O., and Cross for Third. Two base-hits, Ware and Collins. Struck out by Waterhouse, 1; by Watson, 1; by Johnson, J., 4; Shaw, 2; O'Neal, 1; by Butterworth, 2. Bases on balls, off Shaw, 1; off Butterworth, 2. Wild pitch, Johnson, O. Umpire, Collins.

M-TROOP IS STILL TIED AT THE TOP

Table for Cavalry League with columns W, L, Pct. Rows for Troop B, Troop M, Troop D, Troop G, Troop E, Troop C, Troop A.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 19.—Troop M managed to maintain its place in the tie for the lead when it defeated Troop C, 5 to 3, yesterday. Troop C had obtained a three-run start by the end of the third frame and it looked as though Hall had the M troopers well in hand. But in the fourth period the performers from Troop M broke loose and with Grice's double and five singles they put five runs across. This was the last scoring for the day and from that inning on Hall allowed no more hits.

Score by innings: R H E. Troop M, 0 0 0 5 0 0 0 0 5 9 2. Troop C, 2 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 7 1.

Batteries—Hall and Emms for C, Grice and Colvin for M. Two base-hits, O'Day, Ryan and Grice. Struck out by Grice 9, by Hall 15. Bases on balls, off Grice 2. Umpire, Kochelski. B Takes Saturday Game.

Troop B squeezed out another victory in the game Saturday, winning from Troop E, 5 to 4. It was a fast game all the way through and the hopes of each team were alternately raised and dashed.

In the fifth inning, with the score 1 to 1, Peters singled and Smock sent him across with a home two-bagger, putting E in the lead. B trooper made things move in their portion of the seventh. Duncan singled and stole second and third, then Backes did the same thing, sending the former home. Bark drew four balls, stole second and came in with Backes on Ernest's single. Then in the juggling match which occurred in the E Troopers' attempt to catch a runner, Ernest scored.

Score by innings: R H E. Troop B, 0 0 1 0 0 0 4 0 5 10 5. Troop E, 1 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 4 7 6. Batteries—Duncan and Ernest for B, Caton and Matthews for E. Two-base hits, Roch, White and Smock 2.

GOLF GOSSIP

There are a great many things to remember in playing the game of golf. You get a lot of advice about what to do and what not to do. You are taught in a dozen different ways how to drive the ball off the tee and how to putt, but there are other important things that you must learn besides the mere art of hitting the ball.

Golf is at all times a mental game and the player who plays a great deal or only once in a while in competition will discover that it is the thinking part that gets him sometimes into the most trouble. A bit of bad judgment is often more costly than a poorly executed shot.

Francis Ouimet, the amateur champion, has given some very valuable information along these lines that every golfer would do well to read. Ouimet's success at golf can be unquestioned. His rare judgment in playing both match and medal rounds is worthy of an older and more experienced head. This is in substance what he has written:

"A thing that I always try to remember in playing golf is to keep from letting my opponent's game influence me in any way. Often we take too much notice of what he is doing. For instance, he may play an iron shot on to the green ten or fifteen feet from the cup. The first thing you would think of naturally is to either get inside of his ball or make your shot just as good as his. Nine times out of ten, if you try to improve on his shot you will wind up by making a worse one in your anxiety to outdo him.

"In playing match play I always try to take as little notice of his shots as possible. If he makes a good one I play one to the best of my ability and the pin is my object—not his ball. If he makes a bad shot I play one just as well as I know how. This, of course, all goes for match play only.

"In medal play I keep a close watch on the card, and when it is a par four hole I try for a par four. If it is a 'five' hole I try to keep the figure 'five' in my mind. In doing this I usually find myself putting for a three on the 'four' holes and a four on the 'five' holes. If I have one bad hole in medal play I try not to be in too much of a hurry to make it up.

"For instance, if I should take a seven early in the round on a hole in which the par is four, there are three strokes wasted. Now, instead of trying to make up those three strokes on the next few holes I simply forget about it and go along and play the remaining holes as if they were different from that hole. This is far different from making a hole that is why we rarely find players good at both."

RECORD ENTRIES FOR RELAYS AT PENN.; 341 TEAMS ENTERED

[By Latest Mail] PHILADELPHIA.—The largest list of entries in the history of the games has been received by the University of Pennsylvania for the relay races to be held here April 23 and 24.

In championships and class races they embrace 36 college teams, 56 preparatory school teams, 109 high school quartets, 71 grammar school teams and 10 parochial school teams, a total of 341 teams. This does not include the special events in which Yale, Harvard, Missouri, Colorado, Oregon, Maine, Bates, South Carolina and other colleges will have entries. Close Races Expected.

The entries for the championship relays are the best that have ever been received. There is not a single event in which fast and close races are not promised. The entry for the preparatory school championship raises that event to one of the big features of the meet.

All athletic games held on Franklin field hereafter will be conducted under the rules of the Olympic federation, as a result of which runners will be obliged to travel 3,141 feet further in every mile than heretofore. This is due to the fact that the track will be measured 12 inches from pole to pole, as is the case in England, in place of 18 inches from the pole, as has been customary in this country.

OBJECTS TO F-4S MOTORCYCLE NUMBER

[By Latest Mail] SAN MATEO, April 4.—Carl Johnson, a San Mateo motorcyclist who is employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, has refused to accept the fatal number F-4 for his machine. Johnson received the number the same day the ill-fated submarine sank at Honolulu, and because of the coincidence he praised it highly. Since then Johnson's superstitions have become so aroused that he says he does not dare fix it to his motorcycle.

A campaign for a million dollar endowment fund to be completed by October, 1926, as a birthday present to Yassar College on its 50th anniversary was announced by Henry Noble MacCracken, president of the college.

Bases on balls, off Duncan 1, off Caton 5. Struck out by Duncan 15, by Caton 13. Umpires, Grammuth and Troxell.

Ouimet and Travers Rated at Scratch in Official Golf List

FRANCIS OUIMET and Jerome D. Travers are rated at scratch in the United States Golf Association handicap list just issued. They will fight it out for the amateur golf championship of the country and may also meet in the national open championship. Third on the list rated at one stroke is Charles E. Evans, Jr. E. M. Byers and W. O. Foxnes, Jr., have been moved up from three to two strokes, to join W. J. Travis and W. K. Wood, who held their status of one stroke last year. The American Golf Association was inaugurated at two strokes last year, has been reduced to three strokes. Twelve are rated at three, nine of whom were there last year, the newcomers being Anderson from the two mark and E. P. Alis, Ronald J. B. Schuman from the four division. The dozen three men are E. P. Alis, J. G. Anderson, E. Warren, Corkran, H. Chandler, Egan, Robert A. Gardner, R. K. Gordon, Oswald, Gladby, Fred Herrington, Mason Phelps, J. B. Schumann, Albert Seavey and Parker W. Whitmore. "Just Before the Battle, Mother"

Johnson—I am a trifle over weight, but I will start in on Willard in just as fine condition as I was at Reno.

Johnson—Willard will be a cinch. Ex-Manager Little—Johnson is all the time thinking up schemes to fool the glibble public. The bandages he is wearing now are just to pull the betting down to where he wants it.

Johnson—At the right moment I will swing an upper cut that will do the business for Mister Willard and then I will crawl through the ropes while my admirers are cheering.

Ex-Manager Little (Johnson's ex-manager)—Don't let anybody hand you any stuff about Johnson being out of condition. Don't let anybody kid you. Jack is always fooling the public. Don't see how Willard has a chance.

JOHNSON—All this talk that if the fight goes over 20 rounds Willard is safe to win makes me laugh. I know he is younger, bigger and has a longer reach. But remember that he must hit me, and I doubt if he can do it. I will peck him to pieces and wear him down in 15 or 16 rounds and then it will be only a case of time before I'll flatten him for the count.

Johnson—"I'll admit I haven't worked my head off. I don't have to. Look me over. Feel my muscles. You won't find a soft spot anywhere. I am ready for the going, right now.

Johnson—Willard is a novice, anyway. I'll admit he is a big fellow, young and strong. But there's nothing to it. He isn't the first big young fellow I've put away. He hasn't a chance. Put your money on Lil' Artha.

Flannigan (Johnson's chief second)—He'll tear into Willard from the top of the bell. Johnson and all of us in his camp expect to see Willard knocked out within 12 rounds. Jack knows Willard's game is to try to outwear him, but there'll be no chance at stalling. Johnson will press things from the start.

Johnson—Willard is making a mistake in not training in the sun. You know he is doing all his work in the shade. We will fight during the hottest part of the day. This is my climate, not his. I'm a bit over weight, but I'll need this extra weight against him.

Johnson—I have advised my friends to back me to the limit, and the fact that I have $10,000 of my own money to bet ought to be proof that I am confident of winning.

Johnson—After tucking away Willard I will reap a harvest on a tour of South America and France.

NAVY SUPERIOR TO THE LAW IN LOCAL BATTLE

Landing Party From Maryland Has No Respect For Territorial Legislature

Maryland, 2; Legislature, 1. Ten innings.

The much-heralded baseball benefit between the jacks of the Maryland and the territorial legislature was pulled off with great excitement last Saturday afternoon. Differing from most exhibitions of the sort, it was a regular ball game, and the few fans who turned out got more for their money than a chance to chuckle at the antics of the portly lawmakers. This was largely due to the fact that all attaches of the house were eligible to play, and that the number included such well known performers as "Kelly" Henshaw, Lang Akana and John Aylett. Senator A. L. Castle pitched and Representative E. K. Fernandez played first base.

The sailors gave the impression of having something hidden away most of the time. In fact, the "Heart of Maryland" was much in evidence.

The first run went on the sailors' side of the score board in the second inning. Finnegan got to third on a hit and an outfield error. On a throw from catcher to first, Fernandez dropped the ball and Finnegan came home.

There was no more scoring until the ninth, when Castle tied up his own game with a sensational home run to center field.

In the tenth, with two men gone, the Legislators lost a chance to bring the game over another frame, when a throw from short to first was dropped. The runner got to third and came home with the winning run on a long hit to right by Bossman.

The score by innings: Maryland—Runs 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1—5. Base Hits 1 1 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 1—5. Maryland—Runs 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—2. Base Hits 0 1 0 1 0 1 1 1 1 0—6.

COMPANY K IS CLIMBING FAST TOWARD FIRST

Table for 25th Inf. Company League with columns W, L, Pct. Rows for Company A through Company L.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 19.—There was a double header in the 25th Infantry Company League Saturday.

In the first game Company E pulled Company G down a peg in the percentage column. E Company's ability to find Geter whenever a hit was needed enabled them to pile up 10 runs in the nine frames.

Score by innings: R H E. Co. E, 1 0 0 0 4 0 2 1 2—10 12 3. Co. G, 2 2 0 0 0 1 3 0 0—6 7 3.

Home runs, Caldwell and Hemphill. Three-base hits, Amos and Cloud. Struck out by Geter 8; by Waterhouse 9. Double plays, Gletten to Amos; Gletten to Prince to Amos; McCuddy to Parker to Burley; Parker to Burley, Umpires, Collins and Swinton.

Company A Wins Another. In the second game of the double-header Company K took one from Company M, 8 to 3. The hard hitting K team knocked Davis out of the box in the first inning and rolled up five runs before Moore was sent in to stem the tide for M. After Moore took the mound Company K was allowed only two hits, but the damage was already done and M could not catch up.

Green at short for K made a sensational stop that brought down the grand-stand.

Score by innings: R H E. Co. M, 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1—3 7 4. Co. K, 5 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0—8 6 4.

Home run, Johnson. Struck out by O'Neal 2; by Johnson 4; by Davis 1; by Moore 3. Bases on balls, off Johnson 2; off Davis 2; off Moore 1. Double plays, Green to Fagen to Johnson; Fagen to Green. Umpires, Collins and Swinton.

The United Fruit liner Herolda rammed the stranded Leyland liner Parisian at the mouth of the Mississippi river, swerved and sank the coasting steamer Weems. Both the Parisian and the Herolda were greatly damaged.

COAST DEFENSE VS. SIGNALLERS TONIGHT AT 'Y'

THIS WEEK'S BOWLING. Tonight—Signal Corps vs. Coast Defense. Wednesday—Honolulu vs. Cosmos. Thursday—P. B. C. vs. Chamberlain's Colts.

The keen rivalry now on with the Y. M. C. A. bowling teams as the result of last week's matches which lightened up the race, will continue to show itself throughout the three remaining weeks of the season. Every match is a critical one as there is a fight on for every position in the percentage table.

Tonight Captain Stayton's Coast Defense team will bowl against the Signal Corps. The latter club lowered the colors of the Colts to the tune of three straight last week, while the Coast Defenders won from the P. B. C. in a close match.

Stayton will doubtless use Goebig, McTavish, Lawson and Van Deusen in his lineup tonight with Trepton, Martin and Ryan as possibilities. Capt. McCutchen will have Ackerman, Smith, Reed, Mosley and possibly Easter to represent the Signal Corps.

GOULD AND PARTNER AGAIN WIN RACQUETS

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 18.—Jay Gould and Huhn again won the national amateur doubles racquets championship, defeating Joshua Crane and Fearing 6-1, 0-6, 1-6, 6-3.

CHAMPIONSHIP GOES TO THE 1ST BATTALION

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 19.—The battalion championship of the First Field Artillery went to the First Battalion yesterday when they administered a second crushing defeat to the other battalion.

The First Battalion started right after the Second in the first inning. Gauthier walked, Fouquette singled, Ryan reached first on Adam's error, and singles by Robinson, Gatley and Baurnut gave the First a comfortable lead of four runs. This was added to until the seventh inning, when the game was called on account of rain, with the score 19 to 3.

Curran and Garber were strong at the bat as usual and collected four of the five hits allowed the Second Battalion. Baurnut, for the First Battalion, acquired four hits out of four times up.

Score by innings: R H E. First Bat., 11 0 1 3 10 10 2. Second Bat., 0 0 0 2 0 1 3 5 5.

Batteries—Stoll, Gatley and Fouquette for First; Adams, Garber and McMillan for second. Home run, Miller. Three base-hits, Curran and Garber. Struck out by Adams, 3; by Stoll, 7; by Gatley, 1. Bases on balls, off Adams, 1; off Garber, 1. Umpire, Hollingsworth.

Theatrical & Amusements

EDWARD ABELES IN 'READY MONEY'
FEATURE AT YE LIBERTY TONIGHT

"Ready Money" a drama with settings in the elite East and in the rugged West, in which the man of wealth and the prospector who has been "grub staked" work shoulder to shoulder to wring from Mother Earth her treasure of gold, in which is introduced the counterfeiter and the police of the Eastern metropolis and in which "rough luck" and the reverse vie with one another for the ascendancy, will be the feature offering at Ye Liberty theater for three nights commencing tonight.

Edward Abeles is featured in the Paramount feature, and Mr. Abeles has already appeared in several Famous Player features in Honolulu in each of which he has scored an immediate success. In "Ready Money" he loses none of his laurels previously earned. During the recent engagement of the George Webb players "Ready Money" was one of their offerings that proved the biggest success of their season of drama. Webb in the role of Steve and the balance of the organization created roles that earned for them the plaudits of this city. In the photo-play the detail is much more complete than in the staged drama, while Abeles, who also appeared in the original stage production, is given every opportunity to demonstrate his histrionic ability. The balance of the cast is of Famous Player caliber.

A new Pathe Weekly and a comedy offering will round out the bill at Ye Liberty for the first half of the week.

FELICE LYNE'S FINAL CONCERT SET FOR TONIGHT

FELICE LYNE.
Felice Lyne—there is no need further to introduce her to Hawaii—will give her second and final concert in the opera house tonight. The program appeals to many music lovers even more strongly than did the first. It is as follows:
1—Una voce poco fa (Il Barbiere di Siviglia) Rossini
2—Chere Nuit Bachelet
3—(a) Snow Sigurd Lie
(b) Le Coeur de Ma Mie Jacques Dalaoze
(c) Spring's Awakening Sanderson
4—Polonaise (mignon) Thomas
5—(a) Deh vieni non Tardar (Figaro) Mozart
(b) Villanelle Dell'acqua
6—(a) Wings of Morning Wood
(b) The Wren Lehman
(c) But Lately In Dance I Embraced Her Arensky
7—Bird Song, from Pagliacci Leoncavallo

FORT SHAFTER CONCERT.

Under the direction of Chief Musician Albert Jacobson, the 2d Infantry band will give the following program tonight, beginning at 7 o'clock:
March—Getsemane Commandery Fulton
Overture—The Bohemian Girl Suppe
Song—Kilarney Balfé
Selection—Round the World Klein
Waltz—Golden Sunset Hall
Fox Trot—By Heuk Henry
The Aerodome orchestra (Director Francis Leigh) will render the following program during the evening:
March—His Majesty the King Losey
Rag—Creatore Grant
Two-step—If You Talk in Your Sleep Ayer
Novelette—Chung Lo Moret
Waltz—Vive L'Amour Arthur
Tango—Panquito Robyn
Morceau—Hungary Moszkowski

Waltz—Avec Moi Luzerno

THE AMAZONS.

On Wednesday evening, April 28, at the Hawaiian Opera House, the Honolulu Dramatic Club will present its initial play, "The Amazons," an amusing farce in three acts by Sir Arthur Pinero. The cast is as follows:
Rev. Minchin—Mr. George Potter.
Youett—Mr. Gerrit Wilder.
Fitton—Capt. Cutts.
Orts—Mr. Lambert.
Litterly—Mr. Haines.
Andre de Greval—Mr. Corrothers.
Lord Tweenways—Mr. Will Lewers.
Lady Noeline—Mrs. Walter Dillingham.
Lady Wilhelmina—Miss Margaret Center.
Lady Thomasine—Miss Evelyn Cunningham.
Lady Castlejordan—Miss Helen Alexander.
Sergeant Shuter—Mrs. C. B. Cooper.

IS YOUR CANARY A WARBLER?

Every male canary should sing, because that is its way of expressing its happiness at being alive. If your bird doesn't, "there is a reason." The canary-breeders of the Andreasberg, in Germany, know this. They long ago discovered the reason to be in the bird's food. They adjusted the trouble by inventing an "ideal" food for birds. The Phila. Bird Food Co. have added to and improved upon the work of the Andreasberg canary-breeders. The result—BIRD MANNA has proved itself to be the ideal combination of Food, Song Stimulant and Medicine, not only for canaries but for other cage birds. It restores the plumage and makes the birds sing. You can buy Bird Manna at your druggist's or send 15 cents to the manufacturers. Send for their book on cage birds, 120 pages of information about birds, amply illustrated—how to teach parrots to talk, for 15 cents. Bird Manna and Book, both for 25c. 'CLEOPATRA' FILM AT THE POPULAR

One of the scenes from "Antony and Cleopatra," spectacular picture that will be the feature of the new bill at the Popular theater beginning Monday evening.

"Antony and Cleopatra," another big Cines spectacular production, will be the feature of the new bill which will start at the Popular theater Wednesday evening. No one who has given even passing attention to the history of Rome but has been fascinated by the spectacularly fascinating story of Cleopatra, Egypt's beautiful queen, and Antony, Rome's great soldier.

George Kiehn, under whose direction this story has been staged and produced, has overlooked no opportunity to bring out in every detail the marvelous love story of these two figures in ancient history. The story is so divinely human in its portrayal that it cannot help but make an immediate hit with Honolulu theatergoers.

Although the characters are notables of ancient history, they are so naturally acted, and the scenes so consistently and artistically arranged, the spectators are carried away by their realism and can almost imagine the great human drama forms a part of their own daily lives. It seems only natural that the handsome Roman soldier-orator, Marc Antony, should fall a victim to the charms and wiles of the beautiful Egyptian queen, Cleopatra. Her magnetism, her wonderful mentality and queenly self-possession are most admirably portrayed by the delightful actress Teribill, who is a personal realization of all ideals of Egypt's queen, as well as a mistress of the art of expression. Anthony Novell, who won hundreds of friends here as Vinitius in "Quo Vadis," is equally happily suited to the role of Marc Antony.

Deave's Manikins and "Between Savage and Tiger" will be seen today and tomorrow, matinee and evening.

WELL-BALANCED BILL FOR EMPIRE

Alice Joyce, Margaret Courtot and James B. Rose are the stars in the three-part feature to be offered at the Empire theater today with the initial appearance of "The Black Countess." Rose and Guy Austin are seen to splendid advantage in a picture very much of the moment. Its principal scenes are laid in Morocco and Algiers. It deals with military spy systems often employed in maintaining a fortified stronghold at important seacoast towns. The black countess figures as a factor in a virulent love story interpreted by an excellent cast. At times the spectator is much puzzled to ascertain the real trend of the action. It finally bares itself and proves to vindicate a much-maligned officer. A number of spectacular and sensational scenes are incorporated in the production. Excellent photography is shown.

Keystone comedians have made a clever production out of the nonsensical skit, "Officer Kate."

When Roscoe Arbuckle takes the center of the stage in the screaming comedy, "Wiggs Takes the Rest Cure," he is seen in a production which has done much to add to his success and reputation as a fun-maker. The management announces a Mary Pickford production at Wednesday's matinee and evening performance.

'FAVORITA' GRAND OPERA TONIGHT

The Bevani Grand Opera Company continues to grow in favor with local critics and music lovers, for it is presenting very good standard opera here at popular prices.

On Saturday night the Bevani artists gave "Il Trovatore" to a crowded house at the Bijou. Miss Bernice Holmes, making her first appearance, displayed good stage presence and an agreeable and well-modulated voice. The opera was one of the best the Bevani company has given to date.

The offering tonight is "Favorita," another of the standard bills of the operatic stage. A big house is expected.

LOCAL JAPANESE GETS POEMS OF HIS FATHER

As a fitting close to a public career in Japanese statesmanship, Koten Matsuzawa, father of B. M. Matsuzawa, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., wrote his autobiography in poetic form. Secretary Matsuzawa received several copies of the poem by the last mail boat.

Matsuzawa senior, who at one time was governor of two provinces and a member of the Japanese parliament, was a philosopher of keen insight, and until his death last year contributed many volumes to Japanese literature. This last edition was compiled from his works by friends. The old style of Japanese binding is used.

The feature of the book is the frontispiece of the author in the center of a fan upon which he wrote his last poem of old age.

BRONCHIAL COUGHS

When the bronchial tubes are affected with that weakening, tickling cough, they need immediate and sensible treatment. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present and your head jars with every cough. Your chest aches and the inflammation often spreads to the lungs.

The food- tonic that has proven its worth for forty years—is Scott's Emulsion. It drives out the cold, which is the root of the trouble, and checks the cough by aiding the healing process of the enfeebled membranes.

If you are troubled with bronchitis or know an afflicted friend, always remember that Scott's Emulsion builds strength while relieving the trouble.

A Little Talk on Home Industry

A dollar spent in this city or in this Territory will buy as much in quality as one expended anywhere on the mainland. When you send to a mail order house in the states, or elsewhere, you are doing what many others all over the country are doing—unfortunately for themselves, as well as for the home merchants—and you are actuated very largely by the same erroneous influences that they "fall for."

If people would only stop and think before they allow themselves to be hypnotized by alluring cuts and bombastic descriptive matter in big catalogues there would be less money dumped into the coffers so skillfully opened to receive it—and the people would be better satisfied in the end.

A comparison of the prices charged by mail order concerns with the prices charged for an article of known value as sold by Honolulu merchants will show very little appreciable difference.

Who pays for the necessarily large printing, circulating, postage and other expenses attached to placing these massive catalogues in all parts of the country? Of course, the publisher pays for it in a way, but he pays for it with customers' money, because if you, with hundreds of others in this Territory, as well as thousands on the mainland did not make it profitable for him to do so he could not. Therefore, in the final analysis: Instead of paying only for the article you buy, you also pay your share toward the expensive method he employs in doing business.

You may get what you pay for but no more, in many cases you don't. The article that you receive after a wait of three or four weeks may correspond with the claims made for it in the catalogue, but as time goes on you wonder why it deteriorates (goes to pieces, would better suit the case) so quickly. The answer is not far to seek, it is in the shoddy manufacture, the inferior quality of materials employed.

A glance through the columns of any issue of this paper will convince you that the statements in this article are correct. Look over the goods advertised. Note the firms that set forth these offers. Consider the time you can save getting the goods to your home—plus the fact that you are also in possession of a double-barreled, sure-fire guarantee of satisfaction. Not only are the goods backed by Honolulu merchants of indisputable integrity and reputation for honest dealing, built on years of business career in your own town, but you are, as well, building up the business stability of your own city.

The Honolulu Star-Bulletin, the foremost newspaper in Hawaii, is doing its utmost to forward the best interests of the Territory in this direction. Surely you, as a resident and citizen of the most beautiful city in the world, will do your part in this direction. The best way is to SPEND YOUR MONEY IN HAWAII.

ACT 74

AN ACT

TO ADD A NEW SECTION TO THE REVISED LAWS OF HAWAII, 1915, TO BE KNOWN AS SECTION 3094A, RELATING TO THE DUTIES OF THE REGISTRAR OF CONVEYANCES.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, to be known as Section 3094A, to read as follows:

"Section 3094A. It shall not be lawful for the Registrar of Conveyances to record any assignment, extension, or release of mortgage of real or personal property, or a certificate of entry for the purpose of foreclosure under such mortgage, or an affidavit of foreclosure under a power contained in such mortgage, or an affidavit of entry, or an execution, order, or decree, for possession of the premises covered by such mortgage, or an assignment, extension or cancellation of lease, unless the same shall contain a reference to the book and page of the registration of the original mortgage or lease, as the case may be.

Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any document mentioned herein executed prior to the passage of this Act; and provided, further, that this section shall not apply to any document mentioned herein which shall refer to an unrecorded mortgage or lease, if such fact be recited therein."

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 75

AN ACT

TO PROVIDE FOR THE PUBLICATION OF THE DECISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR HAWAII.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. The sum of two thousand and five hundred dollars ($2,500.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from the treasury of the Territory for the compilation and publication of not more than two hundred and fifty copies of the reports of the decisions of the United States District Court for Hawaii; provided, that the judges of said court shall assign to the Territory all right to publish, sell and distribute the decisions so published and shall prepare and furnish for such publication, free of cost, such decisions, and the syllabi thereof, to the Secretary of the Territory, who is hereby authorized to make all contracts and exercise all other powers necessary or proper for carrying out the purposes of this Act. The printing of such decisions in book form or signatures of the requisite number may be begun as soon as the secretary shall deem advisable and be continued as such decisions are furnished with their syllabi from time to time, and may be bound, together with the index, when a sufficient number of forms or signatures for binding in volume form shall have been printed; and such forms or signatures, either as part of or in addition to the two hundred and fifty copies above specified, as well as the bound volumes, may be sold and distributed by the secretary in the same manner as the Session Laws of the Territory.

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its approval.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 76

AN ACT

GRANTING TO THE BOARD OF LICENSE COMMISSIONERS POWER TO SUBPOENA AND EXAMINE WITNESSES UNDER OATH.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. The board of license commissioners in each county and in the City and County of Honolulu are hereby vested with the power to subpoena and examine witnesses under oath, and to examine such of the books and records of the parties to a proceeding, hearing, or investigation as relate to the question in dispute. The circuit court of the circuit in which said board is located shall have power to enforce by proper proceeding the attendance, and testimony of witnesses, and the production and examination of books, papers and records.

SECTION 2. If any person called before said board as a witness, under subpoena or otherwise, shall refuse to answer any question or questions material to the matter pending before the board asked him by said commissioners, or shall disobey any order of the circuit court relating to the matter pending, the said board shall report the matter in writing to any circuit judge of the circuit in which said board is located, and said witness shall be cited to appear before the circuit judge and be required to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court, as provided by Chapter 245 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, and be subject to all penalties in said chapter contained.

SECTION 3. False swearing before said board shall be punishable as perjury, and whenever the board is satisfied that a witness has sworn falsely in any hearing or investigation before said board, it shall report the same to the attorney of the respective county or city and county who shall prosecute said witness for perjury.

SECTION 4. All Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with and repugnant to this Act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect from and after its approval.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 77

AN ACT

TO AMEND SECTION 2026 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF HAWAII, 1915, RELATIVE TO HUNTING WITH FIREARMS.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 2026 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 2026. Permits, issuance. The treasurer of each county or city and county is authorized and empowered to issue permits to applicants to hunt with firearms within the county or city and county of which he is treasurer, together with suitable tags showing the year and number of said permits, which tags shall be attached to the firearms while being used for hunting; provided, however, that a permit shall not be issued to any person who has been convicted of violating any of the provisions of any law for the protection of game."

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its approval.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 78

AN ACT

RELATING TO ADULTERATED FOOD AND DRUGS, AMENDING SECTIONS 990, 991, 993 AND 997 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF HAWAII, 1915, AND ADDING A NEW SECTION TO BE KNOWN AS SECTION 994A.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 990 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended by deleting the words "or drink by man," and inserting the words "drink, confectionery or condiment by man or animals" after the word "food," so that the last clause of said section shall read as follows:

"The term 'food' as used herein shall include all articles used for food, drink, confectionery or condiment by man or animals, whether simple, mixed or compound."

SECTION 2. Section 991 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended by adding after the word "produced" the following:

"Any drug or article of food shall also be deemed to be misbranded within the meaning of this chapter when in package form, if the quantity of the contents be not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package in terms of weight, measure or numerical count; provided, however, that reasonable exemptions shall be permitted, and tolerances and also exemptions as to small packages shall be established by rules and regulations made by the Territorial Board of Health."

SECTION 3. Section 993 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sentence:

"The Board of Health may also appoint deputy food commissioners or analysts."

SECTION 4. A new section is hereby added to the Revised

Laws of Hawaii, 1915, to be known as Section 994A, as follows:

"Section 994A. Duties of deputy food commissioners or analysts. The deputy food commissioners or analysts shall perform such duties as the food commissioner or analyst or the Board of Health may from time to time prescribe."

SECTION 5. Section 997 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 997. Powers of commissioner and deputy commissioners. The food commissioner or his deputies shall have the power in the performance of their duties to enter into any creamery, factory, restaurant, store, salesroom, storage-room, drug store or laboratory, or any place where they have reason to believe food, drink or drugs are made, prepared, sold or offered for sale, and to open any cask, tub, bottle, case or package containing or supposed to contain any article of food, drug or drink and examine or cause to be examined the contents thereof. In case any drug or article of food is found to be adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, and the owner or person in charge thereof refuses to comply with the instructions of the food commissioner or his deputies for the proper disposal thereof, such drug or article of food shall be liable to seizure. Upon the request of the food commissioner or his deputy, made to any court having jurisdiction over such matters, the said court shall order and direct that such drug or article of food be seized and delivered into the custody of the court, and the same shall be held in such custody until a hearing has been held to determine as to whether or not it is adulterated or misbranded. If upon such hearing the court decides that the drug or article of food seized is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, said court shall order the same destroyed or sold, but it shall only be sold in case it is fit for food and not dangerous to health. Provided, however, that upon the payment of the costs of any such proceedings and any fine hereunder, and the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond conditioned that such drug or article of food will not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of this chapter, the court may order the same delivered to the owner thereof."

SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its approval.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 79

AN ACT

TO AMEND SECTIONS 450 AND 452 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF HAWAII, 1915, RELATING TO SETTLEMENT OF BOUNDARIES.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 450 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: "and shall also deposit a certified copy of the approval or adopted plan thereof in the said office of the commissioner of public lands."

SECTION 2. Section 452 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 452. Application. All owners of ahupuaas and portions of ahupuaas, ilis and portions of ilis and other denominations of lands within the Territory of Hawaii, whose lands have not been awarded by the land commissioners, patented or conveyed by deed from the king or government, by boundaries decided in such award, patent or deed, may file with the commissioner of boundaries for the circuit in which the land is situated, an application to have the boundaries of said land decided and certified to by said commissioner or his successor in office. The application shall state the name of the land, the names of the adjoining land or lands, and the names of the owners of the same where known, and it shall also contain a general description, by true bearing survey, of the boundaries as claimed connected by co-ordinates to the Government Survey Triangulation System, and shall have attached thereto and made a part thereof a map or tracing which shall show all natural topographical features, permanent or other marks along said boundary lines, the bearings and distances of each course given in said description of survey, and such other data from field notes as will make it practicable to re-establish any boundary mark or point that may become lost or destroyed."

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

IN ACTIONS OF EJECTMENT AND IN ACTIONS TO QUIET TITLE.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. In any action of ejectment or action to quiet title, if the plaintiff, or his agent or attorney will make and file an affidavit in the court in which any such action is pending, and shall serve a copy of the same on the defendant, such filing and service to be at least fifteen days before the trial, that the plaintiff claims title through a common source with the defendant and specifying such common source, it shall be sufficient for him to show title from such common source, unless the defendant or his agent or attorney shall within ten days after the filing and service of such affidavit by, or on behalf of the plaintiff, make and file in the court in which any such action is pending and serve on the plaintiff an affidavit that the defendant does not claim title through the source specified by the plaintiff in his affidavit, and particularly specifying the source through which he does claim title.

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 81

AN ACT

CREATING THE BOARD OF INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS, AND PRESCRIBING ITS POWERS AND DUTIES.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. That there is hereby established and created a Board for the management and control of industrial and reformatory schools in the Territory of Hawaii, which said Board shall be known as the Board of Industrial Schools.

SECTION 2. The said Board shall be composed of seven members, six of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, in the manner prescribed in Section 80 of the Organic Act. The Judge of the Juvenile Court of the First Judicial Circuit shall be ex-officio member of the said Board; provided, however, that in case the Judge of said Juvenile Court shall refuse to act as a member of said Board, the vacancy caused by such refusal shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, in the same manner as is provided for the filling of other vacancies.

SECTION 3. That at least three of the members of said Board shall be women.

SECTION 4. The members of said Board shall hold their office for the period of four years; provided, however, that on the first appointment of said Board, the Governor shall appoint three of the members of said Board for two years only, and the remaining members of said Board for four years; and that thereafter all appointments shall be for four years.

SECTION 5. That the said Board shall have the entire management and control of all public industrial and reformatory schools now existing in the Territory of Hawaii, or which may hereafter be established; and like management and control of all places of detention which may be used in connection with any of said schools.

SECTION 6. That all powers now vested in the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commissioners of Education relative to industrial and reformatory schools in the Territory of Hawaii are hereby transferred to and vested in the Board hereby created, and all duties now by law devolving upon the said Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commissioners of Education relative to said schools, are hereby devolved upon the Board hereby created. All unexpended balances of appropriations heretofore made, the expenditure of which is now by law vested either in the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the Commissioners of Education, are hereby transferred to the Board hereby created, and the expenditure thereof vested in said Board.

SECTION 7. The Board hereby created shall have power to make rules and regulations not contrary to law providing the method by which all funds appropriated for said schools shall be expended; providing for the organization of the Board, by the selection of officers thereof; and providing for the management and control of the schools and places of detention; and shall likewise have power to adopt such other rules and regulations not contrary to law as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

SECTION 8. The members of said Board shall serve without compensation; but said members shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

SECTION 9. It shall be the duty of the Board to make annual reports to the Governor, covering the periods between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of December in each year. Such reports shall be submitted by the Governor to each session of the legislature. Said reports shall contain itemized statements of all moneys expended by the Board; of all moneys

Battlefields of Terror

"If a man says he is not afraid of shell fire," said one of the bravest men I have ever met—and at that moment we were watching how the enemy's sharpnel was ploughing up the earth on either side of the road on which we stood—"he is a liar."

There are very few men in this war who make any such pretense. On the contrary, most of the French, Belgian and British soldiers with whom I have had wayside conversations since the war began find a kind of painful pleasure in the candid confession of their fears.

"It is now three days since I have been frightened," said a young British officer who I fancy was never scared in his life before he came out to these battlefields of terror.

"I was paralyzed with a cold and horrible fear when I was ordered to advance with my men over open ground under the enemy's sharpnel," said a French officer, with the steady brown eyes of a man who in any ordinary test of courage would smile at the risk of death.

But this shell fire is not an ordinary test of courage. Courage is annihilated in the face of it. Something else takes its place—a philosophy of fatalism, sometimes an utter boredom with men, threatening but failing to kill; in most cases a strange extinction of all emotions and sensations, so that men who have been long under shell fire have a peculiar rigidity of the nervous system, as if something had been killed inside them, though outwardly they are still alive and untouched.

Old Style of Courage. The old style of courage, when man had a pride and confidence in his own strength and valor against other men, when he was on an equality with his enemy in arms and intelligence, has almost gone. It has quite gone, when he is called upon to advance or hold the ground in face of the enemy's artillery. For all human qualities are of no avail against those death machines.

What are quickness of wit, the strength of a man's right arm, the heroic fibre of his heart, his cunning in warfare, when he is opposed by an enemy's batteries, which belch out bursting shells with frightful precision and regularity? What is the most courageous man to do in such an hour? Can he stand erect and fearless under a sky which is raining down jagged pieces of steel?

Can he adopt the pose of an Adelphi hero, with a scornful smile on his lips, when a yard away from him a hole large enough to bury a taxicab is torn out of the earth, and when a building against which he has been standing is suddenly knocked into a ridiculous ruin?

It is impossible, writes Philip Gibbs in the North Mail, to exaggerate the monstrous horror of the shell fire. It is only a few days ago since I stood in the midst of it, watching its effect upon the men around me, and analyzing my own psychological sensations with a morbid interest. I faced that music and hated it—but there were all sorts of other sensations besides fear which worked a change in me. I was conscious of great physical discomfort, which reacted upon my brain. The noises were even more distressing to me than the risk of death. It was terrifying in its music.

The German batteries were hard at work round Nieport, Dixmude, Purvise and other towns and villages, forming a crescent, with its left curve sweeping away from the coast. But more awful was the noise of our own guns. At Nieport I stood only a few hundred yards away from the washings lying off the coast. Each shell which they sent across the dunes was like one of Jove's thunder bolts and made one's body and soul quake with the agony of its noise. The vibration was so great that it made my skull ache as though it had been hammered. Long afterwards I found myself trembling with those waves of vibrating sound.

Worse still, because sharper and more piercingly staccato, was my experience close to a battery of French guns. Each shell was fired with a hard metallic crack, which seemed to knock a hole into my ear drums. I suffered intolerably from the noise, yet—so easy is it to laugh in the midst of pain—I laughed aloud when a friend of mine, passing the battery in his motor car, raised his hand to one of the gunners and said, "One moment, if you please."

Some people get accustomed to the noise, but others never. Every time a battery fired simultaneously one of the men who were with me, a hard, tough type of mechanic, shrank and ducked his head with an expression of agonized horror. He confessed to me received by the Board; the persons to whom said moneys have been paid; and the purposes for which the same shall have been paid during the period covered by the report. Such reports shall contain such further information relative to the transaction of the Board, and the condition of the schools and places of detention within the jurisdiction of the Board, as shall enable the Governor to be fully advised relative to all of the transactions of the Board.

And it shall be the further duty of the Board to file with the Governor, at the times herein provided for the filing of reports, an inventory of all property belonging to the Territory used in connection with said schools or places of detention, as provided for in Chapter 19, of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915.

SECTION 10. This Act shall take effect January 1st, 1916.

Approved this 13th day of April, A. D. 1915.

JAPAN SCIENTIST TO LECTURE ON KILAUEA FIRES

Prof. S. Onoue of Sapporo Agricultural College, Japan, who has been visiting Kilauea in the interests of his school for the past three days, returned to Honolulu Saturday. He will deliver a lecture upon the volcano at the Japanese Y. M. C. A. tonight.

"Kilauea is far different from our Japanese volcanoes," said the Japanese scientist. "It certainly was a new sight for me to see such a hot molten mass, since the volcanoes I am acquainted with throw up hot ashes and cinders, but do not glow."

His reports of his visit to the volcano will be forwarded to Japan. He will continue his journey on the China Tuesday to study at the University of Chicago and in Europe.

PUNAHOU NOTES

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] PUNAHOU, April 19.—The Damon oratorical contest of the academy will be held on the mornings of April 29 and 30.

In chapel last week an unusual program was given. It was an exhibition of some of the work from the commercial department. David Wadsworth arose first and told the school about the new methods of typewriting, and of what great use it is. He said that in the national system now being used there were no blinds on the keys and a typewriter was played like the piano. All the fingers were used and the keys were never looked at. Several years ago 13 or 14 words a minute was thought to be wonderful, but now 100 words or more is not so marvelous. The rate of the persons who demonstrated his talk was about 57 words a minute. The demonstrators were Esther Cummings, Aileen Gibb and Momi Keola. Three different tests were given. A copy test on unfamiliar matter for five minutes, a minute test on a certain sentence, to see how many times the sentence could be written in one minute; and finally dictation, given by David Wadsworth, to see how correctly it could be taken down. It was a new idea for the Friday morning chapel exercise, and was appreciated by the audience.

BARNES, JR., SUES ROOSEVELT FOR LIBEL DAMAGES

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 19.—Theodore Roosevelt goes on trial here today to defend himself against a libel suit in which William Barnes, Jr., asks damages of $50,000 for charges made by Roosevelt last summer when he took the stump for Harvey Hinman, the Progressive candidate for governor. Hinman was overwhelmingly defeated.

In one of his speeches Roosevelt charged that Barnes, who then was Republican state chairman of New York, controlled Francis J. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall and the dominant figure in up-state Democratic politics.

TURTLE BAY YARN IS FALSE, SAYS U. S. NAVY MAN

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—That no foundation in fact exists in the sensational reports from Los Angeles that the Japanese have taken advantage of salvaging operations for the cruiser Asama, ashore at Turtle Bay, Lower California, to establish the nucleus there of a naval base, with its approaches mined, is the substance of the report made to the navy department by Commander Noble S. Erwin of the cruiser New Orleans, made public by the department last night.

Erwin was ordered to investigate and report as soon as the statements were published regarding the alleged Japanese breach of Mexican neutrality. His report is that he was unable to find that the Japanese were doing anything at Turtle Bay not directly connected with the salvage operations on the wrecked cruiser.

WHAT'S INDIGESTION? WHO CARES? LISTEN!

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes Sick, Sour Gassy Stomachs surely feel fine in five minutes

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.
Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world and besides it is harmless. Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapepsin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't let your miserable life be too short—you are not here long. Buy Pape's Diapepsin, eat it, and you will feel like and digest it; enjoy it without dread of rebellion in the stomach.
Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.—advertisement.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES HELD AT 'FRISCO FAIR

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.] SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 19.—Thanksgiving services were held yesterday afternoon on the Panama-Pacific Exposition grounds, and in the morning and at night in all the churches of the city for the rehabilitation of San Francisco from the earthquake and fire of 1906, nine years ago yesterday. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Stanford University, and Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, delivered addresses at the undenominational gathering of clergymen at the exposition. Churches throughout the nation were asked to commemorate the day.

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] FORT SHAFTER, April 17.—Capt. J. C. Kay, who was recently transferred from the 2nd Infantry with orders to proceed to the mainland by the May transport, has been notified that he will be detailed for duty for a term of four years in the quartermaster's department upon arrival in the States. He has also received information that his new station will be at St. Louis, Mo., a fact that has brought him and Mrs. Kay many congratulations as it spells relief from the duty along the Rio Grande that is just now the bugbear of all duty in the States for the officers of the mobile army.

After spending the whole of the morning waiting for the rain clouds to lift, the 1st battalion returned to the range yesterday afternoon and notwithstanding the occasional mists that swept down the range from the hills, and the high winds that prevailed throughout the afternoon, kept up its fine work of the preceding tour at the 500-yard targets. About 200 men fired the course during the afternoon and of that number nearly one-half made scores of 40 or better. The light was good but the wind ranged in velocity from 15 to 25 miles per hour. The battalion finished with the 500-yard work and will fire today at the 600-yard targets and on Monday will begin the firing yesterday one of the latest recruits of the battalion in explaining to his platoon leader when rebuked for getting a flock of misses offered the newest and most novel excuse yet encountered for getting the undesirable flag. The "rookie" said, "Well, it's this way, sergeant. I could hit that thing down there if it wasn't for this knob you've got stuck out here on the end of this 'ere gun. Why, I get that thing right in front of the bull's eye every time I stick the gun out to shoot. If I could knock it off I bet ye I could shoot." As he was referring to the front sight of the rifle it is safe to say that he will be having a little extra instruction during the coming days.

The moving picture house that is conducted by the post exchange at Fort Shafter has displayed the most enterprising and generous management in the character of the films displayed. All of the highest priced and most up-to-date productions are regularly presented at the open air theater and these extra pictures are given without advance in cost to the patrons. Tonight will be shown the immense picture "Quo Vadis," and the past week there were presented two special or feature films that had not previously been shown at the Honolulu houses. In addition to the high class of the films that are run, the special orchestra from the regimental band is always on duty with the latest of popular music and on two evenings each week the full band plays a program at the beginning of the shows. In consequence of the liberality of the exchange the house is well filled every night, which is in marked contrast to the audiences that were present when the ordinary run of movies was the rule.

ZAPATA PLANS TO HELP FOREIGNERS LEAVE CAPITAL

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—Zapata yesterday notified the state department that he would have a special train leave the City of Mexico on Friday next, with accommodations for 300 persons. Americans and other foreigners desiring to leave the capital for Vera Cruz could be accommodated on this train.

IF CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Look Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."
Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups, plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—advertisement.

SEN. POINDEXTER QUILTS BULL MOOSE STALL FOR G. O. P.

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] SPOKANE, Wash., April 18.—Senator Miles Poindexter, the sole Progressive in the senate, yesterday announced that he had decided to rejoin the Republican party and seek re-nomination and reelection as a straight Republican in 1916.

HERRERA SHOT AND KILLED BY OWN MEN

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] LAREDO, Tex., April 18.—Gen. Herrera, one of the foremost Carranza commanders, was shot and killed yesterday by his own men, who mistook their general and his aides for a party of Villistas. Herrera, with his staff officers, appeared before his men riding up over the brink of a hill from an unexpected direction. His troops fired a volley, the general and others of his personal command falling.

No battle was in progress at the time, and the mistake was recognized almost as soon as the volley had been fired. When Herrera's body was picked up it was found that he had been hit by five bullets and killed instantly.

Deputy Claudio Treves and Professor Benito Muscolini, prominent Italian Socialists, fought a duel with sabers in Milan over a question of Italy's intervention in the war. Muscolini won.
