Affairs at Lumalilo Retreat
for Indigenous Natives.

Reports By Manager and Physician.
Good Health, New Base Drive—The Health Conditions.

Mrs. M. J. Foster has returned to the levers of the Lumalilo estate the following statement of the affairs of Lumalilo Home for the past year to the Trustees of the Lumalilo.

By report for the year ending July 31, 1915, the farm has been run on a more business-like basis, and the results of this year have been far more satisfactory than for the past few years, especially in the production of the crops, and the maintenance of the stock. The result of the past year was $7,900. The report shows a deficit of $700, which was due to the establishment of a new school, and the expenses of the hospital, which is in the process of being completed.

The trustees have decided to continue with the same officers, and to continue with the same management as last year.

Remington Standard Typewriter!

WHAT IS IT?

A simple, compact, and durable machine, which successfully performs the work of the large typewriter--saving time and energy.

WHAT WILL IT DO?

It produces a letter perfectly, in clear, legible printed characters, one or many copies of any kind of writing, executing such as may be done in books.

TO WHOM IS IT USEFUL?

To every one who has writing to do. It business circles its desirability is assured. Lawyers and journalists cannot do without it. Professional and scientific men realize its worth to them. The author and thinker find it invaluable. It contains the most potent kind of energy—that of the brain—by reducing to a minimum the mechanical labor of writing, and distributing it among all the fingers of the hands. Writer's nerves disappear when it is used. It presents the printed appearance of the work to the actor's stage.

To whom it can operate?

Any one of ordinary intelligence. Any one who can write can type it up readily. Therefore it is only a matter of practice.

SPECIAL BUSINESS ITEMS

At the World's Columbia Exposition, the Oceanic Steamship Company was sponsored by the Philippine Islands Government, the Royal Hawaiian Governorship, the Hawaiian Government, the United States Government, and the Hawaiian Commercial Company. The area was divided into fourteen sections, each representing a country. The Oceanic Steamship Company section was located at the center of the exposition, and its exhibits were arranged to show the company's history, its fleet, and its services. The exhibits included models of ships, photographs, and other memorabilia. The company also provided demonstrations of its services, such as loading and unloading cargo. The Oceanic Steamship Company section was well attended, and visitors were impressed by the company's exhibits.
