HOUSE GETS DOWN TO WORK IN LAST HALF OF SESSION

Very Strong Tendency Shown to Rush Matters on the Floor and in Committee.

Senate Tables Winston Railroad Bill After Agreeing to Report of Committee—Bank Bill Is Advanced With Many Amendments.

In the matter of the disposition of routine matters, perhaps the House is to be credited with a fair day's work yesterday. There was shown a disposition, at all events, to get through with something, to finish up something, and so at the latter part of the afternoon session bills were rushed along at a rate that would mean much in the way of accomplishment if the same kind of thing were to occur every day. Also, there was a tendency to make the committees work a little more speedily, and if the member who started this crusade was himself exposed as a derelict in the matter—well, "we are all pore critters." He meant to stir them up, anyway, and he naturally overlooked the mote in his own eye. It is the intention that counts, sometimes.

Of course there was a show of the freakish spirit, without some manifestation of which no session would be complete. This time it took the form of the characterization of his more fair fellow citizens by a Hawaiian member as "red faced Americans," but nobody will bear him any ill-will on that account. A gentleman who contributes to the gaiety of nations even by one phrase is a public benefactor—and the "red faced Americans" know how to take a joke as well as how to give one.

The Senate managed to get through a lot of work though only the unfinished business was cleared up. In the morning the Winston franchise was laid on the table, and is apparently dead, as the supporters of the bill refused to accept the amendments proposed by the committee.

In the afternoon Senator Brown succeeded in getting his bank bill through second reading despite the emphatic adverse report of the committee. There will probably be another fight upon it on third reading. It gives banks greatly enlarged powers, permitting the holding of real estate and general trust powers.

Altogether nine bills passed third reading, the most important of which was probably the one making more stringent the law to prevent the adulteration of foods and drugs. The bill providing for a commission to pass upon the claims of British subjects, and the bill providing for the publication of the United States court reports also passed third reading. Just at the close of the session Senator McCandless caused somewhat of a stir by a resolution limiting the loan issue to a million dollars but only one vote was recorded in favor of it—his own.

IN THE HOUSE.

At the opening of the session of the House yesterday, a communication was read from Secretary Carter to the effect that the Governor had signed a number of bills, among them that to license the manufacture and sale of malt liquors within the Territory. Then there came the reading of a message from the Governor, overlooked at its proper time, transmitting a communication from the Japanese Consul relative to the position of the House upon the hack drivers' bill, which was rather in the nature of an attempt to make the matter an international episode. The letter of the consul, which showed that the Japs had invested largely in their hacks, and hauled Japanese passengers, anyhow, for the most part, was laid on the table, on motion of Chillingworth. And that was the answer of the House to Japan.

Harris presented a petition from the Associated Charities asking for an appropriation of $2500 annually for the purpose of carrying on the work of the society, whose methods were explained at length. The petition was signed by Governor Dole as president of the Association and by the heads of all the charitable bodies of the city. The petition caused a lot of discussion, on motions to reject and to refer to the Finance Committee. Fernandez said that the Organic Act forbade the granting of money to a sectarian organization, and Pulaa wanted to know if the red faced Americans would be included in the benefits of the appropriations asked for.

AMERICANS OF ALL COLORS.

Harris got up to say that the Associated Charities was most emphatically not a sectarian body. "If it had been," he said, "I would not have presented this petition to the House." Aylett said he supported the petition with knowledge of the facts, and not from hearsay. There was a Hawaiian society in this organization, he said, and he was going on to tell of an instance when he had been a witness of the good work of the Associated Charities. He was doing it at some length, when Paele called him to order on the point that a petition could only be referred, under the rules, and he had moved to refer this to the Finance Committee.

Then the Speaker ruled that the motion to reject was out of order, and referred the petition to the Finance Committee. Kumalae thought the Speaker could not do that, and so Knudsen, who was in the chair, put

GREAT STRIKE TIES UP LAND AND WATER TRANSPORTATION

Labor Unions Control Holland and the Queen Calls Out State Reserves to Cope With Them.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLEGRAMS.)

AMSTERDAM, Holland, April 6.—The strikers' committee has proclaimed a general strike all over Holland and as a result today all water and land transportation is tied up.

There have been minor disturbances all over the country and numerous riots and fights with the troops which are trying to cope with the strikers.

The streets of Amsterdam are in the hands of cavalry and marines.

Over seventeen thousand employees of the Netherlands state railways are on strike and in sympathy with them men and women employed in mines and on canal and channel steamers, have gone out today, so that the strikers now number over fifty thousand.

The mails are now being carried on motor cars. It is impossible to proceed by rail and travel from Holland ports to England has been interrupted, owing to the crews of many vessels plying across the channel joining the strikers. Crews of vessels at Flushing today refused to sail on any steamer carrying passengers which arrived at that port by train.

THE HAGUE, Holland, April 6.—Queen Wilhelmina today called out the Netherlands reserves who are to be used at once in suppressing the strike on the state railways. Soldiers have been placed on trains in order to move the transcontinental mails arriving at Holland ports.

The present great strike in Holland started through a difference of laboring men with a Dock Company. It spread to the railway because the latter would not refuse to haul freight from the dock where the men were on strike. Now the water transportation laborers have joined in the strike in an effort to further cripple the railways. Troops have been moved from point to point by boats recently to cope with the strikers owing to the fact that trains could not be operated, but now that sailors are on strike also it is likely that the soldiers will have to march. In addition to the railways the tramways are also tied up and both of these tie up the coal mines, so that there is likely to be much distress unless the strike is settled quickly.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT MAKES A FULL DOZEN TALKS TO DAKOTANS

ABERDEEN, S. D., April 6.—President Roosevelt arrived this evening and stopped here for the night. He was given a great reception here this evening, being met by the governor and all state officials. The entire day was spent in the state and a round dozen of speeches were made. These covered the principal towns along the line of the railroad, and the greeting given to the chief executive was most flattering. All the members of the party are well. The President is anticipating his visit into the Yellowstone country with the greatest pleasure.

Committee Sets Day for the Uprising.

One Hundred Thousand Soldiers Will Respond.

Three Days Battle at Salonica Ends With Victory for the Turkish Defenders.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLEGRAMS.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 6.—The Macedonian general committee has issued a proclamation calling for a general insurrection against the Turk. The day set for the uprising is April 20th. This action is based on the ultimatum of the three powers which was made public yesterday and the news has had the effect of creating a feeling that the spring will bring events of the gravest importance.

The proclamation calls upon all the Macedonians to fly to arms, gives assurance of aid from without and promises that the leaders of the bands now operating in the mountains, will rendezvous at a point which will be made known later, where the troops are to be mobilized. The committee is most sanguine in its declarations.

It is believed here that this call, coming when the people are told that the three great powers will intervene in the event of the Porte being unable to enforce peace, will have the effect of bringing out an army of not less than 100,000 men. This will tax the energies of the Turkish commanders now in the field, and it is reported that there will be issued an irade sending 100,000 more men to the western frontier.

SOFIA, April 6.—After three days of heavy fighting about Salonica the Turkish forces have been able to drive back the Macedonian army. The roving bands of Macedonians combined for the struggle, and gave battle before the city, which called out a great percentage of the defending forces of the Turks, the garrison of the seaport having recently received heavy reinforcements. The Macedonians lost heavily and were compelled to fall back.

Albanian bands descended upon the town of Okhrida, situated on the east banks of the lake of that name, captured it and proceeded to put to the sword all the Christians. There was a terrible slaughter, the people defending themselves as best they could. The revolutionists sacked the town and finally burned the Christian section.

The proclamation of the Macedonians was issued from Sofia which is the headquarters of that body. The present president of the committee is Mikhailovsky, by profession a schoolmaster, who took the office two years ago when Saraffoff left the place.

Gen. Tsoncheff is a major general in the reserve of the Bulgarian army. Col. Yankoff recently led a raid into Macedonia, but met with little support from the peasants. Saraffoff resigned his commission in the Bulgarian army for the purpose of leading an incursion into Macedonia. He is known as a blood-thirsty fighter. After separating from the central organization he was quiet for a time, but is again at the front operating about Salonica.

The activity in the region of Salonica is due to the fact that the rebels would like to secure that port, so as to prevent the landing of troops and their being dispatched into the interior by the railroad. This would cut off the principal means of distribution of men that is in command of Turkey, as the other railroad line is extremely vulnerable.

Lorenz Will Visit America Again.

VIENNA, April 6.—Doctor Lorenz, who made a sensation when he went to Chicago for the purpose of treating the daughter of Ogden Armour for malformation of the lower limbs, has been summoned to the United States again, and soon will leave for a hurried visit.

Swiss Masons Strike.

BASLE, April 6.—A general strike of the masons of the city was declared yesterday, and now more than 2,500 men are out. There have been several collisions between the workmen and the police and troops have been called out to keep the peace.

MICHIGAN GIVES A BIG REPUBLICAN MAJORITY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLEGRAMS)

DETROIT, Michigan, April 6.—For an off year Michigan today rolled up one of the biggest Republican majorities of recent years. The fight was for justices of the supreme court and regents of the state university. In each instance the Republican candidate was successful.

Jones Wins Again.

TOLEDO, O., April 6.—Mayor Jones was re-elected today after a campaign full of interest. He failed of nomination so ran independently.

Samuel M. Jones, who has been re-elected Mayor of Toledo, was born in Wales in 1846, and his parents came to America three years later. His early life was one of poverty and at eighteen he secured his first employment in the oil fields of Pennsylvania and has been interested in that industry ever since. He granted "eight-hour" days to the men in the oil fields that he controlled and made a big "eight-hour" fight in Toledo.

Four years ago a deadlock occurred in a Republican convention in Toledo. Jones' name was mentioned and he went through like a whirlwind, being later elected mayor, although opposed by the corporations and saloons.

His platform in running for office has been one favoring municipal ownership of all public utilities and no grant of new or extension of existing franchises.

Tom Johnson Victorious.

CLEVELAND, O., April 6.—Tom Johnson was re-elected mayor today by a fair majority. His campaign was as sensational as that he made for governor last year.

Thomas Loftin Johnson, better known as "Tom" Johnson, mayor of Cleveland, has had a unique career in the Ohio city. He has a national reputation. He is a manufacturer of steel rails, yet advocates free trade. He has made a barrel of money out of the building of street railways and operating them, yet he thinks the municipalities should own such enterprises. He has amassed a fortune doing what he thinks no private citizen should be allowed to do if a city was run as a model. He is counted as a possibility for the Democratic nomination for President for 1904.

Fleischmann Again Elected.

CINCINNATI, O., April 6.—Mayor Fleischmann was re-elected today, though by a greatly decreased plurality.

Mayor Fleischmann had to put up a big fight against M. E. Ingalls, railway president and capitalist, who ran for office on a Citizens' Ticket. His election insures the control of city politics by Cox.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES FROM ASSOCIATED PRESS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 6.—The Harriman interests of the Southern Pacific won a signal victory over the James R. Keene pool today by the denial by the court of Keene's application for an injunction to prevent the Harriman Union Pacific interests voting their shares at the Southern Pacific election. This fight between Keene and Harriman has been one of the most notable in recent railroad history and involved the control of the Southern Pacific system. Keene, representing a minority of the Southern Pacific stockholders, has maintained that by virtue of the Union Pacific holding practical control of the Southern Pacific, the latter system has suffered serious injury.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 6.—Another sensation in connection with the Burdick mystery was sprung here today by the report that Arthur R. Pennell was a defaulter to the amount of $200,000. Pennell, who has been charged with the murder of Burdick, and with whom Mrs. Burdick admitted improper relations, was killed in an automobile accident a few days after the murder. He lived well and was considered wealthy.

SAN DOMINGO, April 6.—During a battle here today of a Government warship with land batteries held by the rebels, a shot from the ship struck the German consulate, doing considerable damage. No loss of life is reported.

PARIS, France, April 6.—Mrs. Porter, wife of American Ambassador Porter, died here today.

Mrs. Porter was Miss Sophie K. McHarg when she was married to Horace Porter at her home in Albany in 1863. Porter graduated from West Point in 1860. He was appointed Ambassador to France in 1897.

ERA OF THE GREAT SHIP

With His Great Carriers Hill Wins.

May Divert Trade From the Suez Canal Route.

Future of the Railway Business of the North and Elements of Competition.

(Concluded.)

The limits imposed on cheap freight traffic from Europe to Asia are: (1) The tolls through the Suez Canal; (2) the size of ships that can pass the Suez Canal; (3) the cost of coal along the route; (4) the distance.

Tolls may be established, but this is not likely; it will take years to deepen the canal even if this project should be advocated; the cost of coal along the route, as well as the distance, will always be a drawback. The only limit to the size of ships that can be put on the Atlantic is the depths of the harbors on both sides. This limit does not exist in the Pacific, where Puget Sound has four hundred to five hundred feet of water within a cable's length of the shore. There is abundant and cheap coal in Great Britain, on the Atlantic seaboard, on Puget Sound, and all along the line of the northern roads, and there are unlimited numbers of empty freight cars west-bound.

GREAT SHIPS BUILT.

By building the largest ships in the world, even though they run under the more expensive American register, by filling the west-bound cars at a rate little more than the cost of handling, Mr. Hill knows that he can turn the export trade with Western Asia from its three-hundred-year-old way past India to the direct Pacific sea route past Alaska. Before these new ships were ordered, experts were sent to Scotland, Ireland and Germany, to absorb all that could be learned about modern mammoth ship building; and to escape from all hampering traditions of the past, an entirely new company, the Eastern Shipbuilding Company, was formed to construct them and took the contract even before the site was purchased on which the new yards were to be established.

These steamers are 630 feet long, 73 feet wide, and on draught of 36.5 feet will have displacement of 37,000 tons. The navigating deck is 90 feet above the keel. Each steamer can carry 1,200 troops and the cargo capacity exceeds 20,000 tons. Some of the hatches are large enough to admit a complete locomotive. With a horse power of 11,000, a speed of fourteen knots will be maintained. To accommodate these steamers enormous docks and warehouses are being constructed at Seattle, both wharves and warehouses of gigantic size already existing at Tacoma. Cotton baled by the Lowry compress weighs forty-five pounds to fifty pounds to the cubic foot, and 400 to 500 large freight cars loaded with these bales will furnish cargo for only one such steamer. The total cotton exported in 1900 was 1,500,000 tons, much of it to Europe for direct or manufactured export to the millions of Asia. These have now made a notable beginning in the manufacture of their own cotton cloths, and increasing quantities of American cotton will be sent direct to them.

Before these ships are launched, in connection with the Boston Steamship Company—which operates the Shawmut and Tremont, twin-screw steamers of 9,600 tons and fifteen knot speed, and also the three smaller steamers, Hyades, Pleides and Lyra—the Northern railroads have quoted a rate of $8 a ton for the transport of government supplies from Chicago to the Philippine Islands, of which the railroad share is $3.75 per ton. Return rates have been quoted on wool from Australia and New Zealand which make it probable that the imports from British Australasia to Boston, New York and Philadelphia will come by the Pacific overland route instead of through Suez.

RIVALRY IN SIGHT.

In the year that has just closed all the customs districts of the United States showed a decline of exports of grain products except the Pacific Coast ports, the shipments from Puget Sound increasing 45 per cent.

From an American point of view there is one shadow in this bright light of future American supremacy on the Pacific, and that is the rivalry of the Canadian roads to the north. One of these already in full operation, the Canadian Pacific, runs from Ocean to Ocean. The other, the Grand Trunk, is now building to Port Simpson, the most northern seaport in British Columbia. Both these roads command rich wheat belts; both of them tap exceedingly rich and very good coal fields; both of them as they approach the Pacific Coast pass through timber lands of the same general character as the heavy forests of Washington and Oregon.

The Grand Trunk will have six advantages over all its American competitors.

It will stretch from the Atlantic to the Pacific under one management and can make its own through rates, while none of the American roads extend farther than Chicago, and it will further control ocean-steamers at both ends; it will be the latest built road, with latest and most consistent equipment; its Pacific terminus, Port Simpson, a magnificent harbor on the Alaskan border, is nearer by 500 miles to Asia than is Puget Sound or Vancouver, yet the road itself is as short as any other transcontinental line; it escapes entirely the climb and heavy grades over the Rocky Mountains, which do not extend as far north as its line; its wheat belt extends from Manitoba unbrokenly to a region that is west of Vancouver, a gain in local agricultural lands of nearly a thousand miles over the American lines; and it will by the location of its terminus monopolize the whole of the enormous and rapidly growing Alaskan traffic.

BUILD UP LOCAL TRADE.

Great and serious as this competition will eventually prove, several years must elapse before it is felt, and this respite should be used by the American roads to build up local, through and international traffic, so that an ever decreasing freight rate will, through an ever increasing tonnage, augment the total receipts. Also new economies of intensive operation, as yet almost untried in railroading although successful in other modern industries, can at least double the present efficiency and per dollar of fixed charges carry twice as much freight, without lowering wages or adding to cost.

The heavy capitalization and the merger of the northern roads will in the end prove advantageous, not only to them but in far greater degree to the people of the United States, as it will necessitate the development of every local resource, and also bring about a diversion of the world's Oriental trade from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from European to American control, and thus quicken into being a thousand industries not yet conceived. To this beneficent stimulus all the country will respond, most of all the younger commonwealths of the Pacific Coast, with their flourishing sea-board cities each with its own advantages of location and environment.

Have You Got the Rheumatism?

If you have, no one can tell you about the sufferings of rheumatic pains.

Rheumatism is one of the most disagreeable complaints that any one can possibly have. Doctors have tried to cure it, scientists have tried to get rid of it and healers of all kinds have claimed effective remedies. But rheumatism still remains, and many people are still suffering and will continue to suffer with it unless they get rid of it by using Halpruner's Wonderful Pain Remover.

Dr. Halpruner suffered with rheumatism himself a good many years ago—suffered terribly, and it was during his suffering that he made up his mind to cure rheumatism, and he cured it with Halpruner's Wonderful Pain Remover—a medicine that he made to cure rheumatism, and cure it quickly and permanently and not leave any injurious results.

Don't let any one talk you out of it. If you have rheumatism, Halpruner's medicine is what you need. It is a medicine that will cure you and drive the rheumatism out of your system, and that is what you want. Go to the nearest druggist and get a bottle, but demand the genuine—50c and $1.00

Halpruner's

For several months my wife suffered from rheumatism in her neck—the incessant pain was of constant annoyance and we tried many remedies without relief. A friend of ours advised her to try Halpruner's Rheumatism Cure, which she did, using it externally as well as internally. My wife kept up the treatment for three days and then became entirely cured. We keep Halpruner's Wonderful Medicine in the house all the time and would not be without it.

MR. ELKIN IN EXPLANATION

Editor Advertiser: Your editorial
this morning on "A Cleric in Judgment" reminds me of the story of the lawyer who, for the benefit of a younger member of the profession, wrote across the brief, "No case; abuse the plaintiff's attorney." Surely it would have been more appropriate in a search for truth if, instead of explicitly assigning my body to "the crowd" of beach-combers and beer drinkers, and implicitly consigning my soul to everlasting perdition, you had endeavored to refute my reasoning.

Your personal references I must for the present ignore; I am interested only in your subject of discussion, the Kamehameha Schools. But in your whole article I fail to find a single argument which militates against the truth of my position. You are in error when you assert that I "never read the words of Chief Justice Lee," which you quote. We all are aware that Chief Justice Lee was president of the Board of Land Commissioners. It was natural that he should laud his own work. And no doubt he meant what he said. But the impartial investigator of the present day knows well that there is another side to the matter.
Thus Governor Dole, in the "Evolution of Hawaiian Land Tenures," states:
"The commission also decided that there were but three classes of vested or original rights in land, which were in the king or government, the chiefs, and the people, and these three classes of interests were about equal in extent."

I protest against the inferences which you have, without justification, drawn from my reasoning. These statements are yours, not mine. I simply maintain the truth of the three conclusions stated in my letter, and believe I can substantiate them to the satisfaction of all fair-minded persons. For instance, I said that the political constitutions—you did not quote me here correctly—which the native race received were more admirable for the missionaries and their children than for the natives. These constitutions were five. If any impartial critic will read them—or even an account of them such as that of Prof. Blackman in "The Making of Hawaii"—and then disagree with me, I shall be most happy to have a friendly discussion with him. From free and fair discussion truth is evolved.

Another error into which you have inadvertently fallen you will permit me to correct. I am not "a cleric." I have not yet obtained the honorable title of "Reverend." I am but a student, one who is interested in the pursuit of truth.

SHALL WE DISPUTE

The Opinions of Scores of Our Fellow Citizens.

Residents of Honolulu, like other American citizens, in making an investment want to be sure of getting the worth of their money. They want to know all the whys and wherefores, and in a direct ratio to the value of the investment they burrow and ferret until satisfied with the collateral. Take an instance in the realm of proprietary articles. If we know of a friend who has been cured we have some faith in the preparation; if we know of two or three our faith increases. If the cures reach scores all well known citizens, anyone who still maintains that there is nothing beyond ordinary merit in the said preparation, can safely be left to the care of his fellow tax-payers. If he wishes to pick a quarrel with them on the question of their judgment and veracity, he has ample opportunity in Honolulu to do so. Begin with this case.

Mr. H. H. Smythe, of Inter-Island
S. S. Co., this city, writes to tell us that he was afflicted with a lame back for a number of years. "Ascribing the cause of this to the kidneys and hearing about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, I got some of them at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They relieved me so much that I am perfectly satisfied with the result of having taken them,
and can recommend the pills to others,
suffering from backache."
Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are becoming popular in Honolulu because they are always endorsed by Honolulu people.
Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers

at 50 cents per box (six boxes for $2.50)

HOUSE GETS DOWN TO WORK

the motion to refer and it was carried.
A petition to license engineers was referred to the Miscellaneous Committee. Jaeger had gone out while the petitioning was going on and when there was a lull the Speaker requested the Sergeant-at-Arms to go out and fetch him in. "He told me he had something to present," said Knudsen, "and asked me to give him a chance. It is up to him." What Jaeger wanted was to introduce a bill and he didn't get it introduced, at that time, because the order passed to reports of standing committees.

ANDRADE'S MANY REPORTS.
Keilnoel, from the Public Improvements Committee, reported against the bill to abolish the Oiaa forest reservation. Adopted.

Andrade got the floor and presented a lot of reports from the Judiciary Committee that were calculated to hold the House for a while. These reports were on a great variety of bills, but mostly on measures of a legal nature, and their reading and reference proceeded, on the whole, amicably enough excepting that Kuphea, at one juncture, seconded a motion to do something with a report with which something else had already been done by the time he arose to speak to his second. The Speaker ruled that he was out of order, whereupon Kumalae leaped to his feet and said: "I would like to know, Mr. Speaker, how often you want a member to second a motion before he can be heard on it? Mr. Kuphea seconded that motion."

Knudsen did not pay a great deal of attention to this, and so the small sized storm passed over, and the reading and reference of the Judiciary Committee's reports went on. It had not been concluded at the taking of the noon recess.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon session the reports of standing committees continued to be submitted. There were reports from the public expenditures committee on various appropriations for road building on the several islands, the resolutions asking for which have already been printed, and these went to the table to be considered with the appropriation bill. Perhaps the most important was an item of $10,000 for the Volcano road.

At the conclusion of the reading of the reports, Kuphea introduced a resolution calling for a special committee of three to investigate certain leases of water right on Maui made by Governor Dole to H. P. Baldwin. Adopted.

Lewis introduced a bill to create a public park at Kona, Hawaii. Passed first reading by title. The same gentleman introduced a bill to create a public park at Hilo, which took the same course.

Vida introduced a bill to authorize foreclosure and sale to enforce liens of shipping companies and other common carriers. Passed first reading by title.

LEPROSY CAUSE FOR DIVORCE.

Pulaa introduced a bill making leprosy cause for divorce. Passed first reading by title.

Jaeger introduced a bill to authorize H. M. von Holt and his associates to build a railway on the island of Kauai, said road to run from the Kekaha mill site to Eleele, thence to Wahiawa, thence to Kukuulia Bay, to Koloa Bay, to Lihue mill site, to Hanamalu, to Kauaiamao, to Maakee mill site and thence to Hanalei valley. Under the provisions of the bill the road and its rolling stock are to be exempted from taxation for a term of ten years. Passed first reading by title.

Jaeger also introduced a bill to improve the inter-island wireless telegraph service, and granting a subsidy of $12,000 a year for two years to the Inter-Island Telegraph Company in consideration of that company giving the improved service specified in the bill, such subsidy to be paid at the rate of $1,000 per month. Passed first reading by title.

Nakaleka introduced a resolution calling for an appropriation of $10,000 to build a hospital for lepers on Molokai. Adopted.

WRIGHT IS WRONG.

Wright introduced a resolution asking the Superintendent of Public Works for information as to the number of Asiatics and the number of Americans employed as laborers in road building on Hawaii. Adopted.

A resolution from Wright asked Congress to give a bounty to coffee growers on the Islands, and that a commission be sent to Washington to urge such action upon the national body, such commission to be appointed by and work under the direction of the Delegate-elect to Congress. The mover asked further that the committee on agriculture be instructed to draw up a concurrent resolution embodying this idea. The Speaker said that a member could not compel a standing committee of the House to introduce a resolution. He was at liberty to do it himself, if he wanted to. Anyway, the House had already passed a resolution asking an appropriation of $20,000 for a coffee bounty. There was some little discussion, the end of it all being that Wright's resolution was declared to be out of order.

A LITTLE SPAT.

Andrade gave notice of the introduction of a bill to provide for the support of dependent heirs out of the estates of deceased persons, which measure passed first reading by title, and Kaniho wanted to double up on the bill already introduced nullifying marriages between leprosy and non-leprosy persons. Then the House was about to proceed with the regular order, when Kumalae arose to a question of personal privilege on the grievance that the Committee on Public Health had not made any report on House Bill 30 forbidding the Board of Health to take into its own hands the destruction of infected property, which he said had been in the hands of the committee for thirty days. Chillingworth said that if Kumalae would attend to his duty as a member of the health committee this bill, as well as many others, would have been reported long ago. The Speaker ordered the committee to meet and consider this bill, and Kumalae proceeded to state several other grievances of like nature against the other standing committees. There was a lot of squabbling, and some recrimination, and then the House proceeded to the order of the day, which was the routine advancement of a number of bills on second reading.

 DIMOND GAS BILL PASSED.

This being concluded, the Dimond gas franchise bill was taken up and passed second reading. It now goes to the Governor. Long cast the only vote against the measure.

House Bill 78, which is a bill to facilitate the collection of debts due from government beneficiaries, came next, and as this apparently had the most active kind of opposition, it was agreed to take a recess at 5 o'clock until 7:30, at which time the House would go into committee of the whole on the measure. Then, after one or two of the law association bills had been read, it was discovered that a number of committees wanted to meet in the evening, and so the recess proposition was reconsidered, and the House adjourned until this morning.

IN THE SENATE

Senator Kalaokalani presented a petition from forty-eight citizens of the Fifth District asking that an item of $600 be inserted in the Appropriation bill for the pay of J. K. Maunakea for the care of Kunawai springs. He claims to have been commissioned by J. H. Boyd and not paid for his work.

Senator Dickey moved the insertion of an item of $2500 in the Appropriation bill for a new school house at Huelo, Maui. Both matters will be considered with the Appropriation bill.

Senator Isenberg presented a petition for an appropriation of $2500 for the aid of the Associated Charities. Referred to the Miscellaneous Committee.

WANT LOCAL OPTION.

Senator Dickey presented seven petitions from the various islands requesting that the local option bill be reconsidered and passed. Received and filed.

Senator C. Brown presented a petition from H. N. Almy asking that $693, balance on liquor license at Waikiki Inn, be returned to him. He states that Treasurer Wright refused to turn over the license to L. H. Dee when the saloon was purchased by him. Referred to Ways and Means Committee.

Senator Crabbe presented a petition from John A. Cummins for the refund of the $5,000 fine paid by him for treason. He claims to have been unjustly convicted by court martial while the civil courts were in service. Referred to Ways and Means Committee.

Upon motion of Senator C. Brown the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment striking out Section 9 of Senate Bill No. 66. Senator Brown stated that Section 9 was exactly the same as in the present law.

Senator Isenberg moved the insertion of an item of $400 in the Appropriation bill for repairs to court house at Hauula. To be considered with the Appropriation bill.

Senator C. Brown gave notice of a bill to provide for a digest of the Hawaii Supreme Court reports.

EMERGENCY BILL AGAIN.

Senator Achi moved to reconsider the report of the Emergency Appropriation Bill Conference Committee saying that it had been adopted by mistake. He claimed the committee exceeded its powers in inserting an item of $20,000 for Waimea bridge as neither the Senate nor House had passed that item. Senator Baldwin took the same view and Senator Brown said that he believed the item was in the House bill. "But it isn't there," said Achi. "I am not going to take your word for it," replied Brown. "I want to see the original bill."

The bill was sent for and found not to contain the item for the bridge and Achi then wanted the Senate to refuse to accept the report. Senator Baldwin said that the Senate had passed the bill and couldn't take a report which was in the House from the table. He said the House should refuse to accept the report and then the Senate could reconsider. Senator Achi claimed this to be an extraordinary case and wanted the bill reconsidered. Senator Paris, who was in the chair, finally stopped the discussion by ruling that the bill was not properly before the Senate.

NEW BILLS.

Senator Crabbe moved the insertion in the Appropriation bill of an item of $10,000 for repairs to Kinua street. To be considered with the bill.

Senator Crabbe introduced a bill providing for the appointment by the Treasurer of a deputy registrar of public accounts. Passed first reading.

Senator Baldwin introduced a bill to authorize foreclosure and sale and forced lien of shipping companies and other common carriers. Passed first reading.

WINSTON FRANCHISE KILLED.

The Winston franchise bill was killed on third reading. Senator McCandless waived his privilege in favor of Senator Kalaokalani, who previously had caused the bill to go back to committee because of the objections of Dillingham. He spoke now in favor of the Queen street route but still said this should not be done if it interfered with the rights of the Oahu Railway. He said however that he intended to vote for the bill and all Senators should do the same.

Senator C. Brown said the Senate was anxious to grant the privilege and the only question was as to the route. He did not believe in the Queen street route because the extension of that road would make a second Kewalo. Then again the Queen street extension would not be made in time to allow the building of the road within two years as required by the franchise. The land also was private property and would have to first be condemned.

Senator Achi replied that the argument of Senator Brown didn't amount to a row of pins; that the government did not own the land for the Vineyard street extension either. On Queen street the Bishop Estate and Achi were willing to give the right of way for nothing. There was no reason to delay because the government didn't own streets; the Oahu Railway had to condemn its right of way too. Senator Brown, he said, talked like a baby. He favored giving a franchise to any one having money. If this franchise was given, in five years, small farmers out Kalihui way would be raising cabbages and onions and everything needed for the whole country.

"Raising them now and can't sell them," interrupted Isenberg.

Senator Baldwin said he wasn't an advocate of the Oahu Railway and had opposed the company in asking for wharf rights. But the legislature had granted yards and terminals and it wasn't right to permit another company to go through these depot grounds. "What kind of a state of things would we have if we granted one company a privilege that had already been given to some one else. It's wrong I say," said Baldwin. "I don't see why they press so strongly this going into the Oahu Railway's yards."

ONLY WANT CROSSINGS.

Senator McCandless replied that the Winston railroad had to get to the waterfront if there was to be any benefit to the people. The company would go 300 feet from the Oahu Railway depot and intended to cross the tracks only three times on the way to the wharves. The Oahu Railway with a subsidy of $3500 a mile had refused to build this extension. Senator McCandless said there should be a law anyway requiring all railroads to come to a full stop when crossing another railway's tracks.

Senator Kalua as a member of the committee said he did not believe in infringing on rights already granted. He suggested that Winston advocate another route in order to avoid law suits.

Senator McCandless moved that a vote on the report, which was against the Queen street route, be taken. Ayes and noes were called as follows: Ayes - Baldwin, Brown, J. T. Brown, Dickey, Isenberg, Paris, Kalua, Nakapaahu, Wilcox, Woods, 10. Noes - Achi, Kalaokalani, McCandless, Kaohi and Crabbe, 5. Senator McCandless then moved that the bill be tabled, refusing to accept the franchise in the amended form. Carried.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Senate Bill 46, enlarging the powers of banks, was taken up in the afternoon. Senator Brown defended the bill as against the adverse report of the Public Expenditures Committee. He said he had amendments ready to cure the defects complained of by the committee. He proposed to prohibit banks from engaging in agricultural or manufacturing business. On motion of Senator Brown the bill was considered section by section.

Section 1 was stricken out altogether. In Section 2 Senator Brown moved to strike out the portion prohibiting banks from holding real estate for a longer period than five years. Carried.

Senator Brown moved the insertion of a clause to permit the holding of real estate. Senator McCandless opposed this as allowing the banks to engage in the real estate business—a speculative trade. He argued that the depositors should be protected in every way. Senator Baldwin said it simply allowed the holding of real property as security. Senator Brown stated that banks all over the United States were given the privilege now asked. Senator Achi said that the banks now could speculate in stocks. The amendment carried.

Senator Brown stated that the present banking act was drawn by Judge Preston and had been taken from the English law and National Banking act. Senator Dickey moved to strike out the section giving banks power to act as trustees, administrators, guardians, executors and on powers of attorney.

Senator Brown opposed this saying that corporations should be given these powers as they existed always. He said the country should progress, and ideas from the mainland be adopted.

Senator Dickey replied that he was opposed to banks doing a trust business.

SAFETY FROM STEAM.

With petitions on both sides the House will have to decide the fate of the Harris bill providing for inspection of boilers and engines...

Taken as a whole, the measure means simply the application to Hawaii of a safeguard to the public which obtains elsewhere in the United States...

There have been few, very few, accidents with steam in Hawaii. The explosion of a boiler, almost without exception, results in loss of life and destruction of property.

Hand in hand with inspection has gone licensing of the men responsible for the boilers and engines. The theory is not that there must be a master mechanic or first grade engineer at every post...

HOUSE GETS DOWN TO WORK

(Continued from Page 3.) He also was against the idea of plantations doing other business, running stores, blacksmith shops, etc. The amendment was lost.

Senator Brown proposed an amendment prohibiting the carrying on of an agricultural, commercial, common carrier or manufacturing business. Adopted.

The bill passed second reading—to be read a third time Wednesday.

NEW FOOD LAW.

The bill providing against the adulteration of food and drugs passed third reading with an amendment reducing the minimum fine of $25 or 30 days' imprisonment to $10 and making the maximum $200.

Senator Isenberg said it was due to formalin. Senator McCandless wanted the prison penalty cut out. Senator Brown remarked that three of the Senators were in the milk business—Isenberg, Achi and McCandless.

BILLS REFERRED.

Senate bills on second reading were referred as follows: Settling exceptions by circuit judges, to Judiciary; militia reorganization, to Miscellaneous; 153 relating to explosives, 138 repealing the law on liquid explosives, and 139 inspection of explosives, were all referred to the Miscellaneous Committee.

MORE BILLS PASS.

Senate Bill No. 118 making a change in the partnership laws passed with fifteen yeas.

Senate Bill No. 121 providing for the publication of the U. S. Court reports passed third reading unanimously.

Senate Bill No. 110 providing for a commission to settle the British claims of 1895 passed third reading; Kalaokalani and Kaohi voting against it.

Senate Bill No. 110 amending the taxation laws relating to poll tax was called up on third reading. Senator Baldwin moved the striking out of Sections 2 and 3.

Senate Bill No. 140, providing for the quarantine of animals, passed third reading unanimously.

Senate Bill No. 142, amending the law relating to the sale of kerosene, passed for the third time with 15 yeas.

Senate Bill No. 148, amending the law relating to the Hilo Fire Department, passed; J. T. Brown voted "no" and Achi then changed his vote to "no," saying if a Hilo man didn't want it he didn't either.

The bill repealing the law for the importation of foreign goods marked as if Hawaiian passed with the same vote.

Senate Bill No. 152, amending the law for the protection of birds, also passed unanimously.

House Bill No. 157, providing for the acquisition of the Panoa Valley springs, passed first reading.

Senator McCandless introduced a joint resolution providing that the total amount of bonds to be issued within the coming biennial period shall be limited to $1,000,000.

The introducer said there should not be an issue of $2,500,000, for as shown by the plantations twenty-five per cent of the money would be wasted.

Senator Baldwin agreed with McCandless, but said that it should be borne in mind that the bonds were for four years' improvements and not for two years, and that the improvements were urgently needed.

Senator Achi wanted the resolution considered with the loan bill. Senator McCandless replied that there was a disposition on the part of business men to oppose the loan of $3,000,000 and he had been told that if the law was passed there would be a fight at Washington to prevent the President from signing it.

The motion to lay on the table carried, 14 to 1.

What's the use of a good cook if there's a bad stomach—a stomach too weak properly to digest what is taken into it?

The owner of such a stomach experiences distress after eating, nausea between meals, and is troubled with belching and fits of nervous headache—he's dyspeptic and miserable.

A Woman's Wealth. Paine's Celery Compound

GIVES VIGOR AND STRENGTH TO DEBILITATED AND RUN DOWN WOMEN.

It is maintained by many distinguished writers that the greatness of a nation depends much upon the physical condition of its women. The general conditions which contribute to health and long life, are those which do not imply a rapid and unequal exhaustion of those powers by which life is maintained. While we assert that the women of our land stand peerless for beauty and the virtues that make them lovable, we cannot hide the fact that there are thousands in our midst who, owing to overwork, worry, household cares, and an unequal exhaustion of life power, have become weak, nervous, sleepless, and debilitated.

We bring to the attention of all weary, despondent, hopeless, and sickly women earth's great restorer and health builder, Paine's Celery Compound. Thousands of healthy women around us owe their present vigor, activity, and robustness to Paine's Celery Compound. Mrs. Stephen Smith, St. Paul, Minn., tells how she was snatched from the grave; she says:—

"I had a bad attack of la grippe this spring and was at death's door, and no one ever expected me to recover. I was so weak that as soon as they brought me out of one faint I was in another. I could not take any nourishment, and doctors' medicines did me no good. A friend advised my husband to get me a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, which he did, but had no faith in it. The second day after taking the Compound, I began to get real hungry and took an interest in things. I had everything that money and loving care could supply, and with that and Paine's Celery Compound, I am now doing my own work, while three months ago I was almost in the grave. I know that I owe my health and strength to Paine's Celery Compound, and shall always recommend it."

HONGKONG MARU MAKES TIME RECORD

The Hongkong Maru arrived in port yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock and moored at the Bishop wharf. She brought about 950 tons of freight for Honolulu. There were two lay-over passengers. Mrs. Saito, wife of the Japanese Consul, returned after a long absence in Japan. She was accompanied by her adopted son and two servants. Madame Saito held quite a levee on the wharf where a large number of Japanese ladies were in waiting to greet her.

On the last trip from Honolulu to Yokohama the Hongkong Maru passed Bird Island within two minutes of her usual time, and on the return passed within three minutes, a record of which the liner's officers are proud.

Among the passengers aboard the steamship are Mr. R. Arai, a wealthy Japanese silk merchant of New York City, who is accompanied by his wife; Major S. Kobayashi, is a prominent officer of the Japanese army en route around the world; Major E. G. Shields, U. S. A., is the chief purchasing agent for the insular government at Manila, now on his way to Washington; Captain Charles H. Stockton, U. S. N., has been in command of the flagship Kentucky on the Asiatic Station and is en route home for promotion. C. K. J. Van Aalst, is a Dutch banker touring the world with his wife; S. Wakamiya, is one of the secretaries of the Department of Communication in Japan and is on his way around the world studying foreign methods of communication.

The Hongkong Maru will sail for San Francisco at 10 o'clock this morning.

WHALE DISPORTED NEAR THE KINAU

A whale about twenty-five feet long gave the passengers on the Kinau last Saturday, while she was en route from Hilo to Honolulu, an opportunity to watch him at play. While off the island of Molokai Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth and W. H. Hoogs saw a mass of black rise a little above the surface of the water and then disappear. Shortly afterwards a huge mass rose to nearly four feet above the surface. They saw then that it was a whale. Three times the big leviathan jumped out of the water and with a final blow disappeared altogether. Several passengers watched the whale's sport and there was a general rush to that side of the steamer when the news spread that a blower was in sight. It is evident that whales are again seeking these waters and whalers have been quick to perceive the trend of their movements. The Gayhead was in Hawaiian waters a couple of weeks ago and picked up several barrels of oil.

Sugar on Hawaii.

Purser Burningham of the Kinau reports the following sugar on Hawaii ready for shipment: Oiaa, 36,775 bags; Waiakea, 11,000; Hawaii Mill, 3500; Wainaku, 15,000; Onomea, 18,250; Pepeekeo, 5500; Honoumou, 10,400; Hakalau, 17,000; Laupahoehoe, 5300; "Maui" takes all; Ooakala, 3500; Kukaiaua, 4000; "Maui" will take all; Hamakua, 8600; Paauhau, 3500; "Helene" takes all; Honokaa, 3000; Kukuihaele, 3500; Punaluu, nil; Honuapo, 200.

Galilee to Get Copra.

TACOMA, March 22.—The little brig Galilee, which has been loading 300,000 feet of lumber at the St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Company's mills for Kahului, expects to finish her cargo and sail Monday or Tuesday. From the Hawaiian port she will proceed to Fanning Island, for which she has about 100 tons of general merchandise loaded at San Francisco prior to coming to Tacoma. She will load copra at the Fanning Island for San Francisco.

Sugar on Kauai.

According to the report brought by the purser of the Inter-Island steamer W. G. Hall there are now 128,610 bags of sugar on Kauai, divided as follows: K. S. M., 4000; V. K., 400; W., 600; Mak., 11,750; G. & R., 3200; McB., 19,300; K. P., 1400; G. F., 1280; H. M., 6780; M. S. Co., 77,100; K. S., 2800.

Hawser Parted.

While the tug Fearless was towing the barkentine Annie Johnson over to the Railway wharf yesterday the line parted and the barkentine drifted against the steamer Kauai and carried away some of the steamer's upper works.

THE DAY IN CIRCUIT COURT

Charges of fraud are made by Chinese in a suit for $354.25 which L. Chee Sun, Ching Mung, Lee Chu and Lee Yau claim has been fraudulently and falsely converted by C. Wai Tong to his own use. The defendant was arrested on a writ of non exeat but yesterday was released upon the order of Judge De Bolt who also dismissed the temporary injunction. He claims to have been taken from his sick bed and alleges that he was unconscious while under arrest at the station.

The plaintiff's claim to have formed with the defendant the firm of Sing Lung Company, a dry goods corporation on Nuuanu street, of which Wai Tong was the manager, and that his management was irregular.

The order was dismissed on a showing that C. Wai Tong was seriously ill in bed. He denies the charges or that he intends to go to China and says that Lee Chu caused the writ to issue for the purpose of injuring him.

DICKEY REVERSED.

Judge Robinson yesterday reversed a decision by Judge Dickey in favor of plaintiff in the case of A. W. Judd vs. Young Ping et al. The suit was for insurance obtained by plaintiff on the property of defendant for him and Judge Robinson holds that Judd is not entitled to recover.

NEW SUITS.

Manena Castino has sued Joseph Castino for divorce, charging desertion. Louis Marks has brought suit against F. W. Makinney on a $350 note.

Wants Property Divided.

Maggie Fisher has brought suit in the Circuit Court against Keukahi Wallehua (w) and J. Alfred Magoon to have certain lands situated at Kalaheo, Koolaukoko, Oahu, partitioned and sold. There are four apanas, containing respectively 116.77 acres, 0.33 acres, 85 acres, 101 acres. The petitioner claims to be owner in fee simple of fifty acres, the defendant being owner in fee of all the rest, but which she mortgaged on February 24, 1900, to J. A. Magoon. The petitioner is twenty-one years of age.

MORE THAN WAS ASKED

Nevadan Is Worse Off for the Suit.

Fearless Is Awarded Six Thousand Dollars.

Judge Estee Criticises the Action of Freighter and Also of Local Pilots.

Judge Estee yesterday rendered a decision awarding to the Fearless the sum of $6,213.72 for her services in pulling the Nevadan off the reef in Honolulu harbor on the night of December 8. This is $1,200 more than the amount originally sued for by Spreckels & Co., it having been claimed that $5,000 was agreed upon as the amount of remuneration on the night of the accident. The court holds that there was no agreement as to these terms, and awards the salvage on the basis of 1 1/2 per cent of the value of the freighter and her cargo, which he fixes at $414,248.

The court also overruled the motion of the defendant for a dismissal of the complaint on the ground that the plaintiff had not complied with the Territorial laws affecting foreign corporations. Judge Estee holds, however, that this act relates only to Territorial courts "and in no event could a law of that character affect the jurisdiction of the United States district or circuit courts in relation to admiralty cases." The law is upheld as to Territorial courts, but the court holds that if it was held to apply to the United States courts "it would be a restraint upon the jurisdiction thereof."

DANGER OF THE SHIP.

After reviewing the general capacity of the two vessels the court details the futile effort to make a contract between the two sea captains. Then the court says:

"It must be admitted beyond a doubt that the Nevadan was in danger when she lay on this reef with her valuable cargo aboard; ships are made to sail the sea, not to navigate the land. The reef where she lay is composed of sand and coral, and the waters about it are full of boulders. The reef has a gradual slope for some thirty feet till it rises 'like a precipice' or fall up and down." This latter fact was testified to by the witness Williams, who swore to having been often round this reef fishing for lobsters.

"No vessel lying on a reef is in a

NO NEED TO SUFFER SO.

"She bears her sickness patiently; she makes no complaint." How often we hear that said and how it stirs the pity in our hearts. There are plenty of sufferers of whom it is true, of both sexes and all ages. The success of modern science, however, in combating disease is at once a cause for gratitude and wonder. It is well to bear pain patiently, yet is it not better not to be obliged to bear it at all? "Yes, say we all," if we can only prevent suffering or get rid of it. Well, the medical art is making a great record along this line in these days. Remedies have been discovered within the past few years which prove how sincere and persevering has been the search after knowledge, and how rich the reward. Chief among these splendid results is WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION now known and used all over the world. For one thing it solves the vexed question of how to employ cod liver oil in consumption and other wasting diseases without doing more harm than good. This alone is a victory second to scarcely any in the history of medicine. Disregarding the objectionable peculiarities of this otherwise valuable drug, the preparation, which is palatable as honey contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It expels the germs of disease from the blood and supplies flesh and strength to the wasted and feeble body. It creates appetite and causes your food to nourish you. It is a wholesome medicine guaranteed to do what is claimed for it. Effective from the first dose. "Never disappoints." Sold by chemists here and everywhere.

position of safety. It is the common knowledge of all seafaring men that where there is a reef there is a heavy sea, if there is any sea at all running. Indeed, the official map of the Harbor of Honolulu introduced in evidence and marked 'Libellant's Exhibit 3,' indicates this reef with the following words 'always breaks.' And the least sea would raise a ship laying in the position that the Nevadan lay so that when it falls, she would strike heavy and thus she would be likely if she remained long on the reef to pound to pieces. Fortunately there was no unusual sea on the night the vessel was stranded."

EFFORTS TO ESCAPE.

As to the Nevadan's own efforts to free herself, the court says:

"A decided effort was made at the trial of this cause to show that the Nevadan came off the reef by her own efforts. This is not borne out by the facts. The Nevadan had been on the reef for some time, a full hour, before the tug took hold of her, and she had tried to get off by all means in her power and with the assistance of the Young Brothers gasoline launch, but she remained fast. After the Fearless commenced tugging on her, she still remained fast for another full hour or more and she only came off when the tug changed her relative position to the ship by veering across the channel a little more at right angles with the Nevadan. It is easy and indeed usual after a ship is out of danger for the officers who are most to blame in incurring such danger, and when it is a thing of the past, to claim all the credit for relieving the ship."

The court says further that the danger to the Nevadan was admitted by the attempt of Percy Morse, the agent, to secure the services of the Iroquois, this indicating that he thought "the Fearless would be unable to pull the Nevadan off unaided by other vessels. The Fearless was not occupied but a short time after she had made fast to the Nevadan in accomplishing the purpose for which she had been sent, but as to this shortness of time the Nevadan should not complain. It would seem to have been a matter for congratulation."

THE TUG'S DANGER.

As to the tug's danger the court says:

"Now as to the danger to the tug. It was night when the tug reached the Nevadan and made fast; there were no lights on the buoys in the harbor. And right here I would add that this is a matter of surprise to me. It appears that when the regular pilots take ships out of the port of Honolulu at night they place lights on the buoys along the channel; but when a ship goes out without a pilot, she must either go in the day light or run the risks incident to the darkness, as no lights are on the buoys. It seems to me that this looks a little like a premium on the services of the local pilots.

"The channel is a narrow and tortuous one, bounded on each side by coral reefs and there was the possible danger to the Fearless of going on the reef herself that night, for in manipulating in the dark the hawser might have broken or got wound up in the propeller of the tug, and in the shallow waters near the reef the tug might have been drawn on to the reef. Says Murphy, the mate of the Fearless, 'If the hawser had carried away, we were close in; we would have shot dead ahead upon the reef like a sled out of a gun; nothing could have saved her.'

"It must be admitted that the danger the tug was in arose from her employment and was a consequence of her efforts to assist the ship off the reef, and was a part of the res gestae. It was evident that the Nevadan was not deemed quite out of danger when she started out the channel, moving at the rate of from three to four knots an hour, and continued to haul the tug stern foremost after her."

AWARD OF COURT.

The court also says that the Nevadan exercised no undue haste in relieving the Fearless from the danger of dragging her astern. In conclusion he holds:

"The single question is, in view of all the circumstances of the case, what amount of salvage is reasonable, for the court holds that the Fearless and the owners thereof are undoubtedly entitled to a judgment of salvage. As was once said by the Supreme Court of the United States, 'Salvage should be sedulously fostered and the salvors compensation not as mere pay for work and labor done, not, indeed, limited to the precise quantum of benefit in the particular case, but on a scale so liberal as to best encourage such services.' The Comanche, 8 Wall. 465.

"The value of the property saved herein, both vessel and the cargo, is admitted to be worth some $414,248. I think a reasonable salvage award would be an amount equal to 1 1/2 per cent of the value of the salvaged property or $6,213.72, and so hold, the same to be distributed as follows:

"To the captain of the Fearless, $350; to Scott, the chief engineer, $150; to Murphy, the mate, $150; to the assistant engineer, $100; to the two seamen, Williams and Hearst, $75 apiece, and to the fireman, $50; the balance of $5,263.72 to go to the libellant herein as the owner of the tug Fearless; together with the costs in this suit incurred.

"Let judgment be entered accordingly.

"MORRIS M. ESTEE, Judge.
April 6, 1903."

HELD UP WITH A GUN

Chinese Fan Tan Players Are Mulcted.

Bogus Police Officer Interrupts a Game and $147 Is Lost.

Loo Joe, a Chinese Tailor, Is Arrested on a Charge of Extortion.

The police believe they have unearthed a plot having all the earmarks of extortion at the business end of a revolver and with the aid of a bogus police badge. Loo Joe, a Nuuanu street tailor, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of extortion and his bail was set at $1000. In lieu of this amount of bail Loo Joe went to jail.

According to the evidence which the police have obtained, Loo Joe and several friends went to a room near his place of business on Friday evening last and a game of fan-tan was indulged in. Loo Joe is said to have lost $200 on that occasion, and it is said that a bogus fan-tan stick was used. This consists of a stick which has one more than the usual compartments for holding and drawing buttons and at a critical stage in the game the extra compartment yields up a button on the table which will throw the game one way or the other to suit the wily stick wielder.

Loo Joe is said to have schemed to get his money back. On Saturday evening several Chinese were invited to a room over his place of business, and an interesting game with big money in sight was kept up during the evening. Loo Joe won considerable money and things were going his way.

At a time when there was $147 on the table matters came to a climax. The door suddenly opened and a white man entered quickly and levelled a revolver at the players. The intruder wore a badge on his coat and appeared to be a police officer. The instant the "officer" appeared Loo Joe is alleged to have swept the entire stakes into a drawer, and the invited guests jumped for every doorway that was near, and so escaped, leaving the supposedly luckless Loo Joe at the mercy of the man with the gun.

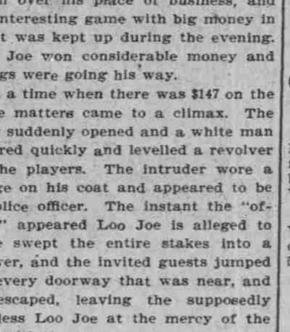

The Chinese players learned yesterday that no one had been arrested and soon had matters under investigation. At first they thought perhaps McDuffie or Renear had been the "man behind the gun," but this theory proved entirely groundless and then Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth was asked to take a hand in the matter and ascertain, if possible, the facts. A few hours of investigation convinced him that Loo Joe had played a deep and crafty game with his countrymen, and that the man, gun and badge were all part of a scheme. The result was a charge laid against Loo Joe. The Chinese who were deprived of their cash by the alleged ruse are Cum Sun Kwai, Ah Hoo Kwai, Chu Lin and Ah Mun.

Shortly before 9 o'clock last evening Loo Joe was released on a bond for $1000 given by Loo Chit Sam.

HERPICIDE

HAIR LIKE THIS

is easily obtainable through the use of Newcomb's Herpicide, the only preparation on the market that remedies and annihilates the germ or microbe that is responsible for all scalp diseases. It thus makes dandruff and falling hair impossible, and causes a thick, luxuriant growth to replace the former thin, brittle hair. The gentlemen will also find it an inestimable boon to them, as it works like a charm on bald heads, bringing forth a growth of soft, thick hair that anyone might be proud of. Even druggists proclaim its virtues, as per the following:

Office of W. H. MURPHY, D.D., Prescription Druggist, 12-19, '99, MARTINVILLE, WYOMING.

Dear Sir: Herpicide is certainly a good article, and will do the work as advertised; that is why we sell it. I guarantee every bottle, and none has been returned. Please send me another dozen, and oblige. Yours respectfully, W. H. MURPHY.

WHAT IS PAIN BALM?

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment, and while adapted to all the ordinary uses of a liniment, has qualities which distinguish it from other remedies of this class. Pain Balm is especially beneficial for rheumatism. Thousands of cases can be cited in which this remedy has effected a cure when the sufferer had previously tried the best medical service without securing relief. Pain Balm is positively guaranteed to give relief in the most severe cases of chronic or acute rheumatism.

Pain Balm heals bruises, burns and scalds in less time than any other treatment. It is "antiseptic," that is, it prevents putrefaction, and by so doing generally prevents an unsightly scar remaining after the injury is healed. For lame back, lumbago and neuralgia, Pain Balm has no equal. It has the quality of "getting to the right spot." No sufferer from these distressing affections should defer a trial of this remedy. One application gives relief. Try it. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

Important Reasons

Why Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe Co. Safes and Locks are the Best.

The concrete filling makes these safes absolutely fire proof and positively damp proof. The solid angle corners add greatly to their security in time of fire and form the only solid corners made. The patent Bolt Work is superior to any in use and does not require the constant oiling, cleaning and repairs that is acknowledged in other makes of safes. That although 600,000 of these safes are now in use and many thousands have been tested by some of the most disastrous conflagrations in the United States, there is not a single instance on record wherein one of them ver failed to preserve its contents perfectly. They make safes for county treasurers, county recorders, county clerks, jewelers, hotels, residences, churches and corporations. We have a large assortment of safes on hand and will be pleased to show same.

BETRAYED BY HIMSELF

A Burglar Aroused a Neighborhood by Bungling.

A Porto Rican burglar who attempted to enter the store of a Chinese on the makai corner of King street and Walkiki road last night, bungled his effort so badly that he aroused the entire neighborhood and fell into the hands of the police. Jose Regi, an old offender, is the name of the burglar. The police had received a tip during the evening and Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth and several special officers posted themselves near the King street store. About 11 o'clock the Porto Rican came up and after taking a look up and down the street stepped upon the veranda. He put an iron rod beneath the heavy cross bar and after lifting it from its brackets it fell with a noise which roused the neighborhood. The Porto Rican ran across the street. People came out of houses in the vicinity and the police placed Regi under arrest. When searched he had a big knife and a watch which the police believe is the property of some one else. A charge of burglary in the first degree was entered against Regi.
