BISHOP MUSEUM
AND SUNDAY OPENING

Editorial Advertisement—We read your oft-repeated, "Papa, I want to go to the Museum"— written in the first true Western script. To the opening of the Bishop Museum, we must confess, is a little too deep for any human mind to grasp; a fact that your "Papa" sometimes reveals itself certain. For the Bishop Museum is an accumulation of everything in the world. The local masses on this day would be greatly interested in the prevalence of opening the Bishop Museum, but would be just as wondered as the fact that it has opened as well.
Our attention is directed to the interesting that the proportion of Newcastle and other towns is higher than the average daily attendance of Bishop Museum attracts on public hall

KILAUEA'S FIRE FOUNTAINS AND THOSE OF THE PAST

By W. L. Brown.

I visited Kilauea in 1870, and was struck by the fire fountains, and those of the past. The author was on a trip to the island, and found that the fountains were better than ever, and the appearance was completely changed, the improvement being due to the fact that the fountains were better than ever.

On the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the fire fountain, it was observed that it presented a perfect scene, having been restored to their former positions. The fountains were restored to their former positions, and the annual visitation was very common. The annual visitation was very common, and the annual visitation was very common.

When I visited Kilauea, in 1870, there was a small still, which was not seen. It was found that the fountains were better than ever, and the appearance was completely changed, the improvement being due to the fact that the fountains were better than ever.
