APPROPRIATION BILL IS STILL AWAY ABOVE THE ESTIMATED REVENUES

The Land Law Question Considered by the Senate—Charges Are Groundless.

The Senate hurried through its work yesterday, the fifty-sixth day of the session and the last upon which bills could be introduced. A number of important measures were reported by the committees. Chairman Kalama of the Committee on Public Lands presented a lengthy report on the resolution introduced by Senator McCarthy, memorializing the Congress of the United States to extend the land laws that prevail on the mainland to the Territory of Hawaii. When the resolution was introduced it was attached to a bill, embodying the ideas of those desiring a change in the methods of land administration and this was considered by the Senate yesterday afternoon in the committee of the whole.

Senator McCarthy disclaimed any responsibility for the ideas in the "sample" bill. He said that it had been handed to him for introduction, and added that he had not read it over. President Smith declared that it would be ridiculous to expect the Senate to take up such an important matter as a proposed change in the land laws when there were but four remaining days to the session. He disagreed with the intent of the bill and said that it would virtually mean that the entire control of the land of the Territory would be placed in the hands of the Department of the Interior at Washington. The bill and resolution was finally laid on the table to be considered with the land resolution that has been before the House of Representatives.

The "charges" of official misconduct that were brought against Superintendent Hosmer of the Department of Agriculture and Forestry and Dr. Norgaard, the Territorial Veterinarian, were completely quashed by a report submitted by the special investigating committee.

In the course of its report the committee says:

"The charges as made against the Board of Agriculture and Forestry are contained in a letter dated March 17, 1909.

"Your committee has investigated these charges, but the author of them, Mr. Julian Monsarrat, did not attend the hearing of the committee to substantiate his charges though due notice was sent by wireless.

"Both Messrs. Norgaard and Hosmer were examined. Your committee finds the charges to be unfounded and can find no ground for the same, and believes that if the maker of them, Mr. J. Monsarrat, had taken the precaution to look into them himself he could not have taken up the time of this Senate with such groundless charges, as they are based entirely on hearsay and show an utter lack of knowledge of existing rules and regulations of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry.

"Your committee would suggest to those who desire to make charges against public officials that they make them to this Legislature and not to individuals and only when some tangible evidence can be adduced to support the same. Your committee recom-

The Governor Will Have to Cut It Down $122,997 to Have Both Ends Meet.

"No one has enough money to do anything," sadly observed one of the country members of the House, when the results of the work of the conference committee on the appropriation bill were being discussed after the rising of the House yesterday afternoon. What he meant he explained by stating that the counties had been given much work to do without a sufficient share of the money of the country to do it on, while the Territory had not been able to retain a big enough share of the Treasury collections to carry on the work it had retained. It was a very sad member who spoke, one who had been very prominent in the early part of the session introducing resolutions for appropriations for public works in his district, appropriations which had gone to the table to await the consideration of the appropriation bill and which are there still waiting.

During the next two years there will not be many public works undertaken unless the counties are given their taxing power and use it.

The Legislature has increased its expenses for the period by about $150,000. For the maintenance of the Leper Settlement and work there is a large increase; the expenses of education are larger; the Seattle Exposition work calls for $25,000; the new Carnegie library is to get $10,000 a year, and some other items have been allowed. The extra money to be raised by the special immigration income tax helps some, in that a share of it goes for the upkeep of the Bureau of Agriculture and Forestry, but there is one little item of a contingent fund for the Governor provided for that almost equals the saving.

Altogether, according to the advance information from the conference committee, the appropriation bill appropriates some $122,997 more than the estimated revenues after the preliminary appropriations have been deducted. This is a cut from the bill as it came from the Senate but a great big jump above the total as sent to the Senate from the House. What the committee is going to recommend is that the bill pass as they have fixed it and go to the Governor, leaving him to prune where they have failed.

It was expected that the bill would be reported back to the House yesterday. In fact, Cohen, who is heading the House conferees now that Rice is officiating in the chair, asked that the House wait for a few minutes yesterday until he could present the report. He had to take it back, however, after the House had waited, and announce that the report could not come in until today.

The House is keeping closely up to its work, yesterday finding reports presented by committees who only received the bills the day before. A report from the Waikiki Reclamation Commission was also received, this stating that there was nothing doing so far as the Territory was concerned, recommending that the city be given the power to go ahead and do its own house cleaning.

WILL ADJUST THE MARCH PAY

Conference of Supervisors Calls for No Duplication of Claims.

At a conference of the special committee of the Board of Supervisors with the Mayor yesterday afternoon to consider ways and means to pay claimants of the road department for services rendered from March 1 to 15 inclusive, the matter was left to a committee consisting of Messrs. Quinn, McClellan and Kane to adjust claims on the basis of no duplication of pay, and report at the next regular meeting of the board.

That is, where they find that two appointees, under the opposing heads of the department, holding like offices, those who actually performed labor and from whom the county receive value, are to be considered eligible to receive warrants.

The committee, it is expected, will confer with the auditor and treasurer, as, of course, payment of claims rests finally with the treasurer, and an amicable adjustment of all claims is necessary.

LOCAL ARMY OFFICERS MEET AT SHAFTER

A board of officers, consisting of Major Samuel W. Dunning, 20th Infantry; Major E. Eveleth Winslow, Engineer Corps, and Captain Joseph C. Castner, quartermaster, will meet at Fort Shafter, Honolulu, for the purpose of making recommendations as to the conditions under which a right-of-way shall be granted to the Honolulu Rapid Transit Company to construct and operate a railroad across the Fort Shafter military reservation. — Chronicle.

FELL FROM TRAIN.

Brakeman Blacksted, employed on the Wahiawa branch of the O. R. & L. system, fell from a moving train yesterday afternoon and was rendered unconscious.

Mr. Blacksted was removed to the Palama General Hospital, suffering from concussion of the brain, and up to midnight last night had not regained consciousness. While he received many severe bruises no bones are broken, although it may develop that his skull is fractured.

The young man was formerly an employe of the Rapid Transit system, and only recently was "broken in" as a brakeman on the O. R. & L.

SPLIT HIS EAR.

Refusing to allow his split ear to be sewed together, Archie Chisholm walked out of the hospital last evening where he had been taken in the patrol wagon for repairs. Chisholm had dined at the Palace Cafe, and dined well. When he arose he toppled over and in falling his head came in contact with a cuspidor, causing a split ear. The police were called in. All that the doctors could do, according to the police, was to wash the wound and prepare it for stitching, but Chisholm balked at further medical aid.

CATHCART'S CASE GOES TO A GRAND JURY FOR WHOM HE IS COUNSEL

John W. Cathcart, County Attorney, on the police court calendar yesterday morning, charged with assault and battery on Goo Wan Hoy, asked for a jury trial when the complaint was read. Judge Andrade thereupon ordered that the defendant be committed for trial before the Circuit Court, awaiting the action of the grand jury. Judge Humphreys, who appeared as counsel for Goo Wan Hoy, requested that a bond be required of the defendant. Judge Andrade suggested $50, and, this appearing satisfactory to both sides, the defendant was requested to produce a bond. A bond was filed later in the day, with D. Kalauokalani, Jr., City and County Clerk, as surety. Touching the Cathcart case, Judge Humphreys, attorney for Goo Wan Hoy, has addressed the following letter to the Attorney General:

"April 23, 1909.
"To the Attorney General, Honolulu.
"Sir: I have the honor to call your attention to the case of the Territory

REPORT ON THE WAIKIKI SWAMPS

Results of Commission's Work Submitted to the Senate.

Important recommendations affecting the general health and sanitary conditions of Honolulu through the draining of the Waikiki swamps are embodied in the report of the Waikiki Reclamation Commission, submitted to the Senate yesterday. The report bears the signatures of Marston Campbell as chairman, Edward T. Davis and W. W. North, and deals exhaustively with the problem that the commission was appointed to investigate in accordance with a resolution adopted by the Legislature of 1907.

A bill intended to carry out the ideas of the commission was also introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Chillingworth. As there are only four more days left to the session of 1909 it is practically impossible for the bill to be passed. It is introduced mainly for the purpose of enlightening the public as to what the actual working of the reclamation plan would be and to pave the way for the introduction of a bill covering the same subject in the Legislature of 1911.

The bill provides that the Supervisors of the counties and of the City and County of Honolulu shall be empowered to order the reclamation of lands "as the public health or interest or convenience may require." The bill states that when part of the cost of reclamation is to be collected by a special assessment upon property benefited, the work of reclamation shall only be undertaken upon the petition of the owners of two-thirds of the property affected.

The full text of the commission's report is as follows:

"The Revised Laws of the Territory of Hawaii, Sections 1025 to 1034 inclusive, provide certain means whereby insanitary conditions and swamp lands may be reclaimed and rendered sanitary within the District of Honolulu, Island of Oahu. However, under the above provisions, after the Board of Health of the Territory has declared such swamp lands to be deleterious to public health, the Superintendent of Public Works may direct the owner of such property to properly fill and drain same and place it in sanitary condition. On failure of the property owner to comply with such notice, the Superintendent of Public Works may perform such work, and recover the cost of same from the property owner by suit in a court of competent jurisdiction.

"To comply with the provisions of Chapter 83, Sections 1025 to 1034 inclusive, would require an appropriation by the Territorial Legislature to enable the Superintendent of Public Works to reclaim and drain such lands as the owners may refuse to place in proper sanitary condition. Without such appropriation, this law is practically a dead letter and cannot be enforced.

"The Waikiki Reclamation Commission, after careful consideration of the present laws on the statute books, is of the opinion that the reclamation of the Waikiki district should not be undertaken by the Territory, but should be carried on by the City and County of Honolulu, under a special act of the Legislature, empowering the said city and county to create reclamation districts and to assess the cost of the reclamation against the district benefited and through such reclamation.

FAIRBANKS SEES NEED OF DIVERSIFIED AGRICULTURE

"Hawaii is entrancing. This is true not only in the natural beauty of the place, with its balmy climate, but also in the great commercial and industrial advancement which may be noted on every side. It is the character of the advancement, too, which is important, for it has been a growth that is solid. To one who has never been in Hawaii it would be very hard to give a true impression of the place. I have been familiar for years with commercial and industrial conditions here, but I must admit that I am surprised at the heights which have been reached and the things which have been accomplished. I was out to your pineapple plantations this morning and, as I said before, the character of advancement in this industry, begun, I understand, only about five years ago, was a revelation to me."

Mr. Fairbanks does not run to florid speech and does not overdo his praise, but it was evident that he meant every word he said about Honolulu and its development. He was seen at Gov. Freat's home and was very cordial and frank.

"My trip to Wahiawa was delightful," continued the ex-Vice President of the United States, "and it was a very instructive one for me. I really had little idea of the great progress of the pineapple industry, but I now can readily see why people say that it bids fair to soon be the rival of the

PUNA REPRESENTATIVE WOULD ALLOW WOMEN VOTING RIGHT

Kealawana has come out in a new light, that of the great and only champion in the House of Representatives of woman's rights and all that that includes. To show that his respect for the sex is not that of the lip alone, he yesterday introduced a resolution into the House urging the Delegate to Congress to secure the necessary amendments to the Organic Act to extend the franchise to the wives and the daughters of citizens.

The Puna Representative, in his resolution, draws attention to the valuable assistance once rendered to Hawaii by those ali wahine who served as governors for the Islands and also to the great assistance the ladies of today are to their political friends around election times, when they (the ladies) take to the stump.

The resolution, which was referred to the Miscellaneous Committee, is in full as follows:

"Whereas, In the history of Hawaii

nei it has been demonstrated that the women are fully capable of taking an intelligent part in the government of the country, and

"Whereas, At the present time the women of Hawaii are able to and do take an intelligent interest in the politics and government of the Territory, taking part in the political campaigns as workers and speakers, and

"Whereas, It would be a distinct benefit to this Territory in many ways if the women were allowed to become actual as well as active factors in the government of this Territory; therefore,

"Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, That it is the sense of this House that the full franchise be granted to women in this Territory, the wives of the citizens and the daughters of citizens over the age of twenty-one years, and

"Be It Further Resolved, That the Delegate to Congress be requested to secure such amendments to the Organic Act as will bring this about."

mends that the charges against Dr. Norgaard and Mr. Ralph Hosmer be tabled."

The report of the committee was adopted without comment.

The "charges" made by Monsarrat, all of which were completely refuted by the answers made by Mr. Hosmer and Dr. Norgaard, descended to the ridiculous.

He wanted to know "why Norgaard was given $400 of government money last year with which to go on a vacation." He also inquired why it was that "Norgaard is allowed an assistant, when there is not enough work to keep him busy."

It was a succession of charges of this nature that caused the committee to lose all patience with the "charges" and recommend that they were so frivolous as not to warrant the attention of the Legislature.

Bills Are Reported.

House Bill No. 231, relating to the annual exhibit of corporations, was received and passed on first reading.

The Education Committee reported favorably on House Bill No. 228, giving the Board of Regents of the College of Hawaii the power to appoint a treasurer and such other officers as may be necessary in the administration of the college and to vest the Board of Regents with more power. The bill passed second reading on the adoption of the reports.

The Judiciary Committee reported favorably on the concurrent resolution to pay D. L. Conkling for services during the Legislature session. Chairman Knudsen stated that Mr. Conkling had rendered valuable assistance to both branches of the Legislature and the resolution received the indorsement with a unanimous vote.

Senator Coelho introduced a resolution giving extra payment to Clerk Savidge and his assistant, George Lowe. Coelho explained that over $400 had been saved by the work performed by the two officials of the Senate. The resolution provided $140 for Savidge and $60 for Lowe. Senators Chillingworth and Knudsen supported the resolution.

Good Work Recognized.

President Smith stated that he wished to say that he had been impressed throughout the session by the excellent work performed by the clerical force and that the policy of economy that had been carried out with consistency in the affairs of the Senate was something to be commended.

The resolution was adopted with a unanimous vote.

House Bill No. 191 was reported by the special committee of the Maui delegation, amending the County Act by providing for an increase in the salary of Maui officials.

The members of the committee agreed on all the items except that of $600 per year for the supervisors. Coelho dissented from this amount, holding that $900 would be the proper annual remuneration for the county fathers of Maui.

The bill was finally passed on the adoption of the majority report.

Senate Bill No. 149, authorizing the Treasurer to pay balances of road tax moneys in the Treasury. Passed third reading.

House Bill No. 64, relating to the inheritance tax, passed third reading on the motion of Chillingworth.

House Bill No. 196, regulating the transportation and segregation of animals affected with diseases. Passed third reading.

House Bill No. 216, relating to public bonds, passed third reading.

On Christian Science.

House Bill No. 218, relating to the practice of osteopathy, and providing that the tenets of religious organization shall not be interfered with, was taken up for consideration.

Senator Fairchild submitted an amendment, making specific provision that Christian Scientists shall not be interfered with. President Smith suggested that the proviso that "quarantine regulations shall not be violated" should be altered to state that no rules and regulations of the Board of Health should be violated. With this provision inserted the bill received the approval of the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 226, providing a penalty for not returning property for taxation, passed third reading.

House Bill No. 230, giving the City and County Clerk the power to appoint deputies with the approval of the Board of Supervisors, passed third reading.

The bill drawn to conform to the recommendations of the tax commission, making income tax delinquency a lien on real property, was taken up on third reading. President Smith took the floor in opposition to the passage of the bill, reiterating his views that the law would inflict unnecessary hardship upon the purchasers of real estate.

Chairman Knudsen declared that the curse of the country was the mortgage, and said that Senator Smith asked for indefinite postponement because he thought that it would make it harder to mortgage property.

Senator Smith replied that the idea of mortgage did not enter into his dissent from the provisions of the bill, but he objected to it because it would cause needless hardship in the sale of real estate.

Senator Smith finally withdrew his motion for indefinite postponement and the bill was ordered to be printed. The report of the tax commission was being used by the Senate to follow the bill, but there has been so much difference of opinion on the measure that it was decided to have it printed.

House Bill No. 200, providing for a lien on storage by warehousemen, passed third reading.

Senator Knudsen submitted the report of the conference committee on House Bill No. 205, fixing the salaries of district magistrates. It was adopted.

The Land Question.

Chairman Kalama of the Committee on Public Lands submitted a report on Senate Resolution No. 8, petitioning Congress to enact a special homestead law for the Territory and including a draft of a bill, conforming with the intent of the resolution.

In the course of its report the committee says:

"Criticism has been made by many in regard to the present system, and to quote the recommendation of the Land Advisory Commission, in its report on page 5, it says: 'That the method of sale under right of purchase lease and cash freehold be utilized to only a very limited extent, and that only under conditions where its provisions can not be abused.' And then, referring to the settlement association provision, it said: 'This has not fulfilled its purpose, but has been the method by which the greatest abuses have been practiced.'"

"In the second preamble of the resolution it is there stated that the homestead lease is obnoxious to every American citizen and resented by Hawaiians, who are entitled to equal rights with all other citizens. That may be as far as American citizens are concerned, but why should Hawaiians resent it? In your committee's opinion, Hawaiians of some intelligence should resent it, but the majority of the Hawaiian people should welcome a method of acquiring land, it being the easiest, safest and cheapest to them generally. Lands so acquired will be theirs and their posterity's for, say, one thousand years, a sure home to them for all time and which is not subject to assignment, attachment, levy or sale upon execution and is entirely free from any process in bankruptcy or otherwise. Your committee is very optimistic in this regard and undertakes to speak for those Hawaiians who are not as intelligent (this is used advisedly) and are incapable of maintaining themselves sufficiently up to the present-day standard, that this method should be made more of by the government than is the case at present, particularly in the outer island localities, and that sufficient interest should be shown to their would-be leaders and friends to urge this system upon them."

"Still there is yet one other method not mentioned by the resolution, which is of the policy recently enunciated by the Governor of this Territory and known as the special agreement of sale, under Section 276, Part 4, of our present land laws (Revised Laws of Hawaii). The first sale under this system occurred during the early part of last November and is claimed to have been very successful in so far as the government was concerned, the sale in question being the first of the present administration of Territorial affairs, many others having followed in its wake, with others yet to follow. Whatever may be said against it, it is yet to be proven that it is inefficient, but so far as at present known the system has been found to be very liberal in its terms and provisions, and is the most advantageous, as far as made known to your committee, to the man of small means to acquire a homestead, upon which he may till, and, if need be, earn a livelihood for himself and family and otherwise maintain his home. Your committee is informed that it is yet the best method advanced of any of our statutes and would suggest that it be made more of by the government."

The resolution and bill was read, section by section, in the committee of the whole, in accordance with the recommendation of the committee. Senator McCarthy said that he did not stand sponsor for the measure, stating that it had been handed to him to introduce.

"With what little knowledge I have of the land question," said Senator Fairchild, "it seems to me that this bill was drawn up by the associated order of land barons."

Senator Smith said that he did not consider it to the best interests of the people of the island that such a bill should be introduced. He quoted the provisions of the measure providing that "all public lands shall be set aside for homestead purposes" and showed that such a provision was altogether too sweeping and could be subject to an interpretation that would work a hardship upon the people of the whole Territory.

President Smith said that he was opposed to the whole intent of the bill. He stated that the main object of the Organic Act was to allow the Territory of Hawaii to continue under its previous form of government. He quoted the statement of Secretary Garfield that the land laws of the United States were not adapted to Hawaii.

Senator Smith showed that the intention of the bill was to place the full control of the land of the Territory in the hands of the Department of the Interior at Washington.

"Any bill that will place the control of our lands in the Department of the Interior is something we should never consent to," declared Senator Smith.

He dwelt on the troubles and obstacles of the other Territories in the administration of land matters when the Department of the Interior exercised control. He said that he agreed with a more progressive policy in land matters but insisted that the greatest difficulty in the land question was to secure the right kind of settlers and provide sufficient inducement in the way of a reasonable expectation of disposing of their products.

Senator McCarthy said that he was disappointed with some of the provisions of the bill. He moved that the resolution be laid on the table to be considered with the resolution on the subject which was introduced in the House of Representatives. The motion was carried.

A New Proposal.

Senator Fairchild introduced a resolution providing that a committee of three be appointed by the President of the Senate, the committee to hear the title of the "Senate Holdover Committee on Ways and Means" and stipulating that an appropriation of $1200 shall be paid out of the expenses of the 1911 Legislature to meet the cost of the committee work, not to exceed $1200.

In explaining the intent of the resolution Senator Fairchild said that it was to make provision for the gathering of data on the Territory's finances to be ready for the next session of the Legislature.

President Smith doubted whether the present Legislature could bind the next Legislature in the matter of expense. The resolution was finally referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senator Fairchild introduced a bill to provide a special appropriation for the current expenses of the Second Circuit Court, Maui. Fairchild explained that Governor Frear had received a wireless from Judge Kingsbury, stating that he would lead that amount to meet the costs of the current expenses of his court and that it was absolutely essential that the appropriation should be made.

Senator Robinson introduced a bill adding a new paragraph to Section 2569 of the Revised Laws relating to the dissolution of corporations, reading as follows:

"Section 1. Section 2569 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph as follows:

"Such trustees shall forthwith advertise once a week for not less than four successive weeks in each of at least two newspapers of general circulation published respectively in the English and Hawaiian languages in this Territory, a notice to all creditors of the corporation to present their claims at a place to be designated in such notice within ninety days from the first publication of said notice. All claims not so presented shall be forever barred."

Notification was received from Secretary of the Territory Mott-Smith that the Governor had signed the following bills:

Senate Bill No. 143, Act 106, entitled "An act making an additional appropriation for the Department of Public Lands for the biennial period ending June 30, 1909."

House Bill No. 208, Act 107, entitled "An act to amend Section 1320 of the Revised Laws in relation to stamp duties."

House Bill No. 202, Act 108, entitled "An act to provide for the care, custody, control and payment of five thousand seven hundred and seventy-five and 18-100 dollars ($5775.18), being the money now in the possession of the Treasurer of the Territory and designated or known as the special gold certificate deposit, special silver certificate deposit and special postal money-order deposit."

House Bill No. 210, Act 109, entitled "An act to amend Section 1828 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, relating to proof and entry of defaults against defendants in civil actions."

Senate Bill No. 123, Act 110, entitled "An act making special appropriations for public improvements."

Senate Bill No. 140, Act 111, entitled "An act to provide for the reimbursement of the Territory for the cost of the Kula pipeline."

Senate Bill No. 125, Act 112, entitled "An act to amend Section 553 of the Revised Laws relating to the Honolulu Waterworks."

HOUSE

A resolution was adopted calling for the appointment of an inspector for the gas and electric light meters of the city and another resolution calling for the appointment of a Public Utilities Commission to investigate all public serving corporations and report on the way these are behaving. The gas and electric light companies had sent representatives before the Judiciary Committee protesting against the resolution which said that their charges were excessive, although those behind the resolution were prepared to show that the gas company was charging such rates as in many cases prohibited the use of their product and that many persons were ordering out their stoves because of alleged unfair treatment. The company induced the tabling of this resolution, however, and the House passed the other. It is understood that the gas company will be the first one investigated and it is not improbable that there will be a court proceeding to have the rate fixed at the "reasonable" price named in the franchise.

The Election Bill was read for the third weary time and passed.

Kau Railroad Charter.

The Kau railroad charter bill, House Bill 191, by which "W. A. Wall and his associates" are given a franchise to build a railroad line through portions of Kau and Kona, Hawaii, came back from the Senate somewhat, but not materially, modified. The amendments were concurred in.

House Bill 233, which appropriates $600 to pay the Kalawao district magistrate for the coming biennial period, was read a second time on special order of the day and passed.

House Bill 234, Castro, relating to tax liens, was also read in full on second reading and put on the order of the day for today. This bill is along the lines of House Bill 180, killed.

House Bill 232, amending the law in relation to the transportation of lepers and others affected with contagious diseases, raising the limit of tonnage of vessels upon which such persons may be carried, from 250 gross tons to 500 gross tons, carried on third reading. This amendment includes the Inter-Island S. S. Mikahala among the boats eligible for this business.

Senate Bill 120, which puts a license tax of $25 a year on second hand dealers and authorizes the various county treasurers to issue the licenses, passed on third reading after Sheldon had presented an amendment to include the City and County of Honolulu among the counties.

Senate Bill 121, the fifty-seven page Election bill, was read through on third reading, the members starting to scatter as soon as the reading was announced. Vice Speaker Rice called attention to the necessity of maintaining a quorum and put the sergeant-at-arms on guard at the door to keep enough of the honorable gentlemen in their seats to do business. At the usual rate of reading it would have taken the clerk a full hour to get through the bill. He did it in about twenty minutes, however, leaving the suspicion that the clerk turned about four pages at a time.

There was a short debate on the bill and an attempt to amend it was made. The amendment was killed and the debate shut off, the bill passing by twenty-one to seven.

Kaukeouli Park.

A resolution sent down from the Senate to name one of the new Hilo parks the "Kaukeouli Park" was received and passed. This is taken as a means of getting out of that $10,000 statue. Affonso, who caused the parks to be set aside, presented a resolution to name the other one "Lincoln Park." Kaleiopo amended this to make the name "Affonso Park." The House passed the amendment and then killed the resolution as amended.

Afternoon Session. A Senate amendment to House Bill 230, whereby the Honolulu City Clerk must have the approval of the Supervisors before appointing his assistants, was considered. The amendment was agreed to.

Senate Bill 139 was reported on. This is the Tax Bill, affecting all counties and on recommendation of the Judiciary Committee goes to committee of the whole on second reading to be taken up today.

Senate Bill 147, under suspension of the rules, was read through on second reading and passed without going to committee. The bill relates to the recording of births, marriages and deaths.

Automobile Tax Not License. The proposal of the House that automobiles should take out licenses, the fee for which was to be a cent a pound, gross weight, and the money to go to the road fund of the district in which paid, was not approved of by the Senate. Instead, the Senate sent down a bill, Number 112, which leaves the rate at a cent a pound but turns the money into the Territory as a tax. The bill passed.

Case of Swap. A conference committee report on House Bill 205, fixing the salary of district magistrates, was read and adopted. To any who still had a belief that these conferences were meetings in which the merits of the disputed points were gone into and judicially decided, the report may be an awakener. The items were fixed by the House gaining two points and the Senate two, as reported:

"The items in dispute were these," says the report:

"(1) District magistrate, Wailuku. Passed in the House at $100; in the Senate at $125.

"(2) District magistrate, Hamakua. Passed in the House at $90; passed in the Senate at $100.

"(3) District magistrate, Puna. Passed in the House at $45; passed in the Senate at $60.

"(4) Clerk and interpreter, District Court, South Hilo, $100. Passed by the House and stricken out by the Senate.

"Your committee has adjusted the difficulties as follows:

"(1) Senate yield to the House and pass the item as in the House bill.

"(2) House yield to the Senate and the item pass as in the Senate.

"(3) House yield to the Senate and item pass as in the Senate.

"(4) Senate yield to the House and the item pass as in the House bill."

Land Law Amendments. The concurrent resolution, presenting the draft of the bill to amend the Organic Act respecting public lands, was read and adopted and is ready for the Senate.

No Waikiki Reclamation. The Waikiki Reclamation Commission, provided by the Legislature of 1907, composed of Marston Campbell, Edw. Davis and W. W. North, presented a report to the House yesterday. The gist of the report is that the Territory can not undertake the work, but that the city should, under authority of an act to be passed allowing the city to undertake reclamation work. Such an act was presented as a draft bill. The recommendations made were that the several thousand acres be divided into several reclamation districts and a complete road system laid out; that the streams flowing through the districts be taken by conduits to the sea, to prevent the flooding of the lowlands, from which flooding the swamps result, while it was urged that something be done to do away with the breeding ground of the yellow fever mosquito before the opening of the Panama Canal.

The bill and report went to the Health and Police Committee.

Gas and Electric Inspector. The Judiciary Committee reported on Castro's resolution to have a commission look into the rates and service of the gas and electric light companies, tabling the resolution, but recommending that an inspector of meters be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works. The resolution does not provide any way in which such an inspector may be paid, but there is yet time to remedy this oversight of the Judiciary Committee. The resolution as passed on first reading is:

Joint Resolution. "Be it Resolved, by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii, That the Superintendent of Public Works do appoint some fit and competent person to be known as the Gas and Electric Inspector, whose duties it shall be to examine and inspect the laying and placing of pipes, conduits, poles and wires, and generally to inspect and examine all apparatus of companies using or supplying gas or electricity, and that the Superintendent of Public Works do pay to said inspector a reasonable salary, which salary shall be paid from the following funds, viz.: Three-fourths of said salary shall be paid from the annual royalty or payment paid to the Superintendent of Public Works by the Hawaiian Electric Company, Limited, and one-fourth of said salary shall be paid from the annual royalty or payment paid by the Honolulu Gas Company, Limited, to the Superintendent of Public Works, and furthermore that the Superintendent of Public Works of the Territory of Hawaii do examine generally into the conduct of the affairs of the several public service corporations using or supplying gas or electricity by virtue of rights granted them under franchises from the Government of the Territory of Hawaii, and report the result of his examination to the Legislature of 1911."

Silly Petition Tabled. The Miscellaneous Committee presented a report tabling House Petition 65, endorsed by Kanio, which asked that legislation be enacted whereby all road supervisors should be elected officials.

The W. C. T. U. organizations of Des Moines have lined up with the Prohibition Amendment Alliance and are flooding the State with circulars urging the defeat of those senators who voted against Prohibition last week.

SCHOOL BALL STARTS TODAY
 The interscholastic baseball series will start this afternoon on the Kamehameha diamond. The High School will play Oahu College, and St. Louis and the Kams will hook up in the second game.
 The series, which will be played on Saturdays, Mondays and Wednesdays, is a fairly long one, as each team plays each of the others three times. The last game will be on Monday, May 24, and will be between Punahou and the Kams, on the latter's field. It is impossible to dope out any accurate forecast. Oahu seems to have the strongest team, but all the other three schools have been doing well in practise, and High School certainly has a pretty fair aggregation of ball-swatters.
 St. Louis and the Kams seem to have the weakest of the teams, but this is only going by what can be judged by a glance at their lineups. They have all been practising very religiously and the championship may go to anybody.
 The opening games this afternoon will have a particular interest attached to them, as they will give a line on how High School may expect to size up with the Punahou team, and will also show what the Kam slabsters can do with that great twirler from St. Louis, "The King of Spain."

HONOLULU GOLF CLUB FIXTURES
 The Honolulu golf club has published its card of fixtures for the coming season. The events which are all to be played on the Moanalua links are as follows:
 May 2—Medal play; 10:30 a. m.
 May 23—Foursome; 10 a. m.
 May 31—Entries close this date at E. O. Hall and Son for annual match play tournament.
 June 20—Bogey competition; 10:30 a. m.
 July 18—Medal play; 10:30 a. m.
 August 22—Foursome; 10 a. m.
 October 17—Four ball foursome; 10 a. m.
 December 5—Championship (medal play); 10:30 a. m.
 Entrance fee for all competitions is fifty cents and players must be present at the clubhouse at the hours named above.

N.G.H. BALL TEAM IS CONFIDENT
 The N. G. H. boys, like all the members of all the other teams in the military league series, have been working very hard for the big doings tomorrow at the league park. They were out for another practise yesterday afternoon and put in some effective work.
 Sergeant Barry, manager of the team, feels very confident of victory, not only on the opening day, but that the guards will get the championship. Yesterday afternoon he said with a smile that he might be quoted as saying that not a single Marine would reach second base tomorrow. And that is some live talk.
 Appearances at present are that there will be very lively doings at the league park tomorrow. The double-header certainly looks very attractive and there will be a class of ball to watch that is well up to the standard of anything round this town.
 It was at first arranged to charge only ten cents and two-bits, but, on further consideration, the league decided to raise it to the regular schedule of twenty-five and fifty cents. The league will be under heavy expense for transportation in the future and it would help to make the series a success if the treasury started out with a nice little balance from the first game.

ROBERTS AND FROELICHER
 Sailor Roberts is anxious to meet Hans Froelicher such time as the husky wrestler arrives here with Pete Baron. Roberts is now in very fair condition and states his intention of doing just enough work to keep him feeling good, but not enough to go stale, until he knows definitely when Froelicher will be here.
 Baron and Froelicher are uncertain themselves, according to latest letters, as to when they will return. They have an excellent line of moving pictures, including the Gotch-Hackenschmidt bout and are traveling Canada with them and doing well.
 Pete states that he expects it will be at any rate two months before he returns to Honolulu. In the mean time he hopes to make a little stake for himself and he certainly has something of the kind coming to him.

 Carl Oss and Lawrence Cunha will swim off their twenty-five-yard race at the Hotel Baths at 4 o'clock this afternoon. This is to decide who gets the first and who the second medal in the Y. M. C. A. championship series of last year.
 Mr. J. N. S. Williams of Kahului, a very enthusiastic yachtsman, writes that the Maui water-dogs are looking forward with much delight to the cruise to Kahului. Special arrangements will be made for the comfort of the yachtsmen and the safety of the yachts, and those hospitable other-islanders will have a real Maui welcome ready.
 The Aala Park games for next Sunday will be postponed. This is on account of the Military League opening on that afternoon. For the benefit of those interested, it may be stated that this notice is authentic and was not brought in by Mr. Ayres.
 The first of the elimination shoots to decide who shall have a place in the team to go to Camp Perry this year, will be held at the Kakaako range tomorrow morning beginning at 8:30. All those who have qualified as marksmen are eligible in these competitions. The distance tomorrow will be 200 yards slow and rapid fire.
 The two remaining games between the Marines and Kewalos yet to be played will each come off on Aala Park on a Sunday afternoon. The next game will be played a week from Sunday. At present the Kewalos have won one game. Should they win the next they will be the champions of the Atkinson League.

TWO-MILE MATCH WALKING RACE
 There has been much talk round town recently about a match walking race between Jackson and Ayres for one or two miles. Both of these men were seen yesterday and both consented to walk, being quite anxious that the event should come off.
 Jackson stated that he would walk Ayres two miles, not one mile, on or before May 8. He also says that he is a fast walker and would have entered in the recent walking races had he not been out of condition. He is willing to back himself for any reasonable amount.
 Ayres states that he is quite willing to walk Jackson two miles on May 8 and will cover any proposition made by the latter. Now that both principals are willing it looks very much as though the event would be pulled off. Neither stated their preference for road or track, although Kapiolani Park would be the best place for the public to watch the race.

TEAM PLAY AT COUNTRY CLUB
 There will be a two-team tournament, match play, at the County Club tomorrow. Two captains will be selected, sides picked up and then drawings made for opponents. Entries will close promptly at ten o'clock at the clubhouse and, as usual, none will be permitted over the telephone.
 Each member of the winning team will receive a prize in the shape of a very handsome stein.
 "Just big enough to hold a draft." "Tae quench a bonnie golfer's thirst."
 The bus, or rather two of them, will start running promptly at 8:30 from the end of the Nuuanu car-line and there will be the usual excellent mid-day lunch.
 Yesterday afternoon there was a jolly party of golfers at the clubhouse. They first played a friendly game once round the links in an impromptu tournament and then adjourned to the clubhouse for dinner which was given in honor of J. D. Gaines, Frank Halstead and Wm. Woon, who will leave for the Coast shortly.
 The following officers have been elected by the Chinese Minor Baseball Club: C. Duke, president; K. Hoo, vice president; N. Ah Chieu, treasurer; S. C. Wong, secretary; G. Pang, captain; and H. Fat, manager. The C team won the championship of the first series, and teams A and B will open the second series on the oil-tank diamond at 9:30 tomorrow.

Sterling Bicycles are exceedingly graceful in appearance and substantial in construction. They are made in one of the largest and best equipped factories where for fourteen years the one aim has been to combine style, running and wearing qualities with moderate price. The quality which enters into these bicycles is made possible only by the possession of this long experience, unequalled manufacturing facilities and a great output.

The frame is made of one-inch seamless steel tubing, and a glance will show that the lines are as fine as could be designed. The enamel and nickel are applied with great care, making a durable as well as attractive finish.

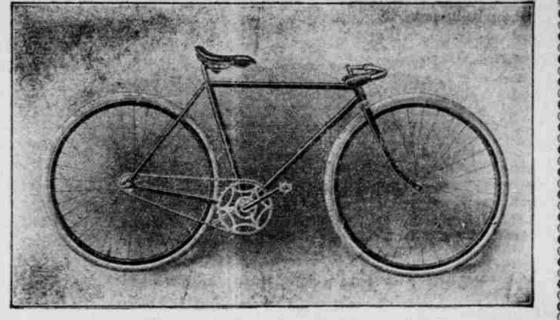

The limited space in this advertisement forbids an extended description of the Sterling Bicycles, but we shall be pleased to furnish any further details on request. We would, however, impress upon the reader that in these bicycles we offer machines that cannot be equalled at the price.

THE Pacific Commercial Advertiser A MORNING PAPER.

WALTER G. SMITH EDITOR SATURDAY APRIL 24

It is needless to say to those who have taken the trouble to acquaint themselves with the facts, that Judge Dole has no wish to retire from the Federal bench and no expectation of doing so; that Governor Frear has no thought of resigning and that the absence of Kubio from Congress at this time of the session, having happened twice before, may be accounted for without disturbing the political calculations of people at home.

COMPLETELY VINDICATED.

The Legislature has established a sensible precedent in connection with the criticism that was directed against the Bureau of Agriculture and Forestry. The so-called "charges" against Superintendent Hosmer and Dr. Norgaard were found, on investigation, to be so childish that they did not warrant consideration at the hands of the special committee appointed by the President of the Senate. In the course of its report the committee lays down the dictum that persons wishing to accuse any official of malfeasance should present their case in regular form to the Legislature, and not address letters to individual members of the Legislature, with vague intimations and suggestions of criminality that, even if justified, might fail of receiving proper consideration by reason of the inadequate way of submitting them.

If the charges against Superintendent Hosmer and Dr. Norgaard were as represented there would have been ground for proceedings against those two officials. The only result, however, of the committee's investigation is to show that the Bureau of Agriculture and Forestry has been more than ordinarily careful in adhering to the rules of the department.

THE LATE SENATOR STEWART.

The late William M. Stewart was a western type though a New Yorker by birth—one of the men of large brain, a taste for adventure, a perennial optimism and a fine bulldog courage, who built up the institutions of the Pacific slope. The writer of this topic recalls him in his old age—a white-haired man, resembling in the nobility of his face, the notable stature of his frame and an aspect of authority, one of the idealized pictures of Moses as painted by an Italian master. He used to visit San Francisco often during the heyday of silver politics and speak in the white courtyard of the Palace Hotel; and anyone who ever saw him there will have no trouble in recalling him as a fine figure of the patriarchal statesman. Nor did he lose in dignity as he sat by in some quiet corner and told the stories of a stirring past.

Mr. Stewart had been a pioneer, a gold hunter, an Indian fighter, a frontier lawyer, a politician, a man of affairs and a national character. One can read of him in Mark Twain's "Roughing It," and as may be seen in his lately-published reminiscences, he was a bit sensitive about the picture Mark printed of him with a big patch tied over a recently-blacked eye. But, after all, black eyes were in the day's work on the Comstock; and Stewart took as well as gave his share of blows of all kinds.

The Nevada Senator was often rich and at one period of affluence he built the Stewart Castle at Washington. A few years ago his fortunes were at a low ebb, but, though over seventy, he went back to the mines, and made money. Intermittently he was a corporation lawyer. He was in the United States Senate from 1863 to 1875, and again from 1887 to 1905. His conversion to the gold standard finally cost him his seat in the upper house.

Senator Stewart had many titles to honor. One was that he had the friendship and confidence of Abraham Lincoln.

HAWAII AND DIVERSIFIED AGRICULTURE.

Like every other discerning man who comes here, Mr. Fairbanks remarks the need of diversified industries. He sees as clearly as a statesman should that Hawaii cannot live by sugar alone; and that, if it is to be independent and American, it must adopt the homestead principle and expand it. Sugar may not always pay Hawaii. Some day this group may be menaced with the economic fate of Jamaica, which cane-growing island, a century ago, was the greatest dividend-making agricultural property on earth; and if so, it will be wise to have enough other agricultural resources in hand to save the situation.

There is—thanks to the industry and optimism of a few men and to an agitation which the Advertiser inspired and practically carried on alone for years—good grounds for thinking that the one crop era of Hawaii has gone forever. Pineapples are making their way. They may have their downs as well as their ups as sugar did in the earliest days of the industry here, but they have won the name of being the best pines in the world; and apart from the growing demand of the mainland for them is the prospect that Europe will finally prove to be a good market for such superior fruit.

Coffee is also a standard crop and if economic protection cannot be had for it, the fragrant berry has the way opened to build up commercially on its reputation. Those who grow it on a large scale in Hawaii say that it pays; and it ought to pay better when it becomes better known.

Sisal is another crop that promises a fair living; honey is making extraordinary profits; and the fact that Hawaii can produce certain fruits and vegetables weeks and even months before the coast can supply them to its own people, is a commercial fact, the importance of which is barely recognized here.

To the natural question, why is nothing adequate done to realize on all these opportunities, there is but one true answer: Our land laws are built to serve feudal conditions; and it is impossible to survey and open up all the arable public lands and put them on the market in fee simple for what they are worth. When we get laws of that character, Hawaii will progress as it never did in all its history; and the laws will come in time.

THE COMMERCIAL ORIENT.

Oriental commerce amounts in value to more than 4000 million dollars per annum.

This statement is the result of calculations recently made by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor. It classifies as "oriental commerce" the imports and exports of all countries having a population wholly or chiefly oriental in habits of life, whether through nativity, descent, or other influences which determine the customs of the people. The area occupied by people of oriental habit of life as to dress, food, household requirements, methods of transportation, etc., stretches, therefore, from Japan and Asiatic Russia at the northeast to Morocco in North Africa at the southwest, and includes Asia, Turkey in Europe, and all that part of North Africa occupied chiefly by people of oriental habits, the total number of people within this area being 933 millions, or considerably more than one-half the population of the world.

The imports of this "Commercial Orient," according to the latest figures available to the Bureau of Statistics, amount to 2,150 million dollars, and the exports 2,033 million dollars. Of these imports of 2,150 million dollars, 5 per cent are taken from the United States; of the exports of 2,033 million dollars, 10 per cent are sent to the United States.

India is largest importer and exporter among the thirty countries, colonies, and protectorates included within this section which the bureau of Statistics designates the Commercial Orient; its imports in the latest year for which figures are available, amounting to 443 million dollars, of which 2.4 per cent were taken from the United States; its exports, 563 million dollars, of which 7.8 per cent were sent to the United States. China occupies the next rank as a commercial nation in the area under consideration, its imports amounting to 342 million dollars, of which 8.6 per cent were from the United States; its exports, 211 million dollars, of which 10.1 per cent were sent to the United States. Japan's importations, in the latest available year, were 217 million dollars, of which 17.8 per cent were from the United States and her exports, 188 million dollars, of which 32.3 per cent were sent to the United States. Straits Settlements, of which Singapore is the port and commercial entrepot, shows imports of 199 million dollars of which 1 per cent were from the United States, and exports of 173 millions, of which 9.3 per cent were sent to the United States.

Why provide for both a Territorial and a County department for the same work? Just as soon as it was decided to have County prosecutors, a corresponding reduction in the force of Territorial prosecutors should have been made.—Star.

Possibly the reason why the Territorial prosecutors were retained may be found in the well-recognized fact that they are honest and sober.

ARE HAWAIIAN PINES TOO HIGHLY PRICED?

Grocery World, Philadelphia—Much interest has been attracted by the campaign to popularize Hawaiian pineapple. As is generally known, a group of the leading packers some time ago combined to advertise it in the American magazines, and this has been done for several months. The campaign has been effective to some extent, but has been handicapped by the high price of the article. A good grade of Hawaiian pineapple costs the retailer $2.25 per dozen, which makes it a quarter seller. Singapore pineapple costs about half that much and is a 15-cent seller. There is unquestionably a great difference in quality, enough to justify much if not all the difference in price; nevertheless, it is hard to understand why the Hawaiian packers should have to charge so much more for their pineapple than the Singapore packers do. Both are tropical countries and both doubtless use cheap tropical labor. Moreover, the Singapore pineapple pays a duty, while the Hawaiian pineapple pays none, and the freight on the latter is probably less than that on the former. Altogether it looks as if the Hawaiian packers should be able to sell their product in this country for less than the Singapore, and if they would they would doubtless sell a great deal more of it. THE JOBBER.

sugar business. Diversified industries are wanted in Hawaii, it seems to me, and the quick growth of the pineapple industry illustrates that others will thrive.

"I expect to make the trip around the world, but I have no fixed program. I am traveling in the manner in which I can get the most enjoyment out of the trip. I have no especial aim, being on pleasure bent more than anything else, but I am studying the countries and their industrial and commercial problems as I pass through."

Mr. Fairbanks was much interested in the trips which have been arranged for him on the other islands. One of these is to Haleakala on Maui, and he was curious to know whether or not this was the "live" volcano. "When told that it was not, he exclaimed: 'Oh, well, it must be this other one with the unpronounceable name,'" pointing to Kilauea on his itinerary. Mr. Fairbanks will not leave for Maui until the latter part of next week, but it is possible that he will make a flying trip to Kauai in the meantime. While not definitely settled, it is probable that he will be given an automobile ride around Oahu, starting this morning and returning this evening. Lunch will be served at the Haleiwa Hotel.

Last night Governor and Mrs. Frear gave a dinner at Aradia in honor of their guests, and at nine o'clock a party of invited people of this city were received.

During next week several dinners and affairs have been arranged in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks and their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Timmons. Among others, Judge and Mrs. Ballou will give a dinner in their honor.

MAY BE EASY TO SMUGGLE OPIUM

Customs Inspectors Energetic, but Their Force Is Inadequate.

Two big steamers are due from the Orient next Monday, and the customs officials are preparing for a couple of days of rigid watchfulness. Besides the Tenyo Maru, the Alesia should arrive, and it is rumored that there will be an attempt to smuggle opium off at this port from each of the ships.

Notwithstanding the fact that the men in the Customs Service here at present are excellent inspectors, each fully capable of handling his work in the right manner, it is said that some trouble will be experienced in "covering" more than one vessel a day on account of the lack of sufficient officers. In the past there has been none too many inspectors in the service here, but now, with the extra work and unusual carefulness with which every ship will have to be watched, it is said that more service men are positively imperative.

That there will be many attempts to smuggle opium into the islands within the next few months is sure, for the local supply is getting short, and every time someone "hits the pipe," the price of the "dope" is shoved upward. A few tins of opium were brought down here from the Coast on one of the steamers a few weeks ago, this evidencing the fact that there was little of the drug stored away in Honolulu when the order went forth that made its importation illegal.

Whether or not the Customs force will be increased is a matter of conjecture as yet. One of the men is quoted as saying that unless reinforcements are allowed them very soon, it will be a "lead-pipe cinch" to smuggle opium here.

Concord Sails Monday.
The little schooner Concord will not start for Laysan Island today, as was at first thought, but she will leave Monday with "King" Max Schlemmer and his family. The Concord will have considerable cargo, supplies and provisions for Max when he arrives on his island leasehold. He has chartered the Concord for the trip.

Hilonian All-Right.
Wireless word from the Hilonian the other night stated that she was 700 miles from Honolulu and was hitting it along at a good rate of speed. She was experiencing good weather, and the passengers were all O. K.

Waterfront Dull.
There wasn't a thing stirring yesterday on Honolulu's waterfront, the departure of the Claudine for Maui at 5 o'clock last night making the only ripple to disturb the placid surface of the bay. There are but three windjammers in port—the Frieda, the Irmgard and the W. H. Marston. The Frieda and the Marston are discharging cargo, while the Irmgard is loading sugar.

OAHU TO HAVE ONE OF LARGEST POSTS

WASHINGTON, April 11.—It is planned by the War Department to maintain one of the largest of the Army posts in the Hawaiian Islands. This post will have accommodations for field artillery, cavalry and infantry, in addition to the coast defense garrisons within the fortifications of Pearl Harbor and Honolulu. The quartermaster general has arranged for the construction of quarters and barracks for eight troops of cavalry at a cost of $200,000. It is expected that additional appropriations will permit a steady increase of accommodations. The plans of the department contemplate a total expenditure of $800,000 for the Hawaiian post.

CAPTAIN ROBERTS DEAD.
Chronicle—Captain William H. Roberts, United States Revenue Cutter Service (retired), died suddenly in his apartments at the Hotel Fontenac this morning of heart disease. He was known all along the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, in the Philippines, Hawaii and San Francisco.

Captain Roberts was born at Portland, Maine, November 13, 1842. He entered the revenue cutter service in 1861, and was retired in 1906, with the rank of senior captain, the highest in that branch of the Treasury Department. He was with Dewey in the Philippines and participated in the battles of the Civil War. He was a member of the Greely relief expedition. For many years he was stationed in the Bering Sea, and saw strenuous service in protecting the seal fisheries. When retired he was in command of the revenue cutter Manning at Honolulu.

He lived at Portland, Maine, after he retired, and came to Los Angeles about a year ago. Mrs. Roberts and an unmarried daughter survive. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Loyal Legion and the Knights Templar, of which he was a member.

ESCORTING THE COLORS AT SHAFTER TODAY

A very interesting and infrequent ceremony will form a part of the battalion maneuvers at Fort Shafter at 10 o'clock this morning, with the band of the 5th Cavalry participating. This will be the escort to the colors, wherein the colors are escorted to the parade ground and turned over to the colorguard with due ceremony, during which the band will play.

This ceremony will be followed by a review of the battalion by Major Dunning, commanding Fort Shafter. The review is also interesting, not only to Army people, for then all the pageantry of colors, uniforms, arms and music will be brought into full play. The cavalry band is a feature which the post does not often have for its ceremonies. All in all, the morning being propitious, the post being very attractive and the drive being a pleasant one, the review should be witnessed by many civilians.

HOTEL FAIRMONT, SAN FRANCISCO.

Two years ago, when the fire was raging at its worst, the sight of the classic outlines of the Fairmont Hotel, standing out white against the black clouds of smoke, lent hope to the anxious thousands. When the flames swirled fiercely about it, to many it seemed that the last hope was gone. At that time the Fairmont Hotel was just about to open. Three years of time, and more than three millions of dollars had been spent in the construction of the building and the furnishings and furnishings of its interior. How well the building was constructed is evidenced by the fact that it came out of the stress and trial of both fire and its accompaniments without a single injury other than the complete destruction of everything inflammable to be found inside of its walls.

After the reaction of the first month had passed, work was immediately commenced to rebuild and refurnish the entire building, at a cost of over two million dollars, the work of reconstruction went on. Over a million dollars was spent in interior furnishings and furniture, and the magnificent appointments of the house as it stands today speak well for the care and taste used in the selection. The formal opening of the hotel to the public took place on the 18th of April, 1907, just one year after the catastrophe, at which time the Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet in celebration of the event. On the 21st of April, 1907, the doors were thrown open to the public with a splendid reception, to which nearly all San Francisco came.

The hotel was not fully complete at that time. Some of the rooms on the upper floors were not ready, but when the Palace Hotel Company, which formerly operated the old Palace Hotel on Market street, took hold, determined to push things through, the work went on with amazing rapidity. Today, more than any other building in San Francisco, the Fairmont stands a monument to the energy and determination of her citizens.

A Wonderful Hotel.
In it San Franciscans have a hotel of which they can justly be proud, as in the matter of location, it stands absolutely unsurpassed in the world. In the matter of appointments, service, and exclusive features which make hotel life pleasant, it is without peer. The Fairmont Hotel today has capacity for taking care of one thousand guests. Its entertainment features are so numerous and so varied that, as has happened many times, as many as six different gatherings, including banquets, balls and public meetings, can be held under its roof at the same time, and under such favorable conditions that one assembly scarcely realizes there is any other in the house.

Marvelous Outlook.
The view from the Fairmont is such as to make the most blasé and experienced globe-trotter stand in wonder and amazement. From its windows (for every room in this magnificent hostelry is an outside room) can be seen the superb panorama of the Golden Gate, the Bay of San Francisco, crowded with ships from all parts of the world, the mountains and hills of Contra Costa County on the other side of the bay, with Mt. Diablo 30 miles to the southeast, and Mt. St. Helena over a hundred miles to the northeast breaking the sky-line. In the immediate foreground of the hotel lies the busy city, in which new steel sky-scrapers are rising in place of the old style business houses which were destroyed.

In the Center of the City.
Chinatown, almost entirely rebuilt in a new and better way, is but a few minutes' walk from the door of the hotel. By means of the various street car lines which pass its doors all parts of the city, the ferries and railroad stations, the banks and exchanges, retail business and theater centers, as well as the residence portions of the city can be easily reached.

Unique Among the World's Hotels.
The Fairmont Hotel differs from almost any similar institution in the number of unique features which it offers for the entertainment of its guests. Because of these, it is easily the social center of San Francisco; you might say, of the State. Just as the old Palace Hotel, which is now being rebuilt on a new and greater scale at the old site on Market street, was one of the most famous hosteleries of the world, and entertained guests of all nations, so the Fairmont, under the same management which so adequately took care of the affairs of the Palace, is most cosmopolitan, and in its halls will be found the experienced travelers from every country of the world.

Unequaled Entertainment Features.

The ball room of the Fairmont Hotel is one of the most beautiful, as well as one of the largest, in existence. It has one of the few spring floors to be found in the country, making dancing peculiarly delightful. It is decorated in white and gold, with hangings of blue satin tapestry. Its walls are covered with mirrors, between which are decorations by the most famous mural artists of the world. And the ball-room is not merely an ornament. San Franciscans are a very sociable people, and the records of the ball-room show that it is occupied an average of three times a week during the social season. Behind it is the famous red banquet room, which has, perhaps, held more distinguished company than any other room of its kind west of Chicago. On the floor below is the magnificent Norman Cafe banquet room, a hall of superb proportions and simple grandeur. It is the best illustration of a hall of the Norman period. Even the tessellated floor is made of special design, a characteristic of the Norman times. From the lofty ceiling hang chandeliers of quaint design, made of hand-wrought iron in Paris especially for this room. The long French windows, which cover the entire north side of the Norman Cafe, open on the terrace, a broad, flagged promenade, which overlooks the Bay of San Francisco and the city. Upon special occasions of large entertainment, the terrace is canvassed in, making another hall, almost as large as the Norman Cafe itself. On warm days the terrace presents an animated scene, reminding one largely of Paris or the embankment in London. Here parties of convivial spirits gather around the tables where lunch is served in the open air, overlooking the most beautiful panorama of mountain and sea.

Numerous Dining Places.
Another thing for which the Fairmont Hotel is noted is the number and variety of its different dining places. In them one may find a place to dine as suits his convenience. The Laurel Court, which is immediately behind the lobby, offers a convenient grill for ladies and gentlemen. Further on is the main dining saloon, with accommodations for three hundred people. This room is done in white and gold with silken tapestries. From its windows, as one dines, he may look out over the bay and the shipping. Then there is the beautiful grey breakfast room, which is particularly well adapted for private dinners, luncheons and banquets. In other parts of the same floor are found the special tea and card rooms set aside for the use of guests who wish to entertain in a less formal way. Then there are private dining rooms, where organizations may meet around a friendly board. On floor A is found the crypt, one of the most unique cafes in existence. It is in the corner of Mason and Sacramento and is extremely popular with the business men of San Francisco. It offers a comfortable grill and bar for men, where special attention is paid to the cooking of steaks and chops and old country dishes. The service here is swift and efficient, and it is immensely popular as a luncheon place for business men.

Epitome of Hotel Excellence.

The Fairmont, as it stands today, is the epitome of hotel excellence. The vast experience which the Palace Hotel Company had in the celebrated Palace Hotel has been utilized in this house. To Colonel John C. Kirkpatrick, General Manager of the Palace Hotel Company, was given the task of instilling into a brand new house the spirit of hospitality which made the old Palace Hotel celebrated in two hemispheres. How well he has succeeded in doing this is evident the moment one enters the doors of the Fairmont. For the Palace Hotel spirit of hospitality enfolds one like a garment, making his visit one of delight, his leave-taking one of regret, and his memory of the time so spent one of great pleasure.

Only hotel in the world in which every room has a bath.
The Fairmont Hotel offers to the traveler all the conveniences and luxuries known to the best modern hotel, together with many exclusive features, some of which we have spoken of above. Every room in the entire hotel has a bath attached. For $2.50 one may thus enjoy a pleasant room, beautifully furnished in mahogany, with a dainty white-tiled bath; or, for as low as ten dollars, a suite of rooms. Visitors to San Francisco may rest assured that at the Fairmont Hotel they will find only the best of accommodations and service.

REPORT ON THE WAIKIKI SWAMPS

"We have therefore prepared and submit herewith to your honorable body, an act entitled 'An act to provide for the reclamation of lands by special assessments against the lands to be reclaimed and other lands to be benefited by such reclamation, and appropriating the proceeds for such purpose,' giving the necessary powers to the Boards of Supervisors for the reclamation of districts which may be declared or are a menace to the health of the community.

Reclamation District.

"The reclamation district should not alone comprise what is known as the Waikiki district, but should include all of that area bounded by Kapiolani Park, South street, King street and the sea. This district is several thousand acres in extent and would be too large to bring within one reclamation district, and we suggest that it be divided for several districts.

"Before any reclamation work can be undertaken, however, a complete system of roads must be laid out, which should take into consideration the problems of proper drainage. The main drainage streams flowing from the higher lands should be taken through proper conduits or channels direct to the sea. This would include all streams from the Manoa valley to the Ward avenue street drainage system already constructed. Therefore, these lands which this reclamation will prevent from being overflowed, as in the past, should bear a part of the cost of this reclamation.

"One of the causes of the insanitary conditions of the lands in the low lying district described is due to the fact that all of the drainage from the higher levels of the city is discharged upon these flats, and the streams meandering higher and thither leave, after freshets have passed, pools which soon become stagnant and offensive, and hot beds for mosquito propagation.

"As the population on the higher levels of the city increases, the condition of these lower levels will necessarily grow worse. There is nothing more directly related to the question of the public health and comfort of the residents of the city of Honolulu and outlying districts than the reclamation of these swamps.

"With the increase in shipping and travel between these islands and mainland and South American ports, after the completion of the Panama Canal, we must recognize the fact that the Territory of Hawaii will be placed in the position of a health buffer zone and simple for the Pacific coast. Time and again, attention has been called to the necessity of introducing to these Islands from Panama, after the opening of the Canal, of the inoculated mosquito which is known to distribute 'Yellow Fever.' We already have that mosquito, but it has not as yet been inoculated. The Waikiki swamps, unless reclaimed, will offer splendid opportunity for the breeding of this mosquito, and under present conditions, it would require a large force of men and expensive materials to prevent same.

Work of Magnitude.

"Your commission has felt that its main duty was not to go into the engineering features of the problem, but to present to your honorable body the necessary scheme or plan for financing and carrying on this reclamation work. While the condition of these swamps affect the entire City and County of Honolulu, the work is of such magnitude and cost that it could not properly be borne by the issuance of bonds either by the Territory or the City and County of Honolulu, or by direct taxation.

"Problems of this character have been solved in mainland communities through the method suggested in the act presented herewith. Neither the Territory nor the City and County of Honolulu through taxation or the issuance of bonds could afford to carry on and complete this work. It therefore becomes the obligation of the property to carry the burden of its improvement. This method of improvements is a new one in this Territory, as far as statutory laws are concerned. The property-owners, however, have in certain districts of Honolulu borne the burden of reclamation, especially within the district lying between Alakea street, South street, Queen street and the waterfront.

"The property-owners have, of necessity, due to the increase in value of lands within this district, been compelled to fill and reclaim them, the Territory, however, having constructed the necessary drainage ditches and storm sewers at its expense.

"One has only to look at the district mentioned above, today, to remember what it was ten years ago, and appreciate what reclamation has meant to the city of Honolulu.

"The scheme of creating reclamation districts gives the owners of property and those benefited an opportunity, through the issuance of bonds against the property, to distribute, at a low rate of interest, the cost of reclamation over a long period of years. It must be remembered, however, under this scheme of formation of reclamation districts, that not alone the lands so reclaimed shall bear the burden of the cost, but also the lands benefited by such reclamation. Necessarily, certain portions of the higher lands, the drainage from which flows into these lower lands, must bear a portion of the cost in relation to the benefits derived. This work, if carried out to completion, under a general bond issue, would create a bonded indebtedness almost equal to the present bonded indebtedness of the Territory of Hawaii.

"In this reclamation scheme there are presented certain important questions. There are lands in the Waikiki district which are producing a revenue varying from $10 to $30 per acre per year, which will, through reclamation, be valueless for any agricultural purposes, such as are now being conducted on these lands which will become town property; while it will create in certain localities desirable residence property which, added to the several thousand town lots and the many unoccupied lots within the city of Honolulu that may be utilized for town lots, would require an increase of from 50 to 60 per cent. above the present population of Honolulu.

Against Delay.

"The reclamation, so far as the filling of the swamp lands is concerned, can be gradual. The drainage works of the entire district, however, must be accomplished within the shortest time possible, so as to relieve the present ponds and springs.

"Portions of the swamp lands lying between King street and Kalakaua avenue are deriving their waters not alone from streams but also from large springs. In taking these springs and streams direct to the sea through conduits or masonry channels, grade would be gained, with a consequent lowering in the water level of the swamp lands.

"Investigations have been made which show that large areas in this country are apparently affected by the rise and fall of tide, but it has been proven that very little or any of the polluted storm water reaches the sea, there simply being a slight subsidence with the falling tide, a large portion of which, however, is carried back by the incoming tide. Consequently very little or none of the pollution from the duck ranches and other sources reach the sea. Float experiments have demonstrated this fact beyond the shadow of a doubt.

"If the Legislature, in its wisdom, sees fit to make the act presented by the commission, law, all machinery necessary to carry out this important work is provided, so that the City and County of Honolulu can immediately cause the necessary surveys to be made and to institute proceedings for the acquisition of reclamation districts.

"The commission has not set fit or deemed it necessary to go into detail regarding the insanitary conditions of Waikiki district as these have been most fully covered in various reports made by the Territorial Board of Health and its inspectors, and the community is well acquainted with the conditions there existing.

"This commission has given careful consideration to the plan and scheme of reclamation as presented by Mr. L. E. Pinkham, and while agreeing on many points, does not favor the proposed lagoon, which would practically be a tidal estuary and of no particular value in the drainage scheme for this district. The suggested lagoon proposition was primarily, as this commission understands it, to secure a large proportion of the material necessary for reclamation. Investigations made some time since by one of the members of this commission has developed the fact that there is ample material between the Beach road and the reef and from old Waikiki to the Sewer Pumping Station for the reclamation of this district. The removal of this material, from the location as suggested above, would also add not alone to the beauties of the city, but would remove the unsightly and rapidly growing low lying flats exposed during low tide, thereby creating within the reef, a large body of smooth water convenient for boating and other aquatic sports, thus adding considerably to the eventual park scheme for the city of Honolulu.

"The French Parliamentary investigating committee have found the naval docks at Toulon in a bad condition and several of the battleships in a useless condition, not even elementary precautions for safety having been observed.

FIFTH CAVALRY BAND REPEATS ITS SUCCESS

The Fifth Cavalry band duplicated its Wednesday night initial success in Honolulu, at the Moana Hotel last evening, when a program of standard selections was played with the same artistic interpretation and able directorship. From Offenbach's overture "Orphans" to Bohne's galop, "In Dulci Jubilo," the audience in the pretty park was given a musical treat. It was a smooth, finished performance and served to show the band's wide range of versatility and to demonstrate that no matter what selection the band essays to play, the organization is one of which not only the cavalry arm, but the entire service, may well be proud.
 The audience was composed of a large number of Army and Navy folk and a great outpouring of townfolk. The small but pretty hotel park with its myriad of parti-colored incandescents, is an ideal place for an evening concert, the hau tree affording a tropical band stand.

PERSONAL.

R. S. Hosmer departed for Maui last night on the Inter-Island steamer Claudine.
 Rev. J. W. Wadman and Rev. Dr. Jones called on Vice President Fairbanks yesterday afternoon and requested him to speak at the Methodist church here before he left the Islands.
 H. W. Whiting, the real estate millionaire from Minnesota, was a departing passenger for Maui on the Claudine last night. He will go from Maui to Hawaii, returning to Honolulu one week from today on the Mauna Kea.
 Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Moore of Le Mars, Ia., who have spent several seasons here, arrived recently from New Zealand, where they spent the winter, and will resume their homeward trip in a couple of weeks. They are accompanied by their two daughters, the Misses Moore.
 E. G. Ferreira has petitioned the Supreme Court for a license to practise law in all of the courts of Hawaii, representing that he has been a practitioner in the district courts since 1903. Mr. Ferreira's good moral character is certified by Judge Andrade, George R. Carter, J. P. Cooke, A. S. Humphreys and A. L. C. Atkinson.
 Judge Sanford B. Dole was royally serenaded by the Hawaiian band at his residence yesterday morning, the occasion being the sixty-fifth anniversary of the birth of him who has had so much to do in molding the affairs of Hawaii. Nearly all the messenger boys in town were impressed into service to deliver flower remembrances of friends. The band played "Aloha Oe" at the close of the concert.

BARGAINS IN MILLINERY.
 Next Monday morning a big sale of millinery at reduced prices will begin at Mrs. C. L. Dickerson's store. New and pretty hats, fancy feathers, flowers, and foliage, will go at about cost. Veils in all styles and colors to suit everyone. The sale will last only a few days, so come early.

Tom Sharp puts individuality into his work, and for that reason Sharp signs are in demand by the business men.

On account of a delay to trains on the Hilo railway, due to a wrecked freight train, the Mauna Kea left Hilo for this port yesterday four hours late. Some of this may be made up before reaching here this morning.

The directory of a city rarely gets previous, but Honolulu's new directory, when it prints "Robert W. Breckons, lawyer," in small type, and "A. L. C. Atkinson, United States District Attorney," in large type, seems to lag a little in the rear of events.

I wish to express my deep appreciation to the teachers and pupils of Kaunakapili School, the other schools in the city, the Rebekahs, the Children's Women's Club and the many friends who sent floral tributes, for their sympathy and help in my recent bereavement.

AMUSEMENTS

"Kidnaped" a Good Melodrama. Melodrama is a form of entertainment that in these latter days is sneered at by some theater-goers as not quite "classy" enough for their advanced ideas, but still, when the play, "Paid in Full," was put out last season, with only six people in the cast, it proved to be one of the greatest pleasures for many years, and why? Simply because it is nothing but melodrama in a new setting. In the old days of "variety," the best people were afraid they would be offended, and the first astute manager to disguise it under the name of "vaudeville" succeeded in packing his theater, and now look at the success of the Orpheum Circuit and various variety circuits on the mainland. What's the difference what it is called if it pleases you?—that's what you go to the theater for, so don't be ashamed to say, "I want to see the melodrama." If it pleases you, acknowledge it, because there are millions of people that are in the same boat with you. "Kidnaped," presented by the Ellefords at the Orpheum last night, is just a plain story of plain people presented in a plain way, but it served to enthuse the house. You had plenty to laugh at, a little to cry at, a few hates to waste on the heavy, and a few heart throbs for the persecuted heroine. There were laughs in plenty, for Pietro Sasso was good, very good, as the young German, and Mattie Lloyd Lane was her same cute little self, as the vivacious little Irish girl, Daisy McMooney. George Hernandez and Anna Dodge, as the other two members of the McMooney family, helped along the merriment in their usual painstaking way. Miss Due had the house with her as Grace Baybrook, and Lawrence Underwood certainly had them against him as the rascal Antoine. The balance of the cast provided good support in every particular. There is seldom as much good comedy condensed in one act of a play as there is in Act III, so if you want a hearty laugh, and a chance to curse the villain and to sympathize with the heroine, go and see "Kidnaped" tonight, its last performance. It will please you, and if it doesn't, you are hard to please. The matinee bill for today is "The Two Orphans," a bill that has a great reputation, and in the hands of the Ellefords it is handled finely.

"Fun on the Bristol" Tonight. Vaudeville during the afternoon and "Fun on the Bristol" will be the Pollard offerings for today. The vaudeville will be just about the same program, that pleased a crowded house on Thursday night, with a few variations in the songs that are given. The evening show is going to be a very funny one. The Pollards were hard at it yesterday afternoon rehearsing their parts and Alfred Goulding, playing the part of Widow O'Brien in his ordinary clothes, was screamingly funny. If he is one long laugh without his rig, what will he be with it? There is just enough plot to the absurdity to give one an excuse for calling it a play. But the kernel of songs, dances and funny stunts that this nucleus of a plot surrounds, is very good and just ripe, too.

Widow O'Brien has money and two daughters, charming of course when it is said that Eva Moore and Lillie Bull play the parts. Then Jack Pollard is a bad schemer who disguises himself as an Italian count and tries to get one of the daughters, failing which he goes for the widow and comes very near landing her but is unmasked by Willie Pollard as a bluff old sea captain.

Teddie McNamara is the captain's son and a mischievous youth he is, too. He has a keen little way of butting in that is irrepressibly funny, and his comic solemnity is very well done. Eva Pollard has a great part as a colored maid and her accent is irreproachable, while her gestures are very droll. There are two acts to this piece. The first one is laid in New York and the second on the steamer Bristol. One of the funniest stunts is a quartet about the "Tetrazzini" family, that being the name which the villain has assumed. Grand opera stars are very cleverly mimicked in this stunt and it is a very good little act.

A feature of the show will be a local song set to the tune of "Fairy Tales." There are some very clever local allusions in this and some of the Honolulu freaks are well taken off in it. Goulding, Fred Hindlow, Jack Pollard and Harold Frazer are the performers and they have a line of business that is scheduled for many encores.

The Pollards will stay over next week and go to Hilo on Tuesday, May 11. They will give only three performances next week. On Monday night they will repeat "Fun on the Bristol" and will not show again until Saturday matinee when they will repeat the same piece. On Saturday night they will give their farewell performance and will put on "Under the Pump," a musical farce which is said to be as funny and lively as anything in that line that has ever been written.

Band Notes. The band will play this noon at Notley's Hall, for the Home Rule luau, and in the afternoon at the Ood Fellows' picnic at the Seaside. On Sunday the band will play at the league baseball ground.

Shipping Commissioner Almy yesterday morning signed ten men on for the voyage around the Horn on the bark Foohing Suey. They were sent to Maui, where the Foohing Suey is now loading sugar, on the steamer Claudine last evening.

About eleven thousand dollars were distributed among the 500 men of the Marine Battalion at Camp Verry yesterday, and like the good spenders they are, the marines began putting it into circulation within a short time. Pay-day with the marines is a gala day, just the same as it is with the "boots and saddles" men.

With about $30,000 going to the enlisted men of Leilehua, Fort Shafter and Waikiki, added to the pay of the marines, Uncle Sam is distributing over $40,000 a month, exclusive of salaries of officers, and they are large in the total. The payroll, based on the present numerical strength, aggregates about half a million dollars a year. Supplies and other incidentals, bring the total aggregate of outlay up high.

Q. M. Sergeant to Leave.
Quartermaster-Sergeant Ralph Morton of the Marine battalion at Camp Verry has been ordered to Annapolis, and he will leave here on the Lurline on May 29. Sergeant Morton has made many friends among the civilian population and his departure will be regretted.

The Fifth Cavalry band will play this evening at Fort De Russy, Waikiki, for the engineer detachment and service people who have been invited to be present by Major and Mrs. Winslow.

Barracks at Pearl Harbor.
It is fortunate that Congress has at last awakened to the importance of making our hold upon the Hawaiian Islands secure. Though we have for many years possessed on the Island of Oahu one of the finest harbors in the world, but little has been done to improve it and nothing to make available the 15,749 acres on the Island of Oahu, which were ten years ago declared a military reservation. The work on Pearl Harbor has been begun, as heretofore stated, and now arrangements for the construction of barracks and quarters at a new post are under way involving an expenditure of $800,000. This post will include a tract of 1344 acres, three miles northwest of Honolulu. When we shall have gathered here a garrison of all arms and the fortifications of the island have been completed we shall have secured our hold upon the most important strategic point in the Pacific Ocean. With the delightful and equable climate Honolulu will be one of the most desirable posts belonging to the government. The Secretary of War has under consideration the detail of an officer of the Army as military instructor at the Agricultural College of Hawaii. That institution has made distinct progress within the last few years and now has the quota of over one hundred and fifty male students necessary under existing law to qualify it to apply for a military instructor from the Army.—Army and Navy Journal.

Orders of Local Interest.
Headquarters, band, 1st and 3d battalions, 20th inf., Presidio of Monterey, Cal., will proceed to San Francisco, Cal., in time to embark on the transport leaving about June 5, when they will stand relieved from further duty in this department and proceed on that transport to Manila.
Ord. Sergeant Edward Byrne (appointed April 2, from color sergt., 8th Cav.), now at Fort Robinson, will be sent to Fort Walla Walla to relieve Ord. Sergt. Patrick Fitzgerald. Sergt. Fitzgerald will be sent to the Presidio of San Francisco, Cal., and thence to Honolulu, H. T., with orders to report at Schofield Barracks for duty.
Capt. Daniel W. Hand, Q. M., is relieved from duty at the general depot of the Q. M. D., Philadelphia, and will proceed to San Francisco, for duty. Captain Hand is assigned to duty as Q. M. and acting commissary of the transport Thomas, with station at San Francisco, Cal., to take effect upon the return of that transport to San Francisco from Manila, relieving Capt. Lawrence D. Cabell, Q. M., of those duties.

Pay of Officers.
The pay of the Admiral of the Navy is $12,500; the Lieutenant General of the Army gets $11,000. Other salaries follow: Major General and first nine rear admirals, $8000; Brigadier General and second nine rear admirals, $6000; Colonel and Navy Captain, $4000; Lieutenant Colonel and Commander, $3000; Army Captain and naval Lieutenant, $2400; 1st Lieutenant and Lieutenant, junior grade, $2000; 2d Lieutenant and Ensign, $1700. The above salaries of $4000 and under are further increased by reason of the officers' length of service.

Changes in Channel.
The naval general board has had under consideration this week certain changes to be made in the route and width of the channel of approach to the new naval station at Pearl Harbor, and as a result of the deliberations, including consideration of a special report on the subject from a board of officers, the Navy Department has made certain minor changes in the route and modified the plans for dredging so as to make the channel somewhat narrower—500 feet in width inside and 600 feet in width outside a certain point on the approach. This will have the direct effect of decreasing the amount of dredging to be done and saving considerable expense to the government, which would be accomplished by an adjustment of the contract price with the contractor. In the meantime, calls are being made by firms which intend to submit bids to be opened on May 22 by the bureau of yards and docks for the construction of the Pearl Harbor dock according to the amended specifications.—Army and Navy Register.

Officer for Hawaii College.
The College of Hawaii has made application for the detail of an Army officer to that institution as military instructor. The detail will be made, if an officer can be spared for the purpose, provided the institution has become entitled to the benefits which accrue to agricultural colleges in the operation of the act of 1883, which authorized such details only when a college has the capacity to educate 150 male students.—Army and Navy Journal.

Hawaii Out of It.
The War Department has decided that service in a regiment en route to and in the Hawaiian Islands in 1898 fails to establish a claim for a Spanish campaign badge.

Major Stevens Retires.
Major Charles J. Stevens, 5th U. S. Cav., of Schofield Barracks, who was retired upon his own application from April 3, 1909, was born in New York June 28, 1859, and was graduated from the U.S.M.A., class of 1882, as a second lieutenant, and assigned to the 9th Cavalry. Major Stevens served with the 9th Cavalry in Cuba during the war with Spain, taking part in the battle of San Juan and the siege of Santiago. He was recommended for brevet as major. From March until May, 1899, Major Stevens served as provost marshal of the Department of Santa Clara in Cuba, and in July, 1899, he became provost marshal and inspector of police for the Department of Matanzas and Santa Clara. He was offered a majorship in the 39th U. S. Volunteer Infantry in August, 1899, but declined it. Major Stevens was promoted a first lieutenant in July, 1888; captain, 2d Cavalry, in July, 1898, and major, 5th Cavalry, in 1906. He is a graduate of the Infantry and Cavalry School of the class of 1897. He has been on leave pending his application for retirement.

Rejuvenated New York.
After three years' work the armored cruiser New York is now practically ready for sea at the Boston navy yard. About $1,250,000 has been spent on the craft, which formerly served Rear Admiral Sampson as a flagship. Besides extensive changes in the construction and fittings of the cruiser new guns have been installed. They are of the latest type and more powerful than the ones which they replace. The New York does not in the least resemble the cruiser of the Spanish war. In fact, about all that remains of the old ship is the hull.

Business Care Brings Nervous Wear

The petty cares of business life wear away nervous strength, and this applies as much to the clerk at the desk as to the manager in his luxurious office. A thousand little details of duty requiring attention exhaust the nervous energy and cause one to fret over trifling things that would not receive a second thought under conditions of perfect health.

Nervous fretful persons of either sex are usually poorly nourished and in all such cases the surest and quickest permanent relief is to be had by the use of which first quickens the appetite and aids the digestion and enriches the blood, thus providing the tired nerves with the nourishment they need. This condition banishes the wakefulness that so many nervous people suffer from and permits them to enjoy sound restful sleep. Avila was arrested and the loot was found in the Peter barn where Avila had stored it away awaiting a favorable opportunity to carry it off. In the plunder were two cups, two saucers, four glasses, a silk Hawaiian flag, two lace scarfs, a lot of ribbons and silks and many odds and ends.
