UNUSUAL COLDNESS

The Associated Press reported from Shanghai November 30 that the unusually cold weather in China continues to affect the lives of its citizens. The weather has been so severe that schools and businesses have been closed.

"I gather then, that you and Treasure Thomas declare Dr. White killed Longstreet."

"I knew Stan Ling from the time he was a boy. He used to work for me at the paper."

"I don’t get it. He was such a good fellow."

"Are you thinking of a man who was killed?"

"Yes. I remember his name, and that he was a clerk at the paper."

"What was his name?"

"I don’t remember."

"Yes, you do."

"No, I don’t."

PARTY PLANNED AT NAALEHU

Seven members attended the meeting of the Naalehu Extension Club on Monday, November 25, at which a demonstration on waterless cooking of green leafy vegetables, like cauliflower, was given by Miss Sylvia Nobile, home demonstration agent, assisted by the project leader, Mrs. T. Kambayama. Vitamin A is found in abundance in green and yellow vegetables, it was pointed out.

The agent also gave a talk on citizenship and the work of the Extension Club. A party for members and their children will be held in the form of a bonfire on December 16. The Honolulu club will join them that day.

KAPAPALA SENIOR 4-H

One of the most entertaining members of the 4-H Club is Don James, 18, who lives on the farm of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Koahehu, on Route 113 near Ainahele.

James and his mother, Mrs. Don James, are very interested in photography and have won several prizes for their work.

They are currently working on a project to document the history of their family and the history of their community.

They hope to publish their work in the near future and share their story with others.

The project is being supported by the local 4-H club and the United States Department of Agriculture.

They are also planning to create a museum to display their work and share their story with others.

They believe that their story is an important part of the history of their community and they want to share it with others.

They are currently working on the project and plan to complete it in the near future.

They believe that it is important to share their story with others and they hope that their project will help others to understand their community and their family.

They are also planning to create a website to share their story with others.

For the first time in ten years, an unposed boxing championship of the middleweight division was crowned when Tony Zale of Gary, Indiana, defeated Georgie Abrams, former middleweight title holder, was made a slight favorite before the fight. However, Zale proved his way as the NBA champ as he came back strong after being floored for a count in the first round to win a decision. Zale was one of the best punching ever witnessed in the Madison Square Garden for quite some time.

The postponed game between the University of Utah and the University of Hawaii is scheduled for December 5. The Utes are 5-1-1 on the season and the Warriors are 3-1-0. The Warriors are the defending AAU champions.
