Choy in bribery case

Businesswoman accused of coaching witness

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

The federal grand jury returned a four-count indictment Wednesday against a federal official who allegedly received a $30,000-bribe and a woman who allegedly helped to coach a witness to lie before the jury.

Named in the indictment which the 23-member jury returned less than two days after it was formed were: Robert W.F. Choy, director of the Farmers Home Administration for the State of Hawaii, and Alma Valdez, a resident alien in Guam engaged in loan packaging.

Choy was charged of the following:

-- Conspiracy to commit ITAR (Interstate Travel in Aid of Racketeering) bribery;

-- Interstate travel in aid of racketeering and aiding and abetting;

-- Conspiracy to commit

Casino coming thru other door

By Nick Legaspi

Rejected by voters during the Nov.7 election, a proposal to allow casino operation in Tinian is back in the form of a proposed local law.

Local Bill 5-6, titled the Tinian Casino Control Act of 1987, was introduced last week by Senate Vice President Jose P. Mafnas and was referred to the Tinian Legislative Delegation, also headed by Mafnas.

The law requires that the local bill sit in the Legislature for three session days. If there are no objections it would be passed by the delegation and sent to the governor for his signature.

Sources at the Legislature said this is an easier route for the proposal than the local initiative presented to island voters in November.

Mafnas was not in his office Wednesday morning and a message left in his office was not answered. Senator Manuel Villagomez, another senator from Tinian, was asked for comment Wednesday afternoon. "No comment," he said.

Constitutional Amendment No.42 provides: "Gambling is prohibited in the Northern Mariana Islands except as provided by Commonwealth law or established through initiative in the Commonwealth or in any senatorial district."

Sources said the bill's proponents were taking the position that Local Bill 5-6 falls within the term "Commonwealth law" which, based on the constitutional amendment, is one of two ways to allow gambling in the Commonwealth.

The proponents, according to sources, are also citing the provisions of Public Law 3-77 or the Local Law Act of 1983, which lists subjects of local

'88 pageant promises prettiest faces

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

Four young and beautiful women are joining the quest for the 1988 Miss CNMI Universe/International.

They are: Dorsha Renee Johnson, Ruby Jean Hamilton, Gloria Patricia Propst and Simplicia Castro Camacho. The

Northern Marianas Beauty Pageant Association said in a press release the first batch of candidates in the annual pageant were introduced Dec.6 during the Pre-Holidays Fashion Show at the Diamond Hotel sponsored by the association.

The association said the pageant for the 1988 Miss

CNMI Universe/International will be held Feb.27. The winner of the Miss CNMI Universe will represent the Northern Marianas in the Miss Universe Pageant May 28 in Taipei. The Miss CNMI International will compete in the Miss International Pageant in Tokyo in October.

Ruby Jean ,21, is the daughter of Wilburn and Carmen Hamilton. She works as sales manager for Saipan Cable Television.

Dorsha Renee,18, is the daughter of Emma Blanco Johnson. She is a senior at the Mt. Carmel School and works part time for Win Fung Enterprises.

Nineteen-year-old Gloria Patricia is the daughter of Ivan and Juanita Propst. She works as secretary for the accounting firm of Michael Pai.

Simplicia,20, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Camacho and is a ticket agent at the Marianas International Travel Agency.

The association said in its press release that it is still accepting candidates for next year's pageant. Ladies interested in joining the pageant may fill up application forms up to Dec.31. They may contact Florence Bocago at telephone no.234-9668 or any of the pageant members for other information.

During the fashion show at the Diamond Hotel's ballroom the association donated $500 to the Commonwealth Health Center Volunteers Association to help buy a mammograph machine for the hospital.

Editorial Opinion

Just say "NO!" to "local law"

Sometimes the word "NO!" just doesn't sink in. It means "no way-forget it, uh-uh. . . ." Despite what that word means, some politicians on Tinian are attempting to resurrect the sleeping devil of casino gambling through the back door of the legislature.

Although a majority of voters on that island voted to approve gambling in the last election, they didn't have quite enough "oomph" to generate the required two-thirds majority to enact it. Most of us felt like the issue was over for another two years.

It now looks like we were wrong. . . .

A lot of people gambled on the assumption that Tinian would approve gambling. These gamblers put a lot of chips on the table in the form of land speculation - a LOT of money changed hands. . . . they threw their dice and when the shot came up "snake-eyes" in the election results, the bettors lost.

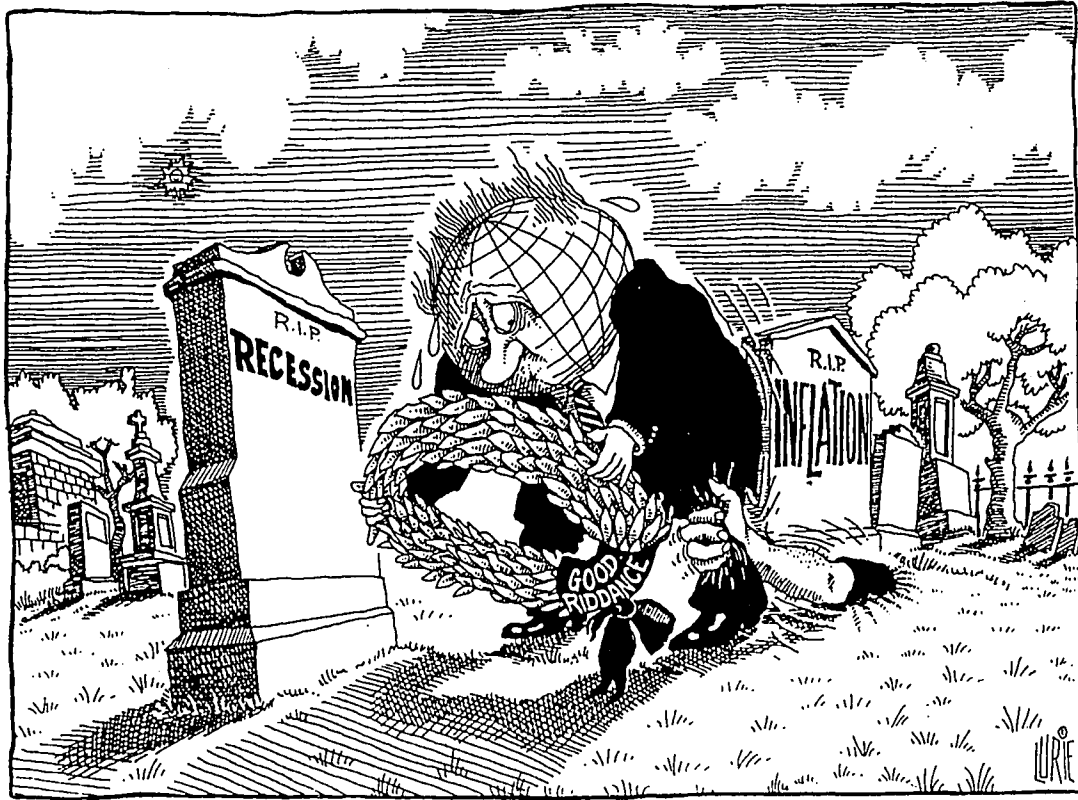

Now they want to still reap profits by changing the rules after the pot has already been lost. Efforts are being formulated now to enact a "local" law to allow casino gambling through the Tinian legislative delegation. Clearly, this transparent effort by the henchmen of developers would circumvent the Commonwealth's Constitutional intent.

This newspaper wants to be the first to arise in anger and indignation at this effort. While we have no quarrel with how the folks on Tinian live or conduct their business, we feel they should abide by the law - whether they like it or not. We encourage the governor, attorney general or others in the political structure of the Commonwealth to "advise" the authors of this local law effort to withdraw it.

This is an especially sensitive time for the Commonwealth. The upcoming Hillblom lawsuit which challenges the constitutionality of the Covenant's granting of "equal" senatorial representation would be helped immensely if the law is passed with the lobby effort of the Tinian Senators.

If the legislature goes along with this obvious effort by the Tinian political structure to "muscle" their wishes upon the rest of the Commonwealth by using a loophole in the law, then what is to stop the delega-

Fund-raising for machine by volunteers not funny

Dear Mr. Editor:

This letter is not intended to take away the limelight from my friends, Attorney General Alex Castro and Ed Manibusan, director of public safety who have been your featured characters in the past several issues of the Marianas Variety; it is however, provoked by an article I ran across in your editorial concerning the CHC Volunteers and mammography.

I do want to point out several issues stated in your editorial for your benefit and the general public:

(1) Mammography is not standard machinery for all hospitals in the world - on the contrary, I know of hundreds of hospitals on the West Coast which are without mammograph machines; if however, these services are needed, patients are referred to nearby hospitals which provide this service (like we do, sending our patients to Guam for services as needed).

Maybe in the state of Arkansas all the hospitals may have mammograph machines, but in a small and less populated state like New York, California and Alaska, not all hospitals have mammograph machines.

(2) To imply that the efforts of the CHC Volunteers' Association in purchasing a mammograph machine is funny and laughable (ludicrous) is insulting the noble members of the CHC Volunteer's Association who are trying their very best to raise needed funds to help patients at the Commonwealth Health Center. What is wrong with the CHC Volunteers' Association trying to raise funds to buy medical equipment? This happens all the time throughout the world.

The Guam Chapter of the American Cancer Society who are trying to establish a similar chapter here on Saipan highly commend the CHC Volunteers for their efforts in trying to raise funds for a mammograph machine. Guam Memorial Hospital just received their mammograph machine in the past year through generous contributions from various civic organizations including the Guam Memorial Hospital Volunteers Association.

I think we should all be grateful that we do have an organization like the CHC Volunteers and commend them for their efforts rather than insulting them by saying that they are funny, laughable (ludicrous).

(3) We do not need to ask the general public to petition or go on demonstration against the governor and the legislature to get money for the mammograph machine. The legislature in general, and the governor's office in particular, have always been very responsive to CHC needs. To accuse the governor or the legislature of being (cheap) is totally unfair and irresponsible reporting.

The medical and administrative staff decides what kind of equipment and services CHC should prioritize. Once that decision, is made it is brought to the attention of the legislature and the governor's office for their support. As I said, they have been very responsive to our requests. Right now the medical and administrative staff of CHC would rather see more respirators, infant warmers or diagnostic equipment in radiology and the laboratory, and most importantly, more highly trained and skilled personnel to man the intensive care unit and the neonatal unit along with ER personnel on a fulltime basis.

I would rather ask that we persuade the legislature to pass the '88 budget because in so doing, CHC would have the needed pocket money to buy all this equipment and recruit the needed personnel. We have about 20 nurses on the West Coast waiting to be brought to CHC as soon as the FY '88 budget is passed. Hopefully this will happen soon.

In conclusion, and to borrow a phrase that my friend Ed Manibusan uses, I would like to state the following: to state that a mammograph machine is a standard piece of machinery in all hospitals in the world is not only journalism getting out of hand, but journalism 'way out of hand.' To imply that the efforts of the members of the CHC Volunteers Association are funny and laughable (ludicrous) is not only journalism getting out of hand, but rather journalism getting 'way out of hand'; and to further imply or suggest that the public should go on demonstration against the legislature and the governor for being so cheap that they cannot afford to buy a mammograph machine is again, not just journalism getting out of hand, but rather, irresponsible reporting.

Because of the contents and length of this letter I am very sure that I will be featured in your column for the next several issues - I must

Dave making trek to US of A for holidays

By the time you read this I will be in the U.S. of A. (probably freezing my tail off). But the effort to make it out on Sunday's plane left me with a new appreciation for friends and faith.

I especially want to thank the good folks of HITA Travel because they, along with a friend of mine who works at Continental Airlines, was finally able to coax their computers into getting me a confirmed seat from Guam to Hawaii. It looked pretty bleak for a while, but faith prevailed.

In a way, I feel very sorry for Stanley and his employees. What started out as being a simple trip to Florida for the holidays eventually turned into a cross-country odyssey which now allows me to see my aging grandmother in Arkansas and a brother in Tennessee. But, I changed my mind at least four times in HITA's office before those tickets were printed out. . . .

Finally, I was asked very politely if I "was sure NOW" where I wanted to go?

One of my friends, a former radio personality, made me feel very guilty about this trip. He said "I haven't been back to the states in 12 years. . . . I wonder what it's like there now. . . . ?"

12 YEARS? The DEMOCRATS were in power then (I think) and gas was about 60 cents a gallon and milk (real, that is) was about a dollar a gallon. Mercy, I really feel bad that it's only been six months for me.

I have also met some nice young ladies who have American parent(s) who say they have NEVER been to the U.S. One friend told me her 13-year-old son has never been to the United States.

Yep, I'll feel very guilty when I get on that plane. . . but I'll still get on.

Many of my friends have asked what I will tell the folks back on the mainland about Saipan. I can tell you in two words; "Move there. . . ."

Although I gripe and moan about the politics, the police, the water and power, and the bad roads, I will be the first to tell my friends back in the USA that this is probably the best place to live I have ever seen. It never really gets too hot and never really too cold. The people of all races and lifestyles are very friendly and in most cases, kind.

I would caution them about the schools, but tell them that I wouldn't hesitate to put my kids in school here - with a little teaching at home about other things.

The Commonwealth - above all else - is a very SAFE place to live. Despite all our murders and other acts against persons here, when you compare the stories and statistics against places of the same size and demographics in the U.S. we will always come out on top here in Saipan.

This week's column is very short because I have to go home and cram all my clothes into a suitcase. . . yes ONE suitcase.

Packing is never any big deal for me, I just open my closet and grab my shirts, pants, underwear, socks, etc. and "fold" them (make that wad) into the suitcase. But this trip presents me with somewhat of a problem. I have very few shirts for WINTER. . . you remember WINTER, don't you. . . ice, snow, slush, COLD winds, etc.

When I left the states I gave almost all my long-sleeved shirts to the Salvation Army because I just knew that I would never need them again. Somehow, I don't think my thin little "island" shirts would offer much protection against the arctic winds which whip around Little Rock this time of year.

I hope to have a column in the paper next week. Via my beloved computer modem I hope to compose a tome in the U.S. and via MCI Mail send it to my friends at Marianas Electronics. Hopefully, they will print it out for us. It will only cost a buck from the U.S. . . . not bad for three-hour delivery, huh?

I'll be back the first week in January with ALL NEW stories and tales. If something happens and I don't get a chance to tell you in next week's column (even in computers, things do happen. . .) Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from your ink-stained scribe. Thanks for making 1987 a nice year for me and I hope '88 is better!

Dear Mr. Editor:

To mention that you find it "ludicrous" that the "nice" people of CHC's volunteers are having to raise money to buy a mammography machine is an opinion totally uncalled for.

tion from Rota or Saipan from enacting similar or other self-serving "local laws"?

Every voter in the Commonwealth should be concerned at any such tactic because it means that legislators can run rampant and the voters would have no recourse except to vote the renegades out next election. By then, it will be too late, however, the deed will have been done.

Our politicians say they want self-government. "Sovereignty" they scream at the U.S. . . . But, it that "sovereignty" means "let the people's wishes be damned", then is it really worth it? We have to prove to our detractors that we have the maturity to govern ourselves and allowing this gambling issue to be settled by a very small band of politicians is not the way to do so.

Show the U.S. and others that the political interests of a few can not be inflicted on the rest through legislative slight of hand. Put a stop to this effort to allow casino gambling on Tinian.

Also, perhaps the time has come to close this loophole in the law and do away with the ability to make so-called "local laws". . . .

What do you think?

The Bottom Line:

Because of our editor's vacation, we will wait until the January issue to reveal our results.

Again, we encourage our readers to take the time to answer this poll.

Breast cancer is a particularly horrible disease for women and there is no machine on this island to detect such cancers.

Your "praise in disguise" statement makes the volunteers look as if we are dedicating and committing our collective efforts to unnecessary causes.

As a proud President of the CHC Volunteers Organization, may I take this opportunity to remind you that we "do" exist for a very special purpose; we ask and act upon what we can do for our community-hospital and not what the CHC can do for us. "Get the point?"

Not only do you make us look foolish, but also, you have conveniently used us as your scapegoat to imply that the governor or the legislature are cheap. May I remind you that one of our goals, as a non-profit organization, is to raise funds and to use the income to enhance the programs of CHC.

Our decision to solicit monetary or in-kind support from our friends and businesses in the community in purchasing a mammography machine for the hospital fulfills the objective in accomplishing the above stated goal. What is so funny about the nice volunteers reaching out to help?

Had it not been for the generous support from the local businesses and friends from the community, our aforementioned goal and objective would not have been possible. Why dampen our efforts to enhance the programs of CHC? I do not get your point.

Also, the apathy from the public you claim exists, is a bit of a contradiction, in the light of the fact that the generosity of the community will soon make this machine a wonderful reality.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor:

At Hopwood there is always a breeze. This is because we are surrounded by trees. There is also a lot of dust from the road. Dust has been a serious problem for us in the school. Probably, it will get worse as the dry season approaches.

Students as well as teachers are constantly bothered by this problem. Dust causes allergic reactions and may lead to permanent damage to our health. Our classrooms cannot be kept clean. Chairs, desks, and books require frequent cleaning. Teachers and students can't perform well in class because of the dusty environment.

There must be a good solution to this problem but, so far nothing has been done. Tar or oil has been sprayed over the road but it is only a temporary solution and it releases harmful fumes. A permanent solution is needed. A concrete or paved road could be the answer. Education is very important. It is also important to have a clean educational environment. It isn't clean to have dust everywhere. Breathing becomes a hazard. Do something!

Dear Editor:

In behalf of the Filipino Amateur Sports Association, let me first extend our sincere appreciation to you and Mr. Nick Legaspi for your support and weekly coverage to our sports tournament being held every Sunday at the Civic Center Court.

It is indeed an honor that a leading newspaper in Micronesia recognized our organization, and our involvement to sports development in our community, and while we greatly appreciate your coverage, we have notice that you identify incorrectly with your previous issues that the league is under Fil-Am, instead of FASA.

For your information, the weekly basketball tournament at the Civic Center Court is under the auspices of the Filipino Amateur Sports Association and sponsored by the Marianas Pacific Distributors, Inc., and not the Fil-Am CNMI, which is a separate Filipino organization.

Very truly yours,

Dear Editor:

I came to Saipan less than three months ago to work in the hospital as a volunteer and to get to know something about the island and the people on it. I was at first struck by how friendly the Saipanese seemed to be.

I still think most of the people here are very friendly. However, in the brief time that I have been here I have also discovered some disturbing features about living on Saipan. One of the less pleasant aspects of life on this island is the high crime rate. In the short time I have been here I have been robbed not once, not twice, but three times.

I don't think I have done anything special to bring this on myself, in fact many of my friends both local and haoile have been robbed, I have just been a little more unlucky than most. And that is just the problem; it is the norm to be burglarized, specially if you leave an unattended but locked car while you go scuba diving.

Two questions come immediately to mind. First, whose fault is it? Second, what can be done about it? Well, we all know whose fault it is—those who are stealing of course! But that's not always quite so obvious. When I told people, both friends and police, that I had been robbed at the Grotto and Laulau they expressed sympathy but also said it's to be expected; as if it is partially my fault for going to these places. It reminds me

2 garment factories receive final warning

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

The Northern Marianas Corp. has until today to clean up a house where 14 of its workers live or face eviction.

Manny Arriola, a sanitarian at the Department of Public Health and Environmental Services, told NMC general manager Kang Hee Jung Dec. 11 that an eviction order had been issued against the company to take effect Dec. 10. Jung, who said he learned about the problem Dec. 11 when he arrived from Korea, asked for one week to clean up the house in Garapan being rented by NMC for its male workers.

Arriola granted the request

A Chalan Piao garment manufacturing plant has been given three days for an extensive cleanup and a Garapan firm faces eviction for unsanitary conditions at its barracks, the Commonwealth Health Center said in a press release Tuesday.

Division of Public health inspectors report other companies have been working to resolve problems turned up during earlier visits, according to CHC.

Commonwealth Garment Manufacturing, Inc. of Chalan Piao received a "final warning" this past week after a re-inspection found that a number of problems originally noted Nov. 25 had not been resolved. At the company barracks, inspectors found standing, stagnant water in a fly-infested outside washing area.

The report also noted that working areas in the factory were dirty, with dust, cobwebs, weeds and trash surrounding the building be cleaned up.

Pending a return check late this week, Northern Marianas Corp. of Garapan was still facing a possible eviction of 14 male employees who live in a rented private house in that area. Another nearby house, converted to a barracks for female employees, passed its inspection.

Other re-inspections found that Garapan's Gold baron and Tomorrow Enterprises of Navy Hill straightened out numerous sanitary problems noted earlier, earning them a passing grade.

New Star, one of three garment factories behind the Nauru Building in Susupe, has been given four days to correct violations, which include overgrown weeds outside the building and the absence of a preparation table in the kitchen. Saipan Manufacturers, Inc. was told to correct minor sanitary violations at its Sadog Tase barracks.

and told Jung that "if nothing is done you'll leave me no choice but to take other action."

Arriola said in an interview that the house was inspected in November and the company was given 72 hours to clean up and correct other deficiencies pointed out by the inspectors. "After 72 hours nothing was done," Arriola said. "We gave them an additional 24 hours but to no avail."

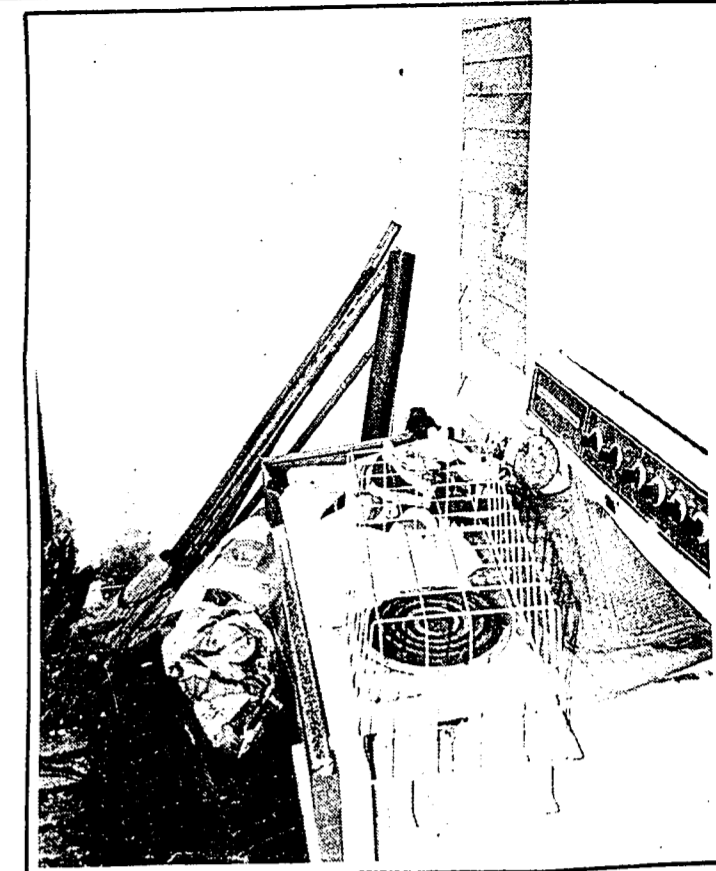

He said a total of four visits was made by health inspectors before the Division of Public Health started processing an eviction order. Arriola said among the deficiencies found by inspectors were the deplorable condition of the bathroom and kitchen, floors caked with dirt and "unknown matter," leaking water pipes and backyard in need of cleaning.

Basically the same conditions were found when Arriola, other sanitarians, Jung and the press toured the house Dec. 11.

Arriola, in response to a question, said DPHEs has the power to evict occupants of a house or building for health reasons. He said the department had done it several times in the past in such instances as clogged sewer lines. "When it comes to public health I think we have the right to evict, if there was no effort to correct the deficiencies," he said. "But we try not to get that far."

Local epidemic is flu, not pertussis

Many parents in the CNMI who have heard of recent deaths and hospital admissions of children on Pohnpei for apparent "whooping cough" are very concerned when their children begin coughing, according to the Commonwealth Health Center. CHC said in a press release the most likely cause, however, is not whooping

ME donates $6,200 to library

Marianas Electronics of Saipan donated $6,200 to the Olympio T. Borja Memorial Library at Northern Marianas College on Constitution Day. Bill Michling, Store Manager said, "We were at the opening dedication of the new library expansion. We saw how much was accomplished by the Vocational Education students and the donations of the community. We felt that the College was moving in a positive direction towards providing the people of the Commonwealth a special research facility and General Collection for the College's students. Marianas Electronics wants to assist in this effort by this donation and our continued service to the College in the future."

cough (pertussis) but a current epidemic of flu (influenza) which has affected many small children and caused some hospital admissions at the CHC.

The symptoms of this flu include high fever, vomiting, diarrhea, runny nose, cough, fast breathing and weight loss. The cough is very harsh and comes in spasms or attacks and may last two to three weeks. The fast breathing, similar to asthma, may be a form of pneumonia. Severe cases may require treatment with oxygen at the hospital.

Treatment consists of drinking of liquids and avoiding cow's milk; in severe cases, IV fluids may be necessary. Antibiotics will not improve the cough or fever, though a doctor may prescribe them if a complication such as an ear infection or pneumonia occurs. Adults do not seem to get very sick from this strain of flu. Children who have completed their well-baby checks and immunizations are protected from whooping cough, but may still get this flu.

No cases of whooping cough have been seen in the CNMI. Parents are advised not to expose their children to sick youngsters or adults; children can be immunized against whooping cough and other diseases during special Saturday clinic hours at the Commonwealth Health Center and the dispensaries on Tinian and Rota. The DPT vaccinations are also given during regular hours every weekday afternoon at these facilities.

Roundup

The Division of Environmental Quality analyzed samples of drinking water from the Island of Saipan this week. Water from Kagman, Tanapag, Puerto Rico, Garapan, Mihaville and the airport contained excessive coliform bacteria and also contained no chlorine.

DEQ advises residents of these areas to boil their water before using it for drinking, food preparation, or freezing as a precaution against possible bacterial contamination.

Note: The Division of Environmental Quality analyzes drinking water from island public water supplies each week. DEQ will submit a drinking water report to the news media each week.

Prosecutor wants bigger case

CHC tightens security rules

By Nick Legaspi Reporter

Assistant Attorney General Ray Buso asked the court Monday to dismiss a child abuse complaint against Juan M. Delos Santos, who has been sentenced to nine years in jail in a previous case and is awaiting trial for a third complaint.

Buso said in his motion for dismissal that Delos Santos, 24, has been sentenced to 12 years, the first nine years to be served, following conviction for trafficking in marijuana, possession of a handgun and escape.

Delos Santos was scheduled to be tried by a jury Dec. 21 for alleged child abuse. Buso alleged in an information that Delos Santos beat up a four-year-old girl last May 27.

The third case for which Delos Santos would be tried by a jury Jan. 11 involves 15 counts of forgery, theft and burglary. Delos Santos, according to a complaint filed in court, allegedly issued forged checks to several establishments in September and October this year. He also allegedly broke into several business establishments and a private house during the same period.

Buso, in asking for dismissal of the child abuse case, said that Delos Santos is facing a maximum prison term of 80 years if convicted on the 15-count complaint. The child abuse case carries a maximum prison term of only five years. "The Commonwealth feels that judicial and executive resources in this instance are better used in proceeding to trial to 87-170 (the multiple-count case) and seeks the dismissal of 87-149 (the child abuse case)," Buso said in his motion.

In another case, Judge Ramon G. Villagomez dismissed a theft case filed against a former employee of the Bank of Guam.

Elizabeth M. Sablan Ada, according to an information filed earlier by Assistant Attorney General Edward Hayden, allegedly took the property of the Bank of Guam sometime this year valued at more than $250 but less than $20,000.

Villagomez issued the order to dismiss the case after he was notified that Ada had paid the bank.

The continuing theft of hospital supplies and other government property from the Commonwealth Health Center has brought about new security measures, including parking restrictions and searches of packages removed from the building, CHC said in a press release Tuesday.

Hospital Administrator Greg S. Calvo announced that the new policies would be effective immediately, according to the release.

Privately owned vehicles are now banned from entering the maintenance area parking lot on the south end of the building. Calvo emphasized that the restrictions include cars and trucks dropping off or picking up employees from work. The area includes a loading dock which is the arrival point for most hospital supplies.

In a memo sent to all of the CHC's nearly 300 employees Monday, Calvo also said that the private security firm which patrols the facility has been told "to implement search procedures of any employees carrying packages from the CHC."

There was no immediate dollar estimate of the extent of the theft since the opening of the facility, but items such as medical clothing and equipment have been favorite targets.

Chief of general support services Hank Hettmansperger, whose responsibilities include security, said that a large supply of hospital towels and surgical scrub suits were stolen this past weekend. Hettmansperger said additional security measures for the CHC will be in place soon.

Judge allows $25,000 TCD as bond; $100,000 bond for companies stays

By Nick Legaspi Reporter

Bun Kui Ta, the businessman named in a 34-count firearm case, delivered to the Commonwealth Trial Court Monday a $25,000 certificate of deposit to guarantee his appearance in court during trial.

Judge Ramon G. Villagomez allowed Kui to use the TCD from the Bank of Guam in place of a surety bond in the same amount earlier ordered by Judge Jose S. Dela Cruz.

Villagomez, however, refused to cancel the $100,000-surety bond imposed on Commonwealth Pacific International, Inc. and Pansy, Inc., Kui's companies which were named as co-defendants in the case.

Villagomez also denied Attorney David Wiseman's request to withdraw from representing the two companies because of conflict of interest.

Assistant Attorney General Ray Buso objected to Wiseman's withdrawal pending appearance of other lawyers to represent CPI and Pansy. Wiseman will continue to represent the two companies in addition to Kui until the new lawyers register their appearance in court.

Villagomez granted

Wiseman's request to defer the arraignment of Kui and the two companies until Thursday.

Wiseman, during Monday's proceedings, repeated his position that corporations were not subject to bail. CPI and Pansy are the first corporations to be named in a criminal charge here. "I did research on this," Wiseman said. "No way bail could be imposed on corporations."

Villagomez said the purpose of bail is not to secure property but to secure appearance. "How can a corporation escape jurisdiction?" he asked Buso.

"By shifting assets," Buso said. He added that the bond set by Dela Cruz was to make sure somebody would appear to represent the corporations and to secure the fine. He said one of the two firms may be fined up to $170,000 and the other up to $100,000.

Villagomez said the order to post surety bond amounting to $50,000 for each corporation would remain until a motion to cancel it is filed and heard.

A combined police-immigration-attorney general team conducted separate raids last month in two shooting galleries in Susupe and Garapan which were being operated by CPI and Pansy. The raid yielded 16 handguns, five starter pistols, ammunition and other paraphernalia. Kui, president and majority owner of CPI and Pansy, was present in one of the locations when the raid was conducted.

Taylor is new cable TV news man here

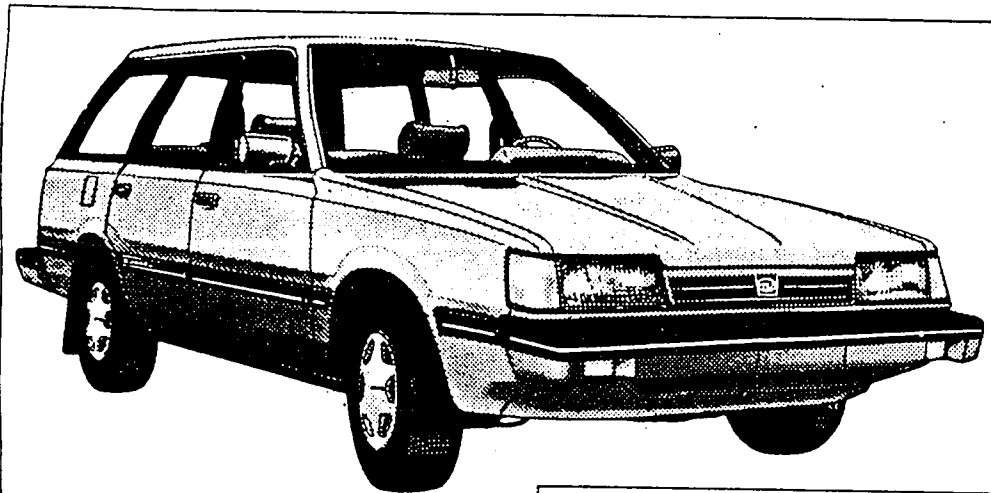

Guam Cable TV President, Lee Holmes, announced the appointment of Max Taylor, 34, as the Cable News Bureau Chief for Saipan in the Northern Mariana Islands. Taylor, a communications graduate from the University of Florida, comes to Guam Cable TV with more than 10 years of journalism experience. He most recently served as the News Director/Anchor for the NBC affiliate in Tallahassee, Florida, WTWC-TV.

As the Bureau Chief for cable news in the Northern Marianas, Taylor will be responsible for day-to-day coverage of news events in the CNMI for the nightly hour-long cable news report on Guam. Additionally, he will produce and anchor the Saipan Update, the CNMI's only locally produced daily news program.

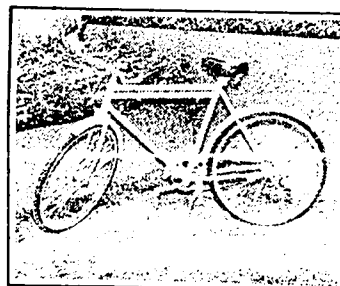

Taylor enjoys surfing and diving in the beautiful, clear waters of the Marianas.

witness tampering, false statements and false declarations before the grand jury; and

-- Witness tampering. Valdez was charged of conspiracy to commit witness tampering, false statements and false declarations before the grand jury and witness tampering.

District Court Judge Alfred Laureta, who received the indictment from the jury, ordered the appearance in court Dec. 23 of the two accused for arraignment. He also set a bond amounting to $25,000 for each of Choy and Valdez.

Masahiro Ishii, an employee of Sumitomo Corp. who paid Choy the $30,000-bribe, was named as co-conspirator but was not indicted. He testified before the jury regarding the charges against Choy.

"This is a historic event," United States Attorney K. William O'Connor, who presented the case to the jury, said after the indictment was filed. He noted that the federal grand jury in the Northern Marianas returned an indictment for the first time in eight years. The first grand jury formed here did not return an indictment.

O'Connor said Choy was paid to facilitate approval of the As Gonno housing project in Koblerville. He said the project involved construction of 600 housing units to be financed by FHA at a total cost of $5 million.

Unsigned copies of the indictment were distributed to the press by O'Connor. He said the original copy was signed.

According to the indictment, Sumitomo Corp. entered into a contract with the Mariana Islands Housing Authority to build 300 housing units, to be paid with FHA loans to qualifying low-to-moderate-income families. Ishii was Sumitomo's project manager.

The indictment alleges that Choy and Ishii in 1984 conspired with each other and with "others known and unknown to the Grand Jury" to commit bribery.

According to the indictment, Choy, while visiting Saipan in 1984 in his official capacity as FHA director, agreed to accept $30,000 from an official of Sumitomo Corp. During the same period Ishii was allegedly instructed by a Sumitomo official to pay Choy the amount.

During the period June 1-19, 1984 Ishii allegedly wrote and encashed five checks on Sumitomo's account with the California First Bank in Saipan totaling $27,000. Ishii flew to Hawaii June 23, 1984 and upon arriving declared $30,000 with the U.S. Customs.

He met with Choy on the same day in a room at the Holiday Inn in Honolulu where Choy accepted the $30,000 for which he provided Ishii with a receipt. Choy also mailed a letter to Ishii June 24, 1984, ostensibly from J.L. and Associates, Inc., acknowledging receipt of a consultant fee of $30,000 and providing a report entitled "Characteristics of Housing Units, General Housing Characteristics, Northern Mariana Islands, Census of Housing, United States Department of Commerce - Bureau of Census."

Choy's office was investigated starting in October 1984, first by the Inspector General for the Department of Agriculture and later by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for alleged bribery and other violations of federal law.

Ishii was subpoenaed Dec. 11 this year to testify before the grand jury. Beginning on the same day Choy and Valdez allegedly conspired to induce and assist in providing Ishii with a false reason to prevent disclosure of the receipt provided by Choy to Ishii for the $30,000 payment. The two also allegedly provided and assisted Ishii in making false statements before investigators and the grand jury, such as the loss of the report given to Ishii by Choy which was printed by the government printing press and that the payment was made not to Choy but to another person who had since died.

The indictment cites a secretly recorded conversation in which Choy and Valdez allegedly coached Ishii on how to prevent the FBI and the grand jury from learning about the $30,000 bribe.

O'Connor during the court proceedings informed Laureta that Ralph Keogh, Choy's counsel, had assured that Choy would appear in court for the arraignment.

George Proctor, assistant U.S. Attorney, requested the jury to return Jan. 20, 1988.

Lucky Spot receives a "C" Hotel guard named in gun, ammo case

Since the middle of September, a Garapan restaurant and game room has been closed down once and received rotating "C" and "B" grades for failing to satisfy sanitary regulations, the Department of Public Health and Environmental Services said in a press release. And the problems of the "Lucky Spot" aren't over yet.

During the most recent inspection, the 24-hour establishment got "C" grades for both its restaurant and game room and a 24-hour order to clean up or face another shutdown.

The inspection found continued problems with broken toilets and a poor general state of cleanliness in the restaurant kitchen. The report called for a thorough cleaning of the game room, including removal of cobwebs, coin wrappers and cockroaches from behind the machines.

The Hungry House Restaurant, also in Garapan, received a "C" grade and orders for cleaning and insect control. As at many bars, personal belongings were being stored in the kitchen and bar area.

A nighttime inspection of the Long Beach Night Club in Garapan found a variety of problems, including cockroaches under cabinets and open cans of perishable goods which weren't covered or refrigerated. The report also called for proper installation of electrical outlets in the club.

The Star Lounge Night Club in Garapan went from a "C" to a "B" rating, with orders for further cleaning.

"A" grades went to the Arizona and Tomo nightclubs, both of Garapan and to San Antonio's Tenda Store.

Castro's Laundromat in Garapan and the Diamond Hotel in Susupe passed recent institutional sanitary inspections.

A security guard at the Marianas Hotel was named Monday in the latest firearm complaint filed in court.

Assistant Attorney General Edward Hayden alleged in a four count information that Francisco Iguel, a Tanapag resident working as security guard at the Marianas Hotel in Marpi, unlawfully possessed a firearm and ammunition Dec. 5. He also alleged that Iguel assaulted Luis B. Cepeda with a dangerous weapon. Iguel was charged of two counts for unlawful possession of firearm and ammunition and two counts for the attack on Cepeda.

Iguel appeared before Judge Ramon G. Villagomez Monday and pleaded not guilty to all charges. Villagomez set the jury trial on the case on Feb. 1, 1988.

In another gun case, 18-year-old Anthony C. Pangelinan appeared before Villagomez Monday and pleaded not guilty to the charge of possession of handgun. Asst. Attorney General Robert Naraja, in an information filed Dec. 4, alleged that Pangelinan, a Susupe resident, was in possession of a .38 caliber revolver Sept. 20.

Hayden also filed earlier a three-count information against Juan Esteves of San Vicente. Esteves was charged of illegal possession of a firearm and ammunition and disturbing the peace.

of New York City where if you get mugged in Central Park at night the first thing anyone will do is tell you that you're crazy for being there at all.

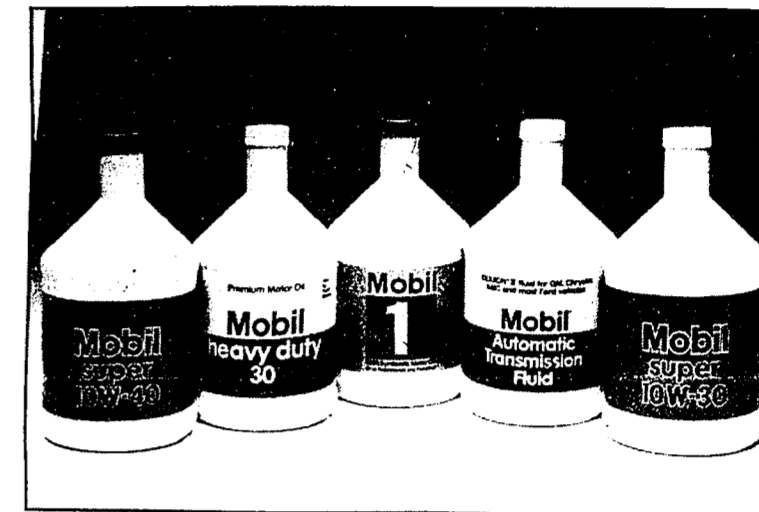

And that, I think, leads us to the real problem. Much of the blame must go to the society that tolerates such a high crime rate. Nobody here, or anywhere, likes to be ripped off, nor do they like to hear about it happening to others, but there doesn't seem to be much anger about it or motivation to make it stop. Maybe it's because people here are so nice, too nice to want someone they or a friend or a cousin knows to go to jail for "just" stealing.

That leads us to the second question, what can be done about it? I don't have all the answers to this problem, but it seems that somehow the people of Saipan as a whole have to demonstrate that they will not tolerate this kind of behavior. It starts with the police, perhaps with a greater police presence and more undercover work in the high risk areas, and the courts, with consistent and significant penalties, but ultimately the burden lies with the people of Saipan (or any society). They must each express their disgust with such "petty" crimes and support efforts to stop it, including turning people in if need be. This is a small island and unlike New York City it is a community where people know each other and can have an affect on each other.

I'm leaving Saipan soon, with some fond memories of the things I've done and seen and of some of the people I've met. Unfortunately I'm also leaving with a feeling of anger, anger at those who robbed me and anger at a society that turns it's back on such behavior.

Grand jury to serve for a year

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter
Twenty-four men and women out of 107 who received court summons in November were chosen Tuesday to sit in the federal grand jury to hear testimony on alleged federal crimes that may range from drug trafficking to bribery to bank robberies.

The members of the grand jury who will serve until Dec. 14, 1988 are: Ana T. Celis, James A. Ada, Juan S. Tenorio, Adrian P. Sablan, Cecilia J. Flores, Annie S. Diaz, Edward S. Hocog, Fermina O. Dela Cruz, Felix S. Kileleman, Shirley Olopai, Ramon T. Tudela, Josephine K. Dela Cruz, Jose S. Basa, Donald M. Mendiola, Jose M. Camacho, Henry Q. Babauta, Anthony S. Manahane, Serafin P. Tudela, Gregorio B. Deleon Guerrero, William M.

Fleming, Larry R. Hofschneider, Diana C. Ferreira and Ernest M. Sablan.

The grand jurors were selected through drawing of names of those who appeared at the District Court Tuesday.

Six of the prospective jurors asked to be excused from rendering jury service. Four of them were excused by District Court Judge Alfred Laureta, namely, Lucy Guerrero, Maria Agulto, Jesus Sonoda and Tomasa B. Alikxa.

Guerrero told the court that there was a possibility that she might not be a United States citizen because she had not received any response to her application for a U.S. passport which she filed two months ago.

Agulto, a dental hygienist at the Seventh Day Adventist clinic, said she had been booked a month in advance.

Jesus Sonoda said sitting in the jury would cause great hardship to his family and the family business. Sonoda owns the Chamorro House, a hotel and restaurant, in Garapan.

Alikxa, a housewife with three kids ages 11 months to three years and is expecting her fourth child this month, was also excused.

Laureta denied Rita Dela Cruz' request to be excused. She said she is seven months pregnant, runs a beauty parlor business and takes care of her school age kids. Laureta said she could be available for jury duty from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. while her kids are in school.

Former Lieutenant Governor Francisco C. Ada asked to be excused because he runs a one-man consultancy business and had been in public office for 22 years.

Laureta denied the request.

"You're the very kind of person that should be sitting in the jury," he said. "You have the knowledge, the experience."

The prospective jurors were called inside the federal courtroom on the third floor of the Nauru building at about 9 a.m. after registering with the clerk of court, during which they received copies of the federal grand jury handbook and a message from the clerk of court.

They watched a half-hour movie titled "Federal Grand Jury: The People's Panel." The movie, which has Paper Chase star John Houseman in the first scenes, presents a typical grand jury selection and proceedings, including bits of humorous moments commonly experienced by first time jurors.

The movie drew giggles and laughs and jokes inside the crowded courtroom.

Laureta said that although the grand jurors would serve for 12 months, they would sit only when called from time to time. He said the normal call for jury duty is one to two days a month, starting every third Wednesday of the month.

He said the grand jury would hear evidence to be presented by the government through the U.S. Attorney regarding alleged federal crimes and then decide whether the case should go to trial. The grand jury usually does not hear evidence from the other side of the case.

This is different from the trial jury or petit jury which hears evidence from both sides and decides whether an accused is guilty or innocent of an alleged crime.

Laureta also said the grand jury deals only with crimes. He said it does not concern itself on civil matters which are cases seeking monetary damages or other relief.

U.S. Attorney K. William O'Connor, in an interview after the selection of the jury, declined to say when the actual presentation of evidence would start, or how long he expects the proceedings to last.

He said that if the jury returns an indictment, the indictment would be delivered by the jury foreman to the judge. If an arrest is made and a formal charge is filed the prosecution will be handled by O'Connor's office.

and provides for the procedure in the passage of such legislation. The law lists gambling prohibition and regulation as among the subjects of local bills.

Sources said the more serious question about the proposed gambling law would be on the definition of Commonwealth law. A lawyer who asked not to be named said the immediate or man-on-the-street definition of the term would be a law that applies to the entire Commonwealth as against a law that applies only to one of three senatorial districts in the Commonwealth.

The bill, if passed by the Tinian delegation as expected, must be signed by Governor Pedro P. Tenorio to become law. If Tenorio vetoes the bill, it would go back to the Legislature.

Overriding the governor's veto requires a two-thirds affirmative vote of each house of the Legislature instead of the delegation. It is held unlikely that the House of Representatives, dominated by members from Saipan, will support the gambling bill.

Saipan Stevedore hikes rates

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

Saipan Stevedore Co., Inc. raised its handling and stevedoring rates Tuesday and immediately drew protests from other companies using the Saipan seaport.

Attorney Robert O'Connor, who represents the companies calling themselves Concerned Port Users, said in an interview Wednesday that the rates were increased by 120 percent to 500 percent.

Atty. Mike Demapan, counsel for Saipan Stevedore, said the company raised handling rates by 80 percent and stevedoring rates by 40 percent. He also said in an interview Thursday that there was a general change in applying the rates from the per container method to the revenue ton method.

He said this means that consumers shipping light goods would pay less than those shipping heavy commodities. "This is fair," he said, noting that the past method of charging on a per container basis meant that shippers of light goods were subsidizing shippers of heavy items.

O'Connor said the rates were raised without notifying port users and even the Commonwealth Ports Authority. He pointed out that the rates were increased right after Saipan Stevedore declared a 30 percent dividend.

He said CPU requested for a 10 to 30-day delay in implementing the higher rates and a meeting between the merchants and the stevedoring firm. O'Connor said both requests were turned down. "Our association is not against the increase if it can be justified," he said.

He said the company must show how much it was making to justify the need for a rate increase. O'Connor said the government and the public had an interest in learning how much the utility was making. "The law does not regulate that utility but the rate increase must still be reasonable," he said.

O'Connor said Saipan Stevedore's operation is a monopoly granted by the government which he said, should have retained control over the rates.

He said the merchants' association was still trying to negotiate with Saipan Stevedores but may bring the dispute to court if no agreement came out of the discussions.

Demapan confirmed that the new rates took effect Tuesday and were still in effect as of Thursday. He said the company's board of directors met with the consumers Wednesday and were scheduled to meet again today.

He also confirmed the declaration of a 30-percent dividend. "That's reasonable," he said. He, however, denied an accusation that the company gave its directors a $30,000 bonus each.

What was given out was a Christmas bonus to the company's more than 100 employees. Saipan Stevedore distributes bonuses to employees every year, according to Demapan, as an incentive for them to stay and to cope with the competition in employment from the government.

Demapan said all consumers were notified about the rate increases during the second week of November. A copy of the notice, he said, was also sent to the Department of Commerce and Labor. He said CPA should have also received a copy of the notice.

He denied that Saipan Stevedore was subsidizing its trucking business. He said that the company only recently borrowed $1 million from the California First Bank to buy new equipment. He said the loan was guaranteed personally by the firm's directors. Demapan said the company's equipment was getting old and must be replaced.

Blue Pacific plane arrives

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

Blue Pacific Air received its first 10-seater Piper Chieftain Wednesday, company manager Brad Anderson said Thursday.

Anderson said in an interview that the company's second aircraft is expected to arrive Dec. 22.

He said the planes would be tested for three to four days before they are flown on commercial flights.

Anderson said one of three pilots the company was hiring had also arrived. He said the pilot would be chief pilot and chief mechanic for the planes. The two other pilots are also expected soon.

Anderson said Pacific Air would fly out of Saipan to Rota and Guam. The company will not fly on regular schedules like Maui Airline, currently the only airline flying the Saipan-Rota-Guam route.

Blue Pacific, which started early this year as Blue Pacific Helicopters which catered to tourists, is also eyeing the tourist market for its fixed wing aircraft.

Anderson said the twin-engine airplanes would be on chartered flights. He said, however, that other people who want to fly to Rota or Guam may get in touch with HITA Travel for bookings to Rota or Guam. The absence of a regular flying schedule gives the company the flexibility to fly to Rota or Guam anytime, any day, as long as there are enough passengers.

Anderson said the airline would charge basically the same rates as Maui.

Hopwood cleans, beautifies campus

Hopwood Junior High School cleaned up the entire campus worked on creating a more pleasant and attractive-looking school ground during Ecology Day Dec. 12.

Over fifty people, consisting of teachers, students, and staff, showed up to lend their support to the project which was sponsored by the Student Council Organization.

The "Ecology Day" was truly a self-help project. The school relied mainly on its own resources to accomplish the different tasks involved. Teachers and students brought in their lawn mowers and bush cutters to cut the grass. They also donated a variety of flower plants, flower bearing trees, a fruit trees and other plants which were planted in the surrounding areas of the campus. Others volunteered to prepare food so the tired workers can enjoy a sumptuous lunch.

"It was truly inspiring to see the cooperative effort of all those who participated in the project," commented Angie Buniag, advisor of the STUCO. "Once again we showed the true Hilital spirit," she added.

The Ecology Day activity was planned and coordinated by the STUCO's officers, homeroom representatives, and advisors. The success of the project was due largely to their hardwork and determination. The Student Council's officers for the school 1987-88 are: Betty Lou Lisua, president; Annabelle Buniag, vice-president; Irene Carlos, secretary-treasurer; Rose De Leon Guerrero, sergeant-at-arms; Jerome Cabrera, P.R.O.; and Carlene Reyes, school muse.

Tom Pangelinan, school principal, in his letter to the members of the school community, stated the underlying purpose of the Ecology Day. He wrote, "This is one of our special programs in our school in an effort to develop a sense of ownership to our school facilities and a sense of pride of what the school has accomplished and what the school is trying to accomplish."

The first "Ecology Day" did accomplish a lot. Everyone who reported to school the following Monday readily noticed a much cleaner campus, a well manicured school ground, and newly planted greeneries all around. "This was a tremendous help to our school especially at this time. Our maintenance staff would be able to devote their time in completing urgent projects", observed Frank Castro, the school's vice-principal, who coordinated the activity.

Money raised for Headstart in San Roque

San Roque Headstart Money Transferred: Parents of San Roque Village Headstart students met on December 10 at San Roque Dispensary where the Headstart students have been having classes since December 3, 1986, when Supertyphoon Kim destroyed their Headstart center, and witnessed the presentation of a savings passbook in the amount of $175 from last school year's San Roque Central Parent Involvement committee to this school year's CPI committee.

According to Jesus Sanchez, last school year's CPI president, the money, raised from generous donations from the private sector and individuals, should be used directly for the students' educational benefits. Receiving the money along with the parents was this school year's CPI president, Lolita B. Castro, 4th from right in the photo. Also present at the meeting were Headstart Program Director Joaquina Rabauliman and Educational Planner Juan L. Babauta. (DOE Photo).

Registration of aliens cut

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

Foreigners residing in the Northern Marianas, mostly contract workers, will no longer have to register with the Immigration and Naturalization Office in 1988 if they registered in 1987, according to a joint announcement by Attorney General Alejandro C. Castro and INO Chief Charles Calvo.

The law requires all foreigners who stay in the Commonwealth for 90 days or more to register with INO every year. INO conducts the annual registration during the first two or three months of the calendar year and registration cards are issued to registrants. The annual registration result in long lines daily outside an office at the Nauru building. Some INO employees have to be taken off other activities to handle the thousands of registrants.

Castro last year told the Variety about the plan to stop the annual registration which he said was affecting INO's operations. He also said that only law-abiding people generally comply with the annual registration requirement. Those who were residing illegally in the Commonwealth just did not show up at the immigration office during the registration period.

Castro said the annual registration would be replaced by actual inspections. "Immigration officers (out of uniform) may be visiting you at your place of employment or other public places and it is incumbent upon you to produce evidence that you are not illegally residing in the CNMI," Castro and Calvo said in their joint announcement. "Failure to produce this evidence may result in immediate arrest."

The two officials said holders of alien registration cards issued in 1987 must continue to carry their cards with them at all times.

Other foreigners who come into the Commonwealth must register with the INO within 90 days after entry, according to the announcement. Failure to register may subject a foreigner to deportation.

Roundup

JURY CALL: Members of Panels W, X, Y and Z are requested to be at the Commonwealth Trial Court at 8:30 a.m. Dec. 28. (Clerk of Court).

No more turtle hunting here

With its evolution to Commonwealth status complete, the NMI Government must now acknowledge the protected status of the threatened green sea turtle as described in the Federal Endangered Species Act of 1973, says Arnold Palacios, Chief of the Division of Fish and Wildlife (DFW).

That means that the DFW will no longer issue licenses for the taking of turtles. The season for green turtles had been from September 1 to November 30, during which time the holder of a license was allowed to take one turtle. "Turtles are not to be caught, imported or exported, and we will confiscate any meat we find that has been illegally obtained," Palacios said.

Exemption from Federal statute had been granted to the territories of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands (TTPI) until such time as the TTPI was dissolved. In the Commonwealth's Covenant it provides that laws applicable in general to the several States or that name specifically the Northern Mariana Islands shall be effective in the Commonwealth. Therefore, the Commonwealth now comes under the full force of Federal law regarding endangered species.

The stated purpose of the Endangered Species Act is "... to provide a program for the conservation of... endangered and threatened species, and to take such steps as might be appropriate" to ensure the protection of such species. It makes it "unlawful to import, export or 'take' any endangered or threatened species within the U.S. or the territorial seas of the U.S. . . . or on the high seas." ("Take" in the context of the law means to harass, harm, pursue, hunt, shoot, wound, kill, trap, capture, collect or attempt to do any of the above-named activities.)

In July, 1987 a letter was received, addressed to Governor Pedro P. Tenorio from the NMFS Southwest Regional Director E.C. Fullerton, which states that the Presidential Proclamation of November, 1986 declaring dissolution of the TTPI marked the end of the CNMI's exemption from regulations in the Endangered Species Act. The letter referred to the U.S. Department of Commerce's Federal Register and its review of regulations concerning the taking of green sea turtles for subsistence purposes. The comments in the Federal Register stated that despite the contentions of Guam and several individuals in Hawaii, "no native culture outside the TTPI has a dependence on the taking of green sea turtles and there is no justification for authorizing a subsistence take elsewhere in the Central and Western Pacific."

The Commerce Department's report acknowledged the validity of Guam's objection to the NMI having an exemption from the law when the Territory of Guam was denied exemption. However, the report stated that neither Guam nor the Northern Marianas showed enough evidence of a subsistence dependence on the turtles to warrant exemption.

"The NMFS proposes to resolve the current inequity by allowing the subsistence exemption (of the NMI) to dissolve" at the same time the TTPI is dissolved, according to the report. It states further that home and commercial use (of the turtles) will be authorized only after the green turtle stocks recover and the species is taken off of the list of endangered or threatened species.

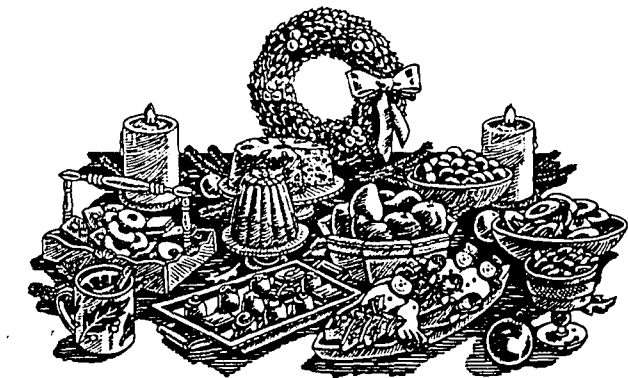

Palacios said that he will probably request assistance from Federal agencies (NMFS/Hawaii or the Regional Office of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service) for the training of DFW Conservation Officers in enforcement procedures.

"We can levy fines, but I should add that taking of the turtles is now punishable as a Federal offense. It is a violation of State and Federal regulations," Palacios said, "we will be exploring the possibilities of getting an exemption (from regulations of the Endangered Species Act) from the Federal Government, but we don't know yet what the conditions will be for such an exemption."

Hyatt expects biggest charity party

Due in part to the largest-ever participation from local businesses and individual donors this year, the Hyatt Regency Saipan expects 4th Annual World's Largest Office Party to be the most successful ever in raising money to benefit local charities.

The Hyatt Regency Saipan will be joining more than 90 Hyatt Hotels and Resorts in 19 countries Dec. 19 in hosting this annual event. Coinciding with Christmas festivities, simultaneous parties are being planned around the world as Hyatt's way of thanking the community for its patronage and support.

The proceeds from the Hyatt Regency Saipan's party, which will be held at the Hyatt from 2 p.m. to 11 p.m., will be donated to the Northern Mariana Chapter of the American Red Cross and CNMI Special Education. Last year, the Hyatt Saipan party was successful in raising more than $13,700 for local charities.

Throughout the day and evening Saturday, there will be continuous entertainment and a wide variety of prizes will be given away through a raffle and door prizes. With the purchase of the $1 entrance fee, all partygoers will automatically have a chance to win door prizes which have been donated by local businesses and individuals.

Raffle tickets will also be on sale for $1 each. The grand prize is a round trip for two with accommodations in Acapulco, Mexico; other prizes include an Apple IIE Computer, a portable generator, color televisions, watches, a windsurfing board, round trips to other Mariana Island locations, golf clubs, as well as many valuable gift certificates and prizes.

Drinks and refreshments will be served by "celebrity" bartenders including Governor Pedro P. Tenorio, other CNMI officials and local business leaders who are donating their time for this special event. Food and drinks will be offered for under $2.00.

This year's World's Largest Office Party will feature a wide variety of continuous entertainment, including the False Alarm Band, the Topaz Band, Sunset Cruisers Show, Bruno Dalla Pozza & Friends, Friends De trio, Candy Taman, Mike Blaisus, Herb Smith, the Miss CNMI contestants, the Kislev Band, Aere I Mua, Ric Segreto, Johnnie Sablan, Mystic Essence, and Jessie Bais & the Taotaotano Dancers.

There will also be game booths, with chances to win prizes at darts, "fishing", and ring-around-the-bottle. Hyatt World's Largest Office Party baseball caps, teddy bears, t-shirts, balloons and other memorabilia will be on sale to help raise money for the charities.

From its beginning, the spirit of Hyatt's World Largest Office Party been one of goodwill. A community event, supported by local businesses and media, it is designed to benefit area charities.

Warm Wishes!

May the best of the season be with you this year. May your spirits be light and your heart filled with cheer. Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Jury convicts Taitingfong

By NICK LEGASPI
Reporter

A six-man jury found Joaquin A. Taitingfong, 29, guilty of killing Ignacio Deleon Guerrero, 49, at As Lito Oct. 25.

The jury, at the end of a weeklong trial, also convicted Taitingfong of a count each of unlawful possession of a firearm, unlawful possession of ammunition and use of firearm in the commission of a crime. He could receive a maximum jail sentence of 25 years for these crimes.

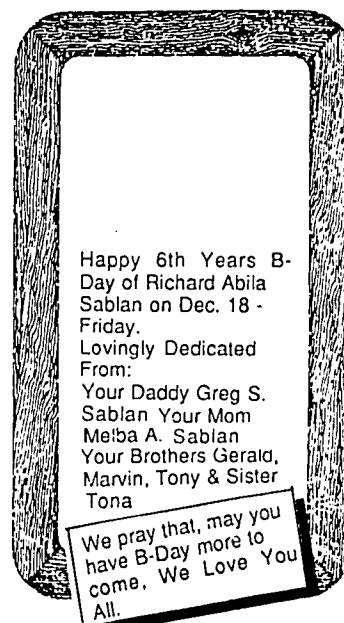

Assistant Attorney General Raymond Buso originally charged Taitingfong of first degree murder after he fatally shot Guerrero, a retired government employee, with a .410 shotgun. In his opening statement at the start of the trial last week Buso told the jury that four elements must be proven to reach a conviction for first degree murder. These are: the killing of a human being; by another human being; with malice aforethought; and wilfully and deliberately.

The first two elements make up a crime of manslaughter, inclusion of the third element makes up second degree murder and all four elements make up first degree murder.

The jury found Taitingfong not guilty of first degree murder. According to the court rules, the jury must also deliver a verdict on the second degree murder charge in case of a not-guilty finding on the initial charge. The jury also found Taitingfong not guilty of second degree murder. It convicted him on the least serious charge for killing Guerrero.

Buso said in an interview Monday that Taitingfong could receive a maximum prison term of 10 years for voluntary manslaughter and five years each for the three other counts or a total sentence of 25 years.

Judge Jose S. Dela Cruz, who presided over the trial, set the sentencing on Jan. 7.

NMI youth holds annual conference

Saipan (CNS) - "This conference is a testimony to those who persevered and demanded that all of us stand up and listen," Governor Pedro P. Tenorio said Wednesday in a speech during the opening of the Commonwealth's Second Annual Youth Conference.

Over 100 people at the conference at the CNMI Convention Center heard Tenorio note that in the past lack of concern about the problems of youth may have caused frustration, but that the presence of many community and government representatives at the conference "... clearly indicates that a broad segment of our community is deeply concerned with youth as they prepare for the future."

Tenorio's speech followed an invocation by Bishop Thomas Camacho and remarks from Vivian T Peter, chairperson of the conference, and Malua T. Peter, Acting President of Catholic Social Services. Keynote speaker was Father Isaac Ayuyu, Director of the Vocations and Youth Ministry, Diocese of Chalan Kanoa.

After the opening remarks, there was a brief recess, and then the conference reconvened with an explanation of the purpose and format of the meeting, which was then followed by a series of panel presentations related to youth including: the economy, education, health, government and juvenile justice.

On the second day, the schedule for the conference in the morning is registration 7:30-8:30; Summary of Previous Days; Work 8:30; and starting at 8:45 a series of Panel Presentations on Social Services and Youth; and Funding and Youth. Following lunch, there will be an explanation of Group Discussions, followed by group discussions for the remainder of the afternoon. During those group discussions, attendees will discuss draft legislation "to provide for comprehensive youth development in the Northern Marianas..."

On the third and final day, Friday, following registration, there will be a summary of the previous days work and a series of group representations and voting. Following lunch there will be a summary and adoption of recommendations by a youth representative. After that, there will be topic titled Executive and Legislative Plans of Action in which the Governor, the Speaker of the House and President of the CNMI Senate will participate.

The three-day session will close with presentation of certificates, and closing remarks by Tony Moreham Jr., co-chairperson, and a reception scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

The conference's program committee is composed of Vivian T. Peter, chairperson; Tony Cabrera, Criminal Justice Planning Agency; Steve McManus, Grace Christian Academy; and David Omar, Department of Education.

Audubon sets Christmas bird count

The Saipan Group - Marianas Audubon Society - will hold its third annual Christmas Bird Count on Saturday, December 19. Participants should meet at Smiling Cove boat launching ramp at 6:30 a.m. The group will reconvene at Kingfisher Restaurant, Garapan at noon, and those wishing to join for the afternoon portion of the count only are invited to do so.

This year marks the 88th anniversary of the original Christmas Bird Count, now an annual affair in every Canadian province and American state. Bermuda, many Central American countries, and numerous West Indian and Pacific Islands. The individual count areas are circles with a unique center and 15-mile diameter, having an area of 177 square miles. The National Audubon Society supervises the affair and publishes all the counts in its ornithological journal, "American Birds." Saipan participants wishing to be listed as official participants and receive a copy of the journal may do so for a small fee.

All interested Saipan residents are encouraged to join the count, whether they are experienced birdwatchers or not. Inexperienced participants will be placed in groups led by veteran birdwatchers and there will be a limited number of extra binoculars available also. Highlights of this year's count will be the participation of 10-15 Marianas Audubon Society members from Guam, including several who are expert in the identification of migrant shorebirds, an offshore boat trip to see several species of open ocean seabirds, and a visit to the Lake Susupe marshes for several migrant waterfowl species currently wintering on Saipan.

The 1986 Saipan count tallied 36 species, while the Guam count tallied 33, considered excellent for an island which has lost most of its native land birds to the introduced Brown Tree Snake. Organizers this year hope to see at least 40 species of birds on Saipan.

Compulsive gamblers get new help

(AP) - As the renewed chance of casino gambling getting started in the Commonwealth on Tinian again comes to the fore, The first in-patient treatment center available to compulsive gamblers in the U.S. state of New Jersey opened last week, and was hailed as a significant advancement in helping gambling addicts.

"Today is a giant step along the lengthy road to helping the compulsive gamblers in the state of New Jersey," said Arnold Wexler, executive director of The Council on Compulsive Gambling of New Jersey Inc.

The treatment site opened Tuesday at The New Hope Foundation in Marlboro. The foundation is a private, not-for-profit organization which provides in-patient and counseling services to alcoholics.

Wexler's wife, Sheila Wexler, who is director of Adult Services for the foundation, said the facility has set aside three of its 98 beds for 28-day gambling treatment sessions, and will be able to treat about 36 patients a year.

The cost is $2,600 per patient. "This is a tremendous break for compulsive gamblers," said Edward Looney, president of the council.

Wexler concedes the desperate need for more beds, but said: "Monday we had no beds."

New Hope is the only in-patient service available to all gambling addicts. Lyons VA Medical Center in Somerset has in-patient treatment for veterans, while JFK Hospital in Edison runs a state-funded, out-patient gambling treatment program.

Prior to the opening of the Marlboro unit, those seeking help to battle their addiction to gambling had to go to Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio or Maryland, said Wexler.

New Jersey allows gambling on casino games, horse tracks, lotteries and bingo.

Experts say between 10 percent and 35 percent of the approximately 400,000 compulsive gamblers in the state need in-treatment help.

Riley Regan, director of the Division of Alcoholism in the Health Department, said the foundation is qualified to treat gamblers because of the link between drinking and gambling. He said between 15 percent and 20 percent of those in treatment for alcoholism have at one time or another been addicted to gambling. And about 28 percent of compulsive gamblers are also alcoholics, he added.

"All I can say is that it's about time," Regan declared. Dr. Rena Nora, the chief of psychiatry at Lyons, said in-patient treatment is necessary for many addicts because they need to be physically out of touch with all forms of gambling.

Asked whether the cost of the program might discourage many from seeking admission, Wexler said other in-patient treatment facilities across the nation charge fees far exceeding those of the foundation.

Experts say between 10 percent and 35 percent of the 400,000 compulsive gamblers in the state need in-treatment help.

"They have to be removed from the environment where this is going on," she said.

Pacific Rim nations worry about dollar lag

HONG KONG (AP) - The unexpected surge in the U.S. trade deficit gave export-fueled Pacific Rim nations the jitters Friday as the dollar tumbled to record lows and fears of American protectionism deepened.

The record $17.6 billion deficit run up by the United States in October was "extremely unwelcome news," said Jimmy McGregor, director of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce. "The fear is that the U.S. protectionist lobby will now be given the kind of fillip they've been looking for."

In Washington, Speaker of the House Jim Wright reacted to the deficit report on Thursday by saying trade legislation would be a top priority when Congress returns next month.

A comprehensive trade legislation bill now being considered by a House-Senate conference committee could carry strong protectionist measures that President Reagan has vowed to veto.

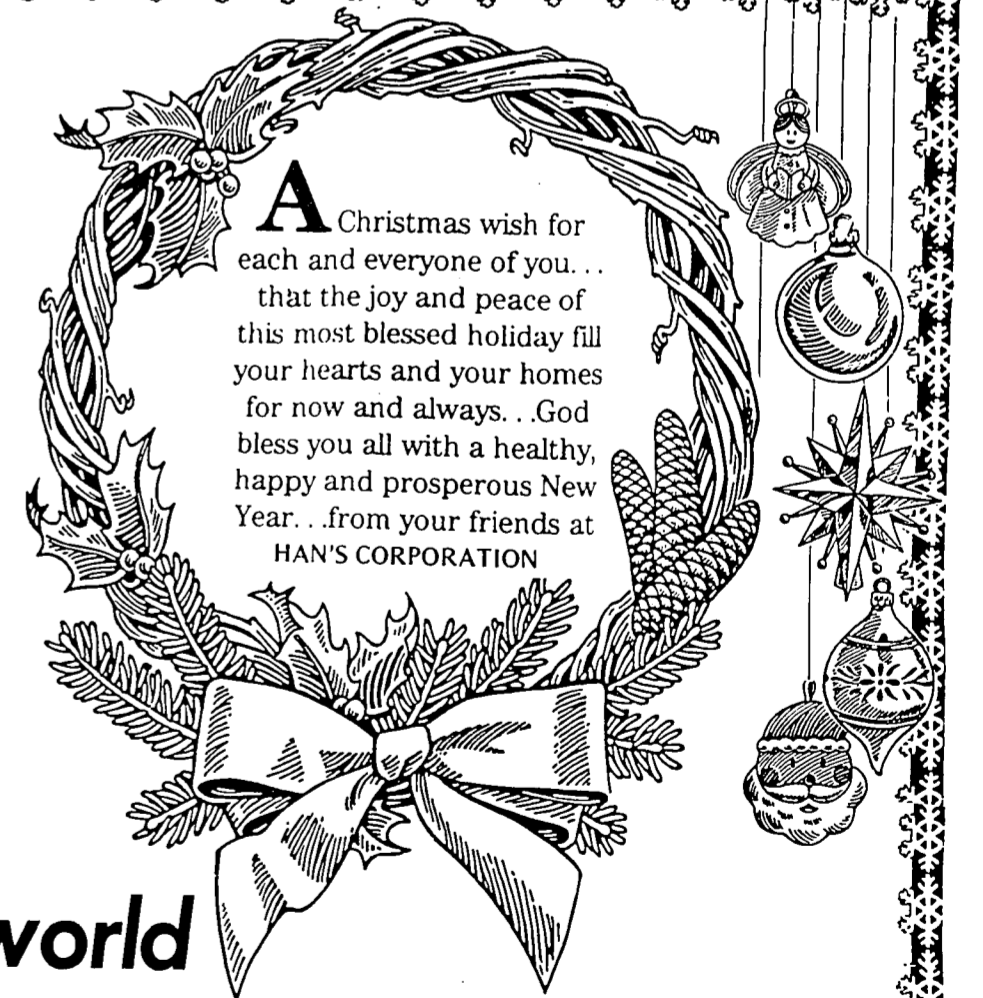

The latest trade statistics said the United States chalked up large deficits in October with many of its Asian trading partners - $5.86 billion with Japan, $1.78 billion with Taiwan, $1.02 billion with South Korea and $724 million with the British colony of Hong Kong.

News of the deficit sent the dollar plunging Friday to a 40-year low of 128.75 Japanese yen in Tokyo and a record low of 29.11 against the Taiwan dollar. The dollar also fell to its lowest level against the Hong Kong dollar since that currency was pegged at 7.8 to one U.S. dollar in 1983, falling to 7.754.

Officials in Washington want Asia's "Little Dragons" - the newly industrializing countries of South Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Singapore - to increase the value of their currencies against the U.S. dollar to help narrow the American lag.

Alien labor may need SS documents

Social Security wishes to inform employers that it is now accepting applications for social security numbers from alien workers who are paying social security tax. If you are an employer of alien workers who are subject to social security tax you should make sure that each one has a social security number. Employees who do not have social security numbers should be asked to come to the Social Security Office in the Nauru Building to apply for one.

Workers applying for social security numbers must come to the office in person and must bring with them their passport and entry permit. It takes about 10 minutes to complete the application and another three weeks for the social security number card to arrive from the mainland. Employers who have more than ten workers who need social security numbers should call the Social Security Office at 234-6203 to make special arrangements so that they don't have to bring their workers to the office.

The Social Security office is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Marcos loyalists threaten Japan embassy in RP

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — Police said recently that a supporter of ousted President Ferdinand Marcos admitted making explosives that injured four people last week and rigging more bombs to disrupt this week's Southeast Asian summit.

The Japanese Embassy, meanwhile, said it received a letter threatening attacks on Japanese nationals and property in the Philippines unless Tokyo disassociates itself from the summit.

Japanese Prime Minister Noboru Takeshita is scheduled to meet Tuesday with leaders of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations immediately after they end their two-day conference, the regional bloc's first since 1977.

President Corazon Aquino today inspected the summit site and told reporters she was satisfied with security arrangements.

Also today, the military and a news agency reported that one candidate for next month's regional and local elections was killed and another kidnapped.

Brig. Gen. Manuel Roxas, police superintendent for Manila's eastern suburbs, said Roberto Eusebio admitted rigging bombs that exploded Tuesday, injuring four people at the Manila airport and the business district of Makati.

Eusebio, an electronics expert and self-styled Marcos supporter, also acknowledged building three unexploded bombs found in Makati and near Manila's city hall Wednesday and Thursday, Roxas added.

He said Eusebio, 42, made the confession to police following his capture Thursday during a raid on his home in suburban Pasig.

Roxas said authorities found Eusebio had fashioned 250 sticks of dynamite into 14 bombs. He said Eusebio told authorities the bombs were to be picked up by people he had met at pro-Marcos demonstrations.

Marcos was ousted in February 1986 in a civilian-military uprising that swept Mrs. Aquino to power. He lives in exile in Hawaii.

Eusebio told investigators the men who delivered the dynamite to him said they intended to use the bombs to disrupt the ASEAN summit, Roxas said.

JESUS OR MARY?
 Text: "Neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."
 (Acts 4:12)

The precious Word of God - the holy Bible - sets forth God's gracious plan of salvation for lost sinners. That plan is for His only begotten Son to come into the world, be born of a virgin, fulfill all righteousness, and die for the sins of all who ever believe. The Bible is all about Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God. It has little to say about Mary, the one God selected to be the vehicle of His coming into Adam's race, because she has no part in the salvation of any sinner. She herself must offer a sin offering 40 days after giving birth to Jesus (Lk.2:22-24 compare Lev.12:1-4). The Lord Jesus never offered ANY offering until He offered Himself without spot to God for our sins. This Mary did not do nor could she do for the simple reason that she was not God incarnate. It is for this same reason that she cannot hear nor answer prayer. And therefore it is deceitful, anti-Christian doctrine to declare her a "Mediatrice," for the Apostle Paul plainly says in I Tim. 2:5, "For there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, THE MAN CHRIST JESUS, who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time."

Furthermore, the Lord Jesus Himself without doing the least dishonor to His mother spoke always and only the truth to her and about her as occasion required. He never once addresses her as "Mother," but only "woman." Not only so, but He in divine righteousness REBUKED her and REFUSED her requests and that publicly. When Mary and her sons by Joseph sent word to Him through the crowds to come home with them, He responded by saying, "who is My mother or My brothers?" And He looked around in a circle at those who sat about Him and said, "HERE are My mother and My brothers! For whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and MOTHER." (MARK 3:33-35)

Similarly when a woman foolishly cried out while He was preaching, "Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts which nursed you," He replied, "Yea, RATHER blessed are they who hear the Word of God and keep it." (Lk. 11:27-28).

But why bring up all this? First, because it is truth - God's truth, truth that saves the soul. Second, it is light that reproves darkness - darkness which blinds and damns the soul. It is to urge you who read this to turn from every false hope and put your trust in the ONLY One "whereby we must be saved."
 Bob Berkey, co-pastor

Part of Lot No. 1479-2-2, containing an area of 6,583 square meters, more or less, beginning at a corner which is designated as Corner No. 1, having plane rectangular coordinates of 53,919.96 meters North and 53,852.81 meters East of the Mariana Islands District Coordinate System of 1986:

- Thence S 59 deg. 29' 30" E, 53.15 meters to Corner 2;
- Thence S 30 deg. 30' 30" W, 127.52 meters to Corner 3;
- Thence N 59 deg. 24' 50" W, 50.13 meters to Corner 4;
- Thence N 29 deg. 09' 04" E, 127.49 meters to Corner 1; the point of beginning.

and to quiet title to the same. The complaint, your reference to which is invited for further particulars, is on file with the Clerk of this Court at Saipan, CNMI. Now, therefore,

YOU ARE HEREBY ORDERED to appear and plead in response to the Plaintiffs' complaint within 20 days of the date of the last publication and posting of this order. If you answer, your answer should be in writing and filed with the Clerk of this Court at Susupe, Saipan, CNMI, and served upon Plaintiffs' counsel, Elizabeth A. McKibben, Esq., O'Connor and Sorensen, P.O. Box 1969, 2nd Floor Nauru Bldg., Saipan, CM 96950. If you fail to appear or plead in accordance with this Order, this Court may proceed as if you had been served with process in the Commonwealth and judgment by default may be taken against you for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Would-be scientists learn about energy uses

By John Oliver Gonzales
Scientists of the future from MHS met last Friday, Nov. 27, 1987 and attended a "NEED" workshop held at the CNMI Convention Center. Oh! How thrilling it was! There were lots of students who were willing to dedicate their time. There were lots of refreshments and beverages served. What's more, there were more teachers than expected to share information with their students. As a result, the CNMI Convention Center was filled to the limit. We shared information, played educational games, and discussed how to conserve energy.

WHAT IS "NEED"?

"NEED" is the acronym for National Energy Education Day. It is a workshop held to promote and find ways to use energy wisely and conserve it in a proper manner. The theme for this year's event (1987-88) was "Expanding America's (and the CNMI's) Energy Horizons." This theme is concerned with how we should find ways to consume energy and store it properly. It's quite meaningful, for it makes people aware that we still have the future to face. By thinking ahead, our future will look bright.

HOW DID THE WORKSHOP GO?

Surprisingly, the workshop went quite the way it was expected to. The CNMI NEED coordinator, Mrs. Nancy Weil, was thrilled and surprised. She was expecting less than a hundred participants, but it turned out that there were more. The workshop was educational, worthwhile, and beneficial.

Since we are in the tropical zone where the sun shines much of the time, we have a great advantage in saving energy, while on the other hand we have an abundance of solar energy.

In general, I thought the workshop was informative and educational. All the attendees were into the workshop. They were really interested and very happy that they came. As a matter of fact, we agreed to have more workshops like this one. It is really beneficial. What's more, it's fun.

In accordance with NEED objectives, NMI students will be making projects relating to energy and energy conservation. The projects will be judged by a committee. The students involved in the winning project will be sent to Washington, D.C. and

Los Angeles to attend the NEED conference. So it's quite an innovative activity and a good opportunity for students to be involved in such an event as this.

MHS Future Scientists Club members attended the NEED workshop last month. (MHS photo)

Fiji now back under civilian rule after early coup

SUVA, Fiji (AP) - Fiji went back to a civilian government Sunday with longtime leaders and political allies returned to power by coup leader Sitiveni Rabuka. Little else was known about the new government's structure, however.

By decree, Rabuka late Saturday appointed former Governor-General Sir Penaia Ganilau as president of the republic he created in October, and Ganilau returned Sir Kamisese Mara to the post of prime minister.

Rabuka seized power in this South Pacific archipelago nation last May.

Less than a month earlier, Mara's ethnic Fijian government had been unseated in national elections by Timoci Bavadra, who formed a predominantly Indian Cabinet. Rabuka said control by ethnic Fijians must be assured.

Indians, most of them descendants of laborers brought to the islands by the former British rulers, slightly outnumber ethnic Fijians among the 715,000 population.

Rabuka said in a speech broadcast to the nation Saturday night that he was stepping down as self-proclaimed head of state and government. But it was not clear whether he had fulfilled a pledge to return to the barracks.

Rabuka, who recently promoted himself to brigadier general from colonel, kept his position as head of the armed forces.

On Saturday, he pledged his complete support to the new administration. Nevertheless, a military decree prohibiting Sunday recreational activities appeared not to have been rescinded.

There was no official word on when the new government would form a Cabinet.

Also not disclosed was the status of a new constitution Rabuka said he was drafting to guarantee ethnic Fijians permanent political control of a future parliament. Nor has the fate been revealed of a 22-member military council Rabuka set up two months ago to run the country on an interim basis.

Ganilau's first act as president was to make Mara the prime minister, a job Mara had held since Fiji became independent in 1970.

Until the Saturday night broadcast, Ganilau had maintained a public silence but remained insistent that Fiji keep its links with the British crown.

As governor-general, Ganilau had held executive powers as the representative of Queen Elizabeth II.

Tanapag School hosts X'mas play

Students and staff of Tanapag Elementary School will present a 45-minute Christmas play Dec. 22 entitled "Baby Born in a Stable".

The public is invited to view the dramatic play, which will be held on the 18 feet by 30 feet concrete stage being built on the school campus, the Department of Education said in a press release.

"The play will be a nativity scene starring our students," said first grade teacher Margaret Adriano, Christmas program chairperson. Other people assisting her and assistant chairman Daniel Lastimoza in soliciting donations to build the stage are Ursula L. Aldan and Tanapag Elementary teachers and staff.

Among the people and firms that donated materials and money for the stage are Marianas Repair, Gus Camacho Equipment Company, PTA

President Jess Castro, YCO, Pacific Enterprises, CMS, Saipan Municipality, Sablan Construction, TransAmerica, Basic Construction, UMDA, Saipan Fishing Market, JTS Insurance, ACS Company and Congressman Benigno M. Sablan.

Fabrics for the costumes of more than 70 students who will perform in the play are donated by Richard Pierce and the Garment Factory Association, Sam Marianas garment factory, and Estefania F. Camacho. Costumes for the students will be sewn together by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chong Dress Shop in Garapan at no charge to the school.

"We are still waiting for help from other businesses so we can complete the stage (before Dec. 22)," Adriano said, noting that tin roofs and other materials are still needed to complete the stage.

Rita A. Sablan, Garapan Elementary School Principal, is happy about the construction of twelve new classrooms set to get underway at her school in January. (DOE Photo).

Garapan builds new rooms

Construction of 12 new classrooms at Garapan Elementary will begin in January and should be completed by October 1988, Rita A. Sablan, school principal said Monday.

"Completion of these classrooms will put us back on regular schedule," she added.

Garapan Elementary has been having double sessions since Dec. 3, 1986, when Supertyphoon Kim hit the Northern Marianas. Students attending grades 1, 2, 6, and 7 have classes in the morning, and students in grades 3-5 report to school in the afternoon.

Sablan said Kim wiped out eight classrooms, and the previous typhoons destroyed four classrooms at the school. Operating with a classroom shortage, the school has 15 classrooms, serving 614 students, she added.

The CNMI government has approved $660,000 in capital improvement project (CIP) funding to construct the twelve classrooms, DOE capital improvement planner Herman B. Cabrera said, adding that the government is finalizing plans for the construction of the new classrooms at Garapan Elementary School. (DOE).

ASNMC to hold alcohol seminar

The Associated Student Council of Northern Marianas College standing committee on alcohol and drug awareness in conjunction with the Department of Public Safety invites the community to attend a lecture on alcohol awareness by officer Tom Campell, public affairs officer for California Highway Patrol in Santa Barbara, at Northern Marianas College in room A on Dec. 21 at 10 a.m. A film entitled: "Epidemic: Kids, Drugs and Alcohol" will be shown.

The ASNMC, in support of the proclamation of Governor Pedro P. Tenorio which addressed having a responsible and safe holiday, hopes this lecture will help the community to "celebrate responsibility" over Christmas and New Year so that each and everyone will have a joyous, and healthy holiday and year to come.

Meet Jonathan, "Golden Kid"

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

Meet Jonathan Sakovich, also known as the Golden Kid. The Senate adopted a resolution Monday giving Sakovich the new name for winning the first two gold medals for the Northern Marianas from the 1987 South Pacific Games in Noumea, New Caledonia.

Sakovich, 17, son of William Sakovich, president of the Northern Marianas Amateur Sports Association, has also won a silver and a bronze medal in swimming events in the current SPG. The day the resolution was adopted Sakovich won his second silver in the 1,500-meter freestyle race.

"Jonathan has not only captured medals for the Commonwealth but has captured the hearts and sensation of his teammates and the sensation of his teammates and the people of the Commonwealth..." the resolution introduced by Senator Juan T. Guerrero, says.

The resolution also cites Sakovich's participation in swimming events in Asia, Guam and Hawaii as member of the Commonwealth team. He is a member of the Saipan Swim Club, one of the most active local sports groups in terms of training and in on-island and off-island competition.

Ambros wins division title

By Nick Legaspi
Reporter

RB Ambros captured the Ambros Division title Sunday by handing Santos Eagle Snack its second and final loss, 77-60, in the best-of-three games series.

The victory also gave Ambros the right to represent its division in the championship games for the 1987 Marpac-Ambros Basketball Conference Ambros will face the winner of the Dec. 20 encounter between Basic Busch and Agbanlog Bud Light., who are now tied at 1-1 in the Marpac division title. Agbanlog, which lost to Basic in their first game Dec. 6, won Sunday's meeting, 78-74 to stop Basic from repeating their performance for a two-game victory for the Marpac title.

Ambros was the only team in its division to defeat the Santos Eagles, who won their first seven successive assignments in the division Ambros. It is ironic that Santos defeated RGG Michelob which later beat Ambros in the round robin series.

Observers in the weekly games said Ambros would have a better chance to win the conference title if Agbanlog wins its final meeting with Basic Busch. They said Basic, with Tim Paez and Larry Medina would be a formidable team for RB, even with the high-scoring Gamboa brothers.

Paez was the highest scorer Sunday, making 25 points for his team. Ambros' Danny Dagle, playing center, made 21 points for second position in individual points. Elvis Villanueva of Agbanlog was third with 16 points and Lee Avila of Santos Eagles fourth with 12 points.

Only the deciding game between Basic and Agbanlog will be played at the Civic Center court Dec. 20.

Inos said in an interview Thursday that he would location of such an enterprise in the Northern Mariana Islands."

"The promotion of tourism in the Northern Mariana Islands is not one of the underlying purposes of our tax laws," Guerrero said. He cited a letter and an opinion from the Attorney General's Office which qualified the submersible as merchandise subject to excise tax..

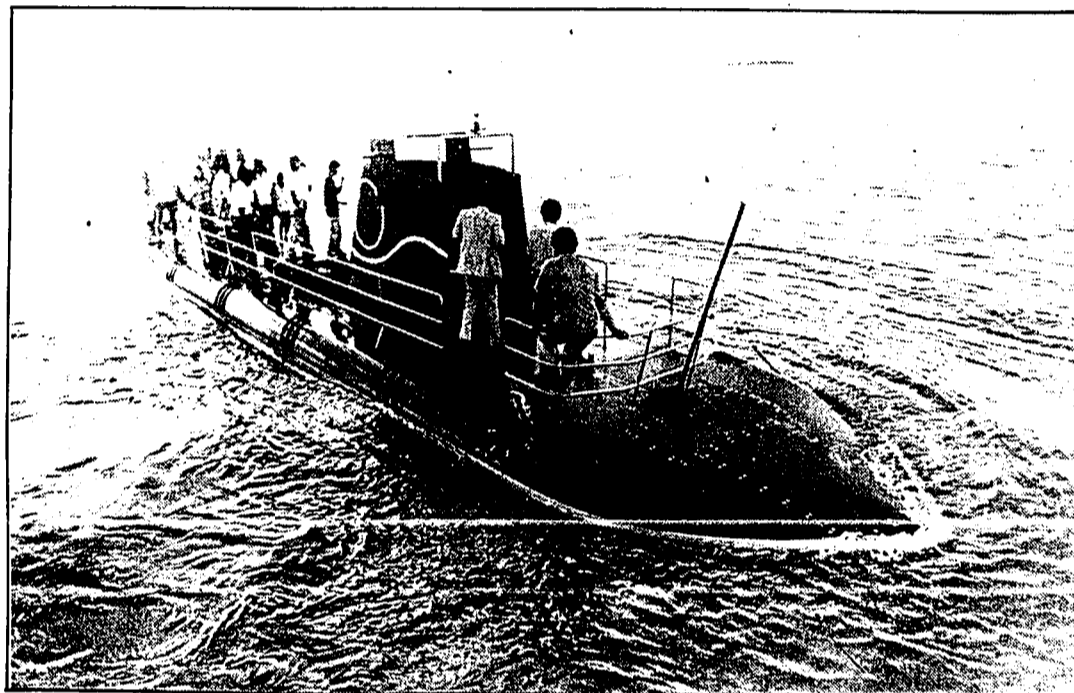

"Impose the taxes," former Assistant Attorney General John A. Manglona said in a letter to Customs Chief Pete P. Reyes who earlier asked for opinion on the taxability of helicopters, aircraft and submarines imported for business.

Inos also asked the AG's office to determine whether the 83-ton submersible is considered taxable a taxable good or merchandise under the excise tax law. "We conclude that the submarine is merchandise and therefore subject to the excise tax," according to the opinion signed by legal interns Sheryll Bonilla and Lee Nelson and Chief Solicitor Richard Weil and concurred in by Attorney General Alexandro C. Castro.

They also said that under the law the finance director "could either define 'goods' or 'merchandise' to exclude a tourist submarine or define those terms to specifically include a submarine, thereby eliminating any uncertainty."

Inos cited this opinion to grant the tax waiver to Dosa Subsea. He said a regulation would be proposed to cover the subject.

"The waiver of the excise tax law based on a proposed plan to further define the terms by regulation is inappropriate and inconsistent with the provisions and purposes of tax laws," Guerrero said.

He said proposed regulations have been prepared and would be presented to the public for comment. He said he would treat Guerrero's letter as a comment to the proposed regulations regarding applicability of excise tax on submersibles.

Inos, in response to a request from Attorney Rexford Kosack for a tax ruling on behalf of Dosa Dusbsea, said the provision of law on excise tax do not apply to tourist submersibles. "Consequently, no excise tax will be assessed," he said.

"It is our opinion that this kind of activity should be encouraged for the good of the tourism industry of the Commonwealth," Inos said. "The imposition of a 5% tax would discourage the

Honda faces 11 counts of theft

Judge Ramon G. Villagomez ordered the arrest Wednesday of a man accused of 11 counts of theft.

Assistant Attorney General Edward Hayden, in an information filed Wednesday named the alleged thief as Llewelyn Honda.

Hayden alleged that Honda stole the properties of Midway Motors in nine instances in 1985 and 1986. Six of the alleged thefts involve amounts of more than $250, which make them felonies, or crimes punishable by more than a year in jail. The three other alleged offenses involve properties worth less than $250, which make them misdemeanors, or crimes punishable by not more than a year in jail.

The first alleged theft was committed in March 1985. The others were allegedly done between March and October 1986.
