Dear Sir:

Receipt of your letter relative to the immigration problem of Mrs. George Bee's sister, Lidia Meinl, an Italian citizen.

I have had many requests of this nature and fervently wished so often that a more encouraging answer could be given. However, in view of the immigration statutes and applicable regulations, I cannot offer much encouragement. The quota and priority system is rigidly enforced. Therefore, unless Mrs. Bee's sister can come in under certain exceptions granted, for example, to aliens with specialized skills, she would have to await her quota.

Your interest in this matter is appreciated. Best wishes and aloha.

Sincerely,

DANIEL K. INOUYE, M.C.

Dear Sir:

This is a note from one of the Catholic Chaplains with the 8 Inf Division in Germany. It is being written on behalf of one of our dependents here, a subject of yours: Mrs George Bee, whose permanent address is 1734 Houghailing Rd, Honolulu 17, Hawaii.

The problem is immigration; Mrs Bee's sister, Lidia Meini, an Italian citizen, made application in March 1954 and seems to be no closer to entrance to the U.S. than then. She is considered 4th class preference and therefore never comes up on the list. She has been living with the Bee's since they came to Germany and receives some support from them.

The rotation date for Sgt and Mrs Bee is in the Spring, and naturally they would like to bring Lidia with them. Is there anything that you can do to help bring this about? Or, are all doors closed?

Thanks for any help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

May we join your thousands of friends, well-wishers and supporters in offering our heartiest congratulations on the successful outcome of your campaign? I am sure that the others are as happy as we are here at The Westchester to have confirmed what we felt to be a foregone conclusion. We will rejoice to see you in Washington where you belong.

We trust that you will remember our letter of October 29 in which we offered you The Westchester's superb facilities and cordial hospitality, and also presented to you the opportunity to acquire your home in Washington at our 3900 Watson Place Cooperative Apartment.

Looking forward to the privilege and pleasure of serving you at either or both of our establishments, I am, again, with sincerest congratulations,

Respectfully yours,

My dear Mr. Inouye:

We rejoice with you over your successful campaign and hasten to send our heartiest congratulations on your reelection to the 87th Congress.

As a neighbor we send you, too, a message of warm welcome and our earnest wishes that your continued stay in our City will be a long and a happy one. We would consider it a high privilege if we could assist you in any way; our relationships in the community are so broad we are able to offer a breadth of service far and beyond routine banking facilities and we place these entirely at your disposal.

Our Capitol Plaza office at No. 1 Indiana Avenue is most conveniently located for those on Capitol Hill and our officers would be happy to welcome you there or call at your office at any time suitable to you.

With every good wish for your continued success, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Dan:

This is a belated congratulatory note for your smashing victory to the second term as U.S. Congressman. I have been crowing over you all over the hospital and predicted your sweeping victory by a 4:1 margin. It appears that I hit it right on the nose.

I have been confined in the hospital since October 11—nothing more than having prosthetic fittings and consultations. But it takes time and much anxiety.
Just an observation, Dan, but it appears that the more "person-to-person" type of contact that a politician can make will endear him to the hearts of his constituents. I believe very strongly that a series of meetings designed something like what I've had for you for the past elections will no doubt groom and solidify your moving up as U.S. Senator in 1962 or 1964.

With best wishes for continued success and aloha.

Another Dan for Senator back.

Although I have been thinking of you, this is the first opportunity I have had to write and congratulate you upon your re-election to the House of Representatives. It was a great victory.

I know that you are as pleased as I am over the election of Senators Kennedy and Johnson. Under their leadership, and with the aid of Democrats like yourself, our country can go ahead with a forward-looking program.

I am in Florida at the moment, and am working hard to raise money to meet the sizeable deficit we incurred during the campaign.

My warmest good wishes to you.

Inouye Sets Record
With 135,425 Votes

His opponent, Republican Frederick J. Titcomb, got 46,829 votes. Inouye's margin was nearly 3-1.

The popular Nisei war veteran held the previous state record for the highest number of votes for a single candidate. He received 111,727 votes last year when he was elected as Hawaii's first U.S. representative.

It was expected that he would defeat Titcomb by a good margin, but Democrats and Republicans never dreamed that he would snowball such a total.

Inouye pledged himself to "protect Hawaii's sugar and pineapple industries" and to "see that the East-West Center becomes an effective center for world peace."

The Democrat said he would do his "utmost to seek the full appropriation for our college of agriculture."

"I will do whatever I can to aid our small industries and our small farmers such as the coffee growers."

Inouye said that his own election was "a gratifying one." He said, "Whatever I do, I will have the welfare of the people in mind."
Dear Dan:

I am so happy in your re-election and I extend to you my hearty congratulations on the splendid vote that you received, as well as your deserved victory; also my kindest regards.

Sir,

May I offer my congratulations to you for being re-elected as the Representative of the State of Hawaii.

I learned of your impressive victory while listening to the presidential election returns on a radio here at West Point.

Sir, I have not forgotten my promise to you. I have been doing fairly well, making the Dean's list for the month of September. I hope to continue and to improve this record in order that you and Hawaii can be proud of my accomplishments.

Good luck in your second term as Hawaii's Representative.

My dear Mr. Inouye:

Please accept my warm personal congratulations on your victory in the November 8 elections. The people of your district have spoken and there the debating ends. I think you know that CWA members are largely Democratic. We have found that to be true in our political opinion polls. We also have many Republicans. But I am sure, from past experience, that all CWA members in your area, regardless of personal preference at the polls, will be cooperating with and working with you.

Poll Finds Nixon in Lead, but Kennedy Is Said to Gain

By RICHARD J. H. JOHNSTON
Special to The New York Times.
HONOLULU, Oct. 29 — The Presidential campaign appears to have made little impression on the voter of Hawaii. Although, they ultra-racial population here will be voting for the first time in a Presidential contest, it seems to be generally bored with the sounds and the fury from the mainland in the battle between Senator John F. Kennedy and Vice President Nixon.

The Republicans, among the state's 190,314 registered voters here have had a look at their standard-bearer, who spent three days campaigning here last August. The Democrats, however, have seen and heard Mr. Kennedy only on television and newsreel film. The Republican workers declare that Mr. Kennedy has been "badly hurt" by his failure to appear here. But the Democratic leaders say this is not true.

Democratic View

The rank-and-file Democrats feel generally that Mr. Kennedy was well-advised to concentrate on the populous mainland. Hawaii has only three electoral votes.

Samplings of opinion indicate that Mr. Nixon lost no Republican votes as a result of his visit here, but they also indicate that, he made no inroads into Democratic party loyalty.

Arthur L. Woolaway, the Republican state chairman, predicted today that "we are going to carry the state." He added that Mr. Nixon "has always been very close to Hawaii."

The voters are impressed with his experience and ability," Mr. Woolaway said. He termed the Nixon-Lodge campaign in the island state "well-organized" with "strong labor endorsement.

A poll taken for the Republican state shows about 37 per cent preference for Mr. Nixon, 35 per cent for Mr. Kennedy and 28 per cent still undecided.

Wide Projection Made

The poll-taking was confined to the capital city, Honolulu. Moreover, Craig Associates, the poll takers, held a Republican leader it indicated voting trends throughout the islands.

The Democratic campaign chairman, Herman Lum, said his party's voter polls showed about 25 per cent still undecided on the Presidential choice. He said that the race here was "wide open."

More optimistic was the statement issued by Leon LeBaron, chairman of the Citizens for Kennedy and Johnson Committee. He predicted a state-wide sweep for the Democrats in the Presidential race and in the single Congressional contest here.

In the latter contest the incumbent Democrat, Representative Daniel K. Inouye, a World War II hero of Japanese ancestry, is being opposed by Republican Fred Titcomb. Representative Inouye appears a sure winner in the race. He has been campaigning heavily throughout the Islands for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket as well as for himself.

Drive Less Intense

Hawaii's Republican Mayor, Neil S. Basich, and the Republican Governor, William F. Quinn, have been campaigning for the Presidential ticket, but with noticeably less intensity. Nebraska observers say they have noted a decline in support for Mr. Nixon since his high point during the Vice Presidential visit.

Honolulu, Hawaii

Dear Sir:

I am taking this opportunity to congratulate you upon your re-election to the Congress of the United States as the Representative from the State of Hawaii.

I know, and I feel sure all Hawaii do too, that you will continue your splendid work in Congress as you have done in the past session of Congress. I know you will have the interest of Hawaii at heart at all times, and we in the Postal Service appreciate deeply the consideration you have shown to all the employees in the Postal Service.

I understand some veterans of the recent Korean campaign are receiving bonuses from their home States. Since Hawaii has attained statehood, are the veterans from this state eligible for like bonuses as some other states?

Please acknowledge and forward your reply to the above question at your earliest convenience.

Aloha,

Richard B. Rodrigues

Dear Mr. Inouye:

I am very happy to join your many loyal and enthusiastic friends and supporters in conveying my hearty and sincere congratulations.

It has been a rousing campaign and I am truly proud of the way you put it over. The best man won.

Aloha and good luck!

Sincerely,

Dear Dan:

Congratulations upon your re-election. I know that the happiness with which we, in the AFL-CIO, noted your overwhelming victory is probably dimmed only by both you and Mrs. Inouye's equal feeling in this regard.

We have every confidence that you will continue to represent all of the people of the State of Hawaii to the best of your ability and you may rest assured that we are equally confident that you will represent the best interests of the people of the United States in your endeavors in the 87th Congress.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dan, Congratulations upon your victory! Hoping you all go the process on Washington for the 3rd term. Sending you this tally result which I know you would like to examine. I see where almost 85% went for you.

As for myself, I'm a bit dejected. I lost all the luck to Nixon. But I wish all the luck to

Dear Dan

Congratulations on being elected to represent Hawaii in the House of Representatives!

I was quite thrilled when I read the report in TIME magazine that you had been elected to come to Washington.

I am glad that one of our Harris boys has received this great honor and I know that you will be a good representative for the Islands.

Give my aloha to Margaret.

I have had very little experience in writing letters in connection with politics, but I cannot resist writing you today to offer my heartiest congratulations on your election.

As you know, the Academy's work is preponderantly in the field of Asian studies, and consequently we work in intimate association with many institutions in Asia. I know that to all my colleagues throughout Asia, the results of this election are as meaningful as they are to all of us in Hawaii. I feel certain too that our pride in being represented by you in the Congress will be reflected in the admiration of people everywhere for the manner in which Hawaii has demonstrated its understanding of the role which the Islands play, not only in national but also in global politics.

Dear Representative Inouye:

Please accept my heartiest congratulations for a deserving victory in yesterday's election. Needless to say, Senator Kennedy is extremely pleased with your victory and happy that you have become one of his colleagues.

Being a native son of Hawaii and one who plans to return home within a few years, I have been keenly observing the election and your progress and today share the happiness of your victory and that of the Democratic Party.

For several years, I have been the adopted son of several states and since last December the adopted son of Massachusetts. It has been with a great sense of pride and pleasure to be able to serve the citizens of Massachusetts, but now I would like to employ my experience to work for the good people of Hawaii. It is for this specific reason that I am writing you.

Before joining the staff of Senator Kennedy in December, I was employed in the House of Representatives for three years. Although the Houses of Congress are geographically near, their complex operations and procedures are almost radically different. Since becoming a member of Senator Kennedy's staff, I have come to know the intricate operations of the Senate in anticipation of being able to use them to serve the new State of Hawaii.

I am a graduate in Economics from Georgetown College and am at present attending Georgetown Law Center and rank in the upper 15% of my class. During the past four years I have become experienced in operating all the office equipment available to Members of Congress. At some time or other, I have touched on all phases of congressional operation, including correspondence, case work and campaigning. During my stay in the House of Representatives, I had the opportunity to run a Congressman's office during his absence.
As a member of Senator Kennedy's staff I have worked primarily under the direction of Ted Sorensen and Steve Smith. My work has been mostly in the public relations field.

I sincerely hope that the qualifications mentioned above will merit your consideration for a position on your staff and eventually the opportunity to serve the people of Hawaii. If time permits, I would welcome the opportunity to discuss my qualifications with you personally upon your arrival in Washington.

I will be most happy to furnish you with any additional information or recommendations necessary for your favorable consideration. Please address all correspondence to my home.

Sincerely yours,

As the official representative of The Salvation Army in the State of Hawaii, it affords me untold pleasure to extend the congratulations of this organization in your election to the Congress of the United States as the Representative from Hawaii.

There is no question but what the citizens of this great state believe you are fully qualified for this distinct position of trust and responsibility. You are a man possessing the highest of Christian ideals and principles, a most important qualification for any individual occupying a position of leadership in our national life. You have an enviable record as a statesman and shrewd politician (one versed in the science of government). Your domestic life is untarnished - a very desirable qualification, when so many homes are afflicted with disturbed family relationships. Finally, you have demonstrated your devotion to our great nation by your deeds of valor on the field of battle. As a fellow veteran I must commend you on your bravery and courage in the face of enemy action.

I want you to know your friends of The Salvation Army will support you with their prayers and best wishes as you assume your office as the first elected Representative of the great State of Hawaii.

Dear Mr. Inouye:

In the absence of my son David, allow me to congratulate you on your thumping victory at the General Election polls as our first Representative to the U.S. Congress. Your previous record in the Territorial Legislature and your personal integrity, high caliber and popularity won you this honor. I have never met anybody in the Territory who didn't have great Aloha and regard for you. The very fact of your securing such a large vote speaks for itself.

David had to suddenly go to the mainland two days before the elections but before going he voted as he wanted to vote for you and his other favorite candidates. I am sure he will be glad to hear that you were elected though there was no question about your coming on the top.

You, no doubt, are aware that in the Congress there is one Dr. Saund, a native of India, as a Democrat Representative from California. He is serving a second term. He was here two years ago. I wonder if you met him. I am sure he will be very glad to make friendship with you in Congress.

Dear Mr. Inouye:

My hearty congratulations on an impressive victory in the recent election. You have a wonderful opportunity to display a brand of statesmanship in the Halls of Congress which will bring prestige and honor to Hawaii. The magnificent culture of the Orient which has blended here in Hawaii with the culture of the Occident has produced a type of citizen...which you epitomize...which has much to offer to help bring about understanding among the peoples of the world.

If, as I hope and believe you will, you put service before self...stand on statesmanship and integrity...work for the balanced best interests of the groups which comprise the population of Hawaii and of our country...have the courage to say no to groups which would make inordinate demands and seek to exploit the public funds for selfish purposes...and consider your office as a sacred public trust, you will bring credit and honor to Hawaii. I am sure that is what all of the citizens here wish for you to do.

Dear Mr. Inouye:

My heartiest congratulations!

We are all very proud that Hawaii will be represented in the House by as able and sincere a person as you.

May you enjoy the greatest success in all that you undertake in Congress.

Sincerely,

Dear Daniel,

Congratulations!!!

This is most greatest news which ever happened among our friends. It was also biggest news even in Japan's newspapers.

Meantime, I would like to express my appreciation to you for what you have done for us while staying in your great State.
My best wishes to you and Margaret.

Sincerely,

Dear Dan:

You continue to receive an excellent press in this part of the country. Enclosed is a part of the Rochester paper for Sunday morning, August 16, 1959. You will be interested, I am sure, in the picture of yourself and the large article that you will find on the front page.

We expect great things from you. Best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,
