SUMMER SESSION
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII. The University of Hawaii is a federal land-grant and state university. It has colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Continuing Education and Community Service, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Social Welfare (including schools of Medicine, Nursing, Public Health and Social Work), and Tropical Agriculture, a Graduate Division, a School of Library Studies, and a System of Community Colleges. It offers the master's degree in 71 fields and the doctorate in 33.

ADMISSION. Applicants who fit any one of the following categories need not apply for admission to the summer session ahead of time, but will be required to complete the summer Self-Certification Form during registration:

1. Graduate of an accredited college or university.
2. Student currently in good standing at an accredited college or university.
3. Student who was in good standing at the last accredited college or university attended.
4. Student who was placed on scholastic suspension or was dismissed after the spring semester of 1971 from the University of Hawaii.
5. Student on scholastic probation, but eligible for continued registration at an accredited college or university.
6. Student who has never attended college or university before, but who has been accepted for admission at an accredited college or university.
7. Student currently in good standing at a local community college and enrolled in the transfer curriculum.

Applicants who do not fit any of the categories listed above are required to submit official transcripts along with a regular Admissions Form by May 1, 1971 to the Office of Admissions and Records, 125 Bachman Hall, 2444 Dole Street, University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822. Write to the Office of Admissions and Records for Admission Forms.

Admission to the summer session does not imply admission to the fall or spring semesters.

TUITION AND FEES. The tuition is $20 per (semester) credit hour for resident students and $30 per credit hour for out-of-state students. An activity fee of $2.50 is charged every student in the first six-week term. There are no laboratory or other course fees except for applied music, institutes, and other special programs. All fees must be paid in full at registration time. No money should be sent in advance.

STUDENT HOUSING. Residence hall accommodations will be available to summer session students for the first term only. Inquiries should be sent to: Director of Student Housing, Johnson Hall A, University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822. It should be noted that admission to the University is made without reference to the availability of housing. Although information on off-campus accommodations is not mailed out, students, upon arrival in Honolulu, are invited to come to the Student Housing Office to obtain information on off-campus housing. Negotiations with landlords for such accommodations must be made by the student.

CHANGES. The University reserves the right to make changes in curriculum and fees.

OTHER INFORMATION. Full details will be given in the 1971 summer session catalog, to be published in the spring. For a copy of the catalog, enclose $1.00 money order (for surface mail) or $1.75 money order (for air mail) and send your request to the Bookstore, University of Hawaii, 1760 Donaggho Road, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822. A final list of courses and other information will be available on registration day. Inquiries may be addressed to:
