A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

The Masonic Ball at Independence Hall a Grand Success.

Never before has Independence Hall appeared in such brilliant array as it did last evening when the members of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M., entertained their friends and brethren at a most elegant ball. The decorations were unique, and the display of electric light made the hall look like a dream of fairy land. The floral decorations were superb, making the hall resemble a tropical bower. The banquet hall was in charge of Honolulu's leading caterer, Mr. T. Krouse, and the beautiful decorations as well as the select refreshments enhanced the charm of the evening. Many of the decorations were emblematic of masonry and the taste with which they were prepared drew the admiration of all present. The Quintette Club furnished the music for the dancers, and it was past 2 o'clock before the last guests departed. A special feature of this interesting affair was the total absence of anything stronger than lemonade. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dole, British Commissioner Hawes, Acting French Consul Giffard and Mrs. Giffard, Mrs. Neumann and her daughters Mrs. Fowler and Mrs. Hasson, Mrs. Eleanor Graham, the Misses Parker, Vida, Kitchen, Wilder, Atkinson and Afong, C. A. Spreckels, Commander Thomas, Lieutenants Elliott, Ziegemeier and other officers of the Bennington and the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh.

BOUND FOR AUSTRALIA

The Marquardt's Make But a Brief Stay In Honolulu.

The Marquardt's are announced to appear in but two concerts—a fact that is regretted by lovers of music. These artists leave for the Colonies on the Monowai to carry out contracts made in San Francisco.

They were receive a warm welcome here on Friday night, which will mark their first appearance in this city. An excellent programme will be furnished on this occasion, in which several local musicians will take part.

The second concert will be given on Saturday night. Seats for both will be on sale to-morrow morning at Hobron's Drug Store. People who desire their pick, must go early. Sale commences at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Marquardt's harp numbers were charming and Mr. Marquardt played in his masterly way.—San Francisco paper.

MAUI NOTES.

The patrons of the INDEPENDENT are sorry to hear that it has gone out of existence, but will do all they can to keep the new issue.

The last day of the court session was spent in hearing the argument for a new trial in the Young Hee bribery case. The motion was denied and will now be brought before etc., supreme court.

Mr. G. E. Simpson and wife gave a farewell dance at their Paia residence at which was present a large number of friends. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Mr. Henry Long has been admitted to practice before the lower courts. He passed a very creditable examination before Deputy Attorney General Brown and attorneys John Richardson and Kaulukou.

The gentleman acting as postmaster in Mr. Wilder's absence is a very obliging person. Last Wednesday people had to wait for over an hour for their mail while the gentleman would talk with any person of influence that would happen along and would not allow the clerks to handle the mail.

The Executive Committee of the Maui Racing Association has changed the programme for the Fourth. Full particulars by next mail.

It is to be hoped that the Legislature will appropriate money to improve the highways between Kula and Kahului.

The S. S. Kahului is to come here again. She will touch at Mahukona first and arrive here about the Fourth.

Spreckelsville Plantation finished grinding yesterday.

Dr. Eiger who has been the chemist at Spreckelsville for the past year severed his connection with that Plantation to-day and will depart for his former fields of labor the cane fields of Louisiana.

La Grippe is catching on. A good many people are laid up.

THE "WHY."

The official morning paper is very much worked up because it says the appropriation to W. R. Castle will not or cannot find any good reason why that gentleman should not go to Washington as Minister from Hawaii. We thought that our contemporary could take a hint and let the matter alone, but since he insists in learning the truth we will give it to him.

The opposition to Castle's appointment is not based on his inability to wear pointed toed shoes and creased trousers. The objection does not arise because he cannot play poker and drink whiskey. His unfitness is not aired because he lacks social talents and is an acknowledged bore. He might in due time be polished of and become presentable. He might even learn how to play poker. Even idiots sometimes become experts. His stomach may get used to whiskey—we shouldn't be surprised that it has met with that fluid before and Castle in fact may be transformed into a convivial genial all-round-good-fellow diplomat and be a credit to this glorious republic.

We had hoped that the gentleman would have avoided such a transformation and remained plain Sunday school teacher Castle at home rather than gold laced, fast, Castle at Washington. His organ, however, challenges us to give reasons why he should not be appointed.

The speech which Castle made in November, 1894, against Cleveland should be sufficient reason to cancel his appointment. It will be extremely humiliating if another Hawaiian Minister should be declared persona non grata and there are vast chances of that fate meeting Castle if he is sent to Washington.

But the true reason why the public kicks against him and why only Senators Rice and Waterhouse in the secret sessions of the senate back him is that there is a well developed and stubborn idea in the heads of most people that Mr. Castle wants to go to Washington on private business at government expense and with the credit-giving position of a Minister Plenipotentiary. We do not desire to do Mr. Castle an injustice any more than the rest of our citizens, but it would be well for him if his organ could come out and state straightforwardly that Mr. Castle's appointment is not due to the desire of Mr. Hatch and other gentlemen highly interested in a certain not at present paying enterprise to secure his services in the East for the purpose of booming the said enterprise and eventually floating a loan. Mr. Hatch and Mr. Castle are so sadly mixed up in the enterprise referred to that it is difficult to believe that there is not a very big nigger in that railway fence and that Castle is to "fix" the nigger in Washington.

When Mr. Castle can assure the senators (besides Waterhouse and Rice who both are interested in the nigger) and the public generally, that there is no private scheme on hand, but that he goes to the enormous expense of living in Washington and giving up his lucrative law practice here, for public good alone, then we will cease our opposition and we will endeavor to persuade Senator Baldwin and the Star to drop their kick against the then immaculate and super-virtuous patriot W. R. Castle.

OVERTURE.

Where is the Steamer Kahului.

Latest reports from Maui states that the steamer Kahului which left San Francisco on the 12th inst., has not yet arrived. The San Francisco Bulletin writes the following in its issue of the 13th inst:

If the steamer Kahului, alias Sirius, alias Scandinavia, ever reaches Honolulu in safety her crew have cause to feel happy. The Kahului departed yesterday loaded in such a manner that her appearance created marked comment along the front, and had her crew been given half a chance they would probably have deserted in a body. She was loaded so deep that her main deck was almost awash, and her decks were littered with lumber and merchandise.

Just before the vessel sailed a derick was rigged and the stevedores started to place a ten-ton wheel over the main hatch. At this juncture a Federal officer interfered and the vessel's owners were not permitted to put the freight on board. Mission wharf No. 2 in consequence is partly filled with merchandise marked "Kahului," which would, if put on board have rendered the craft a floating menace to life and property.

All preparation for loading the ship to a dangerous degree were made, but at the last moment the crew made such complaint that the consignees came to their senses.

As it is the Kahului went out overloaded, to all outward appearances.

Court Notes.

The Supreme Court was in session on appeal cases yesterday. A decision has been filed in the extradition case against Johnson of the candy and newspaper store. The Judge holds the indictment to be sufficient consequently Johnson had to return to Muscatine County, Iowa, yesterday. Probate has been applied for in the estates of J.S. Kekukahiko and H. N. Castle. Letters in the latter case to be issued to J. B. Castle to secure a policy of $10,000 insurance at the instance of W. R. Castle. Bonds have been filed numerously in the case of Emmeluth vs. J. Cook to stay proceedings till appeal and new trial can be held. Commitment of W. Fernandez for forgery has been filed by the District Court. Agreement to be present at witnesses' examinations has been filed in the cases of Jno. Byrne vs. Jno. Martin and same vs. Jno. Allen et al.

Since yesterday noon there has been filed a garnishee summons in the case of the California Feed Co. vs. H. Poor, H. Cannon garnishee; and defendant's answer to same. Also appears a list of receipts for third and final dividend of 29881 percent in the bankrupt estate of of A. Borba of Wailuku, C. Bolte, assignee. A notice of appeal in the case of H. Cannon vs. H. Poor has been filed by Cannon's attorney J. A. Magoon. In the partition suit of T. C. Polikapa vs. Poomaikai Poo-hina for land on Konia street, the defendant's answer is filed denying that any cause for partition exists as he is the sole owner. A stipulation in re bonds in the S. S. Waimanalo insurance cases is also filed.

An Event In Society.

The engagement of Mr. Herman Focke to Miss Anita Neumann was officially announced to-day. The bridegroom-elect belongs to an excellent German family and is the representative in Honolulu of the well-known firm of Hoffschlaeger & Co. The fiancée is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neumann who to-day celebrate their silver wedding. The contracting young people are both extremely popular in Honolulu society. The wedding will take place in a short while.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

The Senate met this morning as usual. Minister Damon gave notice he would bring in four Appropriation Bills to-morrow. A petition from the landholders of Oloa was read. The Committee on Public Health and Education reported that they favored taking the census this year instead of waiting till next. Report laid on table to be considered with Bill. Committee on Lands presented a lengthy and elaborate report on the Land Bill recommending modifications in almost every section and striking some out altogether. The chief effect was to shorten the time of residence required and to strike out the clauses prohibiting the sale and use of liquor and opium on the homesteads, leaseholds, etc., created by the Bill. Bill No. 2 relating to vehicle tires was read by the Secretary and referred to the Committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements. At 2:30 p. m. the joint committees on Rules met.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House convened at 10 a. m. Prayers and minutes were read.

Ryeroff presented a report from the committee to which were referred sections 81 and 82 of the land bill. The committee made certain recommendations, and the report on motion of Kamaooha was laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

Kamaooha moved that the bills which were printed be taken up for consideration.

Minister Damon asked that all bills referring to appropriations be held back for the present. Under the constitution these bills should be introduced in the Senate prior to their presentations in the House. This had not been done and he would ask the House to defer discussion on them until the Senate had dealt with them.

On motion of Kamaooha the bills were tabled. He also moved that bill No. 5, relating to the electric franchise for Hilo, be taken up, and that the bill be referred to the committee on public improvements.

Richards suggested that the bill be considered by the House right away.

The Attorney-General desired to go on with the land bill. The Hilo electric bill could be deferred without going into committee. The land bill should be finished. It would not be proper to send the Hilo bill to the committee mentioned, as the members of that committee were Robertson, Ryeroff and Richards, of whom the first named had introduced the bill and the other two were partially interested. He moved that the bill be deferred until the land bill had been finished. Carried.

The speaker presented a communication from holders of land in Oloa asking for special favors and subsidy for their coffee lands. The petition was signed by Lansing, Grossman and others.

The communication was laid on the table to be considered with the land bill. The same disposition was made of a resolution from Oloa coffee planters and of a list of crown lands not under special lease prepared by C. P. Iaukea. The list mentions 65,000 acres of land, of which 25,000 acres are claimed to be suitable for coffee.

The House then went into committee of the whole for the discussion of the land bill.

The Kamehamehas.

The closing exercises at Kamehameha School began this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A baseball game between the school team and the alumni has also been arranged for this afternoon. To-night Professor Richards will hold a reception for his graduates. Last evening the '91 class met and had a good time in the dining room. A number of girl friends were present. The schools have done very well during the past year and has kept up their well deserved popularity. There is no doubt that the schools will be crowded when the next term opens.

Timely Topics.

June 24, 1895.

At last Hawaii will become a true Paradise on the earth, an Eldorado that even the most imaginative dreamer could hardly picture. Between the Labor Commission and Mr. Dole's Land Act every happiness and prosperity will be secured forever. The first tells us how to become rich by growing coffee and cabbage and the last gives us the necessary lands on which to raise the said coffee and cabbage. The Bureau of Agriculture invents and imports toads and bugs and all possible blight destroyers and the day is near when the proverbial small farmer only needs to take his basket and go out in the forest and field and fill it with berries and fragrant sauerkraut.

But how is he going! On foot? That will be much too warm on horse back? Too inconvenient; he can't tie his horse to a cabbage head. How then, will be asked.

On a Monarch, of course.

That is why we imported that celebrated bicycle which has already become world-renowned and the popularity of which is assured here as elsewhere. We have only a few left of the lot that we received by the "Andrew Welch." An order for more Monarchs has gone forward and we will soon be ready to supply the 20,000 small farmers who will be induced to come here by the Labor Commission, with the indispensable bicycle. We have them in two grades, one we offer at $90. It is a strong serviceable wheel and we guarantee that it will give satisfaction to anyone who tries it. The other grade which we have in stock is without comparison the best bicycle ever imported here. We sell it at $105. This wheel is perfect. It is now preferred in the States to any other wheel and ladies and gentlemen are unanimous in their praise of this high class bicycle. We could write columns in describing the beauty and qualities of Monarch, but we prefer to ask you to step into our store without delay and make a personal inspection. Persons who have not yet straddled the fin de siecle horse and who desire to learn how to ride should begin their experience on a Monarch. The Monarch simply teaches them to ride and it is nearly impossible to take a tumble when once seated on the Monarchical back and speeding towards Waikiki. Make an inspection at once as our stock will run out and then will you have to wait for the arrival of our next invoice.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The Keauhou arrived this morning.

"Gus" Spreckels leaves for Maui to-night.

U. Schaefer is second lieutenant of Co. E.

Board of Health meets to-morrow at 3 p. m.

Frank Vida is on the high road to recovery but he is not out yet.

A number of new advertisers will have our attention to-morrow.

Election of officers at the American League will take place on Friday.

The Lillie E. Starbuck sails for New York to-day with a cargo of sugar.

Many island steamers departed to-day and all were crowded with passengers.

Mrs. John Parker and Miss Eva Parker left in the Kinau to-day for Waimea.

Affidavits in the matter of Dr. Armitage have, we learn from Maui, been sent in.

The expenses of the June term at Wailuku just finished were $1488.20 or a little over.

The St. Louis College band gives a concert this afternoon at the college grounds.

The Lehua sneaked out again last night. When that appropriation be exhausted?

Willie Rickard, the oldest son of W. H. Rickard, returned to the islands in the Warrimoo.

There are probably enough senators to defeat W. E. Castle's nomination if it is persisted in.

The Senate does its business in committees the public only hearing the result of its matured wisdom.

Judge Whiting sits on the Supreme Court bench on the appeal cases as Judge Bickerton is still ill.

There was only a slim audience at the Emma Square concert last evening, owing to the masonic ball.

The stockholders of Ewa Plantation Co., will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 at Castle & Cooke's office.

A carriage belonging to the California Fruit Market was smashed last evening through the runaway of the horse.

Nieper the expressman who was so seriously injured a few weeks ago is again round to business and wishes your work.

The volunteers are now to be trained in camp life. Two companies at a time will try tent sleeping and mosquitoes.

Among the passengers in the Australia yesterday were the McAuliffe brothers who have had charge of W. H. Cornwell's race horses.

It is understood that Dr. Emerson has been appointed to the position of Station House physician in the place of Dr. Cooper who goes to the jail.

The reserved seat sale for the Marquardt concerts will commence promptly at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning at Hobron's Drug Store. There is a strong demand for seats.

The Hawaiian Hardware Co. has exhausted the first invoice of the celebrated Monarch bicycle. Four dozens have been ordered and most will be sold in advance of the arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Neumann will be at home to their friends from 7:30 to 9:30 this evening. Paul looks as youthful as ever to-day and not a bit the worse for his 25 years jubilee.

Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, a member of the Board of Education, entertained a number of teachers last evening at her residence. The entertainment was given on behalf of the Board.

A large crowd gathered at the Oceanic wharf yesterday at the departure of the Australia. The band gave Professor Berger a special send-off.

The vehicle tires and axle bill will cause a lot of work for carriage builders and blacksmiths if it goes into law. No vehicle can be used after July 1896 on these islands unless its wheels and axles are fitted to the legal size.

The Board of Education has received 1500 new primers and a lot of other fresh supplies of school books which are required on account of the number of young children now being received in the schools being something unprecedented.

Hustace & Co., and Hackfe'd & Co., each lost a valuable horse yesterday. The animal belonging to Hustace was kicked and had to be shot, and the belonging to Hackfeld got seriously injured by trying to jump an iron fence and met the same fate.

A parrot escaped from the Chinese domestic of a house on King street near Richards street. The crowd that gathered round and the confusion of exclamations they made, and the presence of a Maui monkey chained to a tree, made, for a few minutes, a regular "monkey and parrot time."

THE HAWAIIAN NEWS.

The calm with which the Hawaiian news of the Queen's abdication was received both here and in Washington caused the public genuine surprise. We expected it to throw the whole missionary community into the violent agitation with which all previous intelligence from the island had been received. But the Tribune dismissed it in a small perfunctory paragraph, and Lodge, Frye, Boutelle & Company, far from extending any "dust and sweat" on it, passed it over in a sort of mournful silence. Yet, rightly considered, it was the most important "triumph of the Gospel" yet achieved in the land of heathen. In fifty years or thereabouts the missionaries have not only converted the natives to Christianity, and witnessed the reduction of their numbers by one-half, but their Sons, aided by other believers, have got hold of about two-thirds of the land of the island, and all the fertile portion of it. The folly of leaving the natives in possession of the Government, after the property had passed into the hands of foreigners, then became apparent to the humblest white Christian in the place, and it was determined to dethrone the Queen. It would have been difficult to dethrone her for want of title, or on account of her color—or on account of the poor quality of her government, considering the quality of that of some of our own States. So it was determined to dethrone her for unchastity and heathen practices. But to do this it was necessary that somebody should commit treason and expose himself to the loss of his head. So it was decided to get the United States minister to join in a righteous conspiracy to persuade the Queen that it was the United States that was deposing her, and to land sailors for that purpose. Accordingly she surrendered, and the Christians turned to Washington to get themselves annexed, taking care to get there before the Queen's people and secure this great triumph of righteousness before they arrived. They did not secure annexation, but they were successful in setting up a God-fearing, chaste, and self-sacrificing republic, in which every man was to have his vote and every child his school, and all money was to be made by the sale of Sunday books and newspapers.

After a few months of this happy and holy regime, which the wicked Cleveland and the blundering Gresham tried to upset by diabolical negligences, plots, and ignorances, some of the natives determined to commit treason by an armed rising against this good missionary-and-sugar Government. They failed, as wicked men are apt to fail, and all fell into the hands of the Christian police, after a brief residence in the extinct crater of a volcano. Of the atrocity of their offence we can hardly trust ourselves to speak. To employ heathen violence to overthrow what Christian violence and fraud have set up, is almost a crime against human nature. These misguided men are being tried by court-martial, and how good it is of the Sons of the Missionaries to try them even by court-martial, or to try them at all. Instant execution by their captors would have been too good for them. Why should they be tried when taken with arms in their hand? The one good reason for trying them that we see is, that the proper punishment for treason, which is decapitation, may be inflicted on them in the public square. We can recall no case in which treason has been committed under such circumstances of aggravation. A rising against any established government is an awful crime, but what shall we say of a rising against a government of good, wise, chaste men, who seek nothing through their rule except the elevation of the natives and the triumph of the true religion?

The Queen, however, has done worse than commit treason. Gladly would we pass over without comment her last outrage on the republic, but we have a duty to perform it. She knew well—she must have known—that in claiming the crown and pretending to consider herself wrongfully deposed, she was rendering the only service in her power to the man who, for her sake and that of her people, have set up a republic in their midst. As a centre of monarchical and especially British intrigue, as a person for conspirators to rally round and restore to the throne, she knew well how important she was not only to the republic and to the New York Tribune but to Lodge, Frye, Boutelle & Co., who are doing "the work of the world" in Washington. Knowing this, however, she has formally, and in her prison, surrounded by coconut bombs, abdicated. She has signed away all claim to the throne in the most formal manner. She has left no one to furnish a centre for monarchical or British intrigues. There is now no one for the rebels to rally round. No wonder the news has created no excitement in Hawaiian circles in this country. It is too atrocious an offence for anything but silent sorrow. It justifies everything that the Missionaries have said of this wicked, wicked woman. A week ago we would have protested against her execution for treason. We would have said that although, by both human and divine law, she merited the fate of Charles I., yet, considering how much milder manners have become during the last two hundred years, considering the clemency of our own treatment of Jefferson Davis and other rebels, a plea should be entered for a gentler punishment—say for perpetual imprisonment, or banishment to a Populist State. But now we have not a word to say against her execution. Let her be beheaded, and her blood be on her own head.

We would we could stop here, but if we are not greatly mistaken, Dole—President Dole of the republic, our own Dole—is also a traitor. He is advocating the cession of Necker Island to a British telegraph company for a station for an ocean cable, although he knows well that the British Government would fortify it and keep a garrison in it, and thus "dominate" the whole group of islands. Why does he do this? Alas! The answer to this reveals only too clearly the degeneracy of the times. What reason but one can there be for his conduct? What does Senator Lodge think it is? What does the ancient poet say about the influence of gold on human conduct? What do the British maintain the gold standard for? Need we go further into this painful subject?—The Nation.

ANOTHER EXILE'S STATEMENT.

Klemme Gives His Version of Prison Treatment.

The second affidavit of the batch that has been sworn to by the Hawaiian exiles was tendered for publication by Karl Klemme, an ex-chief of the mounted police of Hawaii, last night.

Referring to his case against the Dole government, Mr. Klemme gave some interesting facts concerning the recent trouble in the islands, and presented a letter from President Dole inviting him to become a member of the advisory council to discuss the matter of Japanese and Chinese immigration into Hawaii.

"As soon as the missionaries secured power," said Mr. Klemme, "they aided the immigration of Asiatics. Myself and friends opposed the Japanese. Dole's friends, I afterward learned, were in reality in favor of the coolies, and I incurred the enmity of the government by standing in their way.

"My sympathy was never with the Dole Government, so I was singled out as a 'suspect' and exiled."

Klemme shows Captain Davis up in a very unenviable light.

Mr. Klemme's statement is as follows:

"I was arrested January 7, 1895, at about 3:30 p. m., and placed in a cell. My cellmate was P. M. Rooney. I was not given hammoek nor blanket till next night. At about 8:30 in the morning of January 8, 1895, a breakfast was placed in the cell; it consisted of hardtack, beef, potato and tin of tea. Was not allowed out of cell till about 12:30 p. m.; was then given about an hour of exercise. Next day, January 9, 1895, was not out of my cell till about 2:30 p. m.

"All this time I suffered severely from asthma. January 8, 1895, I was called into the office by the jailer. He said to me that my wife was outside; that she has told him that my youngest child was sick; that she had left some medicine for me. He asked me in the presence of A. P. Peterson how I used the medicine. He then stated that I could not use it at night—I must use it during the day. He would not allow me to take it in the cell. I was refused on this occasion permission to see my wife.

"Through lack of medicine and from close confinement my condition became worse daily, and at last I could scarcely speak.

"About the 22d of January, 1895, at 9 o'clock p. m., I was removed to another cell. From 4 o'clock p. m. of February 2, 1895, until 2 o'clock p. m. next day I was not given food nor allowed exercises.

"Finally I could stand my sickness no longer. I asked Kamana, deputy jailer, for a doctor. He said that I would have to wait until the next morning. This was the morning of about the 14th or 15th of February, 1895. I insisted upon having a doctor immediately. After much delay Dr. Grossman was sent for. About ten minutes after the doctor had gone I fainted in the prison yard, through weakness. For some time I had eaten nothing because of my sickness. I was carried into the hospital. After about fifteen minutes, with the assistance of two men I was brought back to my cell. On the 21st of February, 1895, I was called into the office of the jailer and left with one Henry. The office door was closed, and no one else was in the office. This was about 2 o'clock p. m. This man Henry has been in the country about five months. Henry said that he had seen the Marshal and my brother, Henry Klemme. He had come to me as a friend; had talked the matter over with the Marshal and my brother, Henry Klemme, and they had decided it was best for me to leave the country. I told him I was guilty of no crime and would not go. He told me he knew this, but that I would be tried and found guilty; that I had lost all my friends.

"I then asked him if Hawaii had a Russian government now. He laughingly replied that if I did not agree to leave the country he would arrest my two brothers immediately. He turned toward me as I started to leave and said: 'Take my advice and go, for you will be found guilty.' I said I would go if the country would buy my property.

"The next day I saw my brother. He advised me to sign an agreement to leave the country. I asked 'How is this?' He said that he had seen the Marshal and that the Marshal had become angry at my refusal to leave, and had said that he had enough evidence to convict, and that if he had not he would find evidence. I then decided to agree to leave. I was confined for forty-six days—from January 7, 1895, until February 22, 1895. I have not been in anywise connected with the recent insurrection. I had no prior knowledge of any such intended insurrection.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.
