Affairs in Turkey are as follows: Servia has had another ministerial revolution. The Armenian affair stands in statu quo. Much excitement exists in Bulgaria and Macedonia. Plots against the life of the Sultan have been discovered in Constantinople and a reactionary policy is expected against foreigners.

The number of near relations in the new administration is interesting. They include father and son, Mr. Chamberlain and Austin Chamberlain; a father-in-law and son-in-law, Lord Salisbury and Lord Salisbury; two brothers, Arthur and Gerard Balfour; an uncle and two nephews, Lord Salisbury and the Messrs. Balfour, and two brother-in-laws, Lord George Hamilton and Lord Lansdowne.

Politics in the United States seem to be in a ferment. Cleveland is said to be working for a third term. Ex-Attorney General Garland says there will be seven Presidential tickets in the field next year: Democratic, Republican, Bimetallist, Single Gold Standard, Populist, Prohibition and Women's Rights. Henry Watterson announces his belief in the coalition of the conservatives of all parties into a union in support of good government and sound money.

Residing in Honolulu

TUESDAY, JULY 16, 1894.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Some of the "Patriots" who halted respectable citizens in January last were big men with guns in their fists. Now they look shabby, humbled, and debased. In many cases natives and white quasi royalists are furnishing them poi and cake on terms of charitable assistance.

Our paper looks small but it is not. It prints more matter of greater interest than any other paper in town. One feature we desire our readers to notice is the changes our advertisers make from time to time in our columns. As a matter of business it will frequently pay our readers to look and see what they have to say and then go and see them. Sometimes they will make more this way than by reading the news. Never think because they are placed on the outside or inside pages that they are so much the more or the less worth reading. All are valuable. And all are intended to be read. You may lose many a business chance by not attending to this.

War clouds in Europe in all directions. Political turmoil and splitting up of parties in the States. And in Hawaii the Land Bill, the Hog bill, the Electric Railroad grab, and the Executive chance to buy a Cable Bill. We rather think Europe and the States have the best of it.

Messrs. Damon, Baldwin and McCandless made a fine trio in the Senate yesterday on the question of not allowing the Government to sell lands in blocks of more than 1000 acres at once. Don't they want anyone else to have the same chance as themselves? Where would they be if that had been the rule formerly? Another case of "we're on top and we mean to stay there." Is that it?

The Advertiser coolly says the Dole government "is calmly continuing the conduct of affairs on a sound business basis." What? Going behind $39,000 a month, you mean?

A Senator took up a $30,000 bond last week. Is that what Minister

Damon means by bringing pressure to bear on the Treasury to sell land in large quantities? Or does he fear he will have to return the bond because a still heavier incorporating Senator wants the same land, or is likely to want it? Out with it. Open confession is good for the soul.

The Minister of Finance has given us figures which show conclusively that the government of which he is a member is going to the "demolition bow wows" at the rate of over one thousand dollars a day. So far as we are individually concerned it matters very little to us, as, having nothing, we have nothing to lose. But there are a large number of persons, who have no affiliation with the family compact, or sympathy for their unrighteous cause, who must some day awake to a realizing sense of responsibility for the debt into which the country is being plunged. Pay day will surely come, and the fact that a man has had nothing to do with the junta who despoiled the country and its too trusting people will find it of no avail to plead non complicity. A person cannot afford to be indifferent, we mean from a money point of view. The day will surely come when people of means must pay for the experiment now being carried on. Is it not the part of wisdom for the hundreds of men of means who have studiously held aloof while the experiment was being worked out, particularly in view of the financial statement made by the Minister of Finance, to come to the fore? Surely a meeting to consider the state of the country is in order, and it can never be more timely.

Fancy filibusters coming from Honduras this time. What wonderful energy! To be able to sail a boat right across Central America over the mountains before the canal is built. Or shall we have to wait till she can get round the Horn? In the last case the Lehua charter is likely to be indefinite.

The Advertiser almost breaks its neck in trying to prove that Snorting Jim and his Victoria bused-trolley combine are strictly honest and don't intend to take any more than the public will give them. It states they are even prepared to allow certain conditions of the exclusive franchise asked for to be "subject to the approval of the Minister of the Interior." How kind! How magnanimous! How honest! But this only shows how they will act when they get their iron clad cinch on the rest of the franchise. They originally proposed only to submit the matters to the Interior Department. But rather than lose the rest they will actually allow the Minister of the Interior to approve of these certain matters—but not of the rest. Bah! Come out from under the bed, Jimmie.

Says the Star in relation to Dan Lyons: "The entire community recognized the sterling worth of this man." Poor Dan is dead but we are of opinion if he could rise again today, he would ask the Star man to show him where he could get some practical recognition of sterling worth more pocketable than after-death eulogies. The other fulsome references of the Star are occasionally blasphemous, and, read in the light of actual occurrences, seem deliberately insulting sarcasm on a body hardly yet cold in death.

The filibusters have appeared again in the Advertiser's columns.

Apparently Seattle and Port Townsend were too cold for them so they have migrated to Central America. First thing you know they will be coming from South Africa or Japan. Isn't it time the Lehua charter was extended permanently and a stop put to this kind of rot. This time Consul General Wilder does not say he knows all about it.

The Land Bill is utterly unconstitutional in its present shape from its title to its last section. Why not cut it up into three, four, five or a dozen acts and make it constitutional?

The Ministry don't apparently yet understand the effects of their own Constitution. To-day Minister Smith wasn't sure if the Land Bill title was all right or not. He thought it was. They would try it anyway.

A more ill-considered badly-draughted, ponderous and verbose measure than the Land Bill can hardly be conceived. When disputes arise under it, and the courts come to construe it there will be a monkey and parrot time.

"The Lord said, 'It is written, My house is called a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves.'"—Chief Justice Judd. And echo answers, Who?

John Emmeluth says, Let Mr Doble (whoever he is) make a general franchise for the proposed electric railway and put it up at auction. What does John mean? Why not auction off the repairs to the Station House roofs, etc.?

Referring to the Registration Act we have said that it was passed by the Legislature of 1892 and signed by the Queen and then lost to sight. The bill was the offspring of the Painter's Labor and Supply Company and its whole aim and purpose is to perpetuate the peculiar labor system on these Islands. To force it through the legislature required a liberal use of money. The money was furnished by saints and sinners—the saints contributed euphemistically, to "promote legislation," while the sinners said it was to purchase votes. Of course sinners had to apply the money where it would do the most good, while the saints turned their backs and thanked God that they were as other men are, and proceeded to build churches and support the Y. M. C. A.

The importance of the law may be measured by an incident which took place after the riot of January last. As is matter of history, the Queen was arrested and the Chief Justice accepted the office of detective to search the private residence for her complicity with the rioters. When the Chief Justice met the custodian of the Queen's premises the first question he asked, was: "Where is the Registration Law?" The sugar barons and their pious supporters desired to have the responsibility for the law rest upon the wicked monarchy, if possible. Failing to find the law, after due search, the Chief Justice ignobly avenged himself by perusing the woman's private diary, and—we can hardly believe it—her will.

The electric railway boosters appear to be the only filibustering expedition which has materialized here up to date from the Coast.

It is said that the 4th of July committee paid Dr. Cook $75 for that celebrated oration of his. Dear at that or any price, wasn't it?

If it is dangerous to withdraw oil under 115' for illuminating purposes, owing to the inflammable nature of the town, why isn't it equally so for fuel when so many kerosene stoves are used? Whose nigger is it?

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, July 9, 1895.

Lord Rosebury is out and Lord Salisbury is in. The change is of course of the greatest importance and it is proper to look into the causes which led to the speedy downfall of the Liberal party. The majority of the Liberals will say that the retirement of Gladstone from the premiership made his party weak, and that Rosebury could not hold the different factions together. Others will claim that the vacillating foreign policy pursued by the Liberal government made the party which it represented and from which it gained its power unpopular. The English people are always preaching peace themselves, but they do not allow their government to do it and they are jealous of any real or imaginary attempt to infringe on their dignity as a nation by any "blasted furriner." The vexed question of Home Rule has also been blamed for the downfall of the Liberals, and there is no doubt that the failure to solve that question had something to do with Rosebury's defeat. It is finally said that the ex-premier's inclination for race horses made him unpopular among the very Christian middle classes who consider betting on the track and all the other paraphernalia of a horse race as works of His Satanic Majesty. And that is the real mistake made by Lord Rosebury. If he had possessed sufficient wisdom he would have dropped horse racing and horses and he would have purchased a Monarch Bicycle and gone out wheeling. We are now expecting a fresh invoice. It took only one month to sell the first lot imported by us. We have only two wheels left and they are both intended for ladies. The wheel is becoming so popular and so fashionable in Honolulu that very shortly everybody that knows enough to be in the move will own a Monarch and spin along streets and roads. As long as you sit on them you can't fall off. The Monarch is as intelligent as a horse and carries you perfectly safe, and it never shies. We suggest to all persons who now ride or who intend to do so to leave their orders for a Monarch now. Our invoice will be here in the "Australia" and it may be too late to secure a wheel after the steamer arrives. Orders are now pouring in. Remember that we are the Sole Agents of the Monarch in the Hawaiian Islands, and that the wheel cannot be purchased elsewhere in Honolulu.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

Senate met as usual this morning. It was announced that the joint resolutions relating to the Pali Road and to the system of auditing accounts had been presented to the President for signature. Committee reported favorably to change February term of Circuit Court from Kau to Punaluu. The Land Act came up on third reading. Senator Baldwin moved to amend Sec. 80 relating to Oiaa lands, so as to allow the holders to retain their leases by putting $500 improvements required either into house, as now by the lease, or into cultivation, but in order to secure the issue of a land patent to require expenditure of $600 in addition to 15 percent cultivation. Carried. Senator Waterhouse moved to lower the price of the lots to $6 and $4 respectively. Carried. Senator Brown got angry at this and moved to strike the reserve of 250 feet and give the settlers the whole country. Not seconded. Minister Hatch moved to strike out Sec. 90 repealing all conflicting acts. He stated that if this was left in it would conflict with Section 63 of the Constitution. Senator Baldwin moved to insert in Sec. 24 the figure 3 instead of 2 so as to give longer notice before terminating a plantation lease of government or crown lands. Many plantations could only raise a crop in 2 years and it really took 3 years from time of ploughing to grinding the cane at the mill. It didn't effect him personally but we should protect the sugar interests. Minister Hatch objected. It would tie the hands of the government too much. It would give the present tenants a pinch on their leases nobody else would touch them; and if the amendment was passed the government would have to give the tenants notice in every case that no re-lease would be granted. Minister Smith said the Executive Council had favored. One year's notice only and two was certainly long enough. He supported Minister Hatch. Senator Brown wanted to know if it applied only to leases to be granted under the act or to the existing ones as well. If the latter the notice was not long enough. We ought to guard the sugar interests. Senator Hocking said by Sec. 27 the commissioners could extend time of holding lease one year. After much more argument Baldwin finally withdrew his motion. The bill was then read by title. Senator Brown asked if the title should not be amended. Minister Smith said under Section 63 of the Constitution, an act must refer to one thing and that must be expressed in its title and that as the amending clause Sec 90 had been stricken out, he and his colleagues then thought the title was now all right. Senator Brown said how about Sec. 89, which expressly repeals Chap. 45, Session Laws of 1884, so far as not permitting further operations under it, but preserving what has been already done. Minister Smith said he thought that didn't matter. Bill then passed its third reading unanimously. Minister Smith asked to introduce a bill repealing the acts relating to Labor Commission so far as to make three unpaid commissioners instead of five paid ones. (Senator Brown, Hooray!) Read a first time by its title. Minister Hatch announced the President had signed the bill to restrict Chinese immigration, and the bill empowering the Marshal or his deputies to administer oaths. On motion of Senator Brown the Electric Railway Bill was read a first time by title and referred to Printing Committee. The Kerosene withdrawal bill was then read a first time by title. It provides for permitting the withdrawal of specially colored oil under 115 fire test for fuel and mechanical purposes. Minister Smith stated in the United States Congress no engrossing was done, everything was printed. Senator Baldwin (sotto voce). Is this a printer's conspiracy? He then got up and asked leave to go to Maui for 3 days to attend a little ceremony which must take place every now and then. Leave granted. recess was taken to 1:30 p. m.

Hymen's Bond

J. F. C. Hagens was married at St. Andrew's Cathedral at 7:30 last evening by the Bishop of Honolulu to Miss Eliza Hugo. Judge W. A. Whiting gave away the bride. Geo. Rodick and F. W. Weed were best men, and Misses Rose Mossman and Carrie Grube bridesmaids. After the wedding the bridal party retired to Pauoa, where Mr. and Mrs. Mana tendered them a reception. The presents were rich and elegant. A most delightful evening was spent and dancing was indulged in to the music of the Kawaihau Club. Mr. and Mrs. Hagens left for their home at Kalihii.

The Hawaiian National Band.

R. W. Aylett has written a letter to a friend here, describing his travels. The band has been all over Southern California and will go to Washington to see Cleveland. At Rodondo Beach John Inea and Joe Kaaua jumped 160 feet from rocks in the sea to the surprise and delight of 6000 spectators. Everywhere the gentlemanly conduct of the boys is praised, and their freedom from drunkenness. From the newspaper accounts of Hawaii people expected such different things. So far the boys are doing well financially.

ST. PETER'S SCHOOL.

A Very Satisfactory Showing.

The closing exhibition of the St. Peter's school took place yesterday afternoon, at the school room next to St. Andrews Cathedral. The pupils are all Chinese and they, as well as their teachers, are entitled to great credit for the progress made during the past year.

St. Peter's school is under the direct supervision of the Bishop of Honolulu. Chinese and English are taught in different branches, giving the children an ordinary school education. Tsen Chan is the English teacher and Mak Wan Tau gives instructions in Chinese. The children also receive lessons in music; and their singing in English as well as in Chinese proved the efforts made by Yen Tet a young Chinese who plays the organ and who is studying for holy orders. Yen Tet is probably one of the best Greek scholars in Honolulu.

The services at St. Peter's Church are held in Chinese and quite a large congregation is in attendance. The Rev. Foo Gee Ben is the pastor of the Church.

The school of St. Peter is doing excellent work and the large audience present at the exercises was pleasantly surprised to hear the pure diction in English of most of the pupils among whom were a number of little toddlers. A recitation of two little girls "in blue" was received with applause as was the recitation of Lochinvar by Mak Fin On who possesses certain oratorical gifts. Little F. Ah Tet was the cutest in the lot and was applauded lively by the audience. After the programme was finished prizes and certificates were presented by the Bishop of Honolulu who spoke a few encouraging words to the scholars and teachers. In the audience were noticed besides the Bishop and Mrs. Willie, Commissioner Hawes, Governor Clegburn, Rev. V. H. Kitcat, Mr. Paetow of Iolani College and many others. A large number of prominent Chinese were also present showing their interest in the work. None of the Board of Education or of the legislative committee considering the new school bill had been able to find their way to the exhibition. If they had they might have reconsidered their recommendation of the bill which seems directly intended to kill the Chinese school of St. Peter.

Court Notes.

Stipulation for hearing on July 25th has been filed in Strom vs. Wilson and Coburn. Petition for letters of administration in the estate D. W. Kalua of Kamoiliili have been filed by his wife Miriam—value $500. A motion has been filed for distribution of amount of sale in the estate of E. K. Nahaolelua et al. vs. Kaahu et al. The case of Ohera vs. Ackerman is ordered continued to July 22. The accounts of S. K. Kane guardian of Kaahu and Piilani are on file. F. H. Hayselden is ordered to prevent the loss of the 60 shares Reciprocity sugar stock belonging to the Gibson estate; final ordering to be made later. Cecil Brown is requested, owing to illness of Judge Bickerton, to sit with Judge and Frear on the Supreme Bench in the case of J. O. Carter as guardian of H. G. McGrew vs. Mutual Life Insurance Co. New York. Plaintiff has filed a bill of exceptions in the matter of E. G. Trousseau vs. Cartwright and McIntyre.
