EFFECT OF THE JAPANESE REVOLT.

The San Francisco Argonaut of September 15 contains the following interesting comments on the recent revolt in Japan, following news of the unsatisfactory peace terms:

The news so far about the potential revolt is, that the Japanese troops are very much dissatisfied with the peace agreement, that, in Tokio, a mob assembled to hold a mass-meeting which at first the police attempted to break up, but afterward permitted; that, later, a mob attempted to assemble in the Shintomi Theatre, and, being dispersed by the police, regathered, and attacked the office of a government newspaper, breaking windows and damaging machinery; and still later, during Tuesday evening, fierce rioting occurred, in which minor government buildings were destroyed, and about five hundred persons wounded, one or two being killed.

A staff correspondent of the World who left Japan very recently, is reported as saying: "The Mutsuhito dynasty is in peril. I am speaking very moderately when I say a popular revolution backed by the army is the most likely thing in the situation. The Japanese army is supreme in the empire. Military power has reduced the civil power to comparative impotence. The emperor has become a mere go-between, with the arrogant military aristocracy on one side and the fearful and demoralized civilian on the other. I would not be surprised to see Japan return to a military Shogunate and the emperor reduced again to a position of a powerless religious figurhead. If the army revolts, I believe General Kodama, Oyama's chief of staff and the dominant intellect of the intensely disaffected military caste, will be the leader."

In this connection it is interesting to note that Lafcadio Hearn, in his last book, points out that the Japanese lower classes have always had a tendency to revolt, which has brought it about in the history of the country that "superior authority has always been more or less restrained by tendencies to resistance from below." The almost invariable result of tyranny was revolt, and the oppressor was sacrificed to the demands of the disorderly. This tendency of the Japanese to assert himself upon occasion is put thus strongly by the same writer: "Everywhere the reverential deference of the common people to authority, as exercised in usual directions, seems to have been accompanied by an extraordinary readiness to defy authority exercised in other directions." Striking examples of resistance to authority are found in Japanese history, and the people felt it "a religious obligation to resist with all the zeal of voluntary martyrdom" any departure from established precedent. The Japanese official is held responsible for "failure to satisfy the wishes of his subordinates, or at least the majority of his subordinates," and the fact that this majority is displeased with the action of an official is considered to be proof of the administrative incompetency of the official in question: To such lengths does this idea go that a student revolt is held to prove that the teacher does not know his business.

Talk On Grave Subjects.

The Board of Health devoted its entire time yesterday afternoon to discussion of the cemetery problem. Representatives of the different cemeteries were present and gave their views. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that cemeteries in the city should be closed and new ones opened outside. No definite action was taken, however.

Mrs McConnell, 1223 Emma street has a one roomed cottage and a few spare rooms ready for immediate occupancy.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 27, 1906.

IT IS NOT YET DEAD.

People may think, particularly Republicans, that the Home Rulers are dead. The convention of the party which adjourned sine die yesterday does not show that to be the case. It has been frequently stated in the Republican press in the past, at every election that it has been defeated since 1902, that it was dead and would not be thereafter able to raise its head out of the water, still the facts do not bear out such statements.

Even in the face of that party's many defeats since, it seems not yet to be dead. It is still very much alive today as in the past, but its strength is nevertheless waning. In spite of its apparent activity, which is but superficial, complete fusion with the Democratic party is not yet a dead issue.

With Notley at its head, fusion generally will not be as favorable a topic of discussion among them as it has been in the past, he being personally a strong opponent of such a proposition, yet he cannot deny that it is his party's only salvation, eye, to the people. Democrats and Home Rulers jointly working against their common political enemy can gain much, but divided they both fade into insignificance against Republicans. This Notley is not ignorant of, and we fail to see how he can expect to gain much in the continuity of his local and distinctly racial party. In fusion is the only salvation of both the minority parties, whereby both working together strenuously will be the majority. The hope is being expected of Notley that he will bury personality and only work for the common good of all.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Notley is virtually now the King or the Home Rulers and Kalauakalani is their Lord. Hip, hip, hurrah!

If sluicing is the cause of the bad water we are now having, the person responsible for the sluicing should be ducked in the water until he finds out what the people of the city have been made to stand of late.

It will be a serious disappointment should there be no senior football this year. Honolulu has had baseball until the public is weary of it, and a change is highly desirable. A few weeks of lively football would be a happy diversion.

Now that the remaining justices of the Supreme Court have returned, it is to be hoped that business will be expedited. A great many important matters have hung fire, pending their absence, and it is to be presumed that these will now be speedily gotten out of the way.

A speech has been omitted from the program incident to the reception of Colonel W J Bryan, on October 4, but this does not mean that the great orator will not talk. If the committee will use a little coaxing there is hardly a doubt but that Mr Bryan will respond to the people's desires.

Neither Democrats nor Home Rulers started the talk about fusion during the days of the Home Rule convention just ended, but the know-it-all Star did. Beyond itself, those directly interested and in the swim knew nothing of the matter. Still the subject is by no means dead nor hopeless.

A horse suffering with "quarter track" should not be ridden or driven, not even by a man posing as a moralist, etc. The poor brute ought to be turned out to pasture instead. Do ye even to a horse, the noblest of animals for man's benefit, as ye would others to do unto you and yours, and to even the least of them, if ye are human and humane.

We would feel under obligation to Mr Carter if he would inform us, where he got his authority to enact and abrogate laws. It might be handy for anyone to be able to do away with existing laws and substitute others of own make on the plea that it was better for the country.—The Garden Island.

Mr Carter, in cutting down items in the appropriation bills, has certainly done wrong. He has no more right to cut down appropriations duly passed by the Legislature than he has to increase the amounts appropriated.

If Cuba has two grains of sense to rub one against the other she will never for one moment consider any scheme of annexation to the United States. As the island now stands, with independence and American protectorate, it is entering upon a career of prosperity almost unequalled by any small country in so short a time. She has come up the ladder in a marvellous way. But with annexation she would receive the same disastrous set back experienced by Hawaii. Cuba can more than well afford to remain as she is.

The action of the Oahu Board of Supervisors in deciding that the investigation in the garbage department showed gross carelessness or incompetence and in the next minute turning round, passing a vote of confidence in the head of the same institution, is rather puzzling to an outsider. Mr Sam Johnson may be chock full of honesty and ability, but it is hardly noticeable, at a distance at least. The whole proceeding has a smack of the old time way of whitewashing, we had hoped was buried past resurrection.—The Garden Island.

You are not the only puzzled one. If there lives a man able to explain the antics referred to, we would like to meet him.

BRYAN PROGRAM IS ARRANGED.

A cablegram was received this afternoon by E B McClanahan from William Jennings Bryan in which the distinguished Democrat states that the program mapped out for his reception here is entirely satisfactory. Mr Bryan and family should arrive in the Maheua early on the morning of October 4.

If the steamer does not come in the special reception committee will go out in the custom house launch to meet Mr Bryan and bring the party ashore. On landing the entire party will be taken to the Pali in automobiles. Returning from there the visitors will be taken to the Oahu railway depot and from there will proceed to Honolulu plantation. Returning from there the party will stop at S M Damon's country seat (Moanalua), and from there will return to the Hawaiian hotel in automobiles.

From 12 to 1 o'clock, afternoon, there will be a public reception to Mr Bryan at the Royal Hawaiian hotel. This will afford one of the best opportunities of seeing the great man. Shortly after 1 o'clock the Bryans will proceed to the Young hotel where they will have luncheon. This will be private. In the afternoon the party will spend as much time as possible canoeing and surf bathing at the Moana hotel.

Thus the public will have three chances of seeing Mr Bryan. First, at the wharf upon arrival, which will be thrown open to everybody; second, during the reception at the Hawaiian hotel; third, at the wharf just before the departure of the steamer for Yokohama.

It will be seen that a speech by Mr Bryan is not included in this will be the woman of to-morrow. She does not know it, perhaps her mother does not fully understand it, but between the "to-day" when she is a girl and the "to-morrow" when she will be a woman, her life's happiness and health are in the balance. If she is to be a full-breasted, strong, healthy woman she must develop rightly now. She is at a crisis. She needs more strength, more blood to tide it over. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the one medicine that will give her the strength and make the new blood.

Our new book, PLAIN TALKS TO WOMEN, explains why these pills are of special benefit to growing girls. A copy will be sent to any address. FREE on request.

Miss Frankie Hathaway, of Sixteenth Street, Holland, Mich., said: "I am 21 years old, at 16 I was pale and weak and did not gain under the doctor's care. Other treatment brought no better result and by the time I was nineteen years old I was so weak I could not walk across the floor. I was terribly emaciated and my skin had lost all color. The doctor pronounced the disease anemia. One of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I bought a box and before I had taken all of the pills I found that they were doing me good. Appetite increased and the healthy color began to show in my cheeks and lips. I continued to use the pills until I had taken fifteen boxes and found myself permanently cured. Since then I have had no return of my old trouble and cannot remember when I was so strong and healthy as now. I know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People saved my life, and I believe that no other medicine could have done it."—FRANKIE HATHAWAY.—Ottawa Times, Holland, Mich.

program, which, it is understood, is by his own request. However, the committee hopes to induce him to talk at one of the reception points at some convenient hour in the day. Senator Palmer Woods, the Democratic national committeeman, will be expected to arrive from Hawaii by the next Kinau to assist in the reception.
