NEW ZEALANDERS FROM HAWAII.

It has always been claimed that these Islands were originally settled from Tahiti. A writer in the Irish American does not dispute this theory but he does offer the remarkable story that Hawaiians settled New Zealand. This is what he says:

The Maoris are not the aborigines of New Zealand. This is the story of their coming as told by a legend handed down from chief to chief from generation to generation:

Te Kupe, a priest, lived on an island called Kawaiki, supposed to be Hawaii. He incurred the displeasure of his chief and was compelled to flee for his life. He secured a canoe and, stocking it with provisions, paddled out to sea, leaving his home and his friends, as he thought, forever. He was mourned as dead, but about a year later he returned with a glowing story of a wonderful country he had discovered. He gave graphic accounts of its mighty forests, its burning mountains, steaming lakes and huge birds.

The story caused the wildest excitement among his people, who hailed Te Kupe as a god, and preparations were at once made to explore this magic country. Seven large canoes were built and stocked with provisions and water, and a party of islanders, directed by Te Kupe, set forth on their adventurous journey. In time they reached the place he had described, and Te Kupe's canoe, the Aotea, was the first to touch the shore; hence the Maori name "Aotearoa" was given to New Zealand.

Just when this took place is one of the points in the history of these people that are lost in the shadowy memories of the past, but it is supposed to have been about 800 years ago. The Maoris of today always refer to Hawaii as the fatherland, and there is a native proverb, "I kune mai i Hawaiki to kune kai te tangata" ("The seed of our coming is from Hawaiki.")

Edward Pollitz says he will put $10,000 into the silk business in the islands.

Blasting threw down a big piece of plastering at the Hawaiian hotel last evening.

Repairs to the Alameda will be made by the Union Iron Works at a cost of $25,000.

W G Irwin and associates have formed two new companies to go into agriculture on Hawaii.

Athletes of the Y M C A have decided on two games of indoor baseball a week during the Winter months.

A jury yesterday afternoon found a verdict for defendant in the ejectment suit of Kapiolani Estate vs L A Thurston.

Frank P Slavin, the widely known boxer, will shortly arrive here from Alaska on a world tour. He will probably give a boxing exhibition in Honolulu.

In the case of M F Scott et al vs Haekfeld & Co, the decision of Judge Matthewman has been reversed and the case remanded for further action.

Wants Big Money.

John W S Laker, second officer of the Restorer, has entered suit against Judge Humphreys for $10,000 damages. It seems that he sought legal advice of Humphreys and was charged $25 for same. Laker says he promised to settle at the commencement of October. On the night of September 30, according to Laker, summons was served on him while attending the banquet of the Engineering Association at Waialua, the object being to humiliate him. Other grounds of complaint are alleged and the little "ten" is invited at the end of the summons.

George H Crozier and Alex Lyle have agreed to race the yachts Myrtle and Maggie next Sunday, the race to start at 11 o'clock and to go over the same route followed on Regatta Day.

THE ACCUSER DISGRACED.

Charles Moore was declared by the district magistrate this morning to be not guilty of the charge of gambling. This is the case worked up by the Advertiser in the hope of discrediting Sheriff Brown and the police department. But the morning press held such a poor hand that Moore, although out and injured, won the game. Outside of Moore, the next worst injured is the community, which has been blackened as a gambling hell in a series of most remarkable articles.

Now, what will Moore do? He has been hounded for weeks by a newspaper that has shown no mercy. He has been shadowed night after night and his place has been invaded by reporters and detectives in gum shoes. Worse than all, he has been held up to the world as one of the meanest swindlers of Honolulu. He has been arrested as a result of all this, incarcerated in a felon's cell and held before the court to stand a nauseous and damaging trial. The evidence amounted merely to "We heard so," seasoned with some circumstantial rubbish.

What must the people of Honolulu and the other islands think of the caper? In order to discredit an official—the sheriff—presumably because that official did not give it all of its printing, the morning press has dragged an innocent man through the mire of scandal, all the while yelping out to the people: "Look, look; a gambling knave; keeper of a gambling hell!" Compare the policy of persecution with the results and what must any decent man think? Down with such practice!

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Advertiser accuses Jackie Lucas of "squeaking." Mistaken again. Jackie Lucas makes a sound like a Home Ruler eating a prickly pear.

Carter's proposed private inquiry office has not as yet obtained a hold on the Department of Public Instruction; but maybe Scott will prove willing.

A recount of names seems to show that the Republicans have six in place of five men on the Board of Supervisors. They are: Smith, Adams, Lucas, Archer, Cox and Moore.

If Mr Governor Carter wants a few more expert detectives he can find a handsome quartette or so down about the Von Holt block on King street. They did about as well as Hatter, and there is a chance of improvement with experience.

We do not think the Star made such a great mistake in referring to the Advertiser as "IT," spelling the same in big letters. If the Advertiser does not feel like "IT" after "ITS" experience in the district court yesterday "IT" ought to consult a doctor.

Lime has, or probably will soon advance in price as judged from the amount of white-washing now being done by the County Supervisors. What a large amount of the real stuff will be needed by themselves collectively when they get to the end of their own record!

The Advertiser under its present ownership has always been in more or less disgrace and now it brings all of its news staff into disgrace by exposing them to the public as private spies doing police duty for no public good but simply for Thurstonian ends.

Was Edward Townsend "fixed" in the Vida case before the Supervisors? If so, he is no longer entitled to confidence. Whether so or not there should be some way of reaching him for the trouble he has caused. He stirred up the mites, enraged the town and gave the Supervisors a lot of bother. After declaring to matters which caused all the rumpus, he now comes in and admits that he lied. What is to be thought of that?

Supervisory investigations appear to come to nothing. The Sam Johnson case was a farce and the Vida case has turned out the same way. It is remarkable thing that a body of men can reach a positive conclusion one night and reverse it before morning. The thing smacks of jobbery somewhere.

"The Gambler," by Thurston, is a late addition to the literature of Honolulu and it may or may not find a place on the shelves of the Honolulu library. It is a dramatic story of more (not Charlie M) than usual strength and passion and, considering the prominence lately given the subject of gambling, by the Advertiser, should demand good sale.

The Hatter-Carter-Smith outfit should consolidate and open a "private inquiry office." The combination would suit this small community and the Advertiser with its "devil's partner," would undoubtedly be pleased to give ample space for details of all dirty work or suppress the doings of the triumvirate when they were in a hole.

Certain it is that two prices are paid for lumber in Honolulu. Who is to blame for it we know not, but it is the duty of the Federal authorities to find out. If there is a combine between Coast millers and local dealers, the fact can be proved and there is ample law to convict at both ends. It has been charged for years that there was a lumber trust here. If there is none the lumber men should not hinder a thorough investigation but should assist it in every possible way.

FERRIER DIES SUDDENLY.

Well Known Old Man Passes Away.

William H Ferrier, janitor of the Myrtle Boat Club house, died suddenly about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from H H William's undertaking parlors.

Ferrier was about 70 years of age, the son of an Englishman and a Gilbertese woman. He and father arrived here when he was quite young and attended the Millani school, upon which ground now stands Aliiolani Hale (now known as the Judiciary building). He was a schoolmate of both the late King Kalakaua and W N Armstrong, at the Royal School, and was also a shipmate of Admiral Terry on an American man-of-war. From here he and his father went to Boston, from which place he went whaling, then leading a seafaring life till some ten years ago or more when he became janitor of the Myrtle Boat Club's house. He married a native Hawaiian woman, whom he now leaves as a widow with two children.

Rheumatism

is a disease of the blood. Local applications may furnish temporary relief, but to CURE the disease it is necessary to treat it through the blood.

Locomotor Ataxia

is a disease of the nerves. The one successful method of treatment is by a remedy that will restore nutrition to the nerves. Such a remedy is

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

These pills are a specific in cases of Rheumatism, Locomotor Ataxia, Paralysis, and other diseases of the blood and nerves, because they supply the necessary elements to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. It is in this way that the pills effect so many cures in diseases of apparently widely different character.

Frank Long, who lives near Lenon, Mich., says: "I was first taken with a pain in my back. The physician pronounced my case muscular rheumatism, accompanied by lumbago. My disease gradually became worse until I thought death would be welcome release."
 "I was finally induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Before the first box was used I could get about the house, and after taking five boxes was entirely cured. Since that time I have felt no return of the rheumatic pains. Am confident that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life."
 FRANK LONG.
 Sworn to before me at Lenon, Mich., this 15th day of April, 1906.
 S. E. GOLDSMITH, Justice of the Peace.

Edwin R. Tripp, Postmaster of Middletown, N.Y., said: "I was attacked by what I learned was locomotor ataxia. Two skillful doctors did everything they could for me. I became worse, could not move even about the room. I did not expect to live very long."
 "The turning point was a newspaper article. It told how a man, who had suffered as I had, had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I took two boxes of the pills; then four more boxes. My gain was steady; my return to health was a source of daily gratification. In all I took sixteen boxes of the pills before I was entirely well. I owe my cure entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."
 Subscribed and sworn to before me.
 HOMER MARSA, Notary Public.

WHITEWASH USED IN VIDA CASE.

The Vida investigation by the Board of Supervisors last evening resulted in a fizzle. Edward Townsend, the man bringing in the complaint, failed again to appear. He was sent for but could not be found. It looked as though he had been "fixed" since the last session.

At the opening of the meeting Chairman George W Smith read the following self explanatory letter:

Honolulu, T H. Oct 19, 1905.
Hon Geo W Smith, Chairman, Board of Supervisors, County of Oahu.
Dear Sir: I desire at this time to withdraw my complaint against Assistant Sheriff Vida for the incident in his office on the 7th inst between himself and me and which your Honorable Board is now investigating.

I feel satisfied that what occurred at that time was done on the impulse of the moment and that it is due Mr Vida, whom I have the greatest confidence in, that he should be exonerated from all blame.

I therefore request that your Honorable Board discontinue the investigation and exonerate Mr Vida.

I beg to remain,
Yours very respectfully,
EDWARD TOWNSEND.

This started the battle. Moore took and led the fight for the vindication of Vida. Adams took the opposite view, demanding that Vida be suspended anyway for slapping the officer. A motion by Moore to discharge the investigating committee passed, Adams and Smith alone voting against it.

Chairman Smith offered the following resolution, which passed unanimously:

Whereas, That as far as the special committee, appointed to investigate the charge against Special Officer Vida, has been able to determine, an assault was committed by Officer Vida on Mr Edward Townsend, which assault is admitted, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors desires to express its severe condemnation of an act of this nature by an officer of the police and that this Board calls upon the County Sheriff to see that no further brutality be permitted by any member of the police force.

A number of bills were reported and the band stand in Alaia park was authorized. Adjourned.

Britt-Nelson at Orpheum.

The second showing of kinetoscopic reproduction of the noted Britt-Nelson combat, before 18,000 people in San Francisco, was given at the Orpheum theatre last evening and, aside from the seemingly inevitable slight mix-ups in the manipulation of the machine operating, the showing was an improvement on the first presentation. Last evening the machine was less speedy and the movements more natural; the announcer has yet however to learn his lines. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the house was well filled and quite a number of the "upper crust" ladies were in the audience. The third showing will be given tonight.

Death of Peter Davis.

Peter Peabody Davis, an uncle of Miss Lucy Peabody, died at Moanalua, last Tuesday forenoon, aged 42 years, of cerebral hemorrhage. His remains have been embalmed and are lying at the Honolulu Undertaking Co's parlors, awaiting interment for the arrival of his aged mother tomorrow from Kawaihae, Hawaii, by the Kiana, who has been sent for. His widow survives him. He's a descendant of the original Isaac Davis, one of Kamehameha I's English advisers. The funeral is to take place next Sunday.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

THE INDEPENDENT 50 cents per month.

The transport Logan will fall due tomorrow from the Orient.

A mail will be due to arrive by the Miowera tomorrow from Victoria.

At noon Monday the schooner Helene will get away for the Coast, taking sugar.

About 150 marines a month are to pass through Honolulu next year to relieve men on the Asiatic fleets.

The Mongolia left Yokohama on Wednesday for Honolulu. She has 1800 tons of freight for this port.

Captain Matson has purchased a large steamer on the Atlantic for service in the Frisco Hawaiian trade.

In December a new steamer called the Mahena will be placed on the Canadian-Australian run in place of the Maxna.

Mrs McConnell, 1223 Emma street has a one roomed cottage and a few spare rooms ready for immediate occupancy.

At the annual meeting of the football association held last evening officers for the ensuing year were elected.

The office of THE INDEPENDENT is in the brick building next to the Hawaiian hotel grounds on Beretania street, Waikiki of Alakea. First floor.

The appeal of the county of Kaneohe from the decision of Judge Herdy in the income taxes matter will come up in Supreme court Monday morning.

W C Roe celebrated this week his 28th anniversary as an employe of the Honolulu Iron Works. He was most heartily congratulated by his fellow shopmen and friends.

The first game of the baseball contests between the Maui and Honolulu nines of players will take place at the League park tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock.

The case of Leslie vs I I S N Co, has been thrown out by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. This was a suit to recover $50,000 damages for discharge from what was to have been a life position.

At the meeting of the Board of Agriculture yesterday afternoon extensive reports from Superintendents Hosmer and Crow were read, and routine business was transacted. Glanders was reported to be still prevalent among horses at Hilo.

The Cowboy Tournament.

This great coming event, scheduled for Saturday next, is bound to be a most interesting and, very probably, exciting outing, the management now having promises of competitors outside of the original outfit of Hawaiian cowboys, and who are said to represent the expert lariat throwers and cattle-tyers of Wyoming, Texas and other cow-punching districts of the (so-called) "wild and woolly West." The events have also been added to so that, aside from the actual "lass" throwing, cattle-tying, bronco busting and other sports of the cowboy proper, there will be opportunities for polo players and other good horsemen to engage in exercises on horseback which are difficult afoot, viz egg and spoon, potato and last, but not least, an innovation in the shape of a horseback watermelon race, which alone will supply all the needed amusement for the ladies and children whose accommodation will be amply provided for. See ad.

STAGE TRICKS EASY EXPLAINED.

When you see a man come out on the stage and shoot the ashes of a cigar which is being smoked by an assistant don't believe all you see. A hatpin is run through the cigar, the point just reaching the ash. The assistant just pushes the knob at the other end, and down falls the ash to great applause. Of course only blank cartridges are used.

Breaking two glass balls with two pistols is almost as simple. One of the pistols only is loaded and with shot. The other has a blank cartridge. The loaded pistol is aimed between the two balls, and the shot scatters, breaking them both. That's the trick.

Extinguishing several numbered candles by number on request of the audience is seldom more than a hollow joke. Behind each candle is a hole in the target. An assistant hidden behind it simply blows out the candle, taking care to blow the right candle at the right time—that is, when the pistol cracks.

Blindfold shooting simply means that the performer glances down his nose to a mirror fixed at an angle behind the back, right and aims as straight this way as if the bandage were not there.

Painting a complete picture in a jiffy in presence of the audience is also artifice. What looks to you like an immaculate and untouched canvas is in reality a finished picture covered with whitewash. All the "artist" does is to simulate painting with his brush. The result is a picture that would require if it were honestly done at least a day's work.

Those awfully heavy looking dumb-bells of the strong man are sometimes somewhat hollow at the core. You will notice they are always put in the same place, preferably on a special platform, when the man from the audience is invited to lift them. Under the platform are powerful magnets holding the weights down. Suddenly roll the bar off the platform, and you can probably lift it in one hand, as that operation releases it from magnetic control.—Irish American.
